P&G Declares Quarterly Dividend

P&G Shareholders Also Elect All 12 P&G Director Nominees at 2026 Annual Meeting

CINCINNATI, October 13, 2026 – The Procter & Gamble Company (NYSE:PG) announced at today's Annual Meeting of Shareholders that the P&G Board of Directors declared a quarterly dividend of $1.0885 per share on the Common Stock and on the Series A and Series B ESOP Convertible Class A Preferred Stock of the Company, payable on or after November 16, 2026 to Common Stock shareholders of record at the close of business on October 23, 2026, and to Series A and Series B ESOP Convertible Class A Preferred Stock shareholders of record at the start of business on October 23, 2026.

P&G has been paying a dividend for 136 consecutive years since its incorporation in 1890 and has increased its dividend for 70 consecutive years. This reinforces our commitment to return cash to shareowners, many of whom rely on the steady, reliable income earned with their investment in P&G.

Also at today's Annual Meeting, P&G shareholders elected all 12 P&G Director nominees, with each receiving strong support according to preliminary voting results. Company shareholders also voted in favor of two Board proposals: to ratify the appointment of P&G's independent registered public accounting firm and for an advisory vote on executive compensation. Additionally, Company shareholders voted against three shareholder proposals.

The results of the vote announced today are considered preliminary until final results are tabulated and certified by the independent Inspector of Elections. Final results will be reported on a Form 8-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
