Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Registrant is incorporated in Rhode Island. Section 7-1.2-814 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act (the "RIBCA") provides that a Rhode Island corporation has the power, under specified circumstances, to indemnify any individual made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an officer or director if:

- he or she conducted himself or herself in good faith; and
- he or she reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, that his or her conduct was in the corporation's best interests, and in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and
- in criminal proceedings, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful; or
- he or she engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the corporation's articles of incorporation.

The foregoing is a summary of certain provisions of Section 7-1.2-814 of the RIBCA and is subject in all respects to the full text of the RIBCA.

Article IX of the Registrant's by-laws, as amended, provides that the Registrant will indemnify any of its directors or officers (the "Indemnified Persons") against and hold the Indemnified Persons harmless from any:

- amount which an Indemnified Person is legally obligated to pay for any claim for his or her acts or omissions in his or her official capacity with the Registrant ("Covered Acts"), including, without being limited to, damages, settlements, fines, penalties or, with respect to employee benefit plans, any excise taxes or penalties, and
- expenses in connection with the defense against any claim for Covered Acts, including, without being limited to, legal, accounting or investigative fees and expenses, provided, that the Registrant is not obligated to indemnify or hold harmless an Indemnified Person for any amounts:

- for which payment is actually made to or on behalf of the Indemnified Person under a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy maintained by the Registrant (except for any excess beyond the amount covered by such insurance);
- for which the Indemnified Person is otherwise indemnified or reimbursed;
- with respect to a proceeding in which a final judgment or other final adjudication determines that the Indemnified Person is liable to the Registrant for: (i) a breach of the Indemnified Person's duty of loyalty to the Registrant or its shareholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law; (iii) liability imposed pursuant to the provisions of former Section 7-1.1-43 of the RIBCA; or (iv) any transaction from which the Indemnified Person derived an improper personal benefit;
- arising from an accounting of profits in fact made from the purchase or sale by the Indemnified Person of securities of the Registrant within the meaning of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or
- the payment of which has been determined to be unlawful pursuant to a final judgment or other final adjudication.

Section 7-1.2-202 of the RIBCA provides that articles of incorporation may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director provided that the provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for:

- any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders,
  - acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,
  - liability under Section 7-1.2-811 of the RIBCA, which relates to liability for unauthorized acquisitions or redemptions of, or dividends or distributions on, capital stock, or
  - for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit (unless the transaction is permitted by Section 7-1.2-807 of the RIBCA, which relates to director conflicts of interest).

Article EIGHTH of the Registrant's amended and restated articles of incorporation contains such a provision.

Section 7-1.2-814 of the RIBCA empowers a Rhode Island corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise, or employee benefit plan, against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any corporate capacity or arising out of his or her status as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against the liability under the provisions of such section. The Registrant has a directors and officers liability insurance policy.

The Registrant has entered into an indemnification agreement with each of its directors and certain of its officers, whereby the Registrant has agreed to indemnify such persons to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
  - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
  - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and
  - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement;

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering; and

4. For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the Town of West Warwick, Rhode Island, as of June 4, 2018.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have reviewed the Registration Statement on Form S-8 (the “Registration Statement”) being filed by AstroNova, Inc., a Rhode Island corporation (the “Company”), with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), on the date hereof. The Registration Statement relates to the offer and sale by the Company of up to 896,134 shares (the “Shares”) of its common stock, par value $0.05 per share (“Common Stock”) issuable under the Company’s 2018 Equity and Incentive Plan (the “2018 Plan”).

In arriving at the opinions expressed below, we have examined and relied upon the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Company, the records of meetings and consents of the Company’s Board of Directors and of its stockholders, and the 2018 Plan, each as provided to us by the Company. In addition, we have examined and relied on the originals or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction of all such corporate records of the Company and such other documents and certificates of public officials, officers and representatives of the Company and such other persons, and we have made such investigations of law, as we have deemed appropriate as a basis for the opinions expressed below.

We have assumed that the purchase price or other consideration to be received by the Company for the Shares will be valid consideration equal to or in excess of the par value thereof.

In rendering the opinions expressed below, we express no opinion other than as to the federal laws of the United States and the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, including the statutory provisions contained therein, applicable provisions of the Rhode Island Constitution and the reported judicial decisions interpreting these provisions.

On the basis of the foregoing, it is our opinion that the Shares, when issued and delivered in accordance with the applicable terms of the 2018 Plan and the written instruments issued pursuant to the 2018 Plan against the Company's receipt of the purchase price or other consideration identified therein, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

This opinion is to be used only in connection with the offer and sale of the Shares while the Registration Statement is in effect.

This opinion is being delivered solely for the benefit of the Company and such other persons as are entitled to rely upon it pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Securities Act. This opinion may not be used, quoted, relied upon or referred to for any other purpose, nor may it be used, quoted, relied upon or referred to by any other person, for any purpose, without our prior written consent.

We consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the reference to us under the heading "Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel" in the Registration Statement. In giving such consent, we do not admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder.

This opinion shall be interpreted in accordance with the Legal Opinion Principles issued by the Committee on Legal Opinions of the American Bar Association's Section of Business Law, as published in 53 Business Lawyer 831 (May 1998).
