SJW Group Clarifies Anticipated Regulatory Timeline to Complete Merger with Connecticut Water

Transaction with Connecticut Water Remains on Track to Close During the Fourth Quarter 2018

San Jose, CA – July 13, 2018 – SJW Group (NYSE: SJW) today issued the following statement to clarify the anticipated regulatory timeline to complete its merger with Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (NASDAQ: CTWS) (“Connecticut Water”):

“We remain committed to our signed, definitive agreement to merge with Connecticut Water as the superior path forward for our stockholders and all of our constituents. We are pleased that Connecticut Water’s Board, after a careful review, has reaffirmed its commitment to our merger as the superior transaction for its shareholders and all of its constituents.

“As previously stated, we will cooperate with the California Public Utilities Commission’s (“CPUC”) Order Instituting Investigation (“OII”), a fact-finding initiative by which the CPUC will determine whether the transaction is subject to its review, and if so, whether it is in the public interest, and its additional request to consider the ratemaking impacts of the proposed merger as part of San Jose Water Company’s current general rate case that was filed this past January and is scheduled to conclude this December. The CPUC has committed to completing the OII within the next five months, which keeps us on track to complete our proposed merger with Connecticut Water during the fourth quarter of 2018.

“We look forward to supporting the CPUC’s review of the significant benefits we believe our transaction will provide our customers, employees, shareholders and the communities we serve by creating a combined company with scale, geographic diversity, and financial strength.”

Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. Some of these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as “believes,” “expects,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “seeks,” “approximately,” “intends,” “plans,” “estimates,” “projects,” “strategy,” or “anticipates,” or the negative of those words or other comparable terminology.

The accuracy of such statements is subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions including, but not limited to, the following factors: (1) the risk that the conditions to the closing of the proposed business combination transaction between SJW Group and Connecticut Water Service, Inc., (“CTWS”) may not be satisfied or waived, including the risk that required approvals from the security holders of each party to the proposed transaction are not obtained; (2) the risk that the regulatory approvals required for the proposed transaction are not obtained, or that in order to obtain such regulatory approvals, conditions are imposed that adversely affect the anticipated benefits from the proposed transaction or cause the parties to abandon the proposed transaction; (3) the risk that the anticipated tax treatment of the proposed transaction is not obtained; (4) the effect of water, utility, environmental and other governmental policies and regulations; (5) litigation relating to the proposed transaction; (6) uncertainties as to the timing of the consummation of the proposed transaction and the ability of each party to consummate the proposed transaction; (7) risks that the proposed transaction disrupts the current plans and operations of SJW Group or CTWS; (8) the ability of SJW Group and CTWS to retain and hire key personnel; (9) competitive responses to the proposed transaction; (10) unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the proposed transaction; (11) potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the proposed transaction; (12) the combined companies’ ability to achieve the growth prospects and synergies expected from the proposed transaction, as well as delays, challenges and expenses associated with integrating the combined companies’ existing businesses; and (13) legislative and economic developments. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed transaction, are more fully discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus that is included in the registration statement on Form S-4 filed by SJW Group with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on April 25, 2018 in connection with the proposed transaction, as amended by that Amendment No. 1 to Form S-4 filed with the SEC on June 7, 2018 and that Amendment No. 2 to Form S-4 filed with the SEC on June 25, 2018, CTWS’s quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2018 filed with the SEC on May 9, 2018 and SJW Group’s quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2018 filed with the SEC on May 8, 2018.

In addition, actual results are subject to other risks and uncertainties that relate more broadly to CTWS’s overall business and financial condition, including those more fully described in its filings with the SEC including its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and SJW Group’s overall business, including those more fully described in its filings with the SEC including its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017. Forward looking statements are not guarantees of performance, and speak only as of the date made, and neither CTWS or its management nor SJW Group or its management undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements except as required by law.
