SJW Group Advises Stockholders to Take No Action in Response to California Water Service Group's Unsolicited Cash Tender Offer

San Jose, CA – June 7, 2018 – SJW Group (NYSE: SJW) today confirmed that California Water Service Group (NYSE: CWT) (“Cal Water”) has commenced an unsolicited tender offer (“Offer”) to acquire all outstanding shares of SJW Group common stock for $68.25 per share in cash.

The SJW Group Board of Directors, in consultation with SJW Group’s management and legal and financial advisors and consistent with its fiduciary duties, will carefully review and consider all aspects of the Offer. The Board intends to advise stockholders of its formal position regarding Cal Water’s Offer within 10 business days by making available to stockholders and filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission a solicitation/recommendation statement on Schedule 14D-9. SJW Group stockholders are advised to take no action at this time.

SJW Group remains subject to the terms of the definitive merger agreement with Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (NASDAQ: CTWS) (“Connecticut Water”) and SJW Group’s Board has not changed its recommendation in support of SJW Group’s merger of equals with Connecticut Water.

SJW Group’s Board has not made any determination as to whether the Offer constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, a superior proposal under the terms of SJW Group’s merger agreement with Connecticut Water.

SJW Group will have no further comment on the Offer from Cal Water until the Board has completed its review. There can be no assurance that any transaction or definitive agreement will result from the Offer.

J.P. Morgan is serving as financial advisor to SJW Group and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom is serving as its legal advisor.

Forward Looking Statements

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. Some of these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as “believes,” “expects,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “seeks,” “approximately,” “intends,” “plans,” “estimates,” “projects,” “strategy,” or “anticipates,” or the negative of those words or other comparable terminology. The accuracy of such statements is subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions including, but not limited to, the following factors: (1) the risk that the conditions to the closing of the transaction are not satisfied, including the risk that required approvals from the shareholders of Connecticut Water or the shareholders of SJW Group for the transaction are not obtained; (2) the risk that the regulatory approvals required for the transaction are not obtained, or that in order to obtain such regulatory approvals, conditions are imposed that adversely affect the anticipated benefits from the proposed transaction or cause the parties to abandon the proposed transaction; (3) the risk that the anticipated tax treatment of the transaction is not obtained; (4) the effect of water, utility, environmental and other governmental policies and regulations; (5) litigation relating to the transaction; (6) uncertainties as to the timing of the consummation of the transaction and the ability of each party to consummate the transaction; (7) risks that the proposed transaction disrupts the current plans and operations of Connecticut Water or SJW Group; (8) the ability of Connecticut Water and SJW Group to retain and hire key personnel; (9) competitive responses to the proposed transaction; (10) unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the transaction; (11) potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the transaction; (12) the combined companies’ ability to achieve the growth prospects and synergies expected from the transaction, as well as delays, challenges and expenses associated with integrating the combined companies’ existing businesses; and (13) legislative and economic developments. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed transaction, are more fully discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus that is included in the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) in connection with the proposed transaction. In addition, actual results are subject to other risks and uncertainties that relate more broadly to SJW Group’s overall business, including those more fully described in SJW Group’s filings with the SEC, including its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2018, and Connecticut Water’s overall business and financial condition, including those more fully described in Connecticut Water’s filings with the SEC, including its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2018. Forward looking statements are not guarantees of performance, and speak only as of the date made, and neither SJW Group or its management nor Connecticut Water or its management undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements.
