Update on Merger with SJW Group

We want to update you on a recent development related to our merger with SJW Group that is being announced publicly today.

Our Board and the SJW Board have agreed to amend the terms of the companies' merger agreement to include a 'go-shop' provision for Connecticut Water.

- A go-shop provision is used in mergers and acquisitions to allow a company to actively solicit proposals for a specified period of time for an alternative merger, acquisition or other strategic transaction.
- In Connecticut Water's case, we will be working with our financial advisor to solicit alternate proposals over the next 45 days.

Before announcing our agreement with SJW in March, the Board considered various alternatives and determined that the SJW merger provides substantial value to our shareholders both in the near-and long-term.

- The Board, the management team, and many stakeholders we have heard from believe in the value and important benefits that the SJW Group merger provides for our shareholders, customers, employees and communities.
- Unfortunately, we believe the competing proxy campaign and communications by Eversource Energy may have created questions and confusion for some of our shareholders.
- While we have been responding to Eversource's campaign with our own communications to various stakeholders, we believe this go-shop process is appropriate to allow all of our shareholders to have full confidence in the Company's strategic direction and to know that every viable alternative has been explored.
- We want to ensure that our shareholders have all of the necessary information to make a decision, particularly since Connecticut law requires that we obtain a 2/3 affirmative vote of all of the outstanding shares of stock to approve the merger with SJW.

During the 'go-shop' period, Connecticut Water remains subject to the SJW Group merger agreement, and the Connecticut Water Board has not changed its recommendation in favor of the merger of equals with SJW Group

Connecticut Water and its financial advisors will begin soliciting third party indications of interest on May 31, 2018 and will have until July 14, 2018 to review and negotiate any alternative proposals received from third parties.

- Eversource Energy will be among those invited to participate,
- The Board has, however, reaffirmed its belief that Eversource's current $63.50 per share proposal is not a superior proposal to the SJW Group merger agreement.
- Moreover, the Board has determined that it would not agree to a transaction with Eversource on the terms currently proposed, regardless of the outcome of the proposed SJW Group merger, because they believe that the current Eversource proposal substantially undervalues Connecticut Water.

If the Board receives an offer that it considers to be superior to the current merger with SJW, then SJW would have a period of time to match/negotiate against that proposal.

We are continuing forward with our applications for regulatory approval for the merger with SJW and other steps necessary to advance towards a closing by the end of the year.

We understand that this news may create questions and uncertainty for our employees, but we can assure you that the Board and the leadership team are working to bring the process to a timely and successful conclusion.

- You can trust that we will continue to honor our mission, vision and values and consider what is best for the Company, our employees, customers, communities, and our shareholders as decisions are made.

NOTE: Public filings related to our process filed with the SEC are regularly posted and available at www.sjw-ctws.com and can be accessed through the company portal.

Thank you for your unwavering dedication to Connecticut Water and your continued service to your customers and each other. That continues to make such a difference!
