The following are the script of a video and voting instructions that Connecticut Water first made available to shareholders on October 17, 2018.

Video Script: How to Vote

Connecticut Water and SJW Group are an ideal combination, and how you vote at the Special Meeting of Shareholders will determine whether our shareholders, customers, employees and communities receive the many benefits that this combination will create. To receive significant, certain premium value of $70 per share in cash and to support safe, clean, reliable water service, jobs and community investment, vote "FOR" each proposal on the GREEN proxy card or voting instruction form today.

Every single vote matters, no matter how many or how few shares you own. Please be aware that not voting your shares on the GREEN proxy card or voting instruction form will have the same impact as a vote against the SJW Group transaction.

Your vote makes a difference.

As a Connecticut Water shareholder, you will receive a GREEN proxy card, or GREEN voting instruction form, for each account you have.

To ensure your vote is registered, it is important to vote every time you get a GREEN proxy card, or a GREEN voting instruction form.

Voting is easy.

You can vote online, by mail or by phone. Here's how:

If you hold shares through a broker, banker or other nominee, use your GREEN voting instruction form to locate the web address and unique 16 digit control number. Then go to www.proxyvote.com. After you enter your control number, vote "FOR" each proposal, then click "submit."

To vote by mail, simply check "FOR" next to each proposal, then be sure to sign, date and return the GREEN voting instruction form in the postage-paid envelope.

If you hold shares directly with the company, use your GREEN PROXY CARD to locate the web address and unique 8 digit control number. Then go to www.proxyvoting.com/ctws. After you enter your control number, vote "FOR" each proposal, then click "submit."

To vote by mail, simply check "FOR" next to each proposal, then be sure to sign, date and return the GREEN PROXY CARD in the postage-paid envelope provided.

To vote by phone, find the unique control number on the appropriate GREEN voting instruction form or proxy card, then dial the designated telephone number and follow the instructions.

Further instruction on how to vote electronically is included in your mailing package.

Please remember to vote GREEN every time, on every GREEN proxy card or voting instruction form you receive.

You can toss any blue cards and forms received from Eversource Energy in the recycle bin.

If you have any questions, just call the phone numbers listed on your mailing package or visit www.sjw-ctws.com.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. Some of these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as “believes,” “expects,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “seeks,” “approximately,” “intends,” “plans,” “estimates,” “projects,” “strategy,” or “anticipates,” or the negative of those words or other comparable terminology.

The accuracy of such statements is subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions including, but not limited to, the following factors: (1) the risk that the conditions to the closing of the transaction are not satisfied, including the risk that required approval from the shareholders of Connecticut Water for the transaction is not obtained; (2) the risk that the regulatory approvals required for the transaction are not obtained, on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; (3) the effect of water, utility, environmental and other governmental policies and regulations; (4) litigation relating to the transaction; (5) the ability of the parties to the transaction to meet expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the proposed transaction; (6) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the transaction agreement between the parties to the proposed transaction; (7) changes in demand for water and other products and services of Connecticut Water; (8) unanticipated weather conditions; (9) catastrophic events such as fires, earthquakes, explosions, floods, ice storms, tornadoes, terrorist acts, physical attacks, cyber-attacks, or other similar occurrences that could adversely affect Connecticut Water’s facilities, operations, financial condition, results of operations, and reputation; (10) risks that the proposed transaction disrupts the current plans and operations of Connecticut Water; (11) potential difficulties in employee retention as a result of the proposed transaction; (12) unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the transaction; (13) the effect of the announcement or pendency of the proposed transaction on Connecticut Water’s business relationships, operating results, and business generally, including, without limitation, competitive responses to the proposed transaction; (14) risks related to diverting management’s attention from ongoing business operations of Connecticut Water; (15) the trading price of Connecticut Water’s common stock; and (16) legislative and economic developments.

In addition, actual results are subject to other risks and uncertainties that relate more broadly to Connecticut Water’s overall business and financial condition, including those more fully described in Connecticut Water’s filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), including, without limitation, its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2018. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance, and speak only as of the date made, and neither Connecticut Water nor its management undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements except as required by law.
