Letter to the Editor, as submitted to the Mercury News

Dear Editor,

We're among the many San Jose residents who are proud to work for a company with a more than 150 year history - San Jose Water.

We urge your support for our company's planned merger with Connecticut Water that will make San Jose Water a stronger company, will preserve jobs and will better position us to maintain and improve our water system.

In a recent ad in this paper, Cal Water made claims that they simply can't back up. Lofty promises of savings with no details on how. The reality is, we believe, they would likely need to cut some of our jobs, negatively impacting customer service and endangering water reliability and operations in their pursuit of savings.

Even with job cuts, savings would be shared with Cal Water's customers located throughout the entire state. That means your pain will be Bakersfield's gain. Don't fall for the sales pitch.

Sincerely,

Sharon Whaley, Water Resources and Outreach Specialist
Eight years with SJW

Jane Leinberger, Distribution Systems Office Supervisor
Lifelong San Jose Resident and 25 years with SJW

Randy Houston, Manager Watershed Maintenance and Water Treatment

Gil Rivas, Manager, Distribution Systems
