Item 8.01. Other Events.

This Current Report on Form 8-K is being filed in connection with a Memorandum of Understanding (the “MOU”) regarding the settlement of certain previously disclosed litigation related to, among other things, the previously announced proposed transaction (the “merger”) with Unimin Corporation (“Unimin”), pursuant to the terms of that Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated December 11, 2017, among Fairmount Santrol Holdings Inc. (“Fairmount Santrol”), Unimin and the other parties thereto (the “Merger Agreement”).

On April 24, 2018, an alleged stockholder of Fairmount Santrol filed a putative class action against Fairmount Santrol and its directors, captioned Jennings v. Fairmount Santrol Holdings Inc., No. 1:18-cv-00931-CAB (the “Jennings Action”), in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio (the “Northern District of Ohio”). The lawsuit generally alleges that Fairmount Santrol and its directors violated the federal securities laws by issuing allegedly misleading disclosures in connection with the merger and seeks, among other things, to enjoin the special meeting of Fairmount Santrol stockholders scheduled to be held on May 25, 2018 (the “special meeting”) at which Fairmount Santrol stockholders will vote on, among other items, a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

On April 26, 2018, Fairmount Santrol filed the definitive proxy statement/prospectus on Form DEFM14A in connection with the merger (the “proxy statement”).

Subsequently, another lawsuit was filed by an alleged stockholder of Fairmount Santrol in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware and four more lawsuits were filed by alleged stockholders of Fairmount Santrol in the Northern District of Ohio: Klein v. Fairmount Santrol Holdings Inc., No. 1:18-cv-00646-GMS (D. Del., filed Apr. 27, 2018) (the “Klein Action”); Rosello v. Fairmount Santrol Holdings Inc., No. 1:18-cv-01002-CAB (N.D. Ohio, filed May 1, 2018) (the “Rosello Action”); Scarantino v. Fairmount Santrol Holdings Inc., No. 1:18-cv-01047-DCN (N.D. Ohio, filed May 4, 2018) (the “Scarantino Action”); Schneider v. Fairmount Santrol Holdings Inc., No. 1:18-cv-01047-DAP (N.D. Ohio, filed May 10, 2018) (the “Schneider Action”); and Fitzgibbon v. Fairmount Santrol Holdings Inc., No. 1:18-cv-01095-PAG (N.D. Ohio, filed May 11, 2018) (the “Fitzgibbon Action”). These lawsuits also generally allege that Fairmount Santrol and its directors violated the federal securities laws by issuing allegedly misleading disclosures in connection with the merger and also seek, among other things, to enjoin the special meeting.

Fairmount Santrol and its directors believe that the allegations in all of the lawsuits against them lack merit.

On May 2, 2018, the plaintiff in the Jennings Action filed a motion for a preliminary injunction, seeking to enjoin the special meeting, and, on May 11, 2018, the plaintiff in the Schneider Action filed a motion for a preliminary injunction, also seeking to enjoin the special meeting. On May 14, 2018, the defendants filed a motion to transfer venue in the Klein Action, seeking an order transferring the Klein Action to the Northern District of Ohio.

On May 14, 2018, after arm’s-length discussions and negotiations concerning a possible resolution of the litigation, counsel for the parties in the Jennings Action, the Rosello Action, the Schneider Action, and the Fitzgibbon Action (collectively, the “Actions”) entered into the MOU, in which they agreed on the terms of a settlement of the Actions, including the dismissal with prejudice of the Actions and a release of all claims that have been or could have been asserted against all of the defendants and certain related parties concerning, among other things, any disclosures (or lack thereof) to Fairmount Santrol's stockholders concerning the merger and the decision to enter into the merger. The proposed settlement is conditioned upon, among other things (i) appointment of Jennings, Rosello, Schneider, and/or Fitzgibbon ("Plaintiffs") as lead or co-lead plaintiff(s) pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act and approval of Plaintiffs' counsel, Monteverde & Associates PC and/or Levi & Korsinsky LLP, as lead or co-lead counsel, (ii) consummation of the merger, (iii) the execution of an appropriate stipulation of settlement, (iv) certification of a non-opt-out class, and (v) final approval of the proposed settlement by the Northern District of Ohio. If approved, the proposed settlement also would extinguish the claims asserted in the Scarantino Action and the Klein Action.

In addition, in connection with the proposed settlement and as provided in the MOU, the parties contemplate that Plaintiffs' counsel will seek reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as part of the settlement. There can be no assurance that, among other things, the merger will be consummated, that the parties ultimately will enter into a stipulation of settlement, or that the Northern District of Ohio will approve the settlement even if the parties enter into such a stipulation. If the settlement conditions are not met, the proposed settlement as contemplated by the MOU would become void. Neither the MOU nor the settlement contemplated thereby will affect the amount of the merger consideration that Fairmount Santrol stockholders are entitled to receive in the merger or change any of the other terms of the merger or the Merger Agreement.

The defendants have denied, and continue to deny, that they have committed any breach or violation of law or engaged in any of the wrongful acts alleged in the Actions, and have denied, and continue to deny, that any additional disclosures are required. The defendants expressly maintain that they diligently and scrupulously complied with their fiduciary and other legal duties. The defendants have agreed to the terms of the proposed settlement described above solely to eliminate the burden, expense, and uncertainties inherent in further litigation, including the risk of delaying or adversely affecting the merger, and to terminate all claims that were or could have been asserted against the defendants in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and the proxy statement.

On May 14, 2018, as contemplated by the MOU, the plaintiff in the Jennings Action filed a notice to withdraw his motion for a preliminary injunction and to vacate the hearing on that motion, which currently is scheduled for May 18, 2018. On May 14, 2018, the plaintiff in the Schneider Action also filed a notice to withdraw his motion for a preliminary injunction, and the court entered an order withdrawing that motion.
