Item 8.01. Other Events.

Bridgepoint Education, Inc. (the “Company”) owns and operates Ashford University, a regionally-accredited university accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, or WASC Senior College and University Commission (“WSCUC”).

On March 6, 2019, WSCUC notified Ashford University that, pending the receipt and review of additional documents, they are deferring any action on the change of control application filed by Ashford University to convert Ashford University to a not-for-profit California public benefit corporation, AU NFP. Ashford University will provide the requested documentation as soon as possible and upon completion look forward to receiving a final decision from WSCUC. WSCUC is also scheduling a special visit in spring 2019 related to the conversion transaction. As part of the conversion transaction, Ashford University will separate from the Company. Following the proposed conversion and separation of Ashford University, the Company plans to operate as an education technology services provider that would provide certain services to the nonprofit entity and potentially, in the future, to other customers.

The Company and Ashford University are continuing to finalize the terms of the conversion transaction and review various federal, state and other regulatory requirements that could impact the viability and timing of the conversion transaction and separation. The Company and the Boards of Trustees of Ashford University and AU NFP are taking steps to protect Ashford University's and AU NFP's independence in considering the conversion transaction in order to enable Ashford University and AU NFP to act in the best interests of Ashford University and its students.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking statements,” including statements relating to the proposed transaction discussed above. Words such as “may,” “should,” “could,” “would,” “predicts,” “potential,” “continue,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “future,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “estimates” and similar expressions, as well as statements in future tense, identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on information available at the time those statements are made or management's good faith belief as of that time with respect to future events, and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events to differ materially from those expressed in or suggested by the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause such differences include, but are not limited to: (i) the failure of the proposed transactions to be approved by WSCUC or any of our other regulators; (ii) the failure of the Company and Ashford University to resolve various federal and state regulatory issues that could impact the viability and timing of these transactions, or to reach agreement on terms of the transactions and to negotiate and execute definitive agreements; (iii) the failure to satisfy other conditions to completion of the proposed transactions, including the receipt of all regulatory and accreditor approvals necessary to complete the proposed transactions; (iv) if definitive agreements are executed, the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of any definitive agreement; (v) the effect of the announcement or pendency of the transactions contemplated herein on the Company's ability to retain and hire key personnel or its operating results and business generally; (vi) risks related to diverting management's attention from the Company's ongoing business operations; (vii) the failure of the Company to transition to becoming an education technology services provider; and (viii) other factors discussed in the Company's reports on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Factors or events that could affect the transactions contemplated herein or cause the Company's actual results to differ may emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for the Company to predict all of them. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as may be required by any applicable securities laws.
