Concerned Shareholders of Synacor Comment on Operating Results, Disappointing 2015 Guidance

RANDOLPH, Mass. and AMSTERDAM, March 2, 2015 // JEC Capital Partners and Ratio Capital Partners (together, the “Concerned Shareholders”) are long-term shareholders of Synacor, Inc. (the “Company” or “Synacor”) (NASDAQ: SYNC). The Concerned Shareholders have nominated three highly qualified, independent director candidates for election to the Synacor Board of Directors (the “Board”) at the 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the “2015 Annual Meeting”).

On Wednesday, February 25, 2015, Synacor announced its Q4 and full year 2014 results while also providing investors with guidance for Q1 and full year 2015. Shares dropped nearly 9% on Thursday and rebounded slightly Friday. We believe this shows that the market was deeply disappointed with the results and guidance. In our view, there is ample reason for concern about Synacor’s performance and prospects, based in part on the following:

- Q4 2014: Although seasonality and slower than anticipated declines from the loss of a significant customer contributed to higher Q4 revenue, full year revenue decreased approximately 5% as compared to 2013. This follows a 9% decline in 2013 as compared to 2012. After burning approximately $5.5M in cash during 2013, the Company burned almost twice that amount of cash (approximately $10 million) during 2014.
- Q1 2015 Guidance: Revenue guidance indicates a significant decline of over 20% as compared to Q4 2014 actual revenue. The decreased revenue guidance indicates that one good quarter will neither continue nor be a turning point for a business that has endured multiple years of declines and mismanagement in our view. At the guided revenue level, we believe Synacor will continue to burn cash.
- Fiscal 2015 Guidance: Revenue guidance indicates that 2015 will be the third consecutive year of revenue declines for Synacor. Adjusted EBITDA guidance of only $1.5M to $3.5M on revenue guidance of $95M to $100M supports our view that Synacor’s 2014 cost cuts were insufficient, as Synacor appears likely, based on management’s projections, to continue to burn cash.

Based in part upon the foregoing, we have concluded that the Board has no working or workable strategy to create shareholder value. We attribute Synacor’s consistent negative shareholder returns to failures of leadership by the incumbent Board, led by its Chairman Jordan Levy. We feel this Board has entrenched themselves through poor governance practices that stifle shareholders' legitimate ability to seek change, principally through a classified board structure and a prohibition on shareholders' calling special shareholders meetings. We believe the Board’s next disingenuous move may be to try to time the record date and voting deadline for the upcoming Annual Meeting in such a way as to hide the poor Q1 results and potentially worse Q2 guidance from shareholders. We urge the Board not to do this and announce the Q1 results and Q2 guidance at least ten days before the voting deadline.

The Concerned Shareholders believe Synacor's stock is deeply undervalued and we are dedicated to enhancing shareholder value at Synacor. We went to great lengths to recruit three nominees whom we believe are highly qualified, independent director nominees with deep industry knowledge and connections who can guide the Company to the right short-term and long-term strategic decisions in order to maximize shareholder value.
