Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On September 12, 2019, an affiliate of Hyatt Hotels Corporation (“Hyatt” or the “Company”) sold Hyatt Regency Atlanta for approximately $355 million to an unrelated third party (the “Sale”) and entered into a long-term management agreement for the property upon sale. As part of the Sale, the new owner plans to invest significant capital into Hyatt Regency Atlanta over the next several years.

With the completion of the Sale, Hyatt anticipates a net reduction in consolidated Adjusted EBITDA of approximately $8 million over the remainder of 2019. In addition, through a combination of cash dividends on its common stock and share repurchases, the Company is increasing its expected return of capital to shareholders for the 2019 fiscal year to approximately $500 million from the prior expectation of approximately $300 million.

The Company’s outlook is based on a number of assumptions that are subject to change, many of which are outside the control of the Company. If actual results vary from these assumptions, the Company’s expectations may change. There can be no assurance that the Company will achieve these results.

The information furnished under Item 7.01 in this Form 8-K shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing made by Hyatt Hotels Corporation under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Forward-Looking Statements

Forward-Looking Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K, which are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements related to the Company’s Adjusted EBITDA outlook, and involve known and unknown risks that are difficult to predict. As a result, our actual results, performance or achievements may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as “may,” “could,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “seek,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential,” “continue,” “likely,” “will,” “would” and variations of these terms and similar expressions, or the negative of these terms or similar expressions. Such forward-looking statements are necessarily based upon estimates and assumptions that, while considered reasonable by us and our management, are inherently uncertain. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include, among others, the risks discussed in the Company’s filings with the SEC, including our annual report on Form 10-K and subsequent reports, which filings are available from the SEC. We caution you not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which are made only as of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K. We do not undertake or assume any obligation to update publicly any of these forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, new information or future events, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting forward-looking statements, except to the extent required by applicable law. If we update one or more forward-looking statements, no inference should be drawn that we will make additional updates with respect to those or other forward-looking statements.
