

Subject Company: Nexeo Solutions, Inc.
(Commission File No. 001-36477)
Registration Statement on Form S-4: 333-228154

The following is an excerpted transcript of a recorded message from Univar Inc.'s CEO, David Jukes, which was made available to Univar employees beginning on January 9, 2019.

This is an additive combination that will provide more value to our customers and suppliers, and we need a name that demonstrates a shared future for our companies and reassures customers and suppliers that they aren't losing anything with this acquisition – they are gaining something. In our case, 1 + 1 will equal 3 as our combined company will simply offer more to our customers and suppliers. This is a transformational acquisition and truly represents a watershed moment for our two companies.

Today, I wanted to give you an update on a couple of topics – first, the future name for our combined company, and second, the cultural values that we will share. With that, I'm proud to announce that we have selected a name that captures all the benefits of the combined enterprise and sets the stage for what will be a prosperous future. When we finalise this acquisition in Q1 and combine our two companies, we will become "Univar Solutions".

I hope this new name instills a sense of pride for each organization's employees and represents a new and brighter future, with possibilities not previously available to either company prior to the acquisition. We believe this name will resonate with customers and suppliers who are looking for more than just a distributor – they are looking for a collaborative partner. It signifies that our unique histories and relationships will continue to be important, even as we enter an exciting new chapter in our story. The name Univar Solutions builds on the strength, awareness and legacy of the Univar brand and combines it with one of the most valuable parts of the Nexeo story – a strong focus on solutions...much more than just distribution.

This is just the one-step in our story together – one that combines the 'best of the best' and creates a leading solutions provider in our industry. This name will require a new logo, and our marketing teams are hard at work developing all new branding and marketing materials that will be ready to roll out to you, our customers, and our suppliers on Day 1.

Now, I also promised you a second update regarding the cultural values that we will share. Our Integration Steering Committee recently met to define the values that will guide our combined company, and I'm excited to share with you the values we have created to guide Univar Solutions when we come together. These new values will be non-negotiable, and they represent critically important ideas describing how we will lead, how we will conduct business, how we will treat people, and what we can and will expect from each other. It's how I expect you to judge me and what I will be expecting from you. So, as we launch our new company, you will hear a lot more about these founding principles.

The first value we have identified is 'Together We Win'. 'Together We Win' means we will play to win and get results while working to common goals and using common processes to continuously improve. Our next value is simply 'We Do What We Say'. This includes making commitments that we can keep, trusting others to do the same, and holding ourselves accountable while being bold, direct and transparent. Univar Solutions will also be a place 'Where People Matter'. This means we will care about others and their contributions, and we will ensure diversity and inclusion. Of course, we will do this while growing ourselves to grow our business. We also will be 'Valuable to Others' by solving problems with our customers and suppliers, and by improving the communities where we live and work. And last, but by no means least, we will always be 'Serious About Safety'. I can't emphasize enough the importance of this value. We must always remain vigilant and proactive to prevent safety hazards, and we will always place safety before profit.

These values will serve as a compass for our combined company as we navigate the path ahead. We remain committed to our vision of becoming the most valued chemical and ingredient distributor in the world through Commercial Greatness, Operational Excellence, and by acting as One Univar...or should I now say, as One Univar Solutions. Thank you for listening and please remember that we must continue to operate business as usual, as we remain separate companies until the transaction closes. In the meantime, stay safe and keep up the good work.
