UNIVAR AND NEXEO HSR EXPIRATION

UNIVAR ALL-EMPLOYEE EMAIL

From: UNIVAR CEO

Subject: Univar and Nexeo Solutions Announce Expiration of Hart-Scott-Rodino Waiting Period

Dear Colleagues,

As you know, the combination of Univar and Nexeo Solutions requires review by a number of regulatory authorities, particularly in the USA. I am thrilled to share with you the expiration of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act waiting period, which required both Nexeo and Univar to submit documents to the FTC for a 30-day review that considers whether the merger would create antitrust or competition issues in the USA. You can find full details in our recent press release posted at www.univar.com.

This is an important next step as the expiration of the waiting period is a condition to the closing of the transaction and takes us closer to uniting the “best of the best” from both organizations so together we can serve more customers worldwide with improved service and a broader array of products across key end markets.

I know this is exciting news, but please remember that we must continue to operate business as usual as the transaction remains subject to other customary closing conditions, including approval by other national regulatory authorities and shareholder approval. Additionally, we remain separate companies until the transaction closes, which subject to the satisfaction of the remaining closing conditions, is now expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2019.

As always, thank you for your dedication and hard work. I am confident in our ability to take the company successfully through this next stage as we work to create something truly special. In the meantime, stay safe and keep selling the value of Univar.

Sincerely,

David Jukes
