Investor Rights Agreement

In connection with the completion of the IPO, ACOF III entered into an Investor Rights Agreement, dated May 2, 2017 (the “Investor Rights Agreement”), with FS (together with ACOF III, the “Sponsors”) and the Issuer. Pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement, each Sponsor is entitled to nominate (a) five directors for election to the Board for so long as it holds 40% or more of the Issuer’s outstanding Common Stock, (b) three directors for election to the Board for so long as it holds 30% or more of the Issuer’s outstanding Common Stock, (c) two directors for election to the Board for so long as it holds 15% or more of the Issuer’s outstanding Common Stock and (d) one director for election to the Board for so long as it holds 5% or more of the Issuer’s outstanding Common Stock. Each Sponsor has exercised its right to nominate directors to the Board and each Sponsor currently intends to continue exercising such rights. Pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement, each Sponsor has agreed to vote in favor of the other Sponsor’s nominees and for the election of the Issuer’s then-current chief executive officer to the Board, and subject to any applicable securities exchange or equivalent listing requirements, the Issuer will agree to take all necessary and desirable actions to support the election of such director nominees, including soliciting proxies in favor of such nominees, at each annual or special meeting of the Issuer’s stockholders called for the election of directors. The Investor Rights Agreement also provides that the size of the Issuer’s board of directors may not exceed 12 members unless otherwise agreed by the Sponsors. In addition, subject to certain conditions, the Investor Rights Agreement provides each Sponsor with certain rights with respect to Board committee membership, except to the extent that such membership would violate applicable securities laws or stock exchange or stock market rules. Directors nominated by the Sponsors may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of the Sponsor entitled to nominate such director. In all other cases and at any other time, directors may only be removed for cause by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the voting power of our Common Stock. The Issuer is required to bear the expenses associated with any transactions contemplated under the Investor Rights Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Investor Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Investor Rights Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 1 hereto, and is incorporated by reference into this Item 6.

Pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Sponsors and certain other stockholders party thereto are entitled to various rights with respect to the registration of their shares under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). At any time following the expiration of the applicable lock-up period pursuant to the Lock-Up Agreement (as defined below), subject to certain conditions and restrictions contained in the Registration Rights Agreement, the Sponsors can require the Issuer to use reasonable best efforts to register the sale of their Common Stock under the Securities Act. In the event of a demand registration or if the Issuer proposes to register any of its own securities under the Securities Act in a public offering, the Issuer will be required to provide notice to the holders of its Common Stock with registration rights under the Registration Rights Agreement and provide them with the right to include their shares in the registration statement, subject to certain conditions and exceptions contained in the Registration Rights Agreement. The Issuer will be required to bear the registration expenses, other than underwriting discounts and commissions and transfer taxes, associated with any registration of shares of its Common Stock held by the holders of its Common Stock with registration rights under the Registration Rights Agreement. The foregoing description of the Registration Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2 hereto, and is incorporated by reference into this Item 6.
