Explanation of Responses:

- These shares are held in a trust for the benefit of the reporting person's children. The reporting person is the trustee of the trust.
- Each stock unit is the economic equivalent of one share of common stock and is settled in cash. The stock units become payable in accordance with the terms of the deferred compensation plan.
- Each of these units represents a right to receive the cash value of one share of the company's common stock upon the reporting person's separation from the company or on an earlier in-service date that the reporting person elected. The reporting person may reallocate investments in these units to alternative investments in the future.
- The stock units will vest based on their respective award agreements.
