Item 5.02

On August 9, 2018, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of TimkenSteel Corporation (the “Company”) voted to increase the size of the Board from ten directors to eleven directors and appointed Marvin A. Riley as a director of the Company, effective immediately. Mr. Riley was appointed to serve as a member of the Audit Committee of the Board.

The Board has determined that Mr. Riley meets all of the standards for independence under the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and Rule 303A of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual, that he is financially literate as required under Rule 303A of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual and that he is free of any material relationships with the Company other than through his service as a director.

Mr. Riley is Chief Operating Officer of EnPro Industries, a leader in sealing products, metal polymer and filament wound bearings, components and service for reciprocating compressors, diesel and dual-fuel engines and other engineered products for use in critical applications in industries worldwide. Prior to serving in his current role as COO at EnPro, Mr. Riley served in various other leadership positions, including as President of its Fairbanks Morse division, focused on marine engines and power generation; Vice President of the company’s manufacturing function; Vice President of Americas; and head of global operations for its GGB Bearing Technology division. Prior to joining EnPro, he served in leadership roles at General Motors Corporation, working within the vehicle manufacturing group. Mr. Riley brings to the Board valuable manufacturing and supply-chain insights from his experience in the automotive, energy and industrial industries adding further depth to the Board’s already significant understanding of the market and supply chain dynamics that affect the Company’s business.

Mr. Riley will be compensated in accordance with the Company’s standard compensation policies and practices for the non-employee, independent members of the Board, the components of which were disclosed in the Company’s most recent Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 14, 2018.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Riley and any other person pursuant to which he was appointed to the Board. Further, Mr. Riley is not a participant in any related party transaction required to be reported under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
