Video Message to Sales Force Transcript:

PAUL DICKSON: And just like that July is over and we're on to month 2 of the quarter. So many exciting things happening, welcome to League TV!

CHANCE ALLRED: Today we've got top performers on the quarter, some chatter about The Bigs, and we also wanted to discuss the announced SunRun acquisition a bit. Let's hit it!

CHANCE ALLRED: Let's start with SunRun. Unless you've been in the forest with no reception for the last month, you will have seen the announcement that Sunrun has entered into an agreement to acquire Vivint Solar. Our goal has always been to bring cleaner, more affordable energy to every single home across the country, and this will accelerate that process. SunRun and Vivint Solar combined will enable us to use our shared knowledge to create stronger, products and services and better compete for customers. Check out David's statement on the deal: "Vivint Solar and Sunrun have long shared a common goal of bringing clean, affordable, resilient energy to homeowners. Joining forces with Sunrun will allow us to reach a broader set of customers and accelerate the pace of clean energy adoption and grid modernization. We believe this transaction will create value for our customers, our shareholders, and our partners."

PAUL DICKSON: We couldn't be more excited about this announcement and what it will bring, but we want to stress a very important point. It is expected that this deal will close sometime in Q4, and until it closes it's business as usual. The two companies are still completely separate competitors and should be treated as such. When you come across a competing SunRun deal, you should respond to it the same way you normally would, nothing changes. Once the deal closes, of course there will be more details communicated.

PAUL DICKSON: This is not a time to take your foot off the gas, this is when you floor it. Your efforts are one of the reasons this deal has happened. Listen to what SunRun's CEO, Lynn Jurich said about you: "Americans want clean and resilient energy. Vivint Solar adds an important and high-quality sales channel that enables our combined company to reach more households and raise awareness about the benefits of home solar and batteries. This transaction will increase our scale and grow our energy services network to help replace centralized, polluting power plants and accelerate the transition to a 100% clean energy future. We admire Vivint Solar and its employees, and look forward to working together as we integrate the two companies."

CHANCE ALLRED: That's a pretty powerful statement from Lynn.

CHANCE ALLRED: The best products with the best sales athletes? Are you serious Paul? Together we will empower more families to take control of their energy future by giving them a better choice in how they create and consume power.

PAUL DICKSON: SunRun and Vivint Solar together will have nearly 500,000 customers with over 3 gigawatts of solar installed. How's that for sales and recruiting ammunition? This is a monumental transaction, and such an exciting time to be at Vivint Solar. Your hard work over the years is paying off, and if you're just joining the team, you can see what extra effort can lead to.

PAUL DICKSON: Thank you for your hard work, and congratulations for being a part of this. Remember, we're only as good as our last win, so let's keep showing why Vivint Solar is the best in the biz. As mentioned before, as we get closer to the deal closing we'll send out more communication, but for now, it's time to gas it!

Any financial projections in this filing are forward-looking statements that are based on assumptions that are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond Sunrun's and Vivint Solar's control. While all projections are necessarily speculative, Sunrun and Vivint Solar believe that the preparation of prospective financial information involves increasingly higher levels of uncertainty the further out the projection extends from the date of preparation. The assumptions and estimates underlying the projected results are inherently uncertain and are subject to a wide variety of significant business, economic and competitive risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the projections. The inclusion of projections in this filing should not be regarded as an indication that Sunrun and Vivint Solar, or their representatives, considered or consider the projections to be a reliable prediction of future events.

Annualized, pro forma, projected and estimated numbers are used for illustrative purpose only, are not forecasts and may not reflect actual results.
