Fleet Status Report

May 2026

VALARIS DS-9

New Contracts, Extensions and Other Updates Since Last Fleet Status ReportContract Backlog

- Valaris has been awarded the following new contracts and contract extensions, with associated contract backlog of approximately $560 million, subsequent to issuing its previous fleet status report on February 17, 2026. Contract backlog excludes lump sum payments such as mobilization fees and capital reimbursements.
- Contract backlog increased to approximately $4.9 billion from approximately $4.7 billion as of February 17, 2026.

Floater Contract Awards

- 1,064-day contract extension for drillship VALARIS DS-4 with Petrobras offshore Brazil. The extension is expected to commence in November 2027 in direct continuation of the existing program and will add approximately $447 million to contract backlog. In conjunction with the extension, the day rate for the remainder of the existing contract has been adjusted, reducing contract backlog from April 1, 2026 to November 2027 by approximately $21 million.

Jackup Contract Awards

- Two-year contract extension for jackup VALARIS 115 with Brunei Shell Petroleum. The contract extension is expected to commence in April 2027 in direct continuation of the existing program and will add approximately $78 million to contracted revenue backlog.
- One-well contract for jackup VALARIS 106 with Medco Energi offshore Indonesia. The contract commenced in April 2026 and has a minimum duration of 45 days. The estimated total contract value is approximately $5.4 million.
- 123-day contract extension for jackup VALARIS 122 with Adura in the UK North Sea to provide accommodation support services. The contract extension commenced in May 2026 in direct continuation of the existing program and will add approximately $14 million to contracted revenue backlog.
- Two-well contract for jackup VALARIS 122 with INEOS in the UK North Sea. The contract is expected to commence in September 2026 and has an estimated duration of 162 days. The operating day rate is $115,000. The contract also includes options with an estimated total duration of 825 days for work in the UK and Danish North Sea.
- 123-day contract extension for jackup VALARIS 123 with TAQA in the Dutch North Sea to provide accommodation support services. The contract extension commenced in May 2026 in direct continuation of the existing program. The day rate is $80,000.

- 74-day contract extension for jackup VALARIS 248 with GE Vernova in the UK North Sea to provide accommodation support services for an offshore wind project. The contract extension commenced in April 2026 in direct continuation of the existing program and will add over $5 million to contracted revenue backlog.

Middle East Operations Update

- All Valaris and ARO rigs operating in the Middle East remain under contract.
- Completion of planned shipyard projects for VALARIS 116 and 250 have been delayed, with bareboat charters for the rigs now expected to resume in the third quarter 2026.
- Operations for VALARIS 110 have been suspended since early March 2026; the rig remains contracted to NOC offshore Qatar.

Other Fleet Status Updates

- Semisubmersible VALARIS DPS-1 sold for recycling in April 2026.

Day Rate and Terms. The day rates reflected in this Fleet Status Report are stated in U.S. dollars and include the operating day rates charged to customers, which may include estimated contractual adjustments for changes in operating costs and/or reimbursable cost adjustments for ongoing expenses such as crew, catering, insurance and taxes. The day rates, however, do not include certain types of non-recurring revenues such as lump sum mobilization payments, revenues earned during mobilizations, revenues associated with contract preparation and other non-recurring reimbursable items such as mobilizations and capital enhancements, and the impact of the fair market value adjustments to previously acquired drilling contracts that are recognized during the contract term. Routine and non-routine downtime may reduce the actual revenues recognized during the contract term. Additionally, we sometimes negotiate special rates and/or day rate adjustments with customers that may reduce revenues recognized.

Total Contract Value. Total contract value is the estimated total compensation expected to be received for a contract, including the operating day rate over the estimated firm term of the contract and any non-recurring lump sum payments for items such as mobilization, reactivation and capital upgrades.

Forward-Looking Statements. Statements contained in this Fleet Status Report that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements include words or phrases such as "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "likely," "outlook," "plan," "project," "could," "may," "might," "should," "will" and similar words and specifically include statements regarding expected financial performance; expected utilization, day rates, revenues, operating expenses, cash flows, contract status, terms and duration, contract backlog, capital expenditures, insurance, financing and funding; the offshore drilling market, including supply and demand, customer drilling programs and the attainment of requisite permits for such programs, stacking of rigs, effects of new rigs on the market and effect of the volatility of commodity prices; expected work commitments, awards, contracts and letters of intent; scheduled delivery dates for rigs; performance and expected benefits of our joint ventures, including our joint venture with Saudi Aramco; timing of the delivery of the Saudi Aramco Rowan Offshore Drilling Company ("ARO") newbuild rigs and the timing of additional ARO newbuild orders; the availability, delivery, mobilization, contract commencement, availability, relocation or other movement of rigs and the timing thereof; rig reactivations; suitability of rigs for future contracts; divestitures of assets; general economic, market, business and industry conditions, trends and outlook; general political conditions, including political tensions, conflicts and war; cybersecurity attacks and threats; uncertainty around the use and impacts of artificial intelligence applications; impacts and effects of public health crises, pandemics and epidemics; future operations; ability to renew expiring contracts or obtain new contracts; increasing regulatory complexity; targets, progress, plans and goals related to sustainability matters; the outcome of tax disputes; assessments and settlements; and expense management. The forward-looking statements contained in this Fleet Status Report are subject to numerous risks, uncertainties and assumptions that may cause actual results to vary materially from those indicated, including risks associated with the pending transaction with Transocean Ltd., including, among others, the completion of the pending transaction on the anticipated terms and timing, or at all, the risk that disruptions from the transaction will harm our business, including current plans and operations, the diversion of management's time and attention from ordinary course operations to completion of the pending transaction and certain restrictions during the pendency of the transaction that may impact our business; cancellation, suspension, renegotiation or termination of drilling contracts and programs; our ability to obtain financing, service our debt, fund capital expenditures and pursue other business opportunities; adequacy of sources of liquidity for us and our customers; future share repurchases; actions by regulatory authorities, or other third parties; actions by our security holders; internal control risk; commodity price fluctuations and volatility, customer demand, loss of a significant customer or customer contract, downtime and other risks associated with offshore rig operations; adverse weather, including hurricanes; changes in worldwide rig supply; and demand, competition and technology; supply chain and logistics challenges; consumer preferences for alternative fuels and forecasts or expectations regarding the global energy transition; increased scrutiny of our sustainability targets, initiatives and reporting and our ability to achieve such targets or initiatives; changes in customer strategy; future levels of offshore drilling activity; governmental action, civil unrest and political and economic uncertainties, including recessions, inflation, volatility affecting financial markets and the banking system, changing tariff policies, trade disputes, and adverse changes in the level of international trade activity; terrorism, piracy and military action (including conflicts in the Middle East and potential disruptions to key shipping lanes such as the Strait of Hormuz); risks inherent to shipyard upgrade, repair, maintenance, enhancement or rig reactivation, our ability to enter into, and the terms of, future drilling contracts; suitability of rigs for future contracts; the cancellation of letters of intent or letters of award or any failure to execute definitive contracts following announcements of letters of intent, letters of award or other expected work commitments; the outcome of litigation, legal proceedings, investigations or other claims or contract disputes; governmental regulatory, legislative and permitting requirements affecting drilling operations; our ability to attract and retain skilled personnel on commercially reasonable terms, the use of artificial intelligence by us, third-party service providers or our competitors; environmental or other liabilities, risks or losses; compliance with our debt agreements and debt restrictions that may limit our liquidity and flexibility, including in any return of capital plans; cybersecurity risks and threats; and changes in foreign currency exchange rates. In addition to the numerous factors described above, you should also carefully read and consider "Item 1A. Risk Factors" in Part I and "Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part II of our most recent annual report on Form 10-K, which is available on the Securities and Exchange Commission's website at www.sec.gov or on the Investor Relations section of our website at www.valaris.com. Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of the particular statement, and we undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
