NOTE 1 — SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements include the accounts of NIKE, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company" or "NIKE") and reflect all normal recurring adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair statement of the results of operations for the interim period. The year-end Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet data as of May 31, 2022, was derived from audited financial statements, but does not include all disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The interim financial information and notes thereto should be read in conjunction with the Company's latest Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022. The results of operations for the three months ended August 31, 2022, are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the entire fiscal year.

The uncertain state of the global economy or worsening macroeconomic conditions could affect the Company's business, including, among other things, higher inventory levels in various markets, higher inventory obsolescence reserves, higher promotional activity, reduced demand for product, reduced orders from wholesale customers for product and order cancellations. There could also be new COVID-19 related restrictions or disruptions. Any of these factors, among others, could have material adverse impacts on the Company's revenue growth as well as overall profitability in future periods.

NOTE 2 — INVENTORIES

Inventory balances of $9,662 million and $8,420 million at August 31, 2022 and May 31, 2022, respectively, were substantially all finished goods.

NOTE 3 — ACCRUED LIABILITIES

Accrued liabilities included the following:

(Dollars in millions)	AUGUST 31,	MAY 31,
	2022	2022
Compensation and benefits, excluding taxes	$ 980	$ 1,297
Collateral received from counterparties to hedging instruments	962	486

Import and logistics costs	626	489
Allowance for expected loss on sale ⁽¹⁾	389	397
Other	2,370	2,536
TOTAL ACCRUED LIABILITIES	$ 6,277	$ 6,220

NOTE 4 — FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Company measures certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value on a recurring basis, including derivatives, equity securities and available-for-sale debt securities. For additional information about the Company's fair value policies, refer to Note 1 — Summary of Significant Accounting Policies of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022.

The following tables present information about the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis and indicate the level in the fair value hierarchy in which the Company classifies the fair value measurement:

Total Level 2	8,357	7,727	630
TOTAL	$ 12,997	$ 8,574	$ 4,423

As of August 31, 2022, the Company held $3,165 million of available-for-sale debt securities with maturity dates within one year and $1,485 million with maturity dates over one year and less than five years in Short-term investments on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. The fair value of the Company's available-for-sale debt securities approximates their amortized cost.

Included in Interest expense (income), net was interest income related to the Company's investment portfolio of $65 million and $17 million for the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

The following tables present information about the Company's derivative assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis and indicate the level in the fair value hierarchy in which the Company classifies the fair value measurement:

AUGUST 31, 2022
(Dollars in millions)	DERIVATIVE ASSETS			DERIVATIVE LIABILITIES
	ASSETS AT FAIR VALUE	OTHER CURRENT ASSETS	OTHER LONG-TERM ASSETS	LIABILITIES AT FAIR VALUE	ACCRUED LIABILITIES	OTHER LONG-TERM LIABILITIES

TOTAL	$ 1,429	$ 1,052	$ 377	$ 43	$ 39	$ 4

(1) If the foreign exchange derivative instruments had been netted on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets, the asset and liability positions each would have been reduced by $43 million as of August 31, 2022. As of that date, the Company received $962 million of cash collateral from counterparties related to foreign exchange derivative instruments. No amount of collateral was posted on the derivative liability balance as of August 31, 2022.

	MAY 31, 2022
	DERIVATIVE ASSETS			DERIVATIVE LIABILITIES

Embedded derivatives	5	5	—	1	1	—
TOTAL	$ 880	$ 674	$ 206	$ 77	$ 66	$ 11

(1) If the foreign exchange derivative instruments had been netted on the Consolidated Balance Sheets, the asset and liability positions each would have been reduced by $76 million as of May 31, 2022. As of that date, the Company received $486 million of cash collateral from counterparties related to foreign exchange derivative instruments. No amount of collateral was posted on the derivative liability balance as of May 31, 2022.

For additional information related to the Company's derivative financial instruments and credit risk, refer to Note 8 — Risk Management and Derivatives.

The carrying amounts of other current financial assets and other current financial liabilities approximate fair value.

FINANCIAL ASSETS AND LIABILITIES NOT RECORDED AT FAIR VALUE

The Company's Long-term debt is recorded at adjusted cost, net of unamortized premiums, discounts and debt issuance costs. The fair value of long-term debt is estimated based upon quoted prices for similar instruments or quoted prices for identical instruments in inactive markets (Level 2). The fair value of the Company's Long-term debt, including the current portion, was approximately $8,600 million at August 31, 2022 and $8,933 million at May 31, 2022.

The carrying amounts reflected on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets for Notes payable approximate fair value.

NOTE 5 — INCOME TAXES

The effective tax rate was 19.7% and 11.0% for the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. The increase in the Company's effective tax rate was primarily due to a less favorable impact from stock-based compensation.

As of August 31, 2022, total gross unrecognized tax benefits, excluding related interest and penalties, were $861 million, $638 million of which would affect the Company's effective tax rate if recognized in future periods. The majority of the total gross unrecognized tax benefits are long-term in nature and included within Deferred income taxes and other liabilities on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. As of May 31, 2022, total gross unrecognized tax benefits, excluding related interest and penalties, were $848 million. As of August 31, 2022 and May 31, 2022, accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions were $262 million and $248 million, respectively, (excluding federal benefit) and included within Deferred income taxes and other liabilities on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The Company is subject to taxation in the U.S., as well as various state and foreign jurisdictions. The Company is currently under audit by the U.S. IRS for fiscal years 2017 through 2019. The Company has closed all U.S. federal income tax matters through fiscal 2016, with the exception of certain transfer pricing adjustments.

Tax years after 2011 remain open in certain major foreign jurisdictions. Although the timing of resolution of audits is not certain, the Company evaluates all domestic and foreign audit issues in the aggregate, along with the expiration of applicable statutes of limitations, and estimates that it is reasonably possible the total gross unrecognized tax benefits could decrease by up to $30 million within the next 12 months. In January 2019, the European Commission opened a formal investigation to examine whether the Netherlands has breached State Aid rules when granting certain tax rulings to the Company. The Company believes the investigation is without merit. If this matter is adversely resolved, the Netherlands may be required to assess additional amounts with respect to prior periods, and the Company's income taxes related to prior periods in the Netherlands could increase.

NOTE 6 — STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The NIKE, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan (the “Stock Incentive Plan”) provides for the issuance of up to 798 million previously unissued shares of Class B Common Stock in connection with equity awards granted under the Stock Incentive Plan. The Stock Incentive Plan authorizes the grant of non-statutory stock options, incentive stock options, stock appreciation rights and stock awards, including restricted stock and restricted stock units. Restricted stock units include both time-vesting restricted stock units (RSUs) as well as performance-based restricted stock units (PSUs). In addition to the Stock Incentive Plan, the Company gives employees the right to purchase shares at a discount from the market price under employee stock purchase plans (ESPPs). Refer to Note 11 — Common Stock and Stock-Based Compensation of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022 for further information.

The following table summarizes the Company’s total stock-based compensation expense recognized in Cost of sales or Operating overhead expense, as applicable:

(Dollars in millions)	THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31,
	2022	2021
Stock options ⁽¹⁾	$ 75	$ 65
ESPPs	15	15
Restricted stock and restricted stock units ⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾	80	56
TOTAL STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION EXPENSE	$ 170	$ 136

(1) Expense for stock options includes the expense associated with stock appreciation rights. Accelerated stock option expense is primarily recorded for employees meeting certain retirement eligibility requirements.

(2) Restricted stock units include RSUs and PSUs.

The income tax benefit related to stock-based compensation expense was $20 million and $186 million for the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, and reported within Income tax expense.

STOCK OPTIONS

The weighted average fair value per share of the options granted during the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, computed as of the grant date using the Black-Scholes pricing model, was $32.13 and $38.64, respectively. The weighted average assumptions used to estimate these fair values were as follows:

	THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31,
	2022	2021
Dividend yield	0.8 %	0.7 %
Expected volatility	27.0 %	25.2 %
Weighted average expected life (in years)	5.8	5.9
Risk-free interest rate	2.7 %	0.8 %

Expected volatilities are based on an analysis of the historical volatility of the Company’s common stock, the implied volatility in market-traded options on the Company’s common stock with a term greater than one year, as well as other factors. The weighted average expected life of options is based on an analysis of historical and expected future exercise patterns. The interest rate is based on the U.S. Treasury (constant maturity) risk-free rate in effect at the date of grant for periods corresponding with the expected term of the options.

As of August 31, 2022, the Company had $370 million of unrecognized compensation costs from stock options, net of estimated forfeitures, to be recognized in Cost of sales or Operating overhead expense, as applicable, over a weighted average remaining period of 2.4 years.

RESTRICTED STOCK AND RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS

The weighted average fair value per share of restricted stock and RSUs granted for the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, computed as of the grant date, was $112.83 and $161.46, respectively.

The weighted average fair value per share of PSUs granted for the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, computed as of the grant date, was $137.77 and $247.06, respectively. The impact of granting PSUs for the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, was not material to the Company's Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

As of August 31, 2022, the Company had $659 million of unrecognized compensation costs from restricted stock and restricted stock units, net of estimated forfeitures, to be recognized in Cost of sales or Operating overhead expense, as applicable, over a weighted average remaining period of 2.4 years.

NOTE 7 — EARNINGS PER SHARE

The following is a reconciliation from basic earnings per common share to diluted earnings per common share. The computations of diluted earnings per common share excluded restricted stock, restricted stock units and options, including shares under ESPPs, to purchase an estimated additional 23.8 million and 1.1 million shares of common stock outstanding for the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, because the awards were assumed to be anti-dilutive.

(In millions, except per share data)	THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31,
	2022	2021
Net income available to common stockholders	$ 1,468	$ 1,874
Determination of shares:
Weighted average common shares outstanding	1,567.1	1,581.9
Assumed conversion of dilutive stock options and awards	18.7	37.7

Earnings per common share:
Basic	$ 0.94	$ 1.18
Diluted	$ 0.93	$ 1.16

NOTE 8 — RISK MANAGEMENT AND DERIVATIVES

The Company is exposed to global market risks, including the effect of changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates, and uses derivatives to manage financial exposures that occur in the normal course of business. As of and for the three months ended August 31, 2022, there have been no material changes to the Company's hedging program or strategy from what was disclosed within the Annual Report on Form 10-K. For additional information about the Company's derivatives and hedging policies refer to Note 1 — Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Note 14 — Risk Management and Derivatives of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022.

The majority of derivatives outstanding as of August 31, 2022, are designated as foreign currency cash flow hedges, primarily for Euro/U.S. Dollar, British Pound/Euro, Japanese Yen/U.S. Dollar and Chinese Yuan/U.S. Dollar currency pairs. All derivatives are recognized on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets at fair value and classified based on the instrument's maturity date.

The following tables present the fair values of derivative instruments included within the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets:

CASH FLOW HEDGES

All changes in fair value of derivatives designated as cash flow hedge instruments are recorded in Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) until Net income is affected by the variability of cash flows of the hedged transaction. Effective hedge results are classified in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income in the same manner as the underlying exposure. When it is no longer probable the forecasted hedged transaction will occur in the initially identified time period, hedge accounting is discontinued and the Company accounts for the associated derivative as an undesignated instrument as discussed below. Additionally, the gains and losses associated with derivatives no longer designated as cash flow hedge instruments in Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) are recognized immediately in Other (income) expense, net, if it is probable the forecasted hedged transaction will not occur by the end of the initially identified time period or within an additional two-month period thereafter. In rare circumstances, the additional period of time may exceed two months due to extenuating circumstances related to the nature of the forecasted transaction that are outside the control or influence of the Company.

The total notional amount of outstanding foreign currency derivatives designated as cash flow hedges was approximately $15.9 billion as of August 31, 2022. Approximately $971 million of deferred net gains (net of tax) on both outstanding and matured derivatives in Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) as of August 31, 2022, are expected to be reclassified to Net income during the next 12 months concurrent with the underlying hedged transactions also being recorded in Net income. Actual amounts ultimately reclassified to Net income are dependent on the exchange rates in effect when derivative contracts currently outstanding mature. As of August 31, 2022, the maximum term over which the Company hedges exposures to the variability of cash flows for its forecasted transactions was 33 months.

UNDESIGNATED DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

The Company may elect to enter into foreign exchange forwards to mitigate the change in fair value of specific assets and liabilities on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets and/or embedded derivative contracts. These undesignated instruments are recorded at fair value as a derivative asset or liability on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets with their corresponding change in fair value recognized in Other (income) expense, net, together with the remeasurement gain or loss from the hedged balance sheet position and/or embedded derivative contract. The total notional amount of outstanding undesignated derivative instruments was $4 billion as of August 31, 2022.

EMBEDDED DERIVATIVES

Embedded derivative contracts are treated as foreign currency forward contracts that are bifurcated from the related contract and recorded at fair value as a derivative asset or liability on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets with their corresponding change in fair value recognized in Other (income) expense, net, through the date the foreign currency fluctuations cease to exist.

As of August 31, 2022, the total notional amount of embedded derivatives outstanding was approximately $434 million.

CREDIT RISK

The Company's bilateral credit-related contingent features generally require the owing entity, either the Company or the derivative counterparty, to post collateral for the portion of the fair value in excess of $50 million should the fair value of outstanding derivatives per counterparty be greater than $50 million. Additionally, a certain level of decline in credit rating of either the Company or the counterparty could trigger collateral requirements. As of August 31, 2022, the Company was in compliance with all credit risk-related contingent features, and derivative instruments with such features were in a net asset position of approximately $1.4 billion. Accordingly, the Company was not required to post cash collateral as a result of these contingent features. Further, $962 million of collateral was received on the Company's derivative asset balance as of August 31, 2022. The Company considers the impact of the risk of counterparty default to be immaterial.

For additional information related to the Company's derivative financial instruments and collateral, refer to Note 4 — Fair Value Measurements.

For the three months ended August 31, 2022 and 2021, Global Brand Divisions revenues included NIKE Brand licensing and other miscellaneous revenues that are not part of a geographic operating segment. Converse Other revenues were primarily attributable to licensing businesses. Corporate revenues primarily consisted of foreign currency hedge gains and losses related to revenues generated by entities within the NIKE Brand geographic operating segments and Converse, but managed through the Company's central foreign exchange risk management program.

As of August 31, 2022 and May 31, 2022, the Company did not have any contract assets and had an immaterial amount of contract liabilities recorded in Accrued liabilities on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

NOTE 11 — OPERATING SEGMENTS

The Company's operating segments are evidence of the structure of the Company's internal organization. The NIKE Brand segments are defined by geographic regions for operations participating in NIKE Brand sales activity.

Each NIKE Brand geographic segment operates predominantly in one industry: the design, development, marketing and selling of athletic footwear, apparel and equipment. The Company's reportable operating segments for the NIKE Brand are: North America; Europe, Middle East & Africa (EMEA); Greater China; and Asia Pacific & Latin America (APLA), and include results for the NIKE and Jordan brands.

The Company's NIKE Direct operations are managed within each NIKE Brand geographic operating segment. Converse is also a reportable segment for the Company and operates in one industry: the design, marketing, licensing and selling of athletic lifestyle sneakers, apparel and accessories.

Global Brand Divisions is included within the NIKE Brand for presentation purposes to align with the way management views the Company. Global Brand Divisions revenues include NIKE Brand licensing and other miscellaneous revenues that are not part of a geographic operating segment. Global Brand Divisions costs represent demand creation and operating overhead expense that include product creation and design expenses centrally managed for the NIKE Brand, as well as costs associated with NIKE Direct global digital operations and enterprise technology.

Corporate consists primarily of unallocated general and administrative expenses, including expenses associated with centrally managed departments; depreciation and amortization related to the Company's headquarters; unallocated insurance, benefit and compensation programs, including stock-based compensation; and certain foreign currency gains and losses, including certain hedge gains and losses.

The primary financial measure used by the Company to evaluate performance of individual operating segments is earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT), which represents Net income before Interest expense (income), net and Income tax expense in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income.

As part of the Company's centrally managed foreign exchange risk management program, standard foreign currency rates are assigned twice per year to each NIKE Brand entity in the Company's geographic operating segments and to Converse. These rates are set approximately nine and twelve months in advance of the future selling seasons to which they relate (specifically, for each currency, one standard rate applies to the fall and holiday selling seasons and one standard rate applies to the spring and summer selling seasons) based on average market spot rates in the calendar month preceding the date they are established. Inventories and Cost of sales for geographic operating segments and Converse reflect the use of these standard rates to record non-functional currency product purchases in the entity's functional currency. Differences between assigned standard foreign currency rates and actual market rates are included in Corporate, together with foreign currency hedge gains and losses generated from the Company's centrally managed foreign exchange risk management program and other conversion gains and losses.

Accounts receivable, net, Inventories and Property, plant and equipment, net for operating segments are regularly reviewed by management and are therefore provided below.

NOTE 12 — CONTINGENCIES

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is subject to various legal proceedings, claims and government investigations relating to its business, products and actions of its employees and representatives, including contractual and employment relationships, product liability, antitrust, customs, intellectual property and other matters. The outcome of these legal matters is inherently uncertain, and the Company cannot predict the eventual outcome of currently pending matters, the timing of their ultimate resolution or the eventual losses, fines, penalties or consequences relating to those matters. When a loss related to a legal proceeding or claim is probable and reasonably estimable, the Company accrues its best estimate for the ultimate resolution of the matter. If one or more legal matters were to be resolved against the Company in a reporting period for amounts above management's expectations, the Company's financial position, operating results and cash flows for that reporting period could be materially adversely affected. In the opinion of management, based on its current knowledge and after consultation with counsel, the Company does not believe any currently pending legal matters will have a material adverse impact on the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flows, except as described below.

BELGIAN CUSTOMS CLAIM

The Company has received claims for certain years from the Belgian Customs Authorities for alleged underpaid duties related to products imported beginning in fiscal 2018. The Company disputes these claims and has engaged in the appellate process. At this time, the Company is unable to estimate the range of loss and cannot predict the final outcome as it could take several years to reach a resolution on this matter. If this matter is ultimately resolved against the Company, the amounts owed, including fines, penalties and other consequences relating to the matter, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position and cash flows.

NOTE 13 — ACQUISITIONS AND DIVESTITURES

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2022, the Company entered into separate definitive agreements to sell its entities in Argentina and Uruguay, as well as its entity in Chile, to third-party distributors. The related assets and liabilities of these entities within the Company's APLA operating segment were classified as held-for-sale on the Consolidated Balance Sheets within Prepaid expenses and other current assets and Accrued liabilities, respectively, until the transactions closed.

CHILE

During the first quarter of fiscal 2023, the sale of the Company's entity in Chile to a third-party distributor was completed. The impacts from the transaction were not material to the Company's Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

ARGENTINA AND URUGUAY

As of August 31, 2022, held-for-sale assets were $99 million, primarily consisting of $38 million of Inventories and $23 million of Accounts receivable, net; held-for-sale liabilities were $33 million. Additionally, the Company has recognized cumulative expected net losses of $389 million within Other (income) expense, net, classified within Corporate, and a corresponding allowance within Accrued liabilities on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. A majority of these losses were recognized in fiscal 2020 upon meeting the held-for-sale criteria and are largely due to the anticipated release of the cumulative net foreign currency translation losses.

As of May 31, 2022, held-for-sale assets were $100 million, primarily consisting of $37 million of Inventories and $31 million of Accounts receivable, net; held-for-sale liabilities were $37 million.

Subsequent to the end of the first quarter of fiscal 2023, the sale of the Company's entities in Argentina and Uruguay to a third-party distributor was completed. The net loss on the sale of these entities totaled approximately $550 million, $389 million of which was recognized by the Company in prior periods. Upon completion of the sale, the remaining loss, primarily due to the devaluation of the local currency and cash equivalents included in the transfer of assets, will be recognized in the second quarter of fiscal 2023 within Other (income) expense, net, classified within Corporate.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

OVERVIEW

NIKE designs, develops, markets and sells athletic footwear, apparel, equipment, accessories and services worldwide. We are the largest seller of athletic footwear and apparel in the world. We sell our products through NIKE Direct operations, which is comprised of both NIKE-owned retail stores and sales through our digital platforms (also referred to as "NIKE Brand Digital"), to retail accounts and to a mix of independent distributors, licensees and sales representatives in virtually all countries around the world. Our goal is to deliver value to our shareholders by building a profitable global portfolio of branded footwear, apparel, equipment and accessories businesses. Our strategy is to achieve long-term revenue growth by creating innovative, "must-have" products, building deep personal consumer connections with our brands and delivering compelling consumer experiences through digital platforms and at retail.

Through the Consumer Direct Acceleration, we are focusing on creating the marketplace of the future through more premium, consistent and seamless consumer experiences, leading with digital and our owned stores, as well as select wholesale partners that share our marketplace vision. Over the last several years, as we have executed against the Consumer Direct Acceleration, we have grown our NIKE Direct business to be approximately 42% of total NIKE Brand revenues for the first quarter of fiscal 2023, and we have reduced the number of wholesale accounts globally. Additionally, we have aligned our product creation and category organizations around a new consumer construct focused on Men's, Women's and Kids' and continue to invest in data and analytics, demand sensing, insight gathering, inventory management and other areas to create an end-to-end technology foundation, which we expect will further accelerate our digital transformation. We believe this unified approach will accelerate growth and unlock more efficiency for our business, while driving speed and responsiveness as we serve consumers globally.

CURRENT ECONOMIC CONDITIONS AND MARKET DYNAMICS

Ongoing supply chain challenges, macroeconomic conditions and the COVID-19 pandemic continue to create volatility in our business results and operations globally. Despite these challenges, our first quarter Revenues increased 4% and 10% on a reported and currency-neutral basis, respectively, led by North America, EMEA and APLA, partially offset by declines in Greater China due to COVID-19 disruptions. However, gross margin decreased by 220 basis points in the first quarter of fiscal 2023 with elevated freight and logistics costs and higher promotional activity, among other items, contributing to this decrease.

During fiscal 2022, we experienced elevated inventory transit times due to port congestion, transportation delays, and labor and container shortages which caused seasonally late product to arrive in the first quarter of fiscal 2023. As a result, we planned our fiscal 2023 product purchases based on elevated inventory transit times continuing. However, during the first quarter of fiscal 2023, inventory transit times improved ahead of plan, particularly in North America, resulting in challenges managing the timing of seasonal inventory flow. This disruption in the flow of product caused inventories in North America to grow to $4.7 billion, an increase of 15% compared to the fourth quarter of fiscal 2022. At the same time, there is increased promotional activity across the retail industry. We increased promotional activity in the first quarter of fiscal 2023, primarily in North America, and expect to increase promotional activity in the second quarter of fiscal 2023, to sell excess inventory and create capacity in the marketplace for new seasonally relevant product.

Most of our geographies are currently operating with little to no COVID-19 related restrictions, but revenues in Greater China for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 were impacted by lower retail traffic as a result of COVID-19 related disruptions.

Fluctuations in currency exchange rates also create volatility in our reported results as we translate the balance sheets, operational results and cash flows of our subsidiaries into U.S. Dollars for consolidated reporting. During the first quarter of fiscal 2023, foreign currency headwinds increased significantly as the U.S. Dollar strengthened in relation to most foreign currencies, reducing reported Revenues by $823 million.

We expect unfavorable changes in foreign currency exchange rates, net of hedges, will have a material negative impact on reported Revenues and Income before income taxes for the second quarter of fiscal 2023. Additionally, we expect the continued combination of elevated freight and logistics costs and increased promotional activity will have a negative impact on gross margin for the second quarter of fiscal 2023.

We also continue to closely monitor macroeconomic conditions, including consumer behavior and the potential impacts inflation could have on consumer demand for our product. While we believe our Consumer Direct Acceleration Strategy continues to drive our business toward our long-term financial goals, worsening macroeconomic conditions could affect our business, including, among other things, higher inventory levels in various markets, higher inventory obsolescence reserves, higher promotional activity, reduced demand for our products, reduced orders from our wholesale customers for our products and order cancellations. There could also be new COVID-19 related restrictions or disruptions across our geographies. Any of these factors, among others, could have material adverse impacts on our revenue growth as well as overall profitability in future periods.

FIRST QUARTER OVERVIEW

For the first quarter of fiscal 2023, NIKE, Inc. Revenues increased 4% to $12.7 billion compared to the first quarter of fiscal 2022 and increased 10% on a currency-neutral basis. Net income was $1,468 million and diluted earnings per common share was $0.93 for the first quarter of fiscal 2023, compared to Net income of $1,874 million and diluted earnings per common share of $1.16 for the first quarter of fiscal 2022.

Income before income taxes decreased 13% compared to the first quarter of fiscal 2022, due to higher Selling and administrative expense and gross margin contraction, partially offset by higher Revenues. NIKE Brand revenues, which represent over 90% of NIKE, Inc. Revenues, increased 4% compared to the first quarter of fiscal 2022. On a currency-neutral basis, NIKE Brand revenues increased 10%, driven by higher revenues in North America, EMEA and APLA, partially offset by declines in Greater China. Additionally, NIKE Brand currency-neutral revenues were higher across footwear and apparel, as well as Men's, the Jordan Brand, Kids' and Women's. Revenues for Converse increased 2% and 8% compared to the first quarter of fiscal 2022, on a reported and currency-neutral basis, respectively, led by strong performance in North America and Western Europe, partially offset by declines in Asia.

Our effective tax rate was 19.7% for the first quarter of fiscal 2023, compared to 11.0% for the first quarter of fiscal 2022, primarily due to decreased benefits from stock-based compensation.

On August 16, 2022, the U.S. government enacted the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022 that includes, among other provisions, changes to the U.S. corporate income tax system, including a fifteen percent minimum tax based on "adjusted financial statement income," which is effective for NIKE beginning June 1, 2023, and a one percent excise tax on net repurchases of stock after December 31, 2022. We are continuing to evaluate the Inflation Reduction Act and its requirements, as well as the application to our business.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2023, we completed the sale of our entity in Chile to a third party distributor and the impacts of completing this transaction were not material to the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. Subsequent to the end of the first quarter we completed the sale of our entities in Argentina and Uruguay to a third party distributor. For more information see Note 13 — Acquisitions and Divestitures within the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. As we shift from a wholesale and direct to consumer operating model within these countries, we expect consolidated NIKE, Inc. and APLA revenue growth will be reduced due to different commercial terms. However, over time we expect the future operating model to have a favorable impact on our overall profitability as we reduce selling and administrative expenses, as well as lessen exposure to foreign exchange rate volatility.

USE OF NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

Throughout this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, we discuss non-GAAP financial measures, including references to wholesale equivalent revenues, currency-neutral revenues, as well as Total NIKE Brand earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT), Total NIKE, Inc. EBIT and EBIT Margin, which should be considered in addition to, and not in lieu of, the financial measures calculated and presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). References to wholesale equivalent revenues are intended to provide context as to the total size of our NIKE Brand market footprint if we had no NIKE Direct operations. NIKE Brand wholesale equivalent revenues consist of (1) sales to external wholesale customers and (2) internal sales from our wholesale operations to our NIKE Direct operations, which are charged at prices comparable to those charged to external wholesale customers. Additionally, currency-neutral revenues are calculated using actual exchange rates in use during the comparative prior year period to enhance the visibility of the underlying business trends excluding the impact of translation arising from foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations. EBIT is calculated as Net income before Interest expense (income), net and Income tax expense in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. EBIT Margin is calculated as EBIT divided by total NIKE, Inc. Revenues.

Management uses these non-GAAP financial measures when evaluating the Company's performance, including when making financial and operating decisions. Additionally, management believes these non-GAAP financial measures provide investors with additional financial information that should be considered when assessing our underlying business performance and trends. However, references to wholesale equivalent revenues, currency-neutral revenues, EBIT and EBIT margin should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for other financial measures calculated and presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP and may not be comparable to similarly titled non-GAAP measures used by other companies.

(2) Global Brand Divisions revenues include NIKE Brand licensing and other miscellaneous revenues that are not part of a geographic operating segment.

(3) Corporate revenues primarily consist of foreign currency hedge gains and losses related to revenues generated by entities within the NIKE Brand geographic operating segments and Converse, but managed through our central foreign exchange risk management program.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

On a currency-neutral basis, NIKE, Inc. Revenues increased 10% for the first quarter of fiscal 2023, driven by growth in North America, EMEA and APLA, partially offset by lower revenues in Greater China. Higher revenues in North America, EMEA and APLA contributed approximately 5, 5 and 2 percentage points to NIKE, Inc. Revenues, respectively, while lower revenues in Greater China reduced NIKE, Inc. Revenues by approximately 2 percentage points.

On a currency-neutral basis, NIKE Brand footwear revenues increased 12% in the first quarter of fiscal 2023, driven by higher revenues in Men's and the Jordan Brand. Unit sales of footwear increased 3%, while higher average selling price (ASP) per pair contributed approximately 9 percentage points of footwear revenue growth, primarily due to higher full-price ASP, net of discounts, on a wholesale equivalent basis, the favorable impact of growth in our NIKE Direct business and higher NIKE Direct ASP.

Currency-neutral NIKE Brand apparel revenues, for the first quarter of fiscal 2023, increased 7%, driven primarily by growth in Men's. Unit sales of apparel increased 5%, and higher ASP per unit contributed approximately 2 percentage points of apparel revenue growth, primarily due to higher full-price ASP, net of discounts, partially offset by lower NIKE Direct ASP.

On a reported basis, NIKE Direct revenues represented approximately 42% of our total NIKE Brand revenues for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 compared to 40% for the first quarter of fiscal 2022. NIKE Brand Digital sales were $2.9 billion for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 compared to $2.5 billion for the first quarter of fiscal 2022. On a currency-neutral basis, NIKE Direct revenues increased 14%, driven by NIKE Brand Digital sales growth of 23%, comparable store sales growth of 4%, in part due to improved physical retail traffic, and the addition of new stores. Comparable store sales, which exclude NIKE Brand Digital sales, comprises revenues from NIKE-owned in-line and factory stores for which all three of the following requirements have been met: (1) the store has been open at least one year, (2) square footage has not changed by more than 15% within the past year and (3) the store has not been permanently repositioned within the past year. Comparable store sales includes revenues from stores that were temporarily closed during the period as a result of COVID-19. Comparable store sales represents a performance measure that we believe is useful information for management and investors in understanding the performance of our established NIKE-owned in-line and factory stores. Management considers this metric when making financial and operating decisions. The method of calculating comparable store sales varies across the retail industry. As a result, our calculation of this metric may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies.

GROSS MARGIN

(Dollars in millions)	THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31,
	2022	2021	% CHANGE
Gross profit	$ 5,615	$ 5,696	-1 %
Gross margin	44.3 %	46.5 %	(220) bps

For the first quarter of fiscal 2023, our consolidated gross margin was 220 basis points lower than the prior year and primarily reflected the following factors:

- Higher NIKE Brand product costs, on a wholesale equivalent basis, primarily due to elevated freight and logistics costs and product mix (decreasing gross margin approximately 190 basis points);
- Higher other costs, in part due to higher inventory obsolescence in North America and EMEA, among other factors (decreasing gross margin approximately 100 basis points);
- Lower margin in our NIKE Direct business, primarily driven by higher promotional activity in North America (decreasing gross margin approximately 90 basis points);
- Unfavorable changes in net foreign currency exchange rates, including hedges, (decreasing gross margin approximately 70 basis points); and
- Higher full-price ASP, net of discounts, on a wholesale equivalent basis (increasing gross margin approximately 200 basis points), reflecting strategic pricing increases and product mix.

(Dollars in millions)	THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31,
	2022	2021	% CHANGE
Demand creation expense ⁽¹⁾	$ 943	$ 918	3 %
Operating overhead expense	2,977	2,654	12 %
Total selling and administrative expense	$ 3,920	$ 3,572	10 %
% of revenues	30.9 %	29.2 %	170 bps

(1) Demand creation expense consists of advertising and promotion costs, including costs of endorsement contracts, complimentary products, television, digital and print advertising and media costs, brand events and retail brand presentation.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

Demand creation expense increased 3% for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 primarily due to normalization of spend against sports marketing and brand campaign investments. Changes in foreign currency exchange rates decreased Demand creation expense by approximately 5 percentage points.

Operating overhead expense increased 12% primarily due to higher wage-related expenses, an increase in strategic technology investments and increased NIKE Direct costs. Changes in foreign currency exchange rates decreased Operating overhead expense by approximately 4 percentage points.

OTHER (INCOME) EXPENSE, NET

(Dollars in millions)	THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31,
	2022	2021
Other (income) expense, net	$ (146)	$ (39)

Other (income) expense, net comprises foreign currency conversion gains and losses from the remeasurement of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in non-functional currencies and the impact of certain foreign currency derivative instruments, as well as unusual or non-operating transactions that are outside the normal course of business.

For the first quarter of fiscal 2023, Other (income) expense, net increased from $39 million of other income to $146 million in the current year, primarily due to a favorable change in foreign currency conversion gains and losses, including hedges, as well as settlements of legal matters, partially offset by net favorable activity in the prior year related to our strategic distributor partnership transition within APLA.

We estimate the combination of the translation of foreign currency-denominated profits from our international businesses and the year-over-year change in foreign currency-related gains and losses included in Other (income) expense, net had unfavorable impacts of approximately $234 million on our Income before income taxes for the first quarter of fiscal 2023.

INCOME TAXES

	THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31,
	2022	2021	% CHANGE
Effective tax rate	19.7 %	11.0 %	870 bps

Our effective tax rate was 19.7% for the first quarter of fiscal 2023, compared to 11.0% for the first quarter of fiscal 2022, primarily due to decreased benefits from stock-based compensation.

Refer to Note 5 — Income Taxes within the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

OPERATING SEGMENTS

Our operating segments are evidence of the structure of the Company's internal organization. The NIKE Brand segments are defined by geographic regions for operations participating in NIKE Brand sales activity.

Each NIKE Brand geographic segment operates predominantly in one industry: the design, development, marketing and selling of athletic footwear, apparel and equipment. The Company's reportable operating segments for the NIKE Brand are: North America; Europe, Middle East & Africa (EMEA); Greater China; and Asia Pacific & Latin America (APLA), and include results for the NIKE and Jordan brands. The Company's NIKE Direct operations are managed within each geographic operating segment. Converse is also a reportable operating segment for the Company, and operates predominately in one industry: the design, marketing, licensing and selling of athletic lifestyle sneakers, apparel and accessories.

As part of our centrally managed foreign exchange risk management program, standard foreign currency exchange rates are assigned twice per year to each NIKE Brand entity in our geographic operating segments and Converse. These rates are set approximately nine and twelve months in advance of the future selling seasons to which they relate (specifically, for each currency, one standard rate applies to the fall and holiday selling seasons and one standard rate applies to the spring and summer selling seasons) based on average market spot rates in the calendar month preceding the date they are established. Inventories and Cost of sales for geographic operating segments and Converse reflect the use of these standard rates to record non-functional currency product purchases into the entity's functional currency. Differences between assigned standard foreign currency exchange rates and actual market rates are included in Corporate, together with foreign currency hedge gains and losses generated from our centrally managed foreign exchange risk management program and other conversion gains and losses.

(3) Corporate revenues primarily consist of foreign currency hedge gains and losses related to revenues generated by entities within the NIKE Brand geographic operating segments and Converse, but managed through our central foreign exchange risk management program.

The primary financial measure used by the Company to evaluate performance of individual operating segments is EBIT, which represents Net income before Interest expense (income), net and Income tax expense in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. As discussed in Note 11 — Operating Segments in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements, certain corporate costs are not included in EBIT of our operating segments.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

On a currency-neutral basis, North America revenues for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 increased 13%, due primarily to higher revenues in Men's and the Jordan Brand. NIKE Direct revenues increased 13%, driven by strong digital sales growth of 19%, comparable store sales growth of 4%, in part due to improved physical retail traffic, and the addition of new stores.

Footwear revenues increased 17% on a currency-neutral basis, driven by higher revenues in Men's and the Jordan Brand. Unit sales of footwear increased 10%, while higher ASP per pair contributed approximately 7 percentage points of footwear revenue growth, primarily due to higher full-price ASP.

On a currency-neutral basis, apparel revenues increased 5%, driven by higher revenues in Men's. Unit sales of apparel increased 5%, while ASP per unit remained flat, as higher full-price ASP was offset by lower NIKE Direct ASP, primarily due to higher promotional activity.

Reported EBIT decreased 4% primarily due to gross margin contraction, offset by higher revenues and lower selling and administrative expense as a percent of revenues. Gross margin decreased approximately 460 basis points largely driven by higher product costs, primarily due to increased freight and logistics costs as well as product mix, lower margin in our NIKE Direct business driven by higher promotional activity, an increase in other costs reflecting higher inventory obsolescence and a lower mix of full-price sales. This activity was partially offset by higher full-price ASP, net of discounts, due to product mix and strategic pricing increases. Selling and administrative expense increased due to higher operating overhead expense, slightly offset by lower demand creation expense. Operating overhead expense increased primarily as a result of an increase in wage-related expenses, lower bad debt recoveries and increased NIKE Direct costs. The decrease in demand creation expense reflected lower advertising and marketing expense for brand events and our retail operations, partially offset by higher sports marketing expense.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

On a currency-neutral basis, EMEA revenues for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 increased 17%, primarily driven by growth in Men's and the Jordan Brand. NIKE Direct revenues increased 20%, driven by strong digital sales growth of 46% and comparable store sales growth of 3%, partially offset by store closures.

Currency-neutral footwear revenues increased 18%, driven by higher revenues in Men's and the Jordan Brand. Unit sales of footwear remained flat, while higher ASP per pair contributed approximately 18 percentage points of footwear revenue growth. Higher ASP per pair was primarily due to higher full-price and NIKE Direct ASPs as well as a higher mix of full-price sales.

Currency-neutral apparel revenues increased 15% due primarily to higher revenues in Men's. Unit sales of apparel increased 7%, while higher ASP per unit contributed approximately 8 percentage points of apparel revenue growth, primarily due to higher full-price ASP, partially offset by a lower mix of NIKE Direct sales and lower NIKE Direct ASP.

Reported EBIT increased 11% as gross margin expansion and higher revenues more than offset higher selling and administrative expense. Gross margin increased approximately 380 basis points primarily due to higher full-price ASP, net of discounts, reflecting strategic pricing increases, as well as higher margin and the favorable impact of growth in our NIKE Direct business, a higher mix of full-price sales, higher off-price margin and favorable changes in standard foreign currency exchange rates. This activity was partially offset by higher product costs and higher other costs, particularly higher inventory obsolescence. Selling and administrative expense increased due to higher demand creation and operating overhead expense. Higher demand creation expense was primarily due to increases in advertising and marketing expense as well as sports marketing expense. Higher operating overhead expense was driven by lower bad debt recoveries and an increase in strategic technology investments, offset by lower wage-related expense.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

On a currency-neutral basis, Greater China revenues for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 decreased 13%, reflecting impacts from COVID-19 related disruptions. The decrease in revenues was primarily due to lower revenues in Men's and Women's, partially offset by growth in the Jordan Brand. NIKE Direct revenues decreased 2% due to digital sales declines of 5%, comparable store sales declines of 3%, in part due to reduced physical retail traffic as a result of COVID-19 related disruptions, partially offset by the addition of new stores.

Currency-neutral footwear revenues decreased 11%, driven primarily by lower revenues in Men's and Women's, partially offset by growth in the Jordan Brand. Unit sales of footwear decreased 10%, while lower ASP per pair reduced footwear revenues by approximately 1 percentage point, driven by lower full-price and off-price ASPs, partially offset by higher NIKE Direct ASP.

Currency-neutral apparel revenues decreased 18%, due primarily to lower revenues in Men's and Women's. Unit sales of apparel decreased 7%, while lower ASP per unit reduced apparel revenues by approximately 11 percentage points, primarily due to lower off-price, full-price and NIKE Direct ASPs.

Reported EBIT decreased 23% due to lower revenues, gross margin contraction and higher selling and administrative expense as a percent of revenues. Gross margin decreased approximately 20 basis points reflecting lower NIKE Direct margin and full-price ASP, net of discounts. This activity was partially offset by lower other costs, primarily due to lower warehousing and freight charges and lower inventory obsolescence, as well as favorable changes in standard foreign currency exchange rates. Selling and administrative expense decreased due to lower demand creation, offset by higher operating overhead expense. The decrease in demand creation expense was primarily due to lower retail brand presentation expense as well as lower investments in digital marketing, partially offset by higher advertising and marketing expense. Operating overhead expense increased largely due to higher wage-related costs and higher NIKE Direct strategic technology investments.

As discussed previously, our NIKE Brand business in Brazil transitioned to a distributor operating model during fiscal 2021. During the first quarter of fiscal 2023, we completed the sale of our entity in Chile to a third-party distributor and the impacts from closing this transaction are included within Corporate and are not reflected in the APLA operating segment results. Subsequent to the end of the first quarter of fiscal 2023, we completed the sale of our Argentina and Uruguay entities to a third party distributor. This completes the transition of our NIKE Brand businesses in these markets to a distributor operating model. Our Central and South America (CASA) marketplace now reflects a full distributor operating model. For more information see Note 13 — Acquisitions and Divestitures within the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

On a currency-neutral basis, APLA revenues increased 16% for the first quarter of fiscal 2023. The increase was due to higher revenues across nearly all territories, led by Southeast Asia & India and Korea, which increased 64% and 23%, respectively. Revenues increased primarily due to higher revenues in Men's, Women's and the Jordan Brand. NIKE Direct revenues increased 30%, primarily due to digital sales growth of 29%, comparable store sales growth of 24%, in part due to improved physical retail traffic, and the addition of new stores.

Currency-neutral footwear revenues increased 15%, due primarily to higher revenues in Women's and the Jordan Brand. Unit sales of footwear increased 1%, while higher ASP per pair contributed approximately 14 percentage points of footwear revenue growth. Higher ASP per pair was driven by the favorable impact of growth in our NIKE Direct business as well as higher full-price ASP. Higher ASPs, in part, reflect inflationary conditions in Argentina.

Currency-neutral apparel revenues increased 19%, due primarily to higher revenues in Men's and Women's. Unit sales of apparel increased 18%, while higher ASP per unit contributed approximately 1 percentage point of apparel revenue growth, driven by higher off-price ASP. Higher ASPs, in part, reflect inflationary conditions in Argentina.

Reported EBIT increased 4% for the first quarter of fiscal 2023, as higher revenues and gross margin expansion more than offset higher selling and administrative expense. Gross margin increased approximately 90 basis points due to higher full-price ASP, net of discounts, the favorable impact of growth and higher margin in our NIKE Direct business, higher off-price margin, and favorable changes in standard foreign currency exchange rates. This activity was partially offset by higher other costs, primarily higher warehousing and freight, as well as higher product costs. Selling and administrative expense increased due to higher operating overhead and demand creation expense. Higher operating overhead expense was primarily due to an increase in professional services costs, as well as higher wage-related expenses. The increase in demand creation expense was primarily due to normalization of sports marketing spend.

Global Brand Divisions primarily represent demand creation and operating overhead expense, including product creation and design expenses that are centrally managed for the NIKE Brand, as well as costs associated with NIKE Direct global digital operations and enterprise technology. Global Brand Divisions revenues include NIKE Brand licensing and other miscellaneous revenues that are not part of a geographic operating segment.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

Global Brand Divisions' loss before interest and taxes increased 20% for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 driven primarily by higher operating overhead expense while demand creation expense remained flat. Higher operating overhead expense was primarily due to an increase in wage-related costs and strategic technology investments.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

On a currency-neutral basis, Converse revenues increased 8% for the first quarter of fiscal 2023 as revenue growth in North America and Western Europe was partially offset by declines in Asia. Direct to consumer revenues increased 17%, driven by strong digital demand in North America. Combined unit sales within the wholesale and direct to consumer channels decreased 5%, while ASP increased 12%, driven by growth in direct to consumer.

Reported EBIT increased 2%, driven by gross margin expansion and higher revenues, partially offset by higher selling and administrative expense. Gross margin increased approximately 220 basis points as higher ASP, net of discounts, and higher margin in direct to consumer were partially offset by higher product and other costs, primarily due to increased freight costs. Selling and administrative expense increased due to higher operating overhead expense, partially offset by a decrease in demand creation expense. Operating overhead expense increased as a result of higher professional services costs, lower bad debt recoveries and an increase in wage-related expenses.

Corporate revenues primarily consist of foreign currency hedge gains and losses related to revenues generated by entities within the NIKE Brand geographic operating segments and Converse, but managed through our central foreign exchange risk management program.

The Corporate loss before interest and taxes primarily consists of unallocated general and administrative expenses, including expenses associated with centrally managed departments; depreciation and amortization related to our corporate headquarters; unallocated insurance, benefit and compensation programs, including stock-based compensation; and certain foreign currency gains and losses.

In addition to the foreign currency gains and losses recognized in Corporate revenues, foreign currency results in Corporate include gains and losses resulting from the difference between actual foreign currency exchange rates and standard rates used to record non-functional currency denominated product purchases within the NIKE Brand geographic operating segments and Converse; related foreign currency hedge results; conversion gains and losses arising from remeasurement of monetary assets and liabilities in non-functional currencies; and certain other foreign currency derivative instruments.

FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2023 COMPARED TO FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL 2022

Corporate's loss before interest and taxes increased $29 million for the first quarter of fiscal 2023, primarily due to the following:

- an unfavorable change of $140 million related to the difference between actual foreign currency exchange rates and standard foreign currency exchange rates assigned to the NIKE Brand geographic operating segments and Converse, net of hedge gains and losses; these results are reported as a component of consolidated gross margin;
- a favorable change in net foreign currency gains and losses of $67 million related to the remeasurement of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in non-functional currencies and the impact of certain foreign currency derivative instruments, reported as a component of consolidated Other (income) expense, net; and
- a favorable change of $44 million related to settlements of legal matters, partially offset by net favorable activity in the prior year related to our strategic distributor partnership transition within APLA.

FOREIGN CURRENCY EXPOSURES AND HEDGING PRACTICES

OVERVIEW

As a global company with significant operations outside the United States, in the normal course of business we are exposed to risk arising from changes in currency exchange rates. Our primary foreign currency exposures arise from the recording of transactions denominated in non-functional currencies and the translation of foreign currency denominated results of operations, financial position and cash flows into U.S. Dollars.

Our foreign exchange risk management program is intended to lessen both the positive and negative effects of currency fluctuations on our consolidated results of operations, financial position and cash flows. We manage global foreign exchange risk centrally on a portfolio basis to address those risks material to NIKE, Inc. Our hedging policy is designed to partially or entirely offset the impact of exchange rate changes on the underlying net exposures being hedged. Where exposures are hedged, our program has the effect of delaying the impact of exchange rate movements on our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements; the length of the delay is dependent upon hedge horizons. We do not hold or issue derivative instruments for trading or speculative purposes. As of and for the three months ended August 31, 2022, there have been no material changes to the Company's hedging program or strategy from what was disclosed within the Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Refer to Note 4 — Fair Value Measurements and Note 8 — Risk Management and Derivatives in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional description of outstanding derivatives at each reported period end. For additional information about our Foreign Currency Exposures and Hedging Practices refer to Part II, Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022.

TRANSACTIONAL EXPOSURES

We conduct business in various currencies and have transactions which subject us to foreign currency risk. Our most significant transactional foreign currency exposures are:

- Product Costs — Product purchases denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the transacting entity and factory input costs from the foreign currency adjustments program with certain factories.
- Non-Functional Currency Denominated External Sales — A portion of our NIKE Brand and Converse revenues associated with European operations are earned in currencies other than the Euro (e.g., the British Pound) but are recognized at a subsidiary that uses the Euro as its functional currency. These sales generate a foreign currency exposure.
- Other Costs — Non-functional currency denominated costs, such as endorsement contracts, also generate foreign currency risk, though to a lesser extent.
- Non-Functional Currency Denominated Monetary Assets and Liabilities — Our global subsidiaries have various monetary assets and liabilities, primarily receivables and payables, including intercompany receivables and payables, denominated in currencies other than their functional currencies. These balance sheet items are subject to remeasurement which may create fluctuations in Other (income) expense, net within our consolidated results of operations.

MANAGING TRANSACTIONAL EXPOSURES

Transactional exposures are managed on a portfolio basis within our foreign currency risk management program. We manage these exposures by taking advantage of natural offsets and currency correlations that exist within the portfolio and may also elect to use currency forward and option contracts to hedge the remaining effect of exchange rate fluctuations on probable forecasted future cash flows, including certain product cost exposures, non-functional currency denominated external sales and other costs described above. Generally, these are accounted for as cash flow hedges, except for hedges of the embedded derivative components of the product cost exposures and other contractual agreements.

Certain currency forward contracts used to manage the foreign exchange exposure of non-functional currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities subject to remeasurement and embedded derivative contracts are not formally designated as hedging instruments and are recognized in Other (income) expense, net.

TRANSLATIONAL EXPOSURES

Many of our foreign subsidiaries operate in functional currencies other than the U.S. Dollar. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates create volatility in our reported results as we are required to translate the balance sheets, operational results and cash flows of these subsidiaries into U.S. Dollars for consolidated reporting. The translation of foreign subsidiaries' non-U.S. Dollar denominated balance sheets into U.S. Dollars for consolidated reporting results in a cumulative translation adjustment to Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) within Shareholders' equity. The impact of foreign exchange rate fluctuations on the translation of our consolidated Revenues was a detriment of approximately $823 million for the three months ended August 31, 2022, and a benefit of approximately $382 million for the three months ended August 31, 2021. The impact of foreign exchange rate fluctuations on the translation of our Income before income taxes was a detriment of approximately $253 million for the three months ended August 31, 2022, and a benefit of approximately $117 million for the three months ended August 31, 2021.

Management generally identifies hyper-inflationary markets as those markets whose cumulative inflation rate over a three-year period exceeds 100%. Management has concluded our Argentina subsidiary within our APLA operating segment and our Turkey subsidiary within our EMEA operating segment are operating in hyper-inflationary markets. As a result, beginning in the second quarter of fiscal 2019 and the first quarter of fiscal 2023, the functional currency of our Argentina subsidiary and our Turkey subsidiary, respectively, changed from the local currency to the U.S. Dollar. As of and for the three months ended August 31, 2022, these changes did not have a material impact on our results of operations or financial condition, and we do not anticipate they will have a material impact in future periods based on current rates.

MANAGING TRANSLATIONAL EXPOSURES

To minimize the impact of translating foreign currency denominated revenues and expenses into U.S. Dollars for consolidated reporting, certain foreign subsidiaries use excess cash to purchase U.S. Dollar denominated available-for-sale investments. The variable future cash flows associated with the purchase and subsequent sale of these U.S. Dollar denominated investments at non-U.S. Dollar functional currency subsidiaries creates a foreign currency exposure that qualifies for hedge accounting under U.S. GAAP. We utilize forward contracts and/or options to mitigate the variability of the forecasted future purchases and sales of these U.S. Dollar investments. The combination of the purchase and sale of the U.S. Dollar investment and the hedging instrument has the effect of partially offsetting the year-over-year foreign currency translation impact on net earnings in the period the investments are sold. Hedges of the purchase of U.S. Dollar denominated available-for-sale investments are accounted for as cash flow hedges.

We estimate the combination of translation of foreign currency-denominated profits from our international businesses and the year-over-year change in foreign currency related gains and losses included in Other (income) expense, net had an unfavorable impact of approximately $234 million on our Income before income taxes for the three months ended August 31, 2022.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

CASH FLOW ACTIVITY

Cash provided (used) by operations was an inflow of $357 million for the first three months of fiscal 2023, compared to $1,111 million for the first three months of fiscal 2022. Net income, adjusted for non-cash items, generated $1,771 million of operating cash inflow for the first three months of fiscal 2023, compared to $2,076 million for the first three months of fiscal 2022. The net change in working capital and other assets and liabilities resulted in a decrease to Cash provided (used) by operations of $1,414 million for the first three months of fiscal 2023 compared to $965 million for the first three months of fiscal 2022. The net change in working capital was unfavorably impacted by an increase in Inventories of $1,464 million as a result of higher inventory levels due to extended lead times and shifts in product flow as a result of ongoing supply chain volatility. The change in working capital was also impacted by a $707 million favorable change in Accounts payable due to higher product purchases and the net favorable change in cash collateral with derivative counterparties as a result of hedging transactions. During the first three months of fiscal 2023, we received cash collateral of $476 million as compared to $39 million during the first three months of fiscal 2022. Refer to the Credit Risk section of Note 8 — Risk Management and Derivatives in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional details.

Cash provided (used) by investing activities was an outflow of $214 million for the first three months of fiscal 2023, compared to an inflow of $501 million for the first three months of fiscal 2022, primarily driven by the net change in short-term investments. For the first three months of fiscal 2023, the net change in short-term investments (including sales, maturities and purchases) resulted in a cash outflow of $89 million compared to a cash inflow of $583 million for the first three months of fiscal 2022.

Cash provided (used) by financing activities was an outflow of $1,404 million for the first three months of fiscal 2023 compared to $743 million for the first three months of fiscal 2022. The increased outflow in the first three months of fiscal 2023 was driven by lower proceeds from stock option exercises, which resulted in a cash inflow of $82 million in the first three months of fiscal 2023 compared to $473 million in the first three months of fiscal 2022, as well as higher share repurchases of $983 million for the first three months of fiscal 2023 compared to $752 million in the first three months of fiscal 2022.

During the first three months of fiscal 2023, we repurchased a total of 9.0 million shares of NIKE's Class B Common Stock for $991.1 million (an average price of $110.58 per share). In August 2022, we terminated the previous four-year, $15 billion share repurchase program approved by the Board of Directors in June 2018. Under this program, we repurchased 6.5 million shares for a total approximate cost of $710.0 million (an average price of $109.85 per share) during the first quarter of fiscal 2023 and 83.8 million shares for a total approximate cost of $9.4 billion (an average price of $111.82 per share) during the term of the program. Upon termination of the four-year, $15 billion program, we began purchasing shares under the new four-year, $18 billion share repurchase plan authorized by the Board of Directors in June 2022. As of August 31, 2022, we had repurchased 2.5 million shares at a cost of approximately $281.1 million (an average price of $112.48 per share) under this new program. We continue to expect funding of share repurchases will come from operating cash flows and excess cash. The timing and the amount of share repurchases will be dictated by our capital needs and stock market conditions.

CAPITAL RESOURCES

On July 21, 2022, we filed a shelf registration statement (the "Shelf") with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) which permits us to issue an unlimited amount of debt securities from time to time. The Shelf expires on July 21, 2025.

As of August 31, 2022, our committed credit facilities were unchanged from the information previously reported on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022. We currently have long-term debt ratings of AA- and A1 from Standard and Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investor Services, respectively. Any changes to these ratings could result in interest rate and facility fee changes. As of August 31, 2022, we were in full compliance with the covenants under our facilities and believe it is unlikely we will fail to meet any of the covenants in the foreseeable future. As of August 31, 2022 and May 31, 2022, no amounts were outstanding under our committed credit facilities.

Liquidity was also provided by our $3 billion commercial paper program. As of and for the three months ended August 31, 2022, we did not have any borrowings outstanding under our $3 billion program. We may issue commercial paper or other debt securities depending on general corporate needs. We currently have short-term debt ratings of A1+ and P1 from Standard and Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investor Services, respectively.

To date, in fiscal 2023, we have not experienced difficulty accessing the credit markets; however, future volatility in the capital markets may increase costs associated with issuing commercial paper or other debt instruments or affect our ability to access those markets.

As of August 31, 2022, we had cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments totaling $11.9 billion, primarily consisting of commercial paper, corporate notes, deposits held at major banks, money market funds, U.S. Treasury obligations and other investment grade fixed-income securities. Our fixed-income investments are exposed to both credit and interest rate risk. All of our investments are investment grade to minimize our credit risk. While individual securities have varying durations, as of August 31, 2022, the weighted average days to maturity of our cash equivalents and short-term investments portfolio was 136 days.

We believe that existing cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments and cash generated by operations, together with access to external sources of funds as described above, will be sufficient to meet our domestic and foreign capital needs in the foreseeable future.

There have been no significant changes to the material cash requirements reported in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

As of August 31, 2022, we did not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have, or are reasonably likely to have, a material effect on our current or future financial condition, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

There have been no material changes in recently issued or adopted accounting standards from those disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

Our discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations are based upon our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities.

We believe the assumptions and judgments involved in the accounting estimates described in the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" section of our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K have the greatest potential impact on our financial statements, so we consider these to be our critical accounting estimates. Actual results could differ from these estimates. We are not currently aware of any reasonably likely events or circumstances that would result in materially different amounts being reported.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

There have been no material changes from the information previously reported under Part II, Item 7A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in our Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("the Exchange Act") reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow for timely decisions regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management is required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

We carry out a variety of ongoing procedures, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, to evaluate the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures. Based on the foregoing, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level as of August 31, 2022.

We are continuing several transformation initiatives to centralize and simplify our business processes and systems. These are long-term initiatives, which we believe will enhance our internal control over financial reporting due to increased automation and further integration of related processes. We will continue to monitor our internal control over financial reporting for effectiveness throughout these transformation initiatives.

There have not been any changes in our internal control over financial reporting during our most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS AND ANALYST REPORTS

Certain written and oral statements, other than purely historic information, including estimates, projections, statements relating to NIKE's business plans, objectives and expected operating or financial results and the assumptions upon which those statements are based, made or incorporated by reference from time to time by NIKE or its representatives in this report, other reports, filings with the SEC, press releases, conferences or otherwise, are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements include, without limitation, any statement that may predict, forecast, indicate or imply future results, performance or achievements, and may contain the words "believe," "anticipate," "expect," "estimate," "project," "will be," "will continue," "will likely result" or words or phrases of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties which may cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. The risks and uncertainties are detailed from time to time in reports filed by NIKE with the SEC, including reports filed on Forms 8-K, 10-Q and 10-K, and include, among others, the following: health epidemics, pandemics and similar outbreaks, including the COVID-19 pandemic; international, national and local political, civil, economic and market conditions; the size and growth of the overall athletic or leisure footwear, apparel and equipment markets; intense competition among designers, marketers, distributors and sellers of athletic or leisure footwear, apparel and equipment for consumers and endorsers; demographic changes; changes in consumer preferences; popularity of particular designs, categories of products and sports; seasonal and geographic demand for NIKE products; difficulties in anticipating or forecasting changes in consumer preferences, consumer demand for NIKE products and the various market factors described above; our ability to execute on our sustainability strategy and achieve our sustainability-related goals and targets, including sustainable product offerings; difficulties in implementing, operating and maintaining NIKE's increasingly complex information technology systems and controls, including, without limitation, the systems related to demand and supply planning and inventory control; interruptions in data and information technology systems; consumer data security; fluctuations and difficulty in forecasting operating results, including, without limitation, the fact that advance orders may not be indicative of future revenues due to changes in shipment timing, the changing mix of orders with shorter lead times, and discounts, order cancellations and returns; the ability of NIKE to sustain, manage or forecast its growth and inventories; the size, timing and mix of purchases of NIKE's products; increases in the cost of materials, labor and energy used to manufacture products; new product development and introduction; the ability to secure and protect trademarks, patents and other intellectual property; product performance and quality; customer service; adverse publicity and an inability to maintain NIKE's reputation and brand image, including without limitation, through social media or in connection with brand damaging events; the loss of significant customers or suppliers; dependence on distributors and licensees; business disruptions; increased costs of freight and transportation to meet delivery deadlines; increases in borrowing costs due to any decline in NIKE's debt ratings; changes in business strategy or development plans; general risks associated with doing business outside of the United States, including, without limitation, exchange rate fluctuations, inflation, import duties, tariffs, quotas, sanctions, political and economic instability, conflicts and terrorism; the potential impact of new and existing laws, regulations or policy, including, without limitation, tariffs, import/export, trade, wage and hour or labor and immigration regulations or policies; changes in government regulations; the impact of, including business and legal developments relating to, climate change, extreme weather conditions and natural disasters; litigation, regulatory proceedings, sanctions or any other claims asserted against NIKE; the ability to attract and retain qualified employees, and any negative public perception with respect to key personnel or our corporate culture, values or purpose; the effects of NIKE's decision to invest in or divest of businesses or capabilities and other factors referenced or incorporated by reference in this report and other reports.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

There have been no material developments with respect to the information previously reported under Part I, Item 3 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

There have been no material changes in our risk factors from those disclosed in Part I, Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022.

ITEM 2. UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

In August 2022, the Company terminated the previous four-year, $15 billion share repurchase program approved by the Board of Directors in June 2018. Prior to the program's termination, the Company purchased 6.5 million shares at an average price of $109.85 per share for a total approximate cost of $710.0 million during the first quarter of fiscal 2023 and 83.8 million shares at an average price of $111.82 per share for a total approximate cost of $9.4 billion during the term of this program.

Upon termination of the $15 billion program, the Company began purchasing shares under a new four-year, $18 billion share repurchase program authorized by the Board of Directors in June 2022. As of August 31, 2022, the Company had repurchased 2.5 million shares at an average price of $112.48 per share for a total approximate cost of $281.1 million under the new program.

All share repurchases were made under NIKE's publicly announced programs, and there are no other programs under which the Company repurchases shares. The following table presents a summary of share repurchases made during the quarter ended August 31, 2022:

PERIOD	TOTAL NUMBER OF SHARES PURCHASED	AVERAGE PRICE PAID PER SHARE	APPROXIMATE DOLLAR VALUE OF SHARES THAT MAY YET BE PURCHASED UNDER THE PLANS OR PROGRAMS (IN MILLIONS)
June 1 - June 30, 2022	2,947,270	$ 112.23	6,006
July 1 - July 31, 2022	2,961,287	$ 106.71	5,690
August 1 - August 31, 2022	3,053,679	$ 112.75	17,719

 - b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
 - c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and
 - d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and
5. The registrant's other certifying officer and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):
 - a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and
 - b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.

Pursuant to Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002

I, Matthew Friend, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended August 31, 2022 of NIKE, Inc.;
2. Based on my knowledge, this report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report;
3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this report;
4. The registrant's other certifying officer and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) and internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) for the registrant and have:
 - a) Designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused such disclosure controls and procedures to be designed under our supervision, to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this report is being prepared;
 - b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
 - c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and
 - d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and
5. The registrant's other certifying officer and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):
 - a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and
