On the Effective Date, Lumen, as borrower, Bank of America, N.A. ("BofA"), as administrative agent and collateral agent, and the subsidiaries of Lumen, lenders and issuing banks party thereto entered into an amendment agreement (the "Amendment Agreement") to that certain Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of January 31, 2020, among Lumen, the lenders and issuing banks party thereto and BofA, as administrative agent, collateral agent and swingline lender (as amended or otherwise modified prior to the date of the Amendment Agreement, the "Existing Lumen Credit Agreement" and, as amended, the "Amended Lumen Credit Agreement").

Among other things, the Amendment Agreement (i) removed certain representations and warranties, covenants and events of default, (ii) amended the Collateral Agreement, dated as of November 1, 2017, among the subsidiaries of Lumen party thereto and BofA, as collateral agent, (iii) provided certain waivers and releases, (iv) provided for certain consents thereunder and (v) subordinated the liens securing the obligations outstanding under the Amended Lumen Credit Agreement to the liens securing the obligations outstanding under the SP Debt (as defined below).

On the Effective Date, Lumen, certain subsidiaries of Lumen party thereto and Computershare Trust Company, N.A., as trustee and notes collateral agent, entered into a second supplemental indenture to the indenture, dated as of January 24, 2020, governing Lumen's 4.000% senior secured notes due 2027 (the "Existing Lumen Notes"), that, among other things, (i) eliminated substantially all of the restrictive covenants and certain events of default and (ii) released the guarantees of the Existing Lumen Notes and the security interests in the collateral securing such notes (the "Lumen Supplemental Indenture").

The foregoing summary of the Lumen Supplemental Indenture does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Lumen Supplemental Indenture, which is filed as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Superpriority Revolving/Term A Credit Agreement

On the Effective Date, Lumen, as borrower, the lenders party thereto and BofA, as administrative agent and collateral agent, entered into the Superpriority Revolving/Term A Credit Agreement (the "RCF/TLA Credit Agreement") providing for (i) a superpriority "first out" series A revolving credit facility with commitments of approximately $489 million (the "SP RCF-A"), (ii) a superpriority "second out" series B revolving credit facility with commitments of approximately $467 million (the "SP RCF-B", and together with the SP RCF-A, the "SP RCF") and (iii) a superpriority secured term loan facility in the amount of approximately $377 million (the "SP TLA").

Lumen's obligations under the RCF/TLA Credit Agreement are unsecured, but certain of Lumen's subsidiaries have provided or, in certain cases after receiving necessary regulatory approvals, will provide an unconditional guarantee of payment of Lumen's obligations (such entities, the "Lumen Guarantors") and certain of such guarantees will be secured by a lien on substantially all of the assets of the applicable Lumen Guarantors. Level 3 Parent, LLC ("Level 3 Parent"), Level 3 and certain of Level 3's subsidiaries have provided or, in certain cases after receiving necessary regulatory approvals, will provide an unconditional guarantee of payment of Lumen's obligations under the SP RCF-A of up to $150 million and under the SP RCF-B of up to $150 million, in each case secured by a lien on substantially all of their assets (such entities, the "Level 3 Collateral Guarantors"). The guarantee by the Level 3 Collateral Guarantors may be reduced or terminated under certain circumstances. Qwest and certain of its subsidiaries will provide an unsecured guarantee of collection of Lumen's obligations under the SP RCF and SP TLA (the "Qwest Guarantors").

Borrowings under the SP RCF bear interest at a rate equal to, at Lumen's option, (i) for the SP RCF-A, term SOFR (subject to a 2.00% floor) plus 4.00% for term SOFR loans or a base rate plus 3.00% for base rate loans and (ii) for the SP RCF-B, term SOFR (subject to a 2.00% floor) plus 6.00% for term SOFR loans or a base rate plus 5.00% for base rate loans. Interest is payable at the end of each interest period. Lumen may prepay amounts outstanding under the SP RCF-B at any time without premium or penalty. Lumen may prepay amounts outstanding under the SP RCF-A without premium or penalty, but only if no amounts are outstanding under the SP RCF-B. The SP RCF-A and SP RCF-B mature on June 1, 2028 (in each case subject to a springing maturity in certain circumstances).

Borrowings under the SP TLA bear interest at a rate equal to, at Lumen's option, term SOFR (subject to a 2.00% floor) plus 6.00% for term SOFR loans or a base rate plus 5.00% for base rate loans. Interest is payable at the end of each applicable interest period. Lumen may prepay amounts outstanding under the SP TLA at any time without premium or penalty. The SP TLA matures on June 1, 2028 and amortizes in quarterly installments of 1.25% of the initial principal amount.

Under the RCF/TLA Credit Agreement and commencing with the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2024, Lumen may not permit (i) its maximum total net leverage ratio to exceed 5.75 to 1.00 as of the last day of each fiscal quarter, stepping down to 5.50 to 1.00 with respect to each fiscal quarter ending after December 31, 2024 and stepping down to 5.25 to 1.00 with respect to each fiscal quarter ending after December 31, 2025 or (ii) its interest coverage ratio as of the last day of any test period to be less than 2.00 to 1.00.

The RCF/TLA Credit Agreement contains certain customary affirmative and negative covenants, representations and warranties and events of default (subject, in certain cases, to customary grace and cure periods). If an event of default occurs, the lenders may, among other actions, accelerate the outstanding loans.

In connection with entry into the Amended Lumen Credit Agreement and RCF/TLA Credit Agreement, the (i) revolving commitments outstanding under the Existing Lumen Credit Agreement were permanently reduced to zero and terminated, (ii) all term A/A-1 loans outstanding under the Existing Lumen Credit Agreement were prepaid in full and (iii) the outstanding balance of the term B loans under the Existing Lumen Credit Agreement was reduced to approximately $57 million.

The foregoing summary of the RCF/TLA Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the RCF/TLA Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Superpriority Term B Credit Agreement

On the Effective Date, Lumen, as borrower, the lenders party thereto, Wilmington Trust, National Association ("WTNA"), as administrative agent, and BofA, as collateral agent, entered into a Superpriority Term B Credit Agreement (the "TLB Credit Agreement" and, together with the RCF/TLA Credit Agreement, the "SP Credit Agreements"), providing for (i) a superpriority secured term loan facility in a principal amount of approximately $1.6 billion (the "SP TLB-1") and (ii) a superpriority secured term loan facility in a principal amount of approximately $1.6 billion (the "SP TLB-2", and together with the SP TLB-1, the "SP TLB").

Lumen's obligations under the TLB Credit Agreement are unsecured. The SP TLB is guaranteed by the Lumen Guarantors and the Qwest Guarantors on the same basis as those entities guarantee Lumen's obligations under the RCF/TLA Credit Agreement. The Level 3 Collateral Guarantors do not guarantee Lumen's obligations under the TLB Credit Agreement.

Borrowings under the SP TLB bear interest at a rate equal to, at Lumen's option, adjusted term SOFR (subject to a 0% floor) plus 2.35% for term SOFR loans or a base rate plus 1.35% for base rate loans. Interest is payable at the end of each applicable interest period. The SP TLB amortizes in quarterly installments of 0.25% of the initial principal amount. Amounts outstanding under the SP TLB may be prepaid at any time without premium or penalty. The SP TLB-1 and SP TLB-2 mature on April 15, 2029 and April 15, 2030, respectively.

The TLB Credit Agreement contains certain customary affirmative and negative covenants, representations and warranties and events of default (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods). If an event of default occurs, the lenders may, among other actions, accelerate the outstanding loans.

The foregoing summary of the TLB Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the TLB Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Superpriority Secured Notes

On the Effective Date and in exchange for certain of its existing 4.000% senior secured notes due 2027, Lumen issued:

(i) 4.125% superpriority senior secured notes due 2029 in the principal amount of approximately $332 million pursuant to an indenture, dated as of the Effective Date, among Lumen, as issuer, the Lumen Guarantors, the Qwest Guarantors, WTNA, as trustee, and BofA, as collateral agent (the "2029 SPN Indenture" and the notes issued thereunder, the "2029 SPNs"); and

(ii) 4.125% superpriority senior secured notes due 2030 in the principal amount of approximately $479 million pursuant to an indenture, dated as of the Effective Date, among Lumen, as issuer, the Lumen Guarantors, the Qwest Guarantors, WTNA, as trustee, and BofA, as collateral agent (the "2030 SPN Indenture", the notes issued thereunder, the "2030 SPNs" and, together with the 2029 SPNs, the "Lumen SPNs", and, together with the SP RCF, SP TLA and SP TLB, the "SP Debt").

Interest is payable on the Lumen SPNs semiannually on February 15 and August 15 of each year, with record dates of February 1 and August 1, respectively. The 2029 SPNs and 2030 SPNs mature on April 15, 2029 and April 15, 2030, respectively.

Lumen's obligations under the Lumen SPNs are unsecured. The Lumen SPNs are guaranteed by the Lumen Guarantors and the Qwest Guarantors on the same basis as those entities guarantee Lumen's obligations under the RCF/TLA Credit Agreement. The Level 3 Collateral Guarantors do not guarantee the Lumen SPNs.

At any time or from time to time prior to February 15, 2025, Lumen may, at its option, redeem all or a portion of the Lumen SPNs, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice, at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the notes so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest (if any) to, but not including, the redemption date. At any time or from time to time on or after February 15, 2025, Lumen may, at its option, redeem all or a portion of the Lumen SPNs, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest (if any) to, but not including, the redemption date. Upon certain change of control events, Lumen must repurchase the Lumen SPNs at a price of 101% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, at the request of the holder.

The 2029 SPN Indenture and 2030 SPN Indenture each contain certain customary negative covenants and events of default (subject, in certain cases, to customary grace and cure periods). The occurrence of an event of default under either indenture could result in the acceleration of the relevant Lumen SPNs. The issuances of the Lumen SPNs were exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

After giving effect to the exchange and cancellation related thereto, there remained approximately $232 million in aggregate principal amount of Existing Lumen Notes outstanding. The foregoing summary of Lumen SPNs, the 2029 SPN Indenture and the 2030 SPN Indenture does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of the 2029 SPNs, the 2029 SPN Indenture, the form of the 2030 SPNs and the 2030 SPN Indenture, which are filed as Exhibits 4.2 through 4.5 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Among other things, the 3.400% Level 3 Supplemental Indenture and 3.875% Level 3 Supplemental Indenture (i) eliminated substantially all of the restrictive covenants, certain events of default and the related provisions therein with respect to each relevant indenture and (ii) released the guarantees of such notes and the security interests in the collateral securing such notes.

On the Effective Date, Level 3, Level 3 Parent, certain subsidiaries of Level 3 party thereto and the Existing Level 3 Trustee entered into a third supplemental indenture to the indenture, dated as of March 31, 2023, governing the 10.500% senior secured notes due 2030, that, among other things, amended the restrictive covenants to be consistent with the restrictive covenants under the New First Lien Notes (as defined below) (the "10.500% Level 3 Supplemental Indenture" and, together with the 3.400% Level 3 Supplemental Indenture and 3.875% Level 3 Supplemental Indenture, the "Secured Supplemental Indentures").

On the Effective Date, Level 3, as borrower, Level 3 Parent, the lenders party thereto and WTNA, as administrative agent and collateral agent, entered into a Credit Agreement (the "New Level 3 Credit Agreement"), providing for (i) a secured term B-1 loan facility in the principal amount of approximately $1.2 billion (the "TLB-1") and (ii) a secured term B-2 loan facility in the amount of approximately $1.2 billion (the "TLB-2" and, together with the TLB-1, the "Level 3 TLB").

Level 3's obligations under the New Level 3 Credit Agreement are secured by a first lien on substantially all of its assets (subject, in certain cases, to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals). In addition, the other Level 3 Collateral Guarantors have or, in certain cases after receiving necessary regulatory approvals, will provide an unconditional guarantee of payment of Level 3's obligations under the New Level 3 Credit Agreement secured by a lien on substantially all of their assets. None of Lumen, the Lumen Guarantors or the Qwest Guarantors guarantee Level 3's obligations under the New Level 3 Credit Agreement.

Borrowings under the New Level 3 Credit Agreement bear interest at a rate equal to, at Level 3's option, term SOFR (subject to a 2.00% floor) plus 6.56% for term SOFR loans or a base rate plus 5.56% for base rate loans. Interest is payable at the end of each applicable interest period. The New Level 3 Credit Agreement contains certain customary affirmative and negative covenants, representations and warranties and events of default (subject, in certain cases, to customary grace and cure periods). If an event of default occurs, the lenders may, among other actions, accelerate the outstanding loans.

In connection with entry into the Amended Level 3 Credit Agreement and New Level 3 Credit Agreement, the outstanding balance of the term B loans under the Existing Level 3 Credit Agreement was reduced to approximately $12 million.

The foregoing summary of the New Level 3 Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the New Level 3 Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.5 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

The New Money Notes mature on November 15, 2029, the 2029 Exchange Notes mature on April 15, 2029 and the 2030 Exchange Notes mature on December 15, 2030.

Interest on the New Money Notes and the 2030 Exchange Notes is payable semiannually on May 15 and November 15 of each year, with record dates of May 1 and November 1, respectively. Interest on the 2029 Exchange Notes is payable semiannually on March 1 and September 1 of each year, with record dates of February 15 and August 15, respectively.

Level 3's obligations under the New First Lien Notes are secured by a first lien on substantially all of its assets (subject, in certain cases, to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals). Level 3's obligations under the New First Lien Notes are guaranteed by the other Level 3 Collateral Guarantors on the same basis as the guarantees provided by such entities under the New Level 3 Credit Agreement. Subject to obtaining all required regulatory approvals, additional Level 3 subsidiaries will become Level 3 Collateral Guarantors of the New First Lien Notes on the same basis as they will guarantee Level 3's obligations under the New Level 3 Credit Agreement. None of Lumen, the Lumen Guarantors or the Qwest Guarantors guarantee Level 3's obligations under the New First Lien Notes.

At any time prior to March 22, 2027 for each series of New First Lien Notes, Level 3 may redeem, in whole or from time to time in part, an applicable series of New First Lien Notes at a redemption price equal to the sum of (A) 100.0% of the principal amount of the notes redeemed, plus (B) a make-whole premium as of the date of the redemption, plus (C) accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the date of the redemption. Upon certain change of control events, Level 3 must repurchase the New First Lien Notes at a price of 101% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, at the request of the holder.

The New First Lien Indentures contain certain customary negative covenants and events of default (subject, in certain cases, to customary grace and cure periods). The occurrence of an event of default under each indenture could result in the acceleration of the relevant notes. The New Money Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and have been issued only to qualified institutional buyers ("QIBs") pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act, and to persons outside the United States who are not "U.S. persons," as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act. The issuances of the 2029 Exchange Notes and the 2030 Exchanges Notes were exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

Interest on the 4.875% 2L Notes is payable semiannually on March 15 and September 15 of each year, with record dates of March 1 and September 1, respectively. Interest on the 4.500% 2L Notes is payable semiannually on January 1 and July 1 of each year, with record dates of December 15 and June 15, respectively. Interest on the 3.875% 2L Notes is payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 of each year, with record dates of June 1 and December 1, respectively. Interest on the 4.000% 2L Notes is payable semiannually on January 15 and July 15 of each year, with record dates of January 1 and July 1, respectively.

Level 3's obligations under the New Second Lien Notes are secured by a second lien on substantially all of its assets (subject, in certain cases, to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals). Level 3's obligations under the New Second Lien Notes are guaranteed by the other Level 3 Collateral Guarantors on the same basis as the guarantees provided by such entities under the New Level 3 Credit Agreement, except the lien securing such guarantees is a second lien. Subject to obtaining all required regulatory approvals, additional Level 3 subsidiaries will become Level 3 Collateral Guarantors of the New Second Lien Notes on the same basis as those entities will guarantee Level 3's obligations of the New First Lien Notes. None of Lumen, the Lumen Guarantors or the Qwest Guarantors guarantee Level 3's obligations under the New Second Lien Notes.

At any time prior to March 22, 2025 for each series of New Second Lien Notes, Level 3 may redeem, in whole or from time to time in part, an applicable series of New Second Lien Notes at a redemption price equal to the sum of (A) 100.0% of the principal amount of the notes redeemed, plus (B) a make-whole premium as of the date of the redemption, plus (C) accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the date of the redemption. On or after March 22, 2025, Level 3 may redeem, in whole or from time to time in part, an applicable series of New Second Lien Notes at a redemption price as set forth in such series of New Second Lien Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the date of redemption. Upon certain change of control events, Level 3 must repurchase the New Second Lien Notes at a price of 101% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, at the request of the holder.

The New Second Lien Indentures contain certain customary negative covenants and events of default (subject, in certain cases, to customary grace and cure periods). The occurrence of an event of default under each indenture could result in the acceleration of the relevant notes. The issuances of the New Second Lien Notes were exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

After giving effect to the exchange and cancellation related thereto, there remained approximately $394 million in aggregate principal amount of 4.625% Notes outstanding, $488 million in aggregate principal amount of 4.250% Notes outstanding, $382 million in aggregate principal amount of 3.625% Notes outstanding and $448 million in aggregate principal amount of 3.750% Notes outstanding.

The foregoing summary of the New Second Lien Notes and New Second Lien Indentures does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the relevant form of note and indenture, which are filed as Exhibits 4.19 through 4.26 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

EACH HOLDER BY ACCEPTANCE OF THE NOTES, EACH OF THE ISSUER, EACH GUARANTOR, THE TRUSTEE AND THE COLLATERAL AGENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS INDENTURE, THE NOTES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 1.21. Force Majeure.

In no event shall the Trustee or Collateral Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority, strikes, riots, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, sabotage, pandemics or epidemics, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility; it being understood that the Trustee or Collateral Agent shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

Section 1.22. FATCA.

In order to assist the Trustee with its compliance with Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code and the rules and regulations thereunder (as in effect from time to time, collectively, the "Applicable Law") the Issuer agrees (i) to provide to the Trustee reasonably available information collected and stored in the Issuer's ordinary course of business regarding holders of Notes (solely in their capacity as such) and which is necessary for the Trustee's determination of whether it has tax related obligations under Applicable Law and (ii) that the Trustee shall be entitled to make any withholding or deduction from payments under this Indenture to the extent necessary to comply with Applicable Law. Nothing in the immediately preceding sentence shall be construed as obligating the Issuer to make any "gross up" payment or similar reimbursement in connection with a payment in respect of which amounts are so withheld or deducted.

Section 1.23. Submission to Jurisdiction.

The parties and each Holder (by its acceptance of the Notes) irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Indenture. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the parties irrevocably waive and agree not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, any claim that it is not subject to the jurisdiction of any such court, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

Section 1.25. PATRIOT Act.

The parties hereto acknowledge that in accordance with the Customer Identification Program (CIP) requirements under the USA PATRIOT Act and its implementing regulations, the Trustee and Collateral Agent in order to help fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering, is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or legal entity that establishes a relationship or opens an account with the Trustee and Collateral Agent. The parties hereby agree that they shall provide the Trustee and the Collateral Agent with such information as it may request including, but not limited to, each party's name, physical address, Tax identification number and other information that will help the Trustee and Collateral Agent identify and verify each party's identity such as organizational documents, certificate of good standing, license to do business, or other pertinent identifying information.

Section 1.26. Electronic Signatures.

For the avoidance of doubt, for all purposes of this Indenture and any document to be signed or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Indenture (except where a manual signature is expressly required by the terms of this Indenture), the words "execution," "execute," "signed," "signature," "delivery," and words of like import used in or related to any document signed in connection with this Indenture, any Note or any of the transactions contemplated hereby (including amendments, waivers, consents and other modifications) shall be deemed to include electronic signatures, deliveries or the keeping of records in electronic form, as the case may be, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the fullest extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, and any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act and the parties hereto consent to conduct the transactions contemplated hereunder by electronic means provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Trustee is not under any obligation to agree to accept electronic signatures in any form or in any format unless expressly agreed to by the Trustee pursuant to procedures approved by the Trustee. The exchange of copies of this Indenture and of signature pages by facsimile or PDF transmissions shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Indenture as to the parties hereto and may be used in lieu of the original Indenture for all purposes. Signatures of the parties hereto transmitted by facsimile or PDF shall be deemed to be their original signatures for all purposes.

ARTICLE NOTE FORMS

Section 2.01. Form and Dating.

The Issuer shall be permitted to issue Definitive Securities from time to time. Provisions relating to the Notes are set forth in Appendix A, which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Indenture. The Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit 1 to Appendix A which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Indenture. The Notes may have notations, legends or endorsements required by law, stock exchange rule, agreements to which the Issuer is subject, if any, or usage, provided that any such notation, legend or endorsement is in a form reasonably acceptable to the Issuer. Each Note shall be dated the date of its authentication. The terms of the Notes set forth in Exhibit 1 to Appendix A are part of the terms of this Indenture.

Subject to complying with the rules of any securities exchange or system on which the Notes may be listed or eligible for trading, the Definitive Notes shall be printed or produced in such manner as determined by the officers of the Issuer executing such Notes, as evidenced by their execution of such Notes.

THE NOTES

Section 3.01. Amount of Notes. Subject to Section 3.02, the Trustee shall authenticate Notes for original issue on the Issue Date in the aggregate principal amount of $332,449,400 (the "Original Notes").

The Issuer shall be entitled, subject to its compliance with the covenants set forth in this Indenture, including Sections 9.09 and 9.10, to issue Additional Notes under this Indenture which shall have identical terms as the Original Notes, other than with respect to the date of issuance, issue price and, if applicable, the payment of interest accruing prior to the issue date of such Additional Notes and the first payment of interest following the issue date of such Additional Notes (and such changes as are customary to permit escrow arrangements, if any, in connection with the issuance of such Additional Notes); provided that a separate CUSIP or ISIN shall be issued for any Additional Notes if the Additional Notes are not fungible for U.S. federal income tax purposes with the Original Notes. The Original Notes, any Additional Notes issued pursuant to this paragraph, and any Additional Notes issued in exchange therefor shall be treated as a single class for all purposes under this Indenture.

With respect to the Additional Notes, the Issuer shall set forth in a Board Resolution and an Officer's Certificate, a copy of each of which shall be delivered to the Trustee, the following information:

(a) the aggregate principal amount of such Additional Notes to be authenticated and delivered pursuant to this Indenture;

(b) the issue price, the issue date and the CUSIP number of such Additional Notes; and

(c) whether such Additional Notes shall be Transfer Restricted Notes and issued in the form of Notes as set forth in Appendix A to this Indenture.

Section 3.02. Execution and Authentication. Two officers shall sign the Notes for the Issuer by manual, electronic or facsimile signature.

If an officer whose signature is on a Note no longer holds that office at the time the Trustee authenticates the Note, the Note shall be valid nevertheless.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer may deliver Notes executed by the Issuer to the Trustee for authentication, together with an Issuer Order for the authentication and delivery of such Notes, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel and the Trustee in accordance with such written order of the Issuer shall authenticate and deliver such Notes.

A Note shall not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee manually signs the certificate of authentication on the Note. The signature shall be conclusive evidence that the Note has been authenticated under this Indenture.

The Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent reasonably acceptable to the Issuer to authenticate the Notes. Unless limited by the terms of such appointment, an authenticating agent may authenticate Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by such agent. An authenticating agent has the same rights as any Note Registrar, Paying Agent or agent for service of notices and demands.

Section 3.03. Note Registrar and Paying Agent. The Issuer shall maintain an office or agency where Notes may be presented for registration of transfer or for exchange (the "Note Registrar") and an office or agency where Notes may be presented for payment to the Paying Agent. The Note Registrar shall keep a register of the Notes and of their transfer and exchange (the register maintained in the office of the Note Registrar and in any other office or agency designated pursuant to Section 9.02 being herein sometimes referred to as the "Note Register"). The Issuer may have one or more co-registrars and one or more additional paying agents. The term "Paying Agent" includes any additional paying agent.

The Issuer shall enter into an appropriate agency agreement with any Note Registrar, Paying Agent or co-registrar not a party to this Indenture. The agreement shall implement the provisions of this Indenture that relate to such agent. The Issuer shall notify the Trustee of the name and address of any such agent. If the Issuer fails to maintain a Note Registrar or Paying Agent, the Trustee shall act as such and shall be entitled to appropriate compensation therefor pursuant to Section 6.07.

The Issuer initially appoints the Trustee as Note Registrar and Paying Agent in connection with the Notes.

Section 3.04. Paying Agent to Hold Money in Trust. Prior to each due date of the principal and interest on any Note, the Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest when so becoming due. The Issuer shall require each Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to agree in writing that the Paying Agent shall hold in trust for the benefit of Holders or the Trustee all money held by the Paying Agent for the payment of principal of or interest on the Notes and shall notify the Trustee of any default by the Issuer in making any such payment. If the Issuer or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary acts as Paying Agent, it shall segregate the money held by it as Paying Agent and hold it as a separate trust fund. The Issuer at any time may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee and to account for any funds disbursed by the Paying Agent. Upon complying with this Section, the Paying Agent shall have no further liability for the money delivered to the Trustee.

Section 3.05. Holders Lists. The Trustee shall preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of Holders. If the Trustee is not the Note Registrar, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, in writing at least five Business Days before each Interest Payment Date and at such other times as the Trustee may reasonably request in writing, a list in such form and as of such date as the Trustee may reasonably require of the names and addresses of Holders.

Section 3.06. Replacement Notes. If a mutilated Note is surrendered to the Note Registrar or if the Holder of a Note claims that such Note has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Issuer shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a replacement Note if the requirements of Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code are met and the Holder satisfies any other reasonable requirements of the Trustee. Such Holder shall furnish an indemnity bond sufficient in the judgment of the Issuer to protect the Issuer and in the judgment of the Trustee to protect the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Note Registrar and any co-registrar from any loss which any of them may suffer if a Note is replaced. The Issuer and the Trustee may charge the Holder for their expenses in replacing a Note.

Every replacement Note is an additional obligation of the Issuer.

Section 3.07. Temporary Notes. Until Definitive Notes are ready for delivery, the Issuer may prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate temporary Notes. Temporary Notes shall be substantially in the form of Definitive Notes but may have variations that the Issuer considers appropriate for temporary Notes. Without unreasonable delay, the Issuer shall prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate Definitive Notes and deliver them in exchange for temporary Notes.

Section 3.08. Cancellation. The Issuer at any time may deliver Notes to the Trustee for cancellation. The Note Registrar and the Paying Agent shall forward to the Trustee any Notes surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Trustee and no one else shall cancel and dispose of in accordance with its customary procedures (subject to the record retention requirements of the Exchange Act) all Notes surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment or cancellation. The Issuer shall not issue new Notes to replace Notes it has redeemed, paid or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

Section 3.09. Defaulted Interest. If the Issuer defaults in a payment of interest on the Securities, the Issuer shall pay the defaulted interest (plus interest on such defaulted interest to the extent lawful) in any lawful manner at the rate provided in Section 9.01 hereof. The Issuer may pay the defaulted interest to the persons who are Holders on a subsequent special record date. Thereupon the Issuer shall fix a special record date for the payment of such defaulted interest, which shall not be more than 15 days and not less than 10 days prior to the date of the proposed payment. The Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee in writing of such special record date and the Trustee, in the name and at the expense of the Issuer, shall deliver or cause to be delivered to each Holder a notice that states the special record date, the payment date and the amount of defaulted interest to be paid not less than 10 days prior to such special record date.

Section 3.10. CUSIP Numbers. The Issuer in issuing the Notes may use "CUSIP" numbers (if then generally in use) and, if so, the Trustee shall use "CUSIP" numbers in notices of redemption as a convenience to Holders; provided, however, that neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall have any responsibility for any defect in the "CUSIP" number that appears on any Note, check, advice of payment or redemption notice, and any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness of such numbers either as printed on the Notes or as contained in any notice of a redemption and that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Notes, and any such redemption shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such numbers. The Issuer will promptly notify the Trustee in writing of any change in the "CUSIP" number(s).

On the Issue Date, the Notes shall initially bear the CUSIP and ISIN numbers set forth in the following sentence. The CUSIP and ISIN numbers for the Specified Notes shall be 550241 AF0, US550241AF06 and U54985 AD5 and USU54985AD53, 550241 AG8 and US550241AG88, respectively; the CUSIP and ISIN numbers for the Notes other than the Specified Notes shall be 550241 AB9, US550241AB91 and U54985 AB9 and USU54985AB97, 550241 AD5 and US550241AD57, respectively.

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

Section 4.01. Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture.

This Indenture shall cease to be of further effect (subject to Section 11.06 and except as to surviving rights of registration of transfer, transfer, exchange and replacement of Notes expressly provided for herein or pursuant hereto), the Liens, if any, on the Collateral securing the Notes and the Note Guarantees shall be released and the Trustee, at the request and expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture and release of such Liens, in each case, when

(a) either

(i) all Outstanding Notes have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation

(A) have become due and payable, or

(B) will become due and payable within one year, or

(C) are to be called for redemption within one year under irrevocable arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee in its reasonable discretion for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer, and the Issuer, in the case of (A), (B) or (C) above, has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee funds in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal of (and premium, if any, on), and interest on, the Notes to Maturity or the Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable by the Issuer hereunder; and

(c) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, the obligations under Sections 6.07 and 6.09 and, if money shall have been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to clause (a)(ii) of this Section 4.01, the obligations of the Trustee under Section 4.02 and the last paragraph of Section 9.03 shall survive such satisfaction and discharge.

Section 4.02. Application of Trust Money.

Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 9.03, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 4.01 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as its own Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the persons entitled thereto, of the principal (and premium, if any) and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

REMEDIES

Section 5.01. Events of Default.

"Event of Default", wherever used herein, means any one of the following events (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body):

(a) failure to pay principal of (or premium, if any, on) any Note when due; or

(b) failure to pay any interest on any Note when due, continued for 30 days; or

(c) default in the payment of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on Notes required to be purchased pursuant to an Offer to Purchase pursuant to Sections 9.10(b) and 9.17 when due and payable; or

(d) failure to perform or comply with the provisions of Article 7; or

(e) failure to perform any covenant or agreement of the Issuer or any Guarantor in this Indenture or in any Note (other than a covenant a default in whose performance is elsewhere in this Section specifically dealt with) continued for 90 days after written notice to the Issuer by the Trustee or Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, which notice shall specify the default and state that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder; or

(f) any event or condition occurs that results in any Material Indebtedness becoming due prior to its scheduled maturity or failing to be paid at its scheduled maturity; provided, that this clause (f) shall not apply to any secured Indebtedness that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Indebtedness if (x) such sale or transfer is permitted hereunder and under the documents providing for such Indebtedness and (y) repayments are made as required by the terms of the respective Indebtedness; or

(g) the failure by the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary to pay one or more final judgments aggregating in excess of $75,000,000, which judgments are not discharged or effectively waived or stayed for a period of 45 consecutive days, or any action shall be legally taken by a judgment creditor to attach or levy upon assets or properties of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary to enforce any such judgment; or

(h) any Note Guarantee of any Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms of such Note Guarantee) or any such Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary denies or disaffirms in writing its obligations under its Note Guarantee; or

(i) an involuntary proceeding shall be commenced or an involuntary petition shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries, or of a substantial part of the property or assets of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or any other Debtor Relief Law, (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, examiner, liquidator or similar official for the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or (iii) the winding-up, liquidation, reorganization, dissolution, compromise, arrangement or other relief of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary (except in a transaction permitted hereunder); and such proceeding or petition shall continue undismissed for 60 days or an order or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered; or

(j) the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary shall (i) voluntarily commence any proceeding or file any petition seeking relief under the Bankruptcy Code, as now constituted or hereafter amended, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or any other Debtor Relief Law, (ii) consent to the institution of, or fail to contest in a timely and appropriate manner, any proceeding or the filing of any petition described in clause (i) above, (iii) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, examiner, liquidator or similar official for the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, (iv) file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding, (v) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or (vi) become unable or fail generally to pay its debts as they become due; or

(k) any security interest purported to be created by any Security Document and to extend to assets that constitute a material portion of the Collateral shall cease to be, or shall be asserted in writing by the Issuer or any Guarantor not to be, a valid and perfected security interest (perfected as or having the priority required by this Indenture or the relevant Security Document and subject to such limitations and restrictions as are set forth herein and therein) in the securities, assets or properties covered thereby, except to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority results from the limitations of foreign laws, rules and regulations as they apply to pledges of Equity Interests in Foreign Subsidiaries or the application thereof, or from failure of the Collateral Agent (or any agent acting as gratuitous bailee thereof) to maintain possession of certificates actually delivered to it representing securities pledged under the Collateral Agreement or to file Uniform Commercial Code continuation statements (so long as such failure does not result from the breach or non-compliance with the Note Documents by the Issuer or any Guarantor).

Any notice of default, notice of acceleration or instruction to the Trustee to provide a notice of default, notice of acceleration or take any other action (a "Noteholder Direction") provided by any one or more holders of the Notes (each a "Directing Holder") shall be accompanied by a written representation from each such holder delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee that such holder is not (or, in the case such holder is DTC or its nominee, that such holder is being instructed solely by beneficial owners that have represented to such holder that they are not) Net Short (a "Position Representation"), which representation, in the case of a Noteholder Direction relating to the delivery of a notice of default shall be deemed a continuing representation until the resulting Event of Default is cured or otherwise ceases to exist or the Notes are accelerated. In addition, each Directing Holder shall be deemed, at the time of providing a Noteholder Direction, to covenant to provide the Issuer with such other information as the Issuer may reasonably request from time to time in order to verify the accuracy of such noteholder's Position Representation within five (5) Business Days of request therefor (a "Verification Covenant"). In any case in which the holder is DTC or its nominee, any Position Representation or Verification Covenant required hereunder shall be provided by the beneficial owner of the Notes in lieu of DTC or its nominee and DTC shall be entitled to conclusively rely on such Position Representation and Verification Covenant in delivering its direction to the Trustee. In no event shall the Trustee have any liability or obligation to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any holder is Net Short and/or whether such holder has delivered any Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certifications under this Indenture or in connection with the Notes or if any such Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certifications comply with this Indenture, the Notes, or any other document. It is understood and agreed that the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively rely on each representation, deemed representation and certification made by, and covenant of, each beneficial owner provided for in this paragraph. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Notes or any other document, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply and survive with respect to each beneficial owner notwithstanding that any such Person may have ceased to be a beneficial owner, this Indenture may have been terminated or the Notes may have been redeemed in full.

If, following the delivery of a Noteholder Direction, but prior to acceleration of the Notes, the Issuer determines in good faith that there is a reasonable basis to believe a Directing Holder was, at any relevant time, in breach of its Position Representation and provides to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that the Issuer has initiated litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking a determination that such Directing Holder was, at such time, in breach of its Position Representation, and seeking to invalidate any default, Event of Default or acceleration (or notice thereof) that resulted from the applicable Noteholder Direction, the cure period with respect to such default shall be automatically stayed and the cure period with respect to such default or Event of Default shall be automatically reinstituted and any remedy stayed pending a final and non-appealable determination of a court of competent jurisdiction on such matter if, without the participation of such holder, the percentage of Notes held by the remaining holders that provided such Noteholder Direction would have been insufficient to validly provide such Noteholder Direction. If, following the delivery of a Noteholder Direction, but prior to acceleration of the Notes, the Issuer provides to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that a Directing Holder failed to satisfy its Verification Covenant, the cure period with respect to such default or Event of Default shall be automatically stayed and the cure period with respect to any default or Event of Default that resulted from the applicable Noteholder Direction shall be automatically reinstituted and any remedy stayed pending satisfaction of such Verification Covenant. Any breach of the Position Representation shall result in such holder's participation in such Noteholder Direction being disregarded; and, if, without the participation of such holder, the percentage of Notes held by the remaining holders that provided such Noteholder Direction would have been insufficient to validly provide such Noteholder Direction, such Noteholder Direction shall be void ab initio (other than any indemnity such Directing Holder may have offered the Trustee), with the effect that such default or Event of Default shall be deemed never to have occurred, acceleration voided and the Trustee shall be deemed not to have received such Noteholder Direction or any notice of such default or Event of Default.

Notwithstanding anything in the preceding two paragraphs to the contrary, any Noteholder Direction delivered to the Trustee during the pendency of an Event of Default as the result of a bankruptcy or similar proceeding shall not require compliance with the foregoing paragraphs (except for any rights or protections of the Trustee).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively rely on any Noteholder Direction, Position Representation, Verification Covenant or Officer's Certificate delivered to it in accordance with this Indenture, shall have no duty to inquire as to or investigate the accuracy of any Position Representation, Noteholder Direction, Verification Covenant or Officer's Certificate, enforce compliance with any Verification Covenant, verify any statements in any Officer's Certificate, Position Representation, Noteholder Direction or Verification Covenant delivered to it, or otherwise make calculations, investigations or determinations with respect to Derivative Instruments, Net Shorts, Long Derivative Instruments, Short Derivative Instruments or otherwise. The Trustee shall have no liability to the Issuer, any holder or any other Person in connection with any Noteholder Direction (or items delivered in connection with any Noteholder Direction) or to determine whether or not any holder has delivered any Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certification or that such Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certification is accurate or conforms with this Indenture or any other agreement.

The term "Bankruptcy Law" means Title 11, United States Code, or any similar Federal or state law for the relief of debtors. The term "Custodian" means any receiver, trustee, assignee, liquidator, custodian or similar official under any Bankruptcy Law.

Section 5.02. Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment.

If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.01(i) or 5.01(j) with respect the Issuer) shall occur and be continuing, either the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may declare the principal amount of all the Notes to be due and payable immediately, by a notice in writing to the Issuer (and to the Trustee if given by Holders), and upon any such declaration such principal amount shall become immediately due and payable; provided that a notice of Default may not be given with respect to any action taken, and reported publicly or to Holders, more than two years prior to such notice of Default.

At any time after a declaration of acceleration has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as hereinafter provided in this Article 5, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may rescind and annul such declaration and its consequence if:

(a) the Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay

(i) all overdue interest on all Outstanding Notes,

(ii) all unpaid principal of (and premium, if any, on) any Outstanding Notes which has become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, and interest on such unpaid principal at the rate borne by the Notes,

(iii) to the extent that payment of such interest is lawful, interest on overdue interest at the rate borne by the Notes, and

(iv) all sums paid or advanced by the Trustee hereunder and the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel; and

(b) all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of amounts of principal of (or premium, if any, on) Notes which have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived as provided in Section 5.13.

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.03. Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee.

The Issuer covenants that if:

(a) Default is made in the payment of any interest on any Note when due, continued for 30 days, or

(b) Default is made in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any, on) any Note when due, the Issuer will, upon demand of the Trustee, pay to the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes the whole amount then due and payable on such Notes for principal (and premium, if any) and interest, and interest on any overdue principal (and premium, if any) and, to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable, upon any overdue installment of interest, at the rate borne by the Notes, and, in addition thereto, such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel.

If the Issuer fails to pay such amounts forthwith upon such demand, the Trustee, in its own name as trustee of an express trust, may institute a judicial proceeding for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid, may prosecute such proceeding to judgment or final decree and may enforce the same against the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes and collect the moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the property of the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes, wherever situated.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders by such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem necessary to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein, or to enforce any other proper remedy.

Section 5.04. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim.

In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes (including any Guarantor) or the property of the Issuer or of such other obligor or their creditors, the Trustee (irrespective of whether the principal of the Notes shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand on the Issuer for the payment of overdue principal, premium, if any, or interest) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise,

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of principal (and premium, if any) and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and to file such other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and its agents and counsel) and of the Holders allowed in such judicial proceeding, and

(b) to collect and receive any moneys or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay the Trustee any amount due it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee hereunder.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to, or accept or adopt on behalf of, any Holder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 5.05. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 5.06. Application of Money Collected.

Subject to the terms of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement and the Collateral Agreement, any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article 5 shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal (or premium, if any) or interest, upon presentation of the Notes and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

FIRST: To the payment of all amounts due the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and/or the Collateral Agent (acting in any capacity hereunder);

SECOND: To the payment of the amounts then due and unpaid for principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes in respect of which or for the benefit of which such money has been collected, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on such Notes for principal (and premium, if any) and interest, respectively; and

THIRD: The balance, if any, to the Issuer or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

Section 5.07. Limitation on Suits.

No Holder of any Notes shall have any right to institute any proceeding with respect to this Indenture or for any other remedy hereunder, unless

(a) such Holder shall have previously given to the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default;

(b) the Holders of not less than 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have made written request and offered indemnity or security satisfactory to the Trustee in its sole discretion to institute such proceeding and the Trustee shall have failed to institute such proceeding within 60 days; and

(c) the Trustee shall not have received from the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes a direction inconsistent with such request;

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders shall have any right in any manner whatsoever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders, or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders.

Section 5.08. Unconditional Right of Holders to Receive Principal, Premium and Interest.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, including Section 5.07, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment as provided herein (including, if applicable, Article 11) and in such Note of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on such Note on the respective Stated Maturities expressed in such Note (or, in the case of redemption, on the Redemption Date) and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder.

Section 5.09. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case, subject to any determination in such proceeding, the Issuer, any Guarantor, the Trustee and the Holders shall be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.10. Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

Except as otherwise provided with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes in Section 3.06, no right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 5.11. Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

Except as otherwise provided in the proviso of the first paragraph of Section 5.02, no delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders, as the case may be.

Section 5.12. Control by Holders.

The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided that

(a) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture, any Intercreditor Agreement or the Collateral Agreement,

(b) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction, and

(c) the Trustee need not take any action which might involve it in personal liability or be unjustly prejudicial to the Holders not consenting.

Section 5.13. Waiver of Past Defaults.

The Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may, on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, waive any past Default hereunder and its consequences, except a Default

(a) in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Note, or

(b) in respect of a covenant or provision hereof which under Article 8 cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected, or

(c) in respect of a covenant which under Article 8 cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holders of two-thirds in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes.

The Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that the requisite Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Securities have consented to such waiver and attaching such consents upon which, subject to Section 1.04, the Trustee may conclusively rely. Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.14. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

The Issuer and each Guarantor covenant (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) that they shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Indenture; and the Issuer and each Guarantor (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law and covenant that they shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

Section 5.15. Undertaking for Costs.

In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as a Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 does not apply to a suit by the Trustee or a suit by Holders of more than 10% in principal amount of the then Outstanding Notes.

THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Certain Duties and Responsibilities. (a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default,

(i) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically and expressly set forth in this Indenture and the Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(ii) The Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; but, in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of any mathematical calculations or other facts stated therein).

(b) In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing of which a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise, as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, its own grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that

(i) this paragraph (c) shall not be construed to limit the effect of paragraph (a) of this Section 6.01;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken, or errors of judgment made, in good faith by it or any of its officers, employees or agents, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it in its sole discretion against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 6.01.

Section 6.02. Notice of Default.

If a Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee shall transmit, electronically or by first class mail to each Holder at the address set forth in the Note Register, notice of such Default within 90 days after written notice of it is received by a Responsible Officer of the Trustee; provided, however, that, except in the case of a Default in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Note, the Trustee shall be protected in withholding such notice if and so long as a trust committee of directors or Responsible Officers of the Trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the interest of the Holders.

The Trustee is not required to take notice or deemed to have notice of any Event of Default with respect to the Notes unless a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge of the Default or Event of Default or a Responsible Officer shall have received written notice at its Corporate Trust Office (which notice shall reference the Notes, the Issuer and this Indenture) of such Default or Event of Default from the Issuer or any Holder.

Section 6.03. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Subject to Section 6.01:

(a) the Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties, not only as to due execution, validity and effectiveness, but also as to the truth and accuracy of any information contained therein;

(b) any request or direction of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Issuer Request or Issuer Order and any resolution of the Board of Directors may be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Trustee may require and rely upon an Officer's Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel or both and the Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) the Trustee may consult with counsel or other professionals of its selection and the advice of such counsel or other professionals retained or consulted by the Trustee or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Trustee may act through counsel, agents, custodians and nominees and shall not be responsible for the acts or omissions or for the misconduct or negligence of any such person appointed with due care and in good faith;

(f) the permissive rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty and, with respect to such permissive rights, the Trustee shall not be answerable for other than its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(g) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to this Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to it in its sole discretion against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction;

(h) the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit, and, if the Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Issuer, personally or by agent or attorney at the expense of the Issuer and shall incur no liability of any kind by reason of such inquiry or investigation;

(i) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture;

(j) the rights, privileges, protections, indemnities, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, including without limitation as Collateral Agent, and each agent, custodian and other person employed to act hereunder;

(k) the Trustee may request that the Issuer deliver an Officer's Certificate in substantially the form of Exhibit A hereto setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture, which Officer's Certificate may be signed by any person authorized to sign an Officer's Certificate, including any person specified as so authorized in any such certificate previously delivered and not superseded;

(l) in no event shall the Trustee be responsible or liable for special, punitive, indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action; and

(m) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any Default or Event of Default unless a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has received written notice of any event which is in fact such a default at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee, and such notice references the Notes and this Indenture.

Section 6.04. Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes.

The recitals contained herein and in the Notes, except for the Trustee's certificates of authentication, shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, as applicable, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes, except that the Trustee represents that it is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture, authenticate the Notes and perform its obligations hereunder. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of Notes or the proceeds thereof.

Section 6.05. May Hold Notes.

The Trustee, any Paying Agent, any Note Registrar or any other agent of the Issuer or of the Trustee, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes, and may otherwise deal with the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not any Trustee, Paying Agent, Note Registrar or such other agent. However, the Trustee must comply with Section 6.08.

Section 6.06. Money Held in Trust.

Money held by the Trustee in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Issuer.

Section 6.07. Compensation and Reimbursement.

The Issuer agrees:

(a) to pay to the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and Collateral Agent from time to time such compensation as shall be agreed in writing between the Issuer and the Trustee and/or Collateral Agent for all services rendered by each of the Trustee and Collateral Agent hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(b) except as otherwise expressly provided herein, to reimburse the Trustee and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and Collateral Agent in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except any such expense, disbursement or advance as shall be determined to have been caused by the Trustee's own gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable order); and

(c) to fully indemnify each of the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and Collateral Agent and any predecessor trustee and its directors, officers, employees and agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, liability, damage, claim or expense including Taxes (other than Taxes based on the income of the Trustee) (except as shall have been caused by its gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable order)), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust, including the costs and expenses of defending itself or themselves against any claim (whether asserted by the Issuer, a Guarantor, a Holder or any other person) or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its or their powers or duties hereunder and the costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) incurred in connection with any action, claim, or suit brought to enforce the Trustee's right to indemnification, including the enforcement of any of its rights hereunder.

The obligations of the Issuer hereunder to compensate the Trustee and Collateral Agent, to pay or reimburse the Trustee and Collateral Agent for expenses, disbursements and advances and to indemnify and hold harmless the Trustee and Collateral Agent shall constitute additional indebtedness hereunder. As security for the performance of such obligations of the Issuer, the Trustee shall have a claim prior to the Notes upon all property and funds held or collected by the Trustee as such, except funds held in trust for the payment of principal of (and premium, if any, on) or interest on particular Notes.

When the Trustee incurs expenses or renders services in connection with an Event of Default specified in Section 5.01(i) or (j), the expenses (including the reasonable charges and expenses of its counsel) of and the compensation for such services are intended to constitute expenses of administration under any applicable federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law.

The provisions of this Article 6 shall survive the termination of this Indenture or the earlier resignation or removal of the Trustee or Collateral Agent.

Section 6.08. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility; Conflicting Interests. (a) There shall be at all times a Trustee hereunder which shall have a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000. If such person publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of federal, state, territorial or District of Columbia supervising or examining authority, then, for the purposes of this Section 6.08, the combined capital and surplus of such person shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. If at any time a Responsible Officer of the Trustee shall have actual knowledge that the Trustee ceases to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6.08, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article 6.

(b) The Trustee shall be permitted to engage in transactions with the Issuer or its Subsidiaries; provided, however, that if the Trustee acquires any conflicting interest, the Trustee must 1. eliminate such conflict within 90 days of acquiring such conflicting interest, 2. apply to the SEC for permission to continue acting as Trustee or 3. resign.

Section 6.09. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor. (a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee in accordance with the applicable requirements of Section 6.10.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee required by Section 6.10 shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition, at the expense of the Issuer, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, delivered to the Trustee and to the Issuer. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee required by Section 6.10 shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 10 days after the giving of such notice of removal, the Trustee designated for removal may petition, at the expense of the Issuer, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.08 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Note for at least six months, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then,

in any such case, (i) the Issuer, by a Board Resolution (or by a resolution of a duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors of the Issuer), may remove the Trustee or (ii) the Holders of at least 10% in aggregate principal amount of the then Outstanding Notes who have been bona fide Holders of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, by a Board Resolution, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Issuer does not promptly appoint a successor Trustee after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by Act of the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. In either case, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer or the Holders and accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee to the Holders of Notes in the manner provided for in Section 1.06. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

(g) The retiring Trustee shall not be liable for any of the acts or omissions of any successor Trustee appointed hereunder.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and to the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of its charges hereunder, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Trustee shall be qualified and eligible under this Article 6.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business.

Any person into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any person resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any person succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder; provided that such person shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article 6, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Notes shall have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion, consolidation or transfer of assets to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes. In case at that time any of the Notes shall not have been authenticated, any successor Trustee may authenticate such Notes either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor Trustee. In all such cases such certificates shall have the full force and effect which this Indenture provides that the certificate of authentication of the Trustee shall have; provided, however, that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or to authenticate Notes in the name of any predecessor Trustee shall apply only to its successor or successors by merger, conversion, consolidation or transfer of assets. The Trustee may merge or consolidate with another entity and in the event of such merger, is not required to provide written notice of same.

CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, CONVEYANCE, TRANSFER OR LEASE

Section 7.02. [Reserved].

Section 7.03. Issuer May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms. (a) The Issuer shall not, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, (i) consolidate with or merge into any other person or persons or permit any other person to consolidate with or merge into the Issuer or (ii) directly or indirectly, transfer, sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its assets to any other person or persons (other than (w) to a Subsidiary that is or becomes a Guarantor at the time of such transfer, sale,

(A) in a transaction in which the Issuer is not the surviving person or in which the Issuer transfers, sells, leases, conveys or otherwise disposes of all or substantially all of its assets to any other person, the successor entity is organized under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof or the District of Columbia and shall expressly assume, by a supplemental indenture executed and delivered to the Trustee in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, all of the Issuer's obligations under this Indenture and shall expressly assume the performance of the covenants and obligations of the Issuer under the Security Documents and shall cause such amendments, supplements or other instruments to be executed, filed and recorded in such jurisdictions as may be required by applicable law to cause any property or assets that constitute Collateral to be subject to a Lien securing the Notes, together with such financing statements or comparable documents as may be required to perfect any security interests in such Collateral which may be perfected by the filing of a financing statement or a similar document under the Uniform Commercial Code or other similar statute or regulation of the relevant states or jurisdictions;

(B) immediately before and after giving effect to such transaction and treating any Indebtedness which becomes an obligation of the Issuer (or the successor entity) or a Subsidiary as a result of such transaction as having been Incurred by the Issuer or such Subsidiary at the time of the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(C) [reserved];

(D) if, as a result of any such transaction, property of the Issuer (or the successor entity) or any Subsidiary would become subject to a Lien prohibited by the provisions of Section 9.08, the Issuer or the successor entity to the Issuer shall have secured the Notes as required by said covenant;

(E) in the case of a transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer, such assets shall have been transferred as an entirety or virtually as an entirety to one person and such person shall have complied with all the provisions of this paragraph; and

(b) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, stating that such consolidation, merger, transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition and, if a supplemental indenture is required in connection with such transaction, such supplemental indenture, complies with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent to such transaction herein have been complied with.

Section 7.04. Successor Issuer Substituted.

Upon any consolidation of the Issuer with or merger of the Issuer with or into any other person or any transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all the assets of the Issuer to any person or persons in accordance with Section 7.03, the successor person formed by such consolidation or into which the Issuer is merged or to which such transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition is made shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Issuer under this Indenture with the same effect as if such successor person had been named as the Issuer herein, and the predecessor Issuer (which term shall for this purpose mean the person named as the "Issuer" in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor person which shall have become such in the manner described in Section 7.03), except in the case of a lease, shall be released from all its obligations and covenants under this Indenture, the Notes, and the other Note Documents to which it is a party and may be dissolved and liquidated.

Section 7.05. Guarantor May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms.

A Guarantor shall not, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, (a) consolidate with or merge into any other person or persons (other than, with respect to a Guarantor that is a Subsidiary, the Issuer or another Guarantor that is a Subsidiary) or permit any other person (other than, with respect to a Guarantor that is a Subsidiary, another Guarantor that is a Subsidiary) to consolidate with or merge into such Guarantor or (b) except to another Guarantor or the Issuer, directly or indirectly, transfer, sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its assets to any other person or persons (other than with respect to (x) any transfer of Securitization Assets to a Securitization Subsidiary in connection with a Qualified Securitization Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxviii), (y) any transfer of Receivables to a Receivables Subsidiary in connection with a Qualified Receivables Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxvii), or (z) any transfer of Digital Products to a Digital Products Subsidiary in connection with a Qualified Digital Products Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxix)), unless:

(i) immediately before and after giving effect to such transaction and treating any Indebtedness which becomes an obligation of such Guarantor as a result of such transaction as having been Incurred by such Guarantor at the time of the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(ii) in a transaction in which such Guarantor is not the surviving person or in which such Guarantor transfers, sells, leases, conveys or otherwise disposes of all or substantially all of its assets to any other person, the resulting surviving or transferee person is organized under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof or the District of Columbia and shall expressly assume, by a supplemental indenture executed and delivered to the Trustee in form satisfactory to the Trustee, all of such Guarantor's obligations under this Indenture and its Note Guarantee and shall expressly assume the performance of the covenants and obligations of such Guarantor under the Security Documents relating to the Notes and shall cause such amendments, supplements or other instruments to be executed, filed and recorded in such jurisdictions as may be required by applicable law to cause any property or assets that constitute Collateral to be subject to a Lien securing the Notes, together with such financing statements or comparable documents as may be required to perfect any security interests in such Collateral which may be perfected by the filing of a financing statement or a similar document under the Uniform Commercial Code or other similar statute or regulation of the relevant states or jurisdictions; and

(iii) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, stating that such consolidation, merger, transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition and, if a supplemental indenture is required in connection with such transaction, such supplemental indenture, complies with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction have been complied with.

Section 7.06. Successor Guarantor Substituted.

Upon any consolidation of a Guarantor with or merger of a Guarantor with or into any other person or any transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all the assets of a Guarantor to any person or persons in accordance with Section 7.05, the successor person formed by such consolidation or into which such Guarantor is merged or to which such transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition is made shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, such Guarantor under this Indenture with the same effect as if such successor person had been named as a Guarantor herein, and the predecessor Guarantor (which term shall for this purpose mean the person named as the "New Guarantor" in the first paragraph of the applicable supplemental indenture or any successor person which shall have become such in the manner described in Section 7.05), except in the case of a lease, shall be released from all its obligations and covenants under its Note Guarantee, the Notes and the other Note Documents to which it is a party and may be dissolved and liquidated.

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 8.01. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders.

The Issuer, the Guarantors, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent may, at any time and from time to time, without notice to or consent of any Holders of Notes, (a) enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto and/or (b) amend, supplement or otherwise modify any other Note Document, in each case:

(i) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or any Guarantor and the assumption by such successor of the covenants of the Issuer or such Guarantor, respectively, herein, in the Notes, in the applicable Note Guarantee and in the applicable Security Documents, as applicable; or

(ii) to add to the covenants of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries, for the benefit of the Holders, or to surrender any right or power conferred upon the Issuer or any Guarantor hereby; or

(iii) to add any additional Events of Default; or

(iv) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes; or

(v) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment hereunder of a successor Trustee pursuant to the requirements of Section 6.10 or a successor Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of this Indenture; or

(vi) to secure the Notes; or

(vii) to comply with the Securities Act (including Regulation S promulgated thereunder); or

(viii) to add Note Guarantees or to release any Guarantors from Note Guarantees as provided by the terms of this Indenture; or

(ix) to (A) cure any ambiguity, mistake, omission, defect, inconsistency, or obvious error in the Note Documents, or (B) correct or supplement any provision herein which may be inconsistent with any other provision herein, or to add any other provision with respect to matters or questions arising under this Indenture; provided that, with respect to the foregoing clause (ix)(B), such actions shall not adversely affect the interests of the Holders in any material respect; or (C) to amend the legends on any Security to comply with U.S. federal income tax regulations; or

(x) to add additional assets as Collateral or to release any Collateral from the liens securing the Notes, in each case pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, as and when permitted or required by this Indenture, the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements; or

(xi) to effect any provision of this Indenture or to make changes to this Indenture to provide for the issuance of Additional Notes.

The intercreditor provisions of the Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement may be amended, waived or otherwise modified from time to time with the consent of the parties thereto. In addition, the Issuer may, without the consent of any other party thereto, amend the Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement to designate Indebtedness as "Other First Lien Debt", or as any other Indebtedness subject to the terms and provisions of such agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, no amendment to, or deletion of any of the covenants described under Article 9 or action taken in compliance with the covenants in effect at the time of such action, shall be deemed to impair or affect any rights of any holder to receive payment of principal or premium, if any, or interest on, the Notes, or to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to such holder's Notes.

Section 8.02. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders.

With the consent of the Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by Act of such Holders delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee, the Issuer, the Guarantors and the Trustee may (a) enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto and/or (b) amend, supplement or otherwise modify any other Note Document, in each case, for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Indenture or such other Note Document or waiving or otherwise modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders hereunder or thereunder, including the waiver of certain past defaults under this Indenture pursuant to Section 5.13; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note (or, in the case of clauses (iv) and (x) below, two-thirds in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes) affected thereby:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the interest thereon (including by amending any of the definitions relevant to the determination of the interest rate applicable to the Notes) that would be due and payable upon the Stated Maturity thereof, or change the place of payment where, or the coin or currency in which, any Note or any premium or interest thereon is payable, or impair the contractual right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the Stated Maturity thereof; or

(ii) reduce the percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is necessary for any such supplemental indenture or required for any waiver of compliance with Section 5.08 or Section 5.13; or

(iii) modify any provision of Section 5.08; or

(iv) amend, modify or waive any term or provision of any Note Document to permit the issuance or incurrence of any Indebtedness (including any exchange of existing Indebtedness that results in another class of Indebtedness for borrowed money, but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any "debtor-in-possession" facility pursuant to Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code (or similar financing under applicable law)) with respect to which the Liens on the Collateral securing the Note Obligations would be subordinated (any such other Indebtedness to which such Liens securing any of the Obligations are subordinated, "Senior Indebtedness"), unless each adversely affected Holder has been offered a bona fide opportunity to fund or otherwise provide its pro rata share (based on the principal amount of Obligations that are adversely affected thereby held by each Holder) of the Senior Indebtedness on the same terms (other than bona fide backstop fees and reimbursement of counsel fees and other expenses in connection with the negotiation of the terms of such transaction; such fees and expenses, "Ancillary Fees") as offered to all other providers (or their Affiliates) of the Senior Indebtedness and to the extent such adversely affected Holder decides to participate in the Senior Indebtedness, receive its pro rata share of the fees and any other similar benefit (other than Ancillary Fees) of the Senior Indebtedness afforded to the providers of the Senior Indebtedness (or any of their Affiliates) in connection with providing the Senior Indebtedness; or

(v) subordinate in right of payment the Securities or any Note Guarantee to any other Indebtedness; or

(vi) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Note or change the time at which any Note may be redeemed, as described in Appendix A or Exhibit 1 thereto; or

(vii) reduce the premium payable upon a Change of Control Repurchase Event or, at any time after a Change of Control Repurchase Event has occurred, change the time at which the Offer to Purchase relating thereto must be made or at which the Notes must be repurchased pursuant to such Offer to Purchase; or

(viii) make any change in any Note Guarantee of a Guarantor that is either a Significant Subsidiary or is a guarantor of any other First Lien Obligations then outstanding that would adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes in a manner inconsistent with any changes made in respect of the guarantee of the other First Lien Obligations; or

(ix) modify any provision of this Section 8.02 (except to increase any percentage set forth herein); or

(x) (A) modify or amend Section 9.14 or the defintiion of "Unrestricted Subsidiary", (B) make any change (whether by amendment, supplement or waiver) to any Security Document, any Intercreditor Agreement or the provisions in this Indenture dealing with the Collateral, the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements that would, in each case, release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens of the Security Documents (except as otherwise permitted by the terms of this Indenture, the Notes, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements), or (C) make any change in any Note Guarantee of a Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary that would adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes in any material respect.

It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders under this Section 8.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such Act shall approve the substance thereof.

Section 8.03. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing, or accepting the additional trusts created by, any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture, that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been fulfilled and that the supplemental indenture is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Issuer and Guarantors, enforceable against each in accordance with its terms. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Section 8.04. Effect of Supplemental Indentures.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Notes theretofore or thereafter authenticated and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

Section 8.05. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures.

Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee and the Issuer as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer and the Trustee shall so determine, new Notes so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Trustee and the Issuer, to any such supplemental indenture may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

Section 8.06. Notice of Supplemental Indentures.

Promptly after the execution by the Issuer, the Guarantors and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8, the Issuer shall give notice thereof to the Holders of each Outstanding Note affected, in the manner provided for in Section 1.06, setting forth in general terms the substance of such supplemental indenture.

Section 9.01. Payment of Principal, Premium, if Any, and Interest.

The Issuer covenants and agrees for the benefit of the Holders that it shall duly and punctually pay the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Indenture. Principal, premium, if any, and interest shall be considered paid on the date due if by 11:00 a.m. New York City time on such date the Trustee or the Paying Agent holds in accordance with the Indenture money sufficient to pay all principal, premium, if any, and interest then due and the Trustee or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, is not prohibited from paying such money to the Holders on that date pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

Section 9.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Issuer shall maintain in the United States an office or agency where Notes may be presented or surrendered for payment, where Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange and where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes and this Indenture may be served, which shall not constitute service of process. An office of the Trustee, Wilmington Trust, National Association at 50 South Sixth Street, Suite 1290, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 shall be such office or agency of the Issuer, unless the Issuer shall designate and maintain some other office or agency for one or more of such purposes. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any change in the location of any such office or agency. If at any time the Issuer shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency or shall fail to furnish the Trustee with the address thereof, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at such affiliate's office, and the Issuer hereby appoints the Trustee as its agent to receive all such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands.

The Issuer may also from time to time designate one or more other offices or agencies where the Notes may be presented or surrendered for any or all such purposes and may from time to time rescind any such designation. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any such designation or rescission and any change in the location of any such other office or agency.

Section 9.03. Money for Note Payments to Be Held in Trust.

If the Issuer shall at any time act as its own Paying Agent, it shall, on or before each due date of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any of the Notes, segregate and hold in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto a sum sufficient to pay the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest so becoming due until such sums shall be paid to such persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided and shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act.

Whenever the Issuer shall have one or more Paying Agents for the Notes, it shall, on or before each due date of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Notes, deposit with a Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay the principal (and premium, if any) or interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to such principal, premium or interest, and (unless such Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee of such action or any failure so to act.

The Issuer shall cause each Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee, subject to the provisions of this Section 9.03, that such Paying Agent shall:

(a) hold all sums held by it for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on Notes in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to such persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided;

(b) give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer (or any other obligor upon the Notes) in the making of any payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest;

(c) at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by such Paying Agent; and

(d) indemnify the Trustee and its officers, directors, employees and agents against any loss, cost or liability caused by, or incurred as a result of, such Paying Agent's acts or omissions.

The Issuer may at any time, for the purpose of obtaining the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Issuer or such Paying Agent, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the same trusts as those upon which such sums were held by the Issuer or such Paying Agent; and, upon such payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, such Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to such sums.

Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent, or then held by the Issuer, in trust for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, premium or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer on Issuer Request or (if then held by the Issuer) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to the Issuer for payment thereof, and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such trust money, and all liability of the Issuer as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease and any unclaimed balance of such money then remaining will be repaid to the Issuer.

Section 9.04. Existence.

Subject to Article 7, the Issuer shall do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect the existence, rights (charter and statutory) and franchises of the Issuer and each Subsidiary; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to preserve, with respect to the Issuer, any such right or franchise or, with respect to any such Subsidiary (subject to all the other covenants in this Indenture), any such existence, right or franchise, if the Board of Directors shall determine that the preservation thereof is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

Section 9.05. Reports.

So long as any Notes are outstanding (unless defeased in a legal defeasance), the Issuer shall have its annual financial statements audited, and its interim financial statements reviewed, by a nationally recognized firm of independent accountants and shall furnish to the Trustee and the Holders of Notes, all quarterly and annual financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles that would be required to be contained in a filing with the SEC on Forms 10-Q and 10-K if the Issuer was required to file those Forms (but in no event any other items required in such Forms), together with a corresponding "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and, with respect to the annual information only, a report on the annual financial statements by the Issuer's certified independent accountant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) such reports shall not be required to comply with any segment reporting requirements (whether pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles or Regulation S-X) in greater detail than is customarily provided in an offering memorandum prepared in connection with a Rule 144A offering, (ii) such reports shall not be required to present beneficial ownership information, (iii) such reports shall not be required to provide guarantor/non-guarantor financial data and (iv) the Issuer shall not be required to provide separate financial statements or other information contemplated by Rule 3-16 of Regulation S-X (or any successor provision). Any reports shall be provided within the time frames required by the SEC for companies required to file such reports on a non-accelerated basis. To the extent that the Issuer does not file such information with the SEC, the Issuer shall distribute such information and such reports (as well as the details regarding the conference call described below) electronically to the Trustee and by posting such information on a password protected website (which may be non-public, require a confidentiality acknowledgment and be maintained by the Issuer or its designee) to which access will be given to (a) any Holder of the Notes, (b) to any beneficial owner of the Notes, who provides its e-mail address to the Issuer or its designee and certifies that it is a beneficial owner of Notes, (c) to any prospective investor who provides its e-mail address to the Issuer or its designee and certifies that it is a QIB, or (d) any securities analyst providing an analysis of investment in the Notes who provides its e-mail address to the Issuer or its designee and other information reasonably requested by the Issuer and represents to the reasonable satisfaction of the Issuer that (1) it is a bona fide securities analyst providing an analysis of investment in the Notes, (2) it will not use the information in violation of applicable securities laws or regulations, (3) it will keep such provided information confidential and will not communicate the information to any person, (4) it will not use such information in any manner intended to compete with the business of the Issuer or its Subsidiaries and (5) neither it nor its Affiliates is a person that is principally engaged in a similar business or derives a significant portion of its revenues from operating or owning a similar business to that of the Issuer or its

Subsidiaries. Unless the Issuer is subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act, the Issuer shall also hold a quarterly conference call for the Holders of the Notes to review such financial information (which, for the avoidance of doubt, access may be limited to those who have access to the password-protected website and have provided a confidentiality acknowledgement). The conference call will not be later than five Business Days from the time that the Issuer distributes the financial information as set forth above.

For so long as any of the Notes remain outstanding, the Issuer shall furnish to the Holders of the Notes and to any prospective investor that certifies that it is a QIB, upon written request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

In the event that any direct or indirect parent of the Issuer becomes a Guarantor or co-obligor of the Notes, the Issuer may satisfy its obligations under this Section 9.05 with respect to financial information relating to the Issuer by furnishing financial information relating to such parent; provided that the same is accompanied by consolidating information that explains in reasonable detail the differences between the information relating to such parent and any of its Subsidiaries other than the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and the information relating to the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, on the other hand.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer shall be deemed to have furnished such financial statements and reports referred to above to the Trustee and the Holders if the Issuer or any direct or indirect parent of the Issuer has filed such reports with the SEC via the EDGAR filing system (or any successor thereto) and such reports are publicly available.

Delivery of such reports, information and documents to the Trustee is for informational purposes only and the Trustee's receipt of such shall not constitute actual or constructive notice or knowledge of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein, including the Issuer's compliance with any of its covenants hereunder (as to which the Trustee is entitled to rely exclusively on Officer's Certificates). The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the filing, timeliness or content of such reports.

Section 9.06. Statement by Officers as to Default. (a) The Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee, on the date of delivery of each annual report to be delivered pursuant to Section 9.05 commencing with the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, a brief certificate from the principal executive officer, principal financial officer or principal accounting officer as to his or her knowledge of the Issuer's compliance during the period covered by such report with all conditions and covenants under this Indenture. If the signer has knowledge of any noncompliance that occurred during such period, the certificate shall describe its status and what action the Issuer has taken or is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 9.06(a), such compliance shall be determined without regard to any period of grace or requirement of notice under this Indenture.

(b) When (to the knowledge of the Issuer or any Subsidiary) any Default has occurred and is continuing under this Indenture, or if the trustee for or the holder of any other evidence of Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Subsidiary gives any notice or takes any other action with respect to a claimed default (other than with respect to Indebtedness in the principal amount of less than $275,000,000 or its foreign currency equivalent at the time), the Issuer shall, within 30 days of such occurrence, notice or other action, deliver to the Trustee electronically, by registered or certified mail or by facsimile transmission an Officer's Certificate specifying such event, notice or other action, its status and what action the Issuer is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

Section 9.07. Limitation on Indebtedness.

(a) The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to directly or indirectly, Incur any Indebtedness.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, the Issuer and any Subsidiary may Incur any and all of the following (each of which shall be given independent effect):

(i) (i) Indebtedness, including Capitalized Lease Obligations, existing or committed on the Issue Date (other than Indebtedness described in Sections 9.07(b)(ii), (xi), (xii), (xx), (xxi), (xxiii) and (xxx) below) and (ii) any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness incurred to Refinance such Indebtedness;

(ii) (x) (A) Indebtedness outstanding under the New Credit Agreement on the Issue Date, plus (B) an aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness at any time outstanding not to exceed $711,435,000, plus, (C) other Indebtedness so long as immediately after giving effect to the incurrence thereof and the use of proceeds of the Indebtedness thereunder, the Superpriority Leverage Ratio is not greater than 4.10 to 1.00 ((i) assuming $1,000,000,000 is drawn under the Series A Revolving Facility and the Series B Revolving Facility (and for the avoidance of doubt shall not double count with any actual borrowings under such facilities up to the amount of $1,000,000,000), and (ii) excluding any Indebtedness incurred in reliance on the preceding clause (B)); provided that no such Indebtedness incurred pursuant to clauses (B) or (C) shall rank senior to the Notes in right of payment or with respect to lien priority; and (y) any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness incurred to Refinance such Indebtedness;

This Indenture will not treat (x) unsecured Indebtedness as subordinated or junior in right of payment to secured Indebtedness merely because it is unsecured or (y) senior Indebtedness as subordinated or junior in right of payment to any other senior Indebtedness merely because it has a junior priority with respect to the same collateral.

(ll) (i) Liens (including precautionary lien filings) in respect of the disposition of Receivables and related assets, and Liens granted with respect to such assets by the relevant Receivables Subsidiary, in connection with any Qualified Receivable Facility permitted by Section 9.07(b)(xxvii), (ii) Liens (including precautionary lien filings) in respect of the disposition of Securitization Assets, and Liens granted with respect to such Securitization Assets by the relevant Securitization Subsidiary, in connection with any Qualified Securitization Facility permitted by Section 9.07(b)(xxviii) and (iii) Liens (including precautionary lien filings) in respect of the disposition of Digital Products, and Liens granted with respect to such assets by the relevant Digital Products Subsidiary, in connection with any Qualified Digital Products Facility permitted by Section 9.07(b)(xxix); and

(mm) Liens on Collateral that are First Liens securing Indebtedness permitted pursuant to Section 9.07(b)(xxxiv), provided that such Liens are subject to the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement.

For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 9.08, (x) a Lien securing an item of Indebtedness need not be permitted solely by reference to one category of permitted Liens (or any portion thereof) described in Section 9.08(a) through (mm) but may be permitted in part under any combination thereof and (y) in the event that a Lien securing an item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) meets the criteria of one or more of the categories of permitted Liens (or any portion thereof) described in Section 9.08(a) through (mm), the Issuer may, in its sole discretion, classify or divide such Lien securing such item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) in any manner that complies with this Section 9.08 (including, in the case of Lien incurred on the same day, electing the order in which such Lien shall be deemed incurred for purposes of computing the available amount under any category) and will be entitled to only include the amount and type of such Lien or such item of Indebtedness secured by such Lien (or any portion thereof) in one of the above clauses and such Lien securing such item of Indebtedness (or portion thereof) will be treated as being incurred or existing pursuant to only such clause or clauses (or any portion thereof).

Section 9.09. Limitation on Restricted Payments. (a) The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly:

(i) declare or pay any dividend or make any other distribution (by reduction of capital or otherwise), whether in cash, property, securities or a combination thereof, with respect to any of its Equity Interests (other than dividends and distributions on Equity Interests payable solely by the issuance of Qualified Equity Interests of the person declaring, paying or making such dividends or distributions);

(ii) directly or indirectly redeem, purchase, retire or otherwise acquire for value (or permit any Subsidiary to purchase or acquire) any of the Issuer's Equity Interests or set aside any amount for any such purpose (other than through the issuance of Qualified Equity Interests);

(iii) make any Junior Debt Restricted Payment; or

(iv) make any Restricted Investment;

(all of the foregoing, "Restricted Payments").

(b) The provisions of Section 9.09(a) shall not prohibit:

(i) Restricted Payments to the Issuer or any Subsidiary (provided, that Restricted Payments made by a non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary must be made on a pro rata basis (or more favorable basis from the perspective of the Issuer or such Subsidiary) to the Issuer or any Subsidiary that is a direct or indirect parent of such Subsidiary based on its ownership interests in such non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary);

(ii) Restricted Payments by the Issuer to purchase or redeem the Equity Interests of the Issuer (including related stock appreciation rights or similar securities) held by then present or former directors, consultants, officers or employees of the Issuer or any of the Subsidiaries or by any Plan or any shareholders' agreement then in effect upon such person's death, disability, retirement or termination of employment or under the terms of any such Plan or any other agreement under which such shares of stock or related rights were issued; provided, that the aggregate amount of such purchases or redemptions under this clause (ii) shall not exceed in any fiscal year $50,000,000 (plus (x) the amount of net proceeds contributed to the Issuer that were received by the Issuer during such calendar year from sales of Qualified Equity Interests of the Issuer to directors, consultants, officers or employees of the Issuer or any Subsidiary in connection with permitted employee compensation and incentive arrangements and (y) the amount of net proceeds of any key-man life insurance policies received during such calendar year, which, if not used in any year, may be carried forward to any subsequent calendar year); provided, further, that cancellation of Indebtedness owing to the Issuer or any Subsidiary from members of management of the Issuer or its Subsidiaries in connection with a repurchase of Equity Interests of the Issuer will not be deemed to constitute a Restricted Payment for purposes of this Section 9.09;

(iii) any person may make non-cash repurchases of Equity Interests deemed to occur upon exercise or settlement of stock options or other Equity Interests to the extent such Equity Interests represent a portion of the exercise price of or withholding obligation with respect to such options or other Equity Interests;

(iv) Restricted Payments by any Exempted Subsidiary not prohibited by Section 6.06 of the LVLT Credit Agreement as in effect on the Issue Date;

(v) [reserved];

(vi) Restricted Payments to make payments, in cash, in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares, upon the exercise of warrants or upon the conversion or exchange of Equity Interests of any such person;

(vii) so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, other Restricted Payments in an aggregate amount not to exceed $175,000,000 during the term of this Indenture;

(viii) additional Restricted Payments, so long as, at the time any such Restricted Payment is made and immediately after giving effect thereto, (i) no Event of Default shall have occurred and is continuing and (ii) the Total Leverage Ratio on a Pro Forma Basis is not greater than (x) during any Ratings Trigger Adjustment Period, 3.50 to 1.00 or (y) otherwise, 3.25 to 1.00; and

(ix) to the extent constituting a Restricted Payment, the disposition of Receivables, Securitization Assets and Digital Products made in connection with any Qualified Receivable Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxvii) or any Qualified Securitization Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxviii) or any Qualified Digital Products Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxix), as applicable.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the foregoing provisions of Section 9.09 will not prohibit the payment of any Restricted Payment or the making of any Investment constituting a Limited Condition Transaction if such transaction would have complied with the provisions of this Section 9.09 on the date of the declaration of the dividend by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the applicable Subsidiary or the date of giving of the applicable notice of prepayment or redemption, in each case, constituting a Limited Condition Transaction (it being understood that such Restricted Payment shall be deemed to have been made on the date of declaration or notice for purposes of such provision).

For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 9.09, (A) a Restricted Payment or Permitted Investment need not be permitted solely by reference to one category of permitted Restricted Payments or Permitted Investment (or any portion thereof) but may be permitted in part under any relevant combination thereof and (B) in the event that a Restricted Payment or Permitted Investment (or any portion thereof) meets the criteria of one or more of the categories of permitted Restricted Payments or Permitted Investments (or any portion thereof), the Issuer may, in its sole discretion, classify or divide such Restricted Payment or Permitted Investment (or any portion thereof) in any manner that complies with this Section 9.09 and will be entitled to only include the amount and type of such Restricted Payment or Permitted Investment (or any portion thereof) in one or more (as relevant) of the applicable clauses (or any portion thereof) and such Restricted Payment or Permitted Investment (or any portion thereof) shall be treated as having been made or existing pursuant to only such clause or clauses (or any portion thereof).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, following the transfer of any QC Transferred Assets by QC to any QC Newco, such QC Newco shall not be permitted to dispose, transfer, assign, contribute or advance any portion of such QC Transferred Assets to QC or any Subsidiary of QC that guarantees (or is required to guarantee) any Existing QC Debt except in the ordinary course of business or to the extent not materially adverse to the Holders.

The amount of any Restricted Payment (excluding any Restricted Investment, the value of which shall be determined in accordance with the definition of "Investment") made other than in the form of cash, Cash Equivalents or other cash equivalents shall be the Fair Market Value thereof valued at the time of the making thereof, and without giving effect to any subsequent write-downs or write-offs thereof.

Section 9.10. Limitation on Asset Sales.

(a) The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, make any Asset Sale unless:

(i) no Event of Default under Section 5.01(a), (b), (i) or (j) shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of such Asset Sale or would result therefrom,

(ii) [reserved],

(iii) the Superpriority Leverage Ratio shall not be greater than the Superpriority Leverage Ratio in effect immediately prior to such Asset Sale, calculated on a Pro Forma Basis (including the use of proceeds thereof) for the then most recently ended Test Period,

(iv) the Issuer or the Subsidiary, as the case may be, receives consideration for such Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value for the property sold or disposed of as determined by the Issuer in good faith, and

(v) at least 75% of the proceeds of such Asset Sale consist of cash or Cash Equivalents; provided, that the provisions of this clause (v) shall not apply to any individual transaction or series of related transactions involving assets with a Fair Market Value of less than $150,000,000; provided, further, that for purposes of this clause (v), each of the following shall be deemed to be cash:

(A) the amount of any liabilities (as shown on the Issuer's or such Subsidiary's most recent balance sheet or in the notes thereto) that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets or are otherwise cancelled in connection with such transaction,

(B) any notes or other obligations or other securities or assets received by the Issuer or such Subsidiary from the transferee that are converted by the Issuer or such Subsidiary into cash within 180 days after receipt thereof (to the extent of the cash received), and

(C) any Designated Non-Cash Consideration received by the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries in such disposition or any series of related dispositions, having an aggregate Fair Market Value not to exceed in the aggregate 2.0% of Consolidated Total Assets when received (with the Fair Market Value of each item of Designated Non-Cash Consideration being measured at the time received and without giving effect to subsequent changes in value).

(b) The amount of any Net Proceeds shall constitute "Excess Proceeds". If there are any Excess Proceeds, the Issuer (x) shall make an offer to all holders of the Notes to purchase the maximum principal amount of the Notes (an "Asset Sale Offer") that is at least $1.00 and an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof and (y) at the option of the Issuer, may prepay Other First Lien Debt (or make an offer to holders of any Other First Lien Debt) to the extent any such prepayment is required thereby (other than the Series A Revolving Facility or any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof), on a pro rata basis among the Notes and such Other First Lien Debt based on the principal (or committed) amount thereof, in each case that may be purchased or prepaid out of the Excess Proceeds at an offer or prepayment price, as applicable, in cash in an amount equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof (or, in the event the Notes or Other First Lien Debt were issued with significant original issue discount, 100% of the accreted value thereof), plus accrued and unpaid interest, to, but excluding, the date fixed for the closing of such offer or prepayment. The Issuer will commence an Asset Sale Offer with respect to Excess Proceeds within fifteen (15) Business Days after receipt of Excess Proceeds by mailing, or delivering electronically if held by the Depository, the notice required pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, with a copy to the Trustee. To the extent that the aggregate principal amount of the Notes (and such Other First Lien Debt, as the case may be) tendered pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer is less than the aggregate principal amount of the Notes that the Issuer has offered to purchase pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer, the Issuer may use any remaining Excess Proceeds for any purpose that is not prohibited by this Indenture (and to the extent there are no loans outstanding under the Series B Revolving Facility on the applicable prepayment date (including after giving effect to any prepayment of loans outstanding under the Series B Revolving Facility on such date), the Issuer may use any Excess Proceeds otherwise allocable thereto for any purpose that is not prohibited by this Indenture). Upon completion of any such Asset Sale Offer, the amount of Excess Proceeds shall be reset at zero.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.10(b) or elsewhere in this Indenture, to the extent that (A) any or all of the Net Proceeds of any Asset Sale or Recovery Event by a Foreign Subsidiary are prohibited by any requirement of law from being loaned, distributed or otherwise transferred to the Issuer or any Domestic Subsidiary or materially adverse consequences to (including any material Tax incurred by) the Issuer or any of its Affiliates would result therefrom or (B) any or all of the Net Proceeds of any Asset Sale or Recovery Event by a Foreign Subsidiary are prohibited from being transferred to the Issuer for application in accordance with this Section 9.10(b) by any applicable organizational documents, joint venture agreement, shareholder agreement, or similar agreement or any other contractual obligation with an unaffiliated third party (including any agreement governing Indebtedness) that was not created in contemplation of such Asset Sale or Recovery Event, then in each case an amount equal to the portion of such Net Proceeds so affected will not be required to be applied as provided in this Section 9.10(b) so long as, but only so long as, such materially adverse consequences or prohibitions exist and once such materially adverse consequences or prohibitions are no longer applicable, an amount equal to such Net Proceeds will be promptly applied pursuant to this Section 9.10(b) (the Issuer hereby agreeing to cause the applicable Subsidiary to promptly use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions within the reasonable control of the Issuer that are reasonably required to eliminate or mitigate such materially adverse consequences or prohibitions, as the case may be).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, following the transfer of any QC Transferred Assets by QC to any QC Newco, such QC Newco shall not be permitted to dispose, transfer, assign, contribute or advance any portion of such QC Transferred Assets to QC or any Subsidiary of QC that guarantees (or is required to guarantee) any Existing QC Debt except in the ordinary course of business or to the extent not materially adverse to the Holders.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, any disposition of assets pursuant to a sale lease back transaction shall not be utilized for liability management purposes.

Section 9.11. QC Transaction. The Issuer shall use reasonable best efforts to transfer, or cause to be transferred, 49% of the assets of QC to one or more QC Newcos or other subsidiaries of QC (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be QC Guarantors) by no later than June 30, 2025, in a manner permitted under the Existing QC Debt Documents and in any event subject to receipt of all required regulatory approvals (the "QC Transaction") (it being understood that the assets to be transferred will be determined by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion).

Section 9.12. Transactions with Affiliates.

(a) The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to sell or transfer any property or assets to, or purchase or acquire any property or assets from, or otherwise engage in any other transaction with, any of its Affiliates (other than the Issuer, and the Subsidiaries or any person that becomes a Subsidiary as a result of such transaction) in a transaction (or series of related transactions) involving aggregate consideration in excess of $100,000,000 unless such transaction is:

(i) otherwise permitted (or required) under this Indenture; or

(ii) upon terms that are substantially no less favorable to the Issuer or such Subsidiary, as applicable, than would be obtained in a comparable arm's- length transaction with a person that is not an Affiliate, as determined by the Issuer or such Subsidiary in good faith.

(b) The foregoing clause (a) shall not prohibit, to the extent otherwise permitted under this Indenture:

(i) any issuance of securities, or other payments, awards or grants in cash, securities or otherwise pursuant to, or the funding of, employment arrangements, equity purchase agreements, stock options and stock ownership plans approved by the Board of Directors of the Issuer;

(ii) transactions permitted to be consummated by any Exempted Subsidiary not prohibited by the LVLT Credit Agreement as in effect on the Issue Date;

(iii) transactions among the Issuer or any Subsidiary or any entity that becomes a Subsidiary as a result of such transaction (including via merger, consolidation or amalgamation in which the Issuer or a Subsidiary is the surviving entity);

(iv) the payment of fees, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and indemnities to directors, officers, consultants and employees of the Issuer and the Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business;

(v) permitted transactions, agreements and arrangements in existence on the Issue Date or any amendment thereto or replacement thereof or similar arrangement to the extent such amendment, replacement or arrangement is not adverse to the Holders when taken as a whole in any material respect (as determined by the Issuer in good faith);

(vi) (A) any employment agreements entered into by the Issuer or any of the Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business, (B) any subscription agreement or similar agreement pertaining to the repurchase of Equity Interests pursuant to put/call rights or similar rights with employees, officers or directors, and (C) any employee compensation, benefit plan or arrangement, any health, disability or similar insurance plan which covers employees, and any reasonable employment contract and transactions pursuant thereto;

(vii) Permitted Investments and Restricted Payments permitted under Section 9.09;

(viii) transactions for the purchase or sale of goods, equipment, products, parts and services entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(ix) any transaction in respect of which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a letter addressed to the Board of Directors of the Issuer from an accounting, appraisal or investment banking firm, in each case of nationally recognized standing that is in the good faith determination of the Issuer qualified to render such letter, which letter states that (i) such transaction is on terms that are substantially no less favorable to the Issuer or such Subsidiary, as applicable, than would be obtained in a comparable arm's-length transaction with a person that is not an Affiliate or (ii) such transaction is fair to the Issuer or such Subsidiary, as applicable, from a financial point of view;

(x) transactions with joint ventures for the purchase or sale of goods, equipment, products, parts and services entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(xi) [reserved];

(xii) transactions between the Issuer or any of the Subsidiaries and any person, a director of which is also a director of the Issuer; provided, that (A) such director abstains from voting as a director of the Issuer on any matter involving such other person and (B) such person is not an Affiliate of the Issuer for any reason other than such director's acting in such capacity;

(xiii) transactions permitted by, and complying with, the provisions of Article 7 and Section 9.10;

(xiv) intercompany transactions undertaken in good faith (as certified by a Responsible Officer of the Issuer) for the purpose of improving the consolidated tax efficiency of the Issuer and the Subsidiaries and not for the purpose of circumventing any covenant set forth herein;

(xv) payments, loans (or cancellation of loans) or advances to employees or consultants that are (i) approved by a majority of the Disinterested Directors of the Issuer in good faith, (ii) made in compliance with applicable law and (iii) otherwise permitted under this Indenture; and

(xvi) transactions with customers, clients or suppliers, or purchasers or sellers of goods or services, in each case in the ordinary course of business that are fair to the Issuer or the Subsidiaries.

Section 9.13. Limitation on Business of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries. The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to directly or indirectly:

(a) permit:

(i) any Material Assets that are owned by the Issuer, Guarantors or their respective Subsidiaries to be transferred, sold, assigned, leased or otherwise disposed (including pursuant to any Investment, Restricted Payment or other disposition), in one transaction or series of related transactions, to the Issuer (other than, for the avoidance of doubt, the temporary transfer of assets by a Subsidiary to another Subsidiary that is permitted by Sections 9.09 and 9.10, if such assets are transferred substantially contemporaneously through the Issuer to the transferee Subsidiary, such transfer shall not be restricted by this clause (i)) or any Unrestricted Subsidiary;

(ii) any Permitted Business Acquisition to be consummated by the Issuer unless (A) payment therefor is made solely with Equity Interests of the Issuer or (B) immediately after giving effect thereto, substantially all of the assets of the person or business acquired in connection with such Investment are owned by a Collateral Guarantor or a Subsidiary of a Collateral Guarantor or are promptly contributed or otherwise transferred to a Collateral Guarantor or a Subsidiary of a Collateral Guarantor,

(iii) the Issuer to engage in any material activities or own any material assets other than:

(A) the direct ownership of its Subsidiaries on the Issue Date and other Subsidiaries that are Guarantors (and the indirect ownership of other Subsidiaries and Investments permitted hereunder through such Subsidiaries), and any substantially similar in amount and kind to those assets owned by it on the Issue Date (as determined in good faith by the Issuer), and in each case any permitted disposition thereof and the granting of any permitted Liens thereon,

(B) the issuance or Guarantee of any Indebtedness that the Issuer is permitted to incur hereunder,

(C) the issuance and/or redemption of its Equity Interests and the making of permitted Restricted Payments with respect thereto, or

(D) activities of the type substantially similar to those conducted by it on the Issue Date and other activities reasonably incidental to maintaining its existence, complying with its obligations with respect to requirements of law and rules of any stock exchange and the ownership of its Subsidiaries (including participating in shared overhead, management and administrative activities, and participating in tax, accounting and other administrative matters together with its Subsidiaries); or

(iv) the aggregate principal amount of any Indebtedness for borrowed money represented by notes or loans or other similar instruments (other than (I) Indebtedness of Guarantors that is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Note Obligations pursuant to the Subordinated Intercompany Note and (II) any such Indebtedness incurred or outstanding pursuant to ordinary course cash management or cash pooling arrangements or other similar arrangements consistent with past practice) of (x) all Subsidiaries that are Guarantors or Subsidiaries of Guarantors to (y) the Issuer or any Subsidiary of the Issuer that is not a Guarantor or a Subsidiary of a Guarantor to exceed $250,000,000 at any time outstanding; provided, that nothing in this Section 9.13 shall restrict any transfer of assets or the making or repayment of any intercompany loans or Investments solely among the Guarantors and their respective Subsidiaries.

(b) Engage at any time to any material respect in any business or business activity substantially different from any business or business activity conducted by any of them on the Issue Date or any Similar Business or, in the case of a Receivables Subsidiary, Securitization Subsidiary or Digital Products Subsidiary, Qualified Receivable Facilities, Qualified Securitization Facilities or Qualified Digital Products Facilities, as applicable.

Section 9.14. Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries.

The Issuer shall designate any Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary only in accordance with the definition of "Unrestricted Subsidiary" contained herein.

Section 9.15. Restrictions on Subsidiary Distributions and Negative Pledge Clauses. The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, enter into any agreement or instrument that by its terms restricts (A) the payment of dividends or other distributions or the making of cash advances to the Issuer or any Subsidiary that is a direct or indirect parent of such Subsidiary or (B) the granting of Liens by the Issuer or any Subsidiary to secure the Note Obligations, in each case other than those arising under any Note Document, except, in each case, restrictions existing by reason of:

(a) restrictions imposed by applicable law;

(b) (i) contractual encumbrances or restrictions existing on the Issue Date, (ii) any agreements related to any Indebtedness that does not materially expand the scope of any such encumbrance or restriction (as determined in good faith by the Issuer) beyond those restrictions applicable on the Issue Date, or (iii) with respect to any Subsidiary, any restriction that is not materially more restrictive (as determined by the Issuer in good faith) than the most restrictive restrictions applicable to such Subsidiary existing on the Issue Date;

(c) any restriction on a Subsidiary imposed pursuant to an agreement entered into for the sale or disposition of the Equity Interests or assets of a Subsidiary pending the closing of such sale or disposition;

(d) customary provisions in joint venture agreements and other similar agreements applicable to joint ventures entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(e) any restrictions imposed by any agreement relating to secured Indebtedness permitted by this Indenture to the extent that such restrictions apply only to the specific property or assets securing such Indebtedness;

(f) any restrictions imposed by any agreement relating to Indebtedness incurred pursuant to Section 9.07 or Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof, to the extent such restrictions are not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than the restrictions contained in this Indenture (in each case, as determined in good faith by the Issuer);

(g) customary provisions contained in leases or licenses of Intellectual Property and other similar agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(h) customary provisions restricting subletting or assignment of any lease governing a leasehold interest;

(i) customary provisions restricting assignment, mortgaging or hypothecation of any agreement entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(j) customary restrictions and conditions contained in any agreement relating to the sale, transfer, lease or other disposition of any asset permitted under Section 9.10 pending the consummation of such sale, transfer, lease or other disposition;

(k) permitted Liens and customary restrictions and conditions contained in the document relating thereto, so long as (1) such restrictions or conditions relate only to the specific asset subject to such Lien, and (2) such restrictions and conditions are not created for the purpose of avoiding the restrictions imposed by this Section 9.15;

(l) customary net worth provisions contained in Real Property leases entered into by Subsidiaries, so long as the Issuer has determined in good faith that such net worth provisions would not reasonably be expected to impair the ability of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries to meet their ongoing obligations;

(m) any agreement in effect at the time a person becomes a Subsidiary, so long as such agreement was not entered into in contemplation of such person becoming a Subsidiary;

(n) customary restrictions contained in leases, subleases, licenses or Equity Interests or asset sale agreements otherwise permitted hereby as long as such restrictions relate to the Equity Interests and assets subject thereto;

(o) restrictions on cash or other deposits imposed by customers under contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(p) restrictions in agreements (other than agreements governing Indebtedness of Subsidiaries) that (as determined in good faith by the Issuer) will not prevent the Issuer from satisfying its payment obligations in respect of the Notes;

(q) the Superpriority Revolving/Term Loan A Credit Documents as in effect on the Issue Date;

(r) restrictions created in connection with any Qualified Receivable Facilities permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxvii), Qualified Securitization Facilities permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxviii) or Qualified Digital Products Facilities permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxix); and

(s) any encumbrances or restrictions imposed by any amendments, modifications, restatements, renewals, increases, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings of or similar arrangements to the contracts, instruments or obligations referred to in clauses (a) through (r) above; provided, that such amendments, modifications, restatements, renewals, increases, supplements, refundings, replacements, refinancings or similar arrangements are, in the good faith judgment of the Issuer, no more restrictive with respect to such dividend and other payment restrictions than those contained in the dividend or other payment restrictions as contemplated by such provisions prior to such amendment, modification, restatement, renewal, increase, supplement, refunding, replacement, refinancing or similar arrangement; and

(t) any agreement or instrument entered into by any Exempted Subsidiary (and applicable only to Exempted Subsidiaries) not prohibited by Section 6.09 of the LVLT Credit Agreement as in effect on the Issue Date.

Section 9.16. Authorizations and Consents of Governmental Authorities.

The Issuer will endeavor, and cause any Regulated Subsidiary to endeavor (for the avoidance of doubt, solely to the extent such Regulated Subsidiary guarantees the Credit Agreement Obligations), in good faith using commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all material (as determined in good faith by the Issuer) authorizations and consents of federal and state Governmental Authorities required, if any, in order for, at the earliest practicable date, it to Guarantee the Notes and pledge Collateral to secure such Note Guarantee. For purposes of this covenant, the requirement that the Issuer use "commercially reasonable efforts" shall not be deemed to require it to make material payments in excess of normal fees and costs to or at the direction of Governmental Authorities or to change the manner in which they conduct their business in any respect that the management of the Issuer shall determine in good faith to be materially adverse or materially burdensome.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (but subject to the following paragraph), if a person is required to become a Guarantor pursuant to this Indenture, none of the Issuer or any Subsidiary shall be required to submit any application or filing or otherwise take any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to become a Guarantor (and the requirement to provide such a Guarantee shall be tolled), in each case, to the extent an authorization or consent of such federal or state Governmental Authority is determined by the Issuer to be sought in respect of any Material Transaction or any financing relating thereto and has not yet been obtained; provided that (i) such person is not submitting any application or filing or otherwise taking any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to Guarantee the Credit Agreements or any Other First Lien Debt and (ii) at the time such federal or state Governmental Authority has approved such Material Transaction, the application, filing or other action to obtain any such authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause any person to become a Guarantor shall promptly be made.

Section 9.17. Purchase of Notes Upon a Change of Control Repurchase Event.

(a) If a Change of Control Repurchase Event occurs, unless the Issuer has elected to redeem the Notes as described above, the Issuer will be required to make an Offer to Purchase to each holder of Notes to repurchase all or any part (in minimum amounts of $1.00 and in integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof) of that holder's Notes at a repurchase price in cash equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes repurchased, together with any accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes repurchased to, but not including, the date of repurchase.

(b) Within 30 days following any Change of Control Repurchase Event or, at the Issuer's option, prior to any Change of Control, but after the public announcement of the Change of Control, the Issuer will make an Offer to Purchase all Outstanding Notes on the payment date specified in the notice (the "Change of Control Payment Date"), which date will be no earlier than 30 days and no later than 60 days from the date such notice is delivered. The notice shall, if delivered prior to the date of consummation of the Change of Control, state that the Offer to Purchase is conditioned on a Change of Control Repurchase Event occurring on or prior to the Change of Control Payment Date.

(c) To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with this Section 9.17, the Issuer will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 9.17 by virtue of such conflict.

(d) On the Change of Control Payment Date, the Issuer will, to the extent lawful:

(i) accept for payment all the Notes or portions of the Notes properly tendered pursuant to the Offer to Purchase;

(ii) deposit with the applicable Paying Agent an amount equal to the aggregate purchase price in respect of all the Notes or portions of the Notes properly tendered; and

(iii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee the Notes properly accepted, together with an Officer's Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes being purchased by the Issuer.

The Issuer will determine whether the Notes are properly tendered. The Paying Agent will deliver to each holder of Notes properly tendered the purchase price for the Notes, and, subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture, the Trustee will authenticate and deliver (or cause to be transferred by book-entry) to each holder a new Note equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of any Notes surrendered; provided that such new Note will be in a minimum principal amount of $1.00 and an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof. Any Note properly tendered and accepted for payment will cease to accrue interest on and after the Change of Control Payment Date.

(e) The Issuer will not be required to make an Offer to Purchase upon a Change of Control Repurchase Event if a third party makes such an Offer to Purchase (in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements for an offer made by the Issuer), and such third party purchases all Notes properly tendered and not withdrawn under its Offer to Purchase. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, a Offer to Purchase may be made in advance of a Change of Control, conditional upon such Change of Control and such other conditions specified therein, if a definitive agreement is in place for the Change of Control at the time of the making of such Offer to Purchase.

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

Section 10.01. Right of Redemption.

The Notes will be subject to redemption at the option of the Issuer, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice to each Holder of Notes, on the terms and at the redemption prices (expressed as percentages of principal amount) set forth in paragraph 5 on the reverse of the form of Note, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (if any) to, but not including, the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

Section 10.02. Applicability of Article.

This Article 10 shall govern any redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 10.01.

Section 10.03. Election to Redeem; Notice to Trustee.

The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes pursuant to Section 10.01 shall be evidenced by a Board Resolution of the Issuer. The Issuer shall notify the Trustee of such Redemption Date and of the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed no less than 10 days (unless a shorter notice shall be satisfactory to the Trustee) prior to the delivery to the Holders of a notice of such redemption and shall deliver to the Trustee such documentation and records as shall enable the Trustee to select the Notes to be redeemed pursuant to Section 10.04. Such notice shall be accompanied by an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel from the Issuer to the effect that such redemption will comply with the conditions herein. The Trustee is permitted to accept the Issuer's instructions regarding redemptions, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, and the Trustee shall have no liability for any action taken at the Issuer's direction.

Section 10.04. Selection by Trustee of Notes to Be Redeemed.

If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed, the particular Notes to be redeemed shall be selected not more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date by the Trustee, from the Outstanding Notes not previously called for redemption, on a pro rata basis, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee shall deem appropriate and which may provide for the selection for redemption of portions of the principal of Notes and, in the case of Notes represented by a Global Note held by the Depository, in accordance with Depository procedures; provided, however, that no such partial redemption shall reduce the portion of the principal amount of a Note not redeemed to less than $1.00.

For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to redemption of Notes shall relate, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, to the portion of the principal amount of such Note which has been or is to be redeemed.

Section 10.05. Notice of Redemption.

Notice of redemption shall be given in the manner provided for in Section 1.06 not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed; provided that in the case of Notes held through the Depository by Depository participants, such notice will be submitted via the Depository's electronic messaging system.

Each notice of redemption shall identify the Notes (including "CUSIP" number(s) and the statement from Section 3.10) to be redeemed and shall state:

(a) the Redemption Date,

(b) the Redemption Price and the amount of accrued interest to the Redemption Date payable as provided in Section 10.07, if any,

(c) if less than all Outstanding Notes are to be redeemed, the identification (and, in the case of a partial redemption, the principal amounts) of the particular Notes to be redeemed,

(d) in case any Note is to be redeemed in part only, that on and after the Redemption Date, upon surrender of such Note, the Holder will receive, without charge, a new Note or Notes of authorized denominations for the principal amount thereof remaining unredeemed,

(e) any condition to the obligation of the Issuer to redeem such Notes,

(f) subject to clause (e) above, that on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price (and unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to the Redemption Date payable as provided in Section 10.07) will become due and payable upon each such Note, or the portion thereof, to be redeemed, and that, unless the Issuer defaults in making such redemption payment or the Trustee or the Paying Agent is prohibited from making such payment, interest thereon will cease to accrue on and after said date, and

(g) the place or places where such Notes are to be presented and surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest, if any.

Notice of redemption of Notes to be redeemed at the election of the Issuer shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer; provided, however, in the latter case the Issuer shall give the Trustee at least 10 days prior notice (or such shorter notice as the Trustee may permit) of the date of the giving of the notice.

Section 10.06. Deposit of Redemption Price.

On or prior to any Redemption Date (and if on any Redemption Date, before 11:00 A.M. New York City time, on such date), the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee or with a Paying Agent (or, if the Issuer is acting as its own Paying Agent, segregate and hold in trust as provided in Section 9.03) an amount of money sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of, and unpaid and accrued interest (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date) on, all the Notes which are to be redeemed on that date.

Section 10.07. Notes Payable on Redemption Date.

Notice of redemption having been given as aforesaid, the Notes so to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified (together with unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to the Redemption Date), and from and after such date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest or the Trustee or the Paying Agent shall be prohibited from making such payment) such Notes shall cease to bear interest. Upon surrender of any such Note for redemption in accordance with said notice, such Note shall be paid by the Issuer at the Redemption Price, together with unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to the Redemption Date; provided, however, that installments of interest whose Stated Maturity is on or prior to the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of such Notes, or one or more Predecessor Notes, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant record dates according to their terms.

If any Note called for redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for redemption, the principal (and premium, if any) shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Notes.

If the Issuer has given notice of redemption as provided in this Indenture and made available funds to the Trustee or Paying Agent for the redemption of the Notes (or any portion thereof) called for redemption on or prior to the redemption date referred to in such notice, those Notes will cease to bear interest on that Redemption Date and the only right of the Holders of those Notes will be to receive payment of the Redemption Price.

Section 10.08. Notes Redeemed in Part. Any Note which is to be redeemed only in part shall be surrendered at the office or agency of the Issuer maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 9.02 (with, if the Issuer and the Trustee so require, due endorsement by, or a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee duly executed by, the Holder thereof or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing), and the Issuer shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Holder of such Note without service charge, a new Note or Notes, of any authorized denomination as requested by such Holder, in aggregate principal amount equal to and in exchange for the unredeemed portion of the principal of the Note so surrendered.

Section 10.09. Effect of Notice of Redemption; Conditional Redemptions.

Once notice of redemption is sent in accordance with Section 10.05 hereof, Notes called for redemption become irrevocably due and payable on the Redemption Date at the Redemption Price. Notice of any redemption of the Notes may, at the Issuer's discretion, be given in connection with any equity offering, other transaction (or series of related transactions) or an event that constitutes a Change of Control and prior to the completion or the occurrence thereof, and any such redemption thereof may, at the Issuer's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including, but not limited to, completion of the related equity offering, transaction or other event, as the case may be. If any redemption is so subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, the notice thereof shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied or waived, or such redemption or repurchase may not occur and any such notice with respect to such redemption may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date as so delayed or such notice or offer may be rescinded at any time in the Issuer's discretion if the Issuer reasonably believes that any or all of such conditions will not be satisfied or waived.

DEFEASANCE AND COVENANT DEFEASANCE

Section 11.01. Issuer's Option to Effect Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance.

The Issuer may, at its option by Board Resolution of the Issuer, at any time, with respect to the Notes, elect to have either Section 11.02 or Section 11.03 be applied to all Outstanding Notes upon compliance with the conditions set forth below in this Article 11.

Section 11.02. Defeasance and Discharge.

Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.02, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall be deemed to have been discharged from their obligations with respect to all Outstanding Notes on the date the conditions set forth in Section 11.04 are satisfied (hereinafter, "defeasance"). For this purpose, such defeasance means that the Issuer shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness represented by the Outstanding Notes, which shall thereafter be deemed to be "Outstanding" only for the purposes of Section 11.05 and the other Sections of this Indenture referred to in clauses (A) and (B) below, and to have satisfied all their other obligations under such Notes and this Indenture insofar as such Notes are concerned (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following which shall survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder: (A) the Issuer's obligations with respect to such Notes under Section 2.3 of Appendix A and Sections 3.03, 3.06, 3.07, 9.02 and 9.03 and the Issuer's rights under Section 10.01, (B) rights of Holders to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Notes (but not the Purchase Price referred to under Section 9.07) and any rights of the Holders with respect to such amounts, (C) the rights, obligations and immunities of the Trustee under this Indenture and (D) this Article 11. Subject to compliance with this Article 11, the Issuer may exercise its option under this Section 11.02 notwithstanding the prior exercise of its option under Section 11.03 with respect to the Notes. If the Issuer exercises its option under this Section 11.02, each Guarantor, if any, shall be released from all its obligations under its Note Guarantee. Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.02, all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes shall be released and the Security Documents shall cease to be of further effect.

Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.03, the Issuer and each Guarantor shall be released from their obligations under any covenant contained in Sections 7.03, 7.04, 7.05, 7.06, 9.05 and Sections 9.07 through 9.17 and Section 12.01 and from the operation of Sections 5.01(f), (g), (h), (i), (j) and (k) (but, in the case of Sections 5.01(i) and (j), with respect only to Significant Subsidiaries), with respect to the Outstanding Notes on and after the date the conditions set forth below are satisfied (hereinafter, "covenant defeasance"), and the Notes shall thereafter be deemed not to be "Outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent, declaration or other Act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such provisions, but shall continue to be deemed "Outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder. For this purpose, such covenant defeasance means that, with respect to the Outstanding Notes, the Issuer and the Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such provision, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein to any such provision or by reason of any reference in any such provision to any other provision herein or in any other document and such omission to comply shall not constitute a Default or an Event of Default under Section 5.01(c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j) or (k) (but, in the case of Section 5.01(i) or (j), with respect only to Significant Subsidiaries) but, except as specified above, the remainder of this Indenture and such Notes shall be unaffected thereby. If the Issuer exercises its option under this Section 11.03, each Guarantor shall be released from all its obligations under its Note Guarantee. Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.03, all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes shall be released and the Security Documents shall cease to be of further effect.

The following shall be the conditions to application of either Section 11.02 or Section 11.03 to the Outstanding Notes:

(a) The Issuer shall irrevocably have deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee (or another trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.08 who shall agree to comply with the provisions of this Article 11 applicable to it) as trust funds in trust for the purpose of making the following payments, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of such Notes, at any time prior to the Maturity of the Notes: (A) money in an amount, or (B) Government Securities which through the payment of interest and principal will provide, not later than one day before the due date of payment in respect of the Notes, money in an amount, or (C) a combination thereof, sufficient, in the opinion of a certified public accountant (selected by the Issuer in its sole discretion) expressed in a written certification delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge the principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest on, the Outstanding Notes on the Stated Maturity (or Redemption Date, if applicable) of such principal (and premium, if any) or installment of interest; provided that the Trustee (or such other trustee) shall have been irrevocably instructed in writing to apply such money or the proceeds of such Government Securities to said payments with respect to the Notes. Before such a deposit, the Issuer may give to the Trustee, in accordance with Section 10.03, a notice of their election to redeem all of the Outstanding Notes at a future date in accordance with Article 10, which notice shall be irrevocable. Such irrevocable redemption notice, if given, shall be given effect in applying the foregoing.

(b) No Default or Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or, insofar as Section 5.01(i) and Section 5.01(j) are concerned with respect to the Issuer, at any time during the period ending on the 123rd day after the date of such deposit (it being understood that this condition shall not be deemed satisfied until the expiration of such period).

(c) Such defeasance or covenant defeasance shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer or any Guarantor is a party or by which it is bound.

(d) In the case of an election under Section 11.02, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that (x) the Issuer has received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, or (y) since the date of this Indenture, there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such opinion shall confirm that, the Holders of the Outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income Tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance had not occurred.

(e) In the case of an election under Section 11.03, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Holders of the Outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income Tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred.

(f) The Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent provided for relating to either the defeasance under Section 11.02 or the covenant defeasance under Section 11.03 (as the case may be) have been complied with.

Section 11.05. Deposited Money and Government Securities to Be Held in Trust; Other Miscellaneous Provisions.

Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 9.03, all money and Government Securities (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee (or other qualifying trustee, collectively for purposes of this Section 11.05, the "Trustee") pursuant to Section 11.04 in respect of the Outstanding Notes shall be held in trust and applied by the Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of such Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as its own Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of such Notes of all sums due and to become due thereon in respect of principal, premium, if any, and interest, but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law or to the extent the Issuer acts as the Issuer's Paying Agent.

The Issuer shall pay and indemnify the Trustee and (if applicable) its officers, directors, employees and agents against any Tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against the Government Securities deposited pursuant to Section 11.04 or the principal and interest received in respect thereof other than any such Tax, fee or other charge which by law is for the account of the Holders of the Outstanding Notes.

Anything in this Article 11 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee shall deliver or pay to the Issuer from time to time upon the Issuer's Request any money or Government Securities held by it as provided in Section 11.04 which, in the opinion of a certified public accountant (selected by the Issuer in its sole discretion) expressed in a written certification thereof delivered to the Trustee, are in excess of the amount thereof which would then be required to be deposited to effect an equivalent defeasance or covenant defeasance, as applicable, in accordance with this Article 11.

Section 11.06. Reinstatement.

If the Trustee or any Paying Agent is unable to apply any money in accordance with Section 4.01 or 11.05 by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, then the Issuer's and each Guarantor's obligations under the Note Documents shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 4.01, 11.02 or 11.03, as the case may be, until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money in accordance therewith; provided, however, that if the Issuer or any Guarantor makes any payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note following the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuer or such Guarantor shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

NOTE GUARANTEES

Section 12.01. Guarantees. Each Guarantor (other than the QC Guarantors, who provide a guarantee of collection only and not a guarantee of performance or payment) hereby unconditionally guarantees, jointly and severally, to each Holder and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns (a) the full and punctual payment of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, and all other monetary obligations of the Issuer under the Note Documents and (b) the full and punctual performance within applicable grace periods of all other obligations of the Issuer under the Note Documents (all the foregoing being hereinafter collectively called the "Obligations"). Each Guarantor further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from such Guarantor, and that such Guarantor will remain bound under this Article 12 notwithstanding any extension or renewal of any Obligation.

Each Guarantor waives presentation to, demand of, payment from and protest to the Issuer of any of the Obligations and also waives notice of protest for nonpayment. Each Guarantor waives notice of any default under the Notes or the Obligations. The obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be affected by (a) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against the Issuer or any other person under this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement or otherwise; (b) any extension or renewal of any thereof; (c) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of any of the terms or provisions of this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement; (d) the release of any security held by any Holder or the Trustee for the Obligations of any of them; (e) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to exercise any right or remedy against any Guarantor of the Obligations; or (f) any change in the ownership of such Guarantor.

Each Guarantor further agrees that its Note Guarantee herein constitutes a guarantee of payment, performance and compliance when due (and not a guarantee of collection) and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Holder or the Trustee to any security held for payment of the Obligations.

Except as expressly set forth in Sections 7.05, 7.06, 9.14, 11.02, 11.03, 12.03 and 12.08, the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and shall not be subject to any defense of setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever or by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Guarantee of the Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Guarantor herein shall not be discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any remedy under this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement, by any waiver or modification of any terms thereof, by any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of the obligations, or by any other act or thing or omission or delay to do any other act or thing which may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of such Guarantor or would otherwise operate as a discharge of such Guarantor as a matter of law or equity.

Each Guarantor further agrees that its Note Guarantee herein shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by any Holder or the Trustee upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of the Issuer or otherwise.

In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right which any Holder or the Trustee has at law or in equity against any Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of the Issuer to pay the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, or to perform or comply with any other Obligation, each Guarantor hereby promises to and will, upon receipt of written demand by the Trustee, forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, in cash, to the Holders or the Trustee an amount equal to the sum of (i) the unpaid amount of such Obligations, (ii) accrued and unpaid interest on such Obligations (but only to the extent not prohibited by law) and (iii) all other monetary Obligations of the Issuer to the Holders and the Trustee.

Each Guarantor agrees that it shall not be entitled to any right of subrogation in respect of any Obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full in cash of all Obligations. Each Guarantor further agrees that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the Obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 5 for the purposes of such Guarantor's Note Guarantee herein, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the Obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such Obligations as provided in Article 5, such Obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by such Guarantor for the purposes of this Section 12.01.

Each Guarantor also agrees to pay any and all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by the Trustee or any Holder in enforcing any rights under this Section 12.01.

The Issuer shall cause each of its direct and indirect Subsidiaries that is not an Excluded Subsidiary and that guarantees or becomes a borrower under any First Lien Obligations to execute and deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days of such event (which such period will be automatically extended in 30 day increments so long as the Issuer uses commercially reasonable efforts), a supplemental indenture substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto pursuant to which such Subsidiary will guarantee the Obligations. For the avoidance of doubt, no Excluded Subsidiary shall be required to guarantee the Obligations, become a party to the Collateral Agreement or any other Collateral Document or create Liens on its assets to secure the Obligations.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (but subject to the following paragraph), if a person is required to become a Guarantor pursuant to this Indenture, none of the Issuer or any Subsidiary shall be required to submit any application or filing or otherwise take any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to become a Guarantor (and the requirement to provide such a Guarantee shall be tolled), in each case, to the extent an authorization or consent of such federal or state Governmental Authority is determined by the Issuer to be sought in respect of any Material Transaction or any financing relating thereto and has not yet been obtained; provided that (i) such person is not submitting any application or filing or otherwise taking any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to Guarantee any First Lien Obligation (other than the Notes) or Junior Lien Obligation and (ii) at the time such federal or state Governmental Authority has approved such Material Transaction, the application, filing or other action to obtain any such authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause any person to become a Guarantor shall promptly be made.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the guarantee of the QC Guarantors shall be a guarantee of collection only and not a guarantee of performance or payment

Section 12.02. Contribution. Each of the Issuer and any Guarantor (a "Contributing Party") agrees that, in the event a payment shall be made by any other Guarantor under any Note Guarantee (the "Claiming Guarantor"), the Contributing Party shall indemnify the Claiming Guarantor in an amount equal to the amount of such payment multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the net worth of the Contributing Party on the Issue Date and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate net worth of the Issuer and all the Guarantors on the Issue Date (or, in the case of any Guarantor becoming a party hereto pursuant to Section 8.01, the date of the supplemental indenture executed and delivered by such Guarantor).

Section 12.03. Release of Guarantees. The Note Guarantee of a Guarantor shall be automatically and unconditionally released, subject to the terms of this Indenture and the Security Documents and upon notice to the Trustee (which failure to deliver such notice shall not effect the release without delivery of any instrument or any action by any party),

(a) upon consummation of any transaction permitted hereunder if (x) resulting in such Guarantor ceasing to constitute a Subsidiary (including because such Subsidiary is designated an "Unrestricted Subsidiary") or (y) in the case of any Guarantor that would not be required to be a Guarantor because it is, or has become, an Excluded Subsidiary as a result of a transaction following which it has become (or remains) a Subsidiary of the Issuer or a Guarantor; provided that, any release pursuant to preceding clause (y) shall only be effective if:

(A) no Event of Default under Section 5.01(a), (b), (i) or (j) has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom,

(B) at the time of such release (and after giving effect thereto), all outstanding Indebtedness of, and Investments in, such Subsidiary would then be permitted to be made in accordance with the relevant provisions of Sections 9.07 and 9.09 (for this purpose, with the Issuer being required to reclassify any such items made in reliance upon the respective Subsidiary being a Guarantor on another basis as would be permitted by such applicable Section) (and all items described above in this clause (B) shall thereafter be deemed recharacterized as provided above in this clause (B));

(C) such Subsidiary shall not be (or shall be simultaneously released as) a guarantor (if applicable) with respect to any Secured Notes, Other First Lien Debt, Permitted Junior Debt, Existing Notes, Subordinated Indebtedness, any other Indebtedness secured by a Junior Lien, or any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness (and successive Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness) with respect to the foregoing; and

(D) the transaction resulting in such release is a legitimate business transaction and not for a "liability management transaction" as reasonably determined by the Issuer;

(b) [reserved],

(c) [reserved],

(d) [reserved],

(e) if such Guarantor is (or immediately after being released from its Note Guarantee of the Notes will be) released from its Guarantee of all First Lien Obligations and Junior Lien Obligations except any such release by or as a result of payment of such Guarantee and such Guarantor is not a guarantor under any of the other First Lien Obligations and is not otherwise required to Guarantee the Notes under this Indenture in accordance with Section 12.01,

(f) if the Issuer exercises the legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option or effects a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, in each case, in accordance with Article 11, or

(g) if such Guarantee was originally Incurred to permit such Guarantor to Incur or guarantee Indebtedness not otherwise permitted pursuant to Section 9.07 or Section 9.08 and the Indebtedness so Incurred or guaranteed (and any permitted refinancing Indebtedness thereof) has been repaid or discharged (provided that, after giving effect to such release, such Guarantor does not have any outstanding Indebtedness or guarantee that would violate Section 9.07 or Section 9.08 if such outstanding Indebtedness or guarantee would have been Incurred following the release of such Note Guarantee and such Guarantor is not a guarantor under any First Lien Obligation (other than the Notes)).

Upon any occurrence giving rise to a release of a Guarantee as specified above, the Trustee, upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate from the Issuer and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that all conditions precedent to such release have been satisfied, shall execute any documents reasonably required by the Issuer in order to evidence or effect such release, discharge and termination in respect of such Guarantee. None of the Issuer, any Guarantor or the Trustee will be required to make a notation on the Notes to reflect any Guarantee or any such release, termination or discharge.

Section 12.04. Successors and Assigns. This Article 12 shall be binding upon each Guarantor and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Trustee and the Holders and, in the event of any transfer or assignment of rights by any Holder or the Trustee, the rights and privileges conferred upon that party in this Indenture and in the Notes shall automatically extend to and be vested in such transferee or assignee, all subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture.

Section 12.05. No Waiver. Neither a failure nor a delay on the part of either the Trustee or the Holders in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Article 12 shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any right, power or privilege. The rights, remedies and benefits of the Trustee and the Holders herein expressly specified are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights, remedies or benefits which either may have under this Article 12 at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise.

Section 12.06. Modification. No modification, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Article 12, nor the consent to any departure by any Guarantor therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Trustee, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice to or demand on any Guarantor in any case shall entitle such Guarantor to any other or further notice or demand in the same, similar or other circumstances.

Section 12.07. Execution of Supplemental Indenture for Future Guarantors.

(a) Subject to Section 8.03 hereof, each Subsidiary which is required to become a Guarantor pursuant to any Section of this Indenture shall promptly execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture in the form of Exhibit B hereto pursuant to which such Subsidiary shall become a Guarantor under this Article 12 and shall guarantee the Obligations.

The Trustee and the Issuer hereby acknowledge and agree that the Collateral Agent has a security interest in the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders, the Trustee and itself, in each case pursuant and subject to the terms of the Security Documents. The Issuer and the Guarantors shall make all filings (including filings of continuation statements and amendments to Uniform Commercial Code financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and filings with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office of notices of grant of security interest in Intellectual Property) and take all other actions, in each case as are required by the Security Documents, to create, maintain, perfect, record, continue, enforce or protect (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuer and the Guarantors) the security interests created by the Security Documents in the Collateral (subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements and the Security Documents) as a perfected security interest and within the time frames set forth therein subject to permitted Liens and the priority required by the Intercreditor Agreement and the other Security Documents.

(b) Each Holder, by its acceptance of a Note, 1. consents and agrees to the terms of each Security Document (including, without limitation, the provisions providing for possession, use, release and foreclosure of Collateral), the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement as originally in effect and as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time in accordance with its terms or the terms of this Indenture and agrees that it will not contest or support any other person in contesting, in any proceeding (including any insolvency or liquidation proceeding), the perfection, priority, validity or enforceability of a Lien held by or on behalf of any other holder of First Lien Obligations in all or any part of the Collateral, 2. authorizes the Collateral Agent to act on its behalf as "collateral agent" under this Indenture and the Security Documents, 3. authorizes the Issuer to appoint the Collateral Agent to act on behalf of the Secured Parties as the Collateral Agent under this Indenture and the Security Documents, 4. authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to enter into the Security Documents to which it is or becomes a party, the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights and powers thereunder in accordance therewith, 5. authorizes and empowers the Collateral Agent to bind the Holders and other holders of First Lien Obligations and Junior Lien Obligations as set forth in the Security Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party and 6. authorizes the Trustee to authorize the Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, including for purposes of acquiring, holding, enforcing and foreclosing on any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any grantor thereunder to secure any of the First Lien Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such consent shall be deemed or construed to represent an amendment or waiver, in whole or in part, of any provision of this Indenture or the Notes. The foregoing will not limit the right of the Issuer or any Subsidiary to amend, waive or otherwise modify the Security Documents in accordance with their terms.

(c) Neither the Issuer nor any Guarantor will take or omit to take any action which would materially adversely affect or impair the validity or enforceability of the Liens in favor of the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties with respect to the Collateral; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be deemed to prohibit any action or inaction that is otherwise permitted by this Indenture or required by law.

(d) Subject to Article 6, neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys or agents will be responsible or liable for the existence, genuineness, value or protection of any Collateral, for the legality, validity, enforceability, effectiveness or sufficiency of the Collateral Documents, for the creation, perfection, priority, sufficiency or protection of any Lien securing First Lien Obligations, or for any defect or deficiency as to any such matters, or for any failure to demand, collect, foreclose or realize upon or otherwise enforce any of the Liens securing First Lien Obligations or the Collateral Documents or any delay in doing so.

(e) The Holders agree that the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to the rights, privileges, protections, immunities, indemnities and benefits provided to the Collateral Agent by this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements and the Security Documents. Furthermore, each Holder, by accepting a Note, consents to the terms of and authorizes and directs the Trustee (in each of its capacities) and the Collateral Agent to enter into and perform each of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement, any other Intercreditor Agreement and the Security Documents in each of its capacities thereunder.

(f) If the Issuer (i) Incurs Other First Lien Debt at any time when no intercreditor agreement is in effect or at any time when First Lien Obligations (other than the Notes) entitled to the benefit of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement is concurrently retired, and (ii) delivers to the Collateral Agent an Officers' Certificate so stating and requesting the Collateral Agent to enter into an intercreditor agreement (on substantially the same terms as the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement) in favor of a designated agent or representative for the holders of the Other First Lien Debt so Incurred, the Collateral Agent shall (and is hereby authorized and directed to) enter into such intercreditor agreement, bind the holders on the terms set forth therein and perform and observe its obligations thereunder.

(g) If the Issuer (i) Incurs Junior Lien Obligations at any time when no applicable intercreditor agreement is in effect or at any time when Indebtedness constituting Junior Lien Obligations entitled to the benefit of a Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement is concurrently retired, and (ii) delivers to the Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, an Officer's Certificate so stating and requesting the Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, to enter into a Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement in favor of a designated agent or representative for the holders of the Indebtedness constituting Junior Lien Obligations so Incurred, the Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, shall (and each is hereby authorized and directed to) enter into such intercreditor agreement bind the holders on the terms set forth therein and perform and observe its obligations thereunder.

(c) Subject to the limitations set forth in the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall, at their expense, execute, acknowledge, deliver and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents, and take all such actions as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request, to assure, preserve, protect and perfect (and to maintain the perfection of) the security interest and the priority thereof in the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders and the Collateral Agent (including the payment of any fees and Taxes required in connection with the execution and delivery of the Security Documents, the granting of such security interests and the filing of any financing statements or other documents in connection therewith), in each case to the extent required by the Security Documents.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or the Security Documents, and for the avoidance of doubt, neither the Issuer nor any Guarantor shall be obligated to grant a security interest in any asset that is not required to also be collateral securing any First Lien Obligations and, if so required, they shall not be required to perfect any such security interest unless and until they are required to do so in respect of such First Lien Obligations.

The provisions of this Section 13.03 are solely for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and neither the Trustee nor any of the Holders shall have any rights as a third party beneficiary of any of the provisions contained herein. The Collateral Agent shall be deemed not to have actual knowledge of any Event of Default unless and until written notice describing such Event of Default is given by the Trustee or the Issuer and received by a Responsible Officer of the Collateral Agent;

(v) shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (A) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Security Document, (B) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered thereunder or in connection therewith, (C) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth therein or the occurrence of any Event of Default, (D) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Security Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Security Documents, (E) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, or (F) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in any Security Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Collateral Agent; and

The Holders may only act by written instruction to the Trustee, subject to the terms hereof, which shall instruct the Collateral Agent.

(e) If at any time or times the Trustee shall receive 1. by payment, foreclosure, set-off or otherwise, any proceeds of Collateral or any payments with respect to the Note Obligations arising under, or relating to, this Indenture, except for any such proceeds or payments received by the Trustee from the Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, or 2. payments from the Collateral Agent in excess of the amount required to be paid to the Trustee pursuant to Article 5, the Trustee shall promptly turn the same over to the Collateral Agent, in kind, and with such endorsements as may be required to negotiate the same to the Collateral Agent such proceeds to be applied by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreement.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or any Security Document, neither the Collateral Agent nor the Trustee shall be responsible for, and neither makes any representation regarding, the validity, effectiveness or priority of any of the Security Documents or the security interests or Liens intended to be created thereby.

(i) The Collateral Agent is authorized and empowered to appoint one or more co-Collateral Agents as it deems necessary or appropriate.

(j) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee is authorized and empowered to institute and maintain, or direct the Collateral Agent to institute and maintain, such suits and proceedings as it may deem expedient to protect or enforce the Liens securing the First Lien Obligations or the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party or to prevent any impairment of Collateral by any acts that may be unlawful or in violation of the Collateral Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements to which the Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee or the Collateral Agent may deem expedient to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Holders in the Collateral, including power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the security interest hereunder or be prejudicial to the interests of Holders, the Trustee or the Collateral Agent.

Section 13.04. Release of Collateral. (a) All or any portion of the Collateral, as applicable, shall be released from the Lien and security interest created by the Security Documents to secure the Note Obligations, all without delivery of any instrument or performance of any act by any party, at any time or from time to time as provided by this Section 13.04. Upon such release, subject to the terms of the Security Documents all rights in the applicable Collateral securing the Note Obligations shall revert to the Issuer and the Guarantors. (ii) upon payment in full of principal, interest and all other Note Obligations that are due and payable at the time such principal and interest is paid;

(x) to the extent that such Collateral comprises property leased to the Issuer or a Guarantor, upon termination or expiration of such lease.

(b) In the event any Collateral or Guarantor is released hereunder and the Issuer is not required to deliver an Officer's Certificate and/or Opinion of Counsel to the Trustee, the Trustee shall receive notice of such release.

(c) The Collateral Agent and, if necessary, the Trustee shall, at the Issuer's expense, execute, deliver or acknowledge any necessary or proper instruments of termination subject to the terms hereof and terms of the Security Documents and Intercreditor Agreement, satisfaction or release provided to it to evidence and shall do or cause to be done all other acts reasonably necessary to effect, in each case as soon as is reasonably practicable, the release of any Collateral permitted to be released pursuant to this Indenture and the Security Documents. (d) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, the Holders and the other Secured Parties hereby irrevocably authorize and instruct the Trustee and the Collateral Agent to, upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel, without any further consent of any Holder or any other Secured Party, and, upon the request of the Issuer, the Collateral Agent shall, (a) enter into (or acknowledge and consent to) or amend, renew, extend, supplement, restate, replace, waive or otherwise modify any of the Intercreditor Agreements with the collateral agent or other representative of holders of Indebtedness secured (and permitted to be secured) by a Lien on assets constituting a portion of the Collateral under any of Section 9.08(b), (z), (aa), (bb), (gg), (kk) or (mm) (and solely in accordance with the relevant requirements thereof and not in lieu of the requirements thereof) and (b) release any Lien securing the obligations on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Note Document to the holder of any Lien on such property that is permitted by Section 9.08(c), (i) or (v) in each case to the extent the contract or agreement pursuant to which such Lien is granted prohibits any other Liens on such property.

(e) The release of any Collateral from the terms of this Indenture and the Security Documents will not be deemed to impair the security under this Indenture in contravention of the provisions hereof if and to the extent the Collateral is released pursuant to the terms of the Security Documents.

(f) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in connection with (x) any release of Collateral pursuant to Section 13.04(a), the Collateral Agent shall not be required to execute, deliver or acknowledge any instruments of termination, satisfaction or release unless, in each case, an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel certifying that all conditions precedent, including, without limitation, this Section 13.04, have been met and stating under which of the circumstances set forth in Section 13.04(a) above the Collateral is being released have been delivered to the Collateral Agent.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, at any time when a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the maturity of the Securities has been accelerated (whether by declaration or otherwise) and the Trustee has delivered a notice of acceleration to the Collateral Agent, no release of Collateral pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture or the Collateral Documents will be effective as against the Holders, except as otherwise provided in the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement.

(a) Subject to the provisions of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee may direct, on behalf of Holders, the Collateral Agent to take action permitted to be taken by it under the Security Documents.

(ii) collect and receive any and all amounts payable in respect of the Note Obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantors hereunder.

(c) Subject to the provisions of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent will have power to institute and maintain such suits and proceedings, at the expense of the Issuer, as it may deem expedient to prevent any impairment of the Collateral by any acts that may be unlawful or in violation of the Security Documents or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee or the Collateral Agent may deem expedient to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Holders in the Collateral (including power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the security interest hereunder or be prejudicial to the interests of the Holders or of the Trustee or the Collateral Agent). Nothing in this Section 13.05 shall be considered to impose any such duty or obligation to act on the part of the Trustee or the Collateral Agent.

Section 13.06. Authorization of Receipt of Funds by the Collateral Agent Under the Security Documents. Subject to the provisions of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement, the Collateral Agent is authorized to receive any funds for the benefit of the Holders distributed under the Security Documents, and to make further distributions of such funds to the Trustee for further distribution to the Holders according to the provisions of this Indenture.

Section 13.07. Purchaser Protected. In no event shall any purchaser or other transferee in good faith of any property or assets purported to be released hereunder be bound to ascertain the authority of the Collateral Agent or the Trustee to execute the release or to inquire as to the satisfaction of any conditions required by the provisions hereof for the exercise of such authority or to see to the application of any consideration given by such purchaser or other transferee; nor shall any purchaser or other transferee of any property or assets be under any obligation to ascertain or inquire into the authority of the Issuer or the applicable Guarantor to make any such sale or other transfer.

Section 13.08. Powers Exercisable by Receiver or Trustee. In case the Collateral shall be in the possession of a receiver or trustee, lawfully appointed, the powers conferred in this Article 13 upon the Issuer or a Guarantor with respect to the release, sale or other disposition of such property or assets may be exercised by such receiver or trustee, and an instrument signed by such receiver or trustee shall be deemed the equivalent of any similar instrument of the Issuer or a Guarantor or of any officer or officers thereof required by the provisions of this Article 13; and if the Trustee, Collateral Agent or a nominee of the Trustee or Collateral Agent shall be in the possession of the Collateral under any provision of this Indenture, then such powers may be exercised by the Trustee, Collateral Agent or a nominee of the Trustee or Collateral Agent.

Section 13.09. Rights of Trustee. (a) In the event the Trustee is requested to deliver to the Collateral Agent a notice or direction on behalf of the Issuer instructing the Collateral Agent to take an action under the terms of this Indenture, the Collateral Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel, each stating that the relevant action is authorized or permitted under the Indenture, the Collateral Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, and the conditions precedent to such action under such documents have been complied with. In the event that the Trustee is required to acquire title to an asset for any reason, or take any managerial action of any kind in regard thereto, in order to carry out any fiduciary or trust obligation for the benefit of another, which may cause the Trustee to be considered an "owner or operator" under the provisions of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. §9601, et seq., or otherwise cause the Trustee to incur liability under CERCLA or any other applicable law, the Trustee reserves the right, instead of taking such action, to either resign or arrange for the transfer of the title or control of the asset to a court-appointed receiver.

Section 13.10. FCC and State PUC Compliance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any of the Note Documents, none of the Trustee, the Collateral Agent or the Holders, nor any of their agents, will take any action pursuant any Note Document that would constitute or result in an assignment or transfer of control of any FCC License or State PUC License held by the Issuer or any Guarantor if such assignment or transfer of control would require, under existing Telecommunications Laws, the prior application to, approval of, or notice to, the FCC or any State PUC, without first filing such application, obtaining such approval and/or providing such required notice to the FCC and/or State PUC.

Section 13.11. Regulated Subsidiaries. Term	Defined in Section:
"Agent Members"	2.1(b)
"Global Note"	2.1(a)
"IAI Global Note"	2.1(a)
"Regulation S"	2.1
"Regulation S Global Note"	2.1(a)
"Restricted Notes Legend"	2.3(c)(i)
"Rule 144A"	2.1

2. The Notes.

2.1 Form and Dating.

The Notes will be resold initially only to QIBs in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A"), in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S") and to certain IAIs. The Notes may thereafter be transferred to, among others, QIBs and purchasers in reliance on Regulation S.

(a) Global Notes. Notes initially resold pursuant to Rule 144A shall be issued initially in the form of one or more permanent global Notes in definitive, fully registered form (collectively, the "Rule 144A Global Note"), Notes initially resold pursuant to Regulation S shall be issued initially in the form of one or more global securities (collectively, the "Regulation S Global Note") and Notes initially resold to accommodate transfers of beneficial interests in the Notes to IAIs shall be issued initially in the form of one or more global securities (collectively, the "IAI Global Note"), in each case without interest coupons and with the global securities legend and restricted securities legend set forth in Exhibit 1 hereto, which shall be deposited on behalf of the purchasers of the Notes represented thereby with the Notes Custodian, and registered in the name of the Depository or a nominee of the Depository, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee as provided in the Indenture. The Rule 144A Global Note, Regulation S Global Note and IAI Global Note are collectively referred to herein as "Global Notes". The aggregate principal amount of the Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee and the Depository or its nominee as hereinafter provided.

(b) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.1(b) shall apply only to a Global Note deposited with or on behalf of the Depository.

The Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall, in accordance with this Section 2.1(b) and pursuant to an order of the Issuer, authenticate and deliver initially one or more Global Notes that (a) shall be registered in the name of the Depository for such Global Note or Global Notes or the nominee of such Depository and (b) shall be delivered by the Trustee to such Depository or pursuant to such Depository's instructions or held by the Trustee as Notes Custodian.

Members of, or participants in, the Depository ("Agent Members") shall have no rights under the Indenture with respect to any Global Note held on their behalf by the Depository or by the Trustee as Notes Custodian or under such Global Note, and the Depository may be treated by the Issuer, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee as the absolute owner of such Global Note for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer, the Trustee or any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by the Depository or impair, as between the Depository and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices of such Depository governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of a beneficial interest in any Global Note.

(c) Definitive Notes. Except as provided in Section 2.3 or 2.4, owners of beneficial interests in Global Notes will not be entitled to receive physical delivery of Definitive Notes.

2.2 Authentication. The Trustee shall authenticate and deliver: (1) Original Notes, and (2) any Additional Notes upon a written order of the Issuer signed by two Officers or by an Officer and either an Assistant Treasurer or an Assistant Secretary of the Issuer. Such order shall specify the amount of the Notes to be authenticated and the date on which the original issue of Notes is to be authenticated.

2.3 Transfer and Exchange. (a) Transfer and Exchange of Definitive Notes. When Definitive Notes are presented to the Note Registrar or a co-registrar with a request:

(x) to register the transfer of such Definitive Notes; or

(y) to exchange such Definitive Notes for an equal principal amount of Definitive Notes of other authorized denominations,

the Note Registrar or co-registrar shall register the transfer or make the exchange as requested if its reasonable requirements for such transaction are met; provided, however, that the Definitive Notes surrendered for transfer or exchange:

(i) shall be duly endorsed or accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer and the Note Registrar or co-registrar, duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing; and

(ii) are being transferred or exchanged pursuant to clause (A), (B) or (C) below, and are accompanied by the following additional information and documents, as applicable:

(A) if such Definitive Notes are being delivered to the Note Registrar by a Holder for registration in the name of such Holder, without transfer, a certification from such Holder to that effect; or

(B) if such Definitive Notes are being transferred to the Issuer, a certification to that effect; or

(C) if such Definitive Notes are being transferred pursuant to an exemption from registration in accordance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act, (i) a certification to that effect and (ii) if the Issuer so requests, an opinion of counsel or other evidence reasonably satisfactory to it as to the compliance with the restrictions set forth in the legend set forth in Section 2.3(c)(i).

(b) Transfer and Exchange of Global Notes. (i) The transfer and exchange of Global Notes or beneficial interests therein shall be effected through the Depository, in accordance with the Indenture (including applicable restrictions on transfer set forth herein, if any) and the procedures of the Depository therefor. A transferor of a beneficial interest in a Global Note shall deliver a written order given in accordance with the Depository's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depository to be credited with a beneficial interest in the Global Note and such account shall be credited in accordance with such instructions with a beneficial interest in the Global Note and the account of the person making the transfer shall be debited by an amount equal to the beneficial interest in the Global Note being transferred.

(ii) If the proposed transfer is a transfer of a beneficial interest in one Global Note to a beneficial interest in another Global Note, the Note Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date and an increase in the principal amount of the Global Note to which such interest is being transferred in an amount equal to the principal amount of the interest to be so transferred, and the Note Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date and a corresponding decrease in the principal amount of the Global Note from which such interest is being transferred.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Appendix A (other than the provisions set forth in Section 2.4), a Global Note may not be transferred as a whole except by the Depository to a nominee of the Depository or by a nominee of the Depository to the Depository or another nominee of the Depository or by the Depository or any such nominee to a successor Depository or a nominee of such successor Depository.

(iv) In the event that a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Notes pursuant to Section 2.4, such Notes may be exchanged only in accordance with such procedures as are substantially consistent with the provisions of this Section 2.3 (including the certification requirements set forth on the reverse of the Notes intended to ensure that such transfers comply with Rule 144A, Regulation S or such other applicable exemption from registration under the Securities Act, as the case may be) and such other procedures as may from time to time be adopted by the Issuer.

(v) In the case of a transfer of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note or a Rule 144A Global Note for an interest in an IAI Global Note, the transferee must furnish a signed letter substantially in the form of Exhibit 2 to the Trustee.

(c) Legend.

(i) Except as permitted by the following paragraph (ii), each certificate evidencing the Global Notes and the Definitive Notes (and all Notes issued in exchange therefor or in substitution thereof) shall bear a legend in substantially the following form (the "Restricted Notes Legend"):

"THIS NOTE HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"). THE HOLDER HEREOF, BY PURCHASING THIS NOTE, AGREES FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE ISSUER THAT THIS NOTE MAY NOT BE OFFERED, RESOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED (X) PRIOR TO THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE ISSUANCE HEREOF (OR ANY PREDECESSOR NOTE HERETO) OR (Y) BY ANY HOLDER THAT WAS AN "AFFILIATE" (WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144 UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) OF THE ISSUER AT ANY TIME DURING THE THREE MONTHS PRECEDING THE DATE OF SUCH TRANSFER, IN EITHER CASE OTHER THAN (1) TO THE ISSUER, (2) SO LONG AS THIS NOTE IS ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE PURSUANT TO RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT ("RULE 144A"), TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER TO WHOM NOTICE IS GIVEN THAT THE OFFER, RESALE, PLEDGE OR OTHER TRANSFER IS BEING MADE IN RELIANCE ON RULE 144A (AS INDICATED BY THE BOX CHECKED BY THE TRANSFEROR ON THE CERTIFICATE OF TRANSFER ON THE REVERSE OF THIS NOTE), (3) IN AN OFFSHORE TRANSACTION (AS DEFINED UNDER REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) IN ACCORDANCE WITH REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (AS INDICATED BY THE BOX CHECKED BY THE TRANSFEROR ON THE CERTIFICATE OF TRANSFER ON THE REVERSE OF THIS NOTE), (4) TO AN INSTITUTIONAL "ACCREDITED INVESTOR" WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 501(a)(1), (2), (3) OR (7) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT THAT IS NOT A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER AND THAT IS PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF ANOTHER INSTITUTIONAL ACCREDITED INVESTOR, IN EACH CASE IN A MINIMUM PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF SECURITIES OF AT LEAST $250,000 OR (5) PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PROVIDED BY RULE 144 (IF APPLICABLE) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, IN EACH CASE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SECURITIES ACT AND ANY APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES. (B) in the case of any Transfer Restricted Note that is represented by a Global Note, the Note Registrar shall permit the Holder thereof to exchange such Transfer Restricted Note for a Note that does not bear the legends set forth above and rescind any restriction on the transfer of such Transfer Restricted Note, in either case, if the Holder certifies in writing to the Note Registrar that its request for such exchange was made in reliance on Rule 144 (such certification to be in the form set forth on the reverse of the Note).

(d) Cancellation or Adjustment of Global Note. At such time as all beneficial interests in a Global Note have either been exchanged for Definitive Notes, redeemed, repurchased or canceled, such Global Note shall be returned by the Depository to the Trustee for cancellation or retained and canceled by the Trustee. At any time prior to such cancellation, if any beneficial interest in a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Notes, redeemed, repurchased or canceled, the principal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note shall be reduced and an adjustment shall be made on the books and records of the Trustee (if it is then the Notes Custodian for such Global Note) with respect to such Global Note, by the Trustee or the Notes Custodian, to reflect such reduction.

(e) Obligations with Respect to Transfers and Exchanges of Notes.

(i) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate Definitive Notes and Global Notes at the Note Registrar's or co-registrar's request.

(ii) No service charge shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange, but the Issuer may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer Tax, assessments, or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer Taxes, assessments or similar governmental charge payable upon exchange or transfer pursuant to Section 10.08 of the Indenture).

(iii) The Note Registrar or co-registrar shall not be required to register the transfer of or exchange of any Note for a period beginning 15 days before the mailing of a notice of redemption or an offer to repurchase Notes or 15 days before an Interest Payment Date.

(iv) Prior to the due presentation for registration of transfer of any Note, the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Note Registrar or any co-registrar may deem and treat the person in whose name a Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of and interest on such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note is overdue, and none of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Note Registrar or any co-registrar shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

(v) All Notes issued upon any transfer or exchange pursuant to the terms of the Indenture shall evidence the same debt and shall be entitled to the same benefits under the Indenture as the Notes surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

(f) No Obligation of the Trustee.

(i) The Trustee shall have no responsibility or obligation to any beneficial owner of a Global Note, a member of, or a participant in the Depository or any other person with respect to the accuracy of the records of the Depository or its nominee or of any participant or member thereof, with respect to any ownership interest in the Notes or with respect to the delivery to any participant, member, beneficial owner or other person (other than the Depository) of any notice (including any notice of redemption or repurchase) or the payment of any amount, under or with respect to such Notes. All notices and communications to be given to the Holders and all payments to be made to Holders under the Notes shall be given or made only to the registered Holders (which shall be the Depository or its nominee in the case of a Global Note). The rights of beneficial owners in any Global Note shall be exercised only through the Depository subject to the applicable rules and procedures of the Depository. The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in relying upon information furnished by the Depository with respect to its members, participants and any beneficial owners.

(ii) The Trustee shall have no obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under the Indenture or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any Note (including any transfers between or among Depository participants, members or beneficial owners in any Global Note) other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by, the terms of the Indenture, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof.

2.4 Definitive Notes.

(a) A Global Note deposited with the Depository or with the Trustee as Notes Custodian pursuant to Section 2.1 shall be transferred to the beneficial owners thereof in the form of Definitive Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of such Global Note, in exchange for such Global Note, only if such transfer complies with Section 2.3 and (i) the Depository notifies the Issuer that it is unwilling or unable to continue as a Depository for such Global Note or if at any time the Depository ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act, and a successor Depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice, or (ii) a Default or an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or (iii) the Issuer, in its sole discretion, notifies the Trustee in writing that it elects to cause the issuance of Definitive Notes under the Indenture.

(b) Any Global Note that is transferable to the beneficial owners thereof pursuant to this Section 2.4 shall be surrendered by the Depository to the Trustee, to be so transferred, in whole or from time to time in part, without charge, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, upon such transfer of each portion of such Global Note, an equal aggregate principal amount of Definitive Notes of authorized denominations. Definitive Notes issued in exchange for any portion of a Global Note transferred pursuant to this Section shall be executed, authenticated and delivered only in denominations of $1.00 and any integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof and registered in such names as the Depository shall direct. Any Definitive Note delivered in exchange for an interest in the Global Note shall, except as otherwise provided by Section 2.3(c), bear the restricted securities legend set forth in Exhibit 1 hereto.

(c) The registered Holder of a Global Note may grant proxies and otherwise authorize any person, including Agent Members and persons that may hold interests through Agent Members, to take any action that a Holder is entitled to take under the Indenture or the Notes.

(d) In the event of the occurrence of any of the events specified in Section 2.4(a)(i), (ii) or (iii), the Issuer will promptly make available to the Trustee a reasonable supply of Definitive Notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons.

[FORM OF REVERSE SIDE OF NOTE]

4.125% Superpriority Senior Secured Notes due 2029

Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Indenture referred to below.

1. Interest

LUMEN TECHNOLOGIES, INC., a Louisiana corporation (such corporation, and its successors and assigns under the Indenture hereinafter referred to, being herein called the "Issuer"), promises to pay interest on the principal amount of this Note at the rate per annum shown above. The Issuer will pay interest semiannually on February 15 and August 15 of each year, commencing August 15, 2024, and on the maturity date. Interest on the Note will accrue from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or, if no interest has been paid, from March 22, 2024. Interest shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months.

2. Method of Payment

The Issuer will pay interest on the Notes (except defaulted interest) to the persons who are registered holders of Notes at the close of business on the February 1 or August 1 next preceding the Interest Payment Date even if Notes are canceled after the record date and on or before the Interest Payment Date. The Issuer will pay interest on the Notes on the maturity date to the persons entitled to the principal of the Notes. Holders must surrender Notes to a Paying Agent to collect principal payments. The Issuer will pay principal and interest in money of the United States of America that at the time of payment is legal tender for payment of public and private debts. Payments in respect of the Notes represented by a Global Note (including principal, premium and interest) will be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the accounts specified by The Depository Trust Company. The Issuer will make all payments in respect of a Definitive Note (including principal, premium and interest), by mailing a check to the registered address of each Holder thereof; provided, however, that, at the option of the Issuer, payments on the Notes may also be made, in the case of a Holder of at least $1,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Notes, by wire transfer to a U.S. dollar account maintained by the payee with a bank in the United States if such Holder requests payment by wire transfer by giving written notice to the Trustee or the Paying Agent to such effect designating such account no later than 30 days immediately preceding the relevant due date for payment (or such other date as the Trustee may accept in its discretion).

3. Paying Agent and Note Registrar

Initially, WILMINGTON TRUST, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, a national banking association (the "Trustee"), will act as Paying Agent and Note Registrar. The Issuer may appoint and change any Paying Agent, Note Registrar or co-registrar without notice.

4. Indenture

The Issuer issued the Notes under an Indenture dated as of March 22, 2024 (as amaended, modified or supplemented from time to time, the "Indenture") among the Issuer, the Guarantors party thereto, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent. The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Indenture. The Notes are subject to all such terms, and Holders are referred to the Indenture for a statement of those terms.

The Notes are unsubordinated, secured obligations of the Issuer. [This Note is one of the Original Notes referred to in the Indenture issued in an aggregate principal amount of $332,449,400. The Notes include the Original Notes and any Additional Notes]. [This Note is one of the Additional Notes issued in addition to the Original Notes in an aggregate principal amount of $332,449,400 previously issued under the Indenture. The Original Notes and the Additional Notes are treated as a single class of securities under the Indenture.] The Indenture imposes certain limitations on the ability of the Issuer and its respective Subsidiaries to, among other things, incur Indebtedness and create and incur Liens. The Indenture also imposes limitations on the ability of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries to consolidate or merge with or into any other person or sell, transfer, assign, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the property of such entities.

To guarantee the due and punctual payment of the principal and interest on the Notes and all other amounts payable by the Issuer under the Indenture and the Notes when and as the same shall be due and payable, whether at maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, according to the terms of the Notes and the Indenture, (i) each Collateral Guarantor has unconditionally guaranteed the Notes, jointly and severally, on a senior secured basis and (ii) each Unsecured Guarantor has unconditionally guaranteed the Notes, jointly and severally, on a senior unsecured basis, in each case, pursuant to the terms of the Indenture

5. Optional Redemption

At any time or from time to time prior to February 15, 2025, the Issuer may, at its option, redeem all or a portion of the Notes, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice, at a Redemption Price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Notes so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (if any) to, but not including, the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

At any time or from time to time on or after February 15, 2025, the Issuer may, at its option, redeem all or a portion of the Notes, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice, at a Redemption Price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (if any) to, but not including, the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with any tender offer for the Notes, including any offer to purchase Notes pursuant to Section 9.10 and 9.13 of the Indenture, if Holders of not less than 90% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes validly tender and do not withdraw such Notes in such tender offer and the Issuer, or any third party making such tender offer in lieu of the Issuer, purchases all of the Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn by such Holders, the Issuer or such third party will have the right, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice, given not more than 60 days following such purchase date, to redeem (with respect to the Issuer) or repurchase (with respect to a third-party) all Notes that remain outstanding following such purchase at a Redemption Price equal to the greater of (i) the highest price offered to any other Holder in such tender offer or other offer to purchase (which may be less than par and shall exclude any early tender premium or similar premium and any accrued and unpaid interest paid to any holder in such tender offer payment) and (ii) par, plus accrued and unpaid interest (if any) thereon, to, but excluding the date of redemption or Redemption Date, subject to the right of Holders of record of the Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to the date of redemption or Redemption Date.

Once notice of redemption is sent in accordance with Section 10.05 hereof, Notes called for redemption become irrevocably due and payable on the Redemption Date at the Redemption Price. Notice of any redemption of the Notes may, at the Issuer's discretion, be given in connection with any equity offering, other transaction (or series of related transactions) or event that constitutes a Change of Control and prior to the completion or the occurrence thereof, and any such redemption thereof may, at the Issuer's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including, but not limited to, completion of the related equity offering, transaction or other event, as the case may be. If any redemption is so subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, the notice thereof shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied or waived, or such redemption or purchase may not occur and any such notice with respect to such redemption may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date as so delayed or such notice or offer may be rescinded at any time in the Issuer's discretion if the Issuer reasonably believes that any or all of such conditions will not be satisfied or waived.

If the Issuer has given notice of redemption as provided in the Indenture and made available funds for the redemption of the Notes (or any portion thereof) called for redemption on or prior to the redemption date referred to in such notice, those Notes will cease to bear interest on that redemption date and the only right of the holders of those Notes will be to receive payment of the redemption price.

The Issuer and its Affiliates may acquire Notes by means other than a redemption, whether by tender offer, open market purchases, negotiated transactions or otherwise, so long as such acquisition does not otherwise violate the terms of the Indenture.

6. Sinking Fund

The Notes are not subject to any sinking fund.

7. Notice of Redemption

Notice of redemption shall be given in the manner provided for in Section 1.06 of the Indenture not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed; provided that in the case of Notes held through the Depository by Depository participants, such notice will be submitted via the Depository's electronic messaging system.

8. Repurchase of Notes at the Option of Holders upon Change of Control Repurchase Event

Upon a Change of Control Repurchase Event, any Holder of Notes will have the right, subject to certain conditions specified in the Indenture, to cause the Issuer to repurchase all or any part of the Notes of such Holder at a purchase price in cash equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Notes to be repurchased on the Purchase Date plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the Purchase Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date) as provided in, and subject to the terms of, the Indenture.

9. Denominations; Transfer; Exchange

The Notes are in registered form without coupons in denominations of $1.00 and whole multiples of $1.00. A Holder may transfer or exchange Notes in accordance with the Indenture. Upon any transfer or exchange, the Note Registrar and the Trustee may require a Holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements or transfer documents and to pay any Taxes and fees required by law or permitted by the Indenture. The Note Registrar or co-registrar need not register the transfer of or exchange of any Note for a period beginning 15 days before the mailing of a notice of redemption or an offer to repurchase Notes or 15 days before an Interest Payment Date.

10. P*ersons Deemed Owners*

The registered Holder of this Note may be treated as the owner of it for all purposes.

11. Unclaimed Money

If money for the payment of principal, premium (if any), or interest remains unclaimed for two years, the Trustee or Paying Agent shall notify the Issuer and pay the money back to the Issuer at its written request after following specified procedures. After any such payment, Holders entitled to the money must look only to the Issuer and not to the Trustee for payment.

12. Discharge and Defeasance

Subject to certain conditions, the Issuer at any time may terminate some of or all its obligations under the Notes and the Indenture if the Issuer deposits with the Trustee money and/or Government Securities for the payment of principal, premium (if any) and interest on the Notes to redemption or maturity, as the case may be.

13. Amendment, Waiver

Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, (i) the Indenture or the Notes may be amended without prior notice to any Holder but with the written consent of the Holders of at least a majority (or, with respect to certain covenants, the written consent of at least two-thirds) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes and (ii) any default or noncompliance with any provision may be waived with the written consent of the Holders of at least a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes. Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, the Issuer, the Guarantors, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent may, at any time and from time to time, without notice to or consent of any Holders of Notes, amend the Indenture or any other Note Document: (i) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or any Guarantor and the assumption by such successor of the covenants of the Issuer or such Guarantor, respectively, in the Indenture, in the Notes, in the applicable Note Guarantee and in the applicable Security Documents, as applicable; (ii) to add to the covenants of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries, for the benefit of the Holders, or to surrender any right or power conferred upon the Issuer or any Guarantor by the Indenture; (iii) to add any additional Events of Default; (iv) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes; (v) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under the Indenture of a successor Trustee or a successor Collateral Agent in each case pursuant to the requirements of the Indenture; (vi) to secure the Notes; (vii) to comply with the Securities Act (including Regulation S promulgated thereunder); (viii) to add Note Guarantees or to release any Guarantors from Note Guarantees as provided by the terms of the Indenture; (ix) to (a) cure any ambiguity, mistake, omission, defect, inconsistency, or obvious error in the Indenture, or (b) correct or supplement any provision in the Indenture which may be inconsistent with any other provision therein, or to add any other provision with respect to matters or questions arising under the Indenture; provided that, with respect to the foregoing clause (ix)(b), such actions shall not adversely affect the interests of the Holders in any material respect; (x) [reserved]; or (xi) to add additional assets as Collateral or to release any Collateral from the liens securing the Notes, in each case pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, as and when permitted or required by the Indenture, the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements. The Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement may be amended, waived or otherwise modified from time to time with the consent of the parties thereto. In addition, the Issuer may, without the consent of any other party thereto, amend the Security Documents and any other applicable intercreditor agreement to designate Indebtedness as “Other First Lien Debt”, or as any other Indebtedness subject to the terms and provisions of such agreement.

14. Defaults and Remedies

Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee or the Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, subject to certain limitations, may declare all the Notes to be immediately due and payable. Certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency are Events of Default and shall result in the Notes being immediately due and payable upon the occurrence of such Events of Default without any further act of the Trustee or any Holder.

Holders of Notes may not enforce the Indenture or the Notes except as provided in the Indenture. The Trustee may refuse to enforce the Indenture or the Notes unless it receives reasonable indemnity or security. Subject to certain limitations, Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding may direct the Trustee in its exercise of any trust or power under the Indenture. Before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as provided in the Indenture, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may rescind any declaration of acceleration and its consequences if all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except nonpayment of principal or premium (if any) that has become due solely because of the acceleration.

15. Trustee Dealings with the Issuer

The Trustee under the Indenture, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with and collect obligations owed to it by the Issuer or its Affiliates and may otherwise deal with the Issuer or its Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. However, the Trustee must comply with Section 6.08 of the Indenture.

16. No Recourse Against Others

A director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder, as such, of the Issuer or any Guarantor shall not have any liability for any obligations of the Issuer or any Guarantor under the Notes or the Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation, solely by reason of its status as a director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of such person. By accepting a Note, each Holder waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

17. Authentication

This Note shall not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee (or an authenticating agent) manually, electronically or by facsimile signs the certificate of authentication on the other side of this Note.

18. Abbreviations

Customary abbreviations may be used in the name of a Holder or an assignee, such as TEN COM (=tenants in common), TEN ENT (=tenants by the entireties), JT TEN (=joint tenants with rights of survivorship and not as tenants in common), CUST (=custodian), and U/G/M/A (=Uniform Gift to Minors Act).

19. CUSIP Numbers

Pursuant to a recommendation promulgated by the Committee on Uniform Note Identification Procedures, the Issuer has caused CUSIP numbers to be printed on the Notes and has directed the Trustee to use CUSIP numbers in notices of redemption as a convenience to Holders. No representation is made as to the accuracy of such numbers either as printed on the Notes or as contained in any notice of redemption and reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers placed thereon.

20. Governing Law

THIS NOTE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK BUT WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO APPLICABLE PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAW TO THE EXTENT THAT THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION WOULD BE REQUIRED THEREBY.

21. Indenture Controls

The Notes are subject to all terms and provisions of the Indenture, and the Holders are referred to the Indenture for a statement of such terms and provisions. If and to the extent that any provision of the Notes limits, qualifies or conflicts with a provision of the Indenture, such provision of the Indenture shall control.

The Issuer will furnish to any Holder of Notes upon written request and without charge to the Holder a copy of the Indenture and Holders may request the Indenture at the following:

Section 1.03. Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee.

In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified person, it is not necessary that all such matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one such person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such persons as to other matters, and any such person may certify or give an opinion as to such matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an officer of the Issuer or any Guarantor may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless such officer knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate or Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an officer or officers of the Issuer or any Guarantor, respectively, stating that the information with respect to such factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer or any Guarantor, respectively, unless such counsel knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to such matters are erroneous.

Where any person is required to make, give or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated (with proper identification of each matter covered therein) and form one instrument.

Section 1.04. Acts of Holders. (a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee and, where it is hereby expressly required, to the Issuer. Such instrument or instruments (and the action embodied therein and evidenced thereby) are herein sometimes referred to as the "Act" of the Holders signing such instrument or instruments. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and (subject to Section 6.01) conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Issuer, if made in the manner provided in this Section.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any person of any such instrument or writing may be proved by the affidavit of a witness of such execution or by a certificate of a notary public or other officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, certifying that the individual signing such instrument or writing acknowledged to him the execution thereof. Where such execution is by a signer acting in a capacity other than his individual capacity, such certificate or affidavit shall also constitute sufficient proof of authority. The fact and date of the execution of any such instrument or writing, or the authority of the person executing the same, may also be proved in any other manner that the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The principal amount and serial numbers of Notes held by any person, and the date of holding the same, shall be proved by the Note Register.

(d) If the Issuer shall solicit from the Holders of Notes any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act, the Issuer may, at its option, by or pursuant to a Board Resolution, fix in advance a record date for the determination of Holders entitled to give such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act, but the Issuer shall have no obligation to do so. Such record date shall be the record date specified in or pursuant to such Board Resolution, which shall be a date not earlier than the date 30 days prior to the first solicitation of Holders generally in connection therewith and not later than the date such solicitation is completed. If such a record date is fixed, such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act may be given before or after such record date, but only the Holders of record at the close of business on such record date shall be deemed to be Holders for the purposes of determining whether Holders of the requisite proportion of Outstanding Notes have authorized or agreed or consented to such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act, and for that purpose the Outstanding Notes shall be computed as of such record date; provided that no such authorization, agreement or consent by the Holders on such record date shall be deemed effective unless it shall become effective pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture not later than six months after the record date.

(e) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act of the Holder of any Note shall bind every future Holder of the same Note and the Holder of every Note issued upon the registration of transfer thereof or in exchange therefor or in lieu thereof in respect of anything done, omitted or suffered to be done by the Trustee or the Issuer in reliance thereon, whether or not notation of such action is made upon such Note. However, any such Holder or future Holder may revoke the request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act of the Holder as to such Holder's Note or portion of the Note if the Trustee receives the notice of revocation before the date such Act becomes effective.

Section 1.05. Notices, etc., to Trustee and the Issuer.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or Act of Holders or other document provided or permitted by this Indenture to be made upon, given or furnished to, or filed with,

(a) the Trustee by any Holder or by the Issuer shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if made, given, furnished or delivered in writing to the Trustee at its Corporate Trust Office, Attention: Corporate Trust Administration, or

(b) the Collateral Agent by any Holder or by the Issuer shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if made, given, furnished or delivered in writing to the Collateral Agent c/o the Trustee as described in clause (a) above, or

(c) the Issuer or any Guarantor by the Trustee or by any Holder shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, or electronically to the Issuer or such Guarantor addressed to it (in the case of a Guarantor, in care of the Issuer) at the address of the Issuer's principal office specified in the first paragraph of this Indenture and to 100 CenturyLink Drive, Monroe, LA 71203, Attention: Office of the General Counsel, or at any other address previously furnished in writing to the Trustee by the Issuer.

The Trustee agrees to accept and act upon instructions or directions pursuant to this Indenture sent by unsecured e-mail, pdf, facsimile transmission or other similar unsecured electronic methods, provided, however, that the Trustee shall have received an incumbency certificate listing persons designated to give such instructions or directions and containing specimen signatures of such designated persons, which such incumbency certificate shall be amended and replaced whenever a person is to be added or deleted from the listing. If the Issuer elects to give the Trustee e-mail or facsimile instructions (or instructions by a similar electronic method), the Trustee's understanding of such instructions shall be deemed controlling subject to the terms hereof. Except to the extent relating to matters arising out of the Trustee's gross negligence or willful misconduct, the Trustee shall not be liable for any losses, costs or expenses arising directly or indirectly from the Trustee's reliance upon and compliance with such instructions notwithstanding that such instructions conflict or are inconsistent with a subsequent written instruction. The Issuer agrees to assume all risks arising out of the use of such electronic methods to submit instructions and directions to the Trustee, including without limitation the risk of the Trustee acting on unauthorized instructions, and the risk or interception and misuse by third parties.

Section 1.06. Notice to Holders; Waiver.

Where this Indenture provides for notice or communication of any event to Holders by the Issuer or the Trustee, such notice shall be given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) either (i) in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder affected by such event, at the address of such Holder as it appears in the Note Register or (ii) in the case of Notes held through the Depository, to Depository participants via the Depository's electronic messaging system, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice. In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail or electronic delivery, neither the failure to electronically deliver or mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed or electronically delivered, to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Notices shall be effective only upon receipt. Where this Indenture provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by the person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice. Waivers of notice by Holders shall be filed with the Trustee, but such filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance upon such waiver.

In case by reason of the suspension of or irregularities in regular mail service or by reason of any other cause, it shall be impracticable to mail notice of any event to Holders when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Indenture, then any manner of giving such notice as shall be satisfactory to the Trustee shall be deemed to be a sufficient giving of such notice for every purpose hereunder.

Section 1.07. Effect of Headings and Table of Contents.

The Article and Section headings herein and the Table of Contents are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction hereof.

Section 1.08. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and agreements in this Indenture by the Issuer shall bind its successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not.

Section 1.09. Entire Agreement. This Indenture and the exhibits hereto set forth the entire agreement and understanding of the parties related to this transaction and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written.

Section 1.10. Separability Clause.

In case any provision in this Indenture or in the Notes shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, if a court of competent jurisdiction – in a final and unstayed order – determines that any aspect of the Level 3 Senior Unsecured Notes Transaction (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) is invalid for any reason, such determination shall not (directly or indirectly) constitute a default or breach of this Indenture or any other Note Document.

Section 1.11. Benefits of Indenture.

Nothing in this Indenture or in the Notes, express or implied, shall give to any person, other than the parties hereto, any Paying Agent, any Note Registrar and their successors hereunder and the Holders any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Indenture.

Section 1.12. Governing Law.

THIS INDENTURE AND THE NOTES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK BUT WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO APPLICABLE PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAW TO THE EXTENT THAT THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION WOULD BE REQUIRED THEREBY.

Section 1.13. Trust Indenture Act.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Trust Indenture Act is not applicable to this Indenture.

Section 1.14. Legal Holidays.

In any case where any Interest Payment Date, Redemption Date, or Stated Maturity or Maturity of any Note shall not be a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture or of the Notes) payment of principal (or premium, if any) or interest need not be made on such date, but shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the Interest Payment Date or Redemption Date or at the Stated Maturity or Maturity; provided that no interest shall accrue in respect of such payment for the period from and after such Interest Payment Date, Redemption Date, Stated Maturity or Maturity to the next Business Day, as the case may be.

Section 1.15. No personal Liability of Directors, Officers, Employees and Stockholders.

No director, officer, manager, employee, incorporator, stockholder or member of the Issuer or any Guarantor, as such, shall have any liability for any obligations of the Issuer or any Guarantor under the Notes or this Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation, solely by reason of its status as a director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Issuer or a Guarantor. By accepting a Note, each Holder waives and releases all such liability (but only such liability). The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes.

Section 1.16. Independence of Covenants.

All covenants and agreements in this Indenture shall be given independent effect so that if a particular action or condition is not permitted by any of such covenants, the fact that it would be permitted by an exception to, or be otherwise within the limitations of, another covenant shall not avoid the occurrence of a Default if such action is taken or condition exists.

Section 1.17. Exhibits.

All exhibits attached hereto are by this reference made a part hereof with the same effect as if herein set forth in full.

Section 1.18. Counterparts.

This Indenture may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original; but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 1.19. Duplicate Originals.

The parties may sign any number of copies of this Indenture. Each signed copy shall be an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement.

Section 1.20. Waiver of Jury Trial.

EACH HOLDER BY ACCEPTANCE OF THE NOTES, EACH OF THE ISSUER, EACH GUARANTOR, THE TRUSTEE AND THE COLLATERAL AGENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS INDENTURE, THE NOTES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 1.21. Force Majeure.

In no event shall the Trustee or Collateral Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority, strikes, riots, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, sabotage, pandemics or epidemics, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility; it being understood that the Trustee or Collateral Agent shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

Section 1.22. FATCA.

In order to assist the Trustee with its compliance with Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code and the rules and regulations thereunder (as in effect from time to time, collectively, the "Applicable Law") the Issuer agrees (i) to provide to the Trustee reasonably available information collected and stored in the Issuer's ordinary course of business regarding holders of Notes (solely in their capacity as such) and which is necessary for the Trustee's determination of whether it has tax related obligations under Applicable Law and (ii) that the Trustee shall be entitled to make any withholding or deduction from payments under this Indenture to the extent necessary to comply with Applicable Law. Nothing in the immediately preceding sentence shall be construed as obligating the Issuer to make any "gross up" payment or similar reimbursement in connection with a payment in respect of which amounts are so withheld or deducted.

Section 1.23. Submission to Jurisdiction.

The parties and each Holder (by its acceptance of the Notes) irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Indenture. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the parties irrevocably waive and agree not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, any claim that it is not subject to the jurisdiction of any such court, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

Section 1.25. PATRIOT Act.

The parties hereto acknowledge that in accordance with the Customer Identification Program (CIP) requirements under the USA PATRIOT Act and its implementing regulations, the Trustee and Collateral Agent in order to help fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering, is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or legal entity that establishes a relationship or opens an account with the Trustee and Collateral Agent. The parties hereby agree that they shall provide the Trustee and the Collateral Agent with such information as it may request including, but not limited to, each party's name, physical address, Tax identification number and other information that will help the Trustee and Collateral Agent identify and verify each party's identity such as organizational documents, certificate of good standing, license to do business, or other pertinent identifying information.

Section 1.26. Electronic Signatures.

For the avoidance of doubt, for all purposes of this Indenture and any document to be signed or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Indenture (except where a manual signature is expressly required by the terms of this Indenture), the words "execution," "execute," "signed," "signature," "delivery," and words of like import used in or related to any document signed in connection with this Indenture, any Note or any of the transactions contemplated hereby (including amendments, waivers, consents and other modifications) shall be deemed to include electronic signatures, deliveries or the keeping of records in electronic form, as the case may be, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the fullest extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, and any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act and the parties hereto consent to conduct the transactions contemplated hereunder by electronic means provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Trustee is not under any obligation to agree to accept electronic signatures in any form or in any format unless expressly agreed to by the Trustee pursuant to procedures approved by the Trustee. The exchange of copies of this Indenture and of signature pages by facsimile or PDF transmissions shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Indenture as to the parties hereto and may be used in lieu of the original Indenture for all purposes. Signatures of the parties hereto transmitted by facsimile or PDF shall be deemed to be their original signatures for all purposes.

ARTICLE NOTE FORMS

Section 2.01. Form and Dating.

The Issuer shall be permitted to issue Definitive Securities from time to time. Provisions relating to the Notes are set forth in Appendix A, which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Indenture. The Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit 1 to Appendix A which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Indenture. The Notes may have notations, legends or endorsements required by law, stock exchange rule, agreements to which the Issuer is subject, if any, or usage, provided that any such notation, legend or endorsement is in a form reasonably acceptable to the Issuer. Each Note shall be dated the date of its authentication. The terms of the Notes set forth in Exhibit 1 to Appendix A are part of the terms of this Indenture.

Subject to complying with the rules of any securities exchange or system on which the Notes may be listed or eligible for trading, the Definitive Notes shall be printed or produced in such manner as determined by the officers of the Issuer executing such Notes, as evidenced by their execution of such Notes.

THE NOTES

Section 3.01. Amount of Notes. Subject to Section 3.02, the Trustee shall authenticate Notes for original issue on the Issue Date in the aggregate principal amount of $479,136,450 (the "Original Notes").

The Issuer shall be entitled, subject to its compliance with the covenants set forth in this Indenture, including Sections 9.09 and 9.10, to issue Additional Notes under this Indenture which shall have identical terms as the Original Notes, other than with respect to the date of issuance, issue price and, if applicable, the payment of interest accruing prior to the issue date of such Additional Notes and the first payment of interest following the issue date of such Additional Notes (and such changes as are customary to permit escrow arrangements, if any, in connection with the issuance of such Additional Notes); provided that a separate CUSIP or ISIN shall be issued for any Additional Notes if the Additional Notes are not fungible for U.S. federal income tax purposes with the Original Notes. The Original Notes, any Additional Notes issued pursuant to this paragraph, and any Additional Notes issued in exchange therefor shall be treated as a single class for all purposes under this Indenture.

With respect to the Additional Notes, the Issuer shall set forth in a Board Resolution and an Officer's Certificate, a copy of each of which shall be delivered to the Trustee, the following information:

(a) the aggregate principal amount of such Additional Notes to be authenticated and delivered pursuant to this Indenture;

(b) the issue price, the issue date and the CUSIP number of such Additional Notes; and

(c) whether such Additional Notes shall be Transfer Restricted Notes and issued in the form of Notes as set forth in Appendix A to this Indenture.

Section 3.02. Execution and Authentication. Two officers shall sign the Notes for the Issuer by manual, electronic or facsimile signature.

If an officer whose signature is on a Note no longer holds that office at the time the Trustee authenticates the Note, the Note shall be valid nevertheless.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer may deliver Notes executed by the Issuer to the Trustee for authentication, together with an Issuer Order for the authentication and delivery of such Notes, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel and the Trustee in accordance with such written order of the Issuer shall authenticate and deliver such Notes.

A Note shall not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee manually signs the certificate of authentication on the Note. The signature shall be conclusive evidence that the Note has been authenticated under this Indenture.

The Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent reasonably acceptable to the Issuer to authenticate the Notes. Unless limited by the terms of such appointment, an authenticating agent may authenticate Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by such agent. An authenticating agent has the same rights as any Note Registrar, Paying Agent or agent for service of notices and demands.

Section 3.03. Note Registrar and Paying Agent. The Issuer shall maintain an office or agency where Notes may be presented for registration of transfer or for exchange (the "Note Registrar") and an office or agency where Notes may be presented for payment to the Paying Agent. The Note Registrar shall keep a register of the Notes and of their transfer and exchange (the register maintained in the office of the Note Registrar and in any other office or agency designated pursuant to Section 9.02 being herein sometimes referred to as the "Note Register"). The Issuer may have one or more co-registrars and one or more additional paying agents. The term "Paying Agent" includes any additional paying agent.

The Issuer shall enter into an appropriate agency agreement with any Note Registrar, Paying Agent or co-registrar not a party to this Indenture. The agreement shall implement the provisions of this Indenture that relate to such agent. The Issuer shall notify the Trustee of the name and address of any such agent. If the Issuer fails to maintain a Note Registrar or Paying Agent, the Trustee shall act as such and shall be entitled to appropriate compensation therefor pursuant to Section 6.07.

The Issuer initially appoints the Trustee as Note Registrar and Paying Agent in connection with the Notes.

Section 3.04. Paying Agent to Hold Money in Trust. Prior to each due date of the principal and interest on any Note, the Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest when so becoming due. The Issuer shall require each Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to agree in writing that the Paying Agent shall hold in trust for the benefit of Holders or the Trustee all money held by the Paying Agent for the payment of principal of or interest on the Notes and shall notify the Trustee of any default by the Issuer in making any such payment. If the Issuer or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary acts as Paying Agent, it shall segregate the money held by it as Paying Agent and hold it as a separate trust fund. The Issuer at any time may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee and to account for any funds disbursed by the Paying Agent. Upon complying with this Section, the Paying Agent shall have no further liability for the money delivered to the Trustee.

Section 3.05. Holders Lists. The Trustee shall preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of Holders. If the Trustee is not the Note Registrar, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, in writing at least five Business Days before each Interest Payment Date and at such other times as the Trustee may reasonably request in writing, a list in such form and as of such date as the Trustee may reasonably require of the names and addresses of Holders.

Section 3.06. Replacement Notes. If a mutilated Note is surrendered to the Note Registrar or if the Holder of a Note claims that such Note has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Issuer shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a replacement Note if the requirements of Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code are met and the Holder satisfies any other reasonable requirements of the Trustee. Such Holder shall furnish an indemnity bond sufficient in the judgment of the Issuer to protect the Issuer and in the judgment of the Trustee to protect the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Note Registrar and any co-registrar from any loss which any of them may suffer if a Note is replaced. The Issuer and the Trustee may charge the Holder for their expenses in replacing a Note.

Every replacement Note is an additional obligation of the Issuer.

Section 3.07. Temporary Notes. Until Definitive Notes are ready for delivery, the Issuer may prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate temporary Notes. Temporary Notes shall be substantially in the form of Definitive Notes but may have variations that the Issuer considers appropriate for temporary Notes. Without unreasonable delay, the Issuer shall prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate Definitive Notes and deliver them in exchange for temporary Notes.

Section 3.08. Cancellation. The Issuer at any time may deliver Notes to the Trustee for cancellation. The Note Registrar and the Paying Agent shall forward to the Trustee any Notes surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Trustee and no one else shall cancel and dispose of in accordance with its customary procedures (subject to the record retention requirements of the Exchange Act) all Notes surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment or cancellation. The Issuer shall not issue new Notes to replace Notes it has redeemed, paid or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

Section 3.09. Defaulted Interest. If the Issuer defaults in a payment of interest on the Securities, the Issuer shall pay the defaulted interest (plus interest on such defaulted interest to the extent lawful) in any lawful manner at the rate provided in Section 9.01 hereof. The Issuer may pay the defaulted interest to the persons who are Holders on a subsequent special record date. Thereupon the Issuer shall fix a special record date for the payment of such defaulted interest, which shall not be more than 15 days and not less than 10 days prior to the date of the proposed payment. The Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee in writing of such special record date and the Trustee, in the name and at the expense of the Issuer, shall deliver or cause to be delivered to each Holder a notice that states the special record date, the payment date and the amount of defaulted interest to be paid not less than 10 days prior to such special record date.

Section 3.10. CUSIP Numbers. The Issuer in issuing the Notes may use "CUSIP" numbers (if then generally in use) and, if so, the Trustee shall use "CUSIP" numbers in notices of redemption as a convenience to Holders; provided, however, that neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall have any responsibility for any defect in the "CUSIP" number that appears on any Note, check, advice of payment or redemption notice, and any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness of such numbers either as printed on the Notes or as contained in any notice of a redemption and that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Notes, and any such redemption shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such numbers. The Issuer will promptly notify the Trustee in writing of any change in the "CUSIP" number(s).

On the Issue Date, the Notes shall initially bear the CUSIP and ISIN numbers set forth in the following sentence. The CUSIP and ISIN numbers for the Specified Notes shall be 550241 AH6 and US550241AH61, 550241 AJ2 and US550241AJ28 and U54985 AE3 and USU54985AE37, respectively; the CUSIP and ISIN numbers for the Notes other than the Specified Notes shall be 550241 AC7 and US550241AC74, 550241 AE3 and US550241AE31 and U54985 AC7 and USU54985AC70, respectively.

ARTICLE 4
SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

Section 4.01. Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture.

This Indenture shall cease to be of further effect (subject to Section 11.06 and except as to surviving rights of registration of transfer, transfer, exchange and replacement of Notes expressly provided for herein or pursuant hereto), the Liens, if any, on the Collateral securing the Notes and the Note Guarantees shall be released and the Trustee, at the request and expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture and release of such Liens, in each case, when

(a) either

(i) all Outstanding Notes have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation

(A) have become due and payable, or

(B) will become due and payable within one year, or

(C) are to be called for redemption within one year under irrevocable arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee in its reasonable discretion for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer, and the Issuer, in the case of (A), (B) or (C) above, has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee funds in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal of (and premium, if any, on), and interest on, the Notes to Maturity or the Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable by the Issuer hereunder; and

(c) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, the obligations under Sections 6.07 and 6.09 and, if money shall have been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to clause (a)(ii) of this Section 4.01, the obligations of the Trustee under Section 4.02 and the last paragraph of Section 9.03 shall survive such satisfaction and discharge.

Section 4.02. Application of Trust Money.

Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 9.03, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 4.01 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as its own Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the persons entitled thereto, of the principal (and premium, if any) and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

REMEDIES

Section 5.01. Events of Default.

"Event of Default", wherever used herein, means any one of the following events (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body):

(a) failure to pay principal of (or premium, if any, on) any Note when due; or

(b) failure to pay any interest on any Note when due, continued for 30 days; or

(c) default in the payment of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on Notes required to be purchased pursuant to an Offer to Purchase pursuant to Sections 9.10(b) and 9.17 when due and payable; or

(d) failure to perform or comply with the provisions of Article 7; or

(e) failure to perform any covenant or agreement of the Issuer or any Guarantor in this Indenture or in any Note (other than a covenant a default in whose performance is elsewhere in this Section specifically dealt with) continued for 90 days after written notice to the Issuer by the Trustee or Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, which notice shall specify the default and state that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder; or

(f) any event or condition occurs that results in any Material Indebtedness becoming due prior to its scheduled maturity or failing to be paid at its scheduled maturity; provided, that this clause (f) shall not apply to any secured Indebtedness that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Indebtedness if (x) such sale or transfer is permitted hereunder and under the documents providing for such Indebtedness and (y) repayments are made as required by the terms of the respective Indebtedness; or

(g) the failure by the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary to pay one or more final judgments aggregating in excess of $75,000,000, which judgments are not discharged or effectively waived or stayed for a period of 45 consecutive days, or any action shall be legally taken by a judgment creditor to attach or levy upon assets or properties of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary to enforce any such judgment; or

(h) any Note Guarantee of any Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms of such Note Guarantee) or any such Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary denies or disaffirms in writing its obligations under its Note Guarantee; or

(i) an involuntary proceeding shall be commenced or an involuntary petition shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries, or of a substantial part of the property or assets of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or any other Debtor Relief Law, (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, examiner, liquidator or similar official for the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or (iii) the winding-up, liquidation, reorganization, dissolution, compromise, arrangement or other relief of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary (except in a transaction permitted hereunder); and such proceeding or petition shall continue undismissed for 60 days or an order or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered; or

(j) the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary shall (i) voluntarily commence any proceeding or file any petition seeking relief under the Bankruptcy Code, as now constituted or hereafter amended, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or any other Debtor Relief Law, (ii) consent to the institution of, or fail to contest in a timely and appropriate manner, any proceeding or the filing of any petition described in clause (i) above, (iii) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, examiner, liquidator or similar official for the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, (iv) file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding, (v) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or (vi) become unable or fail generally to pay its debts as they become due; or

(k) any security interest purported to be created by any Security Document and to extend to assets that constitute a material portion of the Collateral shall cease to be, or shall be asserted in writing by the Issuer or any Guarantor not to be, a valid and perfected security interest (perfected as or having the priority required by this Indenture or the relevant Security Document and subject to such limitations and restrictions as are set forth herein and therein) in the securities, assets or properties covered thereby, except to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority results from the limitations of foreign laws, rules and regulations as they apply to pledges of Equity Interests in Foreign Subsidiaries or the application thereof, or from failure of the Collateral Agent (or any agent acting as gratuitous bailee thereof) to maintain possession of certificates actually delivered to it representing securities pledged under the Collateral Agreement or to file Uniform Commercial Code continuation statements (so long as such failure does not result from the breach or non-compliance with the Note Documents by the Issuer or any Guarantor).

Any notice of default, notice of acceleration or instruction to the Trustee to provide a notice of default, notice of acceleration or take any other action (a "Noteholder Direction") provided by any one or more holders of the Notes (each a "Directing Holder") shall be accompanied by a written representation from each such holder delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee that such holder is not (or, in the case such holder is DTC or its nominee, that such holder is being instructed solely by beneficial owners that have represented to such holder that they are not) Net Short (a "Position Representation"), which representation, in the case of a Noteholder Direction relating to the delivery of a notice of default shall be deemed a continuing representation until the resulting Event of Default is cured or otherwise ceases to exist or the Notes are accelerated. In addition, each Directing Holder shall be deemed, at the time of providing a Noteholder Direction, to covenant to provide the Issuer with such other information as the Issuer may reasonably request from time to time in order to verify the accuracy of such noteholder's Position Representation within five (5) Business Days of request therefor (a "Verification Covenant"). In any case in which the holder is DTC or its nominee, any Position Representation or Verification Covenant required hereunder shall be provided by the beneficial owner of the Notes in lieu of DTC or its nominee and DTC shall be entitled to conclusively rely on such Position Representation and Verification Covenant in delivering its direction to the Trustee. In no event shall the Trustee have any liability or obligation to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any holder is Net Short and/or whether such holder has delivered any Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certifications under this Indenture or in connection with the Notes or if any such Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certifications comply with this Indenture, the Notes, or any other document. It is understood and agreed that the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively rely on each representation, deemed representation and certification made by, and covenant of, each beneficial owner provided for in this paragraph. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Notes or any other document, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply and survive with respect to each beneficial owner notwithstanding that any such Person may have ceased to be a beneficial owner, this Indenture may have been terminated or the Notes may have been redeemed in full.

If, following the delivery of a Noteholder Direction, but prior to acceleration of the Notes, the Issuer determines in good faith that there is a reasonable basis to believe a Directing Holder was, at any relevant time, in breach of its Position Representation and provides to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that the Issuer has initiated litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking a determination that such Directing Holder was, at such time, in breach of its Position Representation, and seeking to invalidate any default, Event of Default or acceleration (or notice thereof) that resulted from the applicable Noteholder Direction, the cure period with respect to such default shall be automatically stayed and the cure period with respect to such default or Event of Default shall be automatically reinstituted and any remedy stayed pending a final and non-appealable determination of a court of competent jurisdiction on such matter if, without the participation of such holder, the percentage of Notes held by the remaining holders that provided such Noteholder Direction would have been insufficient to validly provide such Noteholder Direction. If, following the delivery of a Noteholder Direction, but prior to acceleration of the Notes, the Issuer provides to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that a Directing Holder failed to satisfy its Verification Covenant, the cure period with respect to such default or Event of Default shall be automatically stayed and the cure period with respect to any default or Event of Default that resulted from the applicable Noteholder Direction shall be automatically reinstituted and any remedy stayed pending satisfaction of such Verification Covenant. Any breach of the Position Representation shall result in such holder's participation in such Noteholder Direction being disregarded; and, if, without the participation of such holder, the percentage of Notes held by the remaining holders that provided such Noteholder Direction would have been insufficient to validly provide such Noteholder Direction, such Noteholder Direction shall be void ab initio (other than any indemnity such Directing Holder may have offered the Trustee), with the effect that such default or Event of Default shall be deemed never to have occurred, acceleration voided and the Trustee shall be deemed not to have received such Noteholder Direction or any notice of such default or Event of Default.

Notwithstanding anything in the preceding two paragraphs to the contrary, any Noteholder Direction delivered to the Trustee during the pendency of an Event of Default as the result of a bankruptcy or similar proceeding shall not require compliance with the foregoing paragraphs (except for any rights or protections of the Trustee).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively rely on any Noteholder Direction, Position Representation, Verification Covenant or Officer's Certificate delivered to it in accordance with this Indenture, shall have no duty to inquire as to or investigate the accuracy of any Position Representation, Noteholder Direction, Verification Covenant or Officer's Certificate, enforce compliance with any Verification Covenant, verify any statements in any Officer's Certificate, Position Representation, Noteholder Direction or Verification Covenant delivered to it, or otherwise make calculations, investigations or determinations with respect to Derivative Instruments, Net Shorts, Long Derivative Instruments, Short Derivative Instruments or otherwise. The Trustee shall have no liability to the Issuer, any holder or any other Person in connection with any Noteholder Direction (or items delivered in connection with any Noteholder Direction) or to determine whether or not any holder has delivered any Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certification or that such Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certification is accurate or conforms with this Indenture or any other agreement.

The term "Bankruptcy Law" means Title 11, United States Code, or any similar Federal or state law for the relief of debtors. The term "Custodian" means any receiver, trustee, assignee, liquidator, custodian or similar official under any Bankruptcy Law.

Section 5.02. Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment.

If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.01(i) or 5.01(j) with respect the Issuer) shall occur and be continuing, either the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may declare the principal amount of all the Notes to be due and payable immediately, by a notice in writing to the Issuer (and to the Trustee if given by Holders), and upon any such declaration such principal amount shall become immediately due and payable; provided that a notice of Default may not be given with respect to any action taken, and reported publicly or to Holders, more than two years prior to such notice of Default.

At any time after a declaration of acceleration has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as hereinafter provided in this Article 5, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may rescind and annul such declaration and its consequence if:

(a) the Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay

(i) all overdue interest on all Outstanding Notes,

(ii) all unpaid principal of (and premium, if any, on) any Outstanding Notes which has become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, and interest on such unpaid principal at the rate borne by the Notes,

(iii) to the extent that payment of such interest is lawful, interest on overdue interest at the rate borne by the Notes, and

(iv) all sums paid or advanced by the Trustee hereunder and the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel; and

(b) all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of amounts of principal of (or premium, if any, on) Notes which have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived as provided in Section 5.13.

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.03. Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee.

The Issuer covenants that if:

(a) Default is made in the payment of any interest on any Note when due, continued for 30 days, or

(b) Default is made in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any, on) any Note when due, the Issuer will, upon demand of the Trustee, pay to the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes the whole amount then due and payable on such Notes for principal (and premium, if any) and interest, and interest on any overdue principal (and premium, if any) and, to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable, upon any overdue installment of interest, at the rate borne by the Notes, and, in addition thereto, such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel.

If the Issuer fails to pay such amounts forthwith upon such demand, the Trustee, in its own name as trustee of an express trust, may institute a judicial proceeding for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid, may prosecute such proceeding to judgment or final decree and may enforce the same against the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes and collect the moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the property of the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes, wherever situated.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders by such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem necessary to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein, or to enforce any other proper remedy.

Section 5.04. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim.

In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes (including any Guarantor) or the property of the Issuer or of such other obligor or their creditors, the Trustee (irrespective of whether the principal of the Notes shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand on the Issuer for the payment of overdue principal, premium, if any, or interest) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise,

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of principal (and premium, if any) and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and to file such other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and its agents and counsel) and of the Holders allowed in such judicial proceeding, and

(b) to collect and receive any moneys or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay the Trustee any amount due it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee hereunder.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to, or accept or adopt on behalf of, any Holder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 5.05. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 5.06. Application of Money Collected.

Subject to the terms of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement and the Collateral Agreement, any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article 5 shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal (or premium, if any) or interest, upon presentation of the Notes and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

FIRST: To the payment of all amounts due the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and/or the Collateral Agent (acting in any capacity hereunder);

SECOND: To the payment of the amounts then due and unpaid for principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes in respect of which or for the benefit of which such money has been collected, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on such Notes for principal (and premium, if any) and interest, respectively; and

THIRD: The balance, if any, to the Issuer or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

Section 5.07. Limitation on Suits.

No Holder of any Notes shall have any right to institute any proceeding with respect to this Indenture or for any other remedy hereunder, unless

(a) such Holder shall have previously given to the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default;

(b) the Holders of not less than 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have made written request and offered indemnity or security satisfactory to the Trustee in its sole discretion to institute such proceeding and the Trustee shall have failed to institute such proceeding within 60 days; and

(c) the Trustee shall not have received from the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes a direction inconsistent with such request;

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders shall have any right in any manner whatsoever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders, or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders.

Section 5.08. Unconditional Right of Holders to Receive Principal, Premium and Interest.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, including Section 5.07, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment as provided herein (including, if applicable, Article 11) and in such Note of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on such Note on the respective Stated Maturities expressed in such Note (or, in the case of redemption, on the Redemption Date) and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder.

Section 5.09. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case, subject to any determination in such proceeding, the Issuer, any Guarantor, the Trustee and the Holders shall be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.10. Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

Except as otherwise provided with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes in Section 3.06, no right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 5.11. Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

Except as otherwise provided in the proviso of the first paragraph of Section 5.02, no delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders, as the case may be.

Section 5.12. Control by Holders.

The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided that

(a) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture, any Intercreditor Agreement or the Collateral Agreement,

(b) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction, and

(c) the Trustee need not take any action which might involve it in personal liability or be unjustly prejudicial to the Holders not consenting.

Section 5.13. Waiver of Past Defaults.

The Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may, on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, waive any past Default hereunder and its consequences, except a Default

(a) in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Note, or

(b) in respect of a covenant or provision hereof which under Article 8 cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected, or

(c) in respect of a covenant which under Article 8 cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holders of two-thirds in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes.

The Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that the requisite Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Securities have consented to such waiver and attaching such consents upon which, subject to Section 1.04, the Trustee may conclusively rely. Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.14. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

The Issuer and each Guarantor covenant (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) that they shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Indenture; and the Issuer and each Guarantor (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law and covenant that they shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

Section 5.15. Undertaking for Costs.

In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as a Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 does not apply to a suit by the Trustee or a suit by Holders of more than 10% in principal amount of the then Outstanding Notes.

THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Certain Duties and Responsibilities. (a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default,

(i) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically and expressly set forth in this Indenture and the Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(ii) The Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; but, in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of any mathematical calculations or other facts stated therein).

(b) In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing of which a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise, as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, its own grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that

(i) this paragraph (c) shall not be construed to limit the effect of paragraph (a) of this Section 6.01;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken, or errors of judgment made, in good faith by it or any of its officers, employees or agents, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it in its sole discretion against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 6.01.

Section 6.02. Notice of Default.

If a Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee shall transmit, electronically or by first class mail to each Holder at the address set forth in the Note Register, notice of such Default within 90 days after written notice of it is received by a Responsible Officer of the Trustee; provided, however, that, except in the case of a Default in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Note, the Trustee shall be protected in withholding such notice if and so long as a trust committee of directors or Responsible Officers of the Trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the interest of the Holders.

The Trustee is not required to take notice or deemed to have notice of any Event of Default with respect to the Notes unless a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge of the Default or Event of Default or a Responsible Officer shall have received written notice at its Corporate Trust Office (which notice shall reference the Notes, the Issuer and this Indenture) of such Default or Event of Default from the Issuer or any Holder.

Section 6.03. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Subject to Section 6.01:

(a) the Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties, not only as to due execution, validity and effectiveness, but also as to the truth and accuracy of any information contained therein;

(b) any request or direction of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Issuer Request or Issuer Order and any resolution of the Board of Directors may be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Trustee may require and rely upon an Officer's Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel or both and the Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) the Trustee may consult with counsel or other professionals of its selection and the advice of such counsel or other professionals retained or consulted by the Trustee or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Trustee may act through counsel, agents, custodians and nominees and shall not be responsible for the acts or omissions or for the misconduct or negligence of any such person appointed with due care and in good faith;

(f) the permissive rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty and, with respect to such permissive rights, the Trustee shall not be answerable for other than its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(g) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to this Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to it in its sole discretion against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction;

(h) the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit, and, if the Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Issuer, personally or by agent or attorney at the expense of the Issuer and shall incur no liability of any kind by reason of such inquiry or investigation;

(i) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture;

(j) the rights, privileges, protections, indemnities, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, including without limitation as Collateral Agent, and each agent, custodian and other person employed to act hereunder;

(k) the Trustee may request that the Issuer deliver an Officer's Certificate in substantially the form of Exhibit A hereto setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture, which Officer's Certificate may be signed by any person authorized to sign an Officer's Certificate, including any person specified as so authorized in any such certificate previously delivered and not superseded;

(l) in no event shall the Trustee be responsible or liable for special, punitive, indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action; and

(m) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any Default or Event of Default unless a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has received written notice of any event which is in fact such a default at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee, and such notice references the Notes and this Indenture.

Section 6.04. Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes.

The recitals contained herein and in the Notes, except for the Trustee's certificates of authentication, shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, as applicable, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes, except that the Trustee represents that it is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture, authenticate the Notes and perform its obligations hereunder. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of Notes or the proceeds thereof.

Section 6.05. May Hold Notes.

The Trustee, any Paying Agent, any Note Registrar or any other agent of the Issuer or of the Trustee, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes, and may otherwise deal with the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not any Trustee, Paying Agent, Note Registrar or such other agent. However, the Trustee must comply with Section 6.08.

Section 6.06. Money Held in Trust.

Money held by the Trustee in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Issuer.

Section 6.07. Compensation and Reimbursement.

The Issuer agrees:

(a) to pay to the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and Collateral Agent from time to time such compensation as shall be agreed in writing between the Issuer and the Trustee and/or Collateral Agent for all services rendered by each of the Trustee and Collateral Agent hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(b) except as otherwise expressly provided herein, to reimburse the Trustee and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and Collateral Agent in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except any such expense, disbursement or advance as shall be determined to have been caused by the Trustee's own gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable order); and

(c) to fully indemnify each of the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and Collateral Agent and any predecessor trustee and its directors, officers, employees and agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, liability, damage, claim or expense including Taxes (other than Taxes based on the income of the Trustee) (except as shall have been caused by its gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable order)), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust, including the costs and expenses of defending itself or themselves against any claim (whether asserted by the Issuer, a Guarantor, a Holder or any other person) or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its or their powers or duties hereunder and the costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) incurred in connection with any action, claim, or suit brought to enforce the Trustee's right to indemnification, including the enforcement of any of its rights hereunder.

The obligations of the Issuer hereunder to compensate the Trustee and Collateral Agent, to pay or reimburse the Trustee and Collateral Agent for expenses, disbursements and advances and to indemnify and hold harmless the Trustee and Collateral Agent shall constitute additional indebtedness hereunder. As security for the performance of such obligations of the Issuer, the Trustee shall have a claim prior to the Notes upon all property and funds held or collected by the Trustee as such, except funds held in trust for the payment of principal of (and premium, if any, on) or interest on particular Notes.

When the Trustee incurs expenses or renders services in connection with an Event of Default specified in Section 5.01(i) or (j), the expenses (including the reasonable charges and expenses of its counsel) of and the compensation for such services are intended to constitute expenses of administration under any applicable federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law.

The provisions of this Article 6 shall survive the termination of this Indenture or the earlier resignation or removal of the Trustee or Collateral Agent.

Section 6.08. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility; Conflicting Interests. (a) There shall be at all times a Trustee hereunder which shall have a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000. If such person publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of federal, state, territorial or District of Columbia supervising or examining authority, then, for the purposes of this Section 6.08, the combined capital and surplus of such person shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. If at any time a Responsible Officer of the Trustee shall have actual knowledge that the Trustee ceases to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6.08, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article 6.

(b) The Trustee shall be permitted to engage in transactions with the Issuer or its Subsidiaries; provided, however, that if the Trustee acquires any conflicting interest, the Trustee must 1. eliminate such conflict within 90 days of acquiring such conflicting interest, 2. apply to the SEC for permission to continue acting as Trustee or 3. resign.

Section 6.09. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor. (a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee in accordance with the applicable requirements of Section 6.10.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee required by Section 6.10 shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition, at the expense of the Issuer, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, delivered to the Trustee and to the Issuer. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee required by Section 6.10 shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 10 days after the giving of such notice of removal, the Trustee designated for removal may petition, at the expense of the Issuer, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.08 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Note for at least six months, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then,

in any such case, (i) the Issuer, by a Board Resolution (or by a resolution of a duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors of the Issuer), may remove the Trustee or (ii) the Holders of at least 10% in aggregate principal amount of the then Outstanding Notes who have been bona fide Holders of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, by a Board Resolution, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Issuer does not promptly appoint a successor Trustee after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by Act of the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. In either case, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer or the Holders and accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee to the Holders of Notes in the manner provided for in Section 1.06. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

(g) The retiring Trustee shall not be liable for any of the acts or omissions of any successor Trustee appointed hereunder.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and to the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of its charges hereunder, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Trustee shall be qualified and eligible under this Article 6.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business.

Any person into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any person resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any person succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder; provided that such person shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article 6, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Notes shall have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion, consolidation or transfer of assets to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes. In case at that time any of the Notes shall not have been authenticated, any successor Trustee may authenticate such Notes either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor Trustee. In all such cases such certificates shall have the full force and effect which this Indenture provides that the certificate of authentication of the Trustee shall have; provided, however, that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or to authenticate Notes in the name of any predecessor Trustee shall apply only to its successor or successors by merger, conversion, consolidation or transfer of assets. The Trustee may merge or consolidate with another entity and in the event of such merger, is not required to provide written notice of same.

(B) immediately before and after giving effect to such transaction and treating any Indebtedness which becomes an obligation of the Issuer (or the successor entity) or a Subsidiary as a result of such transaction as having been Incurred by the Issuer or such Subsidiary at the time of the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(C) [reserved];

(D) if, as a result of any such transaction, property of the Issuer (or the successor entity) or any Subsidiary would become subject to a Lien prohibited by the provisions of Section 9.08, the Issuer or the successor entity to the Issuer shall have secured the Notes as required by said covenant;

Section 7.04. Successor Issuer Substituted.

Upon any consolidation of the Issuer with or merger of the Issuer with or into any other person or any transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all the assets of the Issuer to any person or persons in accordance with Section 7.03, the successor person formed by such consolidation or into which the Issuer is merged or to which such transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition is made shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Issuer under this Indenture with the same effect as if such successor person had been named as the Issuer herein, and the predecessor Issuer (which term shall for this purpose mean the person named as the "Issuer" in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor person which shall have become such in the manner described in Section 7.03), except in the case of a lease, shall be released from all its obligations and covenants under this Indenture, the Notes, and the other Note Documents to which it is a party and may be dissolved and liquidated.

Section 7.05. Guarantor May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms.

A Guarantor shall not, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, (a) consolidate with or merge into any other person or persons (other than, with respect to a Guarantor that is a Subsidiary, the Issuer or another Guarantor that is a Subsidiary) or permit any other person (other than, with respect to a Guarantor that is a Subsidiary, another Guarantor that is a Subsidiary) to consolidate with or merge into such Guarantor or (b) except to another Guarantor or the Issuer, directly or indirectly, transfer, sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its assets to any other person or persons (other than with respect to (x) any transfer of Securitization Assets to a Securitization Subsidiary in connection with a Qualified Securitization Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxviii), (y) any transfer of Receivables to a Receivables Subsidiary in connection with a Qualified Receivables Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxvii), or (z) any transfer of Digital Products to a Digital Products Subsidiary in connection with a Qualified Digital Products Facility permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxix)), unless:

(i) immediately before and after giving effect to such transaction and treating any Indebtedness which becomes an obligation of such Guarantor as a result of such transaction as having been Incurred by such Guarantor at the time of the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(ii) in a transaction in which such Guarantor is not the surviving person or in which such Guarantor transfers, sells, leases, conveys or otherwise disposes of all or substantially all of its assets to any other person, the resulting surviving or transferee person is organized under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof or the District of Columbia and shall expressly assume, by a supplemental indenture executed and delivered to the Trustee in form satisfactory to the Trustee, all of such Guarantor's obligations under this Indenture and its Note Guarantee and shall expressly assume the performance of the covenants and obligations of such Guarantor under the Security Documents relating to the Notes and shall cause such amendments, supplements or other instruments to be executed, filed and recorded in such jurisdictions as may be required by applicable law to cause any property or assets that constitute Collateral to be subject to a Lien securing the Notes, together with such financing statements or comparable documents as may be required to perfect any security interests in such Collateral which may be perfected by the filing of a financing statement or a similar document under the Uniform Commercial Code or other similar statute or regulation of the relevant states or jurisdictions; and

(iii) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, stating that such consolidation, merger, transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition and, if a supplemental indenture is required in connection with such transaction, such supplemental indenture, complies with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction have been complied with.

Section 7.06. Successor Guarantor Substituted.

Upon any consolidation of a Guarantor with or merger of a Guarantor with or into any other person or any transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all the assets of a Guarantor to any person or persons in accordance with Section 7.05, the successor person formed by such consolidation or into which such Guarantor is merged or to which such transfer, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition is made shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, such Guarantor under this Indenture with the same effect as if such successor person had been named as a Guarantor herein, and the predecessor Guarantor (which term shall for this purpose mean the person named as the "New Guarantor" in the first paragraph of the applicable supplemental indenture or any successor person which shall have become such in the manner described in Section 7.05), except in the case of a lease, shall be released from all its obligations and covenants under its Note Guarantee, the Notes and the other Note Documents to which it is a party and may be dissolved and liquidated.

Section 8.01. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders.

The Issuer, the Guarantors, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent may, at any time and from time to time, without notice to or consent of any Holders of Notes, (a) enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto and/or (b) amend, supplement or otherwise modify any other Note Document, in each case:

(i) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or any Guarantor and the assumption by such successor of the covenants of the Issuer or such Guarantor, respectively, herein, in the Notes, in the applicable Note Guarantee and in the applicable Security Documents, as applicable; or

(ii) to add to the covenants of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries, for the benefit of the Holders, or to surrender any right or power conferred upon the Issuer or any Guarantor hereby; or

(iii) to add any additional Events of Default; or

(iv) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes; or

(v) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment hereunder of a successor Trustee pursuant to the requirements of Section 6.10 or a successor Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of this Indenture; or

(vi) to secure the Notes; or

(vii) to comply with the Securities Act (including Regulation S promulgated thereunder); or

(viii) to add Note Guarantees or to release any Guarantors from Note Guarantees as provided by the terms of this Indenture; or

(ix) to (A) cure any ambiguity, mistake, omission, defect, inconsistency, or obvious error in the Note Documents, or (B) correct or supplement any provision herein which may be inconsistent with any other provision herein, or to add any other provision with respect to matters or questions arising under this Indenture; provided that, with respect to the foregoing clause (ix)(B), such actions shall not adversely affect the interests of the Holders in any material respect; or (C) to amend the legends on any Security to comply with U.S. federal income tax regulations; or

(x) to add additional assets as Collateral or to release any Collateral from the liens securing the Notes, in each case pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, as and when permitted or required by this Indenture, the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements; or

(xi) to effect any provision of this Indenture or to make changes to this Indenture to provide for the issuance of Additional Notes.

The intercreditor provisions of the Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement may be amended, waived or otherwise modified from time to time with the consent of the parties thereto. In addition, the Issuer may, without the consent of any other party thereto, amend the Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement to designate Indebtedness as "Other First Lien Debt", or as any other Indebtedness subject to the terms and provisions of such agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, no amendment to, or deletion of any of the covenants described under Article 9 or action taken in compliance with the covenants in effect at the time of such action, shall be deemed to impair or affect any rights of any holder to receive payment of principal or premium, if any, or interest on, the Notes, or to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to such holder's Notes.

Section 8.02. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders.

With the consent of the Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by Act of such Holders delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee, the Issuer, the Guarantors and the Trustee may (a) enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto and/or (b) amend, supplement or otherwise modify any other Note Document, in each case, for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Indenture or such other Note Document or waiving or otherwise modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders hereunder or thereunder, including the waiver of certain past defaults under this Indenture pursuant to Section 5.13; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note (or, in the case of clauses (iv) and (x) below, two-thirds in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes) affected thereby:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the interest thereon (including by amending any of the definitions relevant to the determination of the interest rate applicable to the Notes) that would be due and payable upon the Stated Maturity thereof, or change the place of payment where, or the coin or currency in which, any Note or any premium or interest thereon is payable, or impair the contractual right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the Stated Maturity thereof; or

(ii) reduce the percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is necessary for any such supplemental indenture or required for any waiver of compliance with Section 5.08 or Section 5.13; or

(iii) modify any provision of Section 5.08; or

(iv) amend, modify or waive any term or provision of any Note Document to permit the issuance or incurrence of any Indebtedness (including any exchange of existing Indebtedness that results in another class of Indebtedness for borrowed money, but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any "debtor-in-possession" facility pursuant to Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code (or similar financing under applicable law)) with respect to which the Liens on the Collateral securing the Note Obligations would be subordinated (any such other Indebtedness to which such Liens securing any of the Obligations are subordinated, "Senior Indebtedness"), unless each adversely affected Holder has been offered a bona fide opportunity to fund or otherwise provide its pro rata share (based on the principal amount of Obligations that are adversely affected thereby held by each Holder) of the Senior Indebtedness on the same terms (other than bona fide backstop fees and reimbursement of counsel fees and other expenses in connection with the negotiation of the terms of such transaction; such fees and expenses, "Ancillary Fees") as offered to all other providers (or their Affiliates) of the Senior Indebtedness and to the extent such adversely affected Holder decides to participate in the Senior Indebtedness, receive its pro rata share of the fees and any other similar benefit (other than Ancillary Fees) of the Senior Indebtedness afforded to the providers of the Senior Indebtedness (or any of their Affiliates) in connection with providing the Senior Indebtedness; or

(v) subordinate in right of payment the Securities or any Note Guarantee to any other Indebtedness; or

(vi) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Note or change the time at which any Note may be redeemed, as described in Appendix A or Exhibit 1 thereto; or

(vii) reduce the premium payable upon a Change of Control Repurchase Event or, at any time after a Change of Control Repurchase Event has occurred, change the time at which the Offer to Purchase relating thereto must be made or at which the Notes must be repurchased pursuant to such Offer to Purchase; or

(viii) make any change in any Note Guarantee of a Guarantor that is either a Significant Subsidiary or is a guarantor of any other First Lien Obligations then outstanding that would adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes in a manner inconsistent with any changes made in respect of the guarantee of the other First Lien Obligations; or

(ix) modify any provision of this Section 8.02 (except to increase any percentage set forth herein); or

(x) (A) modify or amend Section 9.14 or the defintiion of "Unrestricted Subsidiary", (B) make any change (whether by amendment, supplement or waiver) to any Security Document, any Intercreditor Agreement or the provisions in this Indenture dealing with the Collateral, the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements that would, in each case, release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens of the Security Documents (except as otherwise permitted by the terms of this Indenture, the Notes, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements), or (C) make any change in any Note Guarantee of a Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary that would adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes in any material respect.

It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders under this Section 8.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such Act shall approve the substance thereof.

Section 8.03. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing, or accepting the additional trusts created by, any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture, that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been fulfilled and that the supplemental indenture is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Issuer and Guarantors, enforceable against each in accordance with its terms. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Section 8.04. Effect of Supplemental Indentures.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Notes theretofore or thereafter authenticated and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

Section 8.05. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures.

Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee and the Issuer as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer and the Trustee shall so determine, new Notes so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Trustee and the Issuer, to any such supplemental indenture may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

Section 8.06. Notice of Supplemental Indentures.

Promptly after the execution by the Issuer, the Guarantors and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8, the Issuer shall give notice thereof to the Holders of each Outstanding Note affected, in the manner provided for in Section 1.06, setting forth in general terms the substance of such supplemental indenture.

COVENANTS

Section 9.01. Payment of Principal, Premium, if Any, and Interest.

The Issuer covenants and agrees for the benefit of the Holders that it shall duly and punctually pay the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Indenture. Principal, premium, if any, and interest shall be considered paid on the date due if by 11:00 a.m. New York City time on such date the Trustee or the Paying Agent holds in accordance with the Indenture money sufficient to pay all principal, premium, if any, and interest then due and the Trustee or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, is not prohibited from paying such money to the Holders on that date pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

Section 9.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Issuer shall maintain in the United States an office or agency where Notes may be presented or surrendered for payment, where Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange and where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes and this Indenture may be served, which shall not constitute service of process. An office of the Trustee, Wilmington Trust, National Association at 50 South Sixth Street, Suite 1290, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 shall be such office or agency of the Issuer, unless the Issuer shall designate and maintain some other office or agency for one or more of such purposes. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any change in the location of any such office or agency. If at any time the Issuer shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency or shall fail to furnish the Trustee with the address thereof, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at such affiliate's office, and the Issuer hereby appoints the Trustee as its agent to receive all such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands.

The Issuer may also from time to time designate one or more other offices or agencies where the Notes may be presented or surrendered for any or all such purposes and may from time to time rescind any such designation. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any such designation or rescission and any change in the location of any such other office or agency.

Section 9.03. Money for Note Payments to Be Held in Trust.

If the Issuer shall at any time act as its own Paying Agent, it shall, on or before each due date of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any of the Notes, segregate and hold in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto a sum sufficient to pay the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest so becoming due until such sums shall be paid to such persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided and shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act.

Whenever the Issuer shall have one or more Paying Agents for the Notes, it shall, on or before each due date of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Notes, deposit with a Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay the principal (and premium, if any) or interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to such principal, premium or interest, and (unless such Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee of such action or any failure so to act.

The Issuer shall cause each Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee, subject to the provisions of this Section 9.03, that such Paying Agent shall:

(a) hold all sums held by it for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on Notes in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to such persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided;

(b) give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer (or any other obligor upon the Notes) in the making of any payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest;

(c) at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by such Paying Agent; and

(d) indemnify the Trustee and its officers, directors, employees and agents against any loss, cost or liability caused by, or incurred as a result of, such Paying Agent's acts or omissions.

The Issuer may at any time, for the purpose of obtaining the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Issuer or such Paying Agent, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the same trusts as those upon which such sums were held by the Issuer or such Paying Agent; and, upon such payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, such Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to such sums.

Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent, or then held by the Issuer, in trust for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, premium or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer on Issuer Request or (if then held by the Issuer) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to the Issuer for payment thereof, and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such trust money, and all liability of the Issuer as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease and any unclaimed balance of such money then remaining will be repaid to the Issuer.

Section 9.04. Existence.

Subject to Article 7, the Issuer shall do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect the existence, rights (charter and statutory) and franchises of the Issuer and each Subsidiary; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to preserve, with respect to the Issuer, any such right or franchise or, with respect to any such Subsidiary (subject to all the other covenants in this Indenture), any such existence, right or franchise, if the Board of Directors shall determine that the preservation thereof is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

Section 9.05. Reports.

So long as any Notes are outstanding (unless defeased in a legal defeasance), the Issuer shall have its annual financial statements audited, and its interim financial statements reviewed, by a nationally recognized firm of independent accountants and shall furnish to the Trustee and the Holders of Notes, all quarterly and annual financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles that would be required to be contained in a filing with the SEC on Forms 10-Q and 10-K if the Issuer was required to file those Forms (but in no event any other items required in such Forms), together with a corresponding "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and, with respect to the annual information only, a report on the annual financial statements by the Issuer's certified independent accountant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) such reports shall not be required to comply with any segment reporting requirements (whether pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles or Regulation S-X) in greater detail than is customarily provided in an offering memorandum prepared in connection with a Rule 144A offering, (ii) such reports shall not be required to present beneficial ownership information, (iii) such reports shall not be required to provide guarantor/non-guarantor financial data and (iv) the Issuer shall not be required to provide separate financial statements or other information contemplated by Rule 3-16 of Regulation S-X (or any successor provision). Any reports shall be provided within the time frames required by the SEC for companies required to file such reports on a non-accelerated basis. To the extent that the Issuer does not file such information with the SEC, the Issuer shall distribute such information and such reports (as well as the details regarding the conference call described below) electronically to the Trustee and by posting such information on a password protected website (which may be non-public, require a confidentiality acknowledgment and be maintained by the Issuer or its designee) to which access will be given to (a) any Holder of the Notes, (b) to any beneficial owner of the Notes, who provides its e-mail address to the Issuer or its designee and certifies that it is a beneficial owner of Notes, (c) to any prospective investor who provides its e-mail address to the Issuer or its designee and certifies that it is a QIB, or (d) any securities analyst providing an analysis of investment in the Notes who provides its e-mail address to the Issuer or its designee and other information reasonably requested by the Issuer and represents to the reasonable satisfaction of the Issuer that (1) it is a bona fide securities analyst providing an analysis of investment in the Notes, (2) it will not use the information in violation of applicable securities laws or regulations, (3) it will keep such provided information confidential and will not communicate the information to any person, (4) it will not use such information in any manner intended to compete with the business of the Issuer or its Subsidiaries and (5) neither it nor its Affiliates is a person that is principally engaged in a similar business or derives a significant portion of its revenues from operating or owning a similar business to that of the Issuer or its

Subsidiaries. Unless the Issuer is subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act, the Issuer shall also hold a quarterly conference call for the Holders of the Notes to review such financial information (which, for the avoidance of doubt, access may be limited to those who have access to the password-protected website and have provided a confidentiality acknowledgement). The conference call will not be later than five Business Days from the time that the Issuer distributes the financial information as set forth above.

For so long as any of the Notes remain outstanding, the Issuer shall furnish to the Holders of the Notes and to any prospective investor that certifies that it is a QIB, upon written request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

In the event that any direct or indirect parent of the Issuer becomes a Guarantor or co-obligor of the Notes, the Issuer may satisfy its obligations under this Section 9.05 with respect to financial information relating to the Issuer by furnishing financial information relating to such parent; provided that the same is accompanied by consolidating information that explains in reasonable detail the differences between the information relating to such parent and any of its Subsidiaries other than the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and the information relating to the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, on the other hand.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer shall be deemed to have furnished such financial statements and reports referred to above to the Trustee and the Holders if the Issuer or any direct or indirect parent of the Issuer has filed such reports with the SEC via the EDGAR filing system (or any successor thereto) and such reports are publicly available.

Delivery of such reports, information and documents to the Trustee is for informational purposes only and the Trustee's receipt of such shall not constitute actual or constructive notice or knowledge of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein, including the Issuer's compliance with any of its covenants hereunder (as to which the Trustee is entitled to rely exclusively on Officer's Certificates). The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the filing, timeliness or content of such reports.

Section 9.06. Statement by Officers as to Default. (a) The Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee, on the date of delivery of each annual report to be delivered pursuant to Section 9.05 commencing with the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, a brief certificate from the principal executive officer, principal financial officer or principal accounting officer as to his or her knowledge of the Issuer's compliance during the period covered by such report with all conditions and covenants under this Indenture. If the signer has knowledge of any noncompliance that occurred during such period, the certificate shall describe its status and what action the Issuer has taken or is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 9.06(a), such compliance shall be determined without regard to any period of grace or requirement of notice under this Indenture.

(b) When (to the knowledge of the Issuer or any Subsidiary) any Default has occurred and is continuing under this Indenture, or if the trustee for or the holder of any other evidence of Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Subsidiary gives any notice or takes any other action with respect to a claimed default (other than with respect to Indebtedness in the principal amount of less than $275,000,000 or its foreign currency equivalent at the time), the Issuer shall, within 30 days of such occurrence, notice or other action, deliver to the Trustee electronically, by registered or certified mail or by facsimile transmission an Officer's Certificate specifying such event, notice or other action, its status and what action the Issuer is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

Further, for purposes of determining compliance with this Section 9.07:

(i) Indebtedness need not be permitted solely by reference to one category of permitted Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) described in Sections 9.07(b)(i) through (xxxv) but may be permitted in part under any relevant combination thereof (and subject to compliance, where relevant, with Section 9.08),

(ii) in the event that an item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) meets the criteria of one or more of the categories of permitted Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) described in Sections 9.07(b)(i) through (xxxv), the Issuer may, in its sole discretion, classify or divide such item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) in any manner that complies with this Section 9.07 (including, in the case of Indebtedness incurred on the same day, electing the order in which such Indebtedness shall be deemed incurred for purposes of computing the available amount under any category) and will be entitled to only include the amount and type of such item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) in one of the above clauses (or any portion thereof) and such item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) shall be treated as having been incurred or existing pursuant to only such clause or clauses (or any portion thereof); provided, that (A) all Indebtedness outstanding under the New Credit Agreement as of the Issue Date (and any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness thereof) shall at all times be deemed to have been incurred pursuant to Section 9.07(b)(ii) and (B) all Indebtedness outstanding under the Series A Revolving Facility and the Series B Revolving Facility, and the outstanding Guarantees of the LVLT Guarantors, shall at all times be deemed to have been incurred pursuant to Section 9.07(b)(xxxii); and

(iii) at the option of the Issuer, any Indebtedness and/or Lien incurred to finance a Limited Condition Transaction shall be deemed to have been incurred on the date of execution of the acquisition agreement, the declaration of the dividend by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the applicable Subsidiary or the giving of the irrevocable notice of repayment or redemption, as applicable, related to such Limited Condition Transaction (and not at the time such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated) and the Total Leverage Ratio, the QC Leverage Ratio, the Priority Leverage Ratio and/or the Superpriority Leverage Ratio shall be tested (x) in connection with such incurrence, as of the date of execution of the acquisition agreement, the declaration of the dividend by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the applicable Subsidiary or the giving of the irrevocable notice of repayment or redemption, as applicable related to such Limited Condition Transaction was entered into, giving pro forma effect to such Limited Condition Transaction, to any such Indebtedness or Lien, and to all transactions in connection therewith and (y) in connection with any other incurrence after the date definitive acquisition agreement was entered into, the date of declaration of the dividend by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the applicable Subsidiary or the date of giving of the irrevocable notice of repayment or redemption, as applicable related to such Limited Condition Transaction and prior to the earlier of the consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction or the termination of such definitive agreement or abandonment of such dividend, repayment or redemption prior to the incurrence, both (i) on the basis set forth in clause (x) above and (ii) without giving effect to such Limited Condition Transaction or the incurrence of any such Indebtedness or Liens or the other transactions in connection therewith.

In addition, with respect to any Indebtedness that was permitted to be incurred hereunder on the date of such incurrence, any Increased Amount of such Indebtedness shall also be permitted hereunder after the date of such incurrence.

This Indenture will not treat (x) unsecured Indebtedness as subordinated or junior in right of payment to secured Indebtedness merely because it is unsecured or (y) senior Indebtedness as subordinated or junior in right of payment to any other senior Indebtedness merely because it has a junior priority with respect to the same collateral.

Accrual of interest, accrual of dividends, the accretion of accreted value, the accretion or amortization of original issue discount, the payment of interest in the form of additional Indebtedness, the payment of dividends in the form of additional shares of Disqualified Stock or the reclassification of commitments or obligations not treated as Indebtedness due to a change in GAAP will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness for purposes of this Section 9.07 (or, for the avoidance of doubt the incurrence of a Lien for purposes of Section 9.08).

For the avoidance of doubt, Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness (and all subsequent refinancings thereof with Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness) shall not increase the amount of Indebtedness that is permitted to be incurred pursuant to any provision of this Section 9.07 other than, in each case, as permitted by the definition of Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness with respect to each such incurrence of Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Note Document,

(A) any Indebtedness (including all intercompany loans (excluding the LVLT Secured Intercompany Loan and any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof) and Guarantees of Indebtedness) incurred after the Issue Date owed by the Issuer or a Guarantor to the Issuer or a Subsidiary shall be subordinated in right of payment to the Note Obligations pursuant to the Subordinated Intercompany Note or other customary payment subordination provisions;

(B) prior to the consummation of the QC Transaction, QC and its Subsidiaries shall not be permitted to incur as borrower or issuer any Indebtedness pursuant to Section 9.07(b)(viii), (xvi), (xxii) or (xxxi);

(C) QC and its Subsidiaries shall not be permitted to incur any Indebtedness that includes paid-in-kind interest (other than Guarantees of Indebtedness permitted to be incurred by the Issuer);

(D) a LVLT Qualified Digital Products Facility (and, for the avoidance of doubt, a Qualified Digital Products Facility that is also a LVLT Qualified Digital Products Facility) shall only be permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxix) to the extent (x) the Issuer, a Lumen Guarantor and/or a QC Guarantor owns a percentage of the Equity Interests of the applicable LVLT Digital Products Subsidiary that corresponds to the SPE Relevant Assets Percentage with respect to such LVLT Qualified Digital Products Facility, (y) all distributions by the applicable LVLT Digital Products Subsidiary are made ratably based on the percentage of Equity Interests of the applicable LVLT Digital Products Subsidiary owned by the Issuer, the Lumen Guarantor and/or the QC Guarantor, as applicable, and the Exempted Subsidiary and (z) the Issuer shall cause the Net Proceeds thereof to be applied in accordance with Section 9.10(b); and

(E) a LVLT Qualified Securitization Facility (and, for the avoidance of doubt, a Qualified Securitization Facility that is also a LVLT Qualified Securitization Facility) shall only be permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxviii) to the extent (x) the Issuer, a Lumen Guarantor and/or a QC Guarantor owns a percentage of the Equity Interests of the applicable LVLT Securitization Subsidiary that corresponds to the SPE Relevant Assets Percentage with respect to such LVLT Qualified Securitization Facility, (y) all distributions by the applicable LVLT Securitization Subsidiary are made ratably based on the percentage of Equity Interests of the applicable LVLT Securitization Subsidiary owned by the Issuer, the Lumen Guarantor and/or the QC Guarantor, as applicable, and the Exempted Subsidiary and (z) the Issuer shall cause the Net Proceeds thereof to be applied in accordance with Section 9.10(b).

Section 9.08. Limitation on Liens. The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, create, incur, assume or permit to exist any Lien on any property or assets (including stock or other securities of any person) of the Issuer or any Subsidiary now owned or hereafter acquired by it or on any income or revenues or rights in respect of any thereof, except the following (collectively, "Permitted Liens"):

(a) Liens on property or assets of the Issuer and the Subsidiaries existing on the Issue Date and any modifications, replacements, renewals or extensions thereof; provided, that such Liens shall secure only those obligations that they secure on the Issue Date (and any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of such obligations permitted by Section 9.07) and shall not subsequently apply to any other property or assets of the Issuer or any Subsidiary other than (A) after-acquired property that is affixed or incorporated into the property covered by such Lien and (B) proceeds and products thereof;

(b) any Lien created to secure Indebtedness incurred under Section 9.07(b)(ii) and Liens under the applicable security documents securing obligations in respect of Hedging Agreements and Cash Management Agreements (and for the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, such Liens may be secured on a pari passu basis with or a junior basis to the Liens securing the First Lien Obligations);

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, following the transfer of any QC Transferred Assets by QC to any QC Newco, such QC Newco shall not be permitted to dispose, transfer, assign, contribute or advance any portion of such QC Transferred Assets to QC or any Subsidiary of QC that guarantees (or is required to guarantee) any Existing QC Debt except in the ordinary course of business or to the extent not materially adverse to the Holders.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, any disposition of assets pursuant to a sale lease back transaction shall not be utilized for liability management purposes.

(i) otherwise permitted (or required) under this Indenture; or

(ix) any transaction in respect of which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a letter addressed to the Board of Directors of the Issuer from an accounting, appraisal or investment banking firm, in each case of nationally recognized standing that is in the good faith determination of the Issuer qualified to render such letter, which letter states that (i) such transaction is on terms that are substantially no less favorable to the Issuer or such Subsidiary, as applicable, than would be obtained in a comparable arm's-length transaction with a person that is not an Affiliate or (ii) such transaction is fair to the Issuer or such Subsidiary, as applicable, from a financial point of view;

(a) permit:

(i) any Material Assets that are owned by the Issuer, Guarantors or their respective Subsidiaries to be transferred, sold, assigned, leased or otherwise disposed (including pursuant to any Investment, Restricted Payment or other disposition), in one transaction or series of related transactions, to the Issuer (other than, for the avoidance of doubt, the temporary transfer of assets by a Subsidiary to another Subsidiary that is permitted by Sections 9.09 and 9.10, if such assets are transferred substantially contemporaneously through the Issuer to the transferee Subsidiary, such transfer shall not be restricted by this clause (i)) or any Unrestricted Subsidiary;

(iv) the aggregate principal amount of any Indebtedness for borrowed money represented by notes or loans or other similar instruments (other than (I) Indebtedness of Guarantors that is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Note Obligations pursuant to the Subordinated Intercompany Note and (II) any such Indebtedness incurred or outstanding pursuant to ordinary course cash management or cash pooling arrangements or other similar arrangements consistent with past practice) of (x) all Subsidiaries that are Guarantors or Subsidiaries of Guarantors to (y) the Issuer or any Subsidiary of the Issuer that is not a Guarantor or a Subsidiary of a Guarantor to exceed $250,000,000 at any time outstanding; provided, that nothing in this Section 9.13 shall restrict any transfer of assets or the making or repayment of any intercompany loans or Investments solely among the Guarantors and their respective Subsidiaries.

(b) Engage at any time to any material respect in any business or business activity substantially different from any business or business activity conducted by any of them on the Issue Date or any Similar Business or, in the case of a Receivables Subsidiary, Securitization Subsidiary or Digital Products Subsidiary, Qualified Receivable Facilities, Qualified Securitization Facilities or Qualified Digital Products Facilities, as applicable.

Section 9.14. Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries.

The Issuer shall designate any Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary only in accordance with the definition of "Unrestricted Subsidiary" contained herein.

Section 9.15. Restrictions on Subsidiary Distributions and Negative Pledge Clauses. The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, enter into any agreement or instrument that by its terms restricts (A) the payment of dividends or other distributions or the making of cash advances to the Issuer or any Subsidiary that is a direct or indirect parent of such Subsidiary or (B) the granting of Liens by the Issuer or any Subsidiary to secure the Note Obligations, in each case other than those arising under any Note Document, except, in each case, restrictions existing by reason of:

(a) restrictions imposed by applicable law;

(b) (i) contractual encumbrances or restrictions existing on the Issue Date, (ii) any agreements related to any Indebtedness that does not materially expand the scope of any such encumbrance or restriction (as determined in good faith by the Issuer) beyond those restrictions applicable on the Issue Date, or (iii) with respect to any Subsidiary, any restriction that is not materially more restrictive (as determined by the Issuer in good faith) than the most restrictive restrictions applicable to such Subsidiary existing on the Issue Date;

(c) any restriction on a Subsidiary imposed pursuant to an agreement entered into for the sale or disposition of the Equity Interests or assets of a Subsidiary pending the closing of such sale or disposition;

(d) customary provisions in joint venture agreements and other similar agreements applicable to joint ventures entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(f) any restrictions imposed by any agreement relating to Indebtedness incurred pursuant to Section 9.07 or Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof, to the extent such restrictions are not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than the restrictions contained in this Indenture (in each case, as determined in good faith by the Issuer);

(g) customary provisions contained in leases or licenses of Intellectual Property and other similar agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(h) customary provisions restricting subletting or assignment of any lease governing a leasehold interest;

(k) permitted Liens and customary restrictions and conditions contained in the document relating thereto, so long as (1) such restrictions or conditions relate only to the specific asset subject to such Lien, and (2) such restrictions and conditions are not created for the purpose of avoiding the restrictions imposed by this Section 9.15;

(l) customary net worth provisions contained in Real Property leases entered into by Subsidiaries, so long as the Issuer has determined in good faith that such net worth provisions would not reasonably be expected to impair the ability of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries to meet their ongoing obligations;

(m) any agreement in effect at the time a person becomes a Subsidiary, so long as such agreement was not entered into in contemplation of such person becoming a Subsidiary;

(n) customary restrictions contained in leases, subleases, licenses or Equity Interests or asset sale agreements otherwise permitted hereby as long as such restrictions relate to the Equity Interests and assets subject thereto;

(o) restrictions on cash or other deposits imposed by customers under contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(r) restrictions created in connection with any Qualified Receivable Facilities permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxvii), Qualified Securitization Facilities permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxviii) or Qualified Digital Products Facilities permitted under Section 9.07(b)(xxix); and

(s) any encumbrances or restrictions imposed by any amendments, modifications, restatements, renewals, increases, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings of or similar arrangements to the contracts, instruments or obligations referred to in clauses (a) through (r) above; provided, that such amendments, modifications, restatements, renewals, increases, supplements, refundings, replacements, refinancings or similar arrangements are, in the good faith judgment of the Issuer, no more restrictive with respect to such dividend and other payment restrictions than those contained in the dividend or other payment restrictions as contemplated by such provisions prior to such amendment, modification, restatement, renewal, increase, supplement, refunding, replacement, refinancing or similar arrangement; and

(t) any agreement or instrument entered into by any Exempted Subsidiary (and applicable only to Exempted Subsidiaries) not prohibited by Section 6.09 of the LVLT Credit Agreement as in effect on the Issue Date.

Section 9.16. Authorizations and Consents of Governmental Authorities.

The Issuer will endeavor, and cause any Regulated Subsidiary to endeavor (for the avoidance of doubt, solely to the extent such Regulated Subsidiary guarantees the Credit Agreement Obligations), in good faith using commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all material (as determined in good faith by the Issuer) authorizations and consents of federal and state Governmental Authorities required, if any, in order for, at the earliest practicable date, it to Guarantee the Notes and pledge Collateral to secure such Note Guarantee. For purposes of this covenant, the requirement that the Issuer use "commercially reasonable efforts" shall not be deemed to require it to make material payments in excess of normal fees and costs to or at the direction of Governmental Authorities or to change the manner in which they conduct their business in any respect that the management of the Issuer shall determine in good faith to be materially adverse or materially burdensome.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (but subject to the following paragraph), if a person is required to become a Guarantor pursuant to this Indenture, none of the Issuer or any Subsidiary shall be required to submit any application or filing or otherwise take any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to become a Guarantor (and the requirement to provide such a Guarantee shall be tolled), in each case, to the extent an authorization or consent of such federal or state Governmental Authority is determined by the Issuer to be sought in respect of any Material Transaction or any financing relating thereto and has not yet been obtained; provided that (i) such person is not submitting any application or filing or otherwise taking any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to Guarantee the Credit Agreements or any Other First Lien Debt and (ii) at the time such federal or state Governmental Authority has approved such Material Transaction, the application, filing or other action to obtain any such authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause any person to become a Guarantor shall promptly be made.

Section 9.17. Purchase of Notes Upon a Change of Control Repurchase Event.

(a) If a Change of Control Repurchase Event occurs, unless the Issuer has elected to redeem the Notes as described above, the Issuer will be required to make an Offer to Purchase to each holder of Notes to repurchase all or any part (in minimum amounts of $1.00 and in integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof) of that holder's Notes at a repurchase price in cash equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes repurchased, together with any accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes repurchased to, but not including, the date of repurchase.

(b) Within 30 days following any Change of Control Repurchase Event or, at the Issuer's option, prior to any Change of Control, but after the public announcement of the Change of Control, the Issuer will make an Offer to Purchase all Outstanding Notes on the payment date specified in the notice (the "Change of Control Payment Date"), which date will be no earlier than 30 days and no later than 60 days from the date such notice is delivered. The notice shall, if delivered prior to the date of consummation of the Change of Control, state that the Offer to Purchase is conditioned on a Change of Control Repurchase Event occurring on or prior to the Change of Control Payment Date.

(c) To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with this Section 9.17, the Issuer will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 9.17 by virtue of such conflict.

(d) On the Change of Control Payment Date, the Issuer will, to the extent lawful:

(i) accept for payment all the Notes or portions of the Notes properly tendered pursuant to the Offer to Purchase;

(ii) deposit with the applicable Paying Agent an amount equal to the aggregate purchase price in respect of all the Notes or portions of the Notes properly tendered; and

(iii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee the Notes properly accepted, together with an Officer's Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes being purchased by the Issuer.

The Issuer will determine whether the Notes are properly tendered. The Paying Agent will deliver to each holder of Notes properly tendered the purchase price for the Notes, and, subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture, the Trustee will authenticate and deliver (or cause to be transferred by book-entry) to each holder a new Note equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of any Notes surrendered; provided that such new Note will be in a minimum principal amount of $1.00 and an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof. Any Note properly tendered and accepted for payment will cease to accrue interest on and after the Change of Control Payment Date.

(e) The Issuer will not be required to make an Offer to Purchase upon a Change of Control Repurchase Event if a third party makes such an Offer to Purchase (in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements for an offer made by the Issuer), and such third party purchases all Notes properly tendered and not withdrawn under its Offer to Purchase. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, a Offer to Purchase may be made in advance of a Change of Control, conditional upon such Change of Control and such other conditions specified therein, if a definitive agreement is in place for the Change of Control at the time of the making of such Offer to Purchase.

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

Section 10.01. Right of Redemption.

The Notes will be subject to redemption at the option of the Issuer, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice to each Holder of Notes, on the terms and at the redemption prices (expressed as percentages of principal amount) set forth in paragraph 5 on the reverse of the form of Note, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (if any) to, but not including, the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

Section 10.02. Applicability of Article.

This Article 10 shall govern any redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 10.01.

Section 10.03. Election to Redeem; Notice to Trustee.

The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes pursuant to Section 10.01 shall be evidenced by a Board Resolution of the Issuer. The Issuer shall notify the Trustee of such Redemption Date and of the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed no less than 10 days (unless a shorter notice shall be satisfactory to the Trustee) prior to the delivery to the Holders of a notice of such redemption and shall deliver to the Trustee such documentation and records as shall enable the Trustee to select the Notes to be redeemed pursuant to Section 10.04. Such notice shall be accompanied by an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel from the Issuer to the effect that such redemption will comply with the conditions herein. The Trustee is permitted to accept the Issuer's instructions regarding redemptions, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, and the Trustee shall have no liability for any action taken at the Issuer's direction.

Section 10.04. Selection by Trustee of Notes to Be Redeemed.

If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed, the particular Notes to be redeemed shall be selected not more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date by the Trustee, from the Outstanding Notes not previously called for redemption, on a pro rata basis, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee shall deem appropriate and which may provide for the selection for redemption of portions of the principal of Notes and, in the case of Notes represented by a Global Note held by the Depository, in accordance with Depository procedures; provided, however, that no such partial redemption shall reduce the portion of the principal amount of a Note not redeemed to less than $1.00.

For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to redemption of Notes shall relate, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, to the portion of the principal amount of such Note which has been or is to be redeemed.

Section 10.05. Notice of Redemption.

Notice of redemption shall be given in the manner provided for in Section 1.06 not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed; provided that in the case of Notes held through the Depository by Depository participants, such notice will be submitted via the Depository's electronic messaging system.

Each notice of redemption shall identify the Notes (including "CUSIP" number(s) and the statement from Section 3.10) to be redeemed and shall state:

(a) the Redemption Date,

(b) the Redemption Price and the amount of accrued interest to the Redemption Date payable as provided in Section 10.07, if any,

(c) if less than all Outstanding Notes are to be redeemed, the identification (and, in the case of a partial redemption, the principal amounts) of the particular Notes to be redeemed,

(d) in case any Note is to be redeemed in part only, that on and after the Redemption Date, upon surrender of such Note, the Holder will receive, without charge, a new Note or Notes of authorized denominations for the principal amount thereof remaining unredeemed,

(e) any condition to the obligation of the Issuer to redeem such Notes,

(f) subject to clause (e) above, that on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price (and unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to the Redemption Date payable as provided in Section 10.07) will become due and payable upon each such Note, or the portion thereof, to be redeemed, and that, unless the Issuer defaults in making such redemption payment or the Trustee or the Paying Agent is prohibited from making such payment, interest thereon will cease to accrue on and after said date, and

(g) the place or places where such Notes are to be presented and surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest, if any.

Notice of redemption of Notes to be redeemed at the election of the Issuer shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer; provided, however, in the latter case the Issuer shall give the Trustee at least 10 days prior notice (or such shorter notice as the Trustee may permit) of the date of the giving of the notice.

Section 10.06. Deposit of Redemption Price.

On or prior to any Redemption Date (and if on any Redemption Date, before 11:00 A.M. New York City time, on such date), the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee or with a Paying Agent (or, if the Issuer is acting as its own Paying Agent, segregate and hold in trust as provided in Section 9.03) an amount of money sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of, and unpaid and accrued interest (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date) on, all the Notes which are to be redeemed on that date.

Section 10.07. Notes Payable on Redemption Date.

Notice of redemption having been given as aforesaid, the Notes so to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified (together with unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to the Redemption Date), and from and after such date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest or the Trustee or the Paying Agent shall be prohibited from making such payment) such Notes shall cease to bear interest. Upon surrender of any such Note for redemption in accordance with said notice, such Note shall be paid by the Issuer at the Redemption Price, together with unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to the Redemption Date; provided, however, that installments of interest whose Stated Maturity is on or prior to the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of such Notes, or one or more Predecessor Notes, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant record dates according to their terms.

If any Note called for redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for redemption, the principal (and premium, if any) shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Notes.

If the Issuer has given notice of redemption as provided in this Indenture and made available funds to the Trustee or Paying Agent for the redemption of the Notes (or any portion thereof) called for redemption on or prior to the redemption date referred to in such notice, those Notes will cease to bear interest on that Redemption Date and the only right of the Holders of those Notes will be to receive payment of the Redemption Price.

Section 10.08. Notes Redeemed in Part. Any Note which is to be redeemed only in part shall be surrendered at the office or agency of the Issuer maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 9.02 (with, if the Issuer and the Trustee so require, due endorsement by, or a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee duly executed by, the Holder thereof or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing), and the Issuer shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Holder of such Note without service charge, a new Note or Notes, of any authorized denomination as requested by such Holder, in aggregate principal amount equal to and in exchange for the unredeemed portion of the principal of the Note so surrendered.

Section 10.09. Effect of Notice of Redemption; Conditional Redemptions.

Once notice of redemption is sent in accordance with Section 10.05 hereof, Notes called for redemption become irrevocably due and payable on the Redemption Date at the Redemption Price. Notice of any redemption of the Notes may, at the Issuer's discretion, be given in connection with any equity offering, other transaction (or series of related transactions) or an event that constitutes a Change of Control and prior to the completion or the occurrence thereof, and any such redemption thereof may, at the Issuer's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including, but not limited to, completion of the related equity offering, transaction or other event, as the case may be. If any redemption is so subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, the notice thereof shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied or waived, or such redemption or repurchase may not occur and any such notice with respect to such redemption may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date as so delayed or such notice or offer may be rescinded at any time in the Issuer's discretion if the Issuer reasonably believes that any or all of such conditions will not be satisfied or waived.

DEFEASANCE AND COVENANT DEFEASANCE

Section 11.01. Issuer's Option to Effect Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance.

The Issuer may, at its option by Board Resolution of the Issuer, at any time, with respect to the Notes, elect to have either Section 11.02 or Section 11.03 be applied to all Outstanding Notes upon compliance with the conditions set forth below in this Article 11.

Section 11.02. Defeasance and Discharge.

Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.02, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall be deemed to have been discharged from their obligations with respect to all Outstanding Notes on the date the conditions set forth in Section 11.04 are satisfied (hereinafter, "defeasance"). For this purpose, such defeasance means that the Issuer shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness represented by the Outstanding Notes, which shall thereafter be deemed to be "Outstanding" only for the purposes of Section 11.05 and the other Sections of this Indenture referred to in clauses (A) and (B) below, and to have satisfied all their other obligations under such Notes and this Indenture insofar as such Notes are concerned (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following which shall survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder: (A) the Issuer's obligations with respect to such Notes under Section 2.3 of Appendix A and Sections 3.03, 3.06, 3.07, 9.02 and 9.03 and the Issuer's rights under Section 10.01, (B) rights of Holders to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Notes (but not the Purchase Price referred to under Section 9.07) and any rights of the Holders with respect to such amounts, (C) the rights, obligations and immunities of the Trustee under this Indenture and (D) this Article 11. Subject to compliance with this Article 11, the Issuer may exercise its option under this Section 11.02 notwithstanding the prior exercise of its option under Section 11.03 with respect to the Notes. If the Issuer exercises its option under this Section 11.02, each Guarantor, if any, shall be released from all its obligations under its Note Guarantee. Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.02, all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes shall be released and the Security Documents shall cease to be of further effect.

Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.03, the Issuer and each Guarantor shall be released from their obligations under any covenant contained in Sections 7.03, 7.04, 7.05, 7.06, 9.05 and Sections 9.07 through 9.17 and Section 12.01 and from the operation of Sections 5.01(f), (g), (h), (i), (j) and (k) (but, in the case of Sections 5.01(i) and (j), with respect only to Significant Subsidiaries), with respect to the Outstanding Notes on and after the date the conditions set forth below are satisfied (hereinafter, "covenant defeasance"), and the Notes shall thereafter be deemed not to be "Outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent, declaration or other Act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such provisions, but shall continue to be deemed "Outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder. For this purpose, such covenant defeasance means that, with respect to the Outstanding Notes, the Issuer and the Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such provision, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein to any such provision or by reason of any reference in any such provision to any other provision herein or in any other document and such omission to comply shall not constitute a Default or an Event of Default under Section 5.01(c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j) or (k) (but, in the case of Section 5.01(i) or (j), with respect only to Significant Subsidiaries) but, except as specified above, the remainder of this Indenture and such Notes shall be unaffected thereby. If the Issuer exercises its option under this Section 11.03, each Guarantor shall be released from all its obligations under its Note Guarantee. Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.03, all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes shall be released and the Security Documents shall cease to be of further effect.

The following shall be the conditions to application of either Section 11.02 or Section 11.03 to the Outstanding Notes:

(a) The Issuer shall irrevocably have deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee (or another trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.08 who shall agree to comply with the provisions of this Article 11 applicable to it) as trust funds in trust for the purpose of making the following payments, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of such Notes, at any time prior to the Maturity of the Notes: (A) money in an amount, or (B) Government Securities which through the payment of interest and principal will provide, not later than one day before the due date of payment in respect of the Notes, money in an amount, or (C) a combination thereof, sufficient, in the opinion of a certified public accountant (selected by the Issuer in its sole discretion) expressed in a written certification delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge the principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest on, the Outstanding Notes on the Stated Maturity (or Redemption Date, if applicable) of such principal (and premium, if any) or installment of interest; provided that the Trustee (or such other trustee) shall have been irrevocably instructed in writing to apply such money or the proceeds of such Government Securities to said payments with respect to the Notes. Before such a deposit, the Issuer may give to the Trustee, in accordance with Section 10.03, a notice of their election to redeem all of the Outstanding Notes at a future date in accordance with Article 10, which notice shall be irrevocable. Such irrevocable redemption notice, if given, shall be given effect in applying the foregoing.

(b) No Default or Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or, insofar as Section 5.01(i) and Section 5.01(j) are concerned with respect to the Issuer, at any time during the period ending on the 123rd day after the date of such deposit (it being understood that this condition shall not be deemed satisfied until the expiration of such period).

(c) Such defeasance or covenant defeasance shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer or any Guarantor is a party or by which it is bound.

(d) In the case of an election under Section 11.02, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that (x) the Issuer has received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, or (y) since the date of this Indenture, there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such opinion shall confirm that, the Holders of the Outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income Tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance had not occurred.

(e) In the case of an election under Section 11.03, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Holders of the Outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income Tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred.

(f) The Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent provided for relating to either the defeasance under Section 11.02 or the covenant defeasance under Section 11.03 (as the case may be) have been complied with.

Section 11.05. Deposited Money and Government Securities to Be Held in Trust; Other Miscellaneous Provisions.

Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 9.03, all money and Government Securities (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee (or other qualifying trustee, collectively for purposes of this Section 11.05, the "Trustee") pursuant to Section 11.04 in respect of the Outstanding Notes shall be held in trust and applied by the Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of such Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as its own Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of such Notes of all sums due and to become due thereon in respect of principal, premium, if any, and interest, but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law or to the extent the Issuer acts as the Issuer's Paying Agent.

The Issuer shall pay and indemnify the Trustee and (if applicable) its officers, directors, employees and agents against any Tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against the Government Securities deposited pursuant to Section 11.04 or the principal and interest received in respect thereof other than any such Tax, fee or other charge which by law is for the account of the Holders of the Outstanding Notes.

Anything in this Article 11 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee shall deliver or pay to the Issuer from time to time upon the Issuer's Request any money or Government Securities held by it as provided in Section 11.04 which, in the opinion of a certified public accountant (selected by the Issuer in its sole discretion) expressed in a written certification thereof delivered to the Trustee, are in excess of the amount thereof which would then be required to be deposited to effect an equivalent defeasance or covenant defeasance, as applicable, in accordance with this Article 11.

Section 11.06. Reinstatement.

If the Trustee or any Paying Agent is unable to apply any money in accordance with Section 4.01 or 11.05 by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, then the Issuer's and each Guarantor's obligations under the Note Documents shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 4.01, 11.02 or 11.03, as the case may be, until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money in accordance therewith; provided, however, that if the Issuer or any Guarantor makes any payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note following the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuer or such Guarantor shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

NOTE GUARANTEES

Section 12.01. Guarantees. Each Guarantor (other than the QC Guarantors, who provide a guarantee of collection only and not a guarantee of performance or payment) hereby unconditionally guarantees, jointly and severally, to each Holder and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns (a) the full and punctual payment of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, and all other monetary obligations of the Issuer under the Note Documents and (b) the full and punctual performance within applicable grace periods of all other obligations of the Issuer under the Note Documents (all the foregoing being hereinafter collectively called the "Obligations"). Each Guarantor further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from such Guarantor, and that such Guarantor will remain bound under this Article 12 notwithstanding any extension or renewal of any Obligation.

Each Guarantor waives presentation to, demand of, payment from and protest to the Issuer of any of the Obligations and also waives notice of protest for nonpayment. Each Guarantor waives notice of any default under the Notes or the Obligations. The obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be affected by (a) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against the Issuer or any other person under this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement or otherwise; (b) any extension or renewal of any thereof; (c) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of any of the terms or provisions of this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement; (d) the release of any security held by any Holder or the Trustee for the Obligations of any of them; (e) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to exercise any right or remedy against any Guarantor of the Obligations; or (f) any change in the ownership of such Guarantor.

Each Guarantor further agrees that its Note Guarantee herein constitutes a guarantee of payment, performance and compliance when due (and not a guarantee of collection) and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Holder or the Trustee to any security held for payment of the Obligations.

Except as expressly set forth in Sections 7.05, 7.06, 9.14, 11.02, 11.03, 12.03 and 12.08, the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and shall not be subject to any defense of setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever or by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Guarantee of the Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Guarantor herein shall not be discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any remedy under this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement, by any waiver or modification of any terms thereof, by any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of the obligations, or by any other act or thing or omission or delay to do any other act or thing which may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of such Guarantor or would otherwise operate as a discharge of such Guarantor as a matter of law or equity.

Each Guarantor further agrees that its Note Guarantee herein shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by any Holder or the Trustee upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of the Issuer or otherwise.

In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right which any Holder or the Trustee has at law or in equity against any Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of the Issuer to pay the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, or to perform or comply with any other Obligation, each Guarantor hereby promises to and will, upon receipt of written demand by the Trustee, forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, in cash, to the Holders or the Trustee an amount equal to the sum of (i) the unpaid amount of such Obligations, (ii) accrued and unpaid interest on such Obligations (but only to the extent not prohibited by law) and (iii) all other monetary Obligations of the Issuer to the Holders and the Trustee.

Each Guarantor agrees that it shall not be entitled to any right of subrogation in respect of any Obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full in cash of all Obligations. Each Guarantor further agrees that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the Obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 5 for the purposes of such Guarantor's Note Guarantee herein, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the Obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such Obligations as provided in Article 5, such Obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by such Guarantor for the purposes of this Section 12.01.

Each Guarantor also agrees to pay any and all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by the Trustee or any Holder in enforcing any rights under this Section 12.01.

The Issuer shall cause each of its direct and indirect Subsidiaries that is not an Excluded Subsidiary and that guarantees or becomes a borrower under any First Lien Obligations to execute and deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days of such event (which such period will be automatically extended in 30 day increments so long as the Issuer uses commercially reasonable efforts), a supplemental indenture substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto pursuant to which such Subsidiary will guarantee the Obligations. For the avoidance of doubt, no Excluded Subsidiary shall be required to guarantee the Obligations, become a party to the Collateral Agreement or any other Collateral Document or create Liens on its assets to secure the Obligations.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (but subject to the following paragraph), if a person is required to become a Guarantor pursuant to this Indenture, none of the Issuer or any Subsidiary shall be required to submit any application or filing or otherwise take any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to become a Guarantor (and the requirement to provide such a Guarantee shall be tolled), in each case, to the extent an authorization or consent of such federal or state Governmental Authority is determined by the Issuer to be sought in respect of any Material Transaction or any financing relating thereto and has not yet been obtained; provided that (i) such person is not submitting any application or filing or otherwise taking any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to Guarantee any First Lien Obligation (other than the Notes) or Junior Lien Obligation and (ii) at the time such federal or state Governmental Authority has approved such Material Transaction, the application, filing or other action to obtain any such authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause any person to become a Guarantor shall promptly be made.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the guarantee of the QC Guarantors shall be a guarantee of collection only and not a guarantee of performance or payment

Section 12.02. Contribution. Each of the Issuer and any Guarantor (a "Contributing Party") agrees that, in the event a payment shall be made by any other Guarantor under any Note Guarantee (the "Claiming Guarantor"), the Contributing Party shall indemnify the Claiming Guarantor in an amount equal to the amount of such payment multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the net worth of the Contributing Party on the Issue Date and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate net worth of the Issuer and all the Guarantors on the Issue Date (or, in the case of any Guarantor becoming a party hereto pursuant to Section 8.01, the date of the supplemental indenture executed and delivered by such Guarantor).

Section 12.03. Release of Guarantees. The Note Guarantee of a Guarantor shall be automatically and unconditionally released, subject to the terms of this Indenture and the Security Documents and upon notice to the Trustee (which failure to deliver such notice shall not effect the release without delivery of any instrument or any action by any party),

(a) upon consummation of any transaction permitted hereunder if (x) resulting in such Guarantor ceasing to constitute a Subsidiary (including because such Subsidiary is designated an "Unrestricted Subsidiary") or (y) in the case of any Guarantor that would not be required to be a Guarantor because it is, or has become, an Excluded Subsidiary as a result of a transaction following which it has become (or remains) a Subsidiary of the Issuer or a Guarantor; provided that, any release pursuant to preceding clause (y) shall only be effective if:

(A) no Event of Default under Section 5.01(a), (b), (i) or (j) has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom,

(B) at the time of such release (and after giving effect thereto), all outstanding Indebtedness of, and Investments in, such Subsidiary would then be permitted to be made in accordance with the relevant provisions of Sections 9.07 and 9.09 (for this purpose, with the Issuer being required to reclassify any such items made in reliance upon the respective Subsidiary being a Guarantor on another basis as would be permitted by such applicable Section) (and all items described above in this clause (B) shall thereafter be deemed recharacterized as provided above in this clause (B));

(C) such Subsidiary shall not be (or shall be simultaneously released as) a guarantor (if applicable) with respect to any Secured Notes, Other First Lien Debt, Permitted Junior Debt, Existing Notes, Subordinated Indebtedness, any other Indebtedness secured by a Junior Lien, or any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness (and successive Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness) with respect to the foregoing; and

(D) the transaction resulting in such release is a legitimate business transaction and not for a "liability management transaction" as reasonably determined by the Issuer;

(b) [reserved],

(c) [reserved],

(d) [reserved],

(e) if such Guarantor is (or immediately after being released from its Note Guarantee of the Notes will be) released from its Guarantee of all First Lien Obligations and Junior Lien Obligations except any such release by or as a result of payment of such Guarantee and such Guarantor is not a guarantor under any of the other First Lien Obligations and is not otherwise required to Guarantee the Notes under this Indenture in accordance with Section 12.01,

(f) if the Issuer exercises the legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option or effects a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, in each case, in accordance with Article 11, or

(g) if such Guarantee was originally Incurred to permit such Guarantor to Incur or guarantee Indebtedness not otherwise permitted pursuant to Section 9.07 or Section 9.08 and the Indebtedness so Incurred or guaranteed (and any permitted refinancing Indebtedness thereof) has been repaid or discharged (provided that, after giving effect to such release, such Guarantor does not have any outstanding Indebtedness or guarantee that would violate Section 9.07 or Section 9.08 if such outstanding Indebtedness or guarantee would have been Incurred following the release of such Note Guarantee and such Guarantor is not a guarantor under any First Lien Obligation (other than the Notes)).

Upon any occurrence giving rise to a release of a Guarantee as specified above, the Trustee, upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate from the Issuer and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that all conditions precedent to such release have been satisfied, shall execute any documents reasonably required by the Issuer in order to evidence or effect such release, discharge and termination in respect of such Guarantee. None of the Issuer, any Guarantor or the Trustee will be required to make a notation on the Notes to reflect any Guarantee or any such release, termination or discharge.

Section 12.04. Successors and Assigns. This Article 12 shall be binding upon each Guarantor and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Trustee and the Holders and, in the event of any transfer or assignment of rights by any Holder or the Trustee, the rights and privileges conferred upon that party in this Indenture and in the Notes shall automatically extend to and be vested in such transferee or assignee, all subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture.

Section 12.05. No Waiver. Neither a failure nor a delay on the part of either the Trustee or the Holders in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Article 12 shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any right, power or privilege. The rights, remedies and benefits of the Trustee and the Holders herein expressly specified are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights, remedies or benefits which either may have under this Article 12 at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise.

Section 12.06. Modification. No modification, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Article 12, nor the consent to any departure by any Guarantor therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Trustee, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice to or demand on any Guarantor in any case shall entitle such Guarantor to any other or further notice or demand in the same, similar or other circumstances.

Section 12.07. Execution of Supplemental Indenture for Future Guarantors.

(a) Subject to Section 8.03 hereof, each Subsidiary which is required to become a Guarantor pursuant to any Section of this Indenture shall promptly execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture in the form of Exhibit B hereto pursuant to which such Subsidiary shall become a Guarantor under this Article 12 and shall guarantee the Obligations.

Section 12.08. Limitation on Guarantor Liability. Each Guarantor and, by its acceptance of a Note, each Holder, hereby confirms that it is the intention of all such parties that the Note Guarantee of such Guarantor not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar federal or state law to the extent applicable to its Note Guarantee. To effectuate the foregoing intention, the Trustee, the Holders and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably agree that the obligations of each Guarantor will be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of such Guarantor that are relevant under such laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Guarantor under this Article 12, result in the obligations of such Guarantor under its Note Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

COLLATERAL AND SECURITY

Section 13.01. Collateral. (a) The due and punctual payment of the Note Obligations, including payment of the principal of, premium on, if any, and interest on, the Notes when and as the same shall be due and payable, whether on an Interest Payment Date, at maturity, by acceleration, repurchase, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of, premium on, if any, and interest on the Notes, according to the terms hereunder or thereunder, and all other obligations of the Collateral Guarantors to the Holders or the Trustee or the Collateral Agent under the Note Documents are secured as provided in the Security Documents which the Collateral Guarantors have entered into simultaneously with the execution of this Indenture and will be secured as provided by the Security Documents hereafter delivered as required by this Indenture, which define the terms of the Liens that secure the Notes Obligations, subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements. The Trustee and the Issuer hereby acknowledge and agree that the Collateral Agent has a security interest in the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders, the Trustee and itself, in each case pursuant and subject to the terms of the Security Documents. The Issuer and the Guarantors shall make all filings (including filings of continuation statements and amendments to Uniform Commercial Code financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and filings with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office of notices of grant of security interest in Intellectual Property) and take all other actions, in each case as are required by the Security Documents, to create, maintain, perfect, record, continue, enforce or protect (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuer and the Guarantors) the security interests created by the Security Documents in the Collateral (subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements and the Security Documents) as a perfected security interest and within the time frames set forth therein subject to permitted Liens and the priority required by the Intercreditor Agreement and the other Security Documents.

(b) Each Holder, by its acceptance of a Note, 1. consents and agrees to the terms of each Security Document (including, without limitation, the provisions providing for possession, use, release and foreclosure of Collateral), the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement as originally in effect and as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time in accordance with its terms or the terms of this Indenture and agrees that it will not contest or support any other person in contesting, in any proceeding (including any insolvency or liquidation proceeding), the perfection, priority, validity or enforceability of a Lien held by or on behalf of any other holder of First Lien Obligations in all or any part of the Collateral, 2. authorizes the Collateral Agent to act on its behalf as "collateral agent" under this Indenture and the Security Documents, 3. authorizes the Issuer to appoint the Collateral Agent to act on behalf of the Secured Parties as the Collateral Agent under this Indenture and the Security Documents, 4. authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to enter into the Security Documents to which it is or becomes a party, the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights and powers thereunder in accordance therewith, 5. authorizes and empowers the Collateral Agent to bind the Holders and other holders of First Lien Obligations and Junior Lien Obligations as set forth in the Security Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party and 6. authorizes the Trustee to authorize the Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, including for purposes of acquiring, holding, enforcing and foreclosing on any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any grantor thereunder to secure any of the First Lien Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such consent shall be deemed or construed to represent an amendment or waiver, in whole or in part, of any provision of this Indenture or the Notes. The foregoing will not limit the right of the Issuer or any Subsidiary to amend, waive or otherwise modify the Security Documents in accordance with their terms.

(c) Neither the Issuer nor any Guarantor will take or omit to take any action which would materially adversely affect or impair the validity or enforceability of the Liens in favor of the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties with respect to the Collateral; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be deemed to prohibit any action or inaction that is otherwise permitted by this Indenture or required by law.

(d) Subject to Article 6, neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys or agents will be responsible or liable for the existence, genuineness, value or protection of any Collateral, for the legality, validity, enforceability, effectiveness or sufficiency of the Collateral Documents, for the creation, perfection, priority, sufficiency or protection of any Lien securing First Lien Obligations, or for any defect or deficiency as to any such matters, or for any failure to demand, collect, foreclose or realize upon or otherwise enforce any of the Liens securing First Lien Obligations or the Collateral Documents or any delay in doing so.

(e) The Holders agree that the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to the rights, privileges, protections, immunities, indemnities and benefits provided to the Collateral Agent by this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements and the Security Documents. Furthermore, each Holder, by accepting a Note, consents to the terms of and authorizes and directs the Trustee (in each of its capacities) and the Collateral Agent to enter into and perform each of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement, any other Intercreditor Agreement and the Security Documents in each of its capacities thereunder.

(f) If the Issuer (i) Incurs Other First Lien Debt at any time when no intercreditor agreement is in effect or at any time when First Lien Obligations (other than the Notes) entitled to the benefit of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement is concurrently retired, and (ii) delivers to the Collateral Agent an Officers' Certificate so stating and requesting the Collateral Agent to enter into an intercreditor agreement (on substantially the same terms as the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement) in favor of a designated agent or representative for the holders of the Other First Lien Debt so Incurred, the Collateral Agent shall (and is hereby authorized and directed to) enter into such intercreditor agreement, bind the holders on the terms set forth therein and perform and observe its obligations thereunder.

(g) If the Issuer (i) Incurs Junior Lien Obligations at any time when no applicable intercreditor agreement is in effect or at any time when Indebtedness constituting Junior Lien Obligations entitled to the benefit of a Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement is concurrently retired, and (ii) delivers to the Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, an Officer's Certificate so stating and requesting the Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, to enter into a Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement in favor of a designated agent or representative for the holders of the Indebtedness constituting Junior Lien Obligations so Incurred, the Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, shall (and each is hereby authorized and directed to) enter into such intercreditor agreement bind the holders on the terms set forth therein and perform and observe its obligations thereunder.

(h) At all times when the Trustee is not itself the Collateral Agent, the Issuer will, upon request, deliver to the Trustee copies of all Security Documents delivered to the Collateral Agent and copies of all documents delivered to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Indenture and the Security Documents.

Section 13.02. New Collateral Guarantors. (a) [reserved].

(b) Substantially concurrently with any Subsidiary becoming a Guarantor pursuant to Section 12.01, the Issuer shall cause all of such Subsidiary's assets (other than Excluded Property) to be subjected to a Lien securing the Note Obligations for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and thereafter shall take, or cause such Subsidiary to take, such actions as shall be necessary or reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to grant and perfect or record such Lien, in each case to the extent contemplated by the Security Documents, all at the Issuer's expense; provided that the Collateral in any event shall exclude Excluded Property.

(c) Subject to the limitations set forth in the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall, at their expense, execute, acknowledge, deliver and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents, and take all such actions as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request, to assure, preserve, protect and perfect (and to maintain the perfection of) the security interest and the priority thereof in the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders and the Collateral Agent (including the payment of any fees and Taxes required in connection with the execution and delivery of the Security Documents, the granting of such security interests and the filing of any financing statements or other documents in connection therewith), in each case to the extent required by the Security Documents.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or the Security Documents, and for the avoidance of doubt, neither the Issuer nor any Guarantor shall be obligated to grant a security interest in any asset that is not required to also be collateral securing any First Lien Obligations and, if so required, they shall not be required to perfect any such security interest unless and until they are required to do so in respect of such First Lien Obligations.

Section 13.03. Collateral Agent. (a) The Issuer hereby appoints Bank of America, N.A. to act on behalf of the Secured Parties as the Collateral Agent under this Indenture and each of the Security Documents and Intercreditor Agreements and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms of this Indenture and the Security Documents, and Bank of America, N.A. agrees to act as such. The provisions of this Section 13.03 are solely for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and neither the Trustee nor any of the Holders shall have any rights as a third party beneficiary of any of the provisions contained herein. Each Holder agrees that any action taken by the Collateral Agent in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement and the Security Documents, and the exercise by the Collateral Agent of any rights or remedies set forth herein and therein shall be authorized and binding upon all Holders. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Indenture or the Security Documents, the Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in this Indenture, the Security Documents to which it is party and in the Intercreditor Agreements. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable order). The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper person. The Collateral Agent may also rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Collateral Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Trustee), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

(b) Subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements and the Collateral Documents, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent are authorized and empowered to receive for the benefit of the Holders any funds collected or distributed under the Collateral Documents and Intercreditor Agreements to which the Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party and to make further distributions of such funds to Holders according to the provisions of this Indenture.

(c) Each Holder and other Secured Party hereby agrees that (A) it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of any such intercreditor agreement or other agreements or documents, (B) agrees that the Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations shall be subject in all respects to the provisions thereof and (C) agrees that the Trustee and the Collateral Agent are authorized to take or refrain from taking any actions in accordance with the terms of an Intercreditor Agreement.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and subject to the Security Documents, the Collateral Agent:

(i) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(ii) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated by the Security Documents or Intercreditor Agreement that the Collateral Agent is required to exercise;

(iii) shall not, except as expressly set forth in the Security Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Issuer or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the person serving as the Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity;

(iv) shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (A) with the consent or at the request of the Trustee, (B) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct (it being understood that any determination that the Collateral Agent's actions constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct must be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable order) or (C) in reliance on a certificate of an authorized officer of the Issuer stating that such action is permitted by the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement or any other Security Document. The Collateral Agent shall be deemed not to have actual knowledge of any Event of Default unless and until written notice describing such Event of Default is given by the Trustee or the Issuer and received by a Responsible Officer of the Collateral Agent;

(v) shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (A) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Security Document, (B) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered thereunder or in connection therewith, (C) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth therein or the occurrence of any Event of Default, (D) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Security Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Security Documents, (E) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, or (F) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in any Security Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Collateral Agent; and

(vi) shall not be responsible or liable for creating, preserving, perfecting or validating the security interest granted to the Trustee and the Collateral Agent pursuant to the Security Documents or any lien and/or any filing, or recording or otherwise creaing, perfecting, continuing or maintaining any lien or the perfection thereof.

By accepting the Notes, each Holder will be deemed to have irrevocably agreed to the foregoing provisions of the prior paragraph and shall be bound by those agreements to the fullest extent permitted by law.

(d) Subject to the provisions of the applicable Security Document, each Holder, by its acceptance of the Notes, agrees that the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver the Security Documents to which it is a party and all agreements, power of attorney, documents and instruments incidental thereto, and act in accordance with the terms thereof. The Collateral Agent shall hold (directly or through any agent) and is directed by each Holder to so hold, and shall be entitled to enforce on behalf of the Holders on the Collateral for their benefit, subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement. Holders may not, individually or collectively, take any direct action to enforce any rights in their favor under the Security Documents. The Holders may only act by written instruction to the Trustee, subject to the terms hereof, which shall instruct the Collateral Agent.

(e) If at any time or times the Trustee shall receive 1. by payment, foreclosure, set-off or otherwise, any proceeds of Collateral or any payments with respect to the Note Obligations arising under, or relating to, this Indenture, except for any such proceeds or payments received by the Trustee from the Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, or 2. payments from the Collateral Agent in excess of the amount required to be paid to the Trustee pursuant to Article 5, the Trustee shall promptly turn the same over to the Collateral Agent, in kind, and with such endorsements as may be required to negotiate the same to the Collateral Agent such proceeds to be applied by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreement.

(f) The Collateral Agent shall have no obligation whatsoever to the Trustee or any of the Holders to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by any Issuer or Guarantor or is cared for, protected, or insured or has been encumbered, or that the Collateral Agent's Liens have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected, maintained or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or to determine whether all of the Issuer's or any Guarantor's property constituting Collateral has been properly and completely listed or delivered, as the case may be, or the genuineness, validity, marketability or sufficiency thereof or title thereto, or to exercise at all or in any particular manner or under any duty of care, disclosure, or fidelity, or to continue exercising, any of the rights, authorities, and powers granted or available to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Indenture or any Security Documents, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission, or event related thereto, the Collateral Agent shall have no other duty or liability whatsoever to the Trustee or any Holder as to any of the foregoing.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or any Security Document, neither the Collateral Agent nor the Trustee shall be responsible for, and neither makes any representation regarding, the validity, effectiveness or priority of any of the Security Documents or the security interests or Liens intended to be created thereby.

(h) The benefits, protections and indemnities of the Trustee hereunder, as applicable of this Indenture shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Collateral Agent in its capacity as such, including, without limitation, the rights to reimbursement and indemnification.

(i) The Collateral Agent is authorized and empowered to appoint one or more co-Collateral Agents as it deems necessary or appropriate.

(j) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee is authorized and empowered to institute and maintain, or direct the Collateral Agent to institute and maintain, such suits and proceedings as it may deem expedient to protect or enforce the Liens securing the First Lien Obligations or the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party or to prevent any impairment of Collateral by any acts that may be unlawful or in violation of the Collateral Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements to which the Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee or the Collateral Agent may deem expedient to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Holders in the Collateral, including power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the security interest hereunder or be prejudicial to the interests of Holders, the Trustee or the Collateral Agent.

Section 13.04. Release of Collateral. (a) All or any portion of the Collateral, as applicable, shall be released from the Lien and security interest created by the Security Documents to secure the Note Obligations, all without delivery of any instrument or performance of any act by any party, at any time or from time to time as provided by this Section 13.04. Upon such release, subject to the terms of the Security Documents all rights in the applicable Collateral securing the Note Obligations shall revert to the Issuer and the Guarantors. The applicable Collateral shall be automatically released from the Lien and security interest created by the Security Documents to secure the Note Obligations, with notice to the Trustee and Collateral Agent which failure to deliver such notice shall not effect the release without delivery of any instrument or any action by any party, under any of the following circumstances:

(i) with respect to any Collateral securing the Note Guarantee of any Collateral Guarantor, when such Guarantor's Note Guarantee is released in accordance with the terms of this Indenture;

(ii) upon payment in full of principal, interest and all other Note Obligations that are due and payable at the time such principal and interest is paid;

(iii) pursuant to an amendment of, supplement to or other modification of a Note Document entered into pursuant Article 8;

(iv) in connection with any disposition of Collateral (but excluding any transaction subject to Article 7 where the recipient is required to become a Guarantor) that is not prohibited by this Indenture;

(v) in respect of any property and assets of a Collateral Guarantor that would constitute Collateral but is at such time not subject to a Lien securing First Lien Obligations (other than the Note Obligations), other than any property or assets that cease to be subject to a Lien securing First Lien Obligations in connection with a discharge of First Lien Obligations; provided that if such property and assets (other than Excluded Property) are subsequently subject to a Lien securing First Lien Obligations (other than the Note Obligations), such property and assets shall subsequently constitute Collateral to the extent otherwise requried under this Indenture;

(vi) if such property or other assets is or becomes Excluded Property, including without limitation: (A) any collections and accounts established solely for the collection of Receivables to secure the incurrence of Indebtedness pursuant to a Qualified Receivable Facility as permitted by Section 9.07(b)(xxvii) and any property securing such Qualified Receivable Facility; (B) any Securitization Assets to secure the Incurrence of Indebtedness under Qualified Securitization Facilities permitted to be incurred pursuant to Section 9.07(b)(xxviii); or (C) any Digital Products to secure the Incurrence of Indebtedness under Qualified Digital Products Facility permitted to be incurred pursuant to Section 9.07(b)(xxix);

(vii) in accordance with the applicable provisions of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement or the Security Documents;

(viii) in respect of any Collateral transferred to a third party or otherwise disposed of in connection with any enforcement by the Collateral Agent in accordance with the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement;

(ix) upon the exercise by the Issuer and the Guarantors of their legal defeasance or covenant defeasance options, or the discharge of the Issuer's and the Guarantors' obligations under this Indenture in accordance with Article 11 or Article 4; or

(x) to the extent that such Collateral comprises property leased to the Issuer or a Guarantor, upon termination or expiration of such lease.

(b) In the event any Collateral or Guarantor is released hereunder and the Issuer is not required to deliver an Officer's Certificate and/or Opinion of Counsel to the Trustee, the Trustee shall receive notice of such release.

(c) The Collateral Agent and, if necessary, the Trustee shall, at the Issuer's expense, execute, deliver or acknowledge any necessary or proper instruments of termination subject to the terms hereof and terms of the Security Documents and Intercreditor Agreement, satisfaction or release provided to it to evidence and shall do or cause to be done all other acts reasonably necessary to effect, in each case as soon as is reasonably practicable, the release of any Collateral permitted to be released pursuant to this Indenture and the Security Documents. Neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent shall be liable for any such release undertaken in good faith and that it believes to be authorized or within the rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture and the Security Documents.

(d) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, the Holders and the other Secured Parties hereby irrevocably authorize and instruct the Trustee and the Collateral Agent to, upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel, without any further consent of any Holder or any other Secured Party, and, upon the request of the Issuer, the Collateral Agent shall, (a) enter into (or acknowledge and consent to) or amend, renew, extend, supplement, restate, replace, waive or otherwise modify any of the Intercreditor Agreements with the collateral agent or other representative of holders of Indebtedness secured (and permitted to be secured) by a Lien on assets constituting a portion of the Collateral under any of Section 9.08(b), (z), (aa), (bb), (gg), (kk) or (mm) (and solely in accordance with the relevant requirements thereof and not in lieu of the requirements thereof) and (b) release any Lien securing the obligations on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Note Document to the holder of any Lien on such property that is permitted by Section 9.08(c), (i) or (v) in each case to the extent the contract or agreement pursuant to which such Lien is granted prohibits any other Liens on such property.

(e) The release of any Collateral from the terms of this Indenture and the Security Documents will not be deemed to impair the security under this Indenture in contravention of the provisions hereof if and to the extent the Collateral is released pursuant to the terms of the Security Documents.

(f) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in connection with (x) any release of Collateral pursuant to Section 13.04(a), the Collateral Agent shall not be required to execute, deliver or acknowledge any instruments of termination, satisfaction or release unless, in each case, an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel certifying that all conditions precedent, including, without limitation, this Section 13.04, have been met and stating under which of the circumstances set forth in Section 13.04(a) above the Collateral is being released have been delivered to the Collateral Agent.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, at any time when a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the maturity of the Securities has been accelerated (whether by declaration or otherwise) and the Trustee has delivered a notice of acceleration to the Collateral Agent, no release of Collateral pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture or the Collateral Documents will be effective as against the Holders, except as otherwise provided in the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement.

Section 13.05. Authorization of Actions to be Taken by the Trustee and the Collateral Agent Under the Security Documents. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee may direct, on behalf of Holders, the Collateral Agent to take action permitted to be taken by it under the Security Documents.

(b) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and subject to the provisions of the Security Documents and Sections 6.01 and 6.03, the Trustee may but is not obligated to, in its sole discretion and without the consent of the Holders, direct, on behalf of the Holders, the Collateral Agent to, take all actions it deems necessary or appropriate in order to:

(i) enforce any of the terms of the Security Documents; and

(ii) collect and receive any and all amounts payable in respect of the Note Obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantors hereunder.

(c) Subject to the provisions of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent will have power to institute and maintain such suits and proceedings, at the expense of the Issuer, as it may deem expedient to prevent any impairment of the Collateral by any acts that may be unlawful or in violation of the Security Documents or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee or the Collateral Agent may deem expedient to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Holders in the Collateral (including power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the security interest hereunder or be prejudicial to the interests of the Holders or of the Trustee or the Collateral Agent). Nothing in this Section 13.05 shall be considered to impose any such duty or obligation to act on the part of the Trustee or the Collateral Agent.

Section 13.06. Authorization of Receipt of Funds by the Collateral Agent Under the Security Documents. Subject to the provisions of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement, the Collateral Agent is authorized to receive any funds for the benefit of the Holders distributed under the Security Documents, and to make further distributions of such funds to the Trustee for further distribution to the Holders according to the provisions of this Indenture.

Section 13.07. Purchaser Protected. In no event shall any purchaser or other transferee in good faith of any property or assets purported to be released hereunder be bound to ascertain the authority of the Collateral Agent or the Trustee to execute the release or to inquire as to the satisfaction of any conditions required by the provisions hereof for the exercise of such authority or to see to the application of any consideration given by such purchaser or other transferee; nor shall any purchaser or other transferee of any property or assets be under any obligation to ascertain or inquire into the authority of the Issuer or the applicable Guarantor to make any such sale or other transfer.

Section 13.08. Powers Exercisable by Receiver or Trustee. In case the Collateral shall be in the possession of a receiver or trustee, lawfully appointed, the powers conferred in this Article 13 upon the Issuer or a Guarantor with respect to the release, sale or other disposition of such property or assets may be exercised by such receiver or trustee, and an instrument signed by such receiver or trustee shall be deemed the equivalent of any similar instrument of the Issuer or a Guarantor or of any officer or officers thereof required by the provisions of this Article 13; and if the Trustee, Collateral Agent or a nominee of the Trustee or Collateral Agent shall be in the possession of the Collateral under any provision of this Indenture, then such powers may be exercised by the Trustee, Collateral Agent or a nominee of the Trustee or Collateral Agent.

Section 13.09. Rights of Trustee. (a) In the event the Trustee is requested to deliver to the Collateral Agent a notice or direction on behalf of the Issuer instructing the Collateral Agent to take an action under the terms of this Indenture, the Collateral Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel, each stating that the relevant action is authorized or permitted under the Indenture, the Collateral Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, and the conditions precedent to such action under such documents have been complied with. In the event the Trustee itself is requested by the Issuer to take an action relating to the Collateral under the terms of this Indenture, the Collateral Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel, each stating that the relevant action is authorized or permitted under the Indenture, the Collateral Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, and the conditions precedent to such action under such documents have been complied with.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee shall not assume, be responsible for or otherwise be obligated for any liabilities, claims, causes of action, suits, losses, allegations, requests, demands, penalties, fines, settlements, damages (including foreseeable and unforeseeable), judgments, expenses and costs (including but not limited to, any remediation, corrective action, response, removal or remedial action, or investigation, operations and maintenance or monitoring costs, for personal injury or property damages, real or personal) of any kind whatsoever, pursuant to any environmental law as a result of this Indenture, any Intercreditor Agreement or any Collateral Document. In the event that the Trustee is required to acquire title to an asset for any reason, or take any managerial action of any kind in regard thereto, in order to carry out any fiduciary or trust obligation for the benefit of another, which may cause the Trustee to be considered an "owner or operator" under the provisions of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. §9601, et seq., or otherwise cause the Trustee to incur liability under CERCLA or any other applicable law, the Trustee reserves the right, instead of taking such action, to either resign or arrange for the transfer of the title or control of the asset to a court-appointed receiver.

Section 13.10. FCC and State PUC Compliance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any of the Note Documents, none of the Trustee, the Collateral Agent or the Holders, nor any of their agents, will take any action pursuant any Note Document that would constitute or result in an assignment or transfer of control of any FCC License or State PUC License held by the Issuer or any Guarantor if such assignment or transfer of control would require, under existing Telecommunications Laws, the prior application to, approval of, or notice to, the FCC or any State PUC, without first filing such application, obtaining such approval and/or providing such required notice to the FCC and/or State PUC.

Section 13.11. Regulated Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture or otherwise to the contrary, (x) any Regulated Subsidiary that the Issuer in good faith would cause to become a Lumen Guarantor or a Collateral Guarantor but for all applicable consents, approvals, licenses and authorizations of applicable regulatory authorities related thereto not having been obtained shall be treated as a Lumen Guarantor or a Collateral Guarantor, as the case may be, for purposes of Article 9 for so long as the Issuer is using commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the relevant consents, approvals, licenses or authorizations (or, solely with respect to (x) investments with respect to the payment of intercompany expenses or other investments, in each case in the ordinary course of business and (y) investments with respect to the payment of capital expenditures with respect to any such Regulated Subsidiary, has been unable to receive such consents, approvals, licenses or authorizations in spite of such efforts) and (y) no Regulated Subsidiary shall be required to become a Lumen Guarantor or a Collateral Guarantor or pledge any individual assets or have its Equity Interests pledged as Collateral pursuant to the Security Documents until all applicable consents, approvals, licenses or authorizations of any Governmental Authorities are obtained.

1.2 Other Definitions.

Term	Defined in Section:

"Global Note"	2.1(a)
"IAI Global Note"	2.1(a)
"Regulation S"	2.1
"Regulation S Global Note"	2.1(a)

2. The Notes.

2.1 Form and Dating.

The Notes will be resold initially only to QIBs in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A"), in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S") and to certain IAIs. The Notes may thereafter be transferred to, among others, QIBs and purchasers in reliance on Regulation S.

(a) Global Notes. Notes initially resold pursuant to Rule 144A shall be issued initially in the form of one or more permanent global Notes in definitive, fully registered form (collectively, the "Rule 144A Global Note"), Notes initially resold pursuant to Regulation S shall be issued initially in the form of one or more global securities (collectively, the "Regulation S Global Note") and Notes initially resold to accommodate transfers of beneficial interests in the Notes to IAIs shall be issued initially in the form of one or more global securities (collectively, the "IAI Global Note"), in each case without interest coupons and with the global securities legend and restricted securities legend set forth in Exhibit 1 hereto, which shall be deposited on behalf of the purchasers of the Notes represented thereby with the Notes Custodian, and registered in the name of the Depository or a nominee of the Depository, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee as provided in the Indenture. The Rule 144A Global Note, Regulation S Global Note and IAI Global Note are collectively referred to herein as "Global Notes". The aggregate principal amount of the Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee and the Depository or its nominee as hereinafter provided.

(b) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.1(b) shall apply only to a Global Note deposited with or on behalf of the Depository.

The Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall, in accordance with this Section 2.1(b) and pursuant to an order of the Issuer, authenticate and deliver initially one or more Global Notes that (a) shall be registered in the name of the Depository for such Global Note or Global Notes or the nominee of such Depository and (b) shall be delivered by the Trustee to such Depository or pursuant to such Depository's instructions or held by the Trustee as Notes Custodian.

Members of, or participants in, the Depository ("Agent Members") shall have no rights under the Indenture with respect to any Global Note held on their behalf by the Depository or by the Trustee as Notes Custodian or under such Global Note, and the Depository may be treated by the Issuer, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee as the absolute owner of such Global Note for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer, the Trustee or any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by the Depository or impair, as between the Depository and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices of such Depository governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of a beneficial interest in any Global Note.

(c) Definitive Notes. Except as provided in Section 2.3 or 2.4, owners of beneficial interests in Global Notes will not be entitled to receive physical delivery of Definitive Notes.

2.2 Authentication. The Trustee shall authenticate and deliver: (1) Original Notes, and (2) any Additional Notes upon a written order of the Issuer signed by two Officers or by an Officer and either an Assistant Treasurer or an Assistant Secretary of the Issuer. Such order shall specify the amount of the Notes to be authenticated and the date on which the original issue of Notes is to be authenticated.

2.3 Transfer and Exchange. (a) Transfer and Exchange of Definitive Notes. When Definitive Notes are presented to the Note Registrar or a co-registrar with a request:

(x) to register the transfer of such Definitive Notes; or

(y) to exchange such Definitive Notes for an equal principal amount of Definitive Notes of other authorized denominations,

the Note Registrar or co-registrar shall register the transfer or make the exchange as requested if its reasonable requirements for such transaction are met; provided, however, that the Definitive Notes surrendered for transfer or exchange:

(i) shall be duly endorsed or accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer and the Note Registrar or co-registrar, duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing; and

(ii) are being transferred or exchanged pursuant to clause (A), (B) or (C) below, and are accompanied by the following additional information and documents, as applicable:

(A) if such Definitive Notes are being delivered to the Note Registrar by a Holder for registration in the name of such Holder, without transfer, a certification from such Holder to that effect; or

(B) if such Definitive Notes are being transferred to the Issuer, a certification to that effect; or

(C) if such Definitive Notes are being transferred pursuant to an exemption from registration in accordance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act, (i) a certification to that effect and (ii) if the Issuer so requests, an opinion of counsel or other evidence reasonably satisfactory to it as to the compliance with the restrictions set forth in the legend set forth in Section 2.3(c)(i).

(b) Transfer and Exchange of Global Notes. (i) The transfer and exchange of Global Notes or beneficial interests therein shall be effected through the Depository, in accordance with the Indenture (including applicable restrictions on transfer set forth herein, if any) and the procedures of the Depository therefor. A transferor of a beneficial interest in a Global Note shall deliver a written order given in accordance with the Depository's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depository to be credited with a beneficial interest in the Global Note and such account shall be credited in accordance with such instructions with a beneficial interest in the Global Note and the account of the person making the transfer shall be debited by an amount equal to the beneficial interest in the Global Note being transferred.

(ii) If the proposed transfer is a transfer of a beneficial interest in one Global Note to a beneficial interest in another Global Note, the Note Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date and an increase in the principal amount of the Global Note to which such interest is being transferred in an amount equal to the principal amount of the interest to be so transferred, and the Note Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date and a corresponding decrease in the principal amount of the Global Note from which such interest is being transferred.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Appendix A (other than the provisions set forth in Section 2.4), a Global Note may not be transferred as a whole except by the Depository to a nominee of the Depository or by a nominee of the Depository to the Depository or another nominee of the Depository or by the Depository or any such nominee to a successor Depository or a nominee of such successor Depository.

(iv) In the event that a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Notes pursuant to Section 2.4, such Notes may be exchanged only in accordance with such procedures as are substantially consistent with the provisions of this Section 2.3 (including the certification requirements set forth on the reverse of the Notes intended to ensure that such transfers comply with Rule 144A, Regulation S or such other applicable exemption from registration under the Securities Act, as the case may be) and such other procedures as may from time to time be adopted by the Issuer.

(v) In the case of a transfer of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note or a Rule 144A Global Note for an interest in an IAI Global Note, the transferee must furnish a signed letter substantially in the form of Exhibit 2 to the Trustee.

(c) Legend.

(i) Except as permitted by the following paragraph (ii), each certificate evidencing the Global Notes and the Definitive Notes (and all Notes issued in exchange therefor or in substitution thereof) shall bear a legend in substantially the following form (the "Restricted Notes Legend"):

"THIS NOTE HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"). THE HOLDER HEREOF, BY PURCHASING THIS NOTE, AGREES FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE ISSUER THAT THIS NOTE MAY NOT BE OFFERED, RESOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED (X) PRIOR TO THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE ISSUANCE HEREOF (OR ANY PREDECESSOR NOTE HERETO) OR (Y) BY ANY HOLDER THAT WAS AN "AFFILIATE" (WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144 UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) OF THE ISSUER AT ANY TIME DURING THE THREE MONTHS PRECEDING THE DATE OF SUCH TRANSFER, IN EITHER CASE OTHER THAN (1) TO THE ISSUER, (2) SO LONG AS THIS NOTE IS ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE PURSUANT TO RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT ("RULE 144A"), TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER TO WHOM NOTICE IS GIVEN THAT THE OFFER, RESALE, PLEDGE OR OTHER TRANSFER IS BEING MADE IN RELIANCE ON RULE 144A (AS INDICATED BY THE BOX CHECKED BY THE TRANSFEROR ON THE CERTIFICATE OF TRANSFER ON THE REVERSE OF THIS NOTE), (3) IN AN OFFSHORE TRANSACTION (AS DEFINED UNDER REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) IN ACCORDANCE WITH REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (AS INDICATED BY THE BOX CHECKED BY THE TRANSFEROR ON THE CERTIFICATE OF TRANSFER ON THE REVERSE OF THIS NOTE), (4) TO AN INSTITUTIONAL "ACCREDITED INVESTOR" WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 501(a)(1), (2), (3) OR (7) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT THAT IS NOT A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER AND THAT IS PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF ANOTHER INSTITUTIONAL ACCREDITED INVESTOR, IN EACH CASE IN A MINIMUM PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF SECURITIES OF AT LEAST $250,000 OR (5) PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PROVIDED BY RULE 144 (IF APPLICABLE) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, IN EACH CASE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SECURITIES ACT AND ANY APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES. "THE TERMS OF THIS NOTE ARE SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENTS (AS DEFINED IN THE INDENTURE), AS THEY MAY BE AMENDED, RESTATED, SUPPLEMENTED OR OTHERWISE MODIFIED FROM TIME TO TIME IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INDENTURE."

(ii) Upon any sale or transfer of a Transfer Restricted Note (including any Transfer Restricted Note represented by a Global Note) pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act:

(A) in the case of any Transfer Restricted Note that is a Definitive Note, the Note Registrar shall permit the Holder thereof to exchange such Transfer Restricted Note for a Note that does not bear the legends set forth above and rescind any restriction on the transfer of such Transfer Restricted Note; and

(B) in the case of any Transfer Restricted Note that is represented by a Global Note, the Note Registrar shall permit the Holder thereof to exchange such Transfer Restricted Note for a Note that does not bear the legends set forth above and rescind any restriction on the transfer of such Transfer Restricted Note, in either case, if the Holder certifies in writing to the Note Registrar that its request for such exchange was made in reliance on Rule 144 (such certification to be in the form set forth on the reverse of the Note).

If any Note is issued with original issue discount, such Note will also bear the following additional legend:

Attn: Rahul Modi; Stacey Goff"

(d) Cancellation or Adjustment of Global Note. At such time as all beneficial interests in a Global Note have either been exchanged for Definitive Notes, redeemed, repurchased or canceled, such Global Note shall be returned by the Depository to the Trustee for cancellation or retained and canceled by the Trustee. At any time prior to such cancellation, if any beneficial interest in a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Notes, redeemed, repurchased or canceled, the principal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note shall be reduced and an adjustment shall be made on the books and records of the Trustee (if it is then the Notes Custodian for such Global Note) with respect to such Global Note, by the Trustee or the Notes Custodian, to reflect such reduction.

(e) Obligations with Respect to Transfers and Exchanges of Notes.

(i) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate Definitive Notes and Global Notes at the Note Registrar's or co-registrar's request.

(ii) No service charge shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange, but the Issuer may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer Tax, assessments, or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer Taxes, assessments or similar governmental charge payable upon exchange or transfer pursuant to Section 10.08 of the Indenture).

(iii) The Note Registrar or co-registrar shall not be required to register the transfer of or exchange of any Note for a period beginning 15 days before the mailing of a notice of redemption or an offer to repurchase Notes or 15 days before an Interest Payment Date.

(iv) Prior to the due presentation for registration of transfer of any Note, the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Note Registrar or any co-registrar may deem and treat the person in whose name a Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of and interest on such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note is overdue, and none of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Note Registrar or any co-registrar shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

(v) All Notes issued upon any transfer or exchange pursuant to the terms of the Indenture shall evidence the same debt and shall be entitled to the same benefits under the Indenture as the Notes surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

(f) No Obligation of the Trustee.

(i) The Trustee shall have no responsibility or obligation to any beneficial owner of a Global Note, a member of, or a participant in the Depository or any other person with respect to the accuracy of the records of the Depository or its nominee or of any participant or member thereof, with respect to any ownership interest in the Notes or with respect to the delivery to any participant, member, beneficial owner or other person (other than the Depository) of any notice (including any notice of redemption or repurchase) or the payment of any amount, under or with respect to such Notes. All notices and communications to be given to the Holders and all payments to be made to Holders under the Notes shall be given or made only to the registered Holders (which shall be the Depository or its nominee in the case of a Global Note). The rights of beneficial owners in any Global Note shall be exercised only through the Depository subject to the applicable rules and procedures of the Depository. The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in relying upon information furnished by the Depository with respect to its members, participants and any beneficial owners.

(ii) The Trustee shall have no obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under the Indenture or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any Note (including any transfers between or among Depository participants, members or beneficial owners in any Global Note) other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by, the terms of the Indenture, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof.

2.4 Definitive Notes.

(a) A Global Note deposited with the Depository or with the Trustee as Notes Custodian pursuant to Section 2.1 shall be transferred to the beneficial owners thereof in the form of Definitive Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of such Global Note, in exchange for such Global Note, only if such transfer complies with Section 2.3 and (i) the Depository notifies the Issuer that it is unwilling or unable to continue as a Depository for such Global Note or if at any time the Depository ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act, and a successor Depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice, or (ii) a Default or an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or (iii) the Issuer, in its sole discretion, notifies the Trustee in writing that it elects to cause the issuance of Definitive Notes under the Indenture.

(b) Any Global Note that is transferable to the beneficial owners thereof pursuant to this Section 2.4 shall be surrendered by the Depository to the Trustee, to be so transferred, in whole or from time to time in part, without charge, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, upon such transfer of each portion of such Global Note, an equal aggregate principal amount of Definitive Notes of authorized denominations. Definitive Notes issued in exchange for any portion of a Global Note transferred pursuant to this Section shall be executed, authenticated and delivered only in denominations of $1.00 and any integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof and registered in such names as the Depository shall direct. Any Definitive Note delivered in exchange for an interest in the Global Note shall, except as otherwise provided by Section 2.3(c), bear the restricted securities legend set forth in Exhibit 1 hereto.

4.125% Superpriority Senior Secured Notes due 2030

Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Indenture referred to below.

1. Interest

LUMEN TECHNOLOGIES, INC., a Louisiana corporation (such corporation, and its successors and assigns under the Indenture hereinafter referred to, being herein called the "Issuer"), promises to pay interest on the principal amount of this Note at the rate per annum shown above. The Issuer will pay interest semiannually on February 15 and August 15 of each year, commencing August 15, 2024, and on the maturity date. Interest on the Note will accrue from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or, if no interest has been paid, from March 22, 2024. Interest shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months.

2. Method of Payment

The Issuer will pay interest on the Notes (except defaulted interest) to the persons who are registered holders of Notes at the close of business on the February 1 or August 1 next preceding the Interest Payment Date even if Notes are canceled after the record date and on or before the Interest Payment Date. The Issuer will pay interest on the Notes on the maturity date to the persons entitled to the principal of the Notes. Holders must surrender Notes to a Paying Agent to collect principal payments. The Issuer will pay principal and interest in money of the United States of America that at the time of payment is legal tender for payment of public and private debts. Payments in respect of the Notes represented by a Global Note (including principal, premium and interest) will be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the accounts specified by The Depository Trust Company. The Issuer will make all payments in respect of a Definitive Note (including principal, premium and interest), by mailing a check to the registered address of each Holder thereof; provided, however, that, at the option of the Issuer, payments on the Notes may also be made, in the case of a Holder of at least $1,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Notes, by wire transfer to a U.S. dollar account maintained by the payee with a bank in the United States if such Holder requests payment by wire transfer by giving written notice to the Trustee or the Paying Agent to such effect designating such account no later than 30 days immediately preceding the relevant due date for payment (or such other date as the Trustee may accept in its discretion).

3. Paying Agent and Note Registrar

Initially, WILMINGTON TRUST, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, a national banking association (the "Trustee"), will act as Paying Agent and Note Registrar. The Issuer may appoint and change any Paying Agent, Note Registrar or co-registrar without notice.

4. Indenture

The Issuer issued the Notes under an Indenture dated as of March 22, 2024 (as amaended, modified or supplemented from time to time, the "Indenture") among the Issuer, the Guarantors party thereto, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent. The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Indenture. The Notes are subject to all such terms, and Holders are referred to the Indenture for a statement of those terms.

The Notes are unsubordinated, secured obligations of the Issuer. [This Note is one of the Original Notes referred to in the Indenture issued in an aggregate principal amount of $479,136,450. The Notes include the Original Notes and any Additional Notes]. [This Note is one of the Additional Notes issued in addition to the Original Notes in an aggregate principal amount of $479,136,450 previously issued under the Indenture. The Original Notes and the Additional Notes are treated as a single class of securities under the Indenture.] The Indenture imposes certain limitations on the ability of the Issuer and its respective Subsidiaries to, among other things, incur Indebtedness and create and incur Liens. The Indenture also imposes limitations on the ability of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries to consolidate or merge with or into any other person or sell, transfer, assign, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the property of such entities.

To guarantee the due and punctual payment of the principal and interest on the Notes and all other amounts payable by the Issuer under the Indenture and the Notes when and as the same shall be due and payable, whether at maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, according to the terms of the Notes and the Indenture, (i) each Collateral Guarantor has unconditionally guaranteed the Notes, jointly and severally, on a senior secured basis and (ii) each Unsecured Guarantor has unconditionally guaranteed the Notes, jointly and severally, on a senior unsecured basis, in each case, pursuant to the terms of the Indenture

5. Optional Redemption

At any time or from time to time prior to February 15, 2025, the Issuer may, at its option, redeem all or a portion of the Notes, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice, at a Redemption Price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Notes so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (if any) to, but not including, the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

At any time or from time to time on or after February 15, 2025, the Issuer may, at its option, redeem all or a portion of the Notes, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice, at a Redemption Price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (if any) to, but not including, the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with any tender offer for the Notes, including any offer to purchase Notes pursuant to Section 9.10 and 9.13 of the Indenture, if Holders of not less than 90% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes validly tender and do not withdraw such Notes in such tender offer and the Issuer, or any third party making such tender offer in lieu of the Issuer, purchases all of the Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn by such Holders, the Issuer or such third party will have the right, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice, given not more than 60 days following such purchase date, to redeem (with respect to the Issuer) or repurchase (with respect to a third-party) all Notes that remain outstanding following such purchase at a Redemption Price equal to the greater of (i) the highest price offered to any other Holder in such tender offer or other offer to purchase (which may be less than par and shall exclude any early tender premium or similar premium and any accrued and unpaid interest paid to any holder in such tender offer payment) and (ii) par, plus accrued and unpaid interest (if any) thereon, to, but excluding the date of redemption or Redemption Date, subject to the right of Holders of record of the Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to the date of redemption or Redemption Date.

Once notice of redemption is sent in accordance with Section 10.05 hereof, Notes called for redemption become irrevocably due and payable on the Redemption Date at the Redemption Price. Notice of any redemption of the Notes may, at the Issuer's discretion, be given in connection with any equity offering, other transaction (or series of related transactions) or event that constitutes a Change of Control and prior to the completion or the occurrence thereof, and any such redemption thereof may, at the Issuer's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including, but not limited to, completion of the related equity offering, transaction or other event, as the case may be. If any redemption is so subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, the notice thereof shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied or waived, or such redemption or purchase may not occur and any such notice with respect to such redemption may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date as so delayed or such notice or offer may be rescinded at any time in the Issuer's discretion if the Issuer reasonably believes that any or all of such conditions will not be satisfied or waived.

If the Issuer has given notice of redemption as provided in the Indenture and made available funds for the redemption of the Notes (or any portion thereof) called for redemption on or prior to the redemption date referred to in such notice, those Notes will cease to bear interest on that redemption date and the only right of the holders of those Notes will be to receive payment of the redemption price.

The Issuer and its Affiliates may acquire Notes by means other than a redemption, whether by tender offer, open market purchases, negotiated transactions or otherwise, so long as such acquisition does not otherwise violate the terms of the Indenture.

6. Sinking Fund

The Notes are not subject to any sinking fund.

7. Notice of Redemption

Notice of redemption shall be given in the manner provided for in Section 1.06 of the Indenture not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed; provided that in the case of Notes held through the Depository by Depository participants, such notice will be submitted via the Depository's electronic messaging system.

8. Repurchase of Notes at the Option of Holders upon Change of Control Repurchase Event

Upon a Change of Control Repurchase Event, any Holder of Notes will have the right, subject to certain conditions specified in the Indenture, to cause the Issuer to repurchase all or any part of the Notes of such Holder at a purchase price in cash equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Notes to be repurchased on the Purchase Date plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the Purchase Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date) as provided in, and subject to the terms of, the Indenture.

9. Denominations; Transfer; Exchange

The Notes are in registered form without coupons in denominations of $1.00 and whole multiples of $1.00. A Holder may transfer or exchange Notes in accordance with the Indenture. Upon any transfer or exchange, the Note Registrar and the Trustee may require a Holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements or transfer documents and to pay any Taxes and fees required by law or permitted by the Indenture. The Note Registrar or co-registrar need not register the transfer of or exchange of any Note for a period beginning 15 days before the mailing of a notice of redemption or an offer to repurchase Notes or 15 days before an Interest Payment Date.

10. P*ersons Deemed Owners*

The registered Holder of this Note may be treated as the owner of it for all purposes.

11. Unclaimed Money

If money for the payment of principal, premium (if any), or interest remains unclaimed for two years, the Trustee or Paying Agent shall notify the Issuer and pay the money back to the Issuer at its written request after following specified procedures. After any such payment, Holders entitled to the money must look only to the Issuer and not to the Trustee for payment.

12. Discharge and Defeasance

Subject to certain conditions, the Issuer at any time may terminate some of or all its obligations under the Notes and the Indenture if the Issuer deposits with the Trustee money and/or Government Securities for the payment of principal, premium (if any) and interest on the Notes to redemption or maturity, as the case may be.

13. Amendment, Waiver

Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, (i) the Indenture or the Notes may be amended without prior notice to any Holder but with the written consent of the Holders of at least a majority (or, with respect to certain covenants, the written consent of at least two-thirds) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes and (ii) any default or noncompliance with any provision may be waived with the written consent of the Holders of at least a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes. Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, the Issuer, the Guarantors, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent may, at any time and from time to time, without notice to or consent of any Holders of Notes, amend the Indenture or any other Note Document: (i) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or any Guarantor and the assumption by such successor of the covenants of the Issuer or such Guarantor, respectively, in the Indenture, in the Notes, in the applicable Note Guarantee and in the applicable Security Documents, as applicable; (ii) to add to the covenants of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries, for the benefit of the Holders, or to surrender any right or power conferred upon the Issuer or any Guarantor by the Indenture; (iii) to add any additional Events of Default; (iv) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes; (v) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under the Indenture of a successor Trustee or a successor Collateral Agent in each case pursuant to the requirements of the Indenture; (vi) to secure the Notes; (vii) to comply with the Securities Act (including Regulation S promulgated thereunder); (viii) to add Note Guarantees or to release any Guarantors from Note Guarantees as provided by the terms of the Indenture; (ix) to (a) cure any ambiguity, mistake, omission, defect, inconsistency, or obvious error in the Indenture, or (b) correct or supplement any provision in the Indenture which may be inconsistent with any other provision therein, or to add any other provision with respect to matters or questions arising under the Indenture; provided that, with respect to the foregoing clause (ix)(b), such actions shall not adversely affect the interests of the Holders in any material respect; (x) [reserved]; or (xi) to add additional assets as Collateral or to release any Collateral from the liens securing the Notes, in each case pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, as and when permitted or required by the Indenture, the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements. The Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement may be amended, waived or otherwise modified from time to time with the consent of the parties thereto. In addition, the Issuer may, without the consent of any other party thereto, amend the Security Documents and any other applicable intercreditor agreement to designate Indebtedness as “Other First Lien Debt”, or as any other Indebtedness subject to the terms and provisions of such agreement.

14. Defaults and Remedies

Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee or the Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, subject to certain limitations, may declare all the Notes to be immediately due and payable. Certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency are Events of Default and shall result in the Notes being immediately due and payable upon the occurrence of such Events of Default without any further act of the Trustee or any Holder.

Holders of Notes may not enforce the Indenture or the Notes except as provided in the Indenture. The Trustee may refuse to enforce the Indenture or the Notes unless it receives reasonable indemnity or security. Subject to certain limitations, Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding may direct the Trustee in its exercise of any trust or power under the Indenture. Before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as provided in the Indenture, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may rescind any declaration of acceleration and its consequences if all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except nonpayment of principal or premium (if any) that has become due solely because of the acceleration.

15. Trustee Dealings with the Issuer

The Trustee under the Indenture, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with and collect obligations owed to it by the Issuer or its Affiliates and may otherwise deal with the Issuer or its Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. However, the Trustee must comply with Section 6.08 of the Indenture.

16. No Recourse Against Others

A director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder, as such, of the Issuer or any Guarantor shall not have any liability for any obligations of the Issuer or any Guarantor under the Notes or the Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation, solely by reason of its status as a director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of such person. By accepting a Note, each Holder waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

17. Authentication

This Note shall not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee (or an authenticating agent) manually, electronically or by facsimile signs the certificate of authentication on the other side of this Note.

18. Abbreviations

Customary abbreviations may be used in the name of a Holder or an assignee, such as TEN COM (=tenants in common), TEN ENT (=tenants by the entireties), JT TEN (=joint tenants with rights of survivorship and not as tenants in common), CUST (=custodian), and U/G/M/A (=Uniform Gift to Minors Act).

19. CUSIP Numbers

Pursuant to a recommendation promulgated by the Committee on Uniform Note Identification Procedures, the Issuer has caused CUSIP numbers to be printed on the Notes and has directed the Trustee to use CUSIP numbers in notices of redemption as a convenience to Holders. No representation is made as to the accuracy of such numbers either as printed on the Notes or as contained in any notice of redemption and reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers placed thereon.

20. Governing Law

21. Indenture Controls

The Notes are subject to all terms and provisions of the Indenture, and the Holders are referred to the Indenture for a statement of such terms and provisions. If and to the extent that any provision of the Notes limits, qualifies or conflicts with a provision of the Indenture, such provision of the Indenture shall control.

The Issuer will furnish to any Holder of Notes upon written request and without charge to the Holder a copy of the Indenture and Holders may request the Indenture at the following:

The Issuer has duly authorized the creation of an issue of 10.500% Senior Secured Notes Due 2030 (the "Securities"), of substantially the tenor and amount hereinafter set forth, and to provide therefor the Issuer, Level 3 Parent and the Guarantors party hereto have duly authorized the execution and delivery of this Indenture.

All things necessary have been done to make the Securities, when executed by the Issuer and authenticated and delivered hereunder and duly issued by the Issuer, the valid and legally binding obligations of the Issuer and to make this Indenture a valid and legally binding agreement of each of the Issuer, Level 3 Parent, the Guarantors party hereto, the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent, in accordance with their and its terms.

On each settlement date of the Exchange Offers, Level 3 LLC will issue an intercompany demand note to Level 3 Parent in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of Securities that are issued by the Issuer in the Exchange Offers on such settlement date (each, an "Exchange Consideration Note") in exchange for a reduction of an equivalent amount of the outstanding balance under the Parent Intercompany Note. Level 3 Parent will then contribute the Exchange Consideration Note to the Issuer and the Issuer will then deliver the Exchange Consideration Note to Level 3 LLC for extinguishment in exchange for an equivalent increase in the outstanding balance of the Loan Proceeds Note. The Issuer will then contribute the Lumen Notes that it acquires in the Exchange Offers on such settlement date to Level 3 LLC and, in return, Level 3 LLC will deliver such Lumen Notes to Level 3 Parent in exchange for a reduction of the amount of the outstanding balance under the Parent Intercompany Note equal to the principal amount of the Securities issued in exchange for such Lumen Notes. Level 3 Parent will then distribute such Lumen Notes to its parent company, which in turn will distribute such Lumen Notes to Lumen for retirement and cancellation.

The Issuer has pledged the Loan Proceeds Note and each of the Existing Proceeds Notes to secure its obligations under the Existing Issuer Credit Facility and the Existing Secured Notes and will pledge the Loan Proceeds Note and each of the Existing Proceeds Notes to secure its obligations under the Securities. 7. such Subsidiary is also designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary or the equivalent, to the extent such concept is included in the relevant agreement, under any Other First Lien Debt; and

(b) any subsidiary of an Unrestricted Subsidiary (unless transferred to such Unrestricted Subsidiary or any of its subsidiaries by Level 3 Parent or one or more of its Subsidiaries after the date of the designation of the parent entity as an "Unrestricted Subsidiary" hereunder, in which case the subsidiary so transferred would be required to be independently designated in accordance with the preceding clause (a)).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Note Document,

(A) no Material Assets may, directly or indirectly, be transferred, exclusively licensed, contributed or otherwise disposed of to any Unrestricted Subsidiary by the Issuer or any Subsidiary and

(B) at no time shall there be any Unrestricted Subsidiary under this Indenture that is not an Unrestricted Subsidiary or the equivalent, to the extent such concept is included in the relevant agreement, under Other First Lien Debt.

The designation of any Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary shall constitute an Investment by the Issuer (or its Subsidiaries) therein at the date of designation in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of the Issuer's (or its Subsidiaries') Investments therein, which shall be required to be permitted on such date in accordance with Section 9.11 (other than clause (b) of the definition of "Permitted Investment").

The Issuer may designate any Unrestricted Subsidiary to be a Subsidiary for purposes of this Indenture; provided, that no Event of Default under Section 5.01 (a), (b), (e) (solely as it related to Sections 9.07 through 9.21 (excluding Sections 9.14, 9.17 and 9.18), (i) or (j) has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom (after giving effect to the provisions of the immediately succeeding sentence). The designation of any Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Subsidiary after the Issue Date shall constitute (x) the incurrence at the time of designation of any Investment, Indebtedness or Liens of such Subsidiary existing at such time and (y) a return on any Investment by the Issuer or any Guarantor (or their respective relevant Subsidiaries) in Unrestricted Subsidiaries pursuant to the preceding sentence in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value at the date of such designation of the Issuer's or any Guarantor's (or their respective relevant Subsidiaries') Investment in such Subsidiary.

"Vice President", when used with respect to any person, means any vice president, whether or not designated by a number or a word or words added before or after the title "vice president".

"Wholly-Owned Subsidiary" means a subsidiary of such person, all of the Equity Interests of which (other than directors' qualifying shares or nominee or other similar shares required pursuant to applicable law) are owned by such person or another Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of such person. The following terms, unless otherwise defined pursuant to this Section 1.01, have the meanings given to them in Appendix A:

"Definitive Security"

"IAI Global Security"

"Regulation S Global Security"

"Rule 144A Global Security"

Section 1.02. Compliance Certificates and Opinions. Upon any application or request by the Issuer to the Trustee to take any action under any provision of this Indenture, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate stating that all conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Indenture (including any covenant compliance with which constitutes a condition precedent) relating to the proposed action have been complied with and an Opinion of Counsel stating that in the opinion of such counsel all such conditions precedent, if any, have been complied with.

Every certificate or opinion with respect to compliance with a condition or covenant provided for in this Indenture shall include:

(a) a statement that each individual signing such certificate or opinion has read such covenant or condition and the definitions herein relating thereto;

(b) a brief statement as to the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which the statements or opinions contained in such certificate or opinion are based;

(c) a statement that, in the opinion of each such individual, he or she has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable him or her to express an informed opinion as to whether or not such covenant or condition has been complied with; and

(d) a statement as to whether, in the opinion of each such individual, such condition or covenant has been complied with.

Section 1.03. Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee. In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified person, it is not necessary that all such matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one such person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such persons as to other matters, and any such person may certify or give an opinion as to such matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an officer of the Issuer or any Guarantor may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless such officer knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate or Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an officer or officers of the Issuer or any Guarantor, respectively, stating that the information with respect to such factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer or any Guarantor, respectively, unless such counsel knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to such matters are erroneous.

Where any person is required to make, give or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated (with proper identification of each matter covered therein) and form one instrument.

Section 1.04. Acts of Holders. (a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee and, where it is hereby expressly required, to the Issuer. Such instrument or instruments (and the action embodied therein and evidenced thereby) are herein sometimes referred to as the "Act" of the Holders signing such instrument or instruments. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and (subject to Section 6.01) conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Issuer, if made in the manner provided in this Section.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any person of any such instrument or writing may be proved by the affidavit of a witness of such execution or by a certificate of a notary public or other officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, certifying that the individual signing such instrument or writing acknowledged to him the execution thereof. Where such execution is by a signer acting in a capacity other than his individual capacity, such certificate or affidavit shall also constitute sufficient proof of authority. The fact and date of the execution of any such instrument or writing, or the authority of the person executing the same, may also be proved in any other manner that the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The principal amount and serial numbers of Securities held by any person, and the date of holding the same, shall be proved by the Security Register.

(d) If the Issuer shall solicit from the Holders of Securities any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act, the Issuer may, at its option, by or pursuant to a Board Resolution, fix in advance a record date for the determination of Holders entitled to give such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act, but the Issuer shall have no obligation to do so. Such record date shall be the record date specified in or pursuant to such Board Resolution, which shall be a date not earlier than the date 30 days prior to the first solicitation of Holders generally in connection therewith and not later than the date such solicitation is completed. If such a record date is fixed, such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act may be given before or after such record date, but only the Holders of record at the close of business on such record date shall be deemed to be Holders for the purposes of determining whether Holders of the requisite proportion of Outstanding Securities have authorized or agreed or consented to such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act, and for that purpose the Outstanding Securities shall be computed as of such record date; provided that no such authorization, agreement or consent by the Holders on such record date shall be deemed effective unless it shall become effective pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture not later than six months after the record date.

(e) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act of the Holder of any Security shall bind every future Holder of the same Security and the Holder of every Security issued upon the registration of transfer thereof or in exchange therefor or in lieu thereof in respect of anything done, omitted or suffered to be done by the Trustee or the Issuer in reliance thereon, whether or not notation of such action is made upon such Security. However, any such Holder or future Holder may revoke the request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other Act of the Holder as to such Holder's Security or portion of the Security if the Trustee receives the notice of revocation before the date such Act becomes effective.

Section 1.05. Notices, etc., to Trustee and the Issuer. Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or Act of Holders or other document provided or permitted by this Indenture to be made upon, given or furnished to, or filed with,

(a) the Trustee by any Holder or by the Issuer shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if made, given, furnished or filed in writing to or with the Trustee at its Corporate Trust Office, Attention: Corporate Trust Administration, or

(b) the Note Collateral Agent by any Holder or by the Issuer shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if made, given, furnished or filed in writing to or with the Note Collateral Agent c/o the Trustee as described in clause (a) above, or

(c) the Issuer or any Guarantor by the Trustee or by any Holder shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, or electronically to the Issuer or such Guarantor addressed to it (in the case of a Guarantor, in care of the Issuer) at the address of the Issuer's principal office specified in the first paragraph of this Indenture and to 1025 Eldorado Boulevard, Broomfield, CO 80021, Attention: Treasury department, or at any other address previously furnished in writing to the Trustee by the Issuer.

The Trustee agrees to accept and act upon instructions or directions pursuant to this Indenture sent by unsecured e-mail, pdf, facsimile transmission or other similar unsecured electronic methods, provided, however, that the Trustee shall have received an incumbency certificate listing persons designated to give such instructions or directions and containing specimen signatures of such designated persons, which such incumbency certificate shall be amended and replaced whenever a person is to be added or deleted from the listing. If the Issuer elects to give the Trustee e-mail or facsimile instructions (or instructions by a similar electronic method) and the Trustee in its discretion elects to act upon such instructions, the Trustee's understanding of such instructions shall be deemed controlling. Except to the extent relating to matters arising out of the Trustee's gross negligence or willful misconduct, the Trustee shall not be liable for any losses, costs or expenses arising directly or indirectly from the Trustee's reliance upon and compliance with such instructions notwithstanding that such instructions conflict or are inconsistent with a subsequent written instruction. The Issuer agrees to assume all risks arising out of the use of such electronic methods to submit instructions and directions to the Trustee, including without limitation the risk of the Trustee acting on unauthorized instructions, and the risk or interception and misuse by third parties.

Section 1.06. Notice to Holders; Waiver. Where this Indenture provides for notice or communication of any event to Holders by the Issuer or the Trustee, such notice shall be given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) either (i) in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder affected by such event, at the address of such Holder as it appears in the Security Register or (ii) in the case of Securities held through the Depository, to Depository participants via the Depository's electronic messaging system, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice. In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail or electronic delivery, neither the failure to electronically deliver or mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed or electronically delivered, to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Notices shall be effective only upon receipt. Where this Indenture provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by the person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice. Waivers of notice by Holders shall be filed with the Trustee, but such filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance upon such waiver.

In case by reason of the suspension of or irregularities in regular mail service or by reason of any other cause, it shall be impracticable to mail notice of any event to Holders when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Indenture, then any manner of giving such notice as shall be satisfactory to the Trustee shall be deemed to be a sufficient giving of such notice for every purpose hereunder.

Section 1.07. Effect of Headings and Table of Contents. The Article and Section headings herein and the Table of Contents are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction hereof.

Section 1.08. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and agreements in this Indenture by the Issuer and Level 3 Parent shall bind its successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not.

Section 1.09. Entire Agreement. This Indenture and the exhibits hereto set forth the entire agreement and understanding of the parties related to this transaction and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written.

Section 1.10. Separability Clause. In case any provision in this Indenture or in the Securities shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, if a court of competent jurisdiction – in a final and unstayed order – determines that any aspect of the Level 3 Senior Unsecured Notes Transaction (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) is invalid for any reason, such determination shall not (directly or indirectly) constitute a default or breach of this Indenture or any other Note Document.

Section 1.11. Benefits of Indenture. Nothing in this Indenture or in the Securities, express or implied, shall give to any person, other than the parties hereto, any Paying Agent, any Security Registrar and their successors hereunder and the Holders any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Indenture.

Section 1.12. Governing Law. THIS INDENTURE AND THE SECURITIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK BUT WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO APPLICABLE PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAW TO THE EXTENT THAT THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION WOULD BE REQUIRED THEREBY.

Section 1.13. Trust Indenture Act. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trust Indenture Act is not applicable to this Indenture.

Section 1.14. Legal Holidays. In any case where any Interest Payment Date, Redemption Date, or Stated Maturity or Maturity of any Security shall not be a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture or of the Securities) payment of principal (or premium, if any) or interest need not be made on such date, but shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the Interest Payment Date or Redemption Date or at the Stated Maturity or Maturity; provided that no interest shall accrue in respect of such payment for the period from and after such Interest Payment Date, Redemption Date, Stated Maturity or Maturity to the next Business Day, as the case may be.

Section 1.15. No Personal Liability of Directors, Officers, Employees and Stockholders. No director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Issuer or any Guarantor, as such, shall have any liability for any obligations of the Issuer or any Guarantor under the Securities or this Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation, solely by reason of its status as a director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Issuer or a Guarantor. By accepting a Security, each Holder waives and releases all such liability (but only such liability). The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Securities.

Section 1.16. Independence of Covenants. All covenants and agreements in this Indenture shall be given independent effect so that if a particular action or condition is not permitted by any of such covenants, the fact that it would be permitted by an exception to, or be otherwise within the limitations of, another covenant shall not avoid the occurrence of a Default if such action is taken or condition exists.

Section 1.17. Exhibits. All exhibits attached hereto are by this reference made a part hereof with the same effect as if herein set forth in full.

Section 1.18. Counterparts. This Indenture may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original; but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 1.19. Duplicate Originals. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Indenture. Each signed copy shall be an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement.

Section 1.20. Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF LEVEL 3 PARENT, EACH HOLDER BY ACCEPTANCE OF THE SECURITIES, THE ISSUER, THE TRUSTEE AND THE NOTE COLLATERAL AGENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS INDENTURE, THE SECURITIES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 1.21. Force Majeure. In no event shall the Trustee or Note Collateral Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority, strikes, riots, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, sabotage, pandemics or epidemics, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility; it being understood that the Trustee shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

Section 1.22. FATCA. In order to assist the Trustee with its compliance with Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code and the rules and regulations thereunder (as in effect from time to time, collectively, the "Applicable Law") the Issuer agrees (i) to provide to the Trustee reasonably available information collected and stored in the Issuer's ordinary course of business regarding Holders of Securities (solely in their capacity as such) and which is necessary for the Trustee's determination of whether it has tax related obligations under Applicable Law and (ii) that the Trustee shall be entitled to make any withholding or deduction from payments under this Indenture to the extent necessary to comply with Applicable Law. Nothing in the immediately preceding sentence shall be construed as obligating the Issuer to make any "gross up" payment or similar reimbursement in connection with a payment in respect of which amounts are so withheld or deducted.

Section 1.23. Submission to Jurisdiction. The parties and each Holder (by acceptance of the Securities) irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Indenture. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the parties irrevocably waive and agree not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, any claim that it is not subject to the jurisdiction of any such court, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

Section 1.25. *Electronic Signature*s. For the avoidance of doubt, for all purposes of this Indenture and any document to be signed or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Indenture (except where a manual signature is expressly required by the terms of this Indenture), the words "execution," "execute," "signed," "signature," "delivery," and words of like import used in or related to any document signed in connection with this Indenture, any Security or any of the transactions contemplated hereby (including amendments, waivers, consents and other modifications) shall be deemed to include electronic signatures, deliveries or the keeping of records in electronic form, as the case may be, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the fullest extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, and any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act and the parties hereto consent to conduct the transactions contemplated hereunder by electronic means, provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Trustee is not under any obligation to agree to accept electronic signatures in any form or in any format unless expressly agreed to by the Trustee pursuant to procedures approved by the Trustee. The exchange of copies of this Indenture and of signature pages by facsimile or PDF transmissions shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Indenture as to the parties hereto and may be used in lieu of the original Indenture for all purposes. Signatures of the parties hereto transmitted by facsimile or PDF shall be deemed to be their original signatures for all purposes.

Section 1.26. USA Patriot Act. The parties hereto acknowledge that in accordance with Section 326 of the USA Patriot Act the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent, like all financial institutions and in order to help fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering, are required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or legal entity that establishes a relationship or opens an account. The parties to this agreement agree that they shall provide the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent with such information as they may request in order to satisfy the requirements of the USA Patriot Act.

SECURITY FORMS

Section 2.01. Form and Dating. The Issuer shall be permitted to issue Definitive Securities from time to time. Provisions relating to the Securities are set forth in Appendix A, which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Indenture. The Securities and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit 1 to Appendix A which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Indenture. The Securities may have notations, legends or endorsements required by law, stock exchange rule, agreements to which the Issuer is subject, if any, or usage, provided that any such notation, legend or endorsement is in a form reasonably acceptable to the Issuer. Each Security shall be dated the date of its authentication. The terms of the Securities set forth in Exhibit 1 to Appendix A are part of the terms of this Indenture.

The Definitive Securities shall be printed, lithographed or engraved on steel-engraved borders or may be produced in any other manner permitted by the rules of any securities exchange or system on which the Securities may be listed or eligible for trading, all as determined by the officers of the Issuer executing such Securities, as evidenced by their execution of such Securities.

THE SECURITIES

Section 3.01. Amount of Securities. Subject to Section 3.02, the Trustee shall authenticate Securities for original issue on the Issue Date in the aggregate principal amount of $915,108,000 (the "Original Securities").

The Issuer shall be entitled, subject to its compliance with the covenants set forth in this Indenture, including Section 9.08, to issue Additional Securities under this Indenture which shall have identical terms as the Original Securities, other than with respect to the date of issuance and the issue price (and such changes as are customary to permit escrow arrangements, if any, in connection with the issuance of such Additional Securities); provided that a separate CUSIP or ISIN shall be issued for any Additional Securities if the Additional Securities are not fungible for U.S. federal income tax purposes with the Original Securities. The Original Securities and any Additional Securities issued in exchange therefor shall be treated as a single class for all purposes under this Indenture.

With respect to the Additional Securities, the Issuer shall set forth in a Board Resolution and an Officers' Certificate, a copy of each of which shall be delivered to the Trustee, the following information:

(a) the aggregate principal amount of such Additional Securities to be authenticated and delivered pursuant to this Indenture;

(b) the issue price, the issue date and the CUSIP number of such Additional Securities;

(c) whether such Additional Securities shall be Transfer Restricted Securities and issued in the form of Securities as set forth in Appendix A to this Indenture.

For each issuance of Additional Securities, the Issuer shall lend to Level 3 Communications an amount equal to the principal amount of the Additional Securities so issued, and the principal amount of the Loan Proceeds Note shall be increased by such amount; provided that such calculation or the correctness of the amount of the Loan Proceeds Note or any increase in the amount thereof shall not be a duty or obligation of the Trustee.

Section 3.02. Execution and Authentication. Two officers shall sign the Securities for the Issuer by manual, electronic or facsimile signature.

If an officer whose signature is on a Security no longer holds that office at the time the Trustee authenticates the Security, the Security shall be valid nevertheless.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer may deliver Securities executed by the Issuer to the Trustee for authentication, together with an Issuer Order for the authentication and delivery of such Securities, an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel and the Trustee in accordance with such written order of the Issuer shall authenticate and deliver such Securities.

A Security shall not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee manually, electronically or by facsimile signs the certificate of authentication on the Security. The signature shall be conclusive evidence that the Security has been authenticated under this Indenture.

The Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent reasonably acceptable to the Issuer to authenticate the Securities. Unless limited by the terms of such appointment, an authenticating agent may authenticate Securities whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by such agent. An authenticating agent has the same rights as any Security Registrar, Paying Agent or agent for service of notices and demands.

Section 3.03. Security Registrar and Paying Agent. The Issuer shall maintain an office or agency where Securities may be presented for registration of transfer or for exchange (the "Security Registrar") and an office or agency in the United States where Securities may be presented for payment to the Paying Agent. The Security Registrar shall keep a register of the Securities and of their transfer and exchange (the register maintained in the office of the Security Registrar and in any other office or agency designated pursuant to Section 9.02 being herein sometimes referred to as the "Security Register"). The Issuer may have one or more co-registrars and one or more additional paying agents. The term "Paying Agent" includes any additional paying agent.

The Issuer shall enter into an appropriate agency agreement with any Security Registrar, Paying Agent or co-registrar not a party to this Indenture. The agreement shall implement the provisions of this Indenture that relate to such agent. The Issuer shall notify the Trustee of the name and address of any such agent. If the Issuer fails to maintain a Security Registrar or Paying Agent, the Trustee shall act as such and shall be entitled to appropriate compensation therefor pursuant to Section 6.07.

The Issuer initially appoints the Trustee as Security Registrar and Paying Agent in connection with the Securities.

Section 3.04. Paying Agent to Hold Money in Trust. Prior to each due date of the principal and interest on any Security, the Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest when so becoming due. The Issuer shall require each Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to agree in writing that the Paying Agent shall hold in trust for the benefit of Holders or the Trustee all money held by the Paying Agent for the payment of principal of or interest on the Securities and shall notify the Trustee of any default by the Issuer in making any such payment. If the Issuer or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary acts as Paying Agent, it shall segregate the money held by it as Paying Agent and hold it as a separate trust fund. The Issuer at any time may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee and to account for any funds disbursed by the Paying Agent. Upon complying with this Section, the Paying Agent shall have no further liability for the money delivered to the Trustee.

Section 3.05. Holders Lists. The Trustee shall preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of Holders. If the Trustee is not the Security Registrar, upon a written request by the Trustee, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, in writing at least five Business Days before each Interest Payment Date and at such other times as the Trustee may reasonably request in writing, a list in such form and as of such date as the Trustee may reasonably require of the names and addresses of Holders.

Section 3.06. Replacement Securities. If a mutilated Security is surrendered to the Security Registrar or if the Holder of a Security claims that such Security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Issuer shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a replacement Security if the requirements of Section 8-405 of the UCC are met and the Holder satisfies any other reasonable requirements of the Trustee. Such Holder shall furnish an indemnity bond sufficient in the judgment of the Issuer to protect the Issuer in the judgment of the Trustee to protect the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Security Registrar and any co-registrar from any loss which any of them may suffer if a Security is replaced. The Issuer and the Trustee may charge the Holder for their expenses in replacing a Security.

Section 3.07. Temporary Securities. Until Definitive Securities are ready for delivery, the Issuer may prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate temporary Securities. Temporary Securities shall be substantially in the form of Definitive Securities but may have variations that the Issuer considers appropriate for temporary Securities. Without unreasonable delay, the Issuer shall prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate Definitive Securities and deliver them in exchange for temporary Securities.

Section 3.08. Cancellation. The Issuer at any time may deliver Securities to the Trustee for cancellation. The Security Registrar and the Paying Agent shall forward to the Trustee any Securities surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Trustee and no one else shall cancel and dispose of in accordance with its customary procedures (subject to the record retention requirements of the Exchange Act) all Securities surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment or cancellation unless the Issuer directs the Trustee in writing to deliver canceled Securities to the Issuer. The Issuer may not issue new Securities to replace Securities it has redeemed, paid or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

Section 3.09. Defaulted Interests. If the Issuer defaults in a payment of interest on the Securities, the Issuer shall pay the defaulted interest (plus interest on such defaulted interest to the extent lawful) in any lawful manner. The Issuer may pay the defaulted interest to the persons who are Holders on a subsequent special record date. The Issuer shall notify the Trustee of any defaulted interest payment and fix or cause to be fixed any such special record date for the payment to the reasonable satisfaction of the Trustee and shall deliver to each Holder a notice that states the special record date, the payment date and the amount of defaulted interest to be paid.

Section 3.10. CUSIP Numbers. The Issuer in issuing the Securities may use "CUSIP" numbers (if then generally in use) and, if so, the Trustee shall use "CUSIP" numbers in notices of redemption as a convenience to Holders; provided, however, that neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall have any responsibility for any defect in the "CUSIP" number that appears on any Security, check, advice of payment or redemption notice, and any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness of such numbers either as printed on the Securities or as contained in any notice of a redemption and that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Securities, and any such redemption shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such numbers. The Issuer will promptly notify the Trustee in writing of any change in the "CUSIP" number(s).

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

Section 4.01. Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture. This Indenture shall cease to be of further effect (subject to Section 11.06 and except as to surviving rights of registration of transfer, transfer, exchange and replacement of Securities expressly provided for herein or pursuant hereto), the Liens, if any, on the Collateral securing the Securities and the Note Guarantees shall be released and the Trustee, at the request and expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture and release of such Liens, in each case, when

(a) either

(i) all Outstanding Securities have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Securities not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation

(A) have become due and payable, or

(B) will become due and payable within one year, or

(C) are to be called for redemption within one year under irrevocable arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee in its sole discretion for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer, and the Issuer, in the case of (A), (B) or (C) above, has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee funds in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the Securities not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal of (and premium, if any, on), and interest on, the Securities to Maturity or the Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable by the Issuer hereunder; and

(c) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, the obligations under Sections 6.07 and 6.09 and, if money shall have been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to clause (a)(ii) of this Section 4.01, the obligations of the Trustee under Section 4.02 and the last paragraph of Section 9.03 shall survive such satisfaction and discharge.

Section 4.02. Application of Trust Money. Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 9.03, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 4.01 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Securities and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as its own Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the persons entitled thereto, of the principal (and premium, if any) and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

REMEDIES

Section 5.01. Events of Default. "Event of Default" wherever used herein, means any one of the following events (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body):

(a) failure to pay principal of (or premium, if any, on) any Security when due; or

(b) failure to pay any interest on any Security when due, continued for 30 days; or

(c) default in the payment of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on Securities required to be purchased pursuant to an Offer to Purchase pursuant to Sections 9.07 and 9.12(c) when due and payable; or

(d) failure to perform or comply with the provisions of Article 7; or

(e) failure to perform any covenant or agreement of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any Subsidiary in this Indenture or in any Security (other than a covenant a default in whose performance is elsewhere in this Section specifically dealt with) continued for 90 days after written notice to the Issuer by the Trustee or Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Securities, which notice shall specify the default and state that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder; or

(f) any event or condition occurs that results in any Material Indebtedness becoming due prior to its scheduled maturity or failing to be paid at its scheduled maturity; provided, that this clause (f) shall not apply to any secured Indebtedness that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Indebtedness if (x) such sale or transfer is permitted hereunder and under the documents providing for such Indebtedness and (y) repayments are made as required by the terms of the respective Indebtedness; or

(g) the failure by Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary to pay one or more final judgments aggregating in excess of $75,000,000, which judgments are not discharged or effectively waived or stayed for a period of 45 consecutive days, or any action shall be legally taken by a judgment creditor to attach or levy upon assets or properties of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary to enforce any such judgment; or

(h) any Note Guarantee of Level 3 Parent, Level 3 Communications or any other Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary, ceases to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms of such Note Guarantee) or Level 3 Parent, Level 3 Communications or any other Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary denies or disaffirms in writing its obligations under its Note Guarantee; or

(i) an involuntary proceeding shall be commenced or an involuntary petition shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries, or of a substantial part of the property or assets of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or any other Debtor Relief Law, (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, examiner, liquidator or similar official for Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or (iii) the winding-up, liquidation, reorganization, dissolution, compromise, arrangement or other relief of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary (except in a transaction permitted hereunder); and such proceeding or petition shall continue undismissed for 60 days or an order or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered; or

(j) Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary shall (i) voluntarily commence any proceeding or file any petition seeking relief under the Bankruptcy Code, as now constituted or hereafter amended, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or any other Debtor Relief Law, (ii) consent to the institution of, or fail to contest in a timely and appropriate manner, any proceeding or the filing of any petition described in clause (i) above, (iii) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, examiner, liquidator or similar official for Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any of the Significant Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, (iv) file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding, (v) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or (vi) become unable or fail generally to pay its debts as they become due; or

(k) any security interest purported to be created by any Note Collateral Document and to extend to assets that constitute a material portion of the Collateral shall cease to be, or shall be asserted in writing by the Issuer or any Guarantor not to be, a valid and perfected security interest (perfected as or having the priority required by this Indenture or the relevant Note Collateral Document and subject to such limitations and restrictions as are set forth herein and therein) in the securities, assets or properties covered thereby, except to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority results from the limitations of foreign laws, rules and regulations as they apply to pledges of Equity Interests in Foreign Subsidiaries or the application thereof, or from failure of the Note Collateral Agent (or any agent acting as gratuitous bailee thereof) to maintain possession of certificates actually delivered to it representing securities pledged under the Collateral Agreement (so long as such failure does not result from the breach or non-compliance with the Note Documents by the Issuer or any Guarantor).

(l) Any notice of default, notice of acceleration or instruction to the Trustee to provide a notice of default, notice of acceleration or take any other action (a "Noteholder Direction") provided by any one or more holders of the Securities (each a "Directing Holder") shall be accompanied by a written representation from each such holder delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee that such holder is not (or, in the case such holder is the Depository or its nominee, that such holder is being instructed solely by beneficial owners that have represented to such holder that they are not) Net Short (a "Position Representation"), which representation, in the case of a Noteholder Direction relating to the delivery of a notice of default shall be deemed a continuing representation until the resulting Event of Default is cured or otherwise ceases to exist or the Securities are accelerated. In addition, each Directing Holder shall be deemed, at the time of providing a Noteholder Direction, to covenant to provide the Issuer with such other information as the Issuer may reasonably request from time to time in order to verify the accuracy of such noteholder's Position Representation within five (5) Business Days of request therefor (a "Verification Covenant"). In any case in which the holder is the Depository or its nominee, any Position Representation or Verification Covenant required hereunder shall be provided by the beneficial owner of the Securities in lieu of the Depository or its nominee and the Depository shall be entitled to conclusively rely on such Position Representation and Verification Covenant in delivering its direction to the Trustee. In no event shall the Trustee have any liability or obligation to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any holder is Net Short and/or whether such holder has delivered any Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certifications under this Indenture or in connection with the Securities or if any such Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certifications comply with this Indenture, the Securities, or any other document. It is understood and agreed that the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively rely on each representation, deemed representation and certification made by, and covenant of, each beneficial owner provided for in this paragraph. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Securities or any other document, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply and survive with respect to each beneficial owner notwithstanding that any such person may have ceased to be a beneficial owner, this Indenture may have been terminated or the Securities may have been redeemed in full. If, following the delivery of a Noteholder Direction, but prior to acceleration of the Securities, the Issuer determines in good faith that there is a reasonable basis to believe a Directing Holder was, at any relevant time, in breach of its Position Representation and provides to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate stating that the Issuer has initiated litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking a determination that such Directing Holder was, at such time, in breach of its Position Representation, and seeking to invalidate any default, Event of Default or acceleration (or notice thereof) that resulted from the applicable Noteholder Direction, the cure period with respect to such default shall be automatically stayed and the cure period with respect to such default or Event of Default shall be automatically reinstituted and any remedy stayed pending a final and non-appealable determination of a court of competent jurisdiction on such matter if, without the participation of such holder, the percentage of Securities held by the remaining holders that provided such Noteholder Direction would have been insufficient to validly provide such Noteholder Direction. If, following the delivery of a Noteholder Direction, but prior to acceleration of the Securities, the Issuer provides to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate stating that a Directing Holder failed to satisfy its Verification Covenant, the cure period with respect to such default or Event of Default shall be automatically stayed and the cure period with respect to any default or Event of Default that resulted from the applicable Noteholder Direction shall be automatically reinstituted and any remedy stayed pending satisfaction of such Verification Covenant. Any breach of the Position Representation shall result in such holder's participation in such Noteholder Direction being disregarded; and, if, without the participation of such holder, the percentage of Securities held by the remaining holders that provided such Noteholder Direction would have been insufficient to validly provide such Noteholder Direction, such Noteholder Direction shall be void ab initio (other than any indemnity such Directing Holder may have offered the Trustee), with the effect that such default or Event of Default shall be deemed never to have occurred, acceleration voided and the Trustee shall be deemed not to have received such Noteholder Direction or any notice of such default or Event of Default.

Notwithstanding anything in the preceding two paragraphs to the contrary, any Noteholder Direction delivered to the Trustee during the pendency of an Event of Default as the result of a bankruptcy or similar proceeding shall not require compliance with the foregoing paragraphs (except for any rights or protections of the Trustee).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively rely without liability on any Noteholder Direction, Position Representation, Verification Covenant or Officers' Certificate delivered to it in accordance with this Indenture, shall have no duty to inquire as to or investigate the accuracy of any Position Representation, Noteholder Direction, Verification Covenant or Officers' Certificate, enforce compliance with any Verification Covenant, verify any statements in any Officers' Certificate, Position Representation, Noteholder Director or Verification Covenant delivered to it, or otherwise make calculations, investigations or determinations with respect to Derivative Instruments, Net Shorts, Long Derivative Instruments, Short Derivative Instruments or otherwise. The Trustee shall have no liability to the Issuer, any holder or any other person in connection with any Noteholder Direction (or items delivered in connection with any Noteholder Direction) or to determine whether or not any holder has delivered any Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certification or that such Position Representation, Verification Covenant, Noteholder Direction, or any related certification is accurate or conforms with this Indenture or any other agreement.

The term "Bankruptcy Law" means Title 11, United States Code, or any similar Federal or state law for the relief of debtors. The term "Custodian" means any receiver, trustee, assignee, liquidator, custodian or similar official under any Bankruptcy Law.

Section 5.02. Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.01(i) or 5.01(j) with respect to Level 3 Parent or the Issuer) shall occur and be continuing, either the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Securities may declare the principal amount of all the Securities to be due and payable immediately, by a notice in writing to the Issuer (and to the Trustee if given by Holders), and upon any such declaration such principal amount shall become immediately due and payable; provided, further, that a notice of default may not be given with respect to any action taken, and reported publicly or to holders and the Trustee, more than two years prior to such notice of default. At any time after a declaration of acceleration has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as hereinafter provided in this Article 5, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Securities, by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences if:

(a) the Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay

(i) all overdue interest on all Outstanding Securities,

(ii) all unpaid principal of (and premium, if any, on) any Outstanding Securities which has become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, and interest on such unpaid principal at the rate borne by the Securities,

(iii) to the extent that payment of such interest is lawful, interest on overdue interest at the rate borne by the Securities, and

(iv) all sums paid or advanced by the Trustee hereunder and the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel; and

(b) all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of amounts of principal of (or premium, if any, on) Securities which have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived as provided in Section 5.13.

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.03. Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee. The Issuer covenants that if:

(a) Default is made in the payment of any interest on any Security when due, continued for 30 days, or

(b) Default is made in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any, on) any Security when due, the Issuer will, upon demand of the Trustee, pay to the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of such Securities the whole amount then due and payable on such Securities for principal (and premium, if any) and interest, and interest on any overdue principal (and premium, if any) and, to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable, upon any overdue installment of interest, at the rate borne by the Securities, and, in addition thereto, such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel.

If the Issuer fails to pay such amounts forthwith upon such demand, the Trustee, in its own name as trustee of an express trust, may institute a judicial proceeding for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid, may prosecute such proceeding to judgment or final decree and may enforce the same against the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Securities and collect the moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the property of the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Securities, wherever situated.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders by such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem necessary to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein, or to enforce any other proper remedy.

Section 5.04. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Securities (including Level 3 Parent and any other Guarantor) or the property of the Issuer or of such other obligor or their creditors, the Trustee (irrespective of whether the principal of the Securities shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand on the Issuer for the payment of overdue principal, premium, if any, or interest) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise,

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of principal (and premium, if any) and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Securities and to file such other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee or Note Collateral Agent and their respective agents and counsel) and of the Holders allowed in such judicial proceeding, and

(b) to collect and receive any moneys or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same; and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay the Trustee any amount due it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee or Note Collateral Agent and their respective agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee or Note Collateral Agent hereunder.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to, or accept or adopt on behalf of, any Holder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Securities or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 5.05. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Securities. All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Securities may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Securities or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Securities in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 5.06. Application of Money Collected. Subject to the terms of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement and the Collateral Agreement, any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article 5 shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal (or premium, if any) or interest, upon presentation of the Securities and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

FIRST: To the payment of all amounts due the Trustee (acting in any capacity hereunder) and/or the Note Collateral Agent (acting in any capacity hereunder);

SECOND: To the payment of the amounts then due and unpaid for principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Securities in respect of which or for the benefit of which such money has been collected, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on such Securities for principal (and premium, if any) and interest, respectively; and

THIRD: The balance, if any, to the Issuer or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

Section 5.07. Limitation on Suits. No Holder of any Securities shall have any right to institute any proceeding with respect to this Indenture or for any other remedy hereunder, unless

(a) such Holder shall have previously given to the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default;

(b) the Holders of not less than 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Securities shall have made written request and offered indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee to institute such proceeding as trustee; and

(c) the Trustee shall not have received from the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Securities a direction inconsistent with such request and shall have failed to institute such proceeding within 60 days;

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders shall have any right in any manner whatsoever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders, or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders.

Section 5.08. Unconditional Right of Holders to Receive Principal, Premium and Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, including Section 5.07, the Holder of any Security shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment as provided herein (including, if applicable, Article 11) and in such Security of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on such Security on the respective Stated Maturities expressed in such Security (or, in the case of redemption, on the Redemption Date) and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder.

Section 5.09. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Trustee or any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case, subject to any determination in such proceeding, the Issuer, any Guarantor, the Trustee and the Holders shall be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.10. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. Except as otherwise provided with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Securities in Section 3.06, no right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee, Note Collateral Agent or to the Holders is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 5.11. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. Except as otherwise provided in the proviso of the first paragraph of Section 5.02, no delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Security to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders, as the case may be.

Section 5.12. Control by Holders. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Securities shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided that

(a) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture, any Intercreditor Agreement or the Collateral Agreement

(b) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction, and

(c) the Trustee need not take any action which might involve it in personal liability or be unjustly prejudicial to the Holders not consenting.

Section 5.13. Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Securities may, on behalf of the Holders of all the Securities, waive any past Default hereunder and its consequences, except a Default

(a) in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Security, or

(b) in respect of a covenant or provision hereof which under Article 8 cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Security affected, or

(c) in respect of the covenant contained in Section 9.15, which under Article 8 cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holders of two-thirds in principal amount of the Outstanding Securities.

The Issuer and Level 3 Parent shall deliver to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate stating that the requisite Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Securities have consented to such waiver and attaching such consents upon which, subject to Section 1.04, the Trustee may conclusively rely. Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.14. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws. The Issuer and each Guarantor covenant (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) that they shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Indenture; and the Issuer and each Guarantor (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law and covenant that they shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

Section 5.15. Undertaking for Costs. In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as a Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 does not apply to a suit by the Trustee or a suit by Holders of more than 10% in principal amount of the then Outstanding Securities.

Section 6.01. Certain Duties and Responsibilities. (a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default,

(i) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; but, in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of any mathematical calculations or other facts stated therein).

(b) In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise, as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that

(i) this paragraph (c) shall not be construed to limit the effect of paragraph (a) of this Section 6.01;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Securities relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 6.01.

Section 6.02. Notice of Default. If a Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee shall transmit, electronically or by first class mail to each Holder at the address set forth in the Security Register, notice of such Default within 90 days after written notice of it is received by a Responsible Officer of the Trustee; provided, however, that, except in the case of a Default in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Security, the Trustee shall be protected in withholding such notice if and so long as a trust committee of directors or Responsible Officers of the Trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the interest of the Holders.

The Trustee is not required to take notice or deemed to have notice of any Event of Default with respect to the Securities unless a Responsible Officer of the Trustee shall have received written notice at its Corporate Trust Office (which notice shall reference the Securities, the Issuer and this Indenture) of such Event of Default from the Issuer or any Holder.

Section 6.03. Certain Rights of Trustee. Subject to Section 6.01:

(a) the Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request or direction of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Issuer Request or Issuer Order and any resolution of the Board of Directors may be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Trustee (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, receive and rely upon an Officers' Certificate;

(d) the Trustee may consult with counsel of its selection and the advice of such counsel or Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Trustee may act through counsel, agents, custodians and nominees and shall not be responsible for the misconduct or negligence of any such person appointed with due care and in good faith;

(f) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to this Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction;

(g) the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit, and, if the Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Issuer, personally or by agent or attorney at the expense of the Issuer and shall incur no liability of any kind by reason of such inquiry or investigation;

(h) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture;

(i) the rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, including as Note Collateral Agent, and each agent, custodian and other person employed to act hereunder;

(j) the Trustee may request that Level 3 Parent or the Issuer deliver an Officers' Certificate in substantially the form of Exhibit A hereto setting forth the names of individuals and titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture, which Officers' Certificate may be signed by any person authorized to sign an Officers' Certificate, including any person specified as so authorized in any such certificate previously delivered and not superseded;

(k) in no event shall the Trustee be responsible or liable for special, punitive, indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action; and

(l) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any Default or Event of Default unless a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has received written notice of any event which is in fact such a default at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee, and such notice references the Securities and this Indenture.

Section 6.04. Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Securities. The recitals contained herein and in the Securities, except for the Trustee's certificates of authentication, shall be taken as the statements of Level 3 Parent or the Issuer, as applicable, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Securities, except that the Trustee represents that it is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture, authenticate the Securities and perform its obligations hereunder. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of Securities or the proceeds thereof.

Section 6.05. May Hold Securities. The Trustee, any Paying Agent, any Security Registrar or any other agent of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer or of the Trustee, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Securities, and may otherwise deal with Level 3 Parent and the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not any Trustee, Paying Agent, Security Registrar or such other agent. However, the Trustee must comply with Section 6.08.

Section 6.06. Money Held in Trust. Money held by the Trustee in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Issuer.

Section 6.07. Compensation and Reimbursement. The Issuer agrees:

(a) to pay to the Trustee from time to time such compensation as shall be agreed in writing between the Issuer and the Trustee for all services rendered by it hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(b) except as otherwise expressly provided herein, to reimburse the Trustee upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except any such expense, disbursement or advance as shall be determined to have been caused by the Trustee's own negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith; and

(c) to fully indemnify each of the Trustee and any predecessor trustee and its directors, officers, employees and agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, liability, damage, claim or expense including Taxes (other than Taxes based on the income of the Trustee) incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on the part of any of them, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust, including the costs and expenses of defending itself or themselves against any claim (whether asserted by the Issuer, a Guarantor, a Holder or any other person) or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its or their powers or duties hereunder.

The obligations of the Issuer under this Section 607 to compensate the Trustee Note Collateral Agent, to pay or reimburse the Trustee for expenses, disbursements and advances and to indemnify and hold harmless the Trustee shall constitute additional indebtedness hereunder. As security for the performance of such obligations of the Issuer, the Trustee shall have a claim prior to the Securities upon all property and funds held or collected by the Trustee as such, except funds held in trust for the payment of principal of (and premium, if any, on) or interest on particular Securities.

When the Trustee incurs expenses or renders services in connection with an Event of Default specified in Section 5.01(i) or 5.01(j), the expenses (including the reasonable charges and expenses of its counsel) of and the compensation for such services are intended to constitute expenses of administration under any applicable federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law.

The provisions of this Section 6.07 shall survive the termination of this Indenture or the earlier resignation or removal of the Trustee.

Section 6.08. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility; Conflicting Interests. (a) There shall be at all times a Trustee hereunder which shall have a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000. If such person publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of federal, state, territorial or District of Columbia supervising or examining authority, then, for the purposes of this Section 6.08, the combined capital and surplus of such person shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. If at any time a Responsible Officer of the Trustee shall have actual knowledge that the Trustee ceases to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6.08, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article 6.

(b) The Trustee shall be permitted to engage in transactions with Level 3 Parent or its Subsidiaries; provided, however, that if the Trustee acquires any conflicting interest, the Trustee must (i) eliminate such conflict within 90 days of acquiring such conflicting interest, (ii) apply to the Commission for permission to continue acting as Trustee or (iii) resign.

Section 6.09. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor. (a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee in accordance with the applicable requirements of Section 6.10.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee required by Section 6.10 shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition, at the expense of the Issuer, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Securities, delivered to the Trustee and to the Issuer. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee required by Section 6.10 shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of removal, the Trustee designated for removal may petition, at the expense of the Issuer, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.08 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (i) the Issuer, by a Board Resolution (or by a resolution of a duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors of the Issuer), may remove the Trustee or (ii) the Holders of at least 10% in aggregate principal amount of the then Outstanding Securities who have been bona fide Holders of a Security for at least six months may, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, by a Board Resolution, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Issuer does not promptly appoint a successor Trustee after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by Act of the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Securities delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. In either case, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer or the Holders and accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee to the Holders of Securities in the manner provided for in Section 1.06. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

(g) The retiring Trustee shall not be liable for any of the acts or omissions of any successor Trustee appointed hereunder.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor. Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and to the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of its charges hereunder, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Trustee shall be qualified and eligible under this Article 6.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business. Any person into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any person resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any person succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder; provided that such person shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article 6, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Securities shall have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion, consolidation or transfer of assets to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Securities so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Securities. In case at that time any of the Securities shall not have been authenticated, any successor Trustee may authenticate such Securities either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor Trustee. In all such cases such certificates shall have the full force and effect which this Indenture provides that the certificate of authentication of the Trustee shall have; provided, however, that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or to authenticate Securities in the name of any predecessor Trustee shall apply only to its successor or successors by merger, conversion, consolidation or transfer of assets.

The intercreditor provisions of the Note Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement may be amended, waived or otherwise modified from time to time with the consent of the parties thereto. In addition, the Issuer may, without the consent of any other party thereto, amend the Note Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement to designate Indebtedness as "First-Priority Obligations", or as any other Indebtedness subject to the terms and provisions of such agreement.

(viii) modify any provision of this Section 8.02 (except to increase any percentage set forth herein); or

(ix) (A) modify or amend Section 9.15, (B) make any change (whether by amendment, supplement or waiver) to any Note Collateral Document or the provisions in this Indenture dealing with the Collateral or the Note Collateral Documents that would, in each case, release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens of the Note Collateral Documents (except upon the occurrence of a Collateral Release Ratings Event or as otherwise permitted by the terms of this Indenture and the Note Collateral Documents) or (C) make any change in any Note Guarantee of a Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary that would adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Securities in any material respect.

It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders under this Section 8.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such Act shall approve the substance thereof.

Section 8.03. Execution of Supplemental Indentures. In executing, or accepting the additional trusts created by, any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel and an Officers' Certificate stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been fulfilled. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Section 8.04. Effect of Supplemental Indentures. Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Securities theretofore or thereafter authenticated and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

Section 8.05. Reference in Securities to Supplemental Indentures. Securities authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee and the Issuer as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer and the Trustee shall so determine, new Securities so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Trustee and the Issuer, to any such supplemental indenture may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Securities.

Section 8.06. Notice of Supplemental Indentures. Promptly after the execution by the Issuer, the Guarantors and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8, the Issuer shall give notice thereof to the Holders of each Outstanding Security affected, in the manner provided for in Section 1.06, setting forth in general terms the substance of such supplemental indenture.

COVENANTS

Section 9.01. Payment of Principal, Premium, if Any, and Interest. The Issuer covenants and agrees for the benefit of the Holders that it shall duly and punctually pay the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Securities in accordance with the terms of the Securities and this Indenture. An installment of principal of or interest shall be considered paid on the date due if on such date the Trustee or the Paying Agent holds as of 11:00 A.M. New York City time money sufficient to pay all principal and interest then due and the Trustee or Paying Agent, as the case may be, is not prohibited from paying such money to the Holders on that date pursuant to the terms of this Indenture.

The Issuer shall pay interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Code) (and premium, if any) on overdue principal at the rate equal to 2.0% per annum in excess of the then applicable interest rate on the Securities to the extent lawful; it shall pay interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Code) on overdue installments of interest (without regard to any applicable grace period) at the same rate to the extent lawful.

Section 9.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency. The Issuer shall maintain in the United States an office or agency where Securities may be presented or surrendered for payment, where Securities may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange and where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Securities and this Indenture may be served, which shall not constitute service of process. An office of the Trustee, The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. at 1100 North Market Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19890, shall be such office or agency of the Issuer, unless the Issuer shall designate and maintain some other office or agency for one or more of such purposes. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any change in the location of any such office or agency. If at any time the Issuer shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency or shall fail to furnish the Trustee with the address thereof, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at such affiliate’s office, and the Issuer hereby appoints the Trustee as its agent to receive all such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands.

The Issuer may also from time to time designate one or more other offices or agencies where the Securities may be presented or surrendered for any or all such purposes and may from time to time rescind any such designation; provided, however, that no such designation or rescission shall in any manner relieve the Issuer of its obligation to maintain an office or agency in the United States for such purposes. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any such designation or rescission and any change in the location of any such other office or agency.

Section 9.03. Money for Security Payments to Be Held in Trust. If the Issuer shall at any time act as its own Paying Agent, it shall, on or before each due date of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any of the Securities, segregate and hold in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto a sum sufficient to pay the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest so becoming due until such sums shall be paid to such persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided and shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act.

Whenever the Issuer shall have one or more Paying Agents for the Securities, it shall, on or before each due date of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Securities, deposit with a Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay the principal (and premium, if any) or interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to such principal, premium or interest, and (unless such Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee of such action or any failure so to act.

The Issuer shall cause each Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee, subject to the provisions of this Section 9.03, that such Paying Agent shall:

(a) hold all sums held by it for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on Securities in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to such persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided;

(b) give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer (or any other obligor upon the Securities) in the making of any payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest;

(c) at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by such Paying Agent; and

(d) indemnify the Trustee and its officers, directors, employees and agents against any loss, cost or liability caused by, or incurred as a result of, such Paying Agent's acts or omissions.

The Issuer may at any time, for the purpose of obtaining the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Issuer or such Paying Agent, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the same trusts as those upon which such sums were held by the Issuer or such Paying Agent; and, upon such payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, such Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to such sums.

Subject to any abandoned property law, any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent, or then held by the Issuer, in trust for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Security and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, premium or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer on Issuer Request or (if then held by the Issuer) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Security shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to the Issuer for payment thereof, and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such trust money, and all liability of the Issuer as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease; provided, however, that the Trustee or such Paying Agent, before being required to make any such repayment, shall at the expense of the Issuer cause to be published once, in a newspaper published in the English language, customarily published on each Business Day and of general circulation in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York, notice that such money remains unclaimed and that, after a date specified therein, which shall not be less than 30 days from the date of such publication, any unclaimed balance of such money then remaining will be repaid to the Issuer.

Section 9.04. Existence. Subject to Article 7, Level 3 Parent and the Issuer shall do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect the existence, rights (charter and statutory) and franchises of Level 3 Parent, the Issuer and each Subsidiary; provided, however, that Level 3 Parent and the Issuer shall not be required to preserve, with respect to Level 3 Parent or the Issuer, respectively, any such right or franchise or, with respect to any such Subsidiary (subject to all the other covenants in this Indenture), any such existence, right or franchise, if the Board of Directors shall determine that the preservation thereof is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of Level 3 Parent and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or the Issuer and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, respectively.

Section 9.05. Reports. So long as any Securities are outstanding (unless defeased in a legal defeasance), Level 3 Parent shall have its annual financial statements audited, and its interim financial statements reviewed, by a nationally recognized firm of independent accountants and shall furnish to the Trustee and the Holders of Securities, all quarterly and annual financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles that would be required to be contained in a filing with the Commission on Forms 10-Q and 10-K if Level 3 Parent was required to file those Forms (but in no event any other items required in such Forms), together with a corresponding "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and, with respect to the annual information only, a report on the annual financial statements by Level 3 Parent's certified independent accountant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (a) such reports shall not be required to comply with any segment reporting requirements (whether pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles or Regulation S-X) in greater detail than is customarily provided in an offering memorandum prepared in connection with a Rule 144A offering, (b) such reports shall not be required to present beneficial ownership information and (c) such reports shall not be required to provide guarantor/non-guarantor financial data. Reports relating to delivery of annual financial statements shall be provided within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year, and reports relating to interim quarterly financial statements shall be provided within 60 days after the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters of each fiscal year. To the extent that Level 3 Parent does not file such information with the Commission, Level 3 Parent shall distribute such information and such reports (as well as the details regarding the conference call described below) electronically to the Trustee and by posting such information on a password-protected website (which may be non-public, require a confidentiality acknowledgment and be maintained by Level 3 Parent or its designee) to which access will be given to (i) any Holder of the Securities, (ii) to any beneficial owner of the Securities, who provides its e-mail address to Level 3 Parent or its designee and certifies that it is a beneficial owner of Securities, (iii) to any prospective investor who provides its e-mail address to Level 3 Parent or its designee and certifies that it is a QIB, or (iv) any securities analyst providing an analysis of investment in the Securities who provides its email address to Level 3 Parent and other information reasonably requested by Level 3 Parent and represents to the reasonable satisfaction of Level 3 Parent that (1) it is a bona fide securities analyst providing an analysis of investment in the Securities, (2) it will not use the information in violation of applicable securities laws or regulations, (3) it will keep such provided information confidential and will not communicate the information to any person, (4) it will not use such information in any manner intended to compete with the business of Level 3 Parent or the Lumen Credit Group and (5) neither it nor its Affiliates is a person that is principally engaged in a similar business or derives a significant portion of its revenues from operating or owning a similar business to that of Level 3 Parent or the Lumen Credit Group. Unless Level 3 Parent or Lumen is subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act, Level 3 Parent shall also hold a quarterly conference call for the Holders of the Securities to review such financial information (which, for the avoidance of doubt, access may be limited to those who have access to the password-protected website and have provided a confidentiality acknowledgement). The conference call will not be later than five Business Days from the time that Level 3 Parent distributes the financial information as set forth above.

For so long as any of the Securities remain outstanding, Level 3 Parent shall furnish to the Holders of the Securities and to any prospective investor that certifies that it is a QIB, upon written request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

In the event that any direct or indirect parent of Level 3 Parent becomes a Guarantor or co-obligor of the Securities, Level 3 Parent may satisfy its obligations under this Section 9.05 with respect to financial information relating to Level 3 Parent by furnishing financial information relating to such parent; provided that the same is accompanied by consolidating information that explains in reasonable detail the differences between the information relating to such parent and any of its Subsidiaries other than Level 3 Parent and its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and the information relating to Level 3 Parent and its Subsidiaries, on the other hand.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Level 3 Parent shall be deemed to have furnished such financial statements and reports referred to above to the Trustee and the Holders if Level 3 Parent or any direct or indirect parent of Level 3 Parent has filed such reports with the Commission via the EDGAR filing system (or any successor thereto) and such reports are publicly available.

Delivery of such reports, information and documents to the Trustee is for informational purposes only and the Trustee's receipt of such shall not constitute actual or constructive notice or knowledge of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein, including the Issuer's compliance with any of its covenants hereunder (as to which the Trustee is entitled to rely exclusively on Officers' Certificates). The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the filing, timeliness or content of such reports.

Section 9.06. Statement by Officers as to Default. (a) The Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee, on the date of delivery of each annual report to be delivered pursuant to Section 9.05 commencing with the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, a brief certificate from the principal executive officer, principal financial officer or principal accounting officer as to his or her knowledge of the Issuer's compliance during the period covered by such report with all conditions and covenants under this Indenture. If the signer has knowledge of any noncompliance that occurred during such period, the certificate shall describe its status and what action the Issuer has taken or is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 9.06(a), such compliance shall be determined without regard to any period of grace or requirement of notice under this Indenture.

(b) When (to the knowledge of the Issuer or any Subsidiary) any Default has occurred and is continuing under this Indenture, or if the trustee for or the holder of any other evidence of Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Subsidiary gives any notice or takes any other action with respect to a claimed default (other than with respect to Indebtedness in the principal amount of less than $275,000,000 or its foreign currency equivalent at the time), the Issuer shall, within 30 days of such occurrence, notice or other action, deliver to the Trustee electronically, by registered or certified mail or by facsimile transmission an Officers' Certificate specifying such event, notice or other action, its status and what action the Issuer is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

Section 9.07. Change of Control Triggering Event. (a) Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event, each Holder shall have the right to require that the Issuer repurchase such Holder's Securities in whole or in part in integral multiples of $1.00, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 9.07 and this Indenture.

(b) Within 30 days following the occurrence of both a Change of Control and a Rating Decline with respect to the Securities within 30 days of each other (a "Change of Control Triggering Event"), the Issuer will be required to make an Offer to Purchase all Outstanding Securities at a price in cash equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Securities on the Purchase Date, plus accrued and unpaid interest (if any) to, but excluding, such Purchase Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

(c) The Issuer, the Trustee and/or any designated Paying Agent shall perform their respective obligations for the Offer to Purchase as specified in the Offer or as required hereunder. Prior to the Purchase Date, the Issuer shall (i) accept for payment Securities or portions thereof tendered pursuant to the Offer, (ii) irrevocably deposit with the applicable Paying Agent (or, if the Issuer is acting as its own Paying Agent, segregate and hold in trust as provided in Section 9.03) money sufficient to pay the Purchase Price of all Securities or portions thereof so accepted (provided that such deposit may be made no later than 11:00 A.M. New York City time on the Purchase Date if the Issuer elects) and (iii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee all Securities so accepted together with an Officers' Certificate stating the Securities or portions thereof accepted for payment by the Issuer. The applicable Paying Agent shall promptly mail or deliver to Holders of Securities so accepted payment in an amount equal to the Purchase Price, and the Trustee shall authenticate and mail or deliver to such Holders a new Security or Securities equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of the Security surrendered as requested by the Holder. Any Security not accepted for payment shall be promptly mailed or delivered by the Issuer to the Holder thereof. In the event that the aggregate Purchase Price is less than the amount delivered by the Issuer to the applicable Paying Agent, the Paying Agent, shall deliver the excess to the Issuer immediately after the Purchase Date.

(d) A "Change of Control" means the occurrence of any of the following events:

(i) if any "person" or "group" (as such terms are used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act or any successor provisions to either of the foregoing), including any group acting for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of securities within the meaning of Rule 13d-5(b)(1) under the Exchange Act becomes the "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, except that a person will be deemed to have "beneficial ownership" of all shares that any such person has the right to acquire, whether such right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time), but excluding Lumen or any Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of Lumen, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of Level 3 Parent; or

(ii) the sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or other disposition, directly or indirectly, of all or substantially all of the assets of Level 3 Parent and its Subsidiaries considered as a whole shall have occurred; or

(iii) the shareholders of Level 3 Parent or the Issuer shall have approved any plan of liquidation or dissolution of Level 3 Parent or the Issuer, respectively.

Notwithstanding the preceding or any provision of Rule 13d-3 or 13d-5 under the Exchange Act, (i) a person or group shall not be deemed to beneficially own Voting Stock (x) subject to a stock or asset purchase agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, warrant agreement or similar agreement (or voting or option or similar agreement related thereto) until the consummation of the acquisition of the Voting Stock in connection with the transactions contemplated by such agreement or (y) as a result of veto or approval rights in any joint venture agreement, shareholder agreement or other similar agreement and (ii) a person or group shall not be deemed to beneficially own the Voting Stock of another person as a result of its ownership of Voting Stock or other securities of such other person's parent entity (or related contractual rights) unless it owns more than 50% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock entitled to vote for the election of directors of such parent.

(e) The Issuer shall not be required to make an Offer to Purchase upon a Change of Control Triggering Event if a third party makes the Offer to Purchase in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in this Indenture applicable to an Offer to Purchase made by the Issuer and purchases all Securities validly tendered and not withdrawn under such Offer to Purchase.

(f) In the event that the Issuer makes an Offer to Purchase the Securities, the Issuer shall comply with any applicable securities laws and regulations, including any applicable requirements of Section 14(e) of, and Rule 14e-1 under, the Exchange Act. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with provisions of this Section, the Issuer shall comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and shall not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 9.07 by virtue thereof.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, so long as (i) any of the Other Notes are outstanding, if a Change of Control Triggering Event (as defined in the applicable indenture) has occurred under any of the indentures governing such Other Notes or (ii) if any loans or commitments are outstanding under the Credit Agreements, if a Change of Control Triggering Event (as defined in each Credit Agreement, to the extent applicable) has occurred, a Change of Control Triggering Event with respect to the Securities shall also be deemed to have occurred.

Section 9.08. Limitation on Indebtedness. (a) The Issuer and Level 3 Parent will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, Incur any Indebtedness; provided, however, that (i) Permitted Consolidated Cash Flow Debt may be Incurred in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed 5.75 times Pro Forma LTM EBITDA; provided, that, if the Issuer's long-term secured debt rating is at the time rated either "B2" or less from Moody's or "B" or less from S&P, then Permitted Consolidated Cash Flow Debt shall not exceed an aggregate principal amount of 5.00 times Pro Forma LTM EBITDA and (ii) any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof may be Incurred.

Further, for purposes of determining compliance with this Section 9.08:

(a) Indebtedness need not be permitted solely by reference to one category of permitted Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) described in Sections 9.08(b)(i) through (xxxiv) but may be permitted in part under any relevant combination thereof (and subject to compliance, where relevant, with Section 9.10);

(b) in the event that an item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) meets the criteria of one or more of the categories of permitted Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) described in 9.08(b)(i) through (xxxiv), the Issuer may, in its sole discretion, classify or divide such item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) in any manner that complies with this Section 9.08 (including, in the case of Indebtedness incurred on the same day, electing the order in which such Indebtedness shall be deemed incurred for purposes of computing the available amount under any category) and will be entitled to only include the amount and type of such item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) in one of the above clauses (or any portion thereof) and such item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) shall be treated as having been incurred or existing pursuant to only such clause or clauses (or any portion thereof); provided, that (A) all Indebtedness outstanding under the New Credit Agreement shall at all times be deemed to have been incurred pursuant to Section 9.08(b)(ii) and (B) all Indebtedness outstanding under the LVLT Limited Guarantees shall at all times be deemed to have been incurred pursuant to Section 9.08 (b)(xxxi);

(c) at the option of the Issuer, any Indebtedness and/or Lien incurred to finance a Limited Condition Transaction shall be deemed to have been incurred on the date of execution of the acquisition agreement, the declaration of the dividend by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the applicable Subsidiary or the giving of the irrevocable notice of repayment or redemption, as applicable, related to such Limited Condition Transaction (and not at the time such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated) and the First Lien Leverage Ratio, Total Leverage Ratio, Priority Leverage Ratio and/or compliance with Pro Forma LTM EBITDA in respect of Permitted Consolidated Cash Flow Debt shall be tested (x) in connection with such incurrence,

In addition, with respect to any Indebtedness that was permitted to be incurred hereunder on the date of such incurrence, any Increased Amount of such Indebtedness shall also be permitted hereunder after the date of such incurrence.

This Indenture does not treat (x) unsecured Indebtedness as subordinated or junior in right of payment to secured Indebtedness merely because it is unsecured or (y) senior Indebtedness as subordinated or junior in right of payment to any other senior Indebtedness merely because it has a junior priority with respect to the same collateral.

Accrual of interest, accrual of dividends, the accretion of accreted value, the accretion or amortization of original issue discount, the payment of interest in the form of additional Indebtedness, the payment of dividends in the form of additional shares of Disqualified Stock or the reclassification of commitments or obligations not treated as Indebtedness due to a change in GAAP will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness for purposes of this Section 9.08 (or, for the avoidance of doubt, the incurrence of a Lien for purposes of Section 9.10).

For the avoidance of doubt, Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness (and all subsequent refinancings thereof with Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness) shall not increase the amount of Indebtedness that is permitted to be incurred pursuant to any provision of this Section 9.08 other than, in each case, as permitted by the definitions of Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness with respect to each such incurrence of Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any Note Document:

(i) any Indebtedness (including all intercompany loans and Guarantees of Indebtedness but excluding the Loan Proceeds Note and any Guarantees in respect thereof) incurred after the Issue Date owed by the Issuer or a Subsidiary to the Issuer or a Subsidiary shall be subordinated in right of payment to the Securities pursuant to the Subordinated Intercompany Note or other customary payment subordination provisions;

(iii) A LVLT/Lumen Qualified Securitization Facility shall only be permitted under this Section 9.08 to the extent (w) a LVLT Subsidiary owns a percentage of the Equity Interests of the applicable LVLT/Lumen Securitization Subsidiary that corresponds to the SPE Relevant Assets Percentage with respect to such LVLT/Lumen Qualified Securitization Facility, (x) such LVLT Subsidiary receives a portion of the proceeds of such LVLT/Lumen Qualified Securitization Facility equal to or greater than the SPE Relevant Assets Percentage with respect to such LVLT/Lumen Qualified Securitization Facility (y) all distributions by the applicable LVLT/Lumen Securitization Subsidiary are made ratably based on the percentage of Equity Interests of the applicable LVLT/Lumen Securitization Subsidiary owned by LVLT Subsidiary and the Non-LVLT Entity and (z) the Issuer shall apply (or cause to be applied) the Net Proceeds thereof in accordance with Section 9.12(c).

Upon the reasonable request of Level 3 Parent or the Issuer, the Trustee will use reasonable efforts to cooperate with Level 3 Parent, the Issuer and any Subsidiary as necessary to enable them to comply with their obligations under this paragraph (c).

(d) For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 9.10, (x) a Lien securing an item of Indebtedness need not be permitted solely by reference to one category of permitted Liens (or any portion thereof) described in Section 9.10(a)(i) through (xli) but may be permitted in part under any combination thereof and (y) in the event that a Lien securing an item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) meets the criteria of one or more of the categories of permitted Liens (or any portion thereof) described in Section 9.10(a)(i) through (xli), the Issuer may, in its sole discretion, classify or divide such Lien securing such item of Indebtedness (or any portion thereof) in any manner that complies with this Section 9.10 (including, in the case of Lien incurred on the same day, electing the order in which such Lien shall be deemed incurred for purposes of computing the available amount under any category) and will be entitled to only include the amount and type of such Lien or such item of Indebtedness secured by such Lien (or any portion thereof) in one of the above clauses and such Lien securing such item of Indebtedness (or portion thereof) will be treated as being incurred or existing pursuant to only such clause or clauses (or any portion thereof).

If there are any Excess Proceeds, the Issuer (x) shall make an offer to all holders of the Securities to purchase the maximum principal amount of the Securities (an "Asset Sale Offer") that is at least $1.00 and an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof and (y) at the option of the Issuer, may prepay Other First Lien Debt (or make an offer to holders of any Other First Lien Debt) to the extent any such prepayment is required thereby, on a pro rata basis (subject to adjustments to maintain the authorized denominations for the Securities) among the Securities and such Other First Lien Debt based on the principal amount thereof, in each case that may be purchased or prepaid out of the Excess Proceeds at an offer or prepayment price, as applicable, in cash in an amount equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof (or, in the event the Securities or Other First Lien Debt were issued with significant original issue discount, 100% of the accreted value thereof), plus accrued and unpaid interest, to, but excluding, the date fixed for the closing of such offer or prepayment; provided, that Net Proceeds of the kind described in clauses (d), (e), (f) and (g) of the definition thereof that are required to be subject to an Asset Sale Offer shall be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount of Net Proceeds applied to prepay, repurchase, redeem or otherwise discharge the Second Lien Notes and other Indebtedness for borrowed money secured by a Junior Lien in accordance with the following proviso; provided, further, that if the Issuer shall deliver a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Issuer to the Trustee promptly following receipt of any such Net Proceeds setting forth the Issuer's intention to apply an amount equal to all or any portion of such Net Proceeds to prepay, repurchase, redeem or otherwise discharge the Second Lien Notes or other Indebtedness for borrowed money secured by a Junior Lien, then the Issuer shall have 90 days to apply such amount in such manner; provided, however, that if all or a portion of such amount is not so applied by such 90th day or is no longer intended to be or cannot be so applied in such manner at any time after delivery of such certificate, all or such portion of such amount shall be applied in accordance with this Section 9.12(c) without giving effect to this proviso within five (5) Business Days after such 90th day or the Issuer reasonably determining that such Net Proceeds are no longer intended to be or cannot be so applied as applicable. The Issuer will commence an Asset Sale Offer with respect to Excess Proceeds within fifteen (15) Business Days after receipt of Excess Proceeds by mailing, or delivering electronically if held by the Depository, the notice required pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, with a copy to the Trustee. To the extent that the aggregate principal amount of the Securities (and such Other First Lien Debt, as the case may be) tendered pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer is less than the aggregate principal amount of the Securities that the Issuer has offered to purchase pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer, the Issuer may use any remaining Excess Proceeds for any purpose that is not prohibited by this Indenture. Upon completion of any such Asset Sale Offer, the amount of Excess Proceeds shall be reset at zero.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.12(c) or elsewhere in this Indenture, to the extent that (A) any or all of the Net Proceeds of any Asset Sale or Recovery Event by a Foreign Subsidiary are prohibited by any requirement of law from being loaned, distributed or otherwise transferred to the Issuer or any Domestic Subsidiary or materially adverse consequences to (including any material Tax incurred by) the Issuer or any of its Affiliates would result therefrom or (B) any or all of the Net Proceeds of any Asset Sale or Recovery Event by a Foreign Subsidiary are prohibited from being transferred to the Issuer for application in accordance with this Section 9.12(c) by any applicable organizational documents, joint venture agreement, shareholder agreement, or similar agreement or any other contractual obligation with an unaffiliated third party (including any agreement governing Indebtedness) that was not created in contemplation of such Asset Sale or Recovery Event, then in each case an amount equal to the portion of such Net Proceeds so affected will not be required to be applied as provided in this Section 9.12(c) so long as, but only so long as, such materially adverse consequences or prohibitions exist and once such materially adverse consequences or prohibitions are no longer applicable, an amount equal to such Net Proceeds will be promptly applied pursuant this Section 9.12(c) (the Issuer hereby agreeing to cause the applicable Subsidiary to promptly use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions within the reasonable control of the Issuer that are reasonably required to eliminate or mitigate such materially adverse consequences or prohibitions, as the case may be).

Section 10.03. Election to Redeem; Notice to Trustee. The election of the Issuer to redeem any Securities pursuant to Section 10.01 shall be evidenced by a Board Resolution of the Issuer. The Issuer shall, at least 30 days prior to the Redemption Date fixed by the Issuer (unless a shorter notice shall be satisfactory to the Trustee), notify the Trustee of such Redemption Date and of the principal amount of Securities to be redeemed and shall deliver to the Trustee such documentation and records as shall enable the Trustee to select the Securities to be redeemed pursuant to Section 10.04. Such notice shall be accompanied by an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel from the Issuer to the effect that such redemption will comply with the conditions herein.

Section 10.04. Selection by Trustee of Securities to Be Redeemed. If less than all the Securities are to be redeemed, the particular Securities to be redeemed shall be selected not more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date by the Trustee, from the Outstanding Securities not previously called for redemption, on a pro rata basis, or by lot and, in the case of Securities represented by a Global Security held by the Depository, in accordance with Depository procedures; provided, however, that no such partial redemption shall reduce the portion of the principal amount of a Security not redeemed to less than $2,000.

For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to redemption of Securities shall relate, in the case of any Security redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, to the portion of the principal amount of such Security which has been or is to be redeemed.

Section 10.05. Notice of Redemption. Notice of redemption shall be given in the manner provided for in Section 1.06 not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date, to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed; provided that in the case of Securities held through the Depository by Depository participants, such notice will be submitted via the Depository's electronic messaging system.

Each notice of redemption shall identify the Securities (including "CUSIP" number(s) and the statement from Section 3.10) to be redeemed and shall state:

(a) the Redemption Date,

(b) the Redemption Price and the amount of accrued interest to, but not including, the Redemption Date payable as provided in Section 10.07, if any,

(c) if relevant, any conditions to such redemption and the information required with respect thereto pursuant to Section 5 on the reverse of the form of Security,

(d) if less than all Outstanding Securities are to be redeemed, the identification (and, in the case of a partial redemption, the principal amounts) of the particular Securities to be redeemed,

(e) in case any Security is to be redeemed in part only, that on and after the Redemption Date, upon surrender of such Security, the Holder will receive, without charge, a new Security or Securities of authorized denominations for the principal amount thereof remaining unredeemed,

(f) that on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price (and unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to, but not including, the Redemption Date payable as provided in Section 10.07) will become due and payable upon each such Security, or the portion thereof, to be redeemed, and that, unless the Issuer defaults in making such redemption payment or the Trustee or the Paying Agent is prohibited from making such payment, interest thereon will cease to accrue on and after said date, and

(g) the place or places where such Securities are to be presented and surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest, if any.

Notice of redemption of Securities to be redeemed at the election of the Issuer shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer; provided, however, in the latter case the Issuer shall give the Trustee at least 10 days prior notice (or such shorter notice as the Trustee may permit) of the date of the giving of the notice.

Section 10.06. Deposit of Redemption Price. On or prior to any Redemption Date (and if on any Redemption Date, before 11:00 A.M. New York City time, on such date), the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee or with a Paying Agent (or, if the Issuer is acting as its own Paying Agent, segregate and hold in trust as provided in Section 9.03) an amount of money sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of, and unpaid and accrued interest (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date) on, all the Securities which are to be redeemed on that date.

Section 10.07. Securities Payable on Redemption Date. Notice of redemption having been given as aforesaid, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of any conditions set forth in such notice of redemption in accordance with Section 5 on the reverse form of the Security, the Securities so to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified (together with unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to, but not including, the Redemption Date), and from and after such date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest or the Trustee or the Paying Agent shall be prohibited from making such payment) such Securities shall cease to bear interest. Upon surrender of any such Security for redemption in accordance with said notice, such Security shall be paid by the Issuer at the Redemption Price, together with unpaid and accrued interest, if any, to, but not including, the Redemption Date; provided, however, that installments of interest whose Stated Maturity is on or prior to the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of such Securities, or one or more Predecessor Securities, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant record dates according to their terms.

If any Security called for redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for redemption, the principal (and premium, if any) shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Securities.

If the Issuer has given notice of redemption as provided in this Indenture and made available funds for the redemption of the Securities (or any portion thereof) called for redemption on or prior to the Redemption Date referred to in such notice, those Securities will cease to bear interest on or after that Redemption Date and the only right of the Holders of those Securities will be to receive payment of the Redemption Price, together with any accrued and unpaid interest.

Section 10.08. Securities Redeemed in Part. Any Security which is to be redeemed only in part shall be surrendered at the office or agency of the Issuer maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 9.02 (with, if the Issuer and the Trustee so require, due endorsement by, or a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee duly executed by, the Holder thereof or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing), and the Issuer shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Holder of such Security without service charge, a new Security or Securities, of any authorized denomination as requested by such Holder, in aggregate principal amount equal to and in exchange for the unredeemed portion of the principal of the Security so surrendered.

DEFEASANCE AND COVENANT DEFEASANCE

Section 11.01. Issuer's Option to Effect Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance. The Issuer may, at its option by Board Resolution of the Issuer, at any time, with respect to the Securities, elect to have either Section 11.02 or Section 11.03 be applied to all Outstanding Securities upon compliance with the conditions set forth below in this Article 11.

Section 11.02. Defeasance and Discharge. Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.02, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall be deemed to have been discharged from their obligations with respect to all Outstanding Securities on the date the conditions set forth in Section 11.04 are satisfied (hereinafter, "defeasance"). For this purpose, such defeasance means that the Issuer shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness represented by the Outstanding Securities, which shall thereafter be deemed to be "Outstanding" only for the purposes of Section 11.05 and the other Sections of this Indenture referred to in clauses (a) and (b) below, and to have satisfied all their other obligations under such Securities and this Indenture insofar as such Securities are concerned (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following which shall survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder: (a) the Issuer's obligations with respect to such Securities under Section 2.3 of Appendix A and Sections 3.03, 3.06, 3.07, 9.02 and 9.03 and the Issuer's rights under Section 10.01, (b) rights of Holders to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Securities (but not the Purchase Price referred to under Section 9.07) and any rights of the Holders with respect to such amounts, (c) the rights, obligations and immunities of the Trustee under this Indenture and (d) this Article 11. Subject to compliance with this Article 11, the Issuer may exercise its option under this Section 11.02 notwithstanding the prior exercise of its option under Section 11.03 with respect to the Securities. If the Issuer exercises its option under this Section 11.02, (v) each Guarantor, if any, shall be released from all its obligations under its Note Guarantee, (w) the Loan Proceeds Note may be prepaid in whole or in part, (x) no entity shall be obligated to guarantee the Loan Proceeds Note, (y) the Loan Proceeds Note may be canceled and (z) all obligations to provide Loan Proceeds Note Guarantees shall terminate and all references in this Indenture to Loan Proceeds Note Guarantees and Loan Proceeds Note Guarantees shall be disregarded and not be deemed to be requirements to take or omit to take any action by Level 3 Parent or any Subsidiary. Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.02, all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Securities shall be released and the Note Collateral Documents shall cease to be of further effect.

Section 11.03. Covenant Defeasance. Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.03, the Issuer and each Guarantor shall be released from their obligations under any covenant contained in Sections 7.01(a)(ii), 7.03(a)(ii)(B)(3), (4) and (5), in Sections 7.04, 7.06, 9.05 and 9.18, Sections 9.07 through 9.22 and Section 12.01 and from the operation of Sections 5.01(f), (g), (h), (i), (j) and (k) (but, in the case of Sections 5.01(i) and (j), with respect only to Significant Subsidiaries) and from Section 9.22, with respect to the Outstanding Securities on and after the date the conditions set forth below are satisfied (hereinafter, "covenant defeasance"), and the Securities shall thereafter be deemed not to be "Outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent, declaration or other Act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such provisions, but shall continue to be deemed "Outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder. For this purpose, such covenant defeasance means that, with respect to the Outstanding Securities, the Issuer and the Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such provision, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein to any such provision or by reason of any reference in any such provision to any other provision herein or in any other document and such omission to comply shall not constitute a Default or an Event of Default under Section 5.01(c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j) or (k) (but, in the case of Section 5.01(i) or (j), with respect only to Significant Subsidiaries) but, except as specified above, the remainder of this Indenture and such Securities shall be unaffected thereby. If the Issuer exercises its option under this Section 11.03, (v) each Guarantor shall be released from all its obligations under its Note Guarantee, (w) the Loan Proceeds Note may be prepaid in whole or in part, (x) no entity shall be obligated to guarantee the Loan Proceeds Note, (y) the Loan Proceeds Note may be canceled and (z) all obligations to provide Loan Proceeds Note Guarantees shall terminate and all references in this Indenture to Loan Proceeds Note Guarantees and Loan Proceeds Note Guarantees shall be disregarded and not be deemed to be requirements to take or omit to take any action by Level 3 Parent or any Subsidiary. Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 11.01 of the option applicable to this Section 11.03, all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Securities shall be released and the Note Collateral Documents shall cease to be of further effect.

Section 11.04. Conditions to Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance. The following shall be the conditions to application of either Section 11.02 or Section 11.03 to the Outstanding Securities:

(a) The Issuer shall irrevocably have deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee (or another trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.08 who shall agree to comply with the provisions of this Article 11 applicable to it) as trust funds in trust for the purpose of making the following payments, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of such Securities, at any time prior to the Stated Maturity of the Securities: (i) money in an amount, or (ii) Government Securities which through the payment of interest and principal will provide, not later than one day before the due date of payment in respect of the Securities, money in an amount, or (iii) a combination thereof, sufficient, in the opinion of a certified public accountant (selected by the Issuer or Level 3 Parent in its sole discretion) expressed in a written certification delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge the principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest on, the Outstanding Securities on the Stated Maturity (or Redemption Date, if applicable) of such principal (and premium, if any) or installment of interest; provided that the Trustee (or such other trustee) shall have been irrevocably instructed in writing to apply such money or the proceeds of such Government Securities to said payments with respect to the Securities. Before such a deposit, the Issuer may give to the Trustee, in accordance with Section 10.03, a notice of their election to redeem all of the Outstanding Securities at a future date in accordance with Article 10, which notice shall be irrevocable. Such irrevocable redemption notice, if given, shall be given effect in applying the foregoing.

(b) No Default or Event of Default with respect to the Securities shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or, insofar as Section 5.01(i) and Section 5.01(j) are concerned with respect to Level 3 Parent and the Issuer, at any time during the period ending on the 123rd day after the date of such deposit (it being understood that this condition shall not be deemed satisfied until the expiration of such period).

(c) Such defeasance or covenant defeasance shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer or any Guarantor is a party or by which it is bound.

(d) In the case of an election under Section 11.02, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that (x) the Issuer has received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, or (y) since the date of this Indenture, there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such opinion shall confirm that, the Holders of the Outstanding Securities will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income Tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance had not occurred.

(e) In the case of an election under Section 11.03, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Holders of the Outstanding Securities will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income Tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred.

(f) The Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent provided for relating to either the defeasance under Section 11.02 or the covenant defeasance under Section 11.03 (as the case may be) have been complied with.

Section 11.05. Deposited Money and Government Securities to Be Held in Trust; Other Miscellaneous Provisions. Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 9.03 and any governing law, all money and Government Securities (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee (or other qualifying trustee, collectively for purposes of this Section 11.05, the "Trustee") pursuant to Section 11.04 in respect of the Outstanding Securities shall be held in trust and applied by the Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of such Securities and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as its own Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of such Securities of all sums due and to become due thereon in respect of principal, premium, if any, and interest, but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law or to the extent the Issuer or Level 3 Parent acts as the Issuer's Paying Agent.

The Issuer shall pay and indemnify the Trustee and (if applicable) its officers, directors, employees and agents against any Tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against the Government Securities deposited pursuant to Section 11.04 or the principal and interest received in respect thereof other than any such Tax, fee or other charge which by law is for the account of the Holders of the Outstanding Securities.

Anything in this Article 11 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee shall deliver or pay to the Issuer from time to time upon the Issuer's Request any money or Government Securities held by it as provided in Section 11.04 which, in the opinion of a certified public accountant (selected by the Issuer or Level 3 Parent in its sole discretion) expressed in a written certification thereof delivered to the Trustee, are in excess of the amount thereof which would then be required to be deposited to effect an equivalent defeasance or covenant defeasance, as applicable, in accordance with this Article 11.

Section 11.06. Reinstatement. If the Trustee or any Paying Agent is unable to apply any money in accordance with Section 4.01 or 11.05 by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, then the Issuer's and each Guarantor's obligations under the Note Documents shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 4.01, 11.02 or 11.03, as the case may be, until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money in accordance therewith; provided, however, that if the Issuer or any Guarantor makes any payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Security following the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuer or such Guarantor shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Securities to receive such payment from the money held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

NOTE GUARANTEES

Section 12.01. Guarantees. Each Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees, jointly and severally, to each Holder and to the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent and its successors and assigns (a) the full and punctual payment of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Securities when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, and all other monetary obligations of the Issuer under the Note Documents and (b) the full and punctual performance within applicable grace periods of all other obligations of the Issuer under the Note Documents (all the foregoing being hereinafter collectively called the "Obligations"). Each Guarantor further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from such Guarantor, and that such Guarantor will remain bound under this Article 12 notwithstanding any extension or renewal of any Obligation.

Each Guarantor waives presentation to, demand of, payment from and protest to the Issuer of any of the Obligations and also waives notice of protest for nonpayment. Each Guarantor waives notice of any default under the Securities or the Obligations. The obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be affected by (a) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against the Issuer or any other person under this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement or otherwise; (b) any extension or renewal of any thereof; (c) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of any of the terms or provisions of this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement; (d) the release of any security held by any Holder or the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent for the Obligations of any of them; (e) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent to exercise any right or remedy against any other guarantor of the Obligations; or (f) any change in the ownership of such Guarantor.

Each Guarantor further agrees that its Note Guarantee herein constitutes a guarantee of payment, performance and compliance when due (and not a guarantee of collection) and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Holder or the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent to any security held for payment of the Obligations.

Except as expressly set forth in Sections 7.05, 7.06, 9.14, 11.02, 11.03, 12.03 and 12.08, the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and shall not be subject to any defense of setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever or by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Guarantee of the Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Guarantor herein shall not be discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any remedy under this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement, by any waiver or modification of any terms thereof, by any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of the obligations, or by any other act or thing or omission or delay to do any other act or thing which may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of such Guarantor or would otherwise operate as a discharge of such Guarantor as a matter of law or equity.

Each Guarantor further agrees that its Note Guarantee herein shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by any Holder or the Trustee upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of the Issuer or otherwise.

In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right which any Holder or the Trustee has at law or in equity against any Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of the Issuer to pay the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, or to perform or comply with any other Obligation, each Guarantor hereby promises to and will, upon receipt of written demand by the Trustee, forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, in cash, to the Holders or the Trustee an amount equal to the sum of (i) the unpaid amount of such Obligations, (ii) accrued and unpaid interest on such Obligations (but only to the extent not prohibited by law) and (iii) all other monetary Obligations of the Issuer to the Holders and the Trustee.

Each Guarantor agrees that it shall not be entitled to any right of subrogation in respect of any Obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full in cash of all Obligations. Each Guarantor further agrees that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the Obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 5 for the purposes of such Guarantor's Note Guarantee herein, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the Obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such Obligations as provided in Article 5, such Obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by such Guarantor for the purposes of this Section 12.01.

Each Guarantor also agrees to pay any and all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent or any Holder in enforcing any rights under this Section 12.01.

The Issuer shall cause each of its direct or indirect Subsidiaries that is not an Excluded Subsidiary and that guarantees or becomes a borrower under any First Lien Obligations to execute and deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days of such event (which such period will be automatically extended in 30 day increments so long as the Issuer uses commercially reasonable efforts), a supplemental indenture substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto pursuant to which such Subsidiary will guarantee the Obligations. For the avoidance of doubt, no Excluded Subsidiary shall be required to guarantee the Obligations, become a party to the Collateral Agreement or any other Collateral Document or create Liens on its assets to secure the Obligations.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (but subject to the following paragraph), if a person is required to become a Guarantor pursuant to this Indenture, none of the Issuer or any Subsidiary shall be required to submit any application or filing or otherwise take any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to become a Guarantor (and the requirement to provide such a Guarantee shall be tolled), in each case, to the extent an authorization or consent of such federal or state Governmental Authority is determined by Lumen, Level 3 Parent or the Issuer to be sought in respect of any Material Transaction or any financing relating thereto and has not yet been obtained; provided that (i) such person is not submitting any application or filing or otherwise taking any action to obtain any authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause such person to Guarantee any First Lien Obligation (other than the Securities) or Junior Lien Obligations and (ii) at the time such federal or state Governmental Authority has approved such Material Transaction, the application, filing or other action to obtain any such authorization or consent of any federal or state Governmental Authority required in order to cause any person to become a Guarantor shall promptly be made.

Section 12.02. Contribution. Each of the Issuer and any Guarantor (a "Contributing Party") agrees that, in the event a payment shall be made by any other Guarantor under any Note Guarantee (the "Claiming Guarantor"), the Contributing Party shall indemnify the Claiming Guarantor in an amount equal to the amount of such payment multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the net worth of the Contributing Party on the Issue Date and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate net worth of the Issuer and all the Guarantors on the Issue Date (or, in the case of any Guarantor becoming a party hereto pursuant to Section 8.01, the date of the supplemental indenture executed and delivered by such Guarantor).

Section 12.03. Release of Guarantees. The Note Guarantee of a Guarantor that is a Subsidiary shall be automatically and unconditionally released:

(a) upon consummation of any transaction permitted hereunder if (x) resulting in such Guarantor ceasing to constitute a Subsidiary (including because such Subsidiary is designated an "Unrestricted Subsidiary") or (y) in the case of any Guarantor that would not be required to be a Guarantor because it is, or has become, an Excluded Subsidiary as a result of a transaction following which it has become (or remains) a Subsidiary of the Issuer or a Guarantor, and upon notice to the Trustee (which failure to deliver such notice shall not effect the release without delivery of any installment or any action by any party; provided that, any release pursuant to preceding clause (y) shall only be effective if:

(A) no Event of Default under Section 5.01(a), (b), (i) or (j) has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom,

(B) at the time of such release (and after giving effect thereto), all outstanding Indebtedness of, and Investments in, such Subsidiary would then be permitted to be made in accordance with the relevant provisions of Sections 9.08 and 9.12(for this purpose, with the Issuer being required to reclassify any such items made in reliance upon the respective Subsidiary being a Guarantor on another basis as would be permitted by such applicable Section), and any previous dispositions thereto pursuant to Section 9.12 shall be re-characterized and would then be permitted as if same were made to a Subsidiary that was not a Guarantor (and all items described above in this clause (B) shall thereafter be deemed recharacterized as provided above in this clause (B)),

(C) such Subsidiary shall not be (or shall be simultaneously released as) a guarantor (if applicable) with respect to the any First Lien Notes, Other First Lien Debt, Second Lien Notes, Permitted Consolidated Cash Flow Debt, Existing Unsecured Notes, Subordinated Indebtedness, any other Indebtedness secured by a Junior Lien or any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness (and successive Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness) with respect to the foregoing; and

(D) the transaction resulting in such release is a legitimate business transaction and not for a "liability management transaction" as reasonably determined by the Issuer;

(b) [reserved];

(c) [reserved];

(d) if such Guarantor is (or immediately after being released from its Note Guarantee of the Securities will be) released from its Guarantee of all First Lien Obligations and Junior Lien Obligations except any such release by or as a result of payment of such Guarantee and such Guarantor is not a guarantor under any of the Other Notes and is not otherwise required to Guarantee the Securities under this Indenture in accordance with Section 12.01,

(e) if the Issuer exercises the legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option or effects a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, in each case in accordance with Article 11, or

(f) if such Guarantee was originally Incurred to permit such Guarantor to Incur or guarantee Indebtedness not otherwise permitted pursuant to Section 9.08 or Section 9.10 and the Indebtedness so Incurred or guaranteed (and any permitted refinancing Indebtedness thereof) has been repaid or discharged (provided that, after giving effect to such release, such Guarantor does not have any outstanding Indebtedness or guarantee that would violate Section 9.08 or Section 9.10 if such outstanding Indebtedness or guarantee would have been Incurred following the release of such Note Guarantee and such Guarantor is not a guarantor under any First Lien Obligation (other than the Securities)).

Upon any occurrence giving rise to a release of a Guarantee as specified above, the Trustee, upon receipt of an Officers' Certificate from the Issuer and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that all conditions precedent to such release have been satisfied, shall execute any documents reasonably required by the Issuer in order to evidence or effect such release, discharge and termination in respect of such Guarantee. None of the Issuer, any Guarantor or the Trustee will be required to make a notation on the Securities to reflect any Guarantee or any such release, termination or discharge.

Section 12.04. *Successors and Assigns. This Article 12 shall be binding upon each Guarantor and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent and the Holders and, in the event of any transfer or assignment of rights by any Holder or the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent, the rights and privileges conferred upon that party in this Indenture and in the Securities shall automatically extend to and be vested in such transferee or assignee, all subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture.

Section 12.05. No Waiver. Neither a failure nor a delay on the part of either the Trustee or the Holders in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Article 12 shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any right, power or privilege. The rights, remedies and benefits of the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent and the Holders herein expressly specified are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights, remedies or benefits which either may have under this Article 12 at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise.

Section 12.06. Modification. No modification, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Article 12, nor the consent to any departure by any Guarantor therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice to or demand on any Guarantor in any case shall entitle such Guarantor to any other or further notice or demand in the same, similar or other circumstances.

Section 12.07. Execution of Supplemental Indenture for Future Guarantors.

(a) Each Subsidiary which is required to become a Guarantor pursuant to any Section of this Indenture shall promptly execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture in the form of Exhibit B hereto pursuant to which such Subsidiary shall become a Guarantor under this Article 12 and shall guarantee the Obligations. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of any such supplemental indenture by Level 3 Communications, Level 3 Communications shall deliver to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that such supplemental indenture has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by Level 3 Communications and that, subject to the application of bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or transfer and other similar laws relating to creditors' rights generally and to the principles of equity, whether considered in a proceeding at law or in equity, the Note Guarantee of Level 3 Communications is a legal, valid and binding obligation of Level 3 Communications, enforceable against Level 3 Communications in accordance with its terms. Each person then a Guarantor authorizes the Issuer to enter into such a supplemental indenture on its behalf.

Section 12.08. Limitation on Guarantor Liability. Each Guarantor and, by its acceptance of a Security, each Holder, hereby confirms that it is the intention of all such parties that the Note Guarantee of such Guarantor not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar federal or state law to the extent applicable to its Note Guarantee. To effectuate the foregoing intention, the Trustee, the Holders and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably agree that the obligations of each Guarantor will be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of such Guarantor that are relevant under such laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Guarantor under this Article 12, result in the obligations of such Guarantor under its Note Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

(a) The due and punctual payment of the Obligations, including payment of the principal of, premium on, if any, and interest on, the Securities when and as the same shall be due and payable, whether on an Interest Payment Date, at maturity, by acceleration, repurchase, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of, premium on, if any, and interest on the Securities, according to the terms hereunder or thereunder, and all other obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantors to the Holders or the Trustee under the Note Documents are secured as provided in the Note Collateral Documents which the Issuer and the Guarantors have entered into simultaneously with the execution of this Indenture and will be secured as provided by the Note Collateral Documents hereafter delivered as required by this Indenture, which define the terms of the Liens that secure the Obligations, subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements. The Trustee and the Issuer hereby acknowledge and agree that the Note Collateral Agent has a security interest in the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders, the Trustee and itself, in each case pursuant and subject to the terms of the Note Collateral Documents. The Issuer and the Guarantors shall make all filings (including filings of continuation statements and amendments to Uniform Commercial Code financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and filings with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office of notices of grant of security interest in Intellectual Property) and take all other actions, in each case as are required by the Note Collateral Documents, to create, maintain, perfect, record, continue, enforce or protect (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuer and the Guarantors) the security interests created by the Note Collateral Documents in the Collateral (subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements and the Note Collateral Documents) as a perfected security interest and within the time frames set forth therein subject to permitted Liens and the priority required by the Intercreditor Agreement and the other Note Collateral Documents.

(b) Each Holder, by its acceptance of a Security, (i) consents and agrees to the terms of each Note Collateral Document (including, without limitation, the provisions providing for possession, use, release and foreclosure of Collateral), the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement, any Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement as originally in effect and as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time in accordance with its terms or the terms of this Indenture and agrees that it will not contest or support any other person in contesting, in any proceeding (including any insolvency or liquidation proceeding), the perfection, priority, validity or enforceability of a Lien held by or on behalf of any other holder of First Lien Obligations in all or any part of the Collateral, (ii) authorizes the Note Collateral Agent to act on its behalf as "collateral agent" under this Indenture and the Note Collateral Documents, (iii) authorizes the Issuer to appoint the Note Collateral Agent to act on behalf of the Secured Parties as the Note Collateral Agent under this Indenture and the Note Collateral Documents, (iv) authorizes and directs the Note Collateral Agent to enter into the Note Collateral Documents to which it is or becomes a party, the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement, any Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights and powers thereunder in accordance therewith, (v) authorizes and empowers the Note Collateral Agent to bind the Holders and other holders of First Lien Obligations and Junior Lien Obligations as set forth in the Note Collateral Documents to which the Note Collateral Agent is a party and (vi) authorizes the Trustee to authorize the Note Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Note Collateral Agent by the terms of the Note Collateral Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, including for purposes of acquiring, holding, enforcing and foreclosing on any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any grantor thereunder to secure any of the First Lien Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such consent shall be deemed or construed to represent an amendment or waiver, in whole or in part, of any provision of this Indenture or the Securities. The foregoing will not limit the right of the Issuer or any Subsidiary to amend, waive or otherwise modify the Note Collateral Documents in accordance with their terms.

(c) Neither the Issuer nor any Guarantor will take or omit to take any action which would materially adversely affect or impair the validity or enforceability of the Liens in favor of the Note Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties with respect to the Collateral; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be deemed to prohibit any action or inaction that is otherwise permitted by this Indenture or required by law.

(d) Subject to Article 6, neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys or agents will be responsible or liable for the existence, genuineness, value or protection of any Collateral, for the legality, validity, enforceability, effectiveness or sufficiency of the Note Collateral Documents, for the creation, perfection, priority, sufficiency or protection of any Lien securing First Lien Obligations, or for any defect or deficiency as to any such matters, or for any failure to demand, collect, foreclose or realize upon or otherwise enforce any of the Liens securing First Lien Obligations or the Collateral Documents or any delay in doing so.

(e) The Holders agree that the Note Collateral Agent shall be entitled to the rights, privileges, protections, immunities, indemnities and benefits provided to the Note Collateral Agent by this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements and the Collateral Documents. Furthermore, each Holder, by accepting a Security, consents to the terms of and authorizes and directs the Trustee (in each of its capacities) and the Note Collateral Agent to enter into and perform each of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Multi-Lien Intercreditor Agreement, any Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement and the Note Collateral Documents in each of its capacities thereunder.

(f) If the Issuer (i) Incurs Other First Lien Debt Obligations at any time when no intercreditor agreement is in effect or at any time when First Lien Obligations (other than the Securities) entitled to the benefit of the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement are concurrently retired, and (ii) delivers to the Note Collateral Agent an Officers' Certificate so stating and requesting the Note Collateral Agent to enter into an intercreditor agreement (on substantially the same terms as the First Lien/First Lien Intercreditor Agreement) in favor of a designated agent or representative for the holders of the Other First Lien Debt so Incurred, the Note Collateral Agent shall (and is hereby authorized and directed to) enter into such intercreditor agreement, bind the holders on the terms set forth therein and perform and observe its obligations thereunder.

(g) If the Issuer (i) Incurs Junior Lien Obligations at any time when no applicable intercreditor agreement is in effect or at any time when Indebtedness constituting Junior Lien Obligations entitled to the benefit of a Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement is concurrently retired, and (ii) delivers to the Note Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, an Officers' Certificate so stating and requesting the Note Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, to enter into a Permitted Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement in favor of a designated agent or representative for the holders of the Indebtedness constituting Junior Lien Obligations so Incurred, the Note Collateral Agent and/or the Trustee, as applicable, shall (and each is hereby authorized and directed to) enter into such intercreditor agreement bind the holders on the terms set forth therein and perform and observe its obligations thereunder.

(h) At all times when the Trustee is not itself the Note Collateral Agent, the Issuer will, upon request, deliver to the Trustee copies of all Note Collateral Documents delivered to the Note Collateral Agent and copies of all documents delivered to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Indenture and the Note Collateral Documents.

Section 13.02. New Collateral Guarantors; After-Acquired Property.

(a) [reserved]

(b) Substantially concurrently with any Subsidiary becoming a Guarantor pursuant to Section 12.01, the Issuer shall cause all of such Subsidiary's assets (other than Excluded Property) to be subjected to a Lien securing the Note Obligations for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and thereafter shall take, or cause such Subsidiary to take, such actions as shall be necessary or reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to grant and perfect or record such Lien, in each case to the extent contemplated by the Collateral Documents, all at the Issuer's expense; provided that the Collateral in any event shall exclude Excluded Property. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Regulated Subsidiary shall guarantee the Securities or pledge Collateral to secure such Guarantee prior to the satisfaction of the Guarantee Permit Condition or Collateral Permit Condition, as applicable.

(c) Subject to the limitations set forth in the Collateral Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall, at their expense, execute, acknowledge, deliver and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents, and take all such actions as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request, to assure, preserve, protect and perfect (and to maintain the perfection of) the security interest and the priority thereof in the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders and the Collateral Agent (including the payment of any fees and Taxes required in connection with the execution and delivery of the Collateral Documents, the granting of such security interests and the filing of any financing statements or other documents in connection therewith), in each case to the extent required by the Collateral Documents.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or the Collateral Documents, and for the avoidance of doubt, neither the Issuer nor any Guarantor shall be obligated to grant a security interest in any asset that is not required to also be collateral securing any First Lien Obligations and, if so required, they shall not be required to perfect any such security interest unless and until they are required to do so in respect of such First Lien Obligations.

Section 13.05. Note Collateral Agent.

(a) The Trustee hereby appoints The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. to act on its behalf as the Note Collateral Agent under this Indenture and each of the Note Collateral Documents and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Note Collateral Agent by the terms of this Indenture and the Note Collateral Documents, and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. agrees to act as such. Holders may not, individually or collectively, take any direct action to enforce any rights in their favor under the Note Collateral Documents. The Holders may only act by instruction to the Trustee, which shall instruct the Note Collateral Agent.

(c) If at any time or times the Trustee shall receive (i) by payment, foreclosure, setoff or otherwise, any proceeds of Collateral or any payments with respect to the Obligations arising under, or relating to, this Indenture, except for any such proceeds or payments received by the Trustee from the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, or (ii) payments from the Note Collateral Agent in excess of the amount required to be paid to the Trustee pursuant to Article Five, the Trustee shall promptly turn the same over to the Note Collateral Agent, in kind, and with such endorsements as may be required to negotiate the same to the Note Collateral Agent such proceeds to be applied by the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreement.

(b) The Note Collateral Agent may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Note Collateral Agent required by Section 13.06 shall not have been delivered to the Note Collateral Agent within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Note Collateral Agent may petition, at the expense of the Issuer, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Note Collateral Agent.

Further, subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date and the consummation of the Transactions, each of the Issuer and the Guarantors (on behalf of itself and each of its subsidiaries and Affiliates) hereby covenants and agrees not to, directly or indirectly, bring, maintain, or encourage any cause of action or other claim or proceeding against an Other Released Party relating to or arising out of any Company Released Claim. respective property and (ii) the other Consenting Noteholders and their respective property, in each case to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, from any and all causes of action and any other claims, debts, obligations, duties, rights, suits, damages, actions, derivative claims, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, in law, at equity, or otherwise, sounding in tort, contract, or based on any other legal or equitable principle, including, without limitation, violation of any securities law (federal, state or foreign), misrepresentation (whether intended or negligent), breach of duty (including any duty of candor), or any domestic or foreign law similar to the foregoing, based in whole or in part upon any act or omission, transaction, or other occurrence or circumstance taking place, being omitted, existing or otherwise arising immediately prior to the Effective Date arising from, relating to, or in connection with any indebtedness of the Issuer or its subsidiaries outstanding as of the date hereof (including, without limitation, all Indebtedness of the Issuer, Lumen Technologies ("Lumen"), Qwest Corporation ("QC") or Qwest Capital Funding, Inc. or any of their respective Subsidiaries existing prior to the effective date of the Transaction Support Agreement), the Notes issued under, and as defined in, the Indenture and each of the Notes Documents, the Transactions, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of this Supplemental Indenture, the Definitive Documents (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) or the related guarantees, security documents, agreements, amendments, instruments, or other documents, including those that a Consenting Noteholder or any holder of a claim against or interest in the Consenting Noteholder or any other entity could have been legally entitled to assert derivatively or on behalf of any other entity, and including, without limitation, any claim based upon or alleging a breach, default, Event of Default, or failure to comply with any such agreement or document (collectively, the "Consenting Noteholder Released Claims" and, together with the Company Released Claims, the "Released Claims"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Consenting Noteholder Released Claims encompass and include any and all claims or causes of action relating to or challenging the Transactions themselves, including any and all claims or causes of action alleging or contending that any aspect of the Transactions violates any Existing Document (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) or other agreement, or that cooperation with, participation in, or entering into the Transactions violates any statute or other law, it being understood that the Consenting Parties are ratifying and approving all such Transactions to the maximum extent possible under applicable law. In addition, for the avoidance of doubt, the releases and discharges granted hereunder by each of the Consenting Parties are not limited to the loans, securities or other interests or positions that they hold as of the Effective Date or the Notes under the Indenture, but are granted by the Consenting Parties in all capacities and with respect to all loans, securities or other interests held or acquired at any time that relate to the Issuer, the Loan Parties or any of their respective Affiliates. Further, subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date, each Consenting Noteholder hereby covenants and agrees not to, directly or indirectly, bring, maintain, or encourage any cause of action or other claim or proceeding against any Company Released Party or any other Consenting Noteholder relating to or arising out of any Consenting Party Released Claim. Each Consenting Noteholder further stipulates and agrees with respect to all Claims, that subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date and the consummation of the Transactions, it hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any applicable U.S. federal or state law, any foreign law, or any principle of common law, that would otherwise limit a release or discharge of any unknown Claims pursuant to this Section 13(b).

(c) EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED HEREIN, EACH PARTY HEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREES THAT THE RELEASED CLAIMS SHALL INCLUDE, WITHOUT LIMITATION, SUCH RELEASED CLAIMS ARISING PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE AS A DIRECT OR INDIRECT RESULT OF THE GROSS NEGLIGENCE AND/OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF ANY COMPANY RELEASED PARTY OR OTHER RELEASED PARTY. EACH PARTY AGREES THAT THE COMPANY RELEASED PARTIES AND OTHER RELEASED PARTIES ARE EXPRESSLY INTENDED AS THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARIES OF THIS SECTION 13.

(d) Each Consenting Noteholder and each of the Issuer and the Guarantors acknowledges that it is aware that it or its attorneys may hereafter discover claims or facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to exist with respect to either the subject matter of this Supplemental Indenture and the Transactions or any party hereto, but hereto further acknowledges that it is the intention of each of the Issuer and the Guarantors and each Consenting Noteholder to hereby fully, finally, and forever settle and release all claims among them to the extent provided in this Supplemental Indenture, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which now exist, may exist, or heretofore have existed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing Sections 13(a), 13(b), 13(c) and 13(d), nothing in this Supplemental Indenture is intended to, and shall not, (i) release any party's rights and obligations under this Supplemental Indenture or any of the Definitive Documents (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement), (ii) bar any party from seeking to enforce or effectuate this Supplemental Indenture or any of the Definitive Documents (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) or (iii) release any payment obligation of the Issuer or any Guarantor (or their subsidiaries) under the Notes Documents (as defined in the Indenture).

14. Trustee. The Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Supplemental Indenture. The recitals and statements herein are deemed to be those of the Issuer, Level 3 Parent and the guarantors, and not of the Trustee. The Issuer hereby authorizes and directs the Trustee to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture. The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that the Trustee (i) shall be entitled to all of the rights, privileges, benefits, protections, indemnities, limitations of liability, and immunities of the Trustee set forth in the Indenture, which are hereby deemed incorporated by reference; and (ii) has acted consistently with its standard of care under the Indenture.

15. Authorization of the Transactions. The Consenting Noteholders hereby expressly authorize, consent to, ratify and permit the Transactions and any transactions directly relating thereto or reasonably required to effect such Transactions in all respects. Each Consenting Noteholder further stipulates and agrees with respect to all Claims, that subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date and the consummation of the Transactions, it hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any applicable U.S. federal or state law, any foreign law, or any principle of common law, that would otherwise limit a release or discharge of any unknown Claims pursuant to this Section 13(b).

(c) EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED HEREIN, EACH PARTY HEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREES THAT THE RELEASED CLAIMS SHALL INCLUDE, WITHOUT LIMITATION, SUCH RELEASED CLAIMS ARISING PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE AS A DIRECT OR INDIRECT RESULT OF THE GROSS NEGLIGENCE AND/OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF ANY COMPANY RELEASED PARTY OR OTHER RELEASED PARTY. EACH PARTY AGREES THAT THE COMPANY RELEASED PARTIES AND OTHER RELEASED PARTIES ARE EXPRESSLY INTENDED AS THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARIES OF THIS SECTION 13.

(d) Each Consenting Noteholder and each of the Issuer and the Guarantors acknowledges that it is aware that it or its attorneys may hereafter discover claims or facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to exist with respect to either the subject matter of this Supplemental Indenture and the Transactions or any party hereto, but hereto further acknowledges that it is the intention of each of the Issuer and the Guarantors and each Consenting Noteholder to hereby fully, finally, and forever settle and release all claims among them to the extent provided in this Supplemental Indenture, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which now exist, may exist, or heretofore have existed.

12. Severability. To the extent permitted by applicable law, any provision of this Supplemental Indenture held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions thereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Supplemental Indenture or any waiver, amendment or modification to this Supplemental Indenture or other Note Document (or purported waiver, amendment, or modification) including pursuant to this Supplemental Indenture, should be held invalid, illegal, unenforceable or to be unauthorized under the terms of Section 802 of the Indenture, then:

(x) (i) such provisions, waivers, amendments or modifications (or purported waivers, amendments or modifications) shall be construed or deemed modified so as to be valid, legal, enforceable and authorized under the terms of Section 802 of the Indenture, as applicable, with an economic effect as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal, unenforceable or unauthorized provisions, waivers, amendments or modifications, as applicable, and (ii) once construed or modified by clause (i), such provisions, waivers, amendments or modifications (or attempted waivers, amendments, or modifications) shall be deemed to have been operative ab initio,

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Supplemental Indenture, if a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final and unstayed order, determines that the amendments contained herein or that any aspect of the Level 3 Senior Unsecured Notes Transaction (as defined in that certain Amended and Restated Transaction Support Agreement, dated as of January 22, 2024, among the Issuer, Lumen, QC and the creditors of the Issuer and Lumen from time to time party thereto and the other entities party thereto, as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time) (the "Transaction Support Agreement") invalid for any reason, such determination shall not (directly or indirectly) constitute a default or breach of this Supplemental Indenture, the Indenture or any other Note Document.

Further, subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date and the consummation of the Transactions, each of the Issuer and the Guarantors (on behalf of itself and each of its subsidiaries and Affiliates) hereby covenants and agrees not to, directly or indirectly, bring, maintain, or encourage any cause of action or other claim or proceeding against an Other Released Party relating to or arising out of any Company Released Claim. Each of the Issuer and the Guarantors (on behalf of itself and each of its subsidiaries and Affiliates) further stipulates and agrees with respect to all Claims[2], that, subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date and the consummation of the Transactions, it hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any applicable U.S. federal or state law, any foreign law, or any principle of common law, that would otherwise limit a release or discharge of any unknown Claims pursuant to this Section 13(a).

(b) Subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date and the consummation of the Transactions, in exchange for the cooperation with, participation in, and entering into the Transactions by the Issuer and/or the Guarantors and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, each Consenting Noteholder (on behalf of itself and each of its predecessors, successors, assigns, agents, subsidiaries (except in the case of any Consenting Lumen Tech Revolving Lender or Consenting Lumen Tech Term A/A-1 Lender (each as defined in Transaction Support Agreement) that is a bona fide commercial bank, any Consenting Lumen Tech Revolving Lender Trading Desk (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) or any other affiliate of a bona fide commercial bank) and Affiliates (except in the case of any Consenting Lumen Tech Revolving Lender or Consenting Lumen Tech Term A/A-1 Lender (each as defined in Transaction Support Agreement) that is a bona fide commercial bank, any Consenting Lumen Tech Revolving Lender Trading Desk (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) or any other affiliate of a bona fide commercial bank), and representatives) finally and forever releases and discharges (i) the Company Released Parties and their respective property and (ii) the other Consenting Noteholders and their respective property, in each case to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, from any and all causes of action and any other claims, debts, obligations,

1 "Other Released Party" shall mean each of: (a) the Consenting Noteholders, the Trustee and each of their Affiliates; (b) the predecessors, successors, and assigns of each of the foregoing; and (c) the current and former officers, directors, members, managers, partners, employees, shareholders, advisors, agents, professionals, attorneys, financial advisors, and other representatives of each of the foregoing, in each case in their capacity as such.

duties, rights, suits, damages, actions, derivative claims, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, in law, at equity, or otherwise, sounding in tort, contract, or based on any other legal or equitable principle, including, without limitation, violation of any securities law (federal, state or foreign), misrepresentation (whether intended or negligent), breach of duty (including any duty of candor), or any domestic or foreign law similar to the foregoing, based in whole or in part upon any act or omission, transaction, or other occurrence or circumstance taking place, being omitted, existing or otherwise arising immediately prior to the Effective Date arising from, relating to, or in connection with any indebtedness of the Issuer or its subsidiaries outstanding as of the date hereof (including, without limitation, all Indebtedness of the Issuer, Lumen Technologies ("Lumen"), Qwest Corporation ("QC") or Qwest Capital Funding, Inc. or any of their respective Subsidiaries existing prior to the effective date of the Transaction Support Agreement), the Notes issued under, and as defined in, the Indenture and each of the Notes Documents, the Transactions, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of this Supplemental Indenture, the Definitive Documents (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) or the related guarantees, security documents, agreements, amendments, instruments, or other documents, including those that a Consenting Noteholder or any holder of a claim against or interest in the Consenting Noteholder or any other entity could have been legally entitled to assert derivatively or on behalf of any other entity, and including, without limitation, any claim based upon or alleging a breach, default, Event of Default, or failure to comply with any such agreement or document (collectively, the "Consenting Noteholder Released Claims" and, together with the Company Released Claims, the "Released Claims"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Consenting Noteholder Released Claims encompass and include any and all claims or causes of action relating to or challenging the Transactions themselves, including any and all claims or causes of action alleging or contending that any aspect of the Transactions violates any Existing Document (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) or other agreement, or that cooperation with, participation in, or entering into the Transactions violates any statute or other law, it being understood that the Consenting Parties are ratifying and approving all such Transactions to the maximum extent possible under applicable law. In addition, for the avoidance of doubt, the releases and discharges granted hereunder by each of the Consenting Parties are not limited to the loans, securities or other interests or positions that they hold as of the Effective Date or the Notes under the Indenture, but are granted by the Consenting Parties in all capacities and with respect to all loans, securities or other interests held or acquired at any time that relate to the Issuer, the Loan Parties or any of their respective Affiliates. Further, subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date, each Consenting Noteholder hereby covenants and agrees not to, directly or indirectly, bring, maintain, or encourage any cause of action or other claim or proceeding against any Company Released Party or any other Consenting Noteholder relating to or arising out of any Consenting Party Released Claim. Each Consenting Noteholder further stipulates and agrees with respect to all Claims, that subject to the occurrence of, and effective from and after, the Effective Date and the consummation of the Transactions, it hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any applicable U.S. federal or state law, any foreign law, or any principle of common law, that would otherwise limit a release or discharge of any unknown Claims pursuant to this Section 13(b).

(c) EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED HEREIN, EACH PARTY HEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREES THAT THE RELEASED CLAIMS SHALL INCLUDE, WITHOUT LIMITATION, SUCH RELEASED CLAIMS ARISING PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE AS A DIRECT OR INDIRECT RESULT OF THE GROSS NEGLIGENCE AND/OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF ANY COMPANY RELEASED PARTY OR OTHER RELEASED PARTY. EACH PARTY AGREES THAT THE COMPANY RELEASED PARTIES AND OTHER RELEASED PARTIES ARE EXPRESSLY INTENDED AS THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARIES OF THIS SECTION 13.

(d) Each Consenting Noteholder and each of the Issuer and the Guarantors acknowledges that it is aware that it or its attorneys may hereafter discover claims or facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to exist with respect to either the subject matter of this Supplemental Indenture and the Transactions or any party hereto, but hereto further acknowledges that it is the intention of each of the Issuer and the Guarantors and each Consenting Noteholder to hereby fully, finally, and forever settle and release all claims among them to the extent provided in this Supplemental Indenture, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which now exist, may exist, or heretofore have existed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing Sections 13(a), 13(b), 13(c) and 13(d), nothing in this Supplemental Indenture is intended to, and shall not, (i) release any party's rights and obligations under this Supplemental Indenture or any of the Definitive Documents (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement), (ii) bar any party from seeking to enforce or effectuate this Supplemental Indenture or any of the Definitive Documents (as defined in the Transaction Support Agreement) or (iii) release any payment obligation of the Issuer or any Guarantor (or their subsidiaries) under the Notes Documents (as defined in the Indenture).

14. Trustee. The Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Supplemental Indenture. The recitals and statements herein are deemed to be those of the Issuer, Level 3 Parent and the guarantors, and not of the Trustee. The Issuer hereby authorizes and directs the Trustee to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture. The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that the Trustee (i) shall be entitled to all of the rights, privileges, benefits, protections, indemnities, limitations of liability, and immunities of the Trustee set forth in the Indenture, which are hereby deemed incorporated by reference; and (ii) has acted consistently with its standard of care under the Indenture.

15. Authorization of the Transactions. The Consenting Noteholders hereby expressly authorize, consent to, ratify and permit the Transactions and any transactions directly relating thereto or reasonably required to effect such Transactions in all respects. The Indenture is hereby supplemented to expressly authorize, consent to, ratify, and permit the Transactions.

The Issuer covenants and represents that neither it or any of its affiliates, subsidiaries, directors or officers will use any payments made pursuant to the Transaction: (i) to fund or facilitate any activities of or business with any person who, at the time of such funding or facilitation, is the subject or target of Sanctions, (ii) to fund or facilitate any activities of or business with any country or territory that is the target or subject of Sanctions, or (iii) in any other manner that will result in a violation of Sanctions by any person.
