You can identify forward-looking statements by words such as “may,” “hope,” “will,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential,” “continue,” “could,” “future” or the negative of those terms or other words of similar meaning. You should read statements that contain these words carefully because they discuss our future expectations or state other “forward-looking” information. These forward-looking statements include statements with respect to the Company’s beliefs, expectations, estimates, and intentions that are subject to significant risks and uncertainties, and are subject to change based on various factors, some of which are beyond the Company’s control. Such statements address, among others, the following subjects: future operating results; customer retention; loan and other product demand; important components of the Company’s balance sheet and income statements; growth and expansion; new products and services, such as those offered by MetaBank™ (the “Bank”) or Meta Payment Systems® (“MPS”), a division of the Bank; credit quality and adequacy of reserves; technology; and the Company’s employees. The following factors, among others, could cause the Company’s financial performance to differ materially from the expectations, estimates, and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements: the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the local economies in which the Company conducts operations; the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary, and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Federal Reserve”), as well as efforts of the United States Treasury in conjunction with bank regulatory agencies to stimulate the economy and protect the financial system; inflation, interest rate, market, and monetary fluctuations; the timely development of and acceptance of new products and services offered by the Company as well as risks (including reputational and litigation) attendant thereto and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users; the risks of dealing with or utilizing third-party vendors; the scope of restrictions and compliance requirements imposed by the supervisory directives and/or the Consent Orders entered into by the Company and the Bank with the Office of Thrift Supervision and any other such actions which may be initiated; the impact of changes in financial services’ laws and regulations, including but not limited to our relationship with our regulators, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (“OCC”) and the Federal Reserve; technological changes, including but not limited to the protection of electronic files or databases; acquisitions; litigation risk in general, including but not limited to those risks involving the MPS division; the growth of the Company’s business as well as expenses related thereto; changes in consumer spending and saving habits; and the success of the Company at managing and collecting assets of borrowers in default.

The foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. Additional discussions of factors affecting the Company’s business and prospects are contained in the Company’s periodic filings with the SEC. The Company expressly disclaims any intent or obligation to update any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of the Company or its subsidiaries.

META FINANCIAL

Meta Financial, a registered unitary savings and loan holding company regulated by the Federal Reserve, is a Delaware corporation, the principal assets of which are all the issued and outstanding shares of the Bank, a federal savings bank regulated by the OCC. Unless the context otherwise requires, references herein to Meta Financial include Meta Financial and the Bank, and all subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

The Bank is a community-oriented financial institution offering a variety of financial services to meet the needs of the communities it serves and a payments company that provides services nationwide. The principal business of the Bank has historically consisted of attracting retail deposits from the general public and investing those funds primarily in one- to four-family residential mortgage loans, commercial and multi-family real estate, agricultural operations and real estate, construction, and consumer and commercial business loans primarily in the Bank's market areas. The Bank also purchases loan participations, mortgage-backed securities and other investments permissible under applicable regulations.

The Bank has four market areas and the Meta Payment Systems®, or MPS, division: Northwest Iowa ("NWI"), Brookings, Central Iowa ("CI"), and Sioux Empire ("SE"). The Bank's headquarters is located at 121 East Fifth Street in Storm Lake, Iowa. NWI operates two offices in Storm Lake, Iowa. Brookings operates one office in Brookings, South Dakota. CI operates a total of six offices in Iowa: Des Moines (3), West Des Moines (2) and Urbandale. SE operates three offices and one administrative office in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. MPS, which offers prepaid cards and other payment industry products and services nationwide, operates out of Sioux Falls, South Dakota and has an administrative office in Omaha, Nebraska. The Company also has a total of twelve full-service branch offices, and one non-retail service branch in Memphis, Tennessee.

In 2004, the Bank created the MPS division, which issues various prepaid cards and consumer credit products, sponsors ATMs in various debit networks and offers other payment industry products and services. MPS generates fee income and low- and no-cost deposits for the Bank through its activities.

The Company's revenues are derived primarily from interest on commercial and residential mortgage loans, mortgage-backed securities, fees generated through the activities of MPS, other investments, consumer loans, agricultural operating loans, commercial business loans, income from service charges, loan origination fees, and loan servicing fee income.

RISK FACTORS

Before you decide to invest in the Company's common stock, you should consider the risk factors discussed in the Company's filings with the SEC pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus, including those discussed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2011 and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended December 31, 2011 and March 31, 2012. See "Information Incorporated By Reference."

In addition to the risk factors incorporated by reference into this prospectus, before you decide to invest in the Company's common stock, you should also consider the following risks related to the Company's common stock.

The common stock is equity and is subordinate to the Company's existing and future indebtedness and any future issuances of preferred stock and effectively subordinated to all the indebtedness and other non-common equity claims against the Company's subsidiaries.

Shares of the Company's common stock are equity interests in Meta Financial and do not constitute indebtedness. As such, shares of the common stock will rank junior to all of the Company's indebtedness and to other non-equity claims against the Company and its assets available to satisfy claims against the Company, including in the Company's liquidation. The Company's board of directors is authorized to issue additional classes or series of preferred stock without any action on the part of the holders of the Company's common stock, and the Company is permitted to incur additional debt. Upon liquidation, lenders and holders of the Company's debt securities and preferred stock would receive distributions of the Company's available assets prior to holders of the Company's common stock. Furthermore, the Company's right to participate in a distribution of assets upon any of the Company's subsidiaries' liquidation or reorganization is subject to the prior claims of that subsidiary's creditors, including holders of any preferred stock.

The Company's certificate of incorporation, as amended, the Company's amended and restated bylaws and certain banking laws may have an anti-takeover effect.

Provisions of the Company's certificate of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws and federal banking laws, including regulatory approval requirements, could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire the Company, even if doing so would be perceived to be beneficial to the Company's stockholders. The combination of these provisions may prohibit a non-negotiated merger or other business combination, which, in turn, could adversely affect the market price of the Company's common stock.

An investment in the Company's common stock is not an insured deposit.

The Company's common stock is not a bank deposit and, therefore, is not insured against loss by the FDIC, any other deposit insurance fund, or by any other public or private entity. An investment in the Company's common stock is inherently risky for the reasons described in this "Risk Factors" section and elsewhere in this prospectus and is subject to the same market forces that affect the price of common stock in any company. As a result, if you acquire the Company's common stock, you may lose some or all of your investment.

Federal law generally provides that no person or entity, acting directly or indirectly or through or in concert with one or more other persons or entities, may acquire "control" of a savings and loan holding company, such as the Company, without the prior approval of the Federal Reserve.

In addition to the Limit (defined herein under "Description of Common Stock - Certain Restrictions on Acquisitions of Stock and Related Takeover Defensive Provisions" ) which imposes a limitation on a record owner's ability to vote shares in excess of 10% of the then-outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, applicable laws and Federal Reserve regulations affect the ability for an investor to make investments in savings and loan holding companies or federal savings banks (collectively, "savings institutions"). The regulations generally require prior Federal Reserve approval for an acquisition of control of an insured institution (as defined in the Change in Bank Control Act (the "CBCA")) or holding company thereof by any person (or persons acting in concert). Control is deemed to exist if, among other things, a person (or persons acting in concert) acquires more than 25% of any class of voting stock of an insured institution or holding company thereof. Under the CBCA, control is presumed to exist subject to rebuttal if a person (or persons acting in concert) acquires more than 10% of any class of voting stock and either (1) the corporation has registered securities under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, or (2) no person will own, control or hold the power to vote a greater percentage of that class of voting securities immediately after the transaction. The concept of acting in concert is very broad and also is subject to certain rebuttable presumptions, including among others, that relatives, business partners, management officials, affiliates and others may be presumed to be acting in concert with each other and their businesses.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock offered for sale in this prospectus by the selling stockholders. The selling stockholders will receive all of the net proceeds from these sales.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

On May 9, 2012, the Company entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with ACP MFG Holdings, LLC (“ACP”), which is an entity affiliated with Altamont Capital Partners, a Securities Purchase Agreement with Boathouse Row I, LP, Boathouse Row II, LP and Boathouse Row Offshore, Ltd. (collectively “Boathouse”), which are entities affiliated with Philadelphia Financial Management of San Francisco, LLC, and a Securities Purchase Agreement with Long Meadow Holdings, L.P. (“LMH”), in connection with separate private placements of common stock (collectively, the “Purchase Agreements”). All of the shares of common stock offered by the selling stockholders in this prospectus were originally issued by the Company to the selling stockholders under the Purchase Agreements. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreements, the selling stockholders have agreed that so long as they hold shares of the common stock offered herein, they will not, and will not permit any of their affiliates to, knowingly enter into any transaction that would result in either of the selling stockholders or their affiliates to be determined by the Federal Reserve to (1) have the power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of the Company or any subsidiary, (2) be in “control” (as such term is used in 12 CFR Part 238) of the Company or any subsidiary, or otherwise be required to register as a savings and loan holding company, as such term is defined in 12 C.F.R. § 238.2(m), (3) be an “affiliate” (as defined under 12 C.F.R. § 238.2(a)) of any subsidiary, such that any transactions between either of the selling stockholders and such subsidiary would be subject to compliance with §§ 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act or Regulation W, 12 C.F.R. Part 223, or (4) be an “insider” (as defined in 12 C.F.R. § 215.2) of the Company or any subsidiary such that any transactions between either of the selling stockholders and their affiliates, on the one hand, and the Company and such subsidiary, on the other, would be subject to compliance with Regulation O of 12 C.F.R. § 215. Under the Purchase Agreements, if the Company offers a redemption or repurchase of common stock to any holder of common stock on a non-pro-rata basis that would cause ACP’s, Boathouse’s or LMH’s ownership of common stock to exceed 9.999% of the total outstanding shares of common stock of the Company, then on or prior to the date of such redemption or repurchase, the Company will purchase that portion of the shares of common stock of the Company held by ACP, Boathouse or LMH in excess of 9.999% of the total outstanding shares of the common stock of the Company.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreements, each of ACP, Boathouse and LMH has agreed that during the two-year period commencing on May 9, 2012, it will not, and will not permit any of its affiliates to, (1) acquire (or beneficially own) any securities in the Company, its subsidiaries or controlled affiliates if ACP, Boathouse or LMH, as applicable, would then beneficially own more than 9.99% of the Company’s common stock then outstanding, (2) engage in a tender offer or other business combination with the Company, its subsidiaries or controlled affiliates or any division or line of business thereof, (3) engage in any extraordinary transaction with respect to the Company, its subsidiaries or controlled affiliates or any division thereof, (4) engage in any “solicitation” of “proxies” (as such terms are used in the proxy rules of the SEC) or consents to vote any voting securities of the Company, (5) form or join a “group” (within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) with respect to the securities of the Company, its subsidiaries or controlled affiliates, (6) act alone or in concert to seek to control the management, the board of directors or the policies of the Company, its subsidiaries or controlled affiliates, except, with respect to ACP, as set forth in the Investor Rights Agreement (as defined in the Securities Purchase Agreement entered into between the Company and ACP (the “ACP Purchase Agreement”)), (7) take any action that would reasonably be expected to force the Company to make a public announcement regarding the matters set forth in subsections (1) through (4) above, and (8) enter into any discussions or arrangements with any third party with respect to any of the foregoing.

Under the terms of the registration rights agreements entered into pursuant to the Purchase Agreements, the Company agreed to register for resale by the selling stockholders the shares of common stock that the Company issued pursuant to the Purchase Agreements. The Investor Rights Agreement (1) provides ACP with the right to periodically meet with certain members of the Company’s management to discuss the operations, business and affairs of the Company and its subsidiaries and to receive certain monthly financial statements, in each case so long as ACP or its affiliates continue to collectively hold at least 75% of the shares of the Company’s common stock purchased by ACP pursuant to the ACP Purchase Agreement and (2) contains provisions relating to the Company providing ACP with customary assistance as ACP may reasonably request under certain circumstances in connection with a potential sale to a purchaser of at least 50% of the shares of the Company’s common stock purchased by ACP pursuant to such ACP Purchase Agreement.

The table below sets forth information with respect to the selling stockholders and the shares of the Company's common stock beneficially owned by the selling stockholder as of June 14, 2012 that may from time to time be offered or sold pursuant to this prospectus. The percentage of shares owned before the offering are based on the 3,846,617 shares of our common stock outstanding as of June 13, 2012. The information regarding shares beneficially owned after the offering assumes the sale of all shares offered by the selling stockholders and that the selling stockholders do not acquire any additional shares. Information in the table below with respect to beneficial ownership has been furnished by each of the selling stockholders.

Information concerning the selling stockholders may change from time to time and any changed information will be set forth in supplements to this prospectus, if and when necessary. The selling stockholders may offer all, some or none of their shares of common stock. We cannot advise you as to whether the selling stockholders will in fact sell any or all of such shares of common stock. In addition, the selling stockholders listed in the table below may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, or may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, at any time and from time to time, shares of our common stock in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act after the date on which they provided the information set forth on the table below.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholders may offer and sell their shares of the Company's common stock from time to time in one or more of the following manners:

- on the NASDAQ Stock Market or any exchange or market on which shares of the Company's common stock are listed or quoted;
- in the over-the-counter market;
- in privately negotiated transactions;
- for settlement of short sales, or through long sales, options or hedging transactions involving cross or block trades;
- by pledge to secure debts and other obligations;
- in block transactions (which may involve crosses) in which a broker-dealer may sell all or a portion of the shares as agent but may position and resell all or a portion of the block as a principal to facilitate the transaction;
- in purchases by one or more underwriters on a firm commitment or best efforts basis;

- in purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its own account pursuant to a prospectus supplement;
- in a special offering, an exchange distribution or a secondary distribution in accordance with the applicable rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market or of any stock market on which shares of the Company's common stock may be listed;
- through a combination of any of these transactions; or
- in any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholders may use broker-dealers to sell their shares of the Company's common stock. In connection with such sales the broker-dealers may either receive discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholders, or they may receive commissions from purchasers of shares of the Company's common stock for whom they acted as agents. In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, the selling stockholders may sell their shares of the Company's common stock only through registered or licensed broker-dealers.

The selling stockholders and any agents or broker-dealers that the selling stockholders use to sell their shares of the Company's common stock may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, and any discount, concession or commission received by them or any profit on the resale of shares as principal may be deemed to be an underwriting discount or commission under the Securities Act. Because the selling stockholders may be deemed to be underwriters, the selling stockholders may be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

The selling stockholders and any other person participating in the distribution of their shares of the Company's common stock described in this prospectus and/or any applicable prospectus supplement will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including, without limitation, the anti-manipulation provisions of Regulation M of the Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of such shares by the selling stockholders or any other person. Furthermore, Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares offered by the selling stockholder pursuant to this prospectus and/or any applicable prospectus supplement to engage in market-making activities with respect to the particular shares being distributed. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the shares offered by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus and/or any applicable prospectus supplement and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to such shares.

Under the registration rights agreements entered into with each of the selling stockholders, we are required to pay certain fees and expenses incurred by us incident to the registration of the shares. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify the selling stockholders, to the extent permitted by law, against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and expense caused by (1) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in this prospectus, including any related preliminary prospectus or final prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto, (2) the omission or alleged omission to state herein a material fact required to be stated herein, or necessary to make the statements herein not misleading, or (3) any violation or alleged violation by the Company of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, state securities laws or any rule or regulation promulgated under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or any other federal or state securities law in connection with the registration of the common stock; provided, that the indemnity shall not apply to any selling stockholder with respect to amounts paid in settlement of any such loss, claim, damage, liability or expense if such settlement is effected without the consent of the Company (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), nor shall the Company be liable in any such case for any such loss, claim, damage, liability or expense to the extent that it arises out of or is based upon a violation which occurs (1) solely in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished expressly for use in connection with this prospectus by any such selling stockholder, (2) as a result of any failure of such selling stockholder to deliver or cause to be delivered a prospectus made available by the Company in a timely manner, or (3) as a result of a violation by such selling stockholder of such selling stockholder's obligations to suspend sales of the common stock upon receipt of written notice from the Company that this prospectus contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated herein or necessary to make the statements herein not misleading (a "Misstatement"), until such selling stockholder has received copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus that corrects such Misstatement, or until such selling stockholder is advised in writing by the Company that the use of this prospectus may be resumed.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

The 6,000,000 shares of capital stock authorized by the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, are divided into two classes, consisting of 5,200,000 shares of common stock (par value $.01 per share) authorized, of which 3,846,617 shares were outstanding as of June 13, 2012, and 800,000 shares of serial preferred stock (par value $.01 per share), of which none have been issued.

Each share of the Company's common stock has the same relative rights and is identical in all respects with each other share of the Company's common stock. The Company's common stock represents non-withdrawable capital, is not of an insurable type and is not insured by the FDIC.

Under Delaware law, the holders of the Company's common stock possess exclusive voting power in the Company. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters voted upon by stockholders, subject to the restrictions on acquisitions of stock and related takeover defensive provisions set forth in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, and the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (see below for a summary). If the Company issues preferred stock, holders of the preferred stock may also possess voting rights.

The following summary is not complete. You should refer to the applicable provision of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, and Amended and Restated Bylaws and to the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL") for a complete statement of the terms and rights of the Company's common stock.

Liquidation or Dissolution . In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of the Company, the holders of the Company's common stock are entitled to receive — after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of the Company (including all deposits in the Bank and accrued interest thereon) and after the distribution to certain eligible account holders who continue their deposit accounts at the Bank — all assets of the Company available for distribution, in cash or in kind. If the Company issues preferred stock, the holders thereof may have a priority interest over the holders of the Company's common stock in the event of liquidation or dissolution.

No Preemptive Rights . Holders of the Company's common stock are not entitled to preemptive rights with respect to any shares of the Company's common stock which may be issued. The Company's common stock is not subject to call for redemption and each outstanding share of the Company's common stock is fully paid and nonassessable.

Unissued Stock . The authorized but unissued and unreserved shares of the Company's common stock are available for general corporate purposes including, but not limited to, possible issuance as stock dividends or stock splits, in future mergers or acquisitions, under a cash dividend reinvestment and stock purchase plan, in a future underwritten or other public offering or under an employee stock ownership plan. Except as described above, or as otherwise required to approve the transaction in which the additional authorized shares of the Company's common stock would be issued, no stockholder approval will be required for the issuance of these shares of the Company's common stock. The board of directors of the Company, without stockholder approval, can issue preferred stock with voting and conversion rights which could adversely affect the voting power of the holders of Company's common stock.

Transfer Agent. The Company's transfer agent for the common stock is Registrar and Transfer Company.

Certain Restrictions on Acquisitions of Stock and Related Takeover Defensive Provisions . The following discussion is a general summary of certain material provisions in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, and Amended and Restated Bylaws, which may be deemed to have an "anti-takeover" effect and could potentially discourage or even prevent a bid for the Company, which might otherwise result in stockholders receiving a premium for their stock.

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides that the board of directors of the Company will be divided into three classes, with directors in each class elected for three-year staggered terms. Thus, it would take two annual elections to replace a majority of the board of directors. The size of the Company's board of directors may be increased or decreased only by a majority vote of the board of directors and any vacancy occurring in the board of directors, including a vacancy created by an increase in the number of directors, shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by a majority vote of the directors then in office. The stockholders of the Company do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors and a director may only be removed for cause by the affirmative vote of 75% of the shares of stock eligible to vote. The Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, further provides that to be eligible to serve as a director, persons must meet certain eligibility criteria. The Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws impose certain notice and information requirements in connection with the nomination by stockholders of candidates for election to the board of directors or the proposal by stockholders of business to be acted upon at an annual meeting of stockholders.

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, further provides that a special meeting of the Company's stockholders may be called only pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the board of directors.

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, also authorizes the Company's board of directors to issue preferred stock from time to time in one or more series subject to applicable provisions of law. In the event of a proposed merger, tender offer or other attempt to gain control of the Company that the board of directors does not approve, it might be possible for the Company's board of directors to authorize the issuance of a series of the Company's preferred stock with rights and preferences that would impede the completion of such a transaction.

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, further provides that in no event shall any record owner of any outstanding common stock which is beneficially owned (pursuant to Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, by a person who beneficially owns in excess of 10% of the then-outstanding shares of the Company's common stock (the "Limit") be entitled or permitted to any vote in respect of the shares of the Company's common stock held in excess of the Limit.

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, also requires that certain business combinations, as defined therein, between the Company (or any majority-owned subsidiary thereof) and a 10% or more stockholder either (1) be approved by at least 75% of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company's voting stock, voting as a single class, (2) be approved by a majority of the disinterested directors of the board of directors or (3) involve consideration per share of stock generally equal to that paid by such 10% stockholder when it acquired its block of stock.

Finally, amendments to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Company's board of directors and also by a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's voting stock; provided, however, that approval by at least 75% of the outstanding voting stock is generally required for certain provisions (i.e., provisions relating to number, classification, election and removal of directors; amendment of bylaws; call of special stockholder meetings; offers to acquire and acquisitions of control; director liability; certain business combinations; power of indemnification; and amendments to provisions relating to the foregoing in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended). The Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws may be amended by a majority of the board of directors or the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the total votes eligible to be voted at a duly constituted meeting of stockholders.
