Item 2.04. Triggering Events That Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

In recent weeks, due to the turmoil in the financial markets resulting from the global pandemic of the COVID-19 virus, MFA Financial, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”) have received an unusually high number of margin calls from financing counterparties, and have also experienced higher funding costs in respect of its repurchase agreements. At the close of business on March 23, 2020, the Company did not meet its margin calls. Further, on March 23, 2020, the Company notified its financing counterparties that it does not expect to be in a position to fund the anticipated volume of future margin calls under its financing arrangements in the near term as a result of market disruptions created by the COVID-19 pandemic. The Company estimates that, as of March 20, 2020, the Company’s aggregate obligations under its various financing arrangements was approximately $9.5 billion.

In light of the events and conditions described above, the Company is engaged in discussions with its financing counterparties with regard to entering into forbearance agreements pursuant to which each counterparty would agree to forbear from exercising its rights and remedies with respect to an event of default under the applicable financing arrangement for an agreed-upon period. The Company cannot predict whether its financing counterparties will enter into a forbearance agreement, the timing of any such agreement, or the terms thereof.

Under the terms of the Company’s financing arrangements, if the Company fails to deliver additional collateral or otherwise meet margin calls when due, the counterparties may demand immediate payment by the Company of its aggregate outstanding financing obligations and/or take ownership of the securities securing the Company’s financing obligations.

The Company has engaged Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP and Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP as legal counsel and FTI LLC as financial advisor in connection with its financings and related matters.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On March 24, 2020, the Company issued a press release announcing the status of its financing agreements, which is discussed in Item 2.04 above and incorporated herein by reference.

On March 25, 2020 the Company issued a press release announcing that it is revoking its previously announced first quarter 2020 quarterly cash dividends on each of the Company’s common stock and 7.50% Series B Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock (the “Series B Preferred Stock”).

The quarterly cash dividend of $0.20 per share on the Company’s common stock had been declared on March 11, 2020, and was to be paid on April 30, 2020, to all stockholders of record as of the close of business March 31, 2020. The Series B Preferred Stock dividend of $0.46875 per share had been declared on February 14, 2020, and was to be paid on March 31, 2020, to stockholders of record as of the close of business March 2, 2020.

Unpaid dividends on the Company’s Series B Preferred Stock shall accrue without interest. No dividends may be paid or set apart on shares of the Company’s common stock unless full cumulative dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock for all past dividend periods that have ended have been or contemporaneously are paid in cash, or a sum sufficient for such payment is set apart for payment.

The Company will continue to monitor market conditions and the potential impact the ongoing volatility and uncertainty may have on its business. Related thereto, the Company’s Board of Directors will continue to evaluate the payment of dividends as market conditions evolve. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
