FOURTH AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS OF

NELNET, INC.

ARTICLE I

SHAREHOLDERS

SECTION 1. ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held in May of each year on a date and time fixed by the Board of Directors, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. Annual meetings shall be held in the principal office of the corporation or at such other place, either within or without the State of Nebraska, as shall be determined by the Board of Directors. The time of such annual meeting shall be determined by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice.

SECTION 2. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called only by the Board of Directors by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors then in office, except as may otherwise be required by applicable law. Special meetings shall be held at such place, either within or without the State of Nebraska, and at such date and time as shall be stated in the notice.

SECTION 3. NOTICE OF MEETING. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the Chairman, the President, the Secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mails addressed to the shareholder at the address appearing on the stock transfer books of the corporation, postage prepaid.

SECTION 4. CLOSING OF TRANSFER BOOKS OR FIXING OF RECORD DATE. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the Board of Directors of the corporation may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, sixty (60) days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least ten (10) days immediately preceding such meeting.

In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than sixty (60) days and, in the case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders, is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Board of Directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders. When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

SECTION 5. VOTING LISTS. The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall make, at least ten (10) days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete record of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each. For a period of ten (10) days prior to such meeting, the list shall be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Such record, or a duplicate thereof, shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such record or transfer books or to vote at any meeting of shareholders.

SECTION 6. QUORUM. A majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders. The holders (or their representatives) of a majority of the shares present at a meeting, even though less than a majority of the shares outstanding, may adjourn the meeting from time to time without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until such time as a quorum is present. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law.

SECTION 7. PROXIES. At all meetings of the shareholders, a shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by a shareholder or his or her duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

SECTION 8. VOTING OF SHARES. Subject to the provisions of Sections 9 and 10 of this Article I, each shareholder entitled to vote shall be entitled to the voting rights (as set forth in the articles of incorporation) for each share of stock held by him or her upon each matter submitted to vote at a meeting of shareholders.

SECTION 9. VOTING OF SHARES BY CERTAIN HOLDERS. Neither treasury shares nor shares held by another corporation, if a majority of the shares entitled to vote for the election of directors of such other corporation is held by this corporation, shall be voted at any meeting or counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

Shares standing in the name of another corporation may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provision, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by him or her, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his or her name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by the trustee either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares without a transfer of such shares into the trustee's name.

Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his or her name if authority to do so be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

SECTION 10. INFORMAL ACTION BY SHAREHOLDERS. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of shareholders and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the Secretary of State under applicable state law.

ARTICLE II

DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. NUMBER AND QUALIFICATION. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of a number determined by the Board of Directors from time to time, but in any event, no less than three (3) directors. The directors need not be residents of the State of Nebraska, nor shareholders of the corporation. Although the number and qualifications of the directors may be changed from time to time by amendment to these Bylaws, no change shall affect the incumbent directors during the terms for which they were elected.

SECTION 2. ELECTION AND TENURE. At the first meeting of the shareholders and at each annual meeting thereafter, the shareholders shall elect directors who shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting and until their successors have been elected and qualified unless their service is earlier terminated because of death, resignation or removal. Upon acceptance of the subscriptions to shares by the incorporator (s), the corporation shall be deemed to have shareholders for the purposes of the first meeting of shareholders of the corporation.

SECTION 3. VACANCIES. Any directorship to be filled for any reason, and any newly created directorship resulting by reason of an increase in the number of directors, shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining director(s), though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office.

SECTION 4. REMOVAL. At a meeting of the shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Any director, or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all the shares of capital stock of the corporation then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

SECTION 5. QUORUM. A majority of the number of directors fixed by the Bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If less than a quorum is present at any meeting, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

SECTION 6. ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without notice other than this Bylaw immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of shareholders and shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of shareholders unless some other place is agreed upon by vote of a majority of the then elected Board of Directors.

SECTION 7. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, the President or a majority of the Board of Directors, and shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place, either within or without the State of Nebraska, and at such date and time, as the notice may state.

SECTION 8. NOTICE. Notice of special meetings shall be delivered, mailed, emailed or sent by telecopy to each director at his or her last known address at least two (2) days prior to the date of holding said meetings. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

SECTION 9. ACTION WITHOUT A MEETING. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or of any committee, may be taken without a meeting, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the directors, or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote. The consent may be executed by the directors in counterparts.

SECTION 10. VOTING. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, each director shall have one vote irrespective of the number of shares he or she may hold.

SECTION 11. PRESUMPTION OF ASSENT. A director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his or her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he or she shall file written dissent to such action with the person acting as the Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

SECTION 12. COMPENSATION. By resolution of the Board of Directors, the directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, and may be paid a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or a stated salary as director. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

SECTION 13. COMMITTEES. The Board of Directors may, by resolution or resolutions passed by a majority of the whole Board, appoint an executive committee and one or more other committees, each committee to consist of two or more directors of the corporation, which committees shall, to the extent permitted by law, have and may exercise such powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as shall be delegated to them.

If an executive committee is appointed, it shall, during the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors, have and exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, subject only to such restrictions or limitations as the Board of Directors may from time to time specify, or as limited by law.

SECTION 14. TELEPHONIC MEETINGS. Members of the Board of Directors or any committee appointed by the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting of such Board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

SECTION 15. SHAREHOLDER NOMINATIONS FOR DIRECTORS. Shareholders may nominate one or more persons for election as directors at a meeting of shareholders or propose business to be brought before a meeting of shareholders, or both, only if such shareholder has given timely notice in proper written form of such shareholder's intent to make such nomination or nominations or to propose such business. To be timely, a shareholder's notice must be received by the Secretary of the corporation not later than ninety (90) days prior to such meeting. To be in proper written form a shareholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth (i) the name and address of the shareholder who intends to make the nominations or propose the business and, as the case may be, of the person or persons to be nominated or of the business to be proposed; (ii) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the corporation that intends to vote such stock at such meeting and, if applicable, intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (iii) if applicable, a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each nominee or any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholder; (iv) such other information regarding each nominee or each matter of business to be proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to Regulation 14A promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the securities Exchange Act of 1934 had the nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, or the matter been proposed, or intended to be proposed, by the Board of Directors of the corporation; and (v) the written consent of each nominee to serve as director of the corporation if so elected. The chairman of a meeting of shareholders may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person or the proposal of any business not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure. A nomination of a person for election as a director need not be placed in the corporation's proxy statement or notice of meeting if it differs from the slate of nominees proposed by the Nominations and Governance Committee of the corporation. A notice, from any shareholder other than a person who holds Class B Common Stock of the corporation, regarding any business, including nomination of directors, to be brought before an annual shareholders meeting must contain (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reason for conducting such business at the annual meeting; (b) the name and address of the shareholder proposing such business; (c) the class and number of shares of the corporation's stock beneficially owned by such shareholder; and (d) any material interest of the shareholder in such business.

ARTICLE III

The officers of the corporation shall be determined by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion, and may, but need not, include a Chief Executive Officer, a Chief Financial Officer, a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer and one or more Assistant Secretaries or Treasurers. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, appoint one or more persons to serve in the capacity of co-officers. SECTION 3. REMOVAL. Any officer or agent of the corporation, elected or appointed by the Board of Directors, may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

SECTION 6. SALARIES. The salaries of the officers shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors, and no officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that the officer is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE IV

Upon surrender of any certificate for the transfer of stock, such certificate shall be marked "Cancelled" and filed with the stock transfer books of the corporation. Within a reasonable time after the transfer of any uncertificated shares, the corporation shall send the holder thereof a written statement containing the information required under Section 21-2045 of the Nebraska Business Corporation Act.

SECTION 4. LOSS, THEFT, MUTILATION OR DESTRUCTION OF STOCK CERTIFICATES. Any person claiming a stock certificate or uncertificated shares in lieu of a stock certificate lost, stolen, mutilated or destroyed shall provide satisfactory proof to the Board of Directors of such loss, theft, mutilation or destruction, and give satisfactory security by bond or otherwise sufficient to indemnify the corporation against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss or theft of the certificate or the issuance of a new certificate. Upon production of any required evidence and indemnification, the corporation may issue a new certificate or certificates of stock or provide for uncertificated shares in place of any certificate or certificates previously issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, mutilated or destroyed.
