CUSTOMERS BANCORP CONCLUDES REPORTED FRAUD WAS AN ISOLATED EVENT

Wyomissing, PA – July 28, 2015- Customers Bancorp, Inc. (NYSE: CUBI), the parent company of Customers Bank (collectively “Customers” or the “Company”), today announced that its internal investigation has concluded that the previously reported fraudulent transaction that resulted in Customers taking a special $6 million specific reserve in the second quarter of 2015 (“Q2 2015”) was an isolated event.

“Our Risk Management, Loss Prevention, Credit and Finance teams have been working continuously since Wednesday, July 22, when the potential fraud was detected by the Company. We reviewed every loan originated by the Pennsylvania based team, and a sample of loans from all of our markets, our policies, governance and internal control processes, and our credit approval and portfolio management process, and have concluded this was an isolated event,” stated Jay Sidhu, Customers Chairman and CEO. “This type of thorough review was productive as it also identified two process and policy improvements that Customers Bank has already implemented that will minimize the chances of a similar fraud ever being committed in the future. We also looked at our collateral for this credit and believe the $6 million specific reserve is adequate and was a prudent move by Customers,” Sidhu continued.

“We will continue to further investigate this event, hold the perpetrators accountable, and pursue all avenues to collect the potential charge off. The Federal authorities have also started their investigation as has the other large bank that issued the potential fraudulent Letter of Credit. We remain optimistic that there could be a significant, if not complete, recovery here sometime in the future,” stated Richard Ehst, Customers President and COO.

Excluding this one-time reserve for the fraud loss, Customers exceeded expectations for Q2 2015 and year-to-date 2015 earnings. Customers also announced on July 23 that it expects to report in excess of $1.00 per share earnings for the second half of 2015 and achieve about 20% growth in earnings per share for 2016 compared to 2015. “Based upon this guidance by management, CUBI common stock is only trading at about 10 times 2016 earnings expectations,” stated Robert Wahlman, Customers CFO.
