This presentation, as well as other written or oral communications made from time to time by us, contains forward-looking information within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements relate to future events or future predictions, including events or predictions relating to future financial performance, and are generally identifiable by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “believe,” “expect,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “plan,” “intend,” or “anticipate” or the negative thereof or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements in this presentation include, among other matters, guidance for our financial performance, and our financial performance targets. Forward-looking statements reflect numerous assumptions, estimates and forecasts as to future events. No assurance can be given that the assumptions, estimates and forecasts underlying such forward-looking statements will accurately reflect future conditions, or that any guidance, goals, targets or projected results will be realized. The assumptions, estimates and forecasts underlying such forward-looking statements involve judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive, regulatory and financial market conditions and future business decisions, which may not be realized and which are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and regulatory uncertainties and known and unknown risks, including the risks described under “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018 and subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K, including any amendments thereto, as such factors may be updated from time to time in our filings with the SEC. Our actual results may differ materially from those reflected in the forward-looking statements.

In addition to the risks described under “Risk Factors” in our filings with the SEC, important factors to consider and evaluate with respect to our forward-looking statements include:

- changes in external competitive market factors that might impact our results of operations;
- changes in laws and regulations, including without limitation, changes in capital requirements under Basel III;
- the potential effects of heightened regulatory requirements applicable to banks with assets in excess of $10 billion;
- changes in our business strategy or an inability to execute our strategy due to the occurrence of unanticipated events;
- our ability to identify potential candidates for, and consummate, acquisition or investment transactions;
- the timing of acquisition, investment or disposition transactions;
- constraints on our ability to consummate an attractive acquisition or investment transaction because of significant competition for these opportunities;
- local, regional and national economic conditions and events and the impact they may have on us and our customers;
- costs and effects of regulatory and legal developments, including the results of regulatory examinations and the outcome of regulatory or other governmental inquiries and proceedings, such as fines or restrictions on our business activities;
- our ability to attract deposits and other sources of liquidity;
- changes in the financial performance and/or condition of our borrowers;
- changes in the level of non-performing and classified assets and charge-offs;
- changes in estimates of future loan loss reserve requirements based upon the periodic review thereof under relevant regulatory and accounting requirements, including the adoption of the Current Expected Credit Losses standard;
- inflation, interest rate, securities market and monetary fluctuations, including the discontinuance of LIBOR;
- timely development and acceptance of new banking products and services and perceived overall value of these products and services by users, including the products and services being developed and introduced to the market by the BankMobile division of Customers Bank;
- changes in consumer spending, borrowing and saving habits;
- technological changes;
- our ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- continued volatility in the credit and equity markets and its effect on the general economy;
- effects of changes in accounting policies and practices, as may be adopted by the regulatory agencies, the Financial Accounting Standards Board and other accounting standard setters;
- the businesses of Customers Bank and any acquisition targets or merger partners and subsidiaries not integrating successfully or such integration being more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected;

- material differences in the actual financial results of merger and acquisition activities compared with our expectations, such as with respect to the full realization of anticipated cost savings and revenue enhancements within the expected time frame;
- our ability to successfully implement our growth strategy, control expenses and maintain liquidity;
- Customers Bank's ability to pay dividends to Customers Bancorp;
- risks relating to BankMobile, including:
  - the implementation of Customers Bancorp, Inc.'s strategy to retain BankMobile for 2-3 years, the possibility that the expected benefits of retaining BankMobile for 2-3 years may not be achieved, or the possible effects on Customers' results of operations if BankMobile is never divested causing Customers Bancorp's actual results to differ from those in the forward-looking statements;
  - our ability to successfully complete a divestiture of BankMobile and the timing of completion;
  - the ability of Customers and an acquirer of BankMobile to meet all of the conditions to completion of the proposed divestiture;
  - our ability to execute on our White Label strategy to grow demand deposits through strategic partnerships;
  - material variances in the adoption rate of BankMobile's services by new students
  - the usage rate of BankMobile's services by current student customers compared to our expectations;
- the levels of usage of other BankMobile student customers following graduation of additional product and service offerings of BankMobile or Customers Bank, including mortgages and consumer loans, and the mix of products and services used;
- our ability to implement changes to BankMobile's product and service offerings under current and future regulations and governmental policies;
- our ability to effectively manage revenue and expense fluctuations that may occur with respect to BankMobile's student-oriented business activities, which result from seasonal factors related to the higher-education academic year; and
- BankMobile's ability to successfully implement its growth strategy and control expenses.
- risks related to planned changes in our balance sheet, including:
  - our ability to reduce the size of our multi-family loan portfolio;
  - our ability to execute our digital distribution strategy;
  - our ability to manage the risk of change in our loan mix to include a greater proportion of consumer loans; and
- our ability to earn increased net interest income to recover reduced interchange income due to the loss of the small issuer exemption to the Durbin Amendment.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements we make, which speak only as of the date they are made. We do not undertake any obligation to release publicly or otherwise provide any revisions to any forward-looking statements we may make, including any forward-looking financial information, to reflect events or circumstances occurring after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, except as may be required under applicable law.

This presentation shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

- Consolidated efficiency ratio for FY 2019 was 65.15%, down from 65.35% for FY 2018.

Growth in core deposits and good quality higher-yielding loans

- DDA grew 34% year-over-year
- Lower yielding multi-family loans decreased by $893 million, or 27% year-over-year and were replaced by higher yielding C&I loans and leases and other consumer loans, which had net year-over-year growth of $487 million and $1.1 billion, respectively.

Maintain strong credit quality and superior risk management

- NPL were only 0.21% of total loans and leases at December 31, 2019
- Reserves to NPL at December 31, 2019 were 265%.
- Bank is relatively neutral to interest rate changes at December 31, 2019.
- We remain very focused on a strong Risk Management culture.

Evaluate opportunities to redeem preferred stock

- Consider redeeming all preferred stock as it becomes callable (currently, dividends paid to our preferred shareholders reduce diluted earnings per share by approximately $0.46 annually).
- Will continue to analyze the best ways to execute this strategy over the next two years subject to liquidity and capital needs.

Customers believes that the non-GAAP measurements disclosed within this document are useful for investors, regulators, management and others to evaluate our core results of operations and financial condition relative to other financial institutions. These non-GAAP financial measures are frequently used by securities analysts, investors, and other interested parties in the evaluation of companies in Customers' industry. These non-GAAP financial measures exclude from corresponding GAAP measures the impact of certain elements that we do not believe are representative of our ongoing financial results, which we believe enhance an overall understanding of our performance and increases comparability of our period to period results. Investors should consider our performance and financial condition as reported under GAAP and all other relevant information when assessing our performance or financial condition. Although non-GAAP financial measures are frequently used in the evaluation of a company, they have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our results of operations or financial condition as reported under GAAP.

The following tables present reconciliations of GAAP to non-GAAP measures disclosed within this document.
