(iv) Tier 5 Key Employees. The Severance Obligations to a Tier 5 Key Employee shall be as follows:

(1) payment of an amount equal to $A \times B$, where “A” equals the sum of such Key Employee’s Base Salary as in effect on the applicable Date of Termination and 50% of such Key Employee’s Annual Bonus and “B” equals a fraction (which cannot exceed one (1)), the numerator of which is three (3) PLUS the number of full years of service of the Tier 5 Key Employee with the Company (up to a maximum numerator of 12) and the denominator of which is 12;

(2) all equity incentives then held by such Key Employee pursuant to the LTIP or otherwise will be governed by the award agreement applicable to the equity incentive award; provided, however, that unless such award agreement provides for accelerated vesting that is more favorable to such Key Employee than the Pro-Rata Vesting (defined below), in which case such award agreement shall control, a pro-rata portion of any restricted stock units that have not previously vested as of Key Employee’s Date of Termination shall vest as of such Date of Termination, with such pro rata portion equal to (i) the number of such unvested restricted stock units multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days since the last scheduled vesting date (as set forth in Key Employee’s grant notice for such restricted stock units) that preceded Key Employee’s Date of Termination during which Key Employee remained an employee with the Company and the denominator of which is the total number of days between such last scheduled vesting date and the final vesting date of the vesting schedule (the “Pro-Rata Vesting”); and

(3) if and to the extent permitted under applicable law and without additional cost or penalty to the Company or the Key Employee, during the portion, if any, of the COBRA Period, commencing as of the date such Key Employee is eligible to elect and timely elects to continue coverage for such Key Employee and such Key Employee’s eligible dependents under the Company’s or an Affiliate’s group health plan pursuant to COBRA or similar state law, the Company (or the Affiliate of the Company that is the Eligible Individual’s employer immediately prior to termination) shall reimburse such Key Employee for the difference between the amount such Key Employee pays to effect and continue such coverage and the employee contribution amount that active senior executive employees of the Company or its applicable Affiliate pay for the same or similar coverage, with any such reimbursement payable for the 60 day period immediately following the Date of Termination being payable on the first business day 60 days following the Date of Termination and any other such reimbursement payable being paid on a monthly basis thereafter; provided that the Company may modify the continuation coverage contemplated by this Section 5(c)(ii)(4) to the extent reasonably necessary to avoid the imposition of any excise taxes on the Company for failure to comply with the nondiscrimination requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, as amended, and/or the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, as amended (to the extent applicable).

For purposes of this Section 5, the “COBRA Period” shall be a number of months (up to a maximum of 12) equal to equal to the sum of three (3) plus the number of full years of service of the Tier 5 Key Employee with the Company.

Provided that the conditions of Sections 5(e) and 8 of this Plan have been fulfilled, an Eligible Individual’s cash Severance Obligations will be paid in ratable installments in accordance with the Company’s normal payroll process during the Eligible Individual’s Severance Obligation Period, with the first payment being made on the first payroll payment date occurring at least 60 days after such Eligible Individual’s Date of Termination and including all payments that would otherwise have been made during such 60 day period.

(d) Severance Obligations - Change in Control. In the event an Eligible Individual is employed by the Company or one of its Affiliates on the CIC Effective Date and such Eligible Individual (i) resigns such Eligible Individual’s employment with the Company and its Affiliates for Good Reason, if applicable, or (ii) is terminated by the Company and its Affiliates without Cause, in each case, at any time within the twelve (12)-month period following the CIC Effective Date, then, the Company (or the Affiliate of the Company that is the employer of the Eligible Individual immediately prior to termination) shall provide Severance Obligations set forth below, provided that the conditions of Sections 5(e) and 8 of this Plan have been fulfilled. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that an Eligible Individual’s Date of Termination occurs by reason of the Eligible Individual’s refusal to accept an offer of employment (including continued employment with the Company or any of its Affiliates) in connection with a Change in Control or other corporate transaction and if such offer of employment would not constitute a basis for a Good Reason termination, then the Eligible Individual shall not be entitled to Severance Obligations under the Plan.

(i) Tier 1 Executives. The Severance Obligations to a Tier 1 Executive shall be as follows:

(1) on the first business day 60 days after the Date of Termination, payment of a lump sum cash payment equal to 300% of such Executive’s then current Base Salary as of the Date of Termination;

(2) all equity incentives then held by such Executive pursuant to the LTIP or otherwise will be governed by the award agreement applicable to the equity incentive award; and

(3) if and to the extent permitted under applicable law and without additional cost or penalty to the Company or the Executive, during the portion, if any, of the 24-month period, commencing as of the date such Executive is eligible to elect and timely elects to continue coverage for such Executive and such Executive’s eligible dependents under the Company’s or an Affiliate’s group health plan pursuant to COBRA or similar state law, the Company (or the Affiliate of the Company that is the Eligible Individual’s employer immediately prior to termination) shall reimburse such Executive for the difference between the amount such Executive pays to effect and continue such coverage and the employee contribution amount that active senior executive employees of the Company or its applicable Affiliate pay for the same or similar coverage, with any such reimbursement payable for the 60 day period immediately following the Date of Termination being payable on the first business day 60 days following the Date of Termination and any other such reimbursement payable being paid on a monthly basis thereafter; provided that the Company may modify the continuation coverage contemplated by this Section 5(d)(i)(3) to the extent reasonably necessary to avoid the imposition of any excise taxes on the Company for failure to comply with the nondiscrimination requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, as amended, and/or the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, as amended (to the extent applicable).

(ii) Tier 2 Executives. The Severance Obligations to a Tier 2 Executive shall be as follows:

(1) on the first business day 60 days after the Date of Termination, payment of a lump sum cash payment equal to 250% of such Executive's then current Base Salary as of the Date of Termination;

(2) all equity incentives then held by such Executive pursuant to the LTIP or otherwise will be governed by the award agreement applicable to the equity incentive award; and

(3) if and to the extent permitted under applicable law and without additional cost or penalty to the Company or the Executive, during the portion, if any, of the 18-month period, commencing as of the date such Executive is eligible to elect and timely elects to continue coverage for such Executive and such Executive's eligible dependents under the Company's or an Affiliate's group health plan pursuant to COBRA or similar state law, the Company (or the Affiliate of the Company that is the Eligible Individual's employer immediately prior to termination) shall reimburse such Executive for the difference between the amount such Executive pays to effect and continue such coverage and the employee contribution amount that active senior executive employees of the Company or its applicable Affiliate pay for the same or similar coverage, with any such reimbursement payable for the 60 day period immediately following the Date of Termination being payable on the first business day 60 days following the Date of Termination and any other such reimbursement payable being paid on a monthly basis thereafter; provided that the Company may modify the continuation coverage contemplated by this Section 5(d)(ii)(4) to the extent reasonably necessary to avoid the imposition of any excise taxes on the Company for failure to comply with the nondiscrimination requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, as amended, and/or the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, as amended (to the extent applicable).

(iii) Tier 3 Executives. The Severance Obligations to a Tier 3 Executive shall be as follows:

(1) on the first business day 60 days after the Date of Termination, payment of a lump sum cash payment equal to 200% of such Executive's then current Base Salary as of the Date of Termination;

(2) all equity incentives then held by such Executive pursuant to the LTIP or otherwise will be governed by the award agreement applicable to the equity incentive award; and

(3) if and to the extent permitted under applicable law and without additional cost or penalty to the Company or the Executive, during the portion, if any, of the 18-month period, commencing as of the date such Executive is eligible to elect and timely elects to continue coverage for such Executive and such Executive's eligible dependents under the Company's or an Affiliate's group health plan pursuant to COBRA or similar state law, the Company (or the Affiliate of the Company that is the Eligible Individual's employer immediately prior to termination) shall reimburse such Executive for the difference between the amount such Executive pays to effect and continue such coverage and the employee contribution amount that active senior executive employees of the Company or its applicable Affiliate pay for the same or similar coverage, with any such reimbursement payable for the 60 day period immediately following the Date of Termination being payable on the first business day 60 days following the Date of Termination and any other such reimbursement payable being paid on a monthly basis thereafter; provided that the Company may modify the continuation coverage contemplated by this Section 5(d)(ii)(4) to the extent reasonably necessary to avoid the imposition of any excise taxes on the Company for failure to comply with the nondiscrimination requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, as amended, and/or the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, as amended (to the extent applicable).

(iv) Tier 4 Executives. The Severance Obligations to a Tier 4 Executive shall be as follows:

(1) on the first business day 60 days after the Date of Termination, payment of a lump sum cash payment equal to the sum of (A) such Executive's then current Base Salary as of the Date of Termination plus (B) such Executive's Annual Bonus;

(2) all equity incentives then held by such Executive pursuant to the LTIP or otherwise will be governed by the award agreement applicable to the equity incentive award; and

(3) if and to the extent permitted under applicable law and without additional cost or penalty to the Company or the Executive, during the portion, if any, of the 12-month period, commencing as of the date such Executive is eligible to elect and timely elects to continue coverage for such Executive and such Executive's eligible dependents under the Company's or an Affiliate's group health plan pursuant to COBRA or similar state law, the Company (or the Affiliate of the Company that is the Eligible Individual's employer immediately prior to termination) shall reimburse such Executive for the difference between the amount such Executive pays to effect and continue such coverage and the employee contribution amount that active senior executive employees of the Company or its applicable Affiliate pay for the same or similar coverage, with any such reimbursement payable for the 60 day period immediately following the Date of Termination being payable on the first business day 60 days following the Date of Termination and any other such reimbursement payable being paid on a monthly basis thereafter; provided that the Company may modify the continuation coverage contemplated by this Section 5(d)(iii)(4) to the extent reasonably necessary to avoid the imposition of any excise taxes on the Company for failure to comply with the nondiscrimination requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, as amended, and/or the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, as amended (to the extent applicable).

(v) Tier 5 Key Employees. The Severance Obligations to a Tier 5 Key Employee shall be as follows:

(1) on the first business day 60 days after the Date of Termination, payment of a lump sum cash payment equal to $A \times B$, where "A" equals the sum of such Key Employee's Base Salary as in effect on the applicable Date of Termination and 50% of such Key Employee's Annual Bonus and "B" equals a fraction (which cannot exceed one (1)), the numerator of which is three (3) PLUS the number of full years of service of the Tier 5 Key Employee with the Company (up to a maximum numerator of 12) and the denominator of which is 12;

(2) all equity incentives then held by such Key Employee pursuant to the LTIP or otherwise will be governed by the award agreement applicable to the equity incentive award; and

(3) if and to the extent permitted under applicable law and without additional cost or penalty to the Company or the Tier 5 Key Employee, during the portion, if any, of the COBRA Period, commencing as of the date such Tier 5 Key Employee is eligible to elect and timely elects to continue coverage for the Tier 5 Key Employee and such Tier 5 Key Employee's eligible dependents under the Company's or an Affiliate's group health plan pursuant to COBRA or similar state law, the Company (or the Affiliate of the Company that is the Eligible Individual's employer immediately prior to termination) shall reimburse such Tier 5 Key Employee on a monthly basis for the difference between the amount such Tier 5 Key Employee pays to effect and continue such coverage and the employee contribution amount that active senior executive employees of the Company or its applicable Affiliate pay for the same or similar coverage, with any such reimbursement payable for the 60 day period immediately following the Date of Termination being payable on the first business day 60 days following the Date of Termination and any other such reimbursement payable being paid on a monthly basis thereafter; provided that the Company may modify the continuation coverage contemplated by this Section 5(d)(iv) (4) to the extent reasonably necessary to avoid the imposition of any excise taxes on the Company for failure to comply with the nondiscrimination requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, as amended, and/or the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, as amended (to the extent applicable).

(e) Conditions to Severance Obligations. Notwithstanding Section 5(b), Section 5(c), or Section 5(d) of this Plan, in no event shall an Eligible Individual be entitled to the Severance Obligations unless such Eligible Individual (i) tenders his or her resignation as a member of the Board and of the board of directors of any Affiliate (in each case, to the extent applicable) effective as of the Date of Termination (the “Resignation”), and (ii) executes a General Release in a form and substance approved by the Administrator (the “Release”) substantially similar to the Release attached hereto as Exhibit A, with any additional customary terms as the Administrator may deem appropriate in the circumstances, and such Release is not revoked. The Eligible Individual shall be eligible for the Severance Obligations only if the executed Release is returned to the Company and becomes irrevocable within 60 days after the Date of Termination. Until the Release has become irrevocable, any such Severance Obligations shall not be provided by the Company or any of its Affiliates. If an Eligible Individual fails to return the Resignation so that it would, if accepted, be effective upon the Date of Termination, or fails to return the Release to the Company in sufficient time so that the Release becomes irrevocable within 60 days after the Date of Termination, such Eligible Individual’s rights to Severance Obligations shall be forfeited.

6. [intentionally left blank]

7. Parachute Payment Limitations. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Plan, if an Eligible Individual is a “disqualified individual” (as defined in Section 280G of the Code), and the Severance Obligations that would otherwise be paid to such Eligible Individual under this Plan together with any other payments or benefits that such Eligible Individual has a right to receive from the Company (and affiliated entities required to be aggregated in accordance with Q/A-10 and Q/A-46 of Treas. Reg. §1.280G-1) (collectively, the “Payments”) would constitute a “parachute payment” (as defined in Section 280G of the Code), the Payments shall be either (a) reduced (but not below zero) so that the aggregate present value of such Payments and benefits received by the Eligible Individual from the Company and its Affiliates shall be $1.00 less than three times such Eligible Individual’s “base amount” (as defined in Section 280G of the Code) (the “Safe Harbor Amount”) and so that no portion of such Payments received by such Eligible Individual shall be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999; or (b) paid in full, whichever produces the better net after-tax result for such Eligible Individual (taking into account any applicable excise tax under Section 4999 and any applicable federal, state and local income and employment taxes). The determination as to whether any such reduction in the amount of the Payments is necessary shall be made by the Company in good faith and such determination shall be conclusive and binding on such Eligible Individual. If reduced Payments are made to the Eligible Individual pursuant to this Section 7 and through error or otherwise those Payments exceed the Safe Harbor Amount, the Eligible Individual shall immediately repay such excess to the Company or its applicable Affiliate upon notification that an overpayment has been made.

The reduction of Payments, if applicable, shall be made by reducing, first, Severance Obligations to be paid in cash hereunder in the order in which such payments would be paid or provided (beginning with such payment or benefit that would be made last in time and continuing, to the extent necessary, through to such payment or benefit that would be made first in time) and second, by reducing any other cash payments that would be payable to the Eligible Individual outside of this Plan which are valued in full for purposes of Code Section 280G in a similar order (last to first), any third, by reducing any equity acceleration hereunder of awards which are valued in full for purposes of Section 280G of the Code in a similar order (last to first), and finally, by reducing any other payments or benefit provided hereunder in a similar order (last to first).

8. Conditions to Receipt of Severance Obligations.

(a) Compliance with Post-Termination Obligations. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Plan to the contrary, the Company and its Affiliates shall have the right to cease providing any part of the Severance Obligations, and the Eligible Individual shall be required to immediately repay the Company and its Affiliates for any Severance Obligations already provided, but all other provisions of this Plan shall remain in full force and effect, if such Eligible Individual has been determined, pursuant to the dispute resolution provisions hereof, not to have fully complied with such Eligible Individual's Post-Termination Obligations during the Severance Obligation Period or longer, as may be the case.

(b) Separation from Service Required. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Plan to the contrary, the Eligible Individual shall be entitled to Severance Obligations only if such Eligible Individual's termination of employment constitutes a Separation from Service.

9. Termination.

(a) Notice of Termination. Any termination of an Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates (other than termination as a result of death) shall be communicated by written Notice of Termination to, (i) in the case of termination by an Eligible Individual, the Company or one of its Affiliates and (ii) in the case of termination by the Company and its Affiliates, the Eligible Individual.

(b) Death. An Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates shall terminate immediately upon such Eligible Individual's death.

(c) Disability. An Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates shall terminate 30 days after Notice of Termination is given by the Company or its Affiliates.

(d) For Cause.

(i) Subject to Section 9(d)(ii), the Company and its Affiliates shall be entitled to terminate an Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates immediately for any Cause.

(ii) If the Administrator determines, in its sole discretion, that a cure is possible and appropriate, the Company or the applicable Affiliate will give an Eligible Individual being terminated for Cause written notice of the acts or omissions constituting Cause and no termination of such Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates for Cause shall occur unless and until such Eligible Individual fails to cure such acts or omissions within 10 days following the receipt of such written notice. If the Administrator determines, in its sole discretion, that a cure is not possible or appropriate, an Eligible Individual being terminated for Cause shall have no notice or cure rights before such Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates is terminated for Cause.

(e) Without Cause. The Company and its Affiliates shall be entitled to terminate an Eligible Individual's employment with the Company for any reason, at any time by providing written notice to such Eligible Individual that the Company and its Affiliates is terminating such Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates without Cause.

(f) With Good Reason.

(i) Subject to Section 9(f)(ii), an Eligible Individual shall be permitted to terminate such Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates for any Good Reason.

(ii) To exercise an Eligible Individual's right to terminate such Eligible Individual's employment for Good Reason, such Eligible Individual must provide written notice to the Company or one of its Affiliates of such Eligible Individual's belief that Good Reason exists within 90 days of the initial existence of the condition(s) giving rise to such Good Reason, and such notice shall describe the conditions believed to constitute Good Reason. The Company and its Affiliates shall have 30 days to remedy the Good Reason condition(s) (the "Cure Period"). If the condition(s) are not remedied during such Cure Period, such Eligible Individual may terminate such Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates for Good Reason by delivering a Notice of Termination to the Company; provided, however, that such termination must occur no later than 5 days after the conclusion of the Cure Period (or, in the case of a termination yielding the benefits provided in Section 6 hereof, 180 days after the date of the initial existence of the condition(s) giving rise to such Good Reason); otherwise, such Eligible Individual is deemed to have accepted the condition(s), or the Company's and its Affiliates correction of such condition(s), that may have given rise to the existence of such Good Reason.

(g) Without Good Reason. An Eligible Individual shall be entitled to terminate such Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates at any time by providing 30 days written Notice of Termination to the Company or one of its Affiliates and stating that such termination is without Good Reason, provided, however, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Company and its Affiliates shall be under no obligation to continue to employ such Eligible Individual for such 30 day period.

(h) Suspension of Duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 9, the Company and its Affiliates may, to the extent doing so would not result in the Eligible Individual's Separation from Service, suspend an Eligible Individual from performing such Eligible Individual's duties, responsibilities, and authorities (including, without limitation, such Eligible Individual's duties, responsibilities and authorities as a member of the Board or the board of directors of any Affiliate) following the delivery by such Eligible Individual of a Notice of Termination providing for such Eligible Individual's resignation, or following delivery by the Company or one of its Affiliates of a Notice of Termination providing for the termination of such Eligible Individual's employment for any reason; provided, however, that during the period of suspension (which shall end on or before the Date of Termination), and subject to the legal rules applicable to any Company benefit plans under Section 401(a) of the Code and the rules applicable to nonqualified deferred compensation plans under Section 409A, such Eligible Individual shall continue to be treated as employed by the Company and its Affiliates for other purposes, and such Eligible Individual's rights to compensation or benefits shall not be reduced by reason of the suspension; and provided, further, that any such suspension shall not serve as a basis for Good Reason and shall not affect the determination of whether the resignation was for Good Reason or without Good Reason or whether the termination was for Cause or without Cause. The Company and its Affiliates may suspend an Eligible Individual with pay pending an investigation authorized by the Company or any of its Affiliates or a governmental authority in order to determine whether such Eligible Individual has engaged in acts or omissions constituting Cause, and in such case the paid suspension shall not constitute a termination of such Eligible Individual's employment with the Company and its Affiliates; provided, however, that such suspension shall not continue past the time that the Eligible Individual would incur a Separation from Service (at such point, the Company shall either terminate the Eligible Individual in accordance with this Plan or have the Eligible Individual return to active employment).

10. General Provisions.

(a) Taxes. The Company and its Affiliates are authorized to withhold from any payments made hereunder amounts of withholding and other taxes due or potentially payable in connection therewith, and to take such other action as the Company and its Affiliates may deem advisable to enable the Company, its Affiliates and Eligible Individuals to satisfy obligations for the payment of withholding taxes and other tax obligations relating to any payments made under this Plan.

(b) Offsets and Substitutions. Pursuant to Reg. § 1.409A-3(j)(4)(xiii), the Company and its Affiliates may set off against, and each Eligible Individual authorizes the Company and its Affiliates to deduct from, any payments due to such Eligible Individual, or to such Eligible Individual's estate, heirs, legal representatives or successors, any amounts which may be due and owing to the Company or an Affiliate by such Eligible Individual, arising in the ordinary course of business whether under this Plan or otherwise. To the extent that any amounts would otherwise be payable (or benefits would otherwise be provided) to an Eligible Individual under another plan of the Company or its Affiliates or an agreement with the Eligible Individual and the Company or its Affiliates, including a change in control plan or agreement, an offer letter or letter agreement, or to the extent that an Eligible Individual moves between Tiers, and to the extent that such other payments or benefits or the Severance Obligations provided under this Plan are subject to Section 409A, the Plan shall be administered to ensure that no payment or benefit under the Plan will be (i) accelerated in violation of Section 409A or (ii) further deferred in violation of Section 409A.

(c) Term of this Plan; Amendment and Termination.

(i) Prior to a Change in Control, this Plan may be amended or modified in any respect, and may be terminated, in any such case, by resolution adopted by the Administrator and a majority of the Board; provided, however, that no such amendment, modification or termination that is the Administrator determines in its sole discretion is required to be adopted as a condition to the consummation of Change in Control pursuant to the request of a third party who effectuates a Change in Control that would adversely affect the benefits or protections hereunder of any Eligible Individual as of the date such amendment, modification or termination is adopted shall be effective as it relates to such Eligible Individual. For a period of one (1) year following the occurrence of a Change in Control, this Plan may not be amended or modified in any manner that would in any way adversely affect the benefits or protections provided hereunder to any Eligible Individual under this Plan on the date the Change in Control occurs.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (i), the Company may terminate and liquidate the Plan in accordance with the provisions of Section 409A.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment, modification or termination of this Plan shall adversely affect any Eligible Individual's entitlement to payments under this Plan for qualifying terminations of employment occurring prior to such amendment, modification or termination (other than as required to permit termination of the Plan in accordance with Section 409A), nor shall such amendment, modification or termination relieve the Company of its obligation to pay vested benefits to Eligible Individuals who experienced a qualifying termination of employment prior to the date of such amendment, modification or termination as otherwise set forth herein, except as otherwise consented to by such Eligible Individual.

(d) Successors. This Plan shall bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by any Eligible Individual and the Company and their respective successors, permitted assigns, heirs and personal representatives and estates, as the case may be. Neither this Plan nor any right or obligation hereunder of the Company, any of its Affiliates or any Eligible Individual may be assigned or delegated without the prior written consent of the other party; provided, however, that the Company may assign this Plan to any of its Affiliates and an Eligible Individual may direct payment of any benefits that will accrue upon death. An Eligible Individual shall not have any right to pledge, hypothecate, anticipate or in any way create a lien upon any payments or other benefits provided under this Plan; and no benefits payable under this Plan shall be assignable in anticipation of payment either by voluntary or involuntary acts, or by operation of law, except by will or pursuant to the laws of descent and distribution. This Plan shall not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or legal entity other than the Company, its Affiliates and Eligible Individuals and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

(e) Unfunded Obligation. All benefits due an Eligible Individual under this Plan are unfunded and unsecured and are payable out of the general funds of the Company and its Affiliates.

(f) Directed Payments. If any Eligible Individual is determined by the Administrator to be Disabled, the Administrator may cause the payment or payments becoming due to such Eligible Individual to be made to another person for such person's benefit without responsibility on the part of the Administrator or the Company and its Affiliates to follow the application of such funds.

(g) Limitation on Rights Conferred Under Plan. Neither this Plan nor any action taken hereunder will be construed as (i) giving an Eligible Individual the right to continue in the employ or service of the Company or any Affiliate; (ii) interfering in any way with the right of the Company or any Affiliate to terminate an Eligible Individual's employment or service at any time; or (iii) giving an Eligible Individual any claim to be treated uniformly with other employees of the Company or any of its Affiliates. The provisions of this document supersede any oral statements made by any employee, officer, or Board member of the Company or any of its Affiliates regarding eligibility, severance payments and benefits.

(h) Governing Law. All questions arising with respect to the provisions of the Plan and payments due hereunder will be determined by application of the laws of the State of Colorado, without giving effect to any conflict of law provisions thereof, except to the extent Colorado law is preempted by federal law.

(i) Dispute Resolution. Any and all disputes, claims or controversies arising out of or relating to this Plan (A) shall be brought by an Eligible Individual in such Eligible Individual's individual capacity, and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding, and (B) shall be resolved only in the courts of the State of Colorado or the United States District Court for the District of Colorado and the appellate courts having jurisdiction of appeals in such courts. Any proceeding relating to this Plan or any Eligible Individual's benefits hereunder, or for the recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof (a "Proceeding"), to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Colorado, the court of the United States of America for the District of Colorado, and appellate courts having jurisdiction of appeals from any of the foregoing, and agrees that all claims in respect of any such Proceeding shall be heard and determined in such Colorado State court or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court, (b) consents that any such Proceeding may and shall be brought in such courts and waives any objection that the Eligible Individual or the Company may now or thereafter have to the venue or jurisdiction of any such Proceeding in any such court or that such Proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same, (c) waives all right to trial by jury in any Proceeding (whether based on contract, tort or otherwise) arising out of or relating to this Plan or the Eligible Individual's employment by the Company or any affiliate of the Company, or the Eligible Individual's or the Company's performance under, or the enforcement of, this Plan, (d) agrees that service of process in any such Proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy of such process by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such party at the Eligible Individual's or the Company's address on record with the Company and (e) agrees that nothing in this Plan shall affect the right to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by the laws of the State of Colorado. The parties acknowledge and agree that in connection with any dispute hereunder, the non-prevailing party shall be responsible for the payment of the prevailing party's costs and expenses, including, without limitation, the prevailing party's legal fees and expenses; provided that if the dispute solely involves a dispute as to whether "Cause" or "Good Reason" exists, each party shall bear its own costs and expense, regardless of the outcome of such dispute.

(j) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of the Plan will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of the Plan, which will remain in full force and effect, and any prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction will not invalidate that provision, or render it unenforceable, in any other jurisdiction.

(k) Section 409A.

(i) This Plan is intended to comply with Section 409A and shall be construed and operated accordingly. The Company may amend this Plan at any time to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A. Any Eligible Employee shall perform any act, or refrain from performing any act, as reasonably requested by the Company to comply with any correction procedure promulgated pursuant to Section 409A.

(ii) To the extent required to avoid the imposition of penalties or interest under Section 409A, any payment or benefit to be paid or provided on account of an Eligible Individual's Separation from Service to an Eligible Individual who is a specified employee (within the meaning of Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code) that would be paid or provided prior to the first day of the seventh month following the Eligible Individual's Separation from Service shall be paid or provided on the first day of the seventh month following the Eligible Individual's Separation from Service or, if earlier, the date of the Eligible Individual's death.

(iii) Each payment to be made under this Plan is a separately identifiable or designated amount for purposes of Section 409A.

(l) PHSA § 2716. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, in the event that the Company or any of its Affiliates is subject to the sanctions imposed pursuant to § 2716 of the Public Health Service Act by reason of this Plan, the Company may amend this Plan at any time with the goal of giving Employee the economic benefits described herein in a manner that does not result in such sanctions being imposed.

1. The undersigned (“Employee”), on Employee’s own behalf and on behalf of Employee’s heirs, agents, representatives, attorneys, assigns, executors and/or anyone acting on Employee’s behalf, and in consideration of the promises, assurances, and covenants set forth in the Eighth Amended and Restated Executive Change In Control And Severance Plan, as in effect on of January 21, 2022 (the “Plan”), under which Employee is an Eligible Individual, but to which Employee is not automatically entitled, including, but not limited to, the payment of any severance thereunder, hereby fully releases Civitas Resources, Inc. and its successors or affiliates (the “Company”), its parents, subsidiaries, officers, shareholders, partners, members, individual employees, agents, representatives, directors, employees, attorneys, successors, and anyone acting on its behalf, known or unknown, from all claims and causes of action by reason of any injuries and/or damages or losses, known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, patent or latent which Employee has sustained or which may be sustained as a result of any facts and circumstances arising out of or in any way related to Employee’s employment by the Company or the termination of that employment, and to any other disputes, claims, disagreements, or controversies between Employee and the Company up to and including the date this release is signed by Employee. Employee’s release includes, but is not limited to, any contract benefits, claims for quantum meruit, claims for wages, bonuses, employment benefits, moving expenses, stock options, profits units, or damages of any kind whatsoever, arising out of any contracts, express or implied, any covenant of good faith and fair dealing, express or implied, any theory of unlawful discharge, torts and related damages (including, but not limited to, emotional distress, loss of consortium, and defamation) any legal restriction on the Company’s right to terminate Employee’s employment and/or services, or any federal, state or other governmental statute or ordinance, including, without limitation, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (29 U.S.C. § 21, et seq.) (as amended) (“ADEA”), the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, any state laws concerning discrimination or harassment including the Fair Employment and Housing Act, or any other legal limitation on contractual or employment relationships, and any and all claims for any loss, cost, damage, or expense with respect to Employee’s liability for taxes, penalties, interest or additions to tax on or with respect to any amount received from the Company or otherwise includible in Employee’s gross income, including, but not limited to, any liability for taxes, penalties, interest or additions to tax arising from the failure of this Agreement, or any other employment, severance, profit sharing, bonus, equity incentive or other compensatory plan to which Employee and the Company are or were parties, to comply with, or to be operated in compliance with the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including, but not limited to, Section 409A thereof, or any provision of state or local income tax law; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the release set forth in this Section shall not extend to: (a) any vested rights under any pension, retirement, profit sharing or similar plan; or (b) Employee’s rights, if any, to indemnification or defense under the Company’s certificate of incorporation, bylaws and/or policy or procedure, any indemnification agreement with Employee or under any insurance contract, in connection with Employee’s acts or omissions within the course and scope of Employee’s employment with the Company (this “Release”). Appendix A to this Release sets forth the benefits, payments and obligations to which Employee is entitled under the Plan if, and only if, this Release is executed, delivered and become irrevocable by no later than ____, which is 60 days after the Employee’s Date of Termination. Employee acknowledges and agrees that he is not entitled to any other termination or severance benefits whether under the Plan or otherwise.

2. [Employee acknowledges that Employee is knowingly and voluntarily waiving and releasing any rights Employee may have under the ADEA. Employee also acknowledges that the consideration given for the waiver and release hereunder is in addition to anything of value to which Employee is already entitled. Employee further acknowledges that Employee has been advised by this writing, as required by the ADEA, that: (a) Employee’s waiver and release hereunder do not apply to any rights or claims that may arise after the execution date of this release; (b) Employee has been advised hereby that Employee has the right to consult with an attorney prior to executing this release; (c) Employee has [twenty-one (21) days][forty-five (45) days] to consider this release (although Employee may choose to voluntarily execute this release earlier); (d) Employee has seven (7) days following the execution of this Release to revoke this Release; and (e) this Release will not be effective until the date upon which the revocation period has expired, which will be the eighth (8th) day after this Release is executed by Employee (the “Effective Date”).]

3. Nothing in this Release (including, without limitation, Sections 4, 5 and 7 hereof), the Plan or any other Company agreement, policy or procedure (this Release, the Plan and such other agreements, policies and procedures, collectively, the “Company Arrangements”) limits your ability to communicate directly with and provide information, including documents, not otherwise protected from disclosure by any applicable law or privilege to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) or any other federal, state or local governmental agency or commission (each, a “Government Agency”) regarding possible legal violations, without disclosure to the Company. The Company may not retaliate against you for any of these activities, and nothing in the Company Arrangements requires you to waive any monetary award or other payment that you might become entitled to from the SEC or any other Government Agency.

Further, nothing in the Company Arrangements precludes you from filing a charge of discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a like charge or complaint with a state or local fair employment practice agency. However, once this Release becomes effective, you may not receive a monetary award or any other form of personal relief from the Company in connection with any such charge or complaint that you filed or is filed on your behalf.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Company Arrangements, as provided for in the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016 (18 U.S.C. § 1833(b)), you will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (a) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (b) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Without limiting the foregoing, if you file a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, you may disclose the trade secret to your attorney and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if you (x) file any document containing the trade secret under seal, and (y) do not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

4. Employee acknowledges that Employee executed an [Employee Restrictive Covenants, Proprietary Information and Inventions Agreement] or [Employee Proprietary Information and Inventions Agreement] under which Employee assumed certain obligations relating to the Company's confidential and proprietary business information and trade secrets and containing certain covenants relating to competition, solicitation and assignment of invention ("Employee Proprietary Information and Inventions Agreement"). Employee agrees that, except to the extent it conflicts with Section 3, the Employee Proprietary Information and Inventions Agreement shall by its terms survive the execution of this Release and that the parties' rights and duties thereunder shall not in any way be affected by this Release. Employee also warrants and represents that Employee has returned any and all documents and other property of the Company constituting a trade secret or other confidential research, development or commercial information in Employee's possession, custody or control, and represents and warrants that Employee has not retained any copies or originals of any such property of the Company. Employee further warrants and represents that, except as provided by Section 3, Employee has never violated the Employee Proprietary Information and Inventions Agreement, and will not do so in the future.

5. Employee acknowledges that because of Employee's position with the Company, Employee may possess information that may be relevant to or discoverable in connection with claims, litigation or judicial, arbitral or investigative proceedings initiated by a private party or by a regulator, governmental entity, or self-regulatory organization, that relates to or arises from matters with which Employee was involved during Employee's employment with the Company, or that concern matters of which Employee has information or knowledge (collectively, a "Proceeding"). Employee agrees that Employee shall testify truthfully in connection with any such Proceeding. Except as provided in Section 3, Employee agrees that Employee shall cooperate with the Company in connection with every such Proceeding, and that Employee's duty of cooperation shall include an obligation to meet with the Company representatives and/or counsel concerning all such Proceedings for such purposes, and at such times and places, as the Company reasonably requests, and to appear for deposition and/or testimony upon the Company's request and without a subpoena. The Company shall reimburse Employee for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that Employee incurs in honoring Employee's obligation of cooperation under this Section.

6. Employee and the Company understand and agree that it is in their mutual best interest to minimize the effect of Employee's separation upon the Company's business and upon Employee's professional reputation. Accordingly, Employee agrees to take all actions reasonably requested of Employee by the Company in order to accomplish that objective. To this end, Employee shall consult with the Company concerning business matters on an as-needed and as-requested basis, the Company shall exercise reasonable efforts to avoid conflicts between such consulting and Employee's personal and other business commitments, and Employee shall exercise reasonable efforts to fulfill the Company's consulting requests in a timely manner.

7. Employee covenants never to disparage or speak ill of the Company or any the Company product or service, or of any past or present employee, officer or director of the Company, except as provided in Section 3. Employee further agrees not to harass or behave unprofessionally toward any past, present or future Company employee, officer or director.

8. Release of Unknown Claims. It is the intention of Employee that this Release is a general release which shall be effective as a bar to each and every claim, demand, or cause of action it releases. Employee recognizes that Employee may have some claim, demand, or cause of action against the Company of which Employee is totally unaware and unsuspecting which Employee is giving up by execution of this release. It is the intention of Employee in executing this Release that it will deprive Employee of each such claim, demand or cause of action and prevent Employee from asserting it against the released parties.
