JCP Investment Management, LLC, together with the other participants named herein (collectively, “JCP”), has made a preliminary filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission of a proxy statement and accompanying proxy card to be used to solicit votes for the election of JCP’s slate of highly qualified director nominees to the Board of Directors of Fiesta Restaurant Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), at the Company’s upcoming 2017 annual meeting of stockholders, or any other meeting of stockholders held in lieu thereof, and any adjournments, postponements, reschedulings or continuations thereof.

On April 25, 2017, JCP issued the following press release:

JCP COMMENTS ON FIESTA RESTAURANT GROUP’S STRATEGIC RENEWAL PLAN – NOTES LACK OF ACCOUNTABILITY AT BOARD LEVEL

JCP Believes Fiesta’s Announced Impairments of Majority of Pollo Tropical Restaurants Outside of Florida Exemplifies Need for Board Change

HOUSTON, TX, April 25, 2017 – JCP Investment Management, LLC, together with its affiliates and the other participants in its solicitation (collectively, “JCP” or “we”), collectively one of the largest stockholders of Fiesta Restaurant Group, Inc. (“Fiesta” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ:FRGI), with aggregate ownership of approximately 8.6% of the Company’s outstanding shares, today issued a statement in response to the Company’s April 24, 2017 announcement regarding, among other things, the closure of 30 Pollo Tropical restaurants outside of Florida.

JCP nominee James C. Pappas commented, “Yesterday’s announcement appears to us as an admission to the lack of foresight and strategic thinking underpinning the significant value destruction in Pollo Tropical’s poorly executed expansion outside of Florida. The ‘Strategic Renewal Plan’ offered by Fiesta is light on details and appears to simply offer the incumbent Board several more months to find strategic visions for its two brands, something that has been missing for the past several years.”

JCP nominee John B. Morlock added, “As a restaurant operator, I am concerned by the lack of specifics with the recently announced ‘Strategic Renewal Plan.’ I believe that any such plan should include stated EBITDA goals and other performance metrics to make expectations clear and enhance accountability at Fiesta.”

Mr. Pappas continued, “In yesterday’s announcement, CEO Richard Stockinger correctly pointed out this is the second failed attempt to grow Pollo Tropical outside of Florida. He also highlighted that the Company did not reinvest enough into the highly profitable core markets, resulting in an unquantified deferred maintenance capital expenditure that will be incurred. In light of this vague update, our goal remains unchanged – to add highly qualified directors to Fiesta’s Board who bring operational experience and an owner’s mentality and who will effectively hold the CEO accountable for achieving SSS, growth, cash flow and ROIC targets.”

Board Entrenchment and Poor Oversight

We believe the incumbent directors continue to show that they are not effective stewards of stockholders' investments in Fiesta. The same Board that agreed to add 47 new Pollo Tropical restaurants over the course of 4 years today announced the closure of 30 of these locations. Given the Company's underperformance and obvious need for an improved and experienced Board, we believe the Board's behavior reflects the poor oversight exhibited by an entrenched Board.

We remain shocked that no non-executive director has acknowledged these terrible results by resigning or declining to stand for reelection. We believe that the incumbents' decision to waste stockholders' capital with an expensive and time consuming proxy contest despite Fiesta's performance under their watch is a clear sign of entrenchment.

The lack of accountability is simply astounding. Despite Fiesta's significant underperformance, former CEO Tim Taft, who was hired by the incumbent Board, is the only director who has stepped down from the Board. In Fiesta's announcement on August 25, 2016 regarding Mr. Taft's departure from the Company, then Chairman of the Board (and now current director) Jack Smith stated:

"On behalf of Fiesta's Board of Directors, we are extremely grateful to Tim for his outstanding leadership. Tim was instrumental in guiding the Company through its successful transition as an independent public company and during his tenure improved operations at both brands, refined our marketing strategies and set the stage for ongoing growth."

How in good faith can the Board reconcile yesterday's announcement with Mr. Smith's August 25th statement on behalf of the Board?

The operational and financial situation of the Company has become urgent. The time for accountability is now and we look forward to providing stockholders with an opportunity to voice their frustrations and send a clear message to the Board at the upcoming annual meeting.
