Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 15, 2026, Sajal K. Srivastava notified TriplePoint Venture Growth BDC Corp. (the “Company”) of his intention to resign from his positions as (1) a member of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) and (2) President and Chief Investment Officer of the Company, in each case effective as of the close of business on December 31, 2026. To assist in an orderly transition, Mr. Srivastava will continue to serve in his current roles during the transition period. His resignation is not the result of any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices.

On September 18, 2026, on the recommendation of its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the Board decreased the size of the Board to seven members from eight members, effective as of the close of business on December 31, 2026.

On September 18, 2026, the Board appointed Ian Schworer to serve as Chief Investment Officer of the Company, effective as of the close of business on December 31, 2026.

Mr. Schworer, 45, will also serve as the Chief Investment Officer of TriplePoint Private Venture Credit Inc., a business development company, TriplePoint Capital LLC (“TPC”) and TriplePoint Advisers LLC, effective as of December 31, 2026. Mr. Schworer has worked at TPC in various capacities since 2014. Mr. Schworer has more than 20 years of experience working in a variety of venture capital, investment banking, management consulting and computer & systems engineering roles. He has significant experience investing in and advising high-growth technology companies. At TPC, Mr. Schworer currently serves as Chief Credit Officer, U.S., overseeing all U.S. Investment and Credit Underwriting functions. Mr. Schworer is also an integral member of the firm’s Credit Committee. Prior to joining TPC, Mr. Schworer was an investment banker in Barclays Capital’s Technology, Media and Telecommunication (TMT) group, a management consultant for Booz Allen Hamilton and an electrical engineer at Lockheed Martin and Intel. Mr. Schworer has an M.B.A. from U.C. Berkeley – Haas School of Business and a M.S in Electrical Engineering and a B.S in Computer Engineering from Virginia Tech.

The Company will not pay cash compensation or provide other benefits directly to Mr. Schworer. Mr. Schworer is an employee of TPC, the direct sole owner of the Company’s investment adviser and the indirect sole owner of the Company’s administrator.

Mr. Schworer: (i) was not appointed as the Company’s Chief Investment Officer pursuant to any arrangement or understanding with any other person; (ii) does not have a family relationship with any of the Company’s directors or other executive officers; and (iii) other than as disclosed herein, has not engaged, since the beginning of the Company’s last fiscal year, nor currently proposes to engage, in any transaction in which the Company was or is a participant.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On September 21, 2026, the Company issued a press release announcing the above management transition. A copy of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

The information in this Item 7.01, including Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto, is being furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall such information be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

TriplePoint Capital and TriplePoint Venture Growth BDC Corp. Announce Management Transition

Menlo Park, Calif., September 21, 2026 — TriplePoint Capital, a leading Sand Hill Road-based global investment platform which provides customized debt financing, direct equity investments and other complementary solutions to venture capital-backed companies in technology and other high-growth industries, today announced a management transition. Sajal Srivastava, Co-Founder and Co-CEO of TriplePoint Capital will leave the company, effective as of the close of business on December 31, 2026, and Jim Labe, Co-Founder and Co-CEO, will assume the role of sole CEO of TriplePoint Capital at year's end.

"I want to thank Sajal for his significant contributions to the TriplePoint Capital platform over the past 23 years," said Mr. Labe. "We built TriplePoint into an industry leading and differentiated venture lending platform, backed by committed capital and a strong team, that has committed over $15 billion to more than 1,000 companies across the globe to date. I'm proud of the business we've created and excited as TriplePoint continues to work with our venture partners and invest in leading VC-backed companies to take advantage of strong long-term market trends. I'm also pleased to announce the appointment of Ian Schworer to the newly created role of Chief Investment Officer of TriplePoint Capital. Ian is a 12-year veteran at TriplePoint and has helped manage our multi-billion dollar portfolio across sectors such as AI infrastructure, defense technology, deep tech, healthcare, and other high growth industries. I look forward to continuing to work with him in this expanded role."

"I am deeply proud of what Jim and I have accomplished in building TriplePoint Capital into an industry leading platform on a global basis, as well as the advancements and creativity we introduced to the venture lending industry," said Mr. Srivastava. "I'm excited to begin a new chapter and continue my passion for driving innovation in the venture capital ecosystem."

As part of the transition, at year's end, Mr. Srivastava will also be leaving his role as President and Chief Investment Officer of TriplePoint Venture Growth BDC Corp. (NYSE: TPVG) ("TPVG") and TriplePoint Private Venture Credit Inc. ("TPVC"). He will continue to serve as a Director on the Board of Directors of TPVG and TPVC until the close of business on December 31, 2026.

Ian Schworer has been appointed to serve as the Chief Investment Officer of TPVG and TPVC, effective as of close of business on December 31, 2026, after a 20-year career in venture lending, investment banking, management consulting and computer & systems engineering roles. Mr. Schworer has worked at TriplePoint Capital in various investment capacities since March 2014, including most recently as Chief Credit Officer. Earlier in his career, Mr. Schworer advised leading technology companies on IPOs, M&A, and financing transactions at Barclays, and served in consulting roles with Booz Allen Hamilton, as well as Engineering roles at Lockheed Martin and Intel. Mr. Schworer received an M.B.A. from U.C. Berkeley Haas School of Business, and an M.S. and B.S. in Computer and Electrical Engineering from Virginia Tech.

For more than two decades, TriplePoint Capital has supported category-defining entrepreneurs and companies, navigating multiple market cycles with the consistency that gives entrepreneurs and venture investors confidence and stability in any environment. Building on its more than $15 billion of commitments since inception, TriplePoint closed more than 50 debt financing and equity financing and equity investment transactions in the first half of 2026. These financings have ranged from $10 million to $150 million with leading companies across high growth sectors such as AI infrastructure, enterprise software, defense technology, deep tech and healthcare.
