Flutter's primary listing now on the New York Stock Exchange

Flutter Entertainment plc ("Flutter" or the "Company") (NYSE: FLUT; LSE:FLTR) announced today that its primary listing is now on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"). This follows the transfer of the Company's listing category on the Official List of the Financial Conduct Authority from "Premium Listing (commercial company)" to "Standard Listing (shares)" as of 08.00 a.m. BST / 03.00 a.m. ET today. The Company's shares remain eligible for and continue to trade on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange ("LSE") on the Standard Listing segment.

Today's announcement follows the passing of the relevant resolution by shareholders at the Company's Annual General Meeting held on May 1, 2024.

Peter Jackson, CEO of Flutter Entertainment, said:

"Today marks an important milestone in the evolution of Flutter with the commencement of our primary listing on the New York Stock Exchange. This closely follows the recent move of our operational headquarters to New York, with both reflecting the increasing importance of the US sports betting and iGaming market to our business. We have a fantastic position in the US, with FanDuel the clear number one operator, and we look forward to this next step on our journey."

Listing changes

As previously announced, since February 2023, management has engaged widely with U.S. investors, existing and potential, along with existing shareholders globally. The feedback received has been very supportive of moving Flutter's primary listing to the United States. The first step in this process was achieved on January 29, 2024, with the additional listing of Flutter's ordinary shares on the NYSE. On May 1, 2024, shareholders passed the special resolution to transfer Flutter's listing category from a Premium Listing to a Standard Listing on the LSE, which has taken effect today. Hereafter, Flutter's primary listing will be on the NYSE.

About Flutter Entertainment plc

Flutter Entertainment plc (“Flutter” the “Group”)

Directorate Change - Group CFO Transition

Flutter Entertainment plc, the leading global sports betting and gaming operator, announced today that Group CFO, Paul Edgecliffe-Johnson, will leave the Group and be succeeded by Rob Coldrake with immediate effect.

In anticipation of the Company’s US Primary Listing on 31st May 2024 and the consequent need for extensive executive management time to be spent in the United States, the Board has recently engaged in a discussion with Paul Edgecliffe-Johnson concerning his ability to meet that requirement in light of his family commitments in the U.K. Following this discussion, the Board has concluded that it is in the Company’s best interests for Paul Edgecliffe-Johnson to step down from his role as Group CFO and Executive Director.

Rob Coldrake is currently Chief Financial Officer of Flutter International, a role he has held since joining the Group in 2020. He previously spent 14 years in TUI Travel plc in a variety of financial roles, having started his career with PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Commenting on the appointment, CEO Peter Jackson said: “I am delighted that Rob will become our next Group CFO. During his four years at Flutter, he has shown himself to be a CFO of exceptional calibre and his skills and experience will help us to take advantage of the significant opportunities before us. I would like to thank Paul for his contribution to the Group, particularly in relation to achieving our US primary listing, and I wish him and his family well.”

John Bryant, Chair, commented: “The Board welcomes the appointment of Rob as Group CFO and is especially delighted we were able to develop such a high-quality executive within our own business. We look forward to working with him and the team into the future. I would also like to take the opportunity to wish Paul well and to thank him for his contribution to the Group.”
