Despegar.com Announces Resignation of Director

BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS—(BUSINESS WIRE)—July 6, 2021—Despegar.com, Corp. (NYSE: DESP), (“Despegar” or the “Company”) the leading online travel company in Latin America, today announced that Mr. Aseem Gupta, the Company’s Series B Preferred Director appointed by Waha Latam Investments Limited, tendered his resignation as Series B Preferred Director effective June 30, 2021. Mr. Gupta’s resignation as Series B Preferred Director is a result of his resignation as a Managing Director of Waha Capital, an affiliate of Waha Latam Investments Limited. As of the date of this current report, Waha Latam Investments Limited has not appointed a new Series B Preferred Director.

Commenting on the resignation of Mr. Gupta, Damian Scokin, CEO stated, “I would like to thank Aseem for the time of service to our company, where his valuable insights and support were very much appreciated.”

“It has been an honor to serve as a director of Despegar and help guide the company through the COVID-19 pandemic. The company took prompt actions to weather the worst situation in the travel sector ever. It is now prepared to capture the great opportunity the Latin American travel market has long term. I trust the company’s leadership, management team and board of directors, is in place to guide it going forward” commented Aseem Gupta.
