Important Information

The following communication relates to the proposed acquisition of Kashiv BioSciences, LLC (“Kashiv”) by Amneal Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”), pursuant to the Membership Interest Purchase Agreement, dated as of April 21, 2026, by and among the Company, Kashiv, KB Seller Representative, LLC and the equityholders of Kashiv named therein.

On April 22, 2026, the Company distributed an electronic letter to certain employees and external stakeholders of the Company, a form of which is set forth below and filed herewith pursuant to Rule 14a-12.

Announcing our Proposed Acquisition of Kashiv BioSciences

Dear Valued Partner,

Today I am excited to share that we have entered into a definitive agreement under which Amneal has agreed to acquire a 100% interest in Kashiv BioSciences, LLC, a vertically integrated biopharmaceutical company. The acquisition is subject to approval by Amneal shareholders, the receipt of regulatory approvals and the satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

As a valued partner, I wanted to share this exciting news with you directly. We believe this proposed acquisition represents a compelling opportunity to further strengthen Amneal as a leader with a scaled, fully integrated biosimilars platform, supported by a substantial portfolio of approved, pending and development stage biosimilars.

It's also well-aligned with our commitment to expanding patient access. Over the last several years, Amneal has been diversifying its business toward more complex and high-value products, adding depth to our generic, injectable and Specialty portfolios. Biosimilars are the next wave of affordable medicines and this proposed combination will substantially elevate our ability to deliver patient access to critical biologics across the U.S. and globally.

I want to assure you that between now and the expected close of the transaction, it is business as usual. There are no changes to the way you interact or conduct business with our Company. We are committed to keeping you appropriately informed as the transaction progresses. In the meantime, if you have any questions, please contact [_____].

Sincerely,
Amneal leader

Cautionary Statement on Forward-Looking Statements

The foregoing contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act. These statements are often identified by the use of words such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “hope,” “hopeful,” “likely,” “may,” “optimistic,” “possible,” “potential,” “preliminary,” “project,” “should,” “will,” “would” or the negative or plural of these words or similar expressions or variations. Forward-looking statements are made based upon management’s current expectations and beliefs and are not guarantees of future performance and include statements regarding the transaction agreement and the transaction, including the anticipated benefits (including synergies) of the transaction and integration and transition plans, opportunities and anticipated future performance, statements regarding the global biosimilars and affordable medicines markets and the company’s position and opportunities therein and our ability to expand internationally, and statements regarding our business. Such forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors that could cause actual results and the timing of certain events to differ materially from future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These factors include, among others: (i) the completion of the proposed transaction on the anticipated terms and timing; (ii) the satisfaction of other conditions to the completion of the proposed transaction, including obtaining required shareholder and regulatory approvals; (iii) the risk that the Company’s stock price may fluctuate during the pendency of the proposed transaction and may decline if the proposed transaction is not completed; (iv) potential litigation relating to the proposed transaction that could be instituted against the Company or its directors, managers or officers, including the effects of any outcomes related thereto; (v) the risk that disruptions from the proposed transaction will harm the Company’s business, including current plans and operations, including during the pendency of the proposed transaction; (vi) the diversion of management’s time and attention from ordinary course business operations to completion of the proposed transaction and integration matters; (vii) legislative, regulatory and economic developments; (viii) unpredictability and severity of catastrophic events, including but not limited to acts of terrorism, outbreaks of war or hostilities or global pandemics, as well as management’s response to any of the aforementioned factors; (ix) the possibility that the proposed transaction may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; (x) unexpected costs, liabilities or delays associated with the proposed transaction; (xi) the response of competitors to the proposed transaction; (xii) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the proposed transaction; and (xiii) other risks set forth under the heading “Risk Factors,” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 and in our subsequent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. You should not rely upon forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Our actual results could differ materially from the results described in or implied by such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof, and, except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements.
