Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 9, 2026, CoreWeave, Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release to announce the events described below in Item 8.01. The press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The information contained in this Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, including the accompanying Exhibit 99.1 hereto, shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing made by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filings, unless expressly incorporated by specific reference in such filings.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 31, 2026, the Company and Meta Platforms, Inc. (“Meta”) entered into a new order form (the “Order Form”) under the existing Master Services Agreement (“MSA”) dated as of December 10, 2023, pursuant to which the Company provides Meta access to cloud computing capacity through fulfillment of reserved capacity orders submitted to the Company by Meta and as may be amended upon the Company’s and Meta’s mutual agreement. Subject to any termination described below and satisfaction of delivery and availability of service requirements, Meta has initially committed to pay the Company approximately $21 billion, inclusive of (i) access to new computing capacity under the Order Form through December 20, 2032 and (ii) the exercise of an existing option to access additional computing capacity under a previous order form through April 10, 2032.

Either party may terminate the MSA (and any order thereunder including the Order Form) for cause. The MSA contains customary provisions regarding representations and warranties, indemnification, and limitations on liabilities.

The foregoing description of the MSA does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the MSA, which was attached as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 30, 2025 and is incorporated herein by reference.

COREWEAVE AND META ANNOUNCE $21 BILLION EXPANDED AI INFRASTRUCTURE AGREEMENT

Meta to leverage CoreWeave's AI cloud platform to scale inference workloads, underscoring the surging demand for large-scale AI compute

Livingston, NJ – April 9, 2026 – CoreWeave (Nasdaq: CRWV), the Essential Cloud for AI™, today announced an expanded, long-term agreement with Meta Platforms, Inc. to provide AI cloud capacity through December 2032 for approximately $21 billion. With this deal, the two companies are continuing their existing relationship increasing support for Meta's development and deployment of AI.

The dedicated capacity will be deployed across multiple locations and will include some of the initial deployments of the NVIDIA Vera Rubin platform. This distributed approach is designed to optimize performance, resilience, and scalability for Meta's AI operations.

The new agreement is a clear signal of the industry's accelerating demand for high-performance infrastructure capable of supporting increasingly complex, large-scale AI workloads

"This is another example that leading companies are choosing CoreWeave's AI cloud to run their most demanding workloads," said Michael Intrator, Co-founder, CEO, Chairman of CoreWeave.

Additional details regarding the agreement are available in CoreWeave's filing with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
