Buyers to enter into Transactions but rather sets forth the procedures to be used in connection with periodic requests for Administrative Agent on behalf of Buyers to enter into Transactions. Seller hereby acknowledges that Administrative Agent on behalf of Buyers is under no obligation to agree to enter into, or to enter into, any Transaction pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Reserved.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein:

(i) The property subject to the security interest reflected in the Participation Certificate includes all of the right, title and interest of the Seller in certain mortgages and/or participation interests related to such mortgages ("Pooled Mortgages"), and pooled under the mortgage-backed securities program of Ginnie Mae, pursuant to section 306(g) of the National Housing Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1721(g);

(c) In the event that on the Purchase Date excess funds remain in the Dedicated Account (after application of payments in accordance with Section 2.07 but not including any amounts to be disbursed to Seller), Administrative Agent may apply such excess funds to the amount of the requested Purchase Price.

(ii) Subject to the triggers set forth in Section 2.14 and to the extent applicable, Seller shall remit to the Dedicated Account (in accordance with Section 2.14 hereof) all proceeds received (but only to the extent that such funds are payable to Seller free and clear of any Agency rights or other restrictions on transfer), except as provided herein, with respect to Assets not otherwise required to be deposited in a clearing, custodial or escrow account pursuant to the related Servicing Contract on a daily basis.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, proceeds of the sale (but only to the extent that such funds are payable to Seller free and clear of any Agency rights or other restrictions on transfer), except as provided herein, of Servicing Rights, up to the lesser of (A) the then outstanding Repurchase Price under this Agreement and secured by the Servicing Rights sold, and (B) the amount of any Margin Deficit after giving effect to such sale (or zero, if there is no Margin Deficit), shall be remitted to Administrative Agent as a condition to, and simultaneously with, any sale thereof.

On each Price Differential Payment Date, Seller hereby promises to pay to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, all accrued and unpaid Price Differential on the Transactions, as invoiced by Administrative Agent three (3) Business Days prior to the related Price Differential Payment Date (the "Price Differential Statement Date"); provided, that if Administrative Agent fails to deliver such statement on the Price Differential Statement Date, on such Price Differential Payment Date Seller shall pay the amount which Seller calculates as the Price Differential due and upon delivery of the statement, Seller shall remit to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, any shortfall, or Administrative Agent shall refund to Seller any excess, in the Price Differential paid. Price Differential shall accrue each day on the outstanding Purchase Price at a rate per annum equal to the Pricing Rate. The Price Differential shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days in each Price Differential Period and a 360-day year. Seller may remit to Administrative Agent funds up to the then outstanding Purchase Price, to be applied as of the date such funds are received by Administrative Agent towards the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price subject to outstanding Transactions on a pro rata basis. The Price Differential shall be applied, and shall accrue on the Purchase Price then outstanding, after such application of such funds as provided in the preceding sentence, subject to Section 2.05(d).

Section 2.05 Margin Maintenance. (a) If at any time the aggregate outstanding amount of the Purchase Price exceeds the Asset Base in effect at such time, as determined by Administrative Agent (such excess, a "Margin Deficit"), then Administrative Agent may by notice to Seller require Seller to transfer to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, cash in an amount at least equal to the Margin Deficit (such requirement, a "Margin Call"); provided that Seller may, with the consent of Administrative Agent exercised in its sole good faith discretion, pledge additional servicing rights that meet the criteria of Servicing Rights to be pledged hereunder to satisfy such Margin Deficit, in whole or in part, to the extent of the aggregate Asset Value of such servicing rights.

(b) Notice delivered pursuant to Section 2.05(a) may be given by any written or electronic means. With respect to a Margin Call, any notice given before 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day shall be met, and the related Margin Call satisfied, no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on such Business Day; notice given after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day shall be met, and the related Margin Call satisfied, no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the following Business Day. The foregoing time requirements for satisfaction of a Margin Call are referred to as the "Margin Deadlines". The failure of Administrative Agent, on any one or more occasions, to exercise its rights hereunder, shall not change or alter the terms and conditions to which this Agreement is subject or limit the right of Administrative Agent to do so at a later date. Seller and Administrative Agent each agree that a failure or delay by Administrative Agent to exercise its rights hereunder shall not limit or waive Administrative Agent's or any Buyer's rights under this Agreement or otherwise existing by law or in any way create additional rights for Seller.

(c) In the event that a Margin Deficit exists, Administrative Agent may retain any funds received by it to which Seller would otherwise be entitled hereunder, which funds shall be applied by Administrative Agent against the Purchase Price. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Administrative Agent retains the right, in its sole good faith discretion, to make a Margin Call in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.05.

(d) If at any time the Asset Base of all Repurchase Assets then pledged hereunder as of any date of determination is greater than the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price with respect to all outstanding Transactions hereunder as of such date (a "Margin Excess"), then Seller may, by delivery of written notice to Administrative Agent by 10:00 a.m. (New York Time) on any Business Day (an "Excess Margin Notice"), request Administrative Agent either to (i) remit additional Purchase Price in an amount equal to the lesser of (x) such Margin Excess and (y) the amount requested by Seller or (ii) reallocate the Purchase Price to pledged Repurchase Assets with Margin Excess in order to release pledged Repurchase Assets which, following such reallocation, will have a Purchase Price allocable to them of zero. Administrative Agent shall not be obligated to remit Margin Excess or release pledged Repurchase Assets pursuant to clause (i) or (ii) above to the extent (A) it would cause the outstanding Purchase Price to exceed the Maximum Purchase Price or otherwise be inconsistent with the requirements or conditions of this Agreement; (B) a Default has occurred and is continuing or would exist after such action by Administrative Agent or (C) such action would cause a Margin Deficit.

Section 2.06 Payment Procedure. Seller absolutely, unconditionally, and irrevocably, shall make, or cause to be made, all payments required to be made by Seller hereunder. Seller shall deposit or cause to be deposited all amounts constituting collections, payments and Proceeds of Assets (including, without limitation, all fees and proceeds of sale) in the Dedicated Account as set forth in Section 6.11.

(a) On each Facility Payment Date and each Price Differential Payment Date, Seller shall prepare and deliver to Administrative Agent and the depository institution where the Dedicated Account has been established a distribution worksheet detailing the application of amounts on deposit in the Dedicated Account in accordance with this Section 2.07. The application of payments by Administrative Agent, on behalf of Buyers, to the reduction of the Obligations shall, in the absence of manifest error, be binding upon Seller.

(b) On each Facility Payment Date (other than any Facility Payment date which is also a Price Differential Payment Date which shall be governed by Section 2.07(c)), all amounts on deposit in the Dedicated Account shall be applied as follows:

(i) first, to the payment of all amounts (including, without limitation, Expenses) owing to Administrative Agent with respect to outstanding Transactions other than accrued and unpaid Price Differential and the Purchase Price;

(ii) second, without limiting the rights of Administrative Agent or any Buyer under Section 2.05, to the payment of Purchase Price outstanding to satisfy any Margin Deficit owing;

(iii) Reserved;

(iv) third, to the payment of all other costs and fees payable to Administrative Agent pursuant to this Agreement; and

(ii) second, to the payment of the accrued and unpaid Price Differential;

(iii) third, to the payment of the Purchase Price until reduced to zero; and

(iv) fourth, to payment of all costs and fees and any other Obligations.

(e) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions, if an Event of Default shall have occurred hereunder (and is continuing), all funds in the Dedicated Account shall be applied as determined by Administrative Agent in its sole discretion.

Section 2.08 Use of Purchase Price and Transaction Requests. (a) The Purchase Price shall be used exclusively by Seller to satisfy its obligation to make Protective Advances or Delinquency Advances pursuant to the terms of the related Servicing Contract and to finance the Receivables or Servicing Rights (including the acquisition thereof), as applicable.

(b) To the extent that Seller is able to apply funds on deposit in a custodial account or trustee account in order to satisfy its obligation to make a Protective Advance or a Delinquency Advance pursuant to the terms of the related Securitization Transaction, if applicable, Seller shall first apply such funds in the custodial account or trustee account in order to make the related Protective Advance or Delinquency Advance prior to requesting and entering into a Transaction hereunder.

Section 2.09 Recourse. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary contained or implied herein or in any other Program Agreement, Administrative Agent and each Buyer shall have full recourse against Seller to satisfy the Obligations. For the avoidance of doubt nothing herein shall be deemed to represent as to any priorities among creditors to the assets of the Seller other than the Administrative Agent's first priority lien on the Repurchase Assets hereunder.

Section 2.10 Requirements of Law. (a) If any Requirement of Law adopted, enacted or applied subsequent to the date hereof (other than with respect to any amendment made to Administrative Agent's or a Buyer's certificate of incorporation and by-laws or other organizational or governing documents) or any change in the interpretation or application thereof or compliance by Administrative Agent or a Buyer with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any central bank or other Governmental Authority made subsequent to the Effective Date hereof:

(b) If Administrative Agent or a Buyer shall have determined in its sole good faith discretion that the adoption of or any change in any Requirement of Law (other than with respect to any amendment made to Administrative Agent's or such Buyer's certificate of incorporation and by-laws or other organizational or governing documents) regarding capital adequacy or in the interpretation or application thereof or compliance by Administrative Agent or such Buyer or any corporation controlling Administrative Agent or such Buyer with any request or directive regarding capital adequacy (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority made subsequent to the Effective Date hereof shall have the effect of reducing the rate of return on Administrative Agent's or such Buyer's or such corporation's capital as a consequence of its obligations hereunder to a level below that which Administrative Agent, such Buyer or such corporation could have achieved but for such adoption, change or compliance (taking into consideration Administrative Agent's or such Buyer's or such corporation's policies with respect to capital adequacy) by an amount deemed by Administrative Agent or such Buyer in its sole good faith discretion to be material, then from time to time, Seller shall promptly pay to Administrative Agent or such Buyer such additional amount or amounts as will compensate Administrative Agent or such Buyer for such reduction plus any Taxes thereon.

(c) If Administrative Agent or a Buyer becomes entitled to claim any additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.10, it shall promptly notify Seller of the event by reason of which it has become so entitled. A certificate prepared by Administrative Agent in its sole good faith discretion and setting forth in reasonable detail as determined by Administrative Agent the amount and the basis of determination of any additional amounts payable pursuant to this Section 2.10 and submitted to Seller shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

Section 2.11 Taxes.

(a) (i) Any payments made by Seller to Administrative Agent or a Buyer or a permitted Buyer assignee hereunder or any Program Agreement shall be made free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any Taxes, except as required by applicable law. If Seller shall be required by applicable law (as determined in the good faith discretion of the applicable withholding agent) to deduct or withhold any Tax from any sums payable to Administrative Agent or a Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee, then (i) the Seller shall make such deductions or withholdings and pay the full amount deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law; (ii) to the extent the withheld or deducted Tax is an Indemnified Tax, the sum payable shall be increased as necessary so that after making all required deductions and withholdings (including deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.11(a)) Administrative Agent as the applicable Buyer receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made; and (iii) the Seller shall notify the Administrative Agent of the amount paid and shall provide the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by the relevant Governmental Authority evidencing such payment as soon as practicable but no later than thirty (30) days thereafter. Seller shall otherwise indemnify Administrative Agent and such Buyer, within ten (10) Business Days after demand therefor, for any Indemnified Taxes imposed on Administrative Agent or such Buyer (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 2.11(a)) and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. Administrative Agent or the applicable Buyer shall promptly repay to Sellers any refund of any amounts received by any of them that can be directly attributable to the Program Documents, as determined by Administrative Agent in its sole good faith discretion, and amounts paid pursuant to this Section 2.11.

(ii) Administrative Agent shall cause each Buyer and permitted Buyer assignee to deliver to the Seller, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Seller, such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Seller as will permit payments made hereunder to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding. In addition, Administrative Agent shall cause each Buyer and permitted Buyer assignee, if reasonably requested by Seller, to deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by the Seller as will enable the Seller to determine whether or not such Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.11, the completion, execution and submission of such documentation (other than such documentation in Section 2.11(a)(ii)(A), (B) and (C) below) shall not be required if in such Buyer's or any permitted Buyer's assignee's judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Administrative Agent shall cause a Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee to deliver to the Seller the following properly completed and duly executed documents, to the extent legally entitled to do so:

(A) in the case of a Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee which is a "U.S. Person" as defined in section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, a properly completed and executed Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form W-9 (or any successor form thereto) certifying that it is not subject to U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) in the case of a Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee which is not a "U.S. Person" as defined in Code section 7701(a)(30): (I) a properly completed and executed IRS Form W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E or W-8ECI, as appropriate, evidencing entitlement to a zero percent or reduced rate of U.S. federal income tax withholding on any payments made hereunder, (II) in the case of such non-U.S. Person claiming exemption from the withholding of U.S. federal income tax under Code sections 871(h) or 881(c) with respect to payments of "portfolio interest," a duly executed certificate (a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") to the effect that such non-U.S. Person is not (x) a "bank" within the meaning of Code section 881(c)(3)(A), (y) a "10 percent shareholder" of Seller or any affiliate thereof, within the meaning of Code section 881(c)(3)(B), or (z) a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Code section 881(c)(3)(C), (III) to the extent such non-U.S. person is not the beneficial owner, executed originals of IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN, IRS Form W-8BEN-E, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate, IRS Form W-9, and/or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if such non-U.S. person is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such non-U.S. person are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such non-U.S. person may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner, and (IV) executed originals of any other form or supplementary documentation prescribed by law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in United States federal withholding tax together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by law to permit Seller to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made.

(C) if a payment made to a Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee under this Agreement would be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax imposed by FATCA if such Buyer or permitted assignee were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), Administrative Agent on behalf of such Buyer or permitted assignee shall deliver to the Seller at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Seller such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Seller as may be necessary for the Seller to comply with their obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this Section 2.11(a), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

The applicable IRS forms referred to above shall be delivered by Administrative Agent on behalf of each applicable Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee on or prior to the date on which such person becomes a Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee under this Agreement, as the case may be, and upon the obsolescence or invalidity of any IRS form previously delivered by it hereunder.

(b) Any indemnification payable by Seller to Administrative Agent or a Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee for Indemnified Taxes that are imposed on such Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee, as described in Section 2.11(a)(i) hereof, shall be paid by Seller within ten (10) Business Days after demand therefor from Administrative Agent. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Seller by the Administrative Agent on behalf of a Buyer or permitted Buyer assignee shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(c) Each party's obligations under this Section 2.11 shall survive any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Buyer or a permitted Buyer assignee, and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Program Agreement.

(d) Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that it is its intent for purposes of U.S. federal, state and local income and franchise taxes to treat each Transaction as indebtedness of Seller that is secured by the Purchased Assets, and the Purchased Assets as owned by Seller in the absence of an Event of Default by Seller. Administrative Agent on behalf of Buyers and Seller agree that they will treat and report for all tax purposes the Transactions entered into hereunder as one or more loans from a Buyer to Seller secured by the Purchased Assets, unless otherwise prohibited by law or upon a final determination by any taxing authority that the Transactions are not loans for tax purposes.

Section 2.12 Indemnity. Without limiting, and in addition to, the provisions of Section 10.02, the Seller agrees to indemnify the Administrative Agent and Buyers and to hold the Administrative Agent and Buyers harmless from any third party loss or expense that the Administrative Agent or Buyers may sustain or incur as a consequence of (i) a default by the Seller in payment when due of the Purchase Price or Price Differential or (ii) a default by the Seller in making any prepayment of Repurchase Price after the Seller has given a notice thereof in accordance with Section 2.03. Nothing in this Section 2.12 shall limit Seller's obligation to satisfy its Obligations.

Section 2.13 Reserved.

Section 2.14 Dedicated Account. Seller shall establish and maintain the Dedicated Account in the form of a time deposit or demand account. During the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, amounts received on account of Portfolio Excess Spread and Servicing Rights and retained by Seller pursuant to the applicable Servicing Contract or Participation Agreement, as the case may be, shall promptly, and in any event within one (1) Business Day after receipt, be deposited in the Dedicated Account. Funds deposited in the Dedicated Account (including any interest paid on such funds) may be distributed only in accordance with Section 2.07. Upon the Termination Date and the payment of all Obligations due by Seller hereunder, all amounts on deposit in the Dedicated Account shall be remitted to Seller.

Section 2.15 Additional Securitization Transactions, Servicing Contracts and Participation Agreements. In the event that Seller wishes to enter into a Transaction with respect to a Securitization Transaction, Servicing Contract or Participation Agreement not listed on Schedule 2 hereto, Seller shall deliver a written request, substantially in the form of Exhibit G hereto, for approval of such Securitization Transaction, Servicing Contract or Participation Agreement to Administrative Agent for Administrative Agent's approval, which may be withheld in Administrative Agent's sole good faith discretion. Upon approval in writing by Administrative Agent of such additional Securitization Transaction, Servicing Contract or Participation Agreement as an Eligible Securitization Transaction or of such additional Servicing Contract or Participation Agreement and filing of a UCC-3 amendment adding the Securitization Transaction, Servicing Contract or Participation Agreement, Schedule 2 shall be automatically updated to include each additional Eligible Securitization Transaction, Servicing Contract or Participation Agreement identified thereon.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Seller represents and warrants to Administrative Agent and Buyers as of the date hereof and as of each Purchase Date for any Transaction that:

Section 3.01 Seller Existence. Seller has been duly organized and is validly existing as a corporation in good standing under the laws of the State of Michigan.

Section 3.02 Licenses. Seller is duly licensed or is otherwise qualified in each jurisdiction in which it transacts business for the business which it conducts and is not in default of any applicable federal, state or local laws, rules and regulations unless, in either instance, the failure to take such action is not reasonably likely (either individually or in the aggregate) to cause a Material Adverse Effect and is not in default of such state's applicable laws, rules and regulations. Seller has the requisite corporate power and authority and legal right to service Mortgage Loans and to own, sell and grant a lien on all of its right, title and interest in and to the Assets. Seller has the requisite corporate power and authority and legal right to execute and deliver, engage in the transactions contemplated by, and perform and observe the terms and conditions of, this Agreement, each Program Agreement and any Transaction Notice.

Section 3.03 Power. Seller has all requisite corporate or other power, and has all governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals necessary to own its assets and carry on its business as now being or as proposed to be conducted, except where the lack of such licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals would not be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.04 Due Authorization. Seller has all necessary corporate or other power, authority and legal right to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under each of the Program Agreements, as applicable. This Agreement, any Transaction Notice and the Program Agreements have been (or, in the case of Program Agreements and any Transaction Notice not yet executed, will be) duly authorized, executed and delivered by Seller, all requisite or other corporate action having been taken, and each is valid, binding and enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms except as such enforcement may be affected by bankruptcy, by other insolvency laws, or by general principles of equity and except as otherwise provided in Section 2.01(b) or Section 4.05.

Section 3.05 Financial Statements. Seller has heretofore furnished to Administrative Agent a copy of its consolidated balance sheet for the fiscal year of Seller ended December 31, 2016 and the related consolidated statements of income for Seller and its consolidated Subsidiaries for such fiscal year, with the opinion thereon of Ernst & Young. All such Financial Statements are complete and correct in all material respects and fairly present, in all material respects, the consolidated financial condition of Seller and its Subsidiaries and the consolidated results of their operations as at such dates and for such fiscal periods, all in accordance with GAAP (other than interim financial statements solely with respect to footnotes, year-end adjustments and cash flow statements) applied on a consistent basis. As of the date of this Agreement, since December 31, 2016, there has been no material adverse change in the consolidated business, operations or financial condition of Seller and its consolidated Subsidiaries taken as a whole from that set forth in said Financial Statements nor is Seller aware of any state of facts which (with notice or the lapse of time) would or would be reasonably likely to result in any such material adverse change. Seller has, on the date of the statements delivered pursuant to this Section 3.05 (the "Financial Statement Date") no liabilities, direct or indirect, fixed or contingent, matured or unmatured, known or unknown, or liabilities for taxes, long-term leases or unusual forward or long-term commitments not disclosed by, or reserved against in, said balance sheet and related statements, and at the present time there are no material unrealized or anticipated losses from any loans, advances or other commitments of Seller except as heretofore disclosed to Administrative Agent in writing.

Section 3.06 No Event of Default. There exists no Event of Default under Section 7.01 hereof, which default gives rise to a right to accelerate indebtedness as referenced in Section 7.01 hereof, under any mortgage, borrowing agreement or other instrument or agreement pertaining to indebtedness for borrowed money or to the repurchase of mortgage loans or securities.

Section 3.07 Solvency. Seller is solvent and will not be rendered insolvent by any Transaction and, after giving effect to such Transaction, will not be left with an unreasonably small amount of capital with which to engage in its business. Seller does not intend to incur, nor does it believe that it has incurred, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature and is not contemplating the commencement of insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation or consolidation proceedings or the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, conservator, trustee or similar official in respect of such entity or any of its assets. Seller is not selling and/or pledging any Repurchase Assets with any intent to hinder, delay or defraud any of its creditors.

Section 3.08 No Conflicts. The execution, delivery and performance by Seller of this Agreement, any Transaction Notice hereunder and the Program Agreements do not conflict with any term or provision of the organizational documents of Seller or any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, writ, injunction or decree applicable to Seller of any court, regulatory body, administrative agency or governmental body having jurisdiction over Seller, which conflict would have a Material Adverse Effect and will not result in any violation of any such mortgage, instrument, agreement, obligation or Servicing Contract to which Seller is a party.

Section 3.09 True and Complete Disclosure. All information, reports, exhibits, schedules, financial statements or certificates of Seller or any Affiliate thereof or any of their officers furnished or to be furnished to Administrative Agent or Buyers in connection with the initial or any ongoing due diligence of Seller or any Affiliate or officer thereof, negotiation, preparation, or delivery of the Program Agreements are true and complete in all material respects and do not omit to disclose any material facts necessary to make the statements herein or therein, in light of the circumstances in which they are made, not misleading. All Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP (other than interim financial statements solely with respect to footnotes, year-end adjustments and cash flow statements).

Section 3.10 Approvals. No consent, approval, authorization or order of, registration or filing with, or notice to any governmental authority or court is required under applicable law in connection with the execution, delivery and performance by Seller of this Agreement, any Transaction Notice and the Program Agreements.

Except as set forth in Schedule 4 attached hereto, there is no action, proceeding or investigation pending with respect to which Seller has received service of process or, to the best of Seller's knowledge threatened against it before any court, administrative agency or other tribunal (A) asserting the invalidity of this Agreement, any Transaction, Transaction Notice or any Program Agreement, (B) seeking to prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, any Transaction Notice or any Program Agreement, (C) making a claim individually or in an aggregate amount greater than [] (D) which requires filing with the SEC in accordance with the 1934 Act or any rules thereunder or (E) which might materially and adversely affect the validity of the Mortgage Loans underlying any Purchased Assets or Servicing Contracts or the performance by it of its obligations under, or the validity or enforceability of, this Agreement, any Transaction Notice or any Program Agreement.

Section 3.12 Material Adverse Change. There has been no material adverse change in the business, operations, financial condition or properties of Seller, taken as a whole, since the date set forth in the most recent Financial Statements supplied to Administrative Agent.

Section 3.13 Special Representations Regarding the Repurchase Assets.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement are effective to create in favor of Administrative Agent on behalf of Buyers a valid security interest in all right, title and interest of Seller in, to and under the Repurchase Assets.

(b) Upon the filing of financing statements on Form UCC-1 naming Administrative Agent as "Secured Party" and Seller as "Debtor", and describing the Repurchase Assets, in the recording offices of the Department of State of the State of Michigan the security interests granted hereunder in the Repurchase Assets will constitute fully perfected first priority security interests under the Uniform Commercial Code in all right, title and interest of Seller in, to and under such Repurchase Assets which can be perfected by filing under the Uniform Commercial Code.

Section 3.14 The Servicing Contracts and Participation Agreements. Administrative Agent has received copies of each Servicing Contract (including, without limitation, all exhibits and schedules referred to therein or delivered pursuant thereto), all amendments thereto, waivers relating thereto and other side letters or agreements affecting the terms thereof and all agreements and other material documents relating thereto, and Seller hereby certifies that the copies delivered to Administrative Agent by Seller are true and complete. None of such documents has been amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (including waivers) since the respective dates thereof, except by amendments, copies of which have been delivered to Administrative Agent. On and after the initial Purchase Date, each such document to which Seller is a party has been duly executed and delivered by Seller and is in full force and effect, and no material default or material breach by Seller has occurred and is continuing thereunder.

Section 3.15 Taxes. Seller and its Subsidiaries have timely filed all federal income tax returns and all other material tax returns that are required to be filed by them and have paid all taxes due pursuant to such tax returns or pursuant to any assessment received by it, except for any such taxes as are being appropriately contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and with respect to which adequate reserves have been provided on the books of the Seller and its Subsidiaries in accordance with GAAP. The charges, accruals and reserves on the books of Seller and its Subsidiaries in respect of taxes and other governmental charges are, in the opinion of Seller, adequate.

Section 3.16 Investment Company. Neither Seller nor any of its Subsidiaries is an "investment company", or a company "controlled" by an "investment company," within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

Section 3.17 Chief Executive Office; Jurisdiction of Organization. On the date hereof, Seller's chief executive office, is, and has since August 16, 2010 been, located at 1050 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226. Seller has no trade names except as set forth on Exhibit D hereto. During the preceding five years, Seller has not been known by or done business under any other name, corporate or fictitious, and has not filed or had filed against it any bankruptcy receivership or similar petitions nor has it made any assignments for the benefit of creditors, except that it has (or had, within such period) the assumed names or trade names listed on Exhibit D hereto.

Section 3.18 Location of Books and Records. The location where Seller keeps its books and records, including all computer tapes and records relating to the Repurchase Assets is its chief executive office.

Section 3.19 Adjusted Tangible Net Worth. On the Effective Date, Seller's Adjusted Tangible Net Worth is not less than the minimum threshold set forth in Section 2.1 of the Pricing Side Letter.

Section 3.20 ERISA. Each Plan to which Seller or its Subsidiaries make direct contributions, and, to the knowledge of Seller, each other Plan and each Multiemployer Plan, is in compliance in all material respects with, and has been administered in all material respects in compliance with, the applicable provisions of ERISA, the Code and any other federal or state law.

Section 3.21 Financing of Assets. Each Transaction will be used to finance one or more Assets which Assets will be conveyed and/or pledged by Seller to Administrative Agent on behalf of Buyers.

Section 3.22 No Restrictive Agreements. Neither Seller nor any Subsidiary of Seller is a party to any agreement, instrument, or indenture or subject to any restriction materially and adversely affecting its business, operations, assets or financial condition, except as disclosed in the Financial Statements described in Section 3.05 hereof. Neither Seller nor any Subsidiary of Seller is in default in the performance, observance or fulfillment of any of the obligations, covenants or conditions contained in any agreement, instrument, or indenture which default would be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, properties, or financial condition of Seller as a whole. No holder of any material indebtedness of Seller or of any of its Subsidiaries has given notice of any asserted material default thereunder.

Section 3.23 Other Indebtedness. All Indebtedness (other than Indebtedness evidenced by this Agreement) of Seller existing on the date of this Agreement is listed on Exhibit E hereto (the "Existing Indebtedness").

Section 3.24 Agency Approvals; Servicing Facilities. Seller has adequate financial standing, servicing facilities, procedures and experienced personnel necessary for the sound servicing of mortgage loans of the same types as may from time to time constitute Mortgage Loans and in accordance with Accepted Servicing Practices. With respect to each Agency Servicing Right and Agency Receivable, Seller is a Ginnie Mae approved issuer and, to the extent necessary, Seller is an FHA Approved Mortgagee and a VA Approved Lender. Seller is also approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act. In each such case, Seller is in good standing, with no event having occurred or Seller having any reason whatsoever to believe or suspect will occur, including a change in insurance coverage which would either make Seller unable to comply with the eligibility requirements for maintaining all such applicable approvals or require notification to the relevant Agency or to HUD, FHA or VA. Should Seller for any reason cease to possess all such applicable approvals, or should notification to the relevant Agency or to HUD, FHA or VA be required, Seller shall so notify Administrative Agent immediately in writing.

Section 3.25 No Reliance. Seller has made its own independent decisions to enter into the Program Agreements and each Transaction and as to whether such Transaction is appropriate and proper for it based upon its own judgment and upon advice from such advisors (including without limitation, legal counsel and accountants) as it has deemed necessary. Seller is not relying upon any advice from Administrative Agent or any Buyer as to any aspect of the Transactions, including without limitation, the legal, accounting or tax treatment of such Transactions.

Section 3.26 Plan Assets. Seller is not an employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3 of Title I of ERISA, or a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code, and the Purchased Assets and the Repurchase Assets are not "plan assets" within the meaning of 29 CFR §2510.3 101 as amended by Section 3(42) of ERISA, in Seller's hands, and transactions by or with Seller are not subject to any state or local statute regulating investments or fiduciary obligations with respect to governmental plans within the meaning of Section 3(32) of ERISA.

Section 3.27 No Prohibited Persons. Neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates, officers, directors, partners or members, is an entity or person: (i) that is listed in the Annex to, or is otherwise subject to the provisions of Executive Order 13224 issued on September 24, 2001 ("EO13224"); (ii) whose name appears on the most current "List of Specially Designated National and Blocked Persons" (https://sanctionssearch.ofac.treas.gov/) maintained by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") (or to Seller's knowledge, 50 percent or greater owned or controlled by such entities or persons); (iii) who commits, threatens to commit or supports "terrorism", as that term is defined in EO13224; or (iv) who is otherwise affiliated with any entity or person listed above (any and all parties or persons described in clauses (i) through (iv) above are herein referred to as a "Prohibited Person").

Section 3.28 Compliance with 1933 Act.

(a) Neither Seller nor anyone acting on its behalf has offered, transferred, pledged, sold or otherwise disposed of the Participation Certificates, or any interest in the Participation Certificates to, or solicited any offer to buy or accept a transfer, pledge or other disposition of the Participation Certificates, or any interest in the Participation Certificates from, or otherwise approached or negotiated with respect to the Participation Certificates, or any interest in the Participation Certificates with, any person in any manner, or made any general solicitation by means of general advertising or in any other manner, or taken any other action which would constitute a distribution of the Participation Certificates under the 1933 Act in violation of Section 5 of the 1933 Act or which would require registration pursuant thereto.

(b) Administrative Agent represents and warrants to Seller as of the date hereof and as of each Purchase Date for any Transaction that neither Administrative Agent nor anyone acting on its behalf nor any Buyer has offered, transferred, pledged, sold or otherwise disposed of the Participation Certificates, or any interest in the Participation Certificates to, or solicited any offer to buy or accept a transfer, pledge or other disposition of the Participation Certificates, or any interest in the Participation Certificates from, or otherwise approached or negotiated with respect to the Participation Certificates, or any interest in the Participation Certificates with, any person in any manner, or made any general solicitation by means of general advertising or in any other manner, or taken any other action, in each of the foregoing instances, which would constitute a distribution of the Participation Certificates under the 1933 Act in violation of Section 5 of the 1933 Act or which would require registration pursuant thereto.

ARTICLE IV

CONVEYANCE; REPURCHASE ASSETS; SECURITY INTEREST

Section 4.01 Ownership. Upon payment of the Purchase Price, Administrative Agent shall become the sole owner of the Purchased Assets (other than the related Servicing Rights, which are pledged, not sold, to Administrative Agent for the benefit of Buyers), for the benefit of the Buyers, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, but subject to the rights of Ginnie Mae pursuant to the Acknowledgment Agreement with Ginnie Mae and as described in Section 4.05.

Section 4.02 Security Interest. (a) Although the parties intend that all Transactions hereunder be sales and purchases and not loans (other than the Servicing Rights and the other Repurchase Assets that are not Purchased Assets, which are pledged, not sold, to Administrative Agent for the benefit of Buyers), in the event any such Transactions are deemed to be loans, and in any event, Seller hereby pledges to Administrative Agent as security for the performance by Seller of its Obligations and hereby grants, assigns and pledges to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of the Buyers, a fully perfected first priority security interest in all of Seller's right, title and interest in, to and under each of the following items of property, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, now existing or hereafter created and wherever located (hereinafter referred to as the "Primary Repurchase Assets"):

(i) all Assets identified on an Asset Schedule or Schedule 2 herein;

(ii) all rights to payment or reimbursement of Assets under the related Servicing Contract or Participation Agreement identified on Schedule 2 hereof;

(iii) the Dedicated Account;

(iv) all rights under each Participation Agreement (other than rights with respect to Mortgage Loans that are not related to Agency Servicing Rights included within any Participation Agreement);

(v) all records, instruments or other documentation evidencing any of the foregoing;

(vi) all "general intangibles", "accounts", "chattel paper", "securities accounts", "investment property", "deposit accounts" and "money" as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code, but only to the extent such items relate to or constitute any and all of the foregoing (including, without limitation, all of Seller's rights, title and interest in and under the Participation Agreements and Servicing Contracts); and

(vii) any and all replacements, substitutions, distributions on or proceeds of any and all of the foregoing (other than cash distributions and proceeds previously withdrawn from the Dedicated Account in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and remitted to Seller in accordance with the terms of this Agreement); provided that neither the Repurchase Assets nor the Servicing Rights pledged hereunder shall include any software relating to such Servicing Rights or to the related Servicing Contracts and the Mortgage Loans serviced thereunder.

(b) Seller hereby pledges and grants a security interest in all of its right, title and interest in, to and under the Repurchase Assets to Administrative Agent to secure the Obligations. Seller agrees to note in its computer records and tapes to evidence the interests granted to Administrative Agent hereunder.

(c) Administrative Agent and Seller hereby agree that in order to further secure Seller's Obligations hereunder, Seller hereby grants to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of each applicable Buyer, a security interest in (i) Seller's rights (but not its obligations) under the Repurchase Documents including without limitation any rights to assets and rights to receive payments thereunder, or any collateral thereunder whether now owned or hereafter acquired, now existing or hereafter created (collectively, the "Repurchase Rights") and (ii) all collateral however defined or described under the Repurchase Documents to the extent not otherwise included under the definitions of Primary Repurchase Assets or Repurchase Rights (such collateral, "Additional Repurchase Assets", together with the Primary Repurchase Assets, collectively, the "Repurchase Assets"). Seller shall deliver an irrevocable instruction to the buyers or administrative agent under the Repurchase Documents that upon receipt of notice of an Event of Default under this Agreement, the buyers or administrative agent thereunder is authorized and instructed to remit to Administrative Agent, on behalf of the applicable Buyers, hereunder directly any amounts otherwise payable to Seller under the Repurchase Documents and to deliver to Administrative Agent all collateral otherwise deliverable to Seller. In furtherance of the foregoing, such notice shall also require, upon repayment of the outstanding purchase price under the Mortgage Loan Repurchase Agreement and termination of all obligations of the buyers thereunder or other termination of the Repurchase Documents following repayment of all obligations thereunder, that, if an Event of Default shall then exist under this Agreement, the Repurchase Document buyers or administrative agent thereunder shall deliver to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, hereunder any collateral under the Repurchase Documents then in its possession or control that is otherwise deliverable to Seller. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, such grant of a security interest in Repurchase Rights and Additional Repurchase Assets shall terminate (i) when CSFBMC or its Affiliates do not constitute all of the "Buyers" (as defined in the Mortgage Loan Repurchase Agreement) or all of the Buyers under this Agreement, or (ii) when the outstanding aggregate "Repurchase Price" under such Mortgage Loan Repurchase Agreement has been paid in full and the Mortgage Loan Repurchase Agreement has been terminated.

(d) The parties acknowledge that each Agency has certain rights under the applicable Acknowledgment Agreement, including the right to cause the Seller to transfer servicing to Administrative Agent or Administrative Agent's designee under certain circumstances as more particularly set forth therein. To the extent that an Agency requires a transfer of servicing to Administrative Agent's Affiliate, SPS or another Affiliate, and in order to secure Seller's obligations to effect such transfer, Seller hereby pledges and grants a security interest in all of its right, title and interest in, to and under the Servicing Rights arising under or related to any Servicing Contract to SPS, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, now existing or hereafter created and wherever located. The parties acknowledge that, to the extent that an Agency exercises its rights to cause the Seller to transfer the Servicing Rights and Portfolio Excess Spread to Administrative Agent, SPS or another Affiliate (and, if accepted by Administrative Agent, to cause Administrative Agent, SPS or another Affiliate of Administrative Agent to accept and assume the responsibility for performing Seller's servicing duties under, and otherwise complying with the applicable Servicing Contract) without the requirement of payment therefor, such transfer shall be deemed a transfer in exchange for debt forgiveness by Administrative Agent in an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the fair market value of such Portfolio Excess Spread and Servicing Rights and (y) the outstanding balance of the Purchase Price attributable to such Portfolio Excess Spread and Servicing Rights, each as determined by Administrative Agent. SPS shall have all the rights and remedies against Seller and the Purchased Assets and Repurchase Assets as set forth herein and under the UCC.

(e) The foregoing provisions of this Section are intended to constitute a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement related to this Agreement and the Transactions hereunder as defined under Sections 101(47)(A)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 4.03 Further Documentation. At any time and from time to time, upon the written request of Administrative Agent, and at the sole expense of Seller, Seller will promptly and duly execute and deliver, or will promptly cause to be executed and delivered, such further instruments and documents and take such further action as Administrative Agent may reasonably request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of this Agreement and of the rights and powers herein granted, including, without limitation, the filing of any financing or continuation statements under the Uniform Commercial Code in effect in any applicable jurisdiction with respect to the Liens created hereby. Seller also hereby authorizes Administrative Agent and SPS to file any such financing or continuation statement to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Section 4.04 Reserved.

Section 4.05 Limited Pledge of Ginnie Mae Servicing. Section 4.08 Reserved.

Section 4.09 Changes in Locations, Name, etc. Seller shall not (a) change the location of its chief executive office/chief place of business from that specified in Section 3.17 or (b) change its name or identity, unless it shall have given Administrative Agent at least 30 days' prior written notice thereof and shall have delivered to Administrative Agent all Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and amendments thereto as Administrative Agent shall request and taken all other actions deemed necessary by Administrative Agent to continue its perfected status in the Repurchase Assets with the same or better priority.

Section 4.10 Administrative Agent's Appointment as Attorney-in-Fact.

(a) Seller hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints Administrative Agent and any officer or agent thereof, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of Seller and in the name of Seller or in its own name, from time to time in Administrative Agent's discretion if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Agreement, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary or reasonably desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller hereby gives Administrative Agent the power and right, on behalf of Seller, without assent by, but with notice to, Seller to do the following:

(i) in the name of Seller or its own name, or otherwise, to take possession of and endorse and collect any checks, drafts, notes, acceptances or other instruments for the payment of moneys due with respect to any Repurchase Assets and to file any claim or to take any other action or proceeding in any court of law or equity or otherwise deemed appropriate by Administrative Agent for the purpose of collecting any and all such moneys due with respect to any Repurchase Asset whenever payable;

(ii) to pay or discharge taxes and Liens levied or placed on or threatened against the Repurchase Assets;

(iv) request distribution to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, of sale proceeds or any applicable contract termination fees arising from the sale or termination of such Servicing Rights and remaining after satisfaction of Seller's relevant obligations to Ginnie Mae or such other investor or guarantor (as the case may be), including costs and expenses related to any such sale or transfer of such Servicing Rights and other amounts due for unmet obligations of Seller to Ginnie Mae or such other investor or guarantor (as the case may be) under applicable Ginnie Mae Guides or such other investor's or guarantor's contract;

(v) deal with investors and any and all subservicers and master servicers in respect of any of the Servicing Rights related to Repurchase Assets in the same manner and with the same effect as if done by Seller;

(vi) (A) to direct any party liable for any payment under any Repurchase Assets to make payment of any and all moneys due or to become due thereunder directly to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, or as Administrative Agent shall direct; (B) to ask or demand for, collect, receive payment of and receipt for, any and all moneys, claims and other amounts due or to become due at any time in respect of or arising out of any Repurchase Asset; (C) to sign and endorse any invoices, assignments, verifications, notices and other documents in connection with any of the Repurchase Assets; (D) to commence and prosecute any suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect the Repurchase Assets or any portion thereof and to enforce any other right in respect of any Repurchase Assets; (E) to defend any suit, action or proceeding brought against Seller with respect to any Repurchase Assets; (F) to settle, compromise or adjust any suit, action or proceeding described in clause (E) above and, in connection therewith, to give such discharges or releases as Administrative Agent may in its sole good faith discretion deem appropriate; and (G) generally, to sell, transfer, pledge and make any agreement with respect to or otherwise deal with any of the Repurchase Assets as fully and completely as though Administrative Agent were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Administrative Agent's option and Seller's expense, at any time, and from time to time, all acts and things which Administrative Agent in its sole good faith discretion deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Repurchase Assets and Administrative Agent's Liens thereon and to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as Seller might do.

(b) Seller hereby ratifies all that said attorneys shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. This power of attorney is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable until such time as all Obligations (other than unasserted contingent claims for indemnification or reimbursement) have been paid in full and this Agreement is terminated.

(c) Seller also authorizes Administrative Agent, at any time and from time to time, to execute, in connection with any sale provided for in Section 4.13 hereof, any endorsements, assignments or other instruments of conveyance or transfer with respect to the Repurchase Assets.

(d) The powers conferred on Administrative Agent are solely to protect Administrative Agent's interests, on behalf of Buyers, in the Repurchase Assets and shall not impose any duty upon Administrative Agent to exercise any such powers. Administrative Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers, and neither Administrative Agent, nor any of its officers, directors, or employees shall be responsible to Seller for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for with respect to the Administrative Agent, Administrative Agent's own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(e) In addition to the foregoing, Seller agrees to execute a power of attorney (the "Power of Attorney") in favor of Administrative Agent in the form of Exhibit B-1 hereto to be delivered on the Effective Date and in favor of SPS in the form of Exhibit B-2 hereto to be delivered on the Effective Date.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or any of the other Program Agreements, any appointment set forth in this Section 4.10 shall be subject to the Servicing Contracts and Acknowledgment Agreements entered into with Ginnie Mae.

Section 4.11 Performance by Administrative Agent of Seller's Obligations. If Seller fails to perform or comply with any of its agreements contained in the Program Agreements and Administrative Agent itself performs or complies, or otherwise cause performance or compliance, with such agreement, the reasonable (under the circumstances) out-of-pocket expenses of Administrative Agent actually incurred in connection with such performance or compliance, together with interest thereon at a rate per annum equal to the Pricing Rate shall be payable by Seller to Administrative Agent on demand and shall constitute Obligations. Such interest shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days in each Price Differential Period and a 360-day year.

Section 4.12 Proceeds. If an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, (a) all Proceeds of Repurchase Assets received by Seller consisting of cash, checks and other near-cash items shall be held by Seller in trust for Administrative Agent, segregated from other funds of Seller, and shall forthwith upon receipt by Seller be turned over to Administrative Agent in the exact form received by Seller (duly endorsed by Seller to Administrative Agent, if required) and (b) any and all such Proceeds received by Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers (whether from Seller or otherwise) may, in the sole good faith discretion of Administrative Agent, be held by Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, as collateral security for, and/or then or at any time thereafter may be applied by Administrative Agent against, the Obligations (whether matured or unmatured), such application to be in such order as Administrative Agent shall elect. Any balance of such Proceeds remaining after the Obligations shall have been paid in full and this Agreement shall have been terminated shall be paid over to Seller or to whomsoever may be lawfully entitled to receive the same. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any of the other Program Agreements, the remedies set forth in this Section 4.12 shall be subject to the Servicing Contract(s) and Acknowledgment Agreement entered into with Ginnie Mae.

Section 4.13 Remedies. If an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, Administrative Agent may exercise, in addition to all other rights and remedies granted to it in this Agreement and in any other instrument or agreement securing, evidencing or relating to the Obligations, all rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code (including without limitation, Administrative Agent's rights to a strict foreclosure under Section 9-620 of the Uniform Commercial Code). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Administrative Agent may seek the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, conservator, trustee, or similar official in respect of Seller or any of Seller's property. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Administrative Agent may terminate the Participation Interest in accordance with the Participation Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Administrative Agent without demand of performance or other demand, presentment, protest, advertisement or notice of any kind (except any notice required under this Agreement or by law referred to below) to or upon Seller or any other Person (each and all of which demands, presentments, protests, advertisements and notices are hereby waived), may in such circumstances forthwith collect, receive, appropriate and realize upon the Repurchase Assets, or any part thereof, and/or may forthwith sell, lease, assign, give option or options to purchase, or otherwise dispose of and deliver the Repurchase Assets or any part thereof (or contract to do any of the foregoing), in one or more parcels or as an entirety at public or private sale or sales, at any exchange, broker's board or office of Administrative Agent or elsewhere upon such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable and at such prices as it may deem best, for cash or on credit or for future delivery without assumption of any credit risk. Administrative Agent shall have the right upon any such public sale or sales, and, to the extent permitted by law, upon any such private sale or sales, to purchase the whole or any part of the Repurchase Assets so sold, free of any right or equity of redemption in Seller, which right or equity is hereby waived or released. Seller further agrees, at Administrative Agent's request, to assemble the Repurchase Assets and make it available to Administrative Agent at places which Administrative Agent shall reasonably select, whether at Seller's premises or elsewhere. Administrative Agent shall apply the net proceeds of any such collection, recovery, receipt, appropriation, realization or sale, after deducting all reasonable (under the circumstances) out-of-pocket costs and expenses of every kind actually incurred therein or incidental to the care or safekeeping of any of the Repurchase Assets or in any way relating to the Repurchase Assets or the rights of Administrative Agent hereunder, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, to the payment in whole or in part of the Obligations, in such order as Administrative Agent may elect, and only after such application and after the payment by Administrative Agent of any other amount required or permitted by any provision of law, including without limitation Section 9-615 of the Uniform Commercial Code, need Administrative Agent account for the surplus, if any, to Seller. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Seller waives all claims, damages and demands it may acquire against Administrative Agent or Buyers arising out of the exercise by Administrative Agent or Buyers of any of its rights hereunder, other than those claims, damages and demands arising from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Administrative Agent or Buyers. If any notice of a proposed sale or other disposition of Repurchase Assets shall be required by law, such notice shall be deemed reasonable and proper if given at least ten (10) days before such sale or other disposition. Seller shall remain liable for any deficiency (plus accrued interest thereon as contemplated herein) if the Proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Repurchase Assets are insufficient to pay the Obligations and the fees and disbursements in amounts reasonable under the circumstances, of any attorneys employed by Administrative Agent to collect such deficiency. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any of the other Program Agreements, the remedies set forth in this Section 4.13 shall be subject to the Servicing Contracts and Acknowledgment Agreements entered into with Ginnie Mae.

Section 4.14 Limitation on Duties Regarding Preservation of Repurchase Assets. Administrative Agent's duty with respect to the custody, safekeeping and physical preservation of the Repurchase Assets in its possession, under Section 9-207 of the Uniform Commercial Code or otherwise, shall be to deal with it in the same manner as Administrative Agent deals with similar property for its own account. Neither Administrative Agent nor any of its directors, officers or employees shall be liable for failure to demand, collect or realize upon all or any part of the Repurchase Assets or for any delay in doing so or shall be under any obligation to sell or otherwise dispose of any Repurchase Assets upon the request of Seller or otherwise.

Section 4.15 Powers Coupled with an Interest. All authorizations and agencies herein contained with respect to the Repurchase Assets are irrevocable and powers coupled with an interest.

Section 4.16 Release of Security Interest. Upon termination of this Agreement and (i) repayment to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, of all Obligations (other than unasserted contingent claims for indemnification reimbursement) and the performance of all obligations under the Program Agreements and (ii) so long as no Event of Default has occurred hereunder, Administrative Agent and Buyers shall release their security interest in any remaining Repurchase Assets and shall promptly execute and deliver to Seller such documents or instruments as Seller shall reasonably request to evidence such release. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller may, with prior notice to Administrative Agent, transfer or otherwise dispose of any Servicing Rights sold and/or pledged hereunder, and Administrative Agent and Seller shall amend Schedule 2 hereto to reflect such transfer or disposition, so long as (i) Seller has repaid to Administrative Agent all Obligations with respect to such Servicing Rights, (ii) after giving effect thereto, no Margin Deficit exists and (iii) no Event of Default shall exists; provided that, Administrative Agent shall not release its security interest in such Servicing Rights until all Obligations with respect to such Servicing Rights have been satisfied. In connection with any such transfer or disposition, Administrative Agent will, upon Seller's request, deliver to or for the account of Seller, or authorize Seller or its agents to file, a UCC-3 financing statement to release Administrative Agent's security interest in such Servicing Rights and Repurchase Assets.

In the event of any such sale by such Buyer of participating interests to a Participant, such Buyer shall remain a party to the Transaction for all purposes under this Agreement and Seller shall continue to deal solely and directly with Administrative Agent and/or such Buyer in connection with such Buyer's rights and obligations under this Agreement.

(b) Any Buyer or Administrative Agent may in accordance with applicable law at any time assign to one or more banks, financial institutions, investment companies, investment funds or any other Person (each, a "Transferee") all or a portion of such Buyer's or Administrative Agent's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Program Agreements; provided, however, absent an Event of Default (i) such Buyer or Administrative Agent shall give at least ten days' prior notice thereof to Seller and (ii) any such Transferee that is not an Affiliate of Administrative Agent shall be subject to Seller's prior written approval (which shall not be unreasonably withheld); and provided, further, that each such sale shall represent an interest in the Transactions with an aggregate Purchase Price of $1,000,000 or more. In the event of any such assignment by such Buyer or Administrative Agent of such Buyer's or Administrative Agent's rights under this Agreement and the other Program Agreements, Seller shall continue to deal solely and directly with Administrative Agent in connection with such Buyer's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including such rights and obligations existing before such assignment and Buyer shall not be relieved of such obligations even if Seller consents to such assignment). Administrative Agent (acting as agent for Seller) shall maintain at its address referred to in Section 11.05, for review by the parties upon written request with reasonable notice, a register (the "Register") for the recordation of the names and addresses of Transferees, and the Purchase Price outstanding and Price Differential in the Transactions held by each thereof. The entries in the Register shall be prima facie conclusive and binding, and Seller may treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register as the owner of the Purchase Price in the Transactions recorded therein for all purposes of this Agreement. No assignment shall be effective until it is recorded in the Register.

(c) All actions taken by Administrative Agent or Buyer pursuant to this Section 10.02 shall be at the expense of such Buyer or Administrative Agent on behalf of such Buyer. Administrative Agent and each Buyer may distribute to any prospective assignee or Participant any document or other information delivered to Administrative Agent and/or Buyers by Seller, so long as any such prospective assignee, Participant or Transferee shall execute a confidentiality agreement reasonably acceptable to Seller, it being understood that such agreement shall be deemed acceptable by Seller if it contains terms at least as restrictive as those set forth in Section 11.11 hereof, and Administrative Agent and Buyers shall reasonably cooperate with Seller in enforcing such confidentiality agreement for the benefit of Seller; provided, further, that no Seller shall be subject to any additional reporting requirements other than as set forth in the Program Agreements.

Section 10.03 Administrative Agent and Participant Register. (a) Subject to Section 10.02(b) and to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 10.03, from and after the effective date specified in each assignment and acceptance between Administrative Agent and Administrative Agent's assignee, the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such assignment and acceptance, have the rights and obligations of Administrative Agent under this Agreement. Any assignment or transfer by Administrative Agent of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with Section 10.02(b) and this Section 10.03 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Administrative Agent of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 10.02.

(b) Administrative Agent (acting as an agent of Seller) shall maintain the Register on which it will record the Transactions entered into hereunder, and each assignment and acceptance and participation. The Register shall include the names and addresses of Administrative Agent and Buyers (including all assignees, successors and Participants), and the Purchase Price of the Transactions entered into by Administrative Agent. Failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation shall not affect Seller's obligations in respect of such Transactions. If any Buyer or Administrative Agent on behalf of a Buyer sells a participation in any Transaction, it shall provide Seller, or maintain as agent of Seller, the information described in this paragraph and permit Seller to review such information as reasonably requested.

ARTICLE XI

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 11.01 Survival. This Agreement and the other Program Agreements and all covenants, agreements, representations and warranties herein and therein and in the certificates delivered pursuant hereto and thereto, shall survive the entering into of the Transactions and shall continue in full force and effect so long as any Obligations are outstanding and unpaid.

Section 11.02 Indemnification. Seller shall, and hereby agrees to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless Administrative Agent, each Buyer and each of their Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, agents, employees and counsel from and against any and all third-party losses, claims, damages, liabilities, deficiencies, judgments or expenses incurred by any of them (except to the extent that it resulted from their own gross negligence or willful misconduct or as otherwise provided in Section 11.11(c)) (collectively, "Losses") as a consequence of, or arising out of or by reason of any litigation, investigations, claims or proceedings which arise out of or are in any way related to, (i) this Agreement or any other Program Agreement, any Servicing Contract (other than Losses to the extent arising out of, as a consequence of, or by reason of the fact that the Servicing Rights were made subject to a Participation Agreement as contemplated therein) or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, (ii) Seller's servicing practices or procedures; (iii) any actual or proposed use by Seller of the proceeds of the Purchase Price, and (iv) any Default, Event of Default or any other breach by Seller of any of the provisions of this Agreement or any other Program Agreement, including, without limitation, amounts paid in settlement, court costs and reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel incurred in connection with any such litigation, investigation, claim or proceeding or any advice rendered in connection with any of the foregoing. If and to the extent that any Obligations are unenforceable for any reason, Seller hereby agrees to make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of such Obligations which is permissible under applicable law. Seller's obligations set forth in this Section 11.02 shall survive any termination of this Agreement and each other Program Agreement and the payment in full of the Obligations, and are in addition to, and not in substitution of, any other of its obligations set forth in this Agreement or otherwise. In addition, Seller shall, upon demand, pay to Administrative Agent on behalf of Buyers all costs and Expenses (including the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel) paid or incurred by Administrative Agent or Buyers in (i) enforcing or defending its rights under or in respect of this Agreement or any other Program Agreement, (ii) collecting the Mortgage Loan, (iii) foreclosing or otherwise collecting upon any Repurchase Assets and (iv) obtaining any legal, accounting or other advice in connection with any of the foregoing. Nothing in this Section 11.02 shall limit Seller's obligation to satisfy its Obligations.

Section 11.03 Nonliability of Administrative Agent or Buyers. The parties hereto agree that, notwithstanding any affiliation that may exist between Seller, on one hand, and Administrative Agent and Buyers, on the other, the relationship between Seller and Administrative Agent and Buyers shall be solely that of arms-length participants. Neither Administrative Agent nor any Buyer shall have any fiduciary responsibilities to Seller. Neither Administrative Agent nor any Buyer shall have any liability with respect to, and Seller hereby waives, releases and agrees not to sue upon any claim for, any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages suffered by Seller in connection with, arising out of, or in any way related to the transactions contemplated or the relationship established by this Agreement, the other Program Agreements or any other agreement entered into in connection herewith or therewith or any act, omission or event occurring in connection herewith or therewith, except to the extent such damages were the result of acts or omissions on the part of Administrative Agent or Buyers, as applicable, constituting willful misconduct or gross negligence.

Section 11.04 Governing Law; Jurisdiction, Waiver of Jury Trial; Waiver of Damages. (a) This Agreement shall be binding and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Seller acknowledges that the obligations of Administrative Agent and Buyers hereunder or otherwise are not the subject of any guaranty by, or recourse to, any direct or indirect parent or other Affiliate of Administrative Agent or any Buyer. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, AND GOVERNED BY, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF.

(b) SELLER HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY. SELLER HEREBY IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, OR IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE PROGRAM AGREEMENTS IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING. SELLER HEREBY SUBMITS TO, AND WAIVES ANY OBJECTION IT MAY HAVE TO, EXCLUSIVE PERSONAL JURISDICTION AND VENUE IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, WITH RESPECT TO ANY DISPUTES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE PROGRAM AGREEMENTS.

(c) Seller further irrevocably consents to the service of process of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the mailing of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to Seller at the address set forth in Section 11.05 hereof.

(d) Nothing herein shall affect the right of Administrative Agent or Buyers to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise proceed against Seller in any other jurisdiction.

(e) Seller waives the posting of any bond otherwise required of Administrative Agent or any Buyer in connection with any judicial process or proceeding to enforce any judgment or other court order entered in favor of Administrative Agent or any Buyer, or to enforce by specific performance, temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction this Agreement or any of the other Program Agreements.

Section 11.06 Severability. Each provision and agreement herein shall be treated as separate and independent from any other provision or agreement herein and shall be enforceable notwithstanding the unenforceability of any such other provision or agreement. In case any provision in or obligation under this Agreement or any other Program Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Section 11.07 Section Headings. The Article and Section headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

Section 11.08 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 11.09 Periodic Due Diligence Review. Seller acknowledges that Administrative Agent has the right to perform continuing due diligence reviews with respect to Seller and the Assets, for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties and specifications made hereunder, or otherwise, and Seller agrees that upon reasonable (but no less than three (3) Business Days') prior notice unless an Event of Default shall have occurred, in which case no notice is required, to Seller, Administrative Agent or its authorized representatives will be permitted during normal business hours, and in a manner that does not unreasonably interfere with the ordinary conduct of Seller's business, to examine, inspect, and make copies and extracts of, any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Assets in the possession or under the control of Seller. Seller also shall make available to Administrative Agent a knowledgeable financial or accounting officer for the purpose of answering questions respecting the Assets. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller acknowledges that Administrative Agent on behalf of Buyers may enter into a Transaction related to any Assets with Seller based solely upon the information provided by Seller to Administrative Agent in the Asset Schedule and the representations, warranties and covenants contained herein, and that Administrative Agent, at its option, has the right at any time to conduct a partial or complete due diligence review on some or all of the Assets related to a Transaction. Seller agrees to cooperate with Administrative Agent and any third party underwriter in connection with such underwriting, including, but not limited to, providing Administrative Agent and any third party underwriter with access to any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Assets in the possession, or under the control, of Seller. Administrative Agent agrees that Seller shall not be responsible for the payment of any out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Administrative Agent in connection with Administrative Agent's activities pursuant to this Section 11.09; provided, that if a Default or Event of Default shall have occurred, Administrative Agent shall have the right to perform due diligence, at the sole expense of Seller.

Section 11.10 Reserved.

Section 11.11 Confidentiality.This Agreement and its terms, provisions, supplements and amendments, and notices hereunder, are proprietary to Administrative Agent, Buyers or Seller and shall be held by each party hereto, as applicable, and the Information (as defined below) is proprietary to Seller and shall be held by Administrative Agent and Buyers and their Affiliates (but only to the extent that such Affiliate has received Information), in strict confidence and shall not be disclosed to any third party without the written consent of Administrative Agent or Seller, as applicable, except for (i) disclosure to Administrative Agent's or Buyers' or Seller's direct and indirect Affiliates and Subsidiaries, attorneys or accountants or to Seller's third party lenders as permitted by Section 6.26 above, but only to the extent such disclosure is necessary and such parties agree to hold all information in strict confidence and otherwise subject to this Section 11.11, (ii) disclosure required by law, rule, regulation or order of a court or other regulatory body ("Governmental Order") or, only with respect to the name of Seller, disclosure required by a rating agency in connection with any securities issued by Administrative Agent or an Affiliate of Administrative Agent, (iii) disclosure as Seller, Administrative Agent or Buyers deem appropriate in connection with the enforcement of Seller's, Administrative Agent's or Buyers' rights hereunder or under any Transaction; provided, that Administrative Agent and Buyers shall reasonably cooperate with Seller in its efforts to obtain a protective order or otherwise protect the confidentiality of such information for the benefit of Seller, (iv) disclosure of any confidential terms that are in the public domain other than due to a breach of this Agreement, (v) disclosure made to an assignee, participant, repledgee or any of their representatives, attorneys or accountants, but only to the extent such disclosure is necessary in connection with the Transactions or performing rights or obligations hereunder or (vi) disclosures required by contracts with Seller's lenders and/or parties entering into, or contemplating the entering into, one or more transactions, including, without limitation, whole loan portfolio sales) with Seller, and conducting due diligence in connection therewith; provided, however, that any such disclosure to Seller's lenders and/or such other parties shall be made subject to confidentiality agreements satisfactory to Administrative Agent, in Administrative Agent's exercise of its reasonable discretion; provided, further, that Seller shall provide to Administrative Agent copies of such contracts with such Seller's lenders and/or such other parties requesting copies of this Agreement; and provided, further, that any such disclosure under clauses (i) or (v) shall only be permitted if the recipient executed a confidentiality agreement reasonably acceptable to Seller, it being understood that such agreement shall be deemed to be acceptable by Seller if it contains terms at least as restrictive as those contained in this Section 11.11, or if such recipient is otherwise bound by law or ethical conduct to hold such information as confidential, and in each case, Administrative Agent and Buyers shall reasonably cooperate with Seller in enforcing such confidentiality agreement or obligations, as applicable, for the benefit of Seller. In furtherance of the foregoing, none of Administrative Agent, a Buyer or any of their Affiliates shall use any of the Information (as defined below) except in connection with their administration of, enforcement of and/or exercise of remedies under, this Agreement and the Transactions hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Program Agreements, the parties hereto may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal income tax treatment of the Transactions, any fact relevant to understanding the federal tax treatment of the Transactions, and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) relating to such federal income tax treatment; provided that Seller may not disclose the name of or identifying information with respect to Administrative Agent or Buyers or any pricing terms (including, without limitation, the Pricing Rate, Purchase Price Percentage and Purchase Price and any other fees in the Pricing Side Letter) or other nonpublic business or financial information (including any sublimits and financial covenants) that is unrelated to the purported or claimed federal income tax treatment of the Transactions and is not relevant to understanding the purported or claimed federal income tax treatment of the Transactions, without the prior written consent of Administrative Agent. For the purposes of this Section 11.11, "Information" means all information received from or on behalf of Seller relating to Seller or any of its Affiliates, other than (i) any such information that is available to Administrative Agent or Buyers on a nonconfidential basis prior to disclosure by or on behalf of Seller, (ii) any information that is in the public domain or is made publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Agreement, (iii) information developed independently by Administrative Agent or Buyers and (iv) in the event of an Event of Default Administrative Agent determines in its sole good faith discretion such information to be necessary or reasonably desirable to disclose in connection with the marketing and sales of the Purchased Assets or otherwise to enforce or exercise Administrative Agent's and Buyers' rights hereunder.Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall comply with all applicable local, state and federal laws, including, without limitation, all privacy and data protection law, rules and regulations that are applicable to the Repurchase Assets and/or any applicable terms of this Agreement (the "Confidential Information"). Seller understands that the Confidential Information may contain "nonpublic personal information", as that term is defined in Section 509(4) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (the "Act"), and Seller agrees to maintain such nonpublic personal information that it receives hereunder in accordance with the Act and other applicable federal and state privacy laws. Seller shall implement such physical and other security measures as shall be necessary to (a) ensure the security and confidentiality of the "nonpublic personal information" of the "customers" and "consumers" (as those terms are defined in the Act) of Administrative Agent and Buyers or any Affiliate of Administrative Agent and Buyers which Seller holds, (b) protect against any threats or hazards to the security and integrity of such nonpublic personal information, and (c) protect against any unauthorized access to or use of such nonpublic personal information. Seller represents and warrants that it has implemented appropriate measures to meet the objectives of Section 501(b) of the Act and of the applicable standards adopted pursuant thereto, as now or hereafter in effect. Upon request, Seller will provide evidence reasonably satisfactory to allow Administrative Agent to confirm that the providing party has satisfied its obligations as required under this section. Without limitation, this may include Administrative Agent's review of audits, summaries of test results, and other equivalent evaluations of Seller. Seller shall notify Administrative Agent immediately following discovery of any breach or compromise of the security, confidentiality, or integrity of nonpublic personal information of the customers and consumers of Administrative Agent, Buyers or any Affiliate of Administrative Agent or Buyers provided directly to Seller by Administrative Agent or Buyers or such Affiliate. Seller shall provide such notice to Administrative Agent by personal delivery, by facsimile with confirmation of receipt, or by overnight courier with confirmation of receipt to the applicable requesting individual.Without limiting the obligations and undertakings of the Seller under this Agreement, the applicable Buyer or Administrative Agent shall be responsible for all actual out of pocket losses, damages, liabilities, judgments or expenses, including those incurred by Seller or its Affiliates, to the extent arising solely out of or resulting solely from any breach by Administrative Agent or such Buyer, its Affiliates or their respective agents of any law, rule or regulation, including the Act, in all cases, applicable to the Confidential Information; provided that disclosure of Confidential Information shall not be considered a breach by Administrative Agent, Buyers, their Affiliates or their respective agents if such disclosure is required by law, rule, regulation or order of a court or other regulatory body. The provisions of this Section 11.11(c) shall survive for the period of time prescribed in the Act with respect to Confidential Information or such other period provided by law.The provisions of Section 11.11(a) and (b) shall survive for three (3) years after any termination of this Agreement, provided however, any Confidential Information retained by Administrative Agent or Buyers beyond such period shall be maintained in accordance with Administrative Agent's or Buyers' information security policies.

Section 11.12 Set-off. In addition to any rights and remedies of Administrative Agent and Buyers hereunder and by law, Administrative Agent on behalf of Buyers shall have the right, without prior notice to Seller (except for such notice and right to cure as may be specifically provided hereunder in connection with certain Events of Default), any such notice being expressly waived by Seller to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by Seller hereunder (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) to set-off and appropriate and apply against such amount due and payable by Seller hereunder to a Buyer or any of its Affiliates any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by or due from Administrative Agent or any Affiliate of Administrative Agent that is the "Administrative Agent" as defined in the Mortgage Loan Repurchase Agreement (but for such Affiliate of Administrative Agent, only until the earlier of (i) the date such Affiliate of Administrative Agent ceases to be the "Administrative Agent" as defined in the Mortgage Loan Repurchase Agreement, and (ii) the date the aggregate outstanding "Repurchase Price" under such Mortgage Loan Repurchase Agreement has been paid in full and all "Transactions" under the Mortgage Loan Repurchase Agreement have terminated) to or for the credit or the account of Seller. Administrative Agent agrees promptly to notify Seller after any such set-off and application made by Administrative Agent; provided, that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application.

Section 11.13 Intent.

(a) The parties recognize that each Transaction is a "repurchase agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101 of Title 11 of the United States Code, as amended, a "securities contract" as that term is defined in Section 741 of Title 11 of the United States Code, as amended, and a "master netting agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101(38A)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, that all payments hereunder are deemed "margin payments" or "settlement payments" as defined in Title 11 of the United States Code, and that the pledge of the Repurchase Assets constitutes "a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement" that is "related to" the Agreement and Transactions hereunder within the meaning of Sections 101(38A)(A), 101(47)(A)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code. Seller, Administrative Agent and Buyers further recognize and intend that this Agreement is an agreement to provide financial accommodations and is not subject to assumption pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 365(a).

(b) It is understood that any party's right to liquidate Purchased Assets delivered to it in connection with Transactions hereunder or to exercise any other remedies pursuant to Section 7.03 hereof is a contractual right to liquidate such Transaction as described in Bankruptcy Code Sections 555, 559 and 561; any payments or transfers of property made with respect to this Agreement or any Transaction to satisfy a Margin Deficit shall be considered a "margin payment" as such term is defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 741(5).

(c) The parties agree and acknowledge that if a party hereto is an "insured depository institution," as such term is defined in the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended ("FDIA"), then each Transaction hereunder is a "qualified financial contract," as that term is defined in FDIA and any rules, orders or policy statements thereunder (except insofar as the type of assets subject to such Transaction would render such definition inapplicable).

(d) It is understood that this Agreement constitutes a "netting contract" as defined in and subject to Title IV of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 ("FDICIA") and each payment entitlement and payment obligation under any Transaction hereunder shall constitute a "covered contractual payment entitlement" or "covered contractual payment obligation", respectively, as defined in and subject to FDICIA (except insofar as one or both of the parties is not a "financial institution" as that term is defined in FDICIA).

(e) This Agreement is intended to be a "repurchase agreement" and a "securities contract," within the meaning of Section 101(47), Section 555, Section 559 and Section 741 under the Bankruptcy Code.

(f) Each party agrees that this Agreement is intended to create mutuality of obligations among the parties, and as such, the Agreement constitutes a contract which (i) is between all of the parties and (ii) places each party in the same right and capacity.

(g) The parties acknowledge and agree that it is their intent for purposes of U.S. federal, state and local income and franchise taxes to treat each Transaction as Indebtedness of Seller that is secured by the Purchased Assets and that the Purchased Assets are owned by Seller in the absence of an Event of Default by Seller. The parties agree to take no action inconsistent with such treatment unless required by applicable law or final determination of a taxing authority.

Section 11.14 Acknowledgment of Administration of Repurchase Agreement.

Administrative Agent may allocate to existing Buyers certain Purchased Assets and the related Repurchase Assets and related Transactions. Administrative Agent shall update the Register as provided in Section 10.02(b) and Section 10.03 with respect to such allocation of Purchased Assets. The Administrative Agent shall administer the provisions of this Agreement for the benefit of the Buyers. For the avoidance of doubt, all payments, notices, communications and agreements pursuant to this Agreement shall be delivered to, and entered into by, the Administrative Agent, for the benefit of the Buyers. Furthermore, to the extent that the Administrative Agent exercises remedies pursuant to this Agreement, any of the Administrative Agent and/or any Buyer will have the right to bid on and/or purchase any of the Repurchase Assets pursuant to Section 4.13. The benefit of all representations, rights, remedies and covenants set forth in the Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Administrative Agent on behalf of each Buyer. All provisions of the Agreement shall survive the transfers contemplated herein. Notwithstanding that multiple Buyers may purchase individual Assets subject to Transactions entered into under this Agreement, all Transactions shall continue to be deemed a single Transaction and all of the Repurchase Assets shall be security for all of the Obligations hereunder.

Section 11.15 Bankruptcy Non-Petition.The parties hereby agree that they shall not institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, any Buyer that is a CP Conduit any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceeding, or other similar proceeding under any federal or state bankruptcy or similar law, for one (1) year and one (1) day after the latest maturing commercial paper note issued by the applicable CP Conduit is paid in full.

Section 11.16 Limited Recourse.The obligations of each Buyer under this Agreement or any other Program Agreement are solely the corporate obligations of such Buyer. No recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing by any Buyer under this Agreement, or for the payment by any Buyer of any fee in respect hereof or any other obligation or claim of or against such Buyer arising out of or based on this Agreement, against any stockholder, partner, member, employee, officer, director or incorporator or other authorized person of such Buyer. In addition, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the parties agree that all payment obligations of any Buyer that is a CP Conduit under this Agreement shall be limited recourse obligations of such Buyer, payable solely from the funds of such Buyer available for such purpose in accordance with its commercial paper program documents. Each party waives payment by such CP Conduit of any amount which such Buyer does not pay pursuant to the operation of the preceding sentence until the day which is at least one (1) year and one (1) day after the payment in full of the latest maturing commercial paper note (and waives any "claim" against such Buyer within the meaning of Section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code or any other debtor relief law for any such insufficiency until such date).

Notwithstanding anything in any Program Agreement to the contrary, including, without limitation, any of the waivers in this Section 11.16, CS Cayman shall be liable for all of the obligations of any CP Conduit under any of the Program Agreements.

Section 11.17 Amendment and Restatement.

Administrative Agent, as a Buyer, and Seller entered into the Existing Master Repurchase Agreement. Administrative Agent, Seller and Buyers desire to enter into this Agreement in order to amend and restate the Existing Master Repurchase Agreement in its entirety. The amendment and restatement of the Existing Master Repurchase Agreement shall become effective on the date hereof, and each of Administrative Agent, Seller and Buyers shall hereafter be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the other Program Agreements. This Agreement amends and restates the terms and conditions of the Existing Master Repurchase Agreement, and is not a novation of any of the agreements or obligations incurred pursuant to the terms of the Existing Master Repurchase Agreement. Accordingly, all of the agreements and obligations incurred pursuant to the terms of the Existing Master Repurchase Agreement are hereby ratified and affirmed by the parties hereto and remain in full force and effect. For the avoidance of doubt, it is the intent of Administrative Agent, Seller and Buyers that the security interests and liens granted in the Purchased Assets pursuant to Section 4.02 of the Existing Master Repurchase Agreement shall continue in full force and effect. All references to the Existing Master Repurchase Agreement in any Program Agreement or other document or instrument delivered in connection therewith shall be deemed to refer to this Agreement and the provisions hereof.

Section 11.18 Conflicts.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and any other Program Agreement, the documents shall control in the following order of priority: first, the terms of the Pricing Side Letter shall prevail, then the terms of this Agreement shall prevail, and then the terms of the other Program Agreements shall prevail.

Section 11.19 General Interpretive Principles.For purposes of this Agreement, except as otherwise expressly provided or unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) the terms defined in this Agreement have the meanings assigned to them in this Agreement and include the plural as well as the singular, and the use of any gender herein shall be deemed to include the other gender;

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Seller, Administrative Agent and Buyers have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered by their duly authorized officers or trustees as of the date first above written.

SCHEDULE 1-A

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES REGARDING ASSETS

Seller makes the following representations and warranties to Administrative Agent with respect to each Asset that is subject to a Transaction hereunder and at all times while the Purchased Assets are subject to a Transaction hereunder. With respect to those representations and warranties which are made to the best of Seller's knowledge, if it is discovered by Seller or Administrative Agent that the substance of such representation and warranty is inaccurate, notwithstanding Seller's lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty, such inaccuracy shall be deemed a breach of the applicable representation and warranty for purposes of determining Asset Value.

(a) Asset Schedule. The Asset Schedule most recently submitted to Administrative Agent is a true and complete list of the Assets pledged hereunder as of the date of submission (except for any immaterial inaccuracy resulting from ministerial errors which are promptly corrected after Seller receives notice thereof).

(b) Servicing Contracts. All of the Servicing Contracts with respect to such Assets are in full force and effect and have not been modified and Seller as servicer has not been terminated thereunder.

(c) Assignment. Pursuant to this Agreement, Seller grants to the Administrative Agent for the benefit of Buyers a valid security interest in all the right, title and interest of such Seller in and to the Repurchase Assets and the Related Security with respect to the Assets, which security interest is perfected and of first priority, enforceable against, and creating an interest prior in right to, all creditors of and purchasers from Seller.

(d) No Liens. Each Purchased Asset conveyed (other than Servicing Rights, which are pledged, not sold, to Administrative Agent for the benefit of Buyers) and pledged on such Purchase Date is owned by the Seller free and clear of any Lien, except as provided herein, and is not subject to any dispute or other adverse claim, except as provided herein. The Administrative Agent's security interest in such Purchased Assets, the Related Security and the Collections with respect thereto, is free and clear of any Lien, except as provided herein. The Seller has not and will not prior to the time of the pledge of any such interest to the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the applicable Buyers have sold, pledged, assigned, transferred or subjected and will not thereafter sell, pledge, assign, transfer or subject to a Lien any of such Purchased Assets, the Related Security or the Collections other than in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(e) Filings. On or prior to each Purchase Date, all financing statements and other documents required to be recorded or filed in order to perfect the Administrative Agent's security interest in, and protect the Assets and the other related Assets against all creditors of, and purchasers from, Seller and all other Persons whatsoever have been duly filed in each filing office necessary for such purpose, and all filing fees and taxes, if any, payable in connection with such filings have been paid in full.

(f) Collection Policy. Seller has complied in all material respects with the Collection Policy in regard to each Asset and related Servicing Contract. Seller has not extended or modified the terms of any Asset or the related Servicing Contract except in accordance with the Collection Policy.

(g) Adverse Selection. Seller has not selected the Purchased Assets in a manner that will adversely affect Administrative Agent's or the applicable Buyers' interests.

(h) No Subservicing. Except as otherwise disclosed to Administrative Agent, all of the Purchased Assets constituting Servicing Rights pledged hereunder constitute direct servicing rights (and not subservicing rights.)

(i) Good Title. Seller has good title to all of the Repurchase Assets, free and clear of all mortgages, security interests, restrictions, Liens and encumbrances of any kind other than the Liens created hereby.

(j) No Defenses. Each item of the Repurchase Assets was acquired by Seller in the ordinary course of its business, in good faith, for value and without notice of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any Person and there are no agreements or understandings between Seller and any other party which would modify, release, terminate or delay the attachment of the security interests granted to Administrative Agent under this Agreement and no obligor has any defense, set off, claim or counterclaim against Seller that can be asserted against Administrative Agent, whether in any proceeding to enforce the Administrative Agent's rights in the related Mortgage Loan or otherwise.

(k) Amount Outstanding. The amount represented by Seller to Administrative Agent as owing by an obligor under each Mortgage Loan being serviced under a Servicing Contract is the correct amount actually owing by that obligor.

SCHEDULE 1-B

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES RE: ASSETS CONSISTING OF PARTICIPATION CERTIFICATES

(b) Participation Certificate. The Participation Certificate is a Participation Interest in the Portfolio Excess Spread evidenced by such Participation Certificate.

(c) All Participation Interests. The Participation Certificate constitutes all the issued and outstanding Participation Interests of all classes issued pursuant to the Participation Agreement and is certificated.

(d) Delivery to Administrative Agent. Subject to any rights of any Agency, upon delivery to the Administrative Agent of the Participation Certificates (and assuming the continuing possession by the Administrative Agent of such certificate in accordance with the requirements of applicable law) and the filing of a financing statement covering the Participation Certificate in the State of Michigan and naming the Seller as debtor and the Administrative Agent as secured party, Seller has pledged to Administrative Agent all of its right, title and interest to the Participation Certificates to Administrative Agent. Subject to the rights of any Agency, the Lien granted hereunder is a first priority Lien in the Participation Certificate.

(e) Participation Agreement.

(i) Subject to the rights of any Agency, the Seller has not waived or agreed to any waiver under, or agreed to any amendment or other modification of, the Participation Agreement without the consent of Administrative Agent.

(ii) Subject to the rights of any Agency, the terms of the Participation Agreement have not been impaired, altered or modified in any respect.

(iii) A true and correct copy of the Participation Agreement has been delivered to Administrative Agent.

(iv) Subject to the rights of any Agency, Seller has complied with all terms of each Participation Agreement pledged hereunder and has fulfilled all obligations with respect thereto.

(v) Subject to the rights of any Agency, Seller has granted to the holder a valid security interest in all the right, title and interest of Seller in and to the Portfolio Excess Spread, which security interest is perfected and of first priority, enforceable against, creating an interest prior in right to, all creditors of Seller.

SCHEDULE 4
LITIGATION

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

(c) Initiation.

(i) Throughout each Business Day, Seller may request that Buyer enter into Transactions hereunder by delivering a Mortgage Loan Schedule with respect to all Mortgage Loans subject to the requested Transaction on or prior to (A) with respect to Wet Loans, 4:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the requested Purchase Date and (B) with respect to Mortgage Loans other than Wet Loans, 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the requested Purchase Date.

(iv) Buyer's remittance of the Purchase Price in connection with the Transaction and Seller's acceptance thereof will constitute the parties agreement to enter into such Transaction. Upon remittance of the Purchase Price to Seller, Seller hereby grants, assigns, conveys and transfers all of its rights in and to the Purchased Mortgage Loans evidenced on the related Mortgage Loan Schedule submitted through the Warehouse Electronic System.

(v) Buyer shall confirm the terms of each Transaction by posting a Confirmation on the Warehouse Electronic System by the end of the day on each Purchase Date. Each Confirmation together with this Agreement, shall be conclusive evidence of the terms of the Transaction(s) covered thereby unless objected to in writing by Seller no more than two (2) Business Days after the date such Confirmation was posted on the Warehouse Electronic System or unless a corrected Confirmation is posted by Buyer; provided that Buyer's failure to post a Confirmation shall not affect the obligations of Seller under any Transaction. An objection sent by Seller must state specifically that such writing is an objection, must specify the provision(s) being objected to by Seller, must set forth such provision(s) in the manner that Seller believes they should be stated, and must be received by Buyer no more than two (2) Business Days after the Confirmation was posted on the Warehouse Electronic System.

(vi) The Repurchase Date for each Transaction shall not be later than the Termination Date.

(d) Repurchase; Purchase by an Approved Investor.

(i) Seller may repurchase Purchased Mortgage Loans without penalty or premium on any date by remitting to Buyer the applicable Repurchase Price pursuant to the Buyer's Wiring Instructions.

(ii) Any repurchase of Purchased Mortgage Loans may occur simultaneously with a sale of the Purchased Mortgage Loan to an Approved Investor subject to the following procedures:

(A) Seller shall instruct the Approved Investor to remit directly to Buyer pursuant to Buyer's Wiring Instructions no later than 4:00 p.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day the Takeout Price in an amount equal to the Purchase Advice for such Purchased Mortgage Loan.

(B) Simultaneously, Seller shall deliver to Buyer electronically the related Purchase Advice. The Takeout Price received by Buyer must equal the amount set forth on the Purchase Advice.

(C) The Takeout Price shall be applied to reduce the Repurchase Price in respect of the Purchased Mortgage Loans listed on the Purchase Advice. In the event the Takeout Price is less than the Repurchase Price, the Buyer shall withdraw funds from the Operating Account and Warehouse Accounts such that no deficiency exists. For the avoidance of doubt, Buyer shall not release its interests in any Purchased Mortgage Loan until such time as it receives the Repurchase Price in full.

(D) In the event Buyer receives the Takeout Price on or prior to 4:00 p.m. (New York City time) and either (x) no Purchase Advice is received or (y) the Takeout Price does not match the amount on the Purchase Advice (a "Purchase Advice Deficiency"), then Buyer shall retain the Takeout Price and the related Purchased Mortgage Loans shall not be released and the Transactions shall continue to accrue Price Differential under this Agreement until the Purchase Advice Deficiency is remedied. In the event the Takeout Price matches the amount set forth in the Purchase Advice but are in excess of the Repurchase Price (such amount, the "Excess Proceeds") provided that no Default or Event of Default exists, Buyer shall remit such Excess Proceeds to the Operating Account or as otherwise agreed to by Buyer and Seller.

(iii) On the Repurchase Date, termination of the Transaction will be effected by reassignment to Seller or its designee of the Purchased Mortgage Loans against the simultaneous transfer of the Repurchase Price as described in this Section 3(d). Such obligation to repurchase exists without regard to any prior or intervening liquidation or foreclosure with respect to any Purchased Mortgage Loan.

(e) Request for Temporary Increase. Seller Party may request a temporary increase of the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price (a "Temporary Increase") by submitting to Buyer an executed Temporary Increase Request, setting forth the requested increased Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price (such increased amount, the "Temporary Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price") and the effective date and expiration date of such Temporary Increase. Buyer may from time to time, in its sole and absolute discretion, consent to such Temporary Increase, by returning to such Seller Party a countersigned Temporary Increase Request. At any time that a Temporary Increase is in effect, the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price shall equal the Temporary Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price and the Maximum Committed Purchase Price or Maximum Uncommitted Purchase Price shall increase to the amount set forth in the Temporary Increase Request for all purposes of this Agreement and all calculations and provisions relating to the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price, Maximum Committed Purchase Price or Maximum Uncommitted Purchase Price shall refer to the Temporary Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price, Temporary Maximum Committed Purchase Price or Temporary Maximum Uncommitted Purchase Price, as applicable. Upon the termination of a Temporary Increase, Seller shall repurchase Purchased Mortgage Loans, if necessary, in order to reduce the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price of all Transactions to the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price (as reduced by the termination of such Temporary Increase).

SECTION 4. MARGIN AMOUNT MAINTENANCE

(a) Buyer shall determine the Market Value of each Purchased Mortgage Loan at such intervals as determined by Buyer in its sole discretion.

(b) If at any time the aggregate Asset Value of all Purchased Mortgage Loans subject to Transactions plus any cash held as segregated cash in the margin account is less than the Purchase Price for such Purchased Mortgage Loans (a "Margin Deficit"), then, provided, that such Margin Deficit is greater than the Margin Threshold, Buyer may by notice to Seller (as such notice is more particularly set forth below, a "Margin Call"), require Seller to transfer to Buyer or its designee cash in the amount of the Margin Deficit.

(c) Notice delivered pursuant to Section 4(b) may be given by any written or electronic means. Any notice given before 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day shall be met, and the related Margin Call satisfied, no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the second (2nd) Business Day following such notice; notice given after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day shall be met, and the related Margin Call satisfied, no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the third (3rd) Business Day following such notice.

(d) The failure of Buyer, on any one or more occasions, to exercise its rights hereunder, shall not change or alter the terms and conditions to which this Agreement is subject or limit the right of Buyer to do so at a later date. Seller and Buyer each agree that a failure or delay by Buyer to exercise its rights hereunder shall not limit or waive Buyer's rights under this Agreement or otherwise existing by law or in any way create additional rights for either Seller.

(e) Any cash transferred to Buyer pursuant to Section 4(b) above shall be held in the margin account as segregated cash margin and collateral for all Obligations under this Agreement. Any such cash in the margin account shall be used by Buyer in order to calculate the aggregate Price Differential due to Buyer hereunder (i.e., as a reduction of the Purchase Price for purposes of such calculation). Buyer shall return any such cash to Seller within three Business Days of a written request therefore to the extent such return would not result in a Margin Deficit.

SECTION 5. COLLECTIONS; INCOME PAYMENTS

(a) On each Business Day that a Transaction is outstanding, the Pricing Rate shall be reset and, unless otherwise agreed, the accrued and unpaid Price Differential shall be settled in cash on each related Repurchase Date. To the extent a Purchased Mortgage Loan is subject to a Transaction for a period in excess of sixty (60) calendar days, at Buyer's sole option, Price Differential shall be settled in cash on such date.

(b) Upon request of Buyer, Seller shall establish and maintain a segregated time or demand deposit account for the benefit of Buyer (the "Custodial Account") with Buyer and shall deposit into the Custodial Account, within two (2) Business Days of receipt, all Income received with respect to each Purchased Mortgage Loan sold hereunder. Seller shall cause all Income received with respect to the Purchased Mortgage Loans by any Servicer to be remitted directly to the Custodial Account. Under no circumstances shall either Seller deposit any of its own funds into the Custodial Account or otherwise commingle its own funds with funds belonging to Buyer as owner of any Mortgage Loans. Seller shall name the Custodial Account "Quicken Loans, Inc., in trust for and for the benefit of UBS Real Estate Securities Inc."

(c) All Income received with respect to a Purchased Mortgage Loan purchased hereunder, whether or not deposited in the Custodial Account, shall be held in trust for the exclusive benefit of Buyer as the owner of such Purchased Mortgage Loan until such Mortgage Loan is no longer a Purchased Mortgage Loan (and shall be remitted to Seller on the Repurchase Date).

(d) Following an Event of Default, Seller shall remit to Buyer funds in the Custodial Account as required by Buyer. Such remittances shall be by wire transfer in accordance with wire transfer instructions previously given to Seller by Buyer.

(e) Seller authorizes Buyer to withdraw any Income otherwise due Buyer hereunder from any of either Seller's accounts as provided in this Agreement.

(f) Neither Seller shall change the identity or location of the Custodial Account. Seller shall from time to time, at its own cost and expense, execute such directions to Buyer, and other papers, documents or instruments with respect to the Custodial Account as may be reasonably requested by Buyer.

(g) If Buyer so requests, Seller shall promptly notify Buyer of each deposit in the Custodial Account, and each withdrawal from the Custodial Account, made by it with respect to Mortgage Loans owned by Buyer and serviced by the Servicer. Seller shall also promptly deliver to Buyer photocopies of all periodic bank statements and other records relating to the Custodial Account as Buyer may from time to time request.

(h) The amount required to be paid or remitted by the Seller to Buyer, not made when due shall bear interest from the due date until the remittance, transfer or payment is made, payable by the Seller, at the lesser of the Post-Default Rate or the maximum rate of interest permitted by law. If there is no maximum rate of interest specified by applicable law, interest on such sums shall accrue at the Post-Default Rate.

SECTION 6. REQUIREMENT OF LAW

(a) If any change in any Requirement of Law including those regarding capital adequacy, or any change in the interpretation or application of any Requirement of Law thereof or compliance by Buyer with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any central bank or other Governmental Authority made subsequent to the date hereof:

(i) shall subject Buyer to any Tax or increased Tax of any kind whatsoever, other than taxes based on Buyer's income or gross receipts, or change the basis of taxation of payments to Buyer;

(ii) shall impose, modify or hold applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan or similar requirement against assets held by, deposits or other liabilities in or for the account of, advances, or other extensions of credit by, or any other acquisition of funds by, any office of Buyer;

(iii) shall impose on Buyer any other condition; and the result of any of the foregoing is to increase the cost to Buyer, by an amount which Buyer deems to be material, of entering, continuing or maintaining any Transaction or to reduce any amount due or owing hereunder in respect thereof, or shall have the effect of reducing Buyer's rate of return then, in any such case, Seller shall promptly pay Buyer such additional amount or amounts as calculated by Buyer in good faith as will reimburse Buyer for such increased cost or reduced amount receivable on an after-tax basis.

(b) If Buyer shall have determined that the adoption of or any change in any Requirement of Law regarding capital adequacy or in the interpretation or application thereof or compliance by Buyer or any corporation controlling Buyer with any request or directive regarding capital adequacy (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority made subsequent to the date hereof shall have the effect of reducing the rate of return on Buyer's or such corporation's capital as a consequence of its obligations hereunder to a level below that which Buyer or such corporation could have achieved but for such adoption, change or compliance (taking into consideration Buyer's or such corporation's policies with respect to capital adequacy) by an amount deemed by Buyer to be material, then from time to time, Seller shall promptly pay to Buyer such additional amount or amounts as will reimburse Buyer for such reduction.

(c) If Buyer becomes entitled to claim any additional amounts pursuant to this Section 6, it shall promptly notify Seller of the event by reason of which it has become so entitled. A certificate as to any additional amounts payable pursuant to this Section submitted by Buyer to Seller in good faith and showing in reasonable detail the basis for, and calculation of, the amounts claimed shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

SECTION 7. TAXES.

(a) Any and all payments by or on behalf of Seller Party under or in respect of this Agreement or any other Program Documents to which Seller Party is a party shall be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of, any and all present or future taxes, levies, imposts, deductions, charges or withholdings, and all liabilities (including penalties, interest and additions to tax) with respect thereto, whether now or hereafter imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by any taxation authority or other Governmental Authority (collectively, "Taxes"), unless required by law. If any Person shall be required under any applicable Requirement of Law to deduct or withhold any Taxes from or in respect of any sum payable under or in respect of this Agreement or any of the other Program Documents to Buyer (including, for purposes of Section 6 and this Section 7, any agent, assignee, successor or participant), (i) Seller Party shall make all such deductions and withholdings in respect of Taxes, (ii) Seller Party shall pay the full amount deducted or withheld in respect of Taxes to the relevant taxation authority or other Governmental Authority in accordance with any Requirement of Law, and (iii) the sum payable by Seller Party shall be increased as may be necessary so that after Seller Party has made all required deductions and withholdings (including deductions and withholdings applicable to additional amounts payable under this Section 7) such Buyer receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made in respect of Non-Excluded Taxes. For purposes of this Agreement the term "Non-Excluded Taxes" are Taxes other than, in the case of a Buyer, (i) Taxes that are imposed on its overall net income or gross receipts (and franchise taxes imposed in lieu thereof) by the jurisdiction under the laws of which such Buyer is organized or of its applicable lending office, or any political subdivision thereof, unless such Taxes are imposed as a result of such Buyer having executed, delivered or performed its obligations or received payments under, or enforced, this Agreement or any of the other Program Documents (in which case such Taxes will be treated as Non-Excluded Taxes), and (ii) Taxes imposed as a result of its failure to comply with the requirements of Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code (as in effect on the date hereof) and any Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

(b) In addition, Seller Party hereby agrees to pay or, at the Buyer's option, timely reimburse it for payment of, any present or future stamp, recording, documentary, excise, filing, intangible, property or value-added taxes, or similar taxes, charges or levies that arise from any payment made under or in respect of this Agreement or any other Program Document or from the execution, delivery, enforcement or registration of, any performance, receipt or perfection of a security interest under, or otherwise with respect to, this Agreement or any other Program Document (collectively, "Other Taxes").

(c) Seller Party hereby agrees to indemnify Buyer (including its Beneficial Tax Owners) for, and to hold it harmless against, the full amount of Non-Excluded Taxes and Other Taxes, and the full amount of Taxes of any kind imposed by any jurisdiction on amounts payable under this Section 7 imposed on or paid by such Buyer (or any Beneficial Tax Owners thereof) and any liability (including penalties, additions to tax, interest and expenses) arising therefrom or with respect thereto; provided that Buyer shall have provided Seller with evidence, reasonably satisfactory to Seller, of payment of Taxes or Other Taxes, as the case may be. A certificate as to the amount of such Taxes or liabilities delivered to the Seller Party by Buyer in good faith and showing in reasonable detail the basis for, and calculation of, the amounts claimed shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Amounts payable by Seller Party under the indemnity set forth in this Section 7(c) shall be paid within ten (10) days from the date on which Buyer makes written demand therefor. Buyer shall promptly repay to Seller any refund of any amounts received by Buyer that can be directly attributable to the Program Documents and amounts paid in respect of this Section 7.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after the date of any payment of Taxes, Seller Party (or any Person making such payment on behalf of Seller Party) shall furnish to Buyer for its own account a certified copy of the original official receipt evidencing payment thereof.

(e) For purposes of this Section 7(e), the terms "United States" and "United States person" shall have the meanings specified in Section 7701 of the Code. Each Buyer (including for avoidance of doubt any assignee, successor or participant) that either (i) is not organized under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, or the District of Columbia or (ii) whose name does not include "Incorporated," "Inc.," "Corporation," "Corp.," "P.C.," "insurance company," or "assurance company" (a "Non-Exempt Buyer") shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Seller the following properly completed and duly executed documents:

(i) in the case of a Non-Exempt Buyer that is not a United States person or is a disregarded entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes owned by a person that is not a United States person, a complete and executed (x) U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN with Part II completed in which such Buyer claims the benefits of a tax treaty with the United States providing for a zero or reduced rate of withholding (or any successor forms thereto), including all appropriate attachments or (y) a U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI (or any successor forms thereto); or

(ii) in the case of a Non-Exempt Buyer that is an individual, (x) for non-United States persons, a complete and executed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (or any successor forms thereto) and a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit F (a "Section 7 Certificate") or (y) for United States persons, a complete and executed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or any successor forms thereto); or

(iii) in the case of a Non-Exempt Buyer that is organized under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, or the District of Columbia and that is not a disregarded entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes owned by a person that is not a United States person, a complete and executed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or any successor forms thereto); or

(iv) in the case of a Non-Exempt Buyer that (x) is not organized under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, or the District of Columbia and (y) is treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a complete and executed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (or any successor forms thereto) and a Section 7 Certificate; or

(v) in the case of a Non-Exempt Buyer that (A) is treated as a partnership or other non-corporate entity, and (B) is not organized under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, or the District of Columbia, (x)(i) a complete and executed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY (or any successor forms thereto) (including all required documents and attachments) and (ii) a Section 7 Certificate, and (y) in the case of a non-withholding foreign partnership or trust, without duplication, with respect to each of its beneficial owners and the beneficial owners of such beneficial owners looking through chains of owners to individuals or entities that are treated as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes (all such owners, "Beneficial Tax Owners"), the documents that would be provided by each such Beneficial Tax Owner if such Beneficial Tax Owner were Buyer; or

(vi) in the case of a Non-Exempt Buyer that is disregarded for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the document that would be required by clause (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vii) and/or this clause (vi) of this Section 7(e) with respect to its Beneficial Tax Owner if such Beneficial Tax Owner were Buyer; or

(vii) in the case of a Non-Exempt Buyer that (A) is not a United States person and (B) is acting in the capacity of an "intermediary" (as defined in U.S. Treasury Regulations), (x)(i) a U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY (or any successor form thereto) (including all required documents and attachments) and (ii) a Section 7 Certificate, and (y) if the intermediary is a "non- qualified intermediary" (as defined in U.S. Treasury Regulations), from each person upon whose behalf the "non-qualified intermediary" is acting the documents that would be required by clause (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), and/or this clause (vii) with respect to each such person if each such person were Buyer.

If a Buyer provides a form pursuant to Section 7(e)(i)(x) and the form provided by the Buyer at the time such Buyer first becomes a party to this Agreement or, with respect to a grant of a participation, the effective date thereof, indicates a United States interest withholding tax rate under the tax treaty in excess of zero, withholding tax at such rate shall be treated as Taxes other than "Non-Excluded Taxes" ("Excluded Taxes") and shall not qualify as Non-Excluded Taxes unless and until such Buyer provides the appropriate form certifying that a lesser rate applies, whereupon withholding tax at such lesser rate shall be considered Excluded Taxes solely for the periods governed by such form. If, however, on the date a Person becomes an assignee, successor or participant to this Agreement, the Buyer transferor was entitled to indemnification or additional amounts under this Section 7, then the Buyer assignee, successor or participant shall be entitled to indemnification or additional amounts to the extent that the Buyer transferor was entitled to such indemnification or additional amounts for Non-Excluded Taxes, and the Buyer assignee, successor or participant shall be entitled to additional indemnification or additional amounts for any other or additional Non-Excluded Taxes.

(f) For any period with respect to which a Buyer has failed to provide Seller with the appropriate form, certificate or other document described in Section 7(e) (other than if such failure is due to a change in any Requirement of Law, or in the interpretation or application thereof, occurring after the date on which a form, certificate or other document originally was required to be provided), such Buyer shall not be entitled to indemnification or additional amounts under subsection (a) or (c) of this Section 7 with respect to Non-Excluded Taxes imposed by the United States by reason of such failure; provided, however, that should a Buyer become subject to Non-Excluded Taxes because of its failure to deliver a form, certificate or other document required hereunder, Seller shall take such steps as such Buyer shall reasonably request, to assist such Buyer in recovering such Non-Excluded Taxes.

(g) Without prejudice to the survival of any other agreement of Seller Party hereunder, the agreements and obligations of Seller Party contained in this Section 7 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the other Program Documents. Nothing contained in Section 6 or this Section 7 shall require Buyer to complete, execute or make available any of its Tax returns or any other information that it deems to be confidential or proprietary, or whose completion, execution or submission would, in Buyer's judgment, materially prejudice Buyer's legal or commercial position.

SECTION 8. SECURITY INTEREST; BUYER'S APPOINTMENT AS ATTORNEY-IN-FACT

(a) Security Interest. On each Purchase Date, Seller hereby sells, assigns and conveys all of its rights and interests in the Purchased Mortgage Loans identified on the related Mortgage Loan Schedule and the Repurchase Assets related thereto. Although the parties intend that all Transactions hereunder be sales and purchases and not loans (other than as set forth in Section 21 for U.S. tax purposes), in the event any such Transactions are deemed to be loans, and in any event Seller hereby pledges to Buyer as security for the performance by Seller of its Obligations and hereby grants, assigns and pledges to Buyer a fully perfected first priority security interest in:

(i) the Purchased Mortgage Loans;

(ii) the Records related to the Purchased Mortgage Loans;

(iii) the Program Documents (to the extent such Program Documents and Seller's right thereunder relate to the Purchased Mortgage Loans);

(iv) any Property relating to any Purchased Mortgage Loan or the related Mortgaged Property;

(v) any Takeout Commitments relating to any Purchased Mortgage Loans;

(vi) any Closing Protection Letter, escrow letter or settlement agreement relating to any Purchased Mortgage Loan;

(vii) any Servicing Rights relating to any Purchased Mortgage Loan;

(viii) all insurance policies and insurance proceeds relating to any Purchased Mortgage Loan or the related Mortgaged Property, including but not limited to any payments or proceeds under any related primary insurance or hazard insurance;

(ix) any Income relating to any Purchased Mortgage Loan;

(x) the Custodial Account;

(xi) the Warehouse Accounts;

(xii) the Operating Account;

(xiii) any Hedge Agreements to the extent relating specifically to any Purchased Mortgage Loan;

(xiv) any other contract rights, accounts (including any interest of Seller in escrow accounts) and any other payments, and rights to payment (including payments of interest or finance charges) to the extent that the foregoing relates to any Purchased Mortgage Loan;

(xv) any other assets relating to the Purchased Mortgage Loans (including, without limitation, any other accounts) or any interest in the Purchased Mortgage Loans;

(xvi) chattel paper (including electronic chattel paper), instruments (including promissory notes), documents, investment property, general intangibles (including payment intangibles) in each case to the extent that the foregoing specifically relates to the Purchased Mortgage Loans; and

(xvii) together with all accessions and additions thereto, substitutions and replacements therefor, and all products and proceeds of the foregoing, in all instances to the extent that the foregoing specifically relates to the Purchased Mortgage Loans and whether now owned or hereafter acquired, now existing or hereafter created and wherever located (collectively, the "Repurchase Assets").

(b) Buyer's Appointment as Attorney in Fact. Seller agrees to execute a Power of Attorney, the form of Exhibit E hereto (the "Power of Attorney"), to be delivered on the date hereof.

SECTION 9. PAYMENT, TRANSFER; ACCOUNTS

(a) Payments and Transfers of Funds. Unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing, all transfers of funds to be made by Seller hereunder shall be made in Dollars, in immediately available funds, without deduction, set off or counterclaim, to Buyer pursuant to the Wiring Instructions, on the date on which such payment shall become due.

(b) Remittance of Purchase Price. On the Purchase Date for each Transaction, ownership of the Purchased Mortgage Loans shall be transferred to Buyer or its designee against the simultaneous transfer of the Purchase Price pursuant to Seller's Wiring Instructions. With respect to the Purchased Mortgage Loans being sold by Seller on a Purchase Date, Seller hereby sells, transfers, conveys and assigns to Buyer or its designee without recourse, but subject to the terms of this Agreement, all of its right, title and interest of Seller in and to the Purchased Mortgage Loans together with all right, title and interest in and to the proceeds of any related Repurchase Assets.

(c) Warehouse Accounts. Buyer or the Buyer's designee shall maintain for Seller an inbound account and a margin account (the "Warehouse Accounts"). The Warehouse Accounts shall be in the form of non-interest bearing book-entry accounts. Buyer shall have exclusive withdrawal rights from the Warehouse Accounts. All amounts on deposit in the Warehouse Accounts shall be held as cash margin and collateral for all Obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event that Seller fails to timely satisfy a Margin Call or an Event of Default exists, Buyer shall be entitled to use any or all of the amounts on deposit in any Warehouse Account to cure such circumstance or otherwise exercise remedies available to Buyer without prior notice to, or consent from Seller, provided that Buyer will promptly notify Seller of such application of funds; provided further that the failure to provide such notice shall not affect the validity of the Buyer's actions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller acknowledges that (i) Buyer is not a depository institution, (ii) Buyer has no duties to Seller on a depository to customer basis with respect to the Warehouse Accounts, (iii) the Warehouse Accounts are not deposit or demand accounts, (iv) amounts in the Warehouse Accounts are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, any governmental entity or otherwise and (v) Buyer is not required to segregate funds in the Warehouse Accounts from its own funds or from funds held for others.

(d) Operating Account. Seller may remit to Buyer funds to be held in an interest bearing account (the "Operating Account") as unsegregated cash margin and collateral for all Obligations under this Agreement (such amount, to the extent not applied to Obligations under this Agreement, the "Buydown Amount"). Subject to Section 9(e), the Buydown Amount will accrue interest at the Operating Account Rate; provided that in no event shall interest accrue on (i) the Buydown Amount if (x) on any day the Buydown Amount is less than the Minimum Balance Requirement or (y) the average balance of funds in the Operating Account during any calendar month is less than the Minimum Balance Requirement and (ii) that portion of the Buydown Amount that is in excess of the lesser of (a) the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price of all Transactions during any calendar month or (b) []. Seller shall be entitled to request a drawdown of the Buydown Amount or remit additional funds to be added to the Buydown Amount. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event that Seller fails to timely satisfy a Margin Call or an Event of Default exists, the Buyer shall be entitled to use any or all of the Buydown Amount to cure such circumstance or otherwise exercise remedies available to the Buyer without prior notice to, or consent from, Seller; provided, that Buyer will promptly notify Seller of such application of funds; provided, further, that the failure to provide such notice shall not affect the validity of Buyer's actions. Within two (2) Business Days' after receipt of written request from Seller, and provided Seller has not failed to timely satisfy a Margin Call or an Event of Default does not exist, Buyer shall remit any portion of such Buydown Amount back to Seller.

(e) Maintenance of Balances. If Seller shall fail to maintain with Buyer during any calendar month deposits in the Operating Account in the average, after charges to compensate Buyer for services rendered to Seller, equal to at least the Minimum Balance Requirement, Seller shall pay to Buyer a fee equal to the amount of such deficit multiplied by the Maintenance Fee Rate.

(f) Fees. Seller shall pay in immediately available funds to Buyer all fees, including without limitation, the Warehouse Fees, as and when required hereunder. All such payments shall be made in Dollars, in immediately available funds, without deduction, set-off or counterclaim, to Buyer at such account designated by Buyer. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement, Buyer may withdraw and retain from the Warehouse Accounts and Operating Account any Warehouse Fees due and owing to Buyer that have not been otherwise timely paid by Seller.

All such Financial Statements are complete and correct in all material respects and fairly present, in all material respects, the consolidated financial condition of the Financial Reporting Group and the consolidated results of its operations as at such dates and for such monthly or yearly periods, all in accordance with GAAP. Since the Monthly Financial Statement Date, there has been no material adverse change in the consolidated business, operations or financial condition of the Financial Reporting Group taken as a whole from that set forth in said Financial Statements nor is Seller Party aware of any state of facts which (without notice or the lapse of time) would or would be reasonably likely to result in any such material adverse change or would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect. The Financial Reporting Party does not have, on the Annual Financial Statement Date, any liabilities, direct or indirect, fixed or contingent, matured or unmatured, known or unknown, or liabilities for taxes, long-term leases or unusual forward or long-term commitments not disclosed by, or reserved against in, said balance sheet and related statements, and at the present time there are no material unrealized or anticipated losses from any loans, advances or other commitments of the Financial Reporting Party except as heretofore disclosed to Buyer in writing.

(d) Organization, Etc. Seller Party is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization. Seller Party (a) has all requisite corporate or limited liability company power, and has all governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals necessary to own its assets and carry on its business as now being or as proposed to be conducted, except where the lack of such licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals would not be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect; (b) is qualified to do business and is in good standing in all other jurisdictions in which the nature of the business conducted by it makes such qualification necessary, except where failure so to qualify would not be reasonably likely (either individually or in the aggregate) to have a Material Adverse Effect; and (c) has full corporate or limited liability company power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Program Documents.

(e) Authorization, Compliance, Approvals. The execution and delivery of, and the performance by Seller Party of its obligations under, the Program Documents to which it is a party (a) are within Seller Party's corporate or limited liability company powers, (b) have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate or limited liability company action on behalf of Seller, (c) do not violate any provision of applicable law, rule or regulation, or any order, writ, injunction or decree applicable to Seller of any court or other Governmental Authority, or its organizational documents, (d) do not breach any indenture, agreement, document or instrument to which Seller Party or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, or by which any of them or any of their properties, or any of the Repurchase Assets is bound or to which any of them is subject and (e) do not result in a breach of, or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, or except as may be provided by any Program Document, result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any of the property or assets of Seller Party or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to, any such indenture, agreement, document or instrument. Seller Party is not required to obtain any consent, approval or authorization from, or to file any declaration or statement with, any Governmental Authority in connection with or as a condition to the consummation of the Transactions contemplated herein and the execution, delivery or performance of the Program Documents to which it is a party, except for any UCC financing statements filed pursuant to this Agreement.

(f) Litigation. There are no actions, suits, arbitrations, investigations (including, without limitation, any of the foregoing which are pending or threatened) or other legal or arbitrable proceedings against Seller Party or any of its Subsidiaries or affecting any of the Repurchase Assets or any of the other properties of Seller Party before any Governmental Authority which (i) questions or challenges the validity or enforceability of the Program Documents or any material action to be taken in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) except as set forth in Schedule 11(f) and as otherwise disclosed to Buyer, makes a claim or claims in an aggregate amount greater than the Litigation Threshold or (iii) except as set forth in Schedule 11(f), individually or in the aggregate, if adversely determined, would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(g) Purchased Mortgage Loans.

(i) Except for any Takeout Commitments, Hedge Agreements or sales contemplated by Section 3(d), neither Seller has assigned, pledged, or otherwise conveyed or encumbered any Purchased Mortgage Loan to any other Person, and immediately prior to the sale of such Purchased Mortgage Loan to Buyer, the Seller was the sole owner of such Purchased Mortgage Loan and had good and marketable title thereto, free and clear of all Liens, in each case except for Liens to be released simultaneously with the sale to Buyer hereunder.

(ii) The provisions of this Agreement are effective to either constitute a sale of Repurchase Assets to Buyer or to create in favor of Buyer a valid first priority security interest in all right, title and interest of Seller in, to and under the Repurchase Assets.

(h) Proper Names; Chief Executive Office/Jurisdiction of Organization. Neither Seller operates in any jurisdiction under a trade name, division name or name other than those names previously disclosed in writing by Seller to Buyer. Seller's jurisdiction of organization, type of organization and organizational identification number is as set forth in the Pricing Letter.

(i) Location of Books and Records. The location where Seller keeps its books and records, including all computer tapes, computer systems and storage media, other than backups, and records related to the Repurchase Assets is its chief executive office.

(j) Enforceability. This Agreement and all of the other Program Documents executed and delivered by Seller Party in connection herewith are legal, valid and binding obligations of such Seller Party and are enforceable against such Seller Party in accordance with their terms except as such enforceability may be limited by (i) the effect of any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar Requirement of Law affecting creditors' rights generally and (ii) general principles of equity.

(k) Ability to Perform. Seller Party does not believe, nor does it have any reason or cause to believe, that it cannot perform each and every covenant contained in the Program Documents to which it is a party on its part to be performed.

(l) No Default. No Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

(m) No Adverse Selection. Neither Seller has selected the Purchased Mortgage Loans in a manner so as to adversely affect Buyer's interests.

The information, reports, Financial Statements, exhibits and schedules furnished in writing by or on behalf of Seller Party to Buyer in connection with the negotiation, preparation or delivery of this Agreement or performance hereof and the other Program Documents or included herein or therein or delivered pursuant hereto or thereto, when taken as a whole, do not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements herein or therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. All written information furnished after the date hereof by or on behalf of Seller Party to Buyer in connection with this Agreement and the other Program Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby including without limitation, the information set forth in the related Mortgage Loan Schedule, will be true, complete and accurate in every material respect, or (in the case of projections) based on reasonable estimates, on the date as of which such information is stated or certified. There is no fact known to Seller, after due inquiry, that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect that has not been disclosed herein, in the other Program Documents or in a report, financial statement, exhibit, schedule, disclosure letter or other writing furnished to Buyer for use in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

(p) Margin Regulations. The use of all funds acquired by Seller under this Agreement will not violate any of Regulations T, U or X promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System as the same may from time to time be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified.

(q) Investment Company. Neither Seller Party nor any of its Subsidiaries is an "investment company" or a company "controlled" by an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(r) Solvency. As of the date hereof and immediately after giving effect to each Transaction, the fair value of the assets of Seller is greater than the fair value of the liabilities (including, without limitation, contingent liabilities if and to the extent required to be recorded as a liability on the Financial Statements of Seller in accordance with GAAP) of Seller and Seller is solvent and, after giving effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Program Documents, will not be rendered insolvent or left with an unreasonably small amount of capital with which to conduct its business and perform its obligations. Neither Seller intends to incur, nor does it believe that it has incurred, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature. Seller Party is not contemplating the commencement of an insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation, or consolidation proceeding or the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, conservator, trustee, or similar official in respect of itself or any of its property.

(s) ERISA. From the fifth fiscal year preceding the current year through the termination of this Agreement (the "Reporting Period"), with respect to any plan within the meaning of Section 3(3) of ERISA that is sponsored or maintained by Seller Party or any ERISA Affiliate, or to which Seller Party or any ERISA Affiliate contributes or has contributed (each, a "Plan"), the benefits under which Plan are guaranteed, in whole or in part, by the PBGC (i) Seller Party and each ERISA Affiliate has funded and will continue to fund each Plan as required by the provisions of Section 412 of the Code, in all material respects; (ii) Seller Party and each ERISA Affiliate has caused and will continue to cause (directly or indirectly) each Plan to pay all benefits when due, in all material respects; (iii) neither Seller Party nor any ERISA Affiliate has been or is obligated to contribute to any multiemployer plan as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA; (iv) Seller Party (on behalf of ERISA Affiliate, if applicable) will provide to Buyer (A) no later than the date of submission to the PBGC, a copy of any notice of a defined benefit Plan's termination (B) no later than the date of submission to the Department of Labor or to the Internal Revenue Service, as the case may be, a copy of any request for waiver from the funding standards or extension of the amortization periods required by Section 412 of the Code and (C) notice of any Reportable Event as such term is defined in ERISA which involves financial liability in excess of the ERISA Threshold (and has, prior to the date of this Agreement, provided to Buyer a copy of any document described in clauses (iv)(A), (B) or (C) relating to any date in the Reporting Period prior to the date of this Agreement); and (v) Seller Party and each ERISA Affiliate will from the date of this Agreement to the termination of this Agreement timely pay all premiums imposed by the PBGC pursuant to Sections 4006 and 4007 of ERISA with respect to any Plan.

(t) Taxes.

(i) Seller Party and its Subsidiaries have timely filed all income and other material Tax returns that are required to be filed by them and have timely paid all Taxes due and payable by them or imposed with respect to any of their property, except for any such Taxes the amount or validity of which is currently being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and with respect to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a Tax return shall be considered to have been timely filed, and a Tax shall be considered to have been timely paid, if the late filing of such Tax return, or the late payment of such Tax, did not have a material adverse effect on the Seller Party taken as a whole.

(ii) There are no material Liens for Taxes with respect to any assets of Seller Party or its Subsidiaries, and no material claim is being asserted with respect to Taxes of Seller Party or its Subsidiaries of a material amount that is not paid within 30 days after the amount of taxes due is finalized, except for statutory Liens for Taxes not yet due and payable or for Taxes the amount or validity of which is currently being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and, in each case, with respect to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP.

(iii) Quicken Loans is and has been since November 1 2002 treated as a Qualified Subchapter S Subsidiary for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(u) No Reliance. Seller Party has made its own independent decisions to enter into the Program Documents and each Transaction and as to whether such Transaction is appropriate and proper for it based upon its own judgment and upon advice from such advisors (including without limitation, legal counsel and accountants) as it has deemed necessary. Seller Party is not relying upon any advice from Buyer as to any aspect of the Transactions, including without limitation, the legal, accounting or tax treatment of such Transactions.

(v) Plan Assets. Seller Party is not an employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3 of Title I of ERISA, or a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code, and the Purchased Mortgage Loans are not "plan assets" within the meaning of 29 CFR §2510.3-101, as modified by Section 3(42) of ERISA, in Seller Party's hands and transactions by or with Seller Party are not subject to any foreign state or local statute regulating investments of, or fiduciary obligations with respect to, governmental plans within the meaning of Section 3(32) of ERISA.

To the extent previously approved, Seller is approved by Fannie Mae as an approved lender and Freddie Mac as an approved seller/servicer, and, to the extent necessary, approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act. In each such case, Seller is in good standing, with no event having occurred or either Seller having any reason whatsoever to believe or suspect will occur, including, without limitation, a change in insurance coverage which would either make Seller unable to comply with the eligibility requirements for maintaining all such applicable approvals or require notification to the relevant Agency. Seller has adequate financial standing, servicing facilities, procedures and experienced personnel necessary for the sound servicing of mortgage loans of the same types as may from time to time constitute its Mortgage Loans and in accordance with Accepted Servicing Practices.

(x) Anti-Money Laundering Laws. Seller Party has complied with all anti-money laundering laws and regulations applicable to Seller Party, including without limitation the USA Patriot Act of 2001 (collectively, the "Anti-Money Laundering Laws"); Seller Party has established an anti-money laundering compliance program as required by the Anti-Money Laundering Laws, has conducted the requisite due diligence in connection with the origination of each Mortgage Loan for purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering Laws, including with respect to the legitimacy of the applicable Mortgagor and the origin of the assets used by the said Mortgagor to purchase the property in question, and maintains, and will maintain, sufficient information to identify the applicable Mortgagor for purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering Laws.

(y) No Sanctions. Neither Seller Party nor any of its Affiliates, officers, directors, partners or members, (i) is an entity or person (or to the Seller's knowledge, owned or controlled by an entity or person) that (A) is currently subject to any economic sanctions or trade embargoes administered or imposed by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, the U.S. Department of State or any other relevant authority (collectively, "Sanctions") or (B) resides, is organized or chartered, or has a place of business in a country or territory that is currently the subject of Sanctions and (ii) will directly or indirectly use the proceeds of any Transactions contemplated hereunder, or lend, contribute or otherwise make available such proceeds to or for the benefit of any person or entity, for the purpose of financing or supporting, directly or indirectly, the activities of any person or entity that is currently the subject of Sanctions.

(z) [RESERVED]

SECTION 14. REMEDIES

(a) If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the following rights and remedies are available to Buyer; provided that an Event of Default shall be deemed to be continuing unless expressly waived by Buyer in writing.

(i) At the option of Buyer, exercised by written or electronic notice to Seller (which option shall be deemed to have been exercised, even if no notice is given, immediately upon the occurrence of an Insolvency Event of Seller Party), the Repurchase Date for each Transaction hereunder, if it has not already occurred, shall be deemed immediately to occur.

(ii) If Buyer exercises or is deemed to have exercised the option referred to in subsection (a)(i) of this Section,

(A) Seller's obligations in such Transactions to repurchase all Purchased Mortgage Loans, at the Repurchase Price therefor on the Repurchase Date determined in accordance with subsection (a)(i) of this Section, (1) shall thereupon become immediately due and payable and (2) all Income paid after such exercise or deemed exercise shall be retained by Buyer and applied to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Price and any other amounts owed by Seller hereunder;

(B) to the extent permitted by any applicable Requirement of Law, the calculation of the Price Differential with respect to each such Transaction shall be changed as set forth in the definition of the Price Differential and the Repurchase Price shall be decreased as of any day by (i) any amounts actually in the possession of Buyer pursuant to clause (C) of this subsection, and (ii) any proceeds from the sale of Purchased Mortgage Loans applied to the Repurchase Price pursuant to subsection (a)(iv) of this Section; and

(C) all Income actually received by Buyer pursuant to Section 5 or otherwise shall be applied to the aggregate unpaid Obligations owed by Seller Party.

(iii) Upon the occurrence of one or more Events of Default, Buyer shall have the right to obtain (A) a physical transfer of the servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loans in accordance with Section 16(c) and (B) physical possession of all files of Seller relating to the Purchased Mortgage Loans and the Repurchase Assets and all documents relating to the Purchased Mortgage Loans which are then or may thereafter come in to the possession of Seller or any third party acting for either Seller (including any Servicer) and Seller shall deliver to Buyer such assignments as Buyer shall request; provided that if such records and documents also relate to mortgage loans other than the Purchased Mortgage Loans, Buyer shall have a right to obtain copies of such records and documents, rather than originals. Buyer shall be entitled to specific performance of all agreements of Seller contained in the Program Documents.

(iv) At any time on the Business Day following notice to Seller (which notice may be the notice given under subsection (a)(i) of this Section), in the event either Seller has not repurchased all Purchased Mortgage Loans, Buyer may (A) immediately sell, without demand or further notice of any kind, at a public or private sale, without any representations or warranties of Buyer and at such price or prices as is commercially reasonable, any or all Purchased Mortgage Loans and the Repurchase Assets subject to a such Transactions hereunder and apply the proceeds thereof to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Prices and any other amounts owing by the Seller hereunder or (B) in its sole discretion elect, in lieu of selling all or a portion of such Purchased Mortgage Loans, to give Seller credit for such Purchased Mortgage Loans and the Repurchase Assets in an amount equal to the Market Value of the Purchased Mortgage Loans (provided that Buyer shall solicit at least three (3) third party bids) against the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Price and any other amounts owing by Seller hereunder. The proceeds of any disposition of Purchased Mortgage Loans and the Repurchase Assets shall be applied to the Obligations and Buyer's related expenses as determined by Buyer in its sole discretion.

(v) Seller shall be liable to Buyer for (A) the amount of all reasonable legal or other expenses (including, without limitation, all costs and expenses of Buyer in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement or any other agreement evidencing a Transaction, whether in action, suit or litigation or bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar proceeding affecting creditors' rights generally, further including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel (including the costs of internal counsel of Buyer) incurred in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default, (B) damages in an amount equal to the reasonable, documented, out-of-pocket cost (including all fees, expenses and commissions) of Buyer entering into or terminating hedge transactions in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default, and (iii) any other out-of-pocket loss, damage, cost or expense directly arising or resulting from the occurrence of an Event of Default in respect of a Transaction.

(vi) Buyer shall have, in addition to its rights hereunder, any rights otherwise available to it under any other agreement or any applicable Requirement of Law.

(b) Buyer may exercise one or more of the remedies available hereunder immediately upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default without notice to Seller, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. All rights and remedies arising under this Agreement as amended from time to time hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies which Buyer may have.

(c) Seller recognizes that the market for the Purchased Mortgage Loans may not be liquid and as a result it may not be possible for Buyer to sell all of the Purchased Mortgage Loans on a particular Business Day, or in a transaction with the same purchaser, or in the same manner. In view of the nature of the Purchased Mortgage Loans, Seller agrees that liquidation of any Purchased Mortgage Loan may be conducted in a private sale. Seller acknowledges and agrees that any such private sale may result in prices and other terms less favorable to Buyer than if such sale were a public sale, and notwithstanding such circumstances, agrees that any such private sale shall be deemed to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner. Seller further agrees that it would not be commercially unreasonable for Buyer to dispose of any Purchased Mortgage Loan by using internet sites that provide for the auction or sale of assets similar to the Purchased Mortgage Loans, or that have the reasonable capability of doing so, or that match buyers and sellers of assets similar to the Purchased Mortgage Loans.

(d) Buyer may enforce its rights and remedies hereunder without prior judicial process or hearing, and Seller Party hereby expressly waives, to the extent permitted by applicable law and absent any willful misconduct or gross negligence of Buyer, any defenses Seller Party might otherwise have to require Buyer to enforce its rights by judicial process. Seller Party also waives, to the extent permitted by applicable law and absent any willful misconduct or gross negligence of Buyer, any defense (other than a defense of payment or performance) Seller Party might otherwise have arising from the use of nonjudicial process, enforcement and sale of all or any portion of the Repurchase Assets, or from any other election of remedies. Seller Party recognizes that nonjudicial remedies are consistent with the usages of the trade, are responsive to commercial necessity and are the result of a bargain at arm's length.

(e) To the extent permitted by any applicable Requirement of Law, Seller shall be liable to Buyer for interest on any amounts owing by Seller hereunder, from the date either Seller becomes liable for such amounts hereunder until such amounts are (i) paid in full by the Seller or (ii) satisfied in full by the exercise of Buyer's rights hereunder. Interest on any sum payable by Seller to Buyer under this Section 14(e) shall be at a rate equal to the Post-Default Rate.

(f) Without limiting the rights of Buyer hereto to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to Buyer for Seller Party's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement, Seller Party acknowledges and agree that the remedy at law for any failure to perform obligations hereunder would be inadequate and Buyer shall be entitled to seek specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure. The availability of these remedies shall not prohibit Buyer from pursuing any other remedies for such breach, including the recovery of monetary damages.

(g) In the event that (i) an Event of Default occurred solely pursuant to Section 13(g), and (ii) such Event of Default under Section 13(g) has been cured in accordance with the terms thereof, Buyer shall be entitled to consummate any sale of Purchased Mortgage Loans with respect to which Buyer committed to sell following the occurrence of such Event of Default and before it was cured in accordance with and as otherwise permitted under this Section 14. Upon receipt of the related sale proceeds, Buyer shall apply such proceeds to the then-outstanding Obligations. Seller Party shall continue and remain responsible for any remaining Obligations outstanding after application of such sale proceeds. Notwithstanding the foregoing, absent the occurrence of any other Event of Default, Buyer hereby agrees that it shall not exercise remedies after the occurrence of an Event of Default under Section 13(g) if, and from the date, Buyer has received a Standstill Payment from Seller; provided that if the Event of Default under Section 13(g) is not cured within fifteen (15) calendar days, Buyer may thereafter exercise all remedies in accordance with this Agreement and the Standstill Payment shall be applied to satisfy the Obligations. If Seller cures the Event of Default under Section 13(g) within fifteen (15) calendar days as permitted thereunder and have provided evidence reasonably satisfactory to Buyer of such cure, and provided that no other Event of Default shall have occurred, Buyer shall remit any Standstill Payment it received back to such Seller Party.

SECTION 15. INDEMNIFICATION AND EXPENSES; RECOURSE

(a) Seller Party agrees to hold Buyer, and its Affiliates and their officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors (each an "Indemnified Party") harmless from and indemnify, on an after-Tax basis, any Indemnified Party against all third-party liabilities, losses, damages, and judgments, documented, actual, out-of-pocket costs and expenses of any kind which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against such Indemnified Party (collectively, "Costs"), relating to or arising out of this Agreement (including, without limitation, as a result of a breach of Section 13(g), as a result of Buyer's compliance with the provisions of Section 14(g) or any representation or warranty contained on Schedule 1), any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, or any amendment, supplement or modification of, or any waiver or consent under or in respect of, this Agreement, any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, that, in each case, results from anything other than the Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct or a claim by one Indemnified Party against another Indemnified Party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller Party agrees to hold any Indemnified Party harmless from and indemnify such Indemnified Party, on an after-Tax basis, against all Costs and Taxes incurred as a result of or otherwise in connection with the holding of the Purchased Mortgage Loans or any failure by Seller Party or Subsidiary thereof to pay when due any Taxes for which such Person is liable, that result from anything other than the Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct. In any suit, proceeding or action brought by an Indemnified Party in connection with this Agreement, any Purchased Mortgage Loan for any sum owing thereunder, or to enforce any provisions of any Purchased Mortgage Loan, Seller Party will save, indemnify on an after-Tax basis and hold such Indemnified Party harmless from and against all expense, loss or damage suffered by reason of any defense, set off, counterclaim, recoupment or reduction or liability whatsoever of the account debtor or obligor thereunder, arising out of a breach by Seller Party of any obligation thereunder or arising out of any other agreement, indebtedness or liability at any time owing to or in favor of such account debtor or obligor or its successors from Seller Party. Seller Party also agrees to reimburse an Indemnified Party promptly after billed by such Indemnified Party for all the Indemnified Party's documented, actual, out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement or the preservation of Buyer's rights under this Agreement, any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, including without limitation the reasonable fees and disbursements of its counsel.

(b) Seller Party agrees to pay promptly after billed by Buyer all of the reasonable, documented, actual, out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred by Buyer in connection with (i) the development, preparation and execution of the Program Documents or any other documents prepared in connection herewith or therewith in an amount not to exceed the Legal Fee Cap and (ii) any amendment, supplement or modification to, this Agreement, any other Program Document or any other documents prepared in connection herewith or therewith. Seller Party agrees to pay promptly after billed by Buyer all of the documented, actual, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby including without limitation search and filing fees and all the documented, actual, reasonable fees, disbursements and expenses of counsel to Buyer. Subject to the Due Diligence Cap, Seller Party agrees to pay Buyer all the reasonable out of pocket due diligence, inspection, testing and review costs and expenses incurred by Buyer with respect to Mortgage Loans submitted by Seller for purchase under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, those out of pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer pursuant to Sections 15(a) and 17 hereof.

(c) The obligations of Seller Party from time to time to pay the Repurchase Price, the Price Differential, the Obligations and all other amounts due under this Agreement shall be full recourse obligations of Seller Party.

SECTION 16. SERVICING

(a) As a condition of purchasing a Mortgage Loan, Buyer may require Seller to service such Mortgage Loan as agent for Buyer for a term of thirty (30) days (the "Servicing Term"). If the Servicing Term expires with respect to any Purchased Mortgage Loan for any reason other than such Purchased Mortgage Loan no longer being subject to a Transaction hereunder, then upon agreement of Buyer, such Seller shall continue to service the Purchased Mortgage Loan for an additional thirty (30) days. Each thirty (30) day extension period shall automatically expire without notice unless Buyer agrees to any additional thirty (30) day extension period(s). The Seller shall service the Purchased Mortgage Loans in accordance with prudent mortgage loan servicing standards and procedures generally accepted in the mortgage banking industry and in accordance with all applicable requirements of the Agencies, Requirement of Law, the provisions of any applicable servicing agreement, and the requirements of any applicable Takeout Commitment and the Approved Investor, so that the eligibility of the Mortgage Loan for purchase under such Takeout Commitment is not voided or reduced by such servicing and administration.

(b) If any Mortgage Loan that is proposed to be sold on a Purchase Date is serviced by a servicer other than Seller and any interim servicer for correspondent loans (a "Subservicer"), or if the servicing of any Mortgage Loan is to be transferred to a Subservicer, the Seller shall provide a copy of the related servicing agreement and a Servicer Notice executed by such Subservicer (collectively, the "Servicing Agreement") to Buyer prior to such Purchase Date or servicing transfer date, as applicable. Each such Servicing Agreement shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Buyer. In addition, Seller shall have obtained the prior written consent of Buyer for such Subservicer to subservice the Mortgage Loans, which consent may not unreasonably be withheld or delayed; Reverse Mortgage Servicers, Inc. is approved by Buyer to subservice Mortgage Loans. In no event shall Seller's use of a Subservicer relieve such Seller of its obligations hereunder, and such Seller shall remain liable under this Agreement as if such Seller were servicing such Mortgage Loans directly.

(c) Seller shall transfer actual servicing of each Purchased Mortgage Loan, together with all of the related Records in its possession, to Buyer's designee and designate Buyer's designee as the servicer in the MERS System upon the earliest of (i) the occurrence of a Default or Event of Default hereunder, (ii) the termination of Seller as interim servicer by Buyer pursuant to this Agreement, (iii) the expiration (and non-renewal) of the Servicing Term, or (iv) transfer of servicing to any entity approved by Buyer and the assumption thereof by such entity. Buyer shall have the right to terminate Seller as interim servicer of any of the Purchased Mortgage Loans, which right shall be exercisable at any time in Buyer's sole discretion, upon written notice. Seller's transfer of the Records and servicing under this Section shall be in accordance with customary standards in the industry and such transfer shall include the transfer of the gross amount of all escrows held for the related mortgagors (without reduction for unreimbursed advances or "negative escrows").

(d) During the period Seller is servicing the Purchased Mortgage Loans as agent for Buyer, Seller agrees that Buyer is the owner of the related Credit Files and Records and Seller shall at all times maintain and safeguard and cause the Subservicer to maintain and safeguard the servicing records included in the Credit File for the Purchased Mortgage Loans (including photocopies or images of the documents delivered to Buyer) to the extent in their possession, and accurate and complete records of its servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loan; the Seller's possession of the servicing records included in the Credit Files and Records being for the sole purpose of servicing such Purchased Mortgage Loans and such retention and possession by the Seller being in a custodial capacity only.

(e) At Buyer's request, Seller shall promptly deliver to Buyer reports regarding the status of any Purchased Mortgage Loan being serviced by Seller, which reports shall include, but shall not be limited to, a description of any default thereunder for more than thirty (30) days or such other circumstances that could cause a material adverse effect on such Purchased Mortgage Loan, Buyer's title to such Purchased Mortgage Loan or the collateral securing such Purchased Mortgage Loan; Seller may be required to deliver such reports until the repurchase of the Purchased Mortgage Loan by Seller. Seller shall immediately notify Buyer if it becomes aware of any payment default that occurs under the Purchased Mortgage Loan or any default under any Servicing Agreement that would materially and adversely affect any Purchased Mortgage Loan subject thereto.

(f) Seller shall release its custody of the contents of the servicing records included in any Credit File or Mortgage File relating to a Purchased Mortgage Loan only (i) in accordance with the written instructions of Buyer, (ii) upon the consent of Buyer when such release is required as incidental to Seller's servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loan, is required to complete the Takeout Commitment or comply with the Takeout Commitment requirements, or (iii) as required by any applicable Requirement of Law.

(g) Buyer reserves the right to appoint a successor servicer at any time to service any Purchased Mortgage Loan (each a "Successor Servicer") in its sole discretion. If Buyer elects to make such an appointment due to a Default or Event of Default, Seller shall be assessed all costs and expenses incurred by Buyer associated with transferring the servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loans to the Successor Servicer. In the event of such an appointment, Seller shall perform all acts and take all action so that any part of the servicing records included in the Credit File and related Records held by Seller, together with all funds in the Custodial Account and other receipts relating to such Purchased Mortgage Loan, are promptly delivered to Successor Servicer, and shall otherwise reasonably cooperate with Buyer in effectuating such transfer. Subject to the terms of any applicable servicing agreement, Seller shall have no claim for lost servicing income, lost profits or other damages if Buyer appoints a Successor Servicer hereunder and the servicing fee is reduced or eliminated. For the avoidance of doubt any termination of the Servicer's rights to service by the Buyer as a result of an Event of Default shall be deemed part of an exercise of the Buyer's rights to cause the liquidation, termination or acceleration of this Agreement.

(h) For the avoidance of doubt, Seller retains no economic rights to the servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loans provided that the Seller shall continue to service the Purchased Mortgage Loans hereunder as part of its Obligations hereunder. As such, Seller expressly acknowledges that the Purchased Mortgage Loan are sold to Buyer on a "servicing released" basis.

SECTION 17. DUE DILIGENCE

Seller Party acknowledges that Buyer has the right to perform continuing due diligence reviews with respect to the Mortgage Loans, the Seller Party, Settlement Agents, Approved Investors and other parties which may be involved in or related to Transactions (collectively, "Third Party Transaction Parties"), from time to time, for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties and specifications made hereunder, or otherwise, and the Seller Party agrees that upon reasonable (but not less than three (3) Business Days) prior notice to the Seller Party, unless an Event of Default shall have occurred, in which case no notice is required, Buyer or its authorized representatives will be permitted during normal business hours to examine, inspect, and make copies and extracts of, the Mortgage Files and any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Mortgage Loans in the possession or under the control of Seller Party. The Seller Party will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Third Party Transaction Parties to cooperate with any due diligence requests of Buyer. Provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer agrees that it shall exercise best efforts, in the conduct of any such due diligence, to minimize any disruption to Seller's normal course of business. The Seller Party shall also make available to Buyer a knowledgeable financial or accounting officer for the purpose of answering questions respecting the Mortgage Files and the Mortgage Loans. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller acknowledges that Buyer may purchase Mortgage Loans from Seller based solely upon the information provided by Seller to Buyer in the Mortgage Loan Schedule and the representations, warranties and covenants contained herein, and that Buyer, at its option, has the right at any time to conduct a partial or complete due diligence review on some or all of the Mortgage Loans purchased in a Transaction, including, without limitation, ordering broker's price opinions, new credit reports and new appraisals on the related Mortgaged Properties and otherwise re-generating the information used to originate such Mortgage Loan. Buyer may underwrite such Mortgage Loans itself or engage a mutually agreed upon third party underwriter to perform such underwriting. Seller agrees to cooperate with Buyer and any third party underwriter in connection with such underwriting, including, but not limited to, providing Buyer and any third party underwriter with reasonable access to any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Mortgage Loans in the possession, or under the control, of the Seller. Seller Party further agrees to pay all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with Buyer's activities pursuant to this Section 17 (the "Due Diligence Costs"); provided that Seller shall not be responsible for Due Diligence Costs in excess of the Due Diligence Cap; provided, however, that the Due Diligence Cap shall not apply upon the occurrence of a Default or Event of Default.

SECTION 18. ASSIGNABILITY

The rights and obligations of the parties under this Agreement and under any Transaction shall not be assigned by Seller Party without the prior written consent of Buyer. Buyer may from time to time, with the consent of Seller which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed (provided that no consent shall be required if any such assignment by Buyer is (x) to an Affiliate of Buyer that is licensed with the State of New York Banking Department or (y) after the occurrence of an Event of Default), assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the Program Documents to any party pursuant to an executed assignment and acceptance by Buyer and assignee ("Assignment and Acceptance"), specifying the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations assigned. Upon such assignment, (a) such assignee shall be a party hereto and to each Program Document to the extent of the percentage or portion set forth in the Assignment and Acceptance, and shall succeed to the applicable rights and obligations of Buyer hereunder, and (b) Buyer shall, to the extent that such rights and obligations have been so assigned by it be released from its obligations hereunder and under the Program Documents. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement and any Transactions shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and assigns. Nothing in this Agreement express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties to this Agreement and their successors hereunder, any benefit of any legal or equitable right, power, remedy or claim under this Agreement. Unless otherwise stated in the Assignment and Acceptance, Seller shall continue to take directions solely from Buyer unless otherwise notified by Buyer in writing. Buyer may distribute to any prospective assignee any document or other information delivered to Buyer by Seller; provided that any such prospective assignee shall execute a confidentiality agreement containing confidentiality provisions substantially similar to those set forth in Section 31 hereof.

Buyer may sell participations to one or more Persons in or to all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that (i) Buyer's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) Buyer shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations; (iii) Seller shall continue to deal solely and directly with Buyer in connection with Buyer's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Program Documents except as provided in Section 7; and (iv) the holder of such participation and its respective Affiliates shall not be entitled to the set off rights set forth in this Agreement, including, without limitation, in Section 22 and shall not be entitled to conduct due diligence under Section 17, except through Buyer as its representative.

Buyer may, in connection with any assignment or participation or proposed assignment or participation pursuant to this Section 18, disclose to the assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant, as the case may be, any information relating to Seller or any of its Subsidiaries or to any aspect of the Transactions that has been furnished to Buyer by or on behalf of Seller or any of its Subsidiaries; provided that such assignee or participant agrees to hold such information subject to the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement.

In the event Buyer assigns all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, the parties hereto agree to negotiate in good faith an amendment to this Agreement to add agency provisions similar to those included in agreements for similar syndicated repurchase facilities.

SECTION 19. TRANSFER AND MAINTENANCE OF REGISTER.

(a) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to Section 19(b), from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of Buyer under this Agreement. Any assignment or transfer by Buyer of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 19 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Buyer of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Sections 18 and 19(b) hereof.

(b) Buyer, on Seller's behalf, shall maintain a register (the "Register") on which it will record Buyer's percentage of rights hereunder, and each Assignment and Acceptance and participation. The Register shall include the names and addresses of Buyer (including all assignees, successors and participants) and the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations assigned. Failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation shall not affect Seller's obligations in respect of such rights. If Buyer sells a participation in its rights hereunder, it shall provide Seller the information described in this paragraph and permit Seller to review such information.

SECTION 20. HYPOTHECATION OR PLEDGE OF PURCHASED MORTGAGE LOANS

Title to all Purchased Mortgage Loans and Repurchase Assets shall pass to Buyer and Buyer shall have free and unrestricted use of all Purchased Mortgage Loans, subject to the terms of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Buyer from engaging in repurchase transactions with the Purchased Mortgage Loans or otherwise pledging, repledging, transferring, hypothecating, or rehypothecating the Purchased Mortgage Loans to any Person, including without limitation, the Federal Home Loan Bank. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall obligate Buyer to segregate any Purchased Mortgage Loans delivered to Buyer by Seller. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, none of the foregoing shall relieve Buyer of its obligations to transfer Purchased Mortgage Loans to Seller pursuant to this Agreement or of Buyer's obligation to credit or pay Income to, or apply Income to the obligations of, Seller pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 21. TAX TREATMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Program Documents, each party to this Agreement acknowledges that it is its intent for U.S. federal, state and local income and franchise tax purposes to treat each Transaction as indebtedness of Seller that is secured by the Purchased Mortgage Loans and the Purchased Mortgage Loans as owned by such Seller in the absence of a Default by such Seller. All parties to this Agreement agree to such treatment and agree to take no action inconsistent with this treatment, unless required by any Requirement of Law (in which case such party shall promptly notify the other party of such Requirement of Law).

SECTION 22. SET-OFF

In addition to any rights and remedies of Buyer hereunder and by law, Buyer shall have the right, without prior notice to Seller Party (except for such notice as may be required in connection with certain Events of Default), any such notice being expressly waived by Seller Party to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by Seller hereunder beyond the expiration of any related cure period (whether by stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise)to set-off and appropriate and apply against any Obligation from Seller Party to Buyer any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final), in any currency, and any other obligation (including to return excess margin), credits, indebtedness or claims or cash, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by or due from Buyer to or for the credit or the account of Seller Party. Buyer agrees promptly to notify the Seller Party after any such set-off and application made by Buyer; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application.

Buyer shall at any time have the right, in each case until such time as Buyer determines otherwise, to retain, to suspend payment or performance of, or to decline to remit, any amount or property that Buyer would otherwise be obligated to pay, remit or deliver to Seller hereunder if an Event of Default or Default has occurred.

SECTION 23. TERMINABILITY

Each representation and warranty made or deemed to be made by entering into a Transaction, herein or pursuant hereto shall survive the making of such representation and warranty, and Buyer shall not be deemed to have waived any Default that may arise because any such representation or warranty shall have proved to be false or misleading, notwithstanding that Buyer may have had notice or knowledge or reason to believe that such representation or warranty was false or misleading at the time the Transaction was made. Notwithstanding any termination or the occurrence of an Event of Default, all of the representations and warranties and covenants hereunder shall continue and survive. The obligations of Seller Party under Section 15 hereof shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 24. NOTICES AND OTHER COMMUNICATIONS

Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement, all notices, requests and other communications provided for herein (including without limitation any modifications of, or waivers, requests or consents under, this Agreement) shall be given or made in writing (including without limitation by electronic transmission) delivered to the intended recipient at the addresses set forth below. In all cases, to the extent that the related individual set forth in the respective "Attention" line is no longer employed by the respective Person, such notice may be given to the attention of a Responsible Officer of the respective Person or to the attention of such individual or individuals as notified in writing by a Responsible Officer of the respective Person. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and except for notices given under Section 3 (which shall be effective only on receipt), all such communications shall be deemed to have been duly given when transmitted electronically or personally delivered or, in the case of a mailed notice, upon receipt, in each case given or addressed as aforesaid.

Seller and Buyer acknowledge and agree that certain transactions mutually agreed upon by the parties may be conducted electronically using Electronic Records and/or Electronic Signatures. Seller and Buyer consents to the use of Electronic Records and/or Electronic Signatures whenever expressly mutually agreed by the parties and acknowledges and agrees that Seller and Buyer shall be bound by its Electronic Signature and by the terms, conditions, requirements, information and/or instructions contained in any such Electronic Records. In particular, Seller and Buyer agree that the documents in the Mortgage File with respect to which Seller is permitted to deliver a copy, Seller may deliver such documents electronically through a secure electronic portal established by Seller and Custodian to which only the Custodian, Buyer and Seller shall have access (the "Portal"). Buyer and Seller hereby acknowledge that such documents delivered pursuant to the foregoing are deemed to be in Custodian's possession for the purpose of issuing the Trust Receipt, all as provided in the Custodial Agreement.

Seller and Buyer agrees to adopt as its Electronic Signature its user identification codes, passwords, personal identification numbers, access codes, a facsimile image of a written signature and/or other symbols or processes as agreed to by Seller and Buyer from time to time (as a group, any subgroup thereof or individually, hereinafter referred to as Seller's or Buyer's Electronic Signature). Seller and Buyer acknowledge that Buyer and Seller will rely on any and all Electronic Records and on Seller's and Buyer's Electronic Signature transmitted or submitted to Buyer or Seller.

Neither Seller nor Buyer shall be liable for the failure of either its or Seller's or Buyer's internet service provider, or any other telecommunications company, telephone company, satellite company or cable company to timely, properly and accurately transmit any Electronic Record or fax copy.

Before engaging in Electronic Transactions with Seller, Buyer may provide Seller, or require Seller to create, user identification codes, passwords, personal identification numbers and/or access codes, as applicable, to permit access to Buyer's computer information processing system. Each Person permitted access to the Warehouse Electronic System must have a separate identification code and password. Seller and Buyer shall be fully responsible for protecting and safeguarding any and all user identification codes, passwords, personal identification numbers and access codes provided or required by Buyer. Seller and Buyer shall adopt and maintain security measures to prevent the loss, theft or unauthorized or improper disclosure or use of any and all user identification codes, passwords, personal identification numbers and/or access codes by Persons other than the individual Person who is authorized to use such information. Seller and Buyer shall notify the other parties immediately in the event (i) of any loss, theft or unauthorized disclosure or use of any of the user identification codes, passwords, personal identification numbers and/or access codes or (ii) any party has any reason to believe there has been a breach of security or that its access to Warehouse Electronic System is no longer secure for any reason.

Seller and Buyer understands and agrees that it shall be fully responsible for protecting and safeguarding its computer hardware and software from any and all (a) computer "viruses," "time bombs," "trojan horses" or other harmful computer information, commands, codes or programs that may cause or facilitate the destruction, corruption, malfunction or appropriation of, or damage or change to, any of either Seller's or Buyer's computer information processing systems, including without limitation, all hardware, software, Electronic Records, information, data and/or codes and (b) computer "worms," "trap doors" or other harmful computer information, commands, codes or programs that enable unauthorized access to either Seller's and/or Buyer's computer information processing systems, including without limitation, all hardware, software, Electronic Records, information, data and/or codes.

Seller and Buyer agrees that any other party may, in its sole discretion and from time to time, without limiting the Seller's or Buyer's liability set forth herein, establish minimum security standards that Seller and Buyer must, at a minimum, comply with in an effort to (x) protect and safeguard any and all user identification codes, passwords, personal identification numbers and/or access codes from loss, theft or unauthorized disclosure or use; and (y) prevent the infiltration and "infection" of Seller's or Buyer's hardware and/or software by any and all computer "viruses," "time bombs," "trojan horses," "worms," "trapdoors" or other harmful computer codes or programs.

If Buyer or Seller Party, from time to time, establishes minimum security standards, Seller and Buyer shall comply with such minimum security standards within the time period established by Buyer or Seller Party, as applicable. Buyer and Seller Party shall have the right to confirm each other party's compliance with any such minimum security standards. Seller's and Buyer's compliance with such minimum security standards shall not relieve such Seller or Buyer from any of its liability set forth herein.

Whether or not Buyer or Seller Party establishes minimum security standards, Seller and Buyer shall continue to be fully responsible for adopting and maintaining security measures that are consistent with the risks associated with conducting electronic transactions with Buyer and the Seller Party. Seller's failure to adopt and maintain appropriate security measures or to comply with any minimum security standards established by Buyer may result in, among other things, termination of Seller's access to Buyer's computer information processing systems.

Seller Party understands and agrees that certain elements or components of the Warehouse Electronic System may be provided by third party vendors, and hereby holds Buyer harmless from any liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, costs and expenses of any kind which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against Seller Party relating to or arising out of Seller's use of the Warehouse Electronic System including without limitation, the use of any elements or components provided by third party vendors.

Each provision and agreement herein shall be treated as separate and independent from any other provision or agreement herein and shall be enforceable notwithstanding the unenforceability of any such other provision or agreement.

Buyer and Seller acknowledge that, and have entered hereinto and will enter into each Transaction hereunder in consideration of and in reliance upon the fact that, all Transactions hereunder constitute a single business and contractual relationship and that each has been entered into in consideration of the other Transactions. The provisions set forth in this Section 31 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Buyer and Seller Party shall comply, in all material respects, with all applicable local, state and federal laws, including, without limitation, all privacy and data protection law, rules and regulations that are applicable to the Purchased Mortgage Loans and/or any applicable terms of this Agreement (the "Confidential Information"). Each of Seller Party and Buyer understands that the Confidential Information may contain "nonpublic personal information", as that term is defined in Section 509(4) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (the "GLB Act"), and each of Seller Party and Buyer agrees to maintain such nonpublic personal information that it receives hereunder in accordance with the applicable provisions of the GLB Act and other applicable federal and state privacy laws. Seller Party and Buyer shall notify the other parties promptly following discovery of any breach or compromise in any material respect of any applicable Requirements of Law with respect to the security, confidentiality, or integrity of nonpublic personal information of the customers and consumers of the other parties. Seller Party and Buyer shall provide such notice to the other parties by personal delivery, by facsimile with confirmation of receipt, or by overnight courier with confirmation of receipt to the applicable requesting individual.

SECTION 32. INTENT

(a) The parties recognize that each Transaction is a "repurchase agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101 of Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as amended and a "securities contract" as that term is defined in Section 741 of Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as amended and that all payments hereunder are deemed "margin payments" or "settlement payments" as defined in Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and that the pledge of the Repurchase Assets constitutes "a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement" that is "related to" the Agreement and Transactions hereunder within the meaning of Sections 101(38A)(A), 101(47)(A)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code. The parties further recognize and intend that this Agreement is an agreement to provide financial accommodations and is not subject to assumption pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 365(a).

(b) This Agreement is intended to be a "repurchase agreement" and a "securities contract," within the meaning of Section 555 and Section 559 under the Bankruptcy Code. It is understood that either party's right to liquidate Purchased Mortgage Loans delivered to it in connection with Transactions hereunder or to exercise any other remedies pursuant to Section 14 hereof is a contractual right to liquidate such Transaction as described in Sections 555 and 559 of Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as amended; any payments or transfers of property made with respect to this Agreement or any Transaction to satisfy a Margin Deficit shall be considered a "margin payment" as such term is defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 741(5).

(e) It is understood that this Agreement constitutes a "netting contract" as defined in and subject to Title IV of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 ("FDICIA") and each payment entitlement and payment obligation under any Transaction hereunder shall constitute a "covered contractual payment entitlement" or "covered contractual payment obligation", respectively, as defined in and subject to FDICIA (except insofar as one or both of the parties is not a "financial institution" as that term is defined in FDICIA).

(f) Each party intends that this Agreement constitutes and shall be construed and interpreted as a "master netting agreement" within the meaning of and as such terms are used in Section 561 of the Bankruptcy Code and each party agrees that this Agreement is intended to create mutuality of obligations among the parties, and as such, this Agreement constitutes a contract which (i) is between all of the parties and (ii) places each party in the same right and capacity.

No payment required under the Mortgage Loan is 30 days or more delinquent nor has any payment under the Mortgage Loan been 30 days or more delinquent at any time since the origination of the Mortgage Loan; and, if the Mortgage Loan is a Co-op Loan, no foreclosure action or private or public sale under the Uniform Commercial Code has ever to the knowledge of Seller, been threatened or commenced with respect to the Co-op Loan.

(c) Origination Date. Unless otherwise extended by Buyer, the initial Purchase Date is no more than (i) with respect to Mortgage Loans, other than Correspondent Mortgage Loans, in non-escrow states, thirty (30) days following the origination date of the Mortgage Note; (ii) with respect to Mortgage Loans, other than Correspondent Mortgage Loans, in escrow states, forty-five (45) days following the origination date of the Mortgage Note and (iii) with respect to Correspondent Mortgage Loans, sixty (60) days following the origination date of the Mortgage Note.

(d) Approved Underwriting Guidelines. The Mortgage Loan was underwritten in accordance with the Approved Underwriting Guidelines in effect at the time of origination of the Mortgage Loan.

(e) No Outstanding Charges. There are no defaults in complying with the terms of the Mortgage, and all taxes, governmental assessments, insurance premiums, water, sewer and municipal charges, leasehold payments or ground rents which previously became due and owing have been paid or are not delinquent, or an escrow of funds has been established in an amount sufficient to pay for every such item which remains unpaid and which has been assessed but is not yet due and payable. Seller has not advanced funds, or induced, solicited or knowingly received any advance of funds by a party other than the Mortgagor, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any amount required under the Mortgage Loan, except for interest accruing from the date of the Mortgage Note or date of disbursement of the Mortgage Loan proceeds, whichever is earlier, to the day which precedes by one month the Due Date of the first installment of principal and interest.

(f) Original Terms Unmodified. The terms of the Mortgage Note (and the Proprietary Lease, the Assignment of Proprietary Lease and Stock Power with respect to each Co-op Loan) and Mortgage have not been impaired, waived, altered or modified in any respect, from the date of origination except by a written instrument which has been recorded, if necessary to protect the interests of Buyer, and which has been delivered to the Custodian or to such other Person as Buyer shall designate in writing, and the terms of which are reflected in the Mortgage Loan Schedule. The substance of any such waiver, alteration or modification has been approved by the issuer of any related PMI Policy and the title insurer, if any, to the extent required by the policy, and its terms are reflected on the Mortgage Loan Schedule, if applicable. No Mortgagor has been released, in whole or in part, except in connection with an assumption agreement, approved by the issuer of any related PMI Policy and the issuer of the title insurer, to the extent required by the policy, and which assumption agreement is part of the Mortgage File delivered to the Custodian or to such other Person as Buyer shall designate in writing and the terms of which are reflected in the Mortgage Loan Schedule.

(g) No Defenses. The Mortgage Loan (and the Assignment of Proprietary Lease related to each Co-op Loan) is not subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation the defense of usury, nor will the operation of any of the terms of the Mortgage Note or the Mortgage, or the exercise of any right thereunder, render either the Mortgage Note or the Mortgage unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation the defense of usury, and no such right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto, and no Mortgagor was a debtor in any state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding at the time the Mortgage Loan was originated.

(h) Hazard Insurance. Pursuant to the terms of the Mortgage, all buildings or other improvements upon the Mortgaged Property are insured by a generally acceptable insurer against loss by fire, hazards covered by extended coverage insurance and such other hazards as are provided for in the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD guidelines, as well as all additional requirements set forth in the Approved Underwriting Guidelines. If required by the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973, as amended, each Mortgage Loan is covered by a flood insurance policy meeting the applicable requirements of the current guidelines of the Federal Insurance Administration as in effect which policy conforms to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD guidelines. All individual insurance policies contain a standard mortgagee clause naming the Seller and its successors and assigns as mortgagee, and all premiums due and owing thereon have been paid. The Mortgage obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain the hazard insurance policy at the Mortgagor's cost and expense, and on the Mortgagor's failure to do so, authorizes the holder of the Mortgage to obtain and maintain such insurance at such Mortgagor's cost and expense, and to seek reimbursement therefor from the Mortgagor. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given an opportunity to choose the carrier of the required hazard insurance, provided the policy is not a "master" or "blanket" hazard insurance policy covering a condominium, or any hazard insurance policy covering the common facilities of a planned unit development. The hazard insurance policy is in full force and effect. Seller has not engaged in, and has no knowledge of the Mortgagor's having engaged in, any act or omission which would impair the coverage of any such policy, the benefits of the endorsement provided for herein, or the validity and binding effect of such policy, including, without limitation, to Seller's knowledge, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other person or entity, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller, in any case, to the extent it would impair coverage under any such policy.

(i) Compliance with Applicable Laws. Any and all requirements of any federal, state or local law including, without limitation, usury, truth-in-lending, real estate settlement procedures, consumer credit protection, anti-predatory lending laws, laws covering fair housing, fair credit reporting, community reinvestment, homeowners equity protection, equal credit opportunity, mortgage reform and disclosure laws or unfair and deceptive practices laws applicable to the Mortgage Loan have been complied with in all material respects, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not involve the violation of any such laws or regulations. Seller shall maintain in its possession, available for Buyer's inspection, evidence of compliance with all requirements set forth herein.

(j) No Satisfaction of Mortgage. The Mortgage has not been satisfied, canceled, subordinated or rescinded, in whole or in part, and the Mortgaged Property has not been released from the lien of the Mortgage, in whole or in part, nor has any instrument been executed that would affect any such release, cancellation, subordination or rescission other than in the case of a release of a portion of the land comprising a Mortgaged Property or a release of a blanket Mortgage which release will not cause the Mortgage Loan to fail to satisfy the applicable Underwriting Guidelines. Seller has not waived the performance by the Mortgagor of any action, if the Mortgagor's failure to perform such action would cause the Mortgage Loan to be in default, nor has the Seller waived any default resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor.

(k) Location and Type of Mortgaged Property. Other than with respect to a leasehold estate, the Mortgaged Property is a fee simple property located in the state identified in the Mortgage Loan Schedule. Mortgaged Property that is a leasehold estate meets the guidelines of the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, as applicable. The Mortgaged Property consists of a single parcel of real property with a detached single family residence erected thereon, a townhouse, or a two- to four-family dwelling, or an individual condominium or Co-op Unit in a low-rise or high-rise condominium or Co-op Project, or an individual unit in a planned unit development or a de minimis planned unit development and that no residence or dwelling is (i) a mobile home or (ii) a manufactured home, provided, however, that any condominium or Co-op Unit or planned unit development shall not fall within any of the "Ineligible Projects" of part VIII, Section 102 of the Fannie Mae Selling Guide and shall conform with the Approved Underwriting Guidelines. The Mortgaged Property is not raw land. As of the date of origination, no portion of the Mortgaged Property was used for commercial purposes, and since the date of origination, no portion of the Mortgaged Property has been used for commercial purposes; provided, that Mortgaged Properties which contain a home office shall not be considered as being used for commercial purposes as long as the entire Mortgaged Property has not been altered for commercial purposes and no portion of the Mortgaged Property is storing any chemicals or raw materials other than those commonly used for homeowner repair, maintenance and/or household purposes.

(l) Valid First Lien. Each Mortgage is a valid and subsisting first lien on a single parcel of real estate included in the Mortgaged Property, including all buildings and improvements on the Mortgaged Property and all installations and mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating and air conditioning systems annexed to such buildings, and all additions, alterations and replacements made at any time with respect to the foregoing, subject in all cases to the exceptions to title set forth in the title insurance policy with respect to the related Mortgage Loan, which exceptions are generally acceptable to prudent mortgage lending companies, the exceptions set forth below and such other exceptions to which similar properties are commonly subject and which do not individually, or in the aggregate, materially and adversely affect the benefits of the security intended to be provided by such Mortgage. The lien of the Mortgage is subject to:

(i) the lien of current real property taxes and assessments not yet delinquent.

(ii) covenants, conditions and restrictions, rights of way, easements and other matters of the public record as of the date of recording acceptable to prudent mortgage lending institutions generally and specifically referred to in the lender's title insurance policy delivered to the originator of the Mortgage Loan and (a) referred to or otherwise considered in the appraisal made for the originator of the Mortgage Loan or (b) which do not adversely affect the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property set forth in such appraisal; and

(iii) other matters to which like properties are commonly subject which do not materially interfere with the benefits of the security intended to be provided by the Mortgage or the use, enjoyment, value or marketability of the related Mortgaged Property.

Any security agreement, chattel mortgage or equivalent document related to and delivered in connection with the Mortgage Loan establishes and creates a valid, subsisting, enforceable and first lien and first priority security interest on the property described therein and Seller has full right to pledge and assign the same to Buyer.

(m) Validity of Mortgage Documents. The Mortgage Note and the Mortgage and any other agreement executed and delivered by a Mortgagor in connection with a Mortgage Loan are genuine, and each is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the maker thereof enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization and other laws of general application affecting the rights of creditors and by general equitable principles. All parties to the Mortgage Note, the Mortgage and any other such related agreement had legal capacity to enter into the Mortgage Loan and to execute and deliver the Mortgage Note, the Mortgage and any such agreement, and the Mortgage Note, the Mortgage and any other such related agreement have been duly and properly executed by other such related parties. No fraud, material omission, misrepresentation, negligence or similar occurrence with respect to a Mortgage Loan has taken place on the part of any Person, including without limitation, the Mortgagor, any appraiser, any builder or developer, or any other party involved in the origination or servicing of the Mortgage Loan or in any mortgage or flood insurance, if applicable, in relation to such Mortgage Loan. The Seller has reviewed all of the documents constituting the Mortgage File and has made such inquiries as they deem necessary to make and confirm the accuracy of the representations set forth herein.

(n) Full Disbursement of Proceeds. Except for HECM Loans, the Mortgage Loan has been closed and the proceeds of the Mortgage Loan have been fully disbursed and there is no requirement for future advances thereunder, and any and all requirements as to completion of any on-site or off-site improvement and as to disbursements of any escrow funds therefor have been complied with. All costs, fees and expenses incurred in making or closing the Mortgage Loan and the recording of the Mortgage were paid or are in the process of being paid, and the Mortgagor is not entitled to any refund of any amounts paid or due under the Mortgage Note or Mortgage (excluding refunds that may result from escrow analysis adjustments). All points and fees related to each Mortgage Loan were disclosed in writing to the Mortgagor in accordance in all material respects with applicable state and federal law and regulation. No Mortgagor was charged "points and fees" in an amount that exceeds the applicable limits as specified under 12 CFR 1026.43(e)(3), or any successor rule or regulation, to the extent such section is applicable, and the points and fees were calculated using the calculation required under 12 CFR 1026.32(b), or any successor rule or regulation, to the extent applicable to determine compliance with applicable requirements.

(o) Ownership. Seller is the sole owner and holder of the Mortgage Loan and the indebtedness evidenced by each Mortgage Note and upon the sale of the Mortgage Loans to Buyer, Seller will retain the Mortgage Files or any part thereof with respect thereto not delivered to the Custodian, Buyer or Buyer's designee, in trust for the purpose of servicing and supervising the servicing of each Mortgage Loan. The Mortgage Loan is not assigned or pledged to a third party, subject to Takeout Commitments, and Seller has good, indefeasible and marketable title thereto, and has full right to transfer and sell the Mortgage Loan to Buyer free and clear of any encumbrance, equity, participation interest, lien, pledge, charge, claim or security interest, and has full right and authority subject to no interest or participation of, or agreement with, any other party, to sell and assign each Mortgage Loan (and with respect to any Co-op Loan, the sole assignee under the related Assignment of Proprietary Lease) pursuant to this Agreement and following the sale of each Mortgage Loan, Buyer will hold such Mortgage Loan free and clear of any encumbrance, equity, participation interest, lien, pledge, charge, claim or security interest, except any security interest created pursuant to this Agreement, subject to Takeout Commitments. Seller intends to relinquish all rights to possess, control and monitor the Mortgage Loan, except as otherwise provided in the Program Documents.

(p) Doing Business. All parties which have had any interest in the Mortgage Loan, whether as mortgagee, assignee, pledgee or otherwise, are (or, during the period in which they held and disposed of such interest, were) (1) in compliance with any and all applicable licensing requirements of the laws of the state wherein the Mortgaged Property is located, and (2) either (i) organized under the laws of such state, or (ii) qualified to do business in such state, or (iii) a federal savings and loan association, a savings bank or a national bank having a principal office in such state, or (3) not doing business in such state, or (4) not otherwise required to be qualified to do business in such state.

(q) LTV, PMI Policy. Except as approved by one of the Agencies, FHA, VA or HUD, no Conforming Mortgage Loan has an LTV greater than 100%. If required by the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, the Conforming Mortgage Loan is insured by a PMI Policy. All provisions of any PMI Policy have been and are being complied with, such policy is in full force and effect, and all premiums due thereunder have been paid. No action, inaction, or event has occurred and no state of facts exists that has, or will result in the exclusion from, denial of, or defense to coverage. Any Conforming Mortgage Loan subject to a PMI Policy obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain the PMI Policy and to pay all premiums and charges in connection therewith. The Mortgage Interest Rate for the Conforming Mortgage Loan as set forth on the Mortgage Loan Schedule is net of any such insurance premium.

(r) Title Insurance. The Mortgage Loan is covered by either (i) an attorney's opinion of title and abstract of title, the form and substance of which is acceptable to prudent mortgage lending institutions making mortgage loans or reverse mortgage loans, as applicable, in the area wherein the Mortgaged Property is located or (ii) an ALTA lender's title insurance policy, or with respect to any Mortgage Loan for which the related Mortgaged Property is located in California a CLTA lender's title insurance policy, or other generally acceptable form of policy or insurance acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD and each such title insurance policy is issued by a title insurer acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD and qualified to do business in the jurisdiction where the Mortgaged Property is located, insuring the Seller, its successors and assigns, as to the first priority lien of the Mortgage in the original principal amount of the Mortgage Loan, subject only to the exceptions contained in clauses (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (l) of this Schedule 1, and in the case of adjustable rate Mortgage Loans, against any loss by reason of the invalidity or unenforceability of the lien resulting from the provisions of the Mortgage providing for adjustment to the Mortgage Interest Rate and Monthly Payment. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given the opportunity to choose the carrier of the required mortgage title insurance. Additionally, such lender's title insurance policy affirmatively insures ingress and egress, and against encroachments by or upon the Mortgaged Property or any interest therein. The title policy does not contain any special exceptions (other than the standard exclusions) for zoning and uses and has been marked to delete the standard survey exception or to replace the standard survey exception with a specific survey reading. The Seller, its successors and assigns, are the sole insureds of such lender's title insurance policy, and such lender's title insurance policy is valid and remains in full force and effect and will be in force and effect upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No claims have been made under such lender's title insurance policy, and no prior holder of the related Mortgage, including Seller, has done, by act or omission, anything which would impair the coverage of such lender's title insurance policy, including without limitation, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other Person or entity, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller, in any case to the extent it would impair the coverage of any such policy.

(s) No Defaults. Other than payments due but not yet 30 days or more delinquent, there is no default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration existing under the Mortgage or the Mortgage Note and no event which, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration, and neither Seller nor any of its affiliates nor any of their respective predecessors, have waived any default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration; and with respect to each Co-op Loan, there is no default in complying with the terms of the Mortgage Note, the Assignment of Proprietary Lease and the Proprietary Lease which would permit acceleration, and all maintenance charges and assessments (including assessments payable in the future installments, which previously became due and owing) have been paid to the extent required by the Fannie Mae Selling Guide, and Seller has the right under the terms of the Mortgage Note, Assignment of Proprietary Lease and Recognition Agreement to pay any maintenance charges or assessments owed by the Mortgagor.

(t) No Mechanics' Liens. There are no mechanics' or similar liens or claims which have been filed for work, labor or material (and, except with respect to HECM Loans, no rights are outstanding that under law could give rise to such liens) affecting the related Mortgaged Property which are or may be liens prior to, or equal to, the lien of the related Mortgage.

(u) Location of Improvements; No Encroachments. All improvements which were considered in determining the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property lay wholly within the boundaries and building restriction lines of the Mortgaged Property, and no improvements on adjoining properties encroach upon the Mortgaged Property, except those which are insured against by the related title insurance policy. No improvement located on or being part of the Mortgaged Property is in violation of any applicable zoning law or regulation.

(v) Origination; Payment Terms. The Mortgage Loan was originated by or in conjunction with a mortgagee approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act, a savings and loan association, a savings bank, a commercial bank, credit union, insurance company or other similar institution which is supervised and examined by a federal or state authority. Except for HECM Loans, no Mortgage Loan contains terms or provisions which would result in negative amortization. Monthly Payments on the Mortgage Loan commenced no more than sixty days after funds were disbursed in connection with the Mortgage Loan (unless such Mortgage Loan is a HECM Loan). The mortgage interest rate as well as the lifetime rate cap and the periodic cap, if any, are as set forth on the Mortgage Loan Schedule. Unless otherwise specified and except for HECM Loans, the Mortgage Loan is payable on the first day of each month. There are no Mortgage Loans which contain a provision allowing the Mortgagor to convert the Mortgage Note from an adjustable interest rate Mortgage Note to a fixed interest rate Mortgage Note.

(w) Customary Provisions. The Mortgage contains customary and enforceable provisions such as to render the rights and remedies of the holder thereof adequate for the realization against the Mortgaged Property of the benefits of the security provided thereby, including, (i) in the case of a Mortgage designated as a deed of trust, by trustee's sale, and (ii) otherwise by judicial foreclosure, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. Upon default by a Mortgagor on a Mortgage Loan and foreclosure on, or trustee's sale of, the Mortgaged Property pursuant to the proper procedures, the holder of the Mortgage Loan will be able to deliver good and merchantable title to the Mortgaged Property, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. There is no homestead or other exemption available to the Mortgagor that would interfere with the right to sell the related Mortgaged Property at a trustee's sale or the right to foreclose on the related Mortgage, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption.

(x) Conformance with Agency and Approved Underwriting Guidelines. The Mortgage Loan was underwritten in accordance with the Approved Underwriting Guidelines (a copy of which, other than Agency guidelines, has been delivered to Buyer). The Mortgage Note and Mortgage (exclusive of any riders) are on forms similar to those used by or acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, as applicable, and neither Seller has made any representations to a Mortgagor that are inconsistent with the mortgage instruments used. The methodology used in underwriting the extension of credit for each Mortgage Loan is in accordance with Approved Underwriting Guidelines or employs objective quantitative principles which relate the Mortgagor's credit characteristics, income, assets and liabilities (as applicable to a particular underwriting program) to the proposed payment, and such underwriting methodology does not rely on the extent of the Mortgagor's equity in the collateral as the principal determining factor in approving such credit extension. Except for HECM Loans, such underwriting methodology confirmed that at the time of origination (application/approval) the Mortgagor had a reasonable ability to make timely payments on the Mortgage Loan.

(y) Occupancy of the Mortgaged Property. As of the Purchase Date, the occupancy status of the Mortgaged Property is in accordance with Approved Underwriting Guidelines. All inspections, licenses and certificates required to be made or issued with respect to all occupied portions of the Mortgaged Property and, with respect to the use and occupancy of the same, including but not limited to certificates of occupancy and fire underwriting certificates, have been made or obtained from the appropriate authorities.

(z) No Additional Collateral. The Mortgage Note is not and has not been secured by any collateral except the lien of the corresponding Mortgage and the security interest of any applicable security agreement or chattel mortgage referred to in clause (l) above.

(aa) Deeds of Trust. In the event the Mortgage constitutes a deed of trust, a trustee, authorized and duly qualified under applicable law to serve as such, has been properly designated and currently so serves and is named in the Mortgage, and no fees or expenses, except as may be required by local law, are or will become payable by Buyer to the trustee under the deed of trust, except in connection with a trustee's sale after default by the Mortgagor.

(bb) Acceptable Investment. To Seller's actual knowledge, there are no specific circumstances or conditions with respect to the Mortgage, the Mortgaged Property, the Mortgagor, the Mortgage File or the Mortgagor's credit standing that are reasonably expected to (i) cause private institutional investors which invest in loans similar to the Mortgage Loan, to regard the Mortgage Loan as an unacceptable investment, or (ii) adversely affect the value of the Mortgage Loan in comparison to similar loans.

(cc) Delivery of Mortgage Documents. If the Mortgage Loans is not a Wet Loan, the Mortgage Note, the Mortgage, the Assignment of Mortgage (other than for a MERS Mortgage Loan) and any other documents required to be delivered under the Custodial Agreement for each Mortgage Loan have been delivered to the Custodian, except as otherwise provided in the Custodial Agreement. Seller is, or an agent of Seller is, in possession of a complete, true and accurate Mortgage File in compliance with the Custodial Agreement, except for such documents the originals of which have been delivered to the Custodian and except as otherwise provided in the Custodial Agreement.

(dd) Condominiums/Planned Unit Developments. If the Mortgaged Property is a condominium unit or a planned unit development (other than a de minimis planned unit development) such condominium or planned unit development project is (i) acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD or (ii) located in a condominium or planned unit development project which has received project approval from the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD. The representations and warranties required by the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD with respect to such condominium or planned unit development have been satisfied and remain true and correct.

(ee) Transfer of Mortgage Loans. Other than for MERS Mortgage Loans, the Assignment of Mortgage with respect to each Mortgage Loan is in recordable form and is acceptable for recording under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Mortgaged Property is located. The transfer, assignment and conveyance of the Mortgage Notes and the Mortgages by Seller are not subject to the bulk transfer or similar statutory provisions in effect in any applicable jurisdiction.

(ff) Due-On-Sale. The Mortgage contains an enforceable provision for the acceleration of the payment of the unpaid principal balance of the Mortgage Loan in the event that the Mortgaged Property is sold or transferred without the prior written consent of the mortgagee thereunder, and to the best of Seller's knowledge, such provision is enforceable.

(gg) Assumability. No Mortgage Loan is assumable, except as permitted under Approved Underwriting Guidelines.

(hh) Buydown Provisions; No Graduated Payments or Contingent Interests. Except as permitted by Approved Underwriting Guidelines, the Mortgage Loan does not contain provisions pursuant to which Monthly Payments are paid or partially paid with funds deposited in any separate account established by either Seller, the Mortgagor, or anyone on behalf of the Mortgagor, or paid by any source other than the Mortgagor; any such buydown funds have been maintained and administered in accordance with the requirements of the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD relating to buydown loans. The Mortgage Loan is not a graduated payment mortgage loan and the Mortgage Loan does not have a shared appreciation or other contingent interest feature.

(ii) Consolidation of Future Advances. Any future advances made to the Mortgagor prior to the origination of the Mortgage Loan have been consolidated with the outstanding principal amount secured by the Mortgage, and the secured principal amount, as consolidated, bears a single interest rate and single repayment term. The lien of the Mortgage securing the consolidated principal amount is expressly insured as having first lien priority by a title insurance policy, an endorsement to the policy insuring the mortgagee's consolidated interest or by other title evidence acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, as applicable. The consolidated principal amount does not exceed the original principal amount of the Mortgage Loan.

(jj) Mortgaged Property Undamaged; No Condemnation Proceedings. There is no proceeding pending or threatened in writing for the total or partial condemnation of the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgaged Property is undamaged by waste, fire, earthquake or earth movement, windstorm, flood, tornado or other casualty so as to affect adversely the value of the Mortgaged Property as security for the Mortgage Loan or the use for which the premises were intended and each Mortgaged Property is in good repair.

(kk) Collection Practices; Escrow Deposits; Interest Rate Adjustments. The origination, servicing and collection practices used by Seller with respect to the Mortgage Loan have been in all material respects in compliance with Accepted Servicing Practices and applicable laws and regulations. With respect to escrow deposits and Escrow Payments, all such payments are in the possession of, or under the control of, Seller and there exist no deficiencies in connection therewith for which customary arrangements for repayment thereof have not been made. All Escrow Payments have been collected in full compliance with state and federal law and the provisions of the related Mortgage Note and Mortgage. Each escrow of funds that has been established is not prohibited by applicable law. No escrow deposits or Escrow Payments or other charges or payments due Seller have been capitalized under the Mortgage or the Mortgage Note. All mortgage interest rate adjustments have been made in strict compliance with state and federal law and the terms of the related Mortgage and Mortgage Note on the related interest rate adjustment date. If, pursuant to the terms of the Mortgage Note, another index was selected for determining the mortgage interest rate, the same index was used with respect to each similar Mortgage Note which required a new index to be selected, and such selection did not breach the terms of the related Mortgage Note. Seller executed and delivered any and all notices required under applicable law and the terms of the related Mortgage Note and Mortgage regarding any mortgage interest rate and Monthly Payment adjustments. Any interest required to be paid on escrowed funds pursuant to state, federal and local law has been properly paid and credited.

(ll) No Violation of Environmental Laws. There exists no violation of any local, state or federal environmental law, rule or regulation with respect to the Mortgaged Property. There is no pending action or proceeding directly involving the Mortgaged Property in which compliance with any environmental law, rule or regulation is an issue.

(mm) Service members Civil Relief Act of 2003. The Mortgagor has not notified either Seller, and neither Seller has knowledge, of any relief requested or allowed to the Mortgagor under the Service members Civil Relief Act of 2003.

(nn) Appraisal. Unless the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD requires otherwise, the Mortgage File contains an appraisal of the related Mortgaged Property signed prior to the approval of the Mortgage Loan application by a qualified appraiser, duly appointed by Seller or the originator of the Mortgage Loan, who had no interest, direct or indirect in the Mortgaged Property or in any loan made on the security thereof, and whose compensation is not affected by the approval or disapproval of the Mortgage Loan, and the appraisal and appraiser both satisfy the requirements of to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD and Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, all as in effect on the date the Mortgage Loan was originated.

(oo) Disclosure Materials. The Mortgagor has executed a statement to the effect that the Mortgagor has received all disclosure materials required by, and Seller has complied in all material respects with, all applicable law with respect to the making of adjustable rate Mortgage Loans or HECM Loans. Seller shall maintain such statement in the Mortgage File.

(pp) Construction or Rehabilitation of Mortgaged Property. No Mortgage Loan was made in connection with the construction or rehabilitation of a Mortgaged Property or facilitating the trade-in or exchange of a Mortgaged Property.

(qq) Value of Mortgaged Property. Seller has no actual knowledge, based solely on a review of the applicable appraisal, of any circumstances existing that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the value of any Mortgaged Property as of the date the Mortgage Loan was funded.

(rr) No Defense to Insurance Coverage. No action has been taken or failed to be taken, no event has occurred and no state of facts exists or has existed on or prior to the Purchase Date (whether or not known to Seller on or prior to such date) which has resulted or will result in an exclusion from, denial of, or defense to coverage under any applicable PMI Policy (including, without limitation, any exclusions, denials or defenses which would limit or reduce the availability of the timely payment of the full amount of the loss otherwise due thereunder to the insured) whether arising out of actions, representations, errors, omissions, negligence, or fraud of Seller, the related Mortgagor or any party involved in the application for such coverage, including the appraisal, plans and specifications and other exhibits or documents submitted therewith to the insurer under such insurance policy, or for any other reason under such coverage, but not including the failure of such insurer to pay by reason of such insurer's breach of such insurance policy or such insurer's financial inability to pay.

(ss) Escrow Analysis. With respect to each Mortgage with an escrow account, Seller has within the last twelve months (unless such Mortgage was originated within such twelve month period) analyzed the required Escrow Payments for each Mortgage and adjusted the amount of such payments so that, assuming all required payments are timely made, any deficiency will be eliminated on or before the first anniversary of such analysis, or any overage will be refunded to the Mortgagor, in accordance with Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act and any other applicable law.

(tt) Prior Servicing. Each Mortgage Loan has been serviced in all material respects in compliance with Accepted Servicing Practices.

(uu) [Reserved].

(vv) Leaseholds. With respect to any ground lease to which a Mortgaged Property is subject, (1) a true, correct and complete copy of the ground lease and all amendments, modifications and supplements thereto is included in the servicing file, and the Mortgagor is the owner of a valid and subsisting leasehold interest under such ground lease;

(2) such ground lease is in full force and effect, unmodified and not supplemented by any writing or otherwise except as contained in the Mortgage File, (3) all rent, additional rent and other charges reserved therein have been fully paid to the extent payable as of the Purchase Date, (4) the Mortgagor enjoys quiet and peaceful possession of the leasehold estate, subject to any sublease, (5) the Mortgagor is not in default under any of the terms of such ground lease, and there are no circumstances that, with the passage of time or the giving of notice, or both, would result in a default under such ground lease, (6) the lessor under such ground lease is not in default under any of the terms or provisions of such ground lease on the part of the lessor to be observed or performed, (7) the lessor under such ground lease has satisfied any repair or construction obligations due as of the Purchase Date pursuant to the terms of such ground lease, (8) the execution, delivery and performance of the Mortgage do not require the consent (other than those consents which have been obtained and are in full force and effect) under, and will not contravene any provision of or cause a default under, such ground lease, (9) the ground lease term extends, or is automatically renewable, for at least five years after the maturity date of the Mortgage Note; (10) the Buyer has the right to cure defaults on the ground lease and (11) the ground lease meets the guidelines of the Applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, as applicable.

(ww) Prepayment Penalty. No Mortgage Loan is subject to a prepayment penalty.

(xx) Predatory Lending Regulations; High Cost Loans. No Mortgage Loan (a) is subject to Section 226.32 of Regulation Z or any similar state law (relating to high interest rate credit/lending transactions) or (b) is a High Cost Mortgage Loan. No Mortgagor was encouraged or required to select a Mortgage Loan product offered by Seller or the originator which is a higher cost product designed for less creditworthy borrowers, unless at the time of the Mortgage Loan's origination, such Mortgagor did not qualify taking into account credit history and debt to income ratios for a lower cost credit product then offered by Seller or originator. If, at the time of loan application, the Mortgagor qualified for a lower cost credit product then offered by Seller or the originator's standard mortgage channel (if applicable), Seller or the originator directed the Mortgagor towards such standard mortgage channel, or offered such lower-cost credit product to the Mortgagor.

(yy) Ohio Stated Income Exclusion. Each Mortgage Loan with an origination date on or after January 1, 2007 which is secured by Mortgaged Property located in Ohio was originated pursuant to a program which requires verification of the borrower's income in accordance with "Full or Alternative Documentation" programs as described within the Approved Underwriting Guidelines.

(zz) Origination. No predatory or deceptive lending practices, including, without limitation, the extension of credit without regard to the ability of the Mortgagor to repay and the extension of credit which has no apparent benefit to the Mortgagor, were employed in the origination of the Mortgage Loan.

(aaa) Single-premium Credit or Life Insurance Policy. In connection with the origination of any Mortgage Loan, no proceeds from any Mortgage Loan were used to purchase any single premium credit insurance policy (e.g., life, mortgage, disability, accident, unemployment, or health insurance product) or debt cancellation agreement through Seller as a condition of obtaining the extension of credit. No proceeds from any Mortgage Loan were used at the closing of such loan to purchase single premium credit insurance policies (e.g., life, mortgage, disability, accident, unemployment, or health insurance product) or debt cancellation agreements as part of the origination of, or as a condition to closing, such Mortgage Loan.

(bbb) Flood Certification Contract. Each Mortgage Loan is covered by a paid in full, life of loan, flood certification contract and each of these contracts is assignable to Buyer.

(ccc) Qualified Mortgage. Each Mortgage Loan satisfies the following criteria: (i) such Mortgage Loan is a Qualified Mortgage; and (ii) such Mortgage Loan is supported by documentation that evidences compliance with the Ability to Repay Rule and the QM Rule, as applicable.

(ddd) Regarding the Mortgagor. The Mortgagor is one or more natural persons and/or trustees for an Illinois land trust or a trustee under a "living trust" and such "living trust" is in compliance with the applicable Agency's, FHA's, VA's or HUD's guidelines for such trusts.

(eee) Recordation. Each original Mortgage was recorded or has been sent for recordation, and, except for those Mortgage Loans subject to the MERS identification system, all subsequent assignments of the original Mortgage (other than the assignment to Buyer) have been recorded or sent for recordation in the appropriate jurisdictions wherein such recordation is necessary to perfect the lien thereof as against creditors of the Mortgagor, or is in the process of being recorded.

(fff) FICO Scores. Other than with respect to (i) FHA, VA and RD streamlined Mortgage Loans and (ii) Mortgage Loans where the related Mortgagor is a foreign national, each Mortgagor with respect to a Mortgage Loan has a non-zero FICO score.

(ggg) Georgia Mortgage Loans. There is no Mortgage Loan that was originated on or after March 7, 2003 that is a "high cost home loan" as defined under the Georgia Fair Lending Act.

(hhh) Illinois Mortgage Loans. All Mortgage Loans originated on or after September 1, 2006 secured by Mortgaged Property located in Cook County, Illinois include Mortgages that are recordable at the time of origination.

(iii) Subprime Mortgage Loans. No Mortgage Loan secured by Mortgaged Property located in New York is a "Subprime Home Loan" as defined in New York Banking Law 6-m, effective September 1, 2008.

(jjj) Balloon Mortgage Loans. No Mortgage Loan is a balloon mortgage loan that has an original stated maturity of less than seven (7) years.

(kkk) Adjustable Rate Mortgage Loans. Each Mortgage Loan that is an adjustable rate Mortgage Loan and that has a residential loan application date on or after September 13, 2007, complies in all material respects with the Interagency Statement on Subprime Mortgage Lending, 72 FR 37569 (July 10, 2007), regardless of whether the Mortgage Loan's originator or Seller are subject to such statement as a matter of law.

(lll) Agency Mortgage Loans. Each Mortgage Loan that is subject to a Takeout Commitment with an Agency as the Approved Investor had a principal balance at its origination that did not exceed such Agency's loan limits as of the Purchase Date.

(mmm) Nontraditional Mortgage Loan. Each Mortgage Loan that is a "nontraditional mortgage loan" within the meaning of the Interagency Guidance on Nontraditional Mortgage Product Risks, 71 FR 58609 (October 4, 2006), and that has a residential loan application date on or after September 13, 2007, complies in all material respects with such guidance, regardless of whether the Mortgage Loan's originator or Seller is subject to such guidance as a matter of law.

(nnn) Mandatory Arbitration. No Mortgage Loan is subject to mandatory arbitration.

(ooo) Reserved.

(ppp) Wet Loans. With respect to at least 90% of the Mortgage Loans that are Wet Loans covered by any particular funding request, such Mortgage Loans (subject to the terms of the Pricing Side Letter and other than Mortgage Loans originated in the State of New York) are covered by a duly authorized, executed, delivered and enforceable Closing Protection Letter or, to the extent Title Source, Inc. continues to be a Settlement Agent, have Title Source, Inc. as the Settlement Agent.

(qqq) Takeout Commitment. Each Jumbo Mortgage Loan is covered by a Takeout Commitment, does not exceed the availability under such Takeout Commitment (taking into consideration mortgage loans which have been purchased by the respective Approved Investor under the Takeout Commitment and mortgage loans which Seller has identified to Buyer as covered by such Takeout Commitment) and conforms to the requirements and the specifications set forth in such Takeout Commitment and the related regulations, rules, requirements and/or handbooks of the applicable Approved Investor. Each Jumbo Mortgage Loan is eligible for sale to at least two Approved Investors and is covered by insurance or guaranteed by the applicable insurer. Each Takeout Commitment covering a Jumbo Mortgage Loan is a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Seller enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(rrr) HECM Loans. With respect to each HECM Loan (i) all of the related Mortgage Loan documents, including the Mortgage Note, are in a form required by, or acceptable under, the HUD handbook provisions relating to reverse mortgage loans; (ii) all requirements as to any improvement and/or repair to the Mortgaged Property and to the disbursement of set-aside amounts for such HECM Loan have been complied with; (iii) all advances of principal secured by the related Mortgage are consolidated and such consolidated principal amount bears a single interest rate as set forth in the Mortgage Loan Schedule; (iv) no portion of any proceeds of such HECM Loan received by the related Mortgagor on the closing date of such HECM Loan were disbursed at the closing for any purpose prohibited under the HUD handbook provisions relating to reverse mortgage loans (including, without limitation, for estate planning purposes); (v) the outstanding principal balance of the HECM Loan does not exceed the lesser of (x) 98% of the maximum claim amount and (y) the related principal limit; (vi) all advances of principal made on such HECM Loan (A) shall automatically become subject to a Transaction under the Repurchase Agreement without the requirement of Buyer to remit any additional Purchase Price and (B) with the Seller disbursing such advances of principal to the related Mortgagor with its own funds and not the funds of any third party lender; (vii) such HECM Loan is eligible to be pooled into an HMBS, or HECM mortgage-backed security, but no participation in such HECM Mortgage Loan shall have been pooled into an HMBS; (viii) the related Mortgaged Property is lawfully occupied by the Mortgagor as such Mortgagor's primary residence; (ix) the related principal limit, all scheduled payments and other calculation terms have each been calculated in accordance with and comply with all requirements of the HUD handbook provisions relating to reverse mortgage loans; (x) such HECM Mortgage Loan bears interest at a rate of interest permitted in accordance with the provisions of the HUD handbook provisions relating to reverse mortgage loans; (xi) no Mortgagor under such HECM Loan is less than sixty-two (62) years old and is otherwise an eligible Mortgagor in accordance with the requirements of the HUD handbook provisions relating to reverse mortgage loans; (xii) each Mortgagor has received all counseling required under the HUD handbook provisions relating to reverse mortgage loans and (xiii) the Custodian holds the related Mortgage Note (except for Wet-Ink Mortgage Loans).

(sss) Co-op Loan: Valid First Lien. With respect to each Co-op Loan, the related Mortgage is a valid, enforceable and subsisting first security interest on the related Co-op Shares and the related Proprietary Lease, subject only to (a) liens of the Co-op Corporation for unpaid assessments representing the Mortgagor's pro rata share of the Co-op Corporation's payments for its blanket mortgage, current and future real property taxes, insurance premiums, maintenance fees and other assessments to which like collateral is commonly subject and (b) other matters to which like collateral is commonly subject which do not materially interfere with the benefits of the security intended to be provided by the security interest, and (c) other matters and exceptions described in paragraph (l). There are no liens against or security interests in the Co-op Shares relating to each Co-op Loan (except for liens that are permitted by the Fannie Mae Selling Guide), which have priority equal to or over Seller's security interest in such Co-op Shares.

(ttt) Co-op Loan: Compliance with Law. With respect to each Co-op Loan, the related Co-op Corporation that owns title to the related Co-op Project is a "cooperative housing corporation" within the meaning of Section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code, and otherwise meet the requirements for cooperative loans set forth in the Fannie Mae Selling Guide.

(uuu) Co-op Loan: No Pledge. With respect to each Co-op Loan, there is no prohibition against pledging the Co-op Shares or assigning the Proprietary Lease. With respect to each Co-op Loan, (i) the term of the related Proprietary Lease is longer than the term of the Co-op Loan, (ii) there is no provision in any Proprietary Lease which requires the Mortgagor to offer for sale the Co-op Shares owned by such Mortgagor first to the Co-op Corporation, (iii) there is no prohibition in any Proprietary Lease against pledging the Co-op Shares or assigning the Proprietary Lease and (iv) the Recognition Agreement is on a form of agreement published by Aztech Document Systems, Inc. as of the date hereof or includes provisions which are no less favorable to the lender than those contained in such agreement.

(vvv) Co-op Loan: Acceleration of Payment. With respect to each Co-op Loan, each Assignment of Proprietary Lease contains enforceable provisions such as to render the rights and remedies of the holder thereof adequate for the realization of the material benefits of the security provided thereby. The Assignment of Proprietary Lease contains an enforceable provision for the acceleration of the payment of the unpaid principal balance of the Mortgage Note in the event the Co-op Unit is transferred or sold without the consent of the holder thereof.

All references to the representations and warranties set forth on this Schedule 1 with respect to HARP Mortgage Loans (but only as to HARP Mortgage Loans and no other Mortgage Loans) shall be deemed modified so that the only representations and warranties made by Seller with respect to HARP Mortgage Loans are that they meet the applicable Agency requirements for HARP Mortgage Loans, as modified by the variance received by Seller and approved by Buyer and any additional or inconsistent covenant, representation or warranty in the Program Agreements is deleted and waived with respect to HARP Mortgage Loans.

LITIGATION

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

II. Non-Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

things which Buyer deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Repurchase Assets and Buyer's Liens thereon and to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as such Seller might do;

(d) for the purpose of carrying out the transfer of servicing with respect to the Repurchase Assets from such Seller to a successor servicer appointed by Buyer in its sole discretion and to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary or desirable to accomplish such transfer of servicing, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller hereby gives Buyer the power and right, on behalf of such Seller, without assent by such Seller, to, in the name of such Seller or its own name, or otherwise, prepare and send or cause to be sent "good-bye" letters to all mortgagors under the Repurchase Assets, transferring the servicing of the Repurchase Assets to a successor servicer appointed by Buyer in its sole discretion;

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the power of attorney hereby granted may be exercised pursuant to the terms of the Repurchase Agreement.

Buyer shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers, and neither it nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to Seller for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for its or their own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

TO INDUCE ANY THIRD PARTY TO ACT HEREUNDER, SELLER HEREBY AGREES THAT ANY THIRD PARTY RECEIVING A DULY EXECUTED COPY OR FACSIMILE OF THIS INSTRUMENT MAY ACT HEREUNDER, AND THAT REVOCATION OR TERMINATION HEREOF SHALL BE INEFFECTIVE AS TO SUCH THIRD PARTY UNLESS AND UNTIL ACTUAL NOTICE OR KNOWLEDGE OF SUCH REVOCATION OR TERMINATION SHALL HAVE BEEN RECEIVED BY SUCH THIRD PARTY, AND BUYER ON ITS OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF BUYER'S ASSIGNS, HEREBY AGREES TO INDEMNIFY AND HOLD HARMLESS ANY SUCH THIRD PARTY FROM AND AGAINST ANY AND ALL CLAIMS THAT MAY ARISE AGAINST SUCH THIRD PARTY BY REASON OF SUCH THIRD PARTY HAVING RELIED ON THE PROVISIONS OF THIS INSTRUMENT.

Schedule 11(f)
LITIGATION

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

2.2 References. The Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by replacing all references to "UBS Real Estate Securities Inc." with "UBS AG, by and through its branch office at 1285 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York".

2.3 Payment, Transfers; Accounts. Section 9 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by deleting it in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

SECTION 9. PAYMENT, TRANSFER; ACCOUNTS

(a) Payments and Transfers of Funds. Unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing, all transfers of funds to be made by Seller hereunder shall be made in Dollars, in immediately available funds, without deduction, set off or counterclaim, to Buyer pursuant to the Wiring Instructions, on the date on which such payment shall become due.

(b) Remittance of Purchase Price. On the Purchase Date for each Transaction, ownership of the Purchased Mortgage Loans shall be transferred to Buyer or its designee against the simultaneous transfer of the Purchase Price pursuant to Seller's Wiring Instructions. With respect to the Purchased Mortgage Loans being sold by Seller on a Purchase Date, Seller hereby sells, transfers, conveys and assigns to Buyer or its designee without recourse, but subject to the terms of this Agreement, all of its right, title and interest of Seller in and to the Purchased Mortgage Loans together with all right, title and interest in and to the proceeds of any related Repurchase Assets.

(c) Warehouse Accounts. Buyer or the Buyer's designee shall maintain for Seller an inbound account and a margin account (the "Warehouse Accounts"). The Warehouse Accounts shall be in the form of non-interest bearing book-entry accounts. Buyer shall have exclusive withdrawal rights from the Warehouse Accounts. All amounts on deposit in the Warehouse Accounts shall be held as cash margin and collateral for all Obligations under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller acknowledges that (i) amounts in the Warehouse Accounts are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, any governmental entity or otherwise and (ii) Buyer is not required to segregate funds in the Warehouse Accounts from its own funds or from funds held for others. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event that Seller fails to timely satisfy a Margin Call or an Event of Default exists, Buyer shall be entitled to use any or all of the amounts on deposit in any Warehouse Account to cure such circumstance or otherwise exercise remedies available to Buyer without prior notice to, or consent from Seller, provided that Buyer will promptly notify Seller of such application of funds; provided further that the failure to provide such notice shall not affect the validity of the Buyer's actions.

(d) Operating Account. From time to time, Seller may provide funds to Buyer for deposit to an interest bearing account (the "Operating Account") in accordance with this Section 9. The Operating Account shall be a subaccount of an interest-bearing savings account (the "Omnibus Account") maintained by Buyer as agent for the benefit of Seller and other sellers of mortgage related assets with a bank determined by Buyer its sole discretion (the "Depository"). The Buyer shall have non-exclusive withdrawal rights from the Operating Account. Seller acknowledges that Buyer acts as Seller's agent for the limited purpose of placing funds with the Depository, and that funds held by Buyer as Seller's agent are not a deposit account or other liability of Buyer. Buyer shall maintain records of Seller's interest in the funds maintained in the Omnibus Account. Withdrawals may be paid by wire transfer or any other means chosen by Buyer from time to time in its sole discretion. Subject to Section 9(f) hereof, Seller shall be entitled to drawdown the Buydown Amount on demand and to remit additional funds to be added to the Buydown Amount.

(e) Depository. Unless otherwise designated in writing by Buyer and with prior written notice to Seller, the Depository shall be UBS AG, Stamford Branch. Funds on deposit at the UBS AG, Stamford Branch are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Securities Investor Protection Corporation or any governmental agency of the United States, Switzerland or any other jurisdiction. The Omnibus Account and Operating Account are obligations of the UBS AG, Stamford Branch only, and are not obligations of UBS AG generally or of any of its other affiliates. The payment of principal and interest on the Operating Account at the UBS AG, Stamford Branch is subject to the creditworthiness of UBS AG. The Operating Account is not a deposit account or other liability of Buyer. In the unlikely event of the failure of the UBS AG, Stamford Branch, the Seller acknowledges that it will be a general unsecured creditor of UBS AG.

(f) Buydown Amount. The Buydown Amount shall be held as unsegregated cash margin and collateral for all Obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event that Seller fails to timely satisfy a Margin Call or an Event of Default exists, the Buyer shall be entitled to use any or all of the Buydown Amount and to withdraw such amount from the Operating Account in Buyer's sole discretion to cure such circumstance or otherwise exercise remedies available to the Buyer without prior notice to, or consent from, Seller; provided that Buyer will promptly notify Seller of such application of funds; provided, further, that the failure to provide such notice shall not affect the validity of Buyer's actions. Within [] receipt of written request from Seller, and provided Seller has not failed to timely satisfy a Margin Call or an Event of Default does not exist, Buyer shall withdraw any portion of such Buydown Amount from the Operating Account and remit such amount back to Seller.

(g) Operating Account Interest. Subject to Section 9(h), The Buydown Amount will accrue interest at the Operating Account Rate; provided that in no event shall interest accrue on (A) the Buydown Amount (x) if on any day the Buydown Amount is less than the Minimum Balance Requirement or (y) the average balance of funds in the Operating Account during any calendar month is less than the Minimum Balance Requirement and (B) that portion of the Buydown Amount that is in excess of the lesser of (x) [] of the average aggregate outstanding Purchase Price of all Transactions during any calendar month and (y) [] Unless otherwise set forth in the Pricing Letter:

(i) The Depository calculates interest accrual daily on the basis of funds credited to the Operating Account, but credits interest monthly. As a result, interest will not begin to compound until credited in the month following its accrual. The Depository credits interest to the Operating Account in the month following its accrual on a schedule set by Depository from time to time, which may result in a delay in interest crediting as late as the [] day of the calendar month.

(ii) The Depository accrues interest on funds deposited to the Operating Account beginning on the day on which such funds are received in the Operating Account, and through, but not including, the day on which funds are withdrawn from the Operating Account.

(iii) Interest paid on funds in the Operating Account at the Operating Account Rate shall be credited to the Operating Account unless otherwise withdrawn by Buyer at the direction of Seller as provided herein.

(h) Maintenance of Balances. If Seller shall fail to maintain with Buyer during any calendar month deposits in the Operating Account in the average, after charges to compensate Buyer for services rendered to Seller, equal to at least the Minimum Balance Requirement, Seller shall pay to Buyer a fee equal to the amount of such deficit multiplied by the Maintenance Fee Rate.

(i) Fees. Seller shall pay in immediately available funds to Buyer all fees, including without limitation, the Warehouse Fees, as and when required hereunder. All such payments shall be made in Dollars, in immediately available funds, without deduction, set-off or counterclaim, to Buyer at such account designated by Buyer. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement, Buyer may withdraw and retain from the Warehouse Accounts and Operating Account any Warehouse Fees due and owing to Buyer that have not been otherwise timely paid by Seller.

LITIGATION

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

Accordingly, the Buyer and Seller hereby agree, in consideration of the mutual promises and mutual obligations set forth herein, that the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

SECTION 1. Applicability. Section 1 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by deleting such section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

SECTION 3. Initiation; Termination. Section 3 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by deleting subsection (e) in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

(e) Request for Temporary Increase. Seller Party may request a temporary increase of the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price (a "Temporary Increase") by submitting to Buyer an executed Temporary Increase Request, setting forth the requested increased Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price (such increased amount, the "Temporary Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price") and the effective date and expiration date of such Temporary Increase, which such Temporary Increase Request shall become effective upon receipt by Buyer. At any time that a Temporary Increase is in effect, the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price shall equal the Temporary Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price and the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price shall increase to the amount set forth in the Temporary Increase Request for all purposes of this Agreement and all calculations and provisions relating to the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price shall refer to the Temporary Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price. Upon the termination of a Temporary Increase, Seller shall repurchase Purchased Mortgage Loans, if necessary, in order to reduce the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price of all Transactions to the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price (as reduced by the termination of such Temporary Increase). Notwithstanding any Temporary Increase, Buyer shall have no obligation to enter into any Transactions.

SECTION 4. Due Diligence. Section 17 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by deleting such section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

SECTION 17. DUE DILIGENCE

Seller Party acknowledges that Buyer has the right to perform continuing due diligence reviews with respect to the Mortgage Loans, the Seller Party, Settlement Agents, Approved Investors and other parties which may be involved in or related to Transactions (collectively, "Third Party Transaction Parties"), from time to time, for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties and specifications made hereunder, or otherwise, and the Seller Party agrees that upon reasonable (but not less than three (3) Business Days) prior notice to the Seller Party, unless an Event of Default shall have occurred, in which case no notice is required, Buyer or its authorized representatives will be permitted during normal business hours to examine, inspect, and make copies and extracts of, the Mortgage Files and any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Mortgage Loans in the possession or under the control of Seller Party. The Seller Party will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Third Party Transaction Parties to cooperate with any due diligence requests of Buyer. Provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer agrees that it shall exercise best efforts, in the conduct of any such due diligence, to minimize any disruption to Seller's normal course of business. The Seller Party shall also make available to Buyer a knowledgeable financial or accounting officer for the purpose of answering questions respecting the Mortgage Files and the Mortgage Loans and, once Seller Party and Buyer establish mutually agreeable procedures for the handling and use by Buyer of Seller's confidential beneficial ownership information, Seller Party shall ensure that Buyer has sufficient information relating to Seller's beneficial ownership for purposes of Buyer's compliance with 31 C.F.R. § 1010.230. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller acknowledges that Buyer may purchase Mortgage Loans from Seller based solely upon the information provided by Seller to Buyer in the Mortgage Loan Schedule and the representations, warranties and covenants contained herein, and that Buyer, at its option, has the right at any time to conduct a partial or complete due diligence review on some or all of the Mortgage Loans purchased in a Transaction, including, without limitation, ordering broker's price opinions, new credit reports and new appraisals on the related Mortgaged Properties and otherwise re-generating the information used to originate such Mortgage Loan. Buyer may underwrite such Mortgage Loans itself or engage a mutually agreed upon third party underwriter to perform such underwriting. Seller agrees to cooperate with Buyer and any third party underwriter in connection with such underwriting, including, but not limited to, providing Buyer and any third party underwriter with reasonable access to any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Mortgage Loans in the possession, or under the control, of the Seller. Seller Party further agrees to pay all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with Buyer's activities pursuant to this Section 17 (the "Due Diligence Costs"); provided that Seller shall not be responsible for Due Diligence Costs in excess of the Due Diligence Cap; provided, however, that the Due Diligence Cap shall not apply upon the occurrence of a Default or Event of Default.

SECTION 6. General Interpretive Principles. Section 36 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by deleting the reference to Section 1-201(19) and replacing it with a reference to Section 201(b)(20).

SECTION 7. Representations and Warranties. Schedule 1 to the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by:

7.1 deleting paragraphs (b), (c), (e), (f), (g), (h), (j), (n), (s), (v), (cc), (jj) and (eee) in their entirety and replacing them with the following:

(b) Payments Current. No payment required under the Mortgage Loan is thirty (30) days or more delinquent nor has any payment under the Mortgage Loan (other than a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan) been thirty (30) days or more delinquent at any time since the origination of the Mortgage Loan; and, if the Mortgage Loan is a Co-op Loan, no foreclosure action or private or public sale under the Uniform Commercial Code has ever to the knowledge of Seller, been threatened or commenced with respect to the Co-op Loan.

(c) Origination Date. Unless otherwise extended by Buyer and other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, the initial Purchase Date is no more than (i) with respect to Mortgage Loans, other than Correspondent Mortgage Loans, in non-escrow states, thirty (30) days following the origination date of the Mortgage Note; (ii) with respect to Mortgage Loans, other than Correspondent Mortgage Loans, in escrow states, forty-five (45) days following the origination date of the Mortgage Note and (iii) with respect to Correspondent Mortgage Loans, sixty (60) days following the origination date of the Mortgage Note.

(e) No Outstanding Charges. Other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, there are no defaults in complying with the terms of the Mortgage, and all taxes, governmental assessments, insurance premiums, water, sewer and municipal charges, leasehold payments or ground rents which previously became due and owing have been paid or are not delinquent, or an escrow of funds has been established in an amount sufficient to pay for every such item which remains unpaid and which has been assessed but is not yet due and payable. Other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, Seller has not advanced funds, or induced, solicited or knowingly received any advance of funds by a party other than the Mortgagor, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any amount required under the Mortgage Loan, except for interest accruing from the date of the Mortgage Note or date of disbursement of the Mortgage Loan proceeds, whichever is earlier, to the day which precedes by one (1) month the Due Date of the first installment of principal and interest.

(f) Original Terms Unmodified. Other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, the terms of the Mortgage Note (and the Proprietary Lease, the Assignment of Proprietary Lease and Stock Power with respect to each Co-op Loan) and Mortgage have not been impaired, waived, altered or modified in any respect, from the date of origination except by a written instrument which has been recorded, if necessary to protect the interests of Buyer, and which has been delivered to the Custodian or to such other Person as Buyer shall designate in writing, and the terms of which are reflected in the Mortgage Loan Schedule. The substance of any such waiver, alteration or modification has been approved by the issuer of any related PMI Policy and the title insurer, if any, to the extent required by the policy, and its terms are reflected on the Mortgage Loan Schedule, if applicable. No Mortgagor has been released, in whole or in part, except in connection with an assumption agreement, approved by the issuer of any related PMI Policy and the title insurer, to the extent required by the policy, and which assumption agreement is part of the Mortgage File delivered to the Custodian or to such other Person as Buyer shall designate in writing and the terms of which are reflected in the Mortgage Loan Schedule. Each Ginnie Mae Modified Loan has been modified in accordance with the Ginnie Mae guide.

(g) No Defenses. The Mortgage Loan (and the Assignment of Proprietary Lease related to each Co-op Loan) is not subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation the defense of usury, nor will the operation of any of the terms of the Mortgage Note or the Mortgage or with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, the terms of the Modification Agreement, or the exercise of any right thereunder, render either the Mortgage Note or the Mortgage or with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, the Modification Agreement unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation the defense of usury, and no such right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto, and no Mortgagor was a debtor in any state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding at the time the Mortgage Loan was originated or with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, at the time the Modification Agreement was entered into.

(h Hazard Insurance. Pursuant to the terms of the Mortgage, all buildings or other improvements upon the Mortgaged Property are insured by a generally acceptable insurer against loss by fire, hazards covered by extended coverage insurance and such other hazards as are provided for in the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD guidelines, as well as all additional requirements set forth in the Approved Underwriting Guidelines. If required by the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended, and the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973, as amended, each Mortgage Loan is covered by a flood insurance policy meeting the applicable requirements of the current guidelines of the Federal Insurance Administration as in effect which policy conforms to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD guidelines. All individual insurance policies contain a standard mortgagee clause naming the Seller and its successors and assigns as mortgagee, and all premiums due and owing thereon have been paid. The Mortgage obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain the hazard insurance policy at the Mortgagor's cost and expense, and on the Mortgagor's failure to do so, authorizes the holder of the Mortgage to obtain and maintain such insurance at such Mortgagor's cost and expense, and to seek reimbursement therefor from the Mortgagor. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given an opportunity to choose the carrier of the required hazard insurance, provided the policy is not a "master" or "blanket" hazard insurance policy covering a condominium, or any hazard insurance policy covering the common facilities of a planned unit development. The hazard insurance policy is in full force and effect. Seller has not engaged in, and has no knowledge of the Mortgagor's having engaged in, any act or omission which would impair the coverage of any such policy, the benefits of the endorsement provided for herein, or the validity and binding effect of such policy, including, without limitation, to Seller's knowledge, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other person or entity, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller, in any case, to the extent it would impair coverage under any such policy.

(j) No Satisfaction of Mortgage. The Mortgage has not been satisfied, canceled, subordinated or rescinded, in whole or, other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, in part, and the Mortgaged Property has not been released from the lien of the Mortgage, in whole or, other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, in part, nor has any instrument been executed that would affect any such release, cancellation, subordination or rescission other than in the case of a release of a portion of the land comprising a Mortgaged Property or a release of a blanket Mortgage which release will not cause the Mortgage Loan to fail to satisfy the applicable Underwriting Guidelines. Other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, Seller has not waived the performance by the Mortgagor of any action, if the Mortgagor's failure to perform such action would cause the Mortgage Loan to be in default, nor has the Seller waived any default resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor.

(n) Full Disbursement of Proceeds. Except for HECM Loans, the Mortgage Loan has been closed and, except with respect to HomeStyle Renovation Mortgage Loans or HomeReady Renovation Mortgage Loans, the proceeds of the Mortgage Loan have been fully disbursed and there is no requirement for future advances thereunder, and any and all requirements as to completion of any on-site or off-site improvement and as to disbursements of any escrow funds therefor have been complied with. With respect to Homestyle Renovation Mortgage Loans and HomeReady Renovation Mortgage Loans, Seller has made all advances and disbursements in accordance with the terms of the Mortgage and/or the terms and conditions of the related mortgage loan program. All costs, fees and expenses incurred in making or closing the Mortgage Loan and the recording of the Mortgage were paid or are in the process of being paid, and the Mortgagor is not entitled to any refund of any amounts paid or due under the Mortgage Note or Mortgage (excluding refunds that may result from escrow analysis adjustments). All points and fees related to each Mortgage Loan were disclosed in writing to the Mortgagor in accordance in all material respects with applicable state and federal law and regulation. No Mortgagor was charged "points and fees" in an amount that exceeds the applicable limits as specified under 12 CFR 1026.43(e)(3), or any successor rule or regulation, to the extent such section is applicable, and the points and fees were calculated using the calculation required under 12 CFR 1026.32(b), or any successor rule or regulation, to the extent applicable to determine compliance with applicable requirements.

(s) No Defaults. Other than payments due but not yet thirty (30) days or more delinquent, there is no default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration existing under the Mortgage or the Mortgage Note and no event which, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration, and neither Seller nor any of its affiliates nor any of their respective predecessors, have waived any default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan in accordance with the Ginnie Mae Modified guide and the Modification Agreement; and with respect to each Co-op Loan, there is no default in complying with the terms of the Mortgage Note, the Assignment of Proprietary Lease and the Proprietary Lease which would permit acceleration, and all maintenance charges and assessments (including assessments payable in the future installments, which previously became due and owing) have been paid to the extent required by the Fannie Mae Selling Guide, and Seller has the right under the terms of the Mortgage Note, Assignment of Proprietary Lease and Recognition Agreement to pay any maintenance charges or assessments owed by the Mortgagor.

(v) Origination; Payment Terms. The Mortgage Loan was originated by or in conjunction with a mortgagee approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act, a savings and loan association, a savings bank, a commercial bank, credit union, insurance company or other similar institution which is supervised and examined by a federal or state authority. Except for HECM Loans, no Mortgage Loan contains terms or provisions which would result in negative amortization. Monthly Payments on the Mortgage Loan that is not a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan commenced no more than sixty (60) days after funds were disbursed in connection with the Mortgage Loan (unless such Mortgage Loan is a HECM Loan). The mortgage interest rate as well as the lifetime rate cap and the periodic cap, if any, are as set forth on the Mortgage Loan Schedule. Unless otherwise specified and except for HECM Loans, the Mortgage Loan is payable on the first day of each month. There are no Mortgage Loans which contain a provision allowing the Mortgagor to convert the Mortgage Note from an adjustable interest rate Mortgage Note to a fixed interest rate Mortgage Note.

(cc) Delivery of Mortgage Documents. If the Mortgage Loans is not a Wet Loan, the Mortgage Note, the Mortgage, the Assignment of Mortgage (other than for a MERS Mortgage Loan) and any other documents required to be delivered under the Custodial Agreement for each Mortgage Loan have been delivered to the Custodian including, the Modification Agreement with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, except as otherwise provided in the Custodial Agreement. Seller is, or an agent of Seller is, in possession of a complete, true and accurate Mortgage File in compliance with the Custodial Agreement, except for such documents the originals of which have been delivered to the Custodian and except as otherwise provided in the Custodial Agreement.

(jj) Mortgaged Property Undamaged; No Condemnation Proceedings. There is no proceeding pending or threatened in writing for the total or partial condemnation of the Mortgaged Property. Other than with respect to a Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, the Mortgaged Property is undamaged by waste, fire, earthquake or earth movement, windstorm, flood, tornado or other casualty so as to affect adversely the value of the Mortgaged Property as security for the Mortgage Loan or the use for which the premises were intended and each Mortgaged Property is in good repair.

(eee) Recordation. Each original Mortgage was recorded or has been sent for recordation, and, except for those Mortgage Loans subject to the MERS identification system, all subsequent assignments of the original Mortgage (other than the assignment to Buyer) have been recorded or sent for recordation in the appropriate jurisdictions wherein such recordation is necessary to perfect the lien thereof as against creditors of the Mortgagor, or is in the process of being recorded. With respect to each Ginnie Mae Modified Loan, the related Modification Agreement has been recorded or sent for recordation.

7.2 adding the following paragraphs at the end thereof:

(www) Ginnie Mae Modified Loan. Each Ginnie Mae Modified Loan (i) was modified in accordance with the Ginnie Mae guide; (ii) with respect to (x) an FHA Loan, is the subject of an FHA Mortgage Insurance Certificate; (y) a VA Loan, is the subject of a VA Loan Guaranty Agreement and (z) a RD Loan, is guaranteed by the RD pursuant to a RD Loan Guaranty Agreement and (iii) conforms to the requirements of Ginnie Mae for securitization.

(xxx) FHA Loans, VA Loans and RD Loans. With respect to each FHA Loan, VA Loan and RD Loan, as applicable, (i) the FHA Mortgage Insurance Certificate is, or when issued will be, in full force and effect, and to Seller's knowledge, there exists no circumstance with respect to such FHA Loan that would permit the FHA to deny coverage under such FHA Mortgage Insurance Certificate, the VA Loan Guaranty Agreement is, or when issued will be, in full force and effect, and the RD Loan Guaranty Agreement is, or when issued will be, in full force and effect and (ii) all necessary steps on the part of Seller have been taken to keep such guaranty or insurance valid, binding and enforceable and, to Seller's knowledge, each is the binding, valid and enforceable obligation of the FHA, the VA or the RD, respectively, without surcharge, set-off or defense.

SECTION 8. Exhibit A. Exhibit A to the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by deleting such exhibit in its entirety and replacing it with Annex A hereto.

SECTION 9. Conditions Precedent. This Amendment shall become effective as of the date hereof, subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions precedent:

(b) such other documents as the Buyer or counsel to the Buyer may reasonably request.

The parties agree that this Amendment, any documents to be delivered pursuant to this Amendment and any notices hereunder may be transmitted between them by email and/or by facsimile. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Amendment in Portable Document Format (PDF) or by facsimile shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed original counterpart of this Amendment. The Buyer and Seller have agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of this Amendment, that the Existing Repurchase Agreement be amended to reflect certain agreed upon revisions to the terms of the Existing Repurchase Agreement.

Accordingly, the Buyer and Seller hereby agree, in consideration of the mutual promises and mutual obligations set forth herein, that the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. Section 2 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by:

1.3 deleting the definition of "LTV" in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

"LTV" shall mean (a) with respect to any Mortgage Loan other than a HARP Mortgage Loan or Agency High LTV Mortgage Loan, the ratio of the original outstanding principal amount of the Mortgage Loan to the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property at origination, (b) with respect to any HARP Mortgage Loan, the ratio of the original outstanding principal amount of the HARP Mortgage Loan to the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property as of the date such Mortgage Loan is funded as a refinanced Mortgage Loan under HARP 2.0 and (c) with respect to any Mortgage Loan that is an Agency High LTV Mortgage Loan, the ratio of the original outstanding principal amount of the Mortgage Loan to the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property as of the date such Mortgage Loan is funded as a refinanced Mortgage Loan under the "High LTV Refinance Option" program implemented by Fannie Mae or the "Enhanced Relief Refinance" program implemented by Freddie Mac, as applicable.

1.4 adding the following definitions in their proper alphabetical order:

"Agency High LTV Mortgage Loan" shall mean a Mortgage Loan, which is secured by a first lien, and such Mortgage Loan (a) conforms to the requirements of an Agency for securitization or cash purchase and (b) has a LTV in excess of the amounts for Conforming Mortgage Loans but otherwise meets the requirements of the "High LTV Refinance Option" program implemented by Fannie Mae or the "Enhanced Relief Refinance" program implemented by Freddie Mac, as applicable.

If required by the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, the Conforming Mortgage Loan is insured by a PMI Policy. All provisions of any PMI Policy have been and are being complied with, such policy is in full force and effect, and all premiums due thereunder have been paid. No action, inaction, or event has occurred and no state of facts exists that has, or will result in the exclusion from, denial of, or defense to coverage. Any Conforming Mortgage Loan subject to a PMI Policy obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain the PMI Policy and to pay all premiums and charges in connection therewith. ANNEX A

SCHEDULE 11(ff)

LITIGATION

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans may not be the real party of interest but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans is insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position. However, regardless of the outcome of the matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

II. Non-Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

Case Title	Court	Case Number	Nature of Action	Description of Claims	Date
Phillip Alig, et al. vs. Quicken Loans Inc., et al.	US District Court, Northern District, West Virginia	11-c-428	Lender Liability	Class action lawsuit alleging violation of state consumer protection statutes for providing homeowner's estimated values to appraisers.	6/25/2012

HouseCanary, Inc. vs. Quicken Loans Inc., One Reverse Mortgage, LLC, and In-House Realty LLC	US District Court, Northern District of California	3:18-cv-01672	Intellectual Property	Lawsuit alleging that Quicken Loans (and the other defendants) have misappropriated HouseCanary's trade secret information and used the purported trade secrets to their advantage.	3/21/2018
Ajomale v. Quicken Loans, Inc. and Corelogic Credco, LLC	US District Court for the Southern District of Alabama	17-539-JB-MU	Fair Credit Reporting Act	Putative class action alleging QL improperly accessed the plaintiff's credit report and failed to provide plaintiff with certain notices under the FCRA.	12/15/2017
Hill and Hyde v. Quicken Loans Inc.	US District Court for the Central District of California	5:19-cv-00163	Consumer Protection	Putative class action that alleges Quicken Loans violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act by: (a) texting Plaintiff (and a class of others), without consent, through the use of an automatic telephone dialing system; and (b) texting Plaintiff (and a class of others) after the individual revoked consent.	1/28/2019
William Gray v. Quicken Loans Inc.	Superior Court of California, County of Ventura	56-2019-00528118- CU-OR-VTA	California Civil Code & Business and Professions Code	Putative class action that alleges Quicken Loans violated California law by failing to pay interest on insurance proceeds that were placed into an escrow account.	6/11/2019

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage company, Quicken Loans is regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken.

These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans participates in and responds to numerous regular periodic state examinations. If the state agency issues a finding, Quicken Loans may dispute that finding and/or attempt to reconcile any differences of opinion. In other instances, Quicken Loans may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage company Quicken Loans is, in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Although Quicken Loans may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations.

ANNEX A TO AMENDMENT

SCHEDULE 11(f)

LITIGATION

[SEE ATTACHED]

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans may not be the real party of interest, but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans is insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position. However, regardless of the outcome of the matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

II. Non-Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage company, Quicken Loans is regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken.

These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans participates in and responds to numerous regular periodic state examinations. If the state agency issues a finding, Quicken Loans may dispute that finding or attempt to reconcile any differences of opinion. In other instances, Quicken Loans may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage company Quicken Loans is, in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Although Quicken Loans may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations.

(b) Interpretation. Headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation. The following rules of this Section 2(b) apply unless the context requires otherwise. The singular includes the plural and conversely. A gender includes all genders. Where a word or phrase is defined, its other grammatical forms have a corresponding meaning. Any capitalized term used in the Side Letter and used, but not defined differently, in this Agreement has the same meaning here as there. A reference in this Agreement to a Section, Subsection, Sub-subsection, Exhibit or Schedule is, unless otherwise specified, a reference to a Section, Subsection or Sub-subsection of, or an Exhibit or Schedule to, this Agreement. "Indorse" and correlative terms used in the Uniform Commercial Code may be spelled with an initial "e" instead of "i". A reference to a party to this Agreement or another agreement or document includes the party's successors and permitted substitutes or assigns. A reference to an agreement or document is to the agreement or document as supplemented, amended, novated, restated or replaced, except to the extent prohibited by any Transaction Document. A reference to legislation or to a provision of legislation includes a modification or re-enactment of it, a legislative provision substituted for it and a regulation or statutory instrument issued under it. A reference to writing includes a facsimile or electronic transmission and any other means that permits the recipient to reproduce words in a tangible and visible form. A reference to conduct includes an omission, statement or undertaking, whether or not in writing. An Event of Default exists until it has been waived in writing by the appropriate Person or Persons or has been timely cured. The words "hereof", "herein", "hereunder" and similar words refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The term "including" and correlative terms are not limiting and mean "including without limitation", whether or not that phrase is stated. In the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word "from" means "from and including", the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding", and the word "through" means "to and including". If a day for payment or performance specified by, or determined in accordance with, the provisions of this Agreement is not a Business Day, then the payment or performance will instead be due on the Business Day next following that day. Unless otherwise specifically provided, all determinations by Administrative Agent shall be in its reasonable, good faith discretion. This Agreement may use several different limitations, tests or measurements to regulate the same or similar matters; all such limitations, tests and measurements are cumulative and each shall be performed in accordance with its terms. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all terms of an accounting or financial nature shall be construed in accordance with GAAP, as in effect from time to time; provided that, if either Seller or Administrative Agent gives notice to the other of them that it requests an amendment to any provision hereof to eliminate the effect of any change occurring after the effective date of this Agreement in GAAP or in its application on the operation of such provision, whether any such notice is given before or after such change in GAAP or in its application, then such provision shall be interpreted on the basis of GAAP as in effect and applied immediately before such change shall have become effective until such notice shall have been withdrawn or such provision amended in accordance herewith. Unless otherwise specifically provided, all accounting calculations shall be made on a consolidated basis. Except where otherwise provided in this Agreement, references herein to "fiscal year" and "fiscal quarter" refer to such fiscal periods of Seller. Except where otherwise provided in this Agreement, any determination, statement or certificate by Administrative Agent or an authorized officer of Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates provided for in this Agreement that is made reasonably and in good faith and in the manner provided for in this Agreement shall be conclusive and binding on the parties in the absence of manifest error. A reference to an agreement includes a security agreement, guarantee, agreement or legally enforceable arrangement, whether or not in writing. A reference to a document includes an agreement (as so defined) in writing or a certificate, notice, instrument or document executed in connection therewith. Where Seller is required by this Agreement to provide any document to Administrative Agent, it shall be provided in writing or printed form or in electronic form, unless otherwise provided in this Agreement. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents are the result of negotiations between Buyers and Administrative Agent on the one hand and Seller (and Seller's related parties) on the other, and are the product of all Parties. In the interpretation of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, no rule of construction shall apply to disadvantage one Party on the ground that such Party originated, proposed, drafted, presented or was involved in the preparation of any particular provision of this Agreement or of any other Transaction, or of this Agreement or such other Transaction Document itself. Seller and Buyers may be party to other mutual agreements and nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to restrict or limit any right or remedy under any such other agreement, and nothing in any such other agreement shall be construed to restrict or limit any right or remedy under this Agreement, except to the extent, if any, specifically provided herein or therein. Except where otherwise expressly stated, Administrative Agent may (i) give or withhold, or give conditionally, approvals and consents, (ii) be satisfied or unsatisfied and (iii) form opinions and make determinations, in each case in Administrative Agent's reasonable, good faith discretion. A reference to "good faith" means good faith as defined in §1-201(19) of the UCC as in effect in the State of New York. Any requirement of good faith, reasonableness, discretion or judgment by Administrative Agent or any Buyer shall not be construed to require Administrative Agent or such Buyer to request or await receipt of information or documentation not immediately available from or with respect to Seller or any other Person or the Purchased Mortgage Loans themselves. Administrative Agent may waive, relax or strictly enforce any applicable deadline at any time and to such extent as Administrative Agent shall elect, and no waiver or relaxation of any deadline shall be applicable to any other instance or application of that deadline or any other deadline, and no such waiver or relaxation, no matter how often made or given, shall be evidence of or establish a custom or course of dealing different from the express provisions and requirements of this Agreement.

3. Initiation; Confirmations; Termination

(a) Initiation. Any agreement to enter into a Transaction shall be made in writing or electronically at the initiation of Seller through the MWF Web before the Termination Date. If Seller desires to enter into a Transaction, Seller shall deliver to Administrative Agent no earlier than three (3) Business Days before, and no later than 3:30 p.m., Houston, Texas time, on, the proposed Purchase Date, a request for Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) to purchase an amount of Eligible Mortgage Loans on such Purchase Date. All such purchases shall be on a servicing released basis and shall include the Servicing Rights with respect to such Eligible Mortgage Loan. Such request shall state the Purchase Price and shall include the Confirmation related to the proposed Transaction.

(b) Purchase. Subject to the terms of the Side Letter and satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 3 and in Section 7, on the requested Purchase Date for each Transaction, Administrative Agent shall transfer to Seller — for a newly Originated Eligible Mortgage Loan, by transferring funds to the designated Settlement Agent, and for other Eligible Mortgage Loans, by transferring funds to the prior lender or repurchase agreement counterparty, or to Seller, as applicable — an amount of Buyers' funds equal to the Purchase Price for purchase of each Eligible Mortgage Loan that is the subject of such Transaction on that Purchase Date, less any amounts to be netted against such Purchase Price in accordance with the Transaction terms and this Agreement. The transfer of funds to the Settlement Agent to be used to fund the Mortgage Loan, or to the prior lender or repurchase agreement counterparty, or to Seller, as applicable, and if applicable, the permitted netting of amounts for value, on the Purchase Date for any Transaction will constitute full payment by Buyers of the Purchase Price for such Mortgage Loan. Within five (5) Business Days (twelve (12) calendar days for Wet Funded CEMA Loans) following the Purchase Date, Seller shall (i) take such steps as are necessary and appropriate to effect the transfer to Administrative Agent on the MERS® System of the Purchased Mortgage Loans so purchased, and to cause Administrative Agent to be designated as "Interim Funder" on the MERS® System with respect to each such Purchased Mortgage Loan and (ii) in the case of a Wet Funding, deliver all remaining items of the related Loan File to Administrative Agent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, Administrative Agent and Buyers shall have no obligation to enter into any Transaction on or after the Termination Date. Seller may (i) initially request less than one hundred percent (100%) of the Purchase Price for any one or more Purchased Mortgage Loans, (ii) repay part of the Purchase Price therefor to Administrative Agent (for Buyers' account) or (iii) both, and may subsequently request (through Administrative Agent) that Buyers fund (or re-fund) the balance of the Purchase Price to Seller, and in either case so long as no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyers, acting through Administrative Agent, will fund (or re-fund) so much of such balance as Seller shall request.

(c) Confirmations. The Confirmation for each Transaction shall (i) include the Loan Purchase Detail with respect to the Mortgage Loans subject to such Transaction, (ii) identify Administrative Agent and Seller and (iii) set forth (A) the Purchase Date, (B) the Purchase Price, (C)the latest Repurchase Date applicable to such Mortgage Loans, (D)the Pricing Rates applicable to the Transaction and (E) any additional terms or conditions of the Transaction mutually agreeable to Administrative Agent and Seller. In the event of any conflict between the terms of a Confirmation that has been affirmatively accepted by Administrative Agent and this Agreement, such accepted Confirmation shall prevail.

(d) Failed Fundings. Seller agrees to report to Administrative Agent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail by the earlier of (x) one (1) Business Day after the Assistant Treasurer or Cash Manager has actual knowledge of such failure and (y) three (3) Business Days after the related Purchase Date, any Mortgage Loans that failed to be funded to the related Mortgagor, otherwise failed to close for any reason or failed to be purchased hereunder. Seller further agrees to (i) return, or cause the Settlement Agent to return, to the Funding Account, for refunding to Administrative Agent for Buyers' accounts, the portion of the Purchase Price allocable to such Mortgage Loans by the earlier of (x) one (1) Business Day after the Assistant Treasurer or Cash Manager has actual knowledge of such failure and (y) three (3) Business Days after the related Purchase Date, and (ii) indemnify Buyers and Administrative Agent for any loss, cost or expense incurred by them as a result of the failure of such Mortgage Loans to close or to be delivered to Administrative Agent.

(e) Accrual and Payment of Price Differential. The Price Differential for each Transaction shall accrue during the period commencing on (and including) the day when the Purchase Price is transferred into the Funding Account (or otherwise paid to Seller) for such Transaction and ending on (but excluding) the day when the Repurchase Price is paid to Administrative Agent. Accrued Price Differential for each Purchased Mortgage Loan shall be due and payable (i) on each Remittance Date, (ii) when any Event of Default occurs and (iii) on each Business Day after any Event of Default occurs and so long as it is continuing, to and excluding the day that the Repurchase Price therefor shall be paid to Administrative Agent.

(f) Repurchase Required. Seller shall repurchase from Administrative Agent Purchased Mortgage Loans conveyed to Administrative Agent and MBS issued in exchange for Pools of Purchased Mortgage Loans, on or before each related scheduled Repurchase Date and may electively sooner repurchase Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS. Each obligation to repurchase exists without regard to any prior or intervening liquidation or foreclosure with respect to any Purchased Mortgage Loan. If such Repurchase Price is paid by Seller on or before termination of this Agreement, shipment of the related Purchased Mortgage Loans to an Approved Investor or an Agency Custodian pursuant to Section 17 or Administrative Agent's liquidation of the Purchased Mortgage Loans pursuant to Section 12, Administrative Agent shall transfer such Purchased Mortgage Loans to Seller. Seller is obligated to obtain Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS not shipped to an Approved Takeout Investor or an Agency Custodian from Administrative Agent or its designee on the related Repurchase Date.

(i) Cash Repurchase. On the Repurchase Date of Purchased Mortgage Loans being repurchased for cash (including any Pool of Purchased Mortgage Loans that will be exchanged on an MBS Settlement Date in a "delivery versus cash" or "swap and sell" transaction), termination of the Transaction will be effected by resale to Seller or its designee by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) of the Purchased Mortgage Loans on a servicing released basis against (1) Seller's submission to Administrative Agent of a Completed Repurchase Advice and (2) payment of the Repurchase Price by Seller's wiring it or causing it to be wired to the Funding Account. After receipt of the payment (for Buyers' accounts) of the Repurchase Price from Seller, Administrative Agent shall transfer such Purchased Mortgage Loans and the related Mortgage Loan Documents to Seller or its designee or release all of its interests in the related Pool and deliver, or cause to be delivered, to Seller, its designee or the Agency Custodian for such Pool, as applicable, all Mortgage Loan Documents previously delivered to Administrative Agent and take such steps as are necessary and appropriate to effect the transfer of the Purchased Mortgage Loan to Seller or its designee on the MERS® System. All such transfers from Administrative Agent to Seller or Seller's designee are and shall be without recourse and without any of the transfer warranties of UCC §3-417 or other warranty, express or implied.

(ii) Pool Securitization and Repurchase of MBS Created from the Pool. On the Repurchase Date for a Pool of Purchased Mortgage Loans that is being securitized in a "delivery versus MBS" or "swap and hold" transaction, termination of the Transaction, and the simultaneous initiation of a new Transaction whose subject will be the MBS created from such Pool, will be effected by Administrative Agent's delivery of such Pool to the relevant Agency Custodian against delivery to Buyer of the MBS created from such Pool. On the Repurchase Date for such MBS, termination of such new Transaction will be effected by Seller's wiring the Repurchase Price for such MBS, or causing it to be wired, to the Funding Account and causing the other elements of a Completed Repurchase Advice (those being items (iii) and (iv) in the definition of that term in Section 2(a)) to be delivered to Administrative Agent, whereupon Administrative Agent will transfer the MBS to the relevant Approved Takeout Investor, Seller or its designee, as applicable.

(g) No Obligation to Transfer Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS After Termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, Administrative Agent shall not be obligated to transfer any Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS to Seller or any Seller's designee after the termination of this Agreement or liquidation by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) of the Purchased Mortgage Loans, in each case pursuant to Section 12, except to the extent that the net proceeds of such Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS received by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) exceed Seller's obligations, liabilities and indebtedness under each of the Transactions and the Transaction Documents, or to the extent required by Bankruptcy Code Section 559 if that is less.

(h) Completed Repurchase Advice. If Administrative Agent receives the Completed Repurchase Advice with respect to a Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS at or before 3:00 p.m. Houston, Texas time, on any Business Day, then the Repurchase Date for that Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS will be that same day. If Administrative Agent receives the Completed Repurchase Advice with respect to any Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS after 3:00 p.m. Houston, Texas time, on any Business Day, then the Repurchase Date for that Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS will be the next Business Day. In connection with any repurchase pursuant to a Completed Repurchase Advice, Administrative Agent will debit the Funding Account and, if necessary, the Operating Account for the amount of the Repurchase Price (less any amount of Price Differential to be paid on the next Remittance Date). Without limiting Seller's obligations hereunder, at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default or an Event of Default, except for repurchases of individual Mortgage Loans or Pools being sold to Approved Takeout Investors, Seller shall not be permitted to repurchase less than all of the Purchased Mortgage Loans without the prior written consent of Administrative Agent, which may be granted or withheld in Administrative Agent's sole discretion.

(i) Reliance. With respect to any Transaction, Administrative Agent may conclusively rely upon, and shall incur no liability to Seller in acting upon, any request or other communication that Administrative Agent reasonably believes to have been given or made by a Person authorized to enter into a Transaction on Seller's behalf.

(j) Defective Mortgage Loans.

(i) If, after Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) purchases a Mortgage Loan, Administrative Agent determines or receives notice (whether from Seller or otherwise) that a Purchased Mortgage Loan is (or has become) a Defective Mortgage Loan, Administrative Agent shall promptly notify Seller, and Seller shall repurchase such Purchased Mortgage Loan at the Repurchase Price on the Early Repurchase Date (as such term is defined below).

(ii) If Seller becomes obligated to repurchase a Mortgage Loan pursuant to Subsection 3(j)(i), Administrative Agent shall promptly give Seller notice of such repurchase obligation and a calculation of the Repurchase Price therefor. On the same day Seller receives such notice if given at or before 10:00 a.m., Houston, Texas time, or on the next Business Day if such notice is given after 10:00 a.m. (such day, the "Early Repurchase Date"), Seller shall repurchase the Defective Mortgage Loan by paying Administrative Agent (for Buyers' accounts) the Repurchase Price therefor, and shall submit a Completed Repurchase Advice. Administrative Agent is authorized to charge any of Seller's Accounts for such amount unless the Parties have agreed in writing to a different method of payment and Seller has paid such amount by such agreed method. If Seller's Accounts do not contain sufficient funds to pay in full the amount due Buyers under this Subsection 3(j)(ii), or if the amount due is not paid by any applicable alternative method of payment previously agreed to by the Parties, Seller shall promptly deposit funds in the Operating Account sufficient to pay such amount due Buyers and notify Administrative Agent of such deposit. If such Repurchase Price is paid by Seller on or before termination of this Agreement, shipment of the related Purchased Mortgage Loans to an Approved Investor or an Agency Custodian pursuant to Section 17 or Administrative Agent's liquidation of the Purchased Mortgage Loans pursuant to Section 12, Administrative Agent shall transfer such Purchased Mortgage Loans to Seller and deliver, or cause to be delivered, to Seller all documents for the Mortgage Loan previously delivered to Administrative Agent and take such steps as are necessary and appropriate to effect the transfer of the Purchased Mortgage Loan to Seller on the MERS® System.

4. Margin Maintenance

(a) Margin Deficit. If at any time the aggregate Margin Amounts of all Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS then subject to Transactions is less than the sum of their Repurchase Prices, a margin deficit (a "Margin Deficit") will exist. If at any time the Margin Deficit is greater than the Cash Deposit balance by [], Administrative Agent, by notice to Seller (a "Margin Call"), may require Seller to transfer to Administrative Agent (for Buyers' accounts) (x) cash or (y) if Administrative Agent is willing to accept them in lieu of cash, MBS and/or additional Eligible Mortgage Loans reasonably acceptable to Administrative Agent ("Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans") or (z) a combination, to the extent (if any) acceptable to Administrative Agent, of cash and Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans, so that immediately after such transfer(s), the sum of (i) the aggregate of the Margin Amounts of all Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS for all Transactions outstanding at that time, including any such Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans, plus (ii) the then-balance of the Cash Deposit, plus (iii) such cash, if any, so transferred to Administrative Agent, will be at least equal to the aggregate Repurchase Price of all Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS then subject to Transactions.

(b) Margin Maintenance. If notice of a Margin Call is given at or before 10:00 a.m. Houston, Texas time on a Business Day, Seller shall transfer cash and/or, if acceptable to Administrative Agent, Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans, to Administrative Agent before 5:00 p.m. Houston, Texas time on the date of such notice, and if such notice is given after 10:00 a.m. Houston, Texas time on a Business Day, Seller shall transfer such cash and/or Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans before 9:30 a.m. Houston, Texas time on the Business Day following the date of such notice. All cash required to be delivered to Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 4(b) ("Margin Cash") shall be deposited by Seller into the Operating Account and, provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, shall be held by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) in the Operating Account as security for the Obligations or, at Administrative Agent's option, applied by Buyers to reduce pro rata the Repurchase Prices of all Purchased Mortgage Loans that are then subject to outstanding Transactions. If Margin Cash delivered to Administrative Agent is so held in the Operating Account, Administrative Agent shall give Seller credit against Price Differential due from Seller for each month that such Margin Cash is so held in an amount equal to (x) a rate per annum equal to (i) the weighted average Pricing Rate applicable to the Purchased Mortgage Loans that are subject to outstanding Transactions during that month minus (ii) the per annum rate applied by Chase for that month to the reserve-adjusted balances of Seller's deposit accounts with Chase to determine earnings credits applicable to treasury and other services provided by Chase to Seller in that month, times (y) the average balance of Margin Cash held in the Operating Account in that month. Following the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, any such cash, the Cash Deposit or both may be applied to reduce the Repurchase Price of such Purchased Mortgage Loans as Administrative Agent shall select, with the amount to be applied to the Repurchase Price of any particular Purchased Mortgage Loan to be determined by Administrative Agent, using such reasonable method of allocation as Administrative Agent shall elect in its sole discretion at the time. Administrative Agent's election, in its sole and absolute discretion, not to make a Margin Call at any time when the Margin Deficit is greater than the Cash Deposit balance by more than [], shall not in any way limit or impair its right to make a Margin Call at any other time that such a Margin Deficit exists (or still exists).

(c) Margin Excess. If on any day after Seller has transferred cash or Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans to Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 4(b), the sum of (i) the cash paid to Administrative Agent, (ii) the balance of the Cash Deposit and (iii) the aggregate of the Margin Amounts of all Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS for all Transactions outstanding at that time, including any such Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans, exceeds the sum of the Repurchase Prices of all Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS then subject to Transactions by more than [], then at the request of Seller, Buyers (acting through Administrative Agent) shall return a portion of the cash or Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans to Seller so that the remaining sum of (i), (ii) and (iii) does not exceed the Aggregate Purchase Price; provided that the sum of the cash plus the value of Additional MBS/Purchased Mortgage Loans returned shall be strictly limited to an amount, after the return of which, no Margin Deficit greater than an amount equal to the Cash Deposit will exist.

(d) Market Value Determinations. Administrative Agent may determine the Market Values of any or all MBS and Purchased Mortgage Loans with such frequency as Administrative Agent may elect (which, for the avoidance of doubt, can be daily) as follows:

(i) Administrative Agent's determination of Market Value of Purchased Mortgage Loans and of MBS will be for the limited purposes specified in this Agreement;

(ii) a Market Value of zero will be assigned to any Purchased Mortgage Loan that, at the time of determination, is not an Eligible Mortgage Loan;

(iii) Administrative Agent's determination of Market Value of Purchased Mortgage Loans will be made using CL's or its successor in interest's (or, if Administrative Agent shall have ceased using on a regular basis CL or CL's successor in interest's valuation services for any reason, an active secondary market participant's (which may be a division or an Affiliate of Chase)) customary methods for determining the price of comparable mortgage loans under the market conditions and Seller's status prevailing at the time of determination, and if (1) any Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, (2) Administrative Agent reasonably and in good faith believes that a secondary market Mortgage Loan purchaser would materially discount the likelihood of realization on any of Seller's Mortgage Loan transfer warranties or (3) the market for comparable Mortgage Loans is illiquid or otherwise disorderly at the time, such determination would not be equivalent to a determination of the fair market value of the Purchased Mortgage Loans made by obtaining competing bids under circumstances where the bidders have adequate opportunity to perform customary mortgage loan and servicing due diligence and, as applicable in the circumstances, (A) the originator/servicer is not in default, (B) the likelihood of realization on Seller's transfer warranties is not materially discounted and/or (C) the market for comparable Mortgage Loans is not illiquid or otherwise disorderly; and

(iv) Administrative Agent's good faith determination of Market Value shall be conclusive on the Parties absent manifest error.

5. Accounts; Income Payments

(a) Accounts. On or before the date hereof, Seller agrees to establish or cause to be established each of the Accounts at Financial Institution; provided that the Income Collection Account will be established if and when required by Administrative Agent for the purposes of Subsections 12(b)(iii) and/or 12(b)(iv). Seller's taxpayer identification number will be designated as the taxpayer identification number for each Account and Seller shall be responsible for reporting and paying taxes on any income earned with respect to the Accounts. Each Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of Administrative Agent, and Seller agrees that (i) Seller shall have no right or authority to withdraw or otherwise give any directions with respect to the Accounts or the disposition of any funds held in the Accounts; provided that Seller may cause amounts to be deposited into any Account at any time, and (ii) Financial Institution may comply with instructions originated by Administrative Agent directing disposition of the funds in the Accounts without further consent of Seller. Only employees of Administrative Agent shall be signers with respect to the Accounts. Pursuant to Section 6, Seller has pledged, assigned, transferred and granted a security interest to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) in all Accounts in which Seller has rights or power to transfer rights and all Accounts in which Seller later acquires ownership, other rights or the power to transfer rights. Seller and Administrative Agent hereby agree that Administrative Agent, as agent and representative of Buyers, has "control" of the Accounts within the meaning of Section 9-104 of the UCC and that the Accounts are subject to the provisions of Section 31.

(b) Cash Deposit. On or before the date hereof, Seller shall deposit an amount [] (the "Required Amount") into the Cash Deposit. Seller shall cause an amount not less than the Required Amount to be on deposit in the Cash Deposit at all times. If on any Remittance Date, the amount on deposit in the Cash Deposit is greater than the Required Amount, provided that no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, upon Seller's request such excess will be disbursed to Seller on such Remittance Date after application by Administrative Agent and Buyers to the payment of any amounts due and owing by Seller to Administrative Agent or Buyers on such date. At any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Administrative Agent, in its sole discretion, may apply the amounts on deposit in the Cash Deposit in accordance with the provisions of Section 5(6).

(c) Funding Account. The Funding Account shall be used for fundings of the Purchase Price and the Repurchase Price with respect to each Purchased Mortgage Loan and MBS in accordance with Section 3. Seller shall cause all amounts to be paid in respect of the Takeout Commitments to be remitted by the Approved Takeout Investors directly to the Funding Account without any requirement for any consent of Seller. On each Repurchase Date that occurs pursuant to Section 3(f) with respect to any Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS, Administrative Agent will apply the applicable amounts on deposit in the Funding Account to the unpaid Repurchase Price due to Buyers for such Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS and, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Administrative Agent will transfer the remaining balance, if any, in the Funding Account to the Operating Account. At any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Administrative Agent, in its sole discretion, may apply the amounts on deposit in the Funding Account in accordance with the provisions of Section 5(e).

(d) Operating Account.

(i) The Operating Account shall be used for the purposes of (1) Seller's payment of Price Differential and any other amounts owing to Buyers under this Agreement, the Side Letter or any other Transaction Document, except for amounts required to be paid, and that can be paid, from or to other Accounts pursuant to the Transaction Documents, (2) Seller's funding of any shortfall between (x) the proceeds of an Eligible Mortgage Loan being purchased by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) that are to be disbursed at its Origination and (y) the Purchase Price to be paid by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) for that Eligible Mortgage Loan, (3) Seller's payment of any difference between the Repurchase Price and the amount received by Administrative Agent from the applicable Approved Takeout Investor in connection with the repurchase of a Purchased Mortgage Loan pursuant to Section 3(h) and (4) for any cash payments made by Seller to satisfy Margin Calls pursuant to Section 4(b).

(ii) On or before the seventh (7th) Business Day before each Remittance Date, Administrative Agent will notify Seller in writing of the Price Differential and other amounts due Administrative Agent and Buyers on that Remittance Date. On or before each Remittance Date or, if later, seven (7) Business Days after Seller receives Administrative Agent's notice provided for in the first sentence of this Subsection 5(d)(ii), Seller shall deposit into the Operating Account such cash, if any, as shall be required to make the balance in the Operating Account sufficient to pay all amounts due Administrative Agent and Buyers on that Remittance Date. On each Remittance Date, Administrative Agent shall withdraw funds from the Operating Account to effect such payment to the extent of funds then available in the Operating Account. If the funds on deposit in the Operating Account are insufficient to pay the amounts then due Administrative Agent and Buyers in full, Seller shall pay the deficiency amount on the date such payment is due by wire transfer of such amount to the Operating Account, and Administrative Agent shall withdraw the funds so deposited to pay such deficiency to the extent of the funds deposited.

(iii) Funds deposited by Seller in the Operating Account to cover the shortfall, if any, referred to in clause (2) of Subsection 5(d)(i) will be disbursed by Administrative Agent to the Settlement Agent, prior lender or repurchase agreement counterparty or Seller, as applicable, along with the Purchase Price of the related Eligible Mortgage Loan being purchased by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) to fund the Origination, transfer or other purchase of such Mortgage Loan as provided in Section 3(b).

(iv) At any time after a Margin Call, if Seller fails to satisfy such Margin Call in accordance with the provisions of Section 4, Administrative Agent may withdraw funds from the Operating Account to pay such Margin Call and shall apply the funds so withdrawn for that purpose to reduce the Repurchase Prices of Purchased Mortgage Loans then subject to outstanding Transactions as provided in Section 4(b). At any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Administrative Agent, in its sole discretion, may apply the amounts on deposit in the Operating Account in accordance with the provisions of Section 5(e).

(v) Unless (1) a Default or an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or (2) any amounts are then owing to Administrative Agent, Buyers or any Indemnified Party under this Agreement or another Transaction Document, on Seller's request, Administrative Agent will transfer the Operating Account balance to an account designated by Seller.

(vi) Income Collection Account. Pursuant to Section 6. Seller has pledged, assigned and transferred the Income Collection Account to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) and granted Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) a security interest in the Income Collection Account. Income shall be deposited in the Income Collection Account if required by Administrative Agent after and during the continuance of any Event of Default pursuant to Subsections 12(b)(iii) and/or 12(b)(iv). No funds other than Income shall be deposited in the Income Collection Account, Where a particular Transaction's term extends over the date on which Income is paid by the Mortgagor on any Purchased Mortgage Loan subject to that Transaction, that Income will be the property of Buyers until Seller has paid the full Repurchase Price in respect of such Transaction to Administrative Agent (for Buyers' accounts). Notwithstanding the foregoing, and provided no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and no Margin Deficit then exists, Buyers and Administrative Agent agree that Seller or its designee shall be entitled to receive and retain that Income to the full extent it would have been so entitled if the Purchased Mortgage Loans had not been sold to Buyers; provided that any Income received by Seller while the related Transaction is outstanding shall be deemed to be held by Seller solely in trust for Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) pending the payment of the Repurchase Price in respect of such Transaction and the repurchase of the related Purchased Mortgage Loans. If a Default or an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, or a Margin Deficit exists that Seller has not satisfied in accordance with the provisions of Section 4, as of the date Income is paid on a Purchased Mortgage Loan subject to a Transaction hereunder, Seller, if directed by Administrative Agent pursuant to Subsection 12(b)(iii) and/or Subsection 12(b)(iv), shall cause such Income to be deposited into the Income Collection Account or to such other account as Administrative Agent may direct.

(e) Application of Funds. After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, at such times as Administrative Agent may direct in its sole discretion, Administrative Agent shall apply all Income and other amounts on deposit in all or any of the Accounts, other than mortgagors' actual escrow payments held in any account and required to be used for the payment of Property Charges in respect of any Purchased Mortgage Loan, in the same order and manner as is provided in Section 12(e) for proceeds of dispositions of Purchased Mortgage Loans not repurchased by Seller.

(f) Seller's Obligations. The provisions of this Section 5 shall not relieve Seller from its obligations to pay the Repurchase Price on the applicable Repurchase Date and to satisfy any other payment obligation of Seller hereunder or under any other Transaction Document.

6. Security Interest; Assignment of Takeout Commitments

(a) Security Interest. Although the Parties intend that all Transactions hereunder be absolute sales and purchases and not loans, to secure the payment and performance by Seller of its obligations, liabilities and indebtedness under each such Transaction and Seller's obligations, liabilities and indebtedness under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, Seller hereby pledges, assigns, transfers and grants to Administrative Agent, as agent and representative of Buyers, a security interest in the Mortgage Assets in which Seller has rights or power to transfer rights and all of the Mortgage Assets in which Seller later acquires ownership, other rights or the power to transfer rights. "Mortgage Assets" means (i) the Purchased Mortgage Loans with respect to all Transactions outstanding from time to time hereunder (including, without limitation, all Servicing Rights with respect thereto), (ii) all Servicing Records, Loan Files, Mortgage Loan Documents, including, without limitation, the Mortgage Note and Mortgage, and all of Seller's claims, liens, rights, title and interests in and to the Mortgaged Property in each case to the extent related to such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (iii) all Liens securing repayment of such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (iv) all Income with respect to such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (v) the Accounts, (vi) the Takeout Commitments and Takeout Agreements to the extent Seller's rights thereunder specifically relate to such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (vii) all Hedging Arrangements to the extent specifically relating to such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (viii) the Income Collection Account, together with all interest on the Income Collection Account, all modifications, extensions and increases of the Income Collection Account and all sums now or at any time hereafter on deposit in the Income Collection Account or represented by the Income Collection Account and (ix) all proceeds of the foregoing including, without limitation, to the extent that they are proceeds of the foregoing, all MBS, and the right to have and receive such MBS when issued, that are, in whole or in part, based on, backed by or created from Purchased Mortgage Loans for which the full cash Repurchase Price has not been received by Administrative Agent, irrespective of whether such related Purchased Mortgage Loans have been released from this security interest. Seller hereby authorizes Administrative Agent to file such financing statements and amendments relating to the Mortgage Assets as Administrative Agent may deem appropriate. Seller shall pay all fees and expenses associated with perfecting such Liens including the cost of filing financing statements and amendments under the UCC, registering each Purchased Mortgage Loan with MERS and recording assignments of the Mortgages as and when required by Administrative Agent in its good faith discretion. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, upon Seller's payment of the Repurchase Price to Administrative Agent (on behalf of Buyers), any security interest of Buyers in the related Purchased Mortgage Loan and the related Mortgage Assets shall be released. Upon Seller's request, Buyer shall take such actions as shall be reasonably necessary to evidence such termination of a security interest in such Purchased Mortgage Loan and the related Mortgage Assets or such MBS.

(b) Assignment of Takeout Commitment. The sale of each Purchased Mortgage Loan to Buyers shall include Seller's rights (but none of the obligations) under the applicable Takeout Commitment and Takeout Agreement, if any, to which such Purchased Mortgage Loan is specifically allocated, to deliver such Purchased Mortgage Loan or the related MBS, as applicable, to the Approved Takeout Investor and to receive the net sum therefor specified or provided for in the related Takeout Commitment from the Approved Takeout Investor.

(x) each Mortgage Loan subject to such Transaction shall be an Eligible Mortgage Loan;

(xi) Seller's representations and warranties in this Agreement and each of the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party and in any Officer's Certificate delivered to Administrative Agent in connection therewith shall be true and correct in all material respects on and as of the date hereof and such Purchase Date, with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made on and as of such date (except for those representations and warranties and Officer's Certificates that are specifically made only as of a different date, which representations and warranties and Officer's Certificates shall be correct on and as of the date made), and Seller shall have complied with all the agreements and satisfied all the conditions under this Agreement, each of the other Transaction Documents and the Mortgage Loan Documents to which it is a party on its part to be performed or satisfied at or before the related Purchase Date;

8. Change in Requirement of Law

(a) If any Change in Requirement of Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Buyer (except any such reserve requirement reflected in the Adjusted LIBOR Rate); or

(ii) impose on any Buyer, Administrative Agent or the London interbank market any other condition affecting this Agreement or Transactions entered into by Buyers or Administrative Agent (for Buyers' accounts); and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to Buyers or Administrative Agent of making or maintaining any purchase hereunder (or of maintaining its obligation to enter into any Transaction) or to increase the cost or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by Buyers or Administrative Agent (whether of Repurchase Price, Price Differential or otherwise), then Seller will pay to Administrative Agent (for Buyers' and its own accounts) such additional amount or amounts as will compensate Buyers and Administrative Agent for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) If any Buyer or Administrative Agent reasonably determines that any Change in Requirement of Law regarding capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Buyer's capital or on the capital of such Buyer's holding company as a consequence of this Agreement or the purchases made by such Buyer to a level below that which such Buyer or such Buyer's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Requirement of Law (taking into consideration such Buyer's policies with respect to capital adequacy) by an amount deemed by such Buyer in good faith to be material, then from time to time Seller will pay to Administrative Agent for the account of each such Buyer such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Buyer or such Buyer's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of such Buyer setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Buyer or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in Section 8(a) or 8(b) shall be delivered to Administrative Agent and Seller and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Seller shall pay Administrative Agent, for the account of each such Buyer, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within ten (10) days after receipt thereof.

(d) Failure or delay on the part of any Buyer to demand compensation pursuant to this Section 8 shall not constitute a waiver of such Buyer's right to demand such compensation; provided that Seller shall not be required to compensate any Buyer pursuant to this Section 8 for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than two hundred seventy (270) days before the date that such Buyer notifies Seller of the Change in Requirement of Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Buyer's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided further that, if the Change in Requirement of Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 270-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

9. Segregation of Documents Relating to Purchased Mortgage Loans

All documents in the possession of Seller relating to Purchased Mortgage Loans shall be segregated from other documents and securities in its possession and shall be identified as being subject to this Agreement. Segregation may be accomplished by appropriate identification on the books and records of the holder, including a financial or securities intermediary or a clearing corporation. All of Seller's interest in the Purchased Mortgage Loans (including the Servicing Rights) shall pass to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) on the Purchase Date and nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) from engaging in repurchase transactions with the Purchased Mortgage Loans or otherwise selling, transferring, pledging or hypothecating the Purchased Mortgage Loans, but no such transaction shall relieve Administrative Agent of its obligations to transfer the Purchased Mortgage Loans to Seller if and as required by Section 1, Section 3 (f), Section 4(c), Subsection 3(i)(ii) or Section 22(c) or to credit, pay over or apply Income to the obligations of Seller pursuant to this Agreement.

10. Representations and Warranties.

(a) To induce Buyers and Administrative Agent to enter into this Agreement and the Transactions hereunder, Seller represents and warrants as of the date of this Agreement and as of each Purchase Date that each of the following statements is and shall remain true and correct throughout the term of this Agreement and until all obligations, liabilities and indebtedness of Seller under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents are paid in full.

(i) Representations and Warranties Concerning Purchased Mortgage Loans. By each delivery of a Confirmation, Seller shall be deemed, as of the Purchase Date of the described sale of each Purchased Mortgage Loan (or, if another date is expressly provided in such representation or warranty, as of such other date), and as of each date thereafter that such Purchased Mortgage Loan remains subject to this Agreement, to represent and warrant that each Purchased Mortgage Loan sold to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) is an Eligible Mortgage Loan.

(ii) Organization and Good Standing; Subsidiaries. Each of Seller and its Subsidiaries is a corporation, limited liability company or limited partnership duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction under which it was organized, has full corporate or other organizational power and authority to own its property and to carry on its business as currently conducted, and is duly qualified as a foreign corporation or entity to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the transaction of its business makes such qualification necessary, except in jurisdictions, if any, where a failure to be in good standing has no material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of Seller and its consolidated Subsidiaries taken as a whole. For the purposes hereof, good standing shall include qualification for any and all required governmental licenses and payment of any and all taxes required, due and payable in the jurisdiction of its organization and in each jurisdiction in which Seller or a Subsidiary transacts business. Seller has no Subsidiaries except those identified by Seller to Administrative Agent in Exhibit G. With respect to Seller and each such Subsidiary, Exhibit G correctly states its name as it appears in its articles of incorporation or formation filed in the jurisdiction of its organization, address, place of organization, each state in which it is qualified as a foreign corporation or entity, and in the case of the Subsidiaries, the percentage ownership (direct or indirect) of Seller in such Subsidiary.

(iii) Authority and Capacity. Seller has all requisite corporate power, authority and capacity to enter into this Agreement and each other Transaction Document and to perform the obligations required of it hereunder and thereunder. This Agreement constitutes a valid and legally binding agreement of Seller enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization, conservatorship and similar laws, and by equitable principles. No consent, approval, authorization, license or order of or registration or filing with, or notice to, any Governmental Authority is required under any Requirement of Law before the execution, delivery and performance of or compliance by Seller with this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or the consummation by Seller of any transaction contemplated thereby, except for those that have already been obtained by Seller, and the filings and recordings in respect of the Liens created pursuant to this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. If Seller is a depository institution, this Agreement is a part of, and will be maintained in, Seller's official records.

(iv) No Conflict. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, nor compliance with its terms and conditions, shall result in the breach of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any Lien (other than Liens created pursuant to this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents) of any nature upon the properties or assets of Seller under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of Seller's organizational documents, or any mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument to which Seller is now a party or by which it is bound (other than this Agreement).

(v) Performance. Seller does not believe, nor does it have any reason or cause to believe, that it cannot perform, and Seller intends to perform, each and every covenant that it is required to perform under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents.

(vi) Ordinary Course Transaction. The consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are in the ordinary course of business of Seller, and neither the sale, transfer, assignment and conveyance of Mortgage Loans to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) nor the pledge, assignment, transfer and granting of a security interest to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) in the Mortgage Assets, by Seller pursuant to this Agreement is subject to the bulk transfer or any similar Requirement of Law in effect in any applicable jurisdiction.

(vii) Litigation; Compliance with Laws. Except as set forth in Schedule V (which shall be deemed automatically updated by the most recently delivered replacement schedule of litigation, if any, provided to Administrative Agent by Seller pursuant to Section XV of the Compliance Certificate or with a notice to Administrative Agent given pursuant to Subsection 11(f)(vi)), there is no Litigation pending or, to the actual knowledge of any Notice Officer, threatened, that will cause, or would reasonably be expected to cause, a Material Adverse Effect. Seller has not violated any Requirement of Law applicable to Seller that, if violated, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(viii) Statements Made. The information, reports, financial statements, exhibits and schedules furnished in writing by or on behalf of Seller to Buyers or Administrative Agent in connection with the negotiation, preparation or delivery of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents or included herein or therein or delivered pursuant hereto or thereto, when taken as a whole, do not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements herein or therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. All written information furnished after the date hereof by or on behalf of Seller to Buyers or Administrative Agent in connection with this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will be true, complete and accurate in every material respect, or (in the case of projections) based on reasonable estimates, on the date as of which such information is stated or certified. There is no fact actually known by a Notice Officer that, after due inquiry, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect that has not been disclosed herein, in the other Transaction Documents or in a report, financial statement, exhibit, schedule, disclosure letter or other writing furnished to Buyers or Administrative Agent for use in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

(ix) Approved Company. Seller currently holds all approvals, authorizations and other licenses from the Agencies required under the Agency Guidelines to Originate, purchase, hold, service and sell Mortgage Loans of the types currently offered for sale by Seller to Buyers hereunder.

(x) Fidelity Bonds. Seller has purchased fidelity bonds, all of which are in full force and effect, insuring Seller, Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) and their successors and assigns in the amount required by the applicable Agency Guidelines, against loss or damage from any breach of fidelity by Seller or any officer, director, employee or agent of Seller, and against any loss or damage from loss or destruction of documents, fraud, theft or misappropriation, or errors or omissions.

(xi) Solvency. Both as of the date hereof and immediately after giving effect to each Transaction hereunder, the fair value of the assets of Seller is greater than the fair value of the liabilities (including contingent liabilities if and to the extent required to be recorded as a liability on the financial statements of Seller in accordance with GAAP) of Seller, and Seller is solvent, is able to pay and intends to pay its debts as they mature and does not have an unreasonably small capital to engage in the business in which it is engaged and proposes to engage. Seller does not intend to incur, or believe that it has incurred, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature, Seller is not transferring any Loans with any intent to hinder, delay or defraud any Person.

(xii) Reporting. In its financial statements, Seller intends to report each sale of a Mortgage Loan hereunder as a financing in accordance with GAAP. Seller has been advised by or confirmed with its independent public accountants that such sales can be so reported under GAAP on its financial statements.

(xiii) Financial Condition. The balance sheet of Seller and its consolidated Subsidiaries and the balance sheets of each of its Material Subsidiaries (if any) provided to Buyers and Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 11 (i) as of the dates of such balance sheets, and the related consolidated statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the periods ended on the dates of such balance sheets heretofore furnished to Buyers and Administrative Agent, fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial condition of Seller and its consolidated Subsidiaries and the financial condition of each such Material Subsidiary, respectively, as of such dates and the results of their operations for the periods ended on such dates, subject, in the case of interim statements, to year-end adjustments and a lack of footnotes. On the dates of such annual, fiscal year end, audited balance sheets, Seller had no known material liabilities, direct or indirect, fixed or contingent, matured or unmatured, or liabilities for taxes, long-term leases or unusual forward or long-term commitments that are required by GAAP to be disclosed in such balance sheets and related statements as of the dates that they were originally issued and that are not disclosed by, or reserved against on, said balance sheets and related statements, and at the present time there are no material unrealized or anticipated losses from any loans, advances or other commitments of Seller except as heretofore disclosed to Buyers and Administrative Agent in writing. Said financial statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP, except for interim statements, which are subject to year-end adjustments and a lack of footnotes. Since the date of the balance sheet most recently provided, there has been no Material Adverse Effect, nor does a Notice Officer have actual knowledge of any state of facts particular to Seller that (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) would reasonably be expected to result in any such Material Adverse Effect.

(xiv) Regulation U. Seller has not used, and does not use, the proceeds of any sales made hereunder to purchase or carry any margin stock.

(xv) Investment Company Act. Neither Seller nor any of its Subsidiaries is an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(xvi) Agreements. Neither Seller nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any agreement, instrument or indenture, or subject to any restriction, materially and adversely affecting its business, operations, assets or financial condition, except as disclosed in the financial statements described in Section 11(i). None of Seller's Subsidiaries is subject to any dividend restriction imposed by a Governmental Authority other than those under applicable statutory law. No Act of Insolvency with respect to Seller, any of its Material Subsidiaries or any material amount of their respective properties is pending or, to a Notice Officer's actual knowledge, threatened, (xvii) Title to Properties. Seller has good title to the Purchased Mortgage Loans free and clear of all Liens except for the Lien created by this Agreement in favor of Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) and sales of the Purchased Mortgage Loans to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) pursuant to this Agreement and Seller's right to repurchase such Purchased Mortgage Loans before termination of this Agreement, their shipment to an Approved Investor or an Agency Custodian pursuant to Section 17 or Administrative Agent's liquidation of the Purchased Mortgage Loans pursuant to Section 12.

(xviii) ERISA. All employee pension benefit plans ("Plans"), if any, of a type described in Section 3(2) of ERISA that are subject to Title IV of ERISA, other than a Multiemployer Plan, in respect of which Seller or any Material Subsidiary is an "employer," as defined in Section 3(5) of ERISA, are in compliance with ERISA in all material respects, and none of such Plans failed to meet the minimum funding standard under Section 412 of the IRC or has a waived funding deficiency within the meaning of Section 412 of the IRC, and neither Seller nor any Material Subsidiary has incurred any material liability (including any material contingent liability) to or on account of any such Plan pursuant to Sections 4062, 4063, 4064, 4201 or 4204 of ERISA. No proceedings have been instituted to terminate any such Plan, and no condition exists that presents a material risk to Seller or a Material Subsidiary of incurring a material liability to or on account of any such Plan pursuant to any of the foregoing Sections of ERISA. Neither Seller nor any Material Subsidiary participates in, contributes to, has an obligation to contribute to or otherwise has any liability or contingent liability to any Multiemployer Plan.

All federal, state and local income tax returns, and all material excise, property and other tax returns, required to be filed with respect to Seller's operations and those of its Subsidiaries in any jurisdiction have been filed on or before the due date thereof (plus any applicable extensions) and to each Notice Officer's actual knowledge, all such returns are true and correct in all material respects; all taxes, assessments, fees and other governmental charges upon Seller, and Seller's Subsidiaries and upon their respective properties, income or franchises, that are, or should be shown on such tax returns to be, due and payable have been paid, including all Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) payments and withholding taxes, if appropriate, other than those that are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings, diligently pursued and as to which Seller has established adequate reserves determined in accordance with GAAP. For purposes of this representation, a tax return shall be considered to have been timely filed if its late filing did not have a Material Adverse Effect. The amounts reserved, as a liability for income and other taxes payable in the consolidated financial statements described in Section 11 (i), are in accordance with GAAP.

(xxii) Credit Information. Seller is not precluded by any contract to which Seller is a party or by which Seller is bound from furnishing to Administrative Agent the applicable consumer report (as defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Public Law 91-508) and all other credit information relating to each Purchased Mortgage Loan sold hereunder.

(xxiii) No Discrimination. Seller has complied in all material respects with all Requirements of Law (x) with respect to making credit accessible to all qualified applicants, (y) that proscribe discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of any prohibited characteristic, including race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital or familial status, age (provided that the applicant has the ability to enter into a binding contract), handicap, sexual orientation or because all or part of the applicant's income is derived from a public assistance program or because of the applicant's good faith exercise of rights under the Federal Consumer Protection Act and (z) that proscribe discouraging the completion of any credit application based on any of the foregoing prohibited bases. In addition, Seller has complied in all material respects with all anti-redlining provisions and equal credit opportunity laws applicable under all Requirements of Law.

(xxiv) Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act. Except as set forth on Schedule V (which shall be deemed automatically updated by the most recently delivered replacement schedule of litigation, if any, provided to Administrative Agent by Seller pursuant to Section XV of the Compliance Certificate or with a notice to Administrative Agent given pursuant to Subsection 11(f)(vi) or 11(f)(vii)) there is no proceeding existing or pending or, to a Notice Officer's actual knowledge, threatened, and there is no order, injunction or decree outstanding against Seller relating to any violation of the Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act or any state, city or district high cost home mortgage or predatory lending law,

(c) Survival of Representations. All the representations and warranties made by Seller to Buyers and Administrative Agent in this Agreement are binding on Seller regardless of whether the subject matter thereof was under the control of Seller or a third party. Seller acknowledges that Buyers and Administrative Agent will rely upon all such representations and warranties with respect to each Purchased Mortgage Loan purchased by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) hereunder, and Seller makes such representations and warranties in order to induce Buyers (acting through Administrative Agent) to purchase the Mortgage Loans. The representations and warranties by Seller in this Agreement with respect to a Purchased Mortgage Loan shall be unaffected by, and shall supersede and control over, any provision in any existing or future endorsement of any Purchased Mortgage Loan or in any assignment with respect to such Purchased Mortgage Loan to the effect that such endorsement or assignment is without recourse or without representation or warranty. All Seller representations and warranties shall survive delivery of the Loan Files and the Confirmations, purchase by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) of Purchased Mortgage Loans, transfer of the servicing for the Purchased Mortgage Loans to a successor servicer, delivery of Purchased Mortgage Loans to an Approved Takeout Investor, repurchases of the Purchased Mortgage Loans by Seller and termination of this Agreement. The representations and warranties of Seller in this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Buyers, Administrative Agent and their successors and assigns, notwithstanding any examination by Administrative Agent or any Buyer

(viii) except for regular or routine audits, inspections, investigations, examinations or reviews by the regulators of Seller, the initiation of any audits, inspections, investigations, examinations or reviews of Seller by any Agency or Governmental Authority relating to the Origination, sale or servicing of Mortgage Loans by Seller or the business operations of Seller;

(xiii) the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder;

(xiv) any other action, event or condition of any nature that has, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect;

(xv) any other action, event or condition of any nature that, with or without notice or lapse of time or both, will constitute a default under or in respect of any Other [] Debt and that, if not timely cured by Seller or waived by its holder or holders, would cause, or would permit the holder or holders thereof (or a trustee on behalf of such holder or holders) to cause, such Other [] Debt to become or be declared due before its stated maturity, or its prepayment, redemption or defeasance (including repurchase of assets subject to any repurchase agreement, securities contract or similar agreement) to be required, before its stated maturity or termination date; or

(xvi) Seller shall have made a determination that Administrative Agent or any Buyer is in breach of a material provision of this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents and a Notice Officer has formed the intention to pursue that claim either immediately or in the future.

(g) Payment of Taxes.

(i) Seller shall pay and discharge, or cause to be paid and discharged, all taxes, assessments and governmental charges or levies imposed upon Seller, its Subsidiaries, or on their respective income, receipts or properties, before penalties are incurred, that if unpaid will, or would reasonably be expected to, have a Material Adverse Effect; provided that Seller and its Subsidiaries shall not be required to pay taxes, assessments or governmental charges or levies for which Seller or its Subsidiaries shall have obtained an adequate bond or adequate insurance or that are being contested in good faith and by proper proceedings that are being reasonably and diligently pursued, if adequate book reserves determined in accordance with GAAP are established therefor.

(ii) (A) All payments made by Seller under this Agreement shall be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of, any present or future taxes, levies, imposts, deductions, charges or withholdings, and all liabilities (including penalties, interest and additions to tax) with respect thereto imposed by any Governmental Authority, other than any deduction or withholding required by any Requirement of Law, and excluding taxes imposed on (or measured by) its net income (however denominated) or capital, branch profits taxes, franchise taxes or any other tax imposed on the net income by the United States, a state or a foreign jurisdiction under the laws of which any Buyer is organized or of its applicable lending office, or any political subdivision thereof, excluding taxes imposed as a result of its failure to comply with the requirements of Sections 1471 through 1474 of the IRC and any treasury regulations promulgated thereunder (collectively, "Taxes"), all of which shall be paid by Seller for its own account not later than the date when due. If Seller is required by any Requirement of Law to deduct or withhold any Taxes from or in respect of any amount payable hereunder, it shall (a) make such deduction or withholding, (b) pay the amount so deducted or withheld to the appropriate Governmental Authority not later than the date due, (c) deliver to Administrative Agent, promptly, original tax receipts and other evidence satisfactory to Administrative Agent of the payment when due of the full amount of such Taxes and (d) pay to Administrative Agent (for the account of such Buyer) such additional amounts as may be necessary so that such Buyer receives, free and clear of all Taxes, a net amount equal to the amount it would have received under this Agreement, as if no such deduction or withholding had been made.

(B) In addition, Seller agrees to pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with all applicable Requirements of Law any current or future stamp or documentary taxes or any other excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies (including mortgage recording taxes, transfer taxes and similar fees) imposed by the United States or any taxing authority thereof or therein that arise from any payment made hereunder or from the execution, delivery or registration of, or otherwise with respect to, this Agreement ("Other Taxes").

(C) Seller agrees to indemnify Buyers and Administrative Agent for the full amount of Taxes and Other Taxes (including additional amounts with respect thereto), and the full amount of Taxes of any kind imposed by any jurisdiction on amounts payable under this Section 11(g), and any liability (including penalties, interest and expenses) arising therefrom or with respect thereto, provided that Administrative Agent or the relevant Buyer(s) shall have provided Seller with evidence, reasonably satisfactory to Seller, of payment of Taxes or Other Taxes, as the case may be. Buyers shall promptly repay to Seller any refund of any amounts received by Buyers that are attributable to the amounts paid by Seller under this Section 11(g).

(D) Any assignee of a Buyer that is not incorporated or otherwise created under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, or the District of Columbia (a "Foreign Buyer") shall provide Seller with properly completed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8ECI or any successor form prescribed by the IRS, certifying that such Foreign Buyer is entitled to benefits under an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party that reduces the rate of withholding tax on payments of interest or certifying that the income receivable pursuant to this Agreement is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States on or before the date upon which each such Foreign Buyer becomes a purchaser of Mortgage Loans hereunder. Each Foreign Buyer will resubmit the appropriate form on the earliest of (x) the third anniversary of the prior submission or (y) on or before the expiration of thirty (30) days after there is a "change in circumstances" with respect to such Foreign Buyer as defined in Treas. Reg. Section 1.1441 (e)(4)(ii)(D). For any period with respect to which a Foreign Buyer has failed to provide Seller with the appropriate form or other relevant document pursuant to this Subsection 11(g)(ii) (unless such failure is due to a change in any Requirement of Law occurring subsequent to the date on which a form originally was required to be provided), such Foreign Buyer shall not be entitled to any "gross-up" of Taxes or indemnification under this Subsection

11 (g)(ii) with respect to Taxes imposed by the United States; provided that should a Foreign Buyer, that is otherwise exempt from a withholding tax, become subject to Taxes because of its failure to deliver a form required hereunder, Seller shall take such steps as such Foreign Buyer shall reasonably request to assist such Foreign Buyer to recover such Taxes.

(E) Without prejudice to the survival or any other agreement of Seller hereunder, the agreements and obligations of Seller contained in this Subsection 1 l(g)(ii) shall survive the termination of this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Subsection 11(g)(ii) shall require any Buyer to make available any of its tax returns or other information that it deems to be confidential or proprietary.

(F) Each Party acknowledges that it is its intent, for purposes of U.S. federal, state and local income and franchise taxes only, to treat each purchase transaction hereunder as indebtedness of Seller that is secured by the Purchased Mortgage Loans and that the Purchased Mortgage Loans are owned by Seller in the absence of an Event of Default by Seller. All Parties agree to such treatment and agree to take no action inconsistent with this treatment unless required by law.

(h) Insurance. Seller shall maintain, at no cost to Buyers or Administrative Agent, (a) blanket fidelity bond coverage, with such companies and in such amounts as to satisfy the requirements of applicable Agency Guidelines, and shall cause Seller's policy to be endorsed with the Blanket Bond Required Endorsement and (b) liability insurance and fire and other hazard insurance on its properties, with responsible insurance companies, in such amounts and against such risks as is customarily carried by similar businesses. by an accounting firm reasonably satisfactory to Administrative Agent, or other independent certified public accountants of recognized standing selected by Seller, as to Seller's and Seller's consolidated Subsidiaries financial statements and, only if Seller elects to have them audited, as to such Material Subsidiaries' financial statements;

(iii) Together with each delivery of financial statements required in Subsections 11(i)(i) and 11(i)(ii), a Compliance Certificate executed by the chief financial officer, chief executive officer or president of Seller, on behalf of Seller;

(iv) Photocopies or electronic copies of all regular or periodic financial and other reports, if any, that Seller shall file with the SEC, not later than thirty (30) days after filing,

(m) Transactions with Affiliates. Seller will not and will not permit any of its Material Subsidiaries to (i) enter into any transaction, including any purchase, sale, lease or exchange of property or the rendering of any service, with any Affiliate unless such transaction is (a) otherwise expressly permitted under this Agreement, (b) in the ordinary course of Seller's or such Material Subsidiary's business, (c) [], or (d) listed on Schedule IV, or (ii) make a payment that is not otherwise permitted by this Section 11(m) to any Affiliate; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to the extent that any such transaction is entered into or such payment is made pursuant to a lending arrangement with such Affiliate where the total amount of such transactions or payments are, when made, less than the amount that Seller could otherwise have distributed as discretionary dividends to its shareholders without such distribution (after giving effect thereto and to all prior and still outstanding transactions or payment to Affiliates as if they were discretionary dividends paid to Seller's shareholders) resulting in an Event of Default.

(xvii) Maintain Hedging Arrangements. Seller shall fail to maintain Hedging Arrangements as required by Section 11(s) (Hedging Arrangements) and such failure has, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect and such breach continues unremedied for a period of [] after a Notice Officer has actual knowledge of such failure.

(xviii) ATNW, Liquidity and Net Income Maintenance. Seller shall fail to comply with the requirements of Subsections 11(y)(ii) (Minimum Adjusted Tangible Net. Worth), 11 (y)(iii) (Maintenance of Liquidity) or 1 l(y)(iy) (Net Income).

(xxii) Judgments. One or more final judgments for the payment of money in excess of [] in the aggregate are entered against Seller by one or more courts, administrative tribunals or other bodies having jurisdiction and the same shall not be paid (including by insurance), satisfied, vacated, discharged (or provision made for such discharge sufficient to prevent execution of any such judgment), or stayed, within [] after their entry, and Seller shall not, within such [] period, or such longer or shorter period during which execution of the same shall have been stayed, appeal therefrom and cause the execution thereof to be stayed during such appeal.

(xxiii) Other Debt to Chase or Certain Subsidiaries of JPMorgan Chase & Co. There is a default beyond the expiration of any applicable grace or cure period under any agreement for Debt other than a Transaction Document with more than [] in aggregate principal amount outstanding that Seller, any of its Subsidiaries or Rock Holdings, has entered into with Chase or any of the Subsidiaries of JPMorgan Chase & Co.

listed in Exhibit 21 of its Form 10-K most recently filed with the SEC and, if such default is neither a payment default, an Act of Insolvency nor another default for which such other agreement does not provide or expressly allow for a cure (a "No-cure Default"), it has not been cured by such defaulting party or waived by such counterparty and [] have elapsed since its occurrence (no cure or waiver period shall be applicable in respect of any such payment default, Act of Insolvency or No-cure Default). For clarity, an "agreement for Debt" under this Subsection 12(a)(xxiii) shall not include any agreement with Chase or any of its Affiliates or Subsidiaries that relates to treasury management, brokerage or trading-related services.

(xxiv) Other [] Debt When Due. Seller shall be in default, beyond the expiration of any applicable period of grace or opportunity to cure, with respect to its obligation to repay amounts outstanding at maturity under any Other [] Debt.

(xxv) Other [] Debt Breach. Seller shall be in default (other than a default covered by Subsection 12(a)(xxiv)) beyond the expiration of any applicable period of grace or opportunity to cure, under any Other [] Debt which default results in the acceleration of, or permits the holder or holders thereof (or a trustee on behalf of such holder or holders) to accelerate, the maturity of Seller's obligations under such Other [] Debt or to require its prepayment, redemption or defeasance (including repurchase of assets subject to any repurchase agreement, securities contract or similar agreement) before its stated maturity or termination date, whether or not such automatic acceleration or the exercise by such holder or holders or their trustee of such elective acceleration or prepayment, redemption or defeasance requirement is conditioned on the giving or receiving of notice and whether or not any such notice has been given or received.

(xxvii) Provisions Not Listed.

(A) Seller shall materially breach any covenant in Section 11 other than a covenant that is specifically referred to in one of the Subsections of this Section 12(a) preceding this Subsection 12(a)(xxvii), for the breach of which covenant no grace, notice or opportunity to cure period is expressly provided elsewhere in this Agreement, and such breach continues unremedied for a period of [] after a Notice Officer has actual knowledge of such breach.

(B) Seller shall fail to observe, keep or perform any duty, responsibility or obligation imposed or required by any provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, other than a duty, responsibility or obligation that is specifically referred to in one of the Subsections of this Section 12(a) preceding this Subsection 12(a)(xxvii) or in Sub-subsection 12(a)(xxvii)(A), that has, or would reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse impact on Seller, Administrative Agent or any Buyer and for the breach of which duty, responsibility or obligation no grace, notice or opportunity to cure period is expressly provided elsewhere in this Agreement, and such breach continues unremedied for a period of [] after a Notice Officer has actual knowledge of such breach.

(b) If an Event of Default occurs, Administrative Agent, at its option, may at any time or times thereafter while such Event of Default is continuing, elect by written notice to Seller to do any or all of the following:

(i) accelerate the Repurchase Date of each outstanding Transaction whose Repurchase Date has not already occurred and cancel the Purchase Date for any Transaction whose Purchase Date has not yet occurred;

(ii) terminate and replace Seller as interim servicer with respect to any Mortgage Assets at the cost and expense of Seller;

(iii) direct Seller to cause Income collected by it or any Subservicer to be transferred into the Income Collection Account (or such other account, if any, as Administrative Agent shall specify) within [] after its receipt by Seller or any Subservicer;

(iv) direct or cause Seller to direct, all Mortgagors to remit all Income directly to the Income Collection Account (or such other account, if any, as Administrative Agent shall specify); and

(v) terminate any commitment of Buyers and Administrative Agent to purchase Mortgage Loans under this Agreement or otherwise.

(c) If Administrative Agent has exercised its option under Subsection 12(b)(i), then (i) Seller's obligations hereunder to repurchase all Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS then subject to outstanding Transactions shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Repurchase Price with respect to each such Transaction shall be increased by the aggregate amount obtained by daily application of (x) the greater of (i) the Pricing Rate for such Transaction and (ii) the Pricing Rate plus [] to (y) the Repurchase Price for such Transaction as of the accelerated Repurchase Date as determined pursuant to Section 12(b) (decreased as of any day by (A) any amounts retained by Administrative Agent with respect to such Repurchase Price pursuant to Subsections 12(b)(iii) and 12(b)(iv) and (B) any proceeds from the sale of Purchased Mortgage Loans pursuant to Section 12(d)), on a 360 day per year basis for the actual number of days during the period from and including the date of the Event of Default giving rise to such option to but excluding the date of payment of the Repurchase Price as so increased, (iii) all Income paid after such exercise or deemed exercise shall be payable to and retained by Buyers and shall be applied to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Prices and all other amounts owed by Seller to Buyers, Administrative Agent or any other Indemnified Party under the Transaction Documents, (iv) in accordance with Sections 4 and 5, all amounts on deposit in the Accounts, shall be applied by Administrative Agent and Buyers to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Prices and all other amounts owed by Seller to Buyers, Administrative Agent or any other Indemnified Party under the Transaction

Documents, (v) Seller shall, if directed by Administrative Agent in writing, immediately deliver to Administrative Agent copies of any documents then in Seller's possession or control relating to any Purchased Mortgage Loans subject to such Transactions and (vi) Administrative Agent may, by notice to Seller, declare the Termination Date to have occurred.

(d) Upon the exercise by Administrative Agent of its option under Subsection 12(b)(i), without prior notice to Seller, Administrative Agent may (A) immediately sell, on a servicing released or servicing retained basis as Administrative Agent deems desirable, in a recognized market at such price or prices as Administrative Agent may in its sole discretion deem satisfactory, any or all Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS subject to such Transactions and apply the proceeds thereof to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Prices and any other amounts owing by Seller to Buyers, Administrative Agent or any other Indemnified Party under the Transaction Documents or (B) in its sole discretion elect, in lieu of selling all or a portion of such Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS, to give Seller credit for such Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS in an amount equal to the Market Value therefor on such date against the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Prices and any other amounts owing by Seller to Buyers, Administrative Agent or any other Indemnified Party under the Transaction Documents.

(e) The proceeds of any disposition or the amount of any credit described above shall be applied first, to the costs and expenses incurred by Buyers and Administrative Agent in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default (including legal fees, consulting fees, accounting fees, file transfer and inventory fees, costs and expenses incurred in respect of a transfer of the servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loans and costs and expenses incurred in connection with a disposition of the Purchased Mortgage Loans); second, to costs of cover and/or related hedging transactions; third, to the aggregate and accrued Price Differential owed hereunder, fourth, to the remaining aggregate Repurchase Prices owed hereunder; fifth, to any other accrued and unpaid obligations of Seller hereunder and under the other Transaction Documents and sixth, any remaining proceeds shall be paid to Seller or other Person legally entitled thereto.

(f) The Parties acknowledge and agree that:

(i) Buyers and Administrative Agent have no desire or intention to hold any of the Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS for investment under any circumstances, and if (x) Seller fails to repurchase any Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS when required to do so by this Agreement, whether before or after its termination, or (y) any Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and (z) Buyers and Administrative Agent have not made an affirmative election under the circumstances then prevailing to retain such Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS pursuant to clause (B) of Section 12(d), Administrative Agent will sell it (i) if practicable and if the sale can be made without Administrative Agent's having to undertake representation, warranty or other obligations that Administrative Agent, acting in its sole discretion, considers unacceptable, to the relevant Approved Takeout Investor (if any), or (ii) by private sale to another Person in the secondary mortgage or MBS market, as applicable, undertaking only such representation, warranty and other obligations, if any, to such Person as Administrative Agent, acting in its sole discretion, considers acceptable, at the earliest reasonable opportunity and for such price as Administrative Agent, acting in its sole discretion, determines to be the optimal price available at the time of such sale; provided that if at any time Administrative Agent determines that the secondary market for residential mortgage loans or the market for MBS, as applicable, is illiquid, disrupted or dysfunctional, Administrative Agent may elect to postpone sales of Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS for so long as Administrative Agent determines that any such market conditions persist, and no such delay shall be construed to constitute or require a change in the classification of the Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS in Administrative Agent's or Buyers' hands from "held for sale" to "held for investment", and in all cases, to the maximum extent not prohibited by applicable law, their Market Value shall be the only "reasonable determinant of value" of Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS for purposes of Section 562 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(ii) in the absence (whether because of market disruptions or for any other reason whatsoever) of a generally recognized source for secondary mortgage or MBS market prices of, or for bid or offer quotations for, any one or more Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS at any time, whether before or after any termination of this Agreement, Administrative Agent may determine the Market Values of such Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS using such means, methods, averaging, weighting, calculations and assumptions as it shall determine in its sole discretion to be appropriate and consistent with CL's or its successor in interest's (or, if Administrative Agent shall have ceased using on a regular basis CL or CL's successor in interest's valuation services for any reason, an active secondary market participant's (which may be a division or an Affiliate of Chase)) valuation methods, and Administrative Agent's determination shall be conclusive and binding, absent manifest error, for all purposes, it being the Parties' specific intention to include therein the purposes of Sections 559 and 562 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(iii) except to the extent, if any, contrary to market practice, in determining values of Purchased Mortgage Loans, Administrative Agent shall include all related accrued Income available either to be transferred to a secondary market purchaser or to be retained by Buyers to reduce their Repurchase Prices; and

(iv) in determining the Market Value of any Purchased Mortgage Loans, it is reasonable for Administrative Agent to use and rely on the information provided by Seller on the daily data tape pursuant to Subsection 11(i)(vii) without being required to check or verify the accuracy or completeness of such information.

(g) The Parties further recognize that if, under the circumstances described in clause (x) or clause (y) of Subsection 12(f)(i), Administrative Agent has elected to sell Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS, the market for Mortgage Loans or MBS may then be insufficiently liquid or dysfunctional in other respects, they agree that Administrative Agent may elect the time and manner of liquidating any Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS, and nothing contained herein shall obligate Administrative Agent (i) to liquidate any Purchased Mortgage Loan or MBS immediately after Seller's failure to repurchase it when required by this Agreement, the occurrence of an Event of Default or any termination of this Agreement, or (ii) to liquidate all Purchased Mortgage Loans or MBS in the same manner or on the same day, and no exercise by Administrative Agent of any right or remedy shall constitute a waiver of any other right or remedy. Seller shall be liable to Administrative Agent and Buyers for (i) the amount of all reasonable legal or other expenses incurred by Administrative Agent and Buyers in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default, (ii) damages in an amount equal to the cost (including all fees, expenses and commissions reasonably incurred) of entering into replacement transactions and entering into or terminating hedge transactions in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default and (iii) any other loss, damage, cost or expense directly arising or resulting from the occurrence of an Event of Default.

(h) To the extent permitted by applicable law, Seller shall be liable to Buyers and Administrative Agent for interest on any amounts owing by Seller hereunder, from the date Seller becomes liable for such amounts hereunder until such amounts are (i) paid in full by or on behalf of Seller or (ii) satisfied in full by the exercise of Buyer's and Administrative Agent's rights hereunder. Interest on any sum payable by Seller to Buyers or Administrative Agent under this Section 12(h) shall be at a rate equal to the greater of (x) the Pricing Rate for the relevant Transaction and (y) the Pricing Rate plus [].

(i) If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, Buyers and Administrative Agent shall have, in addition to their rights hereunder, any rights otherwise available to them under any other agreement entered into in connection with the Transactions contemplated by this Agreement, under applicable law or in equity.

(j) Seller hereby acknowledges, admits and agrees that Seller's obligations under this Agreement are recourse obligations of Seller.

13. Servicing Rights Are Owned by Buyers; Interim Servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loans

(a) As a condition of purchasing an Eligible Mortgage Loan, Administrative Agent hereby engages Seller to interim service such Purchased Mortgage Loan as agent for Administrative Agent and Buyers for a term of thirty (30) days during the Post Origination Period (the "Interim Servicing Term"), that is renewable as provided in Subsection 13(a)(vi), on the following terms and conditions:

(i) Seller shall interim service and temporarily administer the Purchased Mortgage Loan on behalf of Administrative Agent and Buyers in accordance with prudent mortgage loan servicing standards and procedures generally accepted in the mortgage banking industry and in accordance with all applicable requirements of the Agencies, Requirements of Law, the provisions of any applicable servicing agreement, and the requirements of any applicable Takeout Agreement and the Approved Takeout Investor, so that the eligibility of the Purchased Mortgage Loan for purchase under such Takeout Agreement is not voided or reduced by such interim servicing and temporary administration;

(ii) If any Eligible Mortgage Loan that is proposed to be sold on a Purchase Date is serviced by a servicer other than Seller or any of its Affiliates (a "Subservicer"), or if the interim servicing of any Purchased Mortgage Loan is to be transferred to a Subservicer, Seller shall provide a copy of the related subservicing agreement and a Subservicer Instruction Letter executed by such Subservicer (collectively, the "Subservicing Agreement") to Administrative Agent before such Purchase Date or interim servicing transfer date, as applicable. Each such Subservicing Agreement shall be in form and substance acceptable to Administrative Agent. In addition, Seller shall have obtained the prior written consent of Administrative Agent for such Subservicer to subservice the Purchased Mortgage Loans, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. In no event shall Seller's use of a Subservicer relieve Seller of its obligations hereunder, and Seller shall remain liable under this Agreement as if Seller were interim servicing such Purchased Mortgage Loans directly. Any termination of Seller as interim servicer shall automatically terminate each Subservicer. If any Agency revokes any Subservicer's authority to service Mortgage Loans, Administrative Agent may direct Seller to terminate such Subservicer as a subservicer of any or all of the Purchased Mortgage Loans and Seller shall cause the termination of such Subservicer within ten (10) Business Days of receipt of such direction from Administrative Agent.

(iii) Seller acknowledges that it has no right, title or interest in the Servicing Rights for any Purchased Mortgage Loan, and agrees that Seller may not transfer or assign any rights to master service, service, interim service, subservice or administer any Purchased Mortgage Loan before Seller's repurchase thereof from Buyers (by payment to Administrative Agent of the Repurchase Price on the applicable Repurchase Date) other than an interim servicing transfer to a Subservicer approved by Administrative Agent pursuant to a Subservicing Agreement approved by Administrative Agent as described above in this Section 13,

(iv) Seller shall deliver all physical and contractual servicing materials, files and records for the servicing of each Purchased Mortgage Loan that are in its possession or control, together with all of the related Servicing Records that are in its possession or control and are not already in Administrative Agent's possession, to Administrative Agent's designee upon the earliest of (w) the occurrence of a Default or Event of Default hereunder unless Administrative Agent gives written notice to Seller that the Interim Servicing Term is renewed and specifying the renewal term, (x) the termination of Seller as interim servicer by Administrative Agent pursuant to Subsection 13(a)(v), (y) the expiration (and non-renewal) of the Interim Servicing Term, or (z) the transfer of servicing to any entity approved by Administrative Agent and the assumption thereof by such entity. Seller's transfer of the Servicing Records and the physical and such contractual servicing materials, files and records under this Subsection 13(a)(iv) shall be in accordance with customary standards in the industry and such transfer shall include the transfer of the gross amount of all escrows held for the related mortgagors (without reduction for unreimbursed advances or "negative escrows").

(v) Administrative Agent shall have the right to terminate Seller as interim servicer of any of the Purchased Mortgage Loans, which right shall be exercisable at any time in Administrative Agent's sole discretion, upon written notice.

(vi) The Interim Servicing Term will be deemed renewed on each Remittance Date succeeding the related Purchase Date unless (i) Seller has sooner been terminated as interim servicer of all of the Purchased Mortgaged Loans or (ii) an Event of Default has occurred on or before such Remittance Date, in which latter event the Interim Servicing Term will expire on such Remittance Date unless Administrative Agent gives written notice to Seller that the Interim Servicing Term is renewed and specifying the renewal term.

(vii) The Interim Servicing Term will automatically terminate and Seller shall have no further obligation to interim service such Purchased Mortgage Loan as agent for Administrative Agent and Buyers or to make the delivery of documents required under this Section 13, upon receipt by Administrative Agent of the Repurchase Price therefor.

(viii) Administrative Agent and Buyers have no obligation to pay Seller a fee for the interim servicing obligations Seller agrees to assume hereunder, no fee or other compensation will ever accrue or be or become owing, due or payable for or on account of such interim servicing and such interim servicing rights have no monetary value.

(b) During the period Seller is interim servicing the Purchased Mortgage Loans as agent for Administrative Agent and Buyers, Seller agrees that Buyers are the owners of the related Servicing Rights, Credit Files and Servicing Records and Seller, acting as interim servicer, shall at all times maintain and safeguard, and cause any Subservicer to maintain and safeguard, the servicing records included in the Credit File for the Purchased Mortgage Loan (including photocopies or images of the documents delivered to Administrative Agent) to the extent in its possession or control, and accurate and complete records of its interim servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loan, Seller's possession of servicing records included in the Credit Files and Servicing Records being for the sole purpose of interim servicing such Purchased Mortgage Loans and such retention and possession by Seller being in a temporary custodial capacity only.

(c) Seller further covenants as follows:

(i) Administrative Agent may, at any time during Seller's business hours on reasonable notice (provided that after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default or an Event of Default, no notice shall be required), examine and make copies of all such documents and records relating to interim servicing and administration of the Purchased Mortgage Loans;

(ii) At Administrative Agent's request, Seller shall promptly deliver to Administrative Agent reports regarding the status of any Purchased Mortgage Loan being interim serviced by Seller, which reports shall include a description of any default thereunder for more than thirty (30) days or any other circumstances that could cause a material adverse effect on such Purchased Mortgage Loan, Administrative Agent's title (as agent and representative of Buyers) to such Purchased Mortgage Loan or the collateral securing such Purchased Mortgage Loan; Seller may be required to deliver such reports until the repurchase of the Purchased Mortgage Loan by Seller;

(iii) Seller shall immediately notify Administrative Agent if the Assistant Treasurer or Cash Manager has actual knowledge of any payment default that occurs under any Purchased Mortgage Loan or any default under any Subservicing Agreement that would materially and adversely affect any Purchased Mortgage Loan subject thereto; and

(iv) If, during the Post-Origination Period, any Mortgagor contacts Seller requesting a payoff quote on the related Purchased Mortgage Loan, Seller shall ensure that any payoff funds received from such Mortgagor are transferred promptly to the Funding Account.

(d) Seller shall release its custody of the contents of the servicing records included in any Credit File and any Loan File relating to a Purchased Mortgage Loan only (i) in accordance with the written instructions of Administrative Agent, (ii) upon the consent of Administrative Agent when such release is required as incidental to Seller's servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loan, or is required to complete the Takeout Funding or comply with the Takeout Guidelines, or (iii) as required by any Requirements of Law.

(e) Administrative Agent reserves the right to appoint a successor interim servicer, or a regular servicer, at any time to service any Purchased Mortgage Loan (each a "Successor Servicer") in its sole discretion. If Administrative Agent elects to make such an appointment after the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default, Seller shall be assessed all costs and expenses incurred by Administrative Agent and Buyers associated with transferring the physical and contractual servicing materials, files and records for the servicing of each Purchased Mortgage Loan, together with all related Servicing Records, to the Successor Servicer. In the event of such an appointment, Seller shall perform all acts and take all action so that any part of the servicing records included in the Credit File and related Servicing Records held by Seller, together with any and all mortgagors' escrow payments held in any account and all other receipts relating to such Purchased Mortgage Loan, are promptly delivered to the Successor Servicer, and shall otherwise fully cooperate with Administrative Agent in effectuating such transfer. Seller shall have no claim for lost interim servicing income, any termination fee, lost profits or other damages if Administrative Agent appoints a Successor Servicer hereunder. Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, without payment of any termination fee or any other amount to Seller, sell any or all of the Purchased Mortgage Loans on a servicing released basis, at the sole cost and expense of Seller.

(f) In the event Seller is terminated as interim servicer of any Purchased Mortgage Loan, whether by expiry of the Interim Servicing Term or by any other means, Seller shall cooperate with Administrative Agent in effecting such termination and transferring all authority to interim service such Purchased Mortgage Loan to the Successor Servicer. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller shall, in the manner and at such times as the Successor Servicer or Administrative Agent shall reasonably request (i) promptly transfer all data in its possession relating to the applicable Purchased Mortgage Loans and other Mortgage Assets to the Successor Servicer in such electronic format as the Successor Servicer may reasonably request, (ii) promptly transfer to the Successor Servicer, Administrative Agent or Administrative Agent's designee all other files, records, correspondence and documents relating to the servicing of the applicable Purchased Mortgage Loans and other Mortgage Assets then in its possession or control and (iii) fully cooperate and coordinate with the Successor Servicer and/or Administrative Agent to comply with any applicable so-called "goodbye" letter requirements, notices or other applicable requirements of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act or other applicable Requirements of Law applicable to the transfer of the servicing of the applicable Purchased Mortgage Loans. Seller agrees that if Seller fails to cooperate with Administrative Agent or any Successor Servicer in effecting the termination of Seller as servicer of any Purchased Mortgage Loan or the transfer of all authority to service such Purchased Mortgage Loan to such Successor Servicer in accordance with the terms hereof, Buyers and Administrative Agents will be irreparably harmed and entitled to injunctive relief and shall not be required to post bond.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Transaction Document, Seller, Buyers and Administrative Agent agree that all Servicing Rights with respect to the Purchased Mortgage Loans are being transferred hereunder to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) on the applicable Purchase Date, the Purchase Price for the Purchased Mortgage Loans includes full and fair consideration for such Servicing Rights and such Servicing Rights will be conclusively deemed to be transferred by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) to Seller upon Seller's payment of the Repurchase Price for such Purchased Mortgage Loans.

14. Single Agreement

Seller, Buyers and Administrative Agent acknowledge that, and have entered into this Agreement and will enter into each Transaction hereunder in consideration of and in reliance upon the fact that, all Transactions hereunder, together with the provisions of the Side Letter, constitute a single business and contractual relationship and have been made in consideration of each other. Accordingly, Seller, Administrative Agent and each Buyer agrees (i) to perform all of its obligations in respect of each Transaction hereunder and its obligations under the Side Letter, and that a default in the performance of any such obligations shall constitute a default by it in respect of all Transactions hereunder, (ii) that, subject to Section 31, each of them shall be entitled to set off claims and apply property held by them in respect of any Transaction against obligations owing to them in respect of any other Transactions hereunder or any obligations under the Side Letter, (iii) that payments, deliveries and other transfers made by either of them in respect of any Transaction or any agreement under the Side Letter shall be deemed to have been made in consideration of payments, deliveries and other transfers in respect of any other Transactions hereunder or any agreement under the Side Letter, and the obligations to make any such payments, deliveries and other transfers may be applied against each other and netted and (iv) to promptly provide notice to the other after any such setoff or application.

15. Notices and Other Communications

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all such notices, statements, demands or other communications shall be in writing (including by electronic transmission) and shall be deemed to have been duly given and received (i) if sent by facsimile, upon the sender's receipt of confirmation of transmission of such facsimile from the sending facsimile machine, (ii) if emailed, when transmitted electronically to the address provided in this Section 15, (iii) if hand delivered, when delivery to the address below is made, as evidenced by a confirmation from the applicable courier service of delivery to such address, but without any need of evidence of receipt by the named individual required and (iv) if mailed by Express Mail or sent by overnight courier, on the following Business Day, in each case addressed as follows:

16. Fees and Expenses; Indemnity

(a) Seller will pay its own legal and accounting fees and other costs incurred in respect of this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents and this facility. Seller will promptly pay all out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred by Administrative Agent, including reasonable attorneys' fees, in connection with (i) preparation, negotiation, and documentation of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, (ii) administration of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and any amendment or waiver thereto and purchase and resale of Mortgage Loans by Buyer hereunder, (iii) protection of the Purchased Mortgage Loans (including all costs of filing or recording any assignments, financing statements, amendments and other documents) and (iv) up to Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) per year of Administrative Agent's expenses for performance of due diligence and audits in respect of Mortgage Loans purchased or proposed for purchase hereunder and Seller's business and finances, by Administrative Agent or any agent of Administrative Agent, conducted after the date hereof. Seller will promptly pay all out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred by Administrative Agent and Buyers, including reasonable attorneys' fees, in connection with enforcement of Administrative Agent's and Buyer's rights hereunder and under any other Transaction Document (including costs and expenses suffered or incurred by Buyer in connection with any Act of Insolvency related to Seller, appeals and any anticipated post-judgment collection services).

(b) In addition to its other rights hereunder, Seller shall indemnify Buyers, Administrative Agent, their Affiliates and Subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers, attorneys, agents, advisors and employees (each, an "Indemnified Party" and collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") against, and hold each of them harmless from, any losses, third-party liabilities, damages, claims and actual and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) suffered or incurred by any Indemnified Party ("Losses") relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or any other related document, or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, any use or proposed use of proceeds thereof, any amendment or waiver thereof or any breach of any covenant, representation or warranty contained in any of such documents, or arising out of, resulting from, or in any manner connected with, the purchase by Buyers and Administrative Agent of any Mortgage Loan or the servicing of any Purchased Mortgage Loans by Seller or any Subservicer; provided that Seller shall not be required to indemnify any Indemnified Party to the extent such Losses result from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party. The provisions of this Section 16 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

17. Shipment to Approved Takeout Investor; Trust Release Letters

(a) Shipping Instructions for Purchased Mortgage Loans to be Sold as Whole Loans. If Seller desires that Administrative Agent send a Mortgage Note and the related Mortgage or any other parts of the Loan File that have been delivered to Administrative Agent to an Approved Takeout Investor or another warehousing or other mortgage financing institution, rather than to Seller directly, in connection with Seller's repurchase of the related Purchased Mortgage Loan to be sold to such Approved Takeout Investor as a whole loan, rewarehoused or refinanced, then Seller shall prepare and send to Administrative Agent Shipping Instructions to instruct Administrative Agent when and how to send such Mortgage Note and related Mortgage and any other such requested parts of the Loan File to such Approved Takeout Investor or other warehousing institution. Administrative Agent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to send each Mortgage Note and related Mortgage and any other such requested parts of the Loan File on or before the date specified for shipment in the Shipping Instructions in accordance with the cutoff times specified in the "Chase Mortgage Warehouse Finance Customer Reference Guide" provided by Administrative Agent to Seller, or otherwise specified by Administrative Agent to Seller in writing from time to time. If Seller instructs Administrative Agent to send a Mortgage Note and related Mortgage and any other such requested parts of the Loan File before Administrative Agent has received the Repurchase Price therefor, Administrative Agent will send the Mortgage Note and related Mortgage and any other such requested parts of the Loan File under a Bailee Letter. If Seller does not provide Administrative Agent with Shipping Instructions with respect to a Mortgage Loan, Administrative Agent shall send the Mortgage Note and related Mortgage and any other such requested parts of the Loan File to Seller at such time as Administrative Agent receives the Repurchase Price therefor.

(b) Shipping Instructions for Pools.

(i) If Seller desires that Administrative Agent send the Mortgage Notes and the related Mortgages or any other parts of the Loan File evidencing and securing Mortgage Loans in a Pool and that are listed on a Seller-prepared schedule of mortgage loans (in the form required by the relevant Agency) to an Agency Custodian for the Agency that will issue (if Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac) or guarantee (if Ginnie Mae) an MBS based on and backed by such Pool upon the Agency Custodian's certification of such Pool (and for Ginnie Mae MBS, the Pool Processing Agent's approval of the documents or electronic transmission submitted by Seller that describe the Pool), Seller shall, substantially concurrently with delivery of such schedule to Administrative Agent, prepare and send Shipping Instructions to Administrative Agent stating when and how to send such Mortgage Notes and related Mortgages and any other such requested parts of the Loan File to the relevant Agency Custodian.

(ii) if the transaction is to be a delivery versus MBS (or "swap and hold") transaction, Seller shall also, for Ginnie Mae MBS, Fannie Mae MBS or Freddie Mac MBS, deliver to such Agency all documents required to induce such Agency (if Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac), or to authorize and direct the relevant Ginnie Mae central processing and transfer agent (if for a Ginnie Mae-guaranteed MBS), to issue such MBS by wire transfer to the Joint Securities Account.

(iii) If the requirements set forth in Subsection 17(b)(i) have been satisfied, Administrative Agent shall ship the Pool's Mortgage Notes and Mortgages and any other parts of the Loan File relating to Purchased Mortgage Loans in the Pool to the specified Agency Custodian as requested by Seller together with:

(A) for Freddie Mac Pools, completed Freddie Mac forms 990SF (Warehouse Provider Certificate of Incumbency) and 996E (Warehouse Provider Release and Transfer);

(B)for Fannie Mae Pools, completed Fannie Mae form 2004A (Release of Interest in Mortgages); or

(C)for Ginnie Mae Pools, completed Ginnie Mae form HUD 11711A.

(c) Delivery Versus Payment or Delivery Versus MBS. Upon Administrative Agent's receipt of the Repurchase Price for a Pool of Purchased Mortgage Loans from an Approved Takeout Investor to whom Administrative Agent has shipped the related Mortgage Notes and Mortgages and any other requested parts of the Loan File in a delivery versus payment or "swap for payment" transaction, all of Administrative Agent's interests in the Purchased Mortgage Loans that are part of such Pool (but no others) shall automatically be released and Seller's repurchase thereof shall be completed. Upon delivery into the Joint Securities Account of an MBS in exchange for a Pool that includes Purchased Mortgage Loans shipped to an Agency Custodian in a delivery versus MBS or "swap for MBS" transaction, all of Administrative Agent's interests in the Purchased Mortgage Loans included in such Pool (but no others) shall automatically be released and a securities entitlement in the Joint Securities Account and such MBS held therein proportionate to the aggregate value of the Purchased Mortgage Loans contained in the Pool from which such MBS was created shall be conclusively deemed to be a Mortgage Asset subject to a new Transaction effective as of the date of delivery of such MBS into the Joint Securities Account and accepted by Administrative Agent as a Mortgage Asset in substitution for the Purchased Mortgage Loans included in the Pool from which such MBS was created, with each such securities entitlement having a Repurchase Price equal to (x) the sum of the Purchase Prices of the Purchased Mortgage Loans included in such Pool plus (y) accrued and unpaid Price Differential on such Purchased Mortgage Loans, calculated as if they were still subject to Transactions, such Price Differential to be calculated at the Pricing Rate for Pooled Loans from their Pooling Date, until Administrative Agent's receipt of Administrative Agent's share of the cash Repurchase Price for such MBS (determined in accordance with the provisions of the Joint Securities Account Control Agreement) either from sale of the MBS to an Approved Takeout Investor or by direct payment by Seller. Seller may cause such securities entitlement in such MBS to be delivered to an Approved Takeout Investor pursuant to any related Takeout Commitment against payment of a cash amount at least equal to the Repurchase Price therefor. If Administrative Agent's release of any Purchase Mortgage Loans shipped for securitization shall become effective and the MBS to be based on and backed by them (or any of them) shall not be delivered into the Joint Securities Account within two (2) Business Days after the Settlement Date of such MBS), Seller shall pay Administrative Agent the Repurchase Price therefor upon written demand made by Administrative Agent then or at any time thereafter before Administrative Agent has received the Repurchase Price from the securities intermediary under and pursuant to the Joint Securities Account Control Agreement. On the same Business Day that Seller receives any such written demand if given at or before 10:00 a.m., Houston, Texas time, or on the next Business Day if such notice is given after 10:00 a.m., Seller shall pay such Repurchase Price to Administrative Agent (for Buyers' accounts) and shall submit a Completed Repurchase Advice. If such MBS is delivered into the Joint Securities Account after Seller has so repurchased it, upon Seller's request, Administrative Agent will confirm to the securities intermediary that the related securities entitlement has been repurchased by Seller,

(d) Trust Release Letters. If Seller believes that a Mortgage Note or other document in the Loan File contains one or more errors or omissions that are correctable and the correction of which is necessary to facilitate the purchase or enforceability of that Mortgage Note or other document in the Loan File, then Seller may deliver a Trust Release Letter to Administrative Agent to request the release of the Mortgage Note or other document in the Loan File to Seller for the purpose of making that correction. Upon receipt of a properly completed Trust Release Letter, Administrative Agent will deliver the Mortgage Note or other document in the Loan File to Seller promptly. Seller shall return the corrected Mortgage Note or other document in the Loan File to Administrative Agent no later than the tenth (10^{th}) day after the date of the related Trust Release Letter. Whenever the Mortgage Note or other document in the Loan File for any Purchased Mortgage Loan is in the possession of Seller pursuant to a Trust Release Letter or otherwise, Seller shall hold such Mortgage Note or other document in the Loan File in trust for the benefit of Administrative Agent. At no time shall the aggregate original Outstanding Principal Balance of all Mortgage Notes released to Seller pursuant to this Section 17(d) exceed Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000).

18. Further Assurances.

Seller shall (i) promptly provide such further assurances or agreements as Administrative Agent may reasonably request in good faith in order to effect the purposes of this Agreement and (ii) mark its systems and/or other data processing records evidencing the Purchased Mortgage Loans with a legend or other identifier evidencing that Administrative Agent has acquired an interest therein as provided in this Agreement.

19. Administrative Agent as Attorney-in-Fact

Administrative Agent is hereby appointed the attorney-in-fact of Seller for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement and taking any action and executing any instruments that Administrative Agent may, in good faith, deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes hereof, including receiving, endorsing and collecting all checks made payable to the order of Seller representing any Income on any of the Purchased Mortgage Loans and giving full discharge for the same and perfect and continue the Lien granted hereby and protect, preserve and realize on the Mortgage Assets, which appointment as attorney-in-fact is irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Administrative Agent agrees to not exercise the power granted by this Section 19 unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing; provided that Administrative Agent may (i) add and amend endorsements in Seller's name of Mortgage Notes relating to Purchased Mortgage Loans either in blank or to any Approved Takeout Investor or its designee, cancel endorsements and re-endorse Mortgage Notes in Seller's name and (ii) take such actions as it deems in good faith to be necessary or appropriate to accomplish the purposes hereof, to perfect and continue the Lien granted hereby and to protect and preserve the Mortgage Assets, at any time before or after any Event of Default has occurred.

21. Entire Agreement; Severability

This Agreement, as supplemented by the Side Letter, supersedes any existing agreements between the Parties containing terms and conditions for Mortgage Loan repurchase transactions. Each provision and agreement of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents shall be treated as separate and independent from any other provision or agreement of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and shall be enforceable notwithstanding the unenforceability of any of such other provisions or agreements. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any phrase or clause of any Transaction Document would render any provision or agreement of that (or any other) Transaction Document unenforceable, such phrase or clause shall be disregarded and deemed deleted, and such provision or agreement shall be enforced as fully as if the offending phrase or clause had never appeared.

22. Assignment and Participation; Pledges to a Federal Reserve Bank

(a) The rights and obligations of Seller under this Agreement and under any Transaction shall not be assigned by Seller without the prior written consent of Administrative Agent and any such assignment without the prior written consent of Administrative Agent shall be null and void.

(b) Any Buyer may assign all or any portion of its rights, obligations and interest under this Agreement and in the Mortgage Assets at any time without the consent of any Person, provided that any such assignment, other than an assignment to an Affiliate of such Buyer, is subject to the prior written consent of Seller so long as an Event of Default or Default has not occurred and is not continuing; for the avoidance of doubt, Seller's consent shall not be required if an Event of Default or Default has occurred and is continuing. Any such assignment shall be in a minimum amount of at least Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) unless otherwise consented to by Seller (provided that Seller's consent shall not be required if an Event of Default or Default has occurred and is continuing) and, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, no such assignment shall result in Chase having a Commitment of less than Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000).

(c) Resales of Purchased Mortgage Loans by Administrative Agent (subject to Seller's right to repurchase the Purchased Mortgage Loans before termination of this Agreement, their shipment to an Approved Investor or an Agency Custodian pursuant to Section 17 or Administrative Agent's liquidation of the Purchased Mortgage Loans pursuant to Section 12 and Administrative Agent's obligation to credit or pay Income to, or apply Income to the obligations of, Seller pursuant to this Agreement) in accordance with applicable law, shall be permitted without restriction. In addition to, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in, the foregoing, any Buyer may assign its rights to enforce this Agreement as to any Purchased Mortgage Loan to any Person that subsequently purchases such Purchased Mortgage Loan from such Buyer or provides financing to such Buyer with respect to such Purchased Mortgage Loan,

(d) Any Buyer may sell participation interests in all or any portion of its rights, obligations and interest under this Agreement and in the Mortgage Assets to any Person at any time without the consent of any other Person.

(e) Each Buyer may, in connection with any assignment or participation or proposed assignment or participation pursuant to this Section 22, disclose to the assignee or participant or proposed assignee (including potential Buyers) or participant, as the case may be, any information relating to Seller or any of its Subsidiaries or to any aspect of the Transactions that has been furnished to such Buyer or Administrative Agent by or on behalf of Seller or any of its Subsidiaries, provided that (i) such proposed assignee (including any potential Buyer) or participant first executes with Administrative Agent a nondisclosure agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit N prior to such proposed assignee or participant first receiving any such information from such Buyer or Administrative Agent, and (ii) Administrative Agent shall deliver to Seller a fully executed copy of (1) each nondisclosure agreement executed by any assignee or participant or proposed assignee (including any potential Buyer) or participant, as the case may be, promptly after any such nondisclosure agreement is executed and (2) each participation agreement promptly after it is executed.

(f) In addition to the foregoing, any Buyer may, at any time in its sole discretion, pledge or grant a Lien in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including any rights to Mortgage Assets and any rights to payment of the Repurchase Price) to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, without notice to or consent of Seller; provided that no such pledge or grant of a security interest would release any Buyer from any of its obligations under this Agreement, or substitute any such pledgee or grantee for such Buyer as a party to this Agreement.

(g) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this Section 22, Buyer shall not be precluded from assigning, charging or otherwise dealing with all or any part of its interest in any sum payable to it under Section 12.

23. Binding Effect; Automatic Termination.

(a) Subject to the restrictions on assignments in Section 22, this Agreement and any Transactions shall bind and benefit the Parties and their respective successors, participants and assigns.

(b) This Agreement and all Transactions outstanding hereunder shall terminate automatically without any requirement for notice on the date occurring on or after the Termination Date on which all Repurchase Prices and all other obligations of Seller under the Transaction Documents have been paid in full.

24. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

25. GOVERNING LAW; CONSENT TO JURISDICTION; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

(a) THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF (EXCEPT FOR SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW).

(b) SELLER, ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND BUYERS EACH HEREBY SUBMITS TO THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK AND OF ANY NEW YORK STATE COURT SITTING IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK FOR PURPOSES OF ALL LEGAL PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

SELLER, ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND BUYERS EACH HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY EFFECTIVELY DO SO, ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF THE VENUE OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN SUCH A COURT AND ANY CLAIM THAT ANY SUCH PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN SUCH A COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. NOTHING IN THIS SECTION 25 SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT TO BRING ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING AGAINST SELLER OR ITS PROPERTY IN THE COURTS OF OTHER JURISDICTIONS. EACH PARTY CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF ANY AND ALL PROCESS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY THE MAILING OF COPIES OF SUCH PROCESS TO IT AT ITS ADDRESS FOR NOTICES HEREUNDER SPECIFIED IN SECTION 15.

(c) EACH OF SELLER, BUYER AND ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT (BY ITS ACCEPTANCE HEREOF) HEREBY VOLUNTARILY, KNOWINGLY, IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO HAVE A JURY PARTICIPATE IN RESOLVING ANY DISPUTE (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE) BETWEEN SELLER AND ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY BUYER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT TO BUYERS AND ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT TO PROVIDE THE FACILITY EVIDENCED BY THIS AGREEMENT.

26. No Waivers, Etc.

No express or implied waiver of any Event of Default by Administrative Agent or any Buyer shall constitute a waiver of any other Event of Default and no exercise of any remedy hereunder by Administrative Agent or any Buyer shall constitute a waiver of its right to exercise any other remedy hereunder. No modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement and no consent by any Party to a departure herefrom shall be effective unless and until such shall be in writing and duly executed by both of the Parties hereto. Without limitation on any of the foregoing, the failure to give a notice pursuant to Section 4(a) will not constitute a waiver of any right to do so at a later date.

27. Use of Employee Plan Assets

(a) If assets of an employee benefit plan subject to any provision of ERISA are intended to be used by Seller in a Transaction, Seller shall so notify Administrative Agent before the Transaction. Seller shall represent in writing to Administrative Agent that the Transaction does not constitute a prohibited transaction under ERISA or is otherwise exempt therefrom, and Administrative Agent may proceed in reliance thereon but shall not be required so to proceed.

(b) Subject to the last sentence of Section 27(a), any such Transaction shall proceed only if Seller furnishes or has furnished to Buyers and Administrative Agent its most recent available audited statement of its financial condition and its most recent subsequent unaudited statement of its financial condition.

(c) By entering into a Transaction pursuant to this Section 27, Seller shall be deemed (i) to represent to Buyers and Administrative Agent that since the date of Seller's latest such financial statements, there has been no material adverse change in Seller's financial condition that Seller has not disclosed to Administrative Agent, and (ii) to agree to provide Buyers and Administrative Agent with future audited and unaudited statements of its financial condition as they are issued, so long as any such Transaction is outstanding.

28. Intent

(a) The Parties intend and acknowledge that each Transaction is a "repurchase agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, and a "securities contract" as that term is defined in Section 741 of the Bankruptcy Code. Seller hereby agrees that it shall not challenge the characterization of this Agreement as a "repurchase agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, or as a "securities contract" as that term is defined in Section 741 of the Bankruptcy Code in any dispute or proceeding.

(b) It is understood that the right of Buyers and Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) to accelerate or terminate this Agreement or to liquidate Mortgage Loans delivered to it in connection with Transactions hereunder, or to exercise any other remedies pursuant to Section 12, is a contractual right to accelerate, terminate or liquidate this Agreement or such Transaction as described in Sections 555 and 559 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) The Parties agree and acknowledge that if a Party hereto is an "insured depository institution," as such term is defined in the FDIA each Transaction hereunder is a "qualified financial contract," as that term is defined in FDIA and any rules, orders or policy statements thereunder (except insofar as the type of assets subject to such Transaction would render such definition inapplicable).

(d) It is understood that this Agreement constitutes a "netting contract" as defined in and subject to Title IV of the FDICIA and each payment entitlement and payment obligation under any Transaction hereunder shall constitute a "covered contractual payment entitlement" or "covered contractual payment obligation", respectively, as defined in and subject to FDICIA (except insofar as any of the Parties is not a "financial institution" as that term is defined in FDICIA).

(e) It is understood and agreed that this Agreement constitutes a "master netting agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, and that any Party's right to cause the termination, liquidation or acceleration of, or to offset net termination values, payment amounts or other transfer obligations arising under or in connection with, this Agreement or any Transaction is a contractual right to cause the termination, liquidation or acceleration of, or to offset net termination values, payment amounts or other transfer obligations arising under or in connection with, this Agreement or any Transaction as described in Section 561 of the Bankruptcy Code.

29. Disclosure Relating to Certain Federal Protections

The Parties acknowledge that they have been advised that:

(a) in the case of Transactions in which one of the Parties is a broker or dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") under Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("1934 Act"), the Securities Investor Protection Corporation has taken the position that the provisions of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 ("SIPA") do not protect the other Party with respect to any Transaction hereunder;

(b) in the case of Transactions in which one of the Parties is a government securities broker or a government securities dealer registered with the SEC under Section 15C of the 1934 Act, SIPA will not provide protection to the other Party with respect to any Transaction hereunder; and

(c) in the case of Transactions in which one of the Parties is a financial institution, funds held by the financial institution pursuant to a Transaction hereunder other than funds on deposit in an Account are not a deposit and therefore are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation or the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, as applicable.

30. Confidentiality

(a) Confidential Terms, The Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that all written or computer-readable information provided by one Party to any other regarding the terms set forth in any of the Transaction Documents or the Transactions contemplated thereby or regarding any other confidential or proprietary information of a Party (the "Confidential Terms") shall be kept confidential and shall not be divulged to any Person without the prior written consent of such other Party except to the extent that (i) such Person is an Affiliate, division or parent holding company of a Party or a director, officer, member, manager, shareholder, employee or agent (including an accountant, legal counsel and other advisor) of a Party or such Affiliate, division or parent holding company, but only if they are informed of the confidential nature of the information, and the disclosing party shall be responsible for their breach, if any, of these confidentiality provisions, (ii) in such Party's opinion it is necessary to do so in working with legal counsel, auditors, taxing authorities or other governmental agencies or regulatory bodies or in order to comply with any applicable federal or state laws or regulations, (iii) any of the Confidential Terms are in the public domain other than due to a breach of this Agreement, (iv) disclosure is made to a hedge counterparty to the extent necessary to obtain any Hedging Arrangement, (v) any disclosure is made in connection with an offering of securities, (vi) such disclosures are made to lenders or prospective lenders to Seller, buyers or prospective buyers of Seller's business, sellers or prospective sellers of businesses to Seller and the counsel, accountants, representatives and agents of any such Persons, (vii) disclosures are made in Seller's or Rock Holdings' financial statements or footnotes, (viii) disclosures are made in response to a valid written request of a Party's regulator or a valid order of a court or other governmental or regulatory body (provided that to the extent permitted by such order, law, regulation or rule or applicable law, the other Party shall have been given prior written notice of such required disclosure, so that the other Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy, and if requested by the other Party and at the other Party's expense, the first Party shall reasonably cooperate with the other Party in such effort; and provided further that if a protective order or other remedy is not obtained and disclosure is required in the opinion of the first Party's counsel, such Party shall use reasonable efforts (in accordance with applicable laws and regulations) to limit the scope of disclosure to only that portion of the Confidential Terms that is specifically being requested and which such Party, based on the opinion of counsel, is legally required to disclose by Law, regulation or the applicable regulatory authority and to reasonably request assurances that the information disclosed will be afforded confidential treatment; (ix) after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, Administrative Agent reasonably determines such information to be necessary or desirable to disclose in connection with the marketing and sales of the Purchased Mortgage Loans or to enforce or exercise Administrative Agent's rights hereunder or (x) to the extent Administrative Agent or any Buyer deems necessary or appropriate in connection with any prospective or actual assignment or participation under Section 22 or in connection with any hedging transaction related to Purchased Mortgage Loans. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Transaction Document, the Parties may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, any fact that may be relevant to understanding the U.S. federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) relating to such U.S. federal, state and local tax treatment and that may be relevant to understanding such, tax treatment; provided that no Party may disclose (except as provided in clauses (i) through (x) of this Section 30(a)) the name of or identifying information with respect to any Buyer, Seller or Administrative Agent or any pricing terms (including the Pricing Rate, Non-Usage Fee (as defined in the Side Letter) or other fee, Purchase Price Percentage and Purchase Price) or other nonpublic business or financial information (including any sublimits and financial covenants) that is unrelated to the U.S. federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions and is not relevant to understanding the U.S. federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, without the prior written consent of the other Parties. The provisions set forth in this Section 30 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for a period of one (1) year following such termination.

(b) Privacy of Customer Information.

(i) Seller's Customer Information in the possession of Administrative Agent, other than information independently obtained by Administrative Agent and not derived in any manner from or using information obtained under or in connection with this Agreement, is and shall remain confidential and proprietary information of Seller. Except in accordance with this Section 30(b), Administrative Agent and Buyers shall not use any Seller's Customer Information for any purpose, including the marketing of products or services to, or the solicitation of business from, Seller's Customers, or disclose any Seller's Customer Information to any Person, including any of Administrative Agent's or Buyers' employees, agents or contractors or any third party not affiliated with Administrative Agent or Buyers. Administrative Agent and Buyers may use or disclose Seller's Customer Information only to the extent necessary (1) for examination and audit of Administrative Agent's or any Buyer's activities, books and records by Administrative Agent's or such Buyer's regulatory authorities, (2) to protect or exercise Administrative Agent's rights and privileges under the Transaction Documents or (3) to carry out Administrative Agent's or any Buyer's express obligations under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents (including providing Seller's Customer Information to Approved Takeout Investors), and for no other purpose; provided that Administrative Agent and any Buyer may also use and disclose Seller's Customer Information as expressly permitted by Seller in writing, to the extent that such express permission is in accordance with the Privacy Requirements. Each Buyer and Administrative Agent shall take commercially reasonable steps to ensure that each Person to which such Buyer or Administrative Agent intends to disclose Seller's Customer Information, before any such disclosure of information, agrees to keep confidential any such Seller's Customer Information and to use or disclose such Seller's Customer Information only to the extent necessary to protect or exercise Buyers' and Administrative Agent's rights and privileges, or to carry out such Buyer's or Administrative Agent's express obligations, under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents (including providing Seller's Customer Information to Approved Takeout Investors). Administrative Agent agrees to maintain an information security program and to assess, manage and control risks relating to the security and confidentiality of Seller's Customer Information pursuant to such program in the same manner as Administrative Agent does in respect of its own customers' information, and shall implement the standards relating to such risks in the manner set forth in the Interagency Guidelines Establishing Standards for Safeguarding Company Customer Information set forth in 12 CFR Parts 30, 208, 211, 225, 263, 308, 364, 568 and 570. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing sentence, Administrative Agent shall use at least the same physical and other security measures to protect all of Seller's Customer Information in its possession or control as it uses for its own customers' confidential and proprietary information.

(ii) Seller shall indemnify the Indemnified Parties against, and hold each of them harmless from, any losses, liabilities, damages, claims, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) suffered or incurred by any Indemnified Party relating to or arising out of Seller's loss, improper disclosure or misuse of any Seller's Customer Information.

(iii) Administrative Agent and each Buyer, respectively and severally (but not jointly) shall indemnify Seller, its Affiliates and Seller's Subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers, attorneys, agents, advisors and employees against, and defend and hold each of them harmless from, any losses, liabilities, damages, claims, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) suffered or incurred by any of them relating to or arising out of Administrative Agent's or such Buyer's respective grossly negligent or willful loss, improper disclosure or misuse of any Sellers' Customer Information.

31. Setoff

(a) Seller Waives Setoff Rights. Except to the extent specifically permitted herein, Seller hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives all right to setoff for or on account of any obligation or liability of Administrative Agent, any Buyer, any Buyer's participant or any of their Affiliates under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, whether pursuant to contract or applicable law, in equity or otherwise, with respect to any funds or monies of Administrative Agent, any Buyer, any Buyer's participant or any of their Affiliates at any time held by or in the possession of Seller.

(b) Buyers and Administrative Agent Waive Certain Setoff Rights. Except to the extent specifically permitted herein, Administrative Agent, each Buyer, each Buyer's participants and each of their Affiliates under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives all right to setoff for or on account of any obligation or liability of Seller under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, whether pursuant to contract or applicable law, in equity or otherwise, with respect to any funds or monies of Seller or its Affiliates held by Administrative Agent, each Buyer, each Buyer's participants and each of their Affiliates, including any bank accounts of Seller or any of its Affiliates with any of them or any deposits in such accounts or any amounts due or owing under any Master Securities Forward Transaction Agreement among any of them, or any of Buyers', Administrative Agent's or their Affiliates' assets, rights or obligations under any other arrangement or agreement with Seller or any of its Affiliates; provided that if any Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Administrative Agent shall have the right, without prior notice to Seller, any such notice being expressly waived by Seller to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by Seller under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document (whether at the stated maturity, by termination, acceleration or otherwise) to set off and appropriate and apply against such amount, any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) in any of the Accounts, the Income Collection Account or any other funding, operating or other deposit account related to the facility provided for in this Agreement, for the ratable benefit of all Buyers in the proportion that each Buyer's pro rata share of the Aggregate Purchase Price bears to the Aggregate Purchase Price outstanding at the time of the setoff, appropriation or application; provided further that Administrative Agent may set off funds or monies of Seller on deposit in any of the Accounts, the Income Collection Account or any other funding, operating or other deposit account related to the facility provided for in this Agreement, only against amounts Seller owes to Buyers, Administrative Agent or any other Indemnified Party pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or another Transaction Document; and provided further that the foregoing right of setoff shall not apply to any deposit of escrow monies being held on behalf of the mortgagors under Purchased Mortgage Loans. Administrative Agent agrees to promptly notify Seller after any such setoff and application; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

32. WAIVER OF SPECIAL DAMAGES.

SELLER, ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND EACH BUYER WAIVES, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT SELLER, ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY BUYER MAY HAVE TO CLAIM OR RECOVER FROM SELLER, BUYERS OR ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING ANY SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES EXCEPT CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING UNDER OR OUT OF SELLER'S, ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT'S OR ANY BUYER'S EXPRESS INDEMNITY OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT.

33. USA PATRIOT ACT NOTIFICATION.

The following notification is provided to Seller pursuant to Section 326 of the USA Patriot Act of 2001, 31 U.S.C. Section 5318:

EXHIBIT B

MORTGAGE LOAN
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

With respect to each Purchased Mortgage Loan, (i) as of the Purchase Date for the purchase of any Purchased Mortgage Loans by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) from Seller and as of the date of this Agreement and any Transaction hereunder, and (ii) at all times while the Transaction Documents or any Transaction hereunder is in force and effect, Seller represents and warrants to Buyers and Administrative Agent that each of the statements set forth in the lettered clauses of this Exhibit B is true and correct in all material respects. For purposes of this Exhibit B and the representations and warranties set forth herein, a breach of a representation or warranty shall be deemed to have been cured with respect to a Mortgage Loan if and when Seller has taken or caused to be taken action such that the event, circumstance or condition that gave rise to such breach no longer adversely affects such Mortgage Loan. With respect to those representations and warranties that are made to the best of Seller's knowledge, if it is discovered by Seller or Administrative Agent that the substance of such representation and warranty is inaccurate, notwithstanding Seller's lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty, such inaccuracy shall be deemed a breach of the applicable representation and warranty (if Administrative Agent shall determine that a Purchased Mortgage Loan is not an Eligible Mortgage Loan because of the inaccuracy of such a representation or warranty, Administrative Agent will give Seller written notice specifying the affected Purchased Mortgage Loan or Loans).

(a) Mortgage Loans as Described. The information set forth in the related Loan Purchase Detail is complete, true and correct in all material respects as of the related Purchase Date.

(b) Valid First Lien. The Mortgage is properly recorded (or, as to newly-Originated Mortgage Loans, is in the process of being recorded) and is a valid, existing and enforceable first Lien with respect to each Mortgage Loan that is indicated by Seller to be a first Lien on the Mortgaged Property, including all improvements on the Mortgaged Property, free and clear of all adverse claims, and Liens having priority over the Lien of the Mortgage, subject only to (i) the Lien of current real property taxes and assessments not yet delinquent, (ii) exceptions, covenants, conditions and restrictions, rights of way, easements and other matters of the public record as of the date of recording that are acceptable to mortgage lending institutions generally and specifically referred to in the lender's title insurance policy delivered to Seller, and that do not adversely affect the purchase by, or the purchase price to be paid by, the Approved Takeout Investor, and (iii) other matters to which like properties are commonly subject that do not individually or in the aggregate materially interfere with the benefits of the security intended to be provided by the Mortgage or the use, enjoyment, value or marketability of the related Mortgaged Property. Any security agreement, chattel mortgage or equivalent document related to and delivered in connection with the Mortgage Loan establishes and creates a valid, existing and enforceable first lien and first priority security interest securing the related Mortgage Loan on the property described therein and Seller has full right to sell and assign the related Mortgage Assets to Buyer.

(c) Validity of Mortgage Documents. With respect to each Mortgage Loan, Seller or its designee has in its possession all Servicing Files except for those Servicing Files that Seller has disclosed to Buyer are outstanding. The Mortgage Note and the related Mortgage are original and genuine and each is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Mortgagor thereof, enforceable in all respects in accordance with its terms except as enforceability may be limited by (i) bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, receivership, moratorium, reorganization or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of the rights of creditors and (ii) general principles of equity, whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law, and Seller has taken all action required by this Agreement or requested by Administrative Agent to transfer such rights of enforceability to Buyer. Neither the operation of any of the terms of any Mortgage or Mortgage Note, nor the proper exercise by any holder of any right thereunder, will render the Mortgage or Mortgage Note unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense, and no such right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto. All parties to the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage had the legal capacity to enter into the Mortgage Loan and to execute and deliver the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage, and the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage have been duly and properly executed by such parties. All items required to be delivered to Administrative Agent pursuant to this Agreement shall be delivered to Administrative Agent, within the time frames set forth in this Agreement, and if a document is delivered in imaged format, such images must be of sufficient quality to be readable and able to be copied. There is only one original executed Mortgage Note with respect to such Mortgage Loan.

(d) Customary Provisions. The Mortgage and related Mortgage Note contain customary and enforceable provisions such as to render the rights and remedies of the holder thereof adequate for the realization against the Mortgaged Property of the benefits of the security provided thereby, including (i) in the case of a Mortgage designated as a deed of trust, by trustee's sale, and (ii) otherwise by judicial foreclosure, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. Upon default by a Mortgagor on a Mortgage Loan and foreclosure on, or trustee's sale of, the Mortgaged Property pursuant to the proper procedures, the holder of the Mortgage Loan will be able to deliver good and merchantable title to the Mortgaged Property, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. There is no homestead or other exemption or right available to the Mortgagor or any other person that would interfere with the right to sell the Mortgaged Property at a trustee's sale or the right to foreclose the Mortgage, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. The Mortgage Note and Mortgage are on forms that are conforming to the Agency Guidelines.

(e) Original Terms Unmodified. The terms of the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage have not been impaired, waived, altered or modified in any respect, except by written instruments that (a) have been recorded in the applicable public recording office if required by law or if necessary to maintain the lien priority of the Mortgage and (b) have been delivered to Administrative Agent; the substance of any such waiver, alteration or modification has been approved by the insurer under the private mortgage insurance policy, if any, and by the title insurer, to the extent required by the related policy provided by Seller and is reflected appropriately on any and all documentation or data and is true and accurate in all material respects. No other instrument of waiver, alteration or modification has been executed, and no

Mortgagor has been released, in whole or in part, except in connection with an assumption agreement approved by the insurer under the private mortgage insurance policy, if any, and by the title insurer, to the extent required by the policy, and which assumption agreement is a part of the loan file. As of the Purchase Date, the full original principal amount of each Mortgage Loan has been fully disbursed as provided for in the Mortgage Loan Documents, and there is no requirement for any future advances.

(f) No Defenses. The Mortgage Note and the Mortgage are not subject to any right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense, including the defense of usury, nor will the operation of any of the terms of the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage, or the exercise of any right thereunder, render either the Mortgage Note or the Mortgage unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense, including the defense of usury, and no such right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto; and the Mortgagor was not, as of the Origination Date, subject to an Act of Insolvency.

(g) No Outstanding Charges. There are no defaults by Seller or any Subservicer in complying with the terms of the Mortgage, and (1) all taxes, special assessments, governmental assessments, insurance premiums and municipal charges that previously became due and owing have been paid or are not delinquent, or escrow funds have been established in an amount sufficient to pay for every such escrowed item that remains unpaid and that has been assessed but is not yet delinquent before any "economic loss" dates or discount dates (or if payments were made after any "economic loss" date or discount date, then Seller has paid any penalty or reimbursed any discount out of Seller's funds) and (2) all flood and hazard insurance premiums and private mortgage insurance premiums that are due, have been paid without loss or penalty to the Mortgagor. As of the Purchase Date, other than payments due but not yet 30 days or more delinquent, no event that, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event of acceleration under a Mortgage Loan has occurred, including, as of the Origination Date, a violation of applicable law, local ordinances or city codes resulting from a deterioration or defect existing in any Mortgaged Property, and neither Seller nor its predecessors have waived any default, breach, violation or event of acceleration. Seller has received no notice of, and has no actual knowledge of, any event, including the bankruptcy filing or death of a Mortgagor, that has resulted in a Mortgagor default under the Mortgage Note or Mortgage. None of Seller or any Subservicer has advanced funds, or induced, solicited or knowingly received any advance from any Person other than the Mortgagor, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any amount due under the Mortgage Loan, unless otherwise permitted in the Agency Guidelines.

(h) No Satisfaction of Mortgage. The Mortgage has not been satisfied, canceled, subordinated or rescinded, in whole or in part, and the Mortgaged Property has not been released from the Lien of the Mortgage, in whole or in part, nor has any instrument been executed that would effect any such satisfaction, cancellation, subordination, rescission or release. Neither Seller nor any Subservicer has waived the performance by the Mortgagor of any action, if the Mortgagor's failure to perform such action would cause the Mortgage Loan to be in default, and neither Seller nor any Subservicer has waived any default resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor.

(i) No Default. Other than payments due but not yet thirty (30) days or more delinquent, there is no default, breach, violation or event of acceleration existing under the Mortgage or the Mortgage Note and no event that, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event permitting acceleration, and neither Seller nor any Subservicer has waived any default, breach, violation or event permitting acceleration resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor. With respect to each Mortgage Loan (i) the first Lien securing the Mortgage Loan is in full force and effect, (ii) there is no default, breach, violation or event of acceleration existing under such first Lien Mortgage or the related Mortgage Note, and (iii) no event that, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event of acceleration thereunder.

(j) Full Disbursement of Proceeds. The Mortgage Loan has been closed and the proceeds of the Mortgage Loan have been fully disbursed to or for the account of the Mortgagor and there is no obligation for the mortgagee to advance additional funds thereunder and any and all requirements as to completion of any on site or off site improvement and as to disbursements of any escrow funds therefor have been complied with. All costs, fees, and expenses incurred in making or closing the Mortgage Loan and the recording of the Mortgage have been paid or are in the process of being paid, and the Mortgagor is not entitled to any refund of any amounts paid or due to the mortgagee pursuant to the Mortgage Note or Mortgage with exception to escrow holdbacks.

(k) No Mechanics' Liens. There are no mechanics' or similar Liens or claims filed for work, labor or material (and no rights are outstanding that under law could give rise to such a Lien) affecting the related Mortgaged Property that are or may be Liens prior to, or equal or coordinate with, the Lien of the related Mortgage.

(l) No Additional Collateral. The Mortgage Note is not and has not been secured by any collateral except the Lien of the corresponding Mortgage on the Mortgaged Property and the security interest of any applicable security agreement or chattel mortgage.

(m) Origination; Payment Terms. The Mortgage Loan was Originated by Seller, which is a mortgagee approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act, a savings and loan association, a savings bank, a commercial bank, credit union, insurance company or other similar institution that is supervised and examined by a federal or state authority or duly licensed by state licensing authority, if applicable. Seller and all other parties that have had any interest in the Mortgage Loan, whether as mortgagee, assignee, pledgee or otherwise, are (or, during the period in which they held and disposed of such interest, were) in compliance with any and all applicable licensing requirements of the laws of the state wherein the Mortgaged Property is located, and either (1) organized under the laws of such state, (2) qualified to do business in such state, (3) federal savings and loan associations, savings banks or national banks having principal offices in such state, (4) not doing business in such state or (5) not required by any Requirement of Law to be qualified to do business in such state. Principal payments on the Mortgage Loan commenced or will commence no more than sixty (60) days after the proceeds of the Mortgage Loan were disbursed. The Mortgage Loan requires interest payable in arrears on the first day of the month. Each Mortgage Note requires a monthly payment that is sufficient (i) during the period before the first adjustment to the Mortgage interest rate, to amortize the original principal balance fully over the original term thereof (unless otherwise provided in the Agency Guidelines) and to pay interest at the related Mortgage interest rate, and (ii) during the period following each interest rate adjustment date in the case of each adjustable rate Mortgage Loan, to amortize the outstanding principal balance fully as of the first day of such period over the then remaining term of such Mortgage Note and to pay interest at the related Mortgage interest rate. The Mortgage Note does not permit negative amortization. Interest on the Mortgage Note is calculated on the basis of a 360 day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. The Mortgage Loan is not a simple interest Mortgage Loan (meaning a Mortgage Loan on which interest is calculated on a daily basis). The Mortgage Loan does not require a balloon payment upon the maturity thereof. The Mortgage Note does not by its terms provide for the capitalization or forbearance of interest.

(n) Ownership. At the time of Administrative Agent's payment of the Purchase Price, Seller was the sole owner and holder of the Mortgage Loan and the indebtedness evidenced by the Mortgage Note. Immediately before the Purchase Date, the Mortgage Loan, including the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage, is not assigned or pledged by Seller (although it may be, or have been, subject to a Takeout Commitment) and Seller has good and marketable title thereto, full right to transfer and sell the Mortgage Loan to Buyers free and clear of any Lien, participation interest, equity, pledge or claim and full right and authority subject to no interest or participation in, or agreement with, any other Person to sell or otherwise transfer the Mortgage Loan, subject to any applicable Takeout Commitment. Following the sale of the Mortgage Loan, Buyers will own such Mortgage Loan and the other Mortgage Assets free and clear of any Lien except for the Lien created pursuant to this Agreement and subject to Seller's repurchase rights and applicable Takeout Commitments and Buyers have a valid and perfected first priority security interest in all of Seller's right, title and interest in and to such Mortgage Loan and the other Mortgage Assets then existing and thereafter arising in each case free and clear of any Lien, subject to Seller's repurchase rights and applicable Takeout Commitments. After the related Purchase Date, Seller will not have any right to modify or alter the terms of the sale of the Mortgage Loan to Buyers and Seller will not have any obligation or right to repurchase the Mortgage Loan, except as provided in this Agreement or as otherwise agreed to by Seller and Buyers. Seller has full right to sell, assign and transfer the Mortgage Loan without the consent of the related Mortgagor or any other Person.

(o) Transfer of Mortgage Loan. The Mortgage Loan is a MERS Designated Mortgage Loan. The original Mortgage was recorded in the appropriate jurisdictions wherein such recordation is necessary to perfect the Lien thereof as against creditors of the Mortgagor, or is in the process of being recorded. Seller has registered the Mortgage Loan on the MERS® System or will do so within five (5) Business Days after the Purchase Date. No Person (other than Administrative Agent, which may, at its election, list itself as interim funder) is listed as interim funder on the MERS® System with respect to such Mortgage Loan.

(p) Hazard Insurance. All buildings or other customarily insured improvements upon the Mortgaged Property are insured by an insurer generally acceptable under the Agency Guidelines against loss by fire, hazards covered by extended coverage insurance and such other hazards as are required in the Agency Guidelines pursuant to an insurance policy conforming to the requirements of Agency Guidelines and providing coverage as required by Agency Guidelines. All such insurance policies are in full force and effect and contain a standard mortgagee clause naming the originator of the Mortgage Loan, its successors and assigns as mortgagee and all premiums due and owing thereon have been paid. If required by the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973, as amended, or by regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the Mortgage Loan is covered by a flood insurance policy meeting the requirements of the current guidelines of the Federal Insurance Administration is in effect which policy conforms to the requirements of the Agency Guidelines. The Mortgage obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain all such insurance at the Mortgagor's cost and expense, and on the Mortgagor's failure to do so, authorizes the holder of the Mortgage to maintain such insurance at the Mortgagor's cost and expense and to seek reimbursement therefor from the Mortgagor. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given an opportunity to choose the carrier of the required hazard insurance, provided the policy is not a "master" or "blanket" hazard insurance policy covering a condominium or any hazard insurance policy covering the common facilities of a planned unit development. The hazard insurance policy is in full force and effect. Seller has not engaged in, and has no knowledge of the Mortgagor, any Subservicer or any prior servicer having engaged in, any act or omission that would impair the coverage of any such policy, the benefits of the endorsement provided for herein, or the validity and binding effect of either, including, to Seller's knowledge, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other person or entity, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller, in any case, to the extent it would impair coverage under any such policy.

(q) Title Insurance. The Mortgage Loan is covered by an ALTA, CLTA or TLTA lender's title insurance policy, acceptable to the applicable Agency or as mandated by applicable state law, if any, issued by a title insurer acceptable to the applicable Agency or qualified as required under applicable state law and qualified to do business in the jurisdiction where the Mortgaged Property is located, insuring Seller, its successors and assigns as to the first priority of the lien of the Mortgage in the original principal amount of the Mortgage Loan, subject to the exceptions in clause (b) above, and, if such Mortgage Loan is an adjustable rate Mortgage Loan, against any loss by reason of the invalidity or unenforceability of the lien resulting from the provisions of the Mortgage providing for adjustment in the Mortgage interest rate or monthly payment. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given the opportunity to choose the carrier of the required mortgage title insurance. Additionally, such lender's title insurance policy affirmatively insures ingress and egress, and against encroachments by or upon the Mortgaged Property or any interest therein. The title policy does not contain any special exceptions (other than the standard exclusions) for zoning and uses and has been marked to delete the standard survey exception or to replace the standard survey exception with a specific survey reading. Seller and its successors and assigns are the sole insureds of such lender's title insurance policy, and such lender's title insurance policy is in full force and effect and will be in full force and effect upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No claims have been made under such lender's title insurance policy, and Seller has not done, by act or omission, anything that would impair the coverage of such lender's title insurance policy.

(r) Closing Protection Letter. For each Wet Loan for which the related Settlement Agent involved in the Wet Funding (x) is Title Source, Inc., there is either (1) a blanket Closing Protection Letter covering settlements of multiple Mortgage Loans (which shall not be required to be included in each Loan File), or (2) a fidelity bond covering Title Source, Inc., naming Administrative Agent as loss payee, as its interest may appear, and providing Administrative Agent with a right to directly provide written notice of a claim if Seller fails to give written notice of such loss; provided that Seller shall have forty-five (45) days following the date of this Agreement to put in place the right for Administrative Agent to directly provide such written notice, or (y) is not Title Source, Inc., (1) a fully executed Closing Protection Letter, or (2) a blanket Closing Protection Letter covering settlements of multiple Mortgage Loans (which shall not be required to be included in each Loan File); provided that up to [] of the Wet Loans Originated by Seller in any calendar month may be settled by Settlement Agents (other than Title Source, Inc.) for which no Closing Protection Letter is applicable.

(s) Private Mortgage Insurance Policy. In the event that a private mortgage insurance policy is required by the applicable Agency, the Mortgage Loan has a valid and transferable private mortgage insurance policy. Unless the private mortgage insurance policy for a Mortgage Loan was cancelled at the request of the Mortgagor or automatically terminated, in either case in accordance with applicable law, all premiums have been paid and all provisions of such private mortgage insurance policy have been and are being complied with. Any Mortgage Loan subject to a primary mortgage insurance policy obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to pay the private mortgage insurance policy premium, if any, with respect to such Mortgage Loan. The Mortgage interest rate for the Mortgage Loan set forth in the Loan Purchase Detail is net of any such insurance premium.

(t) Optional Insurance. No single payment credit life insurance or other optional insurance product that has been considered "predatory" by Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac has been obtained with the proceeds of such Mortgage Loan in connection with the Origination of such Mortgage Loan at the Origination Date.

(u) Insurance. All insurance policies required by the applicable Agency in connection with the closing of the Mortgage Loan, of whatever type, remain in full force and effect. Seller has not engaged in, and has no knowledge of the Mortgagors having engaged in, any act or omission that would impair the coverage, validity or binding effect of any such policies or that has resulted or will result in the exclusion from, denial of, or defense to coverage under any applicable special hazard insurance policy, private mortgage insurance policy or bankruptcy bond, irrespective of the cause of such failure of coverage. In connection with the placement of any such insurance, no unlawful commission, unlawful fee, or other unlawful compensation has been or will be received by Seller or any Subservicer or any designee of Seller or any Subservicer or any corporation in which Seller, any Subservicer or, to Seller's Knowledge, any officer, director, or employee of Seller or any Subservicer had a financial interest at the time of placement of such insurance.

(v) Mortgaged Property Undamaged; No Condemnation Proceedings. As of the related Purchase Date, there are no material uninsured casualty losses or material casualty losses where coinsurance has been, or Seller has reason to believe will be, claimed by the insurance company or where the loss, exclusive of contents, is, or will be, materially greater than the recovery (less actual costs and expenses incurred in connection with such recovery) from the insurance carrier. No casualty insurance proceeds have been used by Seller to reduce Mortgage Loan balances or for any other purpose except to make repairs to the Mortgaged Property, except as allowed pursuant to applicable law and the Mortgage Loan documents. All damage with respect to which casualty insurance proceeds have been received by or through Seller has been properly repaired or is in the process of being repaired using such proceeds. There is no material damage to the Mortgaged Property from waste, fire, windstorm, flood, tornado, earthquake or earth movement, to Seller's actual knowledge, hazardous or toxic substances or other casualty that would materially adversely affect the value of the Mortgaged Property as security for the Mortgage Loan. There is no proceeding pending or, to the Seller's actual knowledge, threatened in writing for the partial or total condemnation of the Mortgaged Property that would adversely affect the Mortgage Loan.

(w) Location of Improvements; No Encroachments. All improvements subject to the Mortgage that were considered in determining the appraised value of the Mortgaged Property lie wholly within the boundaries and building restriction lines of the Mortgaged Property (and wholly within the project with respect to a condominium unit) and no improvements on adjoining properties encroach upon the Mortgaged Property, all except those that are insured against by the title insurance policy referred to in clause (q) above and all improvements on the Mortgaged Property comply with all applicable zoning and subdivision laws and ordinances.

(x) Appraisal. The loan file contains an appraisal or an underwriting property valuation using an automated valuation model of the related Mortgaged Property, or an Appraised Value Alternative, in each case, in a form acceptable to the applicable Agency, and in the case of an appraisal, made and signed, before the approval of the Mortgage Loan application, by a qualified appraiser, duly appointed by Seller, who had no interest, direct or indirect in the Mortgaged Property or in any loan made on the security thereof, whose compensation is not affected by the approval or disapproval of the Mortgage Loan and who met the minimum qualifications of the applicable Agency. Each appraisal of the Mortgage Loan was made in accordance with the requirements of Title XI of the Federal Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, all as in effect on the Origination Date of the Mortgage Loan;

(y) Occupancy of the Mortgaged Property. As of the Purchase Date, the Mortgaged Property is lawfully occupied under applicable law. As of the Purchase Date, all inspections, licenses and certificates required to be made or issued with respect to all occupied portions of the Mortgaged Property and, with respect to the use and occupancy of the same, including certificates of occupancy, have been made or obtained from the appropriate authorities and no improvement located on or part of the Mortgaged Property is in violation of any zoning law or regulation.

(z) Type of Mortgaged Property. The Mortgaged Property is located in the United States and consists of a single parcel of real property with a detached single family residence erected thereon, a townhouse or a two to four family dwelling, or an individual condominium unit, or an individual unit in a planned unit development or a de minimis planned unit development, or a Cooperative Unit in a Cooperative Project; provided that any condominium project or planned unit development generally conforms to the applicable Agency Guidelines regarding such dwellings. As of the date of origination, no portion of the Mortgaged Property was used for commercial purposes, and since the date of origination, no portion of the Mortgaged Property has been used for commercial purposes; provided that Mortgaged Properties that contain a home office shall not be considered as being used for commercial purposes as long as the entire Mortgaged Property has not been altered for commercial purposes and is not storing any chemicals or raw materials other than those commonly used for homeowner repair, maintenance and/or household purposes. The Mortgaged Property is not a Manufactured Home or a mobile home.

(aa) Environmental Matters. There is no pending action or proceeding directly involving any Mortgaged Property of which Seller is aware in which compliance with any environmental law, rule or regulation is an issue and nothing further remains to be done to satisfy in full all requirements of each such law, rule or regulation constituting a prerequisite to use and enjoyment of said property. The Mortgaged Property is free from toxic or hazardous substances in unlawful quantities or concentrations and there exists no violation of any local, state or federal environmental law, rule or regulation with respect to the Mortgaged Property.

(bb) Unacceptable Investment. Seller has no actual knowledge of any specific circumstances or condition with respect to the Mortgage, the Mortgaged Property, the Mortgagor or the Mortgagor's credit standing that cause, or would reasonably be expected to cause, private institutional investors that invest in loans similar to the Mortgage Loan to regard the Mortgage Loan as an unacceptable investment or materially adversely affect the value or the marketability of the Mortgage Loan in comparison to similar loans.

(cc) Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. The Mortgagor has not notified Seller or any Subservicer, and Seller has no actual knowledge, of any relief requested or allowed to the Mortgagor under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act of 2003, as amended, or other similar state or federal law.

(dd) No Fraud. No fraud, material omission, misrepresentation, negligence or similar occurrence with respect to the Mortgage Loan has taken place on the part of Seller, any Subservicer or any other Person involved in the origination of the Mortgage Loan, including the Mortgagor, any builder or developer or any appraiser. To Seller's actual knowledge, the documents, instruments and agreements submitted for loan underwriting were not falsified and contain no untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the information and statements therein not misleading. (hh) Texas Refinance Loans. Each Mortgage Loan originated in the State of Texas pursuant to Article XVI, Section 50(a)(6) of the Texas Constitution (a "Texas Refinance Loan") has been originated in compliance, in all material respects, with the provisions of Article XVI, Section 50(a)(6) of the Texas Constitution, Texas Civil Statutes and the Texas Finance Code. With respect to each Texas Refinance Loan that is a cash out refinancing, the related Mortgage Loan Documents state that the Mortgagor may prepay such Texas Refinance Loan in whole or in part without incurring a prepayment penalty. Seller does not collect any such prepayment penalties in connection with any such Texas Refinance Loan.

(ii) Anti-Money Laundering Laws. Seller has at all times complied with all applicable federal, state and local anti-money laundering laws, orders and regulations to the extent applicable to Seller, including to the extent applicable, the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, the Bank Secrecy Act and the regulations of the Office of Foreign Asset Control (collectively, the "Anti-Money Laundering Laws"), in respect of the Origination and servicing of each Mortgage Loan; Seller has established an anti-money laundering compliance program as and to the extent required by the Anti-Money Laundering Laws, has conducted the requisite due diligence in connection with the Origination and servicing of each Mortgage Loan for purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering Laws to the extent applicable to Seller, and, to the extent required by applicable law, maintains, and will maintain, either directly or through third parties, sufficient information to identify the applicable Mortgagor for purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering Laws. No Mortgage Loan is subject to nullification pursuant to Executive Order 13224 (the "Executive Order") or the regulations promulgated by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the United States Department of the Treasury ("OFAC Regulations") or in violation, in any material respect, of the Executive Order or the OFAC Regulations, and, to Seller's actual knowledge, no Mortgagor is subject to the provisions of such Executive Order or the OFAC Regulations nor listed as a "blocked person" for purposes of the OFAC Regulations.

(jj) Predatory Lending Regulations. The Mortgage Loan is not classified as (a) a "high cost" loan under the Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act of 1994 ("HOEPA") or (b) a "high cost," "threshold," "covered," or "predatory" loan under any other applicable state, federal or local law. The Mortgage Loan does not have an "annual percentage rate" or total "points and fees" payable by the related Mortgagor (as each such term is calculated under HOEPA) that exceed the thresholds set forth by HOEPA and its implementing regulations for "high cost" loans, including 12 C.F.R. § 226.32(a)(l)(i). No predatory or deceptive lending practices, including the extension of credit without regard to the ability of the Mortgagor to repay and the extension of credit that has no apparent benefit to the Mortgagor, were employed in the origination of the Mortgage Loan. No term or condition of, and no practice used in connection with the Origination of, such Mortgage Loan has been categorized as an "unfair" or "deceptive" term, condition or practice under any applicable federal, state or local law (or regulation promulgated thereunder) and the Mortgage Loan does not have any terms that expose Buyer to regulatory action or enforcement proceedings, penalties or other sanctions.

(kk) State Laws. No Mortgage Loan is a "High-Cost Home Loan" as defined in the Arkansas Home Loan Protection Act effective July 16, 2003 (Act 1340 of 2003); no Mortgage Loan is a "High-Cost Home Loan" as defined in the Kentucky high-cost home loan statute effective June 24, 2003 (Ky. (ll) Arbitration. No Mortgage Loan is subject to mandatory arbitration to resolve any dispute arising out of or relating in any way to the Mortgage Loan transaction.

(mm) Higher Cost Products. The Mortgagor was not encouraged or required to select a Mortgage Loan product offered by the Mortgage Loan's originator that is a higher cost product designed for less creditworthy Mortgagors, unless at the time of the Mortgage Loan's origination, such Mortgagor did not qualify taking into account such facts as the Mortgage Loan's requirements and the Mortgagor's credit history, income, assets and liabilities and debt-to-income ratios for a lower-cost credit product then offered by the Mortgage Loan's originator. If, at the time of loan application, the Mortgagor qualified for a lower-cost credit product then offered by the Mortgage Loan's originator, the Mortgage Loan's originator offered such lower-cost credit product to the Mortgagor.

(nn) Underwriting Methodology. With respect to delegated underwritten loans, the methodology used in underwriting the extension of credit for each Mortgage Loan does not rely solely on the extent of the Mortgagor's equity in the collateral as the principal determining factor in approving such extension of credit. The methodology employed objective criteria such as the Mortgagor's income, assets, liabilities and the proposed mortgage payment in accordance with Agency Guidelines.

(oo) Points and Fees. No Mortgagor was charged "points and fees" (whether or not financed) in an amount greater than (i) One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or (ii) five percent (5%) of the principal amount of such Mortgage Loan, whichever is greater. For purposes of this representation, such 5% limitation is calculated in accordance with Fannie Mae's anti-predatory lending requirements as set forth in the Agency Guidelines and "points and fees" (x) include origination, underwriting, broker and finder fees and charges that the mortgagee imposed as a condition of making the Mortgage Loan, whether they are paid to the mortgagee or a third party, and (y) exclude bona fide discount points, fees paid for actual services rendered in connection with the origination of the Mortgage Loan (such as attorneys' fees, notaries fees and fees paid for property appraisals, credit reports, surveys, title examinations and extracts, flood and tax certifications, and home inspections), the cost of mortgage insurance or credit-risk price adjustments, the costs of title, hazard, and flood insurance policies, state and local transfer taxes or fees, escrow deposits for the future payment of taxes and insurance premiums and other miscellaneous fees and charges which miscellaneous fees and charges, in total, do not exceed one-fourth percent (0.25%) of the principal amount of such Mortgage Loan. All fees and charges (including finance charges), whether or not financed, assessed, collected or to be collected in connection with the origination and servicing of each Mortgage Loan, have been disclosed in writing to the Mortgagor in accordance, in all material respects, with applicable state and federal law and regulation.

(pp) Prepayment Penalties. With respect to any Mortgage Loan that contains a provision permitting imposition of a penalty upon a prepayment before maturity: (i) the Mortgage Loan provides some benefit to the Mortgagor (e.g., a rate or fee reduction) in exchange for accepting such prepayment penalty, (ii) the Mortgage Loan's originator had a written policy of offering the Mortgagor the option of obtaining a mortgage loan that did not require payment of such a penalty, (iii) the prepayment penalty was adequately disclosed to the Mortgagor in the mortgage loan documents pursuant to applicable state, local and federal law, and (v) notwithstanding any state or federal law to the contrary, neither Seller nor any Subservicer shall impose such prepayment premium in any instance when the mortgage debt is accelerated as the result of the Mortgagor's default in making the loan payments.

(qq) Single Premium Credit Insurance Policies. No proceeds from any Mortgage Loan were paid on the Origination Date to purchase a single premium credit insurance policy (e.g., life, mortgage, disability, accident, unemployment, or health insurance product) or debt cancellation agreement through Seller in connection with the Origination of the Mortgage Loan as a condition to the extension of credit. No proceeds from any Mortgage Loan were paid on the Origination Date to purchase single premium credit insurance policies or debt cancellation agreements as part of the Origination of, or as a condition to closing, such Mortgage Loan.

The origination practices used by Seller and the collection and servicing practices used by Seller and any Subservicer with respect to each Mortgage Loan have been in all material respects legal and customary in the mortgage origination and servicing industry and the collection and servicing practices used by Seller and any Subservicer have been consistent with customary servicing procedures. The Mortgage Loan was underwritten in accordance with all applicable Agency Guidelines. Seller has serviced the Mortgage Loan at all times since its origination.

(ss) Escrow Payments. With respect to escrow deposits and payments that Seller is entitled to collect, all such payments are in the possession of, or under the control of, Seller, and there exist no deficiencies in connection therewith for which customary arrangements for repayment thereof have not been made. All escrow payments have been collected in full compliance with state and federal law and the provisions of the related Mortgage Note and Mortgage. As to any Mortgage Loan that is the subject of an escrow, escrow of funds is not prohibited by applicable law. No escrow deposits or other charges or payments due under the Mortgage Note have been capitalized under any Mortgage or the related Mortgage Note.

(tt) Interest on Escrows. As of the related Purchase Date, Seller has credited to the account of the related Mortgagor under the Mortgage Loan all interest required to be paid by applicable law or by the terms of the related Mortgage Note on any escrow account. Evidence of such credit shall be provided to Buyer upon request.

(uu) Escrow Analysis. Seller has properly conducted an escrow analysis for each escrowed Mortgage Loan in accordance with applicable law, to the extent required by applicable law. All books and records with respect to each Mortgage Loan comply in all material respects with applicable law and regulations, and have been adjusted to reflect the results of any required escrow analyses. Except as allowed by applicable law, no inflation factor was used in the escrow analysis. Seller has delivered notification to the Mortgagor(s) under each Mortgage Loan of all adjustments resulting from such escrow analyses.

(vv) Escrow Holdbacks. The Mortgage Loan is not subject to outstanding escrow holdbacks except those specifically identified by Seller or permitted in the Agency Guidelines.

(ww) Credit Reporting. To the extent, if any, that Seller is required to do so by the Fair Credit Reporting Act and its implementing regulations, Seller has caused to be fully furnished, in accordance in all material respects with such Act and regulations, accurate and complete information (i.e., favorable and unfavorable) on its Mortgagor loan files to Equifax, Experian, and Trans Union Credit Information Company (three of the credit repositories), on a monthly basis.

(xx) Interest Rate Adjustments. If applicable, with respect to each adjustable rate Mortgage Loan, all interest rate adjustments have been made in strict compliance with state and federal law and the terms of the related Mortgage Note. At the time the Mortgage Loan was Originated, the Mortgagor executed a statement to the effect that the Mortgagor has received all disclosure materials required by applicable law with respect to the making of adjustable rate mortgage loans.

To the extent a Mortgage Loan is subject to back up withholding, Seller has substantiated both the initial reason for the back up withholding and the amount of such back up withholding and the reason for such back up withholding in the amount currently withheld still exists.

(bbb) IRS Forms. All IRS forms, including Forms 1099, 1098, 1041 and K-l, as appropriate, that are required to be filed with respect to Mortgage Loan activity occurring in or before the year in which the Purchase Date occurs have been filed or will be filed in accordance, in all material respects, with applicable law.

(ccc) Electronic Drafting of Payments. If Seller or a Subservicer drafts monthly payments electronically from the Mortgagor’s bank account, such drafting occurs in compliance, in all material respects, with applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations, and the applicable agreement with the Mortgagor; and such applicable agreement with the Mortgagor both legally and contractually can be fully assigned to Buyer pursuant to the assignment provisions contained therein, and will be fully assigned to Buyer pursuant to this Agreement.

The execution, delivery and performance by Seller of its obligations under each of the Financing Documents, as of the date of such opinion letter, (i) do not violate (a) its Restated Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, or (b) any United States federal or State of Michigan Law which, to such counsel's Actual Knowledge (as to factual matters only), is applicable to Seller, (ii) based solely on our review of the Financing Documents and copies of material agreements to which Seller is a party provided to us by Seller with a certificate of officers of Seller that they are the only material indentures, loan or credit agreements, leases, mortgages, security agreements or other material agreements or instruments to which Seller is a party or by which it is bound and without any independent investigation or verification, do not constitute a default under, or result in a breach or acceleration of, any existing obligation of Seller under any material indenture, loan or credit agreement, lease, mortgage, security agreement or other material agreement or instrument to which Seller is a party or by which it is bound(1), or (iii) based solely on a certificate of officers of Seller and without any independent investigation or verification, do not breach or violate any existing obligation of Seller under any order, writ, judgment, injunction or decree of any court, agency or other governmental body.

6. Except as disclosed on the schedules to the Financing Documents, to our Actual Knowledge, without any independent investigation or verification, we hereby confirm to you that there is no legal action, suit, or proceeding against Seller pending or overtly threatened in writing before any court, governmental agency or other governmental body that, either in one instance or in the aggregate, (a) could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on its business, operations, properties or condition (financial or otherwise) or (b) draws into question the validity of, seeks to prevent the consummation of, any of the transactions described in, or would impair materially its ability to perform its obligations under, any of the Financing Documents to which it is a party.

7. Except for filings necessary to create, record, perfect or maintain the perfection of the liens and security interests created by the Financing Documents, as of the date of this opinion letter, the execution and delivery by Seller and the performance by Seller of its obligations under each of the Financing Documents do not require any consent, approval, authorization or order of, filing with, or notice to, any United States federal, State of Michigan or State of New York court, governmental agency or other governmental body under any United States federal, State of Michigan or State of New York Law, except such as may be required under the securities laws of any State of the United States or such as have been obtained, effected or given.

8. Based solely on a certificate of officers of Seller, the representations and warranties of Seller in the Financing Documents and without any independent investigation or verification, Seller is not required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

9. The provisions of the Agreement are sufficient under the Uniform Commercial Code in effect in the State of New York (the "New York UCC") to create, in favor of Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Administrative Agent, as agent of Buyers, a valid security interest in all right, title and interest of Seller in those items of collateral described in the Agreement and purported to be covered by the Agreement as constitute personal property and in which a security interest may be created under Article 9 of the New York UCC.(2)

10. Assuming Seller delivers, and Administrative Agent, as agent for Buyers, takes continuous possession at all times after the date of such opinion letter of, the Mortgage Notes constituting part of the Purchased Mortgage Loans and pledged by Seller pursuant to the Agreement, endorsed in blank by a duly authorized officer of Seller, and Administrative Agent, as agent for Buyers, holds such Mortgage Notes and endorsements in the State of Texas, the security interest of Administrative Agent, as agent and representative of Buyers, in all right, title and interest of Seller in such Mortgage Notes pledged as Collateral will be a perfected security interest in such Mortgage Notes, The foregoing opinion assumes that the Texas UCC is the same as the Michigan UCC in all relevant respects.

11. The unfiled Uniform Commercial Code financing statement attached as Exhibit B (the "Financing Statement") is in appropriate form for filing in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Michigan (the "Filing Office") pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code in effect in the State of Michigan (the "Michigan UCC"). When the Financing Statement has been properly filed and indexed in the Filing Office pursuant to the Michigan UCC, the security interests of Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Buyers, in Seller's right, title and interest in the Collateral described in the Financing Statement will be perfected under the Michigan UCC, to the extent (a) a security interest has been created under the Agreement, and (b) a security interest can be perfected by the filing and indexing of a financing statement under the Michigan UCC in the Filing Office.(3)

(2) Creation opinion (no. 9) to be given by outside counsel competent to opine on New York law.
(3) Perfection opinions (nos. 10 and 11) to be given by outside counsel.

FORM OF BAILEE LETTER

[date of bailee letter]

[Investor, Custodian or Lender name and address]

Ladies and Gentlemen:

1. Papers Are Enclosed; Conditional Delivery

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase") hereby delivers with this letter to you, as bailee, limited and conditional possession of the promissory notes and the other loan documents (collectively, the "Loan Papers") relating to the mortgage loans (the "Loans") described on the attached Exhibit A. Chase (as agent and representative of the Buyers under the Repurchase Agreement) is the successor in ownership interest to Quicken Loans Inc. (the "Mortgage Company") in and to the Loans pursuant to that certain Master Repurchase Agreement among the Mortgage Company, Chase and the other Buyers party thereto, as supplemented, amended or restated from time to time (the "Repurchase Agreement"). The Loan Papers are delivered to you at the request of the Mortgage Company for your inspection and determination of whether to purchase the Loans under your agreement with the Mortgage Company (the "Purchase Agreement"), and for no other use or purpose. Detailed terms of this bailment are stated in Section 6 below. The Loan Papers are also delivered conditionally: if you are unwilling to accept the terms and conditions of this bailment, as specified below, you must immediately return all Loan Papers to Chase. If you do not return them within two (2) Business Days after receipt, you will have accepted the bailment terms and conditions.

2. Examine Papers; How to Purchase Loans

Please examine the Loan Papers and decide whether you will purchase any or all of the Loans. To purchase one or more Loans, send, or cause Mortgage Company to send, a list to Chase indicating which Loans you are buying and remit the Agreed Purchase Price (defined in Section 3 below) for each Loan to Chase in immediately available federal funds wired to :

Attn: Anthony Lassiter

3. Pay-off Price

The "Pay-off Price" for each Loan is the greater of:

(x) the minimum payment required for the Mortgage Company's repurchase of such Loan so that the Mortgage Company can sell it to you (the "Release Price"), as set forth in the "Release Price" column of Exhibit A; and

(y) the purchase price that you and the Mortgage Company have agreed you will pay for such Loan (the "Agreed Purchase Price").

If you pay Chase only the Agreed Purchase Price for a Loan whose Release Price exceeds the Agreed Purchase Price, you will thereupon become the owner of that Loan, provided that Chase retains a security interest in that Loan and the related Loan Papers to secure payment to Chase of the amount by which the Release Price exceeds the Agreed Purchase Price (the "Required Deficiency Payment"), which security interest will not be released unless and until either you or the Mortgage Company pays Chase the Required Deficiency Payment and concurrently gives Chase a written notice that both (i) identifies the Loan with the payment and (ii) indicates that the amount so paid equals at least the amount of the Required Deficiency Payment of that Loan.

4. Loans Owned by Chase, Repurchased and Transferred to You by Mortgage Company

Pursuant to the Repurchase Agreement, the Mortgage Company has sold the Loans to Chase, and Chase owns and holds the Loan Papers, the Loans they evidence and all related security, collateral support and other rights. Payment of the Pay-off Price to Chase will effect the Mortgage Company's repurchase of the Loans from Chase under the Repurchase Agreement and their transfer by the Mortgage Company to you under the Purchase Agreement.

5. UCC § 9-313(h) Perfection by Possession

Although the parties intend that all transactions under the Master Repurchase Agreement be sales and purchases and not loans, if any one or more Transactions are recharacterized as loans by a court of competent jurisdiction, the parties have agreed that the Mortgage Company has pledged the Loans to Chase as security for such recharacterized transactions. To invoke UCC § 9-313(h) to maintain the perfection by possession of the Loan Papers of the security interest in the Loans held by Chase as secured party, we instruct you hereby, concurrently with this delivery of the Loan Papers, (1) to hold possession of the Loan Papers for the benefit of Chase as secured party, or (2) to redeliver the Loan Papers to Chase.

6. The Mortgage Company's, to Chase's and Your Respective Interests in the Loans and the Loan Papers — You Are Only a Bailee

We are delivering bare possession of the Loan Papers to you as bailee for your inspection and decision whether you will (i) pay Chase (for the Mortgage Company's repurchase credit) for, and buy (from the Mortgage Company), the related Loans or (ii) return to Chase the Loan Papers for the Loans that you do not purchase and pay for. Chase retains and reserves all of its ownership rights in the Loans and the Loan Papers until you actually pay Chase for the Loans and thereby purchase them from the Mortgage Company in accordance with this bailee letter. You acquire no ownership or security interest in them by our delivery of them to you. No sale on credit is being made, and no credit is being extended to you. This bailee letter and our delivery of the Loan Papers to you creates a "true bailment" under applicable law, and your interest in the Loan Papers and their related Loans is and will be limited to that of a bailee under such law, with no ability to pass a greater interest to another, unless and until you purchase and make or cause to be made the wire payment of the Pay-off Price for the Loans you decide to purchase (if any) to Chase in strict accordance with Section 2 and 3 and the other provisions of this bailee letter.

7. Proceeds not Released

No Release of Interest in Mortgages, Warehouse Lender Release of Security Interest or other release that Chase has executed or executes will be effective to release Chase's interest in the proceeds of any Loan unless and until the full Release Price for that Loan has actually been received by Chase.

8. Chase has Exclusive Authority to Give Instructions

With respect to the Loans, only Chase has authority (A) to request or direct you (i) where to make payment, (ii) where to return the Loan Papers for Loans you decide not to purchase or (iii) to take any other action, or (B) to make any agreement with you. Unless Chase hereafter gives you different written instructions or advice, this bailee letter provides all instructions and advice for the Loans and the Loan Papers. You may not honor any notice, direction or other communication from the Mortgage Company (or anyone else) concerning the Loans or the Loan Papers unless it is specifically confirmed in writing by Chase.

9. No Other Payment or Delivery Before Payment to Chase

You may not make payment for the Loans to anyone but Chase unless you are otherwise specifically instructed in writing by Chase. Until Chase has received payment of the full Pay-off Price for a Loan, you may not deliver any of its Loan Papers to anyone other than Chase without written authorization from Chase. DO NOT SEND ANY PAYMENTS OR ANY LOAN PAPERS TO THE MORTGAGE COMPANY.

10. Only If You Have Already paid the Pay-Off Price

If (but only if) you have already paid the Pay-off Price for a Loan to Chase, then the enclosed Loan Papers for, and ownership of, that Loan are being delivered to you free of such security interest or any trust, bailment or any other claim by Chase.

11. 45-Day Period in which to Purchase

It is very important that you promptly return the Loan Papers to us for each Loan that you do not intend to purchase so that we will know at all times which specific Loans will remain subject to the Repurchase Agreement and which will not. Accordingly, you will have forty-five (45) days after the date of this letter to either (i) return the enclosed Loan Papers for any Loan you elect not to purchase, or (ii) to purchase all of the Loans that you do not return.

12. Chase's Absolute Right to Require Return of Loan Papers Not Sooner Purchased

Notwithstanding any other provision of this bailee letter, the enclosed Loan Papers are delivered to you on the express and controlling condition that, unless Chase has already received the Pay-Off Price for each of the Loans, you will return any or all of them to Chase promptly upon your receipt of Chase's written direction to do so, regardless of whether or not you have decided to purchase such Loans, excluding only those Loans (if any) for which you have already paid us the Pay-Off Price.

13. You Agree to Keep the Loan Papers Safe

You are directed to keep all of the enclosed Loan Papers in a fire- resistant vault and safe from loss, theft and other casualty and you will bear any losses, costs or expenses the Mortgage Company and Chase may incur as a result of any such event.

14. This Letter Controls

If any other written instruction or advice you receive from us, the Mortgage Company or anyone else in respect of the Loans is inconsistent with this bailee letter, then this bailee letter shall control unless Chase confirms in writing that the other instruction or advice controls.

15. Please Confirm Receipt

Please immediately indicate your receipt of this bailee letter and the enclosed Loan Papers, and your acceptance of and agreement to the bailment and the other terms and conditions stated above, by dating and signing the enclosed copy of this bailee letter and returning it to us (although your doing so will not be necessary to the effectiveness of any of this bailee letter's terms, provisions or conditions).

Very truly yours,

If such QL Information is restored or otherwise becomes accessible by an end user such that it is no longer solely in the backup files of Recipient, then such QL Information must be permanently deleted. If requested by Chase and/or QL, the Recipient shall deliver to the Person requesting it (Chase and/or QL, as the case may be) a notarized written statement by a duly authorized representative of Recipient confirming on behalf of Recipient, its Permitted Employees and its Permitted Representatives that the destruction and/or delivery, in accordance with this Agreement, of any and all QL Information (including QL Information prepared by the Recipient, its Permitted Representatives, or it Permitted Employees that is derived from QL Information or other materials disclosed or otherwise furnished by or on behalf of Chase, any other Buyer, or QL), or other materials in tangible or electronic form disclosed or otherwise furnished by or on behalf of Chase, any other Buyer, or QL to the Recipient, its Permitted Employees, or its Permitted Representatives including all copies thereof. Notwithstanding the retention or destruction of QL Information in accordance with this Section 5, any and all QL Information shall continue to be subject to the terms of this Agreement.

6. Property of QL. All right, title, and interest in and to the QL Information are and shall remain vested in QL. Nothing in this Agreement will grant to the Recipient, its Permitted Employees, or its Permitted Representatives, any patent, copyright, trademark, mask work, trade secret, license or right of any kind with respect to the QL Information, other than to review and evaluate such QL Information for the Permitted Purpose.

7. Publicity. Except in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2 hereof, the Parties agree that, without the prior written consent of QL and the other party to this Agreement, the Parties, their Permitted Employees, and Permitted Representatives will not disclose or reveal to any person any information about the Possible Transaction or the terms or conditions or any other facts relating thereto, including without limitation, the fact that investigations, discussions or negotiations are taking place with respect thereto or the status or termination thereof and the identity of the parties thereto, the fact that this Agreement exists or its terms, or the fact that QL Information has been made available; provided that either party may make such disclosure if required by law or the applicable rules of any national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system or in response to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, subject to the terms and provisions of Section 4 above.

8. Permitted Employee. Recipient shall furnish its Permitted Employees with a copy of this Agreement and shall instruct, direct and cause its Permitted Employees to comply with the terms hereof (whether they remain employed by Recipient or not). Recipient shall advise its Permitted Employees that they are prohibited from sharing QL Information with any other employee of Recipient, unless a disclosure of QL Information is expressly authorized in writing by QL or otherwise permitted by this Agreement.

9. Term and Survival. This Agreement will commence upon the Effective Date and will continue for a term expiring (a) with respect to any Recipient who is a participant, two (2) years following the termination of such participant's participation interest, (b) with respect to any Recipient who is an assignee or Buyer, upon such assignee or Buyer executing a joinder to the MRA or otherwise agreeing in writing to be bound by the MRA, or (c) with respect to any Recipient that does not become an assignee, participant or Buyer, two (2) years from the Effective Date. Notwithstanding any other term of this Agreement to the contrary, the obligations under this Agreement that are applicable to Recipient, its Permitted Employees and its Permitted Representatives with respect to each of the following: (i) non-disclosure and non-use of the QL Information constituting QL's trade secrets, and (ii) non-public personal information shall continue indefinitely. The term, "nonpublic personal information" shall have the meaning as that term is defined in Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 or any successor federal statute, and the rules and regulations thereunder, all as may be amended or supplemented from time to time and personally identifiable information protected under any other applicable taws, rule or regulation of any jurisdiction relating to disclosure or use of personal information.

10. Warranties. The Parties warrant and represent that they have the right to enter into this Agreement and that it is a valid and binding obligation of the Parties relating to the matters herein. The Parties further warrant and represent that the terms of this Agreement are not inconsistent with other contractual obligations, express or implied which they may have.

11. No Agreement. Each party understands and agrees that (a) no contract or agreement providing for a transaction between the Parties hereto will be deemed to exist unless and until the Parties execute and deliver a definitive written agreement therefor, (b) neither party shall be under any obligation of any kind by virtue of this Agreement to negotiate or enter into any such definitive agreement or transaction with the other party, (c) neither Chase nor QL shall be under any obligation to make any particular QL Information available to Recipient, its Permitted Employees, or its Permitted Representatives, or to supplement or update any QL Information that is furnished to the Recipient, its Permitted Employees, or its Permitted Representatives, (d) neither Chase nor QL has not made and is not making any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy, completeness or fitness for any particular purpose of any QL Information, except as otherwise provided in a definitive agreement between the Parties, and (e) neither Chase nor QL shall have any liability to the Recipient relating to or resulting from the Recipient's use of any QL Information or any inaccuracies or errors therein or omissions therefrom.

12. Third Party Beneficiary. The Parties expressly intend, acknowledge and agree that QL is and shall be deemed to be a third party beneficiary of this Agreement for all purposes. Furthermore, the Parties expressly intend, acknowledge and agree that QL shall have the absolute and unconditional right to directly enforce this Agreement against Recipient, its successors, trustee, receivers and assigns, without any requirement to obtain the consent, approval or agreement of Chase and/or the Recipient to initiate, or to join Chase in, any such enforcement proceedings.

13. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within the State of New York. Chase and the Recipient hereby irrevocably submit generally and unconditionally for itself and themselves to the jurisdiction of any state court or any United States federal court sitting in the State of New York with respect to any dispute or matter of controversy relating to this Agreement. Chase and the Recipient hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection that Chase and the Recipient now or hereafter have to the laying of venue in any such court and any claim that any such court is an inconvenient forum.

14. Amendments. No modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of QL and each of the Parties. Each party understands and agrees that no failure or delay in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other right, power or privilege hereunder.

15. Equitable Relief. Each party understands and agrees that any breach of this Agreement may cause irreparable injury to the non-breaching party for which money damages may not be a sufficient remedy and, accordingly, that the non-breaching party shall be entitled to seek to obtain specific performance, injunctive and/or other equitable relief as a remedy to prevent or restrain any such breach or potential breach. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Agreement but shall be in addition to any and all other remedies available at law or in equity.

16. No Assignment. The Parties may not assign or delegate all or any part of their rights or obligations under this Agreement (including by merger, operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of QL and the other party to this Agreement.

17. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a proper authority to be unenforceable or invalid such unenforceability or invalidity shall not render this Agreement unenforceable or invalid as a whole and in such event, such provision shall be changed and interpreted so as to best accomplish the objectives of such unenforceable or invalid provision within the limits of applicable law and applicable court decisions.

18. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery by facsimile or electronic mail of this Agreement or an executed counterpart hereof shall be deemed a good and valid execution and delivery hereof.

19. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties regarding its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, arrangements and discussions between the Parties regarding such subject matter.

LITIGATION

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquires and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquires, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way,

FIRST AMENDMENT TO MASTER REPURCHASE AGREEMENT

Dated as of May 1, 2014

Between:

QUICKEN LOANS INC., as Seller

and

JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, N.A., as a Buyer and as Administrative Agent for the Buyers

and the other Buyers from time to time party hereto

1. This Amendment.

The Parties agree hereby to amend (for the first time) the Master Repurchase Agreement dated May 2, 2013 between them (the "Original MRA" and as amended hereby and as it may be supplemented, further amended or restated from time to time, the "MRA") to extend the latest Termination Date, correct a term used in four places in the Original MRA, change the Net Income covenant, change two of its addressees for Notices and provide for deferrals for one Business Day of shipments of more than 300 Purchased Mortgage Loans requested after 2:00 p.m., and they hereby amend the Original MRA as follows.

All capitalized terms used in the Original MRA and used, but not defined differently, in this amendment (this "Amendment") have the same meanings here as there. The Sections of this Amendment are numbered to correspond with the numbers of the Sections of the Original MRA amended hereby and are therefore nonsequential.

2. Definitions; Interpretation

The following definition in Section 2(a) (Definitions) of the Original MRA is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Termination Date" means the earliest of (i) the Business Day, if any, that Seller designates as the Termination Date by written notice given to the Administrative Agent at least thirty (30) days before such date, (ii) the date of declaration of the Termination Date pursuant to clause (vi) of Section 12(c) and (iii) April 30, 2015.

3. Initiation; Confirmation; Termination

A. The term "Approved Takeout Investor" is substituted for the term "Approved Investor" where it appears in Section 3(f) and in subsection 3(i)(ii).

B. The first two sentences of Section 3(b) (Purchase) of the Original MRA are amended to read as follows:

Subject to the terms of the Side Letter and satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 3 and in Section 7, on the requested Purchase Date for each Transaction (or, if requested by Seller, on the Business Day immediately before such requested Purchase Date), Administrative Agent shall transfer to Seller — for a newly Originated Eligible Mortgage Loan, by transferring funds to the designated Settlement Agent, and for other Eligible Mortgage Loans, by transferring funds to the prior lender or repurchase agreement counterparty, or to Seller, as applicable — an amount of Buyers' funds equal to the Purchase Price for purchase of each Eligible Mortgage Loan that is the subject of such Transaction on that Purchase Date, less any amounts to be netted against such Purchase Price in accordance with the Transaction terms and this Agreement. Such transfer of funds to the Settlement Agent to be used to fund the Mortgage Loan, or to the prior lender or repurchase agreement counterparty, or to Seller, as applicable, and if applicable, such permitted netting of amounts for value, for any Transaction will constitute full payment by Buyers of the Purchase Price for such Mortgage Loan.

10. Representations and Warranties

The term "Approved Takeout Investor" is substituted for the term "Approved Investor" where it appears in subsection 10(a)(xvii).

11. Seller's Covenants

A. Subparagraph 11(y)(iv) of the Original MRA is amended to read as follows:

(iv) Net Income or (Loss). If as of the last day of any calendar month in a fiscal quarter of Seller, either (x) the Adjusted Tangible Net Worth of Seller and its Subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, is less than [] or (y) the Liquidity of Seller and its Subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, is less than [], then and in either such case, the net income before taxes of Seller and its consolidated Subsidiaries for such quarter shall equal or exceed [].

and

JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, N.A., as a Buyer and as Administrative Agent for the Buyers,

the other Buyers from time to time party hereto

1. This Amendment.

The Parties agree hereby to amend (for the second time) the Master Repurchase Agreement dated May 2, 2013 between them (the "Original MRA", as amended by the First Amendment to Master Repurchase Agreement dated May 1, 2014 (the "Amended MRA") and as amended hereby and as it may be supplemented, further amended or restated from time to time, the "MRA") to (i) increase the committed facility amount to the amount specified in the Second Amendment to Side Letter of even date herewith among the parties (the "Second Amendment to Side Letter") and designate it and henceforth refer to it as the "Committed Facility Amount", (ii) provide for an additional, uncommitted facility amount (the "Uncommitted Facility Amount") in the amount specified in the Second Amendment to Side Letter (and provide that Pooled Loans are ineligible for purchase with funds from the Uncommitted Facility Amount), (iii) redefine the term "Facility Amount" to henceforth mean the sum of the Committed Facility Amount and the Uncommitted Facility Amount and (iv) change the sublimit for Jumbo Loans, and they hereby amend the Amended MRA as follows.

All capitalized terms used in the Amended MRA and used, but not defined differently, in this amendment (this "Amendment") have the same meanings here as there. The Sections of this Amendment are numbered to correspond with the numbers of the Sections of the Original MRA amended hereby and are therefore nonsequential.

1. Applicability

The penultimate sentence of Section 1 of the Amended MRA is amended to read as follows:

This Agreement is a commitment by Buyers, subject to its terms and conditions, to engage in the Transactions as set forth herein on or before the Termination Date up to the Committed Facility Amount and the agreement by Buyers, subject to its terms and conditions, to consider engaging, on an uncommitted and wholly discretionary basis, in additional Transactions, from time to time on or before the Termination Date and when the Committed Facility Amount is fully funded and outstanding, up to the Uncommitted Facility Amount. Seller hereby acknowledges that Buyers (and Administrative Agent) are under no obligation to enter into any Transaction with respect to the Uncommitted Amount.

2. Definitions; Interpretation

A. Clause (xviii) of the definition of "Eligible Mortgage Loan" in Section 2(a) of the Amended MRA is amended to read as follows:

(xviii) if a Jumbo Loan, whose Purchase Price, when added to the sum of the Purchase Prices of all other Jumbo Loans that are then subject to Transactions, is less than or equal to [];

B. The period at the end of clause (xxiii) of the definition of "Eligible Mortgage Loan" in Section 2(a) of the Amended MRA is hereby replaced with "; and", and the following new clause (xxiv) is inserted immediately following clause (xxiii):

(xxiv) if a Pooled Loan, its purchase is to be funded from the Committed Facility Amount (Pooled Loans are not eligible for purchase with funds from the Uncommitted Facility Amount).

B. The following additional definitions are added to Section 2(a) of the Amended MRA, in alphabetical order:

"Committed Facility Amount" is defined in the Side Letter.

"Facility Amount" means the sum of the Committed Facility Amount and the Uncommitted Facility Amount and is the amount specified in the Side Letter.

"First Amendment to MRA" means the First Amendment to Master Repurchase Agreement dated May 1, 2014 among the Parties, amending this Agreement for the first time.

"Second Amendment to MRA" means the Second Amendment to Master Repurchase Agreement dated December 19, 2014 among the Parties, amending this Agreement for the second time.

"Second Amendment to Side Letter" means the Second Amendment to Side Letter dated December 19, 2014 among the parties.

"Uncommitted Facility Amount" is defined in the Side Letter.

3. Initiation; Confirmation; Termination

A. Section 3(a) (Initiation) of the Amended MRA is amended to read as follows:

(a) Committed and Uncommitted Facilities; Initiation. The Parties acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the facility provided under this Agreement is (i) a committed facility with respect to the Committed Amount and (ii) an uncommitted facility with respect to the Uncommitted Amount, and Buyers (and Administrative Agent) shall have no obligation to enter into any Transactions with respect to the Uncommitted Amount. Buyers shall with respect to the Committed Amount, and may in their sole discretion with respect to the Uncommitted Amount, from time to time as requested by Seller, enter into Transactions, so long as the Aggregate Purchase Price for all Purchased Mortgage Loans acquired by Buyers does not exceed the Facility Amount. All purchases of Eligible Mortgage Loans made when less than the full Committed Amount is outstanding shall be deemed committed purchases funded from the Committed Amount, and all purchases, if any, of Eligible Mortgage Loans made when the full Committed Amount is outstanding shall be deemed uncommitted purchases funded from the Uncommitted Amount. Any agreement to enter into a Transaction shall be made in writing or electronically at the initiation of Seller through the MWF Web before the Termination Date. If Seller desires to enter into a Transaction, Seller shall deliver to Administrative Agent no earlier than three (3) Business Days before, and no later than 3:30 p.m., Houston, Texas time, on, the proposed Purchase Date, a request for Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) to purchase an amount of Eligible Mortgage Loans on such Purchase Date. All such purchases shall be on a servicing released basis and shall include the Servicing Rights with respect to such Eligible Mortgage Loan. Such request shall state the Purchase Price and shall include the Confirmation related to the proposed Transaction.

B. The first sentence of Section 3(b) (Purchase) is amended to read as follows:

Subject to the terms of the Side Letter and satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 3 and in Section 7, on the requested Purchase Date for each Transaction (or, if requested by Seller, on the Business Day immediately before such requested Purchase Date), Administrative Agent shall, in the case of a Transaction with respect to the Committed Amount, and may in its sole discretion in the case of a Transaction with respect to the Uncommitted Amount, transfer to Seller — for a newly Originated Eligible Mortgage Loan, by transferring funds to the designated Settlement Agent, and for other Eligible Mortgage Loans, by transferring funds to the prior lender or repurchase agreement counterparty, or to Seller, as applicable — an amount of Buyers' funds equal to the Purchase Price for purchase of each Eligible Mortgage Loan that is the subject of such Transaction on that Purchase Date, less any amounts to be netted against such Purchase Price in accordance with the Transaction terms and this Agreement.

C. Section 3(f)(i) (Cash Repurchase) is amended by adding the following new final sentence:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary and irrespective of which specific Purchased Mortgage Loans are repurchased thereby, solely for purposes of calculating accrued Price Differential and Non- Usage Fee, all payments of cash Repurchase Prices received by Administrative Agent shall be deemed applied to outstanding Transactions, if any, theretofore funded from the Uncommitted Amount until an amount equal to the sum of the Repurchase Prices for all outstanding Transactions funded from the Uncommitted Amount has been paid (for Buyers' accounts) to Administrative Agent, and the remaining cash Repurchase Price payments, if any, shall be deemed applied to outstanding Transactions funded from the Committed Amount.

7. Conditions Precedent

Section 7(b) (Conditions Precedent to Each Transaction) is amended by adding the following new Section 7(b)(xviii) after Section 7(b)(xvii):

(xviii) if such Transaction is to be funded (in whole or in part) from the Uncommitted Amount, Buyers must have elected to fund it and the full Committed Amount must be funded and outstanding before any of the Uncommitted Amount is funded.

SCHEDULE V
LITIGATION

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary does not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

11. Seller's Covenants

The second sentence of Section 11(x) is amended to read as follows:

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller shall timely assemble all records and documents concerning each such Jumbo Loan that (i) are in its possession or control, (ii) have not been delivered to Administrative Agent or Custodian and (iii) are required under any applicable Takeout Commitment (except that photocopies instead of originals shall be used for those documents of which originals were provided to Custodian in the Asset File or to Administrative Agent in the Loan File) and all other documents and information in its possession or control that have not been delivered to Administrative Agent or Custodian and that may have been required or requested by the Approved Takeout Investor, and Seller shall make all representations and warranties required to be made to the Approved Takeout Investor under the applicable Takeout Commitment and Takeout Agreement.

13. Servicing Rights are Owned by Buyers; Interim Servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loans

Section 13(d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Seller shall release its custody of the contents of the servicing records included in any Credit File or any Asset File relating to a Purchased Mortgage Loan only (i) pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and the Custody Agreement, (ii) in accordance with the written instructions of Administrative Agent, (iii) upon the consent of Administrative Agent when such release is required as incidental to Seller's servicing of the Purchased Mortgage Loan, or is required to complete the Takeout Funding or comply with the Takeout Guidelines, or (iv) as required by any Requirements of Law.

17. Shipment to Approved Takeout Investor

The caption and text of Section 17 are amended to read, respectively, as above and as follows:

(a) Shipping Instructions for Purchased Mortgage Loans. If Seller desires that Custodian send an Asset File or Administrative Agent send a Loan File to an Approved Takeout Investor or another warehousing or other mortgage financing institution, rather than to Seller directly, in connection with Seller's repurchase of the related Purchased Mortgage Loan, or in a Pool to an Agency Custodian for the Agency that will issue or guaranty and MBS based on and backed by such Pool upon the Agency Custodian's certification of such Pool, then Seller shall prepare and send to Custodian and Administrative Agent written shipping instructions pursuant to Section 10 (Shipment of Documents) of the Custodial Agreement instructing Custodian and Administrative Agent when and how to send such Asset File or Loan File, as applicable, to such Approved Takeout Investor or its designee. Administrative Agent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to send the Loan File on or before the date specified for shipment in such shipping instructions in accordance with the cutoff times specified in the "Chase Mortgage Warehouse Finance Customer Reference Guide" provided by Administrative Agent to Seller, or otherwise specified by Administrative Agent to Seller in writing from time to time. If Seller instructs Custodian to send an Asset File before the Repurchase Date, Custodian will send the Mortgage Note and related Mortgage under a Bailee Letter as provided in the Custodial Agreement. If Seller does not provide Custodian with shipping instructions with respect to a Mortgage Loan before its Repurchase Price is paid to Administrative Agent, Custodian shall send the Asset File to Seller or its designee after Administrative Agent receives the Repurchase Price therefor.

(b) Delivery Versus Payment or Delivery Versus MBS. Upon Administrative Agent's receipt of the Repurchase Price for a Pool of Purchased Mortgage Loans from an Approved Takeout Investor to whom Custodian has shipped the related Asset File or Administrative Agent has shipped the related Loan File in a delivery versus payment or "swap for payment" transaction, all of Administrative Agent's interests in the Purchased Mortgage Loans that are part of such Pool (but no others) shall automatically be released and Seller's repurchase thereof shall be completed. Upon delivery into the Joint Securities Account of an MBS in exchange for a Pool that includes Purchased Mortgage Loans shipped to an Agency Custodian in a delivery versus MBS or "swap for MBS" transaction, all of Administrative Agent's interests in the Purchased Mortgage Loans included in such Pool (but no others) shall automatically be released and a securities entitlement in the Joint Securities Account and such MBS held therein proportionate to the aggregate value of the Purchased Mortgage Loans contained in the Pool from which such MBS was created shall be conclusively deemed to be a Mortgage Asset subject to a new Transaction effective as of the date of delivery of such MBS into the Joint Securities Account and accepted by Administrative Agent as a Mortgage Asset in substitution for the Purchased Mortgage Loans included in the Pool from which such MBS was created, with each such securities entitlement having a Repurchase Price equal to (x) the sum of the Purchase Prices of the Purchased Mortgage Loans included in such Pool plus (y) accrued and unpaid Price Differential on such Purchased Mortgage Loans, calculated as if they were still subject to Transactions, such Price Differential to be calculated at the Pricing Rate for Pooled Loans from their Pooling Date, until Administrative Agent's receipt of Administrative Agent's share of the cash Repurchase Price for such MBS (determined in accordance with the provisions of the Joint Securities Account Control Agreement) either from sale of the MBS to an Approved Takeout Investor or by direct payment by Seller. Seller may cause such securities entitlement in such MBS to be delivered to an Approved Takeout Investor pursuant to any related Takeout Commitment against payment of a cash amount at least equal to the Repurchase Price therefor. If Administrative Agent's release of any Purchase Mortgage Loans shipped for securitization shall become effective and the MBS to be based on and backed by them (or any of them) shall not be delivered into the Joint Securities Account within two (2) Business Days after the Settlement Date of such MBS), Seller shall pay Administrative Agent the Repurchase Price therefor upon written demand made by Administrative Agent then or at any time thereafter before Administrative Agent has received the Repurchase

Price from the securities intermediary under and pursuant to the Joint Securities Account Control Agreement. On the same Business Day that Seller receives any such written demand if given at or before 10:00 a.m., Houston, Texas time, or on the next Business Day if such notice is given after 10:00 a.m., Seller shall pay such Repurchase Price to Administrative Agent (for Buyers' accounts) and shall submit a Completed Repurchase Advice. If such MBS is delivered into the Joint Securities Account after Seller has so repurchased it, upon Seller's request, Administrative Agent will confirm to the securities intermediary that the related securities entitlement has been repurchased by Seller.

22. Assignment and Participation; Pledges to a Federal Reserve Bank or Federal Home Loan Bank

The caption of Section 22 is amended to read as above and Section 22(f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) In addition to the foregoing, any Buyer may, at any time in its sole discretion, pledge or grant a Lien in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including any rights to Mortgage Assets and any rights to payment of the Repurchase Price) to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank or Federal Home Loan Bank, without notice to or consent of Seller; provided that no such pledge or grant of a security interest would release any Buyer from any of its obligations under this Agreement, including any obligations to deliver the same Purchased Mortgage Loans back to Seller upon receipt of payment of the Repurchase Price therefor, or substitute any such pledgee or grantee for such Buyer as a party to this Agreement.

EXHIBIT B.

A. Each reference in clauses (e), (x) and (gg) of Exhibit B to "loan file" or "Loan File" shall henceforth be read as referring to the Asset File, the Loan Eligibility File and/or the Servicing File, as applicable.

B. Clause (dd) of Exhibit B is amended to read as follows:

(dd) No Fraud. No fraud, material omission, misrepresentation, negligence or similar occurrence with respect to the Mortgage Loan has taken place on the part of Seller, any Subservicer or any other Person involved in taking applications for, offering, arranging, assisting a consumer in obtaining, making, underwriting or closing of the Mortgage Loan, including the Mortgagor, any builder or developer or any appraiser. To Seller's actual knowledge, the documents, instruments and agreements submitted for loan underwriting were not falsified and contain no untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the information and statements therein not misleading. Seller has reviewed all of the documents constituting the related Asset File and Loan Eligibility File and has made such inquiries as it deems necessary to make and confirm the accuracy of the representations set forth herein.

SCHEDULE V

LITIGATION

(See attached)

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non- bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

SCHEDULE V
LITIGATION

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

II. Non-Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

If Administrative Agent approves such change, the Parties agree to amend this Agreement to adjust Schedule III to match such changed factor in the revised Quicken Loans Non-Agency Jumbo Guidelines (and to substitute such revised Quicken Loans Non-Agency Jumbo Guidelines for Schedule III-QL attached to the Twelfth Amendment to MRA). If Administrative Agent does not approve such change, Schedule III attached to the Twelfth Amendment to MRA (or the most recent previous substitution therefor, if any) shall remain and continue in effect for purposes of this Agreement.

A. Section 3(f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) Repurchase Required. Seller shall repurchase from Administrative Agent Purchased Mortgage Loans conveyed to Administrative Agent and MBS issued in exchange for Pools of Purchased Mortgage Loans, on or before each related scheduled Repurchase Date and may electively sooner repurchase Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS. Each obligation to repurchase exists without regard to any prior or intervening liquidation or foreclosure with respect to any Purchased Mortgage Loan. If such Repurchase Price is paid by Seller on or before termination of this Agreement, shipment of the related Purchased Mortgage Loans to an Approved Takeout Investor or an Agency Custodian pursuant to Section 17 or Administrative Agent's liquidation of the Purchased Mortgage Loans pursuant to Section 12, Administrative Agent shall transfer such Purchased Mortgage Loans to Seller. Seller is obligated to obtain Purchased Mortgage Loans and MBS not shipped to an Approved Takeout Investor or an Agency Custodian from Administrative Agent or its designee on the related Repurchase Date.

(i) Cash Repurchase. On the Repurchase Date of Purchased Mortgage Loans being repurchased for cash (including any Pool of Purchased Mortgage Loans that will be exchanged on an MBS Settlement Date in a "delivery versus cash" or "swap and sell" transaction), termination of the Transaction will be effected by resale to Seller or its designee by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) of the Purchased Mortgage Loans on a servicing released basis against (1) Seller's submission to Administrative Agent of a Completed Repurchase Advice and (2) payment of the Repurchase Price by Seller's wiring it or causing it to be wired to the Funding Account. After receipt of the payment (for Buyers' accounts) of the Repurchase Price from Seller, Administrative Agent shall transfer such Purchased Mortgage Loans and the related Mortgage Loan Documents to Seller or its designee or release all of its interests in the related Pool and deliver, or cause to be delivered, to Seller, its designee or the Agency Custodian for such Pool, as applicable, all Mortgage Loan Documents previously delivered to Administrative Agent and take such steps as are necessary and appropriate to effect the transfer of the Purchased Mortgage Loan to Seller or its designee on the MERS® System, the MERS® eRegistry or both, as applicable. All such transfers from Administrative Agent to Seller or Seller's designee, including any transfer of Location or other transfer on the MERS® eRegistry, that result in the transfer of Control of an eNote, are and shall be without recourse and without (i) any of the liabilities of an indorser under UCC §3-414, by analogy or otherwise, (ii) any of the transfer warranties of UCC §3-417, or (iii) any other warranty, express or implied. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary and irrespective of which specific Purchased Mortgage Loans are repurchased thereby, solely for purposes of calculating accrued Price Differential and Non- Usage Fee, all payments of cash Repurchase Prices received by Administrative Agent shall be deemed applied to outstanding Transactions, if any, theretofore funded from the Uncommitted Amount until an amount equal to the sum of the Repurchase Prices for all outstanding Transactions funded from the Uncommitted Amount has been paid (for Buyers' accounts) to Administrative Agent, and the remaining cash Repurchase Price payments, if any, shall be deemed applied to outstanding Transactions funded from the Committed Amount.

(ii) Pool Securitization and Repurchase of MBS Created from the Pool. On the Repurchase Date for a Pool of Purchased Mortgage Loans that is being securitized in a "delivery versus MBS" or "swap and hold" transaction, termination of the Transaction, and the simultaneous initiation of a new Transaction whose subject will be the MBS created from such Pool, will be effected by Administrative Agent's delivery of such Pool to the relevant Agency Custodian against delivery to Buyer of the MBS created from such Pool. On the Repurchase Date for such MBS, termination of such new Transaction will be effected by Seller's wiring the Repurchase Price for such MBS, or causing it to be wired, to the Funding Account and causing the other elements of a Completed Repurchase Advice (those being items (iii) and (iv) in the definition of that term in Section 2(a)) to be delivered to Administrative Agent, whereupon Administrative Agent will transfer the MBS to the relevant Approved Takeout Investor, Seller or its designee, as applicable.

(a) Security Interest. Although the Parties intend that all Transactions hereunder be absolute sales and purchases and not loans, to secure the payment and performance by Seller of its obligations, liabilities and indebtedness under each such Transaction and Seller's obligations, liabilities and indebtedness under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, Seller hereby pledges, assigns, transfers and grants to Administrative Agent, as agent and representative of Buyers, a security interest in the Mortgage Assets in which Seller has rights or power to transfer rights and all of the Mortgage Assets in which Seller later acquires ownership, other rights or the power to transfer rights. "Mortgage Assets" means (i) the Purchased Mortgage Loans with respect to all Transactions outstanding from time to time hereunder (including, without limitation, all Servicing Rights with respect thereto), (ii) all Credit Files, Servicing Records, Loan Files, Asset Files, Mortgage Loan Documents, including, without limitation, the Mortgage Note or eMortgage Note (as the case may be) and Mortgage, and all of Seller's claims, liens, rights, title and interests in and to the Mortgaged Property in each case to the extent related to such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (iii) all Liens securing repayment of such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (iv) all Income with respect to such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (v) the Accounts, (vi) the Takeout Commitments and Takeout Agreements to the extent Seller's rights thereunder specifically relate to such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (vii) all Hedging Arrangements to the extent specifically relating to such Purchased Mortgage Loans, (viii) the Income Collection Account, together with all interest on the Income Collection Account, all modifications, extensions and increases of the Income Collection Account and all sums now or at any time hereafter on deposit in the Income Collection Account or represented by the Income Collection Account and (ix) all proceeds of the foregoing including, without limitation, to the extent that they are proceeds of the foregoing, all MBS, and the right to have and receive such MBS when issued, that are, in whole or in part, based on, backed by or created from Purchased Mortgage Loans for which the full cash Repurchase Price has not been received by Administrative Agent, irrespective of whether such related Purchased Mortgage Loans have been released from this security interest. Seller hereby authorizes Administrative Agent to file such financing statements and amendments relating to the Mortgage Assets as Administrative Agent may deem appropriate. Seller shall pay all fees and expenses associated with perfecting such Liens including the cost of filing financing statements and amendments under the UCC, registering each Purchased Mortgage Loan with MERS and recording assignments of the Mortgages and registering each related eNote on the MERS® eRegistry and initiating transfers, loan data updates and other actions on the MERS® eRegistry, in each case as and when required by Administrative Agent in its good faith discretion. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, upon Seller's payment of the Repurchase Price to Administrative Agent (for Buyers' accounts), any security interest of Buyers in the related Purchased Mortgage Loan and the related Mortgage Assets shall be released. Upon Seller's request, Administrative Agent shall take such actions as shall be reasonably necessary to evidence such termination of a security interest in such Purchased Mortgage Loan and the related Mortgage Assets or such MBS.

(b) Non-Exclusive License. Seller hereby grants to Administrative Agent, as agent and representative of Buyers, and Administrative Agent's permittees throughout the term of this Agreement, an irrevocable, nonexclusive license and right to use and exercise Seller's rights in or to (exercisable without payment of royalty or other compensation to Seller or any other Person) any and all computer software, systems and platforms, including eClosing Systems, Seller's eVaults, and archived versions of the same, now or hereafter used to originate, manage and administer any of the Purchased Mortgage Loans and any related Credit Files and Servicing Records, wherever the same may be located, and including in such license Seller's access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer software and programs used for the compilation or printout thereof, whether exclusive or nonexclusive, and any computer programs that are owned by or licensed to Seller and that are necessary to efficiently access, organize, input, read, print or otherwise output, handle or use such systems, platforms, information and data; provided that the foregoing grant shall (i) be solely to the extent such access rights and/or licenses may be granted to Administrative Agent and its permittees pursuant to all applicable Requirements of Law and the contractual arrangements governing such rights and/or licenses, and subject to any limitations set forth therein, (ii) be strictly limited to access of information relating to the Purchased Mortgage Loans, (iii) not be exercisable unless and until an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing ("continuing" meaning after such Event of Default has occurred and before it has either been cured by Seller or waived in writing by Administrative Agent), and (iv) be subject to Seller's unrestricted right to utilize the same with respect to assets other than Purchased Mortgage Loans and their related Mortgage Assets.

(c) Assignment of Takeout Commitment. The sale of each Purchased Mortgage Loan to Buyers shall include Seller's rights (but none of the obligations) under the applicable Takeout Commitment and Takeout Agreement, if any, to which such Purchased Mortgage Loan is specifically allocated, to deliver such Purchased Mortgage Loan or the related MBS, as applicable, to the Approved Takeout Investor and to receive the net sum therefor specified or provided for in the related Takeout Commitment from the Approved Takeout Investor.

7. Conditions Precedent

Section 7 is amended by addition of the following new Section 7(d) to the end of Section 7:

(d) Conditions Precedent to the Effectiveness of the Thirteenth Amendment to this Agreement. The effectiveness of the Thirteenth Amendment to MRA shall be subject to the satisfaction of each of the following conditions precedent (any of which Administrative Agent may electively waive, in Administrative Agent's sole discretion):

(i) on or before the Thirteenth Amendment Effective Date, Seller shall deliver or cause to be delivered each of the documents listed on Exhibit 12A-E to the Thirteenth Amendment to MRA in form and substance satisfactory to Administrative Agent and its counsel;

(ii) as of the Thirteenth Amendment Effective Date, no material action, proceeding or investigation shall have been instituted or threatened, nor shall any material order, judgment or decree have been issued or proposed to be issued by any Governmental Authority with respect to Seller that has not been disclosed to Administrative Agent; and

(iii) Seller shall have paid to the extent due all fees and out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred (including due diligence fees and expenses and reasonable legal fees and expenses) required to be paid under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document.

8. Change in Requirement of Law

The following new Section 8(e) is added to Section 8 immediately following Section 8(d):

(e) Increased eRisk. If at any time Administrative Agent determines (an "eRisk Determination") that any Change in Law or in the MERS® eRegistry, or other event or circumstance, imposes or increases Administrative Agent's or Buyers' risk of making or maintaining purchases of eMortgage Loans, or of maintaining their obligations with respect to any eMortgage Loans Transactions, then Administrative Agent shall give notice thereof to Seller, and (i) Administrative Agent and Seller shall endeavor in good faith to establish alternative terms and conditions to apply to eMortgage Loan Transactions to eliminate or satisfactorily reduce such risk, in a manner reasonably satisfactory to both Administrative Agent and Seller, and to amend this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to implement such changes. If Administrative Agent and Seller fail for any reason to execute such amendments on or before forty-five (45) days after Administrative Agent's said notice to Seller, Administrative Agent may elect to give notice to Seller that, on or after forty-five (45) days thereafter, new eMortgage Loans will not be Eligible Mortgage Loans.

9. Documents and Records Relating to Purchased Mortgage Loans

The title of Section 9 is amended to read as above and its text is amended to read as follows:

(a) Segregation of Documents; Administrative Agent May Engage in Other Transactions. All documents in the possession of Seller relating to Purchased Mortgage Loans shall be segregated from other documents and securities in its possession and shall be identified as being subject to this Agreement. Segregation may be accomplished by appropriate identification on the books and records of the holder, including a financial or securities intermediary or a clearing corporation. All of Seller's interest in the Purchased Mortgage Loans (including the Servicing Rights) shall pass to Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) on the Purchase Date and nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Administrative Agent from engaging in repurchase transactions with the Purchased Mortgage Loans or otherwise selling, transferring, pledging or hypothecating the Purchased Mortgage Loans, but no such transaction shall relieve Administrative Agent of its obligations to transfer the Purchased Mortgage Loans to Seller if and as required by Section 1, Section 3(f), Section 4(c), Subsection 3(j)(ii) or Section 22(c) or to credit, pay over or apply Income to the obligations of Seller pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) eClosing Transaction Records and Post-Purchase Support.

(i) The eClosing Transaction Record of each Purchased Mortgage Loan that is an eMortgage Loan shall be stored and maintained by Seller or its Subservicer in a manner that preserves the integrity and reliability of the eClosing Transaction Record for the life of such eMortgage Loan plus a period consistent with applicable Agency Guidelines requirements.

(ii) Seller shall cooperate with Administrative Agent in all activities necessary to enforce eMortgage Loans that are Purchased Mortgage Loans and related eNotes. Seller shall provide upon reasonable request by Administrative Agent, such affidavits, certifications, records and information regarding the creation and maintenance of the eNote and other Electronic Records in connection with any eMortgage Loan that Administrative Agent deems necessary or advisable to ensure admissibility of such eNote and other Electronic Records in a legal proceeding and may include, among other things, (a) a description of how the executed eNote and other Electronic Records have been stored to prevent against unauthorized access and unauthorized alteration and a description of how Seller's eClosing System and Seller's eVault can detect such unauthorized access or alteration, (b) a description of Seller's eClosing System and Seller's eVault controls in place to ensure compliance with applicable eCommerce Laws, including §201 of ESIGN and §16 of UETA, (c) a description of the steps followed by a Mortgagor to execute the eNote or other Electronic Record using Seller's eClosing System, (d) a copy of each screen, as it would have appeared to the Mortgagor, of the eNote or other Electronic Record that Administrative Agent is seeking to enforce or defend, when Mortgagor signed the eNote or other Electronic Record, (e) a description of Seller's eClosing System and Seller's eVault controls in place at the time of signing to ensure the integrity of the data, and (f) testimony by an authorized officer or employee of Seller to support admission of the eNote and other Electronic Records into any legal proceeding to enforce or defend the eMortgage Loan.

(iii) Seller shall archive all versions of any eClosing System used to create eNotes and originate eMortgage Loans, and retain such versions including screenshots of each stage or version of the eClosing System process.

(iv) Seller shall retain the eClosing Transaction Record of each Purchased Mortgage Loan that is an eMortgage Loan in a manner that will provide Administrative Agent or its designees with ready access to such documents and records promptly following any request by Administrative Agent. With respect to each Purchased Mortgage Loan that is an eMortgage Loan, Seller must be able to provide to Administrative Agent, at any time upon Administrative Agent's reasonable request, the eNote, any portions of the related Credit File or Servicing Record, and the eClosing Transaction Record, each in a format that is reasonably compatible with Administrative Agent's systems then in use.

c. Access to eClosing Systems, eVaults, and Expertise. Promptly following any reasonable request by Administrative Agent (and subject to the limitations applicable to onsite visits to Seller's offices specified in Section 11(d)), Seller will, and will cause each Subservicer (if any) of eMortgage Loans and each eVault provider (if any), to give Administrative Agent access to (i) each eVault storing the Authoritative Copy of any eNote evidencing a Purchased Mortgage Loan, (ii) all software and systems used for the origination, management or administration of any Purchased Mortgage Loan or any related eClosing Transaction Record, Credit File or Servicing Record, and access to all media in which any part of such eClosing Transaction Record, Credit File or Servicing Record may be recorded or stored; (iii) Seller's, or such Subservicer's or eVault Provider's, as applicable, know-how, expertise, and relevant data (such as customer lists) regarding any Purchased Mortgage Loan, or the policies, procedures and processes of such Person in originating, maintaining, servicing and otherwise managing eMortgage Loans and eNotes, and (iv) the personnel responsible for such matters.

10. Representations and Warranties

A. Section 10(a)(xxvii) is amended to read as follows:

(xxvii) MERS. Seller is a member of MERS in good standing, and Seller, each of Seller's eVault Providers and each Subservicer (if any) of eMortgage Loans is a member of the MERS® eRegistry in good standing, and such Person's operations are integrated with MERS® eRegistry and MERS® eDelivery in compliance with the MERS® eRegistry Procedures Manual, Agency Guidelines and applicable Takeout Guidelines.

B. Section 10(a)(xxx) is amended to read as follows:

(xxx) Compliance with Applicable Laws. Seller and its Material Subsidiaries have not violated any Requirement of Law respectively applicable to them, including (1) Agency Guidelines, (2) all applicable federal, state and local anti-money laundering laws, orders and regulations to the extent applicable to Seller or such Material Subsidiaries, including the USA Patriot Act of 2001, the Bank Secrecy Act and the OFAC Regulations and applicable Executive Orders (collectively, the "Anti-Money Laundering Laws"), (3) Anti-Corruption Laws, (4) applicable Privacy Requirements, including the GLB Act and the Safeguards Rules promulgated thereunder, (5) all consumer protection laws and regulations, (6) all licensing and approval requirements applicable to Seller's Origination of Mortgage Loans and (7) all other laws and regulations referenced in item (ff) of Exhibit B, in each case a breach of which would, or would reasonably be expected to, result in a Material Adverse Effect.

C. Section 10(a) is amended by adding the following new Section 10(a)(xxxi) immediately following Section 10(a)(xxx):

(xxxi) All audits and reviews of Seller's eClosing System and any Subservicer's or eVault provider's eVault and related policies and procedures requested or required by any Agency in connection with Seller's or such Subservicer's or eVault provider's application for such Agency's approval to sell, service or maintain eNotes and eMortgage Loans, have been completed, Seller has reviewed reports of findings and remedial actions have been taken to address the material adverse findings, if any, discovered in the audits and reviews, and such Agency has approved such Person to sell, service or maintain (as applicable) eNotes and eMortgage Loans and its related policies and procedures.

11. Seller's Covenants

A. Section 11(b)(i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Seller will remain a member in good standing of the MERS® System and the MERS® eRegistry.

B. Section 11(d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Inspection of Properties and Books. Seller shall permit authorized representatives of Buyers and Administrative Agent to (i) discuss the business, operations (including Seller's eClosing System and Seller's eVault), assets and financial condition of Seller and Seller's Subsidiaries with their officers and employees and to examine their books of account, records, reports and other papers and make copies or extracts thereof, (ii) inspect all of Seller's property and all related information and reports, and (iii) audit Seller's operations (including a technical, security and legal review of Seller's eClosing System and Seller's eVault as applicable, and related policies and procedures by Administrative Agent or by third parties reasonably selected by Administrative Agent, including, (a) a certified third party security assessment report, (b) results of systems testing and verification of integration with MERS® eRegistry and MERS® eDelivery, and (c) a legal analysis of Seller's eClosing System and Seller's eVault, and such systems' policies, procedures and processes), in each case only to the extent reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with the terms of the Transaction Documents, and the related applicable provisions of the GLB Act, applicable eCommerce Laws, privacy laws and regulations, and Agency Guidelines and Takeout Guidelines, all at Seller's expense (subject to the limitations in Section 16(a)) and at such reasonable times during normal business hours as Administrative Agent may request upon reasonable (but no less than three (3) Business Days) advance notice to Seller and without unreasonable disruption to Seller's business; provided that no advance notice shall be required if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

C. Section 11(f) is amended by replacing the period at the end of Section 11(f)(xvi) with "; or" and adding the following new Sections 11(f)(xvii) and 11(f)(xviii) immediately thereafter:

(xvii) any proposed changes, at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the proposed effective date of such changes, to Seller's eClosing System and/or eVault or related policies, procedures and/or processes that may adversely affect the performance of such eClosing System or eVault or that may adversely affect the enforceability of eMortgage Loans and eNotes or compliance with applicable Agency Guidelines and eCommerce Laws in any material respect; or (xviii) any occurrence of a data security incident, in any event no later than five (5) Business Days following such incident, regarding Seller's eClosing System or Seller's eVault that results in the unauthorized access to or acquisition of eNote and any other records, including details of such data security incident (if applicable), a summary of any external third party forensic examinations of it, and planned remediation steps to correct it and prevent similar incidents in the future.

D. Section 11(h) is amended to read as follows:

(h) Insurance. Seller shall maintain, at no cost to Buyers or Administrative Agent, (a) blanket fidelity bond coverage, with such companies and in such amounts as to satisfy the requirements of applicable Agency Guidelines, and shall cause Seller's policy to be endorsed with the Blanket Bond Required Endorsement, (b) liability insurance and fire and other hazard insurance on its properties, and (c) network security and cyber liability insurance that includes coverage for any and all costs and expenses associated with a data security incident, with responsible insurance companies reasonably acceptable to Administrative Agent, in such amounts and against such risks as is customarily carried by similar businesses. Photocopies of such policies shall be furnished to Administrative Agent at no cost to Buyers or Administrative Agent upon Seller's obtaining such coverage or any renewal of or modification to such coverage.

E. Section 11(i)(v) is amended to read as follows:

(v) Photocopies or electronic copies of the relevant portions of any final written audits completed by any Agency of Seller, or of Seller's eClosing

System and Seller's eVault that provide for material corrective action, material sanctions or classifications of the quality of Seller's operations, not later than five (5) Business Days after receiving such audit, provided that Seller is not prohibited by the applicable Agency from providing such copies;

F. Section 11 is further amended by adding the following new Section 11(bb) at the end of Section 11:

(bb) Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery. Seller agrees to maintain, to cause each Subservicer (if any) of its eMortgage Loans and Seller's eVault Provider, to maintain, at all times (i) a disaster recovery program, (ii) a business continuity plan, and (iii) an incident response plan (collectively, the "Continuity, Recovery and Incident Response Programs"), each in scope and substance reasonably acceptable to Administrative Agent. Seller, at its sole cost, shall test the Continuity, Recovery and Incident Response Programs on an annual basis. If the results of any such testing identify any material compliance or other issues with respect to any of Seller's, a Subservicer's or an eVault Provider's Continuity, Recovery and Incident Response Programs, Seller shall notify Administrative Agent and promptly correct any such issue to Administrative Agent's reasonable satisfaction.

12. Events of Default; Remedies

Section 12(a) is amended by adding the following new Section 12(a)(xxvii)(C) at the end of Section 12(a):

(C) Without Administrative Agent's prior written consent, any material change to Seller's eClosing System or Seller's eVault or its related policies, procedures or processes shall have been implemented and neither reversed, nor Administrative Agent's written consent thereto obtained, for a period of [] after a Notice Officer has actual knowledge of such material change. As used in this Section 12(a)(xxvii)(C), the term "material change" means any change that is inconsistent with applicable Agency Guidelines or applicable Takeout Guidelines, or that would reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect either (i) the enforceability of any eNote or eMortgage Loan, or (ii) compliance with eCommerce Laws.

EXHIBIT B

MORTGAGE LOAN
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

With respect to each Purchased Mortgage Loan, (i) as of the Purchase Date for the purchase of any Purchased Mortgage Loans by Administrative Agent (as agent and representative of Buyers) from Seller and as of the date of this Agreement and any Transaction hereunder, and (ii) at all times while the Transaction Documents or any Transaction hereunder is in force and effect, Seller represents and warrants to Buyers and Administrative Agent that each of the statements set forth in the lettered clauses of this Exhibit B is true and correct in all material respects. For purposes of this Exhibit B and the representations and warranties set forth herein, a breach of a representation or warranty shall be deemed to have been cured with respect to a Mortgage Loan if and when Seller has taken or caused to be taken action such that the event, circumstance or condition that gave rise to such breach no longer adversely affects such Mortgage Loan. With respect to those representations and warranties that are made to the best of Seller's knowledge, if it is discovered by Seller or Administrative Agent that the substance of such representation and warranty is inaccurate, notwithstanding Seller's lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty, such inaccuracy shall be deemed a breach of the applicable representation and warranty (if Administrative Agent shall determine that a Purchased Mortgage Loan is not an Eligible Mortgage Loan because of the inaccuracy of such a representation or warranty, Administrative Agent will give Seller written notice specifying the affected Purchased Mortgage Loan or Loans).

(a) Mortgage Loans as Described. The information set forth in the related Asset Schedule is complete, true and correct in all material respects as of the related Purchase Date.

(b) Valid First Lien. The Mortgage is properly recorded (or, as to newly-Originated Mortgage Loans, is in the process of being recorded) and is a valid, existing and enforceable first Lien with respect to each Mortgage Loan that is indicated by Seller to be a first Lien on the Mortgaged Property, including all improvements on the Mortgaged Property, free and clear of all adverse claims, and Liens having priority over the Lien of the Mortgage, subject only to (i) the Lien of current real property taxes and assessments not yet delinquent, (ii) exceptions, covenants, conditions and restrictions, rights of way, easements and other matters of the public record as of the date of recording that are acceptable to mortgage lending institutions generally and specifically referred to in the lender's title insurance policy delivered to Seller, and that do not adversely affect the purchase by, or the purchase price to be paid by, the Approved Takeout Investor, and (iii) other matters to which like properties are commonly subject that do not individually or in the aggregate materially interfere with the benefits of the security intended to be provided by the Mortgage or the use, enjoyment, value or marketability of the related Mortgaged Property. Any security agreement, chattel mortgage or equivalent document related to and delivered in connection with the Mortgage Loan establishes and creates a valid, existing and enforceable first lien and first priority security interest securing the related Mortgage Loan on the property described therein and Seller has full right to sell and assign the related Mortgage Assets to Administrative Agent.

(c) Validity of Mortgage Documents. With respect to each Mortgage Loan, Seller or its designee has in its possession all Servicing Files except for those Servicing Files (including for each eMortgage Loan, the eClosing Transaction Record) that Seller has disclosed to Administrative Agent are outstanding. The Mortgage Note and the related Mortgage are original and genuine, or in the case of an eNote, the copy of the eNote transmitted to Administrative Agent's eVault is the Authoritative Copy and the tamper-seal on the eNote matches the tamper-seal stored on the MERS® eRegistry, and each is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Mortgagor thereof, enforceable in all respects in accordance with its terms except as enforceability may be limited by (i) bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, receivership, moratorium, reorganization or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of the rights of creditors and (ii) general principles of equity, whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law, and Seller has taken all action required by this Agreement or requested by Administrative Agent to transfer such rights of enforceability to Buyers. Neither the operation of any of the terms of any Mortgage or Mortgage Note, nor the proper exercise by any holder of any right thereunder, will render the Mortgage or Mortgage Note unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense, and no such right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto. All parties to the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage had the legal capacity to enter into the Mortgage Loan and to execute and deliver the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage, and the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage have been duly and properly executed by such parties. All items required to be delivered to Administrative Agent pursuant to this Agreement shall be delivered to Administrative Agent, within the time frames set forth in this Agreement, and if a document is delivered in imaged format, such images must be of sufficient quality to be readable and able to be copied. There is only one original executed Mortgage Note (or, in the case of an eNote, only one Authoritative Copy of the eNote, and each other copy of such Authoritative Copy is readily identifiable as a copy that is not the Authoritative Copy of the eNote) with respect to such Mortgage Loan, and, if an eMortgage Loan, the Mortgagor only signed the eNote at origination and did not also execute an original paper version.

(d) Customary Provisions. The Mortgage and related Mortgage Note contain customary and enforceable provisions such as to render the rights and remedies of the holder thereof adequate for the realization against the Mortgaged Property of the benefits of the security provided thereby, including (i) in the case of a Mortgage designated as a deed of trust, by trustee's sale, and (ii) otherwise by judicial foreclosure, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. Upon default by a Mortgagor on a Mortgage Loan and foreclosure on, or trustee's sale of, the Mortgaged Property pursuant to the proper procedures, the holder of the Mortgage Loan will be able to deliver good and merchantable title to the Mortgaged Property, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. There is no homestead or other exemption or right available to the Mortgagor or any other person that would interfere with the right to sell the Mortgaged Property at a trustee's sale or the right to foreclose the Mortgage, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. The Mortgage Note and Mortgage are on forms that conform to the Agency Guidelines.

(e) Original Terms Unmodified. The terms of the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage have not been impaired, waived, altered or modified in any respect, except only if the Mortgage Loan is not an eMortgage Loan, by written instruments that (a) have been recorded in the applicable public recording office if required by law or if necessary to maintain the lien priority of the Mortgage and (b) have been delivered to Administrative Agent or the Custodian as required by this Agreement and the Custodial Agreement, and (c) if such instrument modifies an eNote, such modification is reflected on the MERS® eRegistry, and the eNote and related Mortgage Loan Documents remain valid, effective and enforceable and in compliance with all applicable eCommerce Laws and Agency Guidelines; the substance of any such waiver, alteration or modification has been approved by the insurer under the private mortgage insurance policy, if any, and by the title insurer, to the extent required by the related policy provided by Seller and is reflected appropriately on any and all documentation or data and is true and accurate in all material respects. No other instrument of waiver, alteration or modification has been executed, and no Mortgagor has been released, in whole or in part, except in connection with an assumption agreement approved by the insurer under the private mortgage insurance policy, if any, and by the title insurer, to the extent required by the policy, and which assumption agreement is a part of the Asset File, the Loan Eligibility File and/or the Servicing File, as applicable. As of the Purchase Date, the full original principal amount of each Mortgage Loan has been fully disbursed as provided for in the Mortgage Loan Documents, and there is no requirement for any future advances.

(f) No Defenses. The Mortgage Note and the Mortgage are not subject to any right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense, including the defense of usury, nor will the operation of any of the terms of the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage, or the exercise of any right thereunder, render either the Mortgage Note or the Mortgage unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense, including the defense of usury, and no such right of rescission, setoff, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto; and the Mortgagor was not, as of the Origination Date, subject to an Act of Insolvency.

(g) No Outstanding Charges. There are no defaults by Seller or any Subservicer in complying with the terms of the Mortgage, and (1) all taxes, special assessments, governmental assessments, insurance premiums and municipal charges that previously became due and owing have been paid or are not delinquent, or escrow funds have been established in an amount sufficient to pay for every such escrowed item that remains unpaid and that has been assessed but is not yet delinquent before any "economic loss" dates or discount dates (or if payments were made after any "economic loss" date or discount date, then Seller has paid any penalty or reimbursed any discount out of Seller's funds) and (2) all flood and hazard insurance premiums and private mortgage insurance premiums that are due, have been paid without loss or penalty to the Mortgagor. As of the Purchase Date, other than payments due but not yet thirty (30) days or more delinquent, no event that, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event of acceleration under a Mortgage Loan has occurred, including, as of the Origination Date, a violation of applicable law, local ordinances or city codes resulting from a deterioration or defect existing in any Mortgaged Property, and neither Seller nor its predecessors have waived any default, breach, violation or event of acceleration. Seller has received no notice of, and has no actual knowledge of, any event, including the bankruptcy filing or death of a Mortgagor, that has resulted in a Mortgagor default under the Mortgage Note or Mortgage. None of Seller or any Subservicer has advanced funds, or induced, solicited or knowingly received any advance from any Person other than the Mortgagor, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any amount due under the Mortgage Loan, unless otherwise permitted in the Agency Guidelines.

(h) No Satisfaction of Mortgage. The Mortgage has not been satisfied, canceled, subordinated or rescinded, in whole or in part, and the Mortgaged Property has not been released from the Lien of the Mortgage, in whole or in part, nor has any instrument been executed that would effect any such satisfaction, cancellation, subordination, rescission or release. Neither Seller nor any Subservicer has waived the performance by the Mortgagor of any action, if the Mortgagor's failure to perform such action would cause the Mortgage Loan to be in default, and neither Seller nor any Subservicer has waived any default resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor.

(i) No Default. Other than payments due but not yet thirty (30) days or more delinquent, there is no default, breach, violation or event of acceleration existing under the Mortgage or the Mortgage Note and no event that, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event permitting acceleration, and neither Seller nor any Subservicer has waived any default, breach, violation or event permitting acceleration resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor. With respect to each Mortgage Loan (i) the first Lien securing the Mortgage Loan is in full force and effect, (ii) there is no default, breach, violation or event of acceleration existing under such first Lien Mortgage or the related Mortgage Note, and (iii) no event that, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event of acceleration thereunder.

(j) Full Disbursement of Proceeds. The Mortgage Loan has been closed and the proceeds of the Mortgage Loan have been fully disbursed to or for the account of the Mortgagor and there is no obligation for the mortgagee to advance additional funds thereunder and any and all requirements as to completion of any on site or off site improvement and as to disbursements of any escrow funds therefor have been complied with. All costs, fees, and expenses incurred in making or closing the Mortgage Loan and the recording of the Mortgage have been paid or are in the process of being paid, and the Mortgagor is not entitled to any refund of any amounts paid or due to the mortgagee pursuant to the Mortgage Note or Mortgage with exception to escrow holdbacks.

(k) No Mechanics' Liens. There are no mechanics' or similar Liens or claims filed for work, labor or material (and no rights are outstanding that under law could give rise to such a Lien) affecting the related Mortgaged Property that are or may be Liens prior to, or equal or coordinate with, the Lien of the related Mortgage.

(l) No Additional Collateral. The Mortgage Note is not and has not been secured by any collateral except the Lien of the corresponding Mortgage on the Mortgaged Property and the security interest of any applicable security agreement or chattel mortgage.

(m) Origination; Payment Terms. The Mortgage Loan was Originated by Seller, which is a mortgagee approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act, a savings and loan association, a savings bank, a commercial bank, credit union, insurance company or other similar institution that is supervised and examined by a federal or state authority or duly licensed by state licensing authority, if applicable. Seller and all other parties that have had any interest in the Mortgage Loan, whether as mortgagee, assignee, pledgee or otherwise, are (or, during the period in which they held and disposed of such interest, were) in compliance with any and all applicable licensing requirements of the laws of the state wherein the Mortgaged Property is located, and either (1) organized under the laws of such state, (2) qualified to do business in such state, (3) federal savings and loan associations, savings banks or national banks having principal offices in such state, (4) not doing business in such state or (5) not required by any Requirement of Law to be qualified to do business in such state. Principal payments on the Mortgage Loan commenced or will commence no more than sixty (60) days after the proceeds of the Mortgage Loan were disbursed. The Mortgage Loan requires interest payable in arrears on the first day of the month. Each Mortgage Note requires a monthly payment that is sufficient (i) during the period before the first adjustment to the Mortgage interest rate, to amortize the original principal balance fully over the original term thereof (unless otherwise provided in the Agency Guidelines) and to pay interest at the related Mortgage interest rate, and (ii) during the period following each interest rate adjustment date in the case of each adjustable rate Mortgage Loan, to amortize the outstanding principal balance fully as of the first day of such period over the then remaining term of such Mortgage Note and to pay interest at the related Mortgage interest rate. The Mortgage Note does not permit negative amortization. Interest on the Mortgage Note is calculated on the basis of a 360 day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. The Mortgage Loan is not a simple interest Mortgage Loan (meaning a Mortgage Loan on which interest is calculated on a daily basis). The Mortgage Loan does not require a balloon payment upon the maturity thereof. The Mortgage Note does not by its terms provide for the capitalization or forbearance of interest.

(n) Ownership. At the time of Administrative Agent's payment of the Purchase Price, Seller was the sole owner and holder of the Mortgage Loan and the indebtedness evidenced by the Mortgage Note. Immediately before the Purchase Date, the Mortgage Loan, including the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage, is not assigned or pledged by Seller (although it may be, or have been, subject to a Takeout Commitment) and Seller has good and marketable title thereto, full right to transfer and sell the Mortgage Loan to Buyers free and clear of any Lien, participation interest, equity, pledge or claim and full right and authority subject to no interest or participation in, or agreement with, any other Person to sell or otherwise transfer the Mortgage Loan, subject to any applicable Takeout Commitment. Following the sale of the Mortgage Loan, Buyers will own such Mortgage Loan and the other Mortgage Assets free and clear of any Lien except for the Lien created pursuant to this Agreement and subject to Seller's repurchase rights and applicable Takeout Commitments and Buyers have a valid and perfected first priority security interest in all of Seller's right, title and interest in and to such Mortgage Loan and the other Mortgage Assets then existing and thereafter arising in each case free and clear of any Lien, subject to Seller's repurchase rights and applicable Takeout Commitments. EXHIBIT B

A. Clause (e) of Exhibit B of the Amended MRA is amended in its entirety to read as follows:

(e) Original Terms Unmodified. The terms of the Mortgage Note and the Mortgage have not been impaired, waived, altered or modified in any respect, except only if the Mortgage Loan is not an eMortgage Loan, by written instruments that (a) do not affect the amount or timing of any payment of principal or interest payable with respect to such Purchased Mortgage Loan, (b) have been recorded in the applicable public recording office if required by law or if necessary to maintain the lien priority of the Mortgage and (c) have been delivered to Administrative Agent or the Custodian as required by this Agreement and the Custodial Agreement, and (d) if such instrument modifies an eNote, such modification (x) does not affect the amount or timing of any payment of principal or interest payable with respect to such Purchased Mortgage Loan and (y) is reflected on the MERS® eRegistry, and the eNote and related Mortgage Loan Documents remain valid, effective and enforceable and in compliance with all applicable eCommerce Laws and Agency Guidelines; the substance of any such waiver, alteration or modification has been approved by the insurer under the private mortgage insurance policy, if any, and by the title insurer, to the extent required by the related policy provided by Seller and such modification is reflected appropriately on any and all documentation or data and is true and accurate in all material respects. No other instrument of waiver, alteration or modification has been executed, and no Mortgagor has been released, in whole or in part, except in connection with an assumption agreement approved by the insurer under the private mortgage insurance policy, if any, and by the title insurer, to the extent required by the policy, and which assumption agreement is a part of the Asset File, the Loan Eligibility File and/or the Servicing File, as applicable. As of the Purchase Date, the full original principal amount of each Mortgage Loan has been fully disbursed as provided for in the Mortgage Loan Documents, and there is no requirement for any future advances. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) any amendment, modification, waiver, settlement or compromise with respect to a Mortgage Loan that grants or agrees to forbearance as described in Section 4022 of the CARES Act (whether or not required thereby or granted pursuant thereto), of any payment of principal or interest for any period of time, (ii) any request by an obligor for forbearance of any payment of principal or interest for any period of time under its Mortgage Loan pursuant to the CARES Act, and (iii) any failure to grant forbearance for a Mortgage Loan when requested by an obligor thereof entitled thereto as provided for in the CARES Act, shall in each case automatically cause such Mortgage Loan to immediately fail or cease to be, as applicable, an Eligible Mortgage Loan.

B. Clause (ff) of Exhibit B of the Amended MRA is amended in its entirety to read as follows:

(ff) Compliance with Applicable Laws. Any and all requirements of any applicable federal (including, but not limited to, the CARES Act), state or local law or regulation including usury, truth in lending, ability to repay, real estate settlement procedures, consumer credit protection, consumer privacy, fair credit billing, fair credit reporting, fair debt collection practices, predatory and abusive lending laws, equal credit opportunity, fair housing and home mortgage disclosure laws or unfair, deceptive and abusive practices laws applicable to the origination and servicing of the Mortgage Loan including any provisions relating to prepayment penalties, have been complied with in all material respects and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not involve the violation of any such laws or regulations. Seller maintains, and shall maintain, evidence of such compliance as required by applicable law or regulation and shall make such evidence available for Administrative Agent's inspection at Seller's office during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice. Each Mortgage Loan at the time it was made complied in all material respects with applicable local, state, and federal laws, including all applicable predatory and abusive lending laws.

14. Amendments. No modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of QL and each of the Parties. Each party understands and agrees that no failure or delay in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other right, power or privilege hereunder.

15. Equitable Relief. Each party understands and agrees that any breach of this Agreement may cause irreparable injury to the non-breaching party for which money damages may not be a sufficient remedy and, accordingly, that the non-breaching party shall be entitled to seek to obtain specific performance, injunctive and/or other equitable relief as a remedy to prevent or restrain any such breach or potential breach. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Agreement but shall be in addition to any and all other remedies available at law or in equity.

16. No Assignment. The Parties may not assign or delegate all or any part of their rights or obligations under this Agreement (including by merger, operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of QL and the other party to this Agreement.

17. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a proper authority to be unenforceable or invalid such unenforceability or invalidity shall not render this Agreement unenforceable or invalid as a whole and in such event, such provision shall be changed and interpreted so as to best accomplish the objectives of such unenforceable or invalid provision within the limits of applicable law and applicable court decisions.

18. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery by facsimile or electronic mail of this Agreement or an executed counterpart hereof shall be deemed a good and valid execution and delivery hereof.

19. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties regarding its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, arrangements and discussions between the Parties regarding such subject matter.

The words "hereof", "herein", "hereunder" and similar words refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The term "including" is not limiting and means "including without limitation". In the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word "from" means "from and including", the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding", and the word "through" means "to and including".

A reference to a document includes an agreement (as so defined) in writing or a certificate, notice, instrument or document, or any information recorded in computer disk form.

This Agreement is the result of negotiations between, and has been reviewed by counsel to, Buyer and the Seller, and is the product of all parties. In the interpretation of this Agreement, no rule of construction shall apply to disadvantage one party on the ground that such party proposed or was involved in the preparation of any particular provision of this Agreement or this Agreement itself. Except where otherwise expressly stated, Buyer may give or withhold, or give conditionally, approvals and consents and may form opinions and make determinations at its absolute discretion. Any requirement of discretion or judgment by Buyer shall not be construed to require Buyer to request or await receipt of information or documentation not immediately available from or with respect to the Seller, a servicer of the Purchased Loans, any other Person or the Purchased Loans themselves.

3. THE TRANSACTIONS

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of the Program Documents, Buyer shall, with respect to the Committed Amount, and may in its sole discretion, with respect to the Uncommitted Amount, from time to time, enter into Transactions with an aggregate Purchase Price for all Purchased Loans acquired by Buyer and subject to outstanding Transactions at any one time not to exceed the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Buyer shall have the obligation to enter into Transactions with an aggregate outstanding Purchase Price of up to the Committed Amount and shall have no obligation to enter into Transactions with respect to the Uncommitted Amount. Unless otherwise agreed to between Buyer and the Seller in writing, all purchases of Eligible Loans subject to outstanding Transactions at any one time shall be first deemed committed up to the Committed Amount and then the remainder, if any, shall be deemed uncommitted up the Uncommitted Amount. Buyer shall not have the right, however, to terminate any Transactions with respect to the Uncommitted Amount after the Purchase Date until the related Repurchase Date. Unless otherwise agreed, the Seller shall request that Buyer enter into a Transaction with respect to any Purchased Loan by delivering to the indicated required parties (each, a "Required Recipient") the required delivery items (each, a "Required Delivery Item") set forth in the table below by the corresponding required delivery time (the "Required Delivery Time"):

Purchased Loan Type	Required Delivery Items	Required Delivery Time	Required Recipient	Required Purchase Time
Eligible Loans	(i) a Transaction Notice, appropriately completed, and (ii) a Loan Schedule	No later than 11:00 a.m. (Eastern Time) on the Business Day of the requested Purchase Date	Buyer	No later than 4:30 p.m. (Eastern Time) on the requested Purchase Date
	(i) a Loan Schedule and (ii) the Mortgage File for each Loan proposed to be included in such Transaction	No later than 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on the Business Day of the requested Purchase Date	Custodian

Each Transaction Notice shall include a Loan Schedule. Buyer will confirm the terms of such Transaction, including the proposed Purchase Date, Purchase Price and Pricing Rate, by sending to the Seller, in electronic or other format, a "Confirmation", no later than 12:30 p.m. on the requested Purchase Date, which will be confirmed electronically (by email or otherwise) by Seller prior to Buyer entering into such Transaction. Any such Transaction Notice and the related Confirmation, together with this Agreement, shall constitute conclusive evidence, absent manifest error, of the terms agreed to between Buyer and the Seller with respect to the Transaction to which the Transaction Notice and Confirmation, if any, relates. By entering in to a Transaction with Buyer, the Seller consents to the terms set forth in any related Confirmation.

(b) Pursuant to the Custodial Agreement, the Custodian shall review the applicable documents in the applicable Mortgage Files delivered prior to 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) by the Seller on any Business Day on the same day. Not later than 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on each Business Day, the Custodian shall deliver to Buyer, via Electronic Transmission acceptable to Buyer, the Custodial Loan Transmission showing the status of all Loans then held by the Custodian, including but not limited to an Exception Report showing all Loans which are subject to Exceptions, and the time the related Loan Documents have been released pursuant to Sections 5(a) or 7(a) of the Custodial Agreement. In addition, in accordance with the Custodial Agreement the Custodian shall deliver to Buyer upon the initial Transaction, a Master Trust Receipt with a Custodial Loan Transmission attached thereto. Each Custodial Loan Transmission subsequently delivered by the Custodian to Buyer shall supersede and cancel the Custodial Loan Transmission previously delivered by the Custodian to Buyer under the Custodial Agreement, and shall replace the Custodial Loan Transmission that is then appended to the Master Trust Receipt and shall control and be binding upon Buyer, Seller, and the Custodian. The Master Trust Receipt shall be delivered in accordance with the terms of the Custodial Agreement.

(c) Upon the Seller's request to enter into a Transaction pursuant to Section 3(a), Buyer shall, assuming all conditions precedent set forth in this Section 3 and in Sections 9(a) and 9(b) have been met, and provided no Default shall have occurred and be continuing, not later than the required time on the requested Purchase Date set forth in the table above (the "Required Purchase Time") purchase the Eligible Loans included in the related Transaction Notice by transferring, via wire transfer (pursuant to wire transfer instructions provided by the Seller on or prior to such Purchase Date) in immediately available funds, the Purchase Price. The Seller acknowledges and agrees that the Purchase Price paid in connection with any Purchased Loan that is purchased in any Transaction includes a premium allocable to the portion of such Purchased Loan that constitutes the related Servicing Rights.

(d) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, if, on or prior to the determination of any LIBO Rate:

(i) Buyer determines, which determination shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, if made in good faith and if reasonable, that quotations of interest rates for the relevant deposits referred to in the definition of "LIBO Rate" in Section 2 are not being provided for the relevant maturities for purposes of determining rates of interest for Transactions as provided herein; or

(ii) it becomes unlawful for Buyer to enter into Transactions with a Pricing Rate based on the LIBO Rate;

then Buyer shall give the Seller prompt notice thereof and, so long as such condition remains in effect, Buyer shall be under no obligation to purchase Loans hereunder, and the Seller shall, at its option, either repurchase such Loans subject to outstanding Transactions within thirty (30) days of such notice or pay a Pricing Rate at a rate per annum as determined by Buyer in good faith taking into account, among other factors Buyer deems relevant, the cost to Buyer of purchasing and holding the Loans.

(e) The Seller shall repurchase, and Buyer shall sell, Purchased Loans from Buyer on each related Repurchase Date. Each obligation to repurchase exists without regard to any prior or intervening liquidation or foreclosure with respect to any Purchased Loan (but liquidation or foreclosure proceeds received by Buyer shall be applied to reduce the Repurchase Price for such Purchased Loan). Upon receipt of the Repurchase Price in full therefor and provided that no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Buyer is obligated to deliver (or cause its designee to deliver) physical possession of the Purchased Loans to Seller or its designee on the related Repurchase Date. Upon such transfer of the Loans back to Seller, ownership of each Loan, including each document in the related Mortgage File and Records, is vested in Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such release and termination gives rise to or perpetuates a Margin Deficit, Buyer shall notify the Seller of the amount thereof and the Seller shall thereupon satisfy the Margin Call in the manner specified in Section 6(b), following which Buyer shall promptly perform its obligations as set forth above in this Section 3(e). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Seller shall have the right to repurchase any or all of the Purchased Loans at any time upon one (1) Business Days' prior notice to Buyer, without incurring breakage fees.

(f) On any Repurchase Date, the Seller may, without cause and for any reason whatsoever, terminate this Agreement and effectuate a repurchase of all Purchased Loans then subject to Transactions at the related aggregate Repurchase Price (a "Seller Termination"); provided that Seller shall (i) exercise such termination rights in good faith, and (ii) remit the Repurchase Price and any Non-Utilization Fee (calculated pursuant to Section 4(c) hereof) for such Purchased Loans and satisfy all other outstanding Obligations within one (1) Business Day of such Repurchase Date. The Seller hereby acknowledges and agrees that upon the occurrence of a Seller Termination, the Seller shall not be entitled to repayment or reimbursement of any fees, costs or expenses paid by the Seller to Buyer under this Agreement or any other Program Document, unless otherwise expressly provided for under this Agreement.

(g) If any new, or change in, any Requirement of Law or any change in the interpretation or application thereof or compliance by Buyer with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any central bank or other Governmental Authority made subsequent to the date hereof:

(i) shall subject Buyer to any tax of any kind whatsoever with respect to this Agreement or any Loans purchased pursuant to it (excluding net income taxes) or change the basis of taxation of payments to Buyer in respect thereof;

(ii) shall impose, modify or hold applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory advance or similar requirement against deposits or other liabilities held on account of Transactions or extensions of credit by, or any other acquisition of funds in connection with Transactions by, any office of Buyer which is not otherwise included in the determination of the LIBO Rate hereunder; or

(iii) shall impose on Buyer any other condition relating to Transactions;

and the result of any of the foregoing is to increase the cost to Buyer, by an amount which Buyer in consultation with Seller, deems to be material, of effecting or maintaining purchases hereunder, or to reduce any amount receivable hereunder in respect thereof, then, in any such case, the Seller shall promptly pay Buyer such additional amount or amounts as will compensate Buyer for such increased cost or reduced amount receivable thereafter incurred. Without duplication, nothing in this Section 3(g) shall be construed to limit the Buyer's right to reimbursement, gross-up or payment under any other section of this Agreement.

If Buyer shall have determined that the adoption of or any change in any Requirement of Law regarding capital adequacy or liquidity or in the interpretation or application thereof or compliance by Buyer or any corporation controlling Buyer with any request or directive regarding capital adequacy or liquidity (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority made subsequent to the date hereof shall have the effect of reducing the rate of return on Buyer's or such corporation's capital as a consequence of its obligations hereunder to a level below that which Buyer or such corporation but for such adoption, change or compliance (taking into consideration Buyer's or such corporation's policies with respect to capital adequacy and liquidity) by an amount deemed by Buyer to be material, then from time to time, the Seller shall promptly pay to Buyer such additional amount or amounts as will thereafter compensate Buyer for such reduction.

If Buyer becomes entitled to claim any additional amounts pursuant to this subsection, it shall promptly notify the Seller of the event by reason of which it has become so entitled. A certificate as to any additional amounts payable pursuant to this subsection submitted by Buyer to the Seller shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

4. PAYMENTS; COMPUTATION

(a) Payments. Except to the extent otherwise provided herein, all payments to be made by the Seller under this Agreement shall be made in Dollars, in immediately available funds, without deduction, set-off or counterclaim, to Buyer in accordance with the wire instructions set forth on Exhibit C hereto, not later than 2:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the date on which such payment shall become due (each such payment made after such time on such due date to be deemed to have been made on the next succeeding Business Day).

(b) Computations. The Price Differential shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day) occurring in the period for which payable.

(c) Price Differential Payment Amount. On a calendar monthly basis and on the Termination Date, Buyer shall determine the total accrued and unpaid Price Differential (the "Price Differential Payment Amount") during the preceding calendar month for all Purchased Loans subject to all outstanding Transactions during such period (or with respect to the initial period, from the Effective Date through the end of the calendar month in which the Effective Date occurs, and with respect to the Termination Date, during the period from the date through which the last Price Differential Payment Amount calculation was made to the Termination Date). Buyer shall provide written notice to Seller within five (5) days after the end of the applicable calendar month or the Termination Date, as applicable, of the Price Differential Payment Amount and of its calculation of such Price Differential Payment Amount. If such notice is given by Buyer before 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, then such Price Differential Payment shall be paid by Seller by the following Business Day. If such notice is given by Buyer after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, then such Price Differential Payment shall be paid by Seller by the date that is two (2) Business Days after Seller's receipt of such notice. All payments shall be made to Buyer in Dollars, in immediately available funds.

(d) Non-Utilization Fee. On a calendar monthly basis and on the Termination Date, Buyer shall determine the average monthly utilization during the preceding month (or with respect to the initial period, from the Ramp-Up Date through the end of the calendar month in which the Ramp-Up Date occurs, and with respect to the Termination Date, during the period from the date through which the last non-utilization fee calculation has been made to the Termination Date) by the Seller by dividing (a) the sum of the Purchase Prices outstanding on each day during such period, by (b) the number of days in such period. If such average amount determined for any period as a percentage of the Committed Amount (the "Utilization Percentage") is less than the Utilization Threshold, the Seller shall pay to Buyer the Non-Utilization Fee due for such related period. Buyer shall provide written notice to Seller within five (5) days after the end of the applicable calendar month or the Termination Date, as applicable, of the Utilization Percentage and of its calculation of such Non-Utilization Fee. If such notice is given by Buyer before 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, then such Non-Utilization Fee shall be paid by Seller by the following Business Day. If such notice is given by Buyer after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, then such Non-Utilization Fee shall be paid by Seller by the date that is two (2) Business Days after Seller's receipt of such notice. All payments shall be made to Buyer in Dollars, in immediately available funds.

5. TAXES; TAX TREATMENT

(a) All payments made by the Seller to Buyer or a Buyer assignee under this Agreement or under any Program Document shall be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of any Taxes , excluding income taxes, branch profits taxes, franchise taxes or any other tax imposed on the net income by the United States, a state or a foreign jurisdiction under the laws of which Buyer is organized or of its applicable lending office, or any political subdivision thereof , all of which shall be paid by the Seller for its own account not later than the date when due. If the Seller is required by law or regulation to deduct or withhold any Taxes or Other Taxes from or in respect of any amount payable to Buyer or Buyer assignee, the Seller shall: (i) make such deduction or withholding; (ii) pay the full amount so deducted or withheld to the appropriate Governmental Authority in accordance with the requirements of the applicable law or regulation not later than the date when due; (iii) deliver to Buyer or Buyer assignee, promptly, original tax receipts and other evidence satisfactory to Buyer of the payment when due of the full amount of such Taxes or Other Taxes; and (iv) pay to Buyer or Buyer assignee such additional amounts as may be necessary so that after making all required deductions and withholdings (including deductions and withholding applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 5), such Buyer or Buyer assignee receives, free and clear of all Taxes and Other Taxes, an amount equal to the amount it would have received under this Agreement, as if no such deduction or withholding had been made.

(b) The Seller agrees to indemnify Buyer or any Buyer assignee, promptly on reasonable demand, for the full amount of Taxes (including additional amounts with respect thereto) and Other Taxes, and the full amount of Taxes and Other Taxes of any kind imposed by any jurisdiction on amounts payable under this Section 5, and any liability (including penalties, interest and expenses) arising therefrom or with respect thereto.

(c) To the extent Buyer or Buyer assignee is not organized under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, or the District of Columbia (a "Foreign Buyer"), such Foreign Buyer shall provide the Seller whichever of the following is applicable: (I) in the case of such Foreign Buyer or Foreign Buyer assignee claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party, a properly completed United States Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E or any successor form prescribed by the IRS, certifying that such Foreign Buyer is entitled to a zero percent or reduced rate of U.S. federal income withholding tax on payments made hereunder or (II) a properly completed IRS Form W-8ECI or any successor form prescribed by the IRS, certifying that the income receivable pursuant to this Agreement is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States. Each Foreign Buyer or Foreign Buyer assignee will deliver the appropriate IRS form on or prior to the date on which such person becomes a Foreign Buyer or Foreign Buyer assignee under this Agreement. Each Foreign Buyer or Foreign Buyer assignee further agrees that upon learning that the information on any tax form or certification it previously delivered is inaccurate or incorrect in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify the Seller in writing of its legal inability to do so. For any period with respect to which a Foreign Buyer has failed to provide the Seller with the appropriate form or other relevant document pursuant to this Section 5(c) (unless such failure is due to a change in treaty, law, or regulation occurring subsequent to the date on which a form originally was required to be provided), such Foreign Buyer shall not be entitled to any "gross-up" of Taxes or indemnification under Section 5(b) with respect to Taxes imposed by the United States; provided, however, that should a Foreign Buyer, which is otherwise exempt from a withholding tax, become subject to Taxes because of its failure to deliver a form required hereunder, the Seller shall take such steps as such Foreign Buyer shall reasonably request to assist such Foreign Buyer to recover such Taxes.

(d) Without prejudice to the survival or any other agreement of the Seller hereunder, the agreements and obligations of the Seller contained in this Section 5 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, Buyer or a Buyer assignee, and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Program Document. Nothing contained in this Section 5 shall require Buyer to make available any of its tax returns or other information that it deems to be confidential or proprietary.

(e) Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that it is its intent for purposes of U.S. federal, state and local income and franchise taxes to treat each Transaction as indebtedness of the Seller that is secured by the Purchased Loans and that the Purchased Loans are owned by Seller in the absence of an Event of Default by the Seller. All parties to this Agreement agree to such treatment and agree to take no action inconsistent with this treatment, unless required by law.

6. MARGIN MAINTENANCE

(a) Buyer determines the Market Value of the Purchased Loans at such intervals as determined by Buyer in its good faith discretion.

(b) If at any time the aggregate Market Value of all Purchased Loans subject to all outstanding Transactions plus any prior Margin Call cash and Substitute Loans then held by Buyer is less than the aggregate Purchase Price for all such Transactions (a "Margin Deficit"), then subject to the last sentence of this paragraph, Buyer may by notice to Seller (a "Margin Call") require Seller to transfer to Buyer cash or Substitute Loans approved by Buyer in its sole discretion so that the aggregate Market Value of the Purchased Loans, including any such cash or Substitute Loans and any prior Margin Call cash and Substitute Loans then held by Buyer, will thereupon equal or exceed the aggregate Purchase Price for all outstanding Transactions. If Buyer delivers a Margin Call to Seller on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, then Seller shall transfer the required amount of cash or Substitute Loans to Buyer no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) that day. In the event Buyer delivers a Margin Call to a Seller after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, Seller will be required to transfer the required amount of cash or Substitute Loans no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the subsequent Business Day. Notwithstanding the foregoing, provided that no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Buyer shall not require the Seller to satisfy a Margin Call and no Margin Call shall be required to be made unless the Margin Deficit shall equal or exceed [], as determined by Buyer in its reasonable, good faith discretion.

(c) Buyer's election, in its sole and absolute discretion, not to make a Margin Call at any time there is a Margin Deficit will not in any way limit or impair its right to make a Margin Call at any time a Margin Deficit exists.

(d) Any cash or Substitute Loans transferred to Buyer pursuant to Section 6(b) above will be held as unsegregated cash margin (but only to the extent that application thereof to prepayment of the outstanding Repurchase Price would cause the aggregate Purchase Price of outstanding Transactions to be less than the Committed Amount) and collateral for all Obligations, and Seller shall earn interest on the amount of such unsegregated cash margin at a rate of interest equal to the Federal Funds Rate unless otherwise specified in the applicable Confirmation for the relevant Transaction; provided, that if such rate is otherwise specified in the applicable Confirmation, it must be agreed to by Buyer and Seller. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, such interest shall be netted against the Price Differential due and owing by Seller. To the extent any cash delivered pursuant to this Section, if applied to prepay a portion of the aggregate Repurchase Price of outstanding Transactions, would not cause the outstanding Purchase Price to fall below the Committed Amount, then such cash shall be so applied.

7. INCOME PAYMENTS

(a) Where a particular term of a Transaction extends over the date on which Income is paid in respect of any Purchased Loan subject to that Transaction, such Income shall be the property of Buyer. The Seller shall (i) segregate all Income collected by or on behalf of the Seller on account of the Purchased Loans and shall hold such Income in trust for the benefit of Buyer that is clearly marked as such in the Seller's records and (ii) remit such Income to the Collection Account for deposit therein no later than three (3) Business Days after receipt thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and provided no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer agrees that the Seller shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to all Income received in respect of the Purchased Loans, whether by Buyer, Custodian or any servicer or any other Person, which is not otherwise received by the Seller, to the full extent it would be so entitled if the Purchased Loans had not been sold to Buyer; provided that any Income received by the Seller while the related Transaction is outstanding shall be deemed to be held by the Seller solely in trust for Buyer pending the repurchase on the related Repurchase Date; provided further that the Seller shall hold all such Income in the Collection Account, subject to Seller's right to withdraw such Income from the Collection Account. Provided no Default has occurred, Buyer shall, on the Repurchase Date or any date on which the Seller repurchases the Purchased Loans, following the date any Income is received by Buyer (or a servicer on its behalf) either (i) transfer (or permit the servicer to transfer) to the Seller such Income with respect to any Purchased Loans subject to such Transaction, or (ii) if a Margin Deficit then exists, hold such Income as cash margin (which shall be deemed posted by Seller to satisfy such Margin Deficit and held pursuant to Section 6) by the Seller. Buyer shall not be obligated to take any action pursuant to the preceding sentences (A) to the extent that such action would result in the creation of a Margin Deficit, unless prior thereto or simultaneously therewith the Seller transfers to Buyer cash or Substitute Loans sufficient to eliminate such Margin Deficit, or (B) if an Event of Default with respect to the Seller has occurred and is then continuing at the time such Income is paid.

(b) Upon an Event of Default, Seller will or will cause the Servicer to remit all Income to an account designated by Buyer.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, upon receipt by Seller of any prepayment of principal in full with respect to a Purchased Loan, Seller shall (i) provide prompt written notice to Buyer of such prepayment, and (ii) remit such amount to Buyer and Buyer shall hold such amount as unsegregated cash margin pursuant to Section 6(d) and apply any such amount received by Buyer plus accrued interest on such amount against the Repurchase Price on the Repurchase Date.

8. SECURITY INTEREST; BUYER'S APPOINTMENT AS ATTORNEY-IN-FACT

(a) On each Purchase Date, Seller hereby sells, assigns and conveys to Buyer all rights and interests in the Purchased Loans identified on the related Loan Schedule. The Seller and Buyer intend that the Transactions hereunder be sales to Buyer of the Purchased Loans (other than for accounting and tax purposes) and not loans from Buyer to the Seller secured by the Purchased Loans. However, in order to preserve Buyer's rights under this Agreement in the event that a court or other forum recharacterizes the Transactions hereunder as other than sales, and as security for the Seller's performance of all of its Obligations, and in any event, the Seller hereby grants Buyer a fully perfected first priority security interest in all of the Seller's rights, title and interest in and to the following property, whether now existing or hereafter acquired, until the related Purchased Loans are repurchased by the Seller:

(i) all Purchased Loans, including all related cash and Substitute Loans provided pursuant to Section 6 and held by or under the control of Buyer, identified on a Transaction Notice or related Loan Schedule delivered by the Seller to Buyer and the Custodian from time to time;

(ii) any Agency Security or right to receive such Agency Security when issued in each case only to the extent specifically backed by any of the Purchased Loans;

(iii) the Program Documents (to the extent such Program Documents and Seller's rights thereunder relate to the Purchased Loans);

(iv) any other collateral pledged to secure, or otherwise specifically relating to, such Purchased Loans, together with all files, material documents, instruments, surveys (if available), certificates, correspondence, appraisals, computer records, computer storage media, Loan accounting records and other books and records relating thereto;

(v) the related Records, the related Servicing Records, and the related Servicing Rights relating to such Purchased Loans;

(vi) all rights of the Seller to receive from any third party or to take delivery of any Servicing Records or other documents which constitute a part of the related Mortgage File or Servicing File;

(vii) all rights of the Seller to receive from any third party or to take delivery of any Records or other documents which constitute a part of the related Mortgage File or Servicing File;

(viii) the Collection Account and all Income relating to such Purchased Loans;

(ix) all mortgage guaranties and insurance (including FHA Mortgage Insurance Contracts and VA Loan Guaranty Agreements (if any)) and any mortgage insurance certificate or other document evidencing such mortgage guaranties or insurance relating to any Purchased Loans and all claims and payments thereunder and all rights of the Seller to receive from any third party or to take delivery of any of the foregoing;

(x) all interests in real property collateralizing any Purchased Loans;

(xi) all other insurance policies and insurance proceeds relating to any Purchased Loans or the related Mortgaged Property and all rights of the Seller to receive from any third party or to take delivery of any of the foregoing;

(xii) any purchase agreements or other agreements, contracts or Takeout Commitments to the extent specifically related to Purchased Loans subject to a Transaction (including the rights to receive the related takeout price and the portion of the Security related to Purchased Loans subject to a Transaction as evidenced by such Takeout Commitments) to the extent relating to or constituting any or all of the foregoing and all rights to receive copies of documentation relating thereto;

(xiii) all "accounts", "chattel paper", "commercial tort claims", "deposit accounts", "documents", "equipment", "general intangibles", "goods", "instruments", "inventory", "investment property", "letter of credit rights", and "securities' accounts" as each of those terms is defined in the Uniform Commercial Code and all cash and Cash Equivalents and all products and proceeds, all to the extent specifically relating to or constituting any or all of the foregoing; and

(xiv) any and all replacements, substitutions, distributions on or proceeds of any or all of the foregoing (collectively the "Purchased Items").

The Seller acknowledges that it has no rights to the Servicing Rights related to the Purchased Loans, until the related Purchased Loans are repurchased by the Seller. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the Seller is deemed to retain any residual Servicing Rights, the Seller grants, assigns and pledges to Buyer a first priority security interest in all of its rights, title and interest in and to the Servicing Rights as indicated hereinabove. In addition, the Seller, in its capacity as Servicer, further grants, assigns and pledges to Buyer a first priority security interest in and to all documentation and rights to receive documentation related to the Servicing Rights and the servicing of each of the Purchased Loans, and all Income related to the Purchased Loans received by the Seller, in its capacity as Servicer, and all rights to receive such Income, and all products, proceeds and distributions relating to or constituting any or all of the foregoing (collectively, and together with the pledge of Servicing Rights in the immediately preceding sentence, the "Related Security"). The Related Security is hereby pledged as further security for the Seller's Obligations to Buyer hereunder. The foregoing provisions are intended to constitute a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement related to the Agreement and Transactions hereunder as defined under Sections 101(47)(A)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Seller acknowledges and agrees that its rights with respect to the Purchased Items (including without limitation, any security interest the Seller may have in the Purchased Loans and any other collateral granted by the Seller to Buyer pursuant to any other agreement) are and shall continue to be at all times junior and subordinate to the rights of Buyer hereunder.

(b) At any time and from time to time, upon the written request of Buyer, and at the sole expense of the Seller, the Seller will promptly and duly execute and deliver, or will promptly cause to be executed and delivered, such further instruments and documents and take such further action as Buyer may reasonably request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of this Agreement and of the rights and powers herein granted, including, without limitation, the filing of any financing or continuation statements under the Uniform Commercial Code in effect in any jurisdiction with respect to the Purchased Items and the liens created hereby. The Seller also hereby authorizes Buyer to file any such financing or continuation statement to the extent permitted by applicable law. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement shall be sufficient as a financing statement for filing in any jurisdiction. This Agreement shall constitute a security agreement under applicable law.

(c) Seller shall not (i) change its name or corporate structure (or the equivalent), or (ii) reincorporate or reorganize under the laws of another jurisdiction unless it shall have given Buyer at least thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof and shall have delivered to Buyer all Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and amendments thereto as Buyer shall request and taken all other actions deemed reasonably necessary by Buyer to continue its perfected status in the Purchased Items with the same or better priority.

(d) The Seller hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints Buyer and any officer or agent thereof, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of the Seller and in the name of the Seller or in its own name, from time to time in Buyer's discretion, for the purpose of protecting, preserving and realizing upon the Purchased Items, carrying out the terms of this Agreement, taking any and all appropriate action and executing any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary or desirable to protect, preserve and realize upon the Purchased Items, accomplishing the purposes of this Agreement, and filing such financing statement or statements relating to the Purchased Items as Buyer at its option may deem appropriate, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Seller hereby gives Buyer the power and right, on behalf of the Seller, without assent by, but with notice to, the Seller, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, to do the following:

(i) in the name of the Seller, or in its own name, or otherwise, to take possession of and endorse and collect any checks, drafts, notes, acceptances or other instruments for the payment of moneys due with respect to any Purchased Items and to file any claim or to take any other action or proceeding in any court of law or equity or otherwise deemed appropriate by Buyer for the purpose of collecting any and all such moneys due with respect to any Purchased Items whenever payable;

(ii) to pay or discharge taxes and Liens levied or placed on or threatened against the Purchased Items;

(iii) (A) to direct any party liable for any payment under any Purchased Items to make payment of any and all moneys due or to become due thereunder directly to Buyer or as Buyer shall direct, including, without limitation, to send "goodbye" letters on behalf of the Seller and any applicable Servicer and Section 404 Notices; (B) to ask or demand for, collect, receive payment of and receipt for, any and all moneys, claims and other amounts due or to become due at any time in respect of or arising out of any Purchased Items; (C) to sign and endorse any invoices, assignments, verifications, notices and other documents in connection with any Purchased Items; (D) to commence and prosecute any suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect the Purchased Items or any proceeds thereof and to enforce any other right in respect of any Purchased Items; (E) to defend any suit, action or proceeding brought against the Seller with respect to any Purchased Items; (F) to settle, compromise or adjust any suit, action or proceeding described in clause (E) above and, in connection therewith, to give such discharges or releases as Buyer may deem appropriate; and (G) generally, to sell, transfer, pledge and make any agreement with respect to or otherwise deal with any Purchased Items as fully and completely as though Buyer were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Buyer's option and the Seller's expense, at any time, and from time to time, all acts and things which Buyer deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Purchased Items and Buyer's Liens thereon and to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as the Seller might do.

The Seller hereby ratifies all that said attorneys shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. This power of attorney is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable. In addition to the foregoing, Seller agrees to execute a Power of Attorney to be delivered on the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the power of attorney hereby granted may be exercised only during the occurrence and continuance of any Event of Default hereunder.

The Seller also authorizes Buyer, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, from time to time, to execute, in connection with any sale provided for in Section 19 hereof, any endorsements, assignments or other instruments of conveyance or transfer with respect to the Purchased Items.

Except as set forth in Section 16, the Seller shall give at least one (1) Business Day's prior written notice to Buyer if such repurchase shall occur on any date other than the Repurchase Date in Section 3(e).

If such release and termination gives rise to or perpetuates a Margin Call that is not paid when due, Buyer shall notify the Seller of the amount thereof and the Seller shall thereupon satisfy the Margin Call in the manner specified in Section 6(b), following which Buyer shall promptly perform its obligations as set forth above in this Section 10.

11. RELIANCE

The Seller represents and warrants to Buyer on each day throughout the term of this Agreement:

(a) Existence. Seller (a) is a corporation validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Michigan, (b) has all requisite corporate power, and has all governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals, necessary to own its assets and carry on its business as now being or as proposed to be conducted, except where the lack of such licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals would not be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect, (c) is qualified to do business and is in good standing in all other jurisdictions in which the nature of the business conducted by it makes such qualification necessary, except where failure so to qualify would not be reasonably likely (either individually or in the aggregate) to have a Material Adverse Effect, and (d) is in compliance in all material respects with all Requirements of Law.

(b) Financial Condition. Seller has heretofore furnished to Buyer a copy of its audited consolidated balance sheets as at December 31, 2014 with the opinion thereon of Ernst & Young LLP, a copy of which has been provided to Buyer. Seller has also heretofore furnished to Buyer the related consolidated statements of income, of changes in Shareholders' Equity and of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2014. All such financial statements are complete and correct in all material respects and fairly present the consolidated financial condition of Seller and its Subsidiaries and the consolidated results of their operations for the year ended on said date, all in accordance with GAAP; provided that to the extent Seller provides any of its third party lenders with consolidating balance sheets, statements of income, of changes in Shareholders' Equity and of cash flows, Seller shall provide such consolidating statements to Buyer.

(c) Litigation. Except as set forth in Schedule 12(c), there are no actions, suits, arbitrations, investigations or proceedings pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against Seller or any of its Subsidiaries or affecting any of the property thereof or the Purchased Items before any Governmental Authority, (i) as to which individually or in the aggregate there is a reasonable likelihood of an adverse decision which would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (ii) which challenges the validity or enforceability of any of the Program Documents or any action to be taken in connection with the transactions contemplated thereby and there is a reasonable likelihood of a Material Adverse Effect or adverse decision.

(d) No Breach. Neither (a) the execution and delivery of the Program Documents, nor (b) the consummation of the transactions therein contemplated in compliance with the terms and provisions thereof will result in a breach of the charter or by-laws (or equivalent documents) of Seller, or violate any applicable law, rule or regulation, or violate any order, writ, injunction or decree of any Governmental Authority applicable to Seller, or result in a breach of other material agreement or instrument to which Seller, or any of its Subsidiaries, is a party or by which any of them or any of their property is bound or to which any of them or their property is subject, or constitute a default under any such material agreement or instrument, or (except for the Liens created pursuant to this Agreement) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any property of Seller or any of its Subsidiaries, pursuant to the terms of any such agreement or instrument.

(e) Action. Seller has all necessary corporate power, authority and legal right to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under each of the Program Documents to which it is a party; the execution, delivery and performance by Seller of each of the Program Documents to which it is a party has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on its part; and each Program Document has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Seller and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Seller, enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be affected by bankruptcy, by other insolvency laws, or by general principles of equity.

(f) Approvals. No authorizations, approvals or consents of, and no filings or registrations with, any Governmental Authority, or any other Person, are necessary for the execution, delivery or performance by Seller of the Program Documents to which it is a party or for the legality, validity or enforceability thereof, except for filings and recordings in respect of the Liens created pursuant to this Agreement.

Seller and its Subsidiaries have filed all Federal income tax returns and all other material tax returns that are required to be filed by them and have paid all taxes due pursuant to such returns or pursuant to any assessment received by any of them, except for any such taxes, if any, that are being appropriately contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and with respect to which adequate reserves have been provided. The charges, accruals and reserves on the books of Seller and its Subsidiaries in respect of taxes and other governmental charges are, in the opinion of Seller, adequate. Any taxes, fees and other governmental charges payable by Seller in connection with a Transaction and the execution and delivery of the Program Documents have been or will be paid when due. There are no Liens for Taxes, except for statutory liens for Taxes not yet delinquent.

(h) Investment Company Act. Neither the Seller nor any of its Subsidiaries is an "investment company", or a company "controlled" by an "investment company", within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. Seller is not subject to any Federal or state statute or regulation which limits its ability to incur any indebtedness provided in the Program Documents.

(i) No Legal Bar. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, the other Program Documents, the sales hereunder and the use of the proceeds thereof will not violate any Requirement of Law applicable to Seller or Contractual Obligation of Seller or of any of its Subsidiaries and will not result in, or require, the creation or imposition of any Lien (other than the Liens created hereunder) on any of its or their respective properties or revenues pursuant to any such Requirement of Law or Contractual Obligation.

(j) Compliance with Law. Except as set forth in Schedule 12(c), no practice, procedure or policy employed or proposed to be employed by Seller in the conduct of its business violates any law, regulation, judgment, agreement, regulatory consent, order or decree applicable to it which, if enforced, would result in a Material Adverse Effect with respect to Seller.

No liability under Sections 4062, 4063, 4064, or 4069 of ERISA has been incurred or is expected by Seller or any ERISA Affiliate to be incurred with respect to any Plan. Neither Seller, nor any ERISA Affiliate, has incurred or reasonably expects to incur any withdrawal liability as a result of a complete or partial withdrawal from a Multiemployer Plan.

With respect to Loans acquired by Seller, all such Loans are in conformity with the applicable Agency Guidelines. Seller is not contemplating the commencement of insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation or consolidation proceedings or the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, conservator, trustee or similar official in respect of Seller or any of its assets. (aa) Servicing. Seller has adequate financial standing, servicing facilities, procedures and experienced personnel necessary for the sound servicing of mortgage loans of the same types as may from time to time constitute Loans and in accordance with Accepted Servicing Practices.

(cc) No Reliance. Seller has made its own independent decisions to enter into the Program Documents and each Transaction and as to whether such Transaction is appropriate and proper for it based upon its own judgment and upon advice from such advisors (including without limitation, legal counsel and accountants) as it has deemed necessary. Seller is not relying upon any advice from Buyer as to any aspect of the Transactions, including without limitation, the legal, accounting or tax treatment of such Transactions.

(dd) Plan Assets. Seller is not an employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3 of Title I of ERISA, or a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code, and the Purchased Loans are not "plan assets" within the meaning of 29 CFR §2510.3-101, as modified by Section 3(42) of ERISA, and transactions by or with Seller are not subject to any state or local statute regulating investments of, or fiduciary obligations with respect to, governmental plans within the meaning of Section 3(32) of ERISA or church plans within the meaning of Section 3(33) of ERISA.

The Seller also waives, to the extent permitted by law (and absent any willful misconduct or gross negligence of Buyer), any defense (other than a defense of payment or performance) the Seller might otherwise have arising from use of nonjudicial process, enforcement and sale of all or any portion of the Purchased Loans and any other Purchased Items or from any other election of remedies. The Seller recognizes that nonjudicial remedies are consistent with the usages of the trade, are responsive to commercial necessity and are the result of a bargain at arm's length.

(h) The Seller shall cause all sums received by the Seller after and during the continuance of an Event of Default with respect to the Purchased Loans to be deposited with such Person as Buyer may direct after receipt thereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Seller shall be liable to Buyer for interest on any amounts owing by Seller hereunder, from the date Seller becomes liable for such amounts hereunder until such amounts are (i) paid in full by Seller or (ii) satisfied in full by the exercise of Buyer's rights hereunder. Interest on any sum payable by Seller to Buyer under this paragraph 19(h) is at a rate equal to the Post-Default Rate and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with hedging or covering transactions related to the Purchased Loans, conduit advances and payments for mortgage insurance.

(i) Without limiting the rights of Buyer hereto to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to Buyer for Seller's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement, Seller acknowledges and agrees that the remedy at law for any failure to perform Obligations hereunder would be inadequate and Buyer is entitled to seek specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure. The availability of these remedies does not prohibit Buyer from pursuing any other remedies for such breach, including the recovery of monetary damages.

20. DELAY NOT WAIVER; REMEDIES ARE CUMULATIVE

No failure on the part of Buyer to exercise, and no delay in exercising, and no course of dealing with respect to, any right, power or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by Buyer of any right, power or remedy hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. All rights and remedies of Buyer provided for herein are cumulative and in addition to any and all other rights and remedies provided by law, the Program Documents and the other instruments and agreements contemplated hereby and thereby, and are not conditional or contingent on any attempt by Buyer to exercise any of its rights under any other related document. Buyer may exercise at any time after the occurrence of an Event of Default one or more remedies, as it so desires, and may thereafter at any time and from time to time exercise any other remedy or remedies. An Event of Default will be deemed to be continuing unless expressly waived by Buyer in writing.

21. NOTICES AND OTHER COMMUNICATIONS

Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement, all notices, requests and other communications provided for herein and under the Custodial Agreement (including, without limitation, any modifications of, or waivers, requests or consents under, this Agreement) shall be given or made in writing (including, without limitation, by telex or telecopy or email) delivered to the intended recipient at the address of such Person set forth in this Section 21 below; or, as to any party, at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to each other party. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and except for notices given by the Seller under Section 3(a) (which shall be effective only on receipt), all such communications shall be deemed to have been duly given when transmitted by telex or telecopier or email or delivered or, in the case of a mailed notice, upon receipt, in each case given or addressed as aforesaid. In all cases, to the extent that the related individual set forth in the respective "Attention" line is no longer employed by the respective Person, such notice may be given to the attention of a Responsible Officer of the respective Person or to the attention of such individual or individuals as subsequently notified in writing by a Responsible Officer of the respective Person.

22. USE OF EMPLOYEE PLAN ASSETS

No assets of an employee benefit plan subject to any provision of ERISA shall be used by either party hereto in a Transaction.

23. INDEMNIFICATION AND EXPENSES.

(a) The Seller agrees to hold Buyer, and its Affiliates and their officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors (each an "Indemnified Party") harmless from and indemnify any Indemnified Party against all liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, costs and expenses of any kind (including reasonable fees of counsel) which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against such Indemnified Party (collectively, the "Costs") relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, or any amendment, supplement or modification of, or any waiver or consent under or in respect of, this Agreement, any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, that, in each case, results from anything other than any Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct or a claim by one Indemnified Party against another Indemnified Party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Seller agrees to hold any Indemnified Party harmless from and indemnify such Indemnified Party against all Costs with respect to all Loans relating to or arising out of any Taxes incurred or assessed in connection with the ownership of the Loans or any violation or alleged violation of any environmental law, rule or regulation or any consumer credit laws, including without limitation laws with respect to unfair or deceptive lending practices and predatory lending practices, the Truth in Lending Act and/or the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, that, in each case, results from anything other than such Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct or a claim by one Indemnified Party against another Indemnified Party. In any suit, proceeding or action brought by an Indemnified Party in connection with any Purchased Loan for any sum owing thereunder, or to enforce any provisions of any Purchased Loan, the Seller will save, indemnify and hold such Indemnified Party harmless from and against all expense, loss or damage suffered by reason of any defense, set-off, counterclaim, recoupment or reduction of liability whatsoever of the account debtor or obligor thereunder, arising out of a breach by the Seller of any obligation thereunder or arising out of any other agreement, indebtedness or liability at any time owing to or in favor of such account debtor or obligor or its successors from the Seller. The Seller also agrees to reimburse an Indemnified Party promptly after billed by such Indemnified Party for all such Indemnified Party's documented, actual, out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement or the preservation of such Indemnified Party's rights under this Agreement, any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, including without limitation the reasonable fees and disbursements of its counsel. The Seller hereby acknowledges that, the obligations of the Seller under this Agreement are recourse obligations of the Seller.

(b) The Seller agrees to pay (within ten (10) Business Days after the Seller receives written demand for such payment from Buyer) all of the documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred by Buyer in connection with the development, preparation and execution of, and any amendment, supplement or modification to, this Agreement, any other Program Document or any other documents prepared in connection herewith or therewith. The Seller agrees to pay (within 10 Business Days after the Seller receives written demand for such payment from Buyer) all of the documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred in connection with the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby including, without limitation, (i) filing fees and all the reasonable fees, disbursements and expenses of counsel to Buyer and (ii) all the due diligence, inspection, testing and review costs and expenses incurred by Buyer with respect to Purchased Items under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, those costs and expenses incurred by Buyer pursuant to this Section 23 and Section 43 hereof; provided, however, that (x) the aggregate amount of such costs and expenses referred to in clause (i) of this sentence shall not exceed $125,000, and (y) the aggregate amount of such costs and expenses referred to in clause (ii) of this sentence and incurred after the Effective Date shall not exceed $10,000 per annum; provided that after the occurrence of an Event of Default, such amounts shall not be applicable. Buyer shall deliver to the Seller copies of documentation supporting any of the foregoing demands on the Seller's request. The Seller, Buyer, and each Indemnified Party also agree not to assert any claim against the others or any of their Affiliates, or any of their respective officers, directors, members, managers, employees, attorneys and agents, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages arising out of or otherwise relating to the Program Documents, the actual or proposed use of the proceeds of the Transactions, this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. THE FOREGOING INDEMNITY AND AGREEMENT NOT TO ASSERT CLAIMS EXPRESSLY APPLIES, WITHOUT LIMITATION, TO THE NEGLIGENCE (BUT NOT GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT) OF THE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES.

(c) If the Seller fails to pay when due any costs, expenses or other amounts payable by it under this Agreement, including, without limitation, reasonable fees and expenses of counsel and indemnities, such amount may be paid on behalf of the Seller by Buyer (including without limitation by Buyer netting such amount from the proceeds of any Purchase Price paid by Buyer to the Seller hereunder), in its sole discretion and the Seller shall remain liable for any such payments by Buyer (except those that are paid by Seller, including by netting against any Purchase Price). No such payment by Buyer shall be deemed a waiver of any of Buyer's rights under the Program Documents (except those that are paid by Seller, including by netting against any Purchase Price).

(d) Without prejudice to the survival of any other agreement of Seller hereunder, the covenants and obligations of Seller contained in this Section 23 shall survive the payment in full of the Repurchase Price and all other amounts payable hereunder and delivery of the Purchased Loans by Buyer against full payment therefor.

(e) The obligations of Seller from time to time to pay the Repurchase Price and all other amounts due under this Agreement are full recourse obligations of Seller.

24. WAIVER OF DEFICIENCY RIGHTS

Seller hereby expressly waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right that it may have to direct the order in which any of the Purchased Items shall be disposed of in the event of any disposition pursuant hereto.

25. REIMBURSEMENT

All sums reasonably expended by Buyer in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy provided for herein shall be and remain Seller's obligation (unless and to the extent that Seller is the prevailing party in any dispute, claim or action relating thereto or Buyer or an Indemnified Party is grossly negligent or engages in willful misconduct relating thereto). The Seller agrees to pay, with interest at the Post-Default Rate to the extent that an Event of Default has occurred, the reasonable, documented out-of-pocket expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees reasonably incurred by Buyer and/or Custodian in connection with the preparation, negotiation, enforcement (including any waivers), administration and amendment of the Program Documents (regardless of whether a Transaction is entered into hereunder), the reasonable taking of any action, including legal action, required or permitted to be taken by Buyer (without duplication to Buyer) and/or Custodian pursuant thereto, subject to Section 23(b), any due diligence, inspection, testing and review costs and expenses in connection with any "due diligence" or loan agent reviews conducted by Buyer or on its behalf or by refinancing or restructuring in the nature of a "workout" all pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

26. FURTHER ASSURANCES

The Seller agrees to do such further acts and things and to execute and deliver to Buyer such additional assignments, acknowledgments, agreements, powers and instruments as are reasonably required by Buyer to carry into effect the intent and purposes of this Agreement and the other Program Documents, to grant, preserve, protect and perfect the interests of Buyer in the Purchased Items or to better assure and confirm unto Buyer its rights, powers and remedies hereunder and thereunder.

27. TERMINATION

This Agreement shall remain in effect until the Termination Date. However, no such termination shall affect the Seller's outstanding obligations to Buyer at the time of such termination. The Seller's obligations under Section 3(g), Section 5, Section 12, Section 23, and Section 25 and any other reimbursement or indemnity obligation of the Seller to Buyer pursuant to this Agreement or any other Program Documents shall survive the termination hereof.

28. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of any Program Document is declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision of the Program Documents, and each Program Document shall be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

29. BINDING EFFECT; GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be binding and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, except that the Seller may not assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or any other Program Document without the prior written consent of Buyer. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, AND GOVERNED BY, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

30. AMENDMENTS

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, any provision of this Agreement may be modified or supplemented only by an instrument in writing signed by the Seller and Buyer and any provision of this Agreement imposing obligations on the Seller or granting rights to Buyer may be waived by Buyer.

31. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

32. CAPTIONS

The table of contents and captions and section headings appearing herein are included solely for convenience of reference and are not intended to affect the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

33. COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument. The parties agree that this Agreement, any documents to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement and any notices hereunder may be transmitted between them by email and/or facsimile. The parties intend that faxed signatures and electronically imaged signatures such as .pdf files shall constitute original signatures and are binding on all parties.

34. SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; WAIVERS

EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY:

(A) SUBMITS FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND/OR ANY OTHER PROGRAM DOCUMENT, OR FOR RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT IN RESPECT THEREOF, TO THE EXCLUSIVE GENERAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, THE FEDERAL COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND APPELLATE COURTS FROM ANY THEREOF;

(B) CONSENTS THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE BROUGHT IN SUCH COURTS AND, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, WAIVES ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE VENUE OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT OR THAT SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING WAS BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT COURT AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM THE SAME;

(C) AGREES THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE EFFECTED BY MAILING A COPY THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL (OR ANY SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR FORM OF MAIL), POSTAGE PREPAID, TO ITS ADDRESS SET FORTH IN SECTION 21 OR AT SUCH OTHER ADDRESS OF WHICH BUYER SHALL HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED; AND

(D) AGREES THAT NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT TO EFFECT SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR SHALL LIMIT THE RIGHT TO SUE IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

35. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

EACH SELLER AND BUYER HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER PROGRAM DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

36. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that:

(a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Program Documents;

(b) Buyer has no fiduciary relationship to the Seller; and

(c) no joint venture exists between Buyer and the Seller.

37. HYPOTHECATION OR PLEDGE OF PURCHASED ITEMS.

Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Buyer from pledging its interest in the Purchased Loans and the related Purchased Items as permitted by the Program Documents. Unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, no such pledge shall relieve Buyer of its obligations under the Program Documents, including, without limitation, Buyer's obligation to transfer Purchased Loans to the Seller pursuant to the terms of the Program Documents, its obligation to return to Seller the exact Purchased Loans and the related Purchased Items and not substitutes therefor and to credit or pay Income to, or apply Income to the obligations of, Seller pursuant to the Program Documents. Nothing contained in this Agreement obligates Buyer to segregate any Purchased Loans or Purchased Items delivered to Buyer by Seller.

38. ASSIGNMENTS; PARTICIPATIONS.

(a) The Seller may assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder only with the prior written consent of Buyer. Buyer may from time to time, with the consent of Seller which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed (provided that no consent shall be required if any such assignment by Buyer is (x) following ten (10) Business Days advanced written notice to Seller, to an Affiliate of Buyer whose creditworthiness, as determined by Seller in its good faith discretion, is not materially weaker than that of Buyer (after taking into account any credit support) and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Buyer or (y) after the occurrence of an Event of Default), assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the Program Documents to any party pursuant to an executed assignment and acceptance by Buyer and the applicable assignee in form and substance acceptable to Buyer ("Assignment and Acceptance"), specifying the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations assigned. On the effective date of any such assignment, (A) such assignee will be a party hereto and to each Program Document to the extent of the percentage or portion set forth in the Assignment and Acceptance, and will succeed to the related rights and obligations of Buyer hereunder, and (B) Buyer will, to the extent of such rights and obligations so assigned, be released from its obligations (but not its rights to the extent such rights are intended to survive any such assignment) hereunder and under the Program Documents.

(b) Buyer may sell participations to one or more Persons in or to all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Program Documents; provided, however, that (i) Buyer's obligations under this Agreement will remain unchanged, (ii) Buyer will remain solely responsible to Seller for the performance of such obligations; (iii) Seller shall continue to deal solely and directly with Buyer in connection with Buyer's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Program Documents except as provided in Section 5; and (iv) the holder of such participation and its respective Affiliates shall not be entitled to the set off rights set forth in this Agreement, including without limitation, in Section 44, and shall not be entitled to conduct due diligence under Section 43, except through Buyer as its representative.

(c) Buyer may furnish any information concerning the Seller or any of its Subsidiaries in the possession of Buyer from time to time to assignees or participants (including prospective assignees and participants) only after notifying the Seller in writing and securing signed confidentiality agreements (in a form mutually acceptable to Buyer and the Seller) and only for the sole purpose of evaluating assignments or participations and for no other purpose.

(d) Upon the Seller's consent to an assignment, the Seller agrees to reasonably cooperate with Buyer in connection with any such assignment, to execute and deliver replacement notes, and to enter into such restatements of, and amendments, supplements and other modifications to, this Agreement and the other Program Documents in order to give effect to such assignment.

(e) Buyer, solely for this purpose as Seller's non-fiduciary agent, shall maintain a register (the "Register") on which it will record each assignment hereunder and each Assignment and Acceptance. The Register will include the name and address of Buyer (including all assignees and successors) and the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations assigned. The entries in the Register will be conclusive absent manifest error. Seller shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register as a Buyer for all purposes of this Agreement; provided however, that any failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation shall not affect Seller's obligations in respect of such rights. This Section 38(e), together with Section 38(f), are intended to comprise a book entry system within the meaning of Treasury regulation section 5f.103-1(c) that is the exclusive way for Buyer (or any of its assignees or successors) to transfer an interest under this Agreement and these provisions shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with and so as to effect such intent.

(f) Buyer shall maintain a participation register (the "Participation Register") on which it shall record each participation. The Participation Register will include the names and addresses of Buyer (including all participants) and the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations participated. The entries in the Participation Register will be conclusive absent manifest error. If Buyer sells a participation in its rights hereunder, it shall promptly provide Seller with and maintain, solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of Seller, the information described in this paragraph and permit Seller to review such information at any time.

The Seller and Buyer acknowledge that, and have entered hereinto and will enter into each Transaction hereunder in consideration of and in reliance upon the fact that, all Transactions hereunder constitute a single business and contractual relationship and have been made in consideration of each other. Accordingly, the Seller and Buyer each agree (i) to perform all of its obligations in respect of each Transaction hereunder, and that a default in the performance of any such obligations shall constitute a default by it in respect of all Transactions hereunder; (ii) that payments, deliveries and other transfers made by any of them in respect of any Transaction shall be deemed to have been made in consideration of payments, deliveries and other transfers in respect of any other Transaction hereunder, and the obligations to make any such payments, deliveries and other transfers may be applied against each other and netted; and (iii) to promptly provide notice to the other after any such set off or application.

40. INTENT

(a) The Seller and Buyer recognize that each Transaction is a "repurchase agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101(47)(A)(i) of Title 11 of the USC, a "securities contract" as that term is defined in Section 741(7)(A)(i) of Title 11 of the USC, and a "master netting agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101(38A)(A) of Title 11 of the USC, that all payments hereunder are deemed "margin payments" or "settlement payments" as defined in Title 11 of the USC, and that the pledge of the Related Security in Section 8(a) hereof is intended to constitute "a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement" that is "related to" the Agreement and Transactions hereunder within the meaning of Sections 101(38A)(A), 101(47)(a)(v) and 741(7)(A)(x) of Title 11 of the USC. Seller and Buyer further recognize and intend that this Repurchase Agreement is an agreement to provide financial accommodations and is not subject to assumption pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 365(a).

(b) It is understood that Buyer's right to liquidate the Purchased Items delivered to it in connection with the Transactions hereunder or to accelerate or terminate this Agreement or otherwise exercise any other remedies pursuant to Section 19 hereof is a contractual right to liquidate, accelerate or terminate such Transaction as described in Sections 555, 559 and 561 of Title 11 of the USC ; any payments or transfers of property made with respect to this Agreement or any Transaction to satisfy a Margin Deficit is considered a "margin payment" as such term is defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 741(5).

(c) The parties further agree that if a party hereto is an "insured depository institution" as such term is defined in the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended ("FDIA"), then each Transaction hereunder is a "qualified financial contract" as that term is defined in the FDIA, and any rules, orders or policy statement thereunder.

(d) It is understood that this Agreement constitutes a "netting contract" as defined in and subject to Title IV of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 ("FDICIA") and each payment entitlement and payment obligation under any transaction hereunder shall constitute a "covered contractual payment entitlement" or "covered contractual payment obligation," respectively, as defined in and subject to FDICIA.

41. CONFIDENTIALITY

(a) Buyer and Seller hereby acknowledge and agree that all written or computer-readable information provided by one party to the other regarding the terms set forth in any of the Program Documents or the Transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or regarding any other confidential or proprietary information of a party, including, without limitation, any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a) (the "Confidential Terms"), will be kept confidential by such party, and will not be divulged to any party without the prior written consent of such other party except to the extent that (i) such information is disclosed to direct or indirect parent companies, Subsidiaries, Affiliates, directors, officers, members, managers, shareholders, legal counsel, auditors, accountants or agents (the "Representatives"); provided that such Representatives are informed of the confidential nature of such information and the disclosing party is responsible for their breach of these confidentiality provisions; provided, further, that with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, financial information provided pursuant to Section 13(a), such financial information is only disclosed to Representatives in connection with the ongoing administration or performance of the Program Documents, (ii) disclosure of such information is required by law, rule, regulation or order of any court, taxing authority, governmental agency or regulatory body, (iii) any of the Confidential Terms are in the public domain other than due to a breach of the provisions of this Section 41, (iv) other than with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a), which shall require Seller's separate and prior written consent to disclose, in the event of an Event of Default Buyer determines such information to be necessary or desirable to disclose in connection with the marketing and sales of the Purchased Loans or otherwise to enforce or exercise Buyer's rights hereunder, (v) other than with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a), which shall require Seller's separate and prior written consent to disclose, disclosure is made to any approved hedge counterparty to the extent necessary to obtain any hedging arrangement, (vi) other than with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a), which shall require Seller's separate and prior written consent to disclose, any such disclosure is made in connection with an offering of securities, (vii) other than with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a), which shall require Seller's separate and prior written consent to disclose, disclosures are made in Seller's financial statements or footnotes, (viii) such disclosures are made to lenders or prospective lenders to Seller, buyers or prospective buyers of Seller's business, sellers or prospective sellers of businesses to Seller and its counsel, accountants, representatives and agents, or (ix) such disclosure is pursuant to Section 38(c). Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Program Document, the parties hereto may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, any fact relevant to understanding the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) relating to such federal, state and local tax treatment and that may be relevant to understanding such tax treatment; provided that, except as provided above, no party may disclose the name of or identifying information with respect to Seller, Buyer, their Affiliates or any other Indemnified Party, or any pricing terms (including, without limitation, the Applicable Margin, Applicable Percentage and Purchase Price) or other nonpublic business or financial information (including any sublimits and financial covenants) that is unrelated to the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions and is not relevant to understanding the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, without the prior written consent of the other parties.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Buyer and Seller shall comply, in all material respects, with all applicable local, state and federal laws, including, without limitation, all privacy and data protection law, rules and regulations that are applicable to the Purchased Loans and/or any applicable terms of this Agreement (the "Confidential Information"). Seller and Buyer shall notify the other parties promptly following discovery of any breach or compromise in any material respect of any applicable requirements of law with respect to the security, confidentiality, or integrity of nonpublic personal information of the customers and consumers of the other parties. Seller and Buyer shall provide such notice to the other parties by personal delivery, by facsimile with confirmation of receipt, or by overnight courier with confirmation of receipt to the applicable requesting individual.

42. SERVICING

(a) Subject to subsection (d) below, the Seller covenants to maintain or cause the servicing of the Purchased Loans to be maintained in conformity with Accepted Servicing Practices and pursuant to the related underlying Servicing Agreement, if any. In the event that the preceding language is interpreted as constituting one or more servicing contracts, each such servicing contract shall terminate automatically upon the earliest of (i) the termination thereof by Buyer pursuant to subsection (d) below,

(ii) thirty one (31) days after the last Purchase Date of such Purchased Loan, (iii) a Default or an Event of Default, (iv) the date on which all the Obligations have been paid in full, or (v) the transfer of servicing to any entity approved by Buyer and the assumption thereof by such entity.

(b) During the period the Seller is servicing the Purchased Loans for Buyer, (i) the Seller agrees that Buyer is the owner of all Servicing Records relating to Purchased Loans that have not been repurchased, including but not limited to any and all servicing agreements, files, documents, records, data bases, computer tapes, copies of computer tapes, proof of insurance coverage, insurance policies, appraisals, other closing documentation, payment history records, and any other records relating to or evidencing the servicing of such Loans (the "Servicing Records"), and (ii) the Seller grants Buyer a security interest in all servicing fees and rights relating to the Purchased Loans that have not been repurchased and all Servicing Records to secure the obligation of the Seller or its designee to service in conformity with this Section 42 and any other obligation of the Seller to Buyer. At all times during the term of this Agreement, the Seller covenants to hold such Servicing Records in trust for Buyer and to safeguard, or cause each Subservicer to safeguard, such Servicing Records and to deliver them, or cause any such Subservicer to deliver them to the extent permitted under the related Servicing Agreement promptly to Buyer or its designee (including the Custodian) at Buyer's reasonable request. It is understood and agreed by the parties that prior to an Event of Default, Seller, as servicer shall retain the servicing fees with respect to the Purchased Loans.

(c) If any Loan that is proposed to be sold on a Purchase Date is serviced by a servicer other than the Seller (a "Subservicer"), or if the servicing of any Purchased Loan is to be transferred to a Subservicer, the Seller shall provide a copy of the related servicing agreement and an Instruction Letter executed by such Subservicer (collectively, the "Servicing Agreement") to Buyer at least one (1) Business Day prior to such Purchase Date or transfer date, as applicable, which Servicing Agreement shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Buyer. In addition, the Seller shall have obtained the prior written consent of Buyer for such Subservicer to subservice the Loans, which consent may not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.

Buyer shall have the right, exercisable at any time in its sole discretion, upon written notice, to terminate Seller or any Subservicers as servicer or subservicer, respectively, and any related Servicing Agreement (to the extent permitted therein) with respect to Purchased Loans that have not been repurchased without payment of any penalty or termination fee. Upon any such termination, the Seller shall transfer or shall cause Subservicer to transfer such servicing with respect to such Purchased Loans to Buyer or its designee, appointed by Buyer in its sole discretion, at no cost or expense to Buyer in accordance with applicable laws and applicable Agency Guidelines. The Seller agrees to cooperate with Buyer in connection with the transfer of servicing.

(d) After the Purchase Date, until the Repurchase Date, the Seller will have no right to modify or alter the terms of the Loan or consent to the modification or alteration of the terms of any Loan, except as required by law, Agency Guidelines, FHA Regulations, requirements for VA Loans, Accepted Servicing Practices, any Program Documents or other requirements, and the Seller will have no obligation or right to repossess any Loan or substitute another Loan, except as provided in any Custodial Agreement or any Program Document, including, without limitation, Section 16 of this Agreement.

(e) The Seller shall permit Buyer to inspect upon reasonable prior written notice at a mutually convenient time the Seller's servicing facilities, as the case may be, for the purpose of satisfying Buyer that the Seller has the ability to service the Loans as provided in this Agreement. In addition, with respect to any Subservicer which is not an Affiliate of the Seller, the Seller shall use its best efforts to enable Buyer to inspect the servicing facilities of such Subservicer.

(f) Seller retains no economic rights to the servicing of the Purchased Loans; provided that Seller shall continue to service the Purchased Loans hereunder as part of its Obligations hereunder. As such, Seller expressly acknowledges that the Purchased Loans are sold to Buyer on a "servicing released" basis.

43. PERIODIC DUE DILIGENCE REVIEW

The Seller acknowledges that Buyer has the right to perform continuing due diligence reviews with respect to the Purchased Loans and Seller, for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties, covenants and specifications made hereunder or under any other Program Document, or otherwise, and the Seller agrees that upon reasonable (but no less than three (3) Business Days') prior notice to the Seller (provided that upon the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default, no such prior notice shall be required), Buyer or its authorized representatives will be permitted during normal business hours to examine, inspect, make copies of, and make extracts of, the Mortgage Files, the Servicing Records and any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Purchased Loans in the possession, or under the control, of the Seller and/or the Custodian. Provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer agrees that it shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts, in the conduct of any such due diligence, to minimize any disruption to Seller's normal course of business. The Seller also shall make available to Buyer a knowledgeable financial or accounting officer for the purpose of answering questions respecting the Mortgage Files and the Purchased Loans. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Seller acknowledges that Buyer shall purchase Loans from the Seller based solely upon the information provided by the Seller to Buyer in the Loan Schedule and the representations, warranties and covenants contained herein, and that Buyer, at its option, has the right, at any time to conduct a partial or complete due diligence review on some or all of the Purchased Loans, including, without limitation, ordering new broker's price opinions, new credit reports, new appraisals on the related Mortgaged Properties and otherwise re-generating the information used to originate such Loan. Buyer may underwrite such Loans itself or engage a mutually agreed upon third party underwriter to perform such underwriting. The Seller agrees to cooperate with Buyer and any third party underwriter in connection with such underwriting, including, but not limited to, providing Buyer and any third party underwriter with reasonable access to any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Purchased Loans in the possession, or under the control, of the Seller. In addition, Buyer has the right to perform continuing Due Diligence Reviews of Purchased Loans for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties, covenants and specifications made hereunder or under any other Program Document, or otherwise. The Seller and Buyer further agree that all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with Buyer's activities pursuant to this Section 43 shall be paid by the Seller subject to the limitations of Section 23(b) of this Agreement.

44. SET-OFF

In addition to any rights and remedies of Buyer provided by this Agreement and by law, Buyer shall have the right, without prior notice to the Seller (except for such notice and right to cure as may be specifically provided hereunder in connection with certain Events of Default), any such notice being expressly waived by the Seller to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by the Seller hereunder (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise), to set-off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all Property and deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by Buyer to or for the credit or the account of the Seller. Buyer may set-off cash, the proceeds of the liquidation of any Purchased Items and all other sums or obligations owed by Buyer to the Seller, against all of the Seller's obligations to Buyer, under this Agreement or under any other agreements between the parties, if such obligations of the Seller are then due, without prejudice to Buyer's right to recover any deficiency. Buyer agrees promptly to notify the Seller after any such set-off and application made by Buyer; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application.

45. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement and the other Program Documents embody the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto and thereto and supersede any and all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings relating to the matters provided for herein and therein. No alteration, waiver, amendments, or change or supplement hereto shall be binding or effective unless the same is set forth in writing signed by a duly authorized representative of each party hereto.

Schedule 1

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES RE: LOANS

Eligible Loans

For purposes of this Schedule 1 and the representations and warranties set forth herein, a breach of a representation or warranty will be deemed to have been cured with respect to a Loan if and when Seller has taken or caused to be taken action such that the event, circumstance or condition that gave rise to such breach no longer adversely affects such Loan. Seller represents and warrants to Buyer that as to each Loan that is subject to a Transaction hereunder, the Seller hereby makes the following representations and warranties to Buyer as of the Purchase Date and as of each date such Loan is subject to a Transaction:

(a) Loans as Described. The information set forth in the Loan Schedule with respect to the Loan is complete, true and correct in all material respects as of the Purchase Date.

(b) Payments Current. No payment required under the Loan is 30 days or more delinquent nor has any payment under the Loan been 30 days or more delinquent at any time since the origination of the Loan.

(c) No Outstanding Charges. There are no defaults in complying with the terms of the Mortgage, and all taxes, governmental assessments, insurance premiums, water, sewer and municipal charges, leasehold payments or ground rents which previously became due and owing have been paid or are not delinquent, or an escrow of funds has been established in an amount sufficient to pay for every such item which remains unpaid and which has been assessed but is not yet due and payable and delinquent. Seller has not advanced funds, or induced, solicited or knowingly received any advance of funds by a party other than the Mortgagor, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any amount required under the Loan, except for interest accruing from the date of the Note or date of disbursement of the Loan proceeds, whichever is earlier, to the day which precedes by one month the Due Date of the first installment of principal and interest.

(d) Original Terms Unmodified. The terms of the Note and Mortgage have not been impaired, waived, altered or modified in any respect, from the date of origination except by a written instrument which has been recorded, if necessary to protect the interests of Buyer, and which has been delivered to the Custodian or to such other Person as Buyer shall designate in writing, and the terms of which are reflected in the Loan Schedule. The substance of any such waiver, alteration or modification has been approved by the issuer of any related PMI Policy and the title insurer, if any, to the extent required by the policy, and its terms are reflected on the Loan Schedule, if applicable. No Mortgagor has been released, in whole or in part, except in connection with an assumption agreement, approved by the issuer of any related PMI Policy and the title insurer, to the extent required by the policy, and which assumption agreement is part of the Mortgage File delivered to the Custodian or to such other Person as Buyer shall designate in writing and the terms of which are reflected in the Loan Schedule.

(e) No Defenses. The Note and the Mortgage are not subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation the defense of usury, nor will the operation of any of the terms of the Note or the Mortgage, or the exercise of any right thereunder, render either the Note or the Mortgage unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation the defense of usury and no such right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto, and no Mortgagor was a debtor in any state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding at, or subsequent to, the time the Loan was originated.

(f) Hazard Insurance. Pursuant to the terms of the Mortgage, all buildings or other improvements upon the Mortgaged Property are insured by a generally acceptable insurer against loss by fire, hazards covered by extended coverage insurance and such other hazards as are provided for in the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD guidelines, as well as all additional requirements set forth in the Agency Guidelines. If required by the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973, as amended, each Loan is covered by a flood insurance policy meeting the applicable requirements of the current guidelines of the Federal Insurance Administration as in effect which policy conforms to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD guidelines. All individual insurance policies contain a standard mortgagee clause naming the Seller and its successors and assigns as mortgagee, and all premiums due and owing thereon have been paid. The Mortgage obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain all such insurance policies at the Mortgagor's cost and expense, and on the Mortgagor's failure to do so, authorizes the holder of the Mortgage to obtain and maintain such insurance at such Mortgagor's cost and expense, and to seek reimbursement therefor from the Mortgagor. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given an opportunity to choose the carrier of the required hazard insurance, provided the policy is not a "master" or "blanket" hazard insurance policy covering a condominium, or any hazard insurance policy covering the common facilities of a planned unit development. The hazard insurance policy is the valid and binding obligation of the insurer and is in full force and effect. Seller has not engaged in, and has no knowledge of the Mortgagor's having engaged in, any act or omission which would impair the coverage of any such policy, the benefits of the endorsement provided for herein, or the validity and binding effect of such policy, including, without limitation, to Seller's knowledge, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other person or entity, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller, in any case, to the extent it would impair coverage under any such policy.

(g) Compliance with Applicable Law. Any and all requirements of any federal, state or local law including, without limitation, usury, truth-in-lending, real estate settlement procedures, consumer credit protection, anti-predatory lending laws, laws covering fair housing, fair credit reporting, community reinvestment, homeowners equity protection, equal credit opportunity, mortgage reform and disclosure laws or unfair and deceptive practices laws applicable to the origination and servicing of such Loan have been complied with in all material respects, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not involve the violation of any such laws or regulations. Seller shall maintain in its possession, available for Buyer's inspection, evidence of compliance with all requirements set forth herein.

(h) No Satisfaction of Mortgage. The Mortgage has not been satisfied, canceled, subordinated or rescinded, in whole or in part, and the Mortgaged Property has not been released from the lien of the Mortgage, in whole or in part, nor has any instrument been executed that would effect any such satisfaction, cancellation, subordination or rescission other than in the case of a release of a portion of the land comprising a Mortgaged Property or a release of a blanket Mortgage which release will not cause the Loan to fail to satisfy the applicable Agency Guidelines. Seller has not waived the performance by the Mortgagor of any action, if the Mortgagor's failure to perform such action would cause the Loan to be in default, nor has the Seller waived any default resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor.

(i) Valid First Lien. Each Mortgage is a valid and subsisting first lien on a single parcel of real estate included in the Mortgaged Property, including all buildings and improvements on the Mortgaged Property and all installations and mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating and air conditioning systems annexed to such buildings, and all additions, alterations and replacements made at any time with respect to the foregoing, subject in all cases to the exceptions to title set forth in the title insurance policy with respect to the related Loan, which exceptions are generally acceptable to prudent mortgage lending companies, the exceptions set forth below and such other exceptions to which similar properties are commonly subject and which do not individually, or in the aggregate, materially and adversely affect the benefits of the security intended to be provided by such Mortgage. The lien of the Mortgage is subject to:

(i) the lien of current real property taxes and assessments not yet delinquent.

(ii) covenants, conditions and restrictions, rights of way, easements and other matters of the public record as of the date of recording acceptable to prudent mortgage lending institutions generally and specifically referred to in the lender's title insurance policy delivered to the originator of the Loan and (a) referred to or otherwise considered in the appraisal made for the originator of the Loan or (b) which do not adversely affect the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property set forth in such appraisal; and

(iii) other matters to which like properties are commonly subject which do not materially interfere with the benefits of the security intended to be provided by the Mortgage or the use, enjoyment, value or marketability of the related Mortgaged Property.

Any security agreement, chattel mortgage or equivalent document related to and delivered in connection with the Loan establishes and creates a valid, subsisting, enforceable and first lien and first priority security interest on the property described therein and Seller has full right to pledge and assign the same to Buyer.

(j) Validity of Mortgage Documents. The Note and the Mortgage and any other agreement executed and delivered by a Mortgagor in connection with a Loan are genuine, and each is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the maker thereof enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization and other laws of general application affecting the rights of creditors and by general equitable principles. All parties to the Note, the Mortgage and any other such related agreement had legal capacity to enter into the Loan and to execute and deliver the Note, the Mortgage and any such agreement, and the Note, the Mortgage and any other such related agreement have been duly and properly executed by other the applicable related parties. No fraud or error, omission, misrepresentation, negligence or similar occurrence with respect to a Loan has taken place on the part of any Person, including without limitation, the Mortgagor, any appraiser, any builder or developer, or any other party involved in the origination or servicing of the Loan or in any mortgage or flood insurance, if applicable, in relation to such Loan. The Seller has reviewed all of the documents constituting the Mortgage File and has made such inquiries as they deem necessary to make and confirm the accuracy of the representations set forth herein.

(k) Full Disbursement of Proceeds. The Loan has been closed and the proceeds of the Loan have been fully disbursed to or for the account of the Mortgagor and there is no further requirement for future advances thereunder and any and all requirements as to completion of any on-site or off-site improvement and as to disbursements of any escrow funds therefor have been complied with. All costs, fees and expenses incurred in making or closing the Loan and the recording of the Mortgage were paid or are in the process of being paid, and the Mortgagor is not entitled to any refund of any amounts paid or due under the Note or Mortgage (excluding refunds that may result from escrow analysis adjustments).

(l) Ownership. Seller is the sole owner and holder of the Loan and the indebtedness evidenced by each Note and upon the sale of the Loans to Buyer, Seller will retain the Mortgage Files or any part thereof with respect thereto not delivered to the Custodian, Buyer or Buyer's designee, in trust for the purpose of servicing and supervising the servicing of each Loan. The Loan is not assigned or pledged to a third party, subject to Takeout Commitments, and Seller has good, indefeasible and marketable title thereto, and has full right to transfer and sell the Loan to Buyer free and clear of any encumbrance, equity, participation interest, lien, pledge, charge, claim or security interest, and has full right and authority subject to no interest or participation of, or agreement with, any other party, to sell and assign each Loan pursuant to this Agreement and following the sale of each Loan, Buyer will hold such Loan free and clear of any encumbrance, equity, participation interest, lien, pledge, charge, claim or security interest, except any security interest created pursuant to this Agreement, subject to Takeout Commitments.

(m) Doing Business. All parties which have had any interest in the Loan, whether as mortgagee, assignee, pledgee or otherwise, are (or, during the period in which they held and disposed of such interest, were) (i) in compliance with any and all applicable licensing requirements of the laws of the state wherein the Mortgaged Property is located, and (ii) either (A) organized under the laws of such state, (B) qualified to do business in such state, (C) a federal savings and loan association, a savings bank or a national bank having a principal office in such state, (D) not doing business in such state, or (E) not otherwise required to be qualified to do business in such state.

(n) Title Insurance. The Loan is covered by either (i) an attorney's opinion of title and abstract of title, the form and substance of which is acceptable to prudent mortgage lending institutions making mortgage loans or reverse mortgage loans, as applicable, in the area wherein the Mortgaged Property is located or (ii) an ALTA lender's title insurance policy, or with respect to any Loan for which the related Mortgaged Property is located in California a CLTA lender's title insurance policy, or other generally acceptable form of policy or insurance acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD and each such title insurance policy is issued by a title insurer acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD and qualified to do business in the jurisdiction where the Mortgaged Property is located, insuring the Seller, its successors and assigns, as to the first priority lien of the Mortgage in the original principal amount of the Loan, subject only to the exceptions contained in clauses (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (l) of this Schedule 1, and in the case of adjustable rate Loans, against any loss by reason of the invalidity or unenforceability of the lien resulting from the provisions of the Mortgage providing for adjustment to the Mortgage Interest Rate and Monthly Payment. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given the opportunity to choose the carrier of the required mortgage title insurance. Additionally, such lender's title insurance policy affirmatively insures ingress and egress, and against encroachments by or upon the Mortgaged Property or any interest therein. The title policy does not contain any special exceptions (other than the standard exclusions) for zoning and uses and has been marked to delete the standard survey exception or to replace the standard survey exception with a specific survey reading. The Seller, its successors and assigns, are the sole insureds of such lender's title insurance policy, and such lender's title insurance policy is valid and remains in full force and effect and will be in force and effect upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No claims have been made under such lender's title insurance policy, and no prior holder of the related Mortgage, including Seller, has done, by act or omission, anything which would impair the coverage of such lender's title insurance policy, including without limitation, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other Person, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller.

(o) No Defaults. There is no default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration existing under the Mortgage or the Note and no event which, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration, and neither Seller nor any of its predecessors, have waived any default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration.

(p) No Mechanics' Liens. At origination, there were no mechanics' or similar liens or claims which have been filed for work, labor or material (and no rights are outstanding that under law could give rise to such liens) affecting the related Mortgaged Property which are or may be liens prior to, or equal to, the lien of the related Mortgage.

(q) Location of Improvements; No Encroachments. All improvements which were considered in determining the Appraised Value of the related Mortgaged Property lay wholly within the boundaries and building restriction lines of the Mortgaged Property, and no improvements on adjoining properties encroach upon the Mortgaged Property, except those which are insured against by the related title insurance policy. No improvement located on or being part of the Mortgaged Property is in violation of any applicable zoning law or regulation.

(r) Origination. The Loan was originated by or in conjunction with a mortgagee approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act, a savings and loan association, a savings bank, a commercial bank, credit union, insurance company or similar banking institution which is supervised and examined by a federal or state authority. Principal payments on the Loan commenced no more than 60 days after funds were disbursed in connection with the Loan. The Mortgage Interest Rate as well as the lifetime rate cap and the periodic cap are as set forth on the Loan Schedule, as applicable. The Note is payable in equal monthly installments of principal and interest, which installments of interest, with respect to adjustable rate Loans, are subject to change due to the adjustments to the Mortgage Interest Rate on each date on which an adjustment to the Mortgage Interest Rate with respect to each Loan becomes effective, with interest calculated and payable in arrears, sufficient to amortize the Loan fully by the stated maturity date, over an original term of not more than 30 years from commencement of amortization. The Due Date of the first payment under the Note is no more than 60 days from the date of the Note.

(s) Payment Provisions. Principal payments on the Loan commenced no more than sixty days after the proceeds of the Loan were disbursed. With respect to each Loan, the Note is payable on the first day of each month in Monthly Payments. The Note does not permit negative amortization. There are no convertible Loans which contain a provision allowing the Mortgagor to convert the Note from an adjustable interest rate Note to a fixed interest rate Note.

(t) Customary Provisions. The Mortgage contains customary and enforceable provisions such as to render the rights and remedies of the holder thereof adequate for the realization against the Mortgaged Property of the benefits of the security provided thereby, including, (i) in the case of a Mortgage designated as a deed of trust, by trustee's sale, and (ii) otherwise by judicial foreclosure, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. Upon default by a Mortgagor on a Loan and foreclosure on, or trustee's sale of, the Mortgaged Property pursuant to the proper procedures, the holder of the Loan will be able to deliver good and merchantable title to the Mortgaged Property, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. There is no homestead or other exemption available to the Mortgagor that would interfere with the right to sell the related Mortgaged Property at a trustee's sale or the right to foreclose on the related Mortgage, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption.

(u) Collection Practices; Escrow Deposits; Interest Rate Adjustments. The origination and collection practices and servicing used by Seller with respect to each Note and Mortgage are in compliance in all material respects with Accepted Servicing Practices and applicable law. The Loan has been serviced by Seller and any predecessor servicer in accordance with the terms of the Note. With respect to escrow deposits and Escrow Payments, if any, all such payments are in the possession of, or under the control of, Seller and there exist no deficiencies in connection therewith for which customary arrangements for repayment thereof have not been made. All Escrow Payments have been collected in full compliance with state and federal law. Each escrow of funds that has been established is not prohibited by applicable law. No escrow deposits or Escrow Payments or other charges or payments due Seller have been capitalized under the Mortgage or the Note. All Mortgage Interest Rate adjustments have been made in strict compliance with state and federal law and the terms of the related Note. Any interest required to be paid on escrowed funds pursuant to state, federal and local law has been properly paid and credited.

(v) Conformance with Agency Guidelines. The Loan was underwritten in accordance with the Agency Guidelines. The Note and Mortgage (exclusive of any riders) are on forms similar to those used by or acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, as applicable, and neither Seller has made any representations to a Mortgagor that are inconsistent with the mortgage instruments used. The methodology used in underwriting the extension of credit for each Loan is in accordance with Agency Guidelines or employs objective quantitative principles which relate the Mortgagor's credit characteristics, income, assets and liabilities (as applicable to a particular underwriting program) to the proposed payment, and such underwriting methodology does not rely on the extent of the Mortgagor's equity in the collateral as the principal determining factor in approving such credit extension.

(w) No Additional Collateral. The Note is not and has not been secured by any collateral except the lien of the corresponding Mortgage on the Mortgaged Property and the security interest of any applicable security agreement or chattel mortgage referred to in (i) above.

(x) Appraisal. Unless the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD requires otherwise, the Mortgage File contains an appraisal of the related Mortgaged Property which satisfied the applicable standards of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac and was made and signed prior to the approval of the Loan application by a qualified appraiser, duly appointed by Seller or the originator of the Loan, who had no interest, direct or indirect in the Mortgaged Property or in any loan made on the security thereof, and whose compensation is not affected by the approval or disapproval of the Loan, and the appraisal and appraiser both satisfy the requirements of the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD and Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, all as in effect on the date the Loan was originated. Seller makes no representation or warranty regarding the value of the Mortgaged Property.

(y) Deeds of Trust. In the event the Mortgage constitutes a deed of trust, a trustee, authorized and duly qualified under applicable law to serve as such, has been properly designated and currently so serves and is named in the Mortgage, and no fees or expenses, except as may be required by local law, are or will become payable by Buyer to the trustee under the deed of trust, except in connection with a trustee's sale after default by the Mortgagor.

(z) Delivery of Mortgage Documents. The Note, the Mortgage, the Assignment of Mortgage (other than for a MERS Loan) and any other documents required to be delivered under the Custodial Agreement for each Loan have been delivered to the Custodian, except as otherwise provided in the Custodial Agreement. Seller is, or an agent of Seller is, in possession of a complete, true and materially accurate Mortgage File in compliance with the Custodial Agreement, except for such documents the originals of which have been delivered to the Custodian and except as otherwise provided in the Custodial Agreement.

(aa) No Buydown Provisions; No Graduated Payments or Contingent Interests. Except for Loans made in connection with employee relocations, no Loan contains provisions pursuant to which Monthly Payments are (a) paid or partially paid with funds deposited in any separate account established by Seller, the Mortgagor, or anyone on behalf of the Mortgagor, (b) paid by any source other than the Mortgagor or (c) contains any other similar provisions which may constitute a "buydown" provision. Except for Loans made in connection with employee relocations, the Loan is not a graduated payment Loan and the Loan does not have a shared appreciation or other contingent interest feature. Such employee relocation Loans are identified on the related Loan Schedule.

(bb) Mortgagor Acknowledgment. The Mortgagor has executed a statement to the effect that the Mortgagor has received all disclosure materials to the extent required by applicable law with respect to the making of fixed rate Loans and adjustable rate Loans and rescission materials with respect to refinanced Loans. Seller shall maintain such statement in the Mortgage File.

(cc) No Construction Loans. No Loan was made in connection with the construction or rehabilitation of a Mortgaged Property or facilitating the trade in or exchange of a Mortgaged Property.

(dd) Acceptable Investment. To Seller's actual knowledge, there are no specific circumstances or conditions with respect to the Mortgage, the Mortgaged Property, the Mortgagor, the Mortgage File or the Mortgagor's credit standing that are reasonably expected to (i) cause private institutional investors which invest in loans similar to the Loan, to regard the Loan as an unacceptable investment, or (ii) adversely affect the value of the Loan in comparison to similar loans.

(ee) LTV, PMI Policy. Except as approved by one of the Agencies, FHA, VA or HUD, no Loan has an LTV greater than 100%. If required by the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, the Loan is insured by a PMI Policy. All provisions of any PMI Policy have been and are being complied with, such policy is in full force and effect, and all premiums due thereunder have been paid. No action, inaction, or event has occurred and no state of facts exists that has, or will result in the exclusion from, denial of, or defense to coverage. Any Loan subject to a PMI Policy obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain the PMI Policy and to pay all premiums and charges in connection therewith. The Mortgage Interest Rate for the Loan as set forth on the Loan Schedule is net of any such insurance premium.

(ff) Capitalization of Interest. The Note does not by its terms provide for the capitalization or forbearance of interest.

(gg) No Equity Participation. No document relating to the Loan provides for any contingent or additional interest in the form of participation in the cash flow of the Mortgaged Property or a sharing in the appreciation of the value of the Mortgaged Property. The indebtedness evidenced by the Note is not convertible to an ownership interest in the Mortgaged Property or the Mortgagor and Seller has not financed nor does it own directly or indirectly, any equity of any form in the Mortgaged Property or the Mortgagor.

(hh) Proceeds of Loan. The proceeds of the Loan have not been and shall not be used to satisfy, in whole or in part, any debt owed or owing by the Mortgagor to Seller, except in connection with a refinanced Loan.

(ii) Origination Date. The origination date is no earlier than ninety (90) days prior to the related Purchase Date.

(jj) No Exception. Custodian has not noted any material Exceptions on a Custodial Loan Transmission with respect to the Loan which would materially adversely affect the Loan or Buyer's interest in the Loan.

(kk) Occupancy of Mortgaged Property. The occupancy status of the Mortgaged Property is in accordance with Agency Guidelines. All inspections, licenses and certificates required to be made or issued with respect to all occupied portions of the Mortgaged Property and, with respect to the use and occupancy of the same, including but not limited to certificates of occupancy and fire underwriting certificates, have been made or obtained from the appropriate authorities.

(ll) Transfer of Loans. Except with respect to Loans registered with MERS, the Assignment of Mortgage is in recordable form and is acceptable for recording under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Mortgaged Property is located.

(mm) Consolidation of Future Advances. Any future advances made to the Mortgagor prior to the origination of the Loan have been consolidated with the outstanding principal amount secured by the Mortgage, and the secured principal amount, as consolidated, bears a single interest rate and single repayment term. The lien of the Mortgage securing the consolidated principal amount is expressly insured as having first lien priority by a title insurance policy, an endorsement to the policy insuring the mortgagee's consolidated interest or by other title evidence acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, as applicable. The consolidated principal amount does not exceed the original principal amount of the Loan.

(nn) No Balloon Payment. No Loan has a balloon payment feature.

(oo) Condominiums/ Planned Unit Developments. If the Mortgaged Property is a condominium unit or a unit in a planned unit development (other than a de minimis planned unit development) such condominium or planned unit development project is (i) acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD or (ii) located in a condominium or planned unit development project which has received project approval from the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD. The representations and warranties required by the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD with respect to such condominium or planned unit development have been satisfied and remain true and correct.

(pp) Downpayment. The source of the down payment with respect to each Loan has been verified in accordance with applicable Agency Guidelines.

(qq) Mortgaged Property Undamaged; No Condemnation Proceedings. There is no proceeding pending or threatened in writing for the total or partial condemnation of the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgaged Property is undamaged by waste, fire, earthquake or earth movement, windstorm, flood, tornado or other casualty so as to affect adversely the value of the Mortgaged Property as security for the Loan or the use for which the premises were intended and each Mortgaged Property is in good repair.

(rr) No Violation of Environmental Laws. To the knowledge of Seller, there exists no violation of any local, state or federal environmental law, rule or regulation with respect to the Mortgaged Property. To the knowledge of Seller, there is no pending action or proceeding directly involving the Mortgaged Property in which compliance with any environmental law, rule or regulation is an issue.

(ss) Location and Type of Mortgaged Property. Other than with respect to a leasehold estate, the Mortgaged Property is a fee simple property located in the state identified in the Loan Schedule. Mortgaged Property that is a leasehold estate meets the guidelines of the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, as applicable. The Mortgaged Property consists of a single parcel of real property with a detached single family residence erected thereon, a townhouse, or a two to four-family dwelling, or an individual condominium in a low rise or high-rise condominium, or an individual unit in a planned unit development or a de minimis planned unit development and that no residence or dwelling is (i) a mobile home or (ii) a manufactured home, provided, however, that any condominium or planned unit development shall not fall within any of the "Ineligible Projects" of part VIII, Section 102 of the Fannie Mae Selling Guide and shall conform with the Agency Guidelines. The Mortgaged Property is not raw land. As of the date of origination, no portion of the Mortgaged Property was used for commercial purposes, and since the date of origination, no portion of the Mortgaged Property has been used for commercial purposes; provided, that Mortgaged Properties which contain a home office shall not be considered as being used for commercial purposes as long as the entire Mortgaged Property has not been altered for commercial purposes and no portion of the Mortgaged Property is storing any chemicals or raw materials other than those commonly used for homeowner repair, maintenance and/or household purposes.

(tt) Due on Sale. The Mortgage contains an enforceable provision for the acceleration of the payment of the unpaid principal balance of the Loan in the event that the Mortgaged Property is sold or transferred without the prior written consent of the mortgagee thereunder.

(uu) Servicemembers Civil Relief Act of 2003. The Mortgagor has not notified Seller, and Seller has no knowledge of any relief requested or allowed to the Mortgagor under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act of 2003.

Litigation

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO MASTER REPURCHASE AGREEMENT

Amendment No. 1 to Master Repurchase Agreement, dated as of July 26, 2016 (this "Amendment"), by and between QUICKEN LOANS INC. (the "Seller") and ROYAL BANK OF CANADA (the "Buyer").

RECITALS

Buyer and Seller are parties to that certain Master Repurchase Agreement, dated as of July 29, 2015 (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Existing Repurchase Agreement"; and as further amended by this Amendment, the "Master Repurchase Agreement").

Buyer and Seller have agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of this Amendment, that the Existing Repurchase Agreement be amended to reflect certain agreed upon revisions to the terms of the Existing Repurchase Agreement.

Accordingly, Buyer and Seller hereby agree, in consideration of the mutual promises and mutual obligations set forth herein, that the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions and Accounting Matters. Section 2 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by:

1.1 deleting the definition of "Cash Equivalents" in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

"Cash Equivalents" shall mean (a) securities with maturities of [] or less from the date of acquisition issued or fully guaranteed or insured by the United States Government or any agency thereof, (b) certificates of deposit and eurodollar time deposits with maturities of [] or less from the date of acquisition and overnight bank deposits of any commercial bank having capital and surplus in excess of [], (c) repurchase obligations of any commercial bank satisfying the requirements of clause (b) of this definition, having a term of not more than seven days with respect to securities issued or fully guaranteed or insured by the United States Government, (d) commercial paper of a domestic issuer rated at least A-1 or the equivalent thereof by Standard and Poor's Ratings Group ("S&P") or P-1 or the equivalent thereof by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") and in either case maturing within [] after the day of acquisition, (e) securities with maturities of [] or less from the date of acquisition issued or fully guaranteed by any state, commonwealth or territory of the United States, by any political subdivision or taxing authority of any such state, commonwealth or territory or by any foreign government, the securities of which state, commonwealth, territory, political subdivision, taxing authority or foreign government (as the case may be) are rated at least A by S&P or A by Moody's, (f) securities with maturities of [] or less from the date of acquisition backed by standby letters of credit issued by any commercial bank satisfying the requirements of clause (b) of this definition, (g) shares of money market mutual or similar funds, (h) [] of the unencumbered marketable securities in Seller's accounts (or the account of Seller's Affiliates) or (i) the Maximum Current Advance Capacity.

1.2 deleting all references to "Committed Amount" in their entirety and replacing them with "Base Amount".

1.3 deleting all references to "Uncommitted Amount" in their entirety and replacing them with "Incremental Amount".

1.4 adding the following definitions in their proper alphabetical order:

"Excess Margin Notice" shall have the meaning provided in Section 4(a)(ii) hereof.

"Margin Excess" shall have the meaning provided in Section 4(a)(ii) hereof.

"Maximum Current Advance Capacity" means, as of any date of determination with respect to each secured mortgage warehouse or similar financing facility, including this Agreement and also including any of Seller's other repurchase, credit or similar agreements for warehouse or similar financing of Seller's mortgage loans or mortgage-backed securities that has been amended to provide, or in which the parties have otherwise agreed, that over/under accounts, buydown accounts or other similar accounts or deposits of Seller's funds held by the buyer or lender under such agreement are no longer permitted, an amount equal to the excess of (x) the lesser of (i) the credit, funding or aggregate outstanding purchase price limit of such facility, including both committed and uncommitted amounts, and (ii) the aggregate borrowing base, asset value or other method of determining the maximum loan or purchase value of the assets sold, pledged or assigned to the buyer or lender under such agreement (with such value being determined in accordance with the methodology set forth in such agreement for determining the purchase or loan value of such assets under any margin test or borrowing base valuation method specified therein, including, without limitation, application of any applicable haircuts), minus (y) the aggregate purchase price or the advanced and unpaid principal amount of all outstanding transactions under such agreement.

"New Maturity Date" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Pricing Side Letter.

"Original Maturity Date" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Pricing Side Letter.

SECTION 2. Payments. Section 4 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by:

2.1 adding the following as subsection (a)(i) thereto:

(i) Prepayment. Seller may remit to Buyer funds up to the then outstanding Purchase Price less the Base Amount, to be applied as of the date such funds are received by Buyer towards the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price of Purchased Loans subject to outstanding Transactions on a pro rata basis. The Price Differential shall be applied, and shall accrue on the Purchase Price then outstanding, after such application of such funds as provided in the preceding sentence, subject to paragraph (ii) below.

2.2 adding the following as subsection (a)(ii) thereto:

(ii) New Transactions. If at any time the Market Value (assuming for purposes of this subsection that Market Value does not exceed the unpaid principal balance of the related Purchased Loan) of the aggregate of all Purchased Loans subject to a Transaction hereunder as of any date of determination multiplied by the Applicable Percentage is greater than the aggregate Purchase Price of all Purchased Loans subject to a Transaction hereunder as of such date (a "Margin Excess"), then Seller may, by delivery of written notice to Buyer by 11:00 a.m. (Eastern Time) on any Business Day (an "Excess Margin Notice"), request that Buyer, as Seller elects, either to (i) remit additional Purchase Price in an amount equal to the lesser of (x) such Margin Excess and (y) the amount requested by Seller (but subject to Buyer's consent in its sole discretion) or (ii) reallocate the Purchase Price to Purchased Loans with Margin Excess in order to release Purchased Loans which, following such reallocation, will have a Purchase Price of zero. In no event shall Buyer be obligated to remit Margin Excess or release Purchased Loans pursuant to clause (i) or (ii) above to the extent (A) it would cause the outstanding Purchase Price to exceed the Maximum Aggregate Purchase Price or otherwise be inconsistent with the requirements or conditions of this Agreement; (B) a Default has occurred and is continuing or would exist after such action by Buyer or (C) such action would cause a Margin Deficit. Any Margin Excess remitted as cash shall be deemed an increase in Purchase Price.

SECTION 3. Representations and Warranties. Section 12 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by deleting the second sentence of subsection (o) in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

The ratio of the Seller's consolidated (a) Indebtedness minus Liabilities to (b) Adjusted Tangible Net Worth is not, as of the last day of the most recently completed calendar month, greater than the Maximum Leverage Ratio.

SECTION 4. Covenants. Section 13 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by deleting subsection (q)(i) in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

(i) Maintenance of Leverage. Seller shall not, as of the end of each calendar month, permit the ratio of Seller's (a) consolidated Indebtedness minus Liabilities to (b) consolidated Adjusted Tangible Net Worth to be greater than the Maximum Leverage Ratio.

SECTION 5. Remedies. Section 19 of the Existing Repurchase Agreement is hereby amended by:

5.1 deleting subsection (a)(i) in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

(i) Buyer has the right on any Business Day to cause the Repurchase Date for each Transaction hereunder, if it has not already occurred, to immediately occur (provided that, in the event that the Purchase Date for any Transaction has not yet occurred as of the date of such exercise, such Transaction may be deemed immediately canceled). Buyer shall (except for deemed exercises) give written notice to Seller of the exercise of such option as promptly as practicable.

(A) The Seller's obligations hereunder to repurchase all Purchased Loans at the Repurchase Price therefor on the Repurchase Date (determined in accordance with the preceding sentence) in such Transactions shall thereupon become immediately due and payable; all Income then on deposit in the Collection Account and all Income paid after such exercise or deemed exercise shall be remitted to and retained by Buyer and applied to the aggregate Repurchase Price and any other amounts owing by the Seller hereunder; the Seller shall immediately deliver to Buyer or its designee any and all Purchased Loans, original papers, Servicing Records and files relating to the Purchased Loans subject to such Transaction then in the Seller's possession and/or control; and all right, title and interest in and entitlement to such Purchased Loans and Servicing Rights thereon shall be deemed transferred to Buyer or its designee; provided, however, in the event that the Seller repurchases any Purchased Loan pursuant to this Section 19(a)(i), Buyer shall deliver to Seller any and all original papers, records and files relating to such Purchased Loan then in its possession and/or control.

(B) To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Repurchase Price with respect to each such Transaction shall be increased by the aggregate amount obtained by daily application of, on a 360 day per year basis for the actual number of days during the period from and including the date of the exercise or deemed exercise of such option to but excluding the date of payment of the Repurchase Price as so increased, (x) the Post-Default Rate in effect following an Event of Default to (y) the Repurchase Price for such Transaction as of the Repurchase Date as determined pursuant to subsection (a)(i)(A) of this Section (decreased as of any day by (i) any amounts actually in the possession of Buyer pursuant to clause (C) of this subsection, (ii) any proceeds from the sale of Purchased Loans applied to the Repurchase Price pursuant to subsection (a)(ii) of this Section, and (iii) any other Purchased Items, Related Security or other assets of Seller held by Buyer and applied to the Obligation.

(C) All Income actually received by Buyer pursuant to Section 7 or otherwise shall be applied to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Price owed by Seller.

5.2 deleting subsection (a)(ii) in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

(ii) Buyer shall have the right to, at any time on or following the Business Day following the date on which the Repurchase Price became due and payable pursuant to Section 19(a)(i), (A) sell, without notice or demand of any kind, at a public or private sale and at such price or prices as Buyer may deem to be commercially reasonable for cash or for future delivery without assumption of any credit risk, any or all or portions of the Purchased Loans and Purchased Items on a servicing released basis and apply the proceeds thereof to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Prices and any other amounts owing by Seller hereunder or (B) in its good faith discretion elect, in lieu of selling all or a portion of such Purchased Loans, to give Seller credit for such Purchased Loans, Purchased Items, Related Security or other assets of Seller held by Buyer in an amount equal to the Market Value of the Purchased Loans (provided that Buyer shall solicit at least three (3) third party bids) against the aggregate unpaid Repurchase Price and any other amounts owing by Seller hereunder. The date of sale or giving such credit by Buyer may be determined by Buyer in its good faith discretion and such date shall be considered the date of liquidation hereunder for all purposes, including without limitation Section 562 of the Bankruptcy Code. Such credit shall be applied to the Obligations and Buyer's related expenses as determined by Buyer in its good faith discretion. Buyer may purchase any or all of the Purchased Loans at any public or private sale.

5.3 deleting subsection (f) in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

(f) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or by applicable law, Buyer shall have the right to exercise any of its rights and/or remedies upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, and/or at any time thereafter, with notice to Seller, without presentment, demand, protest or further notice of any kind other than as expressly set forth herein, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Seller. All rights and remedies arising under this Agreement as amended from time to time hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies which Buyer may have.

Litigation

[Attached]

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

Schedule 12(c)

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken. These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

MASTER REPURCHASE AGREEMENT

THIS MASTER REPURCHASE AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of October 16, 2015 by and between Bank of America, N.A., a national banking association ("Buyer"), and Quicken Loans Inc., a Michigan corporation ("Seller").

RECITALS

A. Seller has requested Buyer to enter into transactions with Seller whereby Seller may, from time to time, sell to Buyer certain residential mortgage loans (including the Servicing Rights related thereto) and/or other mortgage related assets and interests, against the transfer of funds by Buyer, with a simultaneous agreement by Buyer to sell to Seller such purchased assets at a date certain or on demand after the Purchase Date, against the transfer of funds by Seller (each such transaction, a "Transaction").

B. Buyer has agreed to enter into such Transactions, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual rights and obligations provided herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, Seller and Buyer agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1
DEFINITIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF CONSTRUCTION

1.1 Defined Terms. As used in this Agreement, capitalized terms shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A hereto, unless the context otherwise requires. All such defined terms shall, unless specifically provided to the contrary, have the defined meanings set forth herein when used in any other agreement, certificate or document made or delivered pursuant hereto.

1.2 Interpretation; Principles of Construction. The following rules of this Section 1.2 apply unless the context requires otherwise. A gender includes all genders. Where a word or phrase is defined, its other grammatical forms have a corresponding meaning. A reference to a subsection, Section, Schedule or Exhibit is, unless otherwise specified, a reference to a Section of, or schedule or exhibit to, this Agreement. A reference to a party to this Agreement or another agreement or document includes the party's successors and permitted substitutes or assigns. A reference to an agreement or document (including any Principal Agreement) is to the agreement or document as amended, modified, novated, supplemented or replaced, except to the extent prohibited thereby or by any Principal Agreement and in effect from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof. A reference to legislation or to a provision of legislation includes a modification or re-enactment of it, a legislative provision substituted for it and a regulation or statutory instrument issued under it. A reference to writing includes a facsimile transmission and any means of reproducing words in a tangible and permanently visible form. A reference to conduct includes, without limitation, an omission, statement or undertaking, whether or not in writing. The words "hereof", "herein", "hereunder" and similar words refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The term "including" is not limiting and means "including without limitation". In the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word "from" means "from and including", the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding", and the word "through" means "to and including".

A reference to an agreement includes a security interest, guarantee, agreement or legally enforceable arrangement whether or not in writing related to such agreement.

A reference to a document includes an agreement (as so defined) in writing or a certificate, notice, instrument or document, or any information recorded in electronic form. At the request of Buyer, where Seller is required to provide any document to Buyer under the terms of this Agreement, the document may be provided in printed form or both printed and electronic form.

This Agreement is the result of negotiations among, and has been reviewed by counsel to, Buyer and Seller, and is the product of all parties. In the interpretation of this Agreement, no rule of construction shall apply to disadvantage one party on the ground that such party proposed or was involved in the preparation of any particular provision of this Agreement or this Agreement itself. Except where otherwise expressly stated, Buyer may give or withhold, or give conditionally, approvals and consents and may form opinions and make determinations at its sole and absolute discretion. Any requirement of good faith, discretion or judgment by Buyer shall not be construed to require Buyer to request or await receipt of information or documentation not immediately available from or with respect to Seller, a servicer of the Purchased Mortgage Loans, any other Person or the Purchased Assets themselves. All references herein or in any Principal Agreement to "good faith" means good faith as defined in Section 1-201(19) of the Uniform Commercial Code.

AMOUNT AND TERMS OF TRANSACTIONS

2.1 Agreement to Enter into Transactions. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and provided that no Event of Default or Potential Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer shall, from time to time during the term of this Agreement, enter into Transactions with Seller; provided, however, that (a) the Aggregate Outstanding Purchase Price as of any date shall not exceed the Aggregate Transaction Limit and (b) the Aggregate Outstanding Purchase Price for any Type of Transaction shall not exceed the applicable Type Sublimit. Buyer shall have the obligation to enter into Transactions with an Aggregate Outstanding Purchase Price equal to or less than the Committed Amount, and Buyer shall have no obligation to enter into Transactions with respect to the Uncommitted Amount. All purchases of Purchased Assets shall be first deemed committed up to the Committed Amount and then the remainder, if any, shall be deemed uncommitted up the Uncommitted Amount. Seller may request Transactions in excess of the Aggregate Transaction Limit and Buyer may, from time to time, in its sole and absolute discretion, consent to a Temporary Increase of the Aggregate Transaction Limit in accordance with Section 2.10.

2.2 Transaction Limits. The Aggregate Transaction Limit and each Type Sublimit shall be as set forth in the Transactions Terms Letter. Buyer shall, subject to the terms herein, have the right to cease entering into new Transactions and require the repurchase of any such Purchased Assets, or reduce, whether permanently or temporarily, and without refund of any fee or other amount previously paid by Seller, the Aggregate Transaction Limit and/or each Type Sublimit by an amount up to the Uncommitted Amount; provided, however, that Buyer shall give Seller no less than two (2) Business Days prior written notice thereof, which notice shall designate (a) the effective date of any such reduction, which with respect to any Purchased Asset then subject to a Transaction shall not apply until the expiration of the Maximum Dwell Time applicable to such Purchased Asset, (b) the amount of the reduction and (c) the Transaction and/or Type Sublimit limit(s) to which such reduction amount shall apply. Buyer shall not be liable to Seller for any costs, losses or damages arising from or relating to a reduction by Buyer in the Aggregate Transaction Limit or any Type Sublimit made in accordance with this section.

2.3 Description of Purchased Assets. With respect to each Transaction, Seller shall cause to be maintained with Buyer Purchased Assets with an Asset Value not less than, at any date, the related Purchase Price for such Transaction. With respect to each Transaction, the type of Purchased Asset shall be the type of Asset as specified in the Transactions Terms Letter as the Type, and in each case shall consist of the type of mortgage loans, mortgage related securities, or interests therein as described in Bankruptcy Code Section 101(47)(A). If there is uncertainty as to the Type of a Purchased Asset, Buyer shall determine the correct Type for such Purchased Asset in its good faith discretion.

2.4 Maximum Transaction Amounts. The Purchase Price for each proposed Transaction shall not exceed the lesser of:

(a) the Aggregate Outstanding Purchase Price for the applicable Type Sublimit (after giving effect to all Transactions then subject to the Agreement), as determined by the Type of Purchased Asset;

(b) the Aggregate Transaction Limit (as such amount may be increased from time to time in the sole discretion of Buyer as provided in Section 2.10), minus the Aggregate Outstanding Purchase Price of all other Transactions outstanding, if any; and

(c) the Asset Value of the related Purchased Asset(s).

2.5 Use of Proceeds. Seller shall use the Purchase Price of each Transaction solely for the purpose of originating and/or acquiring the related Purchased Asset(s).

2.6 Price Differential.

(a) Price Differential. Notwithstanding that Buyer and Seller intend that the Transactions hereunder be sales by Seller to Buyer of the Purchased Assets for all purposes except accounting and tax purposes, Seller shall pay Buyer interest on the Purchase Price for each Purchased Asset from the Purchase Date until, but not including, the date on which the Repurchase Price is paid, at an annual rate equal to the Price Differential; provided that if the Repurchase Price for a Transaction is not paid by Seller when due (whether at the Repurchase Date, upon acceleration or otherwise), the Repurchase Price shall bear a Price Differential from the date due until paid in full at an annual rate equal to the Default Rate. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the date on which a Purchased Asset is deemed to be a Noncompliant Asset, the Purchase Price for such Purchased Asset shall bear a Price Differential at an annual rate equal to the sum of the Applicable Pricing Rate plus the Type Margin for a Noncompliant Asset.

(b) Time for Payment. Price Differential with respect to any Purchased Asset shall be due and payable on the Payment Date occurring in the second month following the related Purchase Date and thereafter on each subsequent Payment Date. On the date that the Repurchase Price for a Purchased Asset is paid, all accrued Price Differential not otherwise paid by the Seller with respect to such Purchased Asset shall be due and payable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.6(b), in the event the Asset Value of any Purchased Asset is marked to zero and Seller requests Buyer to release its security interest in such Purchased Asset or any Purchased Items related thereto, Buyer shall not release any such security interest therein unless and until Seller shall have paid to Buyer the Repurchase Price for such Purchased Asset.

(c) Computations. All computations of Price Differential and fees payable hereunder shall be based upon the actual number of days (including the first day but excluding the last day) occurring in the relevant period, and a three-hundred sixty (360) day year.

2.7 All Transactions are "Servicing Released". The sale of Mortgage Loans by Seller to Buyer pursuant to Transactions under this Agreement includes the Servicing Rights related to the Mortgage Loans and all Transactions under this Agreement are "servicing released" purchase and sale transactions for all intents and purposes, it being understood that the Purchase Price paid by Buyer to Seller for each such Mortgage Loan includes a premium that compensates Seller for the Servicing Rights related to the Mortgage Loan and upon payment of the Purchase Price by Buyer to Seller, Buyer becomes the owner of the Mortgage Loan and the Servicing Rights related thereto.

2.8 Terms and Conditions of Transactions. The terms and conditions of the Transactions as set forth in the Transactions Terms Letter, this Agreement or otherwise may be changed from time to time by mutual agreement between Buyer and Seller. The terms and conditions of the Transactions Terms Letter are hereby incorporated and form a part of this Agreement as if fully set forth herein; provided however, to the extent of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Transactions Terms Letter, the Transactions Terms Letter shall control.

2.9 Reserved.

2.10 Temporary Increase of Aggregate Transaction Limit Seller may request a temporary increase of the Aggregate Transaction Limit (a "Temporary Increase") by submitting to Buyer an executed request for Temporary Increase in the form of Exhibit O hereto (a "Request for Temporary Increase"), setting forth the requested increased Aggregate Transaction Limit (such increased amount, the "Temporary Aggregate Transaction Limit"), the effective date and time of such Temporary Increase and the date and time on which such Temporary Increase shall terminate. Buyer may from time to time, in its sole and absolute discretion, consent to such Temporary Increase, which consent shall be in writing as evidenced by Buyer's delivery to Seller of a countersigned Request for Temporary Increase. At any time that a Temporary Increase is in effect, the Aggregate Transaction Limit shall equal the Temporary Aggregate Transaction Limit for all purposes of this Agreement and all calculations and provisions relating to the Aggregate Transaction Limit shall refer to the Temporary Aggregate Transaction Limit, including without limitation, Type Sublimits and the Minimum Over/Under Account Balance. Upon the termination of a Temporary Increase, Seller shall repurchase a sufficient number of Purchased Assets in order to reduce the Aggregate Outstanding Purchase Price to the Aggregate Transaction Limit (as reduced by the termination of such Temporary Increase) in accordance with Section 4.2(k).

ARTICLE 3
PROCEDURES FOR REQUESTING AND ENTERING INTO TRANSACTIONS

3.1 Policies and Procedures. In connection with the Transactions contemplated hereunder, Seller shall comply with all applicable policies and procedures of Buyer (i) as may currently exist and which have been made available to Seller, or (ii) as hereafter created and with respect to which Seller has been provided notice thereof in accordance with this Agreement. Such policies and procedures may be in writing, published on Buyer's website(s) or otherwise contained in the Handbook. Buyer shall have the right to change, revise, amend or supplement its policies and procedures and the Handbook from time to time to conform to current legal requirements or Buyer practices by giving no less than twenty (20) Business Days prior written notice to Seller of such changes, revisions, amendments or supplements. To the extent of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Handbook or Buyer's policies and procedures, this Agreement shall control.

3.2 Request for Transaction; Asset Data Record.

(a) Request for Transaction. Seller shall request a Transaction by delivering to Buyer, electronically or in writing, an Asset Data Record for each Asset intended to be the subject of the Transaction no later than 4:00 p.m. (New York City time) and, if an Asset Data Record is submitted after such time, Buyer shall use best efforts to enter into such Transaction. Buyer shall be under no obligation to enter into any Transaction or Transactions requested by Seller if the Purchase Price relates to the Uncommitted Amount. Assuming the satisfaction of all conditions precedent set forth in Article 7 and as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, Buyer may, for any Transaction with respect to the Uncommitted Amount and shall, for any Transaction with respect to the Committed Amount, confirm to Seller the terms of Transactions, including the related Repurchase Date, electronically or in writing. Buyer reserves the right to reject any Transaction request that Buyer determines fails to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement or Buyer's then current policies and procedures (provided that such policies and procedures are applicable hereunder in accordance with Section 3.1).

(b) Failure to Enter into Transaction; Cancellation of Transaction. If Seller fails five (5) times or more to enter into a Transaction in each case, after Seller has requested such Transaction and submitted an Asset Data Record in connection with such request, and regarding which Buyer is otherwise ready and willing to fund, for each Transaction requested by Seller thereafter for which Seller fails to enter into such Transaction after Seller has requested such Transaction and submitted an Asset Data Record in connection with such request, Seller shall reimburse Buyer for any reasonable and documented out-of-pocket losses, costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with such failure to enter into the Transaction, including, without limitation, costs relating to re-employment of funds obtained by Buyer and fees paid to terminate the arrangements through which such funds were obtained. In addition, with respect to any Transaction, including the initial Transaction, if following disbursement by Buyer of the Purchase Price relating to such Transaction, Seller cancels such Transaction, in each case, Seller shall pay Buyer a Price Differential on such Purchase Price from the date of disbursement thereof until, but not including, the date the Purchase Price is returned to Buyer.

(c) Form of Asset Data Record. Buyer shall have the right to revise or supplement the form of the Asset Data Record from time to time by giving no less than five (5) Business Days prior written notice thereof to Seller.

3.3 Delivery of Mortgage Loan Documents.

(a) Dry Mortgage Loans. Prior to any Transaction related to a Dry Mortgage Loan, Seller shall deliver to Buyer or its Custodian, or authorize and direct the Closing Agent to deliver to Buyer or its Custodian, the related Mortgage Loan Documents in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of Section 7.2 hereof and the Custodial Agreement.

(b) Wet Mortgage Loans. With respect to a Transaction the subject of which is a Wet Mortgage Loan, (i) Seller shall deliver to Buyer or its Custodian any Mortgage Loan Documents in Seller's possession, and (ii) Seller shall authorize and direct the Closing Agent to deliver the related Mortgage Loan Documents to Seller, for delivery to Buyer or its Custodian, in each case, within the Maximum Dwell Time in accordance with the terms of Section 7.2 hereof and the Custodial Agreement.

(c) Pooled Mortgage Loans. With respect to a Transaction the subject of which is a Pooled Mortgage Loan, Seller shall deliver to Buyer or its Custodian, as applicable, the related Agency Documents in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of Section 7.2(e) hereof and the Custodial Agreement and Seller shall cause the Custodian to deliver a trust receipt to Buyer with respect to such Mortgage Loans in accordance with the terms of the Custodial Agreement. In no event shall Pooled Mortgage Loans or Mortgaged Backed Securities be settled outside of the Joint Pooling Documents without the prior written consent of Buyer.

(d) Government Mortgage Loans. With respect to a Transaction the subject of which is a Government Mortgage Loan, Seller shall, at the request of Buyer, deliver to Buyer or its Custodian, within forty five (45) calendar days following the Purchase Date for such Mortgage Loan, the FHA Mortgage Insurance Contract, the VA Loan Guaranty Agreement or the RD Loan Guaranty Agreement, as applicable, or evidence of such insurance or guaranty, as applicable, including proof of payment of the premium and the case number so Buyer can access the information on the computer system maintained by FHA, the VA or the RD; provided, however, that in lieu of providing such information the Seller may, with the consent of Buyer, elect treatment of such Purchased Mortgage Loan as a Type other than a Government Mortgage Loan, to the extent otherwise eligible.

(e) Mortgage Loan Documents in Seller's Possession. At all times during which the Mortgage Loan Documents related to any Purchased Mortgage Loan are in the possession of Seller, and until such Purchased Mortgage Loan is repurchased by Seller, Seller shall hold such Mortgage Loan Documents in trust separate and apart from Seller's own documents and assets and for the exclusive benefit of Buyer and shall act only in accordance with this Agreement or Buyer's written instructions related thereto. Such Mortgage Loan Documents should be clearly marked as subject to delivery to Buyer.

(f) Other Mortgage Loan Documents in Seller's Possession. With respect to each Purchased Mortgage Loan, until such Purchased Mortgage Loan is repurchased by Seller, Seller shall hold in trust separate and apart from Seller's own documents and assets and for the exclusive benefit of Buyer all mortgage loan documents related to such Purchased Mortgage Loan and not delivered to Buyer, including, without limitation, the Other Mortgage Loan Documents, as applicable. All such mortgage loan documents shall be clearly marked as subject to delivery to Buyer.

3.4 Haircut. With respect to each Transaction for which the related Purchase Price is being remitted by Buyer to one or more Approved Payees, Seller shall ensure that there are sufficient funds on deposit in the Over/Under Account such that following the withdrawal of the related Haircut by Buyer, the balance of the Over/Under Account is equal to or greater than the Minimum Over/Under Account Balance, as set forth in the Transactions Terms Letter.

3.5 Over/Under Account.

(a) Minimum Balance; Terms and Conditions Pertaining to Over/Under Account. Seller shall at all times maintain a balance in the Over/Under Account of not less than the Minimum Over/Under Account Balance, as set forth in the Transactions Terms Letter. The Over/Under Account shall be used to assist in settling the Transactions and any other obligations under this Agreement. Buyer shall not be required to segregate and hold funds deposited by or on behalf of Seller in the Over/Under Account separate and apart from Buyer's own funds or funds deposited by or held for others; provided, however, that Buyer keeps records reflecting which funds in the Over/Under Account are those of Seller; it being understood that such amounts are owned by and held for the benefit of the Seller.

For the avoidance of doubt, unless and until a Margin Call is outstanding or an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing (and in any case, only to the extent of any outstanding monetary obligation owed by Seller to Buyer related thereto), all deposits in the Over/Under Account in excess of the Minimum Over/Under Account Balance may be freely withdrawn at any time, for any reason, by the Seller in accordance with Section 3.5(c).

Subject to Buyer's rights and security interests as provided for in this Agreement, Seller shall retain title to and ownership of all its funds on deposit in the Over/Under Account. Upon request of Seller, Buyer shall provide Seller with reasonable evidence regarding the existence and maintenance of the Over/Under Account.

Buyer shall provide Seller with an accounting of the balance of, all fees and charges to, and all credits and debits made to the Over/Under Account via a posting of such accounting on Buyer's website(s), which shall be updated by Buyer on each Business Day.

(b) Deposits.

(i) Seller. Seller shall deposit margin in the form of funds in the Over/Under Account in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, Section 3.4 and Section 3.5(a).

(ii) Buyer. Buyer shall credit to the Over/Under Account all amounts in excess of those amounts due to Buyer in accordance with the Principal Agreements on the date Buyer receives or has received both (1) a payment by Seller or an Approved Investor pursuant to a Purchase Commitment (if any) and (2) a Purchase Advice relating to such payment without discrepancy; provided, however, that funds and Purchase Advices received by Buyer after 4:00 p.m. (New York City time), shall be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day. Buyer shall notify Seller if there is a discrepancy between a wire transfer and the related Purchase Advice, and thereafter, Seller shall notify Buyer as to whether Buyer should accept such settlement payment despite the discrepancy between the amount received and the related Purchase Advice; provided, however, that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer is not obligated to receive approval from Seller prior to accepting any amounts received and releasing the related Purchased Assets.

(iii) Settlement Statement. Buyer shall deliver to Seller via facsimile or make available to Seller via the internet within one (1) Business Day following settlement of a Transaction, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible, a settlement statement, which includes an explanation of all amounts credited by Buyer to the Over/Under Account to settle the Transaction.

(c) Withdrawals.

(i) Seller. If at any time the balance of any amounts in the Over/Under Account is greater than the Minimum Over/Under Account Balance, Seller shall be entitled to the return of the amounts in excess thereof. Buyer shall wire transfer all such excess amounts to Seller in immediately available funds (without any wire transfer fees payable by Seller) not later than the end of the same Business Day in which it receives written notice (facsimile and e-mail notices are acceptable for this purpose) thereof from Seller by 2:00 p.m. (New York City Time); provided, however, and notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 3.5(c)(i) to the contrary, that Buyer reserves the right to reject any request for excess funds from the Over/Under Account if a Margin Call is outstanding or upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or in the event of a Potential Default, but only to the extent of any outstanding monetary obligation owed by Seller to Buyer related thereto.

(ii) Buyer. Buyer may, from time to time and without separate authorization by Seller or notice to Seller, withdraw funds from the Over/Under Account to settle amounts owed in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or to otherwise satisfy Seller's obligations under this Agreement, in the following order of priority:

(1) to satisfy any outstanding Margin Call as provided in Section 6.3(b);

(2) upon and during an Event of Default, to reimburse itself for any reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with this Agreement, to the extent expressly permitted herein;

(3) with respect to any Transaction with respect to which the Purchase Price is being paid to one or more Approved Payees on behalf of Seller, to deliver the Haircut to such Approved Payees;

(4) to pay itself any Price Differential on a Purchase Price that is due and owing;

(5) to Seller as provided in Section 3.5(c)(i);

(6) provided a Potential Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, as security for the performance of Seller's obligations hereunder;

(7) on the Expiration Date, to reimburse itself for any reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with this Agreement, as permitted herein; and

(8) in the exercise of Buyer's or its Affiliates' rights under Section 11.9.

(d) Reserved.

(e) Security Interest. Any funds of Seller at any time deposited or held in the Over/Under Account, whether such funds are required to be deposited and held in the Over/Under Account pursuant to this Section 3.5 or otherwise, are hereby pledged by Seller as security for its obligations under this Agreement to the extent described in Section 3.5(c)(ii) above, and, subject to the foregoing, Seller hereby grants a security interest in such funds to Buyer, and such pledge and security interest shall be considered "a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement" that is "related to" the Agreement and Transactions hereunder within the meaning of Bankruptcy Code Sections 101(38A)(A), 101(47)(a)(v) and 741(7)(A)(x). Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon a transfer of funds by Buyer to Seller in accordance with Section 3.5(c) or Section 3.5(f), the security interest granted by Seller to Buyer with respect to such funds shall be deemed to automatically release without further action by any party.

(f) Return of Over/Under Account Balances Upon Termination. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, Buyer shall promptly (but in any event within two (2) Business Days after the Expiration Date) wire Seller any remaining balances in the Over/Under Account and return to Seller any pledged certificates of deposit, subject to the terms below.

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent there are bona fide Outstanding Obligations (as defined below) of Seller under this Agreement as of the Expiration Date, whether such obligations are disputed or undisputed by Seller, Buyer shall be entitled to retain in the Over/Under Account, and shall not be obligated to return to Seller, an amount equal to such Outstanding Obligations until such obligations are resolved to the good faith, reasonable satisfaction of Buyer. As such Outstanding Obligations are resolved to the good faith satisfaction of Buyer, the amount of funds being held by the Buyer against such Outstanding Obligations shall be released and wired to Seller promptly (but in any event within two (2) Business Days thereafter).

(ii) To the extent the amount of such Outstanding Obligations exceeds the balance in the Over/Under Account, Buyer shall be entitled to retain the entire balances in the Over/Under Account until such obligations are resolved to the good faith satisfaction of Buyer, up to the amount of Outstanding Obligations.

(iii) For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood and agreed that upon termination of this Agreement, Buyer shall only be obligated to return to Seller funds in the Over/Under Account to the extent such funds exceed the amount of Outstanding Obligations.

(iv) During the term of this Agreement (and, thereafter, for as long as Buyer claims there are Outstanding Obligations), Seller may request, and Buyer shall provide a full accounting from Buyer as to the amount, source, itemization and description of the Outstanding Obligations. Buyer shall provide such information within two(2) Business Days after receiving such a request.

For purposes of this Section 3.5(f), the term "Outstanding Obligations" means the debts or obligations due from Seller to Buyer under this Agreement and the other Principal Agreements (net of any payments , amounts or credits paid by Seller and received by Buyer) which are unsatisfied or outstanding as of the date of the termination or expiration of this Agreement and the other Principal Agreements including, without limitation, (1) Seller's obligation under this Agreement to repurchase Purchased Assets from Buyer, (2) unpaid costs and/or fees (including, but not limited to, unpaid legal fees, Unused Facility Fees and/or unpaid funding fees) due from Seller to Buyer under this Agreement and the other Principal Agreements, and/or (3) unpaid Price Differential. Further, Outstanding Obligations shall include those amounts which Buyer and/or its Affiliates are entitled to set-off against the funds and certificates of deposit in the Over/Under Account as provided in Section 11.9.

3.6 Payment of Purchase Price.

(a) Payment of Purchase Price. On the Purchase Date for each Transaction, ownership of the Purchased Assets, including the Servicing Rights related to Purchased Assets consisting of Purchased Mortgage Loans, shall be transferred to Buyer against the simultaneous transfer of the Purchase Price to Seller or on behalf of Seller to an Approved Payee, as applicable, and simultaneously with the delivery to Buyer of the Purchased Assets relating to each Transaction. With respect to the Purchased Assets being sold by Seller on the Purchase Date, Seller hereby sells, transfers, conveys and assigns to Buyer or its designee without recourse, but subject to the terms of this Agreement, all of Seller's right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Assets, including the Servicing Rights related to the Purchased Mortgage Loans, together with all right, title and interest of Seller in and to all amounts due and payable under the terms of such Purchased Assets.

(b) Methods of Payment. On the Purchase Date for each Transaction:

(i) Buyer shall pay the Purchase Price for all Transactions by wire transfer in accordance with Seller's wire instructions set forth on Exhibit J. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer shall not be obligated to pay the Purchase Price under any method of payment to any Closing Agent, third party institutional originator or warehouse lender that is not an Approved Payee. Further, the payment of the Purchase Price by Buyer to any Closing Agent, third party institutional originator or warehouse lender that is not an Approved Payee shall not make such Closing Agent, third party institutional originator or warehouse lender an Approved Payee. Any funds disbursed by Buyer to Seller or its Approved Payee shall be subject to all applicable federal, state and local laws, including, without limitation, regulations and policies of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System on Reduction of Payments System Risk, or

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, where a Purchased Asset is the subject of third party financing, Buyer may pay all or any portion of the Purchase Price directly to the warehouse lender or other lender that has a security interest in such Purchased Asset to satisfy the related indebtedness and obtain a release of such security interest.

(c) Transaction Limitations and Other Restrictions Relating to Closing Agents. Notwithstanding that a particular Transaction request will not exceed the Aggregate Transaction Limit or applicable Type Sublimit, if the payment of the Purchase Price for such Transaction to the related Closing Agent will violate Buyer's applicable policies and procedures (as contained in the Handbook or otherwise) regarding payments to Closing Agents, Buyer may refuse to pay the Purchase Price to such Closing Agent.

(d) Return of Purchase Price. If a Wet Mortgage Loan subject to a Transaction is not closed on the Business Day following the day on which the Purchase Price was funded, Seller shall immediately return, or cause to be immediately returned (but in any event within two (2) Business Days), the Purchase Price (or such greater amount that shall have been remitted by Buyer, if applicable) with respect to such Wet Mortgage Loan to Buyer by wire transfer in accordance with Buyer's wire instructions set forth on Exhibit B. Further, Seller shall pay Buyer all reasonable and documented fees and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with the funding of the Purchase Price for such Wet Mortgage Loan and, from the date of such funding up to but excluding the date such Purchase Price is returned to Buyer, Seller shall also pay Buyer any Price Differential accrued on such Purchase Price promptly upon notification from Buyer; provided, however, that Price Differential shall continue to accrue until the Purchase Price is returned to Buyer.

3.7 Approved Payees.

(a) Closing Agents. In order for a Closing Agent to be designated an Approved Payee with respect to any Purchase Price for new origination Wet Mortgage Loans or Dry Mortgage Loans as to which the origination funds are being remitted to the closing table, Seller shall submit to Buyer the following documents:

(i) a written request, including the name and address of the Closing Agent;

(ii) if the title company issuing the title policy is Title Source, Inc., evidence of fidelity bond coverage with respect to Title Source, Inc., and evidence that Seller is able to directly make claims under such policy;

(iii) if (1) the title company issuing the title policy is not Title Source, Inc., and (2) the applicable title company has not already issued to Seller or Buyer a blanket Closing Protection Letter which covers closings conducted by such Closing Agent in the jurisdiction where the closing for the applicable Mortgage Loan will take place:

(1) a valid Closing Protection Letter, in a form acceptable to Buyer, issued to Seller or Buyer by the title company, which is issuing the title insurance policy that covers the related Mortgage Loan and is an Acceptable Title Insurance Company, that covers the closing of this specific Mortgage Loan and if applicable, an assignment to Buyer of such Closing Protection Letter, substantially in the form of Exhibit F hereto;

(2) a valid blanket Closing Protection Letter, in a form acceptable to Buyer, issued to Seller or Buyer by the title company, which is issuing the title insurance policy that covers the related Mortgage Loan and is an Acceptable Title Insurance Company, that covers the closings conducted by the Closing Agent in the jurisdiction where this closing will take place and if applicable, an assignment to Buyer of such Closing Protection Letter, substantially in the form of Exhibit F hereto; or

(3) with respect to those jurisdictions outlined in the Handbook for which Closing Protection Letters are not available or are limited in their applicability, any other documents Buyer may reasonably require, including without limitation, a duly executed, valid and enforceable assignment to Buyer of Seller's rights under its fidelity bond and errors and omissions policy with respect to the Purchased Asset maintained pursuant to Section 9.9; and

(iv) provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, a Closing Protection Letter shall not be required hereunder unless and until the Purchased Mortgage Loans (a) which were table-funded using, in part, the Purchase Price, (b) where title insurance is provided by a Person other than Title Source, Inc., and (c) regarding which a Closing Protection Letter or alternative documentation specified in Section 3.7(a)(ii)(3) has not been provided, exceed (i) [] of Seller's Tangible Net Worth for Wet Mortgage Loans and (ii) [] of Seller's Tangible Net Worth for all other Mortgage Loans in the aggregate, in each case measured as of the end of Seller's most recent fiscal quarter.

(b) Warehouse Lenders. In order for a warehouse lender to be designated an Approved Payee with respect to any Purchase Price, Seller shall submit to Buyer a written request, including the name and address of the warehouse lender, demonstrating a need for such designation.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer reserves the right to refuse to designate any warehouse lender as an Approved Payee, or, alternatively, to require additional terms and conditions in order for Buyer to pay a Purchase Price to a warehouse lender in each case where such warehouse lender is not already designated as an Approved Payee. Any additional terms and conditions shall not apply to any Approved Payee except upon (i) ten (10) Business Days prior written notice delivered to the Seller, or (ii) if such additional terms and conditions are to apply to all Approved Payees, thirty (30) days prior written notice delivered to the Seller; provided, however, that no advance notice shall be required hereby where such additional terms and conditions imposed on an Approved Payee arise due to actual or reasonably suspected fraud or criminal activity on the part of such Approved Payee.

(c) Approval Process. Buyer shall review the applicable documents and notify Seller within two (2) Business Days as to whether such Closing Agent or warehouse lender has been designated by Buyer to be an Approved Payee with respect to such Purchase Price. Buyer may withdraw its approval of any Closing Agent or warehouse lender as an Approved Payee if Buyer becomes aware of any facts or circumstances at any time related to such Closing Agent or warehouse lender which Buyer determines materially and adversely affects the Closing Agent or warehouse lender or otherwise makes the Closing Agent or warehouse lender unacceptable as an Approved Payee; provided, however, that such disapproval shall not be effective except upon (i) ten (10) Business Days prior written notice delivered to the Seller, or (ii) in the case of Title Source, Inc., or if such additional terms and conditions are to apply to all Approved Payees, thirty (30) days prior written notice delivered to the Seller; provided, further, that no advance notice shall be required hereby where such disapproval of an Approved Payee arises due to actual or reasonably suspected fraud or criminal activity on the part of such Approved Payee.

3.8 Delivery of Mortgage-Backed Securities. With respect to Purchased Mortgage Loans that are Pooled Mortgage Loans, Buyer shall release its interests in such Purchased Mortgage Loans simultaneously with the Settlement Date of a Mortgage-Backed Security backed by a Pool containing such Purchased Mortgage Loans. Provided that such Mortgage-Backed Security has been issued to the Depository in the name of the Securities Intermediary in accordance with the Joint Pooling Documents from and after such Settlement Date, the Mortgage-Backed Security shall replace the related Purchased Mortgage Loans as the Asset that is subject to the related Transaction.

REPURCHASE

4.1 Repurchase Price.

(a) Payment of Repurchase Price. The Repurchase Price for each Purchased Asset shall be payable in full and by wire transfer in accordance with Buyer's wire instructions set forth on Exhibit B or Exhibit J, as applicable, upon the earliest to occur of (i) the Repurchase Date of the related Transaction, (ii) the occurrence of any Repurchase Acceleration Event with respect to such Purchased Asset, (iii) at Buyer's sole option, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, or (iv) the Expiration Date. Such obligation to repurchase exists without regard to any prior or intervening liquidation or foreclosure with respect to any Purchased Asset. While it is anticipated that Seller will repurchase each Purchased Asset on its related Repurchase Date, Seller may repurchase any Purchased Asset hereunder on demand without any prepayment penalty or premium.

(b) Effect of Payment of Repurchase Price. On the Repurchase Date (or such other date on which the Repurchase Price is received in full by Buyer), termination of the related Transaction will be effected by the repurchase by Seller or its designee of the Purchased Assets and the simultaneous transfer of the Repurchase Price to an account of Buyer, or transfer of additional Asset(s) (in each case subject to the provisions of Section 6.5), and all of Buyer's rights, title and interests therein shall then be conveyed to Seller or its designee; provided that, Buyer shall not be deemed to have terminated or conveyed its interests in such Purchased Assets if an Event of Default shall then be continuing or shall be caused by such repurchase. With respect to Purchased Assets that are Purchased Mortgage Loans, Buyer is obligated to deliver the related Mortgage Loan Documents to Seller on the Repurchase Date.

4.2 Repurchase Acceleration Events. The occurrence of any of the following events shall be a Repurchase Acceleration Event with respect to one or more Purchased Assets, as the case may be:

(a) Buyer has determined that the Purchased Asset is a Defective Asset and the related Margin Deficit has not been cured within the applicable time period set forth in Section 6.3(b);

(b) [] elapse from the date the related Mortgage Loan Documents were delivered to an Approved Investor and such Approved Investor has not returned such Mortgage Loan Documents or purchased such Purchased Asset, unless an extension is granted by Buyer;

(c) [] elapse from the date a related Mortgage Loan Document was delivered to Seller or Servicer for correction or completion or for servicing purposes, without being returned to Buyer or its designee;

(d) with respect to a Wet Mortgage Loan, Seller fails to deliver to Buyer the related Mortgage Loan Documents within the Maximum Dwell Time or any Mortgage Loan Document delivered to Buyer, upon examination by Buyer, is found not to be in compliance with the requirements of this Agreement or the related Purchase Commitment and is not corrected within the Maximum Dwell Time;

(e) regardless of whether a Purchased Mortgage Loan is a Defective Asset, a foreclosure or similar type of proceeding is initiated with respect to such Mortgage Loan;

(f) the further sale of a Purchased Asset by Seller to any party other than an Approved Investor;

(g) (1) with respect to any Pooled Mortgage Loan that has been pooled to support a Mortgage-Backed Security issued by Seller and fully guaranteed by Ginnie Mae for which Buyer has executed a Form HUD 11711A, the Custodian ceases to hold the Mortgage Loan File and the related Mortgage Loan Documents in respect thereof for the sole and exclusive benefit of Buyer at any time prior to the issuance of the related Mortgage-Backed Security, or (2) with respect to all other Purchased Mortgage Loans, the Custodian ceases to hold the related Mortgage Loan File and all Mortgage Loan Documents in respect thereof for the sole and exclusive benefit of Buyer at any time, in each case subject to Sections 6.4(b), (c) and (d);

(h) reserved;

(i) with respect to any Pooled Mortgage Loan, if the Applicable Agency has not issued the related Mortgage-Backed Security to the Securities Intermediary in accordance with the Joint Pooling Documents on the related Settlement Date;

(j) with respect to any Mortgage-Backed Security, that is subject to a Transaction pursuant to Section 3.8, if Buyer has not received the related Takeout Price from the Approved Investor on the related Settlement Date; or

(k) following the termination of a Temporary Increase, the Aggregate Outstanding Purchase Price exceeds the Aggregate Transaction Limit (as reduced by the termination of such Temporary Increase).

4.3 Reduction of Asset Value as Alternative Remedy.
