(ii) If Buyer exercises or is deemed to have exercised the option referred to in subsection (a)(i) of this Section,

(A) Seller's obligations in such Transactions to pay the applicable Repurchase/Release Price with respect to all Purchased Assets, Underlying Assets and Pledged Assets on the Repurchase/Release Date determined in accordance with subsection (a)(i) of this Section, (1) shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, (2) all Income paid after such exercise or deemed exercise shall be retained by Buyer and applied to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase/Release Price and any other amounts owed by Seller hereunder, and (3) Seller shall immediately deliver to Buyer any Purchased Assets, Underlying Assets and Pledged Items (including any Pledged Assets) then subject to this Agreement and in Seller's possession or control;

(B) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Repurchase/Release Price with respect to each such Transaction shall be increased by the aggregate amount obtained by daily application of, on a 360 day per year basis for the actual number of days during the period from and including the date of the exercise or deemed exercise of such option to but excluding the date of payment of the Repurchase/Release Price as so increased, (x) the Post-Default Rate in effect following an Event of Default to (y) the Repurchase/Release Price for such Transaction as of the Repurchase/Release Date as determined pursuant to subsection (a)(i) of this Section (decreased as of any day by (i) any amounts actually in the possession of Buyer pursuant to clause (C) of this subsection, and (ii) any proceeds from the sale of Purchased Assets, Underlying Assets and Pledged Items (including Pledged Assets) applied to the Repurchase/Release Price pursuant to subsection (a)(iv) of this Section; and

(C) all Income actually received by Buyer pursuant to Section 6 shall be applied to the aggregate unpaid Obligations owed by Seller.

(iii) Upon the occurrence of one or more Events of Default, Buyer shall have the right to obtain physical possession of all files of Seller relating to the Purchased Assets, Underlying Assets and the Pledged Items (including the Pledged Assets) and all documents relating to the Purchased Assets, Underlying Assets and Pledged Items (including the Pledged Assets) which are then or may thereafter come in to the possession of Seller or any third party acting for Seller and Seller shall deliver to Buyer such assignments as Buyer shall request. Buyer shall be entitled to specific performance of all agreements of Seller contained in Facility Documents.

(iv) At any time on the Business Day following notice to Seller (which notice may be the notice given under subsection (a)(i) of this Section), in the event Seller has not repurchased all Purchased Assets and paid any applicable Repurchase/Release Price with respect to the Pledged Items (including Pledged Assets), Buyer may (A) immediately sell, without demand or further notice of any kind, at a public or private sale and at such price or prices as Buyer may deem satisfactory any or all Purchased Assets subject to such Transactions hereunder and any related Pledged Items (including Pledged Assets) and apply the proceeds thereof to the aggregate unpaid Repurchase/Release Prices and any other amounts owing by Seller hereunder or (B) in its sole discretion elect, in lieu of selling all or a portion of such Purchased Assets and Pledged Items, to give Seller credit for such Purchased Assets and the Pledged Items in an amount equal to the Market Value of the Purchased Assets and Pledged Items against the aggregate unpaid Repurchase/Release Price and any other amounts owing by Seller hereunder.

(v) The proceeds of any disposition or the amount of any credit described above shall be applied first, to the costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default (including legal fees, consulting fees, accounting fees, file transfer and inventory fees, costs and expenses incurred in respect of a transfer of the servicing of the Underlying Assets and costs and expenses incurred in connection with a disposition of the Purchased Assets, Underlying Assets and Pledged Assets); second, to costs of cover and/or related hedging transactions; third, to the aggregate and accrued Price Differential owed hereunder, fourth, to the remaining aggregate Repurchase/Release Price owed hereunder; fifth, to any other accrued and unpaid obligations of the Seller Parties and Guarantor hereunder and under the other Facility Documents and sixth, any remaining proceeds shall be paid to Seller or other Person legally entitled thereto.

(vi) Each Seller Party shall be liable to Buyer for (i) the amount of all reasonable legal or other third-party out-of-pocket expenses (including, without limitation, all reasonable third-party out-of-pocket costs and expenses of Buyer in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement or any other agreement evidencing a Transaction, whether in action, suit or litigation or bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar proceeding affecting creditors' rights generally, further including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel (including the costs of internal counsel of Buyer) incurred in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default, (ii) damages in an amount equal to the reasonable third-party out-of-pocket cost (including all reasonable third-party out-of-pocket fees, expenses and commissions) of entering into replacement transactions and entering into or terminating hedge transactions in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default, and (iii) any other reasonable third-party out-of-pocket loss, damage, cost or expense directly arising or resulting from the occurrence of an Event of Default in respect of a Transaction.

(vii) Buyer shall have, in addition to its rights hereunder, any rights otherwise available to it under any other agreement or applicable law.

(b) All rights and remedies arising under this Agreement as amended from time to time hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies which Buyer may have.

(c) Buyer may enforce its rights and remedies hereunder without prior judicial process or hearing, and each Seller Party and Guarantor hereby expressly waives any defenses such Seller Party or Guarantor might otherwise have to require Buyer to enforce its rights by judicial process. Each Seller Party and Guarantor also waives any defense (other than a defense of payment or performance) such Seller Party or Guarantor might otherwise have arising from the use of nonjudicial process, enforcement and sale of all or any portion of the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets or Underlying Assets, or from any other election of remedies. Each Seller Party and Guarantor recognizes that nonjudicial remedies are consistent with the usages of the trade, are responsive to commercial necessity and are the result of a bargain at arm's length.

(d) To the extent permitted by applicable law, each Seller Party and Guarantor shall be liable to Buyer for interest on any amounts owing by a Seller Party hereunder, from the date any Seller Party or Guarantor becomes liable for such amounts hereunder until such amounts are (i) paid in full by such Seller Party or Guarantor or (ii) satisfied in full by the exercise of Buyer's rights hereunder. Interest on any sum payable by a Seller Party to Buyer under this paragraph 16(d) shall be at a rate equal to the Post-Default Rate.

(e) Seller and Guarantor agree that, following an Event of Default, they shall cooperate with the Buyer to name the Buyer or its designee as the mortgagee of record on the FHA LEAP System and VA and USDA electronic registration systems.

Section 17. Termination Event. If one of the following events (a "Termination Event") occurs, Buyer shall have the right to immediately terminate the Servicer:

(i) An Event of Default under the Facility Documents;

(ii) Reserved;

(iii) Servicer ceases to be an approved servicer for Ginnie Mae, HUD, VA or USDA, or is terminated by any of Ginnie Mae, HUD, VA or USDA;

(iv) The amount on deposit in the Reserve Account is below the Reserve Account Required Balance and the deficiency is not deposited by the next Payment Date;

(v) Servicer demonstrates a consistent pattern of failing to make any required servicing advance, to the extent that such failure materially impairs FHA Mortgage Insurance coverage, or VA Loan Guaranty Agreement coverage or USDA guaranty coverage, with respect to any Underlying Mortgage Loan or Underlying REO Property, or gives rise to a material liability to HUD, FHA, VA or USDA as determined by Buyer in its good faith discretion;

(vi) Servicer fails to make a required deposit to the Payment Account within two (2) Business Days after the date such deposit is required to be made;

(vii) Servicer provides a notice of its intent to resign as Servicer of the Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Property and a new Servicer reasonably acceptable to Buyer is not appointed within sixty (60) calendar days;

(viii) the Servicer has notice or knowledge of a final and binding FHA, HUD, VA or USDA fee or penalty which has not been paid or is subject to a set-off by any of FHA, HUD, VA or USDA, in either case, in excess of $1,000,000 and which is not paid within five (5) Business Days of the applicable due date; or

(ix) The occurrence of an FHA Loss Rate Trigger 3.

Section 18. Indemnification And Expenses. (a) Seller and Guarantor agree to hold Buyer, and its Affiliates and their officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors (each an "Indemnified Party") harmless from and indemnify any Indemnified Party against all liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, costs and actual and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable fees of counsel) which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against such Indemnified Party (collectively, "Costs"), relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any other Facility Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, or any amendment, supplement or modification of, or any waiver or consent under or in respect of, this Agreement, any other Facility Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, including any losses due to servicing errors or omissions on the part of Guarantor, that, in each case, results from anything other than an Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each of Seller and Guarantor agrees to hold any Indemnified Party harmless from and indemnify such Indemnified Party against all Costs with respect to all Purchased Assets, Underlying Assets and Pledged Assets relating to or arising out of any Taxes incurred or assessed in connection with the ownership of the Purchased Assets, that, in each case, results from anything other than the Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct. In any suit, proceeding or action brought by an Indemnified Party in connection with any Purchased Asset, Underlying Asset or Pledged Asset for any sum owing thereunder, or to enforce any provisions of any Purchased Asset, Underlying Asset or Pledged Asset, Seller and Guarantor will save, indemnify and hold such Indemnified Party harmless from and against all expense, loss or damage suffered by reason of any defense, set-off, counterclaim, recoupment or reduction or liability whatsoever of the account debtor or obligor thereunder, arising out of a breach by Seller or Guarantor of any obligation thereunder or arising out of any other agreement, Indebtedness or liability at any time owing to or in favor of such account debtor or obligor or its successors from Seller. Seller and Guarantor also agree to reimburse an Indemnified Party promptly as and when billed by such Indemnified Party for all the Indemnified Party's actual and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement or the preservation of Buyer's rights under this Agreement, any other Facility Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, including without limitation the reasonable fees and disbursements of its counsel.

(b) Seller agrees to pay as and when billed by Buyer all of the reasonable third-party out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection (i) with the development, preparation and execution of, and any amendment, supplement or modification to, this Agreement, any other Facility Document or any other documents prepared in connection herewith or therewith, provided, however, that Seller's obligation with respect to payment of amounts due under this clause (i) shall be limited to the Fee Cap, assuming reasonable negotiation, no extensive delays from commencement to closing, no unanticipated issues arising or structural changes during the course of the negotiation, (ii) with the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby including without limitation filing fees and all the reasonable fees, disbursements and expenses of counsel to Buyer which amount shall be deducted from the Purchase Price paid for the first Transaction hereunder, (iii)

all reasonable third-party out-of-pocket expenses of the Buyer and the Buyer's counsel (including the fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel) in connection with the enforcement of the Facility Documents and (iv) all reasonable fees and expenses of the Verification Agent and the Custodian. Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 32 hereof, Seller agrees to pay Buyer all the reasonable out of pocket due diligence, inspection, testing and review costs and expenses incurred by Buyer with respect to Mortgage Loans and REO Properties submitted by Seller for purchase under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, those out of pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer pursuant to Sections 18(b) and 21 hereof.

(c) The obligations of Seller from time to time to pay the Repurchase/Release Price, the Periodic Advance Repurchase Payments, and all other amounts due under this Agreement shall be full recourse obligations to the Seller.

Section 19. Servicing. (a) Guarantor hereby agrees to service the Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties consistent with the degree of skill and care that Guarantor customarily requires with respect to similar Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties owned or managed by it and in accordance with Accepted Servicing Practices. Guarantor shall service the Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties in accordance with this Agreement. Guarantor hereby agrees to (i) comply with all applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations, (ii) maintain all state and federal licenses necessary for it to perform its servicing responsibilities hereunder and (iii) not impair the rights of Buyer in any Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties or any payment thereunder. Buyer may terminate the servicing of any Underlying Mortgage Loan with the then existing servicer in accordance with Section 19(d) hereof.

(b) Guarantor shall hold or cause to be held all escrow funds collected by Guarantor with respect to any Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties in trust accounts and shall apply the same for the purposes for which such funds were collected.

(c) Guarantor shall deposit all collections received by it on behalf of Seller on account of the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties in the Collection Account no later than two (2) Business Days following receipt.

(d) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or Termination Event hereunder, Buyer shall have the right to immediately terminate the Servicer's right to service the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties without payment of any penalty or termination fee. Guarantor and Seller shall cooperate in transferring the servicing of the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties to a successor servicer appointed by Buyer in its sole discretion. For the avoidance of doubt any termination of the Servicer's rights to service by the Buyer as a result of an Event of Default shall be deemed part of an exercise of the Buyer's rights to cause the liquidation, termination or acceleration of this Agreement. Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or Termination Event hereunder, Guarantor will comply with the Buyer's instructions with respect to the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

(e) If Guarantor or Seller should discover that, for any reason whatsoever, any entity responsible to Seller by contract for managing or servicing any such Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties has failed to perform fully Seller's obligations under the Facility Documents or any of the obligations of such entities with respect to the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties, Seller shall promptly notify Buyer.

(f) For the avoidance of doubt, neither Seller nor Guarantor shall retain any economic rights to the servicing of the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties; provided that Guarantor shall continue to service the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties hereunder as part of its Obligations hereunder. As such, Seller and Guarantor expressly acknowledge that the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties are sold or pledged to Buyer, as applicable, on a "servicing released" basis.

(g) Seller shall, with respect to any Servicer (other than Guarantor), provide promptly to Buyer (i) a Servicer Notice addressed to and agreed to by the Servicer of the related Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties, advising such Servicer of such matters as Buyer may reasonably request, including recognition by the Servicer of Buyer's interest in such Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties and the Servicer's agreement that upon receipt of notice of an Event of Default from Buyer, it will follow the instructions of Buyer with respect to the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties and any related Income with respect thereto.

Section 20. Recording Of Communications. Buyer, Seller and Guarantor shall have the right (but not the obligation) from time to time to make or cause to be made tape recordings of communications between its employees and those of the other party with respect to Transactions upon notice to the other party of such recording.

Section 21. Due Diligence. Each of Seller and Guarantor acknowledges that Buyer has the right to perform continuing due diligence reviews with respect to Seller Parties, the Guarantor, the Servicer, the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans subject to any Transaction and Underlying REO Property in connection with any Transaction or otherwise pledged hereunder, for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties and specifications made hereunder, or otherwise, and each of Seller and Guarantor agrees that (a) upon reasonable prior notice to Seller unless an Event of Default shall have occurred, in which case no notice is required, Buyer or its authorized representatives will be permitted during normal business hours to examine, inspect, and make copies and extracts of the Asset Files and any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans, Underlying REO Properties of the Seller (the "Due Diligence Documents") in the possession or under the control of Seller, Guarantor, Servicer and/or the Custodian, or (b) upon request, Seller shall create and deliver to Buyer within twenty (20) calendar days of such request, an electronic copy on CD or DVD, in a format acceptable to Buyer, of such Due Diligence Documents as Buyer may request. Seller also shall make available to Buyer a knowledgeable financial or accounting officer for the purpose of answering questions respecting the Asset Files, the Purchased Assets, the Pledged Assets, the Underlying REO Property and the Underlying Mortgage Loans. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller acknowledges that Buyer may purchase Purchased Assets from Seller based solely upon the information provided by Seller to Buyer in the Asset Schedule and the representations, warranties and covenants contained herein, and that Buyer, at its option, has the right at any time to conduct a partial or complete due diligence review on some or all of the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans subject to a Transaction or Underlying REO Properties pledged in connection with a Transaction, including, without limitation, ordering appraisals or BPOs, new credit reports and new appraisals on the related Mortgaged Properties and otherwise re-generating the information used to originate such Mortgage Loan, performing compliance, legal, credit and servicing file reviews, as well as reviews of claim history and files with FHA, VA and USDA and verification of FHA Mortgage Insurance in place, VA Loan Guaranty Agreement in place and USDA Guaranty in place. Buyer may due diligence such Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties itself or engage a mutually agreed upon third party due diligence firm to perform such due diligence, subject to such third party due diligence firm executing the Buyer's standard form of non-disclosure agreement. Seller agrees to cooperate with Buyer and any third party due diligence firm in connection with such underwriting, including, but not limited to, providing Buyer and any third party due diligence firm with access to any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties in the possession, or under the control, of Seller provided, however, that unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, such on-site visits and/or on-site examinations shall be limited to one (1) per calendar year. Seller further agrees that Seller shall pay all reasonable third-party out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with Buyer's activities pursuant to this Section 21 ("Due Diligence Costs") in an amount not to exceed the Due Diligence Cap per calendar year; provided that the Due Diligence Cap shall not apply upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default. In addition, the Buyer may perform corporate level due diligence on the Seller and Servicer, provided, however, that prior to the occurrence and continuation of an Event of Default the Seller shall not be required to pay for such corporate level due diligence more than once per annum (which due diligence shall also be subject to the Due Diligence Cap; provided that the Due Diligence Cap shall not apply upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default).

Section 22. Assignability.

(a) The rights and obligations of the parties under this Agreement and under any Transaction shall not be assigned by any Seller Party or Guarantor without the prior written consent of Buyer. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement and any Transactions shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and assigns. Nothing in this Agreement express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties to this Agreement and their successors hereunder, any benefit of any legal or equitable right, power, remedy or claim under this Agreement. Buyer may from time to time assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the Facility Documents pursuant to an executed assignment and acceptance by Buyer and assignee ("Assignment and Acceptance"), specifying the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations assigned; provided that so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, to the extent such assignee is not an Affiliate of Buyer, Seller shall have the right to consent to such assignment, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Upon such assignment, (a) such assignee shall be a party hereto and to each Facility Document to the extent of the percentage or portion set forth in the Assignment and Acceptance, and shall succeed to the applicable rights and obligations of Buyer hereunder, (b) Buyer shall, to the extent that such rights and obligations have been so assigned by it be released from its obligations hereunder and under the Facility Documents and (c) Buyer shall promptly notify the Seller of such assignment. Unless otherwise stated in the Assignment and Acceptance, Seller shall continue to take directions solely from Buyer unless otherwise notified by Buyer in writing. Buyer may distribute to any prospective assignee any document or other information delivered to Buyer by a Seller Party or Guarantor.

(b) Buyer may sell participations to one or more Persons in or to all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that (i) Buyer's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) Buyer shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations; and (iii) each Seller Party shall continue to deal solely and directly with Buyer in connection with Buyer's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Facility Documents except as provided in Section 8; provided that so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, to the extent such participant is not an Affiliate of Buyer, Seller shall have the right to consent to such participation, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(c) Buyer shall, in connection with any assignment or participation or proposed assignment or participation pursuant to this Section 22, provide Seller and Guarantor at least ten (10) calendar days prior notice if the prospective assignee or participant is not an Affiliate of the Buyer.

(d) Buyer may, in connection with any assignment or participation or proposed assignment or participation pursuant to this Section 22, disclose to the assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant, as the case may be, any information relating to a Seller Party, Guarantor or any of their Subsidiaries or to any aspect of the Transactions that has been furnished to Buyer by or on behalf of a Seller Party, Guarantor or any of their Subsidiaries; provided that such assignee or participant agrees to hold such information subject to confidentiality provisions substantially similar in scope to the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement.

(e) In the event Buyer assigns all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, the parties hereto agree to negotiate in good faith an amendment to this Agreement to add agency provisions similar to those included in repurchase agreements for similar syndicated repurchase facilities.

Section 23. Transfer and Maintenance of Register.

(a) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 23, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of Buyer under this Agreement. Any assignment or transfer by Buyer of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 23 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Buyer of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 23(b) hereof.

(b) Seller shall maintain a register (the "Register") on which it will record Buyer's rights hereunder, and each Assignment and Acceptance and participation. The Register shall include the names and addresses of Buyer (including all assignees, successors and participants) and the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations assigned. Failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation shall not affect Seller's obligations in respect of such rights. If Buyer sells a participation in its rights hereunder, it shall provide Seller, or maintain as agent of Seller, the information described in this paragraph and permit Seller to review such information as reasonably needed for Seller to comply with its obligations under this Agreement or under any applicable Requirement of Law.

Section 24. Tax Treatment. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that it is its intent for purposes of U.S. federal, state and local income and franchise taxes, to treat each Transaction as Indebtedness of the Seller that is secured by the Purchased Assets and the Pledged Assets, and that the Purchased Assets are owned by Seller and the Underlying REO Properties are owned by REO Subsidiary in the absence of a Default by Seller. All parties to this Agreement agree to such treatment and agree to take no action inconsistent with this treatment, unless required by law.

Section 25. Set-Off. (a) Except to the extent specifically permitted herein, each Seller Party and Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives all right to setoff for or on account of any obligation or liability of Buyer, any Buyer's participant or any of their Affiliates under this Agreement or any other Facility Document, whether pursuant to contract or applicable law, in equity or otherwise, with respect to any funds or monies of Buyer, any Buyer's participant or any of their Affiliates at any time held by or in the possession of any Seller Party or Guarantor.

(b) Except to the extent specifically permitted herein, Buyer, Buyer's participants and each of their Affiliates under this Agreement or any other Facility Document hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives all right to setoff for or on account of any obligation or liability of any Seller Party or Guarantor under this Agreement or any other Facility Document, whether pursuant to contract or applicable law, in equity or otherwise, with respect to any funds or monies of any Seller Party, Guarantor or its Affiliates held by Buyer, Buyer's participants and each of their Affiliates, including any bank accounts of any Seller Party or Guarantor or any of its Affiliates with any of them or any deposits in such accounts or any amounts due or owing under any Master Securities Forward Transaction Agreement among any of them, or any of Buyer's or its Affiliates' assets, rights or obligations under any other arrangement or agreement with Seller or any of its Affiliates; provided that if any Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer shall have the right, without prior notice to any Seller Party or Guarantor, any such notice being expressly waived by such Seller Party and Guarantor to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by any Seller Party or Guarantor under this Agreement or any other Facility Document

(whether at the stated maturity, by termination, acceleration or otherwise) to set off and appropriate and apply against such amount, any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) in the Payment Account or the Collection Account or any other funding, operating or other deposit account related to the facility provided for in this Agreement, for the benefit of Buyer; provided further that Buyer may set off funds or monies of any Seller Party or Guarantor on deposit in the Payment Account or the Collection Account or any other funding, operating or other deposit account related to the facility provided for in this Agreement, only against amounts any Seller Party or Guarantor owes to Buyer or any other Indemnified Party pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or another Facility Document; and provided further that the foregoing right of setoff shall not apply to any deposit of escrow monies being held on behalf of the mortgagors under Underlying Mortgage Loans. Buyer agrees to promptly notify Seller Parties and Guarantor after any such setoff and application; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

Section 26. Terminability. Each representation and warranty made or deemed to be made by entering into a Transaction, herein or pursuant hereto shall survive the making of such representation and warranty, and Buyer shall not be deemed to have waived any Default that may arise because any such representation or warranty shall have proved to be false or misleading, notwithstanding that Buyer may have had notice or knowledge or reason to believe that such representation or warranty was false or misleading at the time the Transaction was made. The obligations of Seller under Section 18 hereof shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 27. Notices And Other Communications. Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement, all notices, requests and other communications provided for herein (including without limitation any modifications of, or waivers, requests or consents under, this Agreement) shall be given or made in writing (including without limitation by electronic transmission) delivered to the intended recipient at the "Address for Notices" specified below its name on the signature pages hereof or thereof); or, as to any party, at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to each other party. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and except for notices given under Section 4 (which shall be effective only on receipt), all such communications shall be deemed to have been duly given when transmitted by electronic transmission or personally delivered or, in the case of a mailed notice, upon receipt, in each case given or addressed as aforesaid. In all cases, to the extent that the related individual set forth in the respective "Attention" line is no longer employed by the respective Person, such notice may be given to the attention of a Responsible Officer of the respective Person or to the attention of such individual or individuals as subsequently notified in writing by a Responsible Officer of the respective Person.

Section 28. Entire Agreement; Severability; Single Agreement. (a) This Agreement, together with the Facility Documents, constitute the entire understanding among Buyer, the Seller Parties and Guarantor with respect to the subject matter they cover and shall supersede any existing agreements between the parties containing general terms and conditions for repurchase transactions involving Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties. By acceptance of this Agreement, Buyer, the Seller Parties and Guarantor acknowledge that they have not made, and are not relying upon, any statements, representations, promises or undertakings not contained in this Agreement or the Facility Documents. Each provision and agreement herein shall be treated as separate and independent from any other provision or agreement herein and shall be enforceable notwithstanding the unenforceability of any such other provision or agreement.

(b) Buyer, the Seller Parties and Guarantor acknowledge that each Transaction hereunder is made in consideration of and in reliance upon the fact that, all Transactions hereunder constitute a single business and contractual relationship and that each has been entered into in consideration of the other Transactions. Accordingly, each of Buyer, each Seller Party and Guarantor agrees (i) to perform all of its obligations in respect of each Transaction hereunder, and that a default in the performance of any such obligations shall constitute a default by it in respect of all Transactions hereunder, (ii) that payments, deliveries, and other transfers made by either of them in respect of any Transaction shall be deemed to have been made in consideration of payments, deliveries, and other transfers in respect of any other Transactions hereunder, and the obligations to make any such payments, deliveries, and other transfers may be applied against each other and netted and (iii) to promptly provide notice to the other after any such set off or application.

Section 29. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAW PRINCIPLES THEREOF, OTHER THAN SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW, WHICH SHALL GOVERN.

Section 30. SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; WAIVERS. EACH SELLER PARTY, GUARANTOR AND BUYER HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY:

(a) SUBMITS FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER FACILITY DOCUMENTS, OR FOR RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT IN RESPECT THEREOF, TO THE EXCLUSIVE GENERAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, THE FEDERAL COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND APPELLATE COURTS FROM ANY THEREOF;

(b) CONSENTS THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE BROUGHT IN SUCH COURTS AND, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, WAIVES ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE VENUE OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT OR THAT SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING WAS BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT COURT AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM THE SAME;

(c) AGREES THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE EFFECTED BY MAILING A COPY THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL (OR ANY SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR FORM OF MAIL), POSTAGE PREPAID, TO ITS ADDRESS SET FORTH UNDER ITS

SIGNATURE BELOW OR AT SUCH OTHER ADDRESS OF WHICH BUYER SHALL HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED;

(d) AGREES THAT NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT TO EFFECT SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR SHALL LIMIT THE RIGHT TO SUE IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION; AND

(e) BUYER, EACH SELLER PARTY AND GUARANTOR HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER FACILITY DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

Section 31. No Waivers, etc. No failure on the part of Buyer to exercise and no delay in exercising, and no course of dealing with respect to, any right, power or privilege under any Facility Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege under any Facility Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The remedies provided herein are cumulative and not exclusive of any remedies provided by law. An Event of Default and Termination Event shall each be deemed to be continuing unless expressly waived by Buyer in writing.

Section 32. Nominee.

(a) Appointment of Nominee; Maintenance of Accounts.

(i) Seller Parties and Buyer hereby acknowledge and agree, and Seller Parties hereby appoint, Guarantor as (i) their nominee as mortgagee of record and payee on the FHA LEAP System and Guarantor hereby accepts such appointment, (ii) their nominee as payee on the VALERI system and the Servicer hereby accepts such appointment, (iii) as their nominee as the lender of record and payee with the Rural Housing Services ("RHS") and Guarantor hereby accepts such appointment, and (iv) as nominee and agent of Seller Parties and Buyer as set forth herein.

(ii) With respect to those Underlying Mortgage Loans that are FHA Loans, Seller Parties and Buyer desire that the Nominee be designated as mortgagee of record on the FHA LEAP System under mortgagee number [], and Guarantor shall submit all claims to HUD under such applicable number for remittance of amounts to the Agency Account. Seller Parties hereby instruct Nominee to remit all applicable amounts on deposit in the Agency Account to the Collection Account within two (2) Business Days of receipt.

(iii) With respect to those Underlying Mortgage Loans that are VA Loans, Seller Parties and Buyer desire that the Nominee be designated as the payee under payee vendor identification number [], and Servicer shall submit all claims to VALERI under such applicable number for remittance of amounts to the Agency Account. Any amounts paid by VALERI with respect to a VA Loan shall be paid to Nominee; such amounts shall be remitted by Nominee into the Collection Account within two (2) Business Days of receipt.

(iv) With respect to those Underlying Mortgage Loans that are USDA Loans, Seller Parties and Buyer desire that the Nominee be designated as the lender of record under identification number [], and Guarantor shall submit all claims to RHS under such applicable number for remittance of amounts to the Agency Account. RHS shall make payment of any claim with respect to a USDA Loan directly to Nominee for remittance into the Collection Account within two (2) Business Days of receipt. Seller Parties provide the lender agreement with respect to the Buyer to the RHS.

(v) Following receipt by Nominee and Servicer each of written notice of the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Nominee and Servicer each agrees to take direction from the Buyer with respect to the FHA Loans, VA Loans and USDA Loans. Prior to such time, Nominee and Servicer each shall take direction from Seller Parties with respect to such FHA Loans, VA Loans and USDA Loans.

(vi) It is the intent of the Seller Parties and the Buyer that the Nominee retain bare legal title to the Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Property for all purposes including, without limitation, for purposes of Section 541(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and accordingly, Guarantor, in its capacity as servicer or nominee, shall have no property right to the Underlying Mortgage Loans or Underlying REO Property.

(vii) Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, Buyer may terminate Guarantor as Nominee and appoint itself or another person as the successor nominee.

(b) Remittance of Collections.

(i) The Nominee shall segregate all amounts collected on account of such Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Properties, and shall remit such collections (collectively, the "Funds") no later than two (2) Business Days following receipt to the Collection Account in accordance with the below instructions. Each Seller Party hereby notifies and instructs the Nominee and the Nominee is hereby authorized and instructed to remit any and all Funds which would be otherwise payable to Seller Parties with respect to the Underlying Mortgage Loans and/or Underlying REO Property to the Collection Account which instructions are irrevocable without the prior written consent of Buyer.

(ii) To the extent any of HUD, VA or USDA deducts, from amounts otherwise due on account of Underlying Mortgage Loans or Underlying REO Property subject to this Agreement, any amounts owing by Nominee to HUD, VA or USDA, Nominee shall deposit, within two (2) Business Days following notice or knowledge of such deduction by HUD, VA or USDA, such deducted amounts into the Collection Account.

(c) Agency Matters.

(i) Guarantor shall maintain all Agency Approvals. Guarantor has adequate financial standing, servicing facilities, procedures and experienced personnel necessary for the sound servicing of mortgage loans of the same types as may from time to time constitute Mortgage Loans and in accordance with Accepted Servicing Practices.

(ii) Should Guarantor, for any reason, cease to possess all such Agency Approvals, or should notification to the Agency or, to HUD, FHA, VA or USDA be required with respect to any non-compliance or breach (other than routine and customary notices not materially affecting its eligibility to service mortgage loans for the applicable Agency, HUD, FHA or VA), Servicer shall so notify Seller Parties and Buyer immediately in writing. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, Guarantor shall take all necessary action to maintain all of its Agency Approvals at all times during the term of this Agreement and each outstanding Transaction. Servicer shall service all Mortgage Loans in accordance with the FHA Regulations, VA Regulations or USDA Regulations, as applicable.

Section 33. Confidentiality. (a) Each party hereto hereby acknowledges and agrees that all written or computer-readable information provided by one party to any other party hereto regarding the terms set forth in any of the Facility Documents or the Transactions contemplated thereby (the "Confidential Terms") shall be kept confidential and shall not be divulged to any party without the prior written consent of the other party except to the extent that (i) it is necessary to do so in working with legal counsel, auditors, taxing authorities or other governmental agencies or regulatory bodies or in order to comply with any applicable federal or state laws, (ii) any of the Confidential Terms are in the public domain other than due to a breach of this covenant, (iii) after the occurrence of an Event of a Default, Buyer determines such information to be necessary or desirable to disclose in connection with the marketing and sales of the Purchased Assets or Pledged Items or otherwise to enforce or exercise Buyer's rights hereunder or (iv) it is necessary to do so in order to obtain necessary consents from lenders, bond holders, or investors to enter into the Facility Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Facility Document, the parties hereto may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, any fact relevant to understanding the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) relating to such federal, state and local tax treatment and that may be relevant to understanding such tax treatment; provided that Seller and Guarantor may not disclose the name of or identifying information with respect to Buyer or any pricing terms (including, without limitation, the Pricing Rate, Purchase Price Percentage and Purchase Price) or other nonpublic business or financial information (including any sublimits and financial covenants) that is unrelated to the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions and is not relevant to understanding the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, without the prior written consent of Buyer. The Buyer hereby acknowledges and agrees that all information provided by a Seller Party or Guarantor to Buyer regarding any servicing data, performance data, loan stratifications or any other data of any loans and REO properties a Seller Party, Guarantor or Seller Affiliate owns and/or is servicing, in each case, whether or not such information is related to Eligible Assets shall be kept confidential and shall not be divulged to any party without the prior written consent of the Seller Parties, Guarantor or Seller Affiliate (as applicable) except to the extent Buyer determines such information to be necessary to enforce or exercise Buyer's rights hereunder. The provisions set forth in this Section 33 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, each party hereto shall comply with all applicable local, state and federal laws, including, without limitation, all privacy and data protection law, rules and regulations that are applicable to the Purchased Assets, Underlying Assets and Pledged Assets and/or any applicable terms of this Agreement (the "Confidential Information"). Each party hereto understands that the Confidential Information may contain "nonpublic personal information", as that term is defined in Section 509(4) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (the "GLB Act"), and each party hereto agrees to maintain such nonpublic personal information that it receives hereunder in accordance with the GLB Act and other applicable federal and state privacy laws. Each Seller Party and Guarantor shall implement such physical and other security measures as shall be necessary to (a) ensure the security and confidentiality of the "nonpublic personal information" of the "customers" and "consumers" (as those terms are defined in the GLB Act) of Buyer or any Affiliate of Buyer which Buyer holds (b) protect against any threats or hazards to the security and integrity of such nonpublic personal information, and (c) protect against any unauthorized access to or use of such nonpublic personal information. Guarantor shall, at a minimum establish and maintain such data security program as is necessary to meet the objectives of the Interagency Guidelines Establishing Standards for Safeguarding Customer Information as set forth in the Code of Federal Regulations at 12 C.F.R. Parts 30, 208, 211, 225, 263, 308, 364, 568 and 570, and shall cause the Seller Parties to comply therewith, to the extent applicable. Upon request, each Seller Party and Guarantor will provide evidence reasonably satisfactory to allow Buyer to confirm that such Seller Party and/or Guarantor has satisfied its obligations as required under this Section. Without limitation, this may include Buyer's review of audits, summaries of test results, and other equivalent evaluations of each Seller Party and/or Guarantor. Each Seller Party and Guarantor shall notify Buyer promptly following discovery of any breach or compromise of the security, confidentiality, or integrity of nonpublic personal information of the customers and consumers of Buyer or any Affiliate of Buyer provided directly to such Seller Party or Guarantor by Buyer or such Affiliate. Each Seller Party and Guarantor shall provide such notice to Buyer by personal delivery, by facsimile with confirmation of receipt, or by overnight courier with confirmation of receipt to the applicable requesting individual.

Section 34. Intent. (a) The parties recognize that each Transaction is a "repurchase agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101 of Title 11 of the United States Code, as amended, a "securities contract" as that term is defined in Section 741 of Title 11 of the United States Code, as amended, and a "master netting agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101(38A)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, that all payments hereunder are deemed "margin payments" or "settlement payments" as defined in Title 11 of the United States Code, and that the pledge of the Pledged Items constitutes "a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement" that is "related to" the Agreement and Transactions hereunder within the meaning of Sections 101(38A)(A), 101(47)(A)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code. Seller and Buyer further recognize and intend that this Agreement is an agreement to provide financial accommodations and is not subject to assumption pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 365(a).

(b) Buyer's right to liquidate the Purchased Assets, Pledged Assets, Underlying Mortgage Loans and Underlying REO Property delivered to it in connection with the Transactions hereunder or to accelerate or terminate this Agreement or otherwise exercise any other remedies pursuant to Section 16 hereof is a contractual right to liquidate, accelerate or terminate such Transaction as described in Bankruptcy Code Sections 555, 559 and 561; any payments or transfers of property made with respect to this Agreement or any Transaction to satisfy a Margin Deficit shall be considered a "margin payment" as such term is defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 741(5).

(c) The parties agree and acknowledge that if a party hereto is an "insured depository institution," as such term is defined in the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended ("FDIA"), then each Transaction hereunder is a "qualified financial contract," as that term is defined in FDIA and any rules, orders or policy statements thereunder (except insofar as the type of assets subject to such Transaction would render such definition inapplicable).

(d) It is understood that this Agreement constitutes a "netting contract" as defined in and subject to Title IV of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 ("FDICIA") and each payment entitlement and payment obligation under any Transaction hereunder shall constitute a "covered contractual payment entitlement" or "covered contractual payment obligation", respectively, as defined in and subject to FDICIA (except insofar as one or both of the parties is not a "financial institution" as that term is defined in FDICIA).

(e) This Agreement is intended to be a "master netting agreement", "repurchase agreement" and a "securities contract," within the meaning of Section 101(47), Section 555, Section 559, Section 561 and Section 741 under the Bankruptcy Code.

(f) Each party agrees that this Agreement is intended to create mutuality of obligations among the parties, and as such, the Agreement constitutes a contract which (i) is between all of the parties and (ii) places each party in the same right and capacity.

(g) With respect to the security interest granted in Section 9, Section 9(a), as stated therein and affirmed by Seller here, is intended to constitute a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement related to this Agreement and Transactions hereunder as defined under Sections 101(38A)(A), 101(47)(A)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code, and is further intended to be a guaranty of the Seller's Obligations to the Buyer.

Section 35. Disclosure Relating to Certain Federal Protections. The parties acknowledge that they have been advised that:

(a) in the case of Transactions in which one of the parties is a broker or dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") under Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("1934 Act"), the Securities Investor Protection Corporation has taken the position that the provisions of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 ("SIPA") do not protect the other party with respect to any Transaction hereunder;

(b) in the case of Transactions in which one of the parties is a government securities broker or a government securities dealer registered with the SEC under Section 15C of the 1934 Act, SIPA will not provide protection to the other party with respect to any Transaction hereunder; and

(c) in the case of Transactions in which one of the parties is a financial institution, funds held by the financial institution pursuant to a Transaction hereunder are not a deposit and therefore are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, as applicable.

Section 36. Conflicts. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement, any other Facility Document and any Confirmation, the documents shall control in the following order of priority: first, the terms of the Confirmation shall prevail, then the terms of this Agreement shall prevail, and then the terms of the Facility Documents shall prevail.

Section 37. Authorizations. Any of the persons whose signatures and titles appear on Schedule 2 are authorized, acting singly, to act for a Seller Party or Buyer, as the case may be, under this Agreement.

Section 38. Miscellaneous.

(a) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument, and any of the parties hereto may execute this Agreement by signing any such counterpart. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement in Portable Document Format (PDF) or by facsimile shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed original counterpart of this Agreement.

(b) Captions. The captions and headings appearing herein are included solely for convenience of reference and are not intended to affect the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

(c) Acknowledgment. Each Seller Party and Guarantor hereby acknowledges that:

(i) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Facility Documents;

(ii) Buyer has no fiduciary relationship to such Seller Party or Guarantor; and

(iii) no joint venture exists between Buyer and such Seller Party and/or Guarantor.

(d) Documents Mutually Drafted. Each Seller Party, Guarantor and Buyer agree that this Agreement and each other Facility Document prepared in connection with the Transactions set forth herein have been mutually drafted and negotiated by each party, and consequently such documents shall not be construed against either party as the drafter thereof.

Section 39. General Interpretive Principles. For purposes of this Agreement, except as otherwise expressly provided or unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) the terms defined in this Agreement have the meanings assigned to them in this Agreement and include the plural as well as the singular, and the use of any gender herein shall be deemed to include the other gender;

(b) accounting terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in accordance with GAAP;

(c) references herein to "Articles", "Sections", "Subsections", "Paragraphs", and other subdivisions without reference to a document are to designated Articles, Sections, Subsections, Paragraphs and other subdivisions of this Agreement;

(e) the words "herein", "hereof", "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision;

(f) the term "include" or "including" shall mean without limitation by reason of enumeration;

SCHEDULE 1-A

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES RE: UNDERLYING REO PROPERTY

With respect to each Underlying REO Property the beneficial interest in which is evidenced by the REO Subsidiary Interest pledged to further support the Obligations hereunder, Seller shall be deemed to make the representations and warranties set forth below to Buyer as of the Purchase Date and as of each date such Underlying REO Property is pledged in connection with a Transaction.

Seller is making these representations and warranties contained in Schedule 1-A to the best of its knowledge. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Underlying REO Property would fail to comply with any applicable representation and warranty in this Schedule 1-A but for Seller's lack of knowledge with respect thereto, then notwithstanding Seller's lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty, such Underlying REO Property shall nevertheless be deemed to have breached the applicable representation and warranty and Seller acknowledges that such Underlying REO Property shall be deemed to have a Market Value of zero in accordance with the definition of Market Value hereunder. For purposes of this Schedule 1-A and the representations and warranties set forth herein, a breach of a representation or warranty shall be deemed to have been cured with respect to an Underlying REO Property if and when Seller has taken or caused to be taken action such that the event, circumstance or condition that gave rise to such breach no longer adversely affects such Underlying REO Property or when no portion of the Purchase Price is allocated to such Underlying REO Property.

(a) Origin. Each Underlying REO Property was related to an Underlying Mortgage Loan which became an REO Property while in connection with to a Transaction.

(b) Asset File. All documents required to be delivered as part of the Asset File, including a Buyer Deed, have been delivered to or are in transit to the Custodian, an attorney in connection with the prior foreclosure of the Underlying Mortgage Loan or a governmental entity (including without limitation, sheriff's office, county court or county recorder's office) and all information contained in the related Asset File (or as otherwise provided to Buyer) in respect of such Underlying REO Property is accurate and complete in all material respects; provided, however, that with respect to a deed in transit, a copy of the attorney bailee letter used to transmit the Asset File, as applicable, and a sale notice or sale confirmation, as applicable, has been delivered promptly to Buyer. To the extent that a deed has been sent out for recording, an unrecorded copy will be contained in the Asset File within a period of thirty (30) days and a recorded copy will be contained in the Asset File within one hundred and eighty (180) days from the date the Underlying Mortgage Loan became an Underlying REO Property; provided, however, that in the case of a delay caused by the recording office, an officer's certificate shall be delivered to the Buyer by the Servicer stating that such deed has been dispatched to the appropriate recording office for recordation and that the recorded copy will be promptly delivered to the Custodian upon receipt, but in any event, such recorded copy shall be contained within the Asset File within two hundred seventy (270) days; provided further that such recorded copy may be contained within the Asset File within three hundred sixty five (365) days after the date the Underlying Mortgage Loan became an Underlying REO Property if Guarantor provides written notice to Buyer within two hundred seventy (270) days after the date such Underlying Mortgage Loan became an Underlying REO Property.

(c) Ownership. The REO Subsidiary is the sole owner and holder of the Underlying REO Property and acquired the Underlying REO Property for reasonably equivalent value.

(d) Underlying REO Property as Described. The information set forth in the Asset Schedule accurately reflects information contained in the Seller's records in all material respects.

(e) Taxes, Assessments and Other Charges. To the best of Seller's knowledge, all Taxes, governmental assessments, insurance premiums, water, sewer and municipal charges, leasehold payments or ground rents which previously became due and owing have been paid.

(f) No Litigation. To the best of Seller's knowledge, other than any customary claim or counterclaim arising out of any foreclosure or collection proceeding relating to any Underlying REO Property, there is no litigation, proceeding or governmental investigation pending, or any order, injunction or decree outstanding, existing or relating to Seller, any prior owner, any Servicer or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to the Underlying REO Property that would materially and adversely affect the value of the Underlying REO Property.

(g) Flood Insurance. If any improvement on, or any portion of, the Underlying REO Property is in an area identified by any federal Governmental Authority as having special flood hazards, and flood insurance is available, a flood insurance policy meeting the current guidelines of the Federal Emergency Management Agency is in effect with a generally acceptable insurance carrier, in an amount representing coverage not less than the lesser of (1) the full insurable value of the Underlying REO Property, and (2) the maximum amount of insurance available under the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended by the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973.

(h) No Mechanics' Liens. There are no mechanics' or similar liens or claims which have been filed for work, labor or material affecting the related Underlying REO Property.

(i) No Occupants. Other than with respect to an Underlying REO Property as to which the redemption period has not yet expired or the eviction process has not yet been completed, no holdover borrower has any right to occupy or is currently occupying any Underlying REO Property.

(j) Underlying REO Undamaged; No Condemnation Proceedings. There is no proceeding pending or threatened for the total or partial condemnation of the Underlying REO Property. The Underlying REO Property is undamaged by waste, fire, earthquake or earth movement, windstorm, flood, tornado or other casualty so as to affect materially and adversely the value of the Underlying REO Property or the use for which the premises were intended and each Underlying REO Property is in good repair.

(k) Environmental Matters. There is no pending action or proceeding directly involving the Underlying REO Property in which compliance with any environmental law, rule or regulation is an issue or is secured by a secured lender's environmental insurance policy.

(l) Taxes and Assessments Not Delinquent. The real estate taxes and/or assessments with respect to the related Underlying REO Property are not delinquent in payment.

(m) REO Property Insurance. Each Underlying REO Property is insured by a hazard insurance policy in an amount equal to the greater of (i) the lesser of (a) the fair market value of such Underlying REO Property or (b) 100% of the replacement value of the improvements on the Underlying REO Property (as indicated by the last known coverage amount for the Underlying REO Property) and (ii) the minimum amount of hazard insurance required by the applicable mortgage guaranty insurer. Each Underlying REO Property is also insured by a blanket general liability insurance policy in an amount equal to or greater than the minimum amount of blanket general liability insurance required by the Agency, FHA, VA, USDA and HUD.

(n) FHA/VA/USDA Insurance. Each Underlying REO Property (i) is covered by FHA Mortgage Insurance and there exists no impairment to full recovery without indemnity to HUD or the FHA under the FHA Mortgage Insurance, (ii) is guaranteed, or eligible to be guaranteed by a VA Loan Guaranty Agreement, under the VA Regulations and there exists no impairment to full recovery without indemnity to the VA under the VA Loan Guaranty Agreement, or (iii) is guaranteed, or eligible to be guaranteed by an USDA guaranty, under the USDA Regulations and there exists no impairment to full recovery without indemnity to the USDA under the USDA guaranty.

(o) Foreclosure. Each Underlying REO Property was foreclosed upon in accordance with Accepted Servicing Practices or was acquired by a deed-in-lieu of foreclosure.

(p) Compliance with Law. Each Underlying REO Property shall comply with all requirements of all applicable laws, rules, regulations and orders, whether now in effect or hereafter enacted or promulgated by any applicable Governmental Authority (including all environmental laws).

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES RE: UNDERLYING MORTGAGE LOANS

With respect to each Underlying Mortgage Loan that is subject to a Transaction hereunder, Seller shall be deemed to make the representations and warranties set forth below to Buyer as of the Purchase Date and as of each date such Underlying Mortgage Loan is subject to a Transaction.

Seller is making these representations and warranties contained in Schedule 1-B to the best of its knowledge. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Underlying Mortgage Loan would fail to comply with any applicable representation and warranty in this Schedule 1-B but for Seller's lack of knowledge with respect thereto, then notwithstanding Seller's lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty, such Underlying Mortgage Loan shall nevertheless be deemed to have breached the applicable representation and warranty and Seller acknowledges that such Underlying Mortgage Loan shall be deemed to have a Market Value of zero in accordance with the definition of Market Value hereunder. For purposes of this Schedule 1-B and the representations and warranties set forth herein, a breach of a representation or warranty shall be deemed to have been cured with respect to an Underlying Mortgage Loan if and when Seller has taken or caused to be taken action such that the event, circumstance or condition that gave rise to such breach no longer adversely affects such Underlying Mortgage Loan or when no portion of the Purchase Price is allocated to such Underlying Mortgage Loan.

(a) Underlying Mortgage Loans as Described. The information set forth in the related Asset Schedule is complete, true and correct in all material respects. No Underlying Mortgage Loan is a reverse mortgage, a construction mortgage, a rehabilitation mortgage, HELOC or commercial loan.

(b) No Outstanding Charges. All Taxes, governmental assessments, insurance premiums, water, sewer and municipal charges, leasehold payments or ground rents which previously became due and owing have been paid.

(c) Original Terms Unmodified. The terms of the Mortgage Note and Mortgage have not been impaired, waived, altered or modified in any respect, from the date of origination; except by a written instrument which has been recorded, if necessary to protect the interests of Buyer, and which has been delivered to the Custodian and the terms of which are reflected in the Asset Schedule. The substance of any such waiver, alteration or modification has been approved by the title insurer, to the extent required, and its terms are reflected on the Asset Schedule, and will not impair the applicable FHA Mortgage Insurance, VA Loan Guaranty Agreement or USDA guaranty. No Mortgagor in respect of the Underlying Mortgage Loan has been released, in whole or in part, except in connection with an assumption agreement approved by the title insurer, to the extent required by such policy, and which assumption agreement is part of the Asset File delivered to the Custodian and the terms of which are reflected in the Asset Schedule.

(d) No Defenses. The Underlying Mortgage Loan is not subject to any right of rescission, set off, counterclaim or defense, including, without limitation, the defense of usury, nor will the operation of any of the terms of the Mortgage Note or the Mortgage, or the exercise of any right thereunder, render either the Mortgage Note or the Mortgage unenforceable, in whole or in part and no such right of rescission, set off, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto, and no Mortgagor in respect of the Underlying Mortgage Loan was a debtor in any state or Federal bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding at the time the Underlying Mortgage Loan was originated.

(e) Hazard Insurance. The Mortgaged Property is insured by a fire and extended perils insurance policy, issued by an insurer acceptable to FHA, VA, USDA and Ginnie Mae (a "Qualified Insurer"), and such other hazards as are customary in the area where the Mortgaged Property is located, and to the extent required by Seller, any prior owner or any Servicer, as applicable, as of the date of origination consistent with the Underwriting Guidelines, against earthquake and other risks insured against by Persons operating like properties in the locality of the Mortgaged Property, in an amount not less than the lesser of (i) 100% of the replacement cost of all improvements to the Mortgaged Property or (ii) the outstanding principal balance of the Underlying Mortgage Loan, and consistent with the amount that would have been required as of the date of origination in accordance with the Underwriting Guidelines. If any portion of the Mortgaged Property is in an area identified by any federal Governmental Authority as having special flood hazards, and flood insurance is available, a flood insurance policy meeting the current guidelines of the Federal Emergency Management Agency is in effect with a generally acceptable insurance carrier, in an amount representing coverage not less than the least of (1) 100% of the replacement cost of all improvements to the Mortgaged Property, (2) the outstanding principal balance of the Underlying Mortgage Loan, and (3) the maximum amount of insurance available under the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended by the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973. All such insurance policies (collectively, the "hazard insurance policy") contain a standard mortgagee clause naming Servicer, its successors and assigns (including, without limitation, subsequent owners of the Underlying Mortgage Loan), as mortgagee, and may not be reduced, terminated or canceled without 30 days' prior written notice to the mortgagee. No such notice has been received by Servicer. All premiums on such insurance policy have been paid. The related Mortgage obligates the Mortgagor to maintain all such insurance and, at such Mortgagor's failure to do so, authorizes the mortgagee to maintain such insurance at the Mortgagor's cost and expense and to seek reimbursement therefor from such Mortgagor. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given an opportunity to choose the carrier of the required hazard insurance, provided the policy is not a "master" or "blanket" hazard insurance policy covering a condominium, or any hazard insurance policy covering the common facilities of a planned unit development. The hazard insurance policy is the valid and binding obligation of the insurer and is in full force and effect. Seller has not engaged in, nor has any knowledge of the Mortgagor's having engaged in, any act or omission which would impair the coverage of any such policy, the benefits of the endorsement provided for herein, or the validity and binding effect of either including, without limitation, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other Person, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller.

(f) Compliance with Applicable Laws. Any and all requirements of any federal, state or local law including, without limitation, usury, truth-in-lending, real estate settlement procedures, consumer credit protection, equal credit opportunity and disclosure laws and unfair and deceptive practices laws applicable to the Underlying Mortgage Loan have been complied with, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not involve the violation of any such laws or regulations.

(g) No Satisfaction of Mortgage. Except as permitted or required by Ginnie Mae, the Mortgage has not been satisfied, cancelled, subordinated or rescinded, in whole or in part, and the Mortgaged Property has not been released from the lien of the Mortgage, in whole or in part, nor has any instrument been executed that would effect any such satisfaction, cancellation, subordination, rescission or release. Seller has not waived the performance by the Mortgagor of any action, if the Mortgagor's failure to perform such action would cause the Underlying Mortgage Loan to be in default, nor has Seller, any prior owner or any Servicer waived any default resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor.

(h) Valid First Lien. The Mortgage is a valid, subsisting, enforceable and perfected (a) with respect to each first lien Underlying Mortgage Loan, first priority lien and first priority security interest, on the real property included in the Mortgaged Property (which criterion shall be deemed satisfied so long as any intervening Lien with priority, such as (but not limited to) an HOA Lien or PACE Lien, is curable and is promptly cured), including all buildings on the Mortgaged Property and all installations and mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating and air conditioning systems located in or annexed to such buildings, and all additions, alterations and replacements made at any time with respect to the foregoing. The lien of the Mortgage is subject only to:

(i) the lien of current real property taxes and assessments not yet due and payable;

(ii) covenants, conditions and restrictions, rights of way, easements and other matters of the public record as of the date of recording acceptable to prudent mortgage lending institutions generally and specifically referred to in a lender's title insurance policy delivered to the originator of the Underlying Mortgage Loan and (a) referred to or otherwise considered in the appraisal made for the originator of the Underlying Mortgage Loan or (b) which do not adversely affect the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property set forth in such appraisal; and

(iii) other matters to which like properties are commonly subject which do not materially interfere with the benefits of the security intended to be provided by the Mortgage or the use, enjoyment, value or marketability of the related Mortgaged Property.

Any security agreement, chattel mortgage or equivalent document related to and delivered in connection with the Underlying Mortgage Loan establishes and creates a valid, subsisting and enforceable first lien and first priority security interest on the property described therein.

(i) Validity of Mortgage Documents. The Mortgage Note and the Mortgage and any other agreement executed and delivered by a Mortgagor or guarantor, if applicable, in connection with an Underlying Mortgage Loan are genuine, and each is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the maker thereof enforceable in accordance with its terms. All parties to the Mortgage Note, the Mortgage and any other such related agreement had legal capacity to enter into the Underlying Mortgage Loan and to execute and deliver the Mortgage Note, the Mortgage and any such agreement, and the Mortgage Note, the Mortgage and any other such related agreement have been duly and properly executed by such related parties.

(j) Full Disbursement of Proceeds. The Underlying Mortgage Loan has been closed and the proceeds of the Underlying Mortgage Loan have been fully disbursed to or for the account of the Mortgagor and there is no obligation for the mortgagee to advance additional funds thereunder, and any and all requirements as to completion of any on site or off site improvement and as to disbursements of any escrow funds therefor have been complied with. All costs, fees and expenses incurred in making or closing the Underlying Mortgage Loan and the recording of the Mortgage were paid, and the Mortgagor is not entitled to any refund of any amounts paid or due under the Mortgage Note or Mortgage (with exception to escrow holdbacks).

(k) Ownership. Other than Pooled Loans, Nominee is the sole owner of record and holder of the Underlying Mortgage Loan and the Indebtedness evidenced by each Mortgage Note and upon the sale of the Underlying Mortgage Loans to Buyer, Servicer will retain the Asset Files or any part thereof with respect thereto not delivered to the Custodian, Buyer or Buyer's designee, in trust only for the purpose of servicing and supervising the servicing of each Underlying Mortgage Loan. Other than Pooled Loans, and except as contemplated by the Facility Documents, the Underlying Mortgage Loan is not assigned or pledged, and Nominee has good, indefeasible and marketable title thereto, free and clear of any encumbrance, equity, participation interest, lien, pledge, charge, claim or security interest, and has full right and authority subject to no interest or participation of, or agreement with, any other party, to pledge each Underlying Mortgage Loan pursuant to this Agreement.

(l) Doing Business. All parties which have had any interest in the Underlying Mortgage Loan, whether as mortgagee, assignee, pledgee or otherwise, are (or, during the period in which they held and disposed of such interest, were) (i) in compliance with any and all applicable licensing requirements of the laws of the state wherein the Mortgaged Property is located, and (ii) either (A) organized under the laws of such state, (B) qualified to do business in such state, (C) a federal savings and loan association, a savings bank or a national bank having a principal office in such state, or (D) not doing business in such state.

(m) Title Insurance. The Underlying Mortgage Loan is covered by either (i) an attorney's opinion of title and abstract of title, the form and substance of which is acceptable to prudent mortgage lending institutions making mortgage loans in the area wherein the Mortgaged Property is located or (ii) an ALTA lender's title insurance policy or other generally acceptable form of policy or insurance acceptable to Ginnie Mae and each such title insurance policy is issued by a title insurer acceptable to Ginnie Mae and qualified to do business in the jurisdiction where the Mortgaged Property is located, insuring Nominee, its successors and assigns, as to the first priority lien of the Mortgage, as applicable, in the original principal amount of the Underlying Mortgage Loan, with respect to an Underlying Mortgage Loan (or to the extent a Note provides for negative amortization, the maximum amount of negative amortization in accordance with the Mortgage), subject only to the exceptions contained in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of paragraph (h) of this Schedule 1-B, and in the case of adjustable rate Underlying Mortgage Loans, against any loss by reason of the invalidity or unenforceability of the lien resulting from the provisions of the Mortgage providing for adjustment to the mortgage interest rate and Monthly Payment. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given the opportunity to choose the carrier of the required mortgage title insurance. Additionally, such lender's title insurance policy affirmatively insures ingress and egress and against encroachments by or upon the Mortgaged Property or any interest therein. The title policy does not contain any special exceptions (other than the standard exclusions) for zoning and uses and has been marked to delete the standard survey exception or to replace the standard survey exception with a specific survey reading. The applicable originator, its successors and assigns, are the sole insureds of such lender's title insurance policy, and lender's title insurance policy is valid and remains in full force and effect and will be in force and effect upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No prior holder or servicer of the related Mortgage, including Seller, has done, by act or omission, anything which would or may invalidate any such policy.

(n) TRID Compliance. With respect to each Underlying Mortgage Loan, where the Mortgagor's loan application for such Underlying Mortgage Loan was taken on or after October 3, 2015, such Underlying Mortgage Loan was in compliance with the TILA RESPA Integrated Disclosure Rule.

(o) Location of Improvements; No Encroachments. All improvements which were considered in determining the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property lie wholly within the boundaries and building restriction lines of the Mortgaged Property, and no improvements on adjoining properties encroach upon the Mortgaged Property, all except those that are insured against by the title insurance policy referred to in clause (m) above.

(p) Origination; Payment Terms. The Underlying Mortgage Loan was originated by a mortgagee approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act, a savings and loan association, a savings bank, a commercial bank, credit union, insurance company or similar banking institution which is supervised and examined by a federal or state authority.

(q) Customary Provisions. The Mortgage contains customary and enforceable provisions such as to render the rights and remedies of the holder thereof adequate for the realization against the Mortgaged Property of the benefits of the security provided thereby, including, (i) in the case of a Mortgage designated as a deed of trust, by trustee's sale, and (ii) otherwise by judicial or non-judicial foreclosure. There is no homestead or other exemption or other right available to the Mortgagor that would either (y) prevent the sale of the related Mortgaged Property at a trustee's sale or otherwise, or (z) prevent the foreclosure on the related Mortgage. The Mortgage Note and Mortgage are on forms acceptable to Ginnie Mae.

(r) Collection Practices; Escrow Deposits; Interest Rate Adjustments. The origination and collection practices used by the originator, each servicer of the Underlying Mortgage Loan (other than the Buyer in the capacity as a prior servicer) and Seller with respect to the Underlying Mortgage Loan have been in all respects in compliance with Accepted Servicing Practices, applicable laws and regulations, and have been in all respects legal and proper. With respect to escrow deposits and escrow payments, if any, all such payments are in the possession of, or under the control of, Servicer and there exist no deficiencies in connection therewith for which customary arrangements for repayment thereof have not been made. All escrow payments have been collected by Servicer in full compliance with state and federal law. All mortgage interest rate adjustments have been made in strict compliance with state and federal law and the terms of the related Mortgage Note. Any interest required to be paid pursuant to state, federal and local law has been properly paid and credited.

(s) Compliance with Anti-Money Laundering Laws. Seller and Servicer have complied with all applicable anti-money laundering laws and regulations, including without limitation the USA Patriot Act of 2001 (collectively, the "Anti-Money Laundering Laws").

(t) FHA/VA/USDA Insurance. Each Underlying Mortgage Loan (i) is covered by FHA Mortgage Insurance and there exists no impairment to full recovery without indemnity to HUD or the FHA under the FHA Mortgage Insurance, (ii) is guaranteed, or eligible to be guaranteed by a VA Loan Guaranty Agreement, under the VA Regulations and there exists no impairment to full recovery without indemnity to the VA under the VA Loan Guaranty Agreement, or (iii) is guaranteed, or eligible to be guaranteed by an USDA guaranty, under the USDA Regulations and there exists no impairment to full recovery without indemnity to the USDA under the USDA guaranty.

(u) Conformance with Underwriting Standards. Each Underlying Mortgage Loan was originated in accordance with Ginnie Mae underwriting guidelines and FHA, VA or USDA requirements, as applicable, and other than due to delinquency or modification, would otherwise be acceptable for inclusion in a Ginnie Mae Security.

(v) No Additional Collateral. The Mortgage Note is not and has not been secured by any collateral except the lien of the corresponding Mortgage and the security interest of any applicable security agreement or chattel mortgage referred to in clause (h) above.

(w) Appraisal. The Asset File contains an appraisal or an underwriting property valuation using an automated valuation model of the related Mortgaged Property signed prior to the funding of the Underlying Mortgage Loan by a qualified appraiser, duly appointed by Guarantor, who had no interest, direct or indirect in the Mortgaged Property or in any loan made on the security thereof, and whose compensation is not affected by the approval or disapproval of the Underlying Mortgage Loan, and the appraisal and appraiser both satisfy the requirements of Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac and Title XI of the Federal Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 as amended and the regulations promulgated thereunder, all as in effect on the date the Underlying Mortgage Loan was originated.

(x) Deeds of Trust. In the event the Mortgage constitutes a deed of trust, a trustee, authorized and duly qualified under applicable law to serve as such, has been properly designated and currently so serves and is named in the Mortgage, and no fees or expenses are or will become payable by the Buyer to the trustee under the deed of trust, except in connection with a trustee's sale after default by the Mortgagor.

(y) Transfer of Underlying Mortgage Loans. Except with respect to Underlying Mortgage Loans registered with MERS, the Assignment of Mortgage is in recordable form and is acceptable for recording under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Mortgaged Property is located.

(z) Reserved.

(aa) Disclosure Materials. The Mortgagor has executed a statement to the effect that the Mortgagor has received all disclosure materials required by applicable law with respect to the making of adjustable rate mortgage loans, and Servicer maintains such statement in the Servicing File.

(hh) Mortgaged Property Undamaged; No Condemnation Proceedings. There is no proceeding pending or threatened for the total or partial condemnation of the Mortgaged Property. (ii) No Violation of Environmental Laws. To Seller's knowledge, there is no violation of any applicable environmental law (including, without limitation, asbestos) with regard to pollutants or hazardous or toxic substances, with respect to the applicable Mortgaged Property.

(jj) Due on Sale. SCHEDULE 1-C

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES
RE: REO SUBSIDIARY INTERESTS

With respect to the REO Subsidiary Interest representing direct or indirect beneficial interests in an Underlying REO Property pledged to support the Obligations hereunder, Seller shall be deemed to make the representations and warranties set forth below to Buyer as of the Purchase Date and as of each date the REO Subsidiary Interest is pledged in connection with a Transaction.

Seller is making these representations and warranties contained in Schedule 1-C to the best of its knowledge. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the REO Subsidiary Interest would fail to comply with any applicable representation and warranty in this Schedule 1-C but for Seller's lack of knowledge with respect thereto, then notwithstanding Seller's lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty, the REO Subsidiary Interest shall nevertheless be deemed to have breached the applicable representation and warranty and Seller acknowledges that the REO Subsidiary Interest shall be deemed to have a Market Value of zero in accordance with the definition of Market Value hereunder. For purposes of this Schedule 1-C and the representations and warranties set forth herein, a breach of a representation or warranty shall be deemed to have been cured with respect to the REO Subsidiary Interest if and when Seller has taken or caused to be taken action such that the event, circumstance or condition that gave rise to such breach no longer adversely affects the REO Subsidiary Interest or when no portion of the Purchase Price is allocated to the REO Subsidiary Interest.

(a) REO Subsidiary Interest. The REO Subsidiary Interest consists of a certificate or note evidencing a debt or equity interest in a Delaware limited liability company.

(b) No Material Adverse Effect. There shall not have occurred a Material Adverse Effect with respect to the REO Subsidiary.

(c) Power and Authority. Seller has full right, power and authority to pledge and assign such REO Subsidiary Interest in accordance with the REO Subsidiary Agreement and such REO Subsidiary Certificate has not been cancelled, satisfied or rescinded in whole or part nor has any instrument been executed that would effect a cancellation, satisfaction or rescission thereof.

(d) Consent and Approvals. Other than consents and approvals obtained as of the related Purchase Date or those already granted in the related documents governing such REO Subsidiary Interest, no consent or approval by any Person is required in connection with the Seller's pledge of any REO Subsidiary Interest. No third party holds any "right of first refusal," "right of first negotiation," "right of first offer," purchase option, or other similar rights of any kind, and no other impediment exists to any such transfer or exercise of rights or remedies.

(e) REO Subsidiary Certificate. With respect to any physical REO Subsidiary Interest, such REO Subsidiary Certificate and all transfer documents have been re-registered in Buyer's name and delivered to Buyer.

(f) Reserved.

(g) Compliance with Laws. As of the date of its issuance, such REO Subsidiary Interest complied in all material respects with, or was exempt from, all requirements of federal, state or local law relating to the issuance thereof including, without limitation, any registration requirements (if any) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

(h) No Changes or Waivers. Except as set forth in the Facility Documents, there is no document that by its terms materially and adversely modifies or affects the rights and obligations of the holder of such REO Subsidiary Interest, the terms of the related REO Subsidiary Agreement and, since issuance, there has been no material change or waiver to any term or provision of any such document, instrument or agreement.

(i) Reserved.

(j) Governmental Approvals. No consent, approval, authorization or order of, or registration or filing with, or notice to, any court or governmental agency or body having jurisdiction or regulatory authority over Seller is required for any transfer, pledge or assignment of such REO Subsidiary Interest.

(k) Notices. Seller has not received written notice of any outstanding liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind for which the holder of such REO Subsidiary Interest is or may become obligated.

(l) Servicer Reports and Trustee Reports. There is no material inaccuracy in any servicer report or trustee report delivered to it (and, in turn, delivered pursuant to the terms of this Agreement) in connection with such REO Subsidiary Interest that would have a Material Adverse Effect.

(m) Litigation. There are no actions, suits, arbitrations, investigations or proceedings pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against the Seller or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to the REO Subsidiary Interest before any Governmental Authority which might materially and adversely affect the value of the REO Subsidiary Interest.

(n) Amendments and Modifications. There has been no amendment or modification, or waiver of any material term or condition of, or settlement or compromise of any material claim or condition in respect of any REO Subsidiary Interest, or amendment or modification of the REO Subsidiary Agreement or any other documents delivered in connection therewith that are related to a REO Subsidiary Interest that would be material or adverse to the rights of Buyer under this Agreement or the other Facility Documents.

(o) REO Subsidiary Agreement. Neither (a) the execution and delivery of the REO Subsidiary Agreement, nor (b) the consummation of the transactions therein contemplated in compliance with the terms and provisions thereof will conflict with or result in a breach in any material respect of the charter or by-laws of the Seller, or any applicable law, rule or regulation, or any order, writ, injunction or decree of any Governmental Authority, or other material agreement or instrument to which Seller is a party or by which any of them or any of its Property is bound or to which it or its Property is subject, or constitute a default under any such material agreement or instrument, or (except for the Liens created pursuant to the REO Subsidiary Agreement) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any assets of Seller, pursuant to the terms of any such agreement or instrument.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES RE: POOLED LOANS

With respect to Pooled Loans, Seller shall be deemed to make the representations and warranties set forth below to Buyer as of the Purchase Date and as of each date the Pooled Loans are subject to a Transaction.

Seller makes the following representations and warranties to Buyer with respect to each Pooled Loan, as of the date the Underlying Mortgage Loan became a Pooled Loan, and at all times while the applicable Transaction hereunder is in full force and effect. For purposes of this Schedule 1-D and the representations and warranties set forth herein, a breach of a representation or warranty shall be deemed to have been cured with respect to a Pooled Loan if and when Seller has taken or caused to be taken action such that the event, circumstance or condition that gave rise to such breach no longer adversely affects such Pooled Loan. With respect to those representations and warranties which are made to the best of Seller's knowledge, if it is discovered by Seller or Buyer that the substance of such representation and warranty is inaccurate, notwithstanding Seller's lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty, such inaccuracy shall be deemed a breach of the applicable representation and warranty.

(a) Agency Approvals. Servicer (and each subservicer) is approved by Ginnie Mae as an approved issuer, Fannie Mae as an approved lender, Freddie Mac as an approved seller/servicer (as the case may be) and by FHA as an approved mortgagee and by VA as an approved VA lender, in each case in good standing (such collective approvals and conditions, "Agency Approvals"), with no event having occurred or Servicer (or any subservicer) having any reason whatsoever to believe or suspect will occur prior to the issuance of the Ginnie Mae Security, including without limitation a change in insurance coverage which would either make Servicer (or any subservicer) unable to comply with the eligibility requirements for maintaining all such Agency Approvals or require notification to the relevant Agency or to HUD, FHA or VA (other than routine and customary notices not materially affecting its eligibility to service mortgage loans for the applicable Agency, HUD, FHA or VA). Should Servicer (or any subservicer), for any reason, cease to possess all such Agency Approvals, or should notification to the relevant Agency or to HUD, FHA or VA be required (other than routine and customary notices not materially affecting its eligibility to service mortgage loans for the applicable Agency, HUD, FHA or VA), Seller shall so notify Buyer immediately in writing. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, Servicer shall take all necessary action to maintain all of its (and each subservicer's) Agency Approvals at all times during the term of this Agreement and each outstanding Transaction. Servicer (and any subservicer) has adequate financial standing, servicing facilities, procedures and experienced personnel necessary for the sound servicing of mortgage loans of the same types as may from time to time constitute Mortgage Loans and in accordance with Accepted Servicing Practices.

(b) Agency Eligibility. Each Pooled Loan is an Agency Eligible Mortgage Loan.

(c) Agency Representations. As to each Pooled Loan, all of the representations and warranties made or deemed made respecting same contained in (or incorporated by reference therein) the Ginnie Mae Guide provisions and Ginnie Mae Program (collectively, the "Standard Agency Mortgage Loan Representations") are (and shall be as of all relevant dates) true and correct in all material respects; and except as may be expressly and previously disclosed to Buyer, Seller has not negotiated with the Agency any exceptions or modifications to such Standard Agency Mortgage Loan Representations.

(d) Aggregate Principal Balance. The Cut-off Date Principal Balance respecting each Pooled Loan shall be at least equal to the original unpaid principal balance of the Ginnie Mae Security for the Pooled Loans designated to be issued.

(e) Committed Mortgage Loans. The Ginnie Mae Security to be issued on account of the Pooled Loans is covered by a Take-out Commitment, does not exceed the availability under such Take-out Commitment. Each Take-out Commitment is a legal, valid and binding in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(f) Certification. With respect to Pooled Loans being placed in a Ginnie Mae Security, the Custodian has certified such Pooled Loans to the Agency for the purpose of being swapped for a Ginnie Mae Security backed by such pool, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the Ginnie Mae Guide.

(g) Sole Subscriber. As to the Ginnie Mae Security being issued with respect to Pooled Loans, Buyer or the agent under the Joint Securities Account Control Agreement has been listed as the sole subscriber thereto.

(h) No Securities Issuance Failure. With respect to Pooled Loans being placed in a Ginnie Mae Security, no Securities Issuance Failure shall have occurred.

REPRESENTATIONS WITH RESPECT TO PARTICIPATION INTERESTS

Seller makes the following representations and warranties to Buyer with respect to each Participation Interest as of the Purchase Date for the purchase of any Participation by Buyer from Seller and as of the date of this Agreement and the Transactions hereunder and at all times while the Facility Documents and the Transactions hereunder are in full force and effect. With respect to those representations and warranties that are made to the best of Seller's knowledge, if it is discovered by Seller or Buyer that the substance of such representation and warranty is inaccurate, notwithstanding Seller's lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty, such inaccuracy shall be deemed a breach of the applicable representation and warranty.

(a) Participation Interests. If the Participation Interest represents a Participation Interest in an Underlying Mortgage Loan, the representations and warranties with respect to the related Underlying Mortgage Loan set forth on Schedule 1-B are true and correct in all material respects.

(b) Compliance with Law. Each Participation Interest complies in all respects with, or is exempt from, all applicable requirements of federal, state or local law relating to such Participation Interest.

(c) Good and Marketable Title. Immediately prior to the sale, transfer and assignment to Buyer thereof, the Seller has good and marketable title to, and is the sole owner and holder of, the Participation Interests, and Seller is transferring such Participation Interests free and clear of any and all liens, pledges, encumbrances, charges, security interests or any other ownership interests of any nature encumbering such Participation Interests. Upon consummation of the purchase contemplated to occur in respect of such Participation Interests, Seller will have validly and effectively conveyed to Buyer all legal and beneficial interest in and to such Participation Interests free and clear of any pledge, lien, encumbrance or security interest and upon the filing of a financing statement covering the Participation Interests in the State of Delaware and naming Seller as debtor and Buyer as secured party, the Lien granted pursuant to this Agreement will constitute a valid, perfected first priority Lien on the Participation Interests in favor of Buyer enforceable as such against all creditors of Seller and any Persons purporting to purchase the Participation Interests from Seller.

(d) No Fraud. No fraudulent acts were committed by any Seller Party or Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates in connection with the issuance of such Participation Interests.

(e) No Defaults. No (i) monetary default, breach or violation exists with respect to any agreement or other document governing or pertaining to such Participation Interests, (ii) non-monetary default, breach or violation exists with respect to such Participation Interests, or (iii) event which, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach or violation of such Participation Interests.

(f) No Modifications. Seller is not a party to any document, instrument or agreement, and there is no document, that by its terms modifies or affects the rights and obligations of any holder of such Participation Interests and Seller has not consented to any material change or waiver to any term or provision of any such document, instrument or agreement and no such change or waiver exists.

(g) Power and Authority. Seller has full right, power and authority to sell and assign such Participation Interests and such Participation Interests have not been cancelled, satisfied or rescinded in whole or part nor has any instrument been executed that would effect a cancellation, satisfaction or rescission thereof.

(h) Consents and Approvals. Other than consents and approvals obtained as of the related Purchase Date or those already granted in the documents governing such Participation Interests, no consent or approval by any Person is required in connection with Seller's sale and/or Buyer's acquisition of such Participation Interests, for Buyer's exercise of any rights or remedies in respect of such Participation Interests or for Buyer's sale, pledge or other disposition of such Participation Interests. No third party holds any "right of first refusal", "right of first negotiation", "right of first offer", purchase option, or other similar rights of any kind, and no other impediment exists to any such transfer or exercise of rights or remedies with respect to such Participation Interests.

(i) No Governmental Approvals. No consent, approval, authorization or order of, or registration or filing with, or notice to, any court or governmental agency or body having jurisdiction or regulatory authority over Seller is required for any transfer or assignment by the holder of such Participation Interests to the Buyer.

I. Ordinary Course of Business Litigation

As a residential mortgage lender originating, closing and servicing loans in all 50 states, Quicken Loans Inc. (and its Subsidiaries) may, at any point in time, be named as a party to dozens of legal proceedings which arise in the ordinary course of business, such as actions alleging improper lending practices, improper servicing, quiet title actions, improper foreclosure practices, violations of consumer protection laws, etc. and on account of consumer bankruptcies. In many of these actions, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may not be the real party of interest (because Quicken Loans is not the servicer of the loan or the holder of the note) but it may appear in the pleadings because it is in the chain of title to property over which there may be a dispute. Such matters are turned over to the servicer of the loan for those loans Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary do not service. In other cases, such as lien avoidance cases brought in bankruptcy, Quicken Loans or its Subsidiary are insured by title insurance and the case is turned over to the title insurer who tenders our defense.

As to other matters that arise in the ordinary course, management does not believe that the amount of liability, if any, for any of the pending matters individually or in the aggregate will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position in a material way. However, regardless of the outcome of this or other matters referred to herein, litigation can have a significant effect on Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries for other reasons such as defense costs, diversion of management focus and resources, and other factors. To the best of Quicken Loans' information and belief, there are no outstanding judgments, liens or orders that have not been satisfied.

III. Regulatory and Administrative Matters

As a non-depository mortgage banker, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) are regulated by and subject to various state agencies that oversee and regulate (a) mortgage lending and the activities of bank and/or non-bank financial institutions and/or (b) insurance agency / escrow agent activities and practices. These state agencies are generally authorized to: issue licenses or registrations where state law requires; conduct periodic on-site or remote audits or examinations of the regulated institution's books, files and practices; investigate consumer complaints; issue findings of audit or compliance variances that may require refunds to borrowers for charges beyond those permitted under the state's laws or regulations; assess fines or penalties if administrative rules are not adhered to, and/or require other corrective actions to be taken.

These agencies also have the authority to seek revocation of an institution's or individual's license or registration to operate as a mortgage lender or loan originator in the state. In the ordinary course of business and in any given year, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) participate in and respond to numerous regular periodic state examinations, while at the same time responding to examination findings from other states. In some instances, Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may dispute the state agency's findings and/or attempt to reconcile our differences. In other instances Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may undertake corrective action before being required to do so by the state regulator. In some states, the state's attorney general may also investigate consumer complaints regarding mortgage lending and issue subpoenas, commence informal inquiries or formal investigations. As a licensed mortgage banker, we are in the ordinary course of business, subject to such inquiries and investigations. Quicken Loans and its Subsidiaries have thirty team members on its legal/compliance team consisting of in-house lawyers, paralegals and compliance personnel who manage this part of the business. Although Quicken Loans (and its Subsidiaries) may currently be subject to various state examinations and consumer complaint inquiries, management does not believe the outcomes of these examinations or inquiries, individually or in the aggregate, will materially affect Quicken Loans' consolidated financial position or operations in a material way.

SECTION 11. Severability. Each provision and agreement herein shall be treated as separate and independent from any other provision or agreement herein and shall be enforceable notwithstanding the unenforceability of any such other provision or agreement.

SECTION 12. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AMENDMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, AND GOVERNED BY, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF (EXCEPT FOR SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW, WHICH SHALL GOVERN).

Execution Version

GUARANTY

GUARANTY, dated as of December 14, 2017 (as amended, restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, this "Guaranty"), made by Quicken Loans Inc., a Michigan corporation (the "Guarantor"), in favor of JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association (the "Buyer").

RECITALS

Pursuant to the Master Repurchase Agreement, dated as of December 14, 2017 (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Repurchase Agreement"), among QL Ginnie EBO, LLC (the "Seller"), QL Ginnie REO, LLC (the "REO Subsidiary"), Quicken Loans Inc., as owner and servicer ("QLI"), the Guarantor and the Buyer, the Buyer has agreed from time to time to enter into transactions with Seller upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein. It is a condition precedent to the obligation of the Buyer to enter into Transactions with the Seller under the Repurchase Agreement that the Guarantor shall have executed and delivered this Guaranty to the Buyer.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and to induce the Buyer to enter into the Repurchase Agreement and engage in Transactions with the Seller, and for other good and valuable consideration the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Guarantor hereby agrees to guarantee the Seller's obligations under the Repurchase Agreement, as may be amended from time to time.

1. Defined Terms.

(a) Unless otherwise defmed herein, terms defmed in the Repurchase Agreement and used herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Repurchase Agreement.

(b) For purposes of this Guaranty, "Obligations" shall mean all obligations and liabilities of the Seller to the Buyer, whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, due or to become due, or now existing or hereafter incurred, or whether for payment or for performance (including, without limitation, Price Differential accruing after the Repurchase/Release Date for the Transactions and Price Differential accruing after the filing of any petition in bankruptcy, or the commencement of any insolvency, reorganization or like proceeding, relating to the Seller, whether or not a claim for post filing or post petition interest is allowed in such proceeding), which may arise under, or out of or in connection with the Repurchase Agreement, this Guaranty and any other Facility Documents and any other document made, delivered or given in connection therewith or herewith, whether on account of principal, interest, reimbursement obligations, fees, indemnities, costs, expenses (including, without limitation, all fees and disbursements of counsel to the Buyer that are required to be paid by the Seller pursuant to the terms of such documents), all "claims" (as defmed in Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Buyer against the Seller, or otherwise.

(c) The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Guaranty shall refer to this Guaranty as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Guaranty and section and paragraph references are to this Guaranty unless otherwise specified.

(d) The meanings given to terms defined herein shall be equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of such terms.

2. Guarantee. (a) Guarantor hereby, unconditionally and irrevocably, guarantees to the Buyer and its successors, indorsees, transferees and assigns, the prompt and complete payment and performance by the Seller when due (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) of the Obligations.

(b) Guarantor further agrees to pay any and all expenses (including, without limitation, all fees and disbursements of counsel) which may be paid or incurred by the Buyer in enforcing, or obtaining advice of counsel in respect of, any rights with respect to, or collecting, any or all of the Obligations and/or enforcing any rights with respect to, or collecting against, the Guarantor under this Guaranty. This Guaranty shall remain in full force and effect until the later of (i) the termination of the Repurchase Agreement or (ii) the Obligations are paid in full, notwithstanding that from time to time prior thereto the Seller may be free from any Obligations.

(c) No payment or payments made by the Seller, the Guarantor, any other guarantor or any other Person or received or collected by the Buyer from the Seller, the Guarantor, any other guarantor or any other Person by virtue of any action or proceeding or any set-off or appropriation or application at any time or from time to time in reduction of or in payment of the Obligations shall be deemed to modify, reduce, release or otherwise affect the liability of the Guarantor hereunder which shall, notwithstanding any such payment or payments other than payments made by the Guarantor in respect of the Obligations or payments received or collected from the Guarantor in respect of the Obligations, remain liable for the Obligations until the Obligations are paid in full and the Repurchase Agreement is terminated, subject to the reinstatement provisions of Section 7 hereof.

(d) Guarantor agrees that whenever, at any time, or from time to time, Guarantor shall make any payment to the Buyer on account of Guarantor's liability hereunder, Guarantor will notify the Buyer in writing that such payment is made under this Guaranty for such purpose.

3. Right of Set-off. Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, Guarantor hereby irrevocably authorizes the Buyer at any time and from time to time without notice to the Guarantor, any such notice being waived by the Guarantor, to set-off and appropriate and apply any and all monies and other property of the Guarantor, deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or fmal), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by the Buyer or any Affiliate thereof to or for the credit or the account of Guarantor, or any part thereof in such amounts as the Buyer may elect, against and on account of the Obligations and liabilities of the Guarantor to the Buyer hereunder and claims of every nature and description of the Buyer against the Guarantor, in any currency, whether arising hereunder or, under the Repurchase Agreement, as the Buyer may elect, whether or not the Buyer has made any demand for payment and although such Obligations and liabilities and claims may be contingent or unmatured. The Buyer shall notify the Guarantor promptly of any such set-off and the application made by the Buyer, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application. The rights of the Buyer under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including, without limitation, other rights of set-off) which the Buyer may have.

4. No Subrogation. Notwithstanding any payment or payments made by the Guarantor hereunder or any set-off or application of funds of the Guarantor by the Buyer, the Guarantor shall not be entitled to be subrogated to any of the rights of the Buyer against the Seller or any other guarantor or any collateral security or guarantee or right of offset held by the Buyer for the payment of the Obligations, nor shall the Guarantor seek or be entitled to seek any contribution or reimbursement from the Seller or any other guarantor in respect of payments made by the Guarantor hereunder, until all amounts owing to the Buyer by the Seller on account of the Obligations are paid in full and the Repurchase Agreement is terminated. The Guarantor hereby subordinates all of its subrogation rights against Seller to the full payment of Obligations due Buyer under the Repurchase Agreement for a period of 91 days following the fmal payment of the last of all of the Obligations under the Facility Documents. If any amount shall be paid to the Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid in full, such amount shall be held by the Guarantor in trust for the Buyer, segregated from other funds of Guarantor, and shall, forthwith upon receipt by the Guarantor, be turned over to the Buyer in the exact form received by the Guarantor (duly indorsed by the Guarantor to the Buyer, if required), to be applied against the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in such order as the Buyer may determine.

5. Amendments, Etc. with Respect to the Obligations; Waiver of Rights. Guarantor shall remain obligated hereunder notwithstanding that, without any reservation of rights against Guarantor and without notice to or further assent by Guarantor, any demand for payment of any of the Obligations made by the Buyer may be rescinded by the Buyer and any of the Obligations continued, and the Obligations, or the liability of any other party upon or for any part thereof, or any collateral security or guarantee therefor or right of offset with respect thereto, may, from time to time, in whole or in part, be renewed, extended, amended, modified, accelerated, compromised, waived, surrendered or released by the Buyer, and the Repurchase Agreement, and the other Facility Documents and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith may be amended, modified, supplemented or terminated, in whole or in part, as the Buyer may deem advisable from time to time, and any collateral security, guarantee or right of offset at any time held by the Buyer for the payment of the Obligations may be sold, exchanged, waived, surrendered or released. The Buyer shall not have any obligation to protect, secure, perfect or insure any Lien at any time held by it as security for the Obligations or for this Guaranty or any property subject thereto. When making any demand hereunder against Guarantor, the Buyer may, but shall be under no obligation to, make a similar demand on the Seller or any other guarantor, and any failure by the Buyer to make any such demand or to collect any payments from the Seller or any such other guarantor or any release of the Seller or such other guarantor shall not relieve Guarantor of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, express or implied, or as a matter of law, of the Buyer against Guarantor. For the purposes hereof "demand" shall include the commencement and continuance of any legal proceedings.

6. Guaranty Absolute and Unconditional.

(a) Guarantor waives any and all notice of the creation, renewal, extension or accrual of any of the Obligations and notice of or proof of reliance by the Buyer upon this Guaranty or acceptance of this Guaranty, the Obligations, and any of them, shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred, or renewed, extended, amended or waived, in reliance upon this Guaranty; and all dealings between the Seller and the Guarantor, on the one hand, and the Buyer, on the other hand, likewise shall be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Guaranty.

(b) Guarantor hereby expressly waives all set-offs and counterclaims and all diligence, presentments, demands for payment, demands for performance, notices of nonperformance, protests, notices of protest, notices of dishonor, notices of acceptance of this Guaranty, notices of sale, notice of default or nonpayment to or upon the Seller or the Guarantor, surrender or other handling or disposition of assets subject to the Repurchase Agreement, any requirement that Buyer exhaust any right, power or remedy or take any action against the Seller or against any assets subject to the Repurchase Agreement, and other formalities of any kind.

(c) Guarantor understands and agrees that this Guaranty shall be construed as a continuing, absolute and unconditional guarantee of payment without regard to (i) the validity or enforceability of the Repurchase Agreement, any of the Obligations or any other collateral security therefor or guarantee or right of offset with respect thereto at any time or from time to time held by the Buyer, (ii) any defense, set-off or counterclaim (other than a defense of payment or performance) which may at any time be available to or be asserted by the Seller against the Buyer, or (iii) any other circumstance whatsoever (with or without notice to or knowledge of the Seller or the Guarantor) which constitutes, or might be construed to constitute, an equitable or legal discharge of the Seller from the Obligations, or of the Guarantor from this Guaranty, in bankruptcy or in any other instance.

(d) When pursuing its rights and remedies hereunder against the Guarantor, the Buyer may, but shall be under no obligation to, pursue such rights and remedies as it may have against the Seller or any other Person or against any collateral security or guarantee for the Obligations or any right of offset with respect thereto, and any failure by the Buyer to pursue such other rights or remedies or to collect any payments from the Seller or any such other Person or to realize upon any such collateral security or guarantee or to exercise any such right of offset, or any release of the Seller or any such other Person or any such collateral security, guarantee or right of offset, shall not relieve the Guarantor of any liability hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, whether express, implied or available as a matter of law, of the Buyer against the Guarantor.

(e) This Guaranty shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon the Guarantor and the successors and assigns thereof, and shall inure to the benefit of the Buyer, and its successors, indorsees, transferees and assigns, until all the Obligations and the obligations of the Guarantor under this Guaranty shall have been satisfied by payment in full and the Repurchase Agreement shall be terminated, notwithstanding that from time to time prior thereto the Seller may be free from any Obligations.

(f) Guarantor waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, all defenses of surety to which it may be entitled by statute or otherwise.

7. Reinstatement. The Obligations of the Guarantor under this Guaranty, and this Guaranty shall continue to be effective, or be reinstated, as the case may be, and be continued in full force and effect, if at any time any payment, or any part thereof, of any of the Obligations is rescinded, invalidated, declared fraudulent or preferentially set aside or must otherwise be restored, returned or repaid by the Buyer upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of Seller or the Guarantor or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, Seller or the Guarantor or any substantial part of its or their property, or for any other reason, all as though such payments had not been made.

8. Payments. Guarantor hereby guarantees that Obligations will be paid to the Buyer without set-off or counterclaim in U.S. Dollars.

9. Event of Default. If an Event of Default under the Repurchase Agreement shall have occurred and be continuing, Guarantor agrees that, as between Guarantor and Buyer, the Obligations may be declared to be due for purposes of this Guaranty notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition which may prevent, delay or vitiate any such declaration as against Seller and that, in the event of any such declaration (or attempted declaration), such Obligations shall forthwith become due by Guarantor for purposes of this Guaranty.

10. Waiver of Rights. Guarantor hereby waives: (i) notice of or proof of reliance by the Buyer upon this Guaranty or acceptance of this Guaranty and the Obligations shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred, or renewed, extended, amended or waived, in reliance upon this Guaranty, and all other dealings between the Seller and Guarantor, on the one hand, and the Buyer, on the other hand, likewise shall be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Guaranty; (ii) diligence, presentment, protest, all demands whatsoever, and notice of default or nonpayment with respect to the Obligations; (iii) the filing of claims with any court in case of the insolvency, reorganization or bankruptcy of the Seller; and (iv) any fact, event or circumstance that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable defense to or discharge of Guarantor, including (but without typifying or limiting this waiver), failure by the Buyer to perfect a security interest in any collateral securing performance of any Obligation or to realize the value of any collateral or other assets which may be available to satisfy any Obligation and any delay by the Buyer in exercising any of its rights hereunder or against the Seller.

11. Notices. All notices, requests and other communications provided for herein (including without limitation any modifications of, or waivers, requests or consents under, this Guaranty) shall be given or made in writing (including without limitation by electronic transmission) delivered to the intended recipient at the "Address for Notices" specified below its name on the signature pages of the Repurchase Agreement; or, as to any party, at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to each other party. All such communications shall be deemed to have been duly given when transmitted electronically or personally delivered or, in the case of a mailed notice, upon receipt, in each case given or addressed as aforesaid.

12. Severability. Any provision of this Guaranty which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

13. Integration. This Guaranty represents the agreement of the Guarantor with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and there are no promises or representations by the Buyer relative to the subject matter hereof or thereof not reflected herein or therein.

14. Amendments in Writing; No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. (a) None of the terms or provisions of this Guaranty may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the Guarantor and the Buyer, provided that any rights granted to the Buyer hereunder may be waived by the Buyer.

(b) The Buyer shall not by any act (except by a written instrument pursuant to clause (a) above), delay, indulgence, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or Event of Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Buyer, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Buyer of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Buyer would otherwise have on any future occasion.

(c) The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently and are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies provided by law.

15. Section Headings. The section headings used in this Guaranty are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction hereof or be taken into consideration in the interpretation hereof.

16. Successors and Assigns. This Guaranty shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of the Guarantor and shall inure to the benefit of the Buyer and its successors and assigns. This Guaranty may not be assigned by the Guarantor without the express written consent of the Buyer.

17. Governing Law. THIS GUARANTY SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THEINTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAW PRINCIPLES THEREOF.

18. SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; WAIVERS. THE GUARANTOR HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY:

(A) SUBMITS FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS GUARANTY AND THE OTHER FACILITY DOCUMENTS, OR FOR RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT IN RESPECT THEREOF,

TO THE NON-EXCLUSIVE GENERAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, THE FEDERAL COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND APPELLATE COURTS FROM ANY THEREOF;

(B) CONSENTS THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE BROUGHT IN SUCH COURTS AND, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, WAIVES ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE VENUE OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT OR THAT SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING WAS BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT COURT AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM THE SAME;

(C) AGREES THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE EFFECTED BY MAILING A COPY THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL (OR ANY SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR FORM OF MAIL), POSTAGE PREPAID, TO ITS ADDRESS SET FORTH UNDER ITS SIGNATURE BELOW OR AT SUCH OTHER ADDRESS OF WHICH THE BUYER SHALL HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED; AND

(D) AGREES THAT NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AF'F'ECT THE RIGHT TO EFFECT SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR SHALL LIMIT THE RIGHT TO SUE IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

19. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. THE GUARANTOR AND THE BUYER HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY OTHER FACILITY DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

20. Intent. This Guaranty is intended to constitute a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement related to the Repurchase Agreement and Transactions thereunder as defined under Sections 101(38A)(A) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Subject to the other terms and conditions hereof, the Borrower may borrow Loans, prepay under Section 2.07, and reborrow under this Section 2.01; provided, that the Borrower may not borrow or reborrow Loans during the pendency of a Valuation Dispute. The Lender shall distribute the proceeds of such Loans to the Borrower on the related Funding Date in accordance with Section 2.03.

Section 2.02 Note. The Loans made by the Lender shall be evidenced by a single promissory note of the Borrower, substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto, dated the date hereof (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, and any replacement thereof or substitution therefor, the "Note"), payable to the Lender in a maximum principal amount equal to the Commitment Amount.

Section 2.03 Funding Requests.

(a) The Borrower may borrow hereunder on any Business Day during the Availability Period; provided that, the Borrower shall deliver to the Lender an irrevocable Notice of Borrowing, which Notice of Borrowing must be received by the Lender no later than 10:00 a.m. on the Business Day before the requested Funding Date. Each borrowing of Loans hereunder shall be in an amount equal to $1,000,000 or a whole multiple of $1,000,000 in excess thereof (or, if the then available Commitment is less than $1,000,000, such lesser amount).

(b) By delivering a Notice of Borrowing, the Borrower represents and warrants to the Lender that, after taking into account the amount of the requested Loan, all conditions precedent to such Loan specified in Section 5.02 of this Agreement have been satisfied.

Section 2.04 Borrowing Base Reports; Valuation Disputes.

(a) Generally. With respect to each Funding Date, and at any other time and from time to time on a daily basis or more frequently as the Lender may select, the Lender shall determine the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing and the corresponding Borrowing Base as of such date and deliver to the Borrower a Borrowing Base Report. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Lender shall have the right to determine the Borrowing Base at any time in its discretion, exercised in good faith.

(b) Valuation Disputes.

(i) The Borrower has the right to dispute the Lender's determination of the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing from time to time, as provided in this Section 2.04(b) (any such dispute a "Valuation Dispute").

(ii) If the Borrower invokes a Valuation Dispute, then the Borrower must do so within five (5) Business Days after it receives notice of the Lender's determination of the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing, by (A) presenting to the Lender a Valuation Report (each such Valuation Report to be made at the Borrower's expense) setting forth the Valuation Agent's opinion as to the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing ("Third Party Value"), and (B) paying to the Lender any Borrowing Base Deficiency calculated based upon the Dispute Value established pursuant to Section 2.04(b)(iii). The date on which the Borrower receives notice of the Lender's determination of the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing is the "Valuation Date". The date on which the Borrower invokes a Valuation Dispute is the "Dispute Date". The Borrower's invocation of a Valuation Dispute shall be deemed to be: (x) a representation by the Borrower that it has made a good faith determination of a material difference between the Lender's determination of the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing and the fair market value of Eligible Pledged Servicing; (y) a ratification and reaffirmation by the Borrower of each and every representation, warranty and covenant contained in the Loan Documents; and (z) an agreement that no advances or re-advances of Loan proceeds will be made during the pendency of a Valuation Dispute.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, following a Valuation Dispute, the conclusive Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing (the "Dispute Value"), binding upon all parties for the purposes of the Loan Documents and effective for the period of time from the Valuation Date until the next valuation performed by the Lender, will be lesser of:

(1) 110% of the Lender's determination of the daily Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing, or

(2) The Third Party Value, absent any manifest error (in the event of any manifest error in the Third Party Value, the Lender's determination regarding the Market Value of the Pledged Servicing will be the value until such time as the error is corrected).

(iv) The Lender shall in good faith consider any appropriate adjustment to its valuation model with respect to the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing on a going forward basis to account for the information in the Valuation Report establishing the Third Party Value. The parties acknowledge that the Lender's valuation models may apply different factors and/or place different emphasis on factors than those applied in any Valuation Report establishing the Third Party Value including without limitation, any other Valuation Report which the Lender may order from time to time (at Lender's own expense). If the parties are unable to receive the Third Party Value or otherwise resolve a Valuation Dispute within a period of ten (10) Business Days after the Borrower's invocation of the Valuation Dispute, then the Lender's determination of the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing shall prevail; provided, however, that in such event the Borrower shall have the option to prepay any or all Loans advanced hereunder, in whole or in part, without prepayment penalty, indemnification pursuant to Section 3.04 or any other breakage costs, fees, or premiums, provided further that the Borrower shall give notice of such disagreement and intention to prepay not more than fifteen (15) Business Days following such unresolved Valuation Dispute. The Borrower cannot invoke a new Valuation Dispute until any pending Valuation Dispute has been resolved or the time period for resolution in the previous sentence has expired and the Lender's determination of the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing is deemed restored (in either event, the "Resolution Date"). The Borrower shall pay the balance of any Borrowing Base Deficiency on the Resolution Date. The Borrower shall bear the expense for all Valuation Reports.

(v) For the purposes of this Section 2.04(b), (A) the Lender shall instruct the Valuation Agent (or its replacement) to calculate the projected future cash flows attributable to Eligible Pledged Servicing, based upon the unique characteristics of the Covered Mortgage Loans and market-based assumptions for prepayment speeds under a fair market value framework, and (B) the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing shall be the net present value of the cash flows; provided, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Market Value of Eligible Pledged Servicing will be capped by operation of one of the following calculations: (x) if based upon Lender's internal valuations, then at an OAS of one hundred (100) basis points, and (y) if based upon a Valuation Agent's valuation, then at a discount rate of not less than the Five-Year Treasuries Rate plus four hundred (400) basis points. The foregoing calculations shall be performed without any change to the market prepayment speed models.

Section 2.05 Interest. Subject to Sections 2.09, 2.11 and 3.02 hereof, each Loan shall bear interest on the principal amount outstanding from time to time, from its Funding Date through but not including repayment (whether by acceleration or otherwise), at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) LIBOR for the Interest Period in effect for the Loan, plus (ii) the Applicable Margin (the "Interest Rate").

Section 2.06 Termination or Reduction of Revolving Credit Commitments.

(a) Upon not less than three (3) Business Days' notice to the Lender, the Borrower shall have the right to terminate the Commitment or, from time to time, to reduce the Commitment Amount; provided, that no such termination of the Commitment or reduction of the Commitment Amount shall be permitted if, after giving effect thereto and to any prepayments of the Loans made on the effective date thereof, the Outstanding Aggregate Loan Amount would exceed the Commitment Amount. Any such partial reduction of the Commitment Amount shall be in an amount equal to $1,000,000, or a whole multiple of $1,000,000 in excess thereof, and shall reduce permanently the Commitment Amount then in effect.

(b) The Commitment Amount shall be automatically and permanently reduced to zero Dollars ($0) and the Commitment terminated on the date for which prepayment of the Loans is required to be made pursuant to Section 2.07(c)(i).

Section 2.07 Repayment and Prepayment of Loans.

(a) General Terms. The Borrower shall repay all Loans and all other amounts due under this Agreement in full on the Maturity Date. Loans may be prepaid in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.07 and, to the extent prepaid, may be re-borrowed hereunder in accordance with the terms hereof (including satisfaction of all conditions precedent contained in Section 5.02).

(b) Optional Prepayments. The Borrower may, from time to time on any Business Day (each an "Optional Prepayment Date"), prepay any Loan or Loans advanced hereunder, in whole or in part. Each prepayment made pursuant to this Section 2.07(b) shall be accompanied by (A) a Prepayment Notice in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit E, and (B) payment of accrued interest to the date of such payment on the amount prepaid, plus any amounts owing pursuant to Section 3.04. Any such prepayment received by the Lender by 2:00 p.m. together with a Prepayment Notice on such Optional Prepayment Date shall be applied by the Lender on such Business Day. Any such prepayment received by the Lender after 2:00 p.m. on such Optional Prepayment Date shall be applied by the Lender on the following Business Day. During the Amortization Period, any such prepayment shall be applied to the principal repayment installments in inverse order of maturity.

(c) Mandatory Prepayments.

(i) Change of Control. Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control without the prior written approval of the Lender (which may be given or withheld in the Lender's sole discretion), the Borrower shall, at the Lender's option, not later than five (5) Business Days after written demand by the Lender, prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Loans and any unpaid accrued interest plus, an amount equal to the Default Rate multiplied by the outstanding principal amount of the Loans immediately prior to such prepayment, and, upon any such demand, all Commitments hereunder shall automatically terminate without further action of the Lender.

(ii) Borrowing Base Deficiency. If, on any Business Day (a "Borrowing Base Shortfall Day"), the Lender provides written notice (which notice may be sent electronically) to the Borrower that the Lender has determined in its sole discretion based on the Borrowing Base Report most recently delivered by the Lender pursuant to Section 2.04 that the Outstanding Aggregate Loan Amount on such day exceeds the lesser of (x) the Borrowing Base and (y) the Commitment Amount on such day (such circumstance, a "Borrowing Base Deficiency"), the Borrower shall, no later than 5:00 p.m. on the fifth (5th) Business Day following the Borrowing Base Shortfall Day, repay outstanding Loans, in an amount equal to the amount of the Borrowing Base Deficiency specified in the notice provided to the Borrower by the Lender; provided, that no such repayment shall be required if the Outstanding Aggregate Loan Amount does not exceed the Commitment Amount and the amount of the Borrowing Base Deficiency is less than 2% of the Borrowing Base. The Lender's election not to provide notice pursuant to this Section 2.07(c)(ii) at any time when there is a Borrowing Base Deficiency shall not in any way limit or impair the Lender's right to deliver such notice at any future time there is a Borrowing Base Deficiency, in the Lender's discretion.

(iii) Amortization Payments. During the Amortization Period, the Borrower shall repay an aggregate principal amount of outstanding Loans in the amount (calculated as a percentage of the Amortization Term-Out Amount) set forth below opposite the payment date on which such payment is to occur (as such amount may be reduced as a result of payments pursuant to clause (b) above):

Payment Date	Payment Amount
First day of Amortization Period	[]
First anniversary of the first day of Amortization Period	[]
Maturity Date	[]

(iv) Termination Event. Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Borrower shall, at the Lender's option, not later than thirty (30) days after written demand by the Lender, prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Loans and any unpaid accrued interest.

(d) Application of Payments. Any proceeds of Collateral or other payments received by the Lender (A) not constituting a specific payment of principal, interest, fees or other sum payable under the Loan Documents (which shall be applied as specified by the Borrower or as otherwise required herein) or (B) after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Lender so elects, shall be applied:

(i) first, ratably to pay the Obligations in respect of any fees and interest then due and payable to the Lender in respect of the Loans until paid in full;

(ii) second, to resolve any Borrowing Base Deficiency;

(iii) third, (A) to pay any principal on the Loans then due and payable pursuant to Section 2.07(c)(iii) until paid in full, and (B) upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, to the ratable payment of all other Obligations then due and payable as a result of the Event of Default;

(iv) fourth, to the ratable payment of all costs, expenses, indemnities and other Obligations then due and payable; and

(v) fifth, any excess amounts shall be released to the Borrower or as otherwise required by Applicable Law.

The Borrower agrees that neither the Lender's acceptance of a payment from the Borrower in an amount that is less than all amounts then due and payable nor the Lender's application of such payment will constitute or be deemed to constitute either a waiver of the unpaid amounts or an accord and satisfaction. Unless the Lender agrees otherwise in writing, a permitted or required prepayment of less than the unpaid principal balance of the Loans will not extend or postpone the due date of any subsequent monthly payment or change the amount of such payments.

Section 2.08 Collection Account. The Borrower has established the Collection Account, which shall be subject at all times to the Control Agreement and may not be a "zero balance" account. The Borrower shall cause all Pledged Servicing Compensation and other proceeds of Collateral to be remitted to the Collection Account no later than three (3) Business Days following receipt thereof; provided, however, that so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Borrower shall be permitted to offset, net, withdraw or direct the withdrawal or remittance of any amounts which have been or are to be deposited into the Collection Account, provided that prior to any offset, net, withdraw or direct withdrawal or remittance of any such amounts, the Borrower shall have deposited funds into the Collection Account until the amounts on deposit therein are at least equal to the Required Reserve Amount for the next succeeding Interest Payment Date. During the continuation of any Event of Default, the Borrower shall be required to deposit or cause to be deposited all amounts constituting Pledged Servicing Compensation in the Collection Account without exercising any such offset, netting, or withdrawal. If an Event of Default has occurred and the Lender has delivered a Control Notice, all amounts on deposit in the Collection Account shall be applied pursuant to Section 2.07(d).

Section 2.09 Payments and Computations, etc.

(a) Unless otherwise expressly stated herein, all amounts to be paid or deposited hereunder shall be paid or deposited in accordance with the terms hereof no later than 2:00 p.m. on the day when due in lawful money of the United States of America in same day funds; provided, that funds received by the Lender after 2:00 p.m. on such due date may, at the Lender's discretion, be deemed to have been paid by the Borrower on the next Business Day. If the Lender shall deem any such payment to be paid on the next Business Day, such payment shall be a non-conforming payment. Interest shall continue to accrue on any principal as to which a non-conforming payment is made until such funds become available funds (but in no event less than the period from the date of such payment to the next succeeding Business Day) at the Default Rate from the date such amount was due and payable until the date such amount is paid in full.

(b) Unless otherwise expressly stated herein (including with respect to each prepayment made pursuant to Section 2.07(b) and subsections (ii) and (iii) of Section 2.07(c)), interest on each Loan shall be payable monthly, in arrears, on each Interest Payment Date. Any prepayments of Loans which are required to be accompanied by payment of accrued interest on the date prepaid shall also be accompanied by any amounts owing pursuant to Section 3.04.

(c) In the event of any Event of Default, the Borrower shall, to the extent permitted by law, pay interest on the outstanding principal amount of the Loans and all other Obligations (including interest and fees) outstanding for the period from, and including the date of such Event of Default until, but excluding, the date paid, at the applicable Default Rate, payable on demand, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 11.14 hereof.

(d) All computations of interest and fees hereunder shall be made on the basis of a year of 360 days for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day) occurring in the period for which payable.

(e) All payments made by the Borrower under this Agreement shall be made without defense, setoff or counterclaim.

(f) Whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due on a day that is not a Business Day, such payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day and such extension of time shall be included in the computation of the payment of interest or fees hereunder.

Section 2.10 Fees.

(a) Reserved.

(b) Unused Facility Fee. The Borrower shall pay to the Lender an unused commitment fee for each quarter equal to [] times the average daily amount by which the lesser of: (i) the Borrowing Base or (ii) the Commitment Amount exceeds the Outstanding Aggregate Loan Amount for such period times the number of days in such period divided by 360. The unused commitment fee shall accrue at all times during the Availability Period, including at any time during which one or more of the conditions in Article V is not met, and shall be due and payable quarterly in arrears on the fifteenth calendar day of each April, July, October and January, commencing with the first such date to occur after March 31, 2018, and on the last day of the Availability Period; provided, that, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the unused commitment fee due and payable for any such quarterly period when the average daily Outstanding Aggregate Loan Amount exceeds [] of the Commitment Amount for such period shall be automatically waived. The unused commitment fee shall be calculated quarterly in arrears. Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any language contained herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Borrower be obligated to pay the above unused commitment fee during such time that a "Suspension" is in effect under the Acknowledgment Agreement.

(c) Closing Fee. The Borrower shall pay to the Lender a closing fee in the amount of $[] in immediately available funds, on the Closing Date.

(d) Other Fees. The Borrower shall pay to the Lender such fees as shall have been separately agreed upon in writing in the amounts and at the times so specified. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, such fees shall be fully earned when paid and shall not be refundable for any reason whatsoever.

Section 2.11 Inability to Determine Rates.

(a) If prior to the first day of any Interest Period, the Lender shall have determined (which determination shall be conclusive and binding on the Borrower) that adequate and reasonable means do not exist for determining LIBOR for such Interest Period, the Lender shall promptly notify the Borrower. Thereafter, the obligation of the Lender to make or maintain Loans based on LIBOR shall be suspended until the Lender revokes such notice and all Loans will bear interest at the Base Rate, as determined as of the most recent Determination Date for the applicable Interest Period. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrower may revoke any pending request for a borrowing of Loans or, failing that, will be deemed to have converted such request into a request for a borrowing of Loans in the amount specified therein at the Base Rate.

(b) Notwithstanding this Section 2.11 or any other provision of this Agreement, if the Lender notifies the Borrower that the Lender is unable to determine LIBOR due to the discontinuation of LIBOR and either the Borrower or the Lender shall so request, to the extent then determinable, all references to LIBOR shall be deemed to be references to the Replacement Rate. Until any Replacement Rate shall have become determinable, the applicable interest rate shall be determined in accordance with Section 2.11(a) above.

Section 2.12 Use of Proceeds. The Borrower shall use the proceeds of each Loan in accordance with the terms of the Acknowledgment Agreement and any Applicable Law.

Section 2.13 Protective Advances. The Lender is authorized by the Borrower, from time to time in the Lender's reasonable discretion (but shall have absolutely no obligation to), at any time there exists and is continuing any Event of Default, to make Loans to the Borrower, which the Lender deems necessary (a) to preserve or protect the Collateral, or any portion thereof, (b) to enhance the likelihood of, or maximize the amount of, repayment of the Loans and other Obligations, or (c) to pay any other amount chargeable to or required to be paid by the Borrower pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including payments of reimbursable expenses (including costs, fees, and expenses as described in Section 11.03) and other sums payable under the Loan Documents in each case as and when earned, due and payable (any of such Loans are herein referred to as "Protective Advances").

Section 2.14 Extension of Availability Period and Maturity Date. The Borrower may, by notice to the Lender not earlier than forty-five (45) calendar days and not later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the end of the Availability Period then in effect hereunder (the "Existing Revolving Termination Date"), request that the Lender extend the Availability Period for an additional one year period from and after the Existing Revolving Termination Date. The Lender, acting in its sole and absolute discretion shall advise the Borrower whether the Lender agrees to such extension under this Section no later than the date fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the Existing Revolving Termination Date (or, if such date is not a Business Day, on the next preceding Business Day); provided, that for the avoidance of doubt, the failure of the Lender to advise the Borrower it has agreed to such extension shall be deemed a rejection of such extension. As conditions precedent to any such extension, (a) the Borrower shall deliver to the Lender a certificate of each Loan Party dated as of the Existing Revolving Termination Date signed by a Responsible Officer of such Loan Party (i) certifying and attaching the resolutions adopted by such Loan Party approving or consenting to such extension and (ii) in the case of the Borrower, certifying that, before and after giving effect to such extension, (A) the representations and warranties set forth in Article VI are true and correct in all material respects (unless any such representation and warranty is qualified by materiality and then, in such case, the accuracy of such representation and warranty in all respects), and (B) no Default or Event of Default is in existence, and (b) the Borrower shall pay to the Lender an extension fee in the amount of the lesser of (i) [] of the Commitment Amount then in effect or (ii) [], in immediately available funds. Upon satisfaction of the foregoing conditions, the dates referenced in each of (x) clause (i) of the definition of "Availability Period", (y) the definition of "Amortization Period", and (z) clause (i) of the definition of "Maturity Date" shall be automatically extended for an additional year. This Section shall supersede any provisions in Section 11.02 to the contrary.

Section 2.15 Increase in Commitment Amount. The Borrower may, from time to time, request in writing an increase in the Commitment Amount (an "Increase Request") by an amount (for all such requests in the aggregate) not exceeding $[] (each a "Commitment Increase"); provided that any such request for a Commitment Increase shall be in a minimum amount of $[]. The Lender, acting in its sole and absolute discretion, shall advise the Borrower in writing whether the Lender agrees to such Increase Request under this Section no later than the date fifteen (15) calendar days following the receipt of such request (or, if such date is not a Business Day, on the next preceding Business Day); provided, that for the avoidance of doubt, the failure of the Lender to advise the Borrower it has agreed to such Increase Request shall be deemed a rejection of such request. If the Lender agrees to any such Increase Request, the Lender will provide written notice to the Borrower of its consent (an "Increase Consent") and the Lender and the Borrower shall use commercially reasonable efforts to close an amendment evidencing such Commitment Increase not later than fifteen (15) calendar days following delivery of such Increase Consent. As a condition precedent to any Commitment Increase, (a) the parties shall enter into an amendment to this Agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit H attached hereto, (b) the Borrower shall pay to the Lender an additional closing fee in an amount to be mutually agreed upon, together with the reasonable fees and expenses of Lender's legal counsel, and (c) the Borrower shall deliver to the Lender (i) certificates in the form delivered under Section 5.01(h), (i) and (j) hereof, (ii) an enforceability opinion of legal counsel with respect to the related amendment, and (iii) such other agreements, instruments, approvals, and other documents, each satisfactory to the Lender in form and substance, as the Lender may reasonably request.

ARTICLE III

TAXES, YIELD PROTECTION AND ILLEGALITY

Section 3.01 Taxes.

(a) Payments Free of Taxes; Obligation to Withhold; Payments on Account of Taxes. Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Loan Party hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any Taxes except as required by Applicable Law. If any Loan Party is required by Applicable Law to deduct or withhold any Taxes from such payments, then:

(i) if such Tax is an Indemnified Tax, the amount payable by the applicable Loan Party shall be increased so that after all such required deductions or withholdings are made (including deductions or withholdings applicable to additional amounts payable under this Section), the Lender receives an amount equal to the amount it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been made; and

(ii) the applicable Loan Party shall make such deductions or withholdings and timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Applicable Law.

(b) Payment of Other Taxes by the Loan Parties. Without limiting the provisions of Section 3.01(a) above, the Loan Parties shall timely pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Applicable Law.

(c) Tax Indemnification. The Loan Parties shall indemnify the Lender, within ten (10) calendar days after demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes imposed on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) paid or payable by the Lender, on or with respect to an amount payable by any Loan Party under or in respect of this Agreement or under any other Loan Document, together with any expenses arising in connection therewith and with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate from the Lender as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Borrower shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Evidence of Payments. As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by any Loan Party to a Governmental Authority pursuant to this Section 3.01, such Loan Party shall deliver to the Lender the original or certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the relevant return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Lender.

(e) Treatment of Certain Refunds. If the Lender determines, in its sole discretion, exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by any Loan Party or with respect to which any Loan Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section, it shall pay over such refund (or the amount of any credit in lieu of refund) to the applicable Loan Party (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by the applicable Loan Party under this Section with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund or credit in lieu of refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the Lender and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund or credit in lieu of refund); provided that, the applicable Loan Party, upon the request of the Lender, agrees to repay the amount paid over to the applicable Loan Party (plus any interest, penalties or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Lender in the event the Lender is required to repay such refund or credit in lieu of refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (e), in no event will the Lender be required to pay any amount to the applicable Loan Party pursuant to this paragraph if the payment of such amount would place the Lender in a less favorable net after-Tax position than it would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. Nothing in this paragraph (e) shall be construed to require the Lender to make available its tax returns or any other information relating to its taxes that it deems confidential to the Borrower or any other Person.

(f) Survival. Each Loan Party's obligations under this Section 3.01 shall survive any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, the Lender, the termination of the Commitment and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all Obligations under any Loan Document.

Section 3.02 Illegality. Except following Approval Failure (as described below), if the Lender determines that as a result of any Change in Law, it becomes unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority asserts that it is unlawful, for the Lender to make, maintain or fund Loans, or to determine or charge interest rates based upon LIBOR, then, on notice thereof by the Lender to the Borrower, any obligation of the Lender to make or maintain Loans shall be suspended until the Lender notifies the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrower shall, upon demand from the Lender, prepay all such Loans, either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if the Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Loans to such day, or immediately, if the Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Loans. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrower shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted, but shall not be liable for any amounts pursuant to Section 3.04 below.

Section 3.03 Increased Costs; Capital Adequacy Requirements.

(a) Increased Costs Generally. Subject to paragraph (e) below, if any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, the Lender;

(ii) subject the Lender to any Taxes (other than Indemnified Taxes) on its loans, commitments, or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto; or

(iii) impose on the Lender or the London interbank market any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) affecting this Agreement or Loans made by the Lender;

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to the Lender of making or maintaining any Loan or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by the Lender hereunder (whether of principal, interest or any other amount), in each case by an amount which the Lender determines in its sole discretion, exercised in good faith, to be material, then, upon request of the Lender, the Borrower will pay to the Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate the Lender for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) Capital Requirements. If the Lender determines that any Change in Law affecting the Lender regarding capital or liquidity requirements, has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on the Lender's capital as a consequence of this Agreement, the Commitment or the Loans, to a level which the Lender determines in its sole discretion, exercised in good faith, is materially below that which the Lender could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration the Lender's policies), then from time to time the Borrower will pay to the Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate the Lender for any such reduction suffered.

(c) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate from the Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate it, as well as providing a reasonable explanation and rationale regarding the calculation of any additional amounts payable pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section and delivered to the Borrower (a "Reimbursement Certificate"), shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Subject to Section 3.03(f) below, the Borrower shall pay the Lender the amount shown as due on any such Reimbursement Certificate within ten (10) days after receipt thereof.

(d) Delay in Requests. Failure or delay on the part of the Lender to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of the Lender's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrower shall not be required to compensate the Lender pursuant to this Section for any increased costs incurred or reductions suffered more than nine months prior to the date that the Lender notifies the Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions, and of the Lender's intention to claim compensation therefor (except that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the nine-month period referred to above shall be extended to include up to three months of the period of retroactive effect thereof).

(e) Approval Failure. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that the Federal Housing Finance Agency or any other regulatory authority of the Lender prohibits or otherwise revokes any license or approval of Freddie Mac which is necessary to serve in the role of Lender pursuant to this Agreement (an "Approval Failure"), then such event shall not be deemed a Change in Law for purposes of this Section 3.03, and the Borrower shall not be responsible for any costs or expenses of the Lender arising from such Approval Failure. Upon the occurrence of an Approval Failure, no new Loans shall be made hereunder, and such failure shall trigger the beginning of the Amortization Period if not cured within five (5) Business Days; provided, however, that (i) the first payment pursuant to Section 2.07(c)(iii) of the Amortization Term-Out Amount shall not be due until one hundred eighty (180) days following commencement of the Amortization Period, and (ii) the Borrower shall have the option to prepay any or all Loans advanced hereunder, in whole or in part, without prepayment penalty, indemnification pursuant to Section 3.04 or any other breakage costs, fees, or premiums, at any time during the Amortization Period.

(f) Optional Prepayment. In the event that Lender delivers a Reimbursement Certificate to the Borrower, the Borrower shall have the option to prepay all, but not less than all, of the outstanding Loans, without prepayment penalty, indemnification pursuant to Section 3.04 or any amounts otherwise claimed pursuant to this Section 3.03. Such option shall be exercised by delivery of an irrevocable written notice to the Lender of the Borrower's intent to repay all Loans outstanding and terminate the Commitment, within ten (10) days following receipt by the Borrower of such Reimbursement Certificate, with such prepayment to occur no later than thirty (30) days following receipt of such Reimbursement Certificate by the Borrower.

Section 3.04 Indemnity

(a) The Borrower shall indemnify and hold the Lender harmless from, any loss, cost or expense which the Lender may sustain or incur as a result of, or in connection with (i) the failure of the Borrower to borrow or prepay a Loan on the date specified in any notice delivered pursuant hereto, (ii) the payment of any principal of any Loan other than on the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto (including as a result of an Event of Default), or (iii) the conversion of any Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto. Such indemnification may include an amount determined by the Lender to be equal to the excess, if any, of (x) the amount of interest that would have accrued on the principal amount of such Loan if none of the events specified in clause (i) through (iii) had occurred at LIBOR that would have been applicable to such Loan, for the period from the date of such event to the last day of the then current Interest Period therefor (or, in the case of a failure to borrow for the period that would have been the Interest Period for such Loan) over (y) the amount of interest that would accrue on such principal amount for such period at the interest rate which the Lender would bid were it to bid at the commencement of the Interest Period, for dollar deposits of a comparable amount and period from other banks in the interbank Eurodollar market.

(b) A certificate from the Lender submitted to the Borrower reasonably describing any amounts payable pursuant to this Section 3.04 shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error. The covenant in Section 3.04(a) above shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of the Loans and all amounts payable hereunder.

ARTICLE IV

SECURITY INTEREST

Section 4.01 Security Interest. As security for the prompt payment and performance of all of its Obligations and any other covenants contained in this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, the Borrower hereby pledges and grants a security interest to the Lender (subject to the interests of the Owner as set forth in Section 4.02 and in the Acknowledgment Agreement) in all of the Borrower's right, title and interest, in, to, and under all of the following, whether now or hereafter existing and wherever located (all being collectively referred to herein as the "Collateral"):

(a) the Collection Account, all cash in the Collection Account and all other property from time to time deposited therein or otherwise credited thereto and all interest thereon;

(b) all Pledged Servicing Compensation whether or not yet accrued, earned, due or payable as well as all other present and future rights and interests of the Borrower in such Pledged Servicing Compensation;

(c) all Pledged Servicing Contract Rights whether or not yet accrued, earned, due or payable as well as all other present and future rights and interests of the Borrower in such Pledged Servicing Contract Rights;

(d) all subservicing agreements related to the Pledged Servicing Contract Rights and all rights and claims of the Borrower under such subservicing agreements;

(e) all Pledged Termination Fee Rights;

(f) all books, correspondence, files and other Records, including, without limitation, all tapes, disks, cards, software, data and computer programs in the possession or under the control of the Borrower or any other Person from time to time acting for the Borrower that at any time evidence or contain information relating to any of the property described in the preceding clauses of this Section 4.01 hereof or are otherwise necessary or helpful in the collection or realization thereof (but specifically excluding all servicing systems, computer programs, hardware, and other information and assets of the Borrower not exclusively relating to the Collateral); and

(g) all Proceeds, including all cash Proceeds and noncash Proceeds, and products of any and all of the foregoing Collateral; in each case howsoever the Borrower's interest therein may arise or appear (whether by ownership, security interest, claim or otherwise).

For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the term "Collateral" shall not include, and the Borrower is not pledging, nor granting a security interest hereunder in:

(i) any Servicing Contract Rights or Servicing Compensation until covered by the Acknowledgment Agreement; provided, that notwithstanding the foregoing, such security interest shall attach immediately, without any further action on the part of any Party, at such time as the Acknowledgment Agreement is effective (in accordance with its terms);

(ii) any Servicing Contract Rights or Servicing Compensation other than the Pledged Servicing;

(iii) principal and interest payments, escrow amounts or recoveries required to be remitted by the Borrower to the Owner, the Mortgagor and/or any other applicable party under the Guide;

(iv) servicing advance reimbursement rights; and/or

(v) the right to designate a servicer for any Serviced Loan.

Section 4.02 Provisions Regarding Pledge of Pledged Servicing to Be Included In Financing Statements.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, the security interest of the Lender created hereby with respect to the Collateral is subject to the following provision to be included in each financing statement filed in respect hereof (or any variation required by the Owner):

"Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the security interest publicized or perfected by this fmancing statement is subject and subordinate in each and every respect (a) to all rights, powers and prerogatives of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac") under and in connection with the Purchase Documents, as that term is defined in the Freddie Mac Single-Family Seller/Servicer Guide, which rights include, without limitation, the right of Freddie Mac to disqualify (in whole or in part) the debtor named herein as an approved Freddie Mac Seller/Servicer, with or without cause, and the right to terminate (in whole or in part) the unitary, indivisible master servicing contract and to transfer and sell all or any portion of said servicing contract rights, as provided in the Purchase Documents; and (b) to all claims of Freddie Mac arising out of or relating to any and all breaches, defaults and outstanding obligations of the debtor to Freddie Mac."

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the pledge of the Borrower's right, title and interest in Servicing Contract Rights under the Borrower's Servicing Contract with the Owner shall only secure the Borrower's indebtedness and obligations to the Lender incurred for the purposes permitted by the Owner in the Acknowledgment Agreement; provided, that the foregoing provisions of this Section 4.02(b)

shall be deemed automatically supplemented or amended if and to the extent the Owner supplements or amends the corresponding requirement, whether in its rules, regulations, guides, Servicing Contract, Acknowledgment Agreement, or published announcements or otherwise waives or grants exceptions from the requirement, and in each instance, with the same substantive force and effect.

Section 4.03 Authorization of Financing Statements. The Borrower hereby authorizes the Lender to file any financing or continuation statements required to perfect, protect, or more fully evidence the Lender's security interest in the Collateral granted hereunder so long as such financing statements include the legends and provisions contemplated by Section 4.02(a) above. The Lender will notify the Borrower of any such filing (but the failure to deliver such notice shall not prejudice any rights of the Lender under this Section 4.03 or any other section of this Agreement).

Section 4.04 Lender's Appointment as Attorney In Fact; Rights Upon Event of Default.

(a) The Borrower hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Lender and any officer or agent thereof, with full power of substitution, as the Borrower's true and lawful attorney in fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of the Borrower and in the name of the Borrower or in its own name, from time to time in the Lender's sole discretion, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Agreement (and/or the Servicing Contract, subject to the Acknowledgment Agreement), to take any action on behalf of the Borrower pursuant to the Servicing Contract and the Acknowledgment Agreement and to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement (and/or the Servicing Contract, subject to the Acknowledgment Agreement) to the extent such actions are permitted to be taken by the Lender under the Acknowledgment Agreement, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Borrower hereby gives the Lender the power and right, on behalf of the Borrower, without assent by, but with notice to, the Borrower, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, to do the following (subject to limitations contained in the Acknowledgment Agreement):

(i) In the name of the Borrower or its own name, or otherwise, to take possession of and endorse and collect any checks, drafts, notes, acceptances or other instruments for the payment of moneys due under any mortgage insurance or with respect to any other Collateral and to file any claim or to take any other action or proceeding in any court of law or equity or otherwise deemed appropriate by the Lender for the purpose of collecting any and all such moneys due under any such mortgage insurance or with respect to any other Collateral whenever payable;

(ii) (A) To direct any party liable for any payment under any Collateral to make payment of any and all moneys due or to become due thereunder directly to the Lender or as the Lender shall direct; (B) to ask or demand for, collect, receive payment of and receipt for, any and all moneys, claims and other amounts due or to become due at any time in respect of or arising out of any Collateral; (C) to sign and endorse any invoices, assignments, verifications, notices and other documents in connection with any of the Collateral; (D) to commence and

(iii) Perform or cause to be performed, the Borrower's obligations under the Servicing Contract to the extent permitted by the Acknowledgment Agreement.

The Borrower hereby ratifies all that said attorneys shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. The power of attorney is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable but shall terminate upon release of the Lender's security interest as provided in Section 4.05. This power of attorney shall not revoke any prior powers of attorney granted by the Borrower.

(b) The Borrower also authorizes the Lender, at any time and from time to time, to execute, in connection with the sale provided for in Section 10.02(c) hereof, any endorsements, assignments or other instruments of conveyance or transfer with respect to the Collateral; provided, that the exercise of such powers are in accordance with the Acknowledgment Agreement, if and to the extent applicable.

(c) The powers and rights conferred on the Lender are solely to protect the Lender's interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon the Lender to exercise any such powers and rights. The Lender shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers and rights, and neither the Lender nor any of its officers, directors, or employees shall be responsible to the Borrower for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by the final determination of a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, that the Lender shall exercise such powers and rights only in accordance with the Acknowledgment Agreement, if and to the extent applicable.

(d) All filings and other actions necessary to perfect the security interest in the Collateral created under this Agreement have been duly made or taken and are in full force and effect, and the Loan Documents create in favor of the Lender a valid and, together with such filings and other actions, perfected first priority security interest in the Collateral, securing the payment of the Obligations, and all filings and other actions necessary to perfect such security interest have been duly taken.

(e) Subject only to the Servicing Contract and the terms of the Acknowledgment Agreement, the Borrower has the full right, power and authority to pledge the Pledged Servicing, and the pledge of such Pledged Servicing may be further assigned without any requirement, except as may be specified in the Servicing Contract.

(f) In connection with any repurchase agreement, warehouse loan agreement or line of credit, loan and security agreement or similar credit facility or agreement for borrowed funds entered into by the Borrower or any of its Affiliates on the one hand and any third party (including any Affiliate of the Borrower but excluding the Lender or any Affiliate of the Lender) on the other, including without limitation, any other facility for the funding of servicing advances, no such third party has the right pursuant to the terms of such repurchase agreement, warehouse loan agreement or line of credit, loan and security agreement or similar credit facility or agreement, to cause the Borrower to terminate, rescind, cancel, pledge, hypothecate, liquidate or transfer any of the Collateral.

Schedule 6.01(b) sets forth a complete list of each jurisdiction in which the Borrower is licensed to originate and service residential mortgage loans and hold mortgage servicing rights, including, without limitation, Servicing Contract Rights as of the Closing Date.

Section 6.03 Power and Authority, Due Authorization. Each Loan Party (i) has all necessary power and authority and legal right to (A) execute and deliver each of the Loan Documents to be executed and delivered by it in connection herewith, (B) carry out the terms of the Loan Documents to which it is a party, and (C) with respect to the Borrower, borrow the Loans and grant a security interest in the Collateral on the terms and conditions herein provided, and (ii) has taken all necessary actions to duly authorize (A) such borrowing and grant and (B) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all of the Loan Documents to which it is a party.

Section 6.04 Binding Obligations. Each Loan Document to which each Loan Party is a party, when duly executed and delivered by such Loan Party, will constitute a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party enforceable against it in accordance with its respective terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law.

Section 6.05 No Violation. Neither any Loan Party's execution and delivery of the Loan Documents nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will conflict with, or result in any breach of (i) any of the terms and provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice, lapse of time or both) a default under any Organization Document to which it is a party, or, constitute a default or trigger any termination right under any indenture, loan agreement, warehouse loan agreement or line of credit, repurchase agreement, mortgage, deed of trust, Servicing Agreement or other material agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is otherwise bound, or result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any of its properties pursuant to the terms of any such indenture, loan agreement, mortgage, deed of trust, or other material agreement or instrument, other than this Agreement, or (ii) any Applicable Law.

Section 6.08 Solvency; Fraudulent Conveyance. Each Loan Party is Solvent and will not cease to be Solvent due to or following the making of any Loan hereunder (both immediately before and after giving effect to such Loan). The amount of consideration being received by the Borrower after giving effect to each Loan by the Lender constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for such Loan. The Borrower is not pledging any Collateral with any intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any of its creditors. As used herein, the term "Solvent" means, with respect to each Loan Party on a particular date, that on such date (i) the most recently reported value of the assets of such Loan Party, taking into account the fair value of assets accounted for on a fair value basis and the carrying value of other assets, is greater than the total amount of the most recently reported liabilities of such Loan Party (including the fair value of liabilities reported on a fair value basis), (ii) after giving effect to each Loan, such Loan Party is able to realize upon its assets and pay its debts and other liabilities as they mature, assuming an orderly disposition, and (iii) such Loan Party does not have an unreasonably small amount of capital with which to conduct its business.

The information, reports, fmancial statements, exhibits and schedules furnished in writing by or on behalf of any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates or Subsidiaries to the Lender and any Participant in connection with the negotiation, preparation or delivery of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or included herein or therein or delivered pursuant hereto or thereto, when taken as a whole, do not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements herein or therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. All written information furnished after the date hereof by or on behalf of any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates or Subsidiaries to the Lender in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will be true, complete and accurate in every material respect, or (in the case of projections) based on reasonable estimates, on the date as of which such information is stated or certified. There is no fact of which the Borrower has Knowledge that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 6.11 No Default. No Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

Section 6.12 Investment Company Act. No Loan Party is required to register as an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act.

Section 6.13 Taxes. Each Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries has filed (or caused to be filed) all United States federal income tax returns and all other material tax returns that are required to be filed, and has paid (or caused to be paid) all Taxes due pursuant to said returns or pursuant to any assessment received by any of them, except such Taxes, if any, as are being appropriately contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and as to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP.

Section 6.14 No Adverse Actions. No Loan Party has received a notice from any Agency indicating any adverse fact or circumstance in respect of such Loan Party which adverse fact or circumstance may reasonably be expected to entitle such Agency, as the case may be, to terminate such Loan Party with cause or with respect to which such adverse fact or circumstance has caused such Agency to threaten to terminate such Loan Party in such notice.

Section 6.15 Financial Statements. Each Loan Party has heretofore furnished to the Lender a copy of its audited consolidated balance sheets as of December, 31, 2016 and December, 31, 2017, with the opinion thereon of its auditor, Ernst & Young LLP, and the related consolidated statements of income and retained earnings and of cash flows for such Loan Party for the one year periods ended December, 31, 2016 and December, 31, 2017, setting forth in comparative form the figures for the previous years (collectively, the "Financial Statements"). The Financial Statements are complete and correct in all material respects and fairly present the consolidated financial condition of the Loan Parties and the consolidated results of their operations for the fiscal year ended on said date, all in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis. Since December 31, 2017, there has been no development or event which has had or could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 6.16 Properties. Each Loan Party has good and marketable title to, valid leasehold interests in, or valid licenses to use, all property and assets material to its business as then being conducted. All such properties and assets are in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear and casualty excepted, except to the extent that the failure to be in such condition could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 6.17 Compliance with Laws. Each Loan Party is in compliance with all Applicable Laws except to the extent that the failure to comply therewith could not, in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 6.18 ERISA. Each Plan is in compliance with ERISA, the Code and any Applicable Laws; neither a Reportable Event nor an "accumulated funding deficiency" (within the meaning of Section 412 or Section 430 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA) has occurred (or is likely to occur) with respect to any Plan. The Borrower is not and has not been a party to any Multiemployer Plan. No Single Employer Plan has terminated, and no Lien has been incurred in favor of the PBGC or a Plan. Based on the assumptions used to fund each Single Employer Plan, the present value of all accrued benefits under each such Plan did not materially exceed the value of the assets of such Plan allocable to such accrued benefit as of the last annual valuation date prior to the date on which this representation is made. Neither any Loan Party nor any ERISA Affiliate has incurred or is reasonably expected to incur any Withdrawal Liability in connection with any Multiemployer Plan. No such Multiemployer Plan is (or is reasonably expected to be) terminated, in reorganization within the meaning of Section 4241 of ERISA, or insolvent (within the meaning of Section 4245 of ERISA).

Section 6.19 Intellectual Property. Except to the extent that any of the following, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (i) the Borrower owns or licenses or otherwise has the right to use all Intellectual Property rights that are necessary for the operation of its business as currently conducted or proposed to be conducted, (ii) no claim has been asserted and is pending by any Person challenging the use, validity or effectiveness of any Intellectual Property, nor is the Borrower aware of any valid basis for any such claim, and (iii) the use of Intellectual Property by the Borrower does not infringe on the rights of any Person.

Section 6.22 Agency Set Off Rights. No Loan Party has actual notice, including any notice received from any Agency, or any reason to believe, that any circumstances exist that would result in such Loan Party's being liable to any Agency for any amount that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect by reason of (i) any breach of servicing or subservicing obligations or breach of mortgage selling warranty to the Agency under any Servicing Agreement or any other similar contracts relating to any Loan Party's Agency servicing or subservicing portfolio (including any due and unmet mortgage repurchase obligation), (ii) any due and unperformed obligation with respect to mortgage loans that any Loan Party is servicing for any Agency pursuant to a recourse agreement, (iii) any loss or damage to any Agency by reason of any inability of the Borrower to transfer to a purchaser of mortgage servicing rights, including, without limitation, Servicing Contract Rights, the Borrower's selling and servicing representations, warranties and obligations, as well as any existing mortgage-backed securities recourse obligations, or other recourse obligations, or (iv) any other due and unmet obligations to any Agency under any Servicing Agreement or any other similar contracts relating to any Loan Party's Agency servicing portfolio.

Section 6.23 Agency Qualifications. The Borrower is an approved seller, servicer, seller/servicer or issuer, as applicable, of mortgage loans for Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and Ginnie Mae (except, in each case, to the extent the Borrower has accomplished (a) a Voluntary Partial Cancellation, or (b) a Voluntary Cancellation with respect to Ginnie Mae), with the facilities, procedures, and experienced personnel necessary for the sound servicing of mortgage loans of the same type as the Covered Mortgage Loans. No event has occurred, including but not limited to a change in insurance coverage, which would make the Borrower unable to comply with Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac or Ginnie Mae eligibility requirements or which would require notification to Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac or Ginnie Mae (in each case, other than routine and customary notices not materially affecting its eligibility to service or sell mortgage loans to the applicable Agency) in each case, unless the Borrower has previously accomplished a Voluntary Partial Cancellation with such Agency or a Voluntary Cancellation with respect to Ginnie Mae. Furthermore, if at any time prior to the termination of this Agreement, the Borrower (a) accomplishes a Voluntary Cancellation or Voluntary Partial Cancellation or otherwise forfeits, relinquishes or loses its approved status with any Agency, or (b) is unable to comply with any of the Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac or Ginnie Mae eligibility requirements, and consequently loses its approval through the respective Agency, the Borrower shall immediately notify the Lender in writing.

As of the date hereof, all (a) Material Debt Facilities and (b) financing facilities currently in place for the financing of any Servicing Contract Rights or servicing advances with respect to Serviced Loans, are listed in detail on Schedule 6.24 attached hereto.

The Borrower covenants and agrees with the Lender that, so long as any Loan is outstanding and until all Obligations (other than Unliquidated Obligations) have been paid in full and the Commitment has been terminated:

Section 7.01 Compliance with Laws, etc. Each Loan Party will comply with all Applicable Laws (including Environmental Laws), except to the extent that failure to comply therewith could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 7.02 Performance and Compliance with Servicing Contract. Each Loan Party will comply in all material respects with all terms, provisions, covenants and other promises required to be observed by it under the Servicing Contract, maintain the Servicing Contract in full force and effect in all material respects and enforce the Servicing Contract in all material respects in accordance with the terms thereof.

Section 7.03 Taxes. Section 7.04 Due Diligence. The Borrower acknowledges that the Lender, at the Borrower's expense, has the right to perform and/or appoint a third party to perform, continuing due diligence reviews with respect to the Pledged Servicing and the other Collateral, for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties, and specifications made hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, or otherwise. Section 7.07 Financial Statements. Each Loan Party shall deliver to the Lender:

(a) As soon as available and in any event within 30 days after the end of each calendar month, each measured as of the last day of such month, (i) a Borrowing Base Certificate, and (ii) a Trigger Event Report;

(c) As soon as available and in any event within ninety (90) calendar days after the end of each fiscal year of the Borrower, audited financial statements (by Ernst & Young LLP or another nationally recognized certified public accounting firm) showing the financial position and results of operations of the Borrower and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of, and for the year ended on, such last day, including consolidated balance sheets and the related consolidated statements of income and retained earnings and of cash flows for such fiscal year, together with (A) the certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Borrower that all of such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Borrower as of the last day of such fiscal year and the results of the operations and the cash flow of the Borrower and its consolidated Subsidiaries for the fiscal year then ended in conformity with GAAP and (B) a customary opinion of such certified public accountant which opinion shall not be qualified as to scope of audit or going concern and shall state that said consolidated financial statements fairly present the consolidated financial condition and results of operations of such Borrower and its consolidated Subsidiaries at the end of, and for, such fiscal year in accordance with GAAP. Additionally, within ninety (90) calendar days after the end of each fiscal year of the Borrower, the Borrower shall deliver or have delivered to Lender a written statement of a public accountant attesting to the Borrower's assessment of compliance with the servicing criteria set forth in Section 1122(d) of Securities and Exchange Commission regulation AB (17 C.F.R. Section 7.08 Agency Approval. The Borrower shall at all times (i) maintain its status as an approved seller, servicer, seller/servicer or issuer, as applicable, of mortgage loans for each Agency for which the Borrower services mortgage loans (except, in each case, to the extent the Borrower has accomplished (a) a Voluntary Partial Cancellation, or (b) a Voluntary Cancellation with respect to Ginnie Mae), with the facilities, procedures, and experienced personnel necessary for the sound servicing of mortgage loans of the same type as the Covered Mortgage Loans and (ii) maintain all necessary approvals from each such Agency (except, in each case, to the extent the Borrower has accomplished (a) a Voluntary Partial Cancellation, or (b) a Voluntary Cancellation with respect to Ginnie Mae) and, to the extent permitted by each such Agency, provide to the Lender within five (5) Business Days after delivery or receipt thereof, notices of any termination of any servicing contract approved status or of other matters which could reasonably be expected to result in termination of approved status, notices of imposition of supervisory agreements or interim servicing agreements, and notices of probation, suspension, or non-renewal of approved status (other than when the Borrower accomplishes (a) a Voluntary Partial Cancellation or (b) a Voluntary Cancellation with respect to Ginnie Mae); provided, however, that the failure by the Borrow to provide copies of documents or other information furnished by the Owner shall not result in a Default or an Event of Default, or otherwise provide for acceleration or adverse consequences to the Borrower pursuant to this Agreement. The Borrower shall not take any action, or fail to take any action, that would permit any Agency to terminate its right to service loans for such Agency with cause.

Section 7.09 Financial Covenants. The Borrower shall:

(g) Any judgment or order for the payment of money in excess of the greater of (i) [] and (ii) [] of the Tangible Net Worth of the Borrower, exclusive of any amounts fully covered by insurance issued by a reputable and solvent insurance company (less any applicable deductible) and as to which a claim has been made in accordance with the requirements of the applicable policy and such insurance company has not disclaimed or disputed in writing its responsibility to cover such judgment or order, shall be rendered against any Loan Party, and such judgment or order shall not have been satisfied, vacated, discharged (or provisions shall not have been made for such discharge) or bonded, or a stay of execution thereof shall not be procured, within [] after the entry thereof, or, if a stay of execution is procured, [] from the date such stay is lifted;

(j) The Borrower either (i) accomplishes a Voluntary Cancellation (other than a Voluntary Cancellation with respect to Ginnie Mae) or (ii) provides notice of intent to sell or transfer, servicing contract rights constituting more than [] of the aggregate servicing contract rights of the Borrower with respect to any Agency (other than Ginnie Mae), in either event without Lender's prior express written consent.

Section 10.02 Remedies.

(a) Optional Acceleration. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default described in Section 10.01(h)), the Lender may, by written notice to the Borrower, terminate the Facility and the Commitment (including, without limitation, any obligation to make or fund any Loan) and declare all Loans and all other Obligations to be immediately due and payable.

(b) Automatic Acceleration. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in Section 10.01(h), the Facility and the Commitment shall be automatically terminated and the Loans and all other Obligations shall be immediately due and payable upon the occurrence of such event, without demand or notice of any kind.

(c) Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Lender, in addition to all other rights and remedies under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the right to make Protective Advances) or otherwise, shall have all other rights and remedies provided under the UCC of each applicable jurisdiction and other Applicable Law, which rights shall be cumulative (but shall be subject to the rights of the Owner, with respect to the Pledged Servicing). The Borrower agrees, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and notice from the Lender, to assemble, at its expense, all of the Collateral that is in its possession or control (whether by return, repossession, or otherwise) at a place designated by the Lender. All out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Lender in the collection of all Obligations, and the enforcement of its rights hereunder, including reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses, shall constitute Obligations. Without limiting the foregoing, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and the acceleration of the Loans pursuant to this Section 10.02, the Lender may, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, without notice, advertisement, hearing or process of law of any kind, (i) enter upon any premises where any of the Collateral which is in the possession of the Borrower (whether by return, repossession, or otherwise) may be located and take possession of and remove such Collateral, (ii) sell any or all of such Collateral, free of all rights and claims of the Borrower therein and thereto, at any public or private sale, and (iii) bid for (including by Credit Bid) and purchase any or all of such Collateral at any such sale. Any such sale shall be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner and in accordance with Applicable Law. The Borrower hereby expressly waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, any and all notices, advertisements, hearings or process of law in connection with the exercise by the Lender of any of its rights and remedies upon the occurrence of an Event of Default. The Lender shall have the right (but not the obligation) to bid for (including by Credit Bid) and purchase any or all Collateral at any public or private sale. The Borrower hereby agrees that in any sale of any of the Collateral, the Lender is hereby authorized to comply with any limitation or restriction in connection with such sale as it may be advised by counsel is necessary in order to avoid any violation of Applicable Law (including, without limitation, compliance with such procedures as may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, require that such prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications, and restrict such prospective bidders and purchasers to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing for their own account for investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Collateral), or in order to obtain any required approval of the sale or of the purchaser by any Governmental Authority, and the Borrower further agrees that such compliance shall not result in such sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner. The Lender shall not be liable for any sale, private or public, conducted in accordance with this Section 10.02(c). If an Event of Default occurs, and upon acceleration of the Loans hereunder, the Loans and all other Obligations shall be immediately due and payable, and collections on the Pledged Servicing and proceeds of sales and securitizations of Pledged Servicing, and other Collateral will be used to pay the Obligations.

(d) [Reserved].

(e) [Reserved].

(f) Acknowledgment of Full Recourse. The Borrower hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute full recourse obligations of the Borrower.

(d) Either Party may change its address for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other Party in the manner provided above.

(e) Notices made to the Borrower in the manner provided above shall be deemed to be made to each Responsible Officer at the time made to the Borrower.

Section 11.02 Amendments and Waivers

(a) No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of the Lender, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under the other Loan Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law. No waiver of any provision of any Loan Document or consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall comply with paragraph (b) of this Section, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the making of a Loan shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default or Event of Default, regardless of whether the Lender may have had notice or knowledge of such Default or Event of Default at the time.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified except (i) in the case of this Agreement, pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Borrower and the Lender, or (ii) in the case of any other Loan Document, pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Lender and the Loan Party or Loan Parties that are parties thereto.

Section 11.03 Expenses; Indemnity; Damage Waiver.

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay:

(i) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lender and its Affiliates, including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of counsel for the Lender, in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of the Loan Documents and any amendments, waivers or other modifications of the provisions of any Loan Document (whether or not the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents are consummated); provided, that the Borrower shall not be obligated to pay any such expenses incurred prior to the Closing Date in excess of [] and

(ii) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lender, including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Lender, in connection with the enforcement or protection of its rights (A) in connection with the Loan Documents, including its rights under this Section 11.03, or (B) in connection with the Obligations, including all such reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with any restructuring, workout or negotiations in respect of any of the Loan Documents or Obligations.

(b) The Borrower agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Lender and each of its Related Parties (each, an "Indemnified Party") from and against, any and all claims, damages, losses, liabilities and all related reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including the reasonable fees, charges and expenses of any counsel for any Indemnified Party), incurred by any Indemnified Party or asserted against any Indemnified Party by any Person (including the Borrower or any other Loan Party) arising out of, in connection with, or by reason of:

(i) the execution or delivery of any Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated in any Loan Document, the performance by the parties thereto of their respective obligations under any Loan Document or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents;

(ii) any Loan or other Obligation, or the actual or proposed use of any proceeds therefrom;

(iii) any actual or alleged presence or release of Hazardous Materials on or from any property currently or formerly owned or operated by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, or any Environmental Liability related to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries in any way; or provided that, such indemnity shall not be available to any Indemnified Party to the extent that such claims, damages, losses, liabilities or related expenses (A) are determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct of any Indemnified Party or (B) result from a claim brought by the Borrower or any other Loan Party against any Indemnified Party for breach in bad faith of any Indemnified Party's obligations under any Loan Document, if a court of competent jurisdiction has rendered a fmal and non-appealable judgment in favor of the Borrower or such Loan Party on such claim. This Section 11.03(b) shall only apply to Taxes to the extent that they represent losses, claims, damages or similar charges arising from a non-Tax claim.

(iv) any actual or prospective claim, investigation, litigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory, whether brought by a third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party, and regardless of whether any Indemnified Party is a party thereto;

(c) The Borrower agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, not to assert, and hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnified Party, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (including, without limitation, any loss of profits or anticipated savings), as opposed to actual or direct damages, resulting from this Agreement or any other Loan Document or arising out of such Indemnified Party's activities in connection herewith or therewith (whether before or after the Closing Date).

(d) All amounts due under Section 11.03 shall be payable promptly after demand is made for payment by the Lender.

(e) The Borrower agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries will settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any pending or threatened claim, action or proceeding in respect of which indemnification or contribution has been sought under Section 11.03 without the prior written consent of the applicable Indemnified Party, unless such settlement, compromise or consent includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability arising out of such claim, action or proceeding.

Section 11.04 Successors and Assigns.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Lender, which consent may be withheld by the Lender in its sole discretion (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrower without such consent shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the Parties, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of the Lender) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) The Lender may, at any time, without the consent of the Borrower, assign to one or more Eligible Assignees (as defined below) all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of the Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it). For purposes of this Agreement, "Eligible Assignee" means any Person other than a natural Person that is (i) an Affiliate of the Lender, (ii) a commercial bank, insurance company, investment or mutual fund or other Person that is an "accredited investor" (as defined in Regulation D under the Securities Act) or (iii) an entity that possesses financial sophistication and standing similar to that of the Lender. Subject to notification of an assignment, the assignee shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned, have the rights and obligations of the Lender under this Agreement, and the Lender shall, to the extent of the interest assigned, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an assignment covering all of the Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, the Lender shall cease to be a Party but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Section 3.01, Section 3.03 and Section 11.03). The Borrower hereby agrees to execute any amendment and/or any other document that may be necessary to effectuate such an assignment, including an amendment to this Agreement to provide for multiple lenders and an administrative agent to act on behalf of such lenders. Any assignment or transfer by the Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this paragraph shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by the Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with paragraph (c) of this Section.

(c) The Lender may, at any time, without the consent of the Borrower, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (each, a "Participant") in all or a portion of the Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of the Commitment and the Loans owing to it); provided that (i) the Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) the Lender shall remain solely responsible to the Borrower for the performance of such obligations, and (iii) each of the Borrower and the Owner shall continue to deal solely and directly with the Lender in connection with the Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. The Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 3.01 and Section 3.03 to the same extent as if it were the Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section; provided that, such Participant (A) agrees to be subject to the provisions of Section 3.01 and Section 2.09 as if it were an assignee under paragraph (b) of this Section; and (B) shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 3.01 or Section 3.03, with respect to any participation, than the Lender would have been entitled to receive, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the Participant acquired the applicable participation. The Lender shall, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under the Loan Documents (the "Participant Register"); provided that, the Lender shall have no obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in the Commitment, Loans or other obligations under any Loan Document) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that the Commitment, any Loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and the Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary.

(d) To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 11.08 as though it were the Lender, as long as such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.09 as though it were the Lender.

(e) Notwithstanding the above, the Lender may at any time pledge or assign all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to successor entities resulting from a resolution of the conservatorship resulting from the Federal Housing Finance Agency's exercise, on September 6, 2008, of its authority to "carry on the business of ... and preserve and conserve the assets and property of [Freddie Mac]" pursuant to the Federal Housing Enterprises Financial Safety and Soundness Act of 1992 as amended by the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008 and as may be further amended from time to time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of any such pledge or assignment by the Lender described in this paragraph, the Borrower shall have the option to prepay all, but not less than all, of the outstanding Loans, without prepayment penalty, indemnification pursuant to Section 3.04 or any amounts otherwise claimed pursuant to Section 3.03. Such option shall be exercised by delivery of an irrevocable written notice to the Lender of the Borrower's intent to repay all Loans outstanding and terminate the Commitment, within ten (10) days following receipt by the Borrower of notice of the pledge or assignment described in this paragraph, with such prepayment to occur no later than thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice.

Section 11.05 Survival. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Loan Parties in the Loan Documents and in the certificates or other instruments delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Lender and shall survive the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents and the making of any Loans, regardless of any investigation made by any such other party or on its behalf and notwithstanding that the Lender may have notice or knowledge of any Default or Event of Default or incorrect representation or warranty at the time any credit is extended hereunder, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as the principal of, or any accrued interest on, any Loan or any fee or any other amount payable under this Agreement is outstanding and unpaid and so long as the Commitment has not expired or terminated. The provisions of Section 3.01, Section 3.03 and Article XI shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of the Loans, the expiration or termination of the Commitment or the termination of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

Section 11.06 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness.

(a) This Agreement and any amendments, waivers, consents or supplements hereto may be executed in counterparts (and by different Parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement, the other Loan Documents and any separate letter agreements with respect to fees payable to the Lender constitute the entire contract among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 5.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Lender and when the Lender shall have received a counterpart hereof executed by each Loan Party. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement in electronic ("pdf" or "tif") format shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

(b) The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of similar import in any Loan Document shall be deemed to include electronic or digital signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same effect, validity and enforceability as manually executed signatures or a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for under Applicable Law, including the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act of 2000 (15 USC § 7001 et seq.), the Electronic Signatures and Records Act of 1999 (NY State Technology Law §§ 301-309), or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

Section 11.07 Construction; Severability.

(a) In the event of a dispute regarding the meaning of any language contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree that the same should be accorded a reasonable construction and should not be construed more strongly against one Party than against any other Party by any reason, including but not limited to by reason of such Party's or its counsel's role in the drafting of this Agreement. In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and the Acknowledgment Agreement, the Acknowledgment Agreement controls.

(b) If any term or provision of any Loan Document is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision thereof or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 11.08 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Freddie Mac (in any of its capacities, including as the Lender or Owner) and each of its Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by law, and without prior notice to the Borrower, any such notice being expressly waived by the Borrower, to set off and appropriate and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other obligations at any time owing by Freddie Mac (in any of its capacities, including as the Lender or Owner) or Affiliate to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any Loan Party against any and all of the obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party now or hereafter existing under the Loan Documents to the Lender or its Affiliates, whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, and irrespective of whether or not the Lender shall have made any demand under the Loan Documents and although such obligations of such Loan Party are owed to an Affiliate of the Lender different from the Affiliate holding such deposit or obligated on such indebtedness. The Lender agrees to notify the Borrower promptly after any such setoff and appropriation and application; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and appropriation and application.

Section 11.09 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process.

(a) This Agreement and the other Loan Documents and any claim, controversy, dispute or cause of action (whether in contract or tort or otherwise) based upon, arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document (except, as to any other Loan Document, as expressly set forth therein) and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflicts of laws principles other than Section 5-1401 of the New York General Obligations Law.

(b) Each Party hereto irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that it will not commence any action, litigation or proceeding of any kind whatsoever, whether in law or equity, or whether in contract or tort or otherwise, against any other Party in any way relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, in any forum other than the federal courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and any appellate court thereof, and each Party irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts and agrees that any such action, litigation or proceeding may be brought in such courts. Each Party agrees that a final judgment in any such action, litigation or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

(c) Each Party irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document in any such court referred to in subsection (b) of this Section. Each Party hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(d) Each Party irrevocably consents to the service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 11.01 and agrees that nothing herein will affect the right of any Party to serve process in any other manner permitted by Applicable Law.

Section 11.10 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY. EACH PARTY (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO AGENT, ATTORNEY, REPRESENTATIVE OR ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

Section 11.11 Headings; Captions and Cross References. The headings in this Agreement are for reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement. The various captions (including the table of contents) in this Agreement are included for convenience only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. References in this Agreement to any underscored Section or Exhibit are to such Section or Exhibit of this Agreement, as the case may be.

Section 11.12 Confidentiality.

(a) The Lender agrees to maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information received from the Borrower or any other Loan Party relating to the Borrower or its Subsidiaries or their respective businesses (the "Information"), except that Information may be disclosed: (i) to its Affiliates and its Related Parties (it being understood that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made will be informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential with the Lender being liable for breach hereunder by any Affiliate or Related Party); (ii) to the extent required or requested by any regulatory authority purporting to have jurisdiction over such Person or its Related Parties (including any self-regulatory authority); (iii) to the extent required by any Applicable Law or regulations or by any subpoena, court order or similar legal process; (iv) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under any other Loan Document or any suit, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the enforcement of its rights hereunder or thereunder; (v) to (x) any actual or potential assignee, transferee or participant in connection with the assignment or transfer by the Lender of any Loans or any participations therein or (y) any actual or prospective party (or its Related Parties) to any swap, derivative or other transaction under which payments are to be made by reference to the Borrower or any other Loan Party or any Subsidiary or any of their respective obligations, this Agreement or payments hereunder; provided that, any such potential assignee, transferee, participant, swap counterparty or advisor is advised of, and agrees in writing to be bound by, the provisions of this Section and that the Borrower shall be a third party beneficiary of any such agreement (with the Lender being liable for breach hereunder by any Affiliate or Related Party); (vi) with the consent of the Borrower; or (vii) to the extent such Information (x) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section or (y) is available to the Lender on a non-confidential basis prior to disclosure by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, or (z) becomes available to the Lender or any of its Affiliates on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Borrower or any other Loan Party.

(b) Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such Person has exercised a reasonable degree of care.

(c) This Agreement and its terms, provisions, supplements and amendments, and notices hereunder, are proprietary to the Lender and the Borrower, and shall be held by each Party hereto, as applicable, in strict confidence, and shall not be disclosed to any third party without the written consent of the Lender or the Borrower, as applicable, except for (i) disclosure to the Lender's or the Borrower's direct and indirect Affiliates and Subsidiaries, attorneys or accountants, and to any Person entering into an Intercreditor Agreement, but only to the extent such disclosure is necessary and such parties agree to hold all information in strict confidence, or (ii) disclosure required by law, rule, regulation or order of a court or requested by a regulatory body or conservator.

(d) Notwithstanding the above, the Borrower and the Lender, and each employee, representative, or other agent of such person or entity, may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transaction (as defined in United States Treasury Regulation Section 1.6011-4) and all related materials of any kind, including opinions or other tax analyses, that are provided to such person or entity. However, such person or entity may not disclose any other information relating to this transaction unless such information (i) is related to such tax treatment and tax structure or (ii) would otherwise be disclosable in accordance with this Section 11.12; and provided further, for clarity, the Borrower may not disclose the name of or identifying information with respect the Lender or any pricing terms or other nonpublic business or financial information (including any sublimits and financial covenants) that is unrelated to the federal, state and local tax treatment of this transaction and is not relevant to understanding the federal, state and local tax treatment of this transaction, without the prior written consent of the Lender. For the avoidance of doubt, the Borrower may disclose the terms of this Agreement to any regulatory authority purporting to have jurisdiction over it or its Related Parties.

Section 11.13 Acknowledgement. The Borrower hereby acknowledges that:

(a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Note and the other Loan Documents to which it is a party;

(b) the Lender has no fiduciary relationship to the Borrower, and the relationship between the Borrower and the Lender is solely that of debtor and creditor; and

(c) no joint venture exists among or between the Lender and the Borrower.

Section 11.14 Interest Rate Limitations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by Applicable Law (the "Maximum Rate"). If the Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by the Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, the Lender may, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

Section 11.15 Marshalling; Payments Set Aside. The Lender shall not be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of the Borrower or any other Person or against or in payment of any or all of the Obligations. To the extent that the Borrower makes a payment or payments to the Lender, or the Lender enforces any security interests or exercise their rights of setoff, and such payment or payments or the proceeds of such enforcement or setoff or any part thereof are subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside and/or required to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party under any bankruptcy law, any other state or federal law, common law or any equitable cause, then, to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied, and all Liens, rights and remedies therefor or related thereto, shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment or payments had not been made or such enforcement or setoff had not occurred.

Section 11.16 Patriot Act. The Lender hereby notifies each Loan Party that pursuant to the requirements of the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (Title III of Pub. L. 107-56, signed into law October 26, 2001) (the "PATRIOT Act"), it is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow the Lender to identify such Loan Party in accordance with the PATRIOT Act, and the Borrower agrees to provide, or cause the other Loan Parties to provide, such information from time to time to the Lender.

Section 11.17 Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence in the performance of the obligations stated in this Agreement.

Section 11.18 Multiple Capacities; Valuation. The Borrower, for itself and each Loan Party, hereby acknowledges that (a) Freddie Mac, is acting in multiple capacities with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, under certain other Loan Documents and otherwise, (b) that any relationship between any Loan Party and Freddie Mac in any capacity other than as the Lender hereunder, including, without limitation, as the Owner, is distinct and separate from its relationship with, and obligations to, the Lender under this Agreement, and (c) this Agreement does not modify the obligations of any Loan Party to Freddie Mac in its capacity as Owner. Freddie Mac acknowledges and agrees that its valuation of the Collateral, as Lender, shall not be used by Freddie Mac, as Owner, to challenge the value of the Borrower's assets as set forth on the Borrower's financial statements which are completed in accordance with GAAP.

Section 11.19 Information Sharing. The Borrower, for itself and each Loan Party, hereby authorizes Freddie Mac, in its capacity as the Owner, to share any and all information it may receive from the servicing performance, counterparty eligibility, risk management, counterparty operational risk evaluation, quality control, quality assessment, and similar divisions and/or departments within Freddie Mac, with Freddie Mac, in its capacity as the Lender hereunder. Freddie Mac's information sharing authorized pursuant to the preceding sentence shall not in any manner authorize or obligate Freddie Mac, in its capacity as Owner, to share the same or similar information with any other Person, including without limitation any other lender (a "Third Party Lender") which has made a loan to the Borrower secured by Servicing Contract Rights with respect to any Serviced Loan which is not a Covered Mortgage Loan, or which has made a loan to the Borrower secured by advance reimbursement rights with respect to any Serviced Loan. Nothing in the Loan Documents shall be construed to limit the Borrower's ability to share any information received from Freddie Mac or obtainable from Freddie Mac (and not expressly designated as confidential information) with any Third Party Lender.

[New York, New York]

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, QUICKEN LOANS INC., a Michigan corporation (the "Borrower"), hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the order of the FEDERAL HOME LOAN MORTGAGE CORPORATION, also known as FREDDIE MAC (the "Lender"), at the principal office of the Lender at 1551 Park Run Drive, McLean, VA 22102, in lawful money of the United States, and in immediately available funds, the principal sum of [ ] ($[ ]) (or such lesser amount as shall equal the aggregate unpaid principal amount of the Loans made by the Lender to the Borrower under the Loan Agreement (defined below)), on the dates and in the principal amounts provided in the Loan Agreement, but in any event no later than the Maturity Date, and to pay interest on the unpaid principal amount of each such Loan, at such office, in like money and funds, for the period commencing on the date of such Loan until such Loan shall be paid in full, at the rates per annum and on the dates provided in the Loan Agreement.

The date, amount and interest rate of each Loan made by the Lender to the Borrower, and each payment made on account of the principal thereof, shall be recorded by the Lender on its books; provided, that the failure of the Lender to make any such recordation shall not affect the obligations of the Borrower to make a payment when due of any amount owing under the Loan Agreement or hereunder in respect of the Loans made by the Lender.

This Promissory Note (this "Note") is the Note referred to in the Loan and Security Agreement dated as of April 30, 2018 (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified and in effect from time to time, the "Loan Agreement") between the Borrower and the Lender, and evidences Loans made by the Lender thereunder. Terms used but not defined in this Note have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Loan Agreement.

The Borrower agrees to pay the Lender's out-of-pocket costs of collection and enforcement (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements of the Lender's counsel) in respect of this Note, if and when incurred, all as further required by Section 11.03 of the Loan Agreement.

Payments on this Note shall be applied by the Lender in accordance with the Loan Agreement.

To the extent permitted by law, the Borrower, and any endorsers or guarantors hereof, (a) severally waive diligence, presentment, protest and demand and also notice of protest, demand, dishonor and nonpayments of this Note, (b) expressly agree that this Note, or any payment hereunder, may be extended from time to time, and consent to the acceptance of further Collateral, the release of any Collateral for this Note, the release of any party primarily or secondarily liable hereon, and (c) expressly agree that it will not be necessary for the Lender, in order to enforce payment of this Note, to first institute or exhaust the Lender's remedies against the Borrower or any other party liable hereon or against any Collateral for this Note. No extension of time for the payment of this Note, or any installment hereof, made by agreement by the Lender with any Person now or hereafter liable for the payment of this Note, shall affect the liability under this Note of the Borrower, even if the Borrower is not a party to such agreement; provided, however, that the Lender and the Borrower, by written agreement between them, may affect the liability of the Borrower.

Any forbearance by Lender in exercising any right or remedy under this Note, the Loan Agreement, or any other Loan Document, or otherwise afforded by Applicable Law, will not be a waiver of or preclude the exercise of that or any other right or remedy. The acceptance by Lender of any payment after the due date of such payment, or in an amount which is less than the required payment, will not be a waiver of Lender's right to require prompt payment when due of all other payments or to exercise any right or remedy with respect to any failure to make prompt payment. Enforcement by Lender of any security for Borrower's obligations under this Note will not constitute an election by Lender of remedies so as to preclude the exercise of any other right or remedy available to Lender.

Any reference herein to the Lender shall be deemed to include and apply to every subsequent holder of this Note. Reference is made to the Loan Agreement for provisions concerning optional and mandatory prepayments, Collateral, acceleration and other material terms affecting this Note. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, upon an Event of Default, the Lender shall be entitled to accelerate the Maturity Date as set forth in Section 10.02 of the Loan Agreement.

If any term or provision of this Note is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the validity and enforceability of all of the remaining terms and provisions of this Note shall not be affected, and the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be construed and enforced as if this Note did not contain the particular term or provision held to be invalid or unenforceable. This Note may not be amended, and none of its terms may be waived except by a writing that specifically refers to this Note, which expressly states that it constitutes an amendment or waiver to this Note, and which is signed by the Party or Parties against whom enforcement of the amendment or waiver is sought.

Any enforcement action relating to this Note may be brought by motion for summary judgment in lieu of a complaint pursuant to Section 3213 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules.

THIS NOTE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES (OTHER THAN SECTION 5-1401 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW, WHICH BY ITS TERMS APPLIES TO THIS NOTE). This Amendment No. 1 to the Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of April 1, 2019 (this "Amendment"), is entered into by and between Quicken Loans Inc., a Michigan corporation (together with its successors and permitted assigns, the "Borrower"), and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, also known as Freddie Mac, a government-sponsored enterprise, solely in its capacity as the lender hereunder (together with its successors and permitted assigns, the "Lender").

RECITALS

A. The Lender and the Borrower are parties to that certain Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of April 30, 2018 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Existing Loan and Security Agreement": and as amended by this Amendment, the "Loan and Security Agreement").

B. The Lender and the Borrower have agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of this Amendment, that the Existing Loan and Security Agreement be amended to (i) extend the Availability Period and Maturity Date for an additional one (1) year from their current dates of expiration, to April 30, 2022 and April 30, 2024, respectively, (ii) revise Section 1.01 of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement with respect to the definitions of "Availability Period" and "Maturity Date" to reflect the extensions of those dates, and (iii) revise Section 2.14 of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement to revise the timeframe during which the Borrower may provide notice to extend the Availability Period and the Maturity Date.

Accordingly, Lender and Borrower hereby agree, in consideration of the mutual promises and mutual obligations set forth herein, that the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings set forth in the Existing Loan and Security Agreement.

2. Amendment to Section 1.01. Section 1.01 Definitions: Construction, is revised to reflect the amendment by complete restatement of the definitions of "Availability Period" and "Maturity Date" as follows:

"Availability Period" means, the period from and including the Closing Date to the earliest of (i) April 30, 2022 as such date may be extended pursuant to Section 2.14, (ii) the date of termination of the Commitment pursuant to Section 2.06, and (iii) the date of termination of the Commitment of the Lender to make Loans pursuant to Section 10.02.

the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default or (iii) the date Loans automatically become due and payable after the occurrence of an Event of Default pursuant to Section 10.01(h).

3. Amendment to Section 2.14. Section 2.14 of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

Extension of Availability Period and Maturity Date. The Borrower may, from time to time by notice to the Lender not earlier than one (1) year after the Closing Date and not later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the last day of the Availability Period then in effect hereunder (the "Existing Revolving Termination Date"), request that the Lender extend the Availability Period for an additional one (1) year period from the then Existing Revolving Termination Date. The Lender, acting in its sole and absolute discretion shall advise the Borrower whether the Lender agrees to such extension under this Section no later than the date fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the Existing Revolving Termination Date (or, if such date is not a Business Day, on the next preceding Business Day); provided, that for the avoidance of doubt, the failure of the Lender to advise the Borrower it has agreed to such extension shall be deemed a rejection of such extension. As conditions precedent to any such extension, (a) the Borrower shall deliver to the Lender a certificate of each Loan Party dated as of the Existing Revolving Termination Date signed by a Responsible Officer of such Loan Party (i) certifying and attaching the resolutions adopted by such Loan Party approving or consenting to such extension and (ii) in the case of the Borrower, certifying that, before and after giving effect to such extension, (A) the representations and warranties set forth in Article VI are true and correct in all material respects (unless any such representation and warranty is qualified by materiality and then, in such case, the accuracy of such representation and warranty in all respects), and (B) no Default or Event of Default is in existence, and (b) the Borrower shall pay to the Lender an extension fee in the amount of the lesser of (i) [] of the Commitment Amount then in effect or (ii) [] in immediately available funds. A. The Lender and the Borrower are parties to that certain Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of April 30, 2018, as amended by that certain Amendment No. 1 to the Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of April 1, 2019 (collectively, the "Existing Loan and Security Agreement"; and as amended by this Amendment, the "Loan and Security Agreement").

B. The Lender and the Borrower have agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of this Amendment, that the Existing Loan and Security Agreement be amended inter alia to (i) revise Section 1.01 of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement with respect to certain definitions; (ii) revise Section 2.03(a) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement to require delivery of a Borrowing Base Certificate simultaneously with a Notice of Borrowing; (iii) revise Sections 2.07(b) and 2.09(b) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement related to the requirement to pay interest simultaneously with certain prepayments; (iv) revise Section 2.07(c)(ii) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement related to the Borrowing Base Deficiency; (v) revise Section 8.04 of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement with respect to the disposition of Collateral (as such term is defined in the Existing Loan and Security Agreement) and (vi) revise Section 11.01(a)(ii) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement, in each case, on the terms set forth below.

Accordingly, Lender and Borrower hereby agree, in consideration of the mutual promises and mutual obligations set forth herein, that the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms; Incorporation of Recitals. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings set forth in the Existing Loan and Security Agreement. The Recitals above are incorporated herein by reference as a substantive contractual part of this Amendment.

2. Additional Representations, Warranties and Certifications. The Borrower hereby represents, warrants and certifies to the Lender, as of the date hereof:

(a) The Borrower has taken all necessary organizational action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Amendment. This Amendment has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Borrower;

(b) This Amendment constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Borrower, enforceable against the Borrower in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by equitable principles (whether enforcement is sought by proceedings in equity or at law);

(c) Before and after giving effect to this Amendment:

(i) Each of the representations and warranties set forth in Article VI of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement are true and correct in all material respects (unless any such representation and warranty is qualified by materiality and then, in such case, the accuracy of such representation and warranty in all respects) as of the date hereof (except to the extent any such representation or warranty is stated to relate solely to an earlier date, in which case, such representation or warranty shall have been true or correct as of such date); and

(ii) There is no Default or Event of Default in existence, nor would a Default or Event of Default result after giving effect to this Amendment.

3. Condition to Effectiveness of this Amendment. The Lender has received from the Borrower a counterpart of this Amendment signed on behalf of the Borrower.

4. Amendment to Section 1.01.

(a) Section 1.01 of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby revised by adding new definitions of "Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice", Borrowing Base Shortfall Period" and "Eligible Covered Mortgage Loans", in appropriate alphabetical order, in each case, as follows:

"Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice" means written notice (which notice may be sent electronically) delivered by the Lender to the Borrower that the date of such notice is a Borrowing Base Shortfall Day.

"Borrowing Base Shortfall Period" means any period commencing on the date a Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice is delivered to the Borrower through and including the date on which no Borrowing Base Deficiency exists and all then outstanding Borrowing Base Deficiency Notices have been satisfied or withdrawn or have been deemed to be satisfied or withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.07(c)(ii)(D).

"Eligible Covered Mortgage Loans" means, at any time, (i) prior to the third (3rd) Business Day of the first full calendar month following the Closing Date, the Covered Mortgage Loans set forth on Schedule 1.01(a), and (ii) thereafter, (x) on or after the third (3rd) Business Day of any calendar month, those mortgage loans constituting Covered Mortgage Loans as of the last Business Day of the preceding calendar month and (y) prior to the third (3rd) Business Day of any calendar month, those mortgage loans constituting Covered Mortgage Loans as of the last Business Day of the next preceding calendar month, in each case, notwithstanding any subsequent addition of Covered Mortgage Loans; provided that, if Borrower intends to accomplish a "Transfer of Servicing" (as such term is defined in the Guide) with respect to a portion of the Covered Mortgage Loans, any such Covered Mortgage Loans shall immediately cease to be Eligible Covered Mortgage Loans on the date the Lender delivers a release of its security interests in such Covered Mortgage Loans pursuant to Section 8.04 hereof . Solely by way of example (1) a mortgage loan that becomes a Covered Mortgage Loan on April 1 would not constitute an Eligible Covered Mortgage Loan until the third (3rd) Business Day of May, (2) Eligible Covered Mortgage Loans on the third (3rd) Business Day of April would consist only of Covered Mortgage Loans as of the last Business Day of March, and (3) Eligible Covered Mortgage Loans on April 1 would consist only of Covered Mortgage Loans as of the last Business Day of February.

(b) Section 1.01 is revised to reflect the amendment by complete restatement of the definitions of "Borrowing Base Deficiency", "Borrowing Base Shortfall Day", "Eligible Pledged Servicing", "Pledged Servicing Compensation" and "Pledged Servicing Contract Rights" as follows:

"Borrowing Base Deficiency" means that the Outstanding Aggregate Loan Amount on any day exceeds the lesser of (i) the Borrowing Base and (ii) the Commitment Amount on such day.

"Borrowing Base Shortfall Day" means any Business Day on which the Lender has determined in its sole discretion based on the Borrowing Base Report most recently delivered by the Lender pursuant to Section 2.04(a) that there is a Borrowing Base Deficiency.

"Eligible Pledged Servicing" means all Pledged Servicing with respect to Eligible Covered Mortgage Loans subject to the Acknowledgment Agreement; provided that, Eligible Pledged Servicing shall not include any (i) Surplus Proceeds, (ii) Pledged Termination Fee Rights, or (iii) Pledged Servicing that has not yet been included in the Collateral on the day before the date on which (x) the Owner refuses to accept and process any submission with respect to a transfer of servicing submitted by the Borrower to the Owner or (y) "Suspension" has occurred under, and as defined in, the Acknowledgment Agreement, for so long as such "Suspension" is in effect under the Acknowledgment Agreement.

"Pledged Servicing Compensation" means all Servicing Compensation with respect to the Eligible Covered Mortgage Loans.

"Pledged Servicing Contract Rights" means all Servicing Contract Rights with respect to the Eligible Covered Mortgage Loans.

5. Amendment to Section 2.03(a). Section 2.03(a) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

(a) The Borrower may borrow hereunder on any Business Day during the Availability Period; provided that, the Borrower shall deliver to the Lender an irrevocable Notice of Borrowing (together with the Borrowing Base Certificate required pursuant to Section 5.02(a)(ii)), which Notice of Borrowing must be received by the Lender no later than 10:00 a.m. on the Business Day before the requested Funding Date. Each borrowing of Loans hereunder shall be in an amount equal to $1,000,000 or a whole multiple of $1,000,000 in excess thereof (or, if the then available Commitment is less than $1,000,000, such lesser amount).

6. Amendment to Section 2.07(b). Section 2.07(b) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

(b) Optional Prepayments. The Borrower may, from time to time on any Business Day (each an "Optional Prepayment Date"), prepay any Loan or Loans advanced hereunder, in whole or in part. Each prepayment made pursuant to this Section 2.07(b) shall be accompanied by (A) a Prepayment Notice in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit E, and (B) payment of accrued interest to the date of such payment on the amount prepaid, plus any amounts owing pursuant to Section 3.04. With respect to each prepayment made pursuant to this Section 2.07(b), payment of accrued interest to the date of such payment on the amount prepaid, (i) if such prepayment is a prepayment in full of all outstanding Loans, shall be made as part of such prepayment, or (ii) if such prepayment is for any amount less than all outstanding Loans, shall be made on the next Interest Payment Date in accordance with Section 2.09(b). Any such prepayment received by the Lender by 2:00 p.m. on such Optional Prepayment Date shall be applied by the Lender on such Business Day. Any such prepayment received by the Lender after 2:00 p.m. on such Optional Prepayment Date shall be applied by the Lender on the following Business Day. During the Amortization Period, any such prepayment shall be applied to the principal repayment installments in inverse order of maturity.

7. Amendment to Section 2.07(c)(ii). Section 2.07(c)(ii) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

(ii) Borrowing Base Deficiency.

(A) During any Borrowing Base Shortfall Period, the Lender, in its sole discretion, shall have the right, but not the obligation, (x) to deliver one or more subsequent Borrowing Base Deficiency Notices (each such Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice based on the Borrowing Base Report most recently delivered by the Lender pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof) setting forth the Borrowing Base Deficiency as of such date and/or any incremental change in the Borrowing Base Deficiency since the date of any other Borrowing Base Deficiency Notices previously delivered during such Borrowing Base Shortfall Period and/or (y) withdraw any one or more Borrowing Base Deficiency Notices previously delivered.

(B) The Borrower shall, no later than 5:00 p.m. on the fifth (5th) Business Day following the delivery of any Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice, repay outstanding Loans, in a principal amount equal to at least the amount of the Borrowing Base Deficiency specified in such Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice; provided that, no such repayment shall be required in connection with any Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice if, on the date such Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice is delivered, (x) the Outstanding Aggregate Loan Amount does not exceed the Commitment Amount and (y) the amount of the Borrowing Base Deficiency is less than two percent (2%) of the Borrowing Base. For the avoidance of doubt, during a Borrowing Base Shortfall Period the Lender shall not be required to fund any additional Loan requested by the Borrower, even if no repayment is required pursuant to the foregoing sentence.

(C) The delivery of any Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice during any Borrowing Base Shortfall Period shall not operate to extend any period of payment of the amount set forth in any prior Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice; provided that, the Borrower shall only be required to pay any incremental increase on the date such related amount is due under paragraph (C) above (assuming the amount due under the prior notice was paid in full), and the Lender shall not, in any case, be entitled to any duplicative recovery (i.e. with respect to multiple notices) to the extent the aggregate Borrowing Base Deficiency on any subsequent Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice during such Borrowing Base Shortfall Period equals or exceeds the aggregate Borrowing Base Deficiency (which has been satisfied) pursuant to an earlier Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice sent during such Borrowing Base Shortfall Period.

(D) If, on any Business Day during any Borrowing Base Shortfall Period, the Borrower repays outstanding Loans in an amount equal to at least the aggregate amount of the Borrowing Base Deficiency specified in the Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice most recently delivered during such Borrowing Base Shortfall Period (or such lesser amount agreed to by the Lender), all then outstanding Borrowing Base Deficiency Notices shall be deemed satisfied and withdrawn.

(E) Further to the above, for the avoidance of doubt, the valuation dispute procedure set forth in Section 2.04(b) shall not operate to extend any period referenced in this Section 2.07(c)(ii) as the date for repayment of the amount of any Borrowing Base Deficiency.

(F) The Lender's election not to provide notice pursuant to this Section 2.07(c)(ii) at any time when there is a Borrowing Base Deficiency shall not in any way limit or impair the Lender's right, at any time, to (i) declare an Event of Default following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default(it being understood that the Borrower's failure to cure a Borrowing Base Deficiency shall not constitute an Event of Default pursuant to Section 10.01(a) unless a Borrowing Base Deficiency Notice has first been provided with respect to such Borrowing Base Deficiency), or (ii) deliver such notice at any future time there is a Borrowing Base Deficiency.

8. Amendment to Section 2.09(b). Section 2.09(b) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

> (b) Unless otherwise expressly stated herein (including with respect to each prepayment made pursuant to Section 2.07(b) (other than prepayment in full of all outstanding Loans) and subsections (ii) and (iii) of Section 2.07(c)), interest on each Loan shall be payable monthly, in arrears, on each Interest Payment Date. Any prepayments of Loans which are required to be accompanied by payment of accrued interest on the date prepaid shall also be accompanied by any amounts owing pursuant to Section 3.04.

9. Amendment to Section 8.04. Section 8.04 of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

> Dispositions. Sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral (or any interest therein); provided, however, that Pledged Servicing Contract Rights and Pledged Servicing Compensation (and, in each case, Collateral related thereto) may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of so long as immediately following such disposition (i) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and (ii) no Borrowing Base Deficiency then exists (by way of clarification, Borrower may repay loans at such time so that no Borrowing Base Deficiency would exist) Upon receipt of a written request from Borrower, and subject to Borrower's compliance with the provisions of this Section 8.04, the Lender will promptly execute and deliver a release of its security interests in such released Collateral on the date of sale contemplated by the applicable servicing sale agreement.

10. Amendment to Section 11.01(a)(ii). Section 11.01(a)(ii) of the Existing Loan and Security Agreement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

> If to the Lender, to it at Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, 1551 Park Run Drive, McLean, VA 22102, Attention: Director, Direct Lending Program (Telephone No. 571-382-5701; E-mail: ICM MSR@FreddieMac.com); with a copy to: Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, 8200 Jones Branch Drive, Legal Division, McLean, VA 22102, Attention: Jeffrey P. 11. Limited Effect. Except as specifically amended by this Amendment, all Loan Documents shall continue in full force and effect and are hereby ratified and reaffirmed in all respects. The Borrower hereby agrees, with respect to each

Loan Document to which it is a party, that all of its obligations, liabilities and indebtedness under such Loan Documents shall remain in full force and effect on a continuous basis after giving effect to this Amendment and all of the Liens and security interests created and arising under such Loan Documents remain in full force and effect on a continuous basis, and the perfected status and priority of each such Lien and security interest continues in full force and effect on a continuous basis, unimpaired, uninterrupted and undischarged, after giving effect to this Amendment, as collateral security for its obligations, liabilities and indebtedness under the Loan and Security Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

13. Severability. Each provision and agreement herein shall be treated as separate and independent from any other provision or agreement herein and shall be enforceable notwithstanding the unenforceability of any such other provision or agreement.

14. GOVERNING LAW; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. THIS AMENDMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REGARD TO PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAWS (OTHER THAN SECTION 5-1401 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW), EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY SUIT, ACTION, PROCEEDING, CLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY OR ON BEHALF OF ANY PARTY RELATED TO OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AMENDMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT.

(b) The usable square foot area of the Premises, as well as the Building shall be computed based upon the BOMA American National Standards Z65.1 1996, and the rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building, shall contain a proportionate share of the common areas of the Building, utilizing a common area factor on a multi-tenant floor of thirteen percent (13%) and on a single tenant floor of eight percent (8%).

(c) The rentable square foot area of the Premises, if any, other than the Second and Third Floors, shall be measured by Landlord's Architect, and Landlord's Architect shall certify the rentable square foot area to Landlord and Tenant; provided, however, that if Tenant disagrees with the measurement or calculation by Landlord's architect, Dennis Pazzi (hereinafter referred to as the "Independent Architect") shall promptly measure such portion of the Premises and its determination shall be binding on the parties. In the event such certification or determination shall contain a rentable square foot area different than that previously utilized, Landlord and Tenant shall promptly execute and deliver an amendment to this Lease reflecting the rentable square foot area set forth in such certification and Section l(j) shall be revised accordingly. The parties acknowledge that the rentable square foot area of the Second and Third Floors is as set forth in Section 1(d) hereof and is not subject to measurement as provided in this Paragraph 2(c).

(d) Tenant shall be allowed access to the Premises and reasonable portions of the common areas twenty-four (24) hours a day, three hundred sixty-five (365) days a year using card readers, or keys, provided that Tenant shall not materially interfere with Landlord's construction activities.

3. TERM

(a) The term of this Lease shall commence on the Commencement Date set forth in Paragraph 1(e) hereof and expire on the Expiration Date set forth in Paragraph 1(f) hereof, fully to be completed and ended; provided that the Commencement Date (with respect to Phase One) and the Effective Date (with respect to Phase Two) shall be the earlier to occur of the date (i) thirty (30) days after Landlord's Architect has certified that Landlord has substantially performed its obligations pursuant to Exhibit "C" hereto with respect to such Floor, including the installation of carpeting, to the extent that Tenant may install its fixtures and equipment, such work shall be deemed to be substantially completed even though minor details of work or adjustments remain to be done so long as the same shall not materially interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises, and (ii) upon which Tenant shall initially conduct its business in such Floor. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, (i) during the course of Landlord's construction of the Premises, Tenant and its contractors shall be granted access seven (7) days a week, twenty four (24) hours per day to the Premises in order to install data and telephone wiring and other improvements, provided Tenant coordinates such access with Landlord and Tenant does not unreasonably interfere with Landlord's completion of the Premises and that Tenant or its workers provide no interference to the work or other tenants of the Building or Development and (ii) from and after delivery of the Premises by Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall have exclusive occupancy of the Premises in order to complete its fixturing and other improvements to the Premises and to move in, subject to Landlord access rights to complete punch list items and otherwise complete Landlord's work.

(b) In the event of the inability of Landlord to deliver possession of Phase One on the Anticipated Commencement Date and/or Phase Two on the intended Effective Date, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage caused thereby, nor shall this Lease be void or voidable, but Tenant unless it is responsible for such delay, shall not be liable for any rent until such time as Landlord can and does deliver possession of such Premises to Tenant. Subject to Paragraph 8(b)(xiii) hereof, no failure to give possession on the Anticipated Commencement Date or Effective Date, as the case may be, shall in any way effect the obligations of Tenant hereunder, provided that the Commencement Date (but not the Expiration Date) shall be extended for the period from the Anticipated Commencement Date set forth in Paragraph 1(e) hereof until the actual Commencement Date. Upon establishment of the Commencement Date and the Effective Date for each respective portion of the Premises, Landlord and Tenant shall execute and deliver a letter setting forth the Commencement Date and each such Effective Date.

(c) From time to time, Tenant shall furnish Landlord, upon request a letter addressed to Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee stating that Tenant has accepted the Premises for occupancy, the Premises have been completed as herein required, and setting forth the Commencement Date and Expiration Dates of this Lease and such other information as either Landlord or its mortgagee may reasonably request. Within ten (10) business days after Tenant's request therefor, Landlord shall deliver to any lender holding a security interest in Tenant's personal property located within the Premises, an acknowledgement and subordination in form reasonably acceptable to Landlord, Tenant and Tenant's lender.

(d) (i) Tenant shall have the right, if it is not then in default after notice thereof, to extend the Term of this Lease for two (2) additional periods of five (5) years each upon the terms and conditions as are stated in this Lease (other than the grant of any extension rights in addition to those provided for in this Paragraph 3(d)) and at the Rental determined in accordance with Paragraph 3(d)(ii) below. Tenant shall exercise such right, it at all, at least seven (7) months prior to the expiration of the original term of this Lease or such prior extension period, as the case may be. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Tenant has not yet exercised its right to so extend the Term and Tenant is in default under this Lease after notice thereof but prior to the expiration of any applicable cure period at the expiration of the period for Tenant to exercise such right to extend, the period for Tenant to exercise its right to so extend the Term shall be extended for a period equal to the period from Tenant's receipt of such notice of default until Tenant cures such default (but only if Tenant cures such default within the applicable cure period), which extension period shall commence on the date of such cure. The then current Term shall be extended for a like period. In no event shall such extension period exceed three (3) months.

(ii) In the event Tenant shall exercise its right to so extend the term of this Lease in accordance with Paragraph 3(d)(i) above, the Rental for each such period shall be determined in accordance with this Paragraph 3(d)(ii).

(A) Within ten (10) business days after the exercise by Tenant of such right to extend the term of this Lease for such period, Landlord shall submit to Tenant Landlord's determination of the Market Rental, as defined below, for the Premises for such period. If Tenant does not notify Landlord of its acceptance of such Market Rental as so determined by Landlord within ten (10) business days after receipt thereof, then the parties shall proceed as provided in paragraph (B) below.

(B) Landlord and Tenant shall negotiate in good faith to agree upon the Market Rental for such period, and if Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree within ten (10) business days, the determination of the Market Rental shall be made in accordance with paragraph (C) below.

(C) Within ten (10) business days after the expiration of the ten (10) business day period referred to in paragraph (B) above, Landlord and Tenant shall mutually select an MAI appraiser with experience in real estate activities, including at least five (5) years of current experience in appraising office space in the Troy, Michigan area. If the parties cannot agree on such an appraiser, then within five (5) business days thereafter, each shall select an independent MAI appraiser meeting the aforementioned criteria and within five (5) business days thereafter the two appointed appraisers shall select a third neutral appraiser meeting the aforementioned criteria and the third appraiser shall determine the Market Rental for such period in accordance with paragraph (D) below. If either Landlord or Tenant shall fail to make such appointment within said five (5) business day period, the other shall make such appointment on its behalf.

(D) Once the appraiser or third appraiser has been selected as provided in paragraph (C) above, each of Landlord and Tenant shall submit to such appraiser its suggested Market Rental. As soon thereafter as practical, the appraiser shall select one of the two suggested Market Rentals submitted by Landlord and Tenant (and no other) that is closer to the one determined by the third appraiser. The Market Rental so selected by the appraiser shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall equally share the cost of such appraisal.

(iii) (A) The Rental during each such period shall be the Market Rental provided, however, that the Rental for the first such five (5) year period shall not exceed [] per rentable square foot or be less than [] per rentable square foot plus the Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes payable on a rentable square foot basis during the last year of the initial Term (hereinafter referred to as the "minimum Rental"). If such minimum Rental shall exceed [] per rentable square foot, the Rental shall nevertheless be [] per rentable square foot. There shall be no minimum or maximum Rental for the second such period.

(B) For purposes of this Paragraph 3(d), "Market Rental" shall mean ninety five percent (95%) of the projected fair market rent for office space containing the rentable size of the Premises during such period, as of the commencement of such period, based upon the rates then in effect in 5505 Corporate Drive, 5607 New King Street, 700 Tower Drive, 750 Tower Drive, 901 Tower Drive, Troy, Michigan, and other similar buildings in Troy, Michigan. Market Rent shall be determined on a gross basis (plus electric) including then current Taxes and Expenses and the Expenses and Taxes applicable for the first year of such period shall constitute the Base Expenses and Base Taxes, respectively, for the balance of each such period.

(iv) Landlord shall have no obligation to do any work or perform any special services with respect to the Premises for such period, which Tenant agrees to accept in their then "as is" condition; provided, however, that Landlord shall provide Five Dollars ($5.00) per rentable square foot based upon the size of the Premises at the time of Tenant's exercise of such right with respect to the first such period only (and there shall be no such payment with respect to the second such period). Such amounts may be utilized by Tenant for new floor coverings, wall coverings, painting and such other items as Tenant may desire to "freshen-up" or otherwise improve the Premises in Tenant's discretion. Landlord shall pay such amounts to Tenant from time to time within thirty (30) days following Tenant's delivery to Landlord of Tenant's demand therefor accompanied by reasonable back-up information. Tenant shall be solely responsible for any amounts in excess of those to be provided by Landlord hereunder for such purposes.

(e) Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease effective December 31, 2009 and a second right to terminate this Lease effective December 31, 2010; in each case upon six (6) months advance written notice to Landlord. If Tenant shall exercise such right to so terminate this Lease, effective upon the termination date Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to (i) four (4) months Rental, if the Premises shall consist of less than three (3) full Floors or (ii) five (5) months Rental, if the Premises consists of three (3) or more full Floors, computed at the Rental in effect upon the day immediately preceding such termination.

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord as rental for the Premises during each year of the term of this Lease the amount set forth in Paragraph 1(g) hereof. Such rental shall be payable in advance, in equal monthly installments upon the first day of each and every month throughout the term of this Lease; provided, however, that if the lease term shall commence on a day other than the first day of a calendar month or shall end on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the rental for such first or last fractional month shall be such proportion of the monthly rental as the number of days in such fractional month bears to the total number of days in the calendar month. The installment of Rental for the first full month of the term during which Rental is payable hereunder shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord on or before August 2, 2004.

(b) Rent and all other charges hereunder shall promptly be paid without prior demand therefor and without deductions or setoffs for any reason whatsoever, except as expressly herein provided, and overdue rent and any other sums payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder shall bear interest during delinquency until paid at a rate of interest equal to [] in excess of the "Prime Rate" published from time to time by The Wall Street Journal (hereinafter referred to as the "Interest Rate"). Landlord shall have no obligation to accept less than the full amount of all installments of rental and interest thereon and all charges hereunder which are due and owing by Tenant to Landlord, and if Landlord shall accept less than the full amount owing, Landlord may apply the sums received towards any of Tenant's obligations at Landlord's discretion.

(c) Landlord's failure to timely bill Tenant shall in no way excuse Tenant from its payment obligations or constitute a waiver of Landlord's entitlement to any charges not timely billed by Landlord. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 4(c) hereof, if Landlord fails to include any charge in Expenses or Taxes or otherwise bill the same to Tenant within two (2) years after such Expense, Tax or cost is incurred, such Expense, Tax or cost shall not be payable by Tenant.

(d) Tenant agrees that all Rental and additional rent (collectively "Rent") due under this Lease shall be paid by check to Landlord mailed to the address set forth in Paragraph l(n) hereof or such other address as Landlord shall designate by written notice to Tenant.

5. RENTAL ADJUSTMENT

(a) The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) The term "Expenses" shall mean the actual reasonable cost incurred by Landlord during the applicable calendar year on an accrual basis with respect to the operation, maintenance and repair of the Development, including, without limitation or duplication, (1) the costs incurred for air conditioning; mechanical ventilation; heating; cleaning; rubbish removal; snow removal; general landscaping and ground maintenance; window washing; elevators; porter and matron services; electric current for common areas; management fees; protection and security service; repairs; maintenance; fire, extended coverage, boiler, sprinkler apparatus, public liability and property damage insurance (including loss of rental income insurance); supplies; wages, salaries, disability benefits, pensions, hospitalization, retirement plans and group insurance respecting service and maintenance employees and management staff (if said employees and/or staff perform services for properties other than the Development, the expenses relating thereto shall be equitably prorated); uniforms and working clothes for such employees and the cleaning thereof; expenses imposed pursuant to any collective bargaining agreement with respect to such employees; payroll, social security, unemployment and other similar taxes with respect to such employees; sales, use and other similar taxes; Landlord's Michigan Single Business Tax; water rates and sewer rents; the replacement of lighting ballasts and light bulbs and fluorescent tubes in the Building; depreciation of movable equipment and personal property, which is, or should be, capitalized on the books of Landlord, and the cost of movable equipment and personal property, which need not be so capitalized, as well as the cost of maintaining all such movable equipment, and any other costs, charges and expenses which, under generally accepted accounting principles and practices, would be regarded as maintenance and operating expenses, and (2) the cost of any capital improvements made to the Development after the Commencement Date that are intended to reduce other Expenses, or made to the Development by Landlord after the date of this Lease that are required under any governmental law or regulation that was not applicable to the Development at the time it was constructed, such cost or allocable portion thereof to be amortized over the useful life thereof as determined by GAAP, together with interest on the unamortized balance at the Interest Rate or such actual rate as may have been paid by Landlord on funds borrowed for the purpose of constructing such capital improvements, if Landlord borrows funds therefor. Expenses shall not include "Taxes," depreciation on the Building other than depreciation on standard exterior window coverings provided by Landlord and carpeting in common areas and other than as set forth above; costs of services or repairs and maintenance which are paid for by proceeds of insurance, by other tenants (in a manner other than as provided in this Paragraph 5) or third parties; tenant improvements, real estate brokers' commissions, interest and capital items other than those referred to in clause (1) above.

The Expenses shall be adjusted to equal Landlord's reasonable estimate of Expenses had the total Building been occupied.

In determining Expenses:

(A) The management fees included within Expenses shall not exceed three and one-half (3 1/2%) of the gross rentals from the Building and shall be consistent with respect to the Base Expenses and Expenses in subsequent years.

(B) The cost of capital improvements intended to reduce other Expenses shall only be included to the extent there is a reasonable relationship between the reasonably anticipated savings and the cost of such improvement.

(C) All items of Expenses which are deemed to be capital expenses shall be amortized in accordance with the terms of Paragraph 5(a)(i)(2) and only the annual amortized amount shall be included in Expenses in any year.

(D) Expenses shall not include (i)the cost or depreciation of the Building or any improvements thereon, including permit fees, license and inspection fees, and costs incurred in renovating, improving, decorating, painting or redecorating vacant tenant space or space of other tenants in the Development

Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Tenant shall not be required to pay any Excess Expenses and/or Excess Taxes which relate to periods prior to the 2006 calendar year.

(ii) The term "Base Expenses" shall mean the amount as defined in Paragraph 1(h) hereof.

(iii) The term "Excess Expenses" shall mean the total dollar increases, if any, over the Base Expenses paid or incurred by Landlord in the respective calendar year.

(iv) The term "Taxes" shall mean the amount of all ad valorem real property taxes and assessments, special or otherwise, levied upon or with respect to the Development, or the rent and additional charges payable hereunder, imposed by any taxing authority having jurisdiction. Taxes shall also include all taxes, levies and charges which may be assessed, levied or imposed in replacement of, or in addition to, all or any part of ad valorem real property taxes as revenue sources, and which in whole or in part are measured or calculated by or based upon the Development, the leasehold estate of Landlord or Tenant, or the rent and other charges payable hereunder. Taxes shall include any reasonable expenses incurred by Landlord in determining or attempting to obtain a reduction of Taxes.

In determining Taxes:

(A) Taxes shall not include any income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes.

(B) With respect to special assessments which may be paid in installments, Tenant's Share thereof shall be determined as if Landlord elected to pay the same over the longest period available.

(C) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Taxes shall not include and Tenant shall not be responsible for any interest or penalties due to the late payment of Taxes.

(D) In the event Landlord receives any refunds relating to Taxes covering a period during the term of this Lease, the Taxes with respect to such year with respect to such refund relates shall be reduced accordingly and Tenant shall be given credit for Tenant's Share thereof.

(E) Tenant shall have the right to require Landlord to contest the real estate tax assessment of the Development by written notice to Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior to the last day appeals thereof may be filed.

(v) The term "Base Taxes" shall the amount as defined in Paragraph l(i) hereof.

(vi) The term "Excess Taxes" shall mean the total dollar increase, if any, over the Base Taxes paid or incurred by Landlord in the respective calendar year,

(vii) The term "Tenant's Share" shall mean the percentage set forth in Paragraph l(j) hereof which was derived by dividing the rentable square foot area of the Premises by the rentable square foot area of the Building (213,290 square feet).

(b) Tenant shall pay to Landlord Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes in the manner and at the times herein provided.

With respect to Excess Expenses, prior to January 1, 2006, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord's estimate of Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses for the ensuing calendar year, and with respect to Excess Taxes, prior to January 1, 2006, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord's estimate of Tenant's Share of Excess Taxes for the ensuing calendar year. On or before the first day of each month during the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall pay to Landlord one-twelfth (1/12) of such estimated amounts, provided that until such notice is given with respect to the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall continue to pay the amount currently payable pursuant hereto until after the month such notice is given. If at any time or times it appears to Landlord that Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses or Tenant's Share of Excess Taxes for the then current calendar year will vary from Landlord's estimate by more than five percent (5%), Landlord may, by notice to Tenant, revise its estimate for such year and subsequent payments by Tenant for such year shall be based upon such revised estimate.

Within ninety (90) days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses, and within ninety (90) days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Excess Taxes, or as soon after such ninety (90) day period as practicable, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement prepared by Landlord of Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes, respectively, for such calendar year. If on the basis of either of such statements, Tenant owes an amount that is less than the estimated payments for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expense or with respect to Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Landlord shall credit such excess amount against the next payment(s) due from Tenant to Landlord of Rent. In no event shall a reduction in Taxes or Expenses operate to reduce the rental set forth in Paragraph 1(g) hereof required to be paid hereunder, nor shall any reduction in Taxes or Expenses below the Base Expenses or Base Taxes give rise to any credit to Tenant. If on the basis of such statement, Tenant owes an amount that is more than the estimated payment for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses or Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Tenant shall pay the deficiency to Landlord within thirty (30) days after delivery of the statement.

If this Lease shall terminate on a day other than the last day of a calendar year, Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes that are applicable to the calendar year in which such termination shall occur shall be prorated on the basis of the number of calendar days within such year as are within the term of this Lease. Any refund due Tenant with respect to the last year of the Term shall be refunded to it within thirty (30) days after the receipt of such statement.

For a period of two (2) years after the end of each respective calendar year to which such records relate, Tenant shall have the right upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Landlord to inspect Landlord's records relating to Taxes and Expenses. Such inspection shall be conducted at Landlord's offices during normal business hours at Tenant's expense. If such inspection shall disclose that Tenant has paid five percent (5%) or more in excess of that required to be paid hereunder and Landlord shall accept such determination, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the reasonable cost of such inspection.

6. INTENTIONALLY DELETED

(b) Tenant agrees that it will make all repairs to the Premises not required to be made by Landlord pursuant to Paragraph 7(a) hereof and to do all redecorating, remodeling, alteration and painting required by Tenant during the term of this Lease. (A) Reglaze the ceramic tile on the floor and walls in each bathroom.

(B) Install new bathroom counter tops.

(C) Remove and replace the gold slats in the ceilings and replace with drywall ceilings.

The work described in this paragraph (ii) and paragraph (i) above is herein referred to as "Landlord's Development Improvements".

(iii) All of Landlord's Development Improvements (if plans and specs are necessary) shall be performed by Landlord in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by Landlord and subject to Tenant's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Landlord shall revise such plans and specifications as reasonably required in order to obtain Tenant's approval.

(iv) All of Landlord's Development Improvements shall be performed by Landlord at Landlord's sole cost and expense.

(v) Landlord shall complete all of Landlord's Development Improvements in a first-class and good and workmanlike manner, using good materials, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications (if necessary), and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the federal, state and municipal governments, or any department or division thereof, including, without limitation, building codes.

(b) (i) (A) The provisions of this Paragraph 8(b) shall be applicable to the renovations to the Second and Third Floors and the Expansion Premises, if Tenant shall lease the same pursuant to Paragraph 43 hereof.

(B) (1) Based upon the space plan prepared by Tenant and attached hereto as Exhibit "C" with respect to the Second and Third Floors, Landlord's Architect shall prepare plans and specifications for the Second and Third Floors, Landlord shall submit such plans and specifications to Tenant for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, on or before June 15, 2004 (subject to delays caused in whole or in part by Tenant or Force Majeure), with respect to the Second and Third Floors. If Tenant shall fail to supply such approval or comments in writing within five (5) business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such plans and specifications. The cost of the space plan shall be born by Tenant. The cost of such final plans and specifications shall be paid by Landlord and not charged against the Tenant Allowance.

(2) In the event Landlord fails to deliver such plans and specifications for the Second and Third Floors prepared substantially in conformity with Exhibit "C" hereto on or before June 30, 2004, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord at any time subsequent to June 30, 2004, and prior to the delivery of such plans and specifications.

(C) Upon approval of such plans and specifications by Tenant, Landlord shall obtain at least three (3) competitive bids (where reasonably available) for all major trades (including, but not limited to, HVAC and electrical) constituting Landlord's work. Tenant may add bidders to the bid list. Such bids shall be submitted to Tenant prior to the award of the contract to which the same relate. The work shall be awarded to the low bidder, provided it is a responsible party (and reasonably acceptable to Landlord and Tenant), its bid is complete and Landlord has no other reasonable objection to it. Based upon such competitive bids, Landlord shall submit the cost of Landlord's work to Tenant, for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. In the event Tenant does not approve or submit comments to such costs to Landlord within five (5) business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such costs. If Tenant does not approve such plans and specifications and/or costs, Landlord and Tenant shall cooperate in order to revise the plans and specifications in a manner acceptable to the parties. Landlord's work shall be performed on a so-called "open book" basis, with Tenant having the right to audit all of Landlord's records relating to the cost of such work.

(ii) (A) Landlord shall complete the Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications up to a cost of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per rentable square foot of the Premises (the "Tenant Allowance"). Tenant shall pay all costs in excess of the Tenant Allowance within thirty (30) days after the later to occur of (i) receipt by Tenant of an invoice therefor, and (ii) the Commencement Date, with respect to Phase One and the Effective Date with respect to Phase Two, the Fourth Floor and/or the Bank Premises. If the cost of so completing the Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications is less than the Tenant Allowance, at Tenant's election, Tenant may utilize all or a portion of such excess for the cost of the improvements to the Premises made by Tenant and its furniture, furnishings, trade fixtures and equipment to be installed in the Premises and/or applied as a credit against Rent first becoming due hereunder.

(B) In computing Landlord's costs of completing the Premises, Landlord shall receive a five percent (5%) fee for profit, and its actual overhead and administrative costs, not to exceed three percent (3%) of the cost of the work.

(iv) David Huber shall have general responsibility for the supervision, management and completion of Landlord's work, and Tenant may direct to him all inquiries regarding Landlord's work and the scheduling of Landlord's work and Tenant's inspections thereof, and Tenant's installation of its fixtures, equipment and other improvements, and Tenant's occupancy of the Premises.

(v) Daniel Pack and his designated agent shall have the right (but not the obligation) to attend all construction meetings, to inspect the performance of Landlord's work and to notify Landlord in writing if said performance does not conform to the approved plans and specifications. If there is a disagreement as to whether such performance substantially conforms to the approved plans and specifications which cannot be resolved by the parties within three (3) days after Landlord's receipt of such notice, the mutual decision of the Landlord's and Tenant's architects shall control. If such architects are unable to reach a mutual decision within seven (7) days, then such matter shall be submitted to the Independent Architect, and its decision shall be controlling.

(vi) In the event Tenant desires to have improvements installed in the Premises in addition to or in lieu of the improvements provided for in the approved plans and specifications, Tenant shall so advise Landlord and submit to Landlord complete plans and specifications for such improvements. Tenant shall immediately cause such plans and specifications to be revised in order to comply with Landlord's reasonable comments to such plans and specifications. Upon approval of such plans and specifications by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall advise Tenant of the cost of constructing and installing such improvements, and upon approval of such costs by Tenant, Landlord will commence construction and installation of such improvements; provided, however, that Tenant may revise such plans in order to reduce such costs, subject to Landlord's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(vii) On or before the time that Landlord delivers the Final Construction Drawings for Tenant's approval with respect to the Second and Third Floors and fifteen (15) days prior to the anticipated delivery thereof with respect to other Premises, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a detailed description of the current status of the performance of Landlord's work, together with a schedule for the completion of the remainder of Landlord's work and such other information as Tenant may reasonably request. In addition, Tenant's architect shall have the right to inspect Landlord's work from time to time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant if it fails to meet such schedule.

(viii) (A) From and after the commencement of Landlord's work in the Premises, Landlord shall supply to Tenant weekly status reports. Each portion of the Premises shall be deemed completed and possession delivered to Tenant when Landlord has substantially completed its improvements subject only to the completion of details of construction and mechanical adjustments which do not materially interfere with Tenant use of such Premises and Landlord has delivered to Tenant Landlord's architect's certificate of substantial completion and a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy issued by the applicable governmental entity. If a temporary certificate of occupancy has been issued, Landlord shall diligently complete the items necessary in order to obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy and obtain the same.

(B) For purposes hereof, "Tenant Delay" shall mean any incremental delay in Landlord's performance of Landlord's work that occurs as the result of (i) any change by Tenant to the space plan after submission thereof to Landlord and/or the approved plans and specifications for such work; (ii) any delay in such work caused by the installation of Tenant's fixtures in the Premises or the performance of any other work by Tenant at the Premises; and (iii) Tenant specifying any materials or equipment which are not readily available in the market and require long-lead time to obtain. Upon the occurrence of any event that Landlord contends is a Tenant Delay, Landlord shall promptly deliver notice to Tenant thereof, together with Landlord's reasonable estimate of the expected delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a delay shall only be considered a Tenant Delay if such delay causes an incremental delay in the completion of the Tenant Improvements. For example, if Landlord is delayed by the unavailability of certain materials and Tenant causes a delay while Landlord is delayed by such unavailability of materials so that no further actual incremental delay is caused by Tenant, such delay by Tenant shall not constitute a "Tenant Delay" hereunder. In the event of any Tenant Delays, the Premises shall be deemed to have been completed on the date Landlord and Tenant reasonably determine the Premises would have been so completed but for such Tenant Delays.

(ix) If any dispute shall arise as to whether Landlord has so completed the Premises on the date of such completion, the matter shall be submitted to the Independent Architect for its determination and its decision shall be binding upon the parties.

(x) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Tenant shall have the right prior to the Commencement Date with respect to Phase One and prior to the Effective Date with respect thereto with respect to Phase Two, the Fourth Floor and Bank Premises to submit a so-called punch list of incomplete or defective items in Landlord's work and Landlord shall promptly remedy all such items. If any dispute shall arise between the parties as to such list, such matter shall be submitted to the Independent Architect for determination and its decision shall be binding upon the parties.

(xi) Whenever matters are submitted to the Independent Architect for determination pursuant to the terms of this Lease, each of the parties shall pay one half (1/2) of its fee.

(xii) Landlord guarantees all work performed by or for Landlord in connection with the completion of the Premises against defective workmanship and materials for the period of one (1) year from the substantial completion thereof. Thereafter, Landlord will cooperate with Tenant in enforcing the warranties of workmanship and materials which Landlord received with respect to such construction to the extent that the repair thereof is Tenant's responsibility hereunder.

(xiii) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, in the event Landlord fails to substantially complete the Second and Third Floors within seventy five (75) days from the later of (1) the date the plans and specifications are approved by both Landlord and Tenant; (2) the date that the space is available to commence construction (i.e. EDS has vacated), Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord at any time after the expiration of such seventy five (75) day period and prior to such completion, provided such seventy five (75) day period shall be extended for Tenant Delays and pursuant to Paragraph 34 hereof.

(xiv) Within ten (10) days after the execution and delivery of this Lease, Landlord shall pay the sum of [] per rentable square foot of the Second and Third Floors to Tenant in consideration of Tenant signing this Lease (hereinafter referred to as the "Signing Payment"); provided, however, that if Tenant shall terminate this Lease pursuant to Paragraph 8(b)(xiii) hereof, upon such termination and as a condition of such termination, Tenant shall refund the Signing Payment in full to Landlord.

(xv) Upon the delivery of each portion of the Premises by Landlord to Tenant, Landlord shall pay to Tenant the sum of [] per rentable square foot of such Premises as a moving allowance (hereinafter referred to as the "Moving Allowance").

(c) At the time Landlord approves Tenant's plans for the Premises and/or alterations thereto, Landlord shall advise Tenant in writing of those construction items, if any, which Landlord, in its reasonable discretion, determines are not typical office use improvements. Upon the termination or earlier expiration of this Lease and at Landlord's request, Tenant shall be required to remove all such items at Tenant's sole cost and expense and to restore the Premises to a condition as would be typical for normal office use in a manner acceptable to Landlord, normal wear and tear excepted.

(d) (i) Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements without the prior written consent of Landlord. Any such alterations, additions or improvements (except movable furniture and trade fixtures) shall at once become a part of the realty and belong to Landlord. The same shall be made by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Subject to Paragraph 8(c), upon termination of this Lease, Tenant shall upon demand by Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, forthwith remove any alterations, additions or improvements.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 8(d)(i) or (e) to the contrary, Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to non-material, nonstructural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises and Landlord will not unreasonably withhold its consent to any material non-structural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises and/or to any structural alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises, provided notice is first given in writing by Tenant to Landlord and written approval by Landlord is required for any alteration, addition or improvement that would materially affect any mechanical or electrical system.

(iii) Landlord acknowledges that Tenant's furniture, trade fixtures, business equipment and personalty shall not be deemed alterations, additions or improvements which become Landlord's property pursuant to Paragraph 8(d).

(e) Any repairs made pursuant to Paragraph 7(b) hereof or alterations and improvements made pursuant to this Paragraph 8 by Tenant as required and permitted hereunder shall be made and performed (i) as Landlord may designate on a reasonable basis, (ii) in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations of Landlord and governmental authorities having jurisdiction, (iii) in the case of new construction in keeping with plans and specifications theretofore having been approved in advance by Landlord, (iv) using mechanics and contractors having been approved by Landlord which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall do all such work affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof, and (v) in a reasonable fashion to minimize noise, litter and/or odors resulting therefrom. The work performed by Landlord affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof pursuant to subparagraph 8(e)(iv) shall be at reasonable and competitive cost and if such work is performed by Tenant's contractors and exceeds a cost of [], Landlord shall be entitled to a supervisor fee which shall not exceed [] of the cost of such work. No other fee shall be payable to Landlord pursuant to Paragraph 8(e) hereof, provided that Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable costs of third party review of Tenant's proposed structural alterations or those to the mechanical or electrical systems.

(f) Landlord shall have the right at any time to change the arrangement and/or location of entrances or passageways, doors and doorways and corridors, elevators, stairs, toilets or other public parts of the Building and to change the name, number or designation by which the Building is commonly known. Landlord shall have the right at any time to change the arrangement and/or location of the parking and common areas of the Development. In exercising its rights pursuant to Paragraph 8(f) hereof, Landlord shall not unreasonably interfere with Tenant's access to the Premises or its operations therein.

9. LIENS

Tenant shall keep the Premises free from any liens arising out of any work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Tenant. In the event that Tenant shall not, within fifteen (15) days following the imposition of any such lien, cause the same to be released of record by payment or posting of a proper bond, Landlord shall have, in addition to all other remedies provided herein and by law, the right to cause the same to be released by such means as it shall deem proper, including payment of the claim giving rise to such lien. All such sums paid by Landlord and all expenses incurred by it in connection therewith shall be deemed additional rent and shall be payable by Tenant on demand with interest at the Interest Rate.

10. USE OF PREMISES

The Premises are leased to Tenant for the use set forth in Paragraph 1(1) hereof and for no other purpose whatsoever. Tenant agrees that it will use the Premises in such manner as not to injure, annoy, interfere with or infringe on the rights of other tenants or use or allow the Premises to be used for any improper, immoral or unlawful purpose or to permit unpleasant odors to be emitted therefrom. Tenant agrees to comply with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations and comply with all requirements of Landlord's insurance policies and the American Insurance Association now or hereafter in force in connection with its use of the Premises. Tenant shall not commit or suffer the commission of any waste, overload any floor of the Premises beyond the load limit established by Landlord or permit any explosives to enter the Development. Tenant shall not do or permit anything to be done on or about the Premises or bring or keep anything therein which will in any way increase the fire insurance premium upon the Building. Tenant shall not use any portion of the Premises for the preparation, sale or consumption of food by the public. Tenant shall have the right to contest, without cost to Landlord, the validity or application of any such governmental law, ordinance or regulation required to be complied with by Tenant pursuant to this Paragraph 10 and may postpone compliance therewith, provided such contest does not subject Landlord to criminal prosecution for noncompliance therewith and, further, provided, that Tenant promptly pays all fines, penalties and other costs and interest thereon imposed upon Landlord as a result of such noncompliance.

11. LANDLORD'S SERVICES AND UTILITIES

(a) (i) Landlord agrees to furnish to the Premises from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. weekdays and 9;00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Saturdays (excluding New Year's Day, Easter Sunday, Memorial Day, July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas), and subject to the rules and regulations of the Building, water suitable for the intended use of the Premises, heat and air conditioning required for the comfortable use the Premises for normal office use in accordance with the attached Exhibit "D-l", janitorial service in accordance with Exhibit "D" hereto and elevator service at all times. Tenant agrees to abide by all regulations and requirements which Landlord may prescribe for the proper functioning and protection of the heating, ventilating and air conditioning system and Landlord shall not be required to provide additional ventilating and air conditioning to the Premises as herein provided if Tenant is utilizing excessive heat generating equipment within the Premises or if the Premises are occupied by a number of persons in excess of the design criteria of the air conditioning system. Landlord shall have no liability, and Tenant shall not be entitled to any abatement or reduction of rental except as provided in Paragraph ll(a)(iii) hereof, by reason of Landlord's failure to furnish any services (including electricity) when such failure is caused by accident, breakage, repairs, strikes, lockouts, labor disturbances or labor disputes, or by any other cause, similar or dissimilar, beyond the reasonable control of Landlord. Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to restore any services provided by Landlord hereunder which are disrupted.

(ii) Tenant shall have the right to have Landlord install, at Tenant's expense, and all costs associated with installation of any necessary meters, such upgrades and additional HVAC equipment as Tenant shall determine to be necessary or desirable, including, without limitation, additional rooftop HVAC units.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, in the event any services required to be provided by Landlord pursuant to this Lease are not provided for in excess of thirty (30) consecutive days, for any reason whatsoever, except if caused in whole or in part by Tenant, its agents, employees or contractors, and Tenant ceases to utilize all or a material portion of the Premises as a result thereof, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord at any time after the expiration of such thirty (30) day period and prior to the restoration of such services. Tenant shall have all rights and remedies at law and in equity with respect to such failure to supply such services.

(b) (i) Tenant shall pay for all electric service used or consumed in the Premises, but excluding electrical current required by the building standard heating and air conditioning systems and the lighting of the common areas of the Building. The public utility company supplying electricity to the Building, or Landlord, as the case may be, shall provide an electric meter for measuring Tenant's consumption of Tenant's electricity. At the request of Landlord, if applicable, Tenant shall execute any and all applications for electric service or other forms required by the public utility company supplying electricity to the Building for the installation of a meter to measure the electricity consumed by Tenant. Landlord may elect to purchase electricity in bulk for the Building and furnish the Premises with electricity. Tenant shall pay the charge for electricity monthly as and when invoiced therefor to said public utility company or Landlord, as the case may be.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 11 (b), electric service to the Premises sufficient for the consumption of seven (7) watts per rentable square foot shall be provided.

(iii) Electricity shall be charged to Tenant at the same rates paid by Landlord (primary rates) and the electric charges included in Expenses shall be computed at such primary rates (with reasonable mark-up for common area utilities).

(c) Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall make arrangements directly with the telephone company for telephone service in the Premises. Tenant shall pay for all telephone service, including, without limitation, the cost of installing wires, cables and telephone outlets for such service as and when billed for the same.

(d) If Tenant shall require cooling energy in excess of that required for normal office use or during hours requested by Tenant when air conditioning is not otherwise furnished by Landlord, Tenant shall first obtain the consent of Landlord to the use thereof, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, and Tenant shall pay the cost thereof, including a reasonable factor for equipment depreciation. Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time it requires air conditioning during periods the same is not otherwise furnished by Landlord. Landlord shall provide cooling without additional charge to Tenant during the hours set forth in Paragraph 11(a) hereof. Landlord's charge for providing cooling energy during hours when air conditioning is not otherwise furnished by Landlord shall be Forty Dollars ($40.00) per hour per floor (inclusive of depreciation expenses). Landlord shall provide heat during all hours without additional charge to Tenant.

12. RULES AND REGULATIONS

Tenant agrees to abide by all rules and regulations of the Development attached hereto as Exhibit "E," and to all reasonable additions and modifications thereto made by Landlord. These regulations are imposed for the cleanliness, good appearance, proper maintenance, good order, and proper enjoyment of the Development by all tenants and their clients, customers and employees. The modifications to such rules and regulations shall be consistent with the operation of a first class office building in the greater Detroit Metropolitan area and shall be enforced on a nondiscriminatory basis. To the extent such rules and regulations conflict with the terms of this Lease, the terms of this Lease shall govern.

13. TAXES

Tenant agrees to pay before delinquency any and all taxes levied or assessed and which become payable during the term hereof upon Tenant's equipment, furniture, fixtures and other personal property located in the Premises.

Tenant shall, in addition to and at the same time as making the payments of rental hereunder, pay Landlord the amount of any rental, excise, sales or transaction privilege tax now or hereafter imposed or levied upon Landlord or Landlord's receipt of rental hereunder, but, excepting Landlord's income taxes of general applicability.

14. FIRE OR CASUALTY

In the event the Building, Premises or access to them are wholly or partially destroyed by fire or other casualty covered by the usual form of fire and extended coverage insurance or the insurance actually carried by Landlord rendering them untenantable, Landlord shall rebuild, repair or restore the Premises to substantially the same condition as when the same were furnished to Tenant, including base buildings, building standard items and above standard items originally paid for by Landlord, but not Tenant's furniture, trade fixtures, equipment, telephone or data lines or other personal property, and the Lease shall remain in effect during such period. If the Premises are rendered totally untenantable, the rent provided for in Paragraph 4 hereof shall abate during the period of reconstruction, and, if they are rendered partially untenantable, such rent shall abate prorata during the period of reconstruction.

(a) In the event the damaged portion of the Premises or access thereto cannot be restored within one hundred eighty (180) days after determination of the time required, Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Tenant within thirty (30) days after the determination of such necessary period for restoration; provided, however, that Landlord shall not have the right to terminate this Lease unless Landlord terminates the leases of all other tenants of the Building similarly affected by such fire or other casualty.

(b) Within thirty (30) days after any such fire or other casualty, Landlord shall notify Tenant of its good faith estimate of the time required to complete the repair and restoration of the damaged portion of the Building. If such estimate exceeds one hundred eighty (180) days, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days after receipt of Landlord's notice. In addition, if Landlord has not completed such restoration within one hundred eighty (180) days after such determination of the time required, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord at any time after the expiration of such one hundred eighty (180) day period and prior to such completion.

(c) If Landlord undertakes to repair and restore the Building, Landlord shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute such repair and restoration to completion.

15. EMINENT DOMAIN

(a) If the whole or any substantial part of the Premises or the Building shall be taken by any public authority under the power of eminent domain, then the term of this Lease shall cease on the part so taken on the date possession of that part shall be required for public use, and any rent paid in advance of such date shall be refunded to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall each have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice to the other, which notice shall be delivered within thirty (30) days following the date notice is received of such taking. In the event that neither party hereto shall terminate this Lease, Landlord shall, to the extent the proceeds of the condemnation award (other than any proceeds awarded for the value of any land taken) are available, make all necessary repairs to the Premises and the Building to render and restore the same to a complete architectural unit and Tenant shall continue in possession of the portion of the Premises not taken under the power of eminent domain, under the same terms and conditions as are herein provided, except that the rent reserved herein, Tenant's Share pursuant to Paragraph l(j) hereof and the parking spaces pursuant to Paragraph l(p) hereof shall each be reduced in direct proportion to the amount of the Premises so taken. All damages awarded for such taking shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, whether such damages be awarded as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or to the fee of the Premises; provided, however, Landlord shall not be entitled to any portion of the award made to Tenant for removal and reinstallation of trade fixtures or moving expenses.

(b) In the event access to the Premises and/or more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the then existing parking upon the Total Development is no longer available as a result of the exercise of the power of eminent domain, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days after such taking.

(c) In the event of a partial taking which does not result in the termination of this Lease, Landlord shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute the restoration of the Premises and the Total Development as nearly as practicable to a complete unit of like quality and character as existed just prior to such taking. In such event, the Rent shall abate during the period of demolition and restoration to the extent the Premises are unusable, provided that Landlord receives an award therefor.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 15 hereof, Tenant shall have the right to make a claim against the condemning authority (but not Landlord) for compensation for the unamortized cost of Tenant's improvements, alterations or additions made to the Premises at Tenant's cost, such amortization to be computed on a straight line basis over the term of this Lease.

16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

(a) (i) Except as otherwise expressly provided to the contrary herein, Tenant covenants not to assign or transfer this Lease or hypothecate or mortgage the same or sublet the Premises or any part thereof without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Paragraph 16, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent and without extending any option to Landlord, sublet or license portions of the Demised Premises to title companies, appraisal companies, casualty insurance agencies, mortgage brokers and/or real estate brokers, home builders and/or banking institutions, mortgage and/or finance companies so long as the foregoing are operating in conjunction with Tenant in the Premises.

(iii) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Paragraph 16, Tenant may assign this Lease or sublet the Premises or any portion thereof, without Landlord's prior written consent to any entity which controls, is controlled by or is under common control with Tenant (hereinafter referred to as an "Affiliate"), or to any entity resulting from the merger or consolidation with Tenant, or to any entity which acquires all the assets of Tenant as a going concern of the business that is being conducted on the Premises, provided that said assignee assumes, in full, the obligations of Tenant under this Lease. If as a result of such a merger or consolidation or an acquisition of all of the assets of Tenant, Tenant has a net worth, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, of less than Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000), within thirty (30) days after the consummation of such a transaction, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord an amount equal to two (2) months Rental at the then current rate. Such amount shall be held and disbursed as a security deposit pursuant to Paragraph 32 hereof.

(b) If Tenant shall desire to sublet all or any portion of the Premises or assign this Lease, it shall first submit in writing to Landlord:

(i) The names and addresses of the proposed subtenant(s) or assignee(s) and if Landlord has comparable space available, Tenant shall not sublet or assign to an existing tenant of, or to any party with whom Landlord is then negotiating for premises in, 700, 750 and/or 800 Tower Drive;

(ii) The terms and conditions of the proposed subletting or assignment;

(iii) The nature and character of the business of the proposed subtenant or assignee; and

(iv) Banking, financial and other credit information relating to the proposed subtenant or assignee reasonably sufficient to enable Landlord to determine the proposed subtenant's or assignee's financial responsibility.

(c) Tenant shall, by notice in writing as described in Paragraph 16(b) hereof, advise Landlord of its intention to sublease or assign from, on and after a stated date (which shall not be less than thirty (30) days after the date of Tenant's notice) all or any part of the Premises, in which event Landlord shall have the right, to be exercised by giving written notice to Tenant within twenty-five (25) days after receipt of Tenant's notice, to recapture the space described in Tenant's notice. Such recapture notice shall, if given, cancel and terminate this Lease with respect to the space therein described as of the date stated in Landlord's notice. In the event less than all of the Premises are recaptured, Landlord shall be obligated to construct and erect such partitioning as may be required to sever the Premises retained by Tenant from the Premises recaptured.

If this Lease be cancelled pursuant to the foregoing with respect to less than the entire Premises, the rent, Tenant's Share pursuant to Paragraph l(j) hereof and the parking spaces pursuant to Paragraph l(p) hereof shall be adjusted on the basis of the number of square feet retained by Tenant in proportion to the number of square feet originally demised under this Lease and this Lease, as so amended, shall continue thereafter in full force and effect.

If Landlord does not elect to so recapture such Premises, Tenant shall be free for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days thereafter to sublet such space or to assign this Lease to such proposed subtenant(s) or assignee(s) if Landlord shall consent thereto, provided that such sublease or assignment shall be on the same terms and conditions set forth in Tenant's notice provided for in Paragraph 16(b) hereof.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 16(b), no sublease of the Premises shall be for premises of less than five thousand (5,000) rentable square feet.

(d) In the event Landlord shall not elect to recapture the portion of the Premises which Tenant desires to sublet, or if Tenant shall desire to assign this Lease and Landlord shall not elect to recapture the Premises, and Landlord shall consent to such subletting or assignment, one-half (1/2) of the sums or other economic consideration received by Tenant as a result of such subletting or assignment, whether denominated rental or otherwise under the sublease or assignment, which exceed, in the aggregate, the total sums which Tenant is obligated to pay Landlord under this Lease (prorated to reflect obligations allocable to that portion of the Premises subject to such sublease) shall be payable to Landlord as additional rental under this Lease without affecting or reducing other obligations of Tenant hereunder. In computing the sums or other economic consideration received by Tenant as a result of such subletting or assignment pursuant to Paragraph 16(d) hereof, the commercially reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with such sublease or assignment by Tenant, including, without limitation, broker commissions and Tenant improvement work, shall be deducted.

(e) Any subletting or assignment hereunder shall not in any event release or discharge Tenant hereunder of or from any liability, whether past, present or future, under this Lease and Tenant shall continue fully liable hereunder. The subtenant or assignee shall agree to assume, comply with and be bound by all of the terms, covenants, conditions, provisions and agreements of this Lease to the extent of the space sublet or assigned; and Tenant shall deliver to Landlord promptly after execution, an executed copy of such sublease or assignment and an agreement of assumption or compliance by such subtenant or assignee.

17. ACCESS

(a) Subject to applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations, Landlord and its agents shall have the right following not less than twenty-four (24) hours notice (except in an emergency) to enter the Premises at all reasonable times for the purpose of examining or inspecting the same, showing the same to prospective purchasers or tenants of the Building, and as necessary to perform its obligations hereunder. Landlord may erect, use and maintain scaffolding, pipes, conduits and other necessary structures in and through the Premises where reasonably required by the character of the work performed, provided that the business of Tenant shall not be interfered with unreasonably. If Tenant shall not personally be present to open and permit an entry into the Premises at any time when such entry by Landlord is necessary or permitted hereunder, Landlord may enter by means of a master key or, in emergencies, may enter forcibly, without liability to Tenant. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Paragraph 17 hereof, Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts not to unreasonably interfere with Tenant's operations in the Premises and to minimize any such interference.

(b) Tenant shall have the non-exclusive right (via card reader devices or equipment) to access the telecom and electric closets on each floor of the Building (except the First Floor) upon which a portion of the Premises is located. In addition, Tenant shall have the non-exclusive right to access the telecom and electric closets on the First Floor by making arrangements through the property manager; provided, however, that in emergency situations, Tenant shall have access to the telecom and electric closets on the First Floor directly and without going through the property manager. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Paragraph 17(b) Tenant shall not disrupt and/or disable the equipment located within such closets. Tenant shall have the right to install additional equipment within such closets at Tenant's expenses, subject to the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless for any damages incurred by Landlord arising from the acts or omissions of Tenant, its agents, employees and contractors in such telecom and electric closets.

This Lease is and shall be subject and subordinate, at all times, to (a) the lien of any mortgage or mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the Building, and to all advances made or hereafter to be made upon the security thereof and to the interest thereon, and to any agreements at any time made modifying, supplementing, extending or replacing any such mortgages, and (b) any ground or underlying lease which may now or hereafter affect the Building, including all amendments, renewals, modifications, consolidation, replacements and extensions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at the request of the holder of any of the aforesaid mortgage or mortgages or the lessor under the aforesaid ground or underlying lease, this Lease may be made prior and superior to such mortgage or mortgages and/or such ground or lying lease. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, within thirty (30) days after the execution and delivery of this Lease, Landlord shall obtain (at Tenant's cost and expense, including legal fees for Landlord and its mortgagee, not to exceed $1,000) a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement for Tenant's benefit from the current mortgagee(s) of the Development. The form of such subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreements shall be substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "G". In addition, as a condition precedent to Tenant subordinating this Lease to any future mortgage or ground lease, Landlord shall obtain (at Tenant's cost and expense, including legal fees for Landlord and its mortgagee, not to exceed $1,000) a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement from such mortgagee or ground lessor in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall execute and deliver such further instruments as may be reasonably required to implement the provisions of this Paragraph 18, provided the same are reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

19. NON-LIABILITY

(a) Except for the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees, Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to Tenant for any loss or damage that may be occasioned by or through the acts or omissions of persons occupying adjoining premises or any part of the premises adjacent to or connected with the Premises or any part of the Building or for any loss or damage resulting to Tenant or his property from burst, stopped or leaking water, gas, sewer or steam pipes, or for any damage or loss of property within the Premises from any cause whatsoever, and no such occurrence shall be deemed to be an actual or constructive eviction from the Premises or result in an abatement of rental.

(b) In the event of any sale or transfer (including any transfer by operation of law) of the Premises, Landlord (and any subsequent owner of the Premises making such a transfer) shall be relieved from any and all obligations and liabilities under this Lease, except such obligations and liabilities as shall have arisen during Landlord's (or such subsequent owner's) respective period of ownership, provided that the transferee assumes in writing all of the obligations of Landlord under this Lease.

(c) If Landlord shall fail to perform any covenant, term or condition of this Lease upon Landlord's part to be performed, and if as a consequence of such default, Tenant shall recover a money judgment against Landlord, such judgment shall be satisfied only out of the proceeds of sale received upon execution of such judgment and levied thereon against the right, title and interest of Landlord in the Building and out of rents or other income from the Building receivable by Landlord, or out of the consideration received by Landlord from the sale or other disposition of all or any part of Landlord's right, title and interest in the Building, and neither Landlord nor any of its partners shall be liable for any deficiency.

20. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD

(a) Tenant shall hold Landlord harmless from and defend Landlord against any and all claims or liability for damages to any person or property in, on or about the Premises from the negligence or wrongful acts of Tenant, its agents, contractors, employees, subtenants, assignees and licensees.

(b) Tenant shall procure and keep in effect during the entire term hereof commercial general liability and property damage insurance protecting Landlord and Tenant from all causes, including their own negligence, having as limits of liability One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for damages resulting from one occurrence. Tenant shall deliver policies of such insurance or certificates thereof to Landlord upon execution of this Lease by Tenant and thereafter at least thirty (30) days before the expiration dates of expiring policies. Such insurance shall not be cancelable without sixty (60) days' written notice to Landlord, and in the event Tenant shall fail to procure such insurance, Landlord may at its option procure the same for the account of Tenant, and the cost thereof shall be paid to Landlord as an additional charge upon receipt by Tenant of bills therefor.

21. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION

Landlord and Tenant shall each be released from any liability resulting from damage by fire or casualty (irrespective of the cause of such fire or casualty) upon the express proviso that if at any time their respective insurers shall refuse to permit waivers of subrogation, Landlord or Tenant may in each instance revoke said waiver of subrogation effective thirty (30) days from the date of notice to the other unless within such thirty (30) day period, the other is able to secure and furnish (without additional expense) insurance in other companies with such waiver of subrogation.

22. ATTORNEY'S FEES

In the event of any legal action or proceeding brought by either party against the other arising out of this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees incurred in such action and such amount shall be included in any judgment rendered in such proceeding.

23. WAIVER

(a) No waiver of any provision of this Lease or of any breach hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other provision hereof, or of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. Consent to or approval of any act requiring consent or approval shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of consent to or approval of any subsequent act. No act or thing done by Landlord or Landlord's agents during the term of this Lease shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, unless done in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of the keys to any employee or agent of Landlord shall not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises.

(b) Landlord and Tenant hereby waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of the parties against the other in any matter whatsoever (except for personal injury or property damage) arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of landlord and tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, or any emergency or other statutory remedy with respect thereto.

In the event the estate created hereby shall be taken in execution or by other process of law, or if Tenant shall be adjudicated insolvent or bankrupt pursuant to the provisions of any state or federal insolvency or bankruptcy law, or if a receiver or trustee of the property of Tenant shall be appointed, or if any assignment shall be made of Tenant's property for the benefit of creditors or if a petition shall be filed by or against Tenant seeking to have Tenant adjudicated insolvent or bankrupt pursuant to the provisions of any state or federal insolvency or bankruptcy law and such petition shall not be withdrawn and the proceedings dismissed within ninety (90) days after the filing of the petition, then and in any of such events, Landlord may terminate this Lease by written notice to Tenant; provided, however, if the order of the court creating any of such disabilities shall not be final by reason of the pendency of such proceedings or appeal from such order, or if the petition shall not have been withdrawn or the proceedings dismissed within ninety (90) days after the filing of the petition, then Landlord shall not have the right to terminate this Lease so long as Tenant performs its obligations hereunder. If, as a matter of law, Landlord has no right on the bankruptcy of Tenant to terminate this Lease, then, if Tenant, as debtor, or its trustee wishes to assume or assign this Lease, in addition to curing or adequately assuring the cure of all defaults existing under this Lease on Tenant's part on the date of filing of the proceeding (such assurances being defined below), Tenant, as debtor, or the trustee or assignee, must also furnish adequate assurances of future performance under this Lease (as defined below). Adequate assurance of curing defaults means the posting with Landlord of a sum in cash sufficient to defray the cost of such a cure. Adequate assurance of future performance under this Lease means posting a deposit equal to three (3) months' rent, including all other charges payable by Tenant hereunder, such as the amounts payable pursuant to Paragraph 5 hereof, and, in the case of an assignee, assuring Landlord that the assignee is financially capable of assuming this Lease, and that its use of the Premises will not be detrimental to the other tenants in the Building or Landlord. In a reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, the debtor or trustee must assume this Lease or assign it within one hundred twenty (120) days from the filing of the proceeding, or he shall be deemed to have rejected and terminated this Lease.

25. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES

(a) In the event Tenant shall fail to pay the rent or any other obligation involving the payment of money reserved herein when due, Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of such default and if Tenant shall fail to cure such default within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice, Landlord shall, in addition to its other remedies provided by law and in this Lease, have the remedies set forth in Paragraph 25(c) hereof.

(b) If Tenant shall be in default in performing any of the terms of this Lease or any other agreement to which Tenant is a party, other than the payment of rent or any other obligation involving the payment of money, Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of such default, and if Tenant shall fail to cure such default within thirty (30) days after the receipt of such notice, or if the default is of such a character as to require more than thirty (30) days to cure, then if Tenant shall fail within said thirty (30) day period to commence and thereafter proceed diligently to cure such default, then and in either of such events, Landlord may (at its option and in addition to its other legal remedies) cure such default for the account of Tenant and any sum so expended by Landlord shall be additional rent for all purposes hereunder, including Paragraph 25(a) hereof and shall be paid by Tenant with the next monthly installment of rent.

(c) If any rent or any other obligation involving the payment of money shall be due and unpaid or Tenant shall be in default upon any of the other terms of this Lease, and such default has not been cured after notice and within the time provided in Paragraphs 25(a) and (b) hereof, or, if the Premises are abandoned or vacated, and rent payments are delinquent, then Landlord, in addition to its other remedies, shall have the immediate right of re-entry. Should Landlord elect to re-enter or take possession pursuant to legal proceedings or any notice provided for by law, Landlord may either terminate this Lease or from time to time, without terminating this Lease, relet the Premises or any part thereof on such terms and conditions as Landlord shall in its reasonable discretion deem advisable. The avails of such reletting shall be applied: first, to the payment of any indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord other than rent due hereunder; second, to the payment of any reasonable costs of such reletting, including the cost of any reasonable alterations and repairs to the Premises, third, to the payment of rent due and unpaid hereunder; and the residue, if any, shall be held by Landlord and applied in payment of future rent as the same may become due and payable hereunder. Should the avails of such reletting during any month be less than the monthly rent reserved hereunder, then Tenant shall during each such month pay such deficiency to Landlord. Notwithstanding any such reletting without termination, Landlord may at any time thereafter elect to terminate this Lease for such previous breach. Should Landlord at any time terminate this Lease for any breach, in addition to any other remedies it may have, it may recover from Tenant all damages it may incur by reason of such breach, including the cost of recovering the Premises and reasonable attorney's fees incidental thereto, all of which amounts shall be immediately due and payable.

(d) All rights and remedies of Landlord and Tenant hereunder shall be cumulative and none shall be exclusive of any other rights and remedies allowed by law.

(e) Each of Landlord and Tenant shall take all reasonable actions to mitigate its respective damages resulting from a breach of the other party; provided, however, that it is understood and agreed that Landlord may lease other vacant premises in the Building prior to leasing the Premises if Tenant is in default hereunder.

26. HOLDING OVER

It is hereby agreed that in the event of Tenant holding over after the termination of this Lease, thereafter the tenancy shall be from month to month in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, and (i) for the first two (2) months of such holdover period, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a monthly occupancy charge equal to one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the monthly Rental (plus one hundred percent (100%) of all other charges payable by Tenant under this Lease), and (ii) for the period subsequent to the first two (2) months of such holdover period, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a monthly occupancy charge equal to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the monthly Rental (plus one hundred percent (100%) of all other charges payable by Tenant under this Lease), together with any damages incurred by Landlord as a result of such holdover (beyond two (2) months) to which Landlord is entitled under applicable law. The rental payments described in the preceding sentence shall be payable through the date the Premises are delivered to Landlord in the condition required herein.

27. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents have made any representations or promises with respect to the physical condition of the Building, the land upon which the Building is erected, or the Premises, the rents, leases, expenses of operation or any other matter or thing affecting or related to the Premises except as herein expressly set forth and no rights, easements or licenses are acquired by Tenant by implication or otherwise, except as expressly set forth in the provisions of this Lease. This Lease shall constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto; all prior agreements between the parties, whether written or oral, are merged herein and shall be of no force or effect. This Lease cannot be changed, modified or discharged orally but only by an agreement in writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, modification or discharge is sought.

28. NOTICES

Whenever under this Lease a provision is made for notice of any kind it shall be deemed sufficient notice and service thereof if such notice to Tenant is in writing addressed to Tenant at the address set forth in Paragraph l(m) hereof, and deposited in the mail, certified or registered mail, with postage prepaid, and if such notice to Landlord is in writing addressed to Landlord at the address set forth in Paragraph l(n) hereof and deposited in the mail, certified or registered mail, with postage prepaid. Each of Tenant and Landlord may change the address to which notices are to be sent hereunder by written notice to the other. Such notices shall be deemed given upon receipt or refusal to accept delivery. Notice need be sent to only one Tenant or Landlord where Tenant or Landlord is more than one person.

29. SUCCESSORS

This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, administrators, executors, representatives, successors and assigns.

30. TIME

Time is of the essence of this Lease and each and all of its provisions.

31. QUIET ENJOYMENT

Landlord warrants that Tenant, upon paying the rents hereinbefore provided and in performing each and every covenant hereof, shall peacefully and quietly hold, occupy and enjoy the Premises throughout the term hereof, without molestation or hindrance by any person holding under or through Landlord.

32. SECURITY DEPOSIT

In the event Tenant deposits the Security Deposit with Landlord pursuant to Paragraph 16(a)(iii) hereof as security for the performance of the terms and conditions hereof by Tenant, such Security Deposit shall be returned to Tenant promptly at the termination of the Lease if Tenant has discharged its obligations to Landlord in full. If Tenant fails to pay rent or other charges due hereunder, or otherwise defaults with respect to any provisions of this Lease, Landlord, after notice and the expiration of any applicable cure periods, may use, apply or retain all or any portion of the Security Deposit for the payment of any rent or other charges in default or for the payment of any other sums to which Landlord may become obligated by reason of Tenant's default, or to compensate Landlord for any loss or damage which Landlord may suffer thereby. If Landlord so uses or applies all or any portion of the Security Deposit, Tenant shall within ten (10) days after demand therefor deposit cash with Landlord in an amount sufficient to restore the Security Deposit to the original amount. Landlord shall not be required to keep the Deposit separate from its general funds and Tenant shall not be entitled to interest thereon.

33. BROKERS

Tenant acknowledges that the broker listed in Paragraph l(o) hereof is the only real estate broker responsible for bringing about or negotiating this Lease and said broker is the only broker with whom it has dealt in connection with this Lease and/or the Premises. Landlord shall pay a commission to said broker in accordance with a separate agreement between them. Landlord and Tenant agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other from any expense or liability arising out of a claim for commission or other compensation by any other broker claiming or alleging to have acted on behalf of or to have dealt with it in connection with this Lease or the Premises.

34. INABILITY TO PERFORM

(a) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault of the Landlord, Landlord is unable to furnish or is delayed in furnishing any utility or service required to be furnished by Landlord under the provisions of this Lease, or is unable to perform or make or is delayed in performing or making any installations, decorations, repairs, alterations, additions or improvements required to be performed or made under this Lease, or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Landlord's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute an actual or constructive eviction in whole or in part, or entitle Tenant to any abatement or diminution of rental or other charges due hereunder or relieve Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Landlord or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Tenant, or injury to or interruption of Tenant's business, or otherwise.

(b) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault of the Tenant, Tenant is delayed in performing work or doing any act required under the terms of this Lease or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute a default, or entitle or relieve Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Tenant or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Landlord.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the provisions of this Paragraph 34 shall not operate to excuse either party from the prompt payment of the Rent or any other payments required by the terms of this Lease.

35. REMOVAL OF TENANT'S PROPERTY

All movable furniture and personal effects of Tenant not removed from the Premises within ten (10) business days after the termination of this Lease for any cause whatsoever shall conclusively be deemed to have been abandoned and may be appropriated, sold, stored, destroyed or otherwise disposed of by Landlord without notice to Tenant and without obligation to account therefor, and Tenant shall pay Landlord for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the disposition of such property.

36. PARKING

(a) So long as Tenant is not in default under the terms of this Lease, Tenant and its agents, employees, customers and invitees shall have a non-exclusive license to use (in accordance with the terms of this Lease) up to that number of unreserved parking spaces in the parking areas of the Development (hereinafter referred to as the "Parking Areas") designated in Paragraph l(p) hereof, for the purpose of parking automobiles utilized by Tenant, its agents, employees, customers and invitees, provided that (i) neither Tenant nor its agents, employees, customers or invitees shall utilize in excess of such number of spaces in the Parking Areas, (ii) Landlord shall not be responsible for policing Tenant's right to utilize such number of spaces and Landlord shall have no liability or responsibility to Tenant if such spaces are not available through acts or omissions of others.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Landlord acknowledges that Tenant requires seven (7) parking spaces for each one thousand (1,000) rentable square feet of the Premises and to the extent the same are not available on the Development, subject to the rights of EDS, Landlord shall provide the overflow parking in areas serving 750 Tower Drive, Troy, Michigan in close proximity to the Development (the Development and the parking areas of 750 Tower Drive serving the Premises are herein collectively referred to as the "Total Development"). In the event 750 Tower Drive and the Development are at any time not owned by the same entity, thereupon Landlord shall enter into an appropriate cross-easement agreement with the owner of 750 Tower Drive granting Tenant the right to utilize the common areas upon 750 Tower Drive in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Lease (such cross easement agreement shall terminate upon termination of this Lease).

(c) (i) Tenant shall have during the Term and any extensions the exclusive right to a pro-rata portion (based upon Tenant's Share) of the number of parking spaces on the lower level of the parking deck on the Development on a reserved basis. No reserved parking shall be designated for any tenant, occupant or other person or entity on the upper level of such parking deck.

(ii) Tenant shall have the exclusive right to utilize the thirty five (35) parking spaces designated on Exhibit "H" hereto for its customers.

(iii) With respect to the reserved parking spaces described in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above, Landlord shall at its sole cost and expense, install signs designating such parking spaces as being reserved for the exclusive use of Tenant or its customers.

37. NO OPTION

The execution of this Lease by Tenant and the delivery of the same to Landlord shall not constitute a reservation of or option for the Premises or an agreement by Landlord to enter into a lease with Tenant and this Lease shall become effective only if and when Landlord's executes and delivers the same to Tenant; provided, however, that the execution and delivery of this Lease by Tenant to Landlord shall constitute an irrevocable offer by Tenant to lease the Premises on the terms and conditions herein contained, which offer may not be withdrawn or revoked by Tenant for thirty (30) days after execution and delivery of this Lease to Landlord.

38. ANTENNA

(a) Tenant has the right to install a satellite dish and/or other electronic transmitter (collectively, the "Antenna") on the roof of the Building, and to wire such Antenna to the Premises in compliance with all applicable local zoning ordinances and regulations and in accordance with plans and specifications approved by Landlord and in a location approved by Landlord. The cost of installation and maintenance thereof, and the cost of any repairs to the roof which are necessitated by the installation, repair and/or removal of the Antenna shall be borne solely by Tenant. Upon the termination of this Lease, Tenant shall remove any Antenna and repair any damage to the roof occasioned by such removal. Tenant shall also be permitted to run cable, fiber optic networks, and other systems and equipment throughout the Building in order to connect the various areas within the Building occupied from time to time by Tenant, and in order to connect such areas to outside telephone, cable, optical network and other providers in locations and pursuant to plans and specifications approved by Landlord. Further, Tenant shall be permitted to install throughout the Premises, access and security systems for Tenant's exclusive use (e.g., swipe card, combination lock, or otherwise), subject to Landlord's approval thereof. Provided, however, Tenant shall be responsible for confirming that its Antenna do not unreasonably interfere with any other tenants' or Landlord's antennae or other communications equipment.

(b) Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all costs, loss, expense or liability of any kind whatsoever arising out of the installation, use and/or removal by Tenant of the Antenna. Tenant shall maintain a comprehensive general liability insurance policy, including contractual liability, as set forth in Paragraph 20(b) hereof, so long as the Antenna is under construction, in place and/or being removed.

(c) Tenant shall work exclusively with Landlord's roofing contractor relating to the installation and/or removal of the Antenna and the roof penetration so as not to violate any requirements or invalidate Landlord's roof guaranty.

(d) Wherever Landlord's approval is required pursuant to this Paragraph 38, such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

39. INDEMNIFICATION OF TENANT; LANDLORD'S INSURANCE

(a) Landlord shall hold Tenant harmless from and defend Tenant against any and all claims or liability for damages to any person or property in, on or about the common areas on the Total Development from the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees.

(b) Landlord shall procure and keep in effect during the entire term hereof commercial general liability and property damage insurance protecting Landlord and Tenant from all causes, including their own negligence, having as limits of liability Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) for damages resulting from one occurrence. The commercial general liability insurance to be carried by Landlord hereunder shall include contractual liability and shall be in the amount of at least Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage per occurrence. Such policy shall specifically include the liability assumed hereunder by Landlord and shall provide that it is primary insurance and not excess of or contributory with any other valid existing applicable insurance maintained for or on behalf of Tenant. Landlord shall deliver policies of such insurance or certificates thereof to Tenant prior to the Commencement Date and thereafter at least thirty (30) days before the expiration dates of expiring policies. Such insurance shall not be cancelable without thirty (30) days' written notice to Tenant.

(c) Landlord shall, during the Term, provide and keep in force an all risks policy for the full replacement cost of the Building, excluding trade fixtures, furniture and equipment of tenants.

40. LANDLORD'S DEFAULT

Landlord shall be in default of this Lease if it fails to perform any material obligation of Landlord under this Lease and if such failure to perform a material obligation is not cured within thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of written notice thereof from Tenant; however, if said failure to perform a material obligation cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the failure to perform a material obligation within the thirty (30) day period and diligently continues attempts to cure the default. If such default remains uncured after the expiration of the aforesaid cure period, Tenant may cure the default at Landlord's reasonable expense. If Tenant pays any reasonable sum in order to cure Landlord's default (after Tenant gives Landlord written notice of the default and Landlord fails to cure the default within the aforementioned thirty (30) day period), such reasonable sum shall be reimbursed by Landlord to Tenant upon thirty (30) days' written notice, which notice shall include reasonably detailed supporting documentation. If Landlord fails to so reimburse Tenant and if the existence of the default is not being disputed by Landlord, Tenant may withhold from future rent payments due and owing the sum owed to Tenant. If the default is being disputed by Landlord, Tenant may not offset its rent obligations until the existence of Landlord's default, and Tenant's entitlement to reimbursement hereunder, has been established by the final and unappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. If Landlord disputes such default and Tenant obtains a final and unappealable judgment to collect such amount, Tenant shall be entitled to interest on such amount from the date of Tenant's expenditure at the Interest Rate.

41. EXCLUSIVITY

During the Term, Landlord shall not suffer or permit any premises in the Building to be occupied by any entity or person who sells, solicits, originates and/or services mortgage or real estate title insurance products. In addition, if Tenant or its affiliate shall lease the Bank Premises, during the term of this Lease, Landlord shall not suffer or permit any premises in the Building to be occupied by any bank, savings bank, savings or loan association or credit union or ATM (unless operated by Tenant or its affiliate).

42. LANDLORD'S REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

(a) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that (i) to the best of Landlord's knowledge without inquiry, the Total Development does not contain any Hazardous Materials in violation of any applicable laws, and (ii) upon discovery at the Total Development of any Hazardous Materials in violation of any applicable laws, Landlord shall take such actions as may be required by applicable governmental agencies to remove, remediate, or otherwise correct such conditions. For purposes hereof, "Hazardous Materials" shall mean any toxic or hazardous waste or substance (including, without limitation, asbestos and petroleum products) which is regulated by applicable law.

(b) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that, as of the date of full execution of this Lease and continuing through recording of the Memorandum of Lease pursuant to Paragraph 48 hereof, Landlord is the fee simple title holder of the Building and the Total Development, and that neither the Building nor Total Development is the subject of a ground lease, and that no easements, encumbrances and other matters of record prohibit the conduct by Tenant of Tenant's Use (as defined in Paragraph 1(1) hereof) at the Premises or Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the Premises pursuant to this Lease.

(c) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that:

(i) Except as provided below, Landlord has not received any notice nor does it have any knowledge of any violation of any laws, zoning ordinances or building rules or regulations affecting the Building or Total Development nor has Landlord received any notice of nor has Landlord any knowledge of or information as to any existing or threatened condemnation or other legal action of any kind involving the Building or Total Development. Landlord has advised Tenant that it has been advised by the City of Troy that a taking by eminent domain is being considered in connection with 1-75 improvements. Landlord represents and warrants that to its knowledge no portion of the Development is being considered for such a taking;

(ii) Landlord has not received notice nor does it have any knowledge of any building code violation with respect to the Building or Total Development; the parking servicing the Building (all of which is located upon the Total Development) complies with the requirements of all applicable statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations; to Landlord's knowledge, all required permits and approvals, including environmental approvals and permits, necessary for the operation of the Building and the Total Development have been obtained and all improvements and all parts thereof are in conformity with all applicable governmental and other legal requirements;

(iii) Landlord has no knowledge of any major structural or mechanical defects in the Building.

(d) As used in this Paragraph 42, the knowledge of Landlord shall refer only to the actual knowledge of Joseph Adamo, Timothy Greiner and Jeffrey Clements.

(d) Tenant shall have the right to install a sign in the lobby of the Building at its cost. The location, size and text of such sign shall be subject to the mutual approval of Landlord and Tenant, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(e) The size of the Tenant's exterior building sign(s) shall be the maximum size permitted by the City of Troy. Such signs shall be subject to the approval of Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and the approval of the City of Troy. Tenant shall be responsible for obtaining all such approvals and Landlord shall assist Tenant in obtaining all such approvals.

(f) Tenant shall be responsible for the reasonable costs and expenses of fabricating, installing and removing such signs and sign panel pursuant to Paragraphs 47(a), (b), (c) and (d) hereof, which fabrication, installation and removal shall be performed by Landlord or Landlord's contractors. RE: Results of Condition Assessment
800 Tower Drive Packing Structure
Troy, Michigan

Dear Mr. Clements;

We have completed our condition assessment on the referenced project This report summarizes our observations, field testing, conclusions, and recommendations. A proposed priority repair and restoradcm/maratenance program is also presented for the structure.

BACKGROUND

The parking structure incorporates topped, precast, double-tee beam floor slab construction on the upper level The double-tee beams are supported on precast ledger and columns. The lower level of the structure is an asphalt slab-on-grade. Each level encompoasses approximately 95,000 square feet, for a total area of approximately 190,000 square feet

The upper level of the structure is accessed on the east elevation with rumps located at the northeast (Photo 1) and southeast corners. Entrances to the lower level are located at the southwest corner, east elevation, and northwest corner (Photo 2). Stairtowers are located in the northwest and southwest (Photo 3) corners of the structure.

It is reported that the structure is approximately 15 years old. Repairs have been performed in the structure over the last several years and have included localized concrete repairs and sealant replacement.

At this time, NTH was contracted to perform a condition assessment of the parking structure for the purpose of developing a restoration/maintenance program for the structure,

FIELD INVESTIGATION AND FINDINGS

The condition assessment included visual observations throughout the structure and delamination surveys on the upper level. No concrete materials testing was performed for the structure. Field data was evaluated and recommendations for a repair/maintenance program was prepared for the purpose of maintaining and extending the useful service life of the structure.

The field survey was not performed to identity every specific location of damage, deterioration, or distress. Survey results were subjected to certain extrapolation in order to arrive at the cost estimates obtained in this report. Data evaluation was performed to identify the most cost-effective repairs and maintenance appropriate to maintaining and extending the structure's useful service life.

Visual Examination

A visual examination of the entire structure was performed, excluding the storage areas located under the ramps to the upper level at the east elevation. Refer to Photograph Nos. 1 through 16 for a visual summary of existing conditions in the structure.

In general, only localized areas Of concrete delamination and spalling were observed on the upper level floor slab. This condition occurs primarily over ledger bearns (Photo 4) and/or at floor drain locations. At several locations, extensive deterioration of the double-tee beam flange was observed (Photos 5 and 6). At these locations, delaminations generally occur on the top surface and leakage through the floor slab system is observed from the floor slab underside. Concrete delarnination/spalling in floor slab areas between ledger beams was minor and includes primarily joint edge spalling along the control joints (photo 7).

Columns and the ledger beams supporting the double-tee beams are generally in good condition throughout the structure; however, the bearing of the double-tee beam stem has been compromised and repairs are required at two locations (Photos 5 and 8). Only localized smaller areas of delamination/spalling were observed at the columns and other ledger beams. Concrete delamiriation and spalling of the concrete were also observed in localized areas of the perimeter walls on both the upper and lower levels.

Control joint and cove sealants on the upper level are generally in good condition with localized failures associated, primarily with concrete delamination and/or spalling. It is estimated that less than 5% of the sealants have failed and/or are damaged. At one control joint location, the sealant is split for a considerable length and leakage is observed at the floor slab underside (Photo 9). This condition appears to be due to excessive movement along this joint

The isolation joints at the ramps to the upper level appear to be in fair to good condition. The joints at the top of the ramps appear to be recently replaced (Photo 10), and appear to be in good condition. Evidence of leakage/staining was observed below these isolation joints at the storage room walls; however, the leakage may have occurred prior to replacement of the joints. The isolation joints at the ramp walls appear to be original and functioning satisfactorily; however, the design of these joints traps dirt and debris (Photo 11). Since it was not raining during our survey, review of leakage through the joints was not possible. No expansion joints are used in the structure.

The stairtowers are in good condition and include only localized concrete spalling and cracking. However, the isolation joint (Photo 12) between the stairtowers and the upper level slab has failed at both stairtower locations. As such, leakage through the floor slab system is observed from the • stairstep underside and corrosion of the steel support angle is exhibited (Photo 13).

The asphalt slab-on-grade appears to be in relatively fair to good condition with localized distress observed ax several locations (Photo 14). Localized deterioration of bumper blocks is also observed on both levels. It is noted that parking bumpers axe unusually short in length and/or missing and may not prevent ears from possibly damaging the exterior panels on the upper level (Photo 15).

The electrical, drainage and fire protection systems appear to be in fair to good condition with no significant deterioration observed, Verification of satisfactorily operation of these system was not included in our study.

The exterior facade and upper level walls of the parking structure incorporate precast panels, which are in good condition. However, corrosion of weld connections (Photo 16) and localized . failures of vertical sealants between panels were observed. Vertical sealants appear to be original and may require replacement soon,

Delamination Survey

A delamination survey was performed along the top surface of the upper level. The survey utilized a chain drag and/or sounding hammer to detect hollow sounds of delamination within the concrete. Upwards of 75% of the floor slab top surface on the upper level was surveyed with a complete survey performed over the ledger beanos. Based on our delamination survey, it appears that only a small portion of the total floor slab surface area on the upper level includes concrete delannnaiioii/spalling, and occurs primarily over the ledger beams and along control joint edges.

A limited delamination survey was also performed at bearns, columns, and the floor slab underside. This survey reveals localized deterioration typically occurring in areas of observed visual deterioration and/or at areas of leakage through the floor slab system,

CONCLUSIONS/RECOMMENDATIONS

Based on the results of our survey and evaluation, it appears that The overall condition of the parking structure is good. However, the structural integrity is compromised m localized areas of the upper level floor: slab, where significant spalling/deterioration of the concrete is observed. It is recommended that full depth floor slab repairs be performed at three locations where significant deterioration occurs along ledger beams. Two ledger beam areas, where deterioration has compromised bearing of the double-tee beam stems, should also be repaired. These priority repairs should be performed in 2004.

Only localized areas of deterioration occur at other upper level floor slab areas, primarily over ledger bearns, and in columns and beams in the structure. Some concrete deterioration on the upper level is associated with control joint edge spaling and should be repaired to properly seal control joists and prevent leakage through the floor slab system. Failed welds ax precast panel/wall connections should be required. The above repairs may be deferred; however, continued deterioration is anticipated, which may eventually compromise structural integrity and increase the cost of repairs.

Localized failures of sealants on the upper level should be repaired to prevent leakage through the floor slab system. The phased approach of replacing sealants on the tipper level should be continued until all original sealants have been replaced. At the location of sealant failure where excessive movement is indicated, the installation of steel angles to transfer the load across the joint is recommended. Failed isolation joints at stairtowers should be repaired to prevent leakage and further corrosion of the steel support angle.

RESTORATION PROGRAM

The attached Table A summarizes the priority repair and proposed restoration/maintenance programs for the parking structure. Work items in the table are associated with cost estimates for budgetary purposes. The priority repairs include upper level floor slab and ledger beam areas where structural integrity has been compromised. These repairs should be performed in 2004.

The proposed restoration program includes repair items on both the slab-on-grade and upper levels, including stairtowers. These repairs may be deferred for upwards of three to four years; however, increased deterioration is anticipated, which could eventually compromise structural integrity and increase repair costs, Periodic monitoring is required until priority repairs and the restoration program are completed.

The proposed maintenance program includes preventative measures for minimizing further deterioration of the structure and to extend its service life. It is recommended that these items be completed during the implementation of the priority repair and/or restoration program to maximize the benefits to the structure. Should budget constraints exist, maintenance items should be implemented at the completion of the restoration program.

Several options are presented in the maintenance program regarding the installation of a vehicular traffic membrane and/or application of a concrete sealer on the upper level. A concrete sealer is a weatherproofing material that requires re-application every three to five years. The vehicular traffic membrane is a waterproofing material with a serviceability of approximately 10 to 15 years. Maintenance of repair areas and overall protection of the upper level floor slab system will be significantly improved and serviceability extended with the installation of a vehicular traffic membrane. As a minimum, the installation of a vehicular traffic membrane should be considered over ledger beam areas and at drains where the susceptibility to leakage and deterioration of the floor slab system is greatest. A combination of vehicular traffic membrane installation at these locations in conjunction with the application of a concrete sealer in other areas on the upper level should also be considered.

In summary, the estimated cost of the priority repair program recommended for implementation in 2004 is $12300, including a 10% construction contingency. The proposed restoration program adds an additional cost of approximately $58,000, including a 10% construction contingency, and can be phased over several years. Depending oil the options selected, the cost of the maintenance program varies.

The costs in Table A do not include engineering fees for the design of repairs, preparation of repair specifications, drawings, bidding assistance, contract administration/construction monitoring of repairs and/or concrete materials testing. We believe that the recommended repair / maintenance program will provide a meaningful extension of service life for the structure, Should the remedial action plan not be implemented, continued deterioration is anticipated, which may result in localized failures and reduced structural integrity.

Ongoing maintenance is essential in achieving the greatest benefit of the recommended repair program and for improvement of the structure's long-term performance. It is imperative that a maintenance program for the structure be instituted to achieve greater longevity and serviceability. The recommended iestoration/maintenance program is intended to slow the rate of deterioration and make future maintenance operations manageable to the facility owner and operator.

We appreciate the opportunity to Work with The Gale Company. Should you have any questions or need additional information, please call Upon your authorization, we are prepared and can provide costs for supplemental restoration engineering services for the design of repairs, bidding, Contract administration, and construction monitoring/concrete materials testing during implementation of the priority repair and/or restoration/maintenance programs.

As long as (i) the term of the Lease shall have commenced pursuant to the provisions thereof, (ii) Tenant shall be in possession of the Leased Premises, (iii) the Lease shall be in full force and effect, and (iv) Tenant is in compliance with the terms of this Agreement and no default exists under the Lease beyond applicable cure periods, nor has any event occurred that with the giving of notice or the passage of time or both would entitle Landlord to terminate the Lease or would cause, without any further action by Landlord, the termination of the Lease or would entitle Landlord to dispossess Tenant under the Lease (conditions "i" through "iv," collectively, the "Nondisturbance Conditions"), Mortgagee shall not name Tenant as a party defendant in any action for foreclosure of the Mortgage or other enforcement thereof (unless required by law), nor shall the Lease be terminated by Mortgagee in connection with or by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings for the enforcement of the Mortgage or by reason of a transfer of Landlord's interest, if any, in the Mortgaged Premises or under the Lease pursuant to a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) (any of the foregoing, a "Foreclosure"). nor shall Tenant's use or possession of the Leased Premises be interfered with by Mortgagee, unless Landlord would have had such right.

6. If Landlord's interest in the Mortgaged Premises or under the Lease is terminated by reason of a Foreclosure (the party succeeding to Landlord's interest, if any, in the Mortgaged Premises or under the Lease, by Foreclosure or any other method, being hereinafter referred to, together with such party's successors and assigns, as "Successor"), then upon Successor's succeeding to Landlord's interest, if any, in the Mortgaged Premises or under the Lease, Tenant shall be bound to Successor, and, except as provided in this Agreement, Successor shall be bound to Tenant, under all the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease for the balance of the term thereof remaining, with the same force and effect as if Successor were Landlord, and Tenant does hereby agree to attorn to Successor, including Mortgagee if it be the Successor, as Tenant's landlord; affirm Tenant's obligations under the Lease; and make payments of all sums due under the Lease to Successor. Such attornment, affirmation and agreement shall be effective and self-operative without the execution of any further instruments. Tenant waives the provisions of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in effect that may give or purport to give Tenant any right or election to terminate or otherwise adversely affect the Lease or the obligations of Tenant thereunder by reason of any Foreclosure.

7. As an additional material inducement to Mortgagee to enter into this Agreement, Tenant agrees that if Landlord is the subject of any proceeding (a "Bankruptcy Proceeding") under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §101 et seq., as in effect, or as hereafter amended, or under the provisions of any successor statute thereto (collectively, the "Code"), then Tenant shall take all actions reasonably necessary to retain possession of the Leased Premises (whether or not Landlord, pursuant to the Code or otherwise, attempts to reject the Lease) so as to enable Tenant to continue to lease and occupy the Leased Premises on all or substantially all terms of the Lease. During any Bankruptcy Proceeding Tenant shall, unless the Lease has already been terminated in accordance with its terms and the terms of this Agreement: (i) not terminate the Lease except in accordance with the Lease and this Agreement; (ii) not give up possession of the Leased Premises (if Tenant is already in such possession); and (iii) if Tenant is not yet in possession of the Leased Premises prior to the commencement of the Bankruptcy Proceeding, then Tenant shall take all steps reasonably necessary to cooperate with Mortgagee in attempting to obtain possession of the Leased Premises for Tenant provided that (a) Mortgagee exercises its reasonable efforts (excluding the making of any payments to, or for the benefit of, Landlord or its estate, or to any other party, which payments Mortgagee is not otherwise required to make under this Agreement) to obtain possession of the Leased Premises for Tenant, and (b) Mortgagee notifies Tenant that Mortgagee reasonably believes that it will be able to obtain such possession for Tenant on or before a date that is within one hundred twenty (120) days after such proceeding commenced. If Tenant does not obtain possession of the Leased Premises within one hundred twenty (120) days after commencement of such proceeding, or Mortgagee fails to comply with clauses (a) and (b) above, then Tenant shall have no further obligations under this paragraph to cooperate with Mortgagee in obtaining possession of the Leased Premises and Tenant may terminate the Lease.

8. If (i) Landlord becomes the subject of a Bankruptcy Proceeding, and Landlord, as debtor-in-possession, or any trustee, as successor-in-interest to Landlord, obtains an order of the bankruptcy court or other court of competent jurisdiction authorizing the rejection of the Lease in accordance with Section 365 of the Code, or the Lease is otherwise terminated in such Bankruptcy Proceeding, and (ii) thereafter, Mortgagee or any other person shall acquire title to the Mortgaged Premises through Foreclosure or by any other means (including a sale of the Mortgaged Premises pursuant to the Code), then the person so acquiring title to the Mortgaged Premises shall also be a "Successor" for all purposes of this Agreement. If the Lease is terminated or rejected in or as a result of a Bankruptcy Proceeding, then:

A. Upon request made by Tenant to Successor within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice from Successor that Successor has obtained title to the Mortgaged Premises, and provided that immediately prior to such Lease rejection or termination the Nondisturbance Conditions were satisfied and at the time of such request Tenant is in possession of the Leased Premises, Successor, if and to the extent that it has the legal right and power to do so (without incurring any expenses or liabilities), shall enter into a new lease with Tenant upon the same terms and conditions as were contained in the Lease, except that (x) the obligations and liabilities of such Successor under any such new lease shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (y) the expiration date of such new lease shall coincide with the original expiration date of the Lease (a "New Lease").

B. Upon Successor's written request of Tenant made within sixty (60) days after Successor has acquired title to the Mortgaged Premises, Tenant shall execute a New Lease with Successor, and shall attorn to Successor, so as to establish direct privity between Successor and Tenant.

9. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, any New Lease, or this Agreement, any Successor shall not (a) be subject to any credits, offsets, defenses, claims, counterclaims or demands that Tenant might have against any prior landlord (including, without limitation, Landlord); (b) be bound by any previous modification or amendment of the Lease or by any rent or additional rent that Tenant might have paid for more than the current month to any prior landlord, unless such modification or prepayment shall have been made with Mortgagee's prior written consent; (c) be liable for any accrued obligation, act or omission of any prior landlord (including, without limitation, Landlord), whether prior to or after Foreclosure; (d) be bound by any covenant to undertake or complete any improvement to the Mortgaged Premises or the Leased Premises, or to reimburse or pay Tenant for the cost of any such improvement, PREFERENCE SPECIFIC LEASE PROVISIONS REGARDING LANDLORD'S WORK]; (e) be required to perform or provide any services not related to possession or quiet enjoyment of the Leased Premises; (f) be required to account for any security deposit other than any security deposit actually delivered to Successor; (g) be required to abide by any provisions for the diminution or abatement of rent; or [?(h) INSERT LEASE-SPECIFIC CARVE-OUTS].

10. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Lease, or any New Lease, if Successor acquires Landlord's interest, if any, in the Mortgaged Premises, then Successor's liability for its obligations under the Lease (or any New Lease) and this Agreement shall be limited to Successor's interest in the Mortgaged Premises. Tenant shall not look to any other property or assets of Successor or the property or assets of any of the partners, shareholders, directors, officers and principals, direct and indirect, of Successor in seeking either to enforce Successor's obligations under the Lease (or any New Lease) and this Agreement or to satisfy a judgment for Successor's failure to perform such obligations.

11. If and to the extent that the Lease or any provision of law shall entitle Tenant to notice of any mortgage, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement shall constitute said notice to Tenant of the existence of the Mortgage.

12. This Agreement may not be modified except by an agreement in writing signed by the parties hereto or their respective successors in interest. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto (and shall benefit any Successor), and the successors and assigns of the foregoing, provided, however, this Agreement shall not be binding upon any assignee of Mortgagee acquiring the loan secured by the Mortgage in connection with a refinancing thereof.

13. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall in any way impair or affect the lien created by the Mortgage or modify the terms thereof. By executing and delivering this Agreement, Mortgagee shall not be deemed to have (i) waived any default under the Mortgage, (ii) modified the Mortgage in any manner, or (iii) waived any rights or remedies it possesses under the Mortgage or otherwise. In the event any conflict, inconsistency or ambiguity exists between the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease and the terms, covenants and conditions of the Mortgage, the terms, covenants and conditions of the Mortgage shall control, except as specifically and expressly set forth herein.

14. Tenant agrees and confirms that this Agreement satisfies any condition or requirement in the Lease or otherwise relating to the granting of a nondisturbance agreement, including, without limitation, the provisions of Article of the Lease. Tenant further agrees that if there is any inconsistency between the terms and provisions hereof and the terms and provisions of the Lease relating to nondisturbance by Mortgagee, the terms and provisions hereof shall be controlling.

15. Tenant acknowledges that it has notice that the Lease and the rent and all other sums due thereunder have been assigned to Mortgagee. If Mortgagee notifies Tenant of Mortgagee's election under the Mortgage or any other loan document to collect rent and all other sums due under the Lease, and demands that Tenant pays same to Mortgagee, Tenant agrees that it will honor such demand and pay its rent and all other sums due under the Lease directly to Mortgagee or as directed by Mortgagee, notwithstanding any contrary claims, directions, or instructions by Landlord or parties claiming through Landlord, other than Mortgagee.

16. Tenant agrees that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, any Successor shall have the right to consent to or refuse any proposed assignment or subletting of the Leased Premises in its sole discretion.

17. All notices, demands or requests made pursuant to, under, or by virtue of this Agreement must be in writing and mailed to the party to whom the notice, demand or request is being made by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, at its address set forth above. A copy of all notices to Mortgagee shall also be sent to Latham & Watkins LLP, 885 Third Avenue, Suite 1000, New York, New York 10022-4802, Attention: Richard L. Chadakoff, Esq. A copy of all notices to Tenant shall also be sent to: Any party may change the place that notices and demands are to be sent by written notice delivered in accordance with this Agreement.

18. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York. If any term of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term to any person or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

19. Each party shall execute and deliver, upon the request of the other, such documents and instruments (in recordable form, if requested) as may be necessary or appropriate to fully implement or to further evidence the understandings and agreements contained in this Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the Effective Date.

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, Landlord and EDSC, as tenant, entered into that certain Lease (the "Original Lease"), dated July 31, 2000, covering premises commonly known as 800 Tower Drive, Troy, Michigan (the "Premises" and sometimes referred to as the "Building"); and

WHEREAS, the Original Lease was (a) amended by letter agreement (the "Letter Agreement"), last dated October 16, 2000; and (b) assigned by Assignment and Assumption of Lease (the "Assignment"), dated as of January 1, 2001, by and between EDSC, as assignor, and Tenant, as assignee (the Original Lease, the Letter Agreement and the Assignment are collectively, the "Lease"); and

WHEREAS, Landlord is in the process of negotiating a lease agreement with a new proposed tenant (the "New Tenant") to lease the second and third floors and utilize the first floor common area, and Landlord and Tenant are in agreement to reduce the Premises to allow Landlord to enter into a lease agreement with the New Tenant and the New Tenant to occupy the second and third floors; and

WHEREAS, Landlord and Tenant desire to amend the Lease as hereinafter described.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Landlord and Tenant mutually covenant and agree as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms. Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms in this First Amendment shall have the same meanings herein as in the Lease and this First Amendment shall be attached to and form a portion of the Lease.

2. Conflict In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of this First Amendment and the Lease, the terms and conditions of this First Amendment shall prevail.

3. Removal of Tenant's Property. On June 23, 2004 (hereinafter referred to as the "Effective Date"), Tenant shall have relocated Tenant's employees from the second floor and third floor portions of the Premises, containing approximately 60,306 rentable square feet (collectively the "Floors"). Tenant's furniture, other equipment and personal property (collectively, the "Property") located on the Floors will be completely removed by June 30, 2004, and Tenant will fully deliver the Floors at that time to Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to assist Landlord in commencing the tenant improvements for the New Tenant as of the Effective Date, Tenant will tear down the furniture and remove the Property to coordinate with Landlord's demolition plan described on Exhibit "A" attached hereto. As Tenant removes the Property, Tenant will deliver the Floors in a broom clean condition free of the Property (excluding all wiring and cabling). Tenant will not be liable for any penalty for the remaining people provided Tenant does not interfere with Landlord's construction work.

4. Removal of Security Desk. The Tenant shall remove the security desk (excluding all wiring, cabling and common area cabling) located in the main lobby of the Building on the first floor at Tenant's expense within thirty (30) days provided Landlord installs a permanent multi-tenant directory. Additionally, Tenant will remove the Tenant card reader system from the exterior doors to the Building and the junction box, wiring, door strikes and associated equipment will remain in place and become Landlord's property. Tenant will additionally remove all telephones from all of the common area of the first floor vestibules. All repair and patching will be the responsibility of Landlord at Landlord's sole cost and expense.

5. First Floor Common Area. All of the common area of the first floor (the "First Floor Common Area") shall additionally be returned to Landlord as of the Effective Date and the square footage of the First Floor Common Area shall be deducted from Tenant's rentable square feet of space. Tenant will continue to have the right to utilize the First Floor Common Area with other tenants in the Building for the remainder of the term of the Lease.

6. Termination of Second and Third Floors: First and Fourth Floor Expansion Premises. As of the Effective Date, the Floors shall cease being a part of the Premises for all purposes of the Lease and Tenant shall no longer have any right, title or interest therein, except as provided under this First Amendment. The Premises excluding the First Floor Common Area and the Floors shall be known in this First Amendment as the "Remaining Premises". Landlord will be responsible for the repair, maintenance and replacement of the Building structure; the Building systems, including the heating, ventilating and air conditioning system; electrical, plumbing and life safety systems; roof; and Common Areas (hereafter defined). The "Common Areas" of the Building shall be those parts which are for the common use of, or made available for use by, all tenants of the Building, including common entrances, halls, lobbies, elevators, stairways and accessways and ramps, delivery passages, drinking fountains, public toilets, parking lots and decks, service buildings, loading and unloading areas, trash areas, roadways, parkways, drives, walkways, green spaces, parks, fountains or other facilities related to the Building owned, operated or maintained, in whole or in part, by Landlord. The Common Areas shall be subject to Landlord's reasonable management and control and shall be maintained as other buildings of similar type and quality located in the vicinity of the Building. Tenant, its employees and invitees, shall have the nonexclusive right to use the Common Areas, such use to be in common with Landlord, other tenants of the Building and other persons entitled to use the same.

Tenant also acknowledges that the New Tenant possesses an expansion option which may be exercised at any time prior to December 31, 2004, in which it shall have the right to lease the fourth floor of the Building and the Northwest Quadrant of the first floor of the Building more particularly described on Exhibit "E" attached hereto (the "Expansion Premises"). Tenant agrees that if the New Tenant exercises its expansion option, then Tenant shall terminate its interest in the Expansion Premises as of March 31, 2005 subject to a termination arrangement to be agreed upon at a later date. Tenant also agrees that if the New Tenant exercises its expansion option, Tenant shall deliver the Expansion Premises to Landlord on or before March 31, 2005 in a broom clean condition free of all Tenant's Property (excluding wiring and cabling).

7. Continuance of Payments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, for the Floors, Tenant shall continue to make all Rental payments due under the Lease, for the period ending on the date which is three (3) months after the Effective Date.

8. Insurance. Tenant will no longer be required to maintain the all risk insurance on the Building, but only on the Remaining Premises. Landlord will maintain the building risk insurance which shall be in an amount for full replacement value of the Building and the cost for the insurance premiums will become part of the Expenses. Upon request by Tenant, Landlord will provide a certificate of insurance evidencing the coverage.

9. Remainder of Premises. As of the Effective Date, the remainder of the Premises shall be comprised of approximately 148,688 rentable square feet of space. The Rental shall be reduced to [] annually (pro rated for any partial year), payable in equal monthly installments in advance of [] plus a pro rata share of Expenses and Taxes.

Additionally, Subparagraph 5(b) of the Lease shall be amended as follows.: "Tenant shall pay to Landlord 71.14% of the Expenses and Taxes in the manner herein provided. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Landlord will in no event charge more than 71.14% of the Expenses and Taxes."

10. Exclusions to Expenses. Subparagraph 5(a)(i) related to the exclusions in Expenses shall be amended to include the following:

"(xi) any capital improvement (in accordance with GAAP, hereafter defined) to the Premises and/or the Building, excluding capital improvements intended to reduce on-going Expenses which Landlord shall provide evidence of a reasonable relationship between the anticipated savings and the cost of such improvement; (xii) repairs, restoration or other work occasioned by casualty or condemnation; (xiii) repairs or maintenance to the Building or the Premises of a structural nature, including latent defects; (xiv) expenses for future and existing tenants (including reasonable legal fees) incurred in leasing, advertising and promotional expense, space planning costs or other marketing costs, and leasing commissions) incurred in leasing to or procuring of tenants or enforcement of any such leases; (xv) tax penalties, interest, other penalties and other contractual obligations incurred as a result of Landlord's or Landlord's Representatives' negligence, inability or unwillingness to make payments when due; (xvi) depreciation, interest, amortization or principal payments on indebtedness of Landlord or costs related to selling, syndicating any part or interest in the Building or bad debt expenses; (xvii) expenses paid directly by other tenants in the Building for any reason, such as excessive utility use; (xviii) overhead and profit increment paid to affiliates of Landlord for goods and services on a competitive basis; (xix) services or benefits or both provided to any tenant other than Tenant; (xx) any costs, fines and the like due to Landlord's or Landlord's Representatives' or any tenant occupying space in the Building other than Tenant, violation of the Law (hereafter defined), including, without limitation, expenses related to Landlord's investigation and/or remediation of environmental matters, other than commercially reasonable and customary maintenance of mechanical systems; (xxi) costs related to a foreclosure sale or other transfer of the Building by a purchaser, mortgagee or seller; (xxii) executive salaries of Landlord; (xxii) insurance premiums for increased premiums due to acts or omission of other tenants of the Building causing extra risk to the Building; (xxiii) contributions to operating expense reserves; (xxiv) contributions to charitable organizations; (xxv) the cost of equipment and supplies, accounting and legal fees, rent and occupancy costs and any other costs associated with the operation and internal organization and functions of Landlord as a business entity and not directly related to the operation, maintenance and administration of the Building; (xxvi) costs of defending or prosecuting litigation with any party, including, without limitation, mortgagees, unless such costs relate to the possibility (whether successful or not) to reduce or avoid an increase in Expenses and/or Taxes; (xxvii) costs for consultants except to the extent that their services relate exclusively to the improved management or operation of the Building. All miscellaneous categories under the accounting books maintained by Landlord shall have documentation to substantiate any costs included therein.

11. Improvements. In order for Landlord to lease the Floors to the New Tenant and create a multi-tenant environment in the Building, Landlord will be required to perform for the benefit of New Tenant (a) tenant improvements to the Floors more particularly described on Exhibit "B" attached hereto ("New Tenant Improvements"); and (b) additional improvements as more particularly described on Exhibit "C", attached hereto ("Additional Improvements"). All construction and installation of the Additional Improvements shall be performed in accordance with all applicable laws, statutes, codes, rules, regulations and ordinances related to federal, state or local governmental agencies, including the Americans With Disabilities Act and any environmental laws (collectively, the "Law"). Any and all costs associated with Landlord's construction and installation of both the New Tenant Improvements and the Additional Improvements will be at the sole cost and expense of Landlord without pass through to Tenant.

12. Electrical Service. Landlord will ensure that the electrical service for the Remaining Premises is separately metered from the remainder of the Building, at the sole cost. and expense of Landlord, without pass through to Tenant. Landlord will invoice Tenant each month for the actual electrical services utilized by Tenant in the Remaining Premises as charged by the utility provider.

13. Waiver of Option. Tenant waives it option to extend (as provided in Section 3(b) of the Lease) the Term of the Lease with regard to the second, third, and fourth floors of the Building, said fourth floor consisting of approximately 31,441 rentable square feet, and also with regard to the Northwest Quadrant of the first floor more particularly described on Exhibit "E" hereto.

14. Offset Payment. On the Effective Date, Landlord shall make a payment of [] to the Tenant ("Relocation Fee"). Such payment is intended to offset a portion of Tenant's costs associated with vacating the Floors of the Building and the First Floor Common Area. Landlord shall wire the Relocation Fee to Tenant at an account directed by Tenant, by July 1, 2004.

15. Signage. After the Effective Date, Landlord may, at its option, allow the New Tenant to locate signs of the name of New Tenant or its trade name on the 1-75 and Tower Drive sides of the exterior facade of the Building, provided Landlord does not locate the signs over any of Tenant's windows in the Remaining Premises. Any such installation will be performed on a weekend and will not interfere with Tenant's ongoing business activities in the Remaining Premises. Tenant will continue to have the right to have Tenant's name on the existing monument sign (or any renovated monument sign) and Tenant's name and logo shall be on the top portion of the monument with the most prominent presence. Landlord may, at its option, renovate the monument signs for the Building to provide the other tenants of the Building a proportionate share of such signage, provided Tenant shall continue to-have the top location.

16. Cafeteria. Tenant shall continue to operate the cafeteria located on the first floor of the Building, as indicated, on Exhibit "F" attached hereto being the northeast and southeast quadrants of the first floor, through the Expiration Date of the Lease. Tenant agrees to allow the employees, customers and/or vendors of Landlord and other tenants in the Building to utilize the cafeteria services in the Building, in accordance with Tenant's policies associated with the cafeteria usage. Until June 30, 2005, Tenant will continue its contract with its existing vendor to operate the cafeteria. If there is an operating loss with respect to the cafeteria, Tenant will submit an invoice with evidence setting forth the operating losses of the cafeteria to Landlord. Landlord shall reimburse Tenant upon receipt of the invoice and adequate evidence demonstrating the operating loss (without markup) within thirty (30) days. If Tenant fails to operate the cafeteria, Landlord shall be permitted to contract directly with Aramark or a cafeteria vendor of Landlord's choice to operate the cafeteria. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the Landlord operation or New Tenant or any other tenant in the future utilizing the cafeteria, the Landlord and New Tenant ,and any other tenant will be required to enter into an indemnity agreement with Tenant under terms and conditions required by Tenant (the "Indemnification Agreement"). New Tenant and any other tenant in the future shall provide evidence of general liability insurance in amounts as required by Tenant, naming Tenant as an additional insured as its interest may appear. Landlord shall also provide evidence to Tenant of an A+ rated commercial general liability insurance policy which encompasses the cafeteria with limits at the minimum of $2,000,000.00 per occurrence, naming Tenant as an additional insured.

17. Parking. Tenant will retain approximately 800 parking spaces in the Building's parking lot and garage to be used in common with the New Tenant, on a first come, first serve basis. Tenant acknowledges that its rights in the parking area and deck are subject to the rights of the New Tenant in which New Tenant possesses seven (7) parking spaces per one thousand (1000) rentable square feet of its premises, the exclusive right to a pro-rata portion of the number of parking spaces on the lower level of the parking deck on a reserved basis and the exclusive right to thirty five (35) parking spaces as designated on Exhibit "D" hereto. If the New Tenant or any other tenant requests reserved parking spaces, Tenant shall have the right to approve the location for such reserved parking and additionally be allowed to designate equal reserved parking for the benefit of Tenant. Tenant will not be required to pay any additional fee for the parking spaces. Tenant currently leases the building located at 750 Tower Drive, Troy, Michigan (the "750 Tower"). If Tenant has available parking spaces at the 750 Tower parking lot, Tenant will agree to negotiate a written agreement with the New Tenant in good faith for the use of parking spaces at the 750 Tower on terms and conditions mutually agreeable between the parties.

18. Construction. Subject to the construction schedule and Tenant's delivery of portions of the Floors, Landlord shall have the right to commence construction on the Floors on the Effective Date. Tenant will work with Landlord to allow Landlord and Landlord's architects, contractors and vendors access to the First Floor Common Area and the Floors upon the full execution and delivery of this First Amendment and the Indemnification Agreement, to prepare plans and specifications for the New Tenant Improvements, provided such access will not interfere or create a nuisance with Tenant's business activities. Any activities related to floor

FIRST AMENDMENT TO 800 TOWER DRIVE LEASE

THIS FIRST AMENDMENT TO 800 TOWER DRIVE LEASE (this "First Amendment") is made this 13th day of July, 2005, by and between 800 TOWER SPE LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, successor in interest to PW/MS OP SUB I, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("PW/MS"), whose address is c/o The Gale Company, L.L.C., Park Avenue at Morris County, 100 Campus Drive, Suite 200, Florham Park, New Jersey 07932-1007 (hereinafter referred to as "Landlord"), and QUICKEN LOANS, INC., a Michigan corporation, whose address is 20555 Victor Parkway, Livonia, Michigan 48152, Attention: Corporate Counsel (hereinafter referred to as "Tenant").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, PW/MS, as landlord, and Tenant, as tenant, entered into that certain lease (the "Lease"), dated July 6, 2004, covering premises encompassing the Second and Third Floors of the building commonly known as 800 Tower Drive, Troy, Michigan (such premises are hereinafter referred to as the "Premises" and such building is hereinafter referred to as the "Building"); and

WHEREAS, the Tenant desires to exercise its option to expand the Premises to include the Fourth Floor of the Building; and

WHEREAS, Landlord and Tenant desire to amend the Lease as hereinafter described.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Landlord and Tenant mutually covenant and agree as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms. Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms in this First Amendment shall have the same meanings herein as in the Lease and this First Amendment shall be attached to and form a portion of the Lease.

2. Conflict. In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of this First Amendment and the Lease, the terms and conditions of this First Amendment shall prevail.

3. Premises. Paragraph 1(d) of the Lease is amended and restated as follows:

"(d) Premises: The entire Second Floor (consisting of 30,955 rentable square feet), the entire Third Floor (consisting of 29,351 rentable square feet)(together the "Initial Premises") and the entire Fourth Floor (consisting of 31,441 rentable square feet)(the "Expansion Premises")."

4. Anticipated Delivery Date. The Anticipated Delivery Date for the Expansion Premises is September 1, 2005, subject to the terms of Paragraph 6(a) hereof.

5. Rental. Paragraph 1(g) of the Lease is amended to add the following at the end of subparagraph (ii): ", or (C) with respect to the Expansion Premises, for the six (6) month period subsequent to the Delivery Date."

6. Term.

(a) The term of the Lease of the Expansion Premises shall commence on the actual Delivery Date and expire on the Expiration Date set forth in Paragraph 1(f) of the Lease, fully to be completed and ended; provided that the Delivery Date shall be the earlier to occur of the date (i) Landlord's Architect has certified that Landlord has substantially performed its obligations pursuant to the approved plans and specifications with respect to the Expansion Premises, including the installation of carpeting. To the extent that Tenant may install its fixtures and equipment, Landlord's work shall be deemed to be substantially completed even though minor details of work or adjustments remain to be done so long as the same shall not materially interfere with Tenant's use of the Expansion Premises, and (ii) upon which Tenant shall take possession of all or any part of the Expansion Premises for the conduct of its business. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, (i) during the course of Landlord's construction of the Premises, Tenant and its contractors shall be granted access seven (7) days a week, twenty four (24) hours per day to the Expansion Premises in order to install data and telephone wiring and other improvements, provided Tenant coordinates such access with Landlord and Tenant does not unreasonably interfere with Landlord's completion of the Expansion Premises and that Tenant or its workers cause no interference to Landlord's work or other tenants of the Building or Property and (ii) from and after delivery of the Expansion Premises by Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall have exclusive occupancy of the Expansion Premises in order to complete its fixturing and other improvements to the Expansion Premises and to move in, subject to Landlord access rights to complete punch list items and otherwise complete Landlord's work.

(b) In the event of the inability of Landlord to deliver possession of the Expansion Premises on the intended Delivery Date, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage caused thereby, nor shall this Lease be void or voidable, but Tenant unless it is responsible for such delay, shall not be liable for any rent until such time as Landlord can and does deliver possession of the Expansion Premises to Tenant. Subject to Paragraph 7(c) of this First Amendment, no failure to give possession on the intended Delivery Date shall in any way effect the obligations of Tenant hereunder, provided that the Delivery Date (but not the Expiration Date) shall be extended for the period from the Delivery Date set forth in Paragraph 4 hereof until the actual Delivery Date.

7. Improvements. The provisions of Paragraph 3(a), 8(a)(ii), (iv), (v), (b)(i)(A) and (C), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix), (x), (xi) and (xii) and 8(c) of the Lease shall be applicable to the renovations to the Expansion Premises, except when modified by the following:

(a) Based upon the space plan prepared by Tenant and attached as Exhibit "A" to this First Amendment with respect to the Expansion Premises, Landlord's Architect shall prepare plans and specifications for the Expansion Premises. Landlord shall submit such plans and specifications to Tenant for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, on or before July 15, 2005 (subject to delays caused in whole or in part by Tenant or Force Majeure), with respect to the Expansion Premises. If Tenant shall fail to supply such approval or comments in writing within ten (10) business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such plans and specifications. The cost of the space plan (Exhibit "A" hereto) shall be born by Tenant. The cost of such final plans and specifications shall be paid by Landlord and not charged against the Tenant Allowance.

(b) (i) Landlord shall complete the Expansion Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications up to a cost of [] per rentable square foot of the Expansion Premises (the "Tenant Allowance"). Tenant shall pay all costs in excess of the Tenant Allowance prior to thirty (30) days after the later to occur of (i) date of billing by Landlord, or (ii) Substantial Completion. If the cost of so completing the Expansion Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications is less than the Tenant Allowance, at Tenant's election, Tenant may utilize all or a portion of such excess for the cost of the improvements to the Expansion Premises made by Tenant and its furniture, furnishings, trade fixtures and equipment to be installed in the Premises and/or applied as a credit against Rent first becoming due under the Lease from and after the Delivery Date.

(ii) In computing Landlord's costs of completing the Expansion Premises, Landlord shall receive a five percent (5%) fee for profit, and its actual overhead and administrative costs, not to exceed three percent (3%) of the cost of the work.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, and so long as the work to complete the Expansion Premises is substantially similar to that performed on the Second and Third Floors of the Building, in the event Landlord fails to substantially complete the Expansion Premises within seventy five (75) days from the later of (i) the date the plans and specifications are approved by both Landlord and Tenant; (ii) the date that the space is available to commence construction (i.e. EDS has vacated the Expansion Premises), (A) Tenant shall have the right to terminate its lease of the Expansion Premises by written notice to Landlord at any time after the expiration of such seventy five (75) day period and prior to such completion,

[].

(d) Thirty (30) days after the execution and delivery of this Amendment, Landlord shall pay the sum of Two and 50/100 Dollars ($2.50) per rentable square foot of the Expansion Premises to Tenant in consideration of Tenant signing this Amendment (hereinafter referred to as the "Signing Payment"); provided, however, that if Tenant shall terminate the lease of the Expansion Premises pursuant to Paragraph 7(c) hereof, upon such termination and as a condition of such termination, Tenant shall refund the Signing Payment in full to Landlord.

(e) Upon the delivery of the Expansion Premises by Landlord to Tenant, Landlord shall pay to Tenant the sum of Two and 50/100 Dollars ($2.50) per rentable square foot of such Expansion Premises as a moving allowance (hereinafter referred to as the "Moving Allowance").

(f) The Landlord's Development Improvements for the Second and Third Floors of the Building will be completed within sixty (60) days of the date the plans and specifications are approved by both Landlord and Tenant. The Landlord's Development Improvements for the Expansion Premises shall be completed within sixty (60) days from the later of (i) the date the plans and specifications for such improvements are approved by both Landlord and Tenant or (ii) the date that EDS has vacated such area. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the period for construction of the Landlord's Development Improvements may be extended for Tenant Delays and pursuant to Paragraph 34 of the Lease. The Landlord's Development Improvements for the Expansion Premises shall be of the same grade and quality as those for the Second and Third Floors. Tenant shall be responsible for the same pro rata share of the Landlord's Development Improvements on the Expansion Premises as Tenant paid for the Landlord's Development Improvements on the Second and Third Floors.

(g) In addition to the Landlord's Development Improvements described in the Lease, Landlord shall complete additional work to upgrade the First Floor lobby of the Building. Landlord agrees to spend a minimum of Four Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($450,000.00) to improve the First Floor lobby, such amount being inclusive of applicable Landlord's Development Improvements identified in the Lease, including, without limitation, those relating to the First Floor lobby and bathrooms set forth in Paragraph 8(a)(1)(B), (C), (D), (E), (F) and (G). The Landlord's Development Improvements for the First Floor lobby and bathrooms shall be completed on or before September 1, 2005, provided, however, the period for construction of such Landlord's Development Improvements may be extended for Tenant Delays and pursuant to Paragraph 34 of the Lease.

8. HVAC Work.

(a) Landlord shall install a building management system, at Landlord's expense, to control the HVAC system on the Second, Third and Fourth floors of the Building. The scope of such work is as follows:

All existing built-in temperature controllers for the Carrier Modulines will be removed. The maximum volume regulators shall remain in place for balancing the system. In place of each master control Landlord will install a new DDC master control valve with a software programmable wall-mounted temperature sensor. All of the current zoning shall be maintained. The new DDC controls shall communicate through a network that shall be interfaced to the existing Andover Energy Management System. The room sensors shall be adjustable by the Tenant within a prescribed temperature range which shall be limited through software to approximately 4-6 degrees. Such work shall be completed on or before September 1, 2005. All such work shall be done in accordance with the plans attached hereto as Schedule 1.

(b) Landlord shall begin the work discussed in Section 8(a) above on or before July 11, 2005. Such work for the Second and Third Floors will be completed within three (3) weeks thereafter (2 weeks for work, 1 week for testing). Tenant shall pay Landlord [] for it to perform such work after hours. In the event the HVAC work for the Second and Third Floors has not been completed on or before August 15, 2005, Tenant shall receive one day's free rent for each day after August 15, 2005 until such HVAC work is completed. The work for the Fourth Floor shall be at Landlord's cost and will be completed simultaneously the Landlord's Development Improvements for the Fourth Floor as discussed in Section 7(f) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the period for construction of the HVAC improvements discussed, in this Section 8 may be extended for Tenant Delays and pursuant to Paragraph 34 of the Lease. A more specific schedule for this HVAC work is attached hereto as Schedule 2.

9. Parking.

(a) The number of reserved parking spots indicated in Paragraph 36(c)(2) of the Lease is increased from thirty five (35) to fifty (50).

(b) The Exhibit "H" attached to the Lease shall be deleted and Exhibit "H" attached hereto shall be substituted therefor.

10. Expansion Option. Paragraph 43 of the Lease is hereby deleted.

11. Signage. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install signage on both the Tower Drive and 1-75 sides of the Building pursuant to Paragraph 47 of the Lease. There will no signs identifying other tenants on the Building.

13. Amendments. Except as modified by this First Amendment to Lease, the Lease and all covenants, agreements, terms and conditions thereof shall remain unchanged and in full force and effect and are hereby in all respects ratified and confirmed.

SECOND AMENDMENT TO 800 TOWER DRIVE LEASE

THIS SECOND AMENDMENT TO 800 TOWER DRIVE LEASE, dated as of the 31st day of October, 2005 ("Second Amendment") , is being entered into between 800 TOWER SPE LLC (hereinafter called "Landlord") , a Delaware limited liability company, having an address at The Gale Management Company, L.L.C., Park Avenue at Morris County, 100 Campus Drive, Suite 200, Florham Park, New Jersey 07932 and QUICKEN LOANS, INC., a Michigan corporation, having an address at 2055 Victor Parkway, Livonia, Michigan 48152, Attention: Corporate Counsel and a Taxpayer Identification Number of 38-2603955 (hereinafter called "Tenant").

WITNESSETH :

WHEREAS:

A. Landlord's predecessor-in-interest, PW/MS OP SUB I, LLC, and Tenant heretofore entered into a certain lease dated July 6, 2004, as amended by a certain First Amendment To 800 Tower Drive Lease dated July "13, 2005 (said lease as the same was or may hereafter be amended is hereinafter called the "Lease") with respect to Premises on the second (2nd), third (3rd) and fourth (4th) floors of the building known as and located at 800 Tower Drive, Troy, Michigan, for a term ending on December 31, 2011 or on such earlier date upon which said term may expire or be terminated pursuant to any conditions of limitation or other provisions of the Lease or pursuant to law; and

B. The parties hereto desire to modify the Lease in certain respects.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants hereinafter contained, the parties hereto modify said Lease as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Except as otherwise provided in this Second Amendment, all defined terms contained in this Second Amendment shall, for the purposes hereof, have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Lease.

2. BACKUP GENERATOR. As of the date hereof, the following Article 51 BACKUP GENERATOR shall be deemed added to and made a part of the Lease:

51. BACKUP GENERATOR

(a) Within sixty (60) days after Landlord accepts in writing at the Building delivery of both Backup Generators (hereinafter defined) from the supplier of the Backup Generators, Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall install in the area shown on Schedule A attached hereto and made a part hereof two (2) 1500KW auto transfer diesel backup generators ("Backup Generators") in accordance with plans attached to the Second Amendment as Schedule B and made a part thereof. Landlord will order the Backup Generators within five (5) days after Landlord receives from Tenant an amount equal to the deposit required by the supplier of the Backup Generators. Tenant shall give Landlord a check for that deposit payable to Landlord within five (5) days after Landlord's demand therefor. Upon placement of the order, Landlord, at Tenant's expense, shall commence pre- installation work (i.e. site preparation, wiring, etc.) so the installation is completed promptly after delivery of the Backup Generators to the Building. Landlord shall obtain, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, all necessary governmental approvals and permits relating to the initial installation and initial operation of both Backup Generators. Tenant, at its expense, shall thereafter keep current said approvals and permits and give Landlord true and complete original counterparts of all updated permits and approvals relating to the installation and operation of the two (2) Backup Generators within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives any such updated permit or approval.

(b) Within thirty (30) days after Landlord's demand, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with any information regarding either or both Backup Generators and/or its (their) installation that Landlord may request. Tenant agrees to promptly comply with and strictly abide by, at its sole expense, any rules and regulations that Landlord may reasonably promulgate in connection with the installation, operation, repair, maintenance, replacement, relocation, concealment and/or removal of either or both Backup Generators. Tenant agrees to perform all repairs, maintenance, replacements, relocations (only if required in writing by Landlord), concealment and the removal (only if required in writing by Landlord) of either or both Backup Generators pursuant to Landlord's rules and regulations and in a manner that is compatible with the appearance and character of the corporate center of which the Building forms a part. Tenant covenants that neither Backup Generator shall interfere with the rights, health or welfare of any person or tenant. Tenant agrees that Landlord may install and operate, and may permit the installation and operation by others of, additional generators anywhere in the Development so long as the installation and operation of such additional generators do not materially and adversely interfere with the operation of the Backup Generators. Landlord shall in no event be responsible if, for any reason whatsoever (except as a direct result of Landlord's negligence), either or both of Tenant's Backup Generators do not perform to the expectations of Tenant. Landlord may reduce, at its sole option, the seven (7) parking space ratio referenced in Sections l.(p) and 36. (b) of the Lease to reflect the number of parking spaces lost as a result of the placement of both Backup Generators.

(c) Once Tenant has paid Landlord in full for all amounts due Landlord under Section 51. (a) hereof, then, the Backup Generators shall constitute trade fixtures and shall fall within the purview of Paragraph 8. (d) (iii) of the Lease. Tenant shall, by no later than thirty (30) days after the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and at Tenant's expense, remove both of the Backup Generators and restore any damage or injury caused by the removal of said Backup Generators. Failure to strictly comply with the immediately preceding sentence by Tenant shall constitute a holding over of the Premises by Tenant until such time as both of the Backup Generators are removed and any damage or injury caused by such removal is restored. Tenant, at its expense, shall exercise best efforts to complete its removal and restoration work sooner than the date falling thirty (30) days after the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease. If Tenant fails to strictly comply with the second (2^{nd}) sentence of this Section 51.(c), then, Landlord, at its sole option, may, at Tenant's expense, (1) remove either or both of the Backup Generators, (2) keep either or both Backup Generators without compensation to Tenant, (3) discard either or both of the Backup Generators at Tenant's sole risk and with Tenant assuming all liability and/or (4) restore any damage or injury that either or both of said Backup Generators or the removal thereof may have caused. Tenant hereby releases Landlord from, and, upon Landlord's demand, shall defend, indemnify and hold Landlord harmless against any liabilities and expenses that may arise with regard to either or both of said Backup Generators, except for such liabilities and expenses that arise as a direct result of Landlord's negligence. Furthermore, in connection with both Backup Generators, Tenant shall procure and maintain general liability and property damage insurance in compliance with each of the requirements set forth in Sections 20. (a)-(b) of the Lease. All references in this Article 51 to "Backup Generator" shall include all wiring, cabling, fuse boxes, transformers and other ancillary and related equipment connecting the Backup Generator to the Premises. Any cost or expense owed by Tenant to Landlord under this Article 51 shall constitute additional rent under the Lease and shall be due from Tenant to Landlord within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives written demand therefor.

3. NO BROKER. Tenant covenants, represents and warrants that Tenant has had no dealing or communications with any broker or agent in connection with the consummation of this Second Amendment and Tenant covenants and agrees to pay, defend, hold harmless and indemnify Landlord and its directors, officers, partners and their affiliates and/or subsidiaries from and against any and all costs, expenses, including attorney's fees (prior to settlement, at trial or on appeal), court costs and disbursements or liability for any commission or other compensation claimed by any broker or agent with respect to this Second Amendment.

4. LEASE RATIFICATION. Except as modified by this Second Amendment and the instruments referenced in WHEREAS clause A. hereof, the Lease, and all covenants, agreements, terms and conditions thereof, shall remain in full force and effect and is hereby in all respects ratified and confirmed.

5. AUTHORITY. Landlord and Tenant represent that the undersigned representatives of Landlord and Tenant respectively have been duly authorized on behalf of their respective parties to enter into this Second Amendment in accordance with the terms, covenants and conditions set forth herein, and upon either party's request, the other party shall deliver evidence, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the requesting party, to the foregoing effect.

6. NO ORAL CHANGES. This Second Amendment may not be changed orally, but only by a writing signed by both Landlord and Tenant.

7. NON-BINDING DRAFT. The mailing or delivery of this document or any draft of this document by Landlord or its agent to Tenant, its agent or attorney shall not be deemed an offer by the Landlord on the terms set forth in this document or draft, and this document or draft may be withdrawn or modified by Landlord or its agent at any time and for any reason. The purpose of this section is to place Tenant on notice that this document or draft shall not be effective, nor shall Tenant have any rights with respect hereto, unless and until Landlord shall execute and accept this document. No representations or promises shall be binding on the parties hereto except those representations and promises contained in a fully executed copy of this document or in some future writing signed by Landlord and Tenant.

8. NOTICES. On and after the date hereof, all notices to Landlord from Tenant shall be invalid (at Landlord's option) unless, and shall be valid (at Landlord's option) only if, in writing, sent postage prepaid via certified mail, return receipt requested and addressed to Landlord as follows:

RECITALS:

A. Landlord's predecessor-in-interest, PW/MS OP SUB I, LLC, and Tenant heretofore entered into a certain lease dated July 6, 2004, as amended by a certain First Amendment to 800 Tower Drive Lease dated July 13, 2005 and Second Amendment to 800 Tower Drive Lease dated October 31, 2005 (said lease as the same was or may hereafter be amended is hereinafter called the "Lease") with respect to Premises on the second (2nd), third (3rd) and fourth (4th) floors of the building known as and located at 800 Tower Drive, Troy, Michigan, for a term ending on December 31, 2011, or such earlier date upon which said term may expire or be terminated pursuant to any conditions of limitation or other provisions of the Lease or pursuant to law; and

B. Landlord and Tenant desire to amend the Lease to include an additional 5,481 rentable square feet on the first (1st) floor (the "First Floor Space") and 30,389 rentable square feet on the fifth (5th) floor (the "Fifth Floor Space", and together with the First Floor Space, the "Expansion Space"), as shown on Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof subject to the terms, covenants and conditions set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) and other good and valuable consideration, the parties hereto mutually covenant and agree as follows:

1. All capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed them in the Lease.

2. The Expansion Space Commencement Date shall mean the date when Landlord delivers possession of the Expansion Space to Tenant and the Expiration Date with respect to the Expansion Space shall be December 31, 2011. Effective as of the Expansion Space Commencement Date, the Premises, as defined in the Lease, shall include the Expansion Space, and:

(a) The rentable area of the Premises shall be 127,617 square feet.

(b) Tenant shall pay the cost of all electricity for lighting and power consumed in the Expansion Space (excluding electrical current required by the building standard heating and air conditioning systems), which electricity shall be measured by a meter installed by Landlord at Landlord's expense.

3. The First Floor Expansion Space Rent Commencement Date shall mean June 1, 2007. Commencing on the First Floor Expansion Space Rent Commencement Date and continuing through and including the Expiration Date,

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord fixed monthly rent and annual rent in the amount as shown on Exhibit B attached hereto.

(b) Tenant's Share with respect to the Premises shall increase by 2.56%.

4. The Fifth Floor Expansion Space Rent Commencement Date shall mean the date that is six (6) months after the earlier of the date (a) Tenant initially conducts business in the Expansion Space, or (b) ninety (90) days from the date of the mutual execution and delivery of this Amendment. Commencing on the Fifth Floor Expansion Space Rent Commencement Date and continuing through and including the Expiration Date,

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord fixed monthly rent and annual rent in the amount as shown on Exhibit B attached hereto.

(b) Tenant's Share with respect to the Premises shall increase by 14.25%.

5. (a) The Tenant Allowance with respect to the Expansion Space shall be [] (representing [] per square foot for the First Floor Space and [] per square foot for the Fifth Floor Space).

(b) Subject to the terms of this Section 5, if Landlord receives from Tenant complete and final drawings and specifications, that Landlord has first approved (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) in writing (the "Approved Plans"), for tenant improvement work ("Tenant's Work") in all or any part of the Expansion Space, then, Landlord shall, no more often than monthly, issue a single check payable to Tenant for an amount equal to the Tenant's monthly bona fide invoice for Tenant's Work up to the amount of the Tenant Allowance (the "Approved Payment") and for the actual cost of furniture, furnishings, trade fixtures and equipment installed in the Expansion Space over and above the cost of Tenant's Work up to the amount of the Tenant Allowance. Landlord shall have the obligation to provide the Tenant Allowance only if the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) Tenant shall be in compliance with, and not in default under applicable law and the provisions of the Lease;

(ii) Tenant shall have obtained, and shall maintain, all necessary and appropriate permits, licenses, authorizations and approvals from all governmental authorities having or asserting jurisdiction, and shall have delivered true copies thereof to Landlord;

(iii) With respect to payments to the Tenant, Tenant shall have delivered to Landlord a completed requisition for advance (in form issued by the American Institute of Architects), certified and sworn to by Tenant's Architect, to the effect that the value of the labor and materials in place equals the total portion of the Tenant Allowance funded to date plus the amount of the advance then being requested, and that the work completed to date has been performed in a good and workmanlike manner, to the satisfaction of Tenant's Architect, in accordance with the Approved Plans and in compliance with all laws, orders, rules and regulations of all federal, state, municipal and local governments, departments, commissions and boards, which certification shall be accompanied by the Tenant's invoice(s) for work performed and covered by the requisition for advance for the payment being requested; and

(iv) Tenant shall have delivered to Landlord conditional waivers of Hen from the Approved Contractor and all other contractors, subcontractors, vendors, suppliers and materialmen who shall have furnished materials or supplies or performed work or services covered by such requisition, and full lien waivers for all previous work performed, completed and paid for from the aforesaid contractors. Subject to Tenant's compliance with the aforesaid conditions, Landlord shall give Tenant a check payable to the Tenant for the amount of the invoice up to the amount of the Tenant Allowance, less any permitted deductions thereof.

(c) The Approved Contractor shall be a qualified, reputable, bonded, licensed, insured and first-class general contractor (this standard shall also apply to any sub-contractor hired by the Approved Contractor) hired by Tenant in writing to perform the Tenant's Work who has first been approved in writing by Landlord (Landlord must also approve electrical and mechanical contractors), which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant agrees that (i) Landlord shall in no way be responsible for the quality or completeness of Tenant's Work and (ii) Tenant's Work shall be performed in compliance with all applicable provisions of the Lease as amended by this Amendment, including, but not limited to, (A) the Contractor Rules attached to this Amendment as Exhibit C, and (B) such other rules, regulations, procedures or directives of any kind that may be reasonably promulgated by Landlord from time to time. The Approved Contractor shall work in harmony with any of Landlord's contractors and shall not interfere with Landlord's completion of Landlord's Work.

(d) Tenant expressly agrees that Landlord may deduct and retain from the Approved Payment a fee equal to three percent (3%) of the cost of Tenant's Work for review, supervisory, administrative, and/or coordination services that Landlord performs in connection with Tenant's Work. Within thirty (30) days of the completion of Tenant's Work, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a final accounting of the cost of Tenant's Work.

(e) Each payment by Landlord of portions of the Tenant Allowance shall be in the amount properly requisitioned in accordance with the foregoing, less a retainage of ten percent (10%) of the amounts requisitioned. Upon the completion of Tenant's Work and the taking of occupancy by Tenant of the Expansion Space for Tenant's normal business operations, the final payment and any retainage held by Landlord shall be paid to Tenant upon receipt of the following documents (in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord):

(i) final, unconditional lien waiver from the Approved Contractor, and all sub-contractors in connection with Tenant's Work;

(ii) a statement from Tenant's architect certifying that Tenant's Work has been completed to Tenant's satisfaction and in accordance with the Approved Plans;

(iii) a final unconditional certificate of occupancy for the Expansion Space; and

(iv) an "as built" plan for Tenant's Work including all electrical files applicable to Tenant's Work.

(f) The Tenant Allowance may only be applied towards Tenant's Work in accordance with the Approved Plans and for furniture, furnishings, trade fixtures and equipment to be installed in the Expansion Space. If any portion of the Tenant Allowance is not so used by Tenant, any excess shall be forfeited and shall not be used as a credit against fixed monthly rent, additional rent or any other sums due Landlord hereunder.

(g) Tenant shall require any and all contractors of the Tenant performing work on or about the Expansion Space to obtain and/or maintain specific insurance coverage for events which could occur while operations are being performed and which could occur after the completion of the work arising therefrom. The insurance coverage of the contractor shall be at least equal to the coverage required of the Tenant and the contractor shall name Landlord and, if requested, any mortgagee, as additional insureds on all policies of liability insurance. The contractor shall purchase and maintain such insurance as will protect itself and Landlord and Tenant from claims set forth below which may arise out of or result from its operations under the contract and after contract completion with Tenant, whether such operations are performed by the Approved Contractor or by any subcontractor or by anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them or by anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable. The insurance coverage shall include but not be limited to protection for:

(i) Claims under Workers or Workmen's Compensation, Disability Benefits, and other Employee Benefit Acts;

(ii) Claims for damages because of bodily injury, occupational sickness, disease, or death of any person other than its employees;

(iii) Claims for damages insured by reasonable and customary personal injury liability coverage which are sustained by (A) any person as a result of an offense directly or indirectly related to the employment of such person by the contractor, or (B) by any other person;

(iv) Claims for damages, other than to the work itself, because of injury to or destruction of tangible property, including loss of use resulting therefrom;

(v) Claims for damages because of bodily injury or death of any person and/or property damage arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle; and

(vi) Claims which include the foregoing, but not limited thereto, which may occur while operations are being performed and claims which may occur after operations are completed arising therefrom,

Tenant shall secure evidence of Tenant's contractor's insurance coverage adequate to protect Landlord and Tenant.

(h) Landlord agrees that Tenant's Work includes the removal of existing Moduline distribution boxes and related ductwork on the fifth (5th) floor and the replacement of same with new VAV boxes, the installation of associated duct work and digital control system, including any demolition (collectively "Tenant's Fifth Floor HVAC Work"), all in accordance with the Approved Plans, provided:

(i) Tenant engages Energy Options to design the control system and have the control system fully integrated and operational with the controls for the second (2nd), third (3rd) and fourth (4th) floors;

(ii) The design of the fifth (5th) floor HVAC system shall not materially and adversely affect air flow currently designed for the fourth (4th) floor of the Building;

(iii) Tenant reimburses Landlord for the reasonable costs of inspecting and testing the fifth (5th) floor HVAC system within thirty (30) days of Tenant's receipt of Landlord's invoice;

(iv) Upon completion of Tenant's Fifth Floor HVAC Work, Tenant shall provide to Landlord at a cost and expense to be split equally between Landlord and Tenant, a balancing report for the fifth (5th) floor of the Building performed by a third party engineer reasonably and mutually satisfactory to Landlord and Tenant.

Landlord agrees that upon substantial completion of Tenant's Fifth Floor HVAC Work, the issuance of a certificate of occupancy in connection with Tenant's Work, and Landlord's confirmation that Tenant's Fifth Floor HVAC Work was performed in accordance with the Approved Plans, Landlord shall pay to Tenant within thirty (30) days thereafter the sum of [] representing Landlord's share of the cost of Tenant's Fifth Floor HVAC Work, which sum shall not be charged against the Tenant Allowance.

(i) Landlord agrees to have an independent third party company check the balancing of approximately ten percent (10%) of the air distribution boxes on the second (2nd), third (3rd) and fourth (4th) floors and, if the findings of the report recommend further balancing of the air distribution boxes, then Landlord agrees to balance the HVAC systems on the second (2nd), third (3rd), and fourth (4th) floors of the Building upon completion of all of Tenant's Work at Landlord's sole cost and expense.

6. Using building standard materials (as to both quality and quantity), as reasonably determined by Landlord, Landlord shall, (a) refurbish the lobby and common area bathrooms on the fifth floor to substantially similar quality and finishes as the lobby and common area bathrooms on the fourth floor ("Lobby/Bathroom Work"), (b) perform the work identified in that certain letter from Witt Mechanical, Inc. to Stanley Finsilver and David Friedman dated September 18, 2006 attached hereto as Exhibit E and made a part hereof ("HVAC Work"), and (c) erect the (i) side of the demising wall facing the First Floor Premises as shown on Exhibit D within seven (7) days of the execution of this Amendment, and (ii) other side of the demising wall within seven (7) days of Tenant's receipt and delivery to Landlord of the "rough wall" and "rough electric" inspections (the "Wall Work", and together with the Lobby/Bathroom Work and HVAC Work, "Landlord's Work"). Landlord shall use commercially reasonable diligent efforts to complete Landlord's Work as soon as reasonably practical, but in no event later than completion of Tenant's Work. The HVAC Work shall be performed at Landlord's sole cost and expense and no portion of the Tenant Allowance shall be used for the HVAC Work. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Lobby/Bathroom Work shall commence following issuance of a certificate of occupancy in connection with Tenant's Work and be substantially completed within sixty (60) days thereafter. If at Tenant's request Landlord performs the Lobby/Bathroom Work during hours that Landlord's contractors identify as overtime hours, any incremental cost associated with performing such work during overtime hours shall be the sole responsibility of Tenant. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for approximately forty-six and thirty-four hundredths percent (46.34%) of the cost of the Lobby/Bathroom Work and any overtime incremental cost as described in the preceding sentence within thirty (30) days of substantial completion of the Lobby/Bathroom Work and Tenant's receipt of Landlord's invoice for such cost, provided however, Tenant may, at Tenant's option, use the Tenant Allowance for such cost. WHEREAS, by letter dated June 24, 2009, Tenant exercised its right under the Fifth Amendment of Lease to terminate the Lease with respect to the second (2nd), third (3rd), fourth (4th) and fifth (5th) floors of the premises, as of December 31, 2009.

WHEREAS, as a result of said termination, the only portion of the premises currently leased by Tenant at the Building is the First Floor Space consisting of 7.048 rentable square feet in the Building and the term of the Lease as to the First Floor Space currently expires December 31,2014.

WHEREAS. Tenant would like to lease on a month-to-month basis an additional 30.389 rentable square feet of space on the fifth (5th) floor of the Building, as more particularly described on Exhibit A attached hereto (collectively hereinafter referred to as the "M-T-M Space").

WHEREAS, Landlord and Tenant desire to amend the Lease on the terms and conditions contained herein.

AGREEMENTS:

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and the mutual covenants contained herein, whose receipt and sufficiency are acknowledged, Landlord and Tenant agree as follows:

1. Recitals. The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein and made a part hereof as if fully set forth.

2. Rent Commencement for M-T-M Space. Landlord shall deliver the M-T-M Space to Tenant on the Effective Date. Commencing on the later of delivery of the M-T-M Space to Tenant or May 1, 2012 and terminating at the end of the first full calendar month subsequent to Landlord and/or Tenant providing the other written notice of termination of the Lease as to the M-T-M ("M-T-M Space Termination Notice"), Tenant shall pay as the total Rent (inclusive of all Expenses and Taxes) (as such capitalized terms are defined in the Lease) for the M-T-M Space, only, the following:

Term	M-T-M Space Total Monthly Rental	Rental Rate Per Square Foot
5/1/2012 - End of first full calendar month following the M-T-M Space Termination Notice	$ []	$ []

Landlord and Tenant agree that the above-referenced Rental (as defined in the Lease) shall be in addition to any existing rental and additional charges set forth in the Lease with respect to the First Floor Space only; provided, the above-referenced M-T-M Space total Rental shall be subject to adjustment in the event the M-T-M Space is delivered to Tenant after May 1, 2012. Landlord and Tenant also acknowledge and agree that the M-T-M Space Termination Notice shall, if at all, only be applicable to terminate the entirety of the M-T-M Space and shall not be deemed a termination of the Lease with respect to the First Floor Space or any lesser portion of the M-T-M Space without the prior written consent of the Landlord.

3. Parking. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Landlord shall maintain a minimum parking ratio of six (6) spaces per 1,000 square feet in the surface parking area adjacent to the Building and Tenant shall solely use that surface parking area adjacent to the Building for daily parking. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the parking structure and ramp associated with the Development of which the Building is a part is not available for Tenant's use and Tenant shall so instruct its employees. Landlord shall have no obligation to maintain or make such parking structure available for Tenant's use.

4. Electrical Charges for M-T-M Space. Landlord and Tenant agree that commencing May 1, 2012 through the end of the first full calendar month following the M-T-M Space Termination Notice, Tenant, in addition to the total Rent set forth above and those electric charges owed to Landlord with respect to the First Floor Space, shall also pay for all electricity charges related to Tenant's use of the M-T-M Space as reflected on that separate meter related to the M-T-M Space. In addition to said electrical charges for the M-T-M Space, Tenant shall pay Landlord for use of the HVAC System in excess of the time periods of Monday - Friday 8:00 a.m. through 8:00 p.m. and Saturday 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Said HVAC overtime rate shall be [] per hour per zone of the M-T-M Space.

5. Rent Abatement. For the period beginning May 1, 2012 and ending June 30, 2012 (the "Abatement Period"), Tenant shall receive an abatement of monthly Rental for the First Floor Space in the amount of [] (the "Abated Monthly Rent"). Accordingly, throughout the Abatement Period, Tenant shall pay no monthly Rental for the First Floor Space. During the Abatement Period, all other rental, including Tenant's Share of Expenses and Taxes, all other rent and additional rent, and any other charges specified in the Lease shall remain due and payable pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Lease.

6. Generator Repair Reimbursement. Landlord agrees to reimburse Tenant an amount equal to the lesser of [] or Tenant's actual costs to rewire the generators serving the First Floor Space ("Reimbursement Amount"). Should the actual costs to rewire the generators exceed the Reimbursement Amount as defined herein, such excess costs shall be the sole responsibility of Tenant. All work shall be performed by Tenant. The Reimbursement Amount shall be paid to Tenant within thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of a paid receipt showing that such repair work has been completed and so long as Tenant has provided Landlord an unconditional Waiver of Lien and Sworn Statement from all persons performing labor and/or supplying materials in connection with such work showing that all of said persons have been compensated in full and the amount paid to each such person. In the event that Tenant vacates the First Floor Space prior to the expiration date or otherwise materially defaults under the Lease, the entire unamortized portion of the Reimbursement Amount shall become immediately due and payable from the Tenant to the Landlord. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, nothing contained herein shall obligate Tenant to rewire the generators but rather Tenant may elect to do so in Tenant's sole discretion.

7. Deletion of Paragraph 41. Effective as of the Effective Date, Paragraph 41 of the Lease, titled "EXCLUSIVITY" is hereby deleted in its entirety and shall be of no further force and effect.

8. M-T-M Space Tenant Improvements.

(a) Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Tenant is taking the M-T-M Space in its "AS IS" "WHERE IS" condition and Landlord is not providing or performing any work in regard to said M-T-M Space; provided, however, all general building systems serving the Building and the M-T-M Space are, and shall be maintained by Landlord, in good-working order and Landlord shall replace up to a maximum of 25 total damaged or stained ceiling tiles in the M-T-M Space;

(b) Prior to commencing any work regarding the M-T-M Space, Tenant shall obtain, at Tenant's sole cost and expense: (i) all necessary governmental permits, licenses, authorizations; and (ii) Landlord's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, as to any work to be performed by Tenant and Tenant shall have delivered true copies of the items set forth in Section 8(b)(i) above to Landlord. Said approval shall include the prior approval of all plans and specifications for any proposed work of Tenant to the M-T-M Space. All work performed related to the M-T-M Space shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner using only quality materials.

(c) Tenant shall deliver to Landlord unconditional waivers of lien from all contractors, subcontractors, vendors, suppliers and materialmen who shall have furnished materials or supplies or performed work or services covered by such requisition, and full lien waivers for all previous work performed, completed and paid for from the aforesaid contractors. Tenant shall also provide Landlord an "as built" plan for Tenant's work, including all electrical files applicable thereto.

(d) Tenant's contractor shall be a qualified, reputable, bonded, licensed and insured general contractor (this standard shall also apply to any subcontractor hired by the contractor) hired by Tenant in writing to perform the Tenant's work who has been approved in writing by Landlord (Landlord must also approve electrical and mechanical contractors), which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, Tenant agrees that: (i) Landlord shall in no way be responsible for the quality or completeness of Tenant's work; and (ii) Tenant's work shall be performed in compliance with all applicable laws, codes and regulations and the provisions of the Lease as amended by this Amendment including, but not limited to: (A) the Contractor Rules attached to this Amendment as Exhibit C; and (B) such other rules, regulations, procedures or directives of any kind that may be reasonably promulgated by Landlord from time to time.

(e) Tenant shall require any and all contractors of the Tenant performing work on or about the M-T-M Space to obtain and/or maintain specific insurance coverage for events which could occur while operations are being performed and which could occur after the completion of the work arising therefrom. The insurance coverage of the contractor shall be at least equal to the coverage required of the Tenant and the contractor shall name Landlord and, if requested, any mortgagee, as additional insureds on all policies of liability insurance. The contractor shall purchase and maintain such insurance as will protect itself and Landlord and Tenant from claims set forth below which may arise out of or result from its operations under the contract and after contract completion with Tenant, whether such operations are performed by the Tenant's contractor or by any subcontractor or by anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them or by anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable. The insurance coverage shall include, but not be limited to, protection for:

(i) Claims under Workers or Workmen's Compensation, Disability Benefits, and other Employee Benefit Acts;

(ii) Claims for damages because of bodily injury, occupational sickness, disease, or death of any person other than its employees;

(iii) Claims for damages insured by reasonable and customary personal injury liability coverage which are sustained by: (a) any person as a result of an offense directly or indirectly related to the employment of such person by the contractor; or (b) by any other person;

(iv) Claims for damages, other than to the work itself, because of injury to or destruction of tangible property, including loss of use resulting therefrom;

(v) Claims for damages because of bodily injury or death of any person and/or property damage arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle; and

(vi) Claims which include the foregoing, but not limited thereto, which may occur while operations are being performed and claims which may occur after operations are completed arising therefrom.

Tenant shall obtain proof of Tenant's contractor's insurance coverage adequate to protect Landlord and Tenant.

9. Signage. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant's leasing the M-T-M Space shall not provide Tenant any additional exterior Building signage rights beyond those existing as of the day immediately preceding this Amendment; provided, however, Landlord agrees to provide Tenant, at Landlord's cost and expense, with Building standard signage outside of Tenant's suite.

10. Memorandum of Lease. On the Effective Date, Landlord and Tenant shall execute and have recorded with the Oakland County Register of Deeds the First Amendment to Memorandum of Lease attached hereto as Exhibit B.

11. Brokerage. Landlord and Tenant each warrant to the other that neither have dealt with any broker or agent in connection with the negotiation or execution of this Amendment except for Tenant's broker. Bedrock Real Estate Services ("Broker"), which fees, if any, shall be the sole responsibility of Tenant. Tenant and Landlord shall each indemnify the other against all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, and other liability for commissions or other compensation claimed by any other broker or agent claiming the same by, through, or under the indemnifying party.

12. Prohibited Persons and Transactions. Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that Tenant is currently in compliance with and shall at all times during the Term (including any extension thereof) remain in compliance with the regulations of the Office of Foreign Asset Control ("OFAC") of the Department of the Treasury (including those named on OFAC's Specially Designated and Blocked Persons List) and any statute, executive order (including the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions with Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism), or other governmental action relating thereto.

13. Binding Effect; Governing Law. Except as modified hereby, the Lease shall remain in full effect and this Amendment shall be binding upon Landlord and Tenant and their respective successors and assigns. If any inconsistency exists or arises between the terms of the Lease and the terms of this Amendment, the terms of this Amendment shall prevail. This Amendment shall be governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

14. Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which shall constitute one document.

Executed as of the date first written above.

Landlord shall have no obligation to maintain or make such parking structure available for Tenant's use.

4. Electrical Charges for Third Floor M-T-M Space. Landlord and Tenant agree that commencing May 25, 2012 through the end of the first full calendar month following the Third Floor M-T-M Space Termination Notice, Tenant, in addition to the total Rent set forth above and those electric charges owed to Landlord with respect to the First Floor Space and the Fifth Floor M-T-M Space, shall also pay for all electricity charges related to Tenant's use of the Third Floor M-T-M Space as reflected on that separate meter related to the Third Floor M-T-M Space. Landlord agrees to provide Tenant, at Landlord's cost and expense, with Building standard signage outside of Tenant's suite.

7. Brokerage. Landlord and Tenant each warrant to the other that neither have dealt with any broker or agent in connection with the negotiation or execution of this Amendment except for Tenant's broker, Bedrock Real Estate Services ("Broker"), which fees, if any, shall be the sole responsibility of Tenant. Tenant and Landlord shall each indemnify the other against all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, and other liability for commissions or other compensation claimed by any other broker or agent claiming the same by, through, or under the indemnifying party.

8. Prohibited Persons and Transactions. Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that Tenant is currently in compliance with and shall at all times during the Term (including any extension thereof) remain in compliance with the regulations of the Office of Foreign Asset Control ("OFAC") of the Department of the Treasury (including those named on OFAC's Specially Designated and Blocked Persons List) and any statute, executive order (including the September 24, 2001. WHEREAS, Tenant would like to extend the Term of the Lease for the First Floor Space and Tenant would like to lease an additional 8,265 rentable square feet of space on the first (1st) floor of the Building in Suite 110, as depicted on Exhibit A attached hereto (hereinafter referred to as the "Expansion Premises"); and

WHEREAS, Landlord and Tenant desire to confirm their understandings with regard to the Expansion Premises and the extension of the Term in accordance with the terms and conditions contained herein.

AGREEMENTS:

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and the mutual covenants contained herein, whose receipt and sufficiency are acknowledged, Landlord and Tenant agree as follows:

1. Recitals. The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein and made a part hereof as if fully set forth.

2. Expansion Premises / Tenant's Share / Acceptance. Beginning on the Effective Date, defined herein, Landlord hereby leases to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord, the Expansion Premises on the terms and conditions of the Lease, as modified hereby.

Except as otherwise provided herein, Tenant's Share for the Expansion Premises shall be 3.89%, which is the percentage obtained by dividing the number of rentable square feet in the Expansion Premises (8,265 RSF) by the number of rentable square feet in the Building (212,248 RSF). Tenant hereby accepts the Expansion Premises in its current "AS-IS" condition and Landlord shall not be required to perform any demolition work or tenant-finish work therein or to provide any allowances therefor. The First Floor Space, Expansion Premises, Third Floor M-T-M Space and Fifth Floor M-T-M Space are sometimes hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Premises."

4. Ratification. Tenant shall execute and deliver to Landlord a ratification letter within thirty (30) days of receipt of the same from Landlord, which shall confirm (i) the new Expiration Date, (ii) the Effective Date, (iii) Tenant has accepted the Expansion Premises, (iv) the Rental schedule dates for the Expansion Premises and First Floor Space, and (v) that Landlord has performed all obligations with respect to the Expansion Premises.

5. Rental for Expansion Premises. Beginning on the Effective Date, Tenant shall pay Rental for the Expansion Premises throughout the Extension Term, pursuant to the following schedule:

Based on 8,265 RSF

Period	S/RSF	Monthly
[]	[]	[]
[]	[]	[]
[]	[]	[]
[]	[]	[]
[]	[]	[]

* Notwithstanding anything in this Amendment to the contrary, so long as no default exists under the Lease, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Rental for the Expansion Premises Rental only during the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending six (6) months thereafter (the "Rental Abatement Period"). The total amount of Rental abated during the Rental Abatement Period equals [] (the "Abated Rental"). If Tenant defaults at any time during the Term and fails to cure such default within any applicable cure period under the Lease, all Abated Rental shall immediately become due and payable. The payment by Tenant of the Abated Rental in the event of a default shall not limit or affect any of Landlord's other rights, pursuant to the Lease or at law or in equity. During the Rental Abatement Period, only Rental for the Expansion Premises shall be abated and Tenant shall continue to pay for Rental for the First Floor Space, the Third Floor M-T-M Space and the Fifth Floor M-T-M Space and for all utilities, additional rent and Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Taxes pursuant to the Lease as amended hereby, subject to Tenant's early termination rights for the Third Floor M-T-M Space and the Fifth Floor M-T-M Space.

7. Existing Rent Obligations. Tenant's obligation to pay Rent under the Lease with respect to the First Floor Space, the Third Floor M-T-M Space and the Fifth Floor M-T-M Space shall continue at all times during the performance of the Tenant Work, subject to Tenant's early termination rights for the Third Floor M-T-M Space and the Fifth Floor M-T-M Space. Tenant hereby acknowledges that no interference to Tenant's business operations due to the performance of the Tenant Work shall entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

8. Base Expenses and Base Taxes. Beginning on the Effective Date, Tenant shall pay Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Taxes over a new Base Expenses and Base Taxes 2013 calendar year. Paragraphs 1(h) and l(i) of the Lease are hereby amended accordingly.

9. Condition of Premises Upon Expiration Of Lease. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the First Floor Space and Expansion Premises will be used by Tenant as a computer room throughout the Term and Extension Term. Upon expiration or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant, at its sole cost and expense and except as otherwise provided below, shall remove all of its personal property, trade fixtures and equipment (collectively, "Tenant's Property") from the Expansion Premises subject to Landlord's reasonable requirements (the "Surrender Condition") and as otherwise provided herein. Tenant shall repair any damage to the Building and/or exterior portions thereof caused by the removal of Tenant's Property. Additionally, Tenant shall bear all cost and expense related to surrender of the Expansion Premises. If Tenant removes Tenant's Property from the exterior portions of the Building, the Surrender Condition shall also include the reseeding and planting of sod and any other foliage or greenery, as reasonably directed by Landlord, following the removal of the exterior generator(s), HVAC and fans, including, without limitation, the removal of any concealment. Landlord and Tenant specifically agree that absent a mutual agreement otherwise, the Surrender Condition of the Expansion Premises shall include the following at Tenant's sole cost and expense: (i) the perimeter walls inside the Expansion Premises which are being installed will be removed by Tenant, and (ii) the raised floor will be removed. Fifth Floor M-T-M Spaces, Tenant shall also pay for all electricity charges related to Tenant's use of the Expansion Premises as reflected on that separate meter related to the Expansion Premises, which meter shall be part of the Tenant Work to be paid for by Tenant. In addition to said electrical charges for the Expansion Premises, Tenant shall pay Landlord for use of the HVAC System for the Expansion Premises in excess of the time periods of Monday - Friday 8:00 a.m. through 8:00 p.m. and Saturday 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Said HVAC overtime rate shall be $75.00 per hour per zone of the Premises which charge shall increase 5% annually. In addition to the electrical costs set forth herein, Tenant shall also pay the cost of all utilities used in the First Floor Space and Expansion Premises. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that, in the event Tenant only leases the First Floor Space and Expansion Premises and the Third and Fifth Floor M-T-M Spaces are not occupied by Tenant, the hours Landlord will be required to provide HVAC to the First Floor Space and Expansion Premises shall be limited to 8:00 a.m. through 6:00 p.m. Monday - Friday and 8:00 a.m. to 1: 00 p.m. Saturday; provided, however, in such event, thereafter Tenant shall only be responsible for the HVAC overtime rate applicable to the single zone for the First Floor Space and Expansion Premises.

11. Additional Service. In the event Landlord is able to lease any of the presently vacant space within the Building to other tenants and the Additional Service (as defined below), becomes necessary, in Landlord's reasonable opinion, Landlord shall provide Tenant with written notice of such event and Tenant shall have no less than 90 days to purchase and install the Additional Service as set forth below. In the event Tenant is diligently pursuing such Additional Service and, through no fault of Tenant, is unable to procure or have the Additional Service installed in 120 days from Tenant's receipt of Landlord's written notice, Landlord may intervene on Tenant's behalf to purchase and install the Additional Service at Tenant's sole cost; provided, however, Tenant's liability for such cost shall be limited to the actual cost contracted for by Tenant. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall purchase and install the infrastructure, equipment, metering, cabling, connections etc. necessary to provide additional electrical service to accommodate Tenant's First Floor Space and Expansion Premises data center usage ("Additional Service") in an amount reasonably specified by Landlord in Landlord's notice. Landlord acknowledges that the Additional Service will be dedicated to Tenant and is being installed solely for Tenant's excess electric needs. The Additional Service and all related equipment and cabling will immediately become Landlord's property and at the end of the Term will remain on the Premises and in the Building without compensation to Tenant. Landlord shall be responsible for maintaining the Additional Service. Tenant, at its sole cost, will work with the appropriate utility company and Landlord to provide an additional transformer, switchgear and/or other related equipment for the Additional Service, subject to Landlord's review and approval, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In addition to any other electric costs to be paid by Tenant in the Lease, the submeter for the Additional Service shall be read by Landlord or Landlord's designee and Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Landlord shall direct, the cost of such service based on rates which shall not exceed the rates which the municipality or public utility would have charged Tenant had the same been directly furnished by it to Tenant, including all adjustment charges, demand charges and taxes.

12. Janitorial. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall provide janitorial services to the First Floor Space and the Expansion Premises in accordance with the Building Rules and Regulations and the provisions of this Paragraph 12. The persons employed to provide janitorial service must be acceptable to Landlord (the "Janitorial Company")  and Landlord shall have the right to review and approve the contract for janitorial services between the Janitorial Company and Tenant. The Janitorial Company must be a locally recognized service, whose primary business is the performing of janitorial services. The Janitorial Company must be bonded and fully insured. A certificate or other verification of such insurance must be received and approved by Landlord prior to the start of any janitorial operations. Insurance must be sufficient, in Landlord's reasonable opinion, to cover all personal liability, property damage, theft or damage to the Project. Landlord will not be responsible for loss of or damage to any property from any cause arising out of the terms of this paragraph, and all damage done to the Building, Expansion Premises, First Floor Space or the Project by the Janitorial Company will be repaired at the expense of Tenant.

13. HVAC System/Backup Generator. Beginning on the Eighth Amendment Date:

(a) Tenant shall have the right to install, outside the Building, additional cooling fans and HVAC (the "Additional HVAC") to serve the Expansion Premises. The Additional HVAC shall be installed in the area depicted on Exhibit B, attached hereto and shall be connected to the Building in accordance with plans to be approved by Landlord, which plans shall be made a part hereof. Tenant shall obtain, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, all necessary governmental approvals and permits relating to the installation and operation of the Additional HVAC and shall keep current such approvals and permits and give Landlord true and complete copies thereof after Tenant receives any such updated permit or approval.

(b) Paragraphs 51(b) and (c) of the Lease and Second Amendment to 800 Tower Drive Lease shall apply to the Additional HVAC. All references to 'Backup Generators' in Paragraph 51(b) and (c), for purposes of this subparagraph only, shall refer to the 'Additional HVAC and Tenant shall abide by such paragraphs when installing, maintaining, or removing the Additional HVAC.

(c) Paragraphs 51(b) and (c) of the Lease and Second Amendment to 800 Tower Drive Lease shall apply to any additional Backup Generator(s) to be installed at the Building and Tenant shall abide by such paragraphs when installing, maintaining, or removing any additional Backup Generators.

(d) Nothing in this Amendment shall modify Tenant's rights to the Reimbursement Amount (as defined in Paragraph 6 of the Sixth Amendment) or Tenant's rights to re-wire the generators (as provided in Paragraph 10(i) of the Fifth Amendment).

14. Expansion Premises Space Tenant Work.

(a) Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Tenant is taking the Expansion Premises in its "AS IS" "WHERE IS" condition and Landlord is not providing or performing any work in regard to said Expansion Premises;

(b) The Work to be performed in the Expansion Premises and the exterior of the Building shall be performed by the contractor mutually selected by Landlord and Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, pursuant to Exhibit C, attached hereto.

15. Signage. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant's leasing of the Expansion Premises shall not provide Tenant any exterior Building signage rights; provided, however, Landlord agrees to provide Tenant, at Landlord's cost and expense, with Building standard signage outside of Tenant's suite.

16. Brokerage. Landlord and Tenant each warrant to the other that neither have dealt with any broker or agent in connection with the negotiation or execution of this Amendment except for Tenant's broker, Bedrock Real Estate Services ("Broker"), which fees, if any, shall be the sole responsibility of Landlord. Tenant and Landlord shall each indemnify the other against all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, and other liability for commissions or other compensation claimed by any other broker or agent claiming the same by, through, or under the indemnifying party.

17. Prohibited Persons and Transactions. Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that Tenant is currently in compliance with and shall at all times during the Term (including any extension thereof) remain in compliance with the regulations of the Office of Foreign Asset Control ("OFAC") of the Department of the Treasury (including those named on OFAC's Specially Designated and Blocked Persons List) and any statute, executive order (including the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions with Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism), or other governmental action relating thereto.

1. Acceptance of Premises. Except as set forth in this Exhibit, Tenant accepts the Expansion Premises, First Floor Space, and Third and Fifth Floor M-T-M spaces in their "AS-IS" condition on the date that this Amendment is entered into, subject to Tenant's early termination rights for the Third and Fifth Floor M-T-M Space(s).

2. Space Plans.

(i) Preparation and Delivery. On or before the tenth (10th) business day following the Eighth Amendment Date ("Space Plans Delivery Deadline"), Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a space plan prepared by Integrated Design Solutions or another design consultant reasonably acceptable to Landlord (the "Architect") depicting improvements to be installed in the Expansion Premises (the "Space Plans").

(ii) Approval Process. Landlord shall notify Tenant whether it approves of the submitted Space Plans within five (5) business days after Tenant's submission thereof. If Landlord disapproves of such Space Plans, then Landlord shall notify Tenant thereof specifying in reasonable detail the reasons for such disapproval, in which case Tenant shall, within three (3) business days after such notice, revise such Space Plans in accordance with Landlord's objections and submit to Landlord for its review and approval. Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing whether it approves of the resubmitted Space Plans within three (3) business days after its receipt thereof. This process shall be repeated until the Space Plans have been finally approved by Landlord and Tenant. If Landlord fails to notify Tenant that it disapproves of the initial Space Plans within five (5) business days (or, in the case of resubmitted Space Plans, within three (3) business days) after the submission thereof, then Landlord shall be deemed to have approved the Space Plans in question.

3. Working Drawings.

(i) Preparation and Delivery. On or before the tenth (10th) business day following the date on which the Space Plans are approved (or deemed approved) by Landlord and Tenant (the "Working Drawings Delivery Deadline"). Tenant shall provide to Landlord for its approval final working drawings, prepared by the Architect, of all improvements that Tenant proposes to install in the Expansion Premises; such working drawings shall include the partition layout, ceiling plan, electrical outlets and switches, telephone outlets, drawings for any modifications to the mechanical and plumbing systems of the Building, and detailed plans and specifications for the construction of the improvements called for under this Exhibit in accordance with all applicable Laws.

(ii) Approval Process. Landlord shall notify Tenant whether it approves of the submitted working drawings within ten (10) business days after Tenant's submission thereof. If Landlord disapproves of such working drawings, then Landlord shall notify Tenant thereof specifying in reasonable detail the reasons for such disapproval, in which case Tenant shall, within three (3) business days after such notice, revise such working drawings in accordance with Landlord's objections and submit the revised working drawings to Landlord for its review and approval. Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing whether it approves of the resubmitted working drawings within five (5) business days after its receipt thereof. This process shall be repeated until the working drawings have been finally approved by Tenant and Landlord. If Landlord fails to notify Tenant that it disapproves of the initial working drawings within ten (10) business days (or, in the case of resubmitted working drawings, within five (5) business days) after the submission thereof, then Landlord shall be deemed to have approved the working drawings in question.

4. Tenant's General Contractor. Tenant shall enter into a construction contract with a contractor mutually agreeable to Landlord and Tenant, in a form acceptable to Tenant's representative for the Work.

5. Definitions. As used herein, "Work" shall mean all Building-standard improvements to be constructed in accordance with and as indicated herein and set forth on the Working Drawings together with any work required by governmental authorities to be made to the Premises and other areas of the Building as a result of the improvements indicated on the Working Drawings. Landlord's approval of the Working Drawings shall not be a representation or warranty of Landlord that such drawings are adequate for any use or comply with any Law, but shall merely be the consent of Landlord thereto. Tenant shall, at Landlord's request, sign the Working Drawings to evidence its review and approval thereof. After the Working Drawings have been approved, Landlord's contractor shall cause the Work to be performed in substantial accordance with the Working Drawings. As used herein "Substantial Completion and any derivations thereof mean the Work in the Expansion Premises is substantially completed (as reasonably determined by Landlord) in substantial accordance with the Working Drawings and issuance of a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy. Substantial Completion shall have occurred even though minor details of construction, decoration, landscaping and mechanical adjustments remain to be completed by Landlord. "Building's Structure" means the Building's exterior walls, roof, elevator shafts, footings, foundations, structural portions of load-bearing walls, structural floors and subfloors, and structural columns and beams; "Building's Systems" means the Building's HVAC, life-safety, plumbing, electrical, and mechanical systems; and 'Laws' means all federal, state, and local laws, rules and regulations, all court orders, governmental directives, and governmental orders, and all restrictive covenants affecting the Building, and 'Law' shall mean any of the foregoing.

6. Cost of the Work. The entire cost of performing the Work (including design of and space planning for the Work and preparation of the Working Drawings and the final "as-built" plan of the Work, costs of construction labor and materials, electrical usage during construction, additional janitorial services, general tenant signage, related taxes and insurance costs, licenses, permits, and certifications, surveys and other approvals required by Law, all of which costs are herein collectively called the "Total Construction Costs") shall be paid by Tenant. Upon approval of the Working Drawings, Tenant shall promptly execute a work order agreement which identifies such drawings and itemizes the Total Construction Costs.

7. Change Orders. Tenant may initiate changes in the Work. All such Tenant initiated changes shall be performed on a proposal basis at Tenant's sole cost and expense as provided in this Paragraph. Each such change must receive the prior written approval of Landlord, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; however, (a) if such requested change would adversely affect (in the reasonable discretion of Landlord) (1) the Building's Structure or the Building's Systems (including the Building's restrooms or mechanical rooms), (2) the exterior appearance of the Building, or (3) the appearance of the Building's common areas or elevator lobby areas, the Landlord may withhold its consent in its reasonable discretion. If Tenant requests any changes to the Work, then such increased costs and any additional design costs incurred in connection therewith as the result of any such change, including Tenant furnishing to Landlord an accurate architectural "as-built" plan of the Work as constructed, shall be paid for by Tenant 50% upon requesting the change order and 50% upon completion of the change order.

8. Walk-Through; Punchlist. When Landlord's contractor reasonably considers the Work in the Expansion Premises to be Substantially Completed, Landlord will notify Tenant and within three (3) business days thereafter, Landlord's representative and Tenant's representative shall conduct a walk-through of the Expansion Premises and identify any necessary touch-up work, repairs and minor completion items that are necessary for final completion of the Work. Neither Landlord's representative nor Tenant's representative shall unreasonably withhold his or her agreement on punch-list items. The punch-list items shall be conclusively deemed approved by Tenant and Landlord shall have no further obligations to complete the punch-list items if Tenant is unavailable to conduct a walk-through of me Expansion Premises within ten (10) business days of (i) Landlord's notification of Substantial Completion of the Work, and/or (ii) Landlord's notification of completion of the punch-list items after Tenant's initial walk-through. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to cause the contractor performing the Work to complete all punch-list items within thirty (30) days after agreement thereon; however, Landlord shall not be obligated to engage overtime labor in order to complete such items.

9. Construction Management. Subject to the provisions of this Exhibit and the Lease, Landlord or its affiliate or agent may, perform any of the following: perform the Work, supervise the Work, make disbursements required to be made to the contractor, and act as a liaison between the contractor and Tenant and coordinate the relationship between the Work, the Building, and the Building's Systems. In the event Tenant elects to use a contractor for the Work other than Landlord's contractor, (i) Tenant shall pay to Landlord's contractor a construction supervision fee equal to $2,500, and (ii) Tenant shall sign a separate work letter setting forth the rules and regulations for the performance of the Work, method of payment of the outside contractor, etc.

10. Construction Representatives. Landlord's and Tenant's representatives for coordination of construction and approval of change orders will be as follows, provided that either party may change its representative upon written notice to the other:

2. PREMISES

(a) Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord those premises (hereinafter referred to as the "Premises"), described in Section 1(d) hereof and designated on Exhibit "A" attached hereto in the building commonly known as the 1401 Rosa Parks Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan, consisting of approximately 65,250 rentable square feet of floor area (hereinafter referred to as the "Building"), together with the non-exclusive right and easement to use the common facilities which may from time to time be furnished by Landlord in common with Landlord and the tenants and occupants (their agents, employees, customers and invitees) of the Building. The Building and common areas are hereinafter referred to as the "Development," more particularly described on Exhibit "B" hereto.

(b) The rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building shall be computed based upon the 2010 BOMA Standard Method of Measuring Floor Area in Office Buildings, ANSI/BOMA Z65.1-2010, and the rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building. shall contain a proportionate share of the common areas of the Building, utilizing a common area load factor not to exceed twelve percent.

(c) The rentable square foot area of the Premises shall be measured by Landlord's Architect, and Landlord's Architect shall certify the rentable square foot area to Landlord and Tenant; provided, however, that if Tenant disagrees with the measurement or calculation by Landlord's architect, an independent architect jointly selected by Landlord and Tenant shall promptly measure such portion of the Premises and its determination shall be binding on the parties. In the event such certification or determination shall contain a rentable square foot area different than that previously utilized, Landlord and Tenant shall promptly execute and deliver an amendment to this Lease reflecting the rentable square foot area set forth in such certification and Section 1(h) shall be revised accordingly.

(d) Tenant shall be allowed access to the Premises and reasonable portions of the common areas twenty-four hours a day, three hundred sixty-five days a year using card readers, or keys, provided that Tenant shall not materially interfere with Landlord's construction activities. Access to the Premises shall be in the same general location and have the same general utility as the access afforded on the Commencement Date.

3. TERM

(a) The term of this Lease shall commence on the Commencement Date set forth in 1(e) hereof. The term of this Lease shall expire on the Expiration Date set forth in Section 1(f) hereof. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, during the course of Landlord's construction of the Premises, Tenant and its contractors shall be granted access seven days a week, twenty four hours per day to the Premises in order to install data and telephone wiring and other improvements, provided Tenant coordinates such access with Landlord and Tenant does not unreasonably interfere with Landlord's completion of the Premises and that Tenant or its contractors provide no interference to the work or other tenants of the Building or Development. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if Landlord does not deliver possession of the Premises in the condition required pursuant to this Lease within the time frame set forth in this Lease, if Tenant incurs occupancy costs in the premises to be vacated by Tenant in connection with Tenant's occupancy of the Premises, in excess of the occupancy costs to be incurred by Tenant under this Lease (assuming no free rent under this Lease) ("Additional Occupancy Costs"), Tenant shall be permitted to offset the Additional Occupancy Costs against the first due installments of Basic Rental due under this Lease.

(b) In the event of the inability of Landlord to deliver possession of Commencement Date, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage caused thereby, nor shall this Lease be void or voidable, but Tenant unless it is responsible for such delay, shall not be liable for any Rent (as hereinafter defined) until such time as Landlord can and does deliver possession of such Premises to Tenant. No failure to give possession on the Commencement Date (but not the Expiration Date) shall be extended for the period from the date set forth in Section 3(a) and Section 1(e) hereof until the date on which Landlord gives possession of the Premises to Tenant. Upon establishment of the Commencement Date, Tenant shall, if Landlord shall so request, execute and deliver a letter setting forth the Commencement Date.

(c) From time to time, Tenant shall furnish Landlord, upon request a letter addressed to Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee stating that Tenant has accepted the Premises for occupancy, the Premises have been completed as herein required, and setting forth the Commencement Date of this Lease and such other information relating to the Premises as either Landlord or its mortgagee may reasonably request. Within twenty business days after Tenant's request therefor, Landlord shall deliver to any lender holding a security interest in Tenant's personal property located within the Premises, an acknowledgement and subordination in form reasonably acceptable to Landlord, Tenant and Tenant's lender.

(d) (i) Tenant shall have the right, if it is not then in default after notice thereof, to extend the term of this Lease for two additional periods of five years each upon the terms and conditions as are stated in this Lease (other than the grant of any extension rights in addition to those provided for in this Section 3(d)). Tenant shall exercise such right, it at all, at least seven months prior to the expiration of the original term of this Lease or such prior extension period, as the case may be. If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the term of this Lease within the period of time for exercise set forth in this Section, Tenant's option to extend the term of this Lease shall continue in full force and effect until Landlord shall have given Tenant notice of such failure to exercise said option. If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the term of this Lease within ten business days after receipt of such notice from Landlord, then and only then shall Tenant's option to extend the term of this Lease expire. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Tenant has not yet exercised its right to so extend the term and Tenant is in default under this Lease after notice thereof but prior to the expiration of any applicable cure period at the expiration of the period for Tenant to exercise such right to extend, the period for Tenant to exercise its right to so extend the term shall be extended for a period equal to the period from Tenant's receipt of such notice of default until Tenant cures such default (but only if Tenant cures such default within the applicable cure period), which extension period shall commence on the date of such cure. The then current term shall be extended for a like period. In no event shall such extension period exceed three months.

(ii) In the event Tenant shall exercise its right to so extend the term of this Lease in accordance with Section 3(d)(i) above, the Basic Rental for each such extension period shall be determined in accordance with this Section 3(d)(ii).

(A) Within ten business days after the exercise by Tenant of such right to extend the term of this Lease for such extension period, Landlord shall submit to Tenant Landlord's determination of the Market Rental, as defined below, for the Premises for such extension period. If Tenant does not notify Landlord of its acceptance of such Market Rental as so determined by Landlord within ten business days after receipt thereof, then the parties shall proceed as provided in Section (B) below.

(B) Landlord and Tenant shall negotiate in good faith to agree upon the Market Rental for such extension period, and if Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree within ten business days, the determination of the Market Rental shall be made in accordance with Section (C) below.

(C) Within ten business days after the expiration of the ten (10) business day period referred to in Section (B) above, Landlord and Tenant shall mutually select an MAI appraiser with experience in real estate activities, including at least five (5) years of current experience in appraising data center space in Detroit, Michigan. If the parties cannot agree on such an appraiser, then within five business days thereafter, each shall select an independent MAI appraiser meeting the aforementioned criteria and within five business days thereafter the two appointed appraisers shall select a third neutral appraiser meeting the aforementioned criteria and the third appraiser shall determine the Market Rental for such extension period in accordance with Section (D) below. If either Landlord or Tenant shall fail to make such appointment within said five business day period, the other shall make such appointment on its behalf.

(D) Once the appraiser or third appraiser has been selected as provided in Section (C) above, each of Landlord and Tenant shall submit to such appraiser its suggested Market Rental. As soon thereafter as practical, the appraiser shall select one of the two suggested Market Rentals submitted by Landlord and Tenant (and no other) that is closer to the one determined by the third appraiser. The Market Rental so selected by the appraiser shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall equally share the cost of such appraisal.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 3(d), "Market Rental" shall mean the projected fair market rent for data center space containing the rentable size of the Premises during such extension period, as of the commencement of such extension period, based upon the rates then in effect in the Building and other similar buildings in Detroit, Michigan. The Market Rental shall take into account the refurbishment allowance provided by Landlord in Section 3(d)(iv) below.

(iv) Landlord shall have no obligation to do any work or perform any special services with respect to the Premises for such extension period, which Tenant agrees to accept in their then "as is" condition; provided, however, that Landlord shall provide up to Five Dollars per rentable square foot based upon the size of the portion of the Premises used as office space only at the time of Tenant's exercise of each option. Such amounts may be utilized by Tenant for new floor coverings, wall coverings, painting and such other items as Tenant may desire to "freshen-up" or otherwise improve the Premises in Tenant's discretion. Landlord shall pay such amounts to Tenant from time to time within thirty days following Tenant's delivery to Landlord of Tenant's demand therefor accompanied by reasonable back-up information, including, without limitation, sworn statements and lien waivers. Tenant shall be solely responsible for any amounts in excess of those to be provided by Landlord hereunder for such purposes.

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord as rental for the Premises during each year of the term of this Lease the amount set forth in Section 1(g) hereof. Such rental shall be payable in advance, in equal monthly installments upon the first day of each and every month throughout the term of this Lease; provided, however, that if the lease term shall commence on a day other than the first day of a calendar month or shall end on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the rental for such first or last fractional month shall be such proportion of the monthly rental as the number of days in such fractional month bears to the total number of days in the calendar month.

(b) Rent and all other charges hereunder shall promptly be paid without prior demand therefor and without deductions or setoffs for any reason whatsoever, except as expressly herein provided, and overdue rent and any other sums payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder shall bear interest during delinquency until paid at a rate of interest equal to two percent in excess of the "Prime Rate" published from time to time by The Wall Street Journal (hereinafter referred to as the "Interest Rate"). In addition, if any payment of rent is not paid when due, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to three and one half percent of each late payment. Landlord shall have no obligation to accept less than the full amount of all installments of rental and interest thereon and all charges hereunder which are due and owing by Tenant to Landlord, and if Landlord shall accept less than the full amount owing, Landlord may apply the sums received towards any of Tenant's obligations at Landlord's discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not be required to pay the late charge or the interest provided for therein on up to two occasions during each calendar year, provided such payments are made to Landlord within ten days after Tenant's receipt of written notice that the same are past due.

(c) Landlord's failure to timely bill Tenant shall in no way excuse Tenant from its payment obligations or constitute a waiver of Landlord's entitlement to any charges not timely billed by Landlord.

(d) Tenant agrees that all Basic Rental and additional rent (collectively "Rent") due under this Lease shall be paid to Landlord by (i) check mailed to the address set forth in Section 1(l) hereof or such other address as Landlord shall designate by written notice to Tenant, (ii) wire transfer of immediately available funds, or (iii) electronic funds transfer.

5. RENTAL ADJUSTMENT

(a) The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) The term "Expenses" shall mean the actual reasonable cost incurred by Landlord during the applicable calendar year on an accrual basis with respect to the operation, maintenance and repair of the Development, including, without limitation or duplication, (1) the costs incurred for air conditioning; mechanical ventilation; heating; cleaning; rubbish removal; snow removal; general landscaping and ground maintenance; window washing; elevators; porter and matron services; electric current for common areas; management fees (calculated at a rate of five percent of gross receipts); repairs; maintenance; fire, extended coverage, boiler, sprinkler apparatus, public liability and property damage insurance (including loss of rental income insurance); supplies; wages, salaries and benefits of service and maintenance employees and management staff (if said employees and/or staff perform services for properties other than the Development, the expenses relating thereto shall be equitably prorated); uniforms and working clothes for such employees and the cleaning thereof; expenses imposed pursuant to any collective bargaining agreement with respect to such employees; payroll, social security, unemployment and other similar taxes with respect to such employees; sales, use and other similar taxes; water rates and sewer rents; depreciation of movable equipment and personal property, which is, or should be, capitalized on the books of Landlord, and the cost of movable equipment and personal property, which need not be so capitalized, as well as the cost of maintaining all such movable equipment, and any other costs, charges and expenses which, under generally accepted accounting principles and practices, would be regarded as maintenance and operating expenses, and (2) the cost of any capital improvements made to the Development after the Commencement Date that are intended to reduce other Expenses, or made to the Development by Landlord after the date of this Lease that are required under any governmental law or regulation that was not applicable to the Development at the time it was constructed, such cost or allocable portion thereof to be amortized over the useful life thereof as determined by GAAP, together with interest on the unamortized balance at the Interest Rate or such actual rate as may have been paid by Landlord on funds borrowed for the purpose of constructing such capital improvements, if Landlord borrows funds therefor. Expenses shall not include "Taxes," depreciation on the Building other than depreciation on standard exterior window coverings provided by Landlord and carpeting in common areas and other than as set forth above; costs of services or repairs and maintenance which are paid for by proceeds of insurance, by other tenants (in a manner other than as provided in this Section 5) or third parties; tenant improvements, real estate brokers' commissions, interest and capital items other than those referred to in clause (1) above.

The Expenses shall be adjusted to equal Landlord's reasonable estimate of Expenses had the total Building been occupied.

In determining Expenses:

(A) The management fees included within Expenses shall not exceed five percent of the gross receipts from the Building.

(B) All items of Expenses which are deemed to be capital expenses shall be amortized in accordance with the terms of Section 5(a)(i)(2) and only the annual amortized amount shall be included in Expenses in any year.

(C) Expenses shall not include (i) the cost or depreciation of the Building or any improvements thereon, including permit fees, license and inspection fees, and costs incurred in renovating, improving, decorating, painting or redecorating vacant tenant space or space of other tenants in the Development or broker's commissions, (ii) principal payments, interest. late fees or other financing charges relating to any financing of the Development or rents under a ground lease or any other underlying lease wherein Landlord is the lessee, (iii) wages, salaries, fees and fringe benefits paid to home office executive personnel of Landlord (i.e., executives above the level of building manager and other office personnel but not the property manager, the assistant property manager and their staff), (iv) any costs relating to the solicitation, execution and enforcement of leases of other tenant space in the Development, (v) the cost of any electrical current or other utility services furnished to any other leasable area (but not including common areas) of the Development (other than for HVAC services and water), (vi) the cost of correcting defects in the original construction or defects in subsequent improvement of the Development, including costs of repairs or maintenance caused or necessitated by the negligence of Landlord, its agents, contractors or employees, (vii) the cost of any repair made by Landlord because of the total or partial destruction of the Development by fire or other casualty subsequent to the date of original construction, (viii) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed under warranty claims, insurance proceeds or condemnation awards, (ix) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed by tenants of the Development (other than in a manner comparable to Section 5(b) hereof), or third parties, (x) advertising and promotional expenditures, (xi) reserves for future expenditures or liabilities which would be incurred after the then current accounting year, (xii) the cost of (a) remediation of any toxic or hazardous substance or material from the land, buildings or improvements comprising the Development, other than commercially reasonable and customary maintenance of mechanical systems, or (b) any environmental reports or studies relating thereto, and (xiii) income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes.

(ii) The term "Taxes" shall mean the amount of all ad valorem real property taxes and assessments, special or otherwise, levied upon or with respect to the Development, or the Rent and additional charges payable hereunder, imposed by any taxing authority having jurisdiction. Taxes shall also include all taxes, levies and charges which may be assessed, levied or imposed in replacement of, or in addition to, all or any part of ad valorem real property taxes as revenue sources, and which in whole or in part are measured or calculated by or based upon the Development, the leasehold estate of Landlord or Tenant, or the Rent and other charges payable hereunder. Taxes shall include any reasonable expenses incurred by Landlord in determining or attempting to obtain a reduction of Taxes.

In determining Taxes:

(A) Taxes shall not include any income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes.

(B) With respect to special assessments which may be paid in installments, Tenant's Share thereof shall be determined as if Landlord elected to pay the same over the longest period available.

(C) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Taxes shall not include and Tenant shall not be responsible for any interest or penalties due to the late payment of Taxes.

(D) In the event Landlord receives any refunds relating to Taxes covering a period during the term of this Lease, the Taxes with respect to such year with respect to such refund relates shall be reduced accordingly and to the extent applicable, Tenant shall be given credit for Tenant's Share thereof.

(iii) The term "Tenant's Share" shall mean the percentage set forth in Section 1(h) hereof which was derived by dividing the rentable square foot area of the Premises by the rentable square foot area of the Building.

(b) Tenant shall pay to Landlord Tenant's Share of Expenses and Taxes in the manner and at the times herein provided.

With respect to Expenses, prior to January 1, 2016, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord's estimate of Tenant's Share of Expenses for the ensuing calendar year, with respect to Taxes, prior to January 1, 2016, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord's estimate of Tenant's Share of Taxes for the ensuing calendar year. On or before the first day of each month during the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall pay to Landlord one-twelfth of such estimated amounts, provided that until such notice is given with respect to the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall continue to pay the amount currently payable pursuant hereto until after the month such notice is given. If at any time or times it appears to Landlord that Tenant's Share of Expenses or Tenant's Share of Taxes, for the then current calendar year will vary from Landlord's estimate by more than five percent, Landlord may, by notice to Tenant, revise its estimate for such year and subsequent payments by Tenant for such year shall be based upon such revised estimate.

Within ninety days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Expenses, and within ninety days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Taxes, or as soon after such ninety day period as practicable, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement prepared by Landlord of Tenant's Share of Expenses and Taxes, respectively, for such calendar year. If on the basis of either of such statements, Tenant owes an amount that is less than the estimated payments for such calendar year with respect to Expenses or with respect to Taxes previously made by Tenant, Landlord shall credit such excess amount against the next payment(s) due from Tenant to Landlord of Rent. In no event shall a reduction in Taxes or Expenses operate to reduce the rental set forth in Section 1(g) hereof required to be paid hereunder. If on the basis of such statement, Tenant owes an amount that is more than the estimated payment for such calendar year with respect to Expenses or Taxes previously made by Tenant, Tenant shall pay the deficiency to Landlord within thirty days after delivery of the statement.

If this Lease shall terminate on a day other than the last day of a calendar year, Tenant's Share of Expenses and Taxes that are applicable to the calendar year in which such termination shall occur shall be prorated on the basis of the number of calendar days within such year as are within the term of this Lease. Any refund due Tenant with respect to the last year of the Term shall be refunded to it within thirty days after the receipt of such statement.

For a period of two years after delivery of each such statement to which such records relate, Tenant shall have the right upon thirty days' prior written notice to Landlord to inspect Landlord's records relating to Taxes and Expenses. Such inspection shall be conducted at Landlord's offices during normal business hours at Tenant's expense. Such inspection may not be conducted by a person or firm compensated on a contingent fee basis. If such inspection shall disclose that Tenant has paid five percent or more in excess of that required to be paid hereunder and Landlord shall accept such determination, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the reasonable cost of such inspection. Tenant shall have no right to offset the amount of any overpayment unless Landlord shall accept such determination. If Landlord and Tenant do not agree on any overpayment or underpayment within thirty days, either Landlord or Tenant may cause an independent accounting firm to resolve the dispute, whose determination shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant and the firm's fees shall be split equally between Landlord and Tenant.

Without limiting Tenant's rights and remedies under this Section, Tenant shall have all available legal and equitable remedies (including injunction) in the event of a violation of the provisions of Sections 10(b) or (c). contractor selected by Landlord and reasonably approved by Tenant setting forth such contractor's estimate as to the time reasonably required to perform the Required Restoration Work; provided, that if Landlord shall fail to deliver such estimate within twenty days after Landlord's receipt of written notice that Landlord has failed to provide such Estimate, Tenant may designate a contractor (subject to Landlord's reasonable approval thereof; provided, that if Landlord fails to approve or disapprove any contractor designated by Tenant within ten days after the giving of notice by Tenant, such contractor shall be deemed to be approved by Landlord) to prepare the same (the contractor designated by either Landlord or Tenant pursuant to this sentence is called the "Contractor" and the estimate prepared by the Contractor is called the "Estimate").

(ii) In the event according to the Estimate, the Premises cannot be restored to tenantable condition within a period of one hundred eighty days following the Casualty, then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice ("Casualty Termination Notice") to Landlord within thirty days following Tenant's receipt of the Estimate. In addition, if Landlord has not completed such restoration within such one hundred eighty day period, and if Landlord does not complete such restoration within thirty days after notice from Tenant of such failure to complete such restoration, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease at any time after the expiration of such one hundred eighty day period and prior to the completion of such restoration by written notice to Landlord.

Upon any such termination of this Lease, Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any and all liability thereafter accruing hereunder, and any Rent paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant within thirty days after termination of the Lease.

(v) Time is of the essence with respect to all of the time periods set forth in this Section 14(d).

(e) (i) Landlord and Tenant shall reasonably cooperate with each other in connection with the performance by Landlord of the Required Restoration Work and the repair or replacement by Tenant of Tenant's property, provided that Tenant shall not

Prior to the substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work, Landlord shall, to the extent appropriate in accordance with good construction practices, provide Tenant and Tenant's contractor, subcontractors and materialmen access to the Premises to repair or replace Tenant's property (but not to occupy the same for the conduct of business).

(ii) Such access by Tenant shall be deemed to be subject to all of the applicable provisions of this Lease, except that there shall be no obligation on the part of Tenant solely because of such access to pay any Rent with respect to the affected portion of the Premises for any period prior to substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work.

(a) If the whole or any substantial part of the Premises or the Building shall be taken by any public authority under the power of eminent domain, then the term of this Lease shall cease on the part so taken on the date possession of that part shall be required for public use, and any Rent paid in advance of such date shall be refunded to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall each have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice to the other, which notice shall be delivered within thirty days following the date notice is received of such taking. In the event that neither party hereto shall terminate this Lease, Landlord shall, to the extent the proceeds of the condemnation award (other than any proceeds awarded for the value of any land taken) are available, make all necessary repairs to the Premises and the Building to render and restore the same to a complete architectural unit and Tenant shall continue in possession of the portion of the Premises not taken under the power of eminent domain, under the same terms and conditions as are herein provided, except that the Rent reserved herein, Tenant's Share pursuant to Section 1(h) hereof shall be reduced in direct proportion to the amount of the Premises so taken. All damages awarded for such taking shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, whether such damages be awarded as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or to the fee of the Premises; provided, however, Landlord shall not be entitled to any portion of the award made to Tenant for removal and reinstallation of trade fixtures or moving expenses.

(b) In the event of a partial taking which does not result in the termination of this Lease, Landlord shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute the restoration of the Premises as nearly as practicable to a complete unit of like quality and character as existed just prior to such taking. In such event, the Rent shall abate during the period of demolition and restoration to the extent the Premises are unusable, provided that Landlord receives an award therefor.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 15 hereof, Tenant shall have the right to make a claim against the condemning authority (but not Landlord) for compensation for the unamortized cost of Tenant's improvements, alterations or additions made to the Premises at Tenant's cost, such amortization to be computed on a straight line basis over the term of this Lease.

16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

(a) Except as expressly permitted pursuant to this Section 16, Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, assign, encumber or hypothecate this Lease or any interest herein or sublet the Premises or any part thereof, or permit the use of the Premises by any party other than Tenant. Landlord agrees that it will not unreasonably withhold or condition its consent to a proposed assignment or subletting. In determining reasonableness, Landlord may take into consideration all relevant factors surrounding the proposed assignment or subletting, including, without limitation: (i) the business reputation of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its officers, directors and owners; (ii) the nature of the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its effect on the other tenants of the Building; and (iii) restrictions, if any, contained in leases affecting the Development. Except as provided in Section 16(c) hereof, this Lease shall not, nor shall any interest herein, be assignable as to the interest of Tenant by operation of law without the consent of Landlord.

(b) If at any time or from time to time during the Term, Tenant desires to sublet all or any part of the Premises or to assign this Lease, Tenant shall give notice to Landlord setting forth the proposed subtenant or assignee, the terms of the proposed subletting and the space so proposed to be sublet or the terms of the proposed assignment, as the case may be. If the proposed subletting or assignment is to a non-affiliate of Tenant, Landlord may terminate this Lease as the portion of the Premises which Tenant proposes to sublet or assign, such termination right to be exercised by notice from Landlord to Tenant within ten days after Tenant's notice to Landlord of the proposed sublet or assignment, provided that such termination notice by Landlord shall not be effective if, within ten days after Landlord's termination notice to Tenant, Tenant gives notice to Landlord retracting the proposed sublet or assignment notice.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16(a) and Section 16(b) hereof, without Landlord's approval or consent and without notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sublease or assign all or any portion of the Premises to any affiliate of Tenant and any affiliate of any of the beneficial owners of Tenant or its parents or subsidiaries at any level, any entity in which Tenant has a controlling interest, or to any successor entity, whether by merger, consolidation or combination or otherwise or to any entity that purchases all or substantially all of Tenant's assets. For purposes hereof an affiliate is any entity which controls Tenant, is controlled by Tenant or is under common control with Tenant, or in which Tenant or any affiliate of Tenant or any beneficial owner of Tenant or its parent or subsidiaries has any interest or is an officer, director, shareholder, partner, member or manager or at any other level. Tenant shall, upon written request from Landlord, provide Landlord with the names of any sublessees or assignees of Tenant. Nothing contained in this Lease provides any subtenant or assignee with any right to use the Premises for any use other than Tenant's Use as set forth in Section 1(j).

(d) Regardless of Landlord's consent, no subletting or assignment shall release Tenant of Tenant's obligation or alter the primary liability of Tenant to pay the rental and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Tenant hereunder. The acceptance of rental by Landlord from any other person shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Landlord of any provision hereof. Consent to one assignment or subletting shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. In the event of default of any of the terms hereof, Landlord may proceed directly against Tenant without the necessity of exhausting remedies against such assignee or successor. Landlord may consent to subsequent assignments or subletting of this Lease or amendments or modifications to this Lease with assignees of Tenant, upon first notifying Tenant, or any successor of Tenant, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto and such action shall not relieve Tenant of liability under this Lease.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 16, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent, without notice to Landlord and without extending any option to Landlord, sublet portions of the Premises to title companies, appraisal companies, casualty insurance agencies, mortgage brokers and/or real estate brokers, home builders and/or banking institutions, mortgage and/or finance companies and any other entities, so long as the foregoing are operating in conjunction with Tenant in the Premises or is an affiliate of Tenant and are operating as a use described in Section 1(j) above.

Landlord may erect, use and maintain scaffolding, pipes, conduits and other necessary structures in and through the Premises where reasonably required by the character of the work performed, provided that the business of Tenant shall not be interfered with unreasonably. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord may enter the Premises in instances of emergencies involving imminent threat of material physical damage to the Building or personal injury, and in such case Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts not to unreasonably interfere with Tenant's operations in the Premises and to minimize any such interference.

(b) Tenant shall have the exclusive right (via card reader devices or equipment) to access the telecom and electric closets on each floor of the Building upon which a portion of the Premises is located. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Section 17(b) Tenant shall not disrupt and/or disable the equipment located within such closets. Tenant shall have the right to install additional equipment within such closets at Tenant's expenses, subject to the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless for any damages incurred by Landlord arising from the acts or omissions of Tenant, its agents, employees and contractors in such telecom and electric closets.

(c) As used herein, the term "Emergency" shall mean an event requiring immediate action, e.g., danger to health, life or property, fire water seepage, sewer backup or cessation or interruption of any facility servicing the like.

This Lease is and shall be subject and subordinate, at all times, to (a) the lien of any mortgage or mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the Building, and to all advances made or hereafter to be made upon the security thereof and to the interest thereon, and to any agreements at any time made modifying, supplementing, extending or replacing any such mortgages, and (b) any ground or underlying lease which may now or hereafter affect the Building, including all amendments, renewals, modifications, consolidation, replacements and extensions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at the request of the holder of any of the aforesaid mortgage or mortgages or the lessor under the aforesaid ground or underlying lease, this Lease may be made prior and superior to such mortgage or mortgages and/or such ground or underlying lease. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, if the Development is subject to mortgage on the date of this Lease, then within thirty days after the execution and delivery of this Lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement for Tenant's benefit from the current mortgagee(s) of the Development in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant. In addition, as a condition precedent to Tenant subordinating this Lease to any future mortgage or ground lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement from such mortgagee or ground lessor in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall execute and deliver such further instruments as may be reasonably required to implement the provisions of this Section 18, provided the same are reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

19. NON-LIABILITY

(a) Except for the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees, Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to Tenant for any loss or damage that may be occasioned by or through the acts or omissions of persons occupying adjoining premises or any part of the premises adjacent to or connected with the Premises or any part of the Building or for any loss or damage resulting to Tenant or his property from burst, stopped or leaking water, gas, sewer or steam pipes, or for any damage or loss of property within the Premises from any cause whatsoever, and no such occurrence shall be deemed to be an actual or constructive eviction from the Premises or result in an abatement of rental.

(b) In the event of any sale or transfer (including any transfer by operation of law) of the Premises, Landlord (and any subsequent owner of the Premises making such a transfer) shall be relieved from any and all obligations and liabilities under this Lease, except such obligations and liabilities as shall have arisen during Landlord's (or such subsequent owner's) respective period of ownership, provided that the transferee assumes in writing all of the obligations of Landlord under this Lease.

(c) If Landlord shall fail to perform any covenant, term or condition of this Lease upon Landlord's part to be performed, and if as a consequence of such default, Tenant shall recover a money judgment against Landlord, such judgment shall be satisfied only out of the proceeds of sale received upon execution of such judgment and levied thereon against the right, title and interest of Landlord in the Building and out of rents or other income from the Building receivable by Landlord, or out of the consideration received by Landlord from the sale or other disposition of all or any part of Landlord's right, title and interest in the Building, and neither Landlord nor any of its partners shall be liable for any deficiency.

20. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD

(a) Tenant shall hold Landlord harmless from and defend Landlord against any and all claims or liability for damages to any person or property in, on or about the Premises from the negligence or wrongful acts of Tenant, its agents, contractors, employees, subtenants, assignees and licensees.

(b) Tenant shall procure and keep in effect during the entire term hereof commercial general liability and property damage insurance protecting Landlord and Tenant from all causes, including their own negligence, having as limits of liability One Million Dollars for damages resulting from one occurrence. Tenant shall deliver policies of such insurance or certificates thereof to Landlord upon execution of this Lease by Tenant and thereafter at least thirty days before the expiration dates of expiring policies. Such insurance shall not be cancelable without thirty days' written notice to Landlord, and in the event Tenant shall fail to procure such insurance, Landlord may at its option procure the same for the account of Tenant, and the reasonable cost thereof shall be paid to Landlord as an additional charge upon receipt by Tenant of bills therefor.

21. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION

Landlord and Tenant shall each be released from any liability resulting from damage by fire or casualty (irrespective of the cause of such fire or casualty) upon the express proviso that if at any time their respective insurers shall refuse to permit waivers of subrogation, Landlord or Tenant may in each instance revoke said waiver of subrogation effective thirty days from the date of notice to the other unless within such thirty day period, the other is able to secure and furnish (without additional expense) insurance in other companies with such waiver of subrogation.

22. ATTORNEY'S FEES

In the event of any legal action or proceeding brought by either party against the other arising out of this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees incurred in such action and such amount shall be included in any judgment rendered in such proceeding.

23. WAIVER

(a) No waiver of any provision of this Lease or of any breach hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other provision hereof, or of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. Consent to or approval of any act requiring consent or approval shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of consent to or approval of any subsequent act. No act or thing done by Landlord or Landlord's agents during the term of this Lease shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, unless done in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of the keys to any employee or agent of Landlord shall not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises.

(b) Landlord and Tenant hereby waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of the parties against the other in any matter whatsoever (except for personal injury or property damage) arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of landlord and tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, or any emergency or other statutory remedy with respect thereto.

25. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events (hereinafter referred to as "Events of Default") shall constitute a breach of this Lease by Tenant: (i) if Tenant shall fail to pay the Basic Rental or any other sum when and as the same becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than ten days after written notice thereof from Landlord; or (ii) if Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any other term hereof or of the rules and regulations referred to in Section 12 hereof to be performed or observed by Tenant, such failure shall continue for more than thirty days after written notice thereof from Landlord, and Tenant shall not within such thirty day period commence with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default, or, having so commenced, shall thereafter fail or neglect to prosecute or complete with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default; (iii) if Tenant shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a petition in bankruptcy, or shall be adjudicated as insolvent or shall file a petition in any proceeding seeking any reorganization, arrangements, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future statute, law or regulation, or shall file an answer admitting or fail timely to contest or acquiesce in the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or any material part of its properties; (iv) if within ninety days after the commencement of any proceeding against Tenant seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future statute, law or regulation, such proceeding shall not have been dismissed, or if, within ninety days after the appointment without the consent of acquiescence of Tenant, of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or of any material part of its properties, such appointment shall not have been vacated; or (v) if this Lease or any estate of Tenant hereunder shall be levied upon under any attachment or execution and such attachment or execution is not vacated within sixty days.

(b) Any time an uncured Event of Default by Tenant as set forth in Section 25(a) hereof exists, Landlord, at its option, may terminate this Lease upon and by giving written notice of termination to Tenant as required by law (currently, at least thirty days prior written notice), or Landlord, without terminating this Lease, may at any time after such default or breach, without notice or demand additional to that provided in Section 25(a) hereof (other than notice and/or demand required by applicable law), and without limiting Landlord in the exercise of any other right or remedy which Landlord may have by reason of such default or breach (other than the aforesaid right of termination) exercise any one or more of the remedies hereinafter provided in this Section 25(b), or as otherwise provided by law, all of such remedies (whether provided herein or by law) being cumulative and not exclusive:

(c) Landlord shall have the right to recover the rental and all other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease as they become due (unless and until Landlord has terminated this Lease and all other damages incurred by Landlord as a result of an Event of Default.) Landlord may enter the Premises either by summary proceedings or by any other lawful proceeding (without thereby incurring any liability to Tenant and without such entry being constituted an eviction of Tenant or termination of this Lease) and take possession of the Premises excluding all personal property of every kind on the Premises not owned by Landlord, and Landlord shall at any time and from time to time relet the Premises or any part thereof for the account of Tenant, for such terms, upon such conditions and at such rental as Landlord may in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment deem proper. In the event of such reletting, (i) Landlord shall receive and collect the Rent therefrom and shall first apply such Rent against such expenses as Landlord may have incurred in recovering possession of the Premises, placing the same in good order and condition, altering or repairing the same for reletting, and such other expenses, commissions and charges, including attorney's fees and real estate commissions, which Landlord may have paid or reasonably incurred in connection with such repossession and reletting, and then shall apply such Rent against the Rent as it comes due under this Lease, and (ii) Landlord may execute any lease in connection with such reletting in Landlord's name, as Landlord may see fit, and the tenant of such reletting shall be under no obligation to see to the application by Landlord of any Rent collected by Landlord.

(d) Landlord shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate its damages in the event of an uncured Event of Default, but Landlord shall not be required to favor the Premises if there are other vacant comparable premises in the Building.

(e) Upon a termination of this Lease by Landlord pursuant to Section 25(b) hereof, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant the aggregate of: (i) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid rental which had been earned at the time of termination; (ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rental which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the then reasonable rental value of the Premises during such period; (iii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rental for the balance of the term of this Lease after the time of award exceeds the reasonable rental value of the Premises for such period; and (iv) Landlord's other actual damages (if any), proximately caused by the Event of Default. The "worth at the time of award" of the amounts referred to in clauses (a) and (b) above is computed from the date such Rent was due or would have been due, as the case may be, by allowing interest at the rate of two percent in excess of the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal or, if a higher rate is legally permissible, at the highest rate legally permitted. The "worth at the time of award" of the amount referred to in clause (c) above is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago at the time of award, plus one percent. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 25(e) to the contrary, Tenant shall continue to pay the difference between the rental herein reserved over the then reasonable rental value of the Premises for the remainder of the stated term on a monthly basis until such time, if at all, that such amounts are in arrears for in excess of sixty (60) days, in which event Landlord shall have the right to accelerate such amounts in accordance with Section 25(e)(iii) hereof.

(f) All covenants, terms and conditions to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be at its sole cost and expense and without any abatement of rental except as expressly provided herein. If Tenant shall fail to pay any sum of money, other than Basic Rental, required to be paid by it hereunder or shall fail to perform any other act on its part to be performed hereunder and such failure shall continue for thirty days after notice thereof by Landlord, and such failure results in an Event of Default, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated so to do, and without waiving or releasing Tenant from any obligations of Tenant, make any such payment or perform any such other act on Tenant's part to be made or performed as in this Lease provided. All sums so paid by Landlord and all necessary incidental costs shall be deemed additional rental hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord on demand, and Landlord shall have (in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord) the same rights and remedies in the event of the nonpayment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment of Basic Rental.

26. HOLDING OVER

It is hereby agreed that in the event of Tenant holding over after the termination of this Lease, by lapse of time or otherwise, thereafter the tenancy shall be from month to month in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord a monthly occupancy charge equal to (i) for the first sixty days of holdover, one hundred twenty-five percent of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year, and (ii) for any holdover beyond said sixty days, one hundred fifty percent of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year (plus all other charges payable by Tenant under this Lease) such occupancy charges to be payable from the expiration or termination of this Lease until the end of the calendar month in which the Premises are delivered to Landlord in the condition required herein. If Landlord shall enter into a new lease or amend an existing lease for premises in the Building for all or a portion of the Premises at the end of the Term, Landlord shall so notify Tenant and if Tenant fails to vacate and deliver all or such portion of the Premises to Landlord within sixty days after receipt of such notice (but in no event prior to the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease), Tenant shall be responsible for any and all damages incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's failure to so vacate and deliver the Premises or such portion thereof (including the loss of such lease or amendment).

27. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents have made any representations or promises with respect to the physical condition of the Building, the land upon which the Building is erected, or the Premises, the rents, leases, expenses of operation or any other matter or thing affecting or related to the Premises except as herein expressly set forth and no rights, easements or licenses are acquired by Tenant by implication or otherwise, except as expressly set forth in the provisions of this Lease. This Lease shall constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto; all prior agreements between the parties, whether written or oral, are merged herein and shall be of no force or effect. This Lease cannot be changed, modified or discharged orally but only by an agreement in writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, modification or discharge is sought.

28. NOTICES

All notices, consents, requests, demands, designations or other communications which may or are required to be given by either party to the other hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when (i) personally delivered; or (ii) three days after being deposited in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid; or (iii) one business day after being deposited with a nationally recognized overnight courier service; or (iv) sent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail to be immediately followed by delivery in accordance with the foregoing (i), (ii) or (iii), and in all instances addressed as follows: to Tenant at the address set forth in Section 1(k) hereof, or to such other place as Tenant may from time to time designate in a notice to Landlord; to Landlord at the address set forth in Section 1(l) hereof, or to such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate in a notice to Tenant. Notice need be sent to only one Tenant or Landlord where Tenant or Landlord is more than one person.

29. SUCCESSORS

This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, administrators, executors, representatives, successors and assigns.

30. TIME

Time is of the essence of this Lease and each and all of its provisions.

31. QUIET ENJOYMENT

Landlord warrants that Tenant, upon paying the rents hereinbefore provided and in performing each and every covenant hereof, shall peacefully and quietly hold, occupy and enjoy the Premises throughout the term hereof, without molestation or hindrance by any person holding under or through Landlord.

32. BROKERS

Tenant acknowledges that no real estate broker is responsible for bringing about or negotiating this Lease other than Bedrock Management Services LLC ("Broker") and Tenant has not dealt with any broker in connection with this Lease and/or the Premises other than Broker. Landlord and Tenant agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other from any expense or liability arising out of a claim for commission or other compensation by any broker other than Broker claiming or alleging to have acted on behalf of or to have dealt with it in connection with this Lease or the Premises. Landlord shall pay the commission due Broker in accordance with Landlord's separate agreement with Broker.

33. INABILITY TO PERFORM

(a) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault of the Landlord, Landlord is unable to furnish or is delayed in furnishing any utility or service required to be furnished by Landlord under the provisions of this Lease, or is unable to perform or make or is delayed in performing or making any installations, decorations, repairs, alterations, additions or improvements required to be performed or made under this Lease, or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Landlord's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute an actual or constructive eviction in whole or in part, or entitle Tenant to any abatement or diminution of rental or other charges due hereunder or relieve Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Landlord or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Tenant, or injury to or interruption of Tenant's business, or otherwise.

(b) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault of the Tenant, Tenant is delayed in performing work or doing any act required under the terms of this Lease or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute a default, or entitle or relieve Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Tenant or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Landlord.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 33 shall not operate to excuse either party from the prompt payment of the Rent or any other payments required by the terms of this Lease.

"Tenant's Property" as used herein shall mean all of Tenant's movable fixtures and movable partitions, telephone and telecommunication wiring and cabling and related equipment, computer systems, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, and other items of personal property located in the Premises. On or before the Expiration Date, any earlier date of termination of this Lease or the date that Tenant vacates from the Premises, whichever shall first occur, Tenant agrees to remove, at its sole cost and expense, all of Tenant's Property (unless Landlord consents in writing to Tenant's request to allow the Tenant's Property or any portion thereof to remain in the Premises). Tenant shall restore and repair (which shall include, without limitation, repairing any holes in the walls or tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing-up any slab penetrations in the Premises, all in a good and workmanlike manner), or promptly reimburse Landlord for the cost of restoring and repairing (including, without limitation, repairing any such holes in the walls and tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing any such slab penetrations) any and all damage done to the Premises or the Building by the removal of Tenant's Property or by the removal of leasehold improvements, alterations or other physical additions made by Tenant to the Premises which Landlord has directed or otherwise permitted Tenant to remove from the Premises. Tenant shall notify Landlord of its intention to affect the closing of any such slab penetrations at least thirty days prior to commencing such closings. If Tenant fails to remove any of Tenant's Property by the Expiration Date or any sooner date of termination of the Lease or, if Tenant fails to remove any leasehold improvements, alterations or other physical additions made by Tenant to the Premises which Landlord has in writing directed Tenant to remove, Landlord shall have the right, on the fifth day after Landlord's delivery of written notice to Tenant to deem such property abandoned by Tenant and to remove, store, sell, discard or otherwise deal with or dispose of such abandoned property in a commercially reasonable manner. Tenant shall be liable for all costs of such disposition of Tenant's abandoned property and the repair and restoration of the Premises, and Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant in any respect regarding such property of Tenant. The provisions of this Section 34 shall survive the expiration or any earlier termination of this Lease.

35. PARKING

(a) During the Term of this Lease, Tenant's employees and invitees shall have access to and the right to use the parking facilities located at the Development (the "Parking Facilities") on a first-come, first serve basis, provided that Tenant's employees and invitees shall have the exclusive right to use the reserved parking spaces within the Parking Facilities as depicted on Exhibit "C". Tenant will not permit its employees or invitees to use the Parking Facilities for transient parking purposes.

(b) Landlord shall not be considered to be an insurer, guarantor, or bailee of the safety or security of any employee, or of any vehicle, or of the contents of any vehicle, parked in the Parking Facilities. Tenant acknowledges (and will so advise all of its employees and invitees that use the Parking Facilities) that all of its employees must self-park and un-park their vehicles, and abide by all provisions of the rules and regulations of the Parking Facilities that may be applicable to their use of the Parking Facilities. Landlord does not guard or assume care, custody, or control of the vehicle or its contents and is not responsible to Tenant or any employees or to any individuals or entities making use of the Parking Facilities for fire, theft, damage, or loss, including any damage caused by any other vehicle parked in the Parking Facilities.

36. NO OPTION

The execution of this Lease by Tenant and the delivery of the same to Landlord shall not constitute a reservation of or option for the Premises or an agreement by Landlord to enter into a lease with Tenant and this Lease shall become effective only if and when Landlord's executes and delivers the same to Tenant; provided, however, that the execution and delivery of this Lease by Tenant to Landlord shall constitute an irrevocable offer by Tenant to lease the Premises on the terms and conditions herein contained, which offer may not be withdrawn or revoked by Tenant for thirty days after execution and delivery of this Lease to Landlord.

37. ANTENNA

(a) Tenant has the right to install a satellite dish(es), electronic transmitter(s) devices for similar purposes and the like (collectively, the "Antenna") on the roof of the Building and the right to install such Antenna on the other exterior surfaces of the Building in locations reasonably acceptable to Landlord to provide wireless services to the Premises, and to wire all such Antenna to the Premises in compliance with all applicable local zoning ordinances and regulations and in accordance with plans and specifications approved by Landlord and in a location approved by Landlord. In reviewing Tenant's Antenna plans Landlord may reasonably consider, among other things, material interference of Tenant's Antenna(s) with existing antenna and communication equipment on the roof of the Building. The cost of installation and maintenance thereof, and the cost of any repairs to the roof which are necessitated by the installation, repair and/or removal of the Antenna(s) shall be borne solely by Tenant. Upon the termination of this Lease, Tenant shall remove any Antenna(s) and repair any damage to the roof occasioned by such removal. Tenant shall also be permitted to run cable, fiber optic networks, and other systems and equipment throughout the Building in order to connect the various areas within the Building occupied from time to time by Tenant, and in order to connect such areas to outside telephone, cable, optical network and other providers in locations and pursuant to plans and specifications approved by Landlord. Further, Tenant shall be permitted to install throughout the Premises, access and security systems for Tenant's exclusive use (e.g., swipe card, combination lock, security cameras or otherwise), subject to Landlord's prior written approval thereof.

(b) Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all costs, loss, expense or liability of any kind whatsoever arising out of the installation, use and/or removal by Tenant of the Antenna. Tenant shall maintain a comprehensive general liability insurance policy, including contractual liability, as set forth in Section 20(b) hereof, so long as the Antenna is under construction, in place and/or being removed.

(c) Tenant shall work exclusively with Landlord's roofing contractor relating to the installation and/or removal of the Antenna and the roof penetration so as not to violate any requirements or invalidate Landlord's roof guaranty.

(d) Wherever Landlord's approval is required pursuant to this Section 37, such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

38. INDEMNIFICATION OF TENANT; LANDLORD'S INSURANCE

(a) Landlord shall hold Tenant harmless from and defend Tenant against any and all claims or liability for damages to any person or property in, on or about the common areas on the Development from the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees.

(b) Landlord shall procure and keep in effect during the entire term hereof commercial general liability and property damage insurance protecting Landlord and Tenant from all causes, including their own negligence, having as limits of liability Two Million Dollars for damages resulting from one occurrence. The commercial general liability insurance to be carried by Landlord hereunder shall include contractual liability and shall be in the amount of at least Two Million Dollars combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage per occurrence. Such policy shall specifically include the liability assumed hereunder by Landlord and shall provide that it is primary insurance and not excess of or contributory with any other valid existing applicable insurance maintained for or on behalf of Tenant. Landlord shall deliver policies of such insurance or certificates thereof to Tenant prior to the Commencement Date and thereafter at least thirty days before the expiration dates of expiring policies. Such insurance shall not be cancelable without thirty days' written notice to Tenant.

(c) Landlord shall, during the Term, provide and keep in force an all risks policy for the full replacement cost of the Building, excluding trade fixtures, furniture and equipment of tenants.

39. LANDLORD'S DEFAULT

(a) Landlord shall not be deemed in default under the terms of this Lease unless (i) Landlord shall fail to pay any amount payable hereunder when and as such sum becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than thirty days after written notice thereof from Tenant or (ii) Landlord shall fail to perform its obligations under this Lease for more than thirty days after written notice of such default shall have been received by Landlord (except in the event of an Emergency, in which case no notice or cure period shall be required), provided that if the curing of such default reasonably requires in excess of thirty days (except in the case of an Emergency), Landlord shall not be deemed in default hereunder if it shall commence to cure such default within such thirty day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure, then Tenant shall have its rights and remedies provided at law and in equity and pursuant to the provisions of this Lease. In addition and notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, if any such default materially and adversely affects Tenant's use of the Premises then, Tenant shall have the right but not the obligation to cure or correct said default provided Tenant shall give Landlord five days' prior written notice of its intention to cure or correct the Landlord default (and for defaults for which Landlord is provided a five day cure period, Landlord has failed to cure said default within such five day cure period) except in an Emergency when only reasonable notice will be provided.

(b) In connection with the exercise of its rights under this Section, Tenant shall use reasonable efforts not to materially and adversely affect other tenants' occupancy of the Building and Tenant may only engage the Contractors to perform any work involving the Critical Building Systems (as hereinafter defined). If Tenant elects to cure as aforesaid. Tenant (i) shall, to the extent feasible and practical, as determined by Tenant, coordinate the exercise of any self help remedies with Landlord, and (ii) may demand payment from Landlord of those reasonable and necessary costs paid by Tenant to effect such cure or correction. Landlord shall, within thirty days after receipt of Tenant's request (together with reasonable back-up), reimburse to Tenant all such reasonable and necessary costs actually incurred by Tenant in connection with such cure or correction. If Landlord fails to pay such costs or any other sums due Tenant under this Lease to Tenant within such thirty day period, Tenant may deduct such costs from the next due installments of Basic Rental and all other sums payable under this Lease. Tenant shall be responsible for any loss or damage suffered by Landlord and caused by the negligence of Tenant or Tenant's contractors in performing any such work pursuant to this Section 39. As used in this Section 39, the term "Critical Building Systems" shall mean the fire and life safety systems, Building management systems, roofing and the tie in of fire and life safety systems of the Premises into the Building systems.

(c) The provisions of this Section 39 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

40. LANDLORD'S REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

(a) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that (i) to the best of Landlord's knowledge without inquiry, the Development does not contain any Hazardous Materials in violation of any applicable laws, and (ii) upon discovery at the Development of any Hazardous Materials in violation of any applicable laws, Landlord shall take such actions as may be required by applicable governmental agencies to remove, remediate, or otherwise correct such conditions. For purposes hereof, "Hazardous Materials" shall mean any toxic or hazardous waste or substance (including, without limitation, asbestos and petroleum products) which is regulated by applicable law.

(b) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that, as of the date of full execution of this Lease and continuing through recording of the Memorandum of Lease pursuant to Section 44 hereof, Landlord is the fee simple title holder of the Building and the Development, and that neither the Building nor the Development is the subject of a ground lease, and that no easements, encumbrances and other matters of record prohibit the conduct by Tenant of Tenant's Use (as defined in Section 1W hereof) at the Premises or Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the Premises pursuant to this Lease.

(c) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that:

(i) Except as provided below, Landlord has not received any notice nor does it have any knowledge of any violation of any laws, zoning ordinances or building rules or regulations affecting the Building or the Development nor has Landlord received any notice of nor has Landlord any knowledge of or information as to any existing or threatened condemnation or other legal action of any kind involving the Building or the Development;

(ii) Landlord has not received notice nor does it have any knowledge of any building code violation with respect to the Building or the Development;

(iii) To Landlord's knowledge, all required permits and approvals, including environmental approvals and permits, necessary for the operation of the Building and the Development have been obtained and all improvements and all parts thereof are in conformity with all applicable governmental and other legal requirements; and

(iv) Landlord has no knowledge of any major structural or mechanical defects in the Building.

(d) As used in this Section 40, the knowledge of Landlord shall refer only to the actual knowledge of James A. Ketai and Eric Randolph.

41. OPTION

Tenant has the option, by delivery of written notice to Landlord, at any time during the term of this Lease, to lease any space in the Building that has not yet been leased to another tenant, on the same terms and conditions as set forth in this Lease. In such event, an addendum to this Lease shall be executed by Landlord and Tenant which identifies the additional space, the Premises shall be deemed to include such additional space, and the base rental payable hereunder and Tenant's Share will be increased proratably based on the additional rentable square footage added to the Premises.

42. RIGHT OF FIRST OFFER

43. SIGNS

Tenant shall be entitled to have its name on the directory in the lobby of the Building, as well as adjacent to the door to the Premises, in both instances, at Landlord's cost and expense so long as all such signage is Building standard.

44. MEMORANDUM OF LEASE

Upon Tenant's request, Landlord will execute and deliver to Tenant a Memorandum of Lease in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "E" or such other form agreed to by Landlord and Tenant which may be recorded at the election of either party in the applicable land record offices.

45. TENANT FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(a) Subject to subsection (b) below, upon Landlord's written request, Tenant shall promptly furnish Landlord, from time to time, with Tenant's financial statements reflecting Tenant's current financial condition. Landlord shall use all of its reasonable efforts to maintain the confidentiality of such statements provided same may be disclosed to Landlord's agents, attorneys and accountants and to Landlord's owners, prospective owners, lenders and prospective lenders, but Landlord shall relay to each recipient such obligation regarding the confidentially of such statements.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) above, if Tenant and Landlord are no longer under common control, Tenant shall only be obligated to provide financial data to Landlord upon thirty days following written request from Landlord and that is reasonably necessary to facilitate the financing of all or substantially all of the Building or the sale of the Building, subject to receipt by Tenant of a commercially reasonable confidentiality agreement.

2. PREMISES

(a) Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord those premises (hereinafter referred to as the "Premises"), described in Section 1(d) hereof and designated on Exhibit "A" attached hereto in the building commonly known as Chase Office Tower, 611 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan (hereinafter referred to as the "Building"), together with the non-exclusive right and easement to use the common facilities which may from time to time be furnished by Landlord in common with Landlord and the tenants and occupants (their agents, employees, customers and invitees) of the Building. The Building and common areas are hereafter referred to as the "Development" which is more particularly described on Exhibit "B" hereto. As used in this Lease, the term "Phase Two" shall mean those portions of the Premises, consisting of approximately 104,070 rentable square feet of floor area, which are designated as "Phase Two" on the floor plans attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and the term Phase One shall mean those portions of the Premises which are outside of Phase Two, consisting of approximately 228,000 rentable square feet of floor area. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Phase One and Phase Two will not be completed and delivered to Tenant simultaneously. The date Phase Two is completed and delivered to Tenant as provided in Section 3(a) hereof is herein referred to as the "Effective Date."

(b) The rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building shall be computed based upon the 1996 BOMA Standard Method of Measuring Floor Area in Office Buildings, ANSI/BOMA Z65.1-1996, and the rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building, shall contain a proportionate share of the common areas of the Building, utilizing a common area load factor not to exceed twelve (12%) percent.

(c) The rentable square foot area of the Premises shall be measured by Landlord's Architect, and Landlord's Architect shall certify the rentable square foot area to Landlord and Tenant; provided, however, that if Tenant disagrees with the measurement or calculation by Landlord's architect, an independent architect jointly selected by Landlord and Tenant shall promptly measure such portion of the Premises and its determination shall be binding on the parties. In the event such certification or determination shall contain a rentable square foot area different than that previously utilized, Landlord and Tenant shall promptly execute and deliver an amendment to this Lease reflecting the rentable square foot area set forth in such certification and Section 1(j) shall be revised accordingly.

(d) Tenant shall be allowed access to the Premises and reasonable portions of the common areas twenty-four (24) hours a day, three hundred sixty-five (365) days a year using card readers, or keys, provided that Tenant shall not materially interfere with Landlord's construction activities. Access to the Premises shall be in the same general location and have the same general utility as the access afforded on the Commencement Date with respect to Phase One and on the Effective Date with respect to Phase Two.

3. TERM

(a) The term of this Lease shall commence (i) with respect to Phase One, on the Commencement Date set forth in Section 1(e) hereof, and (ii) with respect to Phase Two on the Effective Date. The term of this Lease shall expire on the Expiration Date set forth in Section 1(f) hereof. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, during the course of Landlord's construction of the Premises, Tenant and its contractors shall be granted access seven (7) days a week, twenty four (24) hours per day to the Premises in order to install data and telephone wiring and other improvements, provided Tenant coordinates such access with Landlord and Tenant does not unreasonably interfere with Landlord's completion of the Premises and that Tenant or its workers provide no interference to the work or other tenants of the Building or Development. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if Landlord does not deliver possession of the Premises in the condition required pursuant to this Lease within the time frame set forth in this Lease, if Tenant incurs occupancy costs in the premises to be vacated by Tenant in connection with Tenant's occupancy of the Premises, in excess of the occupancy costs to be incurred by Tenant under this Lease (assuming no free rent under this Lease) ("Additional Occupancy Costs"), Tenant shall be permitted to offset the Additional Occupancy Costs against the first due installments of Basic Rental due under this Lease.

(b) In the event of the inability of Landlord to deliver possession of Phase One on the Commencement Date and/or Phase Two on the intended Effective Date, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage caused thereby, nor shall this Lease be void or voidable, but Tenant unless it is responsible for such delay, shall not be liable for any Rent (as hereinafter defined) until such time as Landlord can and does deliver possession of such Premises to Tenant. No failure to give possession on the Commencement Date or Effective Date, as the case may be, shall in any way effect the obligations of Tenant hereunder, provided that the Commencement Date (but not the Expiration Date) shall be extended for the period from the date set forth in Section 1(e) hereof until the date on which Landlord gives possession of the Premises to Tenant. Upon establishment of the Commencement Date and the Effective Date, Tenant shall, if Landlord shall so request, execute and deliver a letter setting forth the Commencement Date and the Effective Date.

(c) From time to time, Tenant shall furnish Landlord, upon request a letter addressed to Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee stating that Tenant has accepted the Premises for occupancy, the Premises have been completed as herein required, and setting forth the Commencement Date and Expiration Dates of this Lease and such other information relating to the Premises as either Landlord or its mortgagee may reasonably request. Within twenty (20) business days after Tenant's request therefor, Landlord shall deliver to any lender holding a security interest in Tenant's personal property located within the Premises, an acknowledgement and subordination in form reasonably acceptable to Landlord, Tenant and Tenant's lender.

(d) (i) Tenant shall have the right, if it is not then in default after notice thereof, to extend the term of this Lease for two (2) additional periods of five (5) years each upon the terms and conditions as are stated in this Lease (other than the grant of any extension rights in addition to those provided for in this Section 3(d)) and at the Basic Rental determined in accordance with Section 3(d)(ii) below. Tenant shall exercise such right, it at all, at least seven (7) months prior to the expiration of the original term of this Lease or such prior extension period, as the case may be. If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the term of this Lease within the period of time for exercise set forth in this Section, Tenant's option to extend the term of this Lease shall continue in full force and effect until Landlord shall have given Tenant notice of such failure to exercise said option. If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the term of this Lease within ten (10) business days after receipt of such notice from Landlord, then and only then shall Tenant's option to extend the term of this Lease expire. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Tenant has not yet exercised its right to so extend the term and Tenant is in default under this Lease after notice thereof but prior to the expiration of any applicable cure period at the expiration of the period for Tenant to exercise such right to extend, the period for Tenant to exercise its right to so extend the term shall be extended for a period equal to the period from Tenant's receipt of such notice of default until Tenant cures such default (but only if Tenant cures such default within the applicable cure period), which extension period shall commence on the date of such cure. The then current term shall be extended for a like period. In no event shall such extension period exceed three (3) months.

(ii) In the event Tenant shall exercise its right to so extend the term of this Lease in accordance with Section 3(d)(i) above, the Basic Rental for each such extension period shall be determined in accordance with this Section 3(d)(ii).

(A) Within ten (10) business days after the exercise by Tenant of such right to extend the term of this Lease for such extension period, Landlord shall submit to Tenant Landlord's determination of the Market Rental, as defined below, for the Premises for such extension period. If Tenant does not notify Landlord of its acceptance of such Market Rental as so determined by Landlord within ten (10) business days after receipt thereof, then the parties shall proceed as provided in Section (B) below.

(B) Landlord and Tenant shall negotiate in good faith to agree upon the Market Rental for such extension period, and if Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree within ten (10) business days, the determination of the Market Rental shall be made in accordance with Section (C) below.

(C) Within ten (10) business days after the expiration of the ten (10) business day period referred to in Section (B) above, Landlord and Tenant shall mutually select an MAI appraiser with experience in real estate activities, including at least five (5) years of current experience in appraising office space in Detroit, Michigan, If the parties cannot agree on such an appraiser, then within five (5) business days thereafter, each shall select an independent MAI appraiser meeting the aforementioned criteria and within five (5) business days thereafter the two appointed appraisers shall select a third neutral appraiser meeting the aforementioned criteria and the third appraiser shall determine the Market Rental for such extension period in accordance with Section (D) below. If either Landlord or Tenant shall fail to make such appointment within said five (5) business day period, the other shall make such appointment on its behalf.

(D) Once the appraiser or third appraiser has been selected as provided in Section (C) above, each of Landlord and Tenant shall submit to such appraiser its suggested Market Rental. As soon thereafter as practical, the appraiser shall select one of the two suggested Market Rentals submitted by Landlord and Tenant (and no other) that is closer to the one determined by the third appraiser. The Market Rental so selected by the appraiser shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall equally share the cost of such appraisal.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 3(d), "Market Rental" shall mean ninety five percent (95%) of the projected fair market rent for office space containing the rentable size of the Premises during such extension period, as of the commencement of such extension period, based upon the rates then in effect in the Building and other similar buildings in Detroit, Michigan. The Market Rental shall take into account the refurbishment allowance provided by Landlord in Section 3(d)(iv) below.

(iv) Landlord shall have no obligation to do any work or perform any special services with respect to the Premises for such extension period, which Tenant agrees to accept in their then "as is" condition; provided, however, that Landlord shall provide Five Dollars ($5.00) per rentable square foot based upon the size of the Premises at the time of Tenant's exercise of each option. Such amounts may be utilized by Tenant for new floor coverings, wall coverings, painting and such other items as Tenant may desire to "freshen-up" or otherwise improve the Premises in Tenant's discretion. Landlord shall pay such amounts to Tenant from time to time within thirty (30) days following Tenant's delivery to Landlord of Tenant's demand therefor accompanied by reasonable back-up information, including, without limitation, sworn statements and lien waivers. Tenant shall be solely responsible for any amounts in excess of those to be provided by Landlord hereunder for such purposes.

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord as rental for the Premises during each year of the term of this Lease the amount set forth in Section 1(g) hereof. Such rental shall be payable in advance, in equal monthly installments upon the first day of each and every month throughout the term of this Lease; provided, however, that if the lease term shall commence on a day other than the first day of a calendar month or shall end on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the rental for such first or last fractional month shall be such proportion of the monthly rental as the number of days in such fractional month bears to the total number of days in the calendar month.

(b) Rent and all other charges hereunder shall promptly be paid without prior demand therefor and without deductions or setoffs for any reason whatsoever, except as expressly herein provided, and overdue rent and any other sums payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder shall bear interest during delinquency until paid at a rate of interest equal to two percent (2%) in excess of the "Prime Rate" published from time to time by The Wall Street Journal (hereinafter referred to as the "Interest Rate"). In addition, if any payment of rent is not paid when due, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to three and one half percent (3.5%) of each late payment. Landlord shall have no obligation to accept less than the full amount of all installments of rental and interest thereon and all charges hereunder which are due and owing by Tenant to Landlord, and if Landlord shall accept less than the full amount owing, Landlord may apply the sums received towards any of Tenant's obligations at Landlord's discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not be required to pay the late charge or the interest provided for therein on up to two (2) occasions during each calendar year, provided such payments are made to Landlord within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt of written notice that the same are past due.

If on the basis of such statement, Tenant owes an amount that is more than the estimated payment for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses or Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Tenant shall pay the deficiency to Landlord within thirty (30) days after delivery of the statement.

If this Lease shall terminate on a day other than the last day of a calendar year, Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes that are applicable to the calendar year in which such termination shall occur shall be prorated on the basis of the number of calendar days within such year as are within the term of this Lease. Any refund due Tenant with respect to the last year of the Term shall be refunded to it within thirty (30) days after the receipt of such statement.

For a period of two (2) years after delivery of each such statement to which such records relate, Tenant shall have the right upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Landlord to inspect Landlord's records relating to Taxes and Expenses. Such inspection shall be conducted at Landlord's offices during normal business hours at Tenant's expense. Such inspection may not be conducted by a person or firm compensated on a contingent fee basis. If such inspection shall disclose that Tenant has paid five percent (5%) or more in excess of that required to be paid hereunder and Landlord shall accept such determination, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the reasonable cost of such inspection. Tenant shall have no right to offset the amount of any overpayment unless Landlord shall accept such determination. If Landlord and Tenant do not agree on any overpayment or underpayment within thirty (30) days, either Landlord or Tenant may cause an independent Big Four accountant firm to resolve the dispute, whose determination shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant and the fees shall be split equally between Landlord and Tenant.

Tenant will pay for any repairs to the Premises or the Building or the Development made necessary by any negligence or carelessness of Tenant or its employees or persons permitted in the Building or the Development by Tenant, unless the same are covered by the insurance carried or required to be carried by Landlord hereunder.

8. IMPROVEMENTS AND ALTERATIONS

(a) As used in this Lease, the term "Landlord's Work" shall refer to the improvements set forth on Exhibit "C" attached hereto and made a part hereof, which are intended to provide Tenant with a turn-key build-out inclusive of the restrooms on the floors on which the Premises are situated. In addition to the provisions of Exhibit "C', Landlord shall construct turnstiles in the lobby of the Building pursuant to plans and specifications approved by Tenant, and the Tenant Allowance shall be charged in connection therewith the lesser of (i) fifty percent (50%) of the cost for the turnstiles and the installation thereof, and (ii) []. Landlord shall cause Landlord's Work to be constructed substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications theretofore prepared by Landlord's architect. All of Landlord's Work (if plans and specs are necessary) shall be performed by Landlord in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by Landlord and subject to Tenant's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Landlord shall revise such plans and specifications as reasonably required in order to obtain Tenant's approval. Subject to the provisions of Section 8(b)(ii) below, all of Landlord's Work shall be performed by Landlord at Landlord's sole cost and expense. Landlord shall complete all of Landlord's Work in a first-class and good and workmanlike manner, using good materials, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications (if necessary), and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the federal, state and municipal governments, or any department or division thereof, including, without limitation, building codes.

(b) (i) (A) Based upon the mutually approved space plan prepared by Landlord's Architect, Landlord's Architect shall prepare plans and specifications for Landlord's Work, Landlord shall submit such plans and specifications to Tenant for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If Tenant shall fail to supply such approval or comments in writing within ten (10) business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such plans and specifications. The cost of the space plan and the cost of such final plans and specifications shall be paid by Landlord but shall be charged against the Tenant Allowance, To the extent the plans and specifications are identified in Exhibit "C" attached hereto, the plans and specifications have been approved in advance by Landlord.

(B) Upon approval of such plans and specifications by Tenant, Landlord shall obtain at least three (3) competitive bids (where reasonably available) for all major trades (including, but not limited to, HVAC and electrical) constituting Landlord's Work. Tenant may add bidders to the bid list. Such bids shall be submitted to Tenant prior to the award of the contract to which the same relate. The work shall be awarded to the low bidder, provided it is a responsible party (and reasonably acceptable to Landlord and Tenant), its bid is complete and Landlord has no other reasonable objection to it. Based upon such competitive bids, Landlord shall submit the cost of Landlord's Work to Tenant, for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. In the event Tenant does not approve or submit comments to such costs to Landlord within ten (10) business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such costs. If Tenant does not approve such plans and specifications and/or costs, Landlord and Tenant shall cooperate in order to revise the plans and specifications in a manner acceptable to the parties. Landlord's Work shall be performed on a so-called "open book" basis, with Tenant having the right to audit all of Landlord's records relating to the cost of such work.

(ii) (A) Landlord shall complete the Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications ("Plans") up to a cost of [] per rentable square foot of the Premises (the "Tenant Allowance"); provided, however, the Tenant Allowance shall not be applied to the cost of the renovation of the restrooms and the Tenant Allowance shall not be paid on the square footage attributable to the restrooms. Except as specifically otherwise provided under this Lease, the Tenant Allowance to be paid by Landlord to Tenant in accordance with this Lease shall only be used for the purpose of constructing Long-Lived Improvements (as hereinafter defined) at the Premises. Landlord and Tenant may prepare a schedule to this Lease, which schedule may be updated from time to time by Landlord and Tenant, setting forth a list of the Long-Lived Improvements. As used herein, a "Long-Lived Improvement" is an improvement (a) made at the Premises; (b) with an economic useful life which extends beyond the term of this Lease, (c) title to which shall vest in Landlord in accordance with the Lease and (d) for which funds available through the Tenant Allowance are applied. Tenant shall pay all costs incurred by Landlord in connection with completing the work and providing the items set forth in the Plans in excess of the Tenant Allowance ("Excess Costs") within thirty (30) days after the later to occur of (i) receipt by Tenant of an invoice therefore, and (ii) the Commencement Date, with respect to Phase One and the Effective Date with respect to Phase Two; and which shall be itemized on invoice(s) to Tenant. If the cost of so completing the improvements that could constitute Long-Lived Improvements at the Premises in accordance with the Plans is less than the Tenant Allowance, Tenant shall forego the amount of the Tenant Allowance that is not expended on Long-Lived Improvements and the rent per rentable square feet shall be reduced ratably over the lease term on a basis commensurate with the formula in which rent per rentable square foot was calculated based upon a Landlord contribution of Sixty Dollars ($60.00) per rentable square foot of the Premises. Title and/or ownership of all personal property invoiced to Tenant by Landlord or paid by Tenant directly shall be that of the Tenant. Landlord and Tenant intend that, for US federal, state, and local income tax purposes, Landlord will be treated as the owner of the Long-Lived Improvements constructed by Tenant with the Tenant Allowance received by Tenant from Landlord. Tenant shall depreciate, for federal income tax purposes, any work, alterations, and/or Tenant's property constructed, improved or acquired by Tenant with Tenant's funds to the extent that the same does not include any Tenant Allowance or funds improvements other than Long-Lived Improvements. Landlord and Tenant each agree that, for US federal, state and local income tax purposes, neither party shall take any action or file any return or other document inconsistent with these intentions unless directed by the Internal Revenue Service.

(B) In computing Landlord's costs of completing the Premises, Landlord shall receive a fee of two percent (2%) for profit, and its actual overhead and administrative costs.

(iii) Landlord shall diligently prosecute Landlord's Work to completion without interruption or delay, in a first-class and good and workmanlike manner, using good materials, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the federal, state and municipal governments, or any department or division thereof, including, without limitation, building codes and installation of required fire suppression equipment. Landlord, at Landlord's expense, shall procure all building and other permits, approvals and inspections necessary for performing Landlord's Work pursuant to the approved plans and specifications, the cost of which shall be charged against the Tenant Allowance. Landlord shall endeavor to substantially complete Landlord's Work with respect to Phase One and deliver possession of Phase One to Tenant on or before October 1, 2011 and Landlord shall endeavor to substantially complete Landlord's Work with respect to Phase Two and deliver possession of Phase Two to Tenant on or before January 1,2012.

(iv) Landlord has designated Bedrock Management Services LLC as its representative who shall have general responsibility for the supervision, management and completion of Landlord's Work, and Tenant may direct to him all inquiries regarding Landlord's Work and the scheduling of Landlord's Work and Tenant's inspections thereof, and Tenant's installation of its fixtures, equipment and other improvements, and Tenant's occupancy of the Premises.

(v) Tenant shall have the right to designate a representative who shall have the right (but not the obligation) to attend all construction meetings, to inspect the performance of Landlord's Work and to notify Landlord in writing if said performance does not conform to the approved plans and specifications. If there is a disagreement as to whether such performance substantially conforms to the approved plans and specifications which cannot be resolved by the parties within three (3) days after Landlord's receipt of such notice, then such matter shall be submitted to the Landlord's Architect, and its decision shall be controlling.

(vi) In the event Tenant desires to have improvements installed in the Premises in addition to or in lieu of the improvements provided for in the approved plans and specifications, Tenant shall so advise Landlord and submit to Landlord complete plans and specifications for such improvements. Tenant shall immediately cause such plans and specifications to be revised in order to comply with Landlord's reasonable comments to such plans and specifications. Tenant shall be responsible for all costs associated with such changes, Upon approval of such plans and specifications by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall advise Tenant of the cost of constructing and installing such improvements, and upon approval of such costs by Tenant, Landlord will commence construction and installation of such improvements; provided, however, that Tenant may revise such plans in order to reduce such costs, subject to Landlord's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(vii) During the construction of Landlord's Work, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a schedule for the completion of the remainder of Landlord's Work and such other information as Tenant may reasonably request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant if it fails to meet such schedule.

(viii) (A) From and after the commencement of Landlord's Work in the Premises, Landlord shall supply to Tenant weekly status reports. Each portion of the Premises shall be deemed completed and possession delivered to Tenant when Landlord has substantially completed its improvements subject only to the completion of details of construction and mechanical adjustments which do not materially interfere with Tenant use of such Premises and Landlord has delivered to Tenant Landlord's architect's certificate of substantial completion and a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy issued by the applicable governmental entity. If a temporary certificate of occupancy has been issued, Landlord shall diligently complete the items necessary in order to obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy and obtain the same.

(B) For purposes hereof, "Tenant Delay" shall mean any incremental delay in Landlord's performance of Landlord's Work that occurs as the result of (i) any change by Tenant to the space plan after submission thereof to Landlord and/or the approved plans and specifications for such work; (ii) any delay in such work caused by the installation of Tenant's fixtures in the Premises or the performance of any other work by Tenant at the Premises; and (iii) Tenant specifying any materials or equipment which are not readily available in the market and require long-lead time to obtain. Upon the occurrence of any event that Landlord contends is a Tenant Delay, Landlord shall promptly deliver notice to Tenant thereof, together with Landlord's reasonable estimate of the expected delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a delay shall only be considered a Tenant Delay if such delay causes an incremental delay in the completion of the Tenant Improvements. For example, if Landlord is delayed by the unavailability of certain materials and Tenant causes a delay while Landlord is delayed by such unavailability of materials so that no further actual incremental delay is caused by Tenant, such delay by Tenant shall not constitute a "Tenant Delay" hereunder. In the event of any Tenant Delays, the Premises shall be deemed to have been completed on the date Landlord and Tenant reasonably determine the Premises would have been so completed but for such Tenant Delays.

(ix) If any dispute shall arise as to whether Landlord has so completed the Premises on the date of such completion, the matter shall be submitted to Landlord's Architect for its determination and its decision shall be binding upon the parties.

(x) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Tenant shall have the right prior to the Commencement Date with respect to Phase One and prior to the Effective Date with respect thereto with respect to Phase Two, to submit a so-called punch list of incomplete or defective items in Landlord's Work and Landlord shall promptly remedy all such items. If any dispute shall arise between the parties as to such list, such matter shall be submitted to Landlord's Architect for determination and its decision shall be binding upon the parties.

(xi) Whenever matters are submitted to Landlord's Architect for determination pursuant to the terms of this Lease, the fee of Landlord's Architect shall be charged against the Allowance.

(c) Landlord guarantees all work performed by or for Landlord in connection with the completion of the Premises against defective workmanship and materials for the period of one (1) year from the substantial completion thereof. Thereafter, Landlord will cooperate with Tenant in enforcing the warranties of workmanship and materials which Landlord received with respect to such construction to the extent that the repair thereof is Tenant's responsibility hereunder.

(d) (i) Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements without the prior written consent of Landlord. Any such alterations, additions or improvements (except movable furniture and trade fixtures) shall at once become a part of the realty and belong to Landlord. The same shall be made by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Subject to Section 8(c), upon termination of this Lease, Tenant shall upon demand by Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, forthwith remove any alterations, additions or improvements.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8(d)(i) or (e) to the contrary, Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to non-material, nonstructural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises and Landlord will not unreasonably withhold its consent to any material non-structural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises and/or to any structural alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises, provided notice is first given in writing by Tenant to Landlord and written approval by Landlord is required for any alteration, addition or improvement that would materially affect any mechanical or electrical system. For purposes of this Section 8(d), demising walls, but not interior office walls, are deemed structural.

(iii) Landlord acknowledges that Tenant's furniture, trade fixtures, business equipment and personalty shall not be deemed alterations, additions or improvements which become Landlord's property pursuant to Section 8(d).

(e) Any repairs made pursuant to Section 7(b) hereof or alterations and improvements made pursuant to this Section 8 by Tenant as required and permitted hereunder shall be made and performed (i) as Landlord may designate on a reasonable basis, (ii) in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations of Landlord and governmental authorities having jurisdiction, (iii) in the case of new construction in keeping with plans and specifications theretofore having been approved in advance by Landlord, (iv) using mechanics and contractors having been approved by Landlord which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall do all such work affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof, and (v) in a reasonable fashion to minimize noise, litter and/or odors resulting therefrom. The work performed by Landlord affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof pursuant to subsection 8(e)(iv) shall be at reasonable and competitive cost. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable costs of third party review of Tenant's proposed structural alterations or those to the mechanical or electrical systems.

(f) Landlord shall have the right at any time to change the arrangement and/or location of entrances or passageways, doors and doorways and corridors, elevators, stairs, toilets or other public parts of the Building and to change the name, number or designation by which the Building is commonly known. Landlord shall have the right at any time to change the arrangement and/or location of the parking and common areas of the Development. In exercising its rights pursuant to Section 8(f) hereof, Landlord shall not unreasonably interfere with Tenant's access to the Premises or its operations therein.

9. LIENS

Tenant shall keep the Premises free from any liens arising out of any work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Tenant. In the event that Tenant shall not, within twenty (20) days following receipt of notice of the imposition of any such lien, cause the same to be released of record by payment or posting of a proper bond, Landlord shall have, in addition to all other remedies provided herein and by law, the right to cause the same to be released by such means as it shall reasonably deem proper, including payment of the claim giving rise to such lien. All such sums paid by Landlord and all expenses incurred by it in connection therewith shall be deemed additional rent and shall be payable by Tenant on demand with interest at the Interest Rate.

10. USE OF PREMISES

(a) The Premises are leased to Tenant for the use set forth in Section 1(1) hereof and for no other purpose whatsoever. Tenant agrees that it will use the Premises in such manner as not to injure, annoy, interfere with or infringe on the rights of other tenants or use or allow the Premises to be used for any improper, immoral or unlawful purpose or to permit unpleasant odors to be emitted therefrom. Tenant agrees to comply with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations and comply with all requirements of Landlord's insurance policies and the American Insurance Association now or hereafter in force in connection with its use of the Premises. Tenant shall not commit or suffer the commission of any waste, overload any floor of the Premises beyond the load limit reasonably established by Landlord or permit any explosives to enter the Development. Tenant shall not do or permit anything to be done on or about the Premises or bring or keep anything therein which will in any way increase the fire insurance premium upon the Building. Tenant shall not use any portion of the Premises for the preparation, sale or consumption of food by the public. Tenant shall have the right to contest, without cost to Landlord, the validity or application of any such governmental law, ordinance or regulation required to be complied with by Tenant pursuant to this Section 10 and may postpone compliance therewith, provided such contest does not subject Landlord to criminal prosecution for noncompliance therewith and, further, provided, that Tenant promptly pays all fines, penalties and other costs and interest thereon imposed upon Landlord as a result of such noncompliance.

(b) During the Lease Term, Landlord shall not permit any portion of the Development to be used or occupied for a use which would be inconsistent with maintaining a highly respected public image for the Building, including, without limitation, any of the "Prohibited Uses," described on Exhibit "I" hereto. Tenant agrees not to use, or permit to be used any portion of, the Premises for any of the Prohibited Uses.

(c) During the Term, without the prior written consent of Tenant, which may be withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord shall not suffer or permit any portion of the Building (other than the Premises) to be occupied by any residential mortgage lender or residential mortgage broker, real estate broker, bank (other than a full service retail branch bank that does not specialize in the making of residential mortgage loans as a primary business) or title insurance company (collectively, "Tenant's Exclusive Uses").

(d) In the event of a violation of the provisions of Sections 10(b) or (c) all Rent shall abate and Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease pursuant to this Section during the period commencing on the date of the violation of Sections 10(b) or (c)and ending on the date which is Two Hundred Seventy (270) days after Landlord has received written notice of such violation by Tenant's having given thirty (30) days written notice to Landlord, in which event all further obligations under the Lease shall terminate on the date specified in Tenant's notice, Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any and all liability thereafter accruing hereunder, and any Rent paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant within thirty (30) days after termination of the Lease. Tenant's failure to exercise the termination option is not a waiver of Tenant's continuing right to do so as long as a violation of the provisions of Sections 10(b) or (c) exists. Without limiting Tenant's rights and remedies under this Section, Tenant shall have all available legal and equitable remedies (including injunction) in the event of a violation of the provisions of Sections 10(b) or (c). "Untenantable" means that Tenant shall be unable to occupy and shall not be occupying the Premises or the applicable portion thereof for the conduct of business ordinarily conducted in the Premises as a result of the Casualty.

(c) If by reason of a Casualty (i) the Building shall be totally damaged or destroyed, or (ii) the Building shall be so damaged or destroyed (whether or not the Premises are damaged or destroyed) that repair or restoration shall require more than one hundred eighty (180) days, and/or if the Casualty is not insured under the insurance Landlord is required to carry or carries hereunder, then in any such case Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease by notice given to the other party within thirty (30) days after Landlord receives or should have received the Estimate (as defined in Section 14(d) below) and Tenant shall have no restoration obligations with respect to the Premises. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, Landlord may not terminate this Lease unless clause (i) or (ii) above applies and Landlord has elected to and does not rebuild the Building following the Casualty,

(d) (i) Within sixty (60) days after the date of any Casualty, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant an estimate prepared by a reputable third party disinterested contractor selected by Landlord and reasonably approved by Tenant setting forth such contractor's estimate as to the time reasonably required to perform the Required Restoration Work; provided, that if Landlord shall fail to deliver such estimate within twenty (20) days after Landlord's receipt of written notice that Landlord has failed to provide such Estimate, Tenant may designate a contractor (subject to Landlord's reasonable approval thereof; provided, that if Landlord fails to approve or disapprove any contractor designated by Tenant within ten (10) days after the giving of notice by Tenant, such contractor shall be deemed to be approved by Landlord) to prepare the same (the contractor designated by either Landlord or Tenant pursuant to this sentence is called the "Contractor" and the estimate prepared by the Contractor is called the "Estimate").

(ii) In the event according to the Estimate, the Premises cannot be restored to tenantable condition within a period of one hundred eighty (180) days following the Casualty, then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice ("Casualty Termination Notice") to Landlord within thirty (30) days following Tenant's receipt of the Estimate. In addition, if Landlord has not completed such restoration within such one hundred eighty (180) day period, and if Landlord does not complete such restoration within thirty (30) days after notice from Tenant of such failure to complete such restoration, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease at any time after the expiration of such one hundred eighty (180) day period and prior to the completion of such restoration by written notice to Landlord.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if following a Casualty twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the Premises is Untenantable for a period of thirty (30) days, and within such thirty (30) day period Landlord has not made reasonably equivalent space in the Building available to Tenant, Tenant may terminate the Lease upon notice to Landlord; such notice shall also be deemed a Casualty Termination Notice.

(iv) If Tenant gives a Casualty Termination Notice pursuant to this Section 11.4, this Lease shall terminate on the thirtieth (30^{th}) day after such notice is given by Tenant or such longer time period (not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days) as specified in such Casualty Termination Notice and Tenant shall vacate the Premises and surrender the same to Landlord in accordance with the terms of this Lease; provided, that Tenant shall have no restoration obligations with respect to portions of the Premises rendered Untenantable by such Casualty, Upon any such termination of this Lease, Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any and all liability thereafter accruing hereunder, and any Rent paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant within thirty (30) days after termination of the Lease.

(v) Time is of the essence with respect to all of the time periods set forth in this Section 14(d).

(e) (i) Landlord and Tenant shall reasonably cooperate with each other in connection with the performance by Landlord of the Required Restoration Work and the repair or replacement by Tenant of Tenant's property, provided that Tenant shall not unreasonably interfere with the Required Restoration Work and such entry by Tenant shall be at its sole risk. Prior to the substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work, Landlord shall, to the extent appropriate in accordance with good construction practices, provide Tenant and Tenant's contractor, subcontractors and materialmen access to the Premises to repair or replace Tenant's property (but not to occupy the same for the conduct of business).

(ii) Such access by Tenant shall be deemed to be subject to all of the applicable provisions of this Lease, except that there shall be no obligation on the part of Tenant solely because of such access to pay any Rent with respect to the affected portion of the Premises for any period prior to substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work.

15. EMINENT DOMAIN

(a) If the whole or any substantial part of the Premises or the Building shall be taken by any public authority under the power of eminent domain, then the term of this Lease shall cease on the part so taken on the date possession of that part shall be required for public use, and any Rent paid in advance of such date shall be refunded to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall each have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice to the other, which notice shall be delivered within thirty (30) days following the date notice is received of such taking. In the event that neither party hereto shall terminate this Lease, Landlord shall, to the extent the proceeds of the condemnation award (other than any proceeds awarded for the value of any land taken) are available, make all necessary repairs to the Premises and the Building to render and restore the same to a complete architectural unit and Tenant shall continue in possession of the portion of the Premises not taken under the power of eminent domain, under the same terms and conditions as are herein provided, except that the Rent reserved herein, Tenant's Share pursuant to Section 1(j) hereof and the parking spaces pursuant to Section l(o) hereof shall each be reduced in direct proportion to the amount of the Premises so taken. All damages awarded for such taking shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, whether such damages be awarded as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or to the fee of the Premises; provided, however, Landlord shall not be entitled to any portion of the award made to Tenant for removal and reinstallation of trade fixtures or moving expenses.

(b) In the event of a partial taking which does not result in the termination of this Lease, Landlord shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute the restoration of the Premises as nearly as practicable to a complete unit of like quality and character as existed just prior to such taking. In such event, the Rent shall abate during the period of demolition and restoration to the extent the Premises are unusable, provided that Landlord receives an award therefor.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 15 hereof, Tenant shall have the right to make a claim against the condemning authority (but not Landlord) for compensation for the unamortized cost of Tenant's improvements, alterations or additions made to the Premises at Tenant's cost, such amortization to be computed on a straight line basis over the term of this Lease.

16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

(a) Except as expressly permitted pursuant to this Section 16, Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, assign, encumber or hypothecate this Lease or any interest herein or sublet the Premises or any part thereof, or permit the use of the Premises by any party other than Tenant. Landlord agrees that it will not unreasonably withhold or condition its consent to a proposed assignment or subletting. In determining reasonableness, Landlord may take into consideration all relevant factors surrounding the proposed assignment or subletting, including, without limitation: (i) the business reputation of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its officers, directors and owners; (ii) the nature of the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its effect on the other tenants of the Building; and (iii) restrictions, if any, contained in leases affecting the Development. Except as provided in Section 16(c) hereof, this Lease shall not, nor shall any interest herein, be assignable as to the interest of Tenant by operation of law without the consent of Landlord.

(b) If at any time or from time to time during the Term, Tenant desires to sublet all or any part of the Premises or to assign this Lease, Tenant shall give notice to Landlord setting forth the proposed subtenant or assignee, the terms of the proposed subletting and the space so proposed to be sublet or the terms of the proposed assignment, as the case may be. If the proposed subletting or assignment is to a non-affiliate of Tenant, Landlord may terminate this Lease as the portion of the Premises which Tenant proposes to sublet or assign, such termination right to be exercised by notice from Landlord to Tenant within ten (10) days after Tenant's notice to Landlord of the proposed sublet or assignment, provided that such termination notice by Landlord shall not be effective if, within ten (10) days after Landlord's termination notice to Tenant, Tenant give notice to Landlord retracting the proposed sublet or assignment notice.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16(a) and Section 16(b) hereof, without Landlord's approval or consent and without notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sublease or assign all or any portion of the Premises to any affiliate of Tenant and any affiliate of any of the beneficial owners of Tenant or its parents or subsidiaries at any level, any entity in which Tenant has a controlling interest, or to any successor entity, whether by merger, consolidation or combination or otherwise or to any entity that purchases all or substantially all of Tenant's assets. For purposes hereof an affiliate is any entity which controls Tenant, is controlled by Tenant or is under common control with Tenant, or in which Tenant or any affiliate of Tenant or any beneficial owner of Tenant or its parent or subsidiaries has any interest or is an officer, director, shareholder, partner, member or manager or at any other level. Tenant shall, upon written request from Landlord, provide Landlord with the names of any sublessees or assignees of Tenant. Nothing contained in this Lease provides any subtenant or assignee with any right to use the Premises for any use other than Tenant's Use as set forth in Section 1(1).

(d) Regardless of Landlord's consent, no subletting or assignment shall release Tenant of Tenant's obligation or alter the primary liability of Tenant to pay the rental and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Tenant hereunder. The acceptance of rental by Landlord from any other person shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Landlord of any provision hereof. Consent to one assignment or subletting shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. In the event of default of any of the terms hereof, Landlord may proceed directly against Tenant without the necessity of exhausting remedies against such assignee or successor. Landlord may consent to subsequent assignments or subletting of this Lease or amendments or modifications to this Lease with assignees of Tenant, upon first notifying Tenant, or any successor of Tenant, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto and such action shall not relieve Tenant of liability under this Lease.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 16, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent, without notice to Landlord and without extending any option to Landlord, sublet portions of the Premises to title companies, appraisal companies, casualty insurance agencies, mortgage brokers and/or real estate brokers, home builders and/or banking institutions, mortgage and/or finance companies and any other entities, so long as the foregoing are operating in conjunction with Tenant in the Premises or is an affiliate of Tenant and are operating as a use described in Section 1(1) above.

Landlord may erect, use and maintain scaffolding, pipes, conduits and other necessary structures in and through the Premises where reasonably required by the character of the work performed, provided that the business of Tenant shall not be interfered with unreasonably. If Tenant shall not personally be present to open and permit an entry into the Premises at any time when such entry by Landlord is necessary or permitted hereunder, Landlord may enter by means of a master key or, in emergencies, may enter forcibly, without liability to Tenant. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Section 17 hereof, Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts not to unreasonably interfere with Tenant's operations in the Premises and to minimize any such interference.

(b) Tenant shall have the exclusive right (via card reader devices or equipment) to access the telecom and electric closets on each floor of the Building upon which a portion of the Premises is located. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Section 17(b) Tenant shall not disrupt and/or disable the equipment located within such closets. Tenant shall have the right to install additional equipment within such closets at Tenant's expenses, subject to the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless for any damages incurred by Landlord arising from the acts or omissions of Tenant, its agents, employees and contractors in such telecom and electric closets,

(c) As used herein, the term "Emergency" shall mean an event requiring immediate action, e.g., danger to health, life or property, fire water seepage, sewer backup or cessation or interruption of any facility servicing the like.

This Lease is and shall be subject and subordinate, at all times, to (a) the lien of any mortgage or mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the Building, and to all advances made or hereafter to be made upon the security thereof and to the interest thereon, and to any agreements at any time made modifying, supplementing, extending or replacing any such mortgages, and (b) any ground or underlying lease which may now or hereafter affect the Building, including all amendments, renewals, modifications, consolidation, replacements and extensions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at the request of the holder of any of the aforesaid mortgage or mortgages or the lessor under the aforesaid ground or underlying lease, this Lease may be made prior and superior to such mortgage or mortgages and/or such ground or lying lease. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, if the Development is subject to mortgage on the date of this Lease, then within thirty (30) days after the execution and delivery of this Lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement for Tenant's benefit from the current mortgagee(s) of the Development in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant. In addition, as a condition precedent to Tenant subordinating this Lease to any future mortgage or ground lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement from such mortgagee or ground lessor in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall execute and deliver such further instruments as may be reasonably required to implement the provisions of this Section 18, provided the same are reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

19. NON-LIABILITY

(a) Except for the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees, Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to Tenant for any loss or damage that may be occasioned by or through the acts or omissions of persons occupying adjoining premises or any part of the premises adjacent to or connected with the Premises or any part of the Building or for any loss or damage resulting to Tenant or his property from burst, stopped or leaking water, gas, sewer or steam pipes, or for any damage or loss of property within the Premises from any cause whatsoever, and no such occurrence shall be deemed to be an actual or constructive eviction from the Premises or result in an abatement of rental.

(b) In the event of any sale or transfer (including any transfer by operation of law) of the Premises, Landlord (and any subsequent owner of the Premises making such a transfer) shall be relieved from any and all obligations and liabilities under this Lease, except such obligations and liabilities as shall have arisen during Landlord's (or such subsequent owner's) respective period of ownership, provided that the transferee assumes in writing all of the obligations of Landlord under this Lease.

(c) If Landlord shall fail to perform any covenant, term or condition of this Lease upon Landlord's part to be performed, and if as a consequence of such default, Tenant shall recover a money judgment against Landlord, such judgment shall be satisfied only out of the proceeds of sale received upon execution of such judgment and levied thereon against the right, title and interest of Landlord in the Building and out of rents or other income from the Building receivable by Landlord, or out of the consideration received by Landlord from the sale or other disposition of all or any part of Landlord's right, title and interest in the Building, and neither Landlord nor any of its partners shall be liable for any deficiency.

20. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD

(a) Tenant shall hold Landlord harmless from and defend Landlord against any and all claims or liability for damages to any person or property in, on or about the Premises from the negligence or wrongful acts of Tenant, its agents, contractors, employees, subtenants, assignees and licensees.

(b) Tenant shall procure and keep in effect during the entire term hereof commercial general liability and property damage insurance protecting Landlord and Tenant from all causes, including their own negligence, having as limits of liability One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for damages resulting from one occurrence. Tenant shall deliver policies of such insurance or certificates thereof to Landlord upon execution of this Lease by Tenant and thereafter at least thirty (30) days before the expiration dates of expiring policies. Such insurance shall not be cancelable without thirty (30) days' written notice to Landlord, and in the event Tenant shall fail to procure such insurance, Landlord may at its option procure the same for the account of Tenant, and the reasonable cost thereof shall be paid to Landlord as an additional charge upon receipt by Tenant of bills therefor.

21. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION

Landlord and Tenant shall each be released from any liability resulting from damage by fire or casualty (irrespective of the cause of such fire or casualty) upon the express proviso that if at any time their respective insurers shall refuse to permit waivers of subrogation, Landlord or Tenant may in each instance revoke said waiver of subrogation effective thirty (30) days from the date of notice to the other unless within such thirty (30) day period, the other is able to secure and furnish (without additional expense) insurance in other companies with such waiver of subrogation.

22. ATTORNEY'S FEES

In the event of any legal action or proceeding brought by either party against the other arising out of this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees incurred in such action and such amount shall be included in any judgment rendered in such proceeding.

23. WAIVER

(a) No waiver of any provision of this Lease or of any breach hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other provision hereof, or of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. Consent to or approval of any act requiring consent or approval shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of consent to or approval of any subsequent act. No act or thing done by Landlord or Landlord's agents during the term of this Lease shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, unless done in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of the keys to any employee or agent of Landlord shall not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises.

(b) Landlord and Tenant hereby waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of the parties against the other in any matter whatsoever (except for personal injury or property damage) arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of landlord and tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, or any emergency or other statutory remedy with respect thereto.

24. BANKRUPTCY, Intentionally Deleted

25. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events (hereinafter referred to as "Events of Default") shall constitute a breach of this Lease by Tenant: (i) if Tenant shall fail to pay the Basic Rental or any other sum when and as the same becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than ten (10) days after written notice thereof from Landlord; or (ii) if Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any other term hereof or of the rules and regulations referred to in Section 12 hereof to be performed or observed by Tenant, such failure shall continue for more than thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord, and Tenant shall not within such thirty (30) day period commence with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default, or, having so commenced, shall thereafter fail or neglect to prosecute or complete with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default; (iii) if Tenant shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a petition in bankruptcy, or shall be adjudicated as insolvent or shall file a petition in any proceeding seeking any reorganization, arrangements, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future statute, law or regulation, or shall file an answer admitting or fail timely to contest or acquiesce in the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or any material part of its properties; (iv) if within ninety (90) days after the commencement of any proceeding against Tenant seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future statute, law or regulation, such proceeding shall not have been dismissed, or if, within ninety (90) days after the appointment without the consent of acquiescence of Tenant, of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or of any material part of its properties, such appointment shall not have been vacated; or (v) if this Lease or any estate of Tenant hereunder shall be levied upon under any attachment or execution and such attachment or execution is not vacated within sixty (60) days.

(b) Any time an uncured Event of Default by Tenant as set forth in Section 25(a) hereof exists, Landlord, at its option, may terminate this Lease upon and by giving written notice of termination to Tenant as required by law (currently, at least thirty (30) days prior written notice), or Landlord, without terminating this Lease, may at any time after such default or breach, without notice or demand additional to that provided in Section 25(a) hereof (other than notice and/or demand required by applicable law), and without limiting Landlord in the exercise of any other right or remedy which Landlord may have by reason of such default or breach (other than the aforesaid right of termination) exercise any one or more of the remedies hereinafter provided in this Section 25(b), or as otherwise provided by law, all of such remedies (whether provided herein or by law) being cumulative and not exclusive:

(c) Landlord shall have the right to recover the rental and all other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease as they become due (unless and until Landlord has terminated this Lease and all other damages incurred by Landlord as a result of an Event of Default.) Landlord may enter the Premises either by summary proceedings or by any other lawful proceeding (without thereby incurring any liability to Tenant and without such entry being constituted an eviction of Tenant or termination of this Lease) and take possession of the Premises excluding all personal property of every kind on the Premises not owned by Landlord, and Landlord shall at any time and from time to time relet the Premises or any part thereof for the account of Tenant, for such terms, upon such conditions and at such rental as Landlord may in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment deem proper. In the event of such reletting, (i) Landlord shall receive and collect the Rent therefrom and shall first apply such Rent against such expenses as Landlord may have incurred in recovering possession of the Premises, placing the same in good order and condition, altering or repairing the same for reletting, and such other expenses, commissions and charges, including attorney's fees and real estate commissions, which Landlord may have paid or reasonably incurred in connection with such repossession and reletting, and then shall apply such Rent against the Rent as it comes due under this Lease, and (ii) Landlord may execute any lease in connection with such reletting in Landlord's name, as Landlord may see fit, and the tenant of such reletting shall be under no obligation to see to the application by Landlord of any Rent collected by Landlord.

(d) Landlord shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate its damages in the event of an uncured Event of Default, but Landlord shall not be required to favor the Premises if there are other vacant comparable premises in the Building,

(e) Upon a termination of this Lease by Landlord pursuant to Section 25(b) hereof, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant the aggregate of: (i) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid rental which had been earned at the time of termination; (ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rental which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the then reasonable rental value of the Premises during such period; (iii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rental for the balance of the term of this Lease after the time of award exceeds the reasonable rental value of the Premises for such period; and (iv) Landlord's other actual damages (if any), proximately caused by the Event of Default. The "worth at the time of award" of the amounts referred to in clauses (a) and (b) above is computed from the date such Rent was due or would have been due, as the case may be, by allowing interest at the rate of two percent (2%) in excess of the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal or, if a higher rate is legally permissible, at the highest rate legally permitted. The "worth at the time of award" of the amount referred to in clause (c) above is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago at the time of award, plus one percent (1%). Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 25(e) to the contrary, Tenant shall continue to pay the difference between the rental herein reserved over the then reasonable rental value of the Premises for the remainder of the stated term on a monthly basis until such time, if at all, that such amounts are in arrears for in excess of sixty (60) days, in which event Landlord shall have the right to accelerate such amounts in accordance with Section 25(e)(iii) hereof.

(f) All covenants, terms and conditions to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be at its sole cost and expense and without any abatement of rental except as expressly provided herein. If Tenant shall fail to pay any sum of money, other than Basic Rental, required to be paid by it hereunder or shall fail to perform any other act on its part to be performed hereunder and such failure shall continue for thirty (30) days after notice thereof by Landlord, and such failure results in an Event of Default, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated so to do, and without waiving or releasing Tenant from any obligations of Tenant, make any such payment or perform any such other act on Tenant's part to be made or performed as in this Lease provided. All sums so paid by Landlord and all necessary incidental costs shall be deemed additional rental hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord on demand, and Landlord shall have (in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord) the same rights and remedies in the event of the nonpayment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment of Basic Rental

It is hereby agreed that in the event of Tenant holding over after the termination of this Lease, by lapse of time or otherwise, thereafter the tenancy shall be from month to month in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord a monthly occupancy charge equal to (i) for the first sixty (60) days of holdover, one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year, and (ii) for any holdover beyond said sixty (60) days, one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year (plus all other charges payable by Tenant under this Lease) such occupancy charges to be payable from the expiration or termination of this Lease until the end of the calendar month in which the Premises are delivered to Landlord in the condition required herein. If Landlord shall enter into a new lease or amend an existing lease for premises in the Building for all or a portion of the Premises at the end of the Term, Landlord shall so notify Tenant and if Tenant fails to vacate and deliver all or such portion of the Premises to Landlord within sixty (60) days after receipt of such notice (but in no event prior to the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease), Tenant shall be responsible for any and all damages incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's failure to so vacate and deliver the Premises or such portion thereof (including the loss of such lease or amendment).

27. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Lease cannot be changed, modified or discharged orally but only by an agreement in writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, modification or discharge is sought.

28. NOTICES

All notices, consents, requests, demands, designations or other communications which may or are required to be given by either party to the other hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when (i) personally delivered; or (ii) three (3) days after being deposited in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid; or (iii) one (1) business day after being deposited with a nationally recognized overnight courier service; or (iv) sent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail to be immediately followed by delivery in accordance with the foregoing (i), (ii) or (iii), and in all instances addressed as follows: to Tenant at the address set forth in Section l(m) hereof, or to such other place as Tenant may from time to time designate in a notice to Landlord; to Landlord at the address set forth in Section l(n) hereof, or to such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate in a notice to Tenant. 32. BROKERS

Tenant acknowledges that no real estate broker is responsible for bringing about or negotiating this Lease other than Bedrock Management Services LLC (“Broker”) and Tenant has not dealt with any broker in connection with this Lease and/or the Premises other than Broker. Landlord and Tenant agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other from any expense or liability arising out of a claim for commission or other compensation by any broker other than Broker claiming or alleging to have acted on behalf of or to have dealt with it in connection with this Lease or the Premises. Landlord shall pay the commission due Broker in accordance with Landlord’s separate agreement with Broker.

(b) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault of the Tenant, Tenant is delayed in performing work or doing any act required under the terms of this Lease or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute a default, or entitle or relieve Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Tenant or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Landlord.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 33 shall not operate to excuse either party from the prompt payment of the Rent or any other payments required by the terms of this Lease.

34. REMOVAL OF TENANT'S PROPERTY

"Tenant's Property" as used herein shall mean all of Tenant's movable fixtures and movable partitions, telephone and telecommunication wiring and cabling and related equipment, computer systems, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, and other items of personal property located in the Premises, On or before the Expiration Date, any earlier date of termination of this Lease or the date that Tenant vacates from the Premises, whichever shall first occur, Tenant agrees to remove, at its sole cost and expense, all of Tenant's Property (unless Landlord consents in writing to Tenant's request to allow the Tenant's Property or any portion thereof to remain in the Premises). Tenant shall restore and repair (which shall include, without limitation, repairing any holes in the walls or tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing-up any slab penetrations in the Premises, all in a good and workmanlike manner), or promptly reimburse Landlord for the cost of restoring and repairing (including, without

(a) Pursuant to certain arrangements (collectively, the "Parking Agreements") made with the owners One Detroit Center Parking Garage and the Two Detroit Center Parking Garage (collectively, the "Detroit Center Garage"), Landlord has the right to utilize certain parking spaces in the Detroit Center Garage. As used herein, (i) the term "Landlord's Parking" shall mean parking spaces that Landlord (either directly or through affiliate(s)) has the right to utilize in the Detroit Center Garage, the First National Garage, the Premier Garage (or any parking constructed above grade on the site of the Premier Garage), the so-called Monroe block or other comparable parking agreed to by Landlord and Tenant, and (ii) the term "Parking Facilities" shall refer collectively to the Detroit Center Garage and any of the parking facilities described in clause (i) above within which Landlord's Parking is situated.

Landlord may not obligate itself to provide parking spaces to the remaining tenants in the Building which results in not providing Tenant with the QL Parking Spaces. Tenant will not permit the QL Parking Spaces to be used for transient parking. Landlord will pay the cost for the first three (3) parking spaces per 1,000 rentable square feet of the Premises (which will be reimbursed by Tenant as provided in Section 35(d) hereof) and Tenant shall pay the actual direct cost of the remainder of the QL Parking Spaces. Tenant may, from time to time, reduce the number of QL Parking Spaces and if so reduced, may thereafter, from time to time, increase the number of QL Parking Spaces, in any event to no more than (6) parking spaces per 1,000 rentable square foot of the Premises.

(c) Landlord shall provide Tenant one parking access device and/or permit for each parking space requested by Tenant (collectively "QL Parking Permits"). Thirty (30) days prior to the Commencement Date, Tenant shall advise Landlord of the number of QL Parking Permits requested by Tenant as of the Commencement Date. On or before the 20th day of each month, upon notice to Landlord, Tenant may decrease or increase (up to the maximum number of spaces permitted) the number of QL Parking Permits that Tenant will employ for the next month.

Tenant shall reimburse Landlord, at Landlord's cost, for replacement (i.e. lost, stolen, damaged) QL Parking Permits,

(e) Landlord shall not be considered to be an insurer, guarantor, or bailee of the safety or security of any employee, or of any vehicle, or of the contents of any vehicle, parked in the Parking Facilities. Tenant acknowledges (and will so advise all of its employees and affiliates that use the Parking Facilities) that all of its employees must self park and un-park their vehicles, and abide by all provisions of the rules and regulations of the Parking Facilities that may be applicable to their use of the Parking Facilities. Landlord does not guard or assume care, custody, or control of the vehicle or its contents and is not responsible to Tenant or any employees or to any individuals or entities to whom QL Parking Permits are provided under this agreement, for fire, theft, damage, or loss, including any damage caused by any other vehicle parked in the Parking Facilities.

(f) The Parking Agreements require Landlord to make certain payments to the owners of the Detroit Center Garage in order to maintain the Parking Agreements in good standing; which payments Landlord agrees to make. If Landlord fails to make any payments it is required to make pursuant to the Parking Agreements, Tenant shall have the right, upon reasonable notice, to make such payment and to then deduct the amount of such payment from monthly installments of Rent until Tenant has recovered the entire amount of such payment,

(g) Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, Tenant acknowledges that the management and operation of the Detroit Center Garage is governed by the terms and provisions of the Parking Agreements and the balance of the Parking Facilities is governed by such agreements which may be in place between Landlord (either directly or through affiliate(s)) and the owners and/or operators of the Parking Facilities. Tenant acknowledges that the various Parking Facilities are managed by different companies under different agreements.

(h) Tenant may not assign or sublet its rights to the use of the QL Parking Spaces and/or the QL Parking Permits, except in connection with an assignment of this Lease or sublease of all or any portion of the Premises.

(i) Tenant's rights to use the QL Parking Spaces are subject to the Landlord's right to use of the Parking Facilities pursuant to the Parking Agreements and such other agreements which may be in place between Landlord and the owners and/or operators of the Parking Facilities. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if Landlord's right to use one or more of the Parking Facilities is terminated as a result of the sale of such Parking Facility(ies), then Tenant's right to use such Parking Facility(ies) shall be similarly terminated; provided, however, nothing contained herein shall limit Landlord's obligations to cause the QL Parking Spaces to be made available to Tenant and others permitted to use them pursuant to this Section 35. If the QL Parking Spaces become unavailable for any reason (including, without limitation, the sale of the Parking Facility(ies) in which the QL Parking Spaces are located), other than due to the acts or omissions of Tenant, Landlord will use commercially reasonable efforts to secure replacement parking at comparable cost.

Such policy shall specifically include the liability assumed hereunder by Landlord and shall provide that it is primary insurance and not excess of or contributory with any other valid existing applicable insurance maintained for or on behalf of Tenant. Landlord shall deliver policies of such insurance or certificates thereof to Tenant prior to the Commencement Date and thereafter at least thirty (30) days before the expiration dates of expiring policies. Such insurance shall not be cancelable without thirty (30) days' written notice to Tenant.

(c) Landlord shall, during the Term, provide and keep in force an all risks policy for the full replacement cost of the Building, excluding trade fixtures, furniture and equipment of tenants.

Master Tenant and Landlord acknowledge and agree to recognize the Lease as a direct lease between Master Tenant and Tenant. Landlord agrees and acknowledges (a) Landlord will perform the obligations of the landlord under the Lease if Master Tenant defaults, (b) the improvements to be made to the Building relating to the Historic Tax Credit Transaction are no different than the improvements otherwise to be made to the Building, and (c) in the event of a default of Master Tenant under the Master Lease Landlord shall recognize and not otherwise disturb Tenant's leasehold under the Lease, so long as Tenant is not in default beyond any applicable notice and cure under this Lease.

2. PREMISES

(a) Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord those premises (hereinafter referred to as the "Premises"), described in Section 1(d) hereof and designated on Exhibit "A" attached hereto in the building commonly known as the 615 West Lafayette, Detroit, Michigan, consisting of approximately 271,500 rentable square feet of floor area (hereinafter referred to as the "Building"), together with the non-exclusive right and easement to use the common facilities which may from time to time be furnished by Landlord in common with Landlord and the tenants and occupants (their agents, employees, customers and invitees) of the Building. The Building and common areas are hereinafter referred to as the "Development," more particularly described on Exhibit "B" hereto.

(b) The rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building shall be computed based upon the 2010 BOMA Standard Method of Measuring Floor Area in Office Buildings, ANSI/BOMA Z65.1-2010, and the rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building, shall contain a proportionate share of the common areas of the Building, utilizing a common area load factor not to exceed twelve percent.

(c) The rentable square foot area of the Premises shall be measured by Landlord's Architect, and Landlord's Architect shall certify the rentable square foot area to Landlord and Tenant; provided, however, that if Tenant disagrees with the measurement or calculation by Landlord's architect, an independent architect jointly selected by Landlord and Tenant shall promptly measure such portion of the Premises and its determination shall be binding on the parties. In the event such certification or determination shall contain a rentable square foot area different than that previously utilized, Landlord and Tenant shall promptly execute and deliver an amendment to this Lease reflecting the rentable square foot area set forth in such certification and Section 1(k) shall be revised accordingly.

(d) Tenant shall be allowed access to the Premises and reasonable portions of the common areas twenty-four hours a day, three hundred sixty-five days a year using card readers, or keys, provided that Tenant shall not materially interfere with Landlord's construction activities. Access to the Premises shall be in the same general location and have the same general utility as the access afforded on each applicable Commencement Date.

3. TERM

(a) The term of this Lease shall commence on the Phase One Commencement Date set forth in 1(e) hereof with respect to Floor 3 and on the Phase Two Commencement Date set forth in 1(e) hereof with respect to Floor 2, Floor 4 Main, Floor 5 and Floor 4 Annex; provided, however, that Landlord shall have the right, by delivering written notice to Tenant prior to October 1, 2015, to eliminate all or any portion of Floor 4 Main or Floor 4 Annex from the Premises and in such event, all of the provisions of this Lease which are dependent on the size of the Premises shall be appropriately adjusted and at the request of Landlord or Tenant, Landlord and Tenant shall enter into an amendment to the Lease reflecting the change to the Premises and the other applicable provisions of this Lease. The term of this Lease shall expire on the Expiration Date set forth in Section 1(f) hereof. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, during the course of Landlord's construction of the Premises, Tenant and its contractors shall be granted access seven days a week, twenty four hours per day to the Premises in order to install data and telephone wiring and other improvements, provided Tenant coordinates such access with Landlord and Tenant does not unreasonably interfere with Landlord's completion of the Premises and that Tenant or its contractors provide no interference to the work or other tenants of the Building or Development. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if Landlord does not deliver possession of the Premises in the condition required pursuant to this Lease within the time frame set forth in this Lease, if Tenant incurs occupancy costs in the premises to be vacated by Tenant in connection with Tenant's occupancy of the Premises, in excess of the occupancy costs to be incurred by Tenant under this Lease (assuming no free rent under this Lease) ("Additional Occupancy Costs"), Tenant shall be permitted to offset the Additional Occupancy Costs against the first due installments of Basic Rental due under this Lease.

(b) In the event of the inability of Landlord to deliver possession of the Premises or the applicable portion of the Premises as required hereunder on the applicable Commencement Date, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage caused thereby, nor shall this Lease be void or voidable, but Tenant, unless it is responsible for such delay, shall not be liable for any Rent (as hereinafter defined) until such time as Landlord can and does deliver possession of such Premises to Tenant. The applicable Commencement Date (but not the Expiration Date) shall be extended for the period from the date set forth in Section 3(a) and Section 1(e) hereof until the date on which Landlord gives possession of the portion of the Premises required hereunder to Tenant. Upon establishment of the applicable Commencement Date, Tenant shall, if Landlord shall so request, execute and deliver a letter setting forth the applicable Commencement Date.

(c) From time to time, Tenant shall furnish Landlord, upon request a letter addressed to Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee stating that Tenant has accepted the Premises for occupancy, the Premises have been completed as herein required, and setting forth the applicable Commencement Date of this Lease and such other information relating to the Premises as either Landlord or its mortgagee may reasonably request. Within twenty business days after Tenant's request therefor, Landlord shall deliver to any lender holding a security interest in Tenant's personal property located within the Premises, an acknowledgement and subordination in form reasonably acceptable to Landlord, Tenant and Tenant's lender.

(d) (i) Tenant shall have the right, if it is not then in default after notice thereof, to extend the term of this Lease for two additional periods of five years each upon the terms and conditions as are stated in this Lease (other than the grant of any extension rights in addition to those provided for in this Section 3(d)) and at the Basic Rental determined in accordance with Section 3(d)(ii) below. Tenant shall exercise such right, it at all, at least seven months prior to the expiration of the original term of this Lease or such prior extension period, as the case may be. If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the term of this Lease within the period of time for exercise set forth in this Section, Tenant's option to extend the term of this Lease shall continue in full force and effect until Landlord shall have given Tenant notice of such failure to exercise said option. If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the term of this Lease within ten business days after receipt of such notice from Landlord, then and only then shall Tenant's option to extend the term of this Lease expire. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Tenant has not yet exercised its right to so extend the term and Tenant is in default under this Lease after notice thereof but prior to the expiration of any applicable cure period at the expiration of the period for Tenant to exercise such right to extend, the period for Tenant to exercise its right to so extend the term shall be extended for a period equal to the period from Tenant's receipt of such notice of default until Tenant cures such default (but only if Tenant cures such default within the applicable cure period), which extension period shall commence on the date of such cure. The then current term shall be extended for a like period. In no event shall such extension period exceed three months.

(ii) In the event Tenant shall exercise its right to so extend the term of this Lease in accordance with Section 3(d)(i) above, the Basic Rental for each such extension period shall be determined in accordance with this Section 3(d)(ii).

(A) Within ten business days after the exercise by Tenant of such right to extend the term of this Lease for such extension period, Landlord shall submit to Tenant Landlord's determination of the Market Rental, as defined below, for the Premises for such extension period. If Tenant does not notify Landlord of its acceptance of such Market Rental as so determined by Landlord within ten business days after receipt thereof, then the parties shall proceed as provided in Section (B) below.

(B) Landlord and Tenant shall negotiate in good faith to agree upon the Market Rental for such extension period, and if Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree within ten business days, the determination of the Market Rental shall be made in accordance with Section (C) below.

(C) Within ten business days after the expiration of the ten business day period referred to in Section (B) above, Landlord and Tenant shall mutually select an MAI appraiser with experience in real estate activities, including at least five years of current experience in appraising office space in Detroit, Michigan. If the parties cannot agree on such an appraiser, then within five business days thereafter, each shall select an independent MAI appraiser meeting the aforementioned criteria and within five business days thereafter the two appointed appraisers shall select a third neutral appraiser meeting the aforementioned criteria and the third appraiser shall determine the Market Rental for such extension period in accordance with Section (D) below. If either Landlord or Tenant shall fail to make such appointment within said five business day period, the other shall make such appointment on its behalf.

(D) Once the appraiser or third appraiser has been selected as provided in Section (C) above, each of Landlord and Tenant shall submit to such appraiser its suggested Market Rental. As soon thereafter as practical, the appraiser shall select one of the two suggested Market Rentals submitted by Landlord and Tenant (and no other) that is closer to the one determined by the third appraiser. The Market Rental so selected by the appraiser shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall equally share the cost of such appraisal.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 3(d), "Market Rental" shall mean ninety five percent of the projected fair market rent for office space containing the rentable size of the Premises during such extension period, as of the commencement of such extension period, based upon the rates then in effect in the Building and other similar buildings in Detroit, Michigan. The Market Rental shall take into account the refurbishment allowance provided by Landlord in Section 3(d)(iv) below.

(iv) Landlord shall have no obligation to do any work or perform any special services with respect to the Premises for such extension period, which Tenant agrees to accept in their then "as is" condition; provided, however, that Landlord shall provide Five Dollars per rentable square foot based upon the size of the Premises at the time of Tenant's exercise of each option. Such amounts may be utilized by Tenant for new floor coverings, wall coverings, painting and such other items as Tenant may desire to "freshen-up" or otherwise improve the Premises in Tenant's discretion. Landlord shall pay such amounts to Tenant from time to time within thirty days following Tenant's delivery to Landlord of Tenant's demand therefor accompanied by reasonable back-up information, including, without limitation, sworn statements and lien waivers. Tenant shall be solely responsible for any amounts in excess of those to be provided by Landlord hereunder for such purposes.

(e) Provided Tenant is not in default of this Lease on the date set for exercise or the date set for termination, Tenant shall have the one-time right to terminate this Lease at the end of the sixtieth month of the Term, provided that Tenant provides not less than six months prior written notice of such election to terminate. Tenant's right to terminate this Lease is conditioned upon Landlord receiving the Termination Payment (as hereinafter defined) in immediately available funds on or before the date set for termination. For purposes of this Lease, the Termination Payment shall be an amount which is equal to the sum of the then unamortized costs of the improvements to the Demised Premises, amortized over the initial term of this Lease with interest on the unamortized balance at a rate of Five percent per annum, plus free rent as set forth in Section 1(g), which amount, together with reasonable back up documentation supporting the calculation of the Termination Payment, will be provided to Tenant within sixty days of the Date of Lease.

4. RENT

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord as rental for the Premises during each year of the term of this Lease the amount set forth in Section 1(g) hereof. Such rental shall be payable in advance, in equal monthly installments upon the first day of each and every month throughout the term of this Lease; provided, however, that if the lease term shall commence on a day other than the first day of a calendar month or shall end on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the rental for such first or last fractional month shall be such proportion of the monthly rental as the number of days in such fractional month bears to the total number of days in the calendar month.

(b) Rent and all other charges hereunder shall promptly be paid without prior demand therefor and without deductions or setoffs for any reason whatsoever, except as expressly herein provided, and overdue rent and any other sums payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder shall bear interest during delinquency until paid at a rate of interest equal to two percent in excess of the "Prime Rate" published from time to time by The Wall Street Journal (hereinafter referred to as the "Interest Rate"). In addition, if any payment of rent is not paid when due, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to three and one half percent of each late payment. Landlord shall have no obligation to accept less than the full amount of all installments of rental and interest thereon and all charges hereunder which are due and owing by Tenant to Landlord, and if Landlord shall accept less than the full amount owing, Landlord may apply the sums received towards any of Tenant's obligations at Landlord's discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not be required to pay the late charge or the interest provided for therein on up to two occasions during each calendar year, provided such payments are made to Landlord within ten days after Tenant's receipt of written notice that the same are past due.

(c) Landlord's failure to timely bill Tenant shall in no way excuse Tenant from its payment obligations or constitute a waiver of Landlord's entitlement to any charges not timely billed by Landlord.

(d) Tenant agrees that all Basic Rental and additional rent (collectively "Rent") due under this Lease shall be paid to Landlord by (i) check mailed to the address set forth in Section 1(n) hereof or such other address as Landlord shall designate by written notice to Tenant, (ii) wire transfer of immediately available funds, or (iii) electronic funds transfer.

5. RENTAL ADJUSTMENT

(a) The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) The term "Expenses" shall mean the actual reasonable cost incurred by Landlord during the applicable calendar year on an accrual basis with respect to the operation, maintenance and repair of the Development, including, without limitation or duplication, (1) the costs incurred for air conditioning; mechanical ventilation; heating; cleaning; rubbish removal; snow removal; general landscaping and ground maintenance; window washing; elevators; porter and matron services; electric current for common areas; management fees (calculated at a rate of five percent of gross receipts); repairs; maintenance; fire, extended coverage, boiler, sprinkler apparatus, public liability and property damage insurance (including loss of rental income insurance); supplies; wages, salaries and benefits of service and maintenance employees and management staff (if said employees and/or staff perform services for properties other than the Development, the expenses relating thereto shall be equitably prorated); uniforms and working clothes for such employees and the cleaning thereof; expenses imposed pursuant to any collective bargaining agreement with respect to such employees; payroll, social security, unemployment and other similar taxes with respect to such employees; sales, use and other similar taxes; water rates and sewer rents; depreciation of movable equipment and personal property, which is, or should be, capitalized on the books of Landlord, and the cost of movable equipment and personal property, which need not be so capitalized, as well as the cost of maintaining all such movable equipment, and any other costs, charges and expenses which, under generally accepted accounting principles and practices, would be regarded as maintenance and operating expenses, and (2) the cost of any capital improvements made to the Development after the Phase One Commencement Date that are intended to reduce other Expenses, or made to the Development by Landlord after the date of this Lease that are required under any governmental law or regulation that was not applicable to the Development at the time it was constructed, such cost or allocable portion thereof to be amortized over the useful life thereof as determined by GAAP, together with interest on the unamortized balance at the Interest Rate or such actual rate as may have been paid by Landlord on funds borrowed for the purpose of constructing such capital improvements, if Landlord borrows funds therefor. Expenses shall not include "Taxes," depreciation on the Building other than depreciation on standard exterior window coverings provided by Landlord and carpeting in common areas and other than as set forth above; costs of services or repairs and maintenance which are paid for by proceeds of insurance, by other tenants (in a manner other than as provided in this Section 5) or third parties; tenant improvements, real estate brokers' commissions, interest and capital items other than those referred to in clause (1) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, Expenses shall not include costs for security services to be provided by Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this Lease and Tenant shall pay to Landlord the sum of fifty cents per rentable square foot of the Premises per year for security services to be provided pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, which costs shall be paid in the same manner and at the same time as Tenant pays Basic Rental.

The Expenses shall be adjusted to equal Landlord's reasonable estimate of Expenses had the total Building been occupied.

In determining Expenses:

(A) The management fees included within Expenses shall not exceed five percent of the gross receipts from the Building and shall be consistent with respect to the Base Expenses and Expenses in subsequent years.

(B) All items of Expenses which are deemed to be capital expenses shall be amortized in accordance with the terms of Section 5(a)(i)(2) and only the annual amortized amount shall be included in Expenses in any year.

(C) Expenses shall not include (i) the cost or depreciation of the Building or any improvements thereon, including permit fees, license and inspection fees, and costs incurred in renovating, improving, decorating, painting or redecorating vacant tenant space or space of other tenants in the Development or broker's commissions, (ii) principal payments, interest, late fees or other financing charges relating to any financing of the Development or rents under a ground lease or any other underlying lease wherein Landlord is the lessee, (iii) wages, salaries, fees and fringe benefits paid to home office executive personnel of Landlord (i.e., executives above the level of building manager and other office personnel but not the property manager, the assistant property manager and their staff), (iv) any costs relating to the solicitation, execution and enforcement of leases of other tenant space in the Development, (v) the cost of any electrical current or other utility services furnished to any other leasable area (but not including Common Areas) of the Development (other than for HVAC services and water), (vi) the cost of correcting defects in the original construction or defects in subsequent improvement of the Development, including costs of repairs or maintenance caused or necessitated by the negligence of Landlord, its agents, contractors or employees, (vii) the cost of any repair made by Landlord because of the total or partial destruction of the Development by fire or other casualty subsequent to the date of original construction, (viii) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed under warranty claims, insurance proceeds or condemnation awards, (ix) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed by tenants of the Development (other than in a manner comparable to Section 5(b) hereof), or third parties, (x) advertising and promotional expenditures, (xi) reserves for future expenditures or liabilities which would be incurred after the then current accounting year, (xii) the cost of (a) remediation of any toxic or hazardous substance or material from the land, buildings or improvements comprising the Development, other than commercially reasonable and customary maintenance of mechanical systems, or (b) any environmental reports or studies relating thereto, and (xiii) income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes.

(D) The Controllable Expenses for any calendar year following the Base Year shall not exceed the Cap. The "Cap" for the calendar year immediately following the Base Year shall be 103% of the Controllable Expenses for the Base Year, and the Cap for each calendar year thereafter shall be 103% of the Cap for the immediately preceding calendar year.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Tenant shall not be required to pay any Excess Expenses and/or Excess Taxes which relate to periods prior to the 2017 calendar year.

(ii) The term "Base Expenses" shall mean the amount as defined in Section 1(h) hereof.

(iii) The term “Excess Expenses” shall mean the total dollar increases, if any, over the Base Expenses paid or incurred by Landlord in the respective calendar year.

(iv) The term “Taxes” shall mean the amount of all ad valorem real property taxes and assessments, special or otherwise, levied upon or with respect to the Development, or the Rent and additional charges payable hereunder, imposed by any taxing authority having jurisdiction. Taxes shall also include all taxes, levies and charges which may be assessed, levied or imposed in replacement of, or in addition to, all or any part of ad valorem real property taxes as revenue sources, and which in whole or in part are measured or calculated by or based upon the Development, the leasehold estate of Landlord or Tenant, or the Rent and other charges payable hereunder. Taxes shall include any reasonable expenses incurred by Landlord in determining or attempting to obtain a reduction of Taxes.

In determining Taxes:

(A) Taxes shall not include any income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes.

(B) With respect to special assessments which may be paid in installments, Tenant’s Share thereof shall be determined as if Landlord elected to pay the same over the longest period available.

(C) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Taxes shall not include and Tenant shall not be responsible for any interest or penalties due to the late payment of Taxes.

(D) In the event Landlord receives any refunds relating to Taxes covering a period during the term of this Lease, the Taxes with respect to such year with respect to such refund relates shall be reduced accordingly and to the extent applicable, Tenant shall be given credit for Tenant’s Share thereof.

(v) The term “Base Taxes” shall mean the amount as defined in Section 1(i) hereof.

(vi) The term “Excess Taxes” shall mean the total dollar increase, if any, over the Base Taxes paid or incurred by Landlord in the respective calendar year.

(vii) The term “Tenant’s Share” shall mean the percentage set forth in Section 1(j) hereof which was derived by dividing the rentable square foot area of the Premises by the rentable square foot area of the Building.

(viii) The term “Base Year” shall mean the 2016 calendar year.

(ix) The term “Controllable Expenses” shall mean all Expenses other than those Expenses attributable to snow and ice removal, utilities and insurance.

(b) Tenant shall pay to Landlord Tenant’s Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes in the manner and at the times herein provided.

With respect to Excess Expenses, prior to January 1, 2017, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord’s estimate of Tenant’s Share of Excess Expenses for the ensuing calendar year, with respect to Excess Taxes, prior to January 1, 2017, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord’s estimate of Tenant’s Share of Excess Taxes for the ensuing calendar year. On or before the first day of each month during the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall pay to Landlord one-twelfth of such estimated amounts, provided that until such notice is given with respect to the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall continue to pay the amount currently payable pursuant hereto until after the month such notice is given. If at any time or times it appears to Landlord that Tenant’s Share of Excess Expenses or Tenant’s Share of Excess Taxes for the then current calendar year will vary from Landlord’s estimate by more than five percent, Landlord may, by notice to Tenant, revise its estimate for such year and subsequent payments by Tenant for such year shall be based upon such revised estimate.

Within ninety days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses, and within ninety days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Excess Taxes, or as soon after such ninety day period as practicable, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement prepared by Landlord of Tenant’s Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes, respectively, for such calendar year. If on the basis of either of such statements, Tenant owes an amount that is less than the estimated payments for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expense or with respect to Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Landlord shall credit such excess amount against the next payment(s) due from Tenant to Landlord of Rent. In no event shall a reduction in Taxes or Expenses operate to reduce the rental set forth in Section 1(g) hereof required to be paid hereunder, nor shall any reduction in Taxes or Expenses below the Base Expenses or Base Taxes give rise to any credit to Tenant. If on the basis of such statement, Tenant owes an amount that is more than the estimated payment for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses or Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Tenant shall pay the deficiency to Landlord within thirty days after delivery of the statement.

If this Lease shall terminate on a day other than the last day of a calendar year, Tenant’s Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes that are applicable to the calendar year in which such termination shall occur shall be prorated on the basis of the number of calendar days within such year as are within the term of this Lease. Any refund due Tenant with respect to the last year of the Term shall be refunded to it within thirty days after the receipt of such statement.

For a period of two years after delivery of each such statement to which such records relate, Tenant shall have the right upon thirty days' prior written notice to Landlord to inspect Landlord's records relating to Taxes and Expenses. Such inspection shall be conducted at Landlord's offices during normal business hours at Tenant's expense. Such inspection may not be conducted by a person or firm compensated on a contingent fee basis. If such inspection shall disclose that Tenant has paid five percent or more in excess of that required to be paid hereunder and Landlord shall accept such determination, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the reasonable cost of such inspection. Tenant shall have no right to offset the amount of any overpayment unless Landlord shall accept such determination. If Landlord and Tenant do not agree on any overpayment or underpayment within thirty days, either Landlord or Tenant may cause an independent accounting firm to resolve the dispute, whose determination shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant and the firm's fees shall be split equally between Landlord and Tenant.

6. Intentionally deleted

7. REPAIRS

(a) Landlord shall maintain, in a timely manner, the public portions of the Building in accordance with the standards of Class A office buildings in the central business district of the City of Detroit, including but not limited to any lobbies, stairs, elevators, corridors and restrooms, together with the windows and exterior walls, roofs, foundations and structure itself of the Building, the fire and life safety systems, mechanical, HVAC, plumbing and electrical equipment servicing the Premises and the Building and the common areas servicing the Development, in good order and condition as reasonably determined by Landlord and the cost shall be included in Expenses, except for the repairs due to fire and other casualties (to the extent the cost of such repairs are covered by insurance proceeds) and for the repair of damages occasioned by the acts or omissions of Tenant, which Tenant shall pay to Landlord in full. Landlord shall be responsible to supply and pay for the replacement of lighting ballasts and light bulbs, and fluorescent tubes in the Building; provided, however, Tenant shall be responsible to pay the cost of replacement of light bulbs and fluorescent tubes in the Premises.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 7(a) hereof and the other provisions of this Lease, Tenant shall keep the Premises and every part thereof in good condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear and damaged caused by Landlord or resulting from Landlord's default under this Lease excepted. Except as otherwise set forth in this Lease, Tenant hereby waives all rights to make repairs at the expense of Landlord or in lieu thereof to vacate the Premises except as provided by law, statute or otherwise now or hereafter in effect. All repairs made by or on behalf of Tenant shall be made and performed in such manner as Landlord may designate, by contractors or mechanics reasonably approved by Landlord and in accordance with the Rules relating thereto annexed to this Lease as Exhibit "E" hereto and all laws, ordinances and regulations. Tenant shall provide Landlord with unconditional lien waivers from all contractors, subcontractors and materialmen providing services or furnishing material to or for Tenant in connection with such repairs. Landlord has no obligation and has made no promise to alter, remodel, improve, repair, decorate or paint the Premises or any part thereof and no representations respecting the condition of the Premises or the Building have been made by Landlord to Tenant except as expressly set forth herein. Tenant will pay for any repairs to the Premises or the Building or the Development made necessary by any negligence or carelessness of Tenant or its employees or persons permitted in the Building or the Development by Tenant, unless the same are covered by the insurance carried or required to be carried by Landlord hereunder.

8. IMPROVEMENTS AND ALTERATIONS

(a) As used in this Lease, the term "Landlord's Work" shall refer to the improvements set forth on Exhibit "C" attached hereto and made a part hereof, which are intended to provide Tenant with a turn-key build-out inclusive of the restrooms on the floors on which the Premises are situated. Landlord shall cause Landlord's Work to be constructed substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications theretofore prepared by Landlord's architect. All of Landlord's Work (if plans and specs are necessary) shall be performed by Landlord in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by Landlord and subject to Tenant's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Landlord shall revise such plans and specifications as reasonably required in order to obtain Tenant's approval. Subject to the provisions of Section 8(b)(ii) below, all of Landlord's Work shall be performed by Landlord at Landlord's sole cost and expense. Landlord shall complete all of Landlord's Work in a first-class and good and workmanlike manner, using good materials, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications (if necessary), and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the federal, state and municipal governments, or any department or division thereof, including, without limitation, building codes.

(b) (i) (A) Based upon the mutually approved space plan prepared by Landlord's Architect, Landlord's Architect shall prepare plans and specifications for Landlord's Work. Landlord shall submit such plans and specifications to Tenant for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If Tenant shall fail to supply such approval or comments in writing within ten business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such plans and specifications. The cost of the space plan and the cost of such final plans and specifications shall be paid by Landlord but shall be charged against the Tenant Allowance (as hereinafter defined). To the extent the plans and specifications are identified in Exhibit "C" attached hereto, the plans and specifications have been approved in advance by Landlord.

(B) Upon approval of such plans and specifications by Tenant, Landlord shall obtain at least three competitive bids (where reasonably available) for all major trades (including, but not limited to, HVAC and electrical) constituting Landlord's Work. Tenant may add bidders to the bid list. Such bids shall be submitted to Tenant prior to the award of the contract to which the same relate. The work shall be awarded to the low bidder, provided it is a responsible party (and reasonably acceptable to Landlord and Tenant), its bid is complete and Landlord has no other reasonable objection to it. Based upon such competitive bids, Landlord shall submit the cost of Landlord's Work to Tenant, for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. In the event Tenant does not approve or submit comments to such costs to Landlord within ten business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such costs. If Tenant does not approve such plans and specifications and/or costs, Landlord and Tenant shall cooperate in order to revise the plans and specifications in a manner acceptable to the parties. Landlord's Work shall be performed on a so-called "open book" basis, with Tenant having the right to audit all of Landlord's records relating to the cost of such work.

(ii) (A) Landlord shall complete the Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications ("Plans") up to a cost of [] per rentable square foot of the Premises (prorated for each Phase) (the "Tenant Allowance"); provided, however, the cost of the renovation of the restrooms shall not be applied towards the Tenant Allowance and the Tenant Allowance shall not be paid on the square footage attributable to the restrooms. Tenant shall pay all costs in excess of the Tenant Allowance within thirty days after the later to occur of (i) receipt by Tenant of an invoice therefor, and (ii) the Commencement Date applicable to the portion of the Premises to which such excess costs apply; provided, however, if Tenant disputes any such costs in excess of the Tenant Allowance, Tenant may hold back the disputed costs in an amount not to exceed ten percent of the Tenant Allowance pursuant to this subsection. If the cost of so completing the Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications is less than the Tenant Allowance, at Tenant's election, Tenant may utilize all or a portion of such excess for the cost of the improvements to the Premises made by Tenant and its furniture, furnishings, trade fixtures and equipment to be installed in the Premises and/or applied as a credit against Rent first becoming due hereunder.

(B) In computing Landlord's costs of completing the Premises, Landlord shall receive a fee of two percent for profit, and its actual overhead and administrative costs.

(iii) Landlord shall diligently prosecute Landlord's Work to completion without interruption or delay, in a first-class and good and workmanlike manner, using good materials, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the federal, state and municipal governments, or any department or division thereof, including, without limitation, building codes and installation of required fire suppression equipment. Landlord, at Landlord's expense, shall procure all building and other permits, approvals and inspections necessary for performing Landlord's Work pursuant to the approved plans and specifications, the cost of which shall be charged against the Tenant Allowance and deliver possession to Tenant of (A) Phase One on or before September 24, 2015, and (B) Phase Two on or before April 1, 2016.

(iv) Landlord has designated Bedrock Management Services LLC as its representative who shall have general responsibility for the supervision, management and completion of Landlord's Work, and Tenant may direct to it all inquiries regarding Landlord's Work and the scheduling of Landlord's Work and Tenant's inspections thereof, and Tenant's installation of its fixtures, equipment and other improvements, and Tenant's occupancy of the Premises.

(v) Tenant shall have the right to designate a representative who shall have the right (but not the obligation) to attend all construction meetings, to inspect the performance of Landlord's Work and to notify Landlord in writing if said performance does not conform to the approved plans and specifications. If there is a disagreement as to whether such performance substantially conforms to the approved plans and specifications which cannot be resolved by the parties within three days after Landlord's receipt of such notice, then such matter shall be submitted to the Landlord's Architect, and its decision shall be controlling.

(vi) In the event Tenant desires to have improvements installed in the Premises in addition to or in lieu of the improvements provided for in the approved plans and specifications, Tenant shall so advise Landlord and submit to Landlord complete plans and specifications for such improvements. Tenant shall immediately cause such plans and specifications to be revised in order to comply with Landlord's reasonable comments to such plans and specifications. Tenant shall be responsible for all costs associated with such changes. Upon approval of such plans and specifications by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall advise Tenant of the cost of constructing and installing such improvements, and upon approval of such costs by Tenant, Landlord will commence construction and installation of such improvements; provided, however, that Tenant may revise such plans in order to reduce such costs, subject to Landlord's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(vii) During the construction of Landlord's Work, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a schedule for the completion of the remainder of Landlord's Work and such other information as Tenant may reasonably request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant if it fails to meet such schedule.

(viii) (A) From and after the commencement of Landlord's Work in the Premises, Landlord shall supply to Tenant weekly status reports. Each Phase shall be deemed completed and possession delivered to Tenant when Landlord has substantially completed its improvements subject only to the completion of details of construction and mechanical adjustments which do not materially interfere with Tenant use of such Premises and Landlord has delivered to Tenant Landlord's architect's certificate of substantial completion and a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy issued by the applicable governmental entity. If a temporary certificate of occupancy has been issued, Landlord shall diligently complete the items necessary in order to obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy and obtain the same.

(B) For purposes hereof, "Tenant Delay" shall mean any incremental delay in Landlord's performance of Landlord's Work that occurs as the result of (i) any change by Tenant to the space plan after submission thereof to Landlord and/or the approved plans and specifications for such work; (ii) any delay in such work caused by the installation of Tenant's fixtures in the Premises or the performance of any other work by Tenant at the Premises; and (iii) Tenant specifying any materials or equipment which are not readily available in the market and require long-lead time to obtain. Upon the occurrence of any event that Landlord contends is a Tenant Delay, Landlord shall promptly deliver notice to Tenant thereof, together with Landlord's reasonable estimate of the expected delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a delay shall only be considered a Tenant Delay if such delay causes an incremental delay in the completion of the Tenant Improvements. For example, if Landlord is delayed by the unavailability of certain materials and Tenant causes a delay while Landlord is delayed by such unavailability of materials so that no further actual incremental delay is caused by Tenant, such delay by Tenant shall not constitute a "Tenant Delay" hereunder. In the event of any Tenant Delays, the Premises shall be deemed to have been completed on the date Landlord and Tenant reasonably determine the Premises would have been so completed but for such Tenant Delays.

(ix) If any dispute shall arise as to whether Landlord has so completed the Premises on the date of such completion, the matter shall be submitted to Landlord's Architect for its determination and its decision shall be binding upon the parties.

(x) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Tenant shall have the right prior to the applicable Commencement Date to submit a so-called punch list of incomplete or defective items in Landlord's Work and Landlord shall promptly remedy all such items. If any dispute shall arise between the parties as to such list, such matter shall be submitted to Landlord's Architect for determination and its decision shall be binding upon the parties.

(xi) Whenever matters are submitted to Landlord's Architect for determination pursuant to the terms of this Lease, the fee of Landlord's Architect shall be charged against the Tenant Allowance.

(c) Landlord guarantees all work performed by or for Landlord in connection with the completion of each Phase against defective workmanship and materials for the period of one year from the substantial completion thereof. Thereafter, Landlord will cooperate with Tenant in enforcing the warranties of workmanship and materials which Landlord received with respect to such construction to the extent that the repair thereof is Tenant's responsibility hereunder.

(d) (i) Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements without the prior written consent of Landlord. Any such alterations, additions or improvements (except movable furniture and trade fixtures) shall at once become a part of the realty and belong to Landlord. The same shall be made by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Subject to Section 8(c), upon termination of this Lease, Tenant shall upon demand by Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, forthwith remove any alterations, additions or improvements.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8(d)(i) or (e) to the contrary, Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to non-material, nonstructural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises and Landlord will not unreasonably withhold its consent to any material non-structural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises and/or to any structural alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises, provided notice is first given in writing by Tenant to Landlord and written approval by Landlord is required for any alteration, addition or improvement that would materially affect any mechanical or electrical system. For purposes of this Section 8(d), demising walls, but not interior office walls, are deemed structural.

(iii) Landlord acknowledges that Tenant's furniture, trade fixtures, business equipment and personalty shall not be deemed alterations, additions or improvements which become Landlord's property pursuant to Section 8(d).

(e) Any repairs made pursuant to Section 7(b) hereof or alterations and improvements made pursuant to this Section 8 by Tenant as required and permitted hereunder shall be made and performed (i) as Landlord may designate on a reasonable basis, (ii) in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations of Landlord and governmental authorities having jurisdiction, (iii) in the case of new construction in keeping with plans and specifications theretofore having been approved in advance by Landlord, (iv) using mechanics and contractors having been approved by Landlord which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall do all such work affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof, and (v) in a reasonable fashion to minimize noise, litter and/or odors resulting therefrom. The work performed by Landlord affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof pursuant to subsection 8(e)(iv) shall be at reasonable and competitive cost. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable costs of third party review of Tenant's proposed structural alterations or those to the mechanical or electrical systems.

(f) Landlord shall have the right at any time to change the arrangement and/or location of entrances or passageways, doors and doorways and corridors, elevators, stairs, toilets or other public parts of the Building and to change the name, number or designation by which the Building is commonly known. Landlord shall have the right at any time to change the arrangement and/or location of the parking and common areas of the Development. In exercising its rights pursuant to Section 8(f) hereof, Landlord shall not unreasonably interfere with Tenant's access to the Premises or its operations therein.

9. LIENS

Tenant shall keep the Premises free from any liens arising out of any work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Tenant. In the event that Tenant shall not, within twenty days following receipt of notice of the imposition of any such lien, cause the same to be released of record by payment or posting of a proper bond, Landlord shall have, in addition to all other remedies provided herein and by law, the right to cause the same to be released by such means as it shall reasonably deem proper, including payment of the claim giving rise to such lien. All such sums paid by Landlord and all expenses incurred by it in connection therewith shall be deemed additional rent and shall be payable by Tenant on demand with interest at the Interest Rate.

10. USE OF PREMISES

(a) The Premises are leased to Tenant for the use set forth in Section 1(1) hereof and for no other purpose whatsoever. Tenant agrees that it will use the Premises in such manner as not to injure, annoy, interfere with or infringe on the rights of other tenants or use or allow the Premises to be used for any improper, immoral or unlawful purpose or to permit unpleasant odors to be emitted therefrom. Tenant agrees to comply with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations and comply with all requirements of Landlord's insurance policies and the American Insurance Association now or hereafter in force in connection with its use of the Premises. Tenant shall not commit or suffer the commission of any waste, overload any floor of the Premises beyond the load limit reasonably established by Landlord or permit any explosives to enter the Development. Tenant shall not do or permit anything to be done on or about the Premises or bring or keep anything therein which will in any way increase the fire insurance premium upon the Building. Tenant shall not use any portion of the Premises for the preparation, sale or consumption of food by the public. Tenant shall have the right to contest, without cost to Landlord, the validity or application of any such governmental law, ordinance or regulation required to be complied with by Tenant pursuant to this Section 10 and may postpone compliance therewith, provided such contest does not subject Landlord to criminal prosecution for noncompliance therewith and, further, provided, that Tenant promptly pays all fines, penalties and other costs and interest thereon imposed upon Landlord as a result of such noncompliance.

(b) During the Lease Term, Landlord shall not permit any portion of the Development to be used or occupied for a use which would be inconsistent with maintaining a highly respected public image for the Building, including, without limitation, any of the "Prohibited Uses," described on Exhibit "I" hereto. Tenant agrees not to use, or permit to be used any portion of, the Premises for any of the Prohibited Uses.

(c) During the Term, without the prior written consent of Tenant, which may be withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord shall not suffer or permit any portion of the Building (other than the Premises) to be occupied by any residential mortgage lender or residential mortgage broker, real estate broker, bank (other than a full service retail branch bank that does not specialize in the making of residential mortgage loans as a primary business) or title insurance company (collectively, "Tenant's Exclusive Uses").

11. LANDLORD'S SERVICES AND UTILITIES

(a) (i) Landlord agrees to furnish to the Premises from 7:00 am. to 8:00 p.m. weekdays and 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturdays (excluding New Year's Day, Memorial Day, July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas) ("Normal Business Hours"), and subject to the rules and regulations of the Building, water suitable for the intended use of the Premises, heat and air conditioning required for the comfortable use the Premises for normal office use, janitorial service in accordance with Exhibit "D" hereto and elevator service at all times. From a heating, ventilating and air conditioning ("HVAC") perspective, the Premises shall meet the specifications set forth on Exhibit "H" hereto ("Building Design Criteria"). Any changes to the HVAC system require approval of Landlord and shall be at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Landlord's approval of HVAC changes shall not constitute Landlord's representation that the HVAC system as modified will meet the specifications set forth in the Building Design Criteria. Similarly, changes to the configuration of the Premises or Tenant's use of, and level of occupancy in, the Premises may affect Landlord's ability to deliver HVAC meeting the specifications of the Building Design Criteria. Landlord shall make HVAC services available to Tenant at all times beyond Normal Business Hours promptly upon written request (which may be by email) from Tenant. Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to diligently restore any services provided by Landlord hereunder which are disrupted.

(ii) Tenant shall have the right to have Landlord install, at Tenant's expense, and all costs associated with installation of any upgrades and additional HVAC equipment as Tenant shall determine to be necessary or desirable, including, without limitation, additional rooftop HVAC units.

(C) any limitation, curtailment, rationing or restriction on use of water, electricity, steam, gas or any other form of energy serving the Premises or the Building. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts diligently to remedy any interruption in the furnishing of such services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any interruption of utilities or services shall continue for more than three consecutive days as a result of the negligence or willful act of Landlord and Tenant is prevented from using the Premises or any portion thereof in the same manner as Tenant was using the Premises prior to such interruption, then all Basic Rental and additional rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion of the Premises shall be abated for the period beginning as of the commencement of such interruption and continuing until full use of such portion of the Premises is restored to Tenant.

Landlord may elect to purchase electricity in bulk for the Building and furnish the Premises with electricity. Tenant shall pay the charge for electricity monthly as and when invoiced therefor to said public utility company or Landlord, as the case may be. If Landlord has elected to purchase electricity in bulk for the Building, electricity shall be charged to Tenant at the secondary rates which Tenant would pay as a direct customer of the utility company providing service to Landlord.

(c) Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall make arrangements directly with the telephone company for telephone service in the Premises. During the Term, Landlord shall, at its sole cost and expense, cause the Security Specifications to be in place and enforced. Tenant agrees to comply with the Security Specifications as the same may be reasonably modified from time to time by Landlord, provided that (i) the Security Specifications shall at all times be consistent with security specifications for Class A office buildings in the central business district of the City of Detroit; (ii) Landlord shall give Tenant written notice not less than thirty days prior to any material change in the Security Specifications; and (iii) Landlord shall not make any change in the Security Specifications which would have a material adverse effect on Tenant. Landlord shall provide building access to all employees and vendors of Tenant and Tenant's sublessees (collectively, "Cardholders") twenty-four hours per day, three hundred sixty-five days per year. Landlord shall replace lost access cards, at the expense of Tenant, for a charge of Ten Dollars per card. Cardholders shall not be required to sign in at the security desk or elsewhere in the Common Areas provided the Cardholders have a Tenant or Building management issued identification access card.

(g) Landlord has entered into arrangements with the owner of the Chase Tower situated at 611 Woodward Avenue for use of the team member cafeteria on the eighth (8th) floor of the Chase Tower (the "Cafeteria") and with the owner of the One Campus Martius Building situated at 1050 Woodward Avenue for use of the cafeteria, day care center and fitness center. Landlord shall make such facilities available to Tenant and Tenant's employees for a fee to be established by Landlord from time to time. Tenant's rights to the use of such facilities shall be subject to Landlord's agreements with the owners of such facilities and may be discontinued by Landlord if the agreements with the owners of such facilities shall expire or terminate or if such agreements no longer make such facilities available for Tenant's use.

12. RULES AND REGULATIONS

These regulations are imposed for the cleanliness, good appearance, proper maintenance, good order, and proper enjoyment of the Development by all tenants and their clients, customers and employees. The modifications to such rules and regulations shall be consistent with the operation of Class A office building in the central business district of the City of Detroit area and shall be enforced on a nondiscriminatory basis. To the extent such rules and regulations conflict with the terms of this Lease, the terms of this Lease shall govern.

13. TAXES

Tenant shall, in addition to and at the same time as making the payments of rental hereunder, pay Landlord the amount of any rental, excise, sales or transaction privilege tax now or hereafter imposed or levied upon Landlord or Landlord's receipt of rental hereunder, but, excepting Landlord's income taxes of general applicability.

14. FIRE OR CASUALTY

(a) If the Building, the Premises or access to them shall be partially or totally damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (each, a "Casualty") and if this Lease is not terminated as provided below, then Landlord shall repair and restore the Premises and the portions of the Building servicing the Premises to substantially their condition prior to such fire or other casualty (the "Required Restoration Work") with reasonable dispatch and diligently prosecute such repair and restoration to completion. In no event shall Landlord be required to repair or replace Tenant's leasehold improvements, merchandise, trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment or other personal property.

(b) If all or part of the Premises shall be rendered Untenantable (as hereafter defined) by reason of a Casualty, the Basic Rental and all additional rent attributable to the Premises or portion thereof which is Untenantable shall be abated for the period from the date of the Casualty to the earlier of (i) the date which is ninety days after the Premises or such portion thereof are no longer Untenantable or (ii) the date Tenant reoccupies such portion of the Premises for the ordinary conduct of business (in which case the Basic Rental and the additional rent allocable to such reoccupied portion shall be payable by Tenant from the date of such occupancy). "Untenantable" means that Tenant shall be unable to occupy and shall not be occupying the Premises or the applicable portion thereof for the conduct of business ordinarily conducted in the Premises as a result of the Casualty.

(c) If by reason of a Casualty (i) the Building shall be totally damaged or destroyed, or (ii) the Building shall be so damaged or destroyed (whether or not the Premises are damaged or destroyed) that repair or restoration shall require more than one hundred eighty days, and/or if the Casualty is not insured under the insurance Landlord is required to carry or carries hereunder, then in any such case Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease by notice given to the other party within thirty days after Landlord receives or should have received the Estimate (as defined in Section 14(d) below) and Tenant shall have no restoration obligations with respect to the Premises. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, Landlord may not terminate this Lease unless clause (i) or (ii) above applies and Landlord has elected to and does not rebuild the Building following the Casualty.

(d) (i) Within sixty days after the date of any Casualty, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant an estimate prepared by a reputable third party disinterested contractor selected by Landlord and reasonably approved by Tenant setting forth such contractor's estimate as to the time reasonably required to perform the Required Restoration Work; provided, that if Landlord shall fail to deliver such estimate within twenty days after Landlord's receipt of written notice that Landlord has failed to provide such Estimate, Tenant may designate a contractor (subject to Landlord's reasonable approval thereof; provided, that if Landlord fails to approve or disapprove any contractor designated by Tenant within ten days after the giving of notice by Tenant, such contractor shall be deemed to be approved by Landlord) to prepare the same (the contractor designated by either Landlord or Tenant pursuant to this sentence is called the "Contractor" and the estimate prepared by the Contractor is called the "Estimate").

(ii) In the event according to the Estimate, the Premises cannot be restored to tenantable condition within a period of one hundred eighty days following the Casualty, then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice ("Casualty Termination Notice") to Landlord within thirty days following Tenant's receipt of the Estimate. In addition, if Landlord has not completed such restoration within such one hundred eighty day period, and if Landlord does not complete such restoration within thirty days after notice from Tenant of such failure to complete such restoration, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease at any time after the expiration of such one hundred eighty day period and prior to the completion of such restoration by written notice to Landlord.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if following a Casualty twenty-five percent or more of the Premises is Untenantable for a period of thirty days, and within such thirty day period Landlord has not made reasonably equivalent space in the Building available to Tenant, Tenant may terminate the Lease upon notice to Landlord; such notice shall also be deemed a Casualty Termination Notice.

(iv) If Tenant gives a Casualty Termination Notice pursuant to this Section 14(d), this Lease shall terminate on the thirtieth day after such notice is given by Tenant or such longer time period (not to exceed one hundred eighty days) as specified in such Casualty Termination Notice and Tenant shall vacate the Premises and surrender the same to Landlord in accordance with the terms of this Lease; provided, that Tenant shall have no restoration obligations with respect to portions of the Premises rendered Untenantable by such Casualty. Upon any such termination of this Lease, Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any and all liability thereafter accruing hereunder, and any Rent paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant within thirty days after termination of the Lease.

(v) Time is of the essence with respect to all of the time periods set forth in this Section 14(d).

(e) (i) Landlord and Tenant shall reasonably cooperate with each other in connection with the performance by Landlord of the Required Restoration Work and the repair or replacement by Tenant of Tenant's property, provided that Tenant shall not unreasonably interfere with the Required Restoration Work and such entry by Tenant shall be at its sole risk. Prior to the substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work, Landlord shall, to the extent appropriate in accordance with good construction practices, provide Tenant and Tenant's contractor, subcontractors and materialmen access to the Premises to repair or replace Tenant's property (but not to occupy the same for the conduct of business).

(ii) Such access by Tenant shall be deemed to be subject to all of the applicable provisions of this Lease, except that there shall be no obligation on the part of Tenant solely because of such access to pay any Rent with respect to the affected portion of the Premises for any period prior to substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work.

15. EMINENT DOMAIN

(a) If the whole or any substantial part of the Premises or the Building shall be taken by any public authority under the power of eminent domain, then the term of this Lease shall cease on the part so taken on the date possession of that part shall be required for public use, and any Rent paid in advance of such date shall be refunded to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall each have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice to the other, which notice shall be delivered within thirty days following the date notice is received of such taking. In the event that neither party hereto shall terminate this Lease, Landlord shall, to the extent the proceeds of the condemnation award (other than any proceeds awarded for the value of any land taken) are available, make all necessary repairs to the Premises and the Building to render and restore the same to a complete architectural unit and Tenant shall continue in possession of the portion of the Premises not taken under the power of eminent domain, under the same terms and conditions as are herein provided, except that the Rent reserved herein, Tenant's Share pursuant to Section 1(j) hereof and the parking spaces pursuant to Section 1(o) hereof shall each be reduced in direct proportion to the amount of the Premises so taken. All damages awarded for such taking shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, whether such damages be awarded as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or to the fee of the Premises; provided, however, Landlord shall not be entitled to any portion of the award made to Tenant for removal and reinstallation of trade fixtures or moving expenses.

(b) In the event of a partial taking which does not result in the termination of this Lease, Landlord shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute the restoration of the Premises as nearly as practicable to a complete unit of like quality and character as existed just prior to such taking. In such event, the Rent shall abate during the period of demolition and restoration to the extent the Premises are unusable, provided that Landlord receives an award therefor.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 15 hereof, Tenant shall have the right to make a claim against the condemning authority (but not Landlord) for compensation for the unamortized cost of Tenant's improvements, alterations or additions made to the Premises at Tenant's cost, such amortization to be computed on a straight line basis over the term of this Lease.

16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

(a) Except as expressly permitted pursuant to this Section 16, Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, assign, encumber or hypothecate this Lease or any interest herein or sublet the Premises or any part thereof, or permit the use of the Premises by any party other than Tenant. Landlord agrees that it will not unreasonably withhold or condition its consent to a proposed assignment or subletting. In determining reasonableness, Landlord may take into consideration all relevant factors surrounding the proposed assignment or subletting, including, without limitation: (i) the business reputation of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its officers, directors and owners; (ii) the nature of the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its effect on the other tenants of the Building; and (iii) restrictions, if any, contained in leases affecting the Development. Except as provided in Section 16(c) hereof, this Lease shall not, nor shall any interest herein, be assignable as to the interest of Tenant by operation of law without the consent of Landlord.

(b) If at any time or from time to time during the Term, Tenant desires to sublet all or any part of the Premises or to assign this Lease, Tenant shall give notice to Landlord setting forth the proposed subtenant or assignee, the terms of the proposed subletting and the space so proposed to be sublet or the terms of the proposed assignment, as the case may be. If the proposed subletting or assignment is to a non-affiliate of Tenant, Landlord may terminate this Lease as the portion of the Premises which Tenant proposes to sublet or assign, such termination right to be exercised by notice from Landlord to Tenant within ten days after Tenant's notice to Landlord of the proposed sublet or assignment, provided that such termination notice by Landlord shall not be effective if, within ten days after Landlord's termination notice to Tenant, Tenant give notice to Landlord retracting the proposed sublet or assignment notice.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16(a) and Section 16(b) hereof, without Landlord's approval or consent and without notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sublease or assign all or any portion of the Premises to any affiliate of Tenant and any affiliate of any of the beneficial owners of Tenant or its parents or subsidiaries at any level, any entity in which Tenant has a controlling interest, or to any successor entity, whether by merger, consolidation or combination or otherwise or to any entity that purchases all or substantially all of Tenant's assets. For purposes hereof an affiliate is any entity which controls Tenant, is controlled by Tenant or is under common control with Tenant, or in which Tenant or any affiliate of Tenant or any beneficial owner of Tenant or its parent or subsidiaries has any interest or is an officer, director, shareholder, partner, member or manager or at any other level. Tenant shall, upon written request from Landlord, provide Landlord with the names of any sublessees or assignees of Tenant. Nothing contained in this Lease provides any subtenant or assignee with any right to use the Premises for any use other than Tenant's Use as set forth in Section 1(I).

(d) Regardless of Landlord's consent, no subletting or assignment shall release Tenant of Tenant's obligation or alter the primary liability of Tenant to pay the rental and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Tenant hereunder. The acceptance of rental by Landlord from any other person shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Landlord of any provision hereof. Consent to one assignment or subletting shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. In the event of default of any of the terms hereof, Landlord may proceed directly against Tenant without the necessity of exhausting remedies against such assignee or successor. Landlord may consent to subsequent assignments or subletting of this Lease or amendments or modifications to this Lease with assignees of Tenant, upon first notifying Tenant, or any successor of Tenant, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto and such action shall not relieve Tenant of liability under this Lease.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 16, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent, without notice to Landlord and without extending any option to Landlord, sublet portions of the Premises to title companies, appraisal companies, casualty insurance agencies, mortgage brokers and/or real estate brokers, home builders and/or banking institutions, mortgage and/or finance companies and any other entities, so long as the foregoing are operating in conjunction with Tenant in the Premises or is an affiliate of Tenant and are operating as a use described in Section 1(1) above.

17. ACCESS

(a) Subject to applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations, Landlord and its agents shall have the right following not less than seventy-two hours' notice (except in an Emergency (as hereinafter defined)) to enter the Premises at all reasonable times for the purpose of examining or inspecting the same, showing the same to prospective purchasers or tenants of the Building (in the final 9 months of the term), and as necessary to perform its obligations hereunder. Landlord may erect, use and maintain scaffolding, pipes, conduits and other necessary structures in and through the Premises where reasonably required by the character of the work performed, provided that the business of Tenant shall not be interfered with unreasonably. If Tenant shall not personally be present to open and permit an entry into the Premises at any time when such entry by Landlord is necessary or permitted hereunder, Landlord may enter by means of a master key or, in emergencies, may enter forcibly, without liability to Tenant. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Section 17 hereof, Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts not to unreasonably interfere with Tenant's operations in the Premises and to minimize any such interference.

(b) Tenant shall have the exclusive right (via card reader devices or equipment) to access the telecom and electric closets on each floor of the Building upon which a portion of the Premises is located. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Section 17(b) Tenant shall not disrupt and/or disable the equipment located within such closets. Tenant shall have the right to install additional equipment within such closets at Tenant's expenses, subject to the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless for any damages incurred by Landlord arising from the acts or omissions of Tenant, its agents, employees and contractors in such telecom and electric closets.

(c) As used herein, the term "Emergency" shall mean an event requiring immediate action, e.g., danger to health, life or property, fire water seepage, sewer backup or cessation or interruption of any facility servicing the like.

This Lease is and shall be subject and subordinate, at all times, to (a) the lien of any mortgage or mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the Building, and to all advances made or hereafter to be made upon the security thereof and to the interest thereon, and to any agreements at any time made modifying, supplementing, extending or replacing any such mortgages, and (b) any ground or underlying lease which may now or hereafter affect the Building, including all amendments, renewals, modifications, consolidation, replacements and extensions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at the request of the holder of any of the aforesaid mortgage or mortgages or the lessor under the aforesaid ground or underlying lease, this Lease may be made prior and superior to such mortgage or mortgages and/or such ground or underlying lease. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, if the Development is subject to mortgage on the date of this Lease, then within thirty days after the execution and delivery of this Lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement for Tenant's benefit from the current mortgagee(s) of the Development in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant. In addition, as a condition precedent to Tenant subordinating this Lease to any future mortgage or ground lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement from such mortgagee or ground lessor in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall execute and deliver such further instruments as may be reasonably required to implement the provisions of this Section 18, provided the same are reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

19. NON-LIABILITY

(a) Except for the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees, Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to Tenant for any loss or damage that may be occasioned by or through the acts or omissions of persons occupying adjoining premises or any part of the premises adjacent to or connected with the Premises or any part of the Building or for any loss or damage resulting to Tenant or his property from burst, stopped or leaking water, gas, sewer or steam pipes, or for any damage or loss of property within the Premises from any cause whatsoever, and no such occurrence shall be deemed to be an actual or constructive eviction from the Premises or result in an abatement of rental.

(b) In the event of any sale or transfer (including any transfer by operation of law) of the Premises, Landlord (and any subsequent owner of the Premises making such a transfer) shall be relieved from any and all obligations and liabilities under this Lease, except such obligations and liabilities as shall have arisen during Landlord's (or such subsequent owner's) respective period of ownership, provided that the transferee assumes in writing all of the obligations of Landlord under this Lease.

(c) If Landlord shall fail to perform any covenant, term or condition of this Lease upon Landlord's part to be performed, and if as a consequence of such default, Tenant shall recover a money judgment against Landlord, such judgment shall be satisfied only out of the proceeds of sale received upon execution of such judgment and levied thereon against the right, title and interest of Landlord in the Building and out of rents or other income from the Building receivable by Landlord, or out of the consideration received by Landlord from the sale or other disposition of all or any part of Landlord's right, title and interest in the Building, and neither Landlord nor any of its partners shall be liable for any deficiency.

20. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD

(a) Tenant shall hold Landlord harmless from and defend Landlord against any and all claims or liability for damages to any person or property in, on or about the Premises from the negligence or wrongful acts of Tenant, its agents, contractors, employees, subtenants, assignees and licensees.

(b) Tenant shall procure and keep in effect during the entire term hereof commercial general liability and property damage insurance protecting Landlord and Tenant from all causes, including their own negligence, having as limits of liability One Million Dollars for damages resulting from one occurrence. Tenant shall deliver policies of such insurance or certificates thereof to Landlord upon execution of this Lease by Tenant and thereafter at least thirty days before the expiration dates of expiring policies. Such insurance shall not be cancelable without thirty days' written notice to Landlord, and in the event Tenant shall fail to procure such insurance, Landlord may at its option procure the same for the account of Tenant, and the reasonable cost thereof shall be paid to Landlord as an additional charge upon receipt by Tenant of bills therefor.

21. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION

Landlord and Tenant shall each be released from any liability resulting from damage by fire or casualty (irrespective of the cause of such fire or casualty) upon the express proviso that if at any time their respective insurers shall refuse to permit waivers of subrogation, Landlord or Tenant may in each instance revoke said waiver of subrogation effective thirty days from the date of notice to the other unless within such thirty day period, the other is able to secure and furnish (without additional expense) insurance in other companies with such waiver of subrogation.

22. ATTORNEY'S FEES

In the event of any legal action or proceeding brought by either party against the other arising out of this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees incurred in such action and such amount shall be included in any judgment rendered in such proceeding.

23. WAIVER

(a) No waiver of any provision of this Lease or of any breach hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other provision hereof, or of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. Consent to or approval of any act requiring consent or approval shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of consent to or approval of any subsequent act. No act or thing done by Landlord or Landlord's agents during the term of this Lease shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, unless done in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of the keys to any employee or agent of Landlord shall not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises.

(b) Landlord and Tenant hereby waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of the parties against the other in any matter whatsoever (except for personal injury or property damage) arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of landlord and tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, or any emergency or other statutory remedy with respect thereto.

24. Intentionally Deleted

25. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events (hereinafter referred to as "Events of Default") shall constitute a breach of this Lease by Tenant: (i) if Tenant shall fail to pay the Basic Rental or any other sum when and as the same becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than ten days after written notice thereof from Landlord; or (ii) if Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any other term hereof or of the rules and regulations referred to in Section 12 hereof to be performed or observed by Tenant, such failure shall continue for more than thirty days after written notice thereof from Landlord, and Tenant shall not within such thirty day period commence with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default, or, having so commenced, shall thereafter fail or neglect to prosecute or complete with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default; (iii) if Tenant shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a petition in bankruptcy, or shall be adjudicated as insolvent or shall file a petition in any proceeding seeking any reorganization, arrangements, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future statute, law or regulation, or shall file an answer admitting or fail timely to contest or acquiesce in the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or any material part of its properties; (iv) if within ninety days after the commencement of any proceeding against Tenant seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future statute, law or regulation, such proceeding shall not have been dismissed, or if, within ninety days after the appointment without the consent of acquiescence of Tenant, of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or of any material part of its properties, such appointment shall not have been vacated; or (v) if this Lease or any estate of Tenant hereunder shall be levied upon under any attachment or execution and such attachment or execution is not vacated within sixty days.

(b) Any time an uncured Event of Default by Tenant as set forth in Section 25(a) hereof exists, Landlord, at its option, may terminate this Lease upon and by giving written notice of termination to Tenant as required by law (currently, at least thirty days prior written notice), or Landlord, without terminating this Lease, may at any time after such default or breach, without notice or demand additional to that provided in Section 25(a) hereof (other than notice and/or demand required by applicable law), and without limiting Landlord in the exercise of any other right or remedy which Landlord may have by reason of such default or breach (other than the aforesaid right of termination) exercise any one or more of the remedies hereinafter provided in this Section 25(b), or as otherwise provided by law, all of such remedies (whether provided herein or by law) being cumulative and not exclusive:

(c) Landlord shall have the right to recover the rental and all other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease as they become due (unless and until Landlord has terminated this Lease and all other damages incurred by Landlord as a result of an Event of Default.) Landlord may enter the Premises either by summary proceedings or by any other lawful proceeding (without thereby incurring any liability to Tenant and without such entry being constituted an eviction of Tenant or termination of this Lease) and take possession of the Premises excluding all personal property of every kind on the Premises not owned by Landlord, and Landlord shall at any time and from time to time relet the Premises or any part thereof for the account of Tenant, for such terms, upon such conditions and at such rental as Landlord may in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment deem proper. In the event of such reletting, (i) Landlord shall receive and collect the Rent therefrom and shall first apply such Rent against such expenses as Landlord may have incurred in recovering possession of the Premises, placing the same in good order and condition, altering or repairing the same for reletting, and such other expenses, commissions and charges, including attorney's fees and real estate commissions, which Landlord may have paid or reasonably incurred in connection with such repossession and reletting, and then shall apply such Rent against the Rent as it comes due under this Lease, and (ii) Landlord may execute any lease in connection with such reletting in Landlord's name, as Landlord may see fit, and the tenant of such reletting shall be under no obligation to see to the application by Landlord of any Rent collected by Landlord.

(d) Landlord shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate its damages in the event of an uncured Event of Default, but Landlord shall not be required to favor the Premises if there are other vacant comparable premises in the Building.

(e) Upon a termination of this Lease by Landlord pursuant to Section 25(b) hereof, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant the aggregate of: (i) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid rental which had been earned at the time of termination; (ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rental which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the then reasonable rental value of the Premises during such period; (iii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rental for the balance of the term of this Lease after the time of award exceeds the reasonable rental value of the Premises for such period; and (iv) Landlord's other actual damages (if any), proximately caused by the Event of Default. The "worth at the time of award" of the amounts referred to in clauses (a) and (b) above is computed from the date such Rent was due or would have been due, as the case may be, by allowing interest at the rate of two percent in excess of the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal or, if a higher rate is legally permissible, at the highest rate legally permitted. The "worth at the time of award" of the amount referred to in clause (c) above is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago at the time of award, plus one percent. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 25(e) to the contrary, Tenant shall continue to pay the difference between the rental herein reserved over the then reasonable rental value of the Premises for the remainder of the stated term on a monthly basis until such time, if at all, that such amounts are in arrears for in excess of sixty (60) days, in which event Landlord shall have the right to accelerate such amounts in accordance with Section 25(e)(iii) hereof.

(f) All covenants, terms and conditions to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be at its sole cost and expense and without any abatement of rental except as expressly provided herein. If Tenant shall fail to pay any sum of money, other than Basic Rental, required to be paid by it hereunder or shall fail to perform any other act on its part to be performed hereunder and such failure shall continue for thirty days after notice thereof by Landlord, and such failure results in an Event of Default, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated so to do, and without waiving or releasing Tenant from any obligations of Tenant, make any such payment or perform any such other act on Tenant's part to be made or performed as in this Lease provided. All sums so paid by Landlord and all necessary incidental costs shall be deemed additional rental hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord on demand, and Landlord shall have (in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord) the same rights and remedies in the event of the nonpayment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment of Basic Rental.

26. HOLDING OVER

It is hereby agreed that in the event of Tenant holding over after the termination of this Lease, by lapse of time or otherwise, thereafter the tenancy shall be from month to month in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord a monthly occupancy charge equal to (i) for the first sixty days of holdover, one hundred twenty-five percent of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year, and (ii) for any holdover beyond said sixty days, one hundred fifty percent of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year (plus all other charges payable by Tenant under this Lease) such occupancy charges to be payable from the expiration or termination of this Lease until the end of the calendar month in which the Premises are delivered to Landlord in the condition required herein. If Landlord shall enter into a new lease or amend an existing lease for premises in the Building for all or a portion of the Premises at the end of the Term, Landlord shall so notify Tenant and if Tenant fails to vacate and deliver all or such portion of the Premises to Landlord within sixty days after receipt of such notice (but in no event prior to the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease), Tenant shall be responsible for any and all damages incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's failure to so vacate and deliver the Premises or such portion thereof (including the loss of such lease or amendment).

27. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents have made any representations or promises with respect to the physical condition of the Building, the land upon which the Building is erected, or the Premises, the rents, leases, expenses of operation or any other matter or thing affecting or related to the Premises except as herein expressly set forth and no rights, easements or licenses are acquired by Tenant by implication or otherwise, except as expressly set forth in the provisions of this Lease. This Lease shall constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto; all prior agreements between the parties, whether written or oral, are merged herein and shall be of no force or effect. This Lease cannot be changed, modified or discharged orally but only by an agreement in writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, modification or discharge is sought.

28. NOTICES

All notices, consents, requests, demands, designations or other communications which may or are required to be given by either party to the other hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when (i) personally delivered; or (ii) three days after being deposited in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid; or (iii) one business day after being deposited with a nationally recognized overnight courier service; or (iv) sent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail to be immediately followed by delivery in accordance with the foregoing (i), (ii) or (iii), and in all instances addressed as follows: to Tenant at the address set forth in Section 1(m) hereof, or to such other place as Tenant may from time to time designate in a notice to Landlord; to Landlord at the address set forth in Section 1(n) hereof, or to such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate in a notice to Tenant. Notice need be sent to only one Tenant or Landlord where Tenant or Landlord is more than one person.

29. SUCCESSORS

This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, administrators, executors, representatives, successors and assigns.

30. TIME

Time is of the essence of this Lease and each and all of its provisions.

31. QUIET ENJOYMENT

Landlord warrants that Tenant, upon paying the rents hereinbefore provided and in performing each and every covenant hereof, shall peacefully and quietly hold, occupy and enjoy the Premises throughout the term hereof, without molestation or hindrance by any person holding under or through Landlord.

32. BROKERS

Tenant acknowledges that no real estate broker is responsible for bringing about or negotiating this Lease other than Bedrock Management Services LLC (“Broker”) and Tenant has not dealt with any broker in connection with this Lease and/or the Premises other than Broker. Landlord and Tenant agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other from any expense or liability arising out of a claim for commission or other compensation by any broker other than Broker claiming or alleging to have acted on behalf of or to have dealt with it in connection with this Lease or the Premises. Landlord shall pay the commission due Broker in accordance with Landlord's separate agreement with Broker.

33. INABILITY TO PERFORM

(a) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault of the Landlord, Landlord is unable to furnish or is delayed in furnishing any utility or service required to be furnished by Landlord under the provisions of this Lease, or is unable to perform or make or is delayed in performing or making any installations, decorations, repairs, alterations, additions or improvements required to be performed or made under this Lease, or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Landlord's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute an actual or constructive eviction in whole or in part, or entitle Tenant to any abatement or diminution of rental or other charges due hereunder or relieve Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Landlord or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Tenant, or injury to or interruption of Tenant's business, or otherwise.

(b) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault of the Tenant, Tenant is delayed in performing work or doing any act required under the terms of this Lease or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute a default, or entitle or relieve Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Tenant or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Landlord.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 33 shall not operate to excuse either party from the prompt payment of the Rent or any other payments required by the terms of this Lease.

34. REMOVAL OF TENANT'S PROPERTY

"Tenant's Property" as used herein shall mean all of Tenant's movable fixtures and movable partitions, telephone and telecommunication wiring and cabling and related equipment, computer systems, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, and other items of personal property located in the Premises. On or before the Expiration Date, any earlier date of termination of this Lease or the date that Tenant vacates from the Premises, whichever shall first occur, Tenant agrees to remove, at its sole cost and expense, all of Tenant's Property (unless Landlord consents in writing to Tenant's request to allow the Tenant's Property or any portion thereof to remain in the Premises). Tenant shall restore and repair (which shall include, without limitation, repairing any holes in the walls or tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing-up any slab penetrations in the Premises, all in a good and workmanlike manner), or promptly reimburse Landlord for the cost of restoring and repairing (including, without limitation, repairing any such holes in the walls and tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing any such slab penetrations) any and all damage done to the Premises or the Building by the removal of Tenant's Property or by the removal of leasehold improvements, alterations or other physical additions made by Tenant to the Premises which Landlord has directed or otherwise permitted Tenant to remove from the Premises. Tenant shall notify Landlord of its intention to affect the closing of any such slab penetrations at least thirty days prior to commencing such closings. If Tenant fails to remove any of Tenant's Property by the Expiration Date or any sooner date of termination of the Lease or, if Tenant fails to remove any leasehold improvements, alterations or other physical additions made by Tenant to the Premises which Landlord has in writing directed Tenant to remove, Landlord shall have the right, on the fifth day after Landlord's delivery of written notice to Tenant to deem such property abandoned by Tenant and to remove, store, sell, discard or otherwise deal with or dispose of such abandoned property in a commercially reasonable manner. Tenant shall be liable for all costs of such disposition of Tenant's abandoned property and the repair and restoration of the Premises, and Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant in any respect regarding such property of Tenant. The provisions of this Section 34 shall survive the expiration or any earlier termination of this Lease.

35. PARKING

(a) During the Term of this Lease, Landlord shall provide to Tenant three parking spaces for each one thousand square feet of rentable square feet in the Premises (the "QL Parking Spaces"). The QL Parking Spaces shall, as determined by Landlord, be in the following locations: (i) three hundred twenty will be located in the either "surface parking lot(s)", "parking structure", or "executive garage", each as depicted on Schedule 35 attached hereto, and (ii) the balance of the parking spaces will be located in parking facilities mutually acceptable to Landlord and Tenant ("Parking Facilities") (two hundred twenty nine parking spaces based upon the rentable square footage of Phase One and Phase Two as of the Date of Lease). The QL Parking Spaces located in the surface lot(s), parking structure and executive garage are sometimes hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Building Parking Spaces." Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant shall only be entitled to the number of QL Parking Spaces for the Premises which is actually occupied by Tenant from time to time. If the rentable square footage of the Premises is more or less than the rentable square footage contemplated as of the Date of Lease, Landlord shall determine the allocation of spaces between the Building Parking Spaces and the Parking Facilities.

(b) Commencing on the Commencement Date for each Phase, Tenant shall pay the following monthly rates for the QL Parking Spaces ("Parking Rent"):

(i) Ninety Dollars per parking space per month for parking spaces located in the Surface parking lot(s);

(ii) One Hundred Ten Dollars per parking space per month for parking spaces located in the parking garage;

(iii) One Hundred Sixty Dollars per parking space per month for parking spaces located in the executive garage; and

(iv) The balance of the QL Parking Spaces shall be at the then market rate charged for such parking spaces, which at the request of Landlord, shall be paid directly by Tenant to the owner/operator of the Parking Facilities.

(c) Parking Rent will be paid on the first day of each month following the applicable Commencement Date in advance without demand, deduction or setoff and shall otherwise be paid in the same manner and at the same time as Tenant pays Basic Rental.

(d) Landlord may not obligate itself to provide parking spaces to the remaining tenants in the Building which results in not providing Tenant with the Building Parking Spaces. Tenant will not permit the QL Parking Spaces to be used for transient parking. Tenant may, from time to time, reduce the number of QL Parking Spaces and if so reduced, may thereafter, from time to time, increase the number of QL Parking Spaces, in any event to no more than three parking spaces per 1,000 rentable square foot of the Premises.

(e) Landlord shall provide Tenant one parking access device and/or permit for each of the Building Parking Spaces requested by Tenant (collectively "QL Parking Permits"). Thirty days prior to the applicable Commencement Date, Tenant shall advise Landlord of the number of QL Parking Permits requested by Tenant as of the applicable Commencement Date. On or before the 1st day of each month, upon notice to Landlord, Tenant may decrease or increase (up to the maximum number of parking spaces permitted) the number of QL Parking Permits that Tenant will employ for the next subsequent month so as to provide Landlord with a minimum of one month's notice.

(f) Monthly Parking Rent shall increase $5.00 for each Building Parking Space on each anniversary of the Phase One Commencement Date. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord, at Landlord's cost, for replacement (i.e. lost, stolen, damaged) QL Parking Permits.

(g) Landlord shall not be considered to be an insurer, guarantor, or bailee of the safety or security of any employee, or of any vehicle, or of the contents of any vehicle, parked in any of the QL Parking Spaces. Tenant acknowledges (and will so advise all of its employees and affiliates that use the QL Parking Spaces) that all of its employees must self-park and un-park their vehicles, and abide by all provisions of the rules and regulations of the Parking Facilities that may be applicable to their use of the QL Parking Spaces. Landlord does not guard or assume care, custody, or control of the vehicle or its contents and is not responsible to Tenant or any employees or to any individuals or entities to whom QL Parking Permits are provided, for fire, theft, damage, or loss, including any damage caused by any other vehicle parked in the Parking Facilities of the Building, as applicable.

(h) Tenant may not assign or sublet its rights to the use of the QL Parking Spaces and/or the QL Parking Permits, except in connection with an assignment of this Lease or sublease of all or any portion of the Premises. Tenant's rights to use the QL Parking Spaces are subject to the Landlord's right to use of the Parking Facilities pursuant to such agreements which may be in place between Landlord and the owners and/or operators of the Parking Facilities. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if Landlord's right to use one or more of the Parking Facilities is terminated as a result of the sale of such Parking Facility(ies), then Tenant's right to use such Parking Facility(ies) shall be similarly terminated; provided, however, nothing contained herein shall limit Landlord's obligations to cause the QL Parking Spaces to be made available to Tenant and others permitted to use them pursuant to this Section 35. If the QL Parking Spaces become unavailable for any reason (including, without limitation, the sale of the Parking Facility(ies) in which the QL Parking Spaces are located), other than due to the acts or omissions of Tenant, Landlord will use commercially reasonable efforts to secure suitable replacement parking at comparable cost.

36. NO OPTION

The execution of this Lease by Tenant and the delivery of the same to Landlord shall not constitute a reservation of or option for the Premises or an agreement by Landlord to enter into a lease with Tenant and this Lease shall become effective only if and when Landlord's executes and delivers the same to Tenant; provided, however, that the execution and delivery of this Lease by Tenant to Landlord shall constitute an irrevocable offer by Tenant to lease the Premises on the terms and conditions herein contained, which offer may not be withdrawn or revoked by Tenant for thirty days after execution and delivery of this Lease to Landlord.

37. ANTENNA

(a) Tenant has the right to install a satellite dish(es), electronic transmitter(s) devices for similar purposes and the like (collectively, the "Antenna") on the roof of the Building and the right to install such Antenna on the other exterior surfaces of the Building in locations reasonably acceptable to Landlord to provide wireless services to the Premises, and to wire all such Antenna to the Premises in compliance with all applicable local zoning ordinances and regulations and in accordance with plans and specifications approved by Landlord and in a location approved by Landlord. In reviewing Tenant's Antenna plans Landlord may reasonably consider, among other things, material interference of Tenant's Antenna(s) with existing antenna and communication equipment on the roof of the Building. The cost of installation and maintenance thereof, and the cost of any repairs to the roof which are necessitated by the installation, repair and/or removal of the Antenna(s) shall be borne solely by Tenant. Upon the termination of this Lease, Tenant shall remove any Antenna(s) and repair any damage to the roof occasioned by such removal. Tenant shall also be permitted to run cable, fiber optic networks, and other systems and equipment throughout the Building in order to connect the various areas within the Building occupied from time to time by Tenant, and in order to connect such areas to outside telephone, cable, optical network and other providers in locations and pursuant to plans and specifications approved by Landlord. Further, Tenant shall be permitted to install throughout the Premises, access and security systems for Tenant's exclusive use (e.g., swipe card, combination lock, security cameras or otherwise), subject to Landlord's prior written approval thereof. In addition, Tenant agrees that if it has a security camera installed in the Premises, and such camera captures a recording of an alleged criminal incident, provided that Tenant has a tape of such incident, if Landlord requests such tape Tenant shall promptly provide Landlord with a copy of such tape.

(b) Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all costs, loss, expense or liability of any kind whatsoever arising out of the installation, use and/or removal by Tenant of the Antenna. Tenant shall maintain a comprehensive general liability insurance policy, including contractual liability, as set forth in Section 20(b) hereof, so long as the Antenna is under construction, in place and/or being removed.

(c) Tenant shall work exclusively with Landlord's roofing contractor relating to the installation and/or removal of the Antenna and the roof penetration so as not to violate any requirements or invalidate Landlord's roof guaranty.

(d) Wherever Landlord's approval is required pursuant to this Section 37, such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

38. INDEMNIFICATION OF TENANT; LANDLORD'S INSURANCE

(a) Landlord shall hold Tenant harmless from and defend Tenant against any and all claims or liability for damages to any person or property in, on or about the common areas on the Development from the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees.

(b) Landlord shall procure and keep in effect during the entire term hereof commercial general liability and property damage insurance protecting Landlord and Tenant from all causes, including their own negligence, having as limits of liability Two Million Dollars for damages resulting from one occurrence. The commercial general liability insurance to be carried by Landlord hereunder shall include contractual liability and shall be in the amount of at least Two Million Dollars combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage per occurrence. Such policy shall specifically include the liability assumed hereunder by Landlord and shall provide that it is primary insurance and not excess of or contributory with any other valid existing applicable insurance maintained for or on behalf of Tenant. Landlord shall deliver policies of such insurance or certificates thereof to Tenant prior to the Commencement Date and thereafter at least thirty days before the expiration dates of expiring policies. Such insurance shall not be cancelable without thirty days' written notice to Tenant.

(c) Landlord shall, during the Term, provide and keep in force an all risks policy for the full replacement cost of the Building, excluding trade fixtures, furniture and equipment of tenants.

39. LANDLORD'S DEFAULT

(a) Landlord shall not be deemed in default under the terms of this Lease unless (i) Landlord shall fail to pay any amount payable hereunder when and as such sum becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than thirty days after written notice thereof from Tenant or (ii) Landlord shall fail to perform its obligations under this Lease for more than thirty days after written notice of such default shall have been received by Landlord (except in the event of an Emergency, in which case no notice or cure period shall be required), provided that if the curing of such default reasonably requires in excess of thirty days (except in the case of an Emergency), Landlord shall not be deemed in default hereunder if it shall commence to cure such default within such thirty day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure, then Tenant shall have its rights and remedies provided at law and in equity and pursuant to the provisions of this Lease. In addition and notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, if any such default materially and adversely affects Tenant's use of the Premises then, Tenant shall have the right but not the obligation to cure or correct said default provided Tenant shall give Landlord five days' prior written notice of its intention to cure or correct the Landlord default (and for defaults for which Landlord is provided a five day cure period, Landlord has failed to cure said default within such five day cure period) except in an Emergency when only reasonable notice will be provided.

(b) In connection with the exercise of its rights under this Section, Tenant shall use reasonable efforts not to materially and adversely affect other tenants' occupancy of the Building and Tenant may only engage the Contractors to perform any work involving the Critical Building Systems (as hereinafter defined). If Tenant elects to cure as aforesaid, Tenant (i) shall, to the extent feasible and practical, as determined by Tenant, coordinate the exercise of any self-help remedies with Landlord, and (ii) may demand payment from Landlord of those reasonable and necessary costs paid by Tenant to effect such cure or correction. Landlord shall, within thirty days after receipt of Tenant's request (together with reasonable back-up), reimburse to Tenant all such reasonable and necessary costs actually incurred by Tenant in connection with such cure or correction. If Landlord fails to pay such costs or any other sums due Tenant under this Lease to Tenant within such thirty day period, Tenant may deduct such costs from the next due installments of Basic Rental and all other sums payable under this Lease. Tenant shall be responsible for any loss or damage suffered by Landlord and caused by the negligence of Tenant or Tenant's contractors in performing any such work pursuant to this Section 39. 2. PREMISES

(a) Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord those premises (hereinafter referred to as the "Premises"), described in Section 1(d) hereof and designated on Exhibit "A" attached hereto in the building located at One Campus Martius, Detroit, Michigan, consisting of approximately 1,025,764 rentable square feet of floor area (hereinafter referred to as the "Building"), together with the non-exclusive right and easement to use the common facilities located within and/or comprising a part of the Development (the "Common Areas") which Common Areas are for the use in common with Landlord and the tenants and occupants (their agents, employees, customers and invitees) of the Building. The Building, Common Areas, the land upon which they are situated and the parking garages situated adjacent to and under the Building (such garages collectively being referred to as the "Parking Structure") are hereinafter referred to as the "Development," a legal description of which is contained on Exhibit "B" attached hereto.

(b) The rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building shall be computed based upon the 2010 BOMA Standard Method of Measuring Floor Area in Office Buildings, ANSI/BOMA Z65.1-2010, and the rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building, shall contain a proportionate share of the common areas of the Building, utilizing a common area load factor not to exceed twenty (20%) percent.

(c) The rentable square foot area of the Premises shall be measured by Landlord's Architect, and Landlord's Architect shall certify the rentable square foot area to Landlord and Tenant; provided, however, that if Tenant disagrees with the measurement or calculation by Landlord's architect, an independent architect jointly selected by Landlord and Tenant shall promptly measure such portion of the Premises and its determination shall be binding on the parties. In the event such certification or determination shall contain a rentable square foot area different than that previously utilized, Landlord and Tenant shall promptly execute and deliver an amendment to this Lease reflecting the rentable square foot area set forth in such certification and Section 1(k) shall be revised accordingly.

(d) Tenant shall be allowed access to the Premises and reasonable portions of the common areas twenty-four (24) hours a day, three hundred sixty-five (365) days a year using card readers, or keys.

(e) Subject to the limitations set forth herein, Landlord reserves (i) the right from time to time to make changes, alterations, additions, improvements, repairs or replacements in or to the Building and the Parking Structure and the fixtures and equipment thereof, as well as in or to the street entrances, halls, passages, elevators, escalators and stairways and other parts of the Building, and to erect, maintain, and use pipes, ducts and conduits in and through the Premises, all as Landlord may reasonably deem necessary or desirable; provided, however, under no circumstances may Landlord erect any pipes, ducts or conduits in any location within the Premises which interferes with or adversely impacts the use of the Premises, (ii) the right to eliminate, substitute, modify and/or rearrange the Common Areas (which may theretofore have been so designated) as Landlord deems reasonably appropriate, and (iii) change the name, number or designation by which the Building is commonly known, in which event, Tenant will refer to the Building by the name, number or designation as determined by Landlord from time to time. Tenant's nonexclusive right to utilize the Common Areas shall be in common with Landlord, other tenants and occupants of the Building and others to whom Landlord grants such rights from time to time. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, in exercising its rights pursuant to this Section or other provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall (a) not materially or adversely interfere with Tenant's access to or operations in the Premises or Tenant's use of the Common Areas which remain available for common use or Parking Structure provided, however, the foregoing shall not preclude Landlord from modifying the Building lobby, or modifying or eliminating areas outside of the Building, (b) not materially or adversely increase any obligation of Tenant under this Lease, or (c) permanently reduce or permanently eliminate any of Tenant's parking rights. Under no circumstances shall Landlord undertake any action which materially restricts Tenant's view out of its windows (including the hanging of any banners or signs). In addition, (w) any replacements, substitutions or alterations by Landlord shall be, in the reasonable opinion of Landlord, substantially equivalent to or better than then existing facilities, (x) installations, replacements and relocations shall be located so far as practicable in the central core area of the Building, above ceiling surfaces, below floor surfaces, within perimeter walls of the Premises or otherwise in boxed enclosures, (y) all work within the Premises by Landlord, other than due to an Emergency (as hereinafter defined) or required by Law (as hereinafter defined), shall be performed at such times and in such manner, as to create the least practicable interference with Tenant's use of the Premises and (z) no such work by Landlord, other than due to an Emergency or required by Law, shall reduce the square footage of the floor area of the Premises in excess of two percent (2%) per floor of the Premises. Except in the case of Emergencies, Landlord agrees to give Tenant reasonable advance notice of any of the foregoing activities which require work in the Premises.

3. TERM

(a) The term of this Lease shall commence on the Commencement Date. Unless sooner terminated or extended as provided in this Lease, the term of this Lease shall expire on the Expiration Date set forth in Section 1(g) hereof.

(b) Intentionally Omitted.

(c) From time to time, Tenant shall furnish Landlord, upon request a letter addressed to Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee stating that Tenant has accepted the Premises for occupancy, the Premises have been completed as herein required, and setting forth the Commencement Date of this Lease and such other information relating to the Premises as either Landlord or its mortgagee may reasonably request. Within twenty (20) business days after Tenant's request therefor, Landlord shall deliver to any lender holding a security interest in Tenant's personal property located within the Premises, an acknowledgement and subordination of any interest in Tenant's personal property in form reasonably acceptable to Landlord, Tenant and Tenant's lender.

(d) (i) Tenant shall have the right, if an Event of Default does not then exist, to extend the term of this Lease for four (4) additional periods of five (5) years each upon the terms and conditions as are stated in this Lease (other than the grant of any extension rights in addition to those provided for in this Section 3(d)) and at Basic Rental equal to the fair market rent for such extension term (as determined pursuant to the terms of this Section 3(d)). Tenant shall exercise such right to extend the term of this Lease, it at all, at least seven (7) months prior to the expiration of the original term of this Lease or such prior extension period, as the case may be. If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the term of this Lease within the period of time for exercise set forth in this Section, Tenant's option to extend the term of this Lease shall continue in full force and effect until Landlord shall have given Tenant notice of such failure to exercise said option to extend the term of this Lease ("Oops Notice"). If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the term of this Lease within ten (10) business days after receipt of an Oops Notice from Landlord, then and only then shall Tenant's option to extend the term of this Lease expire. Landlord shall have no obligation to do any work or perform any special services with respect to the Premises for such extension period, which Tenant agrees to accept in their then "as is" condition (but subject to Landlord's on-going repair, maintenance and service obligations set forth herein).

(ii) Within ten (10) days after the exercise by Tenant of its right to extend the term of this Lease for a renewal period, Landlord shall submit to Tenant Landlord's determination of the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period. If Tenant does not notify Landlord of its acceptance of Landlord's determination of the Basic Rental for the Premises for renewal period within ten days after receipt of Landlord's determination of the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period (the "First 10 Day Period"), then the parties shall proceed as provided in Section 3(d)(iii) below.

(iii) Within five (5) days after the First 10 Day Period (the "Initial 5 Day Period"), Landlord and Tenant shall each simultaneously submit to the other in a sealed envelope its suggested Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period, which rental shall be the fair market rent for the Premises for the renewal period (but Landlord's rent determination need not be the same rent as provided pursuant to Section 3(d)(ii) above). If either party does not submit its suggested Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period during the Initial 5 Day Period, the other party's determination of Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period shall be final and binding. If the higher of such suggested Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period is not more than one hundred five percent of the lower of such suggested rentals for each year of the renewal period, then the average of the two suggested Basic Rental figures for the Premises for the renewal period shall be the Basic Rental for the Premises for such renewal period. Otherwise, Landlord and Tenant shall negotiate in good faith to agree upon the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period, and if Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree to the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period within five days after the expiration of the Initial 5 Day Period (the "Second 5 Day Period"), the determination of the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period shall be made in accordance with paragraph (iv) below.

(iv) Within five days after the expiration of the Second 5 Day Period, Landlord and Tenant shall mutually select an MAI appraiser with experience in real estate activities, including at least five (5) years' experience in appraising office space in the Central Business District of Detroit, Michigan ("CBD"), which appraiser shall be hereinafter referred to as a "Qualified Appraiser." If the parties cannot agree on a Qualified Appraiser during such five day period, then within five days thereafter, each party shall select an independent MAI Qualified Appraiser and within five days thereafter the two appointed appraisers shall select a third Qualified Appraiser and the third Qualified Appraiser shall determine the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period in accordance with paragraph (v) below. If either Landlord or Tenant shall fail to make such appointment of a Qualified Appraiser within said five day period, the Qualified Appraiser who is timely selected shall determine the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period.

(v) Once the appraiser or third appraiser (the "Deciding Appraiser") has been selected as provided in Section 3(d)(iv) above, the Deciding Appraiser shall, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter and without reference to Landlord's and Tenant's Basic Rental determinations, make its own independent determination as to the fair market rent for the Premises for the renewal period (the "Independent Determination"). Once the Independent Determination is made, the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period shall be the figure submitted by Landlord and Tenant which is closer to the Independent Determination, which result shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall equally share the cost of such appraisal.

(vi) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary under this Lease, in the event (a) both Tenant (or its affiliate) and Caidan Management Company, LLC ("Caidan") (or its affiliate) are direct or indirect equity holders in Landlord, and (b) each has exercised its extension option as to the same extension period, the per square foot Basic Rental for each party under its respective lease during such extension period (calculated on a per rentable square foot basis) shall be the same and to the extent the determination of the Basic Rental under both leases is not the same, the Basic Rental to be paid under each of this Lease and the Caidan lease shall be the lower of the two Basic Rental figures determined pursuant to the Caidan lease or this Lease.

(vii) Tenant's rights under Section 3(d) shall terminate, at Landlord's option, if (a) an Event of Default exists as of the date of Tenant's exercise of its rights under Section 3(d) or as of the commencement date of the applicable extended term, (b) this Lease or Tenant's right to possession of any portion of the Premises is terminated or (c) Tenant is not Creditworthy as of the date of Tenant's exercise of its rights under Section 3(d) or as of the commencement date of the applicable extended term. In addition, with respect to the final two (2) extension options (as opposed to the initial two (2) extension options), Tenant's rights under Section 3(d) shall terminate, at Landlord's option, if Tenant or its affiliate is not a direct or indirect equity holder in Landlord as of the date of Tenant's exercise of its rights under Section 3(d) or as of the commencement date of the applicable extended term.

(viii) For purposes of this Lease, "Creditworthy" shall mean Tenant (or a guarantor acceptable to Landlord) has credit sufficient, based on then-prevailing underwriting standards of commercial lenders of comparable caliber to Landlord's mortgage lender at the time of execution of this Lease, to enable the Landlord to obtain a non-recourse loan secured by a lien on the Development of the same caliber and on substantially the same material economic terms as the loan Landlord obtained at the time of execution of this Lease (the "Existing Loan"), provided Tenant (or a guarantor acceptable to Landlord) shall in no event be considered Creditworthy unless Tenant (or a guarantor acceptable to Landlord) has, and can be reasonably expected to continue to have, the financial wherewithal to perform all of Tenant's (or guarantor's) obligations under this Lease. A decline in external market conditions making financing more difficult or expensive to procure than the Existing Loan will not cause a Tenant (or a guarantor acceptable to Landlord) to be considered not Creditworthy. If the Tenant does not agree with Landlord's determination that Tenant is not Creditworthy (the "Creditworthy Determination"), Tenant may, within ten business days after receipt of the Creditworthy Determination, require Landlord to engage a so-called big four accounting firm (or comparable regional accounting firm such as Baker Tilley or Plante Moran) to determine whether Tenant is Creditworthy based upon CMBS (commercial mortgage-backed securities) underwriting guidelines or, if CMBS financing is not generally available for projects in the CBD, the applicable guidelines for the then financing being sought for the Development by Landlord. Bernard Financial Group or another reputable mortgage broker, if requested by Landlord, shall supply input into the decision of whether an entity is Creditworthy.

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord as rental for the Premises during each year of the term of this Lease the amount set forth in Section 1(h) hereof and as determined pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof. Such rental shall be payable in advance, in equal monthly installments upon the first day of each and every month throughout the term of this Lease; provided, however, that if the lease term shall commence on a day other than the first day of a calendar month or shall end on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the rental for such first or last fractional month shall be such proportion of the monthly rental as the number of days in such fractional month bears to the total number of days in the calendar month.

(b) Rent and all other charges hereunder shall promptly be paid without prior demand therefor and without deductions or setoffs for any reason whatsoever, except as expressly herein provided, and overdue rent and any other sums payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder shall bear interest during delinquency until paid at a rate of interest equal to [] in excess of the "Prime Rate" published from time to time by The Wall Street Journal (hereinafter referred to as the "Interest Rate"). In addition, if any payment of rent is not paid when due, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to [] of each late payment. Landlord shall have no obligation to accept less than the full amount of all installments of rental and interest thereon and all charges hereunder which are due and owing by Tenant to Landlord, and if Landlord shall accept less than the full amount owing, Landlord may apply the sums received towards any of Tenant's obligations at Landlord's discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not be required to pay the late charge or the interest provided for therein on up to two (2) occasions during each calendar year, provided such payments are made to Landlord within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt of written notice that the same are past due.

(c) Landlord's failure to timely bill Tenant shall in no way excuse Tenant from its payment obligations or constitute a waiver of Landlord's entitlement to any charges not timely billed by Landlord.

(d) Tenant agrees that all Basic Rental and additional rent (collectively "Rent") due under this Lease shall be paid to Landlord by (i) check mailed to the address set forth in Section 1(o) hereof or such other address as Landlord shall designate by written notice to Tenant, (ii) wire transfer of immediately available funds, or (iii) electronic funds transfer.

5. RENTAL ADJUSTMENT

(a) The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) The term "Expenses" shall mean, subject to the limitations and exclusions set forth herein, the actual reasonable cost incurred by Landlord during the applicable calendar year on an accrual basis with respect to the operation, maintenance and repair of the Development, including, without limitation or duplication, (1) the costs incurred for air conditioning; mechanical ventilation; heating; cleaning; rubbish removal; snow removal; general landscaping and ground maintenance; window washing; elevators; porter and matron services; electric current for common areas; management fees (calculated at a rate of [] of gross receipts); repairs; maintenance; fire, extended coverage, boiler, sprinkler apparatus, public liability and property damage insurance (including loss of rental income insurance); supplies; wages, salaries and benefits of service and maintenance employees and management staff (if said employees and/or staff perform services for properties other than the Development, the expenses relating thereto shall be equitably prorated); uniforms and working clothes for such employees and the cleaning thereof; expenses imposed pursuant to any collective bargaining agreement with respect to such employees; payroll, social security, unemployment and other similar taxes with respect to such employees; sales, use and other similar taxes; water rates and sewer rents; depreciation of movable equipment and personal property, which is, or should be, capitalized on the books of Landlord, and the cost of movable equipment and personal property, which need not be so capitalized, as well as the cost of maintaining all such movable equipment, and any other costs, charges and expenses which, under generally accepted accounting principles and practices, would be regarded as maintenance and operating expenses, and (2) the cost of any capital improvements made to the Development after the Commencement Date that are intended to reduce other Expenses, or made to the Development by Landlord after the date of this Lease that are required under any governmental law, rule, regulation or ordinance (collectively, "Law") that was not applicable to the Development at the time it was constructed (the "Permitted Capital Improvements"), such cost or allocable portion thereof to be amortized over the useful life thereof as determined by GAAP, together with interest on the unamortized balance at the Interest Rate or such actual rate as may have been paid by Landlord on funds borrowed for the purpose of constructing such capital improvements, if Landlord borrows funds therefor. Expenses shall not include "Taxes," depreciation on the Building other than as set forth above; costs of services or repairs and maintenance which are paid for by proceeds of insurance, by other tenants (in a manner other than as provided in this Section 5) or third parties; tenant improvements, real estate brokers' commissions, interest and capital items other than those referred to in clause (1) above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, Expenses shall not include costs for security services provided by Landlord (whether pursuant to the provisions of this Lease or otherwise) (the "Security Costs") and Tenant shall pay to Landlord the sum of fifty cents ($.50) per rentable square foot of the Premises per year (which per rentable square foot fee shall increase by 3% on each anniversary of the Commencement Date) for security services to be provided in accordance with Exhibit G hereof, which costs shall be paid in the same manner and at the same time as Tenant pays Basic Rental.

If the Building is less than 95% occupied, the Expenses which vary with occupancy shall be adjusted using commercially reasonable property management practices to equal Landlord's reasonable estimate of Expenses which Landlord would have incurred had the Building been 95% occupied.

In determining Expenses:

(A) The management fees included within Expenses shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the gross receipts from the Building and shall be consistent with respect to the Base Expenses and Expenses in subsequent years.

(B) All items of Expenses which are deemed to be capital expenses shall be amortized in accordance with the terms of Section 5(a)(i)(2) and only the annual amortized amount shall be included in Expenses in any year.

(C) In the event that a category is removed from Expenses that was included in Base Expenses (as opposed to shifted or combined with another category), the Expenses for years in which such category no longer applies shall be increased to reflect what Expenses would have been incurred had Landlord continued to furnish such category of services or work.

(D) Expenses shall not include (i) the cost or depreciation of the Building or any improvements thereon, including permit fees, license and inspection fees, and costs incurred in renovating, improving, decorating, painting or redecorating vacant tenant space or space of other tenants in the Development or broker's commissions, (ii) principal payments, interest, late fees or other financing charges relating to any financing of the Development or rents under a ground lease or any other underlying lease wherein Landlord is the lessee, (iii) wages, salaries, fees and fringe benefits paid to home office executive personnel of Landlord (i.e., executives above the level of building manager and other office personnel but not the property manager, the assistant property manager and their staff), (iv) any costs relating to the solicitation, execution and enforcement of leases of other tenant space in the Development, (v) the cost of any electrical current or other utility services furnished to any other leasable area (but not including Common Areas) of the Development (other than for HVAC services and water), (vi) the cost of correcting defects in the original construction or defects in subsequent improvement of the Development, including costs of repairs or maintenance caused or necessitated by the negligence of Landlord, its agents, contractors or employees, (vii) the cost of any repair made by Landlord because of the total or partial destruction of the Development by fire or other casualty subsequent to the date of original construction, (viii) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed under warranty claims, insurance proceeds or condemnation awards, (ix) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed by tenants of the Development (other than in a manner comparable to Section 5(b) hereof), or third parties, (x) advertising and promotional expenditures, (xi) reserves for future expenditures or liabilities which would be incurred after the then current accounting year, (xii) the cost of (a) remediation of any toxic or hazardous substance or material from the land, buildings or improvements comprising the Development, other than commercially reasonable and customary maintenance of mechanical systems, or (b) any environmental reports or studies relating thereto, (xiii) income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes; (xiv) capital improvements, other than the Permitted Capital Improvements; (xv) the Security Costs; (xvi) fees and penalties for late payments as long as Tenant timely makes all payments hereunder; (xvii) expenses in connection with any service of a type which Tenant is not entitled to receive under the Lease but which is provided to another tenant or occupant of the Building; (xviii) cost to purchase or maintain art (other than routine cleaning); (xix) any personal property taxes of the Landlord for equipment or items not used solely and directly in the operation or maintenance of the Development; (xx) any cost representing an amount paid to any entity related to or affiliated with Landlord (or it members, managers, partners or employees, or relatives or such parties) which is materially in excess of the amount which would have been paid in the absence of such relationship; (xxi) costs associated with the operation of the limited liability company, partnership or other entity which constitutes Landlord, as distinguished from costs of operation of the Development; (xxii) parties or events hosted by Landlord for the tenants of the Building; (xxiii) the costs of repairs or replacements caused by Landlord's gross negligence or the gross negligence of its agents, employees, managers or contractors and (xxiv) any costs relating to services solely benefitting the retail tenants of the Building located underneath the Parking Structure (the "Garage Retail").

(ii) The term “Base Expenses” shall mean the amount as defined in Section 1(i) hereof.

(iii) The term “Excess Expenses” shall mean the total dollar increases, if any, over the Base Expenses paid or incurred by Landlord in the respective calendar year.

(iv) The term “Taxes” shall mean the amount of all ad valorem real property taxes and assessments, special or otherwise, levied upon or with respect to the Development, or the Rent and additional charges payable hereunder, imposed by any taxing authority having jurisdiction. Taxes shall also include all taxes, levies and charges which may be assessed, levied or imposed in replacement of, or in addition to, all or any part of ad valorem real property taxes as revenue sources, and which in whole or in part are measured or calculated by or based upon the Development, the leasehold estate of Landlord or Tenant, or the Rent and other charges payable hereunder. Taxes shall include any reasonable expenses incurred by Landlord in determining or attempting to obtain a reduction of Taxes. Taxes shall not include the portion of Taxes applicable to the Garage Retail as reasonably apportioned by Landlord.

In determining Taxes:

(A) Taxes shall not include any income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes.

(B) With respect to special assessments which may be paid in installments, Tenant’s Share thereof shall be determined as if Landlord elected to pay the same over the longest period available.

(C) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Taxes shall not include and Tenant shall not be responsible for any interest or penalties due to the late payment of Taxes.

(D) In the event Landlord receives any refunds relating to Taxes covering a period during the term of this Lease, the Taxes with respect to such year with respect to such refund relates shall be reduced accordingly and to the extent applicable, Tenant shall be given credit for Tenant’s Share thereof.

(v) The term “Base Taxes” shall mean the amount as defined in Section 1(j) hereof.

(vi) The term “Excess Taxes” shall mean the total dollar increase, if any, over the Base Taxes paid or incurred by Landlord in the respective calendar year.

(vii) The term "Tenant's Share" shall mean the percentage set forth in Section 1(k) hereof which was derived by dividing the rentable square foot area of the Premises by the rentable square foot area of the Building, excluding the rentable square foot area of the Garage Retail (which, as the Building currently exists, equals 949,102 rentable square feet).

(viii) The term "Base Year" shall mean the 2015 calendar year.

(b) Tenant shall pay to Landlord Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes in the manner and at the times herein provided.

With respect to Excess Expenses, prior to January 1, 2016, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord's estimate of Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses for the ensuing calendar year, with respect to Excess Taxes, prior to January 1, 2016, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord's estimate of Tenant's Share of Excess Taxes for the ensuing calendar year. On or before the first day of each month during the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall pay to Landlord one-twelfth (1/12) of such estimated amounts, provided that until such notice is given with respect to the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall continue to pay the amount currently payable pursuant hereto until after the month such notice is given. If at any time or times it appears to Landlord that Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses or Tenant's Share of Excess Taxes for the then current calendar year will vary from Landlord's estimate by more than five percent (5%), Landlord may, by notice to Tenant, revise its estimate for such year and subsequent payments by Tenant for such year shall be based upon such revised estimate.

Within ninety (90) days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses, and within ninety (90) days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Excess Taxes, or as soon after such ninety (90) day period as practicable (not to exceed 180 days after the close of the calendar year), Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement prepared by Landlord of Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes, respectively, for such calendar year. If on the basis of either of such statements, Tenant owes an amount that is less than the estimated payments for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expense or with respect to Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Landlord shall credit such excess amount against the next payment(s) due from Tenant to Landlord of Excess Expenses or Excess Taxes, as applicable. In no event shall a reduction in Taxes or Expenses operate to reduce the rental set forth in Section 1(h) hereof required to be paid hereunder, nor shall any reduction in Taxes or Expenses below the Base Expenses or Base Taxes give rise to any credit to Tenant. If on the basis of such statement, Tenant owes an amount that is more than the estimated payment for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses or Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Tenant shall pay the deficiency to Landlord within thirty (30) days after delivery of the statement.

If this Lease shall terminate on a day other than the last day of a calendar year, Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes that are applicable to the calendar year in which such termination shall occur shall be prorated on the basis of the number of calendar days within such year as are within the term of this Lease. Any refund due Tenant with respect to the last year of the term of this Lease shall be refunded to it within thirty (30) days after the receipt of such statement.

For a period of two (2) years after delivery of each such statement to which such records relate, Tenant shall have the right upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Landlord to inspect Landlord's records relating to Taxes and Expenses (an "Audit"). Each Audit shall be conducted at Landlord's offices during normal business hours at Tenant's expense. Each Audit may not be conducted by a person or firm compensated on a contingent fee basis. Tenant shall provide a copy of each Audit to Landlord within thirty (30) days after receipt thereof. Tenant must keep the provisions of each Audit confidential. If an Audit shall disclose that Tenant has paid three and one-half percent (3.5%) or more in excess of that required to be paid hereunder and Landlord shall accept such determination, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the reasonable cost of such Audit. Tenant shall have no right to offset the amount of any overpayment disclosed in an Audit unless Landlord shall accept such determination of an overpayment by Tenant. The cost of the foregoing shall be included in Expenses (except as otherwise prohibited by this Lease), except for the Landlord shall be responsible to supply and pay for the replacement of lighting ballasts and light bulbs, and fluorescent tubes in the Building (to be included in Expenses); provided, however, Tenant shall be responsible to reimburse Landlord for the cost of the lighting ballasts, light bulbs, and fluorescent tubes replaced in the Premises. Landlord shall promptly complete all required repairs and repair any and all damage to the Premises which may result from such repairs and maintenance. Landlord shall, at its sole cost, also make all repairs to the Premises necessitated by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, Landlord's managers, contractors, employees or agents. Landlord shall make all repairs required to be made by it under this Lease within a reasonable time. Except in the event of an Emergency, Landlord shall also make all such repairs at such times and in such a manner as to reasonably minimize inconvenience to Tenant in the conduct of its business. Landlord shall not enter the Premises for the purpose of making such repairs if the same can be made on a reasonable basis without entry of the Premises. If said repairs can be made outside of Tenant's business hours without substantial additional cost to Landlord, Landlord shall do so, unless Tenant requests that they be made during business hours.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 7(a) hereof and the other provisions of this Lease, Tenant shall keep the Premises and every part thereof in good condition and repair, excluding (i) reasonable wear and tear, (ii) damage caused by Landlord or its employees, managers, agents or contractor and (iii) resulting from the default under this Lease by Landlord or its employees, managers, agents or contractor. Except as otherwise set forth in this Lease, Tenant hereby waives all rights to make repairs at the expense of Landlord or in lieu thereof to vacate the Premises except as provided by Law now or hereafter in effect. All repairs made by or on behalf of Tenant shall be made and performed in such manner as Landlord may designate, by contractors or mechanics reasonably approved by Landlord and in accordance with the rules and regulations relating thereto attached to this Lease as Exhibit "E" hereto ("Rules") and all Law. Tenant shall, within ten (10) business days after completion of the applicable portion of the work, provide Landlord with unconditional lien waivers from all contractors, subcontractors and materialmen providing services or furnishing material to or for Tenant in connection with such repairs. Landlord has no obligation and has made no promise to alter, remodel, improve, repair, decorate or paint the Premises or any part thereof and no representations respecting the condition of the Premises or the Building have been made by Landlord to Tenant except as expressly set forth herein. Subject to the waiver of liability in Section 21, Tenant will pay for any repairs to the Premises or the Building or the Development made necessary by any negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its employees or persons permitted in the Building or the Development by Tenant, unless the same are covered by the insurance carried or required to be carried by Landlord hereunder.

(b) (i) Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements ("Alterations") without the prior written consent of Landlord. Any such Alterations (except Tenant's Property) shall (1) at once become a part of the realty and belong to Landlord, and (2) be made by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. To the extent Landlord's written approval of any Alterations expressly requires removal of the same upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, upon such termination or expiration Tenant shall upon demand by Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, forthwith remove such Alterations. Tenant shall not be required to remove any Alterations permitted to be made without Landlord consent.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8(b)(i) or (c) to the contrary, Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to non-material, nonstructural interior Alterations to the Premises and Landlord will not unreasonably withhold its consent to any material non-structural or structural interior Alterations to the Premises, provided notice is first given in writing by Tenant to Landlord. For purposes of this Section 8(b), demising walls, but not interior office walls, are deemed structural. For purposes of this Section 8(b), "material" shall mean any Alterations which (a) cost more than $100,000 per Alteration or more than $350,000 in total per annum, and/or (b) which involves the fire or life safety systems, Building management systems, roofing, HVAC, security, mechanical, plumbing, gas, electrical or any other Building system.

(iii) Landlord acknowledges that Tenant's furniture, trade fixtures, business equipment, personalty and other Tenant Property shall not be deemed alterations, additions or improvements which become Landlord's property pursuant to Section 8(b).

(c) Any repairs made pursuant to Section 7(b) hereof or Alterations and improvements made pursuant to this Section 8 by Tenant as required and permitted hereunder shall be made and performed (i) in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations of Landlord and governmental authorities having jurisdiction, and (ii) in a reasonable fashion to minimize noise, litter and/or odors resulting therefrom. Further, other than with respect to Alterations permitted without Landlord consent, any repairs made pursuant to Section 7(b) hereof or Alterations and improvements made pursuant to this Section 8 by Tenant as required and permitted hereunder shall be made and performed (i) in the case of new construction in keeping with plans and specifications theretofore having been approved in advance by Landlord, (ii) using mechanics and contractors having been approved by Landlord which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld (provided, that Landlord shall not require Tenant to use contractors which are affiliated with Landlord or which are not competitive on a cost or quality basis); provided, however, that Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense (as approved in advance by Tenant prior to Landlord starting the work), shall do all such work affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable costs of third party review of Tenant's proposed structural alterations or those to the mechanical or electrical systems.

(d) Tenant expects, on or around December 31, 2015, to take occupancy of the Premises and substantially complete a buildout of the eighth floor of the Premises in accordance with plans and specifications which have been approved by Landlord, subject to delays caused by Landlord or its property manager and delays due to force majeure events. The estimated cost of Tenant's buildout of the entire Premises is [].

9. LIENS

Tenant shall keep the Premises free from any liens arising out of any work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Tenant. In the event that Tenant shall not, within thirty (30) days following receipt of notice of the imposition of any such lien, cause the same to be released of record by payment or posting of a proper bond, Landlord shall have, in addition to all other remedies provided herein and by Law, the right to cause the same to be released by such means as it shall reasonably deem proper, including payment of the claim giving rise to such lien. All such sums paid by Landlord and all expenses incurred by it in connection therewith shall be deemed additional rent and shall be payable by Tenant on demand with interest at the Interest Rate.

(a) The Premises are leased to Tenant for the use set forth in Section 1(m) hereof and for no other purpose whatsoever. Tenant agrees that it will use the Premises in such manner as not to injure, annoy, interfere with or infringe on the rights of other tenants or use or allow the Premises to be used for any improper, immoral or unlawful purpose or to permit unpleasant odors to be emitted therefrom. Tenant agrees to comply with Laws and comply with all requirements of Landlord's insurance policies applicable to Tenant's particular use of the Premises (to the extent Tenant is notified in writing of such requirements and such policy allows for use of the Premises for Tenant's Use) now or hereafter in force. Without limiting the foregoing, if any Law shall require alterations or modifications of the Premises (a "Code Modification"), such Code Modification shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of Tenant, except the following, which shall be Landlord's responsibility (the cost of which may be included in Expenses unless otherwise prohibited by the terms of this Lease): (i) requirements of structural or building system changes not related to or affected by improvements made by or for Tenant or not necessitated by Tenant's act, and (ii) upgrades, retrofits, or improvements to the Premises, such as fire, life safety, accessibility (ADA) or seismic upgrades mandated by any Laws, unless necessitated by (1) Tenant's particular and unique use of the Premises (rather than general office use) or (2) any Alteration made to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant.

(b) Tenant shall not commit or suffer the commission of any waste, overload any floor of the Premises beyond the load limit reasonably established by Landlord or permit any explosives to enter the Development. Tenant shall not do or permit anything to be done on or about the Premises or bring or keep anything therein which will in any way increase the fire insurance premium upon the Development. Tenant shall not use any portion of the Premises for the preparation, sale (not including vending machines) or consumption of food by the public. Tenant shall have the right to contest, without cost to Landlord, the validity or application of any Law required to be complied with by Tenant and may postpone compliance therewith, provided such contest does not subject Landlord to criminal prosecution for noncompliance therewith and, further, provided, that Tenant promptly pays all fines, penalties and other costs and interest thereon imposed upon Landlord as a result of such noncompliance.

(c) During the term of this Lease, Landlord shall not execute a lease (or affirmatively grant its consent to a sublease or assignment of a lease) which grants a tenant or occupant the right to use any portion any portion of the Development to be used or occupied for a use which would be inconsistent with maintaining a highly respected public image for the Building, including, without limitation, any of the "Prohibited Uses," described on Exhibit "I" hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except for Caidan (for which the foregoing provision shall apply), the above provision shall not apply to a current occupant or tenant of the Development who is operating under its current use clause or trade name as of the date of this Lease, provided, however, Landlord shall not grant consent or amend any existing lease or occupancy agreement in a manner which causes such lease or occupancy agreement to be inconsistent with the terms of this Section. Tenant agrees not to use, or permit to be used any portion of, the Premises for any of the "Prohibited Uses" or "Exclusive Uses" described on Exhibit "I" hereto.

(d) During the term of this Lease, without the prior written consent of Tenant, which may be withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord (i) shall not execute a lease (or affirmatively grant its consent to a sublease or assignment of a lease) which grants a tenant or occupant the right to use any portion of the Building (other than the Premises) to any of the following entities, and (ii) shall not itself display in the Common Areas materials from, or execute an agreement which grants the right to displays in the Common Areas by the following entities (each an "Excluded User") or displaying the following messages: residential mortgage lender or residential mortgage broker, real estate broker, bank (other than a full service retail branch bank that does not specialize in the making of residential mortgage loans as a primary business) or title insurance company other than Title Source Inc., National Basketball Association team other than the Cleveland Cavaliers; Casino other than Horseshoe Cleveland, Horseshoe Cincinnati, Horseshoe Baltimore, Greektown Detroit, ThistleDown Racino or

Similarly, changes to the configuration of the Premises or Tenant's use of, and level of occupancy in, the Premises may affect Landlord's ability to deliver HVAC meeting the specifications of the Building Design Criteria. (x) Except as otherwise provided in this Lease, Landlord shall not be in default hereunder or be liable for any damages directly or indirectly resulting from, nor shall the rental herein reserved be abated by reason of: (A) the installation, use or interruption of use of any equipment in connection with the furnishing of any of the foregoing services, (B) failure to furnish or delay in furnishing any such services when such failure or delay is caused by any condition beyond the reasonable control of Landlord or by the making of necessary repairs or improvements to the Premises or to the Building, or (C) any limitation, curtailment, rationing or restriction on use of water, electricity, steam, gas or any other form of energy serving the Premises or the Building. (c) Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall make arrangements directly with the telephone company for telephone service in the Premises. (j) Tenant shall not cause or permit the use, generation, storage or disposal in or about the Premises or the Building of any Hazardous Materials (as hereinafter defined) unless Tenant shall have received Landlord's prior written consent, which Landlord may withhold or at any time revoke in its sole discretion. In addition to the other items that are to be connected to the existing UPS circuit as provided in this Lease, Tenant may only connect the following items located exclusively in the Closets to the existing UPS: network gear and security gear (collectively, "Gear"). Landlord may, at all reasonable times, verify that the only items located in the Closets which are connected to the existing UPS are the Gear and if Tenant has items other than the Gear and located in the Closets connected to the existing UPS, Landlord notifies Tenant that Tenant has items other than the Gear and located in the Closets connected to the existing UPS, Tenant fails to remove the items other than the Gear and located in the Closets connected to the existing UPS and Landlord has otherwise properly maintained the existing UPS, Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for damages if the existing UPS does not function properly.

Tenant agrees to abide by all Rules and to all reasonable additions and modifications thereto made by Landlord. These regulations are imposed for the cleanliness, good appearance, proper maintenance, good order, and proper enjoyment of the Development by all tenants and their clients, customers and employees. The

(a) If the Building, the Premises or access to them shall be partially or totally damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (each, a "Casualty") and if this Lease is not terminated as provided below, then Landlord shall repair and restore the Premises and the portions of the Building servicing the Premises to substantially their condition prior to such fire or other casualty (the "Required Restoration Work") with reasonable dispatch and diligently prosecute such repair and restoration to completion. In no event shall Landlord be required to repair or replace Tenant's leasehold improvements, merchandise, trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment or other personal property.

(b) If all or part of the Premises shall be rendered Untenantable (as hereafter defined) by reason of a Casualty, the Basic Rental and all additional rent attributable to the Premises or portion thereof which is Untenantable shall be abated for the period from the date of the Casualty to the earlier of (i) the date which is ninety (90) days after the Premises or such portion thereof are no longer Untenantable or (ii) the date Tenant reoccupies such portion of the Premises for the ordinary conduct of business (in which case the Basic Rental and the additional rent allocable to such reoccupied portion shall be payable by Tenant from the date of such occupancy). "Untenantable" means that Tenant shall be unable to occupy and shall not be occupying the Premises or the applicable portion thereof for the conduct of business ordinarily conducted in the Premises as a result of the Casualty.

(c) If by reason of a Casualty (i) the Building shall be totally damaged or destroyed, or (ii) the Building shall be so damaged or destroyed (whether or not the Premises are damaged or destroyed) that repair or restoration shall require more than two hundred seventy (270) days after commencement of restoration and/or if the Casualty is not insured under the insurance Landlord is required to carry or carries hereunder and Landlord has not agreed to provide any shortfall in proceeds, then in any such case Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease by notice given to the other

(d) (i) Within sixty (60) days after the date of any Casualty, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant an estimate prepared by a reputable third party disinterested contractor selected by Landlord and reasonably approved by Tenant setting forth such contractor's estimate as to the time reasonably required to perform the Required Restoration Work; provided, that if Landlord shall fail to deliver the estimate within twenty (20) days after Landlord's receipt of written notice that Landlord has failed to provide the estimate, Tenant may designate a contractor (subject to Landlord's reasonable approval thereof; provided, that if Landlord fails to approve or disapprove any contractor designated by Tenant within ten (10) days after the giving of notice by Tenant, such contractor shall be deemed to be approved by Landlord) to prepare the estimate (the contractor designated by either Landlord or Tenant pursuant to this sentence is called the "Contractor" and the estimate prepared by the Contractor is called the "estimate").

(ii) In the event according to the estimate, the Premises cannot be restored to tenantable condition within a period of two hundred seventy (270) days after commencement of restoration, then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice ("Casualty Termination Notice") to Landlord within thirty (30) days following Tenant's receipt of the estimate. In addition, if Landlord has not completed such restoration within (a) two hundred seventy (270) days after commencement of restoration, and if Landlord does not complete such restoration within thirty (30) days after notice from Tenant of such failure to complete such restoration, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease at any time thereafter and prior to the completion of such restoration by written notice to Landlord, or (b) eighteen (18) months after the Casualty, and if Landlord does not complete such restoration within thirty (30) days after notice from Tenant of such failure to complete such restoration, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease at any time after the expiration of such eighteen (18) month period and prior to the completion of such restoration by written notice to Landlord

(iii) If Tenant gives a Casualty Termination Notice pursuant to this Section 11.4, this Lease shall terminate on the thirtieth (30^{th}) day after such notice is given by Tenant or such longer time period (not to exceed two hundred seventy (270) days) as specified in such Casualty Termination Notice and Tenant shall vacate the Premises and surrender the same to Landlord in accordance with the terms of this Lease; provided, that Tenant shall have no restoration obligations with respect to portions of the Premises rendered Untenantable by such Casualty. Upon any such termination of this Lease, Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any and all liability thereafter accruing hereunder, and any Rent paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant within thirty (30) days after termination of the Lease.

(iv) Time is of the essence with respect to all of the time periods set forth in this Section 14(d).

(e) (i) Landlord and Tenant shall reasonably cooperate with each other in connection with the performance by Landlord of the Required Restoration Work and the repair or replacement by Tenant of Tenant's property, provided that Tenant shall not unreasonably interfere with the Required Restoration Work and such entry by Tenant shall be at its sole risk. Prior to the substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work, Landlord shall, to the extent appropriate in accordance with good construction practices, provide Tenant and Tenant's contractor, subcontractors and materialmen access to the Premises to repair or replace Tenant's property (but not to occupy the same for the conduct of business).

(ii) Such access by Tenant shall be deemed to be subject to all of the applicable provisions of this Lease, except that there shall be no obligation on the part of Tenant solely because of such access to pay any Rent with respect to the affected portion of the Premises for any period prior to substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work.

15. EMINENT DOMAIN

(a) If the whole or any substantial part of the Development shall be taken by any public authority under the power of eminent domain, then the term of this Lease shall cease on the part so taken on the date possession of that part shall be required for public use, and any Rent paid in advance of such date shall be refunded to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall each have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice to the other, which notice shall be delivered within thirty (30) days following the date notice is received of such taking. In the event that neither party hereto shall terminate this Lease, Landlord shall, to the extent the proceeds of the condemnation award (other than any proceeds awarded for the value of any land taken) are available, make all necessary repairs to the Development to render and restore the same to a complete architectural unit and Tenant shall continue in possession of the portion of the Premises not taken under the power of eminent domain, under the same terms and conditions as are herein provided, except that the Rent reserved herein, Tenant's Share pursuant to Section 1(k) hereof and the parking spaces pursuant to Section 1(p) hereof shall each be reduced in direct proportion to the amount of the Premises so taken. All damages awarded for such taking shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, whether such damages be awarded as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or to the fee of the Premises; provided, however, Landlord shall not be entitled to any portion of the award made to Tenant for loss of business, removal and reinstallation of trade fixtures or moving expenses.

(b) In the event of a partial taking which does not result in the termination of this Lease, Landlord shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute the restoration of the Premises as nearly as practicable to a complete unit of like quality and character as existed just prior to such taking. In such event, the Rent shall abate during the period of demolition and restoration to the extent the Premises are unusable, provided that Landlord receives an award therefor.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 15 hereof, Tenant shall have the right to make a claim against the condemning authority (but not Landlord) for compensation for the unamortized cost of Tenant's improvements, alterations or additions made to the Premises at Tenant's cost, such amortization to be computed on a straight line basis over the term of this Lease.

16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

(a) Except as expressly permitted pursuant to this Section 16, Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, assign, encumber or hypothecate this Lease or any interest herein or sublet the Premises or any part thereof, or permit the use of the Premises by any party other than Tenant. Landlord agrees that it will not unreasonably withhold, delay or condition its consent to a proposed assignment or subletting. In determining reasonableness, Landlord may take into consideration all relevant factors surrounding the proposed assignment or subletting, including, without limitation: (i) the business reputation of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its officers, directors and owners; (ii) the nature of the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its effect on the other tenants of the Building; and (iii) restrictions, if any, contained in leases affecting the Development. Except as provided in Section 16(d) hereof, this Lease shall not, nor shall any interest herein, be assignable as to the interest of Tenant by operation of law without the consent of Landlord.

(b) If at any time or from time to time during the term of this Lease, Tenant desires to sublet all or any part of the Premises or to assign this Lease, Tenant shall give notice to Landlord setting forth the proposed subtenant or assignee, the terms of the proposed subletting and the space so proposed to be sublet or the terms of the proposed assignment, as the case may be. Except with respect to an assignment under (d) below, if the proposed assignment is to a non-affiliate of Tenant and covers the entire Premises for the entire remaining term of this Lease, Landlord may terminate this Lease, such termination right to be exercised by notice from Landlord to Tenant within ten (10) days after Tenant's notice to Landlord of the proposed assignment, provided that such termination notice by Landlord shall not be effective if, within ten (10) days after Landlord's termination notice to Tenant, Tenant gives notice to Landlord retracting the proposed assignment notice.

(c) In the event Tenant sublets a portion of the Premises, or assigns this Lease, fifty percent (50%) of the sums or other economic consideration received by Tenant as a result of such subletting or assignment whether denominated rentals or otherwise, under the sublease or assignment, which, after subtracting the reasonable costs incurred by Tenant in connection with such subletting or assignment, which exceeds in the aggregate, the total sums which Tenant is obligated to pay Landlord under this Lease (prorated to reflect obligations allocable to that portion of the Premises subject to such sublease) shall be payable to Landlord as additional rental under this Lease without affecting or reducing any other obligation of Tenant hereunder.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16(a) hereof, without Landlord's approval or consent and without notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sublease all or any portion of the Premises or assign this Lease to (i) any affiliate of Tenant and any affiliate of any of the beneficial owners of Tenant or its parents or subsidiaries at any level, (ii) any entity in which Tenant has a controlling interest, or (iii) any successor entity, whether by merger, consolidation or combination or otherwise or (iv) any entity that purchases all or substantially all of Tenant's assets or (v) Meridian Health Plan or any of its affiliates or (vi) Quicken Loans Inc. or any of its affiliates. For purposes hereof an affiliate is any entity which controls Tenant, is controlled by Tenant or is under common control with Tenant, or in which Tenant or any affiliate of Tenant or any beneficial owner of Tenant or its parent or subsidiaries has any interest or is an officer, director, shareholder, partner, member or manager or at any other level. Further, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16(a) hereof, without Landlord's approval or consent but with notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sublease all or any portion of the Premises to a subtenant provided Tenant is leasing at least 150,000 rentable square feet in the Development at the time the sublease is executed and (A) such subtenant is not (1) an occupant of the Development or an affiliate of any such occupant and at such time Landlord has comparable space available for Lease to such proposed subtenant or (2) a person or entity with whom Landlord is then, or has been within the six-month period prior to the time Tenant seeks to enter into such sublease, negotiating to lease space in the Development or an affiliate of any such person or entity and at such time Landlord has comparable space available for Lease to such proposed subtenant and (B) during the period in which either (1) the Existing Loan is outstanding, or (2) a subsequent mortgage loan with respect to the Development is outstanding and contains a similar so-called "cash trap" provision or other material restriction on assignment or subleasing to non-affiliates of Tenant, then in no event shall Tenant, without the consent of such lender (under the Existing Loan or the future mortgage loan, as applicable), sublease, on an aggregate basis, more than 40% of the Premises to non-affiliates of Tenant. Tenant shall, upon written request from Landlord, provide Landlord with the names of any sublessees or assignees of Tenant. Nothing contained in this Lease provides any subtenant or assignee with any right to use the Premises for any use other than Tenant's Use as set forth in Section 1(m). Any change in control or ownership of Tenant shall not be deemed an assignment requiring approval of Landlord.

(e) Regardless of Landlord's consent, no subletting or assignment shall release Tenant of Tenant's obligation or alter the primary liability of Tenant to pay the rental and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Tenant hereunder. The acceptance of rental by Landlord from any other person shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Landlord of any provision hereof. Consent to one assignment or subletting shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. Upon an Event of Default, Landlord may proceed directly against Tenant without the necessity of exhausting remedies against such assignee or successor. Landlord may consent to subsequent assignments or subletting of this Lease or amendments or modifications to this Lease with assignees of Tenant, upon first notifying Tenant, or any successor of Tenant, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto and such action shall not relieve Tenant of liability under this Lease.

17. ACCESS

(a) Subject to applicable Law and the other limitations set forth in this Lease, Landlord and its agents shall have the right following not less than seventy-two (72) hours written notice (except in an Emergency (as hereinafter defined) to enter the Premises at all reasonable times for the purpose of examining or inspecting the same, showing the same to prospective purchasers or tenants of the Building (as to prospective tenants, only in the final nine (9) months of the term of this Lease), and as necessary to perform its obligations hereunder. Landlord's access rights shall be subject to the following: (i) promptly finishing any work for which it entered; (ii) complying with all of Tenant's security and safety regulations which do not unreasonably limit or impact the purpose for which such entry was or is to be undertaken; (iii) not taking any photographs of Tenant's business operations while on the Premises without the express consent of Tenant (other than in connection with any repairs, replacements, improvements, etc.); (iv) if Tenant so elects, Landlord shall be accompanied by a representative of Tenant during any such entry; (v) Landlord shall not have the right to open or inspect confidential files or safes (so long as designated in writing as confidential in advance by Tenant), and Landlord shall not disclose to others any confidential information regarding Tenant's business (to the extent designated as confidential in advance by Tenant) learned by Landlord during any such entry into the Premises except (1) in litigation between Landlord and Tenant, (2) if required by court order or subpoena, or (3) if such confidential information otherwise become generally available to the public; and (vi) Landlord shall promptly repair any damage caused to the Premises by Landlord or anyone accessing the Premises under this Section. Landlord may erect, use and maintain temporary scaffolding, pipes, conduits and other necessary structures in and through the Premises where reasonably required by the character of the work performed, provided that the business of Tenant shall not be interfered with unreasonably. If Tenant shall not personally be present to open and permit an entry into the Premises at any time when such entry by Landlord is necessary or permitted hereunder, Landlord may enter by means of a master key or, in emergencies, may enter forcibly, without liability to Tenant. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Section 17 hereof, Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts not to unreasonably interfere with Tenant's operations in the Premises and to minimize any such interference.

(b) Tenant shall have the exclusive right (via card reader devices or equipment) to access the telecom and electric closets on each floor of the Building upon which a portion of the Premises is located. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Section 17(b) Tenant shall not disrupt and/or disable the equipment located within such closets. Tenant shall have the right to install additional equipment within such closets at Tenant's expense, subject to the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless for any damages incurred by Landlord arising from the acts or omissions of Tenant, its agents, employees and contractors in such telecom and electric closets.

(c) As used herein, the term "Emergency" shall mean an event requiring immediate action, e.g., danger to health, life or property, fire water seepage, sewer backup or cessation or interruption of any facility servicing the like.

(d) Landlord shall at all times have and retain a key with which to unlock all of the doors in, on or about the Premises (excluding Tenant's vaults, safes and similar areas designated in writing by Tenant in advance and executive offices and other areas containing confidential information as reasonably determined by Tenant); and Landlord shall have the right to use any and all means which Landlord may deem proper to open said doors in any Emergency in order to obtain entry to the Premises, and any entry to the Premises obtained by Landlord by any of said means, or otherwise, shall not under any circumstances be construed or deemed to be a forcible or unlawful entry into or a detainer of the Premises or an eviction, actual or constructive, of Tenant from the Premises, or any portion thereof. Damage to the Premises resulting from Landlord's entry shall be repaired at Landlord's expense

This Lease is and shall be subject and subordinate, at all times, to (a) the lien of any mortgage or mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the Building, and to all advances made or hereafter to be made upon the security thereof and to the interest thereon, and to any agreements at any time made modifying, supplementing, extending or replacing any such mortgages, and (b) any ground or underlying lease which may now or hereafter affect the Building, including all amendments, renewals, modifications, consolidation, replacements and extensions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at the request of the holder of any of the aforesaid mortgage or mortgages or the lessor under the aforesaid ground or underlying lease, this Lease may be made prior and superior to such mortgage or mortgages and/or such ground or underlying lease. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, if the Development is subject to mortgage on the date of this Lease, then within thirty (30) days after the execution and delivery of this Lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement for Tenant's benefit from the current mortgagee(s) of the Development in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant. In addition, as a condition precedent to Tenant subordinating this Lease to any future mortgage or ground lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement from such mortgagee or ground lessor in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant. Tenant agrees to execute a subordination, nondisturbance and attornment agreement in the form attached to this Lease as Exhibit "J" or such other commercially reasonable form requested by Landlord.

At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall execute and deliver such further instruments as may be reasonably required to implement the provisions of this Section

18. Failure of Tenant to execute any of the instruments specified in Sections 18 and 41 within twenty (20) days of written request to do so by Landlord shall constitute an Event of Default for which no cure period shall be provided to Tenant; provided, however, in the event Tenant has provided commercially reasonable modifications to such instruments at least three (3) days prior to the expiration of such twenty (20) day period and Landlord, lender or prospective purchaser has failed to respond to such comments in good faith and/or Tenant and such parties are negotiating such documents, then Tenant's failure to so execute all such instruments shall not constitute an Event of Default unless and until Tenant fails to execute all such instruments within ten (10) days after such documents have been fully negotiated.

19. NON-LIABILITY

(a) Except for the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees, Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to Tenant for any loss or damage that may be occasioned by or through the acts or omissions of persons occupying adjoining premises or any part of the premises adjacent to or connected with the Premises or any part of the Building or for any loss or damage resulting to Tenant or his property from burst, stopped or leaking water, gas, sewer or steam pipes, or for any damage or loss of property within the Premises from any cause whatsoever or for any loss or damage resulting to Tenant or its property from theft or a failure of the security system in the Development, and then only if such damage or loss is not covered by Tenant's insurance, and no such occurrence shall be deemed to be an actual or constructive eviction from the Premises or result in an abatement of rental.

(b) In the event of any sale or transfer (including any transfer by operation of law) of the Premises, Landlord (and any subsequent owner of the Premises making such a transfer) shall be relieved from any and all obligations and liabilities under this Lease, except such obligations and liabilities as shall have arisen during Landlord's (or such subsequent owner's) respective period of ownership, provided that the transferee assumes in writing all of the obligations of Landlord under this Lease.

(c) If Landlord shall fail to perform any covenant, term or condition of this Lease upon Landlord's part to be performed, and if as a consequence of such default, Tenant shall recover a money judgment against Landlord, such judgment shall be satisfied only out of the proceeds of sale received upon execution of such judgment and levied thereon against the right, title and interest of Landlord in the Development and out of rents, insurance proceeds, condemnation award or other income from the Development receivable by Landlord, or out of the consideration received by Landlord from the sale or other disposition of all or any part of Landlord's right, title and interest in the Development, and neither Landlord nor any of its partners, members, managers or shareholders shall be liable for any deficiency.

20. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD

(a) Tenant hereby waives all claims against Landlord for damage to any property or injury or death of any person in or upon the Premises arising at any time, except to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, managers, agents or contractors. Subject to the waiver of liability under Section 21, Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold Landlord harmless from any damage to any property or injury to or death of any person arising in or on the Premises, except to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, managers, agents or contractors. All property insurance procured by the Tenant shall contain an endorsement waiving all rights of subrogation against Landlord, the Landlord's Agent(s), Landlord's property manager, and beneficiaries. The foregoing indemnity obligation of Tenant shall include reasonable attorneys' fees, investigation costs and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Landlord from the first notice that any claim or demand is to be made or may be made with respect to matters covered by the indemnity. The provisions of this Section 20 shall survive the termination of this Lease with respect to any damage, injury or death occurring prior to such termination.

(b) Tenant shall, during the term of this Lease, procure and maintain or cause to be procured and maintained:

(i) business auto liability insurance with a limit of not less than $1,000,000 each accident. Such insurance shall cover liability arising out of any auto (including owned, hired, and non-owned auto).

(ii) workers compensation and employers liability insurance. The employers liability limit shall not be less than $1,000,000 each accident for bodily injury by accident, or $1,000,000 each employee for bodily injury by disease. This limit may be satisfied in conjunction with the umbrella;

(iii) commercial general liability (CGL) insurance. CGL insurance shall be written using an occurrence form and shall cover liability arising from premises operations, independent contractors, product completed operations, personal injury, bodily injury, property damage, and advertising injury, with an insurance company acceptable by the owner. Tenant shall maintain CGL insurance with a limit of not less than $1,000,000 each occurrence, and $2,000,000 million aggregate, including a per location endorsement. Tenant shall also maintain an umbrella policy with a $5,000,000 general aggregate limit that shall follow form over the primary "per location" endorsement;

(iv) "Special Cause of Loss", including theft and leakage from fire protective equipment, broad form property insurance coverage for

Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment and personal property at the Premises for the full replacement value;

(v) business interruption insurance.

(c) The insurance under (i) and (iii), shall name Landlord, Landlord's property managers (currently Bedrock Management Services LLC and Bedrock Building Services LLC), and all other parties required by the Landlord, as "additional insureds", shall specifically include the liability assumed hereunder by Tenant, and shall provide that it is primary insurance with respect to the Premises and not excess over or contributory with any other valid, existing and applicable insurance in force for or on behalf of Landlord. A copy of the Additional Insured endorsement shall be provided to the Landlord indicating that written notice for cancellation or nonrenewal shall be provided in writing to the Additional Insureds.

(d) Tenant shall maintain the coverage set forth in this Lease and is prohibited from canceling or reducing coverage without first giving Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of such proposed action. In the event Tenant does cancel or reduce coverage, Tenant shall provide evidence of such cancellation or reduction to Landlord within 30 days in the form of an insurance carrier endorsement.

21. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION

Landlord and Tenant waive all claims against the other for, and each shall each be released from any liability resulting from, damage by fire or casualty (irrespective of the cause of such fire or casualty) upon the express proviso that if at any time their respective insurers shall refuse to permit waivers of subrogation, Landlord or Tenant may in each instance revoke said waiver of subrogation effective thirty (30) days from the date of written notice to the other unless within such thirty (30) day period, the other is able to secure and furnish (without additional expense, unless paid by the procuring party) insurance in other companies with such waiver of subrogation.

22. ATTORNEY'S FEES

In the event of any legal action or proceeding brought by either party against the other arising out of this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees incurred in such action and such amount shall be included in any judgment rendered in such proceeding.

23. WAIVER

(a) No waiver of any provision of this Lease or of any breach hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other provision hereof, or of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. Consent to or approval of any act requiring consent or approval shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of consent to or approval of any subsequent act. No act or thing done by Landlord or Landlord's agents during the term of this Lease shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, unless done in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of the keys to any employee or agent of Landlord shall not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises.

(b) Landlord and Tenant hereby waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of the parties against the other in any matter whatsoever (except for personal injury or property damage) arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of landlord and tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, or any emergency or other statutory remedy with respect thereto.

24. GO DARK. The sublease and recapture rights described below will apply only during the period in which the Existing Loan or any subsequent mortgage loan on the Premises with a material restriction on "dark space" is outstanding. If Tenant shall cease operating the business conducted upon 40% or more of the Premises (not including portions of the Premises which have not yet been built out) (hereinafter referred to as "Go Dark") and Tenant remains closed for business in such portion (hereinafter referred to as the "Recapture Portion") for forty-five (45) consecutive days or more, excluding force majeure events and repairs due to casualty, then Tenant shall, if requested by Landlord, sublease the Recapture Portion to Caidan on a month-to-month basis on the same economic terms as this Lease, until Tenant gives a Reopening Notice (defined below) to Landlord and after a reasonable period of time for Caidan to vacate. If a Reopening Notice is not received by Landlord within one year after such sublease commences, Landlord, in its sole discretion, shall have an ongoing right to recapture possession of the Recapture Portion and terminate this Lease as it relates to such Recapture Portion by providing Tenant with written notice of Landlord's election to do so (hereinafter referred to as the "Recapture Notice"). Tenant shall have the right within ten (10) business days after its receipt of the Recapture Notice to elect to cancel such Recapture Notice by giving Landlord written notice that Tenant shall recommence operations in the Recapture Portion (for this purpose and for the purpose of ending a sublease of the Recapture Portion, the "Reopening Notice"), and Tenant shall actually re-commence such operations in the Recapture Portion within ten (10) business days after Tenant's receipt of the Recapture Notice. In the event Tenant fails to give Landlord the Reopening Notice within such ten (10) business day period, then this Lease, as it relates to the Recapture Portion, shall terminate ten (10) business days after Tenant's receipt of the Recapture Notice. In such event, (a) Tenant shall deliver such Recapture Portion to Landlord in the condition required hereunder upon expiration of the Lease and (b) Landlord shall have the right to recapture a proportionate share of Tenant's Parking Spaces (as hereinafter defined) simultaneously with recapture of the Recapture Portion.

25. EVENT OF DEFAULT - TENANT

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events (each such occurrence shall be deemed an "Event of Default") shall constitute a breach of this Lease by Tenant: (i) if Tenant shall fail to pay the Basic Rental or any other sum when and as the same becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than ten (10) days after written notice thereof from Landlord; or (ii) if Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any other term hereof or of the Rules to be performed or observed by Tenant, such failure shall continue for more than thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord, and Tenant shall not within such thirty (30) day period commence with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default, or, having so commenced, shall thereafter fail or neglect to prosecute or complete with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default and curing such default within one hundred fifty (150) days after receipt of notice of such default; (iii) if Tenant shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a petition in bankruptcy, or shall be adjudicated as insolvent or shall file a petition in any proceeding seeking any reorganization, arrangements, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any Law, or shall file an answer admitting or fail timely to contest or acquiesce in the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or any material part of its properties; (iv) if within ninety (90) days after the commencement of any proceeding against Tenant seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future statute or Law, such proceeding shall not have been dismissed, or if, within ninety (90) days after the appointment without the consent of acquiescence of Tenant, of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or of any material part of its properties, such appointment shall not have been vacated; or (v) if this Lease or any estate of Tenant hereunder shall be levied upon under any attachment or execution and such attachment or execution is not vacated within sixty (60) days.

(b) Any time an uncured Event of Default by Tenant as set forth in Section 25(a) hereof exists, Landlord, at its option, may terminate this Lease upon and by giving written notice of termination to Tenant as required by Law (currently, at least thirty (30) days prior written notice), or Landlord, without terminating this Lease, may at any time after such default or breach, without notice or demand additional to that provided in Section 25(a) hereof (other than notice and/or demand required by applicable Law), and without limiting Landlord in the exercise of any other right or remedy which Landlord may have by reason of such default or breach (other than the aforesaid right of termination) exercise any one or more of the remedies hereinafter provided in this Section 25(b), or as otherwise provided by Law, all of such remedies (whether provided herein or by Law) being cumulative and not exclusive:

(c) Landlord shall have the right to recover the rental and all other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease as they become due (unless and until Landlord has terminated this Lease and all other damages incurred by Landlord as a result of an Event of Default.) Landlord may enter the Premises either by summary proceedings or by any other lawful proceeding (without thereby incurring any liability to Tenant and without such entry being constituted an eviction of Tenant or termination of this Lease) and take possession of the Premises excluding all personal property of every kind on the Premises not owned by Landlord, and Landlord shall at any time and from time to time relet the Premises or any part thereof for the account of Tenant, for such terms, upon such conditions and at such rental as Landlord may in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment deem proper. In the event of such reletting, (i) Landlord shall receive and collect the Rent therefrom and shall first apply such Rent against such expenses as Landlord may have incurred in recovering possession of the Premises, placing the same in good order and condition, altering or repairing the same for reletting, and such other expenses, commissions and charges, including attorney's fees and real estate commissions, which Landlord may have paid or reasonably incurred in connection with such repossession and reletting, and then shall apply such Rent against the Rent as it comes due under this Lease, and (ii) Landlord may execute any lease in connection with such reletting in Landlord's name, as Landlord may see fit, and the tenant of such reletting shall be under no obligation to see to the application by Landlord of any Rent collected by Landlord.

(d) Landlord shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate its damages in the event of an uncured Event of Default, but Landlord shall not be required to favor the Premises if there are other vacant comparable premises in the Building.

(e) Upon a termination of this Lease by Landlord pursuant to Section 25(b) hereof, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant, as final and liquidated damages as it relates to the nonpayment of Rent, the aggregate of: (i) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid rental which had been earned at the time of termination; (ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rental which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the then reasonable rental value of the Premises during such period; (iii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rental for the balance of the term of this Lease after the time of award exceeds the reasonable rental value of the Premises for such period; and (iv) Landlord's other actual damages (if any), proximately caused by the Event of Default. The "worth at the time of award" of the amounts referred to in clauses (a) and (b) above is computed from the date such Rent was due or would have been due, as the case may be, by allowing interest at the rate of two percent (2%) in excess of the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal or, if a higher rate is legally permissible, at the highest rate legally permitted. The "worth at the time of award" of the amount referred to in clause (c) above is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago at the time of award, plus one percent (1%). Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 25(e) to the contrary, Tenant shall continue to pay the difference between the rental herein reserved over the then reasonable rental value of the Premises for the remainder of the stated term on a monthly basis until such time, if at all, that such amounts are in arrears for in excess of sixty (60) days, in which event Landlord shall have the right to accelerate such amounts in accordance with Section 25(e)(iii) hereof.

(f) All covenants, terms and conditions to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be at its sole cost and expense and without any abatement of rental except as expressly provided herein. If Tenant shall fail to pay any sum of money, other than Basic Rental, required to be paid by it hereunder or shall fail to perform any other act on its part to be performed hereunder and such failure shall continue for thirty (30) days after notice thereof by Landlord, and such failure results in an Event of Default, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated so to do, and without waiving or releasing Tenant from any obligations of Tenant, make any such payment or perform any such other act on Tenant's part to be made or performed as in this Lease provided. All sums so paid by Landlord and all necessary and reasonable incidental costs shall be deemed additional rental hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord on demand, and Landlord shall have (in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord) the same rights and remedies in the event of the nonpayment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment of Basic Rental.

26. HOLDING OVER

It is hereby agreed that in the event of Tenant holding over after the termination of this Lease, by lapse of time or otherwise, thereafter the tenancy shall be from month to month in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord a monthly occupancy charge equal to (i) for the first sixty (60) days of holdover, one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year, and (ii) for any holdover beyond said sixty (60) days, one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year (plus all other charges payable by Tenant under this Lease) such occupancy charges to be payable from the expiration or termination of this Lease until the end of the calendar month in which the Premises are delivered to Landlord in the condition required herein. If Landlord shall enter into a new lease or amend an existing lease for premises in the Building for all or a portion of the Premises at the end of the term of this Lease, Landlord shall so notify Tenant and if Tenant fails to vacate and deliver all or such portion of the Premises to Landlord within sixty (60) days after receipt of such notice (but in no event prior to the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease), Tenant shall be responsible for any and all damages actually and reasonably incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's failure to so vacate and deliver the Premises or such portion thereof (including the loss of such lease or amendment).

27. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents have made any representations or promises with respect to the physical condition of the Building, the land upon which the Building is erected, or the Premises, the rents, leases, expenses of operation or any other matter or thing affecting or related to the Premises except as herein expressly set forth and no rights, easements or licenses are acquired by Tenant by implication or otherwise, except as expressly set forth in the provisions of this Lease. This Lease shall constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the lease of the Premises; all prior agreements between the parties with respect to the lease of the Premises, whether written or oral, are merged herein and shall be of no force or effect. This Lease cannot be changed, modified or discharged orally but only by an agreement in writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, modification or discharge is sought.

28. NOTICES

All notices, consents, requests, demands, designations or other communications which may or are required to be given by either party to the other hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when (a) personally delivered; or (b) three (3) days after being deposited in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid; or (c) one (1) business day after being deposited with a nationally recognized overnight courier service; or (d) sent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail to be immediately followed by delivery in accordance with the foregoing (a), (b) or (c), and in all instances addressed as follows: to Tenant at the address set forth in Section 1(n) hereof, or to such other place as Tenant may from time to time designate in a notice to Landlord; to Landlord at the address set forth in Section 1(o) hereof, or to such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate in a notice to Tenant. Notice need be sent to only one Tenant or Landlord where Tenant or Landlord is more than one person.

29. SUCCESSORS

This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, administrators, executors, representatives, successors and assigns.

30. TIME

Time is of the essence of this Lease and each and all of its provisions.

31. QUIET ENJOYMENT

So long as no Event of Default has not occurred and is then continuing, Tenant may peacefully and quietly enjoy the Premises during the term of this Lease.

32. BROKERS

Tenant and Landlord acknowledge that no real estate broker is responsible for bringing about or negotiating this Lease and neither has dealt with any broker in connection with this Lease and/or the Premises. Landlord and Tenant agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other from any expense or liability arising out of a claim for commission or other compensation by any broker claiming or alleging to have acted on behalf of or to have dealt with it in connection with this Lease or the Premises.

33. INABILITY TO PERFORM

(a) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault

of the Landlord, Landlord is unable to furnish or is delayed in furnishing any utility or service required to be furnished by Landlord under the provisions of this Lease, or is unable to perform or make or is delayed in performing or making any installations, decorations, repairs, alterations, additions or improvements required to be performed or made under this Lease, or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Landlord's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute an actual or constructive eviction in whole or in part, or entitle Tenant to any abatement or diminution of rental or other charges due hereunder or relieve Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Landlord or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Tenant, or injury to or interruption of Tenant's business, or otherwise.

(b) If, by reason of the occurrence of unavoidable delays due to acts of God, governmental restrictions, strikes, labor disturbances, shortages of materials or supplies or for any other cause or event of a like nature not attributable to the negligence or fault of the Tenant, Tenant is delayed in performing work or doing any act required under the terms of this Lease or is unable to fulfill or is delayed in fulfilling any of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease, then the performance of such work or act shall be excused for the period of the unavoidable delay and the period for the performance of any such work or act shall be extended for an equivalent period, and no such inability or delay shall constitute a Tenant default or relieve Landlord from any of its obligations under this Lease, or impose any liability upon Tenant or its agents by reason of inconvenience or annoyance to Landlord, or injury to or interruption of Landlord's business, or otherwise.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 33 shall not operate to excuse either party from the prompt payment of the Rent or any other payments required by the terms of this Lease.

34. REMOVAL OF TENANT'S PROPERTY

"Tenant's Property" as used herein shall mean all of Tenant's movable fixtures and movable partitions (even if attached), telephone and telecommunication wiring and cabling and related equipment, computer systems, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, and other items of personal property located in the Premises. On or before the Expiration Date, any earlier date of termination of this Lease or the date that Tenant vacates from the Premises, whichever shall first occur, Tenant agrees to remove, at its sole cost and expense, all of Tenant's Property (unless Landlord consents in writing to Tenant's request to allow the Tenant's Property or any portion thereof to remain in the Premises). Tenant shall restore and repair (which shall include, without limitation, repairing any holes in the walls or tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing-up any slab penetrations in the Premises, all in a good and workmanlike manner), or promptly reimburse Landlord for the reasonable and actual cost of restoring and repairing (including, without limitation, repairing any such holes in the walls and tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing any such slab penetrations) any and all damage done to the Premises or the Building by the removal of Tenant's Property or by the removal of leasehold improvements, alterations or other physical additions made by Tenant to the Premises which Landlord has directed or otherwise permitted Tenant to remove from the Premises. Tenant shall notify Landlord of its intention to affect the closing of any such slab penetrations at least thirty (30) days prior to commencing such closings. If Tenant fails to remove any of Tenant's Property by the Expiration Date or any sooner date of termination of the Lease or, if Tenant fails to remove any Alterations made by Tenant to the Premises which are required to be removed pursuant to Section 8 of this Lease, Landlord shall have the right, on the fifth (5th) day after Landlord's delivery of written notice to Tenant to deem such property abandoned by Tenant and to remove, store, sell, discard or otherwise deal with or dispose of such abandoned property in a commercially reasonable manner. Tenant shall be liable for all reasonable and actual costs of such disposition of Tenant's abandoned property and the repair and restoration of the Premises, and Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant in any respect regarding such property of Tenant. The provisions of this Section 34 shall survive the expiration or any earlier termination of this Lease. Upon request to Tenant, Landlord agrees to execute a reasonable and customary agreement with Tenant's lender granting access to the Premises at any time this Lease is in effect to recover Tenant's Property.

35. PARKING

(a) Landlord shall provide Tenant with one seventy (170) parking spaces for each full floor of the Premises (parking spaces provided to Tenant hereunder shall hereinafter be referred to as "Tenant's Parking Spaces"), of which forty-five (45) Tenant's Parking Spaces shall be located in the underground parking area of the Building and the balance of the Tenant's Parking Spaces shall be located in the other parking structure located adjacent to the Building. Of the forty-five (45) Tenant's Parking Spaces for each full floor of the Premises located in the underground parking area of the Building, fifteen (15) of such Tenant's Parking Spaces shall be reserved parking spaces, as reasonably designated by Landlord. From and after the Commencement Date, Tenant shall pay Landlord for the Tenant's Parking Spaces at a rate of [] per parking space per month, which monthly parking fee shall increase by [] per parking space per month every year and Tenant shall pay the charge for Tenant's Parking Spaces as additional rent monthly on the first day of each month during the term of this Lease together with the Basic Rental payable hereunder. Tenant's use of Tenant's Parking Spaces shall be subject to such reasonable and necessary rules and regulations as Landlord shall promulgate from time to time. Tenant shall only receive one card for each of Tenant's Parking Spaces. The right to Tenant's Parking Spaces is personal to Tenant and may not be assigned or subleased without Landlord's prior written consent, other than to any subtenant or assignee of this Lease approved by Landlord or otherwise permitted under the terms of this Lease.

(b) Landlord shall cause the Parking Structure to be available for ingress and egress by employees, customers and invitees of Tenant twenty-four (24) hours a day, three hundred sixty-five (365) days per year, under arrangements reasonably satisfactory to Tenant and Landlord and in accordance with the Security Specifications. The Parking Structure shall be used for vehicle parking during the term of this Lease, it being agreed that such facility is a material inducement for Tenant to enter into this Lease. Landlord shall, at its sole cost and expense, cause the Parking Structure to be maintained, repaired and replaced such that it is and remains in a first class condition throughout the term of this Lease. Tenant may not sublease, assign or license its parking spaces to third parties that do not occupy any portion of the Premises or have the right to occupy any portion of the Premises.

(c) Except as otherwise set forth in this Lease, the Parking Structure shall be operated in accordance with the Rules. The Parking Structure shall be used only for daily parking and no storage of vehicles shall be permitted. Employees of Tenant who are based in the Building or who are based in other premises in downtown Detroit may not use the visitor parking area in the Parking Structure while at work for Tenant and if an employee of Tenant repeatedly violates such restriction after notice to such employee and Tenant, such employee shall be deemed to be in triple secret probation of this provision and upon a further violation of this sentence by such employee, Landlord may terminate the parking privileges in the Parking Structure of such employee of Tenant by notice to such employee and to Tenant; provided, however, a breach of the foregoing shall not be a default or Event of Default under this Lease, but may only result in the loss of parking privileges in the Parking Structure by such employee.

(d) Landlord will cause to be provided to Tenant five hundred (500) validated parking passes per month for all day visitor parking for each parking pass. If Tenant requests additional validated parking passes, Tenant shall be able to validate such parking, and Tenant shall pay Landlord the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for such additional visitor all day parking in the Parking Structure. If Tenant has any company wide events at the Building during Normal Business Hours, without the consent of Landlord, Tenant will direct no more than one hundred (100) employees to park in visitor parking in the Parking Structure during such event; provided, however, the foregoing shall not prevent parking by an employee of Tenant in any Tenant parking space in the Parking Structure, nor shall Tenant be obligated to patrol where its employees park nor shall a breach of the foregoing provisions of this sentence be a default or Event of Default under this Lease.

36. NO OPTION

The execution of this Lease by Tenant and the delivery of the same to Landlord shall not constitute a reservation of or option for the Premises or an agreement by Landlord to enter into a lease with Tenant and this Lease shall become effective only if and when Landlord's executes and delivers the same to Tenant; provided, however, that the execution and delivery of this Lease by Tenant to Landlord shall constitute an irrevocable offer by Tenant to lease the Premises on the terms and conditions herein contained, which offer may not be withdrawn or revoked by Tenant for thirty (30) days after execution and delivery of this Lease to Landlord.

37. ANTENNA

(a) Tenant has the right to install a satellite dish(es), electronic transmitter(s) devices for similar purposes and the like (collectively, the "Antenna") on the roof of the Building and the right to install such Antenna on the other exterior surfaces of the Building in locations reasonably acceptable to Landlord to provide wireless services to the Premises, and to wire all such Antenna to the Premises in compliance with all applicable local zoning ordinances and regulations and in accordance with plans and specifications approved by Landlord and in a location approved by Landlord. In reviewing Tenant's Antenna plans Landlord may reasonably consider, among other things, material interference of Tenant's Antenna(s) with existing antenna and communication equipment on the roof of the Building. The cost of installation and maintenance thereof, and the cost of any repairs to the roof which are necessitated by the installation, repair and/or removal of the Antenna(s) shall be borne solely by Tenant. Upon the termination of this Lease, Tenant shall remove any Antenna(s) and repair any damage to the roof occasioned by such removal. Tenant shall also be permitted to run cable, fiber optic networks, and other systems and equipment throughout the Building in order to connect the various areas within the Building occupied from time to time by Tenant, and in order to connect such areas to outside telephone, cable, optical network and other providers in locations and pursuant to plans and specifications approved by Landlord. Further, Tenant shall be permitted to install throughout the Premises, access and security systems for Tenant's exclusive use (e.g., swipe card, combination lock, security cameras or otherwise) which do not capture areas outside of the Premises, subject to Landlord's prior written approval thereof.

(b) Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all costs, loss, expense or liability of any kind whatsoever arising out of the installation, use and/or removal by Tenant of the Antenna. Tenant shall maintain a comprehensive general liability insurance policy, including contractual liability, as set forth in Section 20(b) hereof, so long as the Antenna is under construction, in place and/or being removed.

(c) Tenant shall work exclusively with Landlord's roofing contractor relating to the installation and/or removal of the Antenna and the roof penetration so as not to violate any requirements or invalidate Landlord's roof guaranty.

(d) Wherever Landlord's approval is required pursuant to this Section 37, such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

38. INDEMNIFICATION OF TENANT; LANDLORD'S INSURANCE

(a) Landlord hereby waives all claims against Tenant for damages to any property or injury or death of any person in, upon or about the Development (other than the Premises) arising at any time except to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its employees, managers, agents or contractors, and, subject to the waiver of liability under Section 21, Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from any damage to any property or injury to or death of any person (i) arising in, on or about the Development (other than the Premises), except to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its employees, managers, agents or contractors, or (ii) arising in or on the Premises and resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents, managers or contractors. All insurance procured by the Landlord shall contain an endorsement waiving all rights of subrogation against Tenant. The foregoing indemnity obligation of Landlord shall include reasonable attorneys' fees, investigation costs and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Tenant from the first notice that any claim or demand is to be made or may be made with respect to matters covered by the indemnity. The provisions of this Section 38(a) shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease with respect to any damage, injury or death occurring prior to such expiration or termination.

(b) Landlord shall, during the Term, procure and maintain or cause to be procured and maintained:

(i) commercial general liability (CGL) insurance. CGL insurance shall be written using an occurrence form and shall cover liability arising from premises operations, independent contractors, product completed operations, and personal injury and advertising injury, with an insurance company acceptable by the owner. Landlord shall maintain CGL insurance with a limit of not less than $1,000,000 each occurrence, and $2,000,000 million aggregate. The foregoing insurance may be provided by a combination of Landlord's primary and umbrella policies.

(ii) "Special Cause of Loss", including theft and leakage from fire protective equipment, form property insurance in respect of the Development, excluding Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment and personal property, for the full replacement value of the Development;

(iii) Loss of rental income insurance.

together with such other insurance as Landlord, in its reasonable discretion, elects to obtain. Subject to and without limiting the foregoing, insurance effected by Landlord shall be in amounts which Landlord shall from time to time determine reasonable and sufficient, shall be subject to such deductibles and exclusions which Landlord may deem reasonable and shall otherwise be on such terms and conditions as Landlord shall from time to time determine reasonable and sufficient. If requested by Tenant, certificates of insurance for such insurance shall be delivered by Landlord to Tenant on or before the Date of this Lease and at least annually thereafter. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to cause each such policy to contain an endorsement prohibiting cancellation or reduction of coverage without first giving Tenant at least thirty (30) prior days' written notice. Tenant shall be named as an additional insured on the commercial general liability insurance required to be maintained by the Landlord under this Lease with respect to the common areas of the Development only. Landlord's liability insurance shall be primary with respect to the Common Areas.

39. LANDLORD'S DEFAULT

(a) Landlord shall not be deemed in default under the terms of this Lease unless (i) Landlord shall fail to pay any amount payable hereunder when and as such sum becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Tenant or (ii) Landlord shall fail to perform its obligations under this Lease for more than thirty (30) days after written notice of such default shall have been received by Landlord (except in the event of an Emergency, in which case no notice or cure period shall be required), provided that if the curing of such default reasonably requires in excess of thirty (30) days (except in the case of an Emergency), Landlord shall not be deemed in default hereunder if it shall commence to cure such default within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure, then Tenant shall have its rights and remedies provided at law and in equity and pursuant to the provisions of this Lease. In addition and notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, if any such default materially and adversely affects Tenant's use of the Premises then, Tenant shall have the right but not the obligation to cure or correct said default provided Tenant shall give Landlord five (5) days' prior written notice of its intention to cure or correct the Landlord default (and for defaults for which Landlord is provided a five (5) day cure period, Landlord has failed to cure said default within such five (5) day cure period) except in an Emergency when only reasonable notice will be provided.

(b) In connection with the exercise of its rights under this Section, Tenant shall use reasonable efforts not to materially and adversely affect other tenants' occupancy of the Building and Tenant may only engage the Landlord's standard contractors to perform any work involving the Critical Building Systems (as hereinafter defined). If Tenant elects to cure as aforesaid, Tenant (i) shall, to the extent feasible and practical, as determined by Tenant, coordinate the exercise of any self-help remedies with Landlord, and (ii) may demand payment from Landlord of those reasonable and necessary costs paid by Tenant to effect such cure or correction. Landlord shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of Tenant's request (together with reasonable back-up), reimburse to Tenant all such reasonable and necessary costs actually incurred by Tenant in connection with such cure or correction. If Landlord fails to pay such costs or any other sums due Tenant under this Lease to Tenant within such thirty (30) day period, Tenant may deduct such costs from the next due installments of Basic Rental and all other sums payable under this Lease. Tenant shall be responsible for any loss or damage suffered by Landlord and caused by the negligence of Tenant or Tenant's contractors in performing any such work pursuant to this Section 39. As used in this Section 39, the term "Critical Building Systems" shall mean the fire and life safety systems, Building management systems, roofing and the tie in of fire and life safety systems of the Premises into the Building systems.

(c) The provisions of this Section 39 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

(c) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that:

At any time that Tenant's affiliate is a direct or indirect equity holder in Landlord, with respect to the financial statements provided to Landlord, only the Board Representatives of Landlord shall be entitled to review such financial statements on behalf of Landlord.

(b) At any time that Tenant or its affiliate is a direct or indirect equity holder in Landlord, Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord in connection with any financing, refinancing or sale of the Development and shall provide such commercially reasonable information relating to Tenant as may be requested by any mortgagee, proposed mortgagee or purchaser. 2. PREMISES

(a) Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord those premises (hereinafter referred to as the "Premises"), described in Section 1(d) hereof and designated on Exhibit "A" attached hereto in the building commonly known as the Higbee Building and located at One Public Square, Cleveland, Ohio 44113, consisting of approximately 815,119 rentable square feet of floor area (hereinafter referred to as the "Building"), together with the non-exclusive right and easement to use the common facilities located within and/or comprising a part of the Building (the "Common Areas") which Common Areas are for the use in common with Landlord and the tenants and occupants (their agents, employees, customers and invitees) of the Building.

(b) The rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building shall be computed based upon the 2010 BOMA Standard Method of Measuring Floor Area in Office Buildings, ANSI/BOMA Z65.1-2010, and the rentable area of the Premises, as well as the Building, shall contain a proportionate share of the Common Areas of the Building, utilizing a common area load factor not to exceed nine and a half percent (9.5%) with respect to the fourth floor and fifteen percent (15%) with respect to the fifth floor.

(c) The rentable square foot area of the Premises shall be measured by Landlord's architect ("Landlord's Architect"), and Landlord's Architect shall certify the rentable square foot area to Landlord and Tenant; provided, however, that if Tenant disagrees with the measurement or calculation by Landlord's architect, an independent architect jointly selected by Landlord and Tenant shall promptly measure the Premises and its determination shall be binding on the parties. In the event such certification or determination shall contain a rentable square foot area different than that previously utilized, Landlord and Tenant shall promptly execute and deliver an amendment to this Lease reflecting the rentable square foot area set forth in such certification and Sections 1(d), 1(h) and 1(k) shall be revised accordingly.

(d) Tenant shall be allowed access to the Premises and reasonable portions of the Common Areas twenty-four (24) hours a day, three hundred sixty-five (365) days a year using card readers, or keys, subject to Section 33 hereof and Exhibit "E" hereto.

(e) Subject to the limitations set forth herein, Landlord reserves (i) the right from time to time to make changes, alterations, additions, improvements, repairs or replacements in or to the Building and the fixtures and equipment thereof, as well as in or to the street entrances, halls, passages, elevators, escalators and stairways and other parts of the Building, and to erect, maintain, and use pipes, ducts and conduits in and through the Premises, all as Landlord may reasonably deem necessary or desirable; provided, however, under no circumstances may Landlord erect any pipes, ducts or conduits in any location within the Premises which interferes with or adversely impacts the use of the Premises, (ii) the right to eliminate, substitute, modify and/or rearrange the Common Areas (which may theretofore have been so designated) as Landlord deems reasonably appropriate, and (iii) change the name, number or designation by which the Building is commonly known, in which event, Tenant will refer to the Building by the name, number or designation as determined by Landlord from time to time. Tenant's nonexclusive right to utilize the Common Areas shall be in common with Landlord, other tenants and occupants of the Building and others to whom Landlord grants such rights from time to time. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, in exercising its rights pursuant to this Section or other provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall (a) not materially and adversely interfere with Tenant's access to or operations in the Premises or Tenant's use of the Common Areas which remain available for common use, however, the foregoing shall not preclude Landlord from modifying the Building lobby, or modifying or eliminating areas outside of the Building or (b) not materially or adversely increase any obligation of Tenant under this Lease. Under no circumstances shall Landlord undertake any action which materially restricts Tenant's view out of its windows (including the hanging of any banners or signs). In addition, (w) any replacements, substitutions or alterations by Landlord shall be, in the reasonable opinion of Landlord, substantially equivalent to or better than then existing facilities, (x) installations, replacements and relocations shall be located so far as practicable in the central core area of the Building, above ceiling surfaces, below floor surfaces, within perimeter walls of the Premises or otherwise in boxed enclosures, (y) all work within the Premises by Landlord, other than due to an Emergency (as hereinafter defined) or required by Law (as hereinafter defined), shall be performed at such times and in such manner, as to create the least practicable interference with Tenant's use of the Premises and (z) no such work by Landlord, other than due to an Emergency or required by Law, shall reduce the square footage of the floor area of the Premises in excess of two percent (2%) per floor of the Premises. Except in the case of Emergencies, Landlord agrees to give Tenant reasonable advance notice of any of the foregoing activities which require work in the Premises.

(f) Landlord reserves the right from time to time upon at least ninety (90) days' advanced written notice, including the proposed relocation date (the "Relocation Notice"), to relocate the portion of Tenant's Premises located on the fourth floor only to other premises within the Building prior to or during the Term of this Lease; provided (i) the usable area so substituted equals or exceeds the usable area of the fourth floor of the Premises and (ii) the buildout and finish of the replacement space shall be substantially the same as, or better than, the fourth floor of the Premises.

3. TERM

(a) The term of this Lease shall commence on the Commencement Date. Unless sooner terminated or extended as provided in this Lease, the term of this Lease shall expire on the Expiration Date set forth in Section 1(g) hereof (the "Term").

(b) Intentionally Deleted

(c) From time to time, Tenant shall furnish Landlord, upon request a letter addressed to Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee stating that Tenant has accepted the Premises for occupancy, the Premises have been completed as herein required, and setting forth the Commencement Date of this Lease and such other information relating to the Premises as either Landlord or its mortgagee may reasonably request.

(d) (i) Tenant shall have the right, if an Event of Default does not then exist, to extend the Term of this Lease for two (2) additional periods of five (5) years each upon the terms and conditions as are stated in this Lease (other than the grant of any extension rights in addition to those provided for in this Section 3(d)) and at Basic Rental equal to the fair market rent for such extension term (as determined pursuant to the terms of this Section 3(d)). Tenant shall exercise such right to extend the Term of this Lease, it at all, at least seven (7) months prior to the expiration of the original Term of this Lease or such prior extension period, as the case may be. If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the Term of this Lease within the period of time for exercise set forth in this Section, Tenant's option to extend the Term of this Lease shall continue in full force and effect until Landlord shall have given Tenant notice of such failure to exercise said option to extend the Term of this Lease ("Oops Notice"), If Tenant shall fail to exercise its option to extend the Term of this Lease within ten (10) business days after receipt of an Oops Notice from Landlord, then and only then shall Tenant's option to extend the Term of this Lease expire. Landlord shall have no obligation to do any work or perform any special services with respect to the Premises for such extension period, which Tenant agrees to accept in their then "as is" condition (but subject to Landlord's on-going repair, maintenance and service obligations set forth herein).

(ii) Within ten (10) days after the exercise by Tenant of its right to extend the Term of this Lease for a renewal period, Landlord shall submit to Tenant in writing Landlord's determination of the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period. If Tenant does not notify Landlord of its acceptance of Landlord's determination of the Basic Rental for the Premises for renewal period within ten days after receipt of Landlord's determination of the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period (the "First 10 Day Period"), then the parties shall proceed as provided in Section 3(d)(iii) below.

(iii) Within five (5) days after the First 10 Day Period (the "Initial 5 Day Period"), Landlord and Tenant shall each simultaneously submit to the other in a sealed envelope its suggested Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period, which rental shall be the fair market rent for the Premises for the renewal period (but Landlord's rent determination need not be the same rent as provided pursuant to Section 3(d)(ii) above). If either party does not submit its suggested Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period during the Initial 5 Day Period, the other party's determination of Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period shall be final and binding. If the higher of such suggested Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period is not more than one hundred five percent of the lower of such suggested rentals for each year of the renewal period, then the average of the two suggested Basic Rental figures for the Premises for the renewal period shall be the Basic Rental for the Premises for such renewal period. Otherwise, Landlord and Tenant shall negotiate in good faith to agree upon the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period, and if Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree to the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period within five days after the expiration of the Initial 5 Day Period (the "Second 5 Day Period"), the determination of the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period shall be made in accordance with paragraph (iv) below.

(iv) Within five days after the expiration of the Second 5 Day Period, Landlord and Tenant shall mutually select an MAI appraiser with experience in real estate activities, including at least five (5) years' experience in appraising Class A office buildings in downtown Cleveland, Ohio ("Downtown Cleveland"), which appraiser shall be hereinafter referred to as a "Qualified Appraiser." If the parties cannot agree on a Qualified Appraiser during such five day period, then within five days thereafter, each party shall select an independent MAI Qualified Appraiser and within five days thereafter the two appointed appraisers shall select a third Qualified Appraiser and the third Qualified Appraiser shall determine the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period in accordance with paragraph (v) below. If either Landlord or Tenant shall fail to make such appointment of a Qualified Appraiser within said five day period, the Qualified Appraiser who is timely selected shall determine the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period.

(v) Once the appraiser or third appraiser (the "Deciding Appraiser") has been selected as provided in Section 3(d)(iv) above, the Deciding Appraiser shall, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter and without reference to Landlord's and Tenant's Basic Rental determinations, make its own independent determination as to the fair market rent for the Premises for the renewal period (the "Independent Determination"). Once the Independent Determination is made, the Basic Rental for the Premises for the renewal period shall be the figure submitted by Landlord and Tenant which is closer to the Independent Determination, which result shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall equally share the cost of such appraisal.

(vi) Intentionally Deleted

(vii) Tenant's rights under Section 3(d) shall terminate, at Landlord's option, if (a) an Event of Default exists as of the date of Tenant's exercise of its rights under Section 3(d) or as of the commencement date of the applicable extended term, or (b) this Lease or Tenant's right to possession of any portion of the Premises is terminated.

4. RENT

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord as rental for the Premises during each year of the Term of this Lease the amount set forth in Section 1(h) hereof and the amount determined pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof during any extension period. Such rental shall be payable in advance, in equal monthly installments upon the first day of each and every month throughout the Term of this Lease; provided, however, that if the lease Term shall commence on a day other than the first day of a calendar month or shall end on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the rental for such first or last fractional month shall be such proportion of the monthly rental as the number of days in such fractional month bears to the total number of days in the calendar month.

(b) Rent and all other charges hereunder shall promptly be paid without prior demand therefor and without deductions or setoffs for any reason whatsoever, except as expressly herein provided, and overdue rent and any other sums payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder shall bear interest during delinquency until paid at a rate of interest equal to [] in excess of the "Prime Rate" published from time to time by The Wall Street Journal (hereinafter referred to as the "Interest Rate"). In addition, if any payment of rent is not paid when due, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to [] of each late payment. Landlord shall have no obligation to accept less than the full amount of all installments of rental and interest thereon and all charges hereunder which are due and owing by Tenant to Landlord, and if Landlord shall accept less than the full amount owing, Landlord may apply the sums received towards any of Tenant's obligations at Landlord's discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not be required to pay the late charge or the interest provided for therein on up to two (2) occasions during each calendar year, provided such payments are made to Landlord within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt of written notice that the same are past due.

(c) Landlord's failure to timely bill Tenant shall in no way excuse Tenant from its payment obligations or constitute a waiver of Landlord's entitlement to any charges not timely billed by Landlord.

(d) Tenant agrees that all Basic Rental and additional rent (collectively "Rent") due under this Lease shall be paid to Landlord by (i) check mailed to the address set forth in Section 1 (o) hereof or such other address as Landlord shall designate by written notice to Tenant, (ii) wire transfer of immediately available funds, or (iii) electronic funds transfer.

5. RENTAL ADJUSTMENT

(a) The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) The term "Expenses" shall mean, subject to the limitations and exclusions set forth herein, the actual reasonable cost incurred by Landlord during the applicable calendar year on an accrual basis with respect to the operation, maintenance and repair of the Building, including, without limitation or duplication, (1) the costs incurred for air conditioning; mechanical ventilation; heating; cleaning; rubbish removal; snow removal; general landscaping and ground maintenance; window washing; elevators; porter and matron services; electric current for Common Areas; management fees (calculated at a rate of [] of gross receipts); repairs; maintenance; fire, extended coverage, boiler, sprinkler apparatus, public liability and property damage insurance (including loss of rental income insurance); supplies; wages, salaries and benefits of service and maintenance employees and management staff (if said employees and/or staff perform services for properties other than the Building, the expenses relating thereto shall be equitably prorated); uniforms and working clothes for such employees and the cleaning thereof; expenses imposed pursuant to any collective bargaining agreement with respect to such employees; payroll, social security, unemployment and other similar taxes with respect to such employees; sales, use and other similar taxes; water rates and sewer rents; depreciation of movable equipment and personal property, which is, or should be, capitalized on the books of Landlord, and the cost of movable equipment and personal property, which need not be so capitalized, as well as the cost of maintaining all such movable equipment, and any other costs, charges and expenses which, under generally accepted accounting principles and practices, would be regarded as maintenance and operating expenses, and (2) the cost of any capital improvements made to the Building after the Commencement Date that are intended to reduce other Expenses, or made to the Building by Landlord

after the date of this Lease that are required under any governmental law, rule, regulation or ordinance (collectively, "Law") that was not applicable to the Building at the time it was constructed (the "Permitted Capital Improvements"), such cost or allocable portion thereof to be amortized over the useful life thereof as determined by GAAP, together with interest on the unamortized balance at the Interest Rate or such actual rate as may have been paid by Landlord on funds borrowed for the purpose of constructing such capital improvements, if Landlord borrows funds therefor. Expenses shall not include "Taxes," depreciation on the Building other than as set forth above; costs of services or repairs and maintenance which are paid for by proceeds of insurance, by other tenants (in a manner other than as provided in this Section 5) or third parties; tenant improvements, real estate brokers' commissions, interest and capital items other than those referred to in clause (1) above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, Expenses shall not include costs for security services provided by Landlord (whether pursuant to the provisions of this Lease or otherwise) (the "Security Costs") and Tenant shall pay to Landlord the sum of fifty cents ($.50) per rentable square foot of the Premises per year (which per rentable square foot fee shall increase by 3% on each anniversary of the Commencement Date) for security services to be provided in accordance with Exhibit "G" hereof, which costs shall be paid in the same manner and at the same time as Tenant pays Basic Rental.

If the Building is less than 95% occupied, the Expenses which vary with occupancy shall be adjusted using commercially reasonable property management practices to equal Landlord's reasonable estimate of Expenses which Landlord would have incurred had the Building been 95% occupied.

In determining Expenses:

(A) The management fees included within Expenses shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the gross receipts from the Building and shall be consistent with respect to the Base Expenses and Expenses in subsequent years.

(B) All items of Expenses which are deemed to be capital expenses shall be amortized in accordance with the terms of Section 5(a)(i)(2) and only the annual amortized amount shall be included in Expenses in any year.

(C) In the event that a category is removed from Expenses that was included in Base Expenses (as opposed to shifted or combined with another category), the Expenses for years in which such category no longer applies shall be increased to reflect what Expenses would have been incurred had Landlord continued to furnish such category of services or work.

(D) Expenses shall not include (i) the cost or depreciation of the Building or any improvements thereon, including permit fees, license and inspection fees, and costs incurred in renovating, improving, decorating, painting or redecorating vacant tenant space or space of other tenants in the Building or broker's commissions, (ii) principal payments, interest, late fees or other financing charges relating to any financing of the Building or rents under a ground lease or any other underlying lease wherein Landlord is the lessee, (iii) wages, salaries, fees and fringe benefits paid to home office executive personnel of Landlord (i.e., executives above the level of building manager and other office personnel but not the property manager, the assistant property manager and their staff), (iv) any costs relating to the solicitation, execution and enforcement of leases of other tenant space in the Building, (v) the cost of any electrical current or other utility services furnished to any other leasable area (but not including Common Areas) of the Building (other than for HVAC services and water), (vi) the cost of correcting defects in the original construction or defects in subsequent improvement of the Building, including costs of repairs or maintenance caused or necessitated by the negligence of Landlord, its agents, contractors or employees, (vii) the cost of any repair made by Landlord because of the total or partial destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty subsequent to the date of original construction, (viii) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed under warranty claims, insurance proceeds or condemnation awards, (ix) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed by tenants of the Building (other than in a manner comparable to Section 5(b) hereof), or third parties, (x) advertising and promotional expenditures, (xi) reserves for future expenditures or liabilities which would be incurred after the then current accounting year, (xii) the cost of (a) remediation of any toxic or hazardous substance or material from the land, buildings or improvements comprising the Building, other than commercially reasonable and customary maintenance of mechanical systems, or (b) any environmental reports or studies relating thereto, (xiii) income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes; (xiv) capital improvements, other than the Permitted Capital Improvements; (xv) the Security Costs; (xvi) fees and penalties for late payments as long as Tenant timely makes all payments hereunder; (xvii) expenses in connection with any service of a type which Tenant is not entitled to receive under the Lease but which is provided to another tenant or occupant of the Building; (xviii) cost to purchase or maintain art (other than routine cleaning); (xix) any personal property taxes of the Landlord for equipment or items not used solely and directly in the operation or maintenance of the Building; (xx) any cost representing an amount paid to any entity related to or affiliated with Landlord (or it members, managers, partners or employees, or relatives or such parties) which is materially in excess of the amount which would have been paid in the absence of such relationship; (xxi) costs associated with the operation of the limited liability company, partnership or other entity which constitutes Landlord, as distinguished from costs of operation of the Building; (xxii) parties or events hosted by Landlord for the tenants of the Building; and (xxiii) the costs of repairs or replacements caused by Landlord's gross negligence or the gross negligence of its agents, employees, managers or contractors.

(E) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Controllable Expenses for any calendar year following the first calendar year of the Term shall not exceed the Cap on a cumulative basis. The "Cap" for the calendar year immediately following the first calendar year of the Term shall be one hundred five percent of the Controllable Expenses for the first calendar year of the Term, and the Cap for each calendar year thereafter shall be one hundred five percent of the Cap for the highest amount of Controllable Expenses included in Expenses for any then preceding calendar year of the Term. The term "Controllable Expenses" shall mean all Expenses other than those Expenses attributable to snow and ice removal and salting, utilities, taxes and insurance.

(ii) The term "Base Expenses" shall mean the amount as defined in Section 1(i) hereof.

(iii) The term "Excess Expenses" shall mean the total dollar increases, if any, over the Base Expenses paid or incurred by Landlord in the respective calendar year.

(iv) The term "Taxes" shall mean the amount of all ad valorem real property taxes and assessments, special or otherwise, levied upon or with respect to the Building, or the Rent and additional charges payable hereunder, imposed by any taxing authority having jurisdiction. Taxes shall also include all taxes, levies and charges which may be assessed, levied or imposed in replacement of, or in addition to, all or any part of ad valorem real property taxes as revenue sources, and which in whole or in part are measured or calculated by or based upon the Building, the leasehold estate of Landlord or Tenant, or the Rent and other charges payable hereunder. Taxes shall include any reasonable expenses incurred by Landlord in determining or attempting to obtain a reduction of Taxes.

In determining Taxes:

(A) Taxes shall not include any income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes.

(B) With respect to special assessments which may be paid in installments, Tenant's Share thereof shall be determined as if Landlord elected to pay the same over the longest period available.

(C) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Taxes shall not include and Tenant shall not be responsible for any interest or penalties due to the late payment of Taxes.

(D) In the event Landlord receives any refunds relating to Taxes covering a period during the Term of this Lease, the Taxes with respect to such year with respect to such refund relates shall be reduced accordingly and to the extent applicable, Tenant shall be given credit for Tenant's Share thereof.

(v) The term "Base Taxes" shall mean the amount as defined in Section 1(j) hereof.

(vi) The term "Excess Taxes" shall mean the total dollar increase, if any, over the Base Taxes paid or incurred by Landlord in the respective calendar year.

(vii) The term "Tenant's Share" shall mean the percentage set forth in Section 1(k) hereof which was derived by dividing the rentable square foot area of the Premises by the rentable square foot area of the Building (which, as the Building currently exists, equals 815,119 rentable square feet).

(viii) The term "Base Year" shall mean the 2016 calendar year.

(b) Tenant shall pay to Landlord Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes in the manner and at the times herein provided.

With respect to Excess Expenses, prior to January 1, 2017, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord's estimate of Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses for the ensuing calendar year, with respect to Excess Taxes, prior to January 1, 2017, and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of Landlord's estimate of Tenant's Share of Excess Taxes for the ensuing calendar year. On or before the first day of each month during the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall pay to Landlord one-twelfth (1/12) of such estimated amounts, provided that until such notice is given with respect to the ensuing calendar year, Tenant shall continue to pay the amount currently payable pursuant hereto until after the month such notice is given. If at any time or times it appears to Landlord that Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses or Tenant's Share of Excess Taxes for the then current calendar year will vary from Landlord's estimate by more than five percent (5%), Landlord may, by notice to Tenant, revise its estimate for such year and subsequent payments by Tenant for such year shall be based upon such revised estimate.

Within ninety (90) days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses, and within ninety (90) days after the close of each calendar year with respect to Excess Taxes, or as soon after such ninety (90) day period as practicable (not to exceed 180 days after the close of the calendar year), Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement prepared by Landlord of Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes, respectively, for such calendar year. If on the basis of either of such statements, Tenant owes an amount that is less than the estimated payments for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expense or with respect to Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Landlord shall credit such excess amount against the next payment(s) due from Tenant to Landlord of Excess Expenses or Excess Taxes, as applicable. In no event shall a reduction in Taxes or Expenses operate to reduce the rental set forth in Section 1(h) hereof required to be paid hereunder, nor shall any reduction in Taxes or Expenses below the Base Expenses or Base Taxes give rise to any credit to Tenant. If on the basis of such statement, Tenant owes an amount that is more than the estimated payment for such calendar year with respect to Excess Expenses or Excess Taxes previously made by Tenant, Tenant shall pay the deficiency to Landlord within thirty (30) days after delivery of the statement.

If this Lease shall terminate on a day other than the last day of a calendar year, Tenant's Share of Excess Expenses and Excess Taxes that are applicable to the calendar year in which such termination shall occur shall be prorated on the basis of the number of calendar days within such year as are within the Term of this Lease. Any refund due Tenant with respect to the last year of the Term of this Lease shall be refunded to it within thirty (30) days after the receipt of such statement.

For a period of two (2) years after delivery of each such statement to which such records relate, Tenant shall have the right upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Landlord to inspect Landlord's records relating to Taxes and Expenses (an "Audit"). Each Audit shall be conducted at Landlord's offices during Landlord's normal business hours at Tenant's expense. Each Audit may not be conducted by a person or firm compensated on a contingent fee basis. Tenant shall provide a copy of each Audit to Landlord within thirty (30) days after receipt thereof. Tenant must keep the provisions of each Audit confidential. If an Audit shall disclose that Tenant has paid three and one-half percent (3.5%) or more in excess of that required to be paid hereunder and Landlord shall accept such determination, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the reasonable cost of such Audit. Tenant shall have no right to offset the amount of any overpayment disclosed in an Audit unless Landlord shall accept such determination of an overpayment by Tenant. If Landlord and Tenant do not agree on any overpayment or underpayment within thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of an Audit, either Landlord or Tenant may, within thirty (30) days after delivery of an Audit to Landlord, cause an independent Big Four accounting firm to resolve the dispute, whose determination shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant and the firm's fees shall be split equally between Landlord and Tenant. The provisions of this Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

7. REPAIRS

(a) Landlord shall maintain (including repairs and replacements), in a timely manner, in good order and condition and incompliance with all Law and in accordance with the standards of Class A office buildings in Downtown Cleveland as reasonably determined by Landlord, all of the following; (a) Common Areas and other public portions of the Building, including but not limited to any lobbies, stairs, elevators, corridors and restrooms, (b) the windows and exterior walls, roofs, foundations and structure itself of the Building, (c) the fire and life safety systems, mechanical, HVAC, plumbing, gas, sewer, drainage, electrical and other utility lines and equipment servicing the Premises, Building and/or the Common Areas, and (d) all other portions of the Building (other than leased space expressly required to be maintained by a particular tenant pursuant to the terms of its lease). The cost of the foregoing shall be included in Expenses (except as otherwise prohibited by this Lease), except for the repairs due to fire and other casualties and for the repair of damages occasioned by the negligent acts or omissions of Tenant, which Tenant shall pay to Landlord in full (unless the liability for such has been waived by Section 21). Landlord shall be responsible to supply and pay for the replacement of lighting ballasts and light bulbs, and fluorescent tubes in the Building (to be included in Expenses); provided, however, Tenant shall be responsible to reimburse Landlord for the cost of the lighting ballasts, light bulbs, and fluorescent tubes replaced in the Premises. Landlord shall promptly complete all required repairs and repair any and all damage to the Premises which may result from such repairs and maintenance. Landlord shall, at its sole cost, also make all repairs to the Premises necessitated by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, Landlord's managers, contractors, employees or agents. Landlord shall make all repairs required to be made by it under this Lease within a reasonable time. Except in the event of an Emergency, Landlord shall also make all such repairs at such times and in such a manner as to reasonably minimize inconvenience to Tenant in the conduct of its business. Landlord shall not enter the Premises for the purpose of making such repairs if the same can be made on a reasonable basis without entry of the Premises. If said repairs can be made outside of Tenant's business hours without substantial additional cost to Landlord, Landlord shall do so, unless Tenant requests that they be made during business hours.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 7(a) hereof and the other provisions of this Lease, Tenant shall keep the Premises and every part thereof in good condition and repair, excluding (i) reasonable wear and tear, (ii) damage caused by Landlord or its employees, managers, agents or contractor and (iii) resulting from the default under this Lease by Landlord or its employees, managers, agents or contractor. Except as otherwise set forth in this Lease, Tenant hereby waives all rights to make repairs at the expense of Landlord or in lieu thereof to vacate the Premises except as provided by Law now or hereafter in effect. All repairs made by or on behalf of Tenant shall be made and performed in such manner as Landlord may designate, by contractors or mechanics reasonably approved by Landlord and in accordance with the rules and regulations relating thereto attached to this Lease as Exhibit "E" hereto ("Rules") and all Law. Tenant shall, within ten (10) business days after completion of the applicable portion of the work, provide Landlord with unconditional lien waivers from all contractors, subcontractors and materialmen providing services or furnishing material to or for Tenant in connection with such repairs. Landlord has no obligation and has made no promise to alter, remodel, improve, repair, decorate or paint the Premises or any part thereof and no representations respecting the condition of the Premises or the Building have been made by Landlord to Tenant except as expressly set forth in this Lease. Subject to the waiver of liability in Section 21, Tenant will pay for any repairs to the Premises or the Building made necessary by any negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its employees or persons permitted in the Building by Tenant, unless the same are covered by the insurance carried or required to be carried by Landlord hereunder.

8. IMPROVEMENTS AND ALTERATIONS

(a) As used in this Lease, the term "Landlord's Work" shall refer to the improvements set forth on Exhibit "C" attached hereto and made a part hereof, which are intended to provide Tenant with a turn-key build-out inclusive of the restrooms and the base fire suppression equipment on the floors on which the Premises are situated (provided, however, that Tenant shall be responsible for the distribution of the fire suppression equipment). Landlord shall cause Landlord's Work to be constructed substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications theretofore prepared by Landlord's Architect. All of Landlord's Work (if plans and specs are necessary) shall be performed by Landlord in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by Landlord and subject to Tenant's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Landlord shall revise such plans and specifications as reasonably required in order to obtain Tenant's approval. Subject to the provisions of Section 8(b)(ii) below, all of Landlord's Work shall be performed by Landlord at Landlord's sole cost and expense. Landlord shall complete all of Landlord's Work in a first-class and good and workmanlike manner, using good materials, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications (if necessary), and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the federal, state and municipal governments, or any department or division thereof, including, without limitation, building codes.

(b) (i) (A) Based upon the mutually approved space plan prepared by Landlord's Architect, Landlord's Architect shall prepare plans and specifications for Landlord's Work. Landlord shall submit such plans and specifications to Tenant for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If Tenant shall fail to supply such approval or comments in writing within ten (10) business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such plans and specifications. The cost of the space plan and the cost of such final plans and specifications shall be paid by Landlord but shall be charged against the Tenant Allowance (as defined below). To the extent the plans and specifications are identified in Exhibit "C" attached hereto, the plans and specifications have been approved in advance by Landlord.

(B) Upon approval of such plans and specifications by Tenant, Landlord shall obtain at least three (3) competitive bids (where reasonably available) for all major trades (including, but not limited to, HVAC and electrical) constituting Landlord's Work. Tenant may add bidders to the bid list. Such bids shall be submitted to Tenant prior to the award of the contract to which the same relate. The work shall be awarded to the low bidder, provided it is a responsible party (and reasonably acceptable to Landlord and Tenant), its bid is complete and Landlord has no other reasonable objection to it. Based upon such competitive bids, Landlord shall submit the cost of Landlord's Work to Tenant, for Tenant's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. In the event Tenant does not approve or submit comments to such costs to Landlord within ten (10) business days after receipt thereof, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved such costs. If Tenant does not approve such plans and specifications and/or costs, Landlord and Tenant shall cooperate in order to revise the plans and specifications in a manner acceptable to the parties. Landlord's Work shall be performed on a so-called "open book" basis, with Tenant having the right to audit all of Landlord's records relating to the cost of such work.

(ii) (A) Landlord shall complete the Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications ("Plans") up to a cost of [] per rentable square foot of the Premises (the "Tenant Allowance"). Tenant shall pay all costs in excess of the Tenant Allowance within thirty (30) days after the later to occur of (i) receipt by Tenant of an invoice therefor, and (ii) the Commencement Date; provide, however, if Tenant disputes any such costs in excess of the Tenant Allowance, Tenant may hold back the disputed costs in an amount not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the Tenant Allowance pursuant to this subsection. If the cost of so completing the Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications is less than the Tenant Allowance, at Tenant's election, Tenant may utilize all or a portion of such excess for the cost of the improvements to the Premises made by Tenant and its furniture, furnishings, trade fixtures and equipment to be installed in the Premises and/or applied as a credit against Rent first becoming due hereunder.

(B) In computing Landlord's costs of completing the Premises, Landlord shall receive a fee of two percent (2%) for profit, and its actual overhead and administrative costs.

(iii) Landlord shall diligently prosecute Landlord's Work to completion without interruption or delay, in a first-class and good and workmanlike manner, using good materials, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the federal, state and municipal governments, or any department or division thereof, including, without limitation, building codes. Landlord, at Landlord's expense, shall procure all building and other permits, approvals and inspections necessary for performing Landlord's Work pursuant to the approved plans and specifications, the cost of which shall be charged against the Tenant Allowance.

(iv) Landlord has designated Bedrock Management Services LLC as its representative who shall have general responsibility for the supervision, management and completion of Landlord's Work, and Tenant may direct to it all inquiries regarding Landlord's Work and the scheduling of Landlord's Work and Tenant's inspections thereof, and Tenant's installation of its fixtures, equipment and other improvements, and Tenant's occupancy of the Premises.

(v) Tenant shall have the right to designate a representative who shall have the right (but not the obligation) to attend all construction meetings, to inspect the performance of Landlord's Work and to notify Landlord in writing if said performance does not conform to the approved plans and specifications. If there is a disagreement as to whether such performance substantially conforms to the approved plans and specifications which cannot be resolved by the parties within three (3) days after Landlord's receipt of such notice, then such matter shall be submitted to the Landlord's Architect, and its decision shall be controlling.

(vi) In the event Tenant desires to have improvements installed in the Premises in addition to or in lieu of the improvements provided for in the approved plans and specifications, Tenant shall so advise Landlord and submit to Landlord complete plans and specifications for such improvements. Tenant shall immediately cause such plans and specifications to be revised in order to comply with Landlord's reasonable comments to such plans and specifications. Tenant shall be responsible for all costs associated with such changes. Upon approval of such plans and specifications by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall advise Tenant of the cost of constructing and installing such improvements, and upon approval of such costs by Tenant, Landlord will commence construction and installation of such improvements; provided, however, that Tenant may revise such plans in order to reduce such costs, subject to Landlord's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(vii) During the construction of Landlord's Work, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a schedule for the completion of the remainder of Landlord's Work and such other information as Tenant may reasonably request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant if it fails to meet such schedule.

deemed Substantially Completed when Landlord has completed its work, delivered the Premises to Tenant, and the Premises is in such condition to only require completion of details of construction and mechanical adjustments which do not materially interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and Landlord has delivered to Tenant Landlord's Architect's certificate of substantial completion and a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy issued by the applicable governmental entity. If a temporary certificate of occupancy has been issued, Landlord shall diligently complete the items necessary in order to obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy and obtain the same. The date Landlord delivers the Premises to Tenant in accordance with this subsection is referred to as the "Delivery Date."

(B) For purposes hereof, "Tenant Delay" shall mean any incremental delay in Landlord's performance of Landlord's Work that occurs as the result of (i) any change by Tenant to the space plan after submission thereof to Landlord and/or the approved plans and specifications for such work; (ii) any delay in such work caused by the installation of Tenant's fixtures in the Premises or the performance of any other work by Tenant at the Premises; and (iii) Tenant specifying any materials or equipment which are not readily available in the market and require long-lead time to obtain. Upon the occurrence of any event that Landlord contends is a Tenant Delay, Landlord shall promptly deliver notice to Tenant thereof, together with Landlord's reasonable estimate of the expected delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a delay shall only be considered a Tenant Delay if such delay causes an incremental delay in the completion of the Tenant Improvements. For example, if Landlord is delayed by the unavailability of certain materials and Tenant causes a delay while Landlord is delayed by such unavailability of materials so that no further actual incremental delay is caused by Tenant, such delay by Tenant shall not constitute a "Tenant Delay" hereunder. In the event of any Tenant Delays, the Premises shall be deemed to have been completed on the date Landlord and Tenant reasonably determine the Premises would have been so completed but for such Tenant Delays.

(ix) If any dispute shall arise as to whether Landlord has so completed the Premises on the date of such completion, the matter shall be submitted to Landlord's Architect for its determination and its decision shall be binding upon the parties.

(x) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Tenant shall have the right prior to the Commencement Date to submit a so-called punch list of incomplete or defective items in Landlord's Work and Landlord shall promptly remedy all such items. If any dispute shall arise between the parties as to such list, such matter shall be submitted to Landlord's Architect for determination and its decision shall be binding upon the parties.

(xi) Whenever matters are submitted to Landlord's Architect for determination pursuant to the terms of this Lease, the fee of Landlord's Architect shall be charged against the Tenant Allowance.

(c) Landlord guarantees all work performed by or for Landlord in connection with the completion of the Premises against defective workmanship and materials for the period of one (1) year from the substantial completion thereof. Thereafter, Landlord will cooperate with Tenant in enforcing the warranties of workmanship and materials which Landlord received with respect to such construction to the extent that the repair thereof is Tenant's responsibility hereunder.

(d) (i) Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements without the prior written consent of Landlord. Any such alterations, additions or improvements (except movable furniture and trade fixtures) shall at once become a part of the realty and belong to Landlord. The same shall be made by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant shall upon demand by Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, forthwith remove any alterations, additions or improvements.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8(d)(i) or (e) to the contrary, Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to non-material, nonstructural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises and Landlord will not unreasonably withhold its consent to any material non-structural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises and/or to any structural alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises, provided notice is first given in writing by Tenant to Landlord and written approval by Landlord is required for any alteration, addition or improvement that would materially affect any mechanical or electrical system. For purposes of this Section 8(d), demising walls, but not interior office walls, are deemed structural.

(iii) Landlord acknowledges that Tenant's furniture, trade fixtures, business equipment and personalty shall not be deemed alterations, additions or improvements which become Landlord's property pursuant to Section 8(d).

(e) Any repairs made pursuant to Section 7(b) hereof or alterations and improvements made pursuant to this Section 8 by Tenant as required and permitted hereunder shall be made and performed (i) as Landlord may designate on a reasonable basis, (ii) in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations of Landlord and governmental authorities having jurisdiction, (iii) in the case of new construction in keeping with plans and specifications theretofore having been approved in advance by Landlord, (iv) using mechanics and contractors having been approved by Landlord which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall do all such work affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof, and (v) in a reasonable fashion to minimize noise, litter and/or odors resulting therefrom. The work performed by Landlord affecting the structural portions of the Building and the mechanical and electrical systems thereof pursuant to subsection 8(e)(iv) shall be at reasonable and competitive cost. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable costs of third party review of Tenant's proposed structural alterations or those to the mechanical or electrical systems.

9. LIENS

Tenant shall keep the Premises free from any liens arising out of any work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Tenant. In the event that Tenant shall not, within thirty (30) days following receipt of notice of the imposition of any such lien, cause the same to be released of record by payment or posting of a proper bond, Landlord shall have, in addition to all other remedies provided herein and by Law, the right to cause the same to be released by such means as it shall reasonably deem proper, including payment of the claim giving rise to such lien. All such sums paid by Landlord and all expenses incurred by it in connection therewith shall be deemed additional rent and shall be payable by Tenant on demand with interest at the Interest Rate.

10. USE OF PREMISES

(a) The Premises are leased to Tenant for the use set forth in Section 1(m) hereof and for no other purpose whatsoever. Tenant agrees that it will use the Premises in such manner as not to injure, annoy, interfere with or infringe on the rights of other tenants or use or allow the Premises to be used for any improper, immoral or unlawful purpose or to permit unpleasant odors to be emitted therefrom. Tenant agrees to comply with Laws and comply with all requirements of Landlord's insurance policies applicable to Tenant's particular use of the Premises (to the extent Tenant is notified in writing of such requirements and such policy allows for use of the Premises for Tenant's Use) now or hereafter in force. Without limiting the foregoing, if any Law shall require alterations or modifications of the Premises (a "Code Modification"), such Code Modification shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of Tenant, except the following, which shall be Landlord's responsibility (the cost of which may be included in Expenses unless otherwise prohibited by the terms of this Lease): (i) requirements of structural or building system changes not related to or affected by improvements made by or for Tenant or not necessitated by Tenant's act, and (ii) upgrades, retrofits, or improvements to the Premises, such as fire, life safety, accessibility (ADA) or seismic upgrades mandated by any Laws, unless necessitated by (1) Tenant's particular and unique use of the Premises (rather than general office use) or (2) any Alteration made to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant.

(b) Tenant shall not commit or suffer the commission of any waste, overload any floor of the Premises beyond the load limit reasonably established by Landlord or permit any explosives to enter the Building. Tenant shall not do or permit anything to be done on or about the Premises or bring or keep anything therein which will in any way increase the fire insurance premium upon the Building. Tenant shall not use any portion of the Premises for the preparation, sale (not including vending machines) or consumption of food by the public. Tenant shall have the right to contest, without cost to Landlord, the validity or application of any Law required to be complied with by Tenant and may postpone compliance therewith, provided such contest does not subject Landlord to criminal prosecution for noncompliance therewith and, further, provided, that Tenant promptly pays all fines, penalties and other costs and interest thereon imposed upon Landlord as a result of such noncompliance.

(c) During the Term of this Lease, Landlord shall not execute a lease (or affirmatively grant its consent to a sublease or assignment of a lease) which grants a tenant or occupant the right to use any portion any portion of the Building to be used or occupied for a use which would be inconsistent with maintaining a highly respected public image for the Building, including, without limitation, any of the "Prohibited Uses," described on Exhibit "I" hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the above provision shall not apply to a current occupant or tenant of the Building who is operating under its current use clause or trade name as of the date of this Lease, provided, however, Landlord shall not grant, consent or amend any existing lease or occupancy agreement in a manner which causes such lease or occupancy agreement to be inconsistent with the terms of this Section. Tenant agrees not to use, or permit to be used any portion of, the Premises for any of the "Prohibited Uses" or "Exclusive Uses" described on Exhibit "I" hereto.

(d) During the Term of this Lease, without the prior written consent of Tenant, which may be withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord (i) shall not execute a lease (or affirmatively grant its consent to a sublease or assignment of a lease) which grants a tenant or occupant the right to use any portion of the Building (other than the Premises) to any of the following entities, and (ii) shall not itself display in the Common Areas materials from, or execute an agreement which grants the right to displays in the Common Areas by the following entities (each an "Excluded User") or displaying the following messages: residential mortgage lender or residential mortgage broker, real estate broker or title insurance company other than Title Source, Inc.; National Basketball Association team other than the Cleveland Cavaliers; casino other than Horseshoe Cleveland, Horseshoe Cincinnati, Horseshoe Baltimore, Greektown Detroit, ThistleDown Racino or Turfway Park; graphic company other than Fathead; ticketing company other than Veritix; Alarm Company other than Protect America; online educational institutions (other than Northcentral University) such as University of Phoenix and Kaplan; luxury lifestyle magazines other than the Robb Report; tourism advertisements for cities other than Detroit or Cleveland, states other than Michigan or Ohio or countries other than the United States or advertisements portraying any of the foregoing in a negative manner; political messages of any kind; anything of an indecent or pornographic nature; or Minnesota-based law firms representing plaintiffs. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the above provision shall not apply to a current occupant or tenant of the Building who is operating under its current use clause or trade name as of the date of this Lease, provided, however, Landlord shall not grant, consent or amend any existing lease or occupancy agreement in a manner which causes such lease or occupancy agreement to be inconsistent with the terms of this Section.

From a HVAC perspective, the Premises shall meet the specifications set forth on Exhibit "H" hereto ("Building Design Criteria"). Any changes to the HVAC system require approval of Landlord and shall be at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Landlord's approval of HVAC changes shall not constitute Landlord's representation that the HVAC system as modified will meet the specifications set forth in the Building Design Criteria. Similarly, changes to the configuration of the Premises or Tenant's use of, and level of occupancy in, the Premises may affect Landlord's ability to deliver HVAC meeting the specifications of the Building Design Criteria. Landlord shall make HVAC services available to Tenant at all times beyond Normal Business Hours promptly upon written request (which may be by email) from Tenant. Tenant shall pay as additional rent the cost of providing all heating, ventilating and air conditioning, to the Premises during hours requested by Tenant outside Normal Business Hours, such additional rent to be in an amount equal to Fifty and 00/100ths Dollars ($50.00) per hour per floor for heat and air conditioning. Tenant agrees to abide by all regulations and requirements which Landlord may reasonably prescribe for the proper functioning and protection of the HVAC system and Landlord shall not be required to provide additional ventilating and air conditioning to the Premises as herein provided if Tenant is utilizing excessive heat generating equipment within the Premises or if the Premises are occupied by a number of persons in excess of the design criteria of the HVAC system.

If Landlord fails to remedy the service issues within sixty (60) days after notice from Tenant, then Tenant has the right to engage its own janitorial service provider to serve the Premises. In such event the cost of the janitorial services for the Premises shall be removed from both the Base Expense and future Expenses. (iv) Landlord agrees to furnish to the Building, subject to the Rules, elevator service on a 24/7/365 basis. (v) Landlord will cause electricity to be furnished to the Premises for normal office use on a 24/7/365 basis and in accordance with the standard on Exhibit "H".

(vi) Landlord shall provide and maintain all fire suppression and other life safety systems required by Law (subject to Tenant's maintenance obligations for such systems in its Premises).

(vii) Landlord shall have the exterior windows of the Building professionally washed at least twice each calendar year.

(viii) Provided it does not impact the functionality of the Building and can be accomplished in a manner which would not impact any future improvements, Tenant shall have the right to have Landlord install, at Tenant's expense, HVAC equipment as Tenant shall determine to be necessary or desirable, including, without limitation, additional rooftop HVAC units.

(ix) Landlord shall have no liability, and Tenant shall not be entitled to any abatement or reduction of rental except as provided in Section 11(a)(x) hereof, by reason of Landlord's failure to furnish any services (including electricity) when such failure is caused by breakage, repairs, strikes, lockouts, labor disturbances or labor disputes, or by any other cause, similar or dissimilar, beyond the reasonable control of Landlord. Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to diligently restore any services provided by Landlord hereunder which are disrupted.

(x) Except as otherwise provided in this Lease, Landlord shall not be in default hereunder or be liable for any damages directly or indirectly resulting from, nor shall the rental herein reserved be abated by reason of: (A) the installation, use or interruption of use of any equipment in connection with the furnishing of any of the foregoing services, (B) failure to furnish or delay in furnishing any such services when such failure or delay is caused by any condition beyond the reasonable control of Landlord or by the making of necessary repairs or improvements to the Premises or to the Building, or (C) any limitation, curtailment, rationing or restriction on use of water, electricity, steam, gas or any other form of energy serving the Premises or the Building. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts diligently to remedy any interruption in the furnishing of such services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any interruption of utilities or services shall continue for more than three (3) consecutive days as a result of the negligence or willful act of Landlord (or its employees, managers, agents or contractors) and Tenant is prevented from using the Premises or any portion thereof in the same manner as Tenant was using the Premises prior to such interruption, then all Basic Rental and additional rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion of the Premises shall be abated for the period beginning as of the commencement of such interruption and continuing until full use of such portion of the Premises is restored to Tenant.

At the request of Landlord, if applicable, Tenant shall execute any and all applications for electric service or other forms required by the public utility company supplying electricity to the Building for the installation of a meter to measure the electricity consumed by Tenant. Landlord may elect to purchase electricity in bulk for the Building and furnish the Premises with electricity. Tenant shall pay the charge for electricity monthly as and when invoiced therefor to said public utility company or Landlord, as the case may be. If Landlord has elected to purchase electricity in bulk for the Building, electricity shall be charged to Tenant at the secondary rates which Tenant would pay as a direct customer of the utility company providing service to Landlord.

(c) Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall make arrangements directly with the telephone company for telephone service in the Premises. Tenant shall pay for all telephone service, including, without limitation, the cost of installing wires, cables and telephone outlets for such service as and when billed for the same.

(d) Landlord shall provide HVAC without additional charge to Tenant during Normal Business Hours.

Landlord shall provide building access to all employees and vendors of Tenant and Tenant's sublessees (collectively, "Cardholders") twenty-four (24) hours per day, three hundred sixty-five (365) days per year. Landlord shall, at no cost to Tenant, provide Tenant with access cards for each of Tenant's employees. Landlord shall replace lost access cards, at the expense of Tenant, for a charge of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per card. Cardholders shall not be required to sign in at the security desk or elsewhere in the Common Areas provided the Cardholders have a Tenant or Building management issued identification access card.

(g) Intentionally omitted.

(h) Tenant agrees, if Landlord directs, to keep the lights on or allow Landlord to cause the lights to be kept on, at Tenant's cost and expense, in the perimeter offices in the Demised Premises during non-business and holiday evening hours (the "Perimeter Office Lighting Agreement"); provided, however, to the extent that Landlord or a Landlord related or affiliated entity occupies perimeter space in the Building for business purposes and is not illuminating said exterior offices during such non-business hours, then Tenant's obligations under this Section shall be suspended during such period of time of non-illumination. While the Perimeter Office Lighting Agreement is in full force and effect, Tenant shall not provide any contrary direction to the janitorial service or other contractors (and shall advise those that occupy the Premises of the Perimeter Office Lighting Agreement).

(i) During the Term of this Lease, Landlord may maintain a concierge desk in the Building lobby adjacent to the front entrance of the Building or at such other Building lobby location as Landlord shall reasonably determine. Tenant may also staff the concierge desk. Landlord shall give Tenant written notice not less than thirty (30) days prior to commencing any such relocation or reconfiguration of the concierge desk. If Tenant elects to staff the concierge desk, it may do so, but such staffing of the concierge desk by Tenant shall be at the sole cost and expense of Tenant and shall be subject to coordination with Landlord's use and operation of the concierge desk.

(j) Tenant shall not cause or permit the use, generation, storage or disposal in or about the Premises or the Building of any Hazardous Materials (as hereinafter defined) unless Tenant shall have received Landlord's prior written consent, which Landlord may withhold or at any time revoke in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, without Landlord's approval or consent, Tenant may utilize typical amounts of such Hazardous Materials typically utilized in offices in accordance with Law. Tenant shall defend, indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all losses, costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities and claims arising from any violations of applicable Law by Tenant relating to Hazardous Materials that hereinafter become located in, on or under the Building as a result of the act or omission of Tenant, its agents, employees and contractors and shall assume full responsibility and cost to remedy such violations to a standard which is applicable to commercial use, For purposes hereof, "Hazardous Materials" shall mean any toxic or hazardous waste or substance (including, without limitation, asbestos and petroleum products) which is regulated by applicable Law. Landlord shall defend, indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from and against any and all losses, costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities and claims arising from (i) Hazardous Materials existing on, at, in or under the Building as of the Commencement Date in violation of Law, or (ii) violations by Landlord (or its employees, managers, agents or contractors) of applicable Law relating to Hazardous Materials. The terms of this Section 11(j) shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

Should Tenant's installation of such items in the Closets exceed the applicable levels in the Building Design Criteria, Tenant shall, at its expense, as provided in and subject to the provisions of this Lease, pull electricity from Tenant's panel to support such equipment and add any necessary cooling equipment. Any cooling equipment installed by Tenant in such telecommunication closet(s) shall be deemed supplemental equipment. Landlord may leave in the Closets life safety equipment related to the operation of a multi-tenant commercial building. In addition to the other items that are to be connected to the existing UPS circuit as provided in this Lease, Tenant may only connect the following items located exclusively in the Closets to the existing UPS: network gear and security gear (collectively, "Gear"). Landlord may, at all reasonable times, verify that the only items located in the Closets which are connected to the existing UPS are the Gear and if Tenant has items other than the Gear and located in the Closets connected to the existing UPS, Landlord notifies Tenant that Tenant has items other than the Gear and located in the Closets connected to the existing UPS, Tenant fails to remove the items other than the Gear and located in the Closets connected to the existing UPS and Landlord has otherwise properly maintained the existing UPS, Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for damages if the existing UPS does not function properly.

12. RULES AND REGULATIONS

Tenant agrees to abide by all Rules and to all reasonable additions and modifications thereto made by Landlord. These regulations are imposed for the cleanliness, good appearance, proper maintenance, good order, and proper enjoyment of the Building by all tenants and their clients, customers and employees. The modifications to the Rules shall be consistent with the operation of Class A office building in Downtown Cleveland and shall be enforced on a nondiscriminatory basis. To the extent the Rules conflict with the terms of this Lease, the terms of this Lease shall govern.

13. TAXES

Tenant agrees to pay before delinquency any and all taxes levied or assessed and which become payable during the term hereof upon Tenant's equipment, furniture, fixtures and other personal property located in the Premises.

Tenant shall, in addition to and at the same time as making the payments of rental hereunder, pay Landlord the amount of any rental, excise, sales or transaction privilege tax now or hereafter imposed or levied upon the rent hereunder or Landlord's receipt of rental hereunder, but, excepting Landlord's income taxes of general applicability.

14. FIRE OR CASUALTY

(a) If the Building, the Premises or access to them shall be partially or totally damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (each, a "Casualty") and if this Lease is not terminated as provided below, then Landlord shall repair and restore the Premises and the portions of the Building servicing the Premises to substantially their condition prior to such fire or other casualty (the "Required Restoration Work") with reasonable dispatch and diligently prosecute such repair and restoration to completion. In no event shall Landlord be required to repair or replace Tenant's leasehold improvements, merchandise, trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment or other personal property.

(b) If all or part of the Premises shall be rendered Untenantable (as hereafter defined) by reason of a Casualty, the Basic Rental and all additional rent attributable to the Premises or portion thereof which is Untenantable shall be abated for the period from the date of the Casualty to the earlier of (i) the date which is ninety (90) days after the Premises or such portion thereof are no longer Untenantable or (ii) the date Tenant reoccupies such portion of the Premises for the ordinary conduct of business (in which case the Basic Rental and the additional rent allocable to such reoccupied portion shall be payable by Tenant from the date of such occupancy). "Untenantable" means that Tenant shall be unable to occupy and shall not be occupying the Premises or the applicable portion thereof for the conduct of business ordinarily conducted in the Premises as a result of the Casualty.

(c) If by reason of a Casualty (i) the Building shall be totally damaged or destroyed, or (ii) the Building shall be so damaged or destroyed (whether or not the Premises are damaged or destroyed) that repair or restoration shall require more than two hundred seventy (270) days after commencement of restoration and/or if the Casualty is not insured under the insurance Landlord is required to carry or carries hereunder and Landlord has not agreed to provide any shortfall in proceeds, then in any such case Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease by notice given to the other party within thirty (30) days after Landlord receives or should have received the estimate (as defined in Section 14(d) below) and Tenant shall have no restoration obligations with respect to the Premises.

(d) (i) Within sixty (60) days after the date of any Casualty, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant an estimate prepared by a reputable third party disinterested contractor selected by Landlord and reasonably approved by Tenant setting forth such contractor's estimate as to the time reasonably required to perform the Required Restoration Work; provided, that if Landlord shall fail to deliver the estimate within twenty (20) days after Landlord's receipt of written notice that Landlord has failed to provide the estimate, Tenant may designate a contractor (subject to Landlord's reasonable approval thereof; provided, that if Landlord fails to approve or disapprove any contractor designated by Tenant within ten (10) days after the giving of notice by Tenant, such contractor shall be deemed to be approved by Landlord) to prepare the estimate (the contractor designated by either Landlord or Tenant pursuant to this sentence is called the "Contractor" and the estimate prepared by the Contractor is called the "estimate").

(ii) In the event according to the estimate, the Premises cannot be restored to tenantable condition within a period of two hundred seventy (270) days after commencement of restoration, then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice ("Casualty Termination Notice") to Landlord within thirty (30) days following Tenant's receipt of the estimate. In addition, if Landlord has not completed such restoration within (a) two hundred seventy (270) days after commencement of restoration, and if Landlord does not complete such restoration within thirty (30) days after notice from Tenant of such failure to complete such restoration, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease at any time thereafter and prior to the completion of such restoration by written notice to Landlord, or (b) twelve (12) months after the Casualty, and if Landlord does not complete such restoration within thirty (30) days after notice from Tenant of such failure to complete such restoration, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease at any time after the expiration of such twelve (12) month period and prior to the completion of such restoration by written notice to Landlord

(iii) If Tenant gives a Casualty Termination Notice pursuant to this Section 14, this Lease shall terminate on the thirtieth (30^{th}) day after such notice is given by Tenant or such longer time period (not to exceed two hundred seventy (270) days) as specified in such Casualty Termination Notice and Tenant shall vacate the Premises and surrender the same to Landlord in accordance with the terms of this Lease; provided, that Tenant shall have no restoration obligations with respect to portions of the Premises rendered Untenantable by such Casualty. Upon any such termination of this Lease, Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any and all liability thereafter accruing hereunder, and any Rent paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant within thirty (30) days after termination of the Lease.

(iv) Time is of the essence with respect to all of the time periods set forth in this Section 14(d).

(e) (i) Landlord and Tenant shall reasonably cooperate with each other in connection with the performance by Landlord of the Required Restoration Work and the repair or replacement by Tenant of Tenant's Property (as hereinafter defined), provided that Tenant shall not unreasonably interfere with the Required Restoration Work and such entry by Tenant shall be at its sole risk. Prior to the substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work, Landlord shall, to the extent appropriate in accordance with good construction practices, provide Tenant and Tenant's contractor, subcontractors and materialmen access to the Premises to repair or replace Tenant's Property (but not to occupy the same for the conduct of business).

(ii) Such access by Tenant shall be deemed to be subject to all of the applicable provisions of this Lease, except that there shall be no obligation on the part of Tenant solely because of such access to pay any Rent with respect to the affected portion of the Premises for any period prior to substantial completion of the Required Restoration Work.

15. EMINENT DOMAIN

(a) If the whole or any substantial part of the Building shall be taken by any public authority under the power of eminent domain, then the Term of this Lease shall cease on the part so taken on the date possession of that part shall be required for public use, and any Rent paid in advance of such date shall be refunded to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall each have the right to terminate this Lease upon written notice to the other, which notice shall be delivered within thirty (30) days following the date notice is received of such taking. In the event that neither party hereto shall terminate this Lease, Landlord shall, to the extent the proceeds of the condemnation award (other than any proceeds awarded for the value of any land taken) are available, make all necessary repairs to the Building to render and restore the same to a complete architectural unit and Tenant shall continue in possession of the portion of the Premises not taken under the power of eminent domain, under the same terms and conditions as are herein provided, except that the Rent reserved herein, Tenant's Share pursuant to Section 1 (k) hereof shall be reduced in direct proportion to the amount of the Premises so taken. All damages awarded for such taking shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, whether such damages be awarded as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or to the fee of the Premises; provided, however, Landlord shall not be entitled to any portion of the award made to Tenant for loss of business, removal and reinstallation of trade fixtures or moving expenses.

(b) In the event of a partial taking which does not result in the termination of this Lease, Landlord shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute the restoration of the Premises as nearly as practicable to a complete unit of like quality and character as existed just prior to such taking. In such event, the Rent shall abate during the period of demolition and restoration to the extent the Premises are unusable, provided that Landlord receives an award therefor.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 15 hereof, Tenant shall have the right to make a claim against the condemning authority (but not Landlord) for compensation for the unamortized cost of Tenant's improvements, alterations or additions made to the Premises at Tenant's cost, such amortization to be computed on a straight line basis over the Term of this Lease.

16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

(a) Except as expressly permitted pursuant to this Section 16, Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, assign, encumber or hypothecate this Lease or any interest herein or sublet the Premises or any part thereof, or permit the use of the Premises by any party other than Tenant. Landlord agrees that it will not unreasonably withhold, delay or condition its consent to a proposed assignment or subletting. In determining reasonableness, Landlord may take into consideration all relevant factors surrounding the proposed assignment or subletting, including, without limitation: (i) the business reputation of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its officers, directors and owners; (ii) the nature of the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its effect on the other tenants of the Building; and (iii) restrictions, if any, contained in leases affecting the Building. Except as provided in Section 16(d) hereof, this Lease shall not, nor shall any interest herein, be assignable as to the interest of Tenant by operation of law without the consent of Landlord.

(b) If at any time or from time to time during the Term of this Lease, Tenant desires to sublet all or any part of the Premises or to assign this Lease, Tenant shall give notice to Landlord setting forth the proposed subtenant or assignee, the terms of the proposed subletting and the space so proposed to be sublet or the terms of the proposed assignment, as the case may be. Except with respect to an assignment under (d) below, if the proposed assignment is to a non-affiliate of Tenant and covers the entire Premises for the entire remaining Term of this Lease, Landlord may terminate this Lease, such termination right to be exercised by notice from Landlord to Tenant within ten (10) days after Tenant's notice to Landlord of the proposed assignment, provided that such termination notice by Landlord shall not be effective if, within ten (10) days after Landlord's termination notice to Tenant, Tenant gives notice to Landlord retracting the proposed assignment notice.

(c) In the event Tenant sublets a portion of the Premises, or assigns this Lease, fifty percent (50%) of the sums or other economic consideration received by Tenant as a result of such subletting or assignment whether denominated rentals or otherwise, under the sublease or assignment, which, after subtracting the reasonable costs incurred by Tenant in connection with such subletting or assignment, which exceeds in the aggregate, the total sums which Tenant is obligated to pay Landlord under this Lease (prorated to reflect obligations allocable to that portion of the Premises subject to such sublease) shall be payable to Landlord as additional rental under this Lease without affecting or reducing any other obligation of Tenant hereunder.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16(a) hereof, without Landlord's approval or consent and without notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sublease all or any portion of the Premises or assign this Lease to (i) any affiliate of Tenant and any affiliate of any of the beneficial owners of Tenant or its parents or subsidiaries at any level, (ii) any entity in which Tenant has a controlling interest or (iii) any successor entity, whether by merger, consolidation or combination or otherwise or (iv) any entity that purchases all or substantially all of Tenant's assets or (v) Quicken Loans Inc. or any of its affiliates. For purposes hereof an affiliate is any entity which controls Tenant, is controlled by Tenant or is under common control with Tenant, or in which Tenant or any affiliate of Tenant or any beneficial owner of Tenant or its parent or subsidiaries has any interest or is an officer, director, shareholder, partner, member or manager or at any other level. Further, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16(a) hereof, without Landlord's approval or consent but with notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sublease all or any portion of the Premises to a subtenant provided such subtenant is not (1) an occupant of the Building or an affiliate of any such occupant and at such time Landlord has comparable space available for Lease to such proposed subtenant or (2) a person or entity with whom Landlord is then, or has been within the six-month period prior to the time Tenant seeks to enter into such sublease, actively and demonstrably negotiating to lease space in the Building or an affiliate of any such person or entity and at such time Landlord has comparable space available for Lease to such proposed subtenant. Tenant shall, upon written request from Landlord, provide Landlord with the names of any sublessees or assignees of Tenant. Nothing contained in this Lease provides any subtenant or assignee with any right to use the Premises for any use other than Tenant's Use as set forth in Section 1 (m). Any change in control or ownership of Tenant shall not be deemed an assignment requiring approval of Landlord.

(e) Regardless of Landlord's consent, no subletting or assignment shall release Tenant of Tenant's obligation or alter the primary liability of Tenant to pay the rental and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Tenant hereunder. The acceptance of rental by Landlord from any other person shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Landlord of any provision hereof. Consent to one assignment or subletting shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. Upon an Event of Default, Landlord may proceed directly against Tenant without the necessity of exhausting remedies against such assignee or successor. Landlord may consent to subsequent assignments or subletting of this Lease or amendments or modifications to this Lease with assignees of Tenant, upon first notifying Tenant, or any successor of Tenant, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto and such action shall not relieve Tenant of liability under this Lease.

17. ACCESS

(a) Subject to applicable Law and the other limitations set forth in this Lease, Landlord and its agents shall have the right following not less than seventy-two (72) hours written notice (except in an Emergency (as hereinafter defined) to enter the Premises at all reasonable times for the purpose of examining or inspecting the same, showing the same to prospective purchasers or tenants of the Building (as to prospective tenants, only in the final nine (9) months of the Term of this Lease), and as necessary to perform its obligations hereunder. Landlord's access rights shall be subject to the following: (i) promptly finishing any work for which it entered; (ii) complying with all of Tenant's security and safety regulations which do not unreasonably limit or impact the purpose for which such entry was or is to be undertaken; (iii) intentionally omitted; (iv) if Tenant so elects, Landlord shall be accompanied by a representative of Tenant during any such entry; (v) Landlord shall not have the right to open or inspect confidential files or safes (so long as designated in writing as confidential in advance by Tenant), and Landlord shall not disclose to others any confidential information regarding Tenant's business (to the extent designated as confidential in advance by Tenant) learned by Landlord during any such entry into the Premises except (1) in litigation between Landlord and Tenant, (2) if required by court order or subpoena, or (3) if such confidential information otherwise become generally available to the public; and (vi) Landlord shall promptly repair any damage caused to the Premises by Landlord or anyone accessing the Premises under this Section. Landlord may erect, use and maintain temporary scaffolding, pipes, conduits and other necessary structures in and through the Premises where reasonably required by the character of the work performed, provided that the business of Tenant shall not be interfered with unreasonably. If Tenant shall not personally be present to open and permit an entry into the Premises at any time when such entry by Landlord is necessary or permitted hereunder, Landlord may enter by means of a master key or, in emergencies, may enter forcibly, without liability to Tenant. In exercising its rights pursuant to this Section 17 hereof, Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts not to unreasonably interfere with Tenant's operations in the Premises and to minimize any such interference.

(b) Intentionally deleted.

(c) As used herein, the term "Emergency" shall mean an event requiring immediate action, e.g., danger to health, life or property, fire, water seepage, sewer backup or cessation or interruption of any facility servicing the like.

(d) Landlord shall at all times have and retain a key with which to unlock all of the doors in, on or about the Premises (excluding Tenant's vaults, safes and similar areas designated in writing by Tenant in advance and executive offices and other areas containing confidential information as reasonably determined by Tenant); and Landlord shall have the right to use any and all means which Landlord may deem proper to open said doors in any Emergency in order to obtain entry to the Premises, and any entry to the Premises obtained by Landlord by any of said means, or otherwise, shall not under any circumstances be construed or deemed to be a forcible or unlawful entry into or a detainer of the Premises or an eviction, actual or constructive, of Tenant from the Premises, or any portion thereof. Damage to the Premises resulting from Landlord's entry shall be repaired at Landlord's expense

This Lease is and shall be subject and subordinate, at all times, to (a) the lien of any mortgage or mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the Building, and to all advances made or hereafter to be made upon the security thereof and to the interest thereon, and to any agreements at any time made modifying, supplementing, extending or replacing any such mortgages, and (b) any ground or underlying lease which may now or hereafter affect the Building, including all amendments, renewals, modifications, consolidation, replacements and extensions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at the request of the holder of any of the aforesaid mortgage or mortgages or the lessor under the aforesaid ground or underlying lease, this Lease may be made prior and superior to such mortgage or mortgages and/or such ground or underlying lease. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, if the Building is subject to mortgage on the date of this Lease, then within thirty (30) days after the execution and delivery of this Lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement for Tenant's benefit from the current mortgagee(s) of the Building in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant. In addition, as a condition precedent to Tenant subordinating this Lease to any future mortgage or ground lease, Landlord shall obtain a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement from such mortgagee or ground lessor in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to Tenant. Tenant agrees to execute a commercially reasonable subordination, nondisturbance and attornment agreement.

At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall execute and deliver such further instruments as may be reasonably required to implement the provisions of this Section

18. Failure of Tenant to execute any of the instruments specified in Sections 18 and 41 within twenty (20) days of written request to do so by Landlord shall constitute an Event of Default for which no cure period shall be provided to Tenant; provided, however, in the event Tenant has provided commercially reasonable modifications to such instruments at least three (3) days prior to the expiration of such twenty (20) day period and Landlord, lender or prospective purchaser has failed to respond to such comments in good faith and/or Tenant and such parties are negotiating such documents, then Tenant's failure to so execute all such instruments shall not constitute an Event of Default unless and until Tenant fails to execute all such instruments within ten (10) days after such documents have been fully negotiated.

19. NON-LIABILITY

(a) Except for the negligence or wrongful acts of Landlord, its agents, contractors and employees, Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to Tenant for any loss or damage that may be occasioned by or through the acts or omissions of persons occupying adjoining premises or any part of the premises adjacent to or connected with the Premises or any part of the Building or for any loss or damage resulting to Tenant or his property from burst, stopped or leaking water, gas, sewer or steam pipes, or for any damage or loss of property within the Premises from any cause whatsoever or for any loss or damage resulting to Tenant or its property from theft or a failure of the security system in the Building, and then only if such damage or loss is not covered by Tenant's insurance, and no such occurrence shall be deemed to be an actual or constructive eviction from the Premises or result in an abatement of rental.

(b) In the event of any sale or transfer (including any transfer by operation of law) of the Premises, Landlord (and any subsequent owner of the Premises making such a transfer) shall be relieved from any and all obligations and liabilities under this Lease, except such obligations and liabilities as shall have arisen during Landlord's (or such subsequent owner's) respective period of ownership, provided that the transferee assumes in writing all of the obligations of Landlord under this Lease.

(c) If Landlord shall fail to perform any covenant, term or condition of this Lease upon Landlord's part to be performed, and if as a consequence of such default, Tenant shall recover a money judgment against Landlord, such judgment shall be satisfied only out of the proceeds of sale received upon execution of such judgment and levied thereon against the right, title and interest of Landlord in the Building and out of rents, insurance proceeds, condemnation award or other income from the Building receivable by Landlord, or out of the consideration received by Landlord from the sale or other disposition of all or any part of Landlord's right, title and interest in the Building, and neither Landlord nor any of its partners, members, managers or shareholders shall be liable for any deficiency.

20. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD

(a) Tenant hereby waives all claims against Landlord for damage to any property or injury or death of any person in or upon the Premises arising at any time, except to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, managers, agents or contractors. Subject to the waiver of liability under Section 21, Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold Landlord harmless from any damage to any property or injury to or death of any person arising in or on the Premises, except to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, managers, agents or contractors. All property insurance procured by the Tenant shall contain an endorsement waiving all rights of subrogation against Landlord, the Landlord's Agent(s), Landlord's property manager, and beneficiaries. The foregoing indemnity obligation of Tenant shall include reasonable attorneys' fees, investigation costs and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Landlord from the first notice that any claim or demand is to be made or may be made with respect to matters covered by the indemnity. The provisions of this Section 20 shall survive the termination of this Lease with respect to any damage, injury or death occurring prior to such termination.

(b) Tenant shall, during the Term of this Lease, procure and maintain or cause to be procured and maintained:

(i) business auto liability insurance with a limit of not less than $1,000,000 each accident. Such insurance shall cover liability arising out of any auto (including owned, hired, and non-owned auto).

(ii) workers compensation and employers liability insurance. The employers liability limit shall not be less than $1,000,000 each accident for bodily injury by accident, or $1,000,000 each employee for bodily injury by disease. This limit may be satisfied in conjunction with the umbrella;

(iii) commercial general liability (CGL) insurance. CGL insurance shall be written using an occurrence form and shall cover liability arising from premises operations, independent contractors, product completed operations, personal injury, bodily injury, property damage, and advertising injury, with an insurance company acceptable by the owner. Tenant shall maintain CGL insurance with a limit of not less than $1,000,000 each occurrence, and $2,000,000 million aggregate, including a per location endorsement. Tenant shall also maintain an umbrella policy with a $5,000,000 general aggregate limit that shall follow form over the primary "per location" endorsement;

(iv) "Special Cause of Loss", including theft and leakage from fire protective equipment, broad form property insurance coverage for Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment and personal property at the Premises for the full replacement value;

(v) business interruption insurance.

(c) The insurance under (i) and (iii), shall name Landlord, Landlord's property managers (currently Bedrock Management Services), and all other parties required by the Landlord, as "additional insureds", shall specifically include the liability assumed hereunder by Tenant, and shall provide that it is primary insurance with respect to the Premises and not excess over or contributory with any other valid, existing and applicable insurance in force for or on behalf of Landlord. A copy of the Additional Insured endorsement shall be provided to the Landlord indicating that written notice for cancellation or nonrenewal shall be provided in writing to the Additional Insureds.

(d) Tenant shall maintain the coverage set forth in this Lease and is prohibited from canceling or reducing coverage without first giving Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of such proposed action. In the event Tenant does cancel or reduce coverage, Tenant shall provide evidence of such cancellation or reduction to Landlord within thirty (30) days in the form of an insurance carrier endorsement.

21. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION

Landlord and Tenant waive all claims against the other for, and each shall each be released from any liability resulting from, damage by fire or casualty (irrespective of the cause of such fire or casualty) upon the express proviso that if at any time their respective insurers shall refuse to permit waivers of subrogation, Landlord or Tenant may in each instance revoke said waiver of subrogation effective thirty (30) days from the date of written notice to the other unless within such thirty (30) day period, the other is able to secure and furnish (without additional expense, unless paid by the procuring party) insurance in other companies with such waiver of subrogation.

22. ATTORNEY'S FEES

In the event of any legal action or proceeding brought by either party against the other arising out of this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees incurred in such action and such amount shall be included in any judgment rendered in such proceeding.

23. WAIVER

(a) No waiver of any provision of this Lease or of any breach hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other provision hereof, or of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. Consent to or approval of any act requiring consent or approval shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of consent to or approval of any subsequent act. No act or thing done by Landlord or Landlord's agents during the Term of this Lease shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, unless done in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of the keys to any employee or agent of Landlord shall not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises.

(b) Landlord and Tenant hereby waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of the parties against the other in any matter whatsoever (except for personal injury or property damage) arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of landlord and tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, or any emergency or other statutory remedy with respect thereto.

24. Intentionally Deleted

25. EVENT OF DEFAULT - TENANT

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events (each such occurrence shall be deemed an "Event of Default") shall constitute a breach of this Lease by Tenant: (i) if Tenant shall fail to pay the Basic Rental or any other sum when and as the same becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than ten (10) days after written notice thereof from Landlord; or (ii) if Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any other term hereof or of the Rules to be performed or observed by Tenant, such failure shall continue for more than thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord, and Tenant shall not within such thirty (30) day period commence with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default, or, having so commenced, shall thereafter fail or neglect to prosecute or complete with due diligence and dispatch the curing of such default and curing such default within one hundred fifty (150) days after receipt of notice of such default; (iii) if Tenant shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a petition in bankruptcy, or shall be adjudicated as insolvent or shall file a petition in any proceeding seeking any reorganization, arrangements, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any Law, or shall file an answer admitting or fail timely to contest or acquiesce in the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or any material part of its properties; (iv) if within ninety (90) days after the commencement of any proceeding against Tenant seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future statute or Law, such proceeding shall not have been dismissed, or if, within ninety (90) days after the appointment without the consent of acquiescence of Tenant, of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or of any material part of its properties, such appointment shall not have been vacated; or (v) if this Lease or any estate of Tenant hereunder shall be levied upon under any attachment or execution and such attachment or execution is not vacated within sixty (60) days.

(b) Any time an uncured Event of Default by Tenant as set forth in Section 25(a) hereof exists, Landlord, at its option, may terminate this Lease upon and by giving written notice of termination to Tenant as required by Law (currently, at least thirty (30) days prior written notice), or Landlord, without terminating this Lease, may at any time after such default or breach, without notice or demand additional to that provided in Section 25(a) hereof (other than notice and/or demand required by applicable Law), and without limiting Landlord in the exercise of any other right or remedy which Landlord may have by reason of such default or breach (other than the aforesaid right of termination) exercise any one or more of the remedies hereinafter provided in this Section 25(b), or as otherwise provided by Law, all of such remedies (whether provided herein or by Law) being cumulative and not exclusive:

(c) Landlord shall have the right to recover the rental and all other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease as they become due (unless and until Landlord has terminated this Lease and all other damages incurred by Landlord as a result of an Event of Default.) Landlord may enter the Premises either by summary proceedings or by any other lawful proceeding (without thereby incurring any liability to Tenant and without such entry being constituted an eviction of Tenant or termination of this Lease) and take possession of the Premises excluding all personal property of every kind on the Premises not owned by Landlord, and Landlord shall at any time and from time to time relet the Premises or any part thereof for the account of Tenant, for such terms, upon such conditions and at such rental as Landlord may in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment deem proper. In the event of such reletting, (i) Landlord shall receive and collect the Rent therefrom and shall first apply such Rent against such expenses as Landlord may have incurred in recovering possession of the Premises, placing the same in good order and condition, altering or repairing the same for reletting, and such other expenses, commissions and charges, including attorney's fees and real estate commissions, which Landlord may have paid or reasonably incurred in connection with such repossession and reletting, and then shall apply such Rent against the Rent as it comes due under this Lease, and (ii) Landlord may execute any lease in connection with such reletting in Landlord's name, as Landlord may see fit, and the tenant of such reletting shall be under no obligation to see to the application by Landlord of any Rent collected by Landlord.

(d) Landlord shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate its damages in the event of an uncured Event of Default, but Landlord shall not be required to favor the Premises if there are other vacant comparable premises in the Building.

(e) Upon a termination of this Lease by Landlord pursuant to Section 25(b) hereof, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant, as final and liquidated damages as it relates to the nonpayment of Rent, the aggregate of: (i) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid rental which had been earned at the time of termination; (ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rental which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the then reasonable rental value of the Premises during such period; (iii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rental for the balance of the Term of this Lease after the time of award exceeds the reasonable rental value of the Premises for such period; and (iv) Landlord's other actual damages (if any), proximately caused by the Event of Default. The "worth at the time of award" of the amounts referred to in clauses (a) and (b) above is computed from the date such Rent was due or would have been due, as the case may be, by allowing interest at the rate of two percent (2%) in excess of the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal or, if a higher rate is legally permissible, at the highest rate legally permitted. The "worth at the time of award" of the amount referred to in clause (c) above is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago at the time of award, plus one percent (1%). Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 25(e) to the contrary, Tenant shall continue to pay the difference between the rental herein reserved over the then reasonable rental value of the Premises for the remainder of the stated Term on a monthly basis until such time, if at all, that such amounts are in arrears for in excess of sixty (60) days, in which event Landlord shall have the right to accelerate such amounts in accordance with Section 25(e)(iii) hereof.

(f) All covenants, terms and conditions to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be at its sole cost and expense and without any abatement of rental except as expressly provided herein. If Tenant shall fail to pay any sum of money, other than Basic Rental, required to be paid by it hereunder or shall fail to perform any other act on its part to be performed hereunder and such failure shall continue for thirty (30) days after notice thereof by Landlord, and such failure results in an Event of Default, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated so to do, and without waiving or releasing Tenant from any obligations of Tenant, make any such payment or perform any such other act on Tenant's part to be made or performed as in this Lease provided. All sums so paid by Landlord and all necessary and reasonable incidental costs shall be deemed additional rental hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord on demand, and Landlord shall have (in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord) the same rights and remedies in the event of the nonpayment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment thereof by Tenant as in the case of default by Tenant in the payment of Basic Rental.

It is hereby agreed that in the event of Tenant holding over after the termination of this Lease, by lapse of time or otherwise, thereafter the tenancy shall be from month to month in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord a monthly occupancy charge equal to (i) for the first sixty (60) days of holdover, one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year, and (ii) for any holdover beyond said sixty (60) days, one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the monthly Basic Rental payable hereunder for the last lease year (plus all other charges payable by Tenant under this Lease) such occupancy charges to be payable from the expiration or termination of this Lease until the end of the calendar month in which the Premises are delivered to Landlord in the condition required herein. If Landlord shall enter into a new lease or amend an existing lease for premises in the Building for all or a portion of the Premises at the end of the Term of this Lease, Landlord shall so notify Tenant and if Tenant fails to vacate and deliver all or such portion of the Premises to Landlord within sixty (60) days after receipt of such notice (but in no event prior to the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease), Tenant shall be responsible for any and all damages actually and reasonably incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's failure to so vacate and deliver the Premises or such portion thereof (including the loss of such lease or amendment).

27. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents have made any representations or promises with respect to the physical condition of the Building, the land upon which the Building is erected, or the Premises, the rents, leases, expenses of operation or any other matter or thing affecting or related to the Premises except as herein expressly set forth and no rights, easements or licenses are acquired by Tenant by implication or otherwise, except as expressly set forth in the provisions of this Lease. This Lease shall constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the lease of the Premises; all prior agreements between the parties with respect to the lease of the Premises, whether written or oral, are merged herein and shall be of no force or effect. This Lease cannot be changed, modified or discharged orally but only by an agreement in writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, modification or discharge is sought.

28. NOTICES

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 33 shall not operate to excuse either party from the prompt payment of the Rent or any other payments required by the terms of this Lease.

34. REMOVAL OF TENANT'S PROPERTY

"Tenant's Property" as used herein shall mean all of Tenant's movable fixtures and movable partitions (even if attached), telephone and telecommunication wiring and cabling and related equipment, computer systems, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, and other items of personal property located in the Premises. On or before the Expiration Date, any earlier date of termination of this Lease or the date that Tenant vacates from the Premises, whichever shall first occur, Tenant agrees to remove, at its sole cost and expense, all of Tenant's Property (unless Landlord consents in writing to Tenant's request to allow the Tenant's Property or any portion thereof to remain in the Premises). Tenant shall restore and repair (which shall include, without limitation, repairing any holes in the walls or tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing-up any slab penetrations in the Premises, all in a good and workmanlike manner), or promptly reimburse Landlord for the reasonable and actual cost of restoring and repairing (including, without limitation, repairing any such holes in the walls and tears in the wallpaper and repainting or re-wallpapering such walls and closing any such slab penetrations) any and all damage done to the Premises or the Building by the removal of Tenant's Property or by the removal of leasehold improvements, alterations or other physical additions made by Tenant to the Premises which Landlord has directed or otherwise permitted Tenant to remove from the Premises. Tenant shall notify Landlord of its intention to affect the closing of any such slab penetrations at least thirty (30) days prior to commencing such closings. If Tenant fails to remove any of Tenant's Property by the Expiration Date or any sooner date of termination of the Lease or, if Tenant fails to remove any Alterations made by Tenant to the Premises which are required to be removed pursuant to Section 8 of this Lease, Landlord shall have the right, on the fifth (5^{th}) day after Landlord's delivery of written notice to Tenant to deem such property abandoned by Tenant and to remove, store, sell, discard or otherwise deal with or dispose of such abandoned property in a commercially reasonable manner. Tenant shall be liable for all reasonable and actual costs of such disposition of Tenant's abandoned property and the repair and restoration of the Premises, and Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant in any respect regarding such property of Tenant. The provisions of this Section 34 shall survive the expiration or any earlier termination of this Lease. Upon request to Tenant, Landlord agrees to execute a reasonable and customary agreement with Tenant's lender granting access to the Premises at any time this Lease is in effect to recover Tenant's Property,

36. NO OPTION

The execution of this Lease by Tenant and the delivery of the same to Landlord shall not constitute a reservation of or option for the Premises or an agreement by Landlord to enter into a lease with Tenant and this Lease shall become effective only if and when Landlord's executes and delivers the same to Tenant; provided, however, that the execution and delivery of this Lease by Tenant to Landlord shall constitute an irrevocable offer by Tenant to lease the Premises on the terms and conditions herein contained, which offer may not be withdrawn or revoked by Tenant for thirty (30) days after execution and delivery of this Lease to Landlord.

37. ANTENNA

(a) Tenant has the right to install a satellite dish(es), electronic transmitter(s) devices for similar purposes and the like (collectively, the "Antenna") on the roof of the Building and the right to install such Antenna on the other exterior surfaces of the Building in locations reasonably acceptable to Landlord to provide wireless services to the Premises, and to wire all such Antenna to the Premises in compliance with all applicable local zoning ordinances and regulations and in accordance with plans and specifications approved by Landlord and in a location approved by Landlord. In reviewing Tenant's Antenna plans Landlord may reasonably consider, among other things, material interference of Tenant's Antenna(s) with existing antenna and communication equipment on the roof of the Building. The cost of installation and maintenance thereof, and the cost of any repairs to the roof which are necessitated by the installation, repair and/or removal of the Antenna(s) shall be borne solely by Tenant. Upon the termination of this Lease, Tenant shall remove any Antenna(s) and repair any damage to the roof occasioned by such removal. Tenant shall also be permitted to run cable, fiber optic networks, and other systems and equipment throughout the Building in order to connect the various areas within the Building occupied from time to time by Tenant, and in order to connect such areas to outside telephone, cable, optical network and other providers in locations and pursuant to plans and specifications approved by Landlord. Further, Tenant shall be permitted to install throughout the Premises, access and security systems for Tenant's exclusive use (e.g., swipe card, combination lock, security cameras or otherwise) which do not capture areas outside of the Premises, subject to Landloard's prior written approval thereof.

(b) Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all costs, loss, expense or liability of any kind whatsoever arising out of the installation, use and/or removal by Tenant of the Antenna. Tenant shall maintain a comprehensive general liability insurance policy, including contractual liability, as set forth in Section 20(b) hereof, so long as the Antenna is under construction, in place and/or being removed.

(c) Tenant shall work exclusively with Landlord's roofing contractor relating to the installation and/or removal of the Antenna and the roof penetration so as not to violate any requirements or invalidate Landlord's roof guaranty.

(d) Wherever Landlord's approval is required pursuant to this Section 37, such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

38. INDEMNIFICATION OF TENANT; LANDLORD'S INSURANCE

(a) Landlord hereby waives all claims against Tenant for damages to any property or injury or death of any person in, upon or about the Building (other than the Premises) arising at any time except to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its employees, managers, agents or contractors, and, subject to the waiver of liability under Section 21, Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from any damage to any property or injury to or death of any person (i) arising in, on or about the Building (other than the Premises), except to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its employees, managers, agents or contractors, or (ii) arising in or on the Premises and resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents, managers or contractors. All insurance procured by the Landlord shall contain an endorsement waiving all rights of subrogation against Tenant. The foregoing indemnity obligation of Landlord shall include reasonable attorneys' fees, investigation costs and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Tenant from the first notice that any claim or demand is to be made or may be made with respect to matters covered by the indemnity. The provisions of this Section 38(a) shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease with respect to any damage, injury or death occurring prior to such expiration or termination.

(b) Landlord shall, during the Term, procure and maintain or cause to be procured and maintained:

(i) commercial general liability (CGL) insurance. CGL insurance shall be written using an occurrence form and shall cover liability arising from premises operations, independent contractors, product completed operations, and personal injury and advertising injury, with an insurance company acceptable by the owner. Landlord shall maintain CGL insurance with a limit of not less than $1,000,000 each occurrence, and $2,000,000 million aggregate The foregoing insurance may be provided by a combination of Landlord's primary and umbrella policies.

(ii) "Special Cause of Loss", including theft and leakage from fire protective equipment, form property insurance in respect of the Building, excluding Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment and personal property, for the full replacement value of the Building;

(iii) Loss of rental income insurance.

together with such other insurance as Landlord, in its reasonable discretion, elects to obtain. Subject to and without limiting the foregoing, insurance effected by Landlord shall be in amounts which Landlord shall from time to time determine reasonable and sufficient, shall be subject to such deductibles and exclusions which Landlord may deem reasonable and shall otherwise be on such terms and conditions as Landlord shall from time to time determine reasonable and sufficient. If requested by Tenant, certificates of insurance for such insurance shall be delivered by Landlord to Tenant on or before the Date of this Lease and at least annually thereafter. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to cause each such policy to contain an endorsement prohibiting cancellation or reduction of coverage without first giving Tenant at least thirty (30) prior days' written notice. Tenant shall be named as an additional insured on the commercial general liability insurance required to be maintained by the Landlord under this Lease with respect to the Common Areas of the Building only. Landlord's liability insurance shall be primary with respect to the Common Areas.

39. LANDLORD'S DEFAULT

(a) Landlord shall not be deemed in default under the terms of this Lease unless (i) Landlord shall fail to pay any amount payable hereunder when and as such sum becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Tenant or (ii) Landlord shall fail to perform its obligations under this Lease for more than thirty (30) days after written notice of such default shall have been received by Landlord (except in the event of an Emergency, in which case no notice or cure period shall be required), provided that if the curing of such default reasonably requires in excess of thirty (30) days (except in the case of an Emergency), Landlord shall not be deemed in default hereunder if it shall commence to cure such default within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure, then Tenant shall have its rights and remedies provided at law and in equity and pursuant to the provisions of this Lease. In addition and notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary contained in this Lease, if any such default materially and adversely affects Tenant's use of the Premises then, Tenant shall have the right but not the obligation to cure or correct said default provided Tenant shall give Landlord five (5) days' prior written notice of its intention to cure or correct the Landlord default (and for defaults for which Landlord is provided a five (5) day cure period, Landlord has failed to cure said default within such five (5) day cure period) except in an Emergency when only reasonable notice will be provided.

(b) In connection with the exercise of its rights under this Section, Tenant shall use reasonable efforts not to materially and adversely affect other tenants' occupancy of the Building and Tenant may only engage the Landlord's standard contractors to perform any work involving the Critical Building Systems (as hereinafter defined). If Tenant elects to cure as aforesaid, Tenant (i) shall, to the extent feasible and practical, as determined by Tenant, coordinate the exercise of any self-help remedies with Landlord, and (ii) may demand payment from Landlord of those reasonable and necessary costs paid by Tenant to effect such cure or correction. Landlord shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of Tenant's request (together with reasonable back-up), reimburse to Tenant all such reasonable and necessary costs actually incurred by Tenant in connection with such cure or correction. If Landlord fails to pay such costs or any other sums due Tenant under this Lease to Tenant within such thirty (30) day period, Tenant may deduct such costs from the next due installments of Basic Rental and all other sums payable under this Lease. Tenant shall be responsible for any loss or damage suffered by Landlord and caused by the negligence of Tenant or Tenant's contractors in performing any such work pursuant to this Section 39. As used in this Section 39, the term "Critical Building Systems" shall mean the fire and life safety systems, Building management systems, roofing and the tie in of fire and life safety systems of the Premises into the Building systems.

(c) The provisions of this Section 39 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

43. SIGNS

Tenant shall be entitled to have its name on the directory in the lobby of the Building (if any directory shall exist), as well as adjacent to the main door to the Premises, in both instances, at Landlord's cost and expense so long as all such signage is Building standard.

OFFICE LEASE

This Office Lease, which includes the preceding Summary attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the Office Lease and Summary to be known sometimes collectively hereafter as the "Lease"), dated as of the date set forth in Section 1 of the Summary, is made by and between AGP ONE NORTH CENTRAL OWNER, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Landlord") and QUICKEN LOANS, INC., a Michigan corporation ("Tenant").

ARTICLE 1
BUILDING COMPLEX, BUILDING, PREMISES, RIGHT OF FIRST OFFER AND CONTINGENCY

1.1 Building Complex, Building and Premises. Upon and subject to the terms set forth in this Lease, Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord the premises set forth in Section 6.1 of the Summary (the "Premises"), which Premises are located in the Building defined in Section 6.2 of the Summary. The outline of the Premises is set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto. The Building, which is located within an office building complex commonly known as One North Central, is located at One North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85004-4418. The Building, the parking facilities (which currently consist of a parking structure located within such complex (the "Building Complex Parking Area"), any outside plaza areas, land and other improvements surrounding the Building and the land upon which all of the foregoing are situated, are herein sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Building Complex" or "Real Property." Tenant further acknowledges that Landlord has made no representation or warranty regarding the condition of the Real Property except as specifically set forth in this Lease or the Tenant Work Letter. Tenant is hereby granted the right to the nonexclusive use of the common corridors and hallways, stairwells, elevators, restrooms and other public or common areas located on the Real Property; provided, however, that the manner in which such public and common areas are maintained and operated shall be at the sole but reasonable discretion of Landlord and the use thereof shall be subject to the rules, regulations and restrictions attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Rules and Regulations"), as the same may be modified by Landlord from time to time, but which Rules and Regulations shall apply equally to all tenants of the Building Complex, be enforced on a non-discriminatory basis and Landlord reserves the right to make alterations or additions to or to change the location of elements of the Building Complex and the common areas thereof, provided that, subject to Force Majeure events, at all times, Tenant shall have reasonable means of ingress and egress to and from the Building Complex, the Premises and the parking areas, and use of all of the parking spaces. Subject to (i) of the terms and conditions of this Lease, including the Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit B, (ii) Force Majeure events (as defined in Section 25.14 below), (iii) Landlord's commercially reasonable security requirements, and (iv) the requirements of applicable laws, Tenant shall have access to the Premises twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week throughout the Lease Term.

1.2 Condition of Premises. Except as expressly set forth in this Lease and in the Tenant Work Letter attached hereto as Exhibit D, Landlord shall not be obligated to provide or pay for any improvements, work or services related to the improvement, remodeling or refurbishment of the Premises, and Tenant shall accept the Premises in its "AS IS" condition on the Lease Commencement Date; provided, however, in the event that, as of the date of execution of this Lease, the Base, Shell and Core of the Building (as defined in Section 1 of Exhibit D), in its condition existing as of such date without regard to any of the Tenant Improvements, alterations or other improvements existing in the Premises as of the date hereof and/or to be constructed or installed by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises or Tenant's use of the Premises, and based solely on an unoccupied basis, (A) does not comply with applicable laws, including, without limitation, seismic, fire and life safety codes, and the ADA, in effect as of the date hereof, or (B) contains latent defects, then Landlord shall be responsible, at its sole cost and expense which shall not be included in Operating Expenses (except as otherwise permitted in (and not excluded in) Section 4.2 hereof), for correcting any such non-compliance to the extent required by applicable laws, and/or correcting any such latent defects as soon as reasonably possible after receiving notice thereof from Tenant. Tenant also acknowledges that Landlord has made no representation or warranty regarding the condition of the Premises or the Building Complex, except as specifically set forth above or elsewhere in this Lease and the Tenant Work Letter.

1.3 Rentable Square Feet. The rentable square feet of the Premises are approximately as set forth in Section 6.1 of the Summary. For purposes hereof, the "rentable square feet" of the Premises and the Building and other buildings in the Building Complex has been calculated by Landlord pursuant to the Standard Method for Measuring Floor Area in Office Buildings, ANSI Z65.1-2017 ("BOMA"), as modified for the Building Complex pursuant to Landlord's standard rentable area measurements for the Building Complex, to include, among other calculations, a portion of the common areas and service areas of the Building and other buildings in the Building Complex. Landlord's space planner/architect shall remeasure the rentable square feet of the Premises in accordance with the provisions of this Section 1.3 and the results thereof shall be presented to Tenant in writing. Tenant's space planner/architect may review Landlord's space planner/architect's determination of the number of rentable square feet and usable square feet of the Premises and Tenant may, within fifteen (15) business days after Tenant's receipt of Landlord's space planner/architect's written determination, object to such determination by written notice to Landlord. Tenant's failure to deliver written notice of such objection within said fifteen (15) business day period shall be deemed to constitute Tenant's acceptance of Landlord's space planner/architect's determination. If Tenant objects to such determination, Landlord's space planner/architect and Tenant's space planner/architect shall promptly meet and attempt to agree upon the rentable and usable square footage of the Premises. If Landlord's space planner/architect and Tenant's space planner/architect cannot agree on the rentable and useable square footage of the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant's objection thereto, Landlord and Tenant shall mutually select an independent third party space measurement professional to field measure the Premises under the BOMA standard. Such third party independent measurement professional's determination shall be conclusive and binding on Landlord and Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall each pay one-half ($^1/_2$) of the fees and expenses of the independent third party space measurement professional. If the Lease Term commences prior to such final determination, Landlord's determination shall be utilized until a final determination is made, whereupon an appropriate adjustment, if necessary, shall be made retroactively, and Landlord shall make appropriate payment (if applicable) to Tenant.

1.4 Right of First Offer. []

1.5 Procedure for Offer. Landlord shall notify Tenant (the "First Offer Notice") from time to time when Landlord determines that Landlord shall commence the marketing of any First Offer Space because such space shall become available for lease to third parties, where no holder of a Superior Right desires to lease such space. The First Offer Notice shall describe the space so offered to Tenant and shall set forth Landlord's proposed material economic terms and conditions applicable to Tenant's lease of such space (collectively, the "Economic Terms"), including the proposed term of lease and the proposed rent payable for the First Offer Space. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord's obligation to deliver the First Offer Notice shall not apply during the last nine (9) months of the initial Term unless Tenant has delivered an Option Notice to Landlord pursuant to Section 2.2.2 below.

Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, in the event Tenant exercises a right of first offer during the first twenty-nine (29) months of the Lease Term, then the Economic Terms of any such first offer space shall be on the same terms and conditions as the initial Premises leased to Tenant hereunder except as follows: (i) the initial annual Base Rent shall be [] per rentable square foot with [] annual increases, (ii) Tenant shall receive a prorated improvement allowance in an amount equal to the product of (i) [], and (ii) a fraction (the "Proration Fraction"), the numerator of which is equal to the number of full calendar months remaining in the initial Lease Term as of commencement of the term of the First Offer Space and the denominator of which equals one hundred twenty eight (128), (iii) Tenant shall be entitled to abated Phase Two Base Rent for such First Offer Space for those remaining months during the Lease Term which Tenant is entitled to Base Rent abatement for the Phase Two Premises (but Tenant shall not be entitled to Discount Rent), and (iv) the Termination Dates pertaining to the First Termination Option, Second Termination Option and Third Termination Option shall be deemed extended by twenty-four (24) months for each exercised right of first offer.

Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, in the event Tenant exercises a right of first offer during months thirty (30) through and including month forty-eight (48) of the Lease Term, then the Economic Terms of any such first offer space shall be the fair market value for any such First Offer Space based upon comparable space in Class A buildings in the downtown Phoenix area ("Comparable Buildings") (taking into consideration all standard market concessions such as, rent credits and improvement allowances) based upon Landlord's good faith and commercially reasonable determination; provided, however that the Termination Date pertaining to the First Termination Option and the Second Termination Option shall each be deemed extended (or further extended in the event such date were extended as provided above) by forty-eight (48) months and the Termination Dates for the Third Termination Option shall be deemed extended (or further extended in the event such date was extended as provided above) by thirty-six (36) months.

1.5.1 Procedure for Acceptance. If Tenant wishes to exercise Tenant's right of first offer with respect to the space described in the First Offer Notice, then within ten (10) business days after delivery of the First Offer Notice to Tenant, Tenant shall deliver an unconditional irrevocable notice to Landlord of Tenant's exercise of its right of first offer with respect to the entire space described in the First Offer Notice, and the Economic Terms shall be as set forth in the First Offer Notice. If Tenant does not unconditionally exercise its right of first offer within the ten (10) business day period, then Landlord shall be free to lease the space described in the First Offer Notice to anyone to whom Landlord desires on any terms Landlord desires and Tenant's right of first offer shall terminate as to the First Offer Space described in the First Offer Notice provided that, if Landlord does not lease the First Offer Space on the same terms on which it was offered to Tenant, within ninety (90) days of the end of the ten (10) business day period for Tenant to respond to the First Offer Notice, the First Office Space shall be re-offered to Tenant as provided herein when Landlord elects to provide a First Offer Notice to Tenant as provided in Section 1.4.1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Tenant must elect to exercise its right of first offer, if at all, with respect to all of the space offered by Landlord to Tenant at any particular time, and Tenant may not elect to lease only a portion thereof.

1.5.2 Construction of First Offer Space. Tenant shall take the First Offer Space in its "as-is" condition (except as otherwise provided in the Economic Terms), and Tenant shall be entitled to construct improvements in the First Offer Space in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions of Article 8 of this Lease.

1.5.3 Lease of First Offer Space. If Tenant timely and properly exercises Tenant's right to lease the First Offer Space as set forth herein, Landlord and Tenant shall execute an amendment adding such First Offer Space to this Lease upon the same non-economic terms and conditions as applicable to the initial Premises, and the economic terms and conditions as provided in this Section 1.4. Tenant's Share shall be increased to take into account the addition of any such First Offer Space to the Premises and Tenant's parking passes shall be increased (based on 2/1,000 rentable square feet in the First Offer Space), and parking passes shall be issued for reserved and unreserved spaces in the same ratio as provided initially in Section 12 of the Summary. Tenant shall commence payment of rent for the First Offer Space and the Term of the First Offer Space shall commence one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of delivery of such space to Tenant. The Lease Term for the First Offer Space shall be as provided in the Economic Terms; provided, however that the term of Tenant's leasing of any First Offer Space based on Tenant's exercise of its right of first offer during the first twenty-nine (29) months of the Lease Term shall be coterminous with the Term of this Lease. The First Offer Space shall be delivered to Tenant broom clean, emptied of all furniture and personal property of any prior occupant and with all electrical, plumbing and mechanical systems in good working order.

1.5.4 No Defaults. The rights contained in this Section 1.4 shall be personal to the Tenant originally named in this Lease (the "Original Tenant") and any Affiliate Assignee (as defined in Section 14.7) and may only be exercised by the Original Tenant or such Affiliate Assignee (and not any other assignee or sublessee of the Original Tenant's interest (or Affiliate Assignee's interest) in this Lease) if the Original Tenant or such Affiliate Assignee occupies the entire Premises as of the date of the First Offer Notice. Tenant shall not have the right to lease First Offer Space as provided in this Section 1.4 if, as of the date of the First Offer Notice, or, at Landlord's option, as of the scheduled date of delivery of such First Offer Space to Tenant, Tenant is in default under this Lease beyond any applicable notice and cure period.

1.5.5 Remedy. In any action by Tenant for a breach by Landlord of its obligations under this Section 1.4 Landlord shall be liable for direct damages only (i.e., no consequential and punitive damages). Tenant may also seek a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, injunction, specific performance or other remedy, equitable or otherwise, aside from direct damages resulting from said breach by Landlord.

1.6 Existing Tenant. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the Premises is, as of the date hereof, leased and occupied by the Arizona Summit Law School, LLC (the "Existing Tenant") pursuant to a lease by and between Landlord and Existing Tenant ("Summit Lease").

1.7 Offer of Lease. Landlord shall sign and deliver this Lease to Tenant within ten (10) calendar days after (i) Tenant submits an executed, mutually approved version of this Lease to Landlord and (ii) Landlord has received a lease amendment to the Summit Lease executed by Existing Tenant pursuant to which Existing Tenant agrees to vacate, surrender exclusive possession of the Premises covered in this Lease to Landlord when and as required by Landlord. If Landlord fails to sign and deliver this Lease to Tenant within such ten (10) calendar day period, then Tenant may thereafter withdraw the signed Lease delivered to Landlord and the offer to lease the Premises created thereby upon delivery of twenty four (24) hours written notice ("Withdrawal Notice") to Landlord, whereupon the Lease previously delivered by Tenant to Landlord shall be null and void and of no further force or effect; Tenant shall not have the right to withdraw the signed Lease during such ten (10) day period (or such later period so long as Tenant has not delivered a Withdrawal Notice to Landlord).

LEASE TERM, OPTION TERM AND TERMINATION OPTIONS

2.1 Lease Term. The terms and provisions of this Lease shall be effective as of the Effective Date except for the provisions of this Lease relating to the payment of Rent (as defined in Section 3.1 below). The term of this Lease (the "Lease Term") shall be as set forth in Section 7.1 of the Summary (subject, however, to the terms of the Tenant Work Letter) and shall commence on the applicable Lease Commencement date set forth in Section 7 of the Summary with respect to the applicable portion of the Premises. For purposes of this Lease, the term "Lease Commencement Date" shall have the same meaning as the term "Phase One Premises Lease Commencement Date". The Lease Term shall terminate on the date (the "Lease Expiration Date") set forth in Section 7 of the Summary, unless this Lease is sooner terminated as hereinafter provided. For purposes of this Lease, the term "Lease Year" shall mean each consecutive twelve (12) month period during the Lease Term; provided, however, that the first Lease Year shall commence on the Lease Commencement Date and the last Lease Year shall end on the Lease Expiration Date. If Landlord does not deliver possession of the applicable portion of the Premises to Tenant on or before the applicable anticipated Phase One Premises Lease Commencement Date and/or Phase Two Premises Lease Commencement Date (as set forth in Section 7.3 of the Summary), then Tenant shall be entitled to receive an abatement of Base Rent, and Tenant's Share of Direct Expenses equal to one (1) day for every one (1) day of delay beyond the Phase One Premises Lease Commencement Date or Phase Two Premises Lease Commencement Date, as applicable, provided that the delay is not caused by Force Majeure events or any delays caused by Tenant. In the event Landlord does not deliver possession of the applicable portion of the Premises to Tenant on or before that date which is sixty (60) days after the anticipated Phase One Premises Lease Commencement Date and/or the applicable anticipated Phase Two Premises Lease Commencement Date, then Tenant (in lieu of the day for day abatement provided above), shall be entitled to receive an abatement of Base Rent and Tenant's Share of Direct Expenses equal to two (2) days for every one (1) day beyond such sixty (60) day period in Landlord's delivery of the applicable portion of the Premises to Tenant (subject to extension due to Tenant Delays and Force Majeure delays). At any time during the Lease Term, Landlord may deliver to Tenant an amendment to this Lease confirming the applicable Lease Commencement Date and Lease Expiration Date, in the form as set forth in Exhibit C, attached hereto, which Tenant shall execute and return to Landlord within ten (10) business days of receipt thereof. In the event that Landlord does not deliver such amendment to Tenant, the Phase One Premises Lease Commencement Date and the Phase Two Premises Lease Commencement Date shall be deemed to be the anticipated Phase One Premises Lease Commencement Date and the Phase Two Premises Lease Commencement Date set forth in Section 7.3 of the Summary. Failure of Tenant to execute and deliver such amendment shall constitute an acceptance of the Premises by Tenant as of the date set forth in the amendment signed by Landlord and such date shall, for all purposes of this Lease, be the Phase One Premises Lease Commencement Date and Phase Two Premises Lease Commencement Date (as applicable).

2.2 Option Term. Landlord hereby grants to the Original Tenant, any Affiliate Assignee and any assignee approved by Landlord pursuant to Article 14 of this Lease, the number of options to extend the Lease Term for the period of months set forth in the Summary of Basic Lease Information (the "Option Term"), which option shall be exercisable only by written notice ("Option Notice") delivered by Tenant to Landlord as provided in Section 2.2.2 below, provided that, as of the date of delivery of such notice and, at Landlord's option, as of the last day of the initial Lease Term, Tenant is not in default under this Lease after expiration of applicable cure periods. The right contained in this Section 2.2 shall be personal to the Original Tenant, any Affiliate Assignee and any assignee approved by Landlord pursuant to Article 14 of this Lease and may only be exercised by the Original Tenant, such Affiliate Assignee or such approved assignee without regard to whether the Original Tenant, any Affiliate Assignee or any approved assignee is conducting business in the Premises.

2.2.1 Option Rent. The Rent payable by Tenant during the Option Term (the "Option Rent") shall be equal to ninety-five percent (95%) of the then prevailing fair market rent for the Premises as of the commencement date of the Option Term. The then prevailing fair market rent shall be the rental rate, including all escalations, at which new, non-renewal tenants, as of the commencement of the applicable Option Term, are leasing non-sublease, non-encumbered space comparable in size, location and quality to the Premises for a comparable term, which comparable space is located in Comparable Buildings, taking into consideration only the following concessions: tenant improvements or allowances provided or to be provided for such comparable space, taking into account, and deducting the cost of the existing improvements in the Premises, and based upon the fact that the precise tenant improvements existing in the Premises are specifically suitable to Tenant.

2.2.2 Exercise of Option. The option contained in this Section 2.2 shall be exercised by Tenant, if at all, by Tenant delivering written notice ("Exercise Notice") to Landlord on or before the date which is nine (9) months prior to the expiration of the initial Lease Term, stating that Tenant is exercising its option. Failure of Tenant to deliver the Exercise Notice to Landlord on or before the date specified above shall be deemed to constitute Tenant's failure to exercise its option to extend. If Tenant timely and properly exercises its option to extend, the Lease Term shall be extended for the Option Term upon all of the terms and conditions set forth in this Lease, except that the Rent shall be determined as provided below.

2.2.3 Determination of Option Rent. In the event Tenant exercises its option to extend, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to agree in good faith upon the Option Rent. If Landlord and Tenant fail to reach agreement within thirty (30) days following Tenant's delivery of the Exercise Notice (the "Outside Agreement Date"), each party shall make a separate determination of the Base Rent, within ten (10) business days after the Outside Agreement Date, concurrently exchange such determinations and such determinations shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with Sections 2.2.3(i) through (viii) below.

(i) Landlord and Tenant shall each appoint one arbitrator who shall by profession be a real estate broker who shall have been active over the five (5) year period ending on the date of such appointment in the leasing of office space in Comparable Buildings. The determination of the arbitrators shall be limited solely to the issue of whether Landlord's or Tenant's submitted Base Rent is the closest to the actual fair market rent, as determined by the arbitrators, taking into account the requirements of this Section 2.2 of this Lease. Each such arbitrator shall be appointed within fifteen (15) business days after the applicable Outside Agreement Date.

(ii) The two (2) arbitrators so appointed shall within five (5) days of the date of the appointment of the last appointed arbitrator agree upon and appoint a third arbitrator who shall be qualified under the same criteria set forth hereinabove for qualification of the initial two (2) arbitrators.

(iii) The three (3) arbitrators shall within five (5) days of the appointment of the third arbitrator reach a decision as to whether the parties shall use Landlord's or Tenant's submitted Base Rent and shall notify Landlord and Tenant thereof.

(iv) The decision of the majority of the three (3) arbitrators shall be binding upon Landlord and Tenant.

(v) If either Landlord or Tenant fails to appoint an arbitrator within fifteen (15) business days after the applicable Outside Agreement Date, the arbitrator appointed by one of them shall reach a decision notify Landlord and Tenant thereof, and such arbitrator's decision shall be binding upon Landlord and Tenant.

(vi) If the two (2) arbitrators fail to agree upon and appoint a third arbitrator, or both parties fail to appoint an arbitrator, then the appointment of the third arbitrator or any arbitrator shall be dismissed and the Base Rent to be decided shall be forthwith submitted to arbitration under the provisions of the American Arbitration Association, but subject to the instruction set forth in this Section 2.2.

(vii) The cost of arbitration shall be paid by Landlord and Tenant equally.

(viii) In the event that the new monthly Base Rent is not established prior to end of the initial Term of this Lease, the monthly Base Rent immediately payable at the commencement of such Option Term shall be the monthly Base Rent payable in the immediately preceding month. Notwithstanding the above, once the fair market rental is determined in accordance with this Section 2.2, the parties shall settle any underpayment or overpayment on the next monthly Base Rent payment date falling not less than thirty (30) days after such determination.

2.3 Contraction/Termination Options.

2.3.1 Termination Options. Provided Tenant fully and completely satisfies each of the conditions set forth in this Section 2.3, Tenant shall have (i) the one-time option ("First Termination Option" to terminate Tenant's lease of the fifteenth (15th) floor of the Building (or the lowest full floor leased by Tenant) effective as of the forty-eighth (48th) monthly anniversary of the Lease Commencement Date only (the "First Termination Option Termination Date"), (ii) the one-time option ("Second Termination Option") to terminate Tenant's lease of either or both of the two (2) lowest contiguous full floors leased by Tenant in the Building effective as of the sixty-sixth (66th) monthly anniversary of the Lease Commencement Date (the "Second Termination Option Termination Date"), and (iii) the one-time option ("Third Termination Option") to terminate this Lease (as to the entire Premises) effective as of the ninety-second (92nd) monthly anniversary of the Lease Commencement Date only (the "Third Termination Option Termination Date"). The First Termination Option Termination Date, the Second Termination Option Termination Date and the Third Termination Option Termination Date are collectively referred to herein as the "Termination Dates." The applicable space leased by Tenant that is the subject of the applicable termination right may be referred to herein as the "Terminated Space." The Termination Dates are subject to extension as provided in Section 1.4. above.

2.3.2 Termination Exercise. In order to exercise any such Termination Option, Tenant must fully and completely satisfy each and every one of the following conditions: (i) Tenant must give Landlord written notice ("Termination Notice") of its exercise of the Termination Option, which Termination Notice must be delivered to Landlord at least twelve (12) months prior to the applicable Termination Date, (ii) at the time of the Termination Notice, Tenant shall not be in default under this Lease after expiration of applicable cure periods, and (iii) concurrently with Tenant's delivery of the Termination Notice to Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the "Termination Consideration". Within thirty (30) days after receipt of written request from Tenant, Landlord shall provide Tenant with Landlord's factually correct determination of the Termination Consideration, with substantiation of each of the components, which calculation shall be based on the requirements of Section 2.3.3 below; each day of delay beyond such thirty (30) day period in Landlord providing such determination of the Termination Consideration shall extend the date Tenant is required to provide the Termination Notice to Landlord.

2.3.3 Termination Consideration. As used herein, the "Termination Consideration" shall mean an amount equal to the sum of: (A) the unamortized portion of the brokerage commissions paid or incurred by Landlord in connection with this Lease pertaining to the applicable Terminated Space (including in connection with any First Offer Space leased by Tenant pursuant to Section 1.4 above); plus (B) the unamortized portion of the Tenant Improvement Allowance paid or provided by Landlord for the Terminated Space (and any allowance/improvement costs provided by Landlord to Tenant in connection with the First Offer Space leased by Tenant pursuant to Section 1.4 above); plus (C) the unamortized amount of the Abated Rent (as defined in Section 3.3 below) applicable to the portion of the Terminated Space; plus (D) an amount equal to two (2) months of Base Rent calculated at the rate of Thirty and 70/100 Dollars ($30.70) per rentable square foot (but calculated on a monthly basis) of the Terminated Space for Tenant's first termination right (set forth in clause (i) above) and at the rate of Thirty-Two and 10/100 Dollars ($32.10) per rentable square foot (but calculated on a monthly basis) of the Terminated Space for Tenant's second termination right (set forth in clause (ii) above) and at the rate of Thirty-Three and 50/100 Dollars ($33.50) per rentable square foot (but calculated on a monthly basis) of the Terminated Space for Tenant's third termination right (set forth in clause (iii) above). The brokerage commissions, Tenant Improvement Allowance and Abated Rent with respect to the Terminated Space leased by Tenant shall all be amortized on a straight-line basis over the scheduled initial one hundred twenty-eight (128) month Lease Term, together with interest at the rate of seven percent (7%) per annum, and the unamortized portion thereof shall be determined based upon the unexpired portion of such initial one hundred twenty-eight (128) month Lease Term as of the applicable Termination Date. The unamortized portion of the costs of any abated rent, brokerage commissions and tenant improvement costs/allowance, if any, paid for or provided by Landlord to Tenant for any First Offer Space leased by Tenant pursuant to Section 1.4 shall be amortized on a straight-line basis over the scheduled initial term of the lease of the First Offer Space, together with interest at the rate of seven percent (7%) per annum, and the unamortized portion thereof shall be determined based upon the unexpired portion of such initial lease term for such First Offer Space as of the applicable Termination Date.

2.3.4 General. If Tenant properly and timely exercises its termination options in this Section 2.3 in strict accordance with the terms hereof, this Lease (as it pertains to the applicable portion of the Terminated Space which is the subject of any such Termination Option) shall expire at midnight on the Termination Date, and Tenant shall be required to surrender the applicable portion of the Terminated Space to Landlord on or prior to the applicable Termination Date in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Lease. The termination rights set forth in this Section 2.3 is personal to the Original Tenant and any Affiliate Assignee may only be executed by the Original Tenant or such Affiliate Assignee without regard to whether Original Tenant or any Affiliate Assignee is conducting business in the Premises. Upon termination of this Lease (as it pertains to the applicable portion of the Terminated Space which is the subject of any such Termination option) pursuant to this Section 2.3, the parties shall be relieved of all further obligations under this Lease (as it pertains to the applicable portion of the Terminated Space which is the subject of any such Termination option) except for those obligations under this Lease which expressly survive the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease.

2.3.5 Nullification of Termination Rights. Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, in the event Tenant exercises any right of first offer at any time beyond the forty-eighth (48th) month anniversary of the Lease Commencement Date, then this Section 2.3 shall be null and void and of no further force or effect.

BASE RENT

3.1 Base Rent. Tenant shall pay, without notice or demand, to Landlord at the address specified in Section 8.1 of the Summary, or, at Landlord's option, such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing, in currency or a check for currency which, at the time of payment, is legal tender for private or public debts in the United States of America, base rent ("Base Rent") as set forth in Section 8 of the Summary, payable in equal monthly installments as set forth in Section 8 of the Summary in advance on or before the first day of each and every calendar month during the Lease Term, without any setoff or deduction whatsoever. If any rental payment date (including the Lease Commencement Date) falls on a day of a calendar month other than the first day of such calendar month or if any Rent payment is for a period which is shorter than one calendar month (such as during the last month of the Lease Term), the Rent for any fractional calendar month shall be the proportionate amount of a full calendar month's rental based on the proportion that the number of days in such fractional month bears to the number of days in the calendar month during which such fractional month occurs. All other payments or adjustments required to be made under the terms of this Lease that require proration on a time basis shall be prorated on the same basis. Landlord and Tenant hereby agree that it is their intent that all Base Rent, Additional Rent and other rent and charges payable to the Landlord under this Lease (hereinafter individually and collectively referred to as "Rent") shall qualify as "rents from real property" within the meaning of Section 856(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code") and the Department of the U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Regulations"). Should the Code or the Regulations, or interpretations thereof by the Internal Revenue Service contained in revenue rulings or other similar public pronouncements, be changed so that any Rent no longer so qualifies as "rent from real property" for purposes of Section 856(d) of the Code and the Regulations promulgated thereunder, such Rent shall be adjusted in such manner as the Landlord may require so that it will so qualify; provided, however, that any adjustments required pursuant to this Section 3 shall be made so as to produce the equivalent (in economic terms) Rent as payable prior to such adjustment. The parties agree to execute such further instrument as may reasonably be required by the Landlord in order to give effect to the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.

3.2 Abated Rent for Phase One Premises. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein and so long as Tenant is not in default under this Lease (beyond all applicable notice and cure periods), Landlord hereby agrees (i) to abate Tenant's obligation to pay Tenant's monthly Base Rent for the Phase One Premises for the first (1st), second (2nd), third (3rd), ninety-seventh (97th) and ninety-eighth (98th) full months of the initial Lease Term (the "Abated Phase One Rent"), (ii) to provide a Base Rent discount during months four (4) to twenty-nine (29) of the Lease Term for the Phase One Premises equal to [] (the "Discount Rent"). During such abatement period, Tenant shall still be responsible for the payment of all of its other monetary obligations under this Lease. In the event of a default by Tenant under the terms of this Lease that results in early termination pursuant to the provisions of Section 19.2 of this Lease that results in a termination of this Lease, then as a part of the recovery set forth in Article 19 of this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to the recovery of the unamortized amount of the Abated Phase One Rent that was abated under the provisions of this Section 3.2.

3.3 Abated Rent for Phase Two Premises. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary and so long as Tenant is not in default under this Lease (beyond all applicable notice and cure periods), Landlord hereby agrees to abate Tenant's obligation to pay Tenant's monthly Base Rent for the first (1st) through fifteenth (15th), ninety-seventh (97th) and ninety-eighth (98th) full months of the initial Lease Term (collectively, the "Abated Phase Two Rent"). During such abatement period, Tenant shall still be responsible for the payment of all of its other monetary obligations under this Lease. In the event of a default by Tenant under the terms of this Lease that results in early termination pursuant to the provisions of Section 19.2 of this Lease that results in a termination of this Lease, then as a part of the recovery set forth in Article 19 of this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to the recovery of the unamortized amount of the Abated Phase Two Rent that was abated under the provisions of this Section 3.3.

ADDITIONAL RENT

4.1 Additional Rent. In addition to paying the Base Rent specified in Article 3 of this Lease, Tenant shall pay as additional rent "Tenant's Share" of the annual "Direct Expenses," as those terms are defined in Sections 4.2.7 and 4.2.2 of this Lease, respectively, which are in excess of the amount of Direct Expenses applicable to the "Base Year," as that term is defined in Section 4.2.1 of this Lease.

4.2 Definitions. As used in this Article 4, the following terms shall have the meanings hereinafter set forth:

4.2.1 "Base Year" shall mean the year set forth in Section 9.1 of the Summary.

4.2.2 "Direct Expenses" shall mean "Operating Expenses" and "Tax Expenses."

4.2.3 "Expense Year" shall mean each calendar year after the Base Year in which any portion of the Lease Term falls, through and including the calendar year in which the Lease Term expires; provided, that Landlord, upon notice to Tenant, may change the Expense Year from time to time to any twelve (12) consecutive month period, and, in the event of any such change, Tenant's Share of the Direct Expenses shall be equitably adjusted for any Expense Year involved in any such change.

4.2.4 "Operating Expenses" shall mean all expenses, costs and amounts of every kind and nature which Landlord shall pay or incur during any Expense Year because of or in connection with the ownership, management, maintenance, repair, replacement, restoration or operation of the Real Property, including, without limitation, any amounts paid or incurred for: (i) all utilities costs (including all utilities supplied for the Building Complex (including, without limitation, water, sewer, electricity, telephone and HVAC), other than those utilities (if any) which are paid directly by Tenant and other tenants of the Building Complex for excess consumption and after-hours HVAC pursuant to Section 6.2 of this Lease or similar provisions in other tenant's lease); (ii) the cost of janitorial service, alarm and security service, window cleaning, and trash removal, the cost of operating, maintaining, repairing, replacing, renovating, managing and complying with conservation measures in connection with the utility systems, mechanical systems, sanitary and storm drainage systems, and escalator and any elevator systems and all other Systems and Equipment (as defined in Section 4.2.8 below), and the cost of supplies, tools, and equipment and maintenance and service contracts in connection therewith; (iii) the cost of licenses, certificates, permits and inspections and the cost of contesting the validity or applicability of any governmental enactments which may affect Operating Expenses (which cost savings shall be passed on to Tenant and for any savings for periods for which Tenant was previously billed, an appropriate credit shall be issued to Tenant), and the costs incurred in connection with the implementation and operation of a transportation system management program or similar program; (iv) the cost of insurance carried by Landlord in connection with the Real Property, in such amounts as Landlord may reasonably determine, or as may be required by any mortgagees, or the lessor of any underlying or ground lease affecting the Real Property; (v) the cost of landscaping, relamping, supplies, tools, equipment (including equipment rental agreements) and materials, and all fees, charges and other costs, including management fees (or amounts in lieu thereof but in no event shall management fees exceed five percent (5%) of the annual gross revenues of the Project), consulting fees, legal fees and accounting fees, incurred in connection with the management, operation, administration, maintenance and repair of the Real Property; (vi) the cost of parking area repair, restoration and maintenance, including, but not limited to, resurfacing, repainting, restriping, and cleaning; (vii) fees, charges and other costs of all contractors and consultants; (viii) payments under any equipment rental agreements or management agreements; (ix) wages, salaries and other compensation and benefits of all employees at or below the level of building manager (for example, maintenance employees, day porters) engaged in the operation, management, maintenance or security of the Real Property, and employer's Social Security taxes, unemployment taxes or insurance, and any other taxes which may be levied on such wages, salaries, compensation and benefits; (x) payments under any easement, license, operating agreement, declaration, restrictive covenant, or instrument pertaining to the sharing of costs by the Real Property; (xi) amortization (including the Interest Rate (as defined below)) of the cost of acquiring or the rental expense of personal property used in the maintenance, operation and repair of the Real Property; (xii) the cost of rent for Landlord's property management office for the Real Property and all utilities used in connection therewith; and (xiii) the cost of any capital alterations, capital additions, or capital improvements made to the Real Property or any portion thereof (A) which relate to the operation, repair, maintenance and replacement of all systems, equipment or facilities which serve the Real Property in the whole or in part (including replacement of wall and floor coverings, ceiling tiles and fixtures in lobbies, corridors, restrooms and other common or public areas or facilities, maintenance and replacement of curbs, walkways and parking areas, and repairs to roofs and reroofing of improvements), (B) which are intended as a labor-saving device or to effect other economies in the operation or maintenance of the Real Property, or any portion thereof, or (C) that are required under any new governmental law or regulation that is then being enforced by a federal, state or local governmental agency that is effective as to the Building after the Lease Commencement Date; provided, however, that each such permitted capital expenditure shall be amortized (including interest on the unamortized cost at the at a rate equal to the floating commercial loan rate announced from time to time by Bank of America, a national banking association, or its successor, as its prime rate, plus 2% per annum (the "Interest Rate") in effect at the time such expenditure is placed in service) over its useful life as determined by sound real estate accounting principles consistently applied. If the Building (and any additional buildings constructed in the Building Complex) are not ninety-five percent (95%) occupied during all or a portion of any Expense Year (including the Base Year), Landlord shall make an appropriate adjustment to the variable components of Operating Expenses for such Expense Year (including the Base Year) as reasonably determined by Landlord employing sound accounting and management principles, to determine the amount of Operating Expenses that would have been paid had such building(s) been ninety-five percent (95%) occupied, and the amount so determined shall be deemed to have been the amount of Operating Expenses for such Expense Year. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Article 4, when calculating Direct Expenses for the Base Year, Operating Expenses shall exclude market-wide labor-rate increases due to extraordinary circumstances, including, but not limited to, boycotts and strikes, utility rate increases due to extraordinary circumstances, including, without limitation, conservation surcharges, boycotts, embargoes or other shortages, and costs relating to capital improvements or expenditures.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of this Lease, Operating Expenses shall not, however, include: (A) except as otherwise set forth above in this Section 4.2.4, interest on debt and amortization on mortgages; (B) ground lease payments; (C) costs of leasing commissions, attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with negotiations or disputes with present or prospective tenants or other occupants of the Real Property; (D) any costs expressly excluded from Operating Expenses elsewhere in this Lease; (E) costs of any items to the extent Landlord receives reimbursement from insurance proceeds (such proceeds to be excluded from Operating Expenses in the year in which received, except that any deductible amount under any insurance policy shall be included within Operating Expenses) or from a third party; (F) tax penalties incurred as a result of Landlord's negligence, inability or unwillingness to make payments or file returns when due; (G) costs arising from Landlord's charitable or political contributions; (H)the cost or depreciation of the Building or any improvements thereon, including permit fees, license and inspection fees, and costs incurred in renovating, improving, decorating, painting or redecorating vacant tenant space or space of other tenants in the Building or broker's commissions, (I) principal payments, interest, late fees or other financing charges relating to any financing of the Building or rents under a ground lease or any other underlying lease wherein Landlord is the lessee, (J) wages, salaries, fees and fringe benefits paid to home office executive personnel of Landlord (i.e., executives above the level of building manager and other office personnel but not the property manager, the assistant property manager and their staff), (K) any costs relating to the solicitation, execution and enforcement of leases of other tenant space in the Building, (L) the cost of any electrical current or other utility services furnished to any other leasable area (but not including common areas) of the Building (other than for HVAC services and water), (M) the cost of correcting defects in the original construction or defects in subsequent improvements of the Building, including costs of repairs or maintenance caused or necessitated by the negligence of Landlord, its agents, contractors or employees, (N) the cost (other than commercially reasonable deductibles) of any repair made by Landlord because of the total or partial destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty subsequent to the date of original construction, (O) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed under warranty claims, insurance proceeds or condemnation awards, (P) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed by tenants of the Building or third parties, (Q) advertising and promotional expenditures, (R) reserves for future expenditures or liabilities which would be incurred after the then-current accounting year, (S) the cost of (i) remediation of any toxic or hazardous substance or material from the land, buildings or improvements comprising the Building, other than commercially reasonable and customary maintenance of mechanical systems, or (ii) any environmental reports or studies relating thereto, (T) income, sales and use taxes, excess profit, estate, inheritance, successions, transfer taxes, recording and franchise taxes; (U) artwork for the Building or any of the Common Areas (other than cleaning expenses with respect thereto); and (v) Tax Expenses.

4.2.5 "Tax Expenses" shall mean all federal, state, county, or local governmental or municipal taxes, fees, charges or other impositions of every kind and nature, whether general, special, ordinary or extraordinary (including, without limitation, real estate taxes, general and special assessments, transit taxes or charges, business or license taxes or fees, annual or periodic license or use fees, open space charges, housing fund assessments, leasehold taxes or taxes based upon the receipt of rent, including gross receipts or sales taxes applicable to the receipt of rent, personal property taxes imposed upon the fixtures, machinery, equipment, apparatus, systems and equipment, appurtenances, furniture and other personal property used in connection with the Building Complex), which Landlord shall pay or incur during any Expense Year (without regard to any different fiscal year used by such governmental or municipal authority) because of or in connection with the ownership, leasing and operation of the Real Property or Landlord's interest therein.

4.2.5.1 Tax Expenses shall include, without limitation:

(i) any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge in addition to, or in substitution, partially or totally, of any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge previously included within the definition of real property tax, including, without limitation, any governmental or private assessments or the contribution of the Building Complex towards a governmental or private cost-sharing agreement for the purpose of augmenting or improving the quality of services and amenities normally provided by governmental agencies. It is the intention of Tenant and Landlord that all such new and increased assessments, taxes, fees, levies, and charges and all similar assessments, taxes, fees, levies and charges be included within the definition of Tax Expenses for purposes of this Lease;

(ii) any assessment, tax, fee, levy, or charge allocable to or measured by the area of the Premises or the Rent payable hereunder, including, without limitation, any gross income tax with respect to the receipt of such Rent, or upon or with respect to the possession, leasing, operating, management, maintenance, alteration, repair, use or occupancy by Tenant of the Premises, or any portion thereof;

(iii) any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge, upon this transaction or any document to which Tenant is a party, creating or transferring an interest or an estate in the Premises;

(iv) any possessory taxes charged or levied in lieu of real estate taxes;

(v) any expenses incurred by Landlord in attempting to protest, reduce or minimize Tax Expenses; and

(vi) any rent taxes and sales taxes.

4.2.5.2 In no event shall Tax Expenses for any Expense Year be less than the component of Tax Expenses comprising a portion of the Base Year.

4.2.5.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 4.2.5, there shall be excluded from Tax Expenses: (i) all excess profits taxes, franchise taxes, gift taxes, capital stock taxes, inheritance and succession taxes, estate taxes, federal and state income taxes, and other taxes to the extent applicable to Landlord's general or net income (as opposed to rents, receipts or income attributable to operations at the Building Complex); and (ii) any items paid by Tenant under Section 4.4 of this Lease. In addition, for so long as the Government Property Lease Excise Tax ("GPLET") remains in effect, then any tax benefits accruing to Landlord and the Building Complex on account of the GPLET shall continue to benefit the Building Complex. In the event the GPLET ends and the Building becomes subject to Tax Expenses as defined herein, the year in which the Tax Expenses are charged to the Building will be determined to be the "Tax Expenses Base Year." Beginning on January 1st of the year following the Tax Expenses Base Year, and continuing for each Expense Year thereafter, Tenant shall pay as additional rent Tenant's Share of the Tax Expenses which are in excess of the Tax Expenses applicable to the Tax Expenses Base Year.

4.2.5.4 Intentionally Deleted.

4.2.6 Intentionally Deleted.

4.2.7 "Tenant's Share" shall mean the percentage set forth in Section 9.2 of the Summary. Tenant's Share was calculated by dividing the number of rentable square feet of the Premises by the total rentable square feet in the Building and multiplying the product by 100. Landlord shall have the right from time to time, in its reasonable discretion, to include or exclude existing or future buildings in the Building Complex in the calculation of the total rentable square feet of the Building Complex, for purposes of determining the Building's Share of Direct Expenses and/or the provision of various services and amenities thereto, including equitable allocation of Direct Expenses in Cost Pools (as described in Section 4.2.4 above); in such event, Tenant's Share shall include such allocation of the Building's Share of Direct Expenses in the calculation of Tenant's Share. In addition, in the event either the rentable square feet of the Premises and/or the Building and other buildings in the Building Complex is changed, Tenant's Share and/or the Building's Share shall be appropriately adjusted, and, as to the Expense Year in which such change occurs, Tenant's Share and/or the Building's Share for such year shall be determined on the basis of the number of days during such Expense Year that each such Tenant's Share and/or the Building's Share was in effect.

4.2.8 "Systems and Equipment" shall mean any plant, machinery, transformers, duct work, cable, wires, and other equipment, facilities, and systems designed to supply heat, ventilation, air conditioning and humidity or any other services or utilities, or comprising or serving as any component or portion of the electrical, gas, steam, plumbing, sprinkler, communications, alarm, security, or fire/life safety systems or equipment, or any other mechanical, electrical, electronic, computer or other systems or equipment which serve the Building and/or any other building in the Building Complex in whole or in part.

4.2.9 Allocation of Building Complex Expenses to Tenants of the Building. Direct Expenses (i.e., Operating Expenses and Tax Expenses) are determined annually for the Building Complex as a whole. Direct Expenses shall be allocated by Landlord, in its reasonable discretion, to both the tenants of the Building and the tenants of any other buildings in the Building Complex. The portion of Direct Expenses allocated to the tenants of the Building shall consist of (i) all Direct Expenses attributable solely to the Building and (ii) an equitable portion of Direct Expenses attributable to the Building Complex as a whole and not attributable solely to the Building or solely to any other building of the Building Complex.

4.3 Calculation and Payment of Additional Rent.

4.3.1 Calculation of Excess. For each Expense Year beginning after the Base Year ending or commencing within the Lease Term, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, in the manner set forth in Section 4.3.2, below, and as Additional Rent, the amount by which Tenant's Share of Direct Expenses for such Expense Year exceeds Tenant's Share of the Direct Expenses for the Base Year (Tenant's Share of such excess amount is hereinafter referred to as the "Excess").

4.3.2 Statement of Actual Direct Expenses and Payment by Tenant. Within ninety (90) days following the end of each Expense Year (or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible but not to exceed one hundred fifty (150) days), Landlord shall give to Tenant a statement (the "Statement"), which shall indicate the Direct Expenses incurred or accrued for such preceding Expense Year, and which shall indicate the amount, if any, of any Excess. Upon receipt of the Statement for each Expense Year ending during the Lease Term, Tenant shall pay, with its next installment of Base Rent due, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after receipt of such Statement, the full amount of any Excess for such Expense Year, less the amounts, if any, paid during such Expense Year as "Estimated Excess," as that term is defined in Section 4.3.3, below. The failure of Landlord to timely furnish the Statement for any Expense Year shall not prejudice Landlord from enforcing its rights under this Article 4. Even though the Lease Term has expired and Tenant has vacated the Premises, when the final determination is made of the Direct Expenses for the Expense Year in which this Lease terminates, taking into consideration that the Lease Expiration Date may have occurred prior to the final day of the applicable Expense Year, Tenant shall pay to Landlord within thirty (30) days after receipt of Landlord's statement, an amount as calculated pursuant to the provisions of Section 4.3.1 of this Lease as Tenant's Share of the Excess for such final Expense Year. The provisions of this Section 4.3.2 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease Term.

4.3.3 Statement of Estimated Direct Expenses. Landlord shall give Tenant a yearly expense estimate statement (the "Estimate Statement") which shall set forth Landlord's reasonable estimate (the "Estimate") of what the total amount of Direct Expenses for the then-current Expense Year shall be and the estimated Excess (the "Estimated Excess") as calculated by comparing Tenant's Share of Direct Expenses for such then-current Expense Year, which shall be based upon the Estimate, to Tenant's Share of Direct Expenses for the Base Year. The Estimate Statement may be revised and reissued by Landlord one (1) time each year if Landlord determines in good faith that Tenant's Share of Direct Expenses shall have increased by more than three percent (3%) of the amount originally projected. The failure of Landlord to timely furnish the Estimate Statement for any Expense Year shall not preclude Landlord from enforcing its rights to collect any Estimated Excess under this Article 4. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of such Estimate Statement, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to a fraction of the Estimated Excess (or the increase in the Estimated Excess if pursuant to a revised Estimate Statement) for the then-current Expense Year (reduced by any amounts paid as Estimated Excess pursuant to the last sentence of this Section 4.3.3). Such fraction shall have as its numerator the number of months which have elapsed in such current Expense Year to the month of such payment, both months inclusive, and shall have twelve (12) as its denominator. Until a new Estimate Statement is furnished, Tenant shall pay monthly, with the monthly Base Rent installments, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the total Estimated Excess set forth in the previous Estimate Statement delivered by Landlord to Tenant.

4.3.4 Cap on Controllable Operating Expenses. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article 4, the aggregate Controllable Expenses (as hereinafter defined) included in Operating Expenses in any Expense Year after the 2018 Base Year shall not increase by more than five percent (5%) on an annual and compounded basis, over the actual aggregate Controllable Expenses included in Operating Expenses for any preceding Expense Year, but with no such limit on the amount of Controllable Expenses which may be included in the Operating Expenses incurred during the 2018 Base Year. For purposes of this Section 4.3.4, "Controllable Expenses" shall mean all Operating Expenses except: (i) costs of utilities; (ii) any and all assessments, including assessment districts and government-mandated charges with respect to the Building or Real Property, or any part thereof; (iii) insurance carried by Landlord with respect to the Real Property and/or the operation thereof; and (iv)costs of capital expenditures, including, without limitation, costs of capital improvements, capital alterations, and capital repairs. The provisions of this Section 4.3.4 do not apply to the Tax Expenses.

4.4 Taxes and Other Charges for Which Tenant Is Directly Responsible. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord, as Additional Rent, within thirty (30) days after demand, for any and all taxes required to be paid by Landlord (except to the extent included in Tax Expenses by Landlord), excluding state, local and federal personal or corporate income taxes measured by the net income of Landlord from all sources and estate and inheritance taxes, and other taxes which may be excluded under Section 4.2.5.3 whether or not now customary or within the contemplation of the parties hereto, when:

4.4.1 said taxes are measured by or reasonably attributable to the cost or value of Tenant's equipment, furniture, fixtures and other personal property located in the Premises, or by the cost or value of any leasehold improvements made in or to the Premises by or for Tenant, to the extent the cost or value of such leasehold improvements exceeds the cost or value of a building standard build-out as determined by Landlord and Tenant regardless of whether title to such improvements shall be vested in Tenant or Landlord; or

4.4.2 Intentionally Deleted.

4.4.3 said taxes are assessed upon this transaction or any document to which Tenant is a party creating or transferring an interest or an estate in the Premises.

4.5 Late Charges. If any installment of Rent or any other sum due from Tenant shall not be received by Landlord or Landlord's designee by the due date therefor, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to two percent (2%) of the amount due plus any reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Landlord by reason of Tenant's failure to pay Rent and/or other charges when due hereunder. The late charge shall be deemed Additional Rent and the right to require it shall be in addition to all of Landlord's other rights and remedies hereunder, at law and/or in equity and shall not be construed as liquidated damages or as limiting Landlord's remedies in any manner. In addition to the late charge described above, any Rent or other amounts owing hereunder which are not paid by the first of the month following the date they are due shall thereafter bear interest until paid at a rate equal to the Interest Rate set forth in Section 4.2.4 above.

4.6 Audit Rights. Tenant shall have the right, at Tenant's cost, after reasonable notice to Landlord, to have Tenant's authorized employees or agents inspect, at Landlord's office during normal business hours, Landlord's books, records and supporting documents concerning the Operating Expenses set forth in any Statement delivered by Landlord to Tenant for a particular Expense Year pursuant to Section 4.3.2 above; provided, however, Tenant shall have no right to conduct such inspection or object to or otherwise dispute the amount of the Operating Expenses set forth in any such Statement, unless Tenant notifies Landlord of such inspection request, completes such inspection, and demands an audit as set forth below within eighteen (18) months immediately following Landlord's delivery of the particular Statement in question ("Review Period"); provided, further, that notwithstanding any such timely inspection, objection, dispute, and/or audit, and as a condition precedent to Tenant's exercise of its right of inspection, objection, dispute, and/or audit as set forth in this Section 4.6, Tenant shall not be permitted to withhold payment of, and Tenant shall timely pay to Landlord, the full amounts as required by the provisions of this Article 4 in accordance with such Statement. However, such payment may be made under protest pending the outcome of any audit. In connection with any such inspection by Tenant, Landlord and Tenant shall reasonably cooperate with each other so that such inspection can be performed pursuant to a mutually acceptable schedule, in an expeditious manner and without undue interference with Landlord's operation and management of the Building Complex. If after such inspection and/or request for documentation, Tenant disputes the amount of the Operating Expenses set forth in the Statement, and after discussion with Landlord, an agreement on the results of Tenant's audit is not reached by Landlord and Tenant, Tenant shall have the right, but not the obligation to cause an independent certified public accountant which is not paid on a contingency basis and which is mutually approved by Landlord and Tenant (the "Accountant") to complete an audit of Landlord's books and records to determine the proper amount of the Operating Expenses incurred and amounts payable by Tenant for the Expense Year which is the subject of such Statement. Such audit by the Accountant shall be final and binding upon Landlord and Tenant. If Landlord and Tenant cannot mutually agree as to the identity of the Accountant within thirty (30) days after Tenant notifies Landlord that Tenant desires an audit to be performed, then the Accountant shall be one of the "Big

4" accounting firms selected by Landlord, which is not paid on a contingency basis. If such audit reveals that Landlord has over-charged Tenant, then within thirty (30) days after the results of such audit are made available to Landlord, Landlord shall reimburse to Tenant the amount of such over-charge. If the audit reveals that the Tenant was under-charged, then within thirty (30) days after the results of such audit are made available to Tenant, Tenant shall reimburse to Landlord the amount of such under-charge. Tenant agrees to pay the cost of such audit unless it is subsequently determined that Landlord's original Statement which was the subject of such audit was in error to Tenant's disadvantage by five percent (5%) or more of the total Operating Expenses which was the subject of such audit. The payment by Tenant of any amounts pursuant to this Article 4 shall not preclude Tenant from questioning the correctness of any Statement provided by Landlord at any time during the Review Period, but the failure of Tenant to object thereto during the Review Period and to conduct and complete its inspection and have the Accountant conduct and complete the audit as described above promptly thereafter shall be conclusively deemed Tenant's approval of the Statement in question and the amount of Operating Expenses shown thereon. In connection with any inspection and/or audit conducted by Tenant pursuant to this Section 4.6, Tenant agrees to keep, and to cause all of Tenant's employees and consultants and the Accountant to keep, all of Landlord's books and records and the audit, and all information pertaining thereto and the results thereof, strictly confidential (except to the extent disclosure is required in accordance with applicable law), and in connection therewith, Tenant shall cause such employees, consultants and the Accountant to execute such reasonable confidentiality agreements as Landlord may require prior to conducting any such inspections and/or audits.

USE OF PREMISES, HAZARDOUS MATERIALS AND EXCLUSIVE USE

5.1 Use. Tenant shall use the Premises solely for general office purposes consistent with the character of the Building Complex as a first-class office building project, and Tenant shall not use or permit the Premises to be used for any other purpose or purposes whatsoever without Landlord's approval, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Tenant further covenants and agrees that it shall not use, or suffer or permit any person or persons to use, the Premises or any part thereof for any use or purpose contrary to the Rules and Regulations, or in violation of the laws of the United States of America, the State of Arizona, or the ordinances, regulations or requirements of the local municipal or county governing body or other lawful authorities having jurisdiction over the Building Complex (including laws pertaining to Hazardous Materials, as defined below). Tenant shall comply with the Rules and Regulations provided that Landlord enforces the Rules and Regulations as to all tenants of the Building Complex on a non-discriminatory basis. Landlord shall not be responsible to Tenant for the nonperformance of any of such Rules and Regulations by or otherwise with respect to the acts or omissions of any other tenants or occupants of the Building Complex. Tenant shall comply with all recorded covenants, conditions, and restrictions now or hereafter affecting the Real Property.

5.2 Hazardous Materials.

5.2.1 Prohibition on Use. Tenant shall not use or allow another person or entity to use any part of the Premises for the storage, use, treatment, manufacture or sale of Hazardous Materials. Landlord acknowledges, however, that Tenant will maintain products in the Premises which are incidental to the operation of its offices, such as photocopy supplies, secretarial supplies and limited janitorial supplies, which products contain chemicals which are categorized as Hazardous Materials. Landlord agrees that the use of such products in the Premises in compliance with all applicable laws and in the manner in which such products are designed to be used shall not be a violation by Tenant of this Section 5.2.1.

5.2.2 Indemnity. Tenant agrees to indemnify, defend (with legal counsel reasonably acceptable to Landlord), protect and hold Landlord and the Landlord Parties (as defined in Section 10.1 below) harmless from and against any and all claims, actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities, interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature, that arise during or after the Lease Term directly or indirectly from or in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, surface water or groundwater at, on, about, under or within the Premises or Real Property or any portion thereof, caused by Tenant, its assignees or subtenants and/or their respective agents, employees, contractors, licensees or invitees (collectively, "Tenant Affiliates"); provided, however, that Tenant's indemnity obligations shall not extend to loss of business, loss of profits or other consequential damages which may be suffered by Landlord. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend (with legal counsel reasonably acceptable to Tenant), protect and hold Tenant and the Tenant Parties (as defined in Section 10.1 below) harmless from and against any and all claims, actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities, interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature, that arise during or after the Lease Term directly or indirectly from or in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, surface water or groundwater at, on, about, under or within the Premises or Real Property or any portion thereof, (i) caused by Landlord or its respective agents, employees, contractors, licensees or invitees (collectively, "Landlord Affiliates"), or(ii) as a result of Hazardous Materials existing in the Premises or the Real Property prior to the Commencement Date; provided, however, that Landlord's indemnity obligations shall not extend to loss of business, loss of profits or other consequential damages which may be suffered by Tenant.

5.2.3 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work (collectively, the "Remedial Work") is required under any applicable federal, state or local laws or by any judicial order, or by any governmental entity as the result of operations or activities upon, or any use or occupancy of any portion of the Premises by Tenant or Tenant Affiliates, exclusively, Tenant shall perform or cause to be performed the Remedial Work in compliance with such laws or order. All Remedial Work shall be performed by one or more contractors, selected by Tenant and approved in advance in writing by Landlord. All costs and expenses of such Remedial Work shall be paid by Tenant, including, without limitation, the charges of such contractor(s), the consulting engineers, and Landlord's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with monitoring or review of such Remedial Work.

5.2.4 Definition of Hazardous Materials. As used herein, the term "Hazardous Materials" means any hazardous or toxic substance, material or waste which is or becomes regulated by any local governmental authority, the State of Arizona or the United States Government, including, without limitation, any material or substance which is (i) defined or listed as a "hazardous waste," "extremely hazardous waste," "restricted hazardous waste," "hazardous substance" or "hazardous material" under any applicable federal, state or local law or administrative code promulgated thereunder, (ii) petroleum, or (iii) asbestos.

5.3 Exclusive Use. During the Lease Term and so long as no Event of Default exists under the Lease (beyond applicable notice and cure periods) and Original Tenant or any Affiliate Assignee is leasing the Premises then leased by Tenant hereunder (and Original Tenant or any Affiliate Assignee is conducting business in all or any portion of the Premises) as a residential real estate mortgage lender and/or residential real estate mortgage broker and/or title company, Landlord shall not enter into a direct lease for space in the Building Complex with a "Competitor" of Tenant (as defined below). For purposes hereof, the term "Competitor" shall mean the following eight (8) entities: (i) Wells Fargo & Company, NA; (ii) Chase, NJ, (iii) Bank of America Home Loans, NC; (iv) LoanDepot.com, CA; (v) Freedom Mortgage, NJ; (vi) VIP Mortgage; (vii) Academy Mortgage; and (vii) Movement Mortgage as well as any entity whose primary use (and primary use of space in the Building Complex) is that of a title company (collectively, "Competitor"); provided, however, that the foregoing leasing restriction to a Competitor shall not prohibit or otherwise limit any existing tenants from subleasing their premises or assigning their lease to a Competitor; provided, however, that if Landlord has the express right to disapprove such sublease or assignment pursuant to the terms of any such existing tenant lease, then Landlord will, in such instances, use commercially reasonable efforts to disapprove the same. The term "Competitor" shall not include any affiliates or subsidiaries of any such Competitors. In addition to not entering into any direct lease with a Competitor, Landlord shall not consent to any sublease or assignment of a lease by another future tenant in the Building Complex to a Competitor but only if Landlord has the express right to withhold consent pursuant to the term of such lease (where such sublease or assignment is subject to Landlord's consent). In the event that, after the date hereof, Landlord enters into a direct lease with a Competitor then Tenant shall have the right to exercise all of its rights and remedies against Landlord, at law and/or in equity. In addition, if Tenant provides Landlord with written notice that Landlord has entered into a lease with a Competitor (but not including a title company) and such breach is not cured by Landlord then, for the first sixty (60) days after the date of Tenant's written notice that such breach continues, Tenant shall be entitled to a Base Rent credit equal to [] per calendar month and for the next succeeding ninety (90) days, Tenant shall be entitled to a Base Rent credit equal to [] per calendar month (in lieu of the prior Base Rent Credit) and after such one hundred fifty (150) day period, Tenant shall be entitled (in lieu of the prior Base Rent Credit) to a Base Rent credit equal to [] per calendar month, all prorated for partial months; such Base Rent credit shall only apply (if at all) in the event Landlord enters into a direct lease with a Competitor that is not a title company and only if Original Tenant or any Affiliate Assignee is actually conducting business in all or any portion of the Premises as a residential real estate mortgage lender and/or residential real estate mortgage broker. Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, Landlord shall have the right to lease space in the Building to (i) any Competitor so long as such Competitor's primary use of such space is not that of a residential mortgage lender, (ii) any bank or other financial institution that is not a Competitor and (iii) any bank on the first (1st) floor of the Building (even if they are a Competitor). The list of eight (8) Competitors set forth above is subject to update by Tenant providing written notice to Landlord on or before December 31 of each calendar year and any such updated list of Competitors shall apply for the following calendar year and shall remain in effect for such following calendar year and subsequent calendar year(s) until and unless Tenant provides an updated list to Landlord Any such updated list shall be memorialized in a lease amendment to be executed by Landlord and Tenant. For purposes of clarification, any updated list provided by Tenant during any calendar year shall only apply to the following calendar year and shall not apply to the calendar year in which Tenant submitted such updated list. In no event shall any updated Competitor list (i) apply retroactively to leases entered into by Landlord with entities that were not Competitors at the time Landlord entered into such leases or (ii) include more than eight (8) Competitors. In no event shall the Base Rent credit apply to any lease by Landlord to a Competitor which is a title company.

6.2 Utilities. Tenant shall pay for all heat, light, power, telephone, internet service, cable television, and other telecommunications supplied to the Premises, together with any fees, surcharges and taxes thereon. If Landlord provides any such utility services to the Premises, Tenant shall be billed at the primary rate for all such services without any mark-up or additional fees. Landlord agrees to provide, at Landlord's sole cost and expense but as a deduction from the Tenant Improvement Allowance, any utility meters of the type required for such services in the capacities required for Tenant's use of the Premises. If any such utility is not separately metered or submetered to Tenant, Tenant shall pay Tenant's Share of all charges of such utility jointly metered with other premises as Additional Rent or, in the alternative, Landlord may, at its option, monitor the usage of such utilities by Tenant and Landlord shall pay the cost of purchasing, installing and monitoring such metering equipment but as a deduction from the Tenant Improvement Allowance.

6.3 Overstandard Tenant Use. Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, use heat-generating machines, machines other than normal fractional horsepower office machines, or equipment or lighting other than building standard lights in the Premises, which may adversely affect the temperature otherwise maintained by the air conditioning system or increase the water normally furnished for the Premises by Landlord pursuant to the terms of Section 6.1 of this Lease. If Tenant uses water or HVAC in excess of that supplied by Landlord pursuant to Section 6.1 of this Lease, then Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost, shall pay for the cost of the installation, operation, and maintenance of equipment which is installed in order to supply such excess consumption, and the cost of the increased wear and tear on existing equipment caused by such excess consumption; and Landlord may install devices to separately meter any increased use and in such event Tenant shall pay the increased cost directly to Landlord, within ten (10) days after demand, including the cost of such additional metering devices.

6.4 Interruption of Use. Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.7 below, Tenant agrees that Landlord shall not be liable for damages, by abatement of Rent or otherwise, for failure to furnish or delay in furnishing any service (including telephone and telecommunication services), or for any diminution in the quality or quantity thereof, when such failure or delay or diminution is occasioned, in whole or in part, by repairs, replacements, or improvements, by any strike, lockout or other labor trouble, by inability to secure electricity, gas, water, or other fuel at the Building after reasonable effort to do so, by any accident or casualty whatsoever, by act or default of Tenant or other parties, or by any other cause beyond Landlord's reasonable control; and such failures or delays or diminution shall never be deemed to constitute an eviction or disturbance of Tenant's use and possession of the Premises or relieve Tenant from paying Rent or performing any of its obligations under this Lease. Furthermore, Landlord shall not be liable under any circumstances for a loss of, or injury to, property or for injury to, or interference with, Tenant's business, including, without limitation, loss of profits, however occurring, through or in connection with or incidental to a failure to furnish any of the services or 6.5 Additional Services. Landlord shall also have the exclusive right, but not the obligation, to provide any additional services which may be required by Tenant, including, without limitation, locksmithing, additional janitorial service, and additional repairs and maintenance, provided that Tenant shall pay to Landlord, within thirty (30) days after billing, the sum of all costs to Landlord of such additional services plus an administration fee. Charges for any utilities or service for which Tenant is required to pay from time to time hereunder, shall be deemed Additional Rent hereunder and shall be billed on a monthly basis.

6.6 Tenant's Separate Security System. Tenant shall be entitled to install, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, a separate security system for the Premises as an Alteration or as a part of the Improvements; provided, however, that the plans and specifications for any such system shall be subject to Landlord's reasonable approval, and any such system must be compatible with the existing systems of the Project, Tenant's obligation to indemnify, defend and hold Landlord harmless as provided in, and subject to, Article 10 below shall also apply to Tenant's use and operation of any such system, and the installation of such system shall otherwise be subject to the terms and conditions of Article 8. Tenant's security system may be connected to the Rock Security Command Center in Detroit, Michigan. At Landlord's option, upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall remove such security system and repair any damage to the Premises resulting from such removal. Tenant shall at all times provide Landlord with a contact person who can disarm the security system and who is familiar with the functions of the alarm system in the event of a malfunction, and Tenant shall provide Landlord with the alarm codes or other necessary information required to disarm the alarm system in the event Landlord must enter the Premises.

6.7 Abatement of Rent When Tenant is Prevented From Using Premises. In the event that Tenant is prevented from using, and does not use, the Premises or any portion thereof, for three (3) consecutive business days (the "Eligibility Period") as a result of (i) any repair, maintenance or alteration performed by Landlord after the Lease Commencement Date and required to be performed by Landlord under this Lease or permitted pursuant to Section 24.27 below, or (ii) any failure by Landlord to provide to the Premises any of the facilities for essential utilities and services required to be provided in Section 6.1.1 above, or (iii) any failure by Landlord to provide access to the Premises, then Tenant's obligation to pay Base Rent and Tenant's Share of Direct Expenses shall be abated or reduced, as the case may be, from and after the first (1st) day following the Eligibility Period and continuing until such time that Tenant continues to be so prevented from using, and does not use, the Premises or a portion thereof, in the proportion that the rentable square feet of the portion of the Premises that Tenant is prevented from using, and does not use, bears to the total rentable square feet of the Premises; provided, however, that Tenant shall only be entitled to such abatement of rent if the matter described in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) of this sentence is caused by Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct. To the extent Tenant shall be entitled to abatement of rent because of a damage or destruction pursuant to Article 11 or a taking pursuant to Article 12, then the Eligibility Period shall not be applicable.

REPAIRS

7.1 Tenant's Repairs. Subject to Landlord's repair obligations in Sections 7.2 and 11.1 below, Tenant shall, at Tenant's own expense, keep the Premises, including all improvements, fixtures and furnishings therein, in good order, repair and condition at all times during the Lease Term, which repair obligations shall include, without limitation, the obligation to promptly and adequately repair all damage to the Premises and replace or repair all damaged or broken fixtures and appurtenances; provided however, that, at Landlord's option, or if Tenant fails to make such repairs, Landlord may, but need not, make such repairs and replacements, and Tenant shall pay Landlord the cost thereof, including an amount equal to three percent (3%) of the cost thereof (to be uniformly established for the Building) sufficient to reimburse Landlord for all overhead, general conditions, fees and other costs or expenses arising from Landlord's involvement with such repairs and replacements forthwith upon being billed for same. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant's obligations under this Section 7.1 shall not apply to conditions requiring repair or replacement due to any act, neglect, fault or omission of any duty by Landlord, its agents, contractors, employees, licensees or invitees, and Landlord shall pay to Tenant the actual, documented and reasonable cost of such repairs and replacements.

7.2 Landlord's Repairs. Anything contained in Section 7.1 above to the contrary notwithstanding, and subject to Articles 11 and 12 of this Lease, Landlord shall repair and maintain the structural portions of the Building and the plumbing, heating, ventilating, air conditioning, life safety and electrical systems serving the Building and not located in the Premises; provided, however, if such maintenance and repairs are caused in part or in whole by the act, neglect, fault of or omission of any duty by Tenant, its agents, contractors, employees, licensees or invitees, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the reasonable cost of such maintenance and repairs. There shall be no abatement of Rent and no liability of Landlord by reason of any injury to or interference with Tenant's business arising from the making of any repairs, alterations or improvements in or to any portion of the Premises or Building Complex or in or to fixtures, appurtenances and equipment therein but Landlord shall take reasonable measures not to interfere with Tenant's business. Landlord may, but shall not be required to, enter the Premises at all reasonable times to make any repairs, alterations, improvements or additions to the Premises or to the Building Complex or to any equipment located in the Building Complex as Landlord shall desire or deem necessary or as Landlord may be required to do by governmental or quasi-governmental authority or court order or decree. Tenant hereby waives and releases its right to make repairs at Landlord's expense under any law, statute, or ordinance now or hereafter in effect.

7.3 Tenant's Right to Make Repairs. Notwithstanding any provision set forth in this Article 7 to the contrary, if Tenant provides written notice to Landlord of an event or circumstance which requires the action of Landlord under the express terms and provisions of this Lease with respect to repair and/or maintenance of the Premises only (and not any other portion of the Building), and Landlord fails to provide such action within a reasonable period of time, given the circumstances, after the receipt of such notice, but in no event earlier than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of such notice, then Tenant may proceed to take the required action and shall be entitled to prompt reimbursement by Landlord of Tenant's actual reasonable costs in taking such action. However, if the work so performed by Tenant pertains to items that would otherwise be includable under Operating Expenses pursuant to Article 4 above, then Landlord may include the amount of such reimbursement in Operating Expenses. In the event Tenant takes such action, and such work will affect the Building systems or the structural integrity of the Building, Tenant shall use only those contractors used by Landlord in the Building for work on such Building systems or structure unless such contractors are unwilling or unable to perform, or timely perform, such work, in which event Tenant may utilize the services of any other qualified contractor which normally and regularly performs similar work in Comparable Buildings and who is reasonably approved by Landlord in writing within two (2) business days after notification is delivered to Landlord. Further, if Landlord does not deliver a detailed written objection to Tenant, within thirty (30) days after receipt of an invoice by Tenant of its costs of taking action which Tenant claims should have been taken by Landlord, and if such invoice from Tenant sets forth a reasonably particularized breakdown of its costs and expenses in connection with taking such action on behalf of Landlord, then Tenant shall be entitled to deduct from Base Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease, the amount set forth in such invoice. If, however, Landlord delivers to Tenant within thirty (30) days after receipt of Tenant's invoice, a written objection to the payment of such invoice, setting forth with reasonable particularity Landlord's reasons for its claim that such action did not have to be taken by Landlord pursuant to the terms of this Lease or that the charges are excessive (in which case Landlord shall pay the amount it contends is not excessive), then Tenant shall not be entitled to such deduction from rent, but as Tenant's sole remedy, Tenant may proceed to claim a default by Landlord under this Lease.

ADDITIONS AND ALTERATIONS

8.1 Landlord's Consent to Alterations. Except as hereinafter provided, Tenant may not make any improvements, alterations, additions or changes to the Premises (collectively, the "Alterations") without first procuring the prior written consent of Landlord to such Alterations, which consent shall be requested by Tenant not less than thirty (30) days prior to the commencement thereof, and which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld by Landlord where any such Alterations (i) may materially, adversely affect the structural components of the Building, or the Building's mechanical, electrical, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, or life safety systems or the Systems and Equipment, or (ii) are visible from outside the Premises. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may make cosmetic changes to the Premises, (including, but not limited to adjusting work stations and walls) not requiring any structural or other substantial modifications to the Premises, nor requiring a building permit, upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord. Additionally, Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to any non-structural interior alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises. Tenant shall pay for all overhead, general conditions, fees and other costs and expenses of the Alterations. The construction of the initial improvements to the Premises shall be governed by the terms of the Tenant Work Letter, attached hereto as Exhibit D, and not the terms of this Article 8.

8.2 Manner of Construction. Landlord may impose, as a condition of its consent to any and all Alterations or repairs of the Premises or about the Premises, when required, such requirements as Landlord in its reasonable discretion may deem desirable, including, but not limited to, the requirement that upon Landlord's request, Tenant shall, at Tenant's expense, remove such Alterations upon the expiration or any early termination of the Lease Term. Landlord may also, with respect to any work affecting the structural components of the Building or Systems and Equipment, specify contractors to perform such work. Tenant shall construct such Alterations and perform such repairs in conformance with any and all applicable statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations of any federal, state, county or municipal code or ordinance, including, without limitation, Title III of the Americans With Disabilities Act ("ADA"), and pursuant to a valid building permit, issued by the City of Phoenix in conformance with Landlord's construction rules and regulations. All work with respect to any Alterations must be done in a good and workmanlike manner and diligently prosecuted to completion to the end that the Premises shall at all times be a complete unit except during the period of work. In performing the work of any such Alterations, Tenant shall have the work performed in such manner as not to obstruct access to the Building or Building Complex or the common areas by any other tenant of the Building Complex, and as not to obstruct the business of Landlord or other tenants in the Building Complex, or interfere with the labor force working in the Building Complex. If Tenant makes any Alterations, Tenant agrees to carry "Builder's All Risk" insurance in an amount approved by Landlord covering the construction of such Alterations, and such other insurance as Landlord may require, it being understood and agreed that all of such Alterations shall be insured by Tenant pursuant to Article 10 of this Lease immediately upon completion thereof. Upon completion of any Alterations, Tenant shall (i) cause a timely Notice of Completion to be recorded in the office of the Recorder of Maricopa County in accordance with applicable Arizona law, (ii) deliver to the Building Complex management office a reproducible copy of the "as built" drawings of the Alterations, and (iii) deliver to Landlord evidence of payment, contractors' affidavits and full and final waivers of all liens for labor, services or materials.

8.3 Payment for Alterations. If Tenant orders any Alterations or repair work directly from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, within thirty (30) days after demand, all charges for such work, including five percent (5%) of the cost of such work to compensate Landlord for all overhead, general conditions, fees and other costs and expenses arising from Landlord's involvement with such work.

8.4 Landlord's Property. All Alterations, improvements and fixtures which may be installed or placed in or about the Premises, from time to time, shall be at the sole cost of Tenant and shall be and become the property of Landlord.

COVENANT AGAINST LIENS

Tenant has no authority or power to cause or permit any lien or encumbrance of any kind whatsoever, whether created by act of Tenant, operation of law or otherwise, to attach to or be placed upon the Real Property or any portion thereof, and any and all liens and encumbrances created by Tenant shall attach to Tenant's interest only. Landlord shall have the right at all times to post and keep posted on the Premises any notice which it deems necessary for protection from such liens. Tenant covenants and agrees not to suffer or permit any lien of mechanics or materialmen or others to be placed against the Real Property or any portion thereof, with respect to work or services claimed to have been performed for or materials claimed to have been furnished to Tenant or the Premises, and, in case of any such lien attaching or notice of any lien, Tenant covenants and agrees to cause it to be immediately released and removed of record which removal may be accomplished by posting a bond pursuant to applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Lease, in the event that such lien is not released and removed on or before the date occurring twenty (20) days after notice of such lien is delivered by Landlord to Tenant, Landlord, at its sole option, may immediately take all action necessary to release and remove such lien, without any duty to investigate the validity thereof, and all sums, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, incurred by Landlord in connection with such lien shall be deemed Additional Rent under this Lease and shall immediately be due and payable by Tenant.

INSURANCE

10.1 Indemnification and Waiver. Tenant hereby assumes risk of damage to property and injury to persons in, on or about the Premises resulting from Tenant's negligence or willful misconduct, and agrees that, to the extent not prohibited by law, Landlord, its members, directors, partners and subpartners, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, agents, property managers, employees and independent contractors (collectively, the "Landlord Parties") shall not be liable for, and are hereby released from any responsibility for, any damage either to person or property or resulting from the loss of use thereof, which damage is sustained by Tenant or by other persons claiming through Tenant. Tenant shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless the Landlord Parties from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, expense, cause of action, claims and liability, including without limitation court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees (collectively "Claims") incurred in connection with or arising from any cause in, on or about the Premises, and/or any acts, omissions or negligence of Tenant or of any person claiming by, through or under Tenant, or of the contractors, agents, employees, licensees or invitees of Tenant or any such person in, on or about the Real Property, provided that the terms of the foregoing indemnity shall not apply to any Claims to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or the Landlord Parties and not insured (or required to be insured) by Tenant under this Lease; provided, however, that Tenant's indemnity shall not extend to loss of business, loss of profits or other consequential damages which may be suffered by Landlord. Tenant's agreement to indemnify Landlord pursuant to this Section 10.1 is not intended and shall not relieve any insurance carrier of its obligations under policies required to be carried by Tenant pursuant to the provision of this Lease. Landlord shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Tenant, its members, directors, partners and subpartners, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, agents, employees and independent contractors (collectively, the "Tenant Parties") from and against any and all Claims incurred in connection with or arising from any cause in, on or about the Common Area or the Building, and/or the gross negligence of Landlord or of any person claiming by, through or under Landlord, or of the contractors, agents, employees, licensees or invitees of Landlord or any such person in, on or about the Real Property, provided that the terms of the foregoing indemnity shall not apply to any Claims to the extent resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or the Tenant's Parties and not insured (or required to be insured) by Tenant under this Lease; provided, however, that Landlord's indemnity obligations shall not extend to loss of business, loss of profits, or other consequential damages which may be suffered by Tenant. Landlord's agreement to indemnify Tenant pursuant to this Section 10.1 is not intended and shall not relieve any insurance carrier of its obligations under policies required to be carried by Tenant pursuant to the provision of this Lease. The provisions of this Section 10.1 shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease with respect to any Claims occurring prior to such expiration or termination.

10.2 Tenant's Compliance with Landlord's Fire and Casualty Insurance. Tenant shall, at Tenant's expense, comply with all insurance company requirements pertaining to the use of the Premises. If Tenant's conduct or use of the Premises causes any increase in the premium for any insurance policies carried by Landlord, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for any such increase. Tenant, at Tenant's expense, shall comply with all rules, orders, regulations or requirements of the American Insurance Association (formerly the National Board of Fire Underwriters) and with any similar body.

10.3 Tenant's Insurance. Tenant shall maintain the following coverages in the following amounts at all times following the date (the "Insurance Start Date") which is the earlier of (i) Tenant's entry into the Premises to perform any work therein, or (ii) the Lease Commencement Date, and continuing thereafter throughout the Lease Term:

10.3.1 Commercial General Liability Insurance covering the insured against claims of bodily injury, personal injury and property damage arising out of Tenant's operations, assumed liabilities or use of the Premises, including a Commercial General Liability endorsement covering the insuring provisions of this Lease and the performance by Tenant of the indemnity agreements set forth in Section 10.1 of this Lease, for limits of liability not less than: (i) Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability - $5,000,000 each occurrence and $5,000,000 annual aggregate, and (ii) Personal Injury Liability - $5,000,000 each occurrence and $5,000,000 annual aggregate.

10.3.2 Physical Damage Insurance covering (i) all office furniture, trade fixtures, office equipment, merchandise and all other items of Tenant's property on the Premises installed by, for, or at the expense of Tenant, and (ii) all Alterations and other improvements and additions in and to the Premises whether owned by Landlord or Tenant pursuant to this Lease. Such insurance shall be written on an "all risks" of physical loss or damage basis, for the guaranteed replacement cost value new without deduction for depreciation of the covered items and in amounts that meet any co-insurance clauses of the policies of insurance and shall include a vandalism and malicious mischief endorsement, sprinkler leakage coverage and earthquake sprinkler leakage coverage.

10.3.3 Business interruption, loss-of-income and extra-expense insurance in such amounts as will reimburse Tenant for direct or indirect loss of earnings attributable to all perils commonly insured against by prudent tenants or attributable to prevention of access to the Premises or to the Building as a result of such perils.

10.3.4 The minimum limits of policies of insurance required of Tenant under this Lease shall in no event limit the liability of Tenant under this Lease. Such insurance shall: (i) name Landlord, Parallel Capital Partners, Inc., and any other party it so specifies, as an additional insured; (ii) specifically cover the liability assumed by Tenant under this Lease, including, but not limited to, Tenant's obligations under Section 10.1 of this Lease; (iii) be issued by an insurance company having a rating of not less than A-X in Best's Insurance Guide or which is otherwise acceptable to Landlord and licensed to do business in the State of Arizona; (iv) be primary insurance as to all claims thereunder and provide that any insurance carried by Landlord is excess and is non-contributing with any insurance requirement of Tenant; (v) provide that said insurance shall not be canceled or coverage changed unless thirty (30) days' prior written notice shall have been given to Landlord; and (vi) contain a cross-liability endorsement or severability of interest clause acceptable to Landlord. Tenant shall deliver certificates evidencing Tenant's insurance to Landlord on or before the Insurance Start Date and at least thirty (30) days before the expiration dates thereof. In the event Tenant shall fail to procure such insurance, or to deliver such certificate, Landlord may, at its option, procure such policies for the account of Tenant, and the costs of it shall be paid to Landlord as Additional Rent within thirty (30) days after delivery to Tenant of bills therefor.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Original Tenant and any Affiliate Assignee (and not any other assignee, subtenant or other transferee) may, subject to the provisions hereof, fulfill its insurance obligations under Section 10.3.3 above by self-insurance. Any self-insurance so maintained by Tenant shall be deemed to contain all of the terms and conditions applicable to such insurance as required in this Article 10, including, without limitation, a deemed waiver of subrogation; consequently, Landlord shall be treated, for all purposes, as if Tenant had actually purchased such insurance from a third party. If Tenant elects to so self-insure, then with respect to any claims which may result from incidents occurring during the Lease Term, such self-insurance obligation shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease to the same extent as the insurance required hereunder would survive.

10.4 Waiver of Subrogation. Landlord and Tenant each agrees to have its respective insurance company issuing property damage, loss of income and/or rental interruption and extra expense insurance waive any rights of subrogation that such company may have against the other party. Each party hereby waives any right that it may have against the other party on account of any loss or damage to its property. If either party fails to carry the amounts and types of insurance required to be carried by it pursuant to this Article 10, in addition to any remedies the other party may have under this Lease, such failure shall be deemed to be a covenant and agreement by that party to self-insure with respect to the type and amount of insurance which such party so failed to carry, with full waiver of subrogation with respect thereto.

10.5 Landlord's Insurance. During the Lease Term, Landlord shall maintain property insurance covering the Building Complex (excluding the property which Tenant is obligated to insure pursuant to the terms hereof). Such policy shall provide protection against "all risk of physical loss". Landlord shall also maintain commercial general liability and property damage insurance with respect to the operation of the Building Complex. Such insurance shall be in such amounts and with such deductibles as Landlord reasonably deems appropriate. Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, obtain and carry any other form or forms of insurance as Landlord or Landlord's mortgagees or deed of trust beneficiaries may determine prudent. Tenant shall be liable for the payment of all premiums for such insurance. Notwithstanding any contribution by Tenant to the cost of insurance as provided in this Lease, Tenant acknowledges that it has no right to receive any proceeds from any insurance policies maintained by Landlord and will not be named as an additional insured thereunder.

DAMAGE AND DESTRUCTION

11.1 Repair of Damage to Premises by Landlord. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any damage to the Premises resulting from fire or any other casualty or any condition existing in the Premises as a result of a fire or other casualty that would give rise to the terms of this Article 11. If the Premises or any common areas of the Building Complex serving or providing access to the Premises shall be damaged by fire or other casualty or be subject to a condition existing as a result of a fire or other casualty, Landlord shall promptly and diligently, subject to reasonable delays for insurance adjustment or other matters beyond Landlord's reasonable control, and subject to all other terms of this Article 11, restore the base, shell, and core of the Premises to the condition in which it was delivered to Tenant originally at the beginning of this Lease and such common areas to substantially the same condition as existed prior to the casualty, except for modifications required by zoning and building codes and other laws or by the holder of a mortgage on the Building Complex (or any portion thereof) or any other modifications to the common areas deemed desirable by Landlord, provided that access to the Premises and any common restrooms serving the Premises shall not be materially impaired. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease, upon the occurrence of any damage to the Premises, Tenant shall assign to Landlord (or to any party designated by Landlord) all insurance proceeds payable to Tenant under Tenant's insurance required under Section 10.3.2(ii) of this Lease, and Landlord shall repair any injury or damage to the Tenant Improvements and Alterations installed in the Premises and shall return such Tenant Improvements and Alterations to their original condition; provided that if the cost of such repair by Landlord exceeds the amount of insurance proceeds received by Landlord from Tenant's insurance carrier, as assigned by Tenant, the cost of such repairs shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord of the completion of Landlord's repair of the damage. In connection with such repairs and replacements, Tenant shall, prior to the commencement of construction, submit to Landlord, for Landlord's review and approval, all plans, specifications and working drawings relating thereto, and Landlord shall select the contractors to perform such improvement work. Landlord shall not be liable for any inconvenience or annoyance to Tenant or its visitors, or injury to Tenant's business resulting in any way from such damage or the repair thereof; provided however, that if such fire or other casualty shall have damaged the Premises or common areas necessary to Tenant's occupancy, and if such damage is not the result of the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or Tenant's agents, employees, contractors, licensees or invitees, Landlord shall allow Tenant a proportionate abatement of Base Rent during the time and to the extent the Premises are unfit for occupancy for the purposes permitted under this Lease, and not occupied by Tenant as a result thereof.

11.2 Landlord's Option to Repair. Notwithstanding the terms of Section 11.1 of this Lease, Landlord may elect not to rebuild and/or restore the Premises and/or Building and/or any other portion of the Building Complex and instead terminate this Lease (provided that the leases of all other tenants in the Building which are similarly situated are also terminated) by notifying Tenant in writing of such termination within sixty (60) days after the date of damage, such notice to include a termination date giving Tenant sixty (60) days to vacate the Premises, but Landlord may so elect only if the Building Complex shall be damaged by fire or other casualty or cause or be subject to a condition existing as a result of such a fire or other casualty or cause, whether or not the Premises are affected, and one or more of the following conditions is present: (i) repairs cannot reasonably be completed within one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of damage (when such repairs are made without the payment of overtime or other premiums); (ii) the holder of any mortgage on the Real Property or ground lessor with respect to the Real Property shall require that the insurance proceeds or any portion thereof be used to retire the mortgage debt, or shall terminate the ground lease, as the case may be; or (iii) the damage or condition arising as a result of such damage is not fully covered, except for deductible amounts, by Landlord's insurance policies. In addition, if the Premises, the Building or any portion of the Building Complex is destroyed or damaged to any substantial extent during the last eighteen (18) months of the Lease Term, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Article 11, Landlord shall have the option to terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Tenant of the exercise of such option within thirty (30) days after such damage or destruction, in which event this Lease shall cease and terminate as of the date of such notice, however, Landlord's rights under this sentence shall be deemed waived if Tenant shall exercise the next available renewal option. Upon such termination of this Lease pursuant to this Section 11.2, Tenant shall pay the Base Rent and Additional Rent, properly apportioned up to such date of damage (subject to any abatement as provided in Section 11.1 above), and both parties hereto shall thereafter be freed and discharged of all further obligations hereunder, except as provided for in provisions of this Lease which by their terms survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease Term.

11.3 Waiver of Statutory Provisions. The provisions of this Lease, including this Article 11, constitute an express agreement between Landlord and Tenant with respect to any and all damage to, or destruction of, all or any part of the Real Property, and any statute or regulation of the State of Arizona with respect to any rights or obligations concerning damage or destruction in the absence of an express agreement between the parties, and any other statute or regulation, now or hereafter in effect, shall have no application to this Lease or any damage or destruction to all or any part of the Real Property.

CONDEMNATION

12.1 Permanent Taking. If ten percent (10%) or more of the Premises or Building Complex shall be taken by power of eminent domain or condemned by any competent authority for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, or if Landlord shall grant a deed or other instrument in lieu of such taking by eminent domain or condemnation, Landlord and Tenant shall each have the option to terminate this Lease upon ninety (90) days' notice to Tenant, provided such notice is given no later than one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such taking, condemnation, reconfiguration, vacation, deed or other instrument. Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire award or payment in connection therewith, except that Tenant shall have the right to file any separate claim available to Tenant for any taking of Tenant's personal property and fixtures belonging to Tenant and removable by Tenant upon expiration of the Lease Term pursuant to the terms of this Lease, and for moving expenses and any other awards and expenses to which Tenant may be entitled under law. All Rent shall be apportioned as of the date of such termination, or the date of such taking, whichever shall first occur. If any part of the Premises shall be taken, and this Lease shall not be so terminated, the Base Rent shall be proportionately abated.

12.2 Temporary Taking. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article 12, in the event of a temporary taking of all or any portion of the Premises for a period of thirty (30) days or less, then this Lease shall not terminate but the Base Rent and Tenant's Share of Building Complex Expenses shall be abated for the period of such taking in proportion to the ratio that the amount of rentable square feet of the Premises taken bears to the total rentable square feet of the Premises. Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire award made in connection with any such temporary taking.

COVENANT OF QUIET ENJOYMENT

Landlord covenants that Tenant, on paying the Rent, charges for services and other payments herein reserved and on keeping, observing and performing all the other terms, covenants, conditions, provisions and agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant to be kept, observed and performed, shall, during the Lease Term, peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises subject to the terms, covenants, conditions, provisions and agreements hereof without interference by any persons lawfully claiming by or through Landlord. The foregoing covenant is in lieu of any other covenant express or implied.

14.1 Transfers. Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, assign, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, encumber, or permit any lien to attach to, or otherwise transfer, this Lease or any interest hereunder, permit any assignment or other such foregoing transfer of this Lease or any interest hereunder by operation of law, sublet the Premises or any part thereof, or permit the use of the Premises by any persons other than Tenant and its employees (all of the foregoing are hereinafter sometimes referred to collectively as "Transfers" and any person to whom any Transfer is made or sought to be made is hereinafter sometimes referred to as a "Transferee"). If Tenant shall desire Landlord's consent to any Transfer, Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing, which notice (the "Transfer Notice") shall include (i) the proposed effective date of the Transfer, which shall not be less than forty-five (45) days nor more than one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of delivery of the Transfer Notice, (ii) a description of the portion of the Premises to be transferred (the "Subject Space"), (iii) all of the terms of the proposed Transfer and the consideration therefor, including a calculation of the "Transfer Premium," as that term is defined in Section 14.3, below, in connection with such Transfer, the name and address of the proposed Transferee, and a copy of all existing and/or proposed documentation pertaining to the proposed Transfer, including all existing operative documents to be executed to evidence such Transfer or the agreements incidental or related to such Transfer, (iv) current financial statements of the proposed Transferee certified by an officer, partner or owner thereof, and (v) such other information as Landlord may reasonably require. Any Transfer made without Landlord's prior written consent, when such consent is required, shall, at Landlord's option, be null, void and of no effect, and shall, at Landlord's option, constitute a default by Tenant under Section 19.1.2 of this Lease. Whether or not Landlord consents to any proposed Transfer, Tenant shall pay Landlord's review and processing fees, as well as any reasonable legal fees incurred by Landlord, within thirty (30) days after written request by Landlord, in an amount not to exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) in 2017 dollars.

14.2 Landlord's Consent. Subject to Landlord's rights in Section 14.4 below, Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent to any proposed Transfer of the Subject Space to the Transferee on the terms specified in the Transfer Notice. The parties hereby agree that it shall be deemed to be reasonable under this Lease and under any applicable law for Landlord to withhold consent to any proposed Transfer where one or more of the following apply, without limitation as to other reasonable grounds for withholding consent:

14.2.1 The Transferee is of a character or reputation or engaged in a business which is not consistent with the quality of the Building Complex;

14.2.2 The Transferee's intended use of the Subject Space is not permitted under this Lease;

14.2.3 The Transfer will result in more than a reasonable and safe number of occupants per floor within the Subject Space than is allowed under applicable laws;

14.2.4 The Transferee is a governmental entity or agency;

14.2.5 The Transferee is not a party of reasonable financial worth and/or financial stability in light of the responsibilities involved under the Lease on the date consent is requested;

14.2.6 The proposed Transfer would cause Landlord to be in violation of another lease or agreement to which Landlord is a party, or would give an occupant of the Building Complex a right to cancel its lease; or 14.2.7 Either the proposed Transferee, or any person or entity which directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the proposed Transferee, (i) occupies space in the Building Complex at the time of the request for consent, or (ii) is negotiating with Landlord to lease space in the Building Complex at such time.

If Landlord consents to any Transfer pursuant to the terms of this Section 14.2 (and does not exercise any recapture rights Landlord may have under Section 14.4 of this Lease), Tenant may within six (6) months after Landlord's consent, but not later than the expiration of said six (6)-month period, enter into such Transfer of the Premises or portion thereof, upon substantially the same terms and conditions as are set forth in the Transfer Notice furnished by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to Section 14.1 of this Lease, provided that if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions from those specified in the Transfer Notice such that Landlord would initially have been entitled to refuse its consent to such Transfer under this Section 14.2, Tenant shall again submit the Transfer to Landlord for its approval and other action under this Article 14 (including Landlord's right of recapture, if any, under Section 14.4 of this Lease). Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this Lease, if Tenant or any proposed Transferee claims that Landlord has unreasonably withheld or delayed its consent to a proposed Transfer or otherwise has breached its obligations under this Article, Tenant's and such Transferee's only remedy shall be to seek a declaratory judgment and/or injunctive relief, and Tenant, on behalf of itself and, to the extent permitted by law, such proposed Transferee, waives all other remedies against Landlord, including without limitation, the right to seek monetary damages or terminate this Lease.

14.3 Transfer Premium.

14.3.1 Definition of Transfer Premium. If Landlord consents to a Transfer, as a condition thereto which the parties hereby agree is reasonable, Tenant shall pay to Landlord fifty percent (50%) of the "Transfer Premium," as that term is defined in this Section 14.3, received by Tenant from such Transferee. "Transfer Premium" shall mean all rent, additional rent or other consideration payable by such Transferee in connection with the Transfer which is in excess of the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease during the term of the Transfer, on a per rentable square foot basis if less than all of the Premises is transferred, after deducting the reasonable expenses incurred by Tenant for (i) any changes, alterations and improvements to the Premises in connection with the Transfer, (ii) any brokerage commissions in connection with the Transfer and (iii) Tenant's legal fees (collectively, the "Subleasing Costs"). "Transfer Premium" shall also include, but not be limited to, key money and bonus money paid by Transferee to Tenant in connection with such Transfer.

14.3.2 Payment of Transfer Premiums. The Transfer Premium shall be paid to Landlord promptly upon receipt of any portion of the Transfer Premium from the Transferee. For purposes of calculating the Transfer Premium, Tenant's Subleasing Costs shall be deemed to be offset against the first rent, additional rent or other consideration payable by the Transferee, until such Subleasing Costs are exhausted.

14.3.3 Calculations of Rent. In the calculation of the Rent, as it relates to the Transfer Premium calculated under Section 14.3.1 above, the Rent paid during each annual period for the Subject Space by Tenant, shall be computed after adjusting such rent to the actual effective rent to be paid, taking into consideration any and all leasehold concessions granted in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, any rent credit and tenant improvement allowance. For purposes of calculating any such effective rent, all such concessions shall be amortized on a straight-line basis over the relevant term.

14.4 Landlord's Option as to Subject Space. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article 14, in the event of an assignment of this Lease to anyone other than an Affiliate of Tenant, Landlord shall have the option, by giving written notice ("Recapture Notice") to Tenant within thirty (30) days after receipt of any Transfer Notice, to terminate this Lease and recapture the Subject Space. Such recapture notice shall cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date stated in the Transfer Notice as the effective date of the proposed Transfer. If Landlord declines, or fails to elect in a timely manner to recapture the Subject Space under this Section 14.4, then, provided Landlord has consented to the proposed Transfer, Tenant shall be entitled to proceed to transfer the Subject Space to the proposed Transferee, subject to provisions of the last paragraph of Section 14.2 of this Lease. Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, if Landlord delivers a Recapture Notice to Tenant, Tenant may, within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt of the Recapture Notice, deliver written notice to Landlord indicating that Tenant is rescinding its request for consent to the proposed Transfer, in which case such Transfer shall not be consummated and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect as to the portion of the Premises that was the subject of the Transfer. Tenant's failure to so notify Landlord in writing within said ten (10) day period shall be deemed to constitute Tenant's election to allow the Recapture Notice to be effective.

14.5 Effect of Transfer. If Landlord consents to a Transfer, (i) the terms and conditions of this Lease shall in no way be deemed to have been waived or modified, (ii) such consent shall not be deemed consent to any further Transfer by either Tenant or a Transferee, (iii) Tenant shall deliver to Landlord, promptly after execution, an original executed copy of all documentation pertaining to the Transfer in form reasonably acceptable to Landlord, (iv) Tenant shall furnish upon Landlord's request a complete statement, certified by an independent certified public accountant, or Tenant's chief financial officer, setting forth in detail the computation of any Transfer Premium Tenant has derived and shall derive from such Transfer, and (v) no Transfer relating to this Lease or agreement entered into with respect thereto, whether with or without Landlord's consent, shall relieve Tenant from liability under this Lease. Landlord or its authorized representatives shall have the right at all reasonable times to audit the books, records and papers of Tenant relating to the calculation of any Transfer Premium, and shall have the right to make copies thereof.

14.6 Additional Transfers. For purposes of this Lease, the term "Transfer" shall also include (i) if Tenant is a partnership, the withdrawal or change, voluntary, involuntary or by operation of law, of fifty percent (50%) or more of the partners, or transfer of fifty percent (50%) or more of partnership interests, within a twelve (12)-month period and a change in control, or the dissolution of the partnership without immediate reconstitution thereof, and (ii) if Tenant is a closely held corporation (i.e., whose stock is not publicly held and not traded through an exchange or over the counter), (A) the dissolution, merger, consolidation or other reorganization of Tenant, or (B) the sale or other transfer of more than an aggregate of fifty percent (50%) of the voting shares of Tenant (other than to immediate family members by reason of gift or death), within a twelve (12)-month period and a change in control, or (C)the sale, mortgage, hypothecation or pledge of more than an aggregate of fifty percent (50%) of the value of the unencumbered assets of Tenant within a twelve (12) month period.

14.7 Affiliated Companies/Restructuring of Business Organization. The assignment or subletting by Tenant of all or any portion of this Lease or the Premises to (i) a parent or subsidiary (including any subsidiary of a subsidiary) of Tenant, or (ii) any person or entity which controls, is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, or (iii) any entity which purchases all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant, or (iv) any entity into which Tenant is merged or consolidated, or (v) any entity in which Tenant or an affiliate of Tenant or any beneficial owner of Tenant or its parent or subsidiaries has any interest or is an officer, director, shareholder, partner, member or manager or at any other level (all such persons or entities described in (i), (ii), (iii) (iv) and (v) being sometimes hereinafter referred to as "Affiliates") shall not be deemed a Transfer under this Article 14, and thus shall not be subject to Landlord's consent under Section 14.1 or any other Lease provision, provided that:

14.7.1 Tenant gives Landlord prior notice of any such assignment or sublease to an Affiliate;

14.7.2 the successor of Tenant and Tenant have as of the effective date of any such assignment or sublease a tangible net worth, in the aggregate, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (but excluding goodwill as an asset), which is sufficient to meet the obligations of Tenant under this Lease;

14.7.3 any such assignment or sublease shall be subject and subordinate to all of the terms and provisions of this Lease, and such assignee or sublessee shall assume, in a written document reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and delivered to Landlord upon or prior to the effective date of such assignment or sublease, all the obligations of Tenant under this Lease with respect to the Subject Space which is the subject of such Transfer (other than the amount of Base Rent payable by Tenant with respect to a sublease); and 14.7.4 Tenant shall remain fully liable for all obligations to be performed by Tenant under this Lease.

An Affiliate that is an assignee of Original Tenant's entire interest in this Lease may be referred to as an "Affiliate Assignee".

ARTICLE 15
SURRENDER OF PREMISES; REMOVAL OF TRADE FIXTURES

15.1 Surrender of Premises. No act or thing done by Landlord or any agent or employee of Landlord during the Lease Term shall be deemed to constitute an acceptance by Landlord of a surrender of the Premises unless such intent is specifically acknowledged in a writing signed by Landlord or the Lease Expiration Date has occurred. The delivery of keys to the Premises to Landlord or any agent or employee of Landlord shall not constitute a surrender of the Premises or effect a termination of this Lease (unless the Lease Expiration Date has occurred), whether or not the keys are thereafter retained by Landlord, and notwithstanding such delivery Tenant shall be entitled to the return of such keys at any reasonable time upon request until this Lease shall have been terminated. The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant, whether accepted by Landlord or not, or a mutual termination hereof, shall not work a merger, and at the option of Landlord shall operate as an assignment to Landlord of all subleases or subtenancies affecting the Premises.

15.2 Removal of Tenant Property by Tenant. All articles of personal property and all business and trade fixtures, machinery and equipment, furniture and movable partitions owned by Tenant or installed by Tenant at its expense in the Premises, which items are not a part of the tenant improvements installed in the Premises, shall remain the property of Tenant, and may be removed by Tenant at any time during the Lease Term. Upon the expiration of the Lease Term, or upon any earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall, subject to the provisions of this Article 15, quit and surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord in as good order and condition as when Tenant took possession and as thereafter improved by Landlord and/or Tenant, reasonable wear and tear and repairs which are specifically made the responsibility of Landlord hereunder and damage due to casualties excepted. Upon such expiration or termination, Tenant shall, without expense to Landlord, remove or cause to be removed from the Premises all debris and rubbish, and such items of furniture, equipment, free-standing cabinet work, and other articles of personal property owned by Tenant or installed or placed by Tenant at its expense in the Premises, and such similar articles of any other persons claiming under Tenant, as Landlord may, in its sole discretion, require to be removed, and Tenant shall repair at its own expense all damage to the Premises and Building resulting from such removal. Upon such expiration or termination Tenant shall, without expense to Landlord remove or cause to be removed from the Premises all debris and rubbish, and such items of furniture, equipment, any telecommunications lines and cabling installed by or at the request of Tenant, free standing cabinet work, and other articles of personal property owned by Tenant or installed or placed by Tenant at its expense in the Premises and such similar articles of any other persons claiming under Tenant, as Landlord may in its sole discretion require to be removed, and Tenant shall repair at its own expense all damage to the Premises and Building resulting from such removal.

15.3 Removal of Tenant's Property by Landlord. Whenever Landlord shall re-enter the Premises as provided in this Lease, any personal property of Tenant not removed by Tenant upon the expiration of the Lease Term, or within five (5) business days after a termination by reason of Tenant's default as provided in this Lease, shall be deemed abandoned by Tenant and may be disposed of by Landlord in accordance with applicable Arizona law.

15.4 Landlord's Actions on Premises. Tenant hereby waives, and releases Landlord from, all claims for damages or other liability in connection with Landlord's or its agents' or representatives' lawfully reentering and taking possession of the Premises or removing, retaining, storing or selling the property of Tenant as herein provided.

HOLDING OVER

If Tenant holds over after the expiration of the Lease Term, with or without the express or implied consent of Landlord, such tenancy shall be from month-to-month only, and shall not constitute a renewal hereof or an extension for any further term, and in such case Base Rent shall be payable at a monthly rate equal to one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the Base Rent applicable during the last rental period of the Lease Term under this Lease. Such month-to-month tenancy shall be subject to every other applicable term, covenant and agreement contained herein. Nothing contained in this Article 16 shall be construed as consent by Landlord to any holding over by Tenant, and Landlord expressly reserves the right to require Tenant to surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord as provided in this Lease upon the expiration or other termination of this Lease. The provisions of this Article 16 shall not be deemed to limit or constitute a waiver of any other rights or remedies of Landlord provided herein or at law. Tenant acknowledges that if Tenant holds over without Landlord's consent, such holding over may compromise or otherwise affect Landlord's ability to enter into new leases with prospective tenants regarding the Premises. Therefore, if Tenant fails to surrender the Premises within ten (10) days following the termination or expiration of this Lease, in addition to any other liabilities to Landlord accruing therefrom, Tenant shall protect, defend, indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all Claims resulting from such failure, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any claims made by any succeeding tenant founded upon such failure to surrender, and any losses suffered by Landlord resulting from such failure to surrender; provided, however, that in no event shall Tenant's indemnity obligation extend to consequential, punitive, exemplary or special damages, or any damages which are not proximately caused by Tenant's failure to timely surrender the Premises.

ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES

Within fifteen (15) days following a request in writing by Landlord, when required for the finance, refinance or prospective sale of the Building, Tenant shall execute and deliver to Landlord an estoppel certificate which, as submitted by Landlord, shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit E, attached hereto (or such other reasonably similar form as may be required by any prospective mortgagee or purchaser of the Building Complex or any portion thereof), indicating therein any exceptions thereto that may exist at that time, and shall also contain any other information which is customarily contained in estoppel certificates and reasonably requested by Landlord or Landlord's mortgagee or prospective mortgagee or purchasers. Tenant shall execute and deliver whatever other instruments may be reasonably required for such purposes. During the Lease Term, when required for the finance, refinance or prospective sale of the Building, Landlord may require Tenant to provide Landlord with financial information in accordance with Section 25.34 hereof (including making Tenant's CFO available as provided in Section 25.34). Such statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and, if such is the normal practice of Tenant, shall be audited by an independent certified public accountant. Failure of Tenant to timely execute and deliver such estoppel certificate or other instruments shall constitute an acceptance of the Premises and an acknowledgment by Tenant that statements included in the estoppel certificate are true and correct, without exception. Failure by Tenant to so deliver such estoppel certificate shall be a default of the provisions of this Lease subject to the applicable notice and cure periods provided in Section 19.1.2..

SUBORDINATION

This Lease shall be subject and subordinate to all easement agreements and covenants, conditions and restrictions recorded against the land underlying the Building Complex, and, subject to the provisions in the immediately following sentence, to all present and future ground or underlying leases of the Real Property and to the lien of any mortgages or trust deeds, now or hereafter in force against the Real Property, if any, and to all renewals, extensions, modifications, consolidations and replacements thereof, and to all advances made or hereafter to be made upon the security of such mortgages or trust deeds, unless the holders of such mortgages or trust deeds, or the lessors under such ground lease or underlying leases, require in writing that this Lease be superior thereto; provided, however, that Tenant's agreement to subordinate this Lease to any future mortgage is conditioned on the holder of such interest entering into a commercially reasonable non-disturbance agreement with Tenant. Tenant covenants and agrees in the event any proceedings are brought for the foreclosure of any such mortgage or deed in lieu thereof, to attorn to the purchaser or any successors thereto upon any such foreclosure sale or deed in lieu thereof if so requested to do so by such purchaser, and to recognize such purchaser as the lessor under this Lease. Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days of request by Landlord, execute such further instruments or assurances as Landlord may reasonably deem necessary to evidence or confirm the subordination or superiority of this Lease to any such mortgages, trust deeds, ground leases or underlying leases on the terms as set forth above. Tenant waives the provisions of any current or future statute, rule or law which may give or purport to give Tenant any right or election to terminate or otherwise adversely affect this Lease and the obligations of the Tenant hereunder in the event of any foreclosure proceeding or sale. Landlord shall, on or before the Lease Commencement Date, obtain from the current lender holding a lien on the Real Property as of the date hereof, an SNDA in favor of Tenant with respect to this Lease, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARTICLE 19
DEFAULTS; REMEDIES

19.1 Tenant Defaults. All covenants and agreements to be kept or performed by Tenant under this Lease shall be performed by Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense and without any reduction of Rent. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default of this Lease by Tenant:

19.1.1 Any failure by Tenant to pay any Rent or any other charge required to be paid under this Lease, or any part thereof, when due, and such failure continues for more than ten (10) days after written notice thereof from Landlord; provided however, that any such notice shall be in lieu of, and not in addition to, any notice required under applicable Arizona law; or

19.1.2 Any failure by Tenant to observe or perform any other provision, covenant or condition of this Lease to be observed or performed by Tenant where such failure continues for thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord to Tenant; provided however, that any such notice shall be in lieu of, and not in addition to, any notice required under applicable Arizona law; and provided further that if the nature of such default is such that the same cannot reasonably be cured within a thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be deemed to be in default if it diligently commences such cure within such period and thereafter diligently proceeds to rectify and cure said default, as soon as possible; or

19.1.3 Abandonment or vacation of the Premises by Tenant coupled with the failure to pay Rent; or

19.1.4 Intentionally Deleted.

19.1.5 To the extent permitted by law, a general assignment by Tenant or any guarantor of the Lease for the benefit of creditors, or the filing by or against Tenant or any guarantor of any proceeding under an insolvency or bankruptcy law, unless in the case of a proceeding filed against Tenant or any guarantor the same is dismissed within sixty (60) days, or the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take possession of all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant or any guarantor, unless possession is restored to Tenant or such guarantor within thirty (30) days, or any execution or other judicially authorized seizure of all or substantially all of Tenant's assets located upon the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease, unless such seizure is discharged within thirty (30) days; or

19.1.6 The hypothecation or assignment of this Lease or subletting of the Premises, or attempts at such actions, in violation of Article 14 hereof.

19.2 Remedies Upon Default. Upon the occurrence of such default by Tenant, Landlord shall have, in addition to any other remedies available to Landlord at law or in equity, the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies, each and all of which shall be cumulative and nonexclusive, without any notice or demand whatsoever.

19.2.1 Terminate this Lease, in which event Tenant shall immediately surrender the Premises to Landlord, and if Tenant fails to do so, Landlord may, without prejudice to any other remedy which it may have for possession or arrearages in rent, lawfully enter upon and take possession of the Premises and expel or remove Tenant and any other person who may be occupying the Premises or any part thereof, without being liable for prosecution or any claim or damages therefor; and Landlord may recover from Tenant the following:

(i) The worth at the time of award of any unpaid rent which has been earned at the time of such termination; plus

(ii) The worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus

(iii) The worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the Lease Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus

(iv) Any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom, specifically including but not limited to, brokerage commissions and advertising expenses incurred, expenses of remodeling the Premises or any portion thereof for a new tenant, whether for the same or a different use, and any special concessions made to obtain a new tenant; and

(v) At Landlord's election, such other amounts in addition to or in lieu of the foregoing as may be permitted from time to time by applicable law.

The term "rent" as used in this Section 19.2 shall be deemed to be and to mean all sums of every nature required to be paid by Tenant pursuant to the terms of this Lease. As used in Sections 19.2.1(i) and (ii), above, the "worth at the time of award" shall be computed by allowing interest at the Interest Rate set forth in Section 4.2.4 of this Lease, but in no case greater than the maximum amount of such interest permitted by law. As used in Section 19.2.1 (iii) above, the "worth at the time of award" shall be computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of award plus one percent (1%).

19.2.2 Terminate Tenant's right to possess the Premises by any lawful means with or without terminating this Lease, in which event Tenant will immediately surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord. In such event, this Lease continues in full force and effect (except for Tenant's right to possess the Premises) and Tenant continues to be obligated for and must pay all Rent as and when due under this Lease. Unless Landlord specifically states that it is terminating this Lease, Landlord's termination of Tenant's right to possess the Premises is not to be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease or Tenant's obligations and liabilities under this Lease. If Landlord terminates Tenant's right to possess the Premises, Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate its damages but Landlord shall not be required to favor the Premises, if there is other vacant comparable space in the Building. Landlord may store any property Landlord removes from the Premises in a public warehouse or elsewhere at the cost and for the account of Tenant, and if Tenant fails to pay the storage charges therefor Landlord may deem such property abandoned and cause such property to be sold or otherwise disposed of without further obligation or any accounting to Tenant. Upon such re-entry, Landlord is not obligated to, but may relet all or any part of the Premises to a third party or parties for Tenant's account. Tenant is immediately liable to Landlord for all Costs of Re-Letting (as defined below) and must pay Landlord the same within thirty (30) days after Landlord's notice to Tenant. Landlord may relet the Premises for a period shorter or longer than the remaining Lease Term. If Landlord relets all or any part of the Premises, Tenant remains obligated to pay all Rent when due under this Lease; provided that Landlord will, on a monthly basis, credit any Net Re-Letting Proceeds (as defined below) received for the current month against Tenant's Rent obligation for the next succeeding month. If the Net Re-Letting Proceeds received for any month exceeds Tenant's Rent obligation for the succeeding month, Landlord may retain the surplus.

As used herein, "Net Re-Letting Proceeds" shall mean the total amount of rent and other consideration paid by any Replacement Tenants (as defined below), less all Costs of Re-Letting, during a given period of time. "Costs of Re-Letting" shall include without limitation, all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Landlord for any repairs, maintenance, changes, alterations and improvements to the Premises, standard market rate, brokerage commissions, advertising costs, reasonable attorneys' fees, any customary free rent periods or credits, tenant improvement allowances, take-over lease obligations and other customary, necessary or appropriate economic incentives required to enter leases with Replacement Tenants, and costs of collecting rent from Replacement Tenants which are consistent with then current standard market conditions. "Replacement Tenants" shall mean any individual, trust, partnership, company, joint venture, association, corporation, or any other entity to whom Landlord relets the Premises or any portion thereof pursuant to this Section 19.2.2.

Landlord shall have all available remedies provided to Landlord as lessor under this Lease in accordance with applicable Arizona law.

19.2.3 Landlord may continue the Lease in effect and recover rent as it becomes due. Accordingly, if Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease on account of any default by Tenant, Landlord may, from time to time, without terminating this Lease, enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover all rent as it becomes due.

19.2.4 Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, make any such payment or perform or otherwise cure any such obligation, provision, covenant or condition on Tenant's part to be observed or performed (and may enter the Premises for such purposes), all at Tenant's expense, without waiving its rights based upon any default of Tenant and without releasing Tenant from any obligations hereunder. In the event of Tenant's failure to perform any of its obligations or covenants under this Lease, and such failure to perform poses a material risk of injury or harm to persons or damage to or loss of property, then Landlord shall have the right to cure or otherwise perform such covenant or obligation at any time after such failure to perform by Tenant, whether or not any such notice or cure period set forth in Section 19.1 above has expired. Any such actions undertaken by Landlord pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 19.2.3 shall not be deemed a waiver of Landlord's rights and remedies as a result of Tenant's failure to perform and shall not release Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease.

19.3 Payment by Tenant. Tenant shall pay to Landlord, within thirty (30) days after delivery by Landlord to Tenant of statements therefor: (i) sums equal to expenditures reasonably made and reasonable obligations incurred by Landlord in connection with Landlord's performance or cure of any of Tenant's obligations pursuant to the provisions of Section 19.2.3 above; and (ii) sums equal to all reasonable expenditures made and obligations incurred by Landlord in collecting or attempting to collect the Rent or in enforcing or attempting to enforce any rights of Landlord under this Lease or pursuant to law, including, without limitation, all legal fees and other amounts so expended. Tenant's obligations under this Section 19.3 shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of the Lease Term.

19.4 Subleases of Tenant. Whether or not Landlord elects to terminate this Lease on account of any default by Tenant, as set forth in this Article 19, following any such default by Tenant, Landlord shall have the right to terminate any and all subleases, licenses, concessions or other consensual arrangements for possession entered into by Tenant and affecting the Premises or may, in Landlord's sole discretion, succeed to Tenant's interest in such subleases, licenses, concessions or arrangements. In the event of Landlord's election to succeed to Tenant's interest in any such subleases, licenses, concessions or arrangements, Tenant shall, as of the date of notice by Landlord of such election, have no further right to or interest in the rent or other consideration receivable thereunder.

19.5 Intentionally Deleted.

19.6 Waiver of Default. No waiver by Landlord of any violation or breach by Tenant of any of the terms, provisions and covenants herein contained shall be deemed or construed to constitute a waiver of any other or later violation or breach by Tenant of the same or any other of the terms, provisions, and covenants herein contained. Forbearance by Landlord in enforcement of one or more of the remedies herein provided upon a default by Tenant shall not be deemed or construed to constitute a waiver of such default. The acceptance of any Rent hereunder by Landlord following the occurrence of any default, whether or not known to Landlord, shall not be deemed a waiver of any such default, except only a default in the payment of the Rent so accepted.

19.7 Efforts to Relet. For the purposes of this Article 19, Tenant's right to possession shall not be deemed to have been terminated by efforts of Landlord to relet the Premises, by its acts of maintenance or preservation with respect to the Premises, or by appointment of a receiver to protect Landlord's interests hereunder. The foregoing enumeration is not exhaustive, but merely illustrative of acts which may be performed by Landlord without terminating Tenant's right to possession.

19.8 Landlord's Default.

19.8.1 Landlord shall not be deemed in default under the terms of this Lease unless (i) Landlord shall fail to pay any amount payable hereunder when and as such sum becomes due and payable and such failure shall continue for more than thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Tenant or (ii) Landlord shall fail to perform its obligations under this Lease for more than thirty (30) days after written notice of such default shall have been received by Landlord, provided that if the curing of such default reasonably requires in excess of thirty (30) days, Landlord shall not be deemed in default hereunder if it shall commence to cure such default within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure, then Tenant shall have its rights and remedies provided at law and in equity and pursuant to the provisions of this Lease.

19.8.2 Tenant agrees to give any mortgagee by registered mail, a copy of any notice of default served upon Landlord, provided that before sending such notice, Tenant has been notified in writing of the address of the mortgagee. Tenant further agrees, except in the event of an emergency, that if Landlord fails to cure any default within the time provided in this Lease, the mortgagee shall have an additional thirty (30) days within which to cure the default, and if the default cannot be cured within thirty (30) days, then such reasonable additional time as may be necessary to cure the default will be granted if within the initial thirty (30) day period, the mortgagee has commenced and is diligently pursuing its remedies necessary to cure the default (including, but not limited to, commencement of foreclosure proceedings, if necessary to effect such cure), in which event, the Lease shall not be terminated while such remedies are being so diligently pursued.

19.8.3 The provisions of this Section 19.8 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

19.8.4 Waiver of Default. No waiver by Tenant of any violation or breach by Landlord of any of the terms, provisions and covenants herein contained shall be deemed or construed to constitute a waiver of any other or later violation or breach by Landlord of the same or any other of the terms, provisions, and covenants herein contained. Forbearance by Tenant in enforcement of one or more of the remedies herein provided upon a default by Landlord shall not be deemed or construed to constitute a waiver of such default.

SIGNS

21.1 Full Floor Tenants. Subject to Landlord's prior written approval, in its sole discretion, and provided all signs are in keeping with the quality, design and style of the Building Complex, if the Premises or any portion thereof comprise an entire floor of the Building, Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, may install identification signage anywhere in the Premises including in the elevator lobby of the Premises, provided that such signs must not be visible from the exterior of the Building.

21.2 Intentionally Deleted.

21.3 Exterior Signs. Subject to the approval of all applicable governmental and quasi-governmental entities, and subject to all applicable governmental and quasi-governmental laws, rules, regulations and codes and any covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting the Real Property, Landlord hereby grants Tenant (i) the exclusive right to have Building top exterior identification signs containing the name "Quicken Loans" on two (2) facades of the Building, the choice of which facades shall be mutually acceptable to Landlord and Tenant (the "Building Signs"), (ii)the non-exclusive right to have one (1) eyebrow sign containing the name "Quicken Loans" on the rotunda portion of the Building facing southeast (the "Eyebrow Sign") and (iii) the non-exclusive right to have one (1) exterior sign above the entrance to the west parking garage containing the name "Quicken Loans" (collectively, the "Exterior Signs"). Landlord will provide reasonable assistance to Tenant by signing (if necessary) and supporting Tenant's application to the governmental agencies to obtain approval for its signage. For the sake of clarity, the Building top signage referred to in subsection (i) above shall be the only signs permitted at the top of the Building regardless of whether additional top of Building façade signs are permitted by applicable law. The design, size, specifications, graphics, materials, manner of affixing, exact location, colors and lighting (if applicable) of Tenant's Exterior Signs shall be (i) consistent with the quality and appearance of the Building Complex, (ii) subject to the approval of all applicable governmental and quasi-governmental authorities, and subject to all applicable governmental and quasi-governmental laws, rules, regulations and codes and any covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting the Real Property, and (iii) subject to Landlord's approval (which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). Landlord shall install Tenant's Exterior Signs at Tenant's sole cost and expense. In addition, Tenant shall be responsible for all other costs attributable to the fabrication, insurance, lighting (if applicable), maintenance, repair and removal of Tenant's Exterior Signs. The signage rights granted to Tenant under this Section 21.3 are personal to the Original Tenant, any Affiliate Assignee and, subject to the terms hereof, any assignee approved by Landlord pursuant to Article 14 of this Lease, may not be exercised or used by or assigned to any other person or entity. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, or upon the earlier termination of Tenant's signage rights under this Section 21.3, Landlord shall have the right to permanently remove Tenant's Exterior Signs from the Building and/or the Building Complex and to repair all damage to the Building and/or the Building Complex resulting from such removal and restore the affected area to its original condition existing prior to the installation of such Exterior Signs, and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the costs thereof. Landlord hereby approves all of Tenant's Exterior Signs and the related specifications of every such sign as contained in Exhibit H attached hereto; provided, however, that the west parking garage signage shall be subject to modification in order to accommodate the signage rights of the Existing Tenant in such location. Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, any assignee's rights to the Exterior Signs is conditions on (i) such assignee being engaged in a business that is consistent with the first-class nature of the Building Complex and (ii) such assignee's name not being an Objectionable Name. The term "Objectionable Name" shall mean any name that (i) relates to an entity that is of a character or reputation, or is associated with a political orientation or faction that is materially inconsistent with the quality of the Building Complex, or which would otherwise reasonably offend a landlord of a building comparable to the Building Complex, taking into consideration the level and visibility of Tenant's signage, or (ii) conflicts with any covenants in other leases of space in the Building Complex.

21.4 Prohibited Signage and Other Items. Any signs, notices, logos, pictures, names or advertisements which are installed and that have not been separately approved by Landlord may be removed without notice by Landlord at the sole expense of Tenant. Tenant may not install any signs on the exterior or roof of the Building or the common areas of the Building or the Real Property except as provided in Section 21.3. Any signs, window coverings, or blinds (even if the same are located behind the Landlord approved window coverings for the Building), or other items visible from the exterior of the Premises or Building are subject to the prior written approval of Landlord, in its sole discretion.

21.5 Building Directory. Tenant shall, at Landlord's expense, be entitled to display Tenant's name and suite number on the Building directory in a manner consistent with the largest tenant display on such directory board..

COMPLIANCE WITH LAW

Tenant shall not do anything or suffer anything to be done in or about the Premises which will in any way conflict with any law, statute, ordinance or other governmental rule, regulation or requirement now in force or which may hereafter be enacted or promulgated. At its sole cost and expense, Tenant shall promptly comply with any board of fire underwriters or similar body relating to the Premises, all recorded covenants, conditions and restrictions now or hereafter affecting the Premises and all laws, statutes, codes, rules and regulations (including those pertaining to Hazardous Materials) now or hereafter in force relating to or affecting the condition, use, occupancy, alteration or improvement of the Premises, including, without limitation, the provisions of the ADA (collectively "Applicable Laws") as it pertains to the condition, use, occupancy, improvement and alteration (including unforeseen and/or extraordinary alterations or improvements, and regardless of the period of time remaining in the Lease Term) of the Premises, other than the making of structural changes to the Building (collectively, the "Excluded Changes"). At all times during the Lease Term, Landlord shall insure that the Building and the Common Areas comply with all Applicable Laws. Should any standard or regulation now or hereafter be imposed on Landlord or Tenant by a state, federal or local governmental body charged with the establishment, regulation and enforcement of occupational, health or safety standards for employers, employees, landlords or tenants, then Landlord and Tenant agree to comply promptly with such standards or regulations and each party shall be required to pay the cost thereof for which it is otherwise responsible (and Landlord shall not include any such costs of compliance in Operating Expenses unless allowed under Section 4.2 of this Lease). In addition, Tenant shall fully comply with all present or future programs intended to manage parking, transportation or traffic in and around the Building, and in connection therewith, Tenant shall take reasonable action for the transportation planning and management of all employees located at the Premises by working directly with Landlord, any governmental transportation management organization or any other transportation-related committees or entities. The judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction or the admission of Tenant in any judicial action, regardless of whether Landlord is a party thereto, that Tenant has violated any of said governmental measures, shall be conclusive of that fact as between Landlord and Tenant.

ENTRY BY LANDLORD

Landlord reserves the right at all reasonable times and upon not less than forty-eight (48) hours prior written notice to Tenant (except no such prior notice shall be required in emergencies) to enter the Premises to: (i) inspect them (provided that entry for this purpose shall be limited to once in a three (3) month period); (ii) show the Premises to prospective purchasers, mortgagees or ground or underlying lessors, or, during the last twelve (12) months of the Lease Term, prospective tenants; (iii) post notices of nonresponsibility; or (iv) alter, improve or repair the Premises or the Building if necessary to comply with current building codes or other applicable laws, or for structural alterations, repairs or improvements to the Building, or as Landlord may otherwise reasonably desire or deem necessary. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article 23, Landlord may enter the Premises at any time, without notice to Tenant, to (A) perform janitorial and other services required of Landlord, (B) take possession due to any breach of this Lease in the manner provided herein and after a judgment of possession is received in any required construction; and (C) perform any covenants of Tenant which Tenant fails to perform. Any such entries shall be without the abatement of Rent and shall include the right to take such reasonable steps as required to accomplish the stated purposes; provided, however, that any such entry shall be accomplished as expeditiously as reasonably possible and in a manner so as to cause as little interference to Tenant as reasonably possible. Except for damages or injuries caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, its employees, agents and contractors, Tenant hereby waives any claims for damages or for any injuries or inconvenience to or interference with Tenant's business, lost profits, any loss of occupancy or quiet enjoyment of the Premises, and any other loss occasioned by Landlord's entry into the Premises. For each of the above purposes, Landlord shall at all times have a key with which to unlock all the doors in the Premises, excluding Tenant's vaults, safes and special security areas designated in advance by Tenant. In an emergency, Landlord shall have the right to use any means that Landlord may deem proper to open the doors in and to the Premises. Any entry into the Premises by Landlord in the manner hereinbefore described shall not be deemed to be a forcible or unlawful entry into, or a detainer of, the Premises, or an actual or constructive eviction of Tenant from any portion of the Premises.

ARTICLE 24
TENANT PARKING

Tenant shall be entitled to use throughout the Lease Term the number of reserved and unreserved parking passes set forth in Section 12 of the Summary, in a location in the Building Complex Parking Area as designated in Section 12 of the Summary. Tenant shall pay to Landlord for the use of such parking passes, on a monthly basis, the prevailing rate charged from time to time by Landlord or Landlord's parking operator for parking passes in the Building Complex Parking Area where such parking passes are located. As of the date hereof, the prevailing rate for unreserved parking passes is Ninety Dollars ($90.00) per pass per month and the rate for reserved parking passes is One Hundred Ten Dollars ($110.00) per pass per month (subject, however, to increase from time to time during the Term to Landlord's then-prevailing rate); provided, however, that Landlord agrees to not increase Landlord's prevailing parking rate payable by Tenant for the first sixty (60) months of the Lease Term and in no event shall the parking rates payable by Tenant increase, on an annual and cumulative basis, more than three percent (3%) over the parking rates charged by Landlord for the prior calendar year. Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as Tenant is not in default under this Lease beyond any applicable notice and cure period, Landlord agrees to abate Tenant's parking charges for the first twelve (12) full calendar months of the Lease Term. Tenant's continued right to use the parking passes is conditioned upon Tenant abiding by all rules and regulations which are prescribed from time to time for the orderly operation and use of the Building Complex Parking Area provided that Landlord shall enforce such rules and regulations uniformly as to all users of the Building Complex Parking Area. In addition, Landlord may assign any parking spaces and/or make all or a portion of such spaces reserved or institute an attendant-assisted tandem parking program and/or valet parking program if Landlord determines in its sole discretion that such is necessary or desirable for orderly and efficient parking. Landlord specifically reserves the right, from time to time, to change the size, configuration, design, layout, location and all other aspects of the Building Complex Parking Area, and Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord, from time to time, may, without incurring any liability to Tenant and without any abatement of Rent under this Lease temporarily close-off or restrict access to the Building Complex Parking Area, or temporarily relocate Tenant's parking spaces to other parking structures and/or surface parking areas within a reasonable distance from the Building Complex Parking Area, for purposes of permitting or facilitating any such construction, alteration or improvements or to accommodate or facilitate renovation, alteration, construction or other modification of other improvements or structures located on the Real Property. Landlord may delegate its responsibilities hereunder to a parking operator in which case such parking operator shall have all the rights of control attributed hereby to Landlord. The parking rates charged by Landlord for Tenant's parking passes shall be exclusive of any parking tax or other charges imposed by governmental authorities in connection with the use of such parking, which taxes and/or charges shall be paid directly by Tenant or the parking users, or, if directly imposed against Landlord, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all such taxes and/or charges within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt of the invoice from Landlord. The parking passes provided to Tenant pursuant to this Article 24 are provided solely for use by Tenant's own personnel (and the personnel of any Affiliate Assignee) and such passes may not be transferred, assigned, subleased or otherwise alienated by Tenant without Landlord's prior written approval (except to any Affiliate Assignee). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section or elsewhere in the Lease, the following terms and conditions shall apply to the Tenant parking set forth herein: (i) Tenant shall always have available for its use two (2) parking spaces per 1,000 rentable square feet of space in the Building occupied by Tenant which shall include any additional Space acquired by Tenant's exercise of its rights under Section 1.4 hereof; (ii) if Tenant increases the size of the Premises by any First Offer Space, three (3%) percent of all new parking spaces shall be set aside as reserved parking spaces; (iii) all parking spaces which are reserved spaces for Tenant's use in the Building Complex Parking Area shall be designated parking spaces for Tenant's exclusive use; (iv) Tenant may, upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord convert any reserved parking spaces to unreserved parking spaces; (v) Tenant shall have access to the Building Complex Parking Area and its parking spaces twenty four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week and three hundred sixty five (365) days each year, subject, however, to the aforementioned rights of Landlord to temporarily restrict access thereto for maintenance and repair and subject to Force Majeure events; (vi) the reserved spaces designated for Tenant are identified on Exhibit I attached hereto and shall be designated with signs reading "For Expectant Mothers".

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

25.1 Binding Effect. Each of the provisions of this Lease shall extend to and shall, as the case may require, bind or inure to the benefit not only of Landlord and of Tenant, but also of their respective successors or assigns, provided this clause shall not permit any assignment by Tenant contrary to the provisions of Article 14 of this Lease.

25.2 No Air Rights. No rights to any view or to light or air over any property, whether belonging to Landlord or any other person, are granted to Tenant by this Lease. If at any time any windows of the Premises are temporarily darkened or the light or view therefrom is obstructed by reason of any repairs, improvements, maintenance or cleaning in or about the Building, the same shall be without liability to Landlord and without any reduction or diminution of Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

25.3 Recording Short Form of Lease. Should Landlord or any such prospective mortgagee or ground lessor require execution of a short form of Lease for recording, containing, among other customary provisions, the names of the parties, a description of the Premises and the Lease Term, Tenant agrees to execute such short form of Lease and to deliver the same to Landlord within ten (10) days following the request therefor.

25.4 Transfer of Landlord's Interest. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has the right to transfer all or any portion of its interest in the Real Property and in this Lease, and Tenant agrees that in the event of any such transfer and a transfer of any pre-paid Rent, Landlord shall automatically be released from all liability under this Lease from and after the date of transfer and Tenant agrees to look solely to such transferee for the performance of Landlord's obligations hereunder after the date of transfer. Landlord (or such transferee) shall provide Tenant with notice of such transfer. Tenant further acknowledges that Landlord may assign its interest in this Lease to the holder of any mortgage or deed of trust as additional security, but agrees that such an assignment shall not release Landlord from its obligations hereunder and that Tenant shall continue to look to Landlord for the performance of its obligations hereunder.

25.5 Prohibition Against Recording. Except as provided in Section 25.3 of this Lease, neither this Lease, nor any memorandum, affidavit or other writing with respect thereto, shall be recorded by Tenant or by anyone acting through, under or on behalf of Tenant, and the recording thereof in violation of this provision shall make this Lease null and void at Landlord's election.

25.6 Captions. The captions of Articles and Sections are for convenience only and shall not be deemed to limit, construe, affect or alter the meaning of such Articles and Sections.

25.7 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto or by any third party to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venturer or any association between Landlord and Tenant, it being expressly understood and agreed that neither the method of computation of Rent nor any act of the parties hereto shall be deemed to create any relationship between Landlord and Tenant other than the relationship of landlord and tenant.

25.8 Time of Essence. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions.

25.9 Partial Invalidity. If any term, provision or condition contained in this Lease shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such term, provision or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each and every other term, provision and condition of this Lease shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent possible permitted by law.

25.10 Landlord and Tenant Exculpation. It is expressly understood and agreed that notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, and notwithstanding any applicable law to the contrary, the liability of Landlord and the Landlord Parties hereunder (including any successor landlord) and any recourse by Tenant against Landlord or the Landlord Parties (including any successor landlord) shall be limited solely and exclusively to an amount which is equal to the interest of Landlord in the Building Complex, rents, other income, insurance proceeds and condemnation proceeds, and neither Landlord, nor any of the Landlord Parties shall have any personal liability therefor, and Tenant hereby expressly waives and releases such personal liability on behalf of itself and all persons claiming by, through or under Tenant. It is also expressly understood and agreed that notwithstanding anything in this Lease or under Applicable Law to the contrary, the Tenant Parties (other than Tenant) shall have no responsibility under this Lease and Landlord shall not have any recourse against such Tenant Parties (other than Tenant) for obligations under this Lease.

25.11 Intentionally Omitted.

25.12 Entire Agreement. It is understood and acknowledged that there are no oral agreements between the parties hereto affecting this Lease and this Lease supersedes and cancels any and all previous negotiations, arrangements, brochures, agreements and understandings, if any, between the parties hereto or displayed by Landlord to Tenant with respect to the subject matter thereof, and none thereof shall be used to interpret or construe this Lease. This Lease, the exhibits and schedules attached hereto, and any side letter or separate agreement executed by Landlord and Tenant in connection with this Lease and dated of even date herewith contain all of the terms, covenants, conditions, warranties and agreements of the parties relating in any manner to the rental, use and occupancy of the Premises, shall be considered to be the only agreement between the parties hereto and their representatives and agents, and none of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease can be modified, deleted or added to except in writing signed by the parties hereto.

25.13 Right to Lease. Landlord reserves the absolute right to effect such other tenancies in the Building Complex as Landlord in the exercise of its sole business judgment shall determine to best promote the interests of the Building Complex. Tenant does not rely on the fact, nor does Landlord represent, that any specific tenant or type or number of tenants shall, during the Lease Term, occupy any space in the Building Complex.

25.14 Force Majeure. Any prevention, delay or stoppage due to strikes, lockouts, labor disputes, acts of God, inability to obtain services, labor, or materials or reasonable substitutes therefor, governmental actions, civil commotions, fire or other casualty, and other causes beyond the reasonable control of the party obligated to perform (collectively, the "Force Majeure"), except with respect to the obligations imposed with regard to Rent and other charges to be paid by Tenant pursuant to this Lease, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, shall excuse the performance of such party for a period equal to any such prevention, delay or stoppage and, therefore, if this Lease specifies a time period for performance of an obligation of either party, that time period shall be extended by the period of any delay in such party's performance caused by a Force Majeure.

25.15 Notices. All notices, demands, statements, approvals or communications (collectively, "Notices") given or required to be given by either party to the other hereunder shall be in writing, shall be sent by United States certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, by any recognized overnight courier service (i.e., Federal Express, UPS) or delivered personally (i) to Tenant at the appropriate address set forth in Section 5 of the Summary, or to such other place as Tenant may from time to time designate in a Notice to Landlord; or (ii) to Landlord at the addresses set forth in Section 3 of the Summary, or to such other firm or to such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate in a Notice to Tenant. Any Notice will be deemed given on the date which is two (2) business days after it is mailed as provided in this Section 25.15 or upon the date personal delivery is made.

25.16 Joint and Several. If there is more than one Tenant, the obligations imposed upon Tenant under this Lease shall be joint and several.

25.17 Authority. If Tenant is a corporation or partnership, each individual executing this Lease on behalf of Tenant hereby represents and warrants that Tenant is a duly formed and existing entity qualified to do business in Arizona and that Tenant has full right and authority to execute and deliver this Lease and that each person signing on behalf of Tenant is authorized to do so.

25.18 Governing Law. This Lease shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Arizona.

25.19 Submission of Lease. Submission of this instrument for examination or signature by Tenant does not constitute a reservation of or an option for lease, and it is not effective as a lease or otherwise until execution and delivery by both Landlord and Tenant.

25.20 Brokers. Landlord and Tenant hereby warrant to each other that they have had no dealings with any real estate broker or agent in connection with the negotiation of this Lease, excepting only the real estate brokers or agents specified in Section 13 of the Summary and Landlord's designated representative (the "Brokers"), and that they know of no other real estate broker or agent who is entitled to a commission in connection with this Lease. Landlord shall pay the brokerage commissions owing to the Brokers in connection with the transaction contemplated by this Lease pursuant to the terms of a separate written agreement between Landlord and the Brokers. Each party agrees to indemnify, defend, protect and hold the other party harmless from and against any and all Claims with respect to any leasing commission or equivalent compensation alleged to be owing on account of the indemnifying party's dealings with any real estate broker or agent other than the Brokers. The terms of this Section 25.20 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease Term.

25.21 Intentionally Deleted.

25.22 Building Name and Signage. Landlord shall have the right at any time to designate and/or change the name of the Building and to install, affix and maintain any and all signs on the exterior and on the interior of the Building, as Landlord may, in Landlord's sole discretion, desire subject however to all of the rights to signage, both exclusive and non-exclusive, granted to Tenant in Article 21 of this Lease.

25.23 Intentionally Deleted.

25.24 Transportation Management. Tenant shall fully comply with all present or future mandatory programs intended to manage parking, transportation or traffic in and around the Building Complex, and in connection therewith, Tenant shall take reasonable action for the transportation planning and management of all employees located at the Premises by working directly with Landlord, any governmental transportation management organization or any other transportation-related committees or entities. To the extent that any such programs are voluntary, Tenant shall not be required to comply if in Tenant's reasonable judgment such compliance would adversely affect the operation of Tenant's business. Such programs may include, without limitation: (i) restrictions on the number of peak-hour vehicle trips generated by Tenant; (ii) increased vehicle occupancy; (iii) implementation of an in-house ridesharing program and an employee transportation coordinator; (iv) working with employees and any Building Complex or area-wide ridesharing program manager; (v) instituting employer-sponsored incentives (financial or in-kind) to encourage employees to rideshare; and (vi) utilizing flexible work shifts for employees.

25.25 No Discrimination. Landlord and Tenant covenant, and this Lease is made and accepted upon and subject to the following conditions: that there shall be no discrimination against or segregation of any person or group of persons, on account of race, color, creed, sex, religion, marital status, ancestry or national origin in the leasing, subleasing, transferring, use, or enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall Landlord or Tenant establish or permit such practice or practices of discrimination or segregation with reference to the selection, location, number, use or occupancy, of tenants, lessees, sublessees, subtenants or vendees in the Building or in the Premises.

25.26 Successors. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the obligations of this Lease shall bind and benefit the successors and assigns of the parties hereto; provided, however, that no assignment, sublease or other transfer in violation of the provisions of Article 14 shall operate to vest any rights in any putative assignee, subtenant or transferee of Tenant.

25.27 Landlord Renovations. It is specifically understood and agreed that Landlord has made no representation or warranty to Tenant and has no obligation to alter, remodel, improve, renovate, repair or decorate the Premises, Building, Building Complex or any part thereof, or to add any additional phases or office buildings to the Building Complex, and that no representations respecting the condition of the Premises or the Building Complex have been made by Landlord to Tenant except as specifically set forth herein or in the Tenant Work Letter. However, Tenant acknowledges that Landlord may during the Lease Term renovate, improve, alter, or modify (collectively, the "Renovations") the Building, Premises, and/or Real Property, including without limitation the Building Complex Parking Area, common areas, systems and equipment, roof, and structural portions of the same, which Renovations may include, without limitation, (i) modifying the driveways and other common areas and tenant spaces to comply with applicable laws and regulations, including regulations relating to the physically disabled, seismic conditions, and building safety and security, (ii) installing new floor covering, lighting, and wall coverings in the common areas, and in connection with any Renovations, Landlord may, among other things, erect scaffolding or other necessary structures in the Building or Building Complex, limit or eliminate access to portions of the Real Property, including portions of the common areas, or perform work in the Building or Building Complex, which work may create noise, dust or leave debris in the Building Complex, (iii) renovation and/or expansion of the main entry to the Building Complex and the main Building lobby area, (iv) renovation of the elevator, lobbies, elevator doors and frames and restrooms, and (v) installations, repairs or maintenance of telephone risers. Tenant hereby agrees that such Renovations and Landlord's actions in connection with such Renovations shall in no way constitute a constructive eviction of Tenant nor, except as provided in Section 6.6 above, entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent. Landlord shall have no responsibility or for any reason be liable to Tenant for any direct or indirect injury to or interference with Tenant's business arising from the Renovations, nor shall Tenant be entitled to any compensation or damages from Landlord for loss of the use of the whole or any part of the Premises or of Tenant's personal property or improvements resulting from the Renovations or Landlord's actions in connection with such Renovations, or for any inconvenience or annoyance occasioned by such Renovations or Landlord's actions in connection with such Renovations.

Tenant shall keep such confidential information strictly confidential and shall not disclose such confidential information to any person or entity other than Tenant's financial, legal, accounting, real estate and space planning consultants, respectively, or as otherwise required by law.

25.29 Landlord's Title. Landlord's title is and always shall be paramount to the title of Tenant. Nothing herein contained shall empower Tenant to do any act which can, shall or may encumber the title of Landlord.

25.30 No Waiver. No waiver of any provision of this Lease shall be implied by any failure of a party to enforce any remedy on account of the violation of such provision, even if such violation shall continue or be repeated subsequently, any waiver by a party of any provision of this Lease may only be in writing, and no express waiver shall affect any provision other than the one specified in such waiver and that one only for the time and in the manner specifically stated. No receipt of monies by Landlord from Tenant after the termination of this Lease shall in any way alter the length of the Lease Term or of Tenant's right of possession hereunder or after the giving of any notice shall reinstate, continue or extend the Lease Term or affect any notice given Tenant prior to the receipt of such monies, it being agreed that after the service of notice or the commencement of a suit or after final judgment for possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any Rent due, and the payment of said Rent shall not waive or affect said notice, suit or judgment.

25.31 Jury Trial; Attorneys' Fees. TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, IF EITHER PARTY COMMENCES LITIGATION AGAINST THE OTHER FOR THE SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE OF THIS LEASE, FOR DAMAGES FOR THE BREACH HEREOF OR OTHERWISE FOR ENFORCEMENT OF ANY REMEDY HEREUNDER, THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE TO AND HEREBY DO WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY. In the event of any such commencement of litigation, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the other party such costs and reasonable attorneys' fees as may have been incurred, including any and all costs incurred in enforcing, perfecting and executing such judgment.

25.32 Counterparts. This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original and all of which shall be one and the same agreement.

25.33 OFAC Compliance.

25.33.1 Tenant represents and warrants that (a) Tenant and each person or entity owning an interest in Tenant is (i) not currently identified on the Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List maintained by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") and/or on any other similar list maintained by OFAC pursuant to any authorizing statute, executive order or regulation (collectively, the "List"), and (ii) not a person or entity with whom a citizen of the United States is prohibited to engage in transactions by any trade embargo, economic sanction, or other prohibition of United States law, regulation, or Executive Order of the President of the United States, (b) none of the funds or other assets of Tenant constitute property of, or are beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by any Embargoed Person (as hereinafter defined), (c) no Embargoed Person has any interest of any nature whatsoever in Tenant (whether directly or indirectly), (d) none of the funds of Tenant have been derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment in Tenant is prohibited by law or that the Lease is in violation of law, and (e) Tenant has implemented procedures, and will consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times. The term "Embargoed Person" means any person, entity or government subject to trade restrictions under U.S. law, including but not limited to, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. §1701 et seq., The Trading with the Enemy Act, 50 U.S.C. App. 1 et seq., and any Executive Orders or regulations promulgated thereunder with the result that the investment in Tenant is prohibited by law or Tenant is in violation of law.

25.33.2 Tenant covenants and agrees (a) to comply with all requirements of law relating to money laundering, anti-terrorism, trade embargos and economic sanctions, now or hereafter in effect, (b) to immediately notify Landlord in writing if any of the representations, warranties or covenants set forth in this paragraph or the preceding paragraph are no longer true or have been breached or if Tenant has a reasonable basis to believe that they may no longer be true or have been breached, (c) not to use funds from any "Prohibited Person" (as such term is defined in the September 24, 2001 Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) to make any payment due to Landlord under the Lease and (d) at the request of Landlord, to provide such information as may be requested by Landlord to determine Tenant's compliance with the terms hereof.

25.33.3 Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that Tenant's inclusion on the List at any time during the Lease Term shall be a material default of the Lease. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Tenant shall not permit the Premises or any portion thereof to be used or occupied by any person or entity on the List or by any Embargoed Person (on a permanent, temporary or transient basis), and any such use or occupancy of the Premises by any such person or entity shall be a material default of the Lease.

25.33.4 Landlord confirms that it is not in violation of any executive order or similar governmental regulation or law, which prohibits terrorism or transactions with suspected or confirmed terrorists or terrorist entities or with persons or organizations that are associated with, or that provide any form of support to, terrorists. Landlord further confirms that it will comply throughout the Term of this Lease, with all governmental laws, rules or regulations governing transactions or business dealings with any suspected or confirmed terrorists or terrorist entities, as identified from time to time by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control or any other applicable governmental entity.

25.34 Financial Statements. Subject to the conditions set forth in the immediately following sentence, Tenant shall, within ten (10) business days after request from Landlord,(i) deliver to Landlord Tenant's letter of financial stability in the form of, and containing similar information as set forth in the letter of financial stability provided by Tenant to Landlord prior to signing this Lease (with updated information as necessary) and (ii) make Tenant's CEO available for a telephone call to provide any lender of Landlord or any prospective buyer of the Building with information regarding Tenant's financial condition. The obligation to provide such information is limited to the following: (i) Landlord may only request the same if Landlord is financing/refinancing any loan on the Building or has entered into a purchase agreement for the sale of the Building; and (ii) Tenant shall not be required to provide financial statements more than one (1) time per calendar year.

25.35 Non-Discrimination. In performing under this contract, both Landlord and Tenant shall not discriminate against any worker, employee or applicant, or any member of the public, because of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, or disability, nor otherwise commit an unfair employment practice. Landlord and Tenant will each take affirmative action to insure that applicants are employed, and that employees are dealt with during employment, without regard to their race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, or disability. Such action shall include, but not be limited to the following: employment, upgrading, demotion or transfer; recruitment or recruitment advertising; layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training, including apprenticeship. Landlord and Tenant further agree that this clause will be incorporated into all subcontracts entered into with suppliers of materials or services, and all labor organization furnishing skilled, unskilled and union labor, or who may perform such labor or services in connection with this contract.

25.36 Communication Equipment. If Tenant desires to use the roof of the Building to install communication equipment to be used from the Premises, Tenant may so notify Landlord in writing ("Communication Equipment Notice"), which Communication Equipment Notice shall generally describe the specifications for the equipment desired by Tenant. Landlord represents that on the Lease execution date there is available space on the roof for Tenant's Communication Equipment. Tenant and Tenant's contractors (which shall first be reasonably approved by Landlord) shall have the right and access to install, repair, replace, remove, operate and maintain one (1) so-called "satellite dish" or other similar device, such as antennae no greater than twenty (20) inches in diameter and weighing no more than fifty (50) pounds, together with all cable, wiring, conduits and related equipment (collectively, "Communication Equipment"), for the purpose of receiving and sending radio, television, computer, telephone or other communication signals, at a location on the roof of the Building designated by Landlord. Further, Tenant shall have the right of access, consistent with this Section 25.36, to the area where the Communication Equipment is located for the purposes of maintaining, repairing, testing and replacing the same. Landlord shall have the right to require Tenant to relocate the Communication Equipment at any time to another location on the roof of the Building. Unless Landlord elects to perform such penetrations at Tenant's sole cost and expense, Tenant shall retain Landlord's designated roofing contractor to make any necessary penetrations and associated repairs to the roof in order to preserve Landlord's roof warranty. Tenant's installation and operation of the Communication Equipment shall be governed by the following terms and conditions.

25.36.1 Tenant's right to install, replace, repair, remove, operate and maintain the Communication Equipment shall be subject to all applicable laws and Landlord makes no representation that such laws permit such installation and operation;

25.36.2 All plans and specifications for the Communication Equipment shall be subject to Landlord's reasonable approval;

25.36.3 All costs of installation, operation and maintenance of the Communication Equipment and any necessary related equipment (including, without limitation, costs of obtaining any necessary permits and connections to the Building's electrical system) shall be borne by Tenant;

25.36.4 It is expressly understood that Landlord retains the right to use the roof of the Building for any purpose whatsoever (including granting rights to third parties to utilize any portion of the roof not utilized by Tenant);

25.36.5 Tenant shall use the Communication Equipment so as not to cause any interference to other tenants in the Building or to other tenants at the Building Complex or with any other tenant's communication equipment, and not to damage the Building Complex or interfere with the normal operation of the Building Complex and Tenant hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all claims, costs, damages, expenses and liabilities (including attorneys' fees) arising out of Tenant's failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 25.36.5, except to the extent same is caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord which is not covered by the insurance carried by Tenant under this Lease (or which would not be covered by the insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this Lease);

25.36.6 For the purposes of determining Tenant's obligations with respect to its use of the roof of the Building herein provided, all of the provisions of this Lease relating to compliance with requirements as to insurance, indemnity, and compliance with laws shall apply to the installation, use and maintenance of the Communication Equipment; provided, however, Tenant shall only be provided access to the roof after prior written notice to Landlord and subject to Landlord's reasonable rules and restrictions regarding access (including, at Landlord's option, the requirement that Tenant be accompanied by a representative of Landlord during such access). Landlord shall not have any obligations with respect to the Communication Equipment. Landlord makes no representation that the Communication Equipment will be able to receive or transmit communication signals without interference or disturbance (whether or not by reason of the installation or use of similar equipment by others on the roof of the Building) and Tenant agrees that Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant therefor;

25.36.7 Tenant shall (i) be solely responsible for any damage caused as a result of the Communication Equipment, (ii) promptly pay any tax, license or permit fees charged pursuant to any laws or regulations in connection with the installation, maintenance or use of the Communication Equipment and comply with all precautions and safeguards recommended by all governmental authorities, and (iii) pay for all necessary repairs, replacements to or maintenance of the Communication Equipment;

25.36.8 The Communication Equipment shall remain the sole property of Tenant. Tenant shall remove the Communication Equipment and related equipment at Tenant's sole cost and expense upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease or upon the imposition of any governmental law or regulation which may require removal, and shall repair the Building upon such removal to the extent required by such work of removal. If Tenant fails to remove the Communication Equipment and repair the Building upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord may do so at Tenant's expense. The provisions of this Section 25.36.8 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease;

25.36.9 The Communication Equipment shall be deemed to constitute a portion of the Premises for purposes of Article 10 of this Lease;

25.36.10 Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall install and maintain such fencing and other protective equipment and/or visual screening on or about the Communication Equipment as Landlord may reasonably determine;

25.36.11 If any of the conditions set forth in this Section 25.36 are not complied with by Tenant, then without limiting Landlord's rights and remedies it may otherwise have under this Lease, at law and/or in equity, Tenant shall correct such noncompliance within ten (10) days after receipt of notice (or such longer period as may be reasonably required as long as Tenant commences such correction within such ten (10) day period and diligently prosecutes the same to completion). If Tenant fails to correct any such noncompliance within such ten (10) day period (as may be extended), then, at Landlord's option, Tenant shall immediately discontinue its use of such Communication Equipment and remove the same in accordance with the terms hereof.

25.36.12 The area occupied by the Communication Equipment shall not be included in measuring the size of the Premises described in Section 6.1 of the Summary of Basic Lease Information; Tenant shall not be required to pay any fee, rent or other lease charges for such area.

25.37 Backup Generator. Subject to Landlord's prior approval of all plans and specifications, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, Landlord shall permit Tenant to install and maintain, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, a backup generator at a location described in Exhibit J or such other location as may be designated by Landlord. Such backup generator shall be used by Tenant only during (i) testing and regular maintenance, and (ii) any period of electrical power outage in the Building Complex. Tenant shall be entitled to operate the generator for testing and regular maintenance only upon notice to Landlord and at times reasonably approved by Landlord. Tenant shall submit the specifications for design, operation, installation and maintenance of the backup generator for Landlord's consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed and may be conditioned on Tenant complying with such reasonable requirements imposed by Landlord, based on the advice of Landlord's structural and mechanical engineers, so that the Building Complex's systems and equipment are not adversely affected. In addition, Tenant shall ensure that the backup generator does not result in any Hazardous Materials being introduced to the Real Property, and Article 5 will apply to Tenant's use of the backup generator. Further, Tenant shall be responsible for ensuring that the backup generator does not interfere with the use of the Building Complex by other tenants. In the event another tenant of the Building Complex or of a neighboring project complains of problems caused by the generator, Tenant shall take whatever steps are reasonably necessary to remedy the problem complained of, including removal of the backup generator if another solution is not available. Tenant shall ensure that the design and installation of the backup generator is performed in a manner so as to minimize or eliminate any noise or vibration cause by such generator. Any repairs and maintenance of such generator shall be the sole responsibility of Tenant and Landlord makes no representation or warranty with respect to such generator. If Tenant is so notified by Landlord, Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, remove such generator upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease Term and repair all damage to the Building Complex resulting from such removal. Such generator shall be deemed to be a part of the Premises for purposes of Article 10 of this Lease. Any backup generator installed by Tenant shall remain the sole and separate property of Tenant and shall, if Landlord elects, be removed by Tenant at the end of the Lease Term. In such event, in addition to removing the backup generator, Tenant shall also remove all wiring and conduits which are external to the Building and by which the backup generator was installed.

2.1 Tenant Improvement Allowance. Tenant shall be entitled to a one-time tenant improvement allowance (the "Tenant Improvement Allowance") in the amount of up to, but not exceeding [] per rentable square foot of the Premises (i.e., an amount up to [] based on 149,273 rentable square feet in the Premises), for the costs relating to the initial design and construction of Tenant's improvements which are permanently affixed to the Premises (the "Tenant Improvements"). In no event shall Landlord be obligated to make disbursements pursuant to this Tenant Work Letter in a total amount which exceeds the Tenant Improvement Allowance. Tenant shall not be entitled to receive any cash payment for any portion of the Tenant Improvement Allowance which is not used to pay for the Tenant Improvement Allowance Items (as such term is defined below) or disbursed following the Effective Date of the Lease in accordance with the terms of this Tenant Work Letter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an amount not to exceed [] of any unused amount of the Tenant Improvement Allowance shall be made available to Tenant to help Tenant pay for the actual and documented costs incurred by Tenant (collectively, the "Moving/Cabling/FF&E Costs") for (i) moving and relocating to the Premises, (ii) installing in the Premises telephone and data cabling for Tenant's telephone and data equipment in the Premises and for establishing security services for the Premises; (iii) the purchase of and installation of furniture, fixtures and equipment for the Premises; and (iv) the cost of signage for the Premises and the Building. Landlord shall disburse from the Tenant Improvement Allowance the available portion thereof to help Tenant pay for the Moving/Cabling/FF&E Costs actually incurred by Tenant within thirty (30) days after Landlord has received Tenant's written request for disbursement together with copies of invoices from third parties evidencing the amount of such Moving/Cabling Costs to be paid by Landlord. Any remaining balance of the Tenant Improvement Allowance after the Lease Commencement Date may, for the first twelve (12) months after the Lease Commencement Date (but not thereafter), be used as a credit toward the Base Rent first coming due under the Lease.

2.2 Disbursement of the Tenant Improvement Allowance.

2.2.1 Tenant Improvement Allowance Items. Except as otherwise set forth in this Tenant Work Letter, the Tenant Improvement Allowance shall be disbursed by Landlord only for the following items and costs (collectively, the "Tenant Improvement Allowance Items"):

2.2.1.1 Payment of the fees of the "Architect" and the "Engineers," as those terms are defined in Section 3.1 of this Tenant Work Letter, the costs of Tenant's project manager (if any) and payment of the fees incurred by, and the cost of documents and materials supplied by, Landlord and Landlord's consultants in connection with the preparation and review of the "Construction Drawings," as that term is defined in Section 3.1 of this Tenant Work Letter;

2.2.1.2 The payment of plan check, permit and license fees relating to construction of the Tenant Improvements;

2.2.1.3 The cost of construction of the Tenant Improvements, including, without limitation, contractors' fees and general conditions, testing and inspection costs, costs of utilities, trash removal, parking and hoists, and the costs of after-hours freight elevator usage.

2.2.1.4 The cost of any changes in the Base, Shell and Core work when such changes are required by the Construction Drawings (including if such changes are due to the fact that such work is prepared on an unoccupied basis), such cost to include all direct architectural and/or engineering fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith;

2.2.1.5 The cost of any changes to the Construction Drawings or Tenant Improvements required by applicable laws and building codes (collectively, "Code");

2.2.1.6 Sales and use taxes;

2.2.1.7 The "Coordination Fee," as that term is defined in Section 4.2.2.2 of this Tenant Work Letter; and

2.2.1.8 All other costs to be expended by Landlord in connection with the construction of the Tenant Improvements.

2.2.2 Disbursement of Tenant Improvement Allowance. During the construction of the Tenant Improvements, Landlord shall make monthly disbursements of the Tenant Improvement Allowance for Tenant Improvement Allowance Items for the benefit of Tenant and shall authorize the release of monies for the benefit of Tenant as follows:

2.2.2.1 Monthly Disbursements. On or before the fifth (5th) day of each calendar month during the construction of the Tenant Improvements (or such other date as Landlord may designate), Tenant shall deliver to Landlord: (i) a request for payment of the "Contractor," as that term is defined in Section 4.1 below, approved by Tenant, using the current AIA contract and payment forms showing the schedule, by trade, of percentage of completion of the Tenant Improvements in the Premises, detailing the portion of the work completed and the portion not completed, and demonstrating that the relationship between the cost of the work completed and the cost of the work to be completed complies with the terms of the "Construction Budget," as that term is defined in Section 4.2.1 below; (ii) paid invoices from all of "Tenant's Agents," as that term is defined in Section 4.1.2 below, for labor rendered and materials delivered to the Premises; (iii) executed mechanic's lien releases (which may be conditional releases

Tenant's request for payment shall be deemed Tenant's acceptance and approval of the work furnished and/or the materials supplied as set forth in Tenant's payment request. On or before the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the following calendar month in which Tenant's request for payments is delivered, Landlord shall deliver a check to Tenant made jointly payable to Contractor and Tenant in payment of the lesser of (A) the amounts so requested by Tenant, as set forth in this Section 2.2.2.1, above, less a ten percent (10%) retention (the aggregate amount of such retentions to be known as the "Final Retention") and (B) the balance of any remaining available portion of the Tenant Improvement Allowance (not including the Final Retention), provided that Landlord does not dispute any request for payment based on non-compliance of any work with the "Approved Working Drawings", as that term is defined in Section 3.4 below, or due to any substandard work, or for any other reason. Landlord's payment of such amounts shall not be deemed Landlord's approval or acceptance of the work furnished or materials supplied as set forth in Tenant's payment request.

2.2.2.2 Final Retention. Subject to the provisions of this Tenant Work Letter, a check for the Final Retention payable to Tenant and Contractor shall be delivered by Landlord to Tenant following the completion of construction of the Premises, provided that (i) Tenant delivers to Landlord properly executed unconditional mechanics lien releases in compliance with applicable Arizona law, and (ii) Landlord has determined that no substandard work exists which adversely affects the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating and air conditioning, life-safety or other systems of the Building, the curtain wall of the Building, the structure or exterior appearance of the Building, or any other tenant's use of such other tenant's leased premises in the Building.

2.2.2.3 Other Terms. Landlord shall only be obligated to make disbursements from the Tenant Improvement Allowance to the extent costs are incurred by Tenant for Tenant Improvement Allowance Items or as otherwise provided in Section 2.1.

CONSTRUCTION DRAWINGS

3.1 Selection of Architect/Construction Drawings. Tenant shall retain an architect/space planner (the "Architect") to prepare the Construction Drawings. Tenant shall retain the engineering consultants approved by Landlord (the "Engineers"), which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, to prepare all plans and engineering working drawings relating to the structural, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, HVAC, lifesafety, and sprinkler work in the Premises. The plans and drawings to be prepared by Architect and the Engineers hereunder shall be known collectively as the "Construction Drawings." All Construction Drawings shall comply with the drawing format and specifications reasonably determined by Landlord, and shall be subject to Landlord's approval. Tenant and Architect shall verify, in the field, the dimensions and conditions as shown on the relevant portions of the base building plans, and Tenant and Architect shall be solely responsible for the same, and Landlord shall have no responsibility in connection therewith. Landlord's review of the Construction Drawings as set forth in this Section 3, shall be for its sole purpose and shall not imply Landlord's review of the same, or obligate Landlord to review the same, for quality, design, Code compliance or other like matters. Accordingly, notwithstanding that any Construction Drawings are reviewed by Landlord or its space planner, architect, engineers and consultants, and notwithstanding any advice or assistance which may be rendered to Tenant by Landlord or Landlord's space planner, architect, engineers, and consultants, Landlord shall have no liability whatsoever in connection therewith and shall not be responsible for any omissions or errors contained in the Construction Drawings.

3.1.1 Approved Consultants. Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, Landlord hereby approves the following consultants to be retained by Tenant: McCarthy Nordburg, Architect of Record; Kraemer Consulting, MEP engineer: Caruso Turley Scott, Structural Engineer.

3.2 Final Space Plan. Within seventy-five (75) days after the full execution and delivery of the Lease, Tenant shall supply Landlord with four (4) copies signed by Tenant of its final space plan for the Premises before any architectural working drawings or engineering drawings have been commenced. The final space plan (the "Final Space Plan") shall include a layout and designation of all offices, rooms and other partitioning, their intended use, and equipment to be contained therein. Landlord may request clarification or more specific drawings for special use items not included in the Final Space Plan. Landlord shall advise Tenant within five (5) business days after Landlord's receipt of the Final Space Plan for the Premises if the same is unsatisfactory or incomplete in any respect. If Tenant is so advised, Tenant shall promptly (i) cause the Final Space Plan to be revised to correct any deficiencies or other matters Landlord may reasonably require, and (ii) deliver such revised Final Space Plan to Landlord. The sequence of submitting and reviewing the Final Space Plan shall continue within the time periods provided herein until the Final Space Plan is approved. If Landlord fails to respond to any Final Space submitted for review and approval within five (5) business days after Landlord's receipt, Landlord shall be deemed to have granted its approval.

3.3 Final Working Drawings. After the Final Space Plan has been approved by Landlord and Tenant, Tenant shall promptly cause the Architect and the Engineers to complete the architectural and engineering drawings for the Premises, and cause the Architect to compile a fully coordinated set of architectural, structural, mechanical, electrical and plumbing working drawings in a form which is complete to allow subcontractors to bid on the work and to obtain all applicable permits for the Tenant Improvements (collectively, the "Final Working Drawings"), and shall submit the same to Landlord for Landlord's approval. Tenant shall supply Landlord with four (4) copies signed by Tenant of such Final Working Drawings. Landlord shall advise Tenant within five (5) business days after Landlord's receipt of the Final Working Drawings for the Premises if the same is unsatisfactory or incomplete in any respect. If Tenant is so advised, Tenant shall promptly (i) revise the Final Working Drawings in accordance with such review and any disapproval of Landlord in connection therewith, and (ii) deliver such revised Final Working Drawings to Landlord. The sequence of submitting and reviewing the Final Working Drawings shall continue within the time periods provided herein until the Final Working Drawings are approved. If Landlord fails to respond to any Final Working Drawings submitted for review and approval within five (5) business days after Landlord's receipt, Landlord shall be deemed to have granted its approval.

3.4 Approved Working Drawings. The Final Working Drawings shall be approved by Landlord (the "Approved Working Drawings") prior to the commencement of construction of the Premises by Tenant. After approval by Landlord of the Final Working Drawings, Tenant shall promptly submit the same to the appropriate governmental authorities for all applicable building permits. Tenant hereby agrees that neither Landlord nor Landlord's consultants shall be responsible for obtaining any building permit or certificate of occupancy for the Premises and that obtaining the same shall be Tenant's responsibility; provided, however, that Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant in executing permit applications and performing other ministerial acts reasonably necessary to enable Tenant to obtain any such permit or certificate of occupancy. No changes, modifications or alterations in the Approved Working Drawings may be made without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE TENANT IMPROVEMENTS

4.1 Tenant's Selection of Contractor and Tenant's Agents.

4.1.1 The Contractor. A general contractor shall be retained by Tenant to construct the Tenant Improvements. Such general contractor ("Contractor") shall be selected by Tenant from a list of general contractors supplied by Landlord, and Tenant shall deliver to Landlord notice of its selection of the Contractor upon such selection. Landlord hereby approves Westpac Construction Company as the general contractor if retained by Tenant.

4.1.2 Tenant's Agents. All subcontractors used by Tenant (such subcontractors, together with any laborers, materialmen, and suppliers, and the Contractor to be known collectively as "Tenant's Agents") must be approved in writing by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided that, in any event, Tenant must contract with Landlord's base building subcontractors for any mechanical, electrical, plumbing, life safety, structural, heating, ventilation, and air-conditioning work in the Premises.

4.2 Construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant's Agents.

4.2.1 Construction Contract; Cost Budget. Prior to Tenant's execution of the construction contract and general conditions with Contractor (the "Contract"), Tenant shall submit the Contract to Landlord for its approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Prior to the commencement of the construction of the Tenant Improvements, and after Tenant has accepted all bids for the Tenant Improvements, Tenant shall provide Landlord with a detailed breakdown, by trade, of the final costs to be incurred, or which have been incurred, as set forth more particularly in Sections 2.2.1.1 through 2.2.1.8 above, in connection with the design and construction of the Tenant Improvements to be performed by or at the direction of Tenant or the Contractor (which costs form a basis for the amount of the Contract, if any (the "Final Costs"). Such Final Costs shall also demonstrate any amounts by which the Final Costs exceed the Tenant Improvement Allowance. In the event that, after the Final Costs have been delivered by Landlord to Tenant, the costs relating to the design and construction of the Tenant Improvements shall change, any additional costs necessary to such design and construction in excess of the Final Costs shall, to the extent they exceed the remaining balance of the Tenant Improvement Allowance, Tenant shall make payments for such additional costs out of its own funds, but Tenant shall continue to provide Landlord with the documents described in Sections 2.2.2.1(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above, for Landlord's approval, prior to Tenant paying such costs.

4.2.2 Tenant's Agents.

4.2.2.1 Landlord's General Conditions for Tenant's Agents and Tenant Improvement Work. Tenant's and Tenant's Agents' construction of the Tenant Improvements shall comply with the following: (i) the Tenant Improvements shall be constructed in strict accordance with the Approved Working Drawings; (ii) Tenant and Tenant's Agents shall not, in any way, interfere with, obstruct, or delay, the work of Landlord's base building contractor and subcontractors with respect to the Base, Shell and Core or any other work in the Building; (iii) Tenant's Agents shall submit schedules of all work relating to the Tenant's Improvements to Contractor and Contractor shall, within five (5) business days of receipt thereof, inform Tenant's Agents of any changes which are necessary thereto, and Tenant's Agents shall adhere to such corrected schedule; and (iv) Tenant shall abide by all rules made by Landlord's Building contractor or Landlord's Building manager with respect to the use of freight, loading dock and service elevators, storage of materials, coordination of work with the contractors of other tenants, and any other matter in connection with this Tenant Work Letter, including, without limitation, the construction of the Tenant Improvements.

4.2.2.2 Coordination Fee. Tenant shall pay a logistical coordination fee (the "Coordination Fee") to Landlord in an amount equal to [], which Coordination Fee shall be for services relating to the coordination of the construction of the Tenant Improvements and shall be deducted by Landlord from the Tenant improvement Allowance.

4.2.2.3 Indemnity. Tenant's indemnity of Landlord as set forth in the Lease shall also apply with respect to any and all costs, losses, damages, injuries and liabilities related in any way to any act or omission of Tenant or Tenant's Agents, or anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them, or in connection with Tenant's non-payment of any amount arising out of the Tenant Improvements and/or Tenant's disapproval of all or any portion of any request for payment. Such indemnity by Tenant, as set forth in the Lease, shall also apply with respect to any and all costs, losses, damages, injuries and liabilities related in any way to Landlord's performance of any ministerial acts reasonably necessary (i) to permit Tenant to complete the Tenant Improvements, and (ii) to enable Tenant to obtain any building permit or certificate of occupancy for the Premises. Such indemnity by Tenant, as set forth in the Lease, shall exclude any and all costs, losses, damages, injuries and liabilities relate in any way to any grossly negligent or willful acts of Landlord and its employees, agents and contractors.

4.2.2.4 Insurance Requirements.

4.2.2.4.1 General Coverages. All of Tenant's Agents shall carry worker's compensation insurance covering all of their respective employees, and shall also carry public liability insurance, including property damage, all with limits, in form and with companies as are required to be carried by Tenant as set forth in the Lease.

4.2.2.4.2 Special Coverages. Tenant shall carry "Builder's All Risk" insurance in an amount approved by Landlord covering the construction of the Tenant Improvements, and such other insurance as Landlord may require, it being understood and agreed that the Tenant Improvements shall be insured by Tenant pursuant to the Lease immediately upon completion thereof. Such insurance shall be in amounts and shall include such extended coverage endorsements as may be reasonably required by Landlord, and in form and with companies as are required to be carried by Tenant as set forth in the Lease.

4.2.2.4.3 General Terms. Certificates for all insurance carried pursuant to this Section 4.2.2.4 shall be delivered to Landlord before the commencement of construction of the Tenant Improvements and before the Contractor's equipment is moved onto the site. All such policies of insurance must contain a provision that the company writing said policy will give Landlord thirty (30) days prior written notice of any cancellation or lapse of the effective date or any reduction in the amounts of such insurance. In the event that the Tenant Improvements are damaged by any cause during the course of the construction thereof, Tenant shall immediately repair the same at Tenant's sole cost and expense. All policies carried under this Section 4.2.2.4 shall insure Landlord and Tenant, as their interests may appear, as well as Contractor and Tenant's Agents, and shall name as additional insureds Landlord's Property Manager, Landlord's Asset Manager, and all mortgagees and ground lessors of the Building. All insurance, except Workers' Compensation, maintained by Tenant's Agents shall preclude subrogation claims by the insurer against anyone insured thereunder. Such insurance shall provide that it is primary insurance as respect the owner and that any other insurance maintained by owner is excess and noncontributing with the insurance required hereunder. The requirements for the foregoing insurance shall not derogate from the provisions for indemnification of Landlord by Tenant under Section 4.2.2.3 of this Tenant Work Letter.

4.2.3 Governmental Compliance. The Tenant Improvements shall comply in all respects with the following: (i) the Code and other state, federal, city or quasi-governmental laws, codes, ordinances and regulations, as each may apply according to the rulings of the controlling public official, agent or other person; (ii) applicable standards of the American Insurance Association (formerly, the National Board of Fire Underwriters) and the National Electrical Code; and (iii) building material manufacturer's specifications.

4.2.4 Inspection by Landlord. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Tenant Improvements at all times, provided however, that Landlord's failure to inspect the Tenant Improvements shall in no event constitute a waiver of any of Landlord's rights hereunder nor shall Landlord's inspection of the Tenant Improvements constitute Landlord's approval of the same. Should Landlord disapprove any portion of the Tenant Improvements, Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing of such disapproval and shall specify the items disapproved. Any defects or deviations in, and/or disapproval by Landlord of, the Tenant Improvements shall be rectified by Tenant at no expense to Landlord, provided however, that in the event Landlord determines that a defect or deviation exists or disapproves of any matter in connection with any portion of the Tenant Improvements and such defect, deviation or matter might adversely affect the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating and air conditioning or life-safety systems of the Building, the structure or exterior appearance of the Building or any other tenant's use of such other tenant's leased premises, Landlord shall notify Tenant to take corrective action. If Tenant fails to take corrective action within fifteen (15) days and diligently prepare and complete the corrective action promptly thereafter, then Landlord may take such action as Landlord deems necessary, at Tenant's expense and without incurring any liability on Landlord's part, to correct any such defect, deviation and/or matter, including, without limitation, causing the cessation of performance of the construction of the Tenant Improvements until such time as the defect, deviation and/or matter is corrected to Landlord's satisfaction.

4.2.5 Meetings. Commencing upon the execution of the Lease, Tenant shall hold weekly meetings at a reasonable time, with the Architect and the Contractor regarding the progress of the preparation of Construction Drawings and the construction of the Tenant Improvements, which meetings shall be held at a location designated by Landlord, and Landlord and/or its agents shall receive prior notice of, and shall have the right to attend, all such meetings, and, upon Landlord's request, certain of Tenant's Agents shall attend such meetings. In addition, minutes shall be taken at all such meetings, a copy of which minutes shall be promptly delivered to Landlord. One such meeting each month shall include the review of Contractor's current request for payment.

4.3 Notice of Completion; Copy of "As Built" Plans. Within thirty (30) days after completion of construction of the Tenant Improvements, Tenant shall cause a Notice of Completion to be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the County in which the Building is located in accordance with applicable Arizona law and shall furnish a copy thereof to Landlord upon such recordation. If Tenant fails to do so, Landlord may execute and file the same on behalf of Tenant as Tenant's agent for such purpose, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. At the conclusion of construction, (i) Tenant shall cause the Architect and Contractor (A) to update the Approved Working Drawings as necessary to reflect all changes made to the Approved Working Drawings during the course of construction, (B) to certify to the best of their knowledge that the "record-set" of as-built drawings are true and correct, which certification shall survive the expiration or termination of the Lease, and (C) to deliver to Landlord two (2) sets of sepias of such as-built drawings within ninety (90) days following issuance of a certificate of occupancy for the Premises, and (ii) Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a copy of all warranties, guaranties, and operating manuals and information relating to the improvements, equipment, and systems in the Premises.

c. Further Documentation. The provisions of this Article 3 shall be effective and self-operative without any need for Successor Landlord or Tenant to execute any further documents. Tenant and Successor Landlord shall, however, confirm the provisions of this Article 3 in writing upon request by either of them within ten (10) business days of such request.

4. Protection of Successor Landlord. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease or the Mortgage, Successor Landlord shall not be liable for or bound by any of the following matters:

a. Claims Against Former Landlord. Any Offset Right that Tenant may have against any Former Landlord relating to any event or occurrence before the date of attornment, including any claim for damages of any kind whatsoever as the result of any breach by Former Landlord that occurred before the date of attornment. The foregoing shall not limit either (i) Tenant's right to exercise against Successor Landlord any Offset Right otherwise available to Tenant because of events occurring after the date of attornment (which events shall include failure to pay allowances due under the Lease which occurred prior to the date of attornment and continue after the date of attornment due to Successor Landlord's failure to cure such events); or (ii) Successor Landlord's obligation to correct any conditions that existed as of the date of attornment and violate Successor Landlord's obligations as landlord under the Lease; or (iii) Tenant's right to deduct from payments of Rent and Additional Rent due under the Lease any portion of the Tenant Improvement Allowance (as defined in Section 2.1 of Exhibit D to the Lease) to which Tenant is entitled under the Lease which was due but not paid by the Landlord.

b. Prepayments. Any payment of Rent that Tenant may have made to Former Landlord more than thirty (30) days before the date such Rent was first due and payable under the Lease with respect to any period after the date of attornment other than, and only to the extent that, the Lease expressly required such a prepayment.

c. Payment; Security Deposit; Work. Any obligation: (i) to pay Tenant any sum(s) that any Former Landlord owed to Tenant unless such sums, if any, shall have been actually delivered to Mortgagee by way of an assumption of escrow accounts or otherwise, provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to Tenant's right to recover the Tenant Improvement Allowance from Successor Landlord as provided in the Lease and Section 4(a) above; (ii) with respect to any security deposited with Former Landlord, unless such security was actually delivered to Mortgagee; (iii) to the extent obligated under the Lease, to commence or complete any initial construction of improvements in the Leased Premises or any expansion or rehabilitation of existing improvements thereon; (iv) to reconstruct or repair improvements following a fire, casualty or condemnation, provided, however, Tenant shall, as a result of any such failure to construct or complete construction have a right to terminate the Lease upon thirty (30) days' written notice delivered to Successor Landlord; or (v) arising from representations and warranties related to Former Landlord.

d. Modification, Amendment or Waiver. Any modification or amendment of the Lease, or any waiver of the terms of the Lease, made without Mortgagee's written consent which, if not provided to Landlord and Tenant within ten (10) business days after written request is received by Mortgagee, Mortgagee's consent shall be deemed to have been granted.

e. Surrender, Etc. Any consensual or negotiated surrender, cancellation, or termination of the Lease, in whole or in part, agreed upon between Landlord and Tenant, unless effected unilaterally by Tenant pursuant to the express terms of the Lease.

5. Exculpation of Successor Landlord. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Lease, Successor Landlord's obligations and liability under the Lease shall never extend beyond Successor Landlord's (or its successors' or assigns') interest, if any, in the Property from time to time, including insurance and condemnation proceeds, security deposits, escrows, Successor Landlord's interest in the Lease, and the proceeds from any sale, lease or other disposition of the Property (or any portion thereof) by Successor Landlord (collectively, the "Successor Landlord's Interest"). Tenant shall look exclusively to Successor Landlord's Interest (or that of its successors and assigns) for payment or discharge of any obligations of Successor Landlord under the Lease as affected by this Agreement. If Tenant obtains any money judgment against Successor Landlord with respect to the Lease or the relationship between Successor Landlord and Tenant, then Tenant shall look solely to Successor Landlord's Interest (or that of its successors and assigns) to collect such judgment. Tenant shall not collect or attempt to collect any such judgment out of any other assets of Successor Landlord.

6. Mortgagee's Right to Cure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease or this Agreement, before exercising any Offset Right or Termination Right:

a. Notice to Mortgagee. Tenant shall use reasonable efforts to provide Mortgagee notice of all breaches and defaults under the Lease. Tenant will not terminate the Lease nor discontinue or abate rent due under the Lease as a result of a breach or default by Landlord without first providing Mortgagee with notice of the breach or default by Landlord giving rise to same (the "Default Notice") and, thereafter, the opportunity to cure such breach or default as provided for below.

b. Mortgagee's Cure Period. After Mortgagee receives a Default Notice, Mortgagee shall have a period of thirty (30) days beyond the time available to Landlord under the Lease in which to cure the breach or default by Landlord. Mortgagee shall have no obligation to cure (and shall have no liability or obligation for not curing) any breach or default by Landlord, except to the extent that Mortgagee agrees or undertakes otherwise in writing. In addition, as to any breach or default by Landlord the cure of which requires possession and control of the Property, provided that Mortgagee undertakes by written notice to Tenant to exercise reasonable efforts to cure or cause to be cured by a receiver such breach or default within the period permitted by this paragraph, Mortgagee's cure period shall continue for such additional time (not to exceed 90 days) as Mortgagee may reasonably require to either: (i) obtain possession and control of the Property with due diligence and thereafter cure the breach or default with reasonable diligence and continuity; or (ii) obtain the appointment of a receiver and give such receiver a reasonable period of time in which to cure the default. Mortgagee shall use commercially reasonable efforts to expedite all cures set forth in this paragraph.

a. Notices. Any notice or request given or demand made under this Agreement by one party to the other shall be in writing, and may be given or be served by hand delivered personal service, or by depositing the same with a reliable overnight courier service or by deposit in the United States mail, postpaid, registered or certified mail, and addressed to the party to be notified, with return receipt requested or by telefax transmission, with the original machine- generated transmit confirmation report as evidence of transmission. Notice deposited in the mail in the manner hereinabove described shall be effective from and after the expiration of three (3) days after it is so deposited; however, delivery by overnight courier service shall be deemed effective on the next succeeding business day after it is so deposited and notice by personal service or telefax transmission shall be deemed effective when delivered to its addressee or within two (2) hours after its transmission unless given after 3:00 p.m. (local time in the jurisdiction of the party receiving the notice) on a business day, in which case it shall be deemed effective at 9:00 a.m. on the next business day. For purposes of notice, the addresses and telefax number of the parties shall, until changed as herein provided, be as follows:

With a copy to:	Bedrock Management Services LLC 630 Woodward Avenue Detroit, MI 48226 Attn: Howard N. Luckoff, Esq. Telecopy No.: (855) 455-1918

b. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall bind and benefit the parties, their successors and assigns, any Successor Landlord, and its successors and assigns. If Mortgagee assigns the Mortgage, then upon delivery to Tenant of written notice thereof accompanied by the assignee's written assumption of all obligations under this Agreement, all liability of the assignor shall terminate.

c. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between Mortgagee and Tenant regarding the subordination of the Lease to the Mortgage and the rights and obligations of Tenant and Mortgagee as to the subject matter of this Agreement.

d. Interaction with Lease and with Mortgage. If this Agreement conflicts with the Lease, then this Agreement shall govern as between the parties and any Successor Landlord, including upon any attornment pursuant to this Agreement. This Agreement supersedes, and constitutes full compliance with, any provisions in the Lease that provide for subordination of the Lease to, or for delivery of nondisturbance agreements by the holder of, the Mortgage.

e. Mortgagee's Rights and Obligations. Except as expressly provided for in this Agreement, Mortgagee shall have no obligations to Tenant with respect to the Lease. If an attornment occurs pursuant to this Agreement, then all rights and obligations of Mortgagee under this Agreement shall terminate, without thereby affecting in any way the rights and obligations of Successor Landlord provided for in this Agreement.

f. Interpretation; Governing Law. The interpretation, validity and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the internal laws of the State in which the Leased Premises are located, excluding such State's principles of conflict of laws.

g. Amendments. This Agreement may be amended, discharged or terminated, or any of its provisions waived, only by a written instrument executed by the party to be charged.

h. Due Authorization. Tenant represents to Mortgagee that it has full authority to enter into this Agreement, which has been duly authorized by all necessary actions. Mortgagee represents to Tenant that it has full authority to enter into this Agreement, which has been duly authorized by all necessary actions.

THIS SECOND AMENDMENT TO LEASE ("Second Amendment") is made and entered into as of the 12th day of August, 2019, by and between AGP ONE NORTH CENTRAL OWNER LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Landlord") and QUICKEN LOANS INC., a Michigan corporation ("Tenant").

R E C I T A L S:

A. Landlord and Tenant entered into that certain Office Lease dated as of June 5, 2017 (the "Original Lease"), as modified by that certain Amendment to Lease dated as of March 14, 2018 by and between Landlord and Tenant ("First Amendment"), whereby Landlord leased to Tenant and Tenant leased from Landlord certain office space located in that certain building located and addressed at One North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona (the "Building"). The Original Lease, as modified by the First Amendment, may be referred to herein as the "Lease".

B. By this Second Amendment, Landlord and Tenant desire to expand the Existing Premises (as defined below) and to otherwise modify the Lease as provided herein; such expansion is not pursuant to Section 1.4 of the Lease since Tenant did not exercise Tenant's right of first offer.

C. Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms as used herein shall have the same meanings as given thereto in the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals and the mutual covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

A G R E M E N T:

1. Existing Premises. In the event Landlord does not deliver possession of the Expansion Space to Tenant on or before the Delivery Date, then Tenant shall be entitled to receive an abatement of Base Rent and Tenant's Share of Direct Expenses equal to two (2) days for every one (1) day beyond the Delivery Date (unless such delay is due to Tenant Delays and/or Force Majeure delays). Effective upon the Expansion Commencement Date, the Existing Premises shall be increased to include the Expansion Space. Landlord and Tenant hereby agree that such addition of the Expansion Space to the Existing Premises shall, effective as of the Expansion Commencement Date, expand the Premises to a total of 214,607 rentable square feet. Effective as of the Expansion Commencement Date, all references to the "Premises" shall mean and refer to the Existing Premises as expanded by the Expansion Space.

3. Extended Term. The term of Tenant's lease of the Expansion Space shall commence on the Expansion Commencement Date and shall be coterminous with the term of the Original Lease-October 31, 2028 (the "Termination Date"), subject to Article 2 of the Original Lease. The period from the Expansion Commencement Date until the Termination Date is referred to herein as the "Expansion Space Term".

4. Monthly Base Rent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, effective on the Expansion Commencement Date, the Base Rent schedules set forth in Section 8 of the Lease Summary (as amended in Section 5 of the First Amendment), are hereby deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following Base Rent schedule, which Base Rent includes the aggregate Base Rent payable by Tenant for the entire Premises during the Expansion Space Term:

*The abated Base Rent reflected in this Base Rent schedule includes the Expansion Space Abated Rent (as defined below) described in Section 5 below. Such Base Rent schedule also includes the Abated Rent and the Discount Rent described in the Lease during the Expansion Space Term; provided, however, that such Abated Rent and Discount Rent is subject to the terms and conditions of Article 3 of the Lease.

5. Monthly Base Rent Abatement for the Expansion Space. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease or in this Second Amendment, and provided that Tenant faithfully performs all of the terms and conditions of the Lease (as modified by this Second Amendment), Landlord hereby agrees to abate Tenant's obligation to pay Tenant's monthly Base Rent for the Expansion Space for the period from February 15, 2026 to April 14,2026 (as set forth in Section 4 above) (collectively, the "Expansion Space Abated Rent"). During such abatement periods, Tenant shall still be responsible for the payment of all of its other monetary obligations under the Lease, as amended by this Second Amendment. In the event of a default by Tenant under the terms of the Lease, as amended by this Second Amendment, that results in early termination pursuant to the provisions of Section 19 of the Original Lease, then as part of the recovery set forth in Section 19 of the Original Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to the recovery of the Expansion Space Abated Rent that was abated under the provisions of this Section 5.

6. Condition of Premises. Except as expressly set forth in the Lease and in the "Tenant Work Letter" attached hereto as Exhibit B, Landlord shall not be obligated to provide or pay for any improvements, work or services related to the improvement, remodeling or refurbishment of the Expansion Space. Tenant shall accept the Expansion Space in its "AS IS" condition on the Delivery Date; provided, however, in the event that, as of the date of execution of this Second Amendment, the Base, Shell and Core of the Building (as defined in Section 1 of Exhibit B), in its condition existing as of such date without regard to any of the Tenant Improvements, alterations or other improvements existing in the Expansion Space as of the date hereof and/or to be constructed or installed by or on behalf of Tenant in the Expansion Space or Tenant's use of the Expansion Space, (A) does not comply with applicable laws, including, without limitation, seismic, fire and life safety codes, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), in effect as of the date hereof, or (B) contains latent defects, then Landlord shall be responsible, at its sole cost and expense which shall not be included in Operating Expenses (except as otherwise permitted in (and not excluded in) Section 4.2 of the Original Lease), for correcting any such non-compliance to the extent required by applicable laws, and/or correcting any such latent defects as soon as reasonably possible after receiving notice thereof from Tenant.

7. Tenant's Share. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, during the Expansion Space Term, Tenant's Share shall be 49.53% (214,607 rentable square feet in the Premises/433,289 rentable square feet in the Building).

8. Parking. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, effective as of the Expansion Commencement Date, Section 12 of the Lease Summary is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Parking Passes (Article 24): Four hundred twelve (412) passes located on a portion of Parking Level 2 (66 passes) and all of Parking Level 3 (127 passes) and Parking Levels 4 (126 passes) and Parking Level 5 (93 passes) with ten (10) reserved parking spaces in the location depicted on Exhibit I of the original Lease.

9. Termination Options. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, effective as of the date hereof, the Termination Dates in Section 2.3.1 of the Lease pertaining to the First Termination Option shall be deleted in its entirety, and the Second Termination Option and Third Termination Option shall be deemed extended by twelve (12) months each.

10. Brokers. Each party represents and warrants to the other that no broker, agent or finder negotiated or was instrumental in negotiating or consummating this Second Amendment other than Bedrock Management Services LLC and Friedman West Realty, LLC. Each party further agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other party from and against any claim for commission or finder's fee by any person or entity (except for the entities listed in the preceding sentence) who claims or alleges that they were retained or engaged by the first party or at the request of such party in connection with this Second Amendment.

11. Defaults. The parties' hereby represent and warrant to the other party that, as of the date of this Second Amendment, the other party is in full compliance with all terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease and that there are no breaches or defaults under the Lease by Landlord or Tenant, and that neither party knows of any events or circumstances which, given the passage of time, would constitute a default under the Lease by either Landlord or Tenant.

12. No Further Modification. Except as set forth in this Second Amendment, all of the terms and provisions of the Lease shall remain unmodified and in full force and effect.

13. Recitals. The recital clauses hereinabove set forth are hereby incorporated by reference as though set forth verbatim and at length herein.

14. Execution. This Second Amendment may be executed in multiple counterparts, and via electronic or facsimile delivery, each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which shall constitute one document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Second Amendment has been executed as of the day and year first above written.

TENANT WORK LETTER

This Tenant Work Letter ("Tenant Work Letter") shall set forth the terms and conditions relating to the construction of the Expansion Space. All references in this Tenant Work Letter to "the Second Amendment" shall mean the relevant portions of the Second Amendment to which this Tenant Work Letter is attached as Exhibit "B".

SECTION 1

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION OF THE PREMISES

Landlord shall deliver the base, shell, and core (i) of the Expansion Space and (ii) of the floor of the Building on which the Expansion Space is located, including the base building electrical, mechanical and plumbing systems, (collectively, the "Base, Shell, and Core") in its current as-is condition existing as of the date of the Lease. Landlord shall permit Tenant to, at Tenant's expense, seal off the access point on the thirteenth (13th) floor (the "13th Floor Access Point"), which initially provided the prior tenant access between the thirteenth (13th), fourteenth (14th) floors, and fifteenth (15th) floors; additionally, remove the staircase between the thirteenth (13th), fourteenth (14th) floor and fifteenth (15th) floor (the "Existing Staircase"). On or before the Termination Date, any earlier date of termination of this Lease, or the date that Tenant vacates the Expansion Space, whichever shall first occur, Tenant shall not be required to restore the alterations (if Tenant elected to make such alterations) to the 13th Floor Access Point or the removal of the Existing Staircase to their respective states prior to the Delivery Date.

TENANT IMPROVEMENTS

2.1 Tenant Improvement Allowance. Tenant shall be entitled to a one-time tenant improvement allowance (the "Tenant Improvement Allowance") in the amount of up to, but not exceeding [] for the costs relating to the initial design and construction of Tenant's improvements which are permanently affixed to the Expansion Space (the "Tenant Improvements"); provided, however, that Landlord shall have no obligation to disburse all or any portion of the Tenant Improvement Allowance to Tenant unless Tenant makes a request for disbursement pursuant to the terms and conditions of Section 2.2 below prior to that date which is six (6) months after the Expansion Commencement Date. In no event shall Landlord be obligated to make disbursements pursuant to this Tenant Work Letter in a total amount which exceeds the Tenant Improvement Allowance. Tenant shall not be entitled to receive any cash payment for any portion of the Tenant Improvement Allowance which is not used to pay for the Tenant Improvement Allowance Items (as such term is defined below) or disbursed following the effective date of the Second Amendment in accordance with the terms of this Tenant Work Letter.

2.2 Disbursement of the Tenant Improvement Allowance.

2.2.1 Tenant Improvement Allowance Items. Except as otherwise set forth in this Tenant Work Letter, the Tenant Improvement Allowance shall be disbursed by Landlord only for the following items and costs (collectively, the "Tenant Improvement Allowance Items"):

2.2.1.1 Payment of the fees of the "Architect" and the "Engineers," as those terms are defined in Section 3.1 of this Tenant Work Letter, the costs of Tenant's project manager (if any) and payment of the fees incurred by, and the cost of documents and materials supplied by, Landlord and Landlord's consultants in connection with the preparation and review of the "Construction Drawings," as that term is defined in Section 3.1 of this Tenant Work Letter;

2.2.1.2 The payment of plan check, permit and license fees relating to construction of the Tenant Improvements;

2.2.1.3 The cost of construction of the Tenant Improvements, including, without limitation, contractors' fees and general conditions, testing and inspection costs, costs of utilities, trash removal, parking and hoists, and the costs of after-hours freight elevator usage.

2.2.1.4 The cost of any changes in the Base, Shell and Core work when such changes are required by the Construction Drawings (including if such changes are due to the fact that such work is prepared on an unoccupied basis), such cost to include all direct architectural and/or engineering fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith;

2.2.1.5 The cost of any changes to the Construction Drawings or Tenant Improvements required by applicable laws and building codes (collectively, "Code");

2.2.1.6 Sales and use taxes;

2.2.1.7 The "Coordination Fee," as that term is defined in Section 4.2.2.2 of this Tenant Work Letter; and

2.2.1.8 All other costs to be expended by Landlord in connection with the construction of the Tenant Improvements.

2.2.2 Disbursement of Tenant Improvement Allowance. During the construction of the Tenant Improvements, Landlord shall make monthly disbursements of the Tenant Improvement Allowance for Tenant Improvement Allowance Items for the benefit of Tenant and shall authorize the release of monies for the benefit of Tenant as follows:

2.2.2.1 Monthly Disbursements. On or before the fifth (5th) day of each calendar month during the construction of the Tenant Improvements (or such other date as Landlord may designate), Tenant shall deliver to Landlord: (i) a request for payment of the "Contractor," as that term is defined in Section 4.1 below, approved by Tenant, using the current

AIA contract and payment forms showing the schedule, by trade, of percentage of completion of the Tenant Improvements in the Expansion Space, detailing the portion of the work completed and the portion not completed, and demonstrating that the relationship between the cost of the work completed and the cost of the work to be completed complies with the terms of the "Construction Budget," as that term is defined in Section 4.2.1 below; (ii) paid invoices from all of "Tenant's Agents," as that term is defined in Section 4.1.2 below, for labor rendered and materials delivered to the Expansion Space; (iii) executed mechanic's lien releases (which may be conditional releases pending receipt of payment) from all of Tenant's Agents which shall comply with the appropriate provisions of Arizona law, as reasonably determined by Landlord; and (iv) all other information reasonably requested by Landlord including sign off by Tenant's architect with respect to such payment request. Tenant's request for payment shall be deemed Tenant's acceptance and approval of the work furnished and/or the materials supplied as set forth in Tenant's payment request. On or before the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the following calendar month in which Tenant's request for payments is delivered, Landlord shall deliver a check to Tenant made jointly payable to Contractor and Tenant in payment of the lesser of (A) the amounts so requested by Tenant, as set forth in this Section 2.2.2.1, above, less a ten percent (10%) retention (the aggregate amount of such retentions to be known as the "Final Retention") and (B) the balance of any remaining available portion of the Tenant Improvement Allowance (not including the Final Retention), provided that Landlord does not dispute any request for payment based on noncompliance of any work with the "Approved Working Drawings", as that term is defined in Section 3.4 below, or due to any substandard work, or for any other reason. Landlord's payment of such amounts shall not be deemed Landlord's approval or acceptance of the work furnished or materials supplied as set forth in Tenant's payment request.

2.2.2.2 Final Retention. Subject to the provisions of this Tenant Work Letter, a check for the Final Retention payable to Tenant and Contractor shall be delivered by Landlord to Tenant following the completion of construction of the Expansion Space, provided that (i) Tenant delivers to Landlord properly executed unconditional mechanics lien releases in compliance with applicable Arizona law, and (ii) Landlord has determined that no substandard work exists which adversely affects the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating and air conditioning, life-safety or other systems of the Building, the curtain wall of the Building, the structure or exterior appearance of the Building, or any other tenant's use of such other tenant's leased premises in the Building.

2.2.2.3 Other Terms. Landlord shall only be obligated to make disbursements from the Tenant Improvement Allowance to the extent costs are incurred by Tenant for Tenant Improvement Allowance Items or as otherwise provided in Section 2.1.

CONSTRUCTION DRAWINGS

3.1 Selection of Architect/Construction Drawings. Tenant shall retain an architect/space planner (the "Architect") to prepare the Construction Drawings. Tenant shall retain the engineering consultants approved by Landlord (the "Engineers"), which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, to prepare all plans and engineering working drawings relating to the structural, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, HVAC, life safety, and sprinkler work in the Expansion Space. The plans and drawings to be prepared by Architect and the Engineers hereunder shall be known collectively as the "Construction Drawings." All Construction Drawings shall comply with the drawing format and specifications reasonably determined by Landlord and shall be subject to Landlord's approval. Tenant and Architect shall verify, in the field, the dimensions and conditions as shown on the relevant portions of the base building plans, and Tenant and Architect shall be solely responsible for the same, and Landlord shall have no responsibility in connection therewith. Landlord's review of the Construction Drawings as set forth in this Section 3, shall be for its sole purpose and shall not imply Landlord's review of the same, or obligate Landlord to review the same, for quality, design, Code compliance or other like matters. Accordingly, notwithstanding that any Construction Drawings are reviewed by Landlord or its space planner, architect, engineers and consultants, and notwithstanding any advice or assistance which may be rendered to Tenant by Landlord or Landlord's space planner, architect, engineers, and consultants, Landlord shall have no liability whatsoever in connection therewith and shall not be responsible for any omissions or errors contained in the Construction Drawings.

3.1.1 Approved Consultants. Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, Landlord hereby approves the following consultants to be retained by Tenant: McCarthy Nordburg, Architect of Record; Kraemer Consulting, MEP engineer: Caruso Turley Scott, Structural Engineer.

3.2 Final Space Plan. Within seventy-five (75) days after the full execution and delivery of the Second Amendment, Tenant shall supply Landlord with four (4) copies signed by Tenant of its final space plan for the Expansion Space before any architectural working drawings or engineering drawings have been commenced. The final space plan (the "Final Space Plan") shall include a layout and designation of all offices, rooms and other partitioning, their intended use, and equipment to be contained therein. Landlord may request clarification or more specific drawings for special use items not included in the Final Space Plan. Landlord shall advise Tenant within five (5) business days after Landlord's receipt of the Final Space Plan for the Expansion Space if the same is unsatisfactory or incomplete in any respect. If Tenant is so advised, Tenant shall promptly (i) cause the Final Space Plan to be revised to correct any deficiencies or other matters Landlord may reasonably require, and (ii) deliver such revised Final Space Plan to Landlord. The sequence of submitting and reviewing the Final Space Plan shall continue within the time periods provided herein until the Final Space Plan is approved. If Landlord fails to respond to any Final Space submitted for review and approval within five (5) business days after Landlord's receipt, Landlord shall be deemed to have granted its approval.

3.3 Final Working Drawings. After the Final Space Plan has been approved by Landlord and Tenant, Tenant shall promptly cause the Architect and the Engineers to complete the architectural and engineering drawings for the Expansion Space, and cause the Architect to compile a fully coordinated set of architectural, structural, mechanical, electrical and plumbing working drawings in a form which is complete to allow subcontractors to bid on the work and to obtain all applicable permits for the Tenant Improvements (collectively, the "Final Working Drawings"), and shall submit the same to Landlord for Landlord's approval. Tenant shall supply Landlord with four (4) copies signed by Tenant of such Final Working Drawings. Landlord shall advise Tenant within five (5) business days after Landlord's receipt of the Final Working Drawings for the Expansion Space if the same is unsatisfactory or incomplete in any respect. If Tenant is so advised, Tenant shall promptly (i) revise the Final Working Drawings in accordance with such review and any disapproval of Landlord in connection therewith, and (ii) deliver such revised Final Working Drawings to Landlord. The sequence of submitting and reviewing the Final Working Drawings shall continue within the time periods provided herein until the Final Working Drawings are approved. If Landlord fails to respond to any Final Working Drawings submitted for review and approval within five (5) business days after Landlord's receipt, Landlord shall be deemed to have granted its approval.

3.4 Approved Working Drawings. The Final Working Drawings shall be approved by Landlord (the "Approved Working Drawings") prior to the commencement of construction of the Expansion Space by Tenant. After approval by Landlord of the Final Working Drawings, Tenant shall promptly submit the same to the appropriate governmental authorities for all applicable building permits. Tenant hereby agrees that neither Landlord nor Landlord's consultants shall be responsible for obtaining any building permit or certificate of occupancy for the Expansion Space and that obtaining the same shall be Tenant's responsibility; provided, however, that Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant in executing permit applications and performing other ministerial acts reasonably necessary to enable Tenant to obtain any such permit or certificate of occupancy. No changes, modifications or alterations in the Approved Working Drawings may be made without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE TENANT IMPROVEMENTS

4.1 Tenant's Selection of Contractor and Tenant's Agents.

4.1.1 The Contractor. A general contractor shall be retained by Tenant to construct the Tenant Improvements. Such general contractor ("Contractor") shall be selected by Tenant from a list of general contractors supplied by Landlord, and Tenant shall deliver to Landlord notice of its selection of the Contractor upon such selection. Landlord hereby approves Westpac Construction Company as the general contractor if retained by Tenant.

4.1.2 Tenant's Agents. All subcontractors used by Tenant (such subcontractors, together with any laborers, materialmen, and suppliers, and the Contractor to be known collectively as "Tenant's Agents") must be approved in writing by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided that, in any event, Tenant must contract with Landlord's base building subcontractors for any mechanical, electrical, plumbing, life safety, structural, heating, ventilation, and air-conditioning work in the Expansion Space.

4.2 Construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant's Agents.

4.2.1 Construction Contract; Cost Budget. Prior to Tenant's execution of the construction contract and general conditions with Contractor (the "Contract"), Tenant shall submit the Contract to Landlord for its approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Prior to the commencement of the construction of the Tenant Improvements, and after Tenant has accepted all bids for the Tenant Improvements, Tenant shall provide Landlord with a detailed breakdown, by trade, of the final costs to be incurred, or which have been incurred, as set forth more particularly in Sections 2.2.1.1 through 2.2.1.8 above, in connection with the design and construction of the Tenant Improvements to be performed by or at the direction of Tenant or the Contractor (which costs form a basis for the amount of the Contract, if any (the "Final Costs"). Such Final Costs shall also demonstrate any amounts by which the Final Costs exceed the Tenant Improvement Allowance. In the event that, after the Final Costs have been delivered by Landlord to Tenant, the costs relating to the design and construction of the Tenant Improvements shall change, any additional costs necessary to such design and construction in excess of the Final Costs shall, to the extent they exceed the remaining balance of the Tenant Improvement Allowance, Tenant shall make payments for such additional costs out of its own funds, but Tenant shall continue to provide Landlord with the documents described in Sections 2.2.2.1(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above, for Landlord's approval, prior to Tenant paying such costs.

4.2.2 Tenant's Agents.

4.2.2.1 Landlord's General Conditions for Tenant's Agents and Tenant Improvement Work. Tenant's and Tenant's Agents' construction of the Tenant Improvements shall comply with the following: (i)the Tenant Improvements shall be constructed in strict accordance with the Approved Working Drawings; (ii) Tenant and Tenant's Agents shall not, in any way, interfere with, obstruct, or delay, the work of Landlord's base building contractor and subcontractors with respect to the Base, Shell and Core or any other work in the Building; (iii) Tenant's Agents shall submit schedules of all work relating to the Tenant's Improvements to Contractor and Contractor shall, within five (5) business days of receipt thereof, inform Tenant's Agents of any changes which are necessary thereto, and Tenant's Agents shall adhere to such corrected schedule; and (iv) Tenant shall abide by all rules made by Landlord's Building contractor or Landlord's Building manager with respect to the use of freight, loading dock and service elevators, storage of materials, coordination of work with the contractors of other tenants, and any other matter in connection with this Tenant Work Letter, including, without limitation, the construction of the Tenant Improvements.

4.2.2.2 Coordination Fee. Tenant shall pay a logistical coordination fee (the "Coordination Fee") to Landlord in an amount equal to Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00), which Coordination Fee shall be for services relating to the coordination of the construction of the Tenant Improvements and shall be deducted by Landlord from the Tenant Improvement Allowance.

4.2.2.3 Indemnity. Tenant's indemnity of Landlord as set forth in the Lease shall also apply with respect to any and all costs, losses, damages, injuries and liabilities related in any way to any act or omission of Tenant or Tenant's Agents, or anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them, or in connection with Tenant's non-payment of any amount arising out of the Tenant Improvements and/or Tenant's disapproval of all or any portion of any request for payment. Such indemnity by Tenant, as set forth in the Lease, shall also apply with respect to any and all costs, losses, damages, injuries and liabilities related in any way to Landlord's performance of any ministerial acts reasonably necessary (i) to permit Tenant to complete the Tenant Improvements, and (ii) to enable Tenant to obtain any building permit or certificate of occupancy for the Expansion Space. Such indemnity by Tenant, as set forth in the Lease, shall exclude any and all costs, losses, damages, injuries and liabilities relate in any way to any grossly negligent or willful acts of Landlord and its employees, agents and contractors.

4.2.2.4 Insurance Requirements.

4.2.2.4.1 General Coverages. All of Tenant's Agents shall carry worker's compensation insurance covering all of their respective employees, and shall also carry public liability insurance, including property damage, all with limits, in form and with companies as are required to be carried by Tenant as set forth in the Lease.

4.2.2.4.2 Special Coverages. Tenant shall require its general contractor to carry "Builder's All Risk" insurance in an amount approved by Landlord covering the construction of the Tenant Improvements, and such other insurance as Landlord may reasonably require. It being understood and agreed that the Tenant Improvements shall be insured by Tenant pursuant to the Lease immediately upon completion thereof. Such insurance shall be in amounts and shall include such extended coverage endorsements as may be reasonably required by Landlord, and in form and with companies as are required to be carried by Tenant as set forth in the Lease.

4.2.2.4.3 General Terms. Certificates for all insurance carried pursuant to this Section 4.2.2.4 shall be delivered to Landlord before the commencement of construction of the Tenant Improvements and before the Contractor's equipment is moved onto the site. All such policies of insurance must contain a provision that the company writing said policy will give Landlord thirty (30) days prior written notice of any cancellation or lapse of the effective date or any reduction in the amounts of such insurance. In the event that the Tenant Improvements are damaged by any cause during the course of the construction thereof, Tenant shall immediately repair the same at Tenant's sole cost and expense. All policies carried under this Section 4.2.2.4 shall insure Landlord and Tenant, as their interests may appear, as well as Contractor and Tenant's Agents, and shall name as additional insureds Landlord's Property Manager, Landlord's Asset Manager, and all mortgagees and ground lessors of the Building. All insurance, except Workers' Compensation, maintained by Tenant's Agents shall preclude subrogation claims by the insurer against anyone insured thereunder. Such insurance shall provide that it is primary insurance as respect the owner and that any other insurance maintained by owner is excess and noncontributing with the insurance required hereunder. The requirements for the foregoing insurance shall not derogate from the provisions for indemnification of Landlord by Tenant under Section 4.2.2.3 of this Tenant Work Letter.

4.2.3 Governmental Compliance. The Tenant Improvements shall comply in all respects with the following: (i) the Code and other state, federal, city or quasi-governmental laws, codes, ordinances and regulations, as each may apply according to the rulings of the controlling public official, agent or other person; (ii) applicable standards of the American Insurance Association (formerly, the National Board of Fire Underwriters) and the National Electrical Code; and (iii) building material manufacturer's specifications.

4.2.4 Inspection by Landlord. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Tenant Improvements at all times, provided however, that Landlord's failure to inspect the Tenant Improvements shall in no event constitute a waiver of any of Landlord's rights hereunder nor shall Landlord's inspection of the Tenant Improvements constitute Landlord's approval of the same. Should Landlord disapprove any portion of the Tenant Improvements, Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing of such disapproval and shall specify the items disapproved. Any defects or deviations in, and/or disapproval by Landlord of, the Tenant Improvements shall be rectified by Tenant at no expense to Landlord, provided however, that in the event Landlord determines that a defect or deviation exists or disapproves of any matter in connection with any portion of the Tenant Improvements and such defect, deviation or matter might adversely affect the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating and air conditioning or life-safety systems of the Building, the structure or exterior appearance of the Building or any other tenant's use of such other tenant's leased premises, Landlord shall notify Tenant to take corrective action. If Tenant fails to take corrective action within fifteen (15) days and diligently prepare and complete the corrective action promptly thereafter, then Landlord may take such action as Landlord deems necessary, at Tenant's expense and without incurring any liability on Landlord's part, to correct any such defect, deviation and/or matter, including, without limitation, causing the cessation of performance of the construction of the Tenant Improvements until such time as the defect, deviation and/or matter is corrected to Landlord's satisfaction.

4.2.5 Meetings. Commencing upon the execution of the Lease, Tenant shall hold weekly meetings at a reasonable time, with the Architect and the Contractor regarding the progress of the preparation of Construction Drawings and the construction of the Tenant Improvements, which meetings shall be held at a location designated by Landlord, and Landlord and/or its agents shall receive prior notice of, and shall have the right to attend, all such meetings, and, upon Landlord's request, certain of Tenant's Agents shall attend such meetings. In addition, minutes shall be taken at all such meetings, a copy of which minutes shall be promptly delivered to Landlord. One such meeting each month shall include the review of Contractor's current request for payment.

4.3 Notice of Completion; Copy of "As Built" Plans. Within thirty (30) days after completion of construction of the Tenant Improvements, Tenant shall cause a Notice of Completion to be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the County in which the Building is located in accordance with applicable Arizona law and shall furnish a copy thereof to Landlord upon such recordation. If Tenant fails to do so, Landlord may execute and file the same on behalf of Tenant as Tenant's agent for such purpose, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. At the conclusion of construction, (i) Tenant shall cause the Architect and Contractor (A) to update the Approved Working Drawings as necessary to reflect all changes made to the Approved Working Drawings during the course of construction, (B) to certify to the best of their knowledge that the "record-set" of as-built drawings are true and correct, which certification shall survive the expiration or termination of the Lease, and (C) to deliver to Landlord two (2) sets of sepias of such as-built drawings within ninety (90) days following issuance of a certificate of occupancy for the Expansion Space, and (ii) Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a copy of all warranties, guaranties, and operating manuals and information relating to the improvements, equipment, and systems in the Expansion Space.

4.4 Coordination by Tenant's Agents with Landlord. Upon Tenant's delivery of the Contract to Landlord under Section 4.2.1 of this Tenant Work Letter, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with a schedule setting forth the projected date of the completion of the Tenant Improvements and showing the critical time deadlines for each phase, item or trade relating to the construction of the Tenant Improvements.

Unless otherwise agreed to between Buyer and the Seller in writing, all purchases of Eligible Loans subject to outstanding Transactions at any one time shall be first deemed committed up to the Committed Amount and then the remainder, if any, shall be deemed uncommitted up the Uncommitted Amount. Buyer shall not have the right, however, to terminate any Transactions with respect to the Uncommitted Amount after the Purchase Date until the related Repurchase Date. Unless otherwise agreed, with respect to any Loan other than a Wet-Ink Loan, the Seller shall request that Buyer enter into a Transaction with respect to any Purchased Asset by delivering to the indicated required parties (each, a "Required Recipient") the required delivery items (each, a "Required Delivery Item") set forth in the table below by the corresponding required delivery time (the "Required Delivery Time"):

Purchased Asset Type	Required Delivery Items	Required Delivery Time	Required Recipient	Required Purchase Time

Any such Transaction Notice and the related Confirmation, together with this Agreement, shall constitute conclusive evidence, absent manifest error, of the terms agreed to between Buyer and the Seller with respect to the Transaction to which the Transaction Notice and Confirmation, if any, relates. By entering in to a Transaction with Buyer, the Seller consents to the terms set forth in any related Confirmation.

(b) Pursuant to the Custodial Agreement, the Custodian shall review the applicable documents in the applicable Mortgage Files delivered prior to 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) by the Seller on any Business Day on the same day. Not later than 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on each Business Day, the Custodian shall deliver to Buyer, via Electronic Transmission acceptable to Buyer, the Custodial Loan Transmission showing the status of all Loans then held by the Custodian, including but not limited to an Exception Report showing all Loans which are subject to Exceptions, and the time the related Loan Documents have been released pursuant to Sections 5(a) or 7(a) of the Custodial Agreement. (iv) Upon Seller's request for a Transaction pursuant to Section 3(d)(i), Buyer shall (with respect to the Committed Amount) and may (with respect to the Uncommitted Amount), upon satisfaction of all conditions precedent set forth in this Section 3 and in Sections 9(a) and 9(b), and provided that no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, enter into a Transaction with Seller on the requested Purchase Date, in the amount so requested.

(v) Subject to this Section 3 and Sections 9(a) and 9(b), such Purchase Price will then be made available by Custodian transferring at the direction of Buyer, via wire transfer, the amount of such Purchase Price from the account of Buyer maintained with Custodian to the account of the designated Closing Agent pursuant to disbursement instructions provided by Seller on the electronic system maintained by Custodian; provided, however, that (i) Buyer has been provided such disbursement instructions and shall not have rejected, in its reasonable discretion, any wiring location, (ii) Custodian shall not, in any event, (A) transfer funds to Seller or any Affiliate of Seller (other than Title Source, Inc. or one of its Subsidiaries in its capacity as Closing Agent) or (B) transfer funds in excess of the original principal balance of the related Wet-Ink Loan. Upon notice from the Closing Agent to Seller that the related Wet-Ink Loan was not originated, the Wet-Ink Loan shall be removed from the list of Eligible Loans and the Closing Agent shall immediately return the funds via wire transfer to the account of Buyer maintained with Custodian. Seller shall notify Buyer if a Wet-Ink Loan was not originated and has been removed from the list of Eligible Loans.

(e) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, if Buyer determines in its commercially reasonable discretion that, by reason of circumstances affecting the relevant market, adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining any LIBOR Rate, LIBOR Rates are no longer in existence, or a Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over Buyer has made a public statement identifying a specific date after which any LIBOR Rate shall no longer be made available or used for determining the interest rate of loans (such specific date, the "Scheduled Unavailability Date"), Buyer shall give prompt notice thereof to Seller (the "Rate Change Notice"), whereupon the Applicable Pricing Rate from the date specified in such notice (which shall be no sooner than sixty (60) days following the date of such notice, and may be the Scheduled Unavailability Date), until such time as the notice has been withdrawn by Buyer, shall be an alternative benchmark rate (including any mathematical or other adjustments to the benchmark rate (if any) incorporated therein) (any such rate, a "Successor Rate"), together with any proposed Successor Rate Conforming Changes, as determined by Buyer in its commercially reasonable discretion prior to such Scheduled Unavailability Date. The Successor Rate will be determined by Buyer with due consideration to the then prevailing market practice for determining a rate of interest for newly originated commercial loans in the United States and in a manner and format consistent with Buyer's established business practices relating to entities similar to Buyer and to purchased assets similar to the Loans, and may reflect appropriate mathematical or other adjustments to account for the transition from the LIBOR Rate to the Successor Rate (including any Successor Rate Conforming Changes).

(f) In the event that Seller determines that the Successor Rate or Successor Rate Conforming Changes are unacceptable, Seller shall provide notice of same to Buyer within forty-five (45) days of receipt of the Rate Change Notice and Seller shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, prior to the effective date specified in the Rate Change Notice, without the imposition of any form of penalty, breakage costs or exit fees. In the event that Seller elects to terminate this Agreement in accordance with the foregoing, it shall pay the outstanding Obligations, including all unpaid fees and expenses due to Buyer, prior to the effective date specified in the Rate Change Notice. In the event that Seller does not (i) provide notice that either the Successor Rate or the Successor Rate Conforming Changes are unacceptable within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Rate Change Notice, or (ii) pay the outstanding Obligations, including all unpaid fees and expenses due to Buyer, prior to the effective date specified in the Rate Change Notice, then the Successor Rate and the Successor Rate Conforming Changes shall become effective on the date specified in the Rate Change Notice.

(g) The Seller shall repurchase, and Buyer shall sell, Purchased Assets from Buyer on each related Repurchase Date. Each obligation to repurchase exists without regard to any prior or intervening liquidation or foreclosure with respect to any Purchased Asset (but liquidation or foreclosure proceeds received by Buyer shall be applied to reduce the Repurchase Price for such Purchased Asset). Upon receipt of the Repurchase Price in full therefor and provided that no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Buyer is obligated to deliver (or cause its designee to deliver) physical possession of the Purchased Assets (or Control with respect to eMortgage Loans) to Seller or its designee on the related Repurchase Date. Upon such transfer of the Loans back to Seller, ownership of each Loan, including each document in the related Mortgage File and Records, is vested in Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such release and termination gives rise to or perpetuates a Margin Deficit, Buyer shall notify the Seller of the amount thereof and the Seller shall thereupon satisfy the Margin Call in the manner specified in Section 6(b), following which Buyer shall promptly perform its obligations as set forth above in this Section 3(f). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Seller shall have the right to repurchase any or all of the Purchased Assets at any time upon one (1) Business Day's prior notice to Buyer, without incurring breakage fees.

(h) On any Repurchase Date, the Seller may, without cause and for any reason whatsoever, terminate this Agreement and effectuate a repurchase of all Purchased Assets then subject to Transactions at the related aggregate Repurchase Price (a "Seller Termination"); provided that Seller shall (i) exercise such termination rights in good faith, and (ii) remit the Repurchase Price for such Purchased Assets and satisfy all other outstanding Obligations within one (1) Business Day of such Repurchase Date. The Seller hereby acknowledges and agrees that upon the occurrence of a Seller Termination, the Seller shall not be entitled to repayment or reimbursement of any fees, costs or expenses paid by the Seller to Buyer under this Agreement or any other Program Document, unless otherwise expressly provided for under this Agreement.

(i) If any Requirements of Law (other than with respect to any amendment made to Buyer's certificate of incorporation and by-laws or other organizational or governing documents) adopted after the date hereof or any change in the interpretation or application thereof or compliance by Buyer with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any central bank or other Governmental Authority made subsequent to the date hereof:

(i) shall subject Buyer to any tax of any kind whatsoever with respect to this Agreement or any Purchased Assets purchased pursuant to it (excluding net income taxes) or change the basis of taxation of payments to Buyer in respect thereof;

(ii) shall impose, modify or hold applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory advance or similar requirement against assets held by deposits or other liabilities in or for the account of Transactions or extensions of credit by, or any other acquisition of funds by any office of Buyer which is not otherwise included in the determination of LIBOR Rate hereunder; or

(iii) shall impose on Buyer any other condition affecting this Agreement or the Transactions hereunder;

and the result of any of the foregoing is to increase the cost to Buyer, by an amount which Buyer deems to be material, of effecting or maintaining purchases hereunder, or to reduce any amount receivable hereunder in respect thereof, then, in any such case, Buyer shall promptly notify Seller by delivering to Seller a certificate with reasonable detail as to any additional amounts payable pursuant to this subsection as calculated by Buyer in good faith (a "Yield Protection Notice"). Seller shall, within five (5) Business Days of receipt of the Yield Protection Notice, advise Buyer of its intent to either terminate this Agreement (without the imposition of any form of penalty, breakage costs or exit fees (excluding all outstanding Obligations, including all unpaid fees and expenses)) or pay Buyer such additional amount or amounts as will compensate Buyer for such increased cost or reduced amounts receivable thereafter incurred (provided that Seller shall only be obligated to pay those amounts pursuant to this subpart 3(i) to the extent incurred by the Buyer (i) within ninety (90) days prior to delivery of the Yield Protection Notice to Seller and (ii) on or after delivery of the Yield Protection Notice to Seller). In the event that Seller elects to terminate this Agreement in accordance with the foregoing, it shall pay the outstanding Obligations, including all unpaid fees and expenses due to Buyer, within sixty (60) days of receipt of the Yield Protection Notice; provided, that if Seller elects to terminate this Agreement, in no event shall Seller pay (i) any increased costs specified in the Yield Protection Notice or (ii) any increased costs accrued during the ninety (90) days prior to receipt of such Yield Protection Notice.

4. PAYMENTS; COMPUTATION

(a) Payments. Except to the extent otherwise provided herein, all payments to be made by the Seller under this Agreement shall be made in Dollars, in immediately available funds, without deduction, set-off or counterclaim, to Buyer in accordance with the wire instructions set forth on Exhibit C hereto, not later than 2:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the date on which such payment shall become due (each such payment made after such time on such due date to be deemed to have been made on the next succeeding Business Day).

(i) Prepayment: Seller may remit to Buyer funds up to the then outstanding Purchase Price to be applied as of the date such funds are received by Buyer towards the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price of Purchased Assets subject to outstanding Transactions on a pro rata basis or as otherwise designated by the Seller. The Price Differential shall be applied, and shall accrue on the Purchase Price then outstanding, after such application of such funds as provided in the preceding sentence, subject to paragraph (ii) below. Buyer shall credit the entire amount of such prepayment to the outstanding Purchase Price and not to any accrued Price

Differential if such prepayment of Repurchase Price is made by Seller on a day other than the Termination Date.

(b) Computations. The Price Differential shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day) occurring in the period for which payable.

(c) Price Differential Payment Amount. Seller hereby promises to pay to Buyer, Price Differential on the unpaid Repurchase Price of each Transaction for the period from and including the Purchase Date of such Transaction to but excluding the Repurchase Date of such Transaction; provided, that in no event shall the Pricing Rate used to calculate the Price Differential exceed the maximum rate permitted by law. Accrued and unpaid Price Differential on each Transaction shall be payable monthly on the sixth (6^{th}) Business Day of each month and for the last month of this Agreement on the Termination Date. On a calendar monthly basis and on the Termination Date, Buyer shall determine the total accrued and unpaid Price Differential (the "Price Differential Payment Amount") during the preceding calendar month for all Purchased Assets subject to all outstanding Transactions during such period (or with respect to the initial period, from the Effective Date through the end of the calendar month in which the Effective Date occurs, and with respect to the Termination Date, during the period from the date through which the last Price Differential Payment Amount calculation was made to the Termination Date). Buyer shall provide written notice to Seller after the end of the applicable calendar month or the Termination Date, as applicable, of the Price Differential Payment Amount and of its calculation of such Price Differential Payment Amount. Following such written notice from Buyer, Seller shall have five (5) Business Days to review Buyer's calculation of the Price Differential Payment Amount. On the sixth (6th) Business Day following Buyer's written notice of its calculation of the Price Differential Payment Amount, Seller shall pay the Price Differential Payment Amount to Buyer. All payments shall be made to Buyer in Dollars, in immediately available funds.

5. TAXES; TAX TREATMENT

(a) All payments made by the Seller to Buyer or a Buyer assignee under this Agreement or under any Program Document shall be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of any Taxes, excluding income taxes, branch profits taxes, franchise taxes or any other tax imposed on net income by the United States, a state or a foreign jurisdiction under the laws of which Buyer is organized or of its applicable lending office, or any political subdivision thereof, all of which shall be paid by the Seller for its own account not later than the date when due. If the Seller is required by law or regulation to deduct or withhold any Taxes or Other Taxes from or in respect of any amount payable to Buyer or Buyer assignee, the Seller shall: (i) make such deduction or withholding; (ii) pay the full amount so deducted or withheld to the appropriate Governmental Authority in accordance with the requirements of the applicable law or regulation not later than the date when due; (iii) deliver to Buyer or Buyer assignee, promptly, original tax receipts and other evidence satisfactory to Buyer of the payment when due of the full amount of such Taxes or Other Taxes; and (iv) pay to Buyer or Buyer assignee such additional amounts as may be necessary so that after making all required deductions and withholdings (including deductions and withholding applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 5), such Buyer or Buyer assignee receives, free and clear of all Taxes and Other Taxes, an amount equal to the amount it would have received under this Agreement, as if no such deduction or withholding had been made.

(b) The Seller agrees to indemnify Buyer or any Buyer assignee, promptly on reasonable demand, for the full amount of Taxes (including additional amounts with respect thereto) and Other Taxes, and the full amount of Taxes and Other Taxes of any kind imposed by any jurisdiction on amounts payable under this Section 5, and any liability (including penalties, interest and expenses) arising therefrom or with respect thereto.

(c) To the extent Buyer or Buyer assignee is not organized under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, or the District of Columbia (a "Foreign Buyer"), such Foreign Buyer shall provide the Seller whichever of the following is applicable: (I) in the case of such Foreign Buyer or Foreign Buyer assignee claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party, a properly completed United States Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E or any successor form prescribed by the IRS, certifying that such Foreign Buyer is entitled to a zero percent or reduced rate of U.S. federal income withholding tax on payments made hereunder or (II) a properly completed IRS Form W-8ECI or any successor form prescribed by the IRS, certifying that the income receivable pursuant to this Agreement is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States. Each Foreign Buyer or Foreign Buyer assignee will deliver the appropriate IRS form on or prior to the date on which such person becomes a Foreign Buyer or Foreign Buyer assignee under this Agreement. Each Foreign Buyer or Foreign Buyer assignee further agrees that upon learning that the information on any tax form or certification it previously delivered is inaccurate or incorrect in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify the Seller in writing of its legal inability to do so. For any period with respect to which a Foreign Buyer has failed to provide the Seller with the appropriate form or other relevant document pursuant to this Section 5(c) (unless such failure is due to a change in treaty, law, or regulation occurring subsequent to the date on which a form originally was required to be provided), such Foreign Buyer shall not be entitled to any "gross-up" of Taxes or indemnification under Section 5(b) with respect to Taxes imposed by the United States; provided, however, that should a Foreign Buyer, which is otherwise exempt from a withholding tax, become subject to Taxes because of its failure to deliver a form required hereunder, the Seller shall take such steps as such Foreign Buyer shall reasonably request to assist such Foreign Buyer to recover such Taxes.

(d) Without prejudice to the survival or any other agreement of the Seller hereunder, the agreements and obligations of the Seller contained in this Section 5 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, Buyer or a Buyer assignee, and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Program Document. Nothing contained in this Section 5 shall require Buyer to make available any of its tax returns or other information that it deems to be confidential or proprietary.

(e) Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that it is its intent for purposes of U.S. federal, and relevant state and local income and franchise taxes to treat each Transaction as indebtedness of the Seller that is secured by the Purchased Assets and that the Purchased Assets are owned by Seller in the absence of an Event of Default by the Seller. All parties to this Agreement agree to such treatment and agree to take no action inconsistent with this treatment, unless required by law.

6. MARGIN MAINTENANCE

(a) Buyer determines the Market Value of the Purchased Assets at such intervals as determined by Buyer in its sole discretion consistent with its valuation practices for similar loans being sold by sellers similar to Seller, which may be as frequently as daily; provided, however, that the Seller may request that the Buyer provide reasonable detail regarding its determination of Market Value, as well as to demonstrate that such Market Value has been determined in accordance with the definition thereof.

(b) If at any time the aggregate Purchase Price for all Purchased Assets subject to outstanding Transactions is greater than the sum of (i) any prior Margin Call cash then held by the Buyer, and (ii) the product of (a) the Applicable Percentage and (b) the Market Value of all Purchased Assets (such excess, a "Margin Deficit"), then subject to the last sentence of this paragraph, Buyer may, by notice to Seller (a "Margin Call"), require Seller to transfer to Buyer cash or Substitute Assets approved by Buyer in its sole discretion in an amount sufficient to cure such Margin Deficit. If Buyer delivers a Margin Call to Seller on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, then Seller shall transfer the required amount of cash or Substitute Assets to Buyer no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the same Business Day as Seller's receipt of such Margin Call. In the event Buyer delivers a Margin Call to a Seller after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, Seller will be required to transfer the required amount of cash or Substitute Assets no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the date that is two (2) Business Days after Seller's receipt of such Margin Call. Notwithstanding the foregoing, provided that no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Buyer shall not require the Seller to satisfy a Margin Call and no Margin Call shall be required to be made unless the Margin Deficit shall equal or exceed [], as determined by Buyer in its reasonable, good faith discretion.

(c) Buyer's election, in its sole and absolute discretion, not to make a Margin Call at any time there is a Margin Deficit will not in any way limit or impair its right to make a Margin Call at any time a Margin Deficit exists.

(d) Any cash transferred to Buyer pursuant to Section 6(b) above will be applied to the repayment of the Repurchase Price of outstanding Transactions pursuant to Section 4(a)(i) and any Substitute Assets will be deemed to be Purchased Assets.

7. INCOME PAYMENTS

(a) Where a particular term of a Transaction extends over the date on which Income is paid in respect of any Purchased Asset subject to that Transaction, such Income shall be the property of Buyer. The Seller shall (i) segregate all Income collected by or on behalf of the Seller on account of the Purchased Assets and shall hold such Income in trust for the benefit of Buyer that is clearly marked as such in the Seller's records and (ii) deposit all Income with respect to each Purchased Asset after the related Purchase Date and before the related Repurchase Date into the Collection Account within three (3) Business Days of receipt. For the avoidance of doubt, so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer agrees that the Seller shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to all Income received in respect of the Purchased Assets, whether by Buyer, Custodian or any servicer or any other Person, which is not otherwise received by the Seller, to the full extent it would be so entitled if the Purchased Assets had not been sold to Buyer and shall have no obligation to deposit such amounts into the Collection Account; provided that any Income received by the Seller while the related Transaction is outstanding shall be deemed to be held by the Seller solely in trust for Buyer pending the repurchase on the related Repurchase Date.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, upon receipt by Seller of any prepayment of principal in full with respect to a Purchased Asset, Seller shall (i) provide prompt written notice to Buyer of such prepayment, and (ii) remit such amount to Buyer and Buyer shall apply such amount received by Buyer plus accrued interest on such amount against the Repurchase Price of such Purchased Asset pursuant to Sections 4(a)(i) and 6(d) but not on a pro rata basis.

8. SECURITY INTEREST; BUYER'S APPOINTMENT AS ATTORNEY-IN-FACT

(a) On each Purchase Date, Seller hereby sells, assigns and conveys to Buyer all rights and interests in the Purchased Assets identified on the related Loan Schedule. The Seller and Buyer intend that the Transactions hereunder be sales to Buyer of the Purchased Assets (other than for accounting and tax purposes) and not loans from Buyer to the Seller secured by the Purchased Assets. However, in order to preserve Buyer's rights under this Agreement in the event that a court or other forum characterizes the Transactions hereunder as other than sales, and as security for the Seller's performance of all of its Obligations, and in any event, the Seller hereby grants Buyer a fully perfected first priority security interest in all of the Seller's rights, title and interest in and to the following property, whether now existing or hereafter acquired, until the related Purchased Assets are repurchased by the Seller:

(i) all Purchased Assets, including all related cash provided pursuant to Section 6 and held by or under the control of Buyer, identified on a Transaction Notice or related Loan Schedule delivered by the Seller to Buyer and the Custodian from time to time;

(ii) any Agency Security or right to receive such Agency Security when issued in each case only to the extent specifically backed by any of the Purchased Assets;

(iii) the Program Documents (to the extent such Program Documents and Seller's rights thereunder relate to the Purchased Assets);

(iv) any other collateral pledged to secure, or otherwise specifically relating to, such Purchased Assets, together with all files, material documents, instruments, surveys (if available), certificates, correspondence, appraisals, computer records, computer storage media, Loan accounting records and other books and records relating thereto;

(v) the related Records, the related Servicing Records, and the related Servicing Rights relating to such Purchased Assets;

(vi) all rights of the Seller to receive from any third party or to take delivery of any Servicing Records or other documents which constitute a part of the related Mortgage File or Servicing File;

(vii) all rights of the Seller to receive from any third party or to take delivery of any Records or other documents which constitute a part of the related Mortgage File or Servicing File;

(viii) the Collection Account and all Income relating to such Purchased Assets;

(ix) all mortgage guaranties and insurance (including FHA Mortgage Insurance Contracts, VA Loan Guaranty Agreements and any related Rural Housing Service Guarantees (if any)) and any mortgage insurance certificate or other document evidencing such mortgage guaranties or insurance relating to any Purchased Assets and all claims and payments thereunder and all rights of the Seller to receive from any third party or to take delivery of any of the foregoing;

(x) all interests in real property collateralizing any Purchased Assets;

(xi) all other insurance policies and insurance proceeds relating to any Purchased Assets or the related Mortgaged Property and all rights of the Seller to receive from any third party or to take delivery of any of the foregoing;

(xii) any purchase agreements or other agreements, contracts or Takeout Commitments to the extent specifically related to Purchased Assets subject to a Transaction (including the rights to receive the related takeout price and the portion of the Security related to Purchased Assets subject to a Transaction as evidenced by such Takeout Commitments) to the extent relating to or constituting any or all of the foregoing and all rights to receive copies of documentation relating thereto;

(xiii) all “accounts”, “chattel paper”, “commercial tort claims”, “deposit accounts”, “documents”, “equipment”, “general intangibles”, “goods”, “instruments”, “inventory”, “investment property”, “letter of credit rights”, and “securities’ accounts” as each of those terms is defined in the Uniform Commercial Code and all cash and Cash Equivalents and all products and proceeds, all to the extent specifically relating to or constituting any or all of the foregoing; and

(xiv) any and all replacements, substitutions, distributions on or proceeds of any or all of the foregoing (collectively the “Purchased Items”).

The Seller acknowledges that it has no rights to the Servicing Rights related to the Purchased Assets, until the related Purchased Assets are repurchased by the Seller. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the Seller is deemed to retain any residual Servicing Rights, the Seller grants, assigns and pledges to Buyer a first priority security interest in all of its rights, title and interest in and to the Servicing Rights as indicated hereinabove. In addition, the Seller, in its capacity as Servicer, further grants, assigns and pledges to Buyer a first priority security interest in and to all documentation and rights to receive documentation related to the Servicing Rights and the servicing of each of the Purchased Assets, and all Income related to the Purchased Assets received by the Seller, in its capacity as Servicer, and all rights to receive such Income, and all products, proceeds and distributions relating to or constituting any or all of the foregoing (collectively, and together with the pledge of Servicing Rights in the immediately preceding sentence, the “Related Security”). The Related Security is hereby pledged as further security for the Seller’s Obligations to Buyer hereunder. The foregoing provisions are intended to constitute a security agreement, securities contract or other arrangement or other credit enhancement related to the Agreement and Transactions hereunder as defined under Sections 101(47)(A)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Seller acknowledges and agrees that its rights with respect to the Purchased Items (including without limitation, any security interest the Seller may have in the Purchased Assets and any other collateral granted by the Seller to Buyer pursuant to any other agreement) are and shall continue to be at all times junior and subordinate to the rights of Buyer hereunder.

(b) At any time and from time to time, upon the written request of Buyer, and at the sole expense of the Seller, the Seller will promptly and duly execute and deliver, or will promptly cause to be executed and delivered, such further instruments and documents and take such further action as Buyer may reasonably request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of this Agreement and of the rights and powers herein granted, including, without limitation, the filing of any financing or continuation statements under the Uniform Commercial Code in effect in any jurisdiction with respect to the Purchased Items and the liens created hereby. The Seller also hereby authorizes Buyer to file any such financing or continuation statement to the extent permitted by applicable law. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement shall be sufficient as a financing statement for filing in any jurisdiction. This Agreement shall constitute a security agreement under applicable law.

(c) Seller shall not (i) change its name or corporate structure (or the equivalent), or (ii) reincorporate or reorganize under the laws of another jurisdiction unless it shall have given Buyer at least thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof and shall have delivered to Buyer all Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and amendments thereto as Buyer shall request and taken all other actions deemed reasonably necessary by Buyer to continue its perfected status in the Purchased Items with the same or better priority.

(d) The Seller hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints Buyer and any officer or agent thereof, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of the Seller and in the name of the Seller or in its own name, from time to time in Buyer's discretion, for the purpose of protecting, preserving and realizing upon the Purchased Items, carrying out the terms of this Agreement, taking any and all appropriate action and executing any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary or desirable to protect, preserve and realize upon the Purchased Items, accomplishing the purposes of this Agreement, and filing such financing statement or statements relating to the Purchased Items as Buyer at its option may deem appropriate, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Seller hereby gives Buyer the power and right, on behalf of the Seller, without assent by, but with notice to, the Seller, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, to do the following:

(i) in the name of the Seller, or in its own name, or otherwise, to take possession of and endorse and collect any checks, drafts, notes, acceptances or other instruments for the payment of moneys due with respect to any Purchased Items and to file any claim or to take any other action or proceeding in any court of law or equity or otherwise deemed appropriate by Buyer for the purpose of collecting any and all such moneys due with respect to any Purchased Items whenever payable;

(ii) to pay or discharge taxes and Liens levied or placed on or threatened against the Purchased Items;

(iii) (A) to direct any party liable for any payment under any Purchased Items to make payment of any and all moneys due or to become due thereunder directly to Buyer or as Buyer shall direct, including, without limitation, to send "goodbye" letters on behalf of the Seller and any applicable Servicer and Section 404 Notices; (B) to ask or demand for, collect, receive payment of and receipt for, any and all moneys, claims and other amounts due or to become due at any time in respect of or arising out of any Purchased Items; (C) to sign and endorse any invoices, assignments, verifications, notices and other documents in connection with any Purchased Items; (D) to commence and prosecute any suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect the Purchased Items or any proceeds thereof and to enforce any other right in respect of any Purchased Items; (E) to defend any suit, action or proceeding brought against the Seller with respect to any Purchased Items; (F) to settle, compromise or adjust any suit, action or proceeding described in clause (E) above and, in connection therewith, to give such discharges or releases as Buyer may deem appropriate; and (G) generally, to sell, transfer, pledge and make any agreement with respect to or otherwise deal with any Purchased Items as fully and completely as though Buyer were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Buyer's option and the Seller's expense, at any time, and from time to time, all acts and things which Buyer deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Purchased Items and Buyer's Liens thereon and to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as the Seller might do.

The Seller hereby ratifies all that said attorneys shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. This power of attorney is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable. In addition to the foregoing, Seller agrees to execute a Power of Attorney to be delivered on the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the power of attorney hereby granted may be exercised only during the occurrence and continuance of any Event of Default hereunder.

The Seller also authorizes Buyer, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, from time to time, to execute, in connection with any sale provided for in Section 19 hereof, any endorsements, assignments or other instruments of conveyance or transfer with respect to the Purchased Items.

(e) The powers conferred on Buyer hereunder are solely to protect Buyer's interests in the Purchased Items and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Buyer shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers, and neither it nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to the Seller for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for its or their own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(f) If the Seller fails to perform or comply with any of its agreements contained in the Program Documents and Buyer may itself perform or comply, or otherwise cause performance or compliance, with such agreement, the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of Buyer incurred in connection with such performance or compliance, together with interest thereon at a rate per annum equal to the Post-Default Rate, shall be payable by the Seller to Buyer on demand and shall constitute Obligations.

(g) All authorizations and agencies herein contained with respect to the Purchased Items are irrevocable and powers coupled with an interest.

9. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

(a) As conditions precedent to the initial Transaction, Buyer shall have received on or before the date on which such initial Transaction is consummated the following, in form and substance satisfactory to Buyer and duly executed by each party thereto (as applicable):

An incumbency certificate of the secretary of the Seller certifying the names, true signatures and titles of the Seller's respective representatives duly authorized to request Transactions hereunder and to execute the Program Documents and the other documents to be delivered thereunder;

(iv) Legal Opinion. Such opinions of counsel to Seller as Buyer may reasonably require in form and substance satisfactory to the Buyer including, but not limited to, an opinion that this Agreement constitutes a "repurchase agreement," "securities contract," and "master netting agreement" under the Bankruptcy Code, that no Transaction constitutes an avoidable transfer under section 546(f) of the Bankruptcy Code and with respect to the Investment Company Act (including Volcker "covered funds" status) issues, from outside counsel acceptable to Buyer;

(v) Filings, Registrations, Recordings. (i) Any documents (including, without limitation, financing statements) required to be filed, registered or recorded in order to create, in favor of Buyer, a perfected, first-priority security interest in the Purchased Items and Related Security, subject to no Liens other than those created hereunder and under the Intercreditor Agreement, shall have been properly prepared and executed for filing (including the applicable county(ies) if Buyer determines such filings are necessary in its reasonable discretion), registration or recording in each office in each jurisdiction in which such filings, registrations and recordations are required to perfect such first-priority security interest; and (ii) Uniform Commercial Code lien searches, dated as of a recent date, in no event more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of such initial Transaction, in such jurisdictions as shall be applicable to the Seller and the Purchased Items, the results of which shall be satisfactory to Buyer.

(ix) Insurance. Buyer shall have received evidence in form and substance satisfactory to Buyer showing compliance by the Seller as of such initial Purchase Date with Section 13(s) hereof.

(x) Other Documents. Buyer shall have received such other documents as Buyer or its counsel may reasonably request, including the Trust Receipt.

(xi) Collection Account. Evidence of the establishment of the Collection Account.

(b) The obligation of Buyer to enter into each Transaction with respect to the Committed Amount pursuant to this Agreement (including the initial Transaction) is subject to the further conditions precedent set forth below, both immediately prior to any Transaction and also after giving effect thereto and to the intended use thereof. The Buyer has no obligation to enter into any Transaction on account of the Uncommitted Amount, however, to the extent Buyer elects to do so, such Transaction is subject to the conditions precedent set forth below, both immediately prior to any Transaction and also after giving effect thereto and to the intended use thereof:

(i) No Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

(ii) Both immediately prior to entering into such Transaction and also after giving effect thereto and to the intended use of the proceeds thereof, the representations and warranties made by the Seller in Section 12 and Schedule 1 hereof, and in each of the other Program Documents, shall be true and complete on and as of the Purchase Date in all material respects (in the case of the representations and warranties in Section 12(t), Section 12(u), and Schedule 1 hereof, solely with respect to Loans which have not been repurchased by the Seller) with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (or, if any such representation or warranty is expressly stated to have been made as of a specific date, as of such specific date).

(iii) If the Transaction is with respect to the Committed Amount, the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price for all Purchased Assets then subject to Transactions with respect to the Committed Amount, when added to the Purchase Price for the requested Transaction with respect to the Committed Amount, shall not exceed the Committed Amount as of such date. If the Transaction is with respect to the Uncommitted Amount, the aggregate outstanding Purchase Price for all Purchased Assets then subject to Transactions with respect to the Uncommitted Amount, when added to the Purchase Price for the requested Transaction with respect to the Uncommitted Amount, shall not exceed the Uncommitted Amount as of such date.

(iv) Subject to Buyer's right to perform one or more Due Diligence Reviews pursuant to Section 43 hereof, in the event of outstanding due diligence issues or breaches of any Loan-level representations or warranties with respect to the Loans subject to such Transaction, Buyer shall have completed its Due Diligence Review of the Mortgage File for each Loan subject to such Transaction and such other documents, records, agreements, instruments, Mortgaged Properties or information relating to such Loans as Buyer in its reasonable discretion deems appropriate to review and such review shall be satisfactory to Buyer in its reasonable discretion.

(A) The Transaction Notice and Loan Schedule with respect to such Purchased Assets, delivered pursuant to Section 3(a);

(B) a Custodial Loan Transmission with respect to such Purchased Assets, that is then appended to the Trust Receipt; and

(vi) reserved.

(vii) None of the following shall have occurred and be continuing:

(A) an event or events resulting in the inability of Buyer to finance its purchases of residential mortgage assets with traditional counterparties at rates which would have been reasonable prior to the occurrence of such event or events or a material adverse change in the financial condition of Buyer which affects (or can reasonably be expected to affect) materially and adversely the ability of Buyer to fund its obligations under or otherwise comply with the terms of this Agreement; or

(B) any other event beyond the control of Buyer which Buyer reasonably determines would likely result in Buyer's inability to perform its obligations under this Agreement including, without limitation, acts of God, strikes, lockouts, riots, acts of war or terrorism, epidemics, nationalization, expropriation, currency restrictions, fire, communication line failures, computer viruses, power failures, earthquakes, or other disasters of a similar nature to the foregoing.

provided that (x) Buyer shall not invoke subclause (A) or subclause (B) with respect to the Seller unless the Buyer generally invokes similar clauses contained in other similar agreements between Buyer and other persons that are similar to the Seller in terms of Seller's Adjusted Tangible Net Worth, and involving substantially similar assets, and (y) Buyer shall base its decision to invoke subclause (A) and/or subclause (B) on factors it deems relevant in its good faith discretion, which shall include its assessment of objective factors ascertainable by it in the market and are shared with Seller at or prior to the time of exercising its rights under this provision.

(xii) With respect to any Purchased Loan that is a Wet Loan, Buyer shall have received a true and complete copy of the Insured Closing Letter, if requested by Buyer; provided, however, that no Insured Closing Letter shall be required (a) where title insurance for the applicable Wet Loan is provided by Amrock and (b) unless the unpaid principal balance of Purchased Loans that constitute Wet Loans, and regarding which an Insured Closing Letter has not been provided, would exceed

(xiii) Buyer or its designee shall have received any other documents reasonably requested by Buyer.

(xiv) Seller shall name Buyer as a loss payee under any applicable fidelity insurance policy and as a direct loss payee with right of action under any applicable errors and omissions insurance policy or professional liability insurance policy. Upon request of Buyer, Seller shall cause to be delivered to Buyer a certificate of insurance for each such policy referenced in the immediately preceding sentence.

Buyer shall notify the Seller as soon as practicable on the date of a purchase if any of the conditions in this Section 9 has not been satisfied and Buyer is not making the purchase.

10. RELEASE OF PURCHASED ASSETS

Upon timely payment in full of the Repurchase Price and all other Obligations (if any) then owing with respect to a Purchased Asset, unless a Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then (a) Buyer shall be deemed to have terminated and released any security interest that Buyer may have in such Purchased Asset and any Purchased Items solely related to such Purchased Asset and (b) with respect to such Purchased Asset, Buyer shall direct Custodian to release such Purchased Asset and any Purchased Items solely related to such Purchased Asset to the Seller unless such release and termination would give rise to or perpetuate a Margin Deficit. Except as set forth in Section Error! Reference source not found., the Seller shall give at least one (1) Business Day's prior written notice to Buyer if such repurchase shall occur on any date other than the Repurchase Date in Section 3(f).

If such release and termination gives rise to or perpetuates a Margin Call that is not paid when due, Buyer shall notify the Seller of the amount thereof and the Seller shall thereupon satisfy the Margin Call in the manner specified in Section 6(b), following which Buyer shall promptly perform its obligations as set forth above in this Section 10.

11. RELIANCE

With respect to any Transaction, Buyer may conclusively rely, absent manifest error, upon, and shall incur no liability to the Seller in acting upon, any request or other communication that Buyer reasonably believes to have been given or made by a person authorized to enter into a Transaction on the Seller's behalf.

12. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

The Seller represents and warrants to Buyer on each day throughout the term of this Agreement:

(a) Existence. Seller (a) is a corporation validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Michigan, (b) has all requisite corporate power, and has all governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals, necessary to own its assets and carry on its business as now being or as proposed to be conducted, except where the lack of such licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals would not be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect, (c) is qualified to do business and is in good standing in all other jurisdictions in which the nature of the business conducted by it makes such qualification necessary, except where failure so to qualify would not be reasonably likely (either individually or in the aggregate) to have a Material Adverse Effect, and (d) is in compliance in all material respects with all Requirements of Law.

(b) Financial Condition. Seller has heretofore furnished to Buyer a copy of its audited consolidated balance sheets as at December 31, 2019 with the opinion thereon of Ernst & Young LLP, a copy of which has been provided to Buyer. Seller has also heretofore furnished to Buyer the related consolidated statements of income, of changes in Shareholders' Equity and of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2019. All such financial statements are complete and correct in all material respects and fairly present the consolidated financial condition of Seller and its Subsidiaries and the consolidated results of their operations for the year ended on said date, all in accordance with GAAP. Since December 31, 2019, there has been no development or event nor any prospective development or event which has had or should reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Seller does not have any material contingent liability or liability for taxes or any long-term lease or unusual forward or long-term commitment, which is not be reflected in the foregoing statements or notes. Since the date of the financial statements and other information delivered to Buyer prior to the date of this Agreement, Seller has not sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of any material part of its property or assets other than sales made in the ordinary course of business.

(c) Litigation. Except as set forth in Schedule 12(c) as of the Closing Date and approved by the Buyer in writing thereafter, there are no actions, suits, arbitrations, investigations or proceedings pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against Seller or any of its Subsidiaries or affecting any of the property thereof or the Purchased Items before any Governmental Authority, (i) as to which individually or in the aggregate there is a reasonable likelihood of an adverse decision which would be reasonably likely to result in a decrease in excess of [] of Seller's Adjusted Tangible Net Worth, or (ii) which challenges the validity or enforceability of any of the Program Documents.

(d) No Breach. Neither (a) the execution and delivery of the Program Documents, nor (b) the consummation of the transactions therein contemplated in compliance with the terms and provisions thereof will result in a breach of the charter or by-laws (or equivalent documents) of Seller, or violate any applicable law, rule or regulation, or violate any order, writ, injunction or decree of any Governmental Authority applicable to Seller, or result in a breach of other material agreement or instrument to which Seller, or any of its Subsidiaries, is a party or by which any of them or any of their property is bound or to which any of them or their property is subject, or constitute a default under any such material agreement or instrument, or (except for the Liens created pursuant to this Agreement) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any property of Seller or any of its Subsidiaries, pursuant to the terms of any such agreement or instrument.

(e) Action. Seller has all necessary corporate power, authority and legal right to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under each of the Program Documents to which it is a party; the execution, delivery and performance by Seller of each of the Program Documents to which it is a party has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on its part; and each Program Document has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Seller and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Seller, enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be affected by bankruptcy, by other insolvency laws, or by general principles of equity.

(f) Approvals. Buyer shall (except for deemed exercises) give written notice to Seller of the exercise of such option as promptly as practicable.

(B) To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Repurchase Price with respect to each such Transaction shall be increased by the aggregate amount obtained by daily application of, on a 360 day per year basis for the actual number of days during the period from and including the date of the exercise or deemed exercise of such option to but excluding the date of payment of the Repurchase Price as so increased, (x) the Post-Default Rate in effect following an Event of Default to (y) the Repurchase Price for such Transaction as of the Repurchase Date as determined pursuant to subsection (a)(i)(A) of this Section (decreased as of any day by (i) any amounts actually in the possession of Buyer pursuant to clause (C) of this subsection, (ii) any proceeds from the sale of Purchased Assets applied to the Repurchase Price pursuant to subsection (a)(ii) of this Section, and (iii) any other Purchased Items, Related Security or other assets of Seller held by Buyer and applied to the Obligation.

Buyer may purchase any or all of the Purchased Assets at any public or private sale.

(iii) The Seller shall remain liable to Buyer for any amounts that remain owing to Buyer following a sale and/or credit under the preceding section. Seller will be liable to Buyer for (A) the amount of all reasonable legal or other expenses (including, without limitation, all costs and expenses of Buyer in connection with the enforcement of this Repurchase Agreement or any other agreement evidencing a Transaction, whether in action, suit or litigation or bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar proceeding affecting creditors' rights generally, further including but not limited to, the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel (including the allocated costs of internal counsel of Buyer) incurred in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default, (B) damages in an amount equal to the reasonable, documented, out-of-pocket cost of Buyer (including all fees, expenses, and commissions) of entering into replacement transactions and entering into or terminating hedge transactions in connection with or as a result of an Event of Default, and (C) any other out-of-pocket loss, damage, cost or expense directly arising or resulting from the occurrence of an Event of Default in respect of a Transaction.

(iv) Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and declare all obligations of the Seller to be immediately due and payable, by a notice in accordance with Section 21 hereof.

(v) The parties recognize that it may not be possible to purchase or sell all of the Purchased Assets on a particular Business Day, or in a transaction with the same purchaser, or in the same manner because the market for such Purchased Assets may not be liquid. In view of the nature of the Purchased Assets, the parties agree that liquidation of a Transaction or the underlying Purchased Assets does not require a public purchase or sale and that a good faith private purchase or sale shall be deemed to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner. Accordingly, Buyer may elect the time and manner of liquidating any Purchased Asset and nothing contained herein shall obligate Buyer to liquidate any Purchased Asset on the occurrence of an Event of Default or to liquidate all Purchased Assets in the same manner or on the same Business Day or shall constitute a waiver of any right or remedy of Buyer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties to this Agreement agree that the Transactions have been entered into in consideration of and in reliance upon the fact that all Transactions hereunder constitute a single business and contractual obligation and that each Transaction has been entered into in consideration of the other Transactions.

(vi) To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Seller waives all claims, damages and demands it may acquire against Buyer arising out of the exercise by Buyer of any of its rights hereunder after an Event of Default, other than those claims, damages and demands arising from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Buyer. If any notice of a proposed sale or other disposition of Purchased Items shall be required by law, such notice shall be deemed reasonable and proper if given at least two (2) Business Days before such sale or other disposition.

(b) The Seller hereby acknowledges, admits and agrees that the Seller's obligations under this Agreement are recourse obligations of the Seller.

(c) Buyer shall have the right to obtain physical possession of the Servicing Records and all other files of the Seller relating to the Purchased Assets and all documents relating to the Purchased Assets which are then or may thereafter come into the possession of the Seller or any third party acting for the Seller and the Seller shall deliver to Buyer such assignments as Buyer shall request; provided that if such records and documents also relate to mortgage loans other than the Purchased Assets, Buyer shall have a right to obtain copies of such records and documents, rather than originals.

(d) Buyer shall have the right to direct all Persons servicing the Purchased Assets to take such action with respect to the Purchased Assets as Buyer determines appropriate and as is consistent with the Servicer's obligations and applicable law.

(e) In addition to all the rights and remedies specifically provided herein, Buyer shall have all other rights and remedies provided by applicable federal, state, foreign, and local laws, whether existing at law, in equity or by statute, including, without limitation, all rights and remedies available to a purchaser or a secured party, as applicable, under the Uniform Commercial Code.

(f) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or by applicable law, Buyer shall have the right to exercise any of its rights and/or remedies immediately upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, and at any time thereafter, with notice to Seller, without presentment, demand, protest or further notice of any kind other than as expressly set forth herein, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Seller. All rights and remedies arising under this Agreement as amended from time to time hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies which Buyer may have.

(g) Buyer may enforce its rights and remedies hereunder without prior judicial process or hearing, and the Seller hereby expressly waives, to the extent permitted by law, any right the Seller might otherwise have to require Buyer to enforce its rights by judicial process. The Seller also waives, to the extent permitted by law (and absent any willful misconduct or gross negligence of Buyer), any defense (other than a defense of payment or performance) the Seller might otherwise have arising from use of nonjudicial process, enforcement and sale of all or any portion of the Purchased Assets and any other Purchased Items or from any other election of remedies. The Seller recognizes that nonjudicial remedies are consistent with the usages of the trade, are responsive to commercial necessity and are the result of a bargain at arm's length.

(h) The Seller shall cause all sums received by the Seller after and during the continuance of an Event of Default with respect to the Purchased Assets to be deposited with such Person as Buyer may direct after receipt thereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Seller shall be liable to Buyer for interest on any amounts owing by Seller hereunder, from the date Seller becomes liable for such amounts hereunder until such amounts are (i) paid in full by Seller or (ii) satisfied in full by the exercise of Buyer's rights hereunder. Interest on any sum payable by Seller to Buyer under this paragraph 19(h) is at a rate equal to the Post-Default Rate and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with hedging or covering transactions related to the Purchased Assets, conduit advances and payments for mortgage insurance.

20. DELAY NOT WAIVER; REMEDIES ARE CUMULATIVE

No failure on the part of Buyer to exercise, and no delay in exercising, and no course of dealing with respect to, any right, power or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by Buyer of any right, power or remedy hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. All rights and remedies of Buyer provided for herein are cumulative and in addition to any and all other rights and remedies provided by law, the Program Documents and the other instruments and agreements contemplated hereby and thereby, and are not conditional or contingent on any attempt by Buyer to exercise any of its rights under any other related document. Buyer may exercise at any time after the occurrence of an Event of Default one or more remedies, as it so desires, and may thereafter at any time and from time to time exercise any other remedy or remedies. An Event of Default will be deemed to be continuing unless expressly waived by Buyer in writing.

21. NOTICES AND OTHER COMMUNICATIONS

Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement, all notices, requests and other communications provided for herein and under the Custodial Agreement (including, without limitation, any modifications of, or waivers, requests or consents under, this Agreement) shall be given or made in writing (including, without limitation, by Electronic Transmission, telex or telecopy or email) delivered to the intended recipient at the address of such Person set forth in this Section 21 below; or, as to any party, at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to each other party. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and except for notices given by the Seller under Section 3(a) (which shall be effective only on receipt), all such communications shall be deemed to have been duly given when transmitted by Electronic Transmission, telex or telecopier or email or delivered or, in the case of a mailed notice, upon receipt, in each case given or addressed as aforesaid. In all cases, to the extent that the related individual set forth in the respective "Attention" line is no longer employed by the respective Person, such notice may be given to the attention of a Responsible Officer of the respective Person or to the attention of such individual or individuals as subsequently notified in writing by a Responsible Officer of the respective Person.

(a) The Seller agrees to hold Buyer, and its Affiliates and their officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors (each an "Indemnified Party") harmless from and indemnify any Indemnified Party against all liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, and documented and out-of-pocket costs and expenses of any kind (including reasonable fees of counsel) which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against such Indemnified Party (collectively, the "Costs") relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, or any amendment, supplement or modification of, or any waiver or consent under or in respect of, this Agreement, any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, that, in each case, results from anything other than any Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct or a claim by one Indemnified Party against another Indemnified Party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Seller agrees to hold any Indemnified Party harmless from and indemnify such Indemnified Party against all Costs with respect to all Loans relating to or arising out of any violation or alleged violation of any environmental law, rule or regulation or any consumer credit laws, including without limitation laws with respect to unfair or deceptive lending practices and predatory lending practices, the Truth in Lending Act and/or the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, that, in each case, results from anything other than such Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct or a claim by one Indemnified Party against another Indemnified Party. In any suit, proceeding or action brought by an Indemnified Party in connection with any Purchased Asset for any sum owing thereunder, or to enforce any provisions of any Purchased Asset, the Seller will save, indemnify and hold such Indemnified Party harmless from and against all expense, loss or damage suffered by reason of any defense, set-off, counterclaim, recoupment or reduction of liability whatsoever of the account debtor or obligor thereunder, arising out of a breach by the Seller of any obligation thereunder or arising out of any other agreement, indebtedness or liability at any time owing to or in favor of such account debtor or obligor or its successors from the Seller. The Seller also agrees to reimburse an Indemnified Party promptly after billed by such Indemnified Party for all such Indemnified Party's reasonable documented, actual, out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement or the preservation of such Indemnified Party's rights under this Agreement, any other Program Document or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby, including without limitation the reasonable fees and disbursements of its counsel. The Seller hereby acknowledges that, the obligations of the Seller under this Agreement are recourse obligations of the Seller.

(b) The Seller agrees to pay (within ten (10) Business Days after the Seller receives written demand for such payment from Buyer) all of the documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred by Buyer in connection with the development, preparation and execution of, and any amendment, supplement or modification to, this Agreement, any other Program Document or any other documents prepared in connection herewith or therewith. The Seller agrees to pay (within 10 Business Days after the Seller receives written demand for such payment from Buyer) all of the documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred in connection with the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby including, without limitation, (i) filing fees and all the reasonable fees, disbursements and expenses of counsel to Buyer in connection with the initial negotiation of this Agreement and (ii) all the due diligence, inspection, testing and review costs and expenses incurred by Buyer with respect to Purchased Items under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, those costs and expenses incurred by Buyer pursuant to this Section 23 and Section 43 hereof; provided, however, that (x) the aggregate amount of such costs and expenses referred to in clause (i) of this sentence shall not exceed [], and (y) the aggregate amount of such costs and expenses referred to in clause (ii) of this sentence and incurred after the Effective Date shall not exceed [] per annum; provided that after the occurrence of an Event of Default, such amounts shall not be applicable. Buyer shall deliver to the Seller copies of documentation supporting any of the foregoing demands on the Seller's request. The Seller, Buyer, and each Indemnified Party also agree not to assert any claim against the others or any of their Affiliates, or any of their respective officers, directors, members, managers, employees, attorneys and agents, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages arising out of or otherwise relating to the Program Documents, the actual or proposed use of the proceeds of the Transactions, this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. THE FOREGOING INDEMNITY AND AGREEMENT NOT TO ASSERT CLAIMS EXPRESSLY APPLIES, WITHOUT LIMITATION, TO THE NEGLIGENCE (BUT NOT GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT) OF THE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES.

(c) If the Seller fails to pay when due any costs, expenses or other amounts payable by it under this Agreement, including, without limitation, reasonable fees and expenses of counsel and indemnities, such amount may be paid on behalf of the Seller by Buyer (including without limitation by Buyer netting such amount from the proceeds of any Purchase Price paid by Buyer to the Seller hereunder), in its sole discretion and the Seller shall remain liable for any such payments by Buyer (except those that are paid by Seller, including by netting against any Purchase Price). No such payment by Buyer shall be deemed a waiver of any of Buyer's rights under the Program Documents (except those that are paid by Seller, including by netting against any Purchase Price).

(d) Without prejudice to the survival of any other agreement of Seller hereunder, the covenants and obligations of Seller contained in this Section 23 shall survive the payment in full of the Repurchase Price and all other amounts payable hereunder and delivery of the Purchased Assets by Buyer against full payment therefor.

(e) The obligations of Seller from time to time to pay the Repurchase Price and all other amounts due under this Agreement are full recourse obligations of Seller.

24. WAIVER OF DEFICIENCY RIGHTS

25. REIMBURSEMENT

All sums reasonably expended by Buyer in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy provided for herein shall be and remain Seller's obligation (unless and to the extent that Seller is the prevailing party in any dispute, claim or action relating thereto or Buyer or an Indemnified Party is grossly negligent or engages in willful misconduct relating thereto). The Seller agrees to pay, with interest at the Post-Default Rate to the extent that an Event of Default has occurred, the reasonable, documented out-of-pocket expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees reasonably incurred by Buyer and/or Custodian in connection with the preparation, negotiation, enforcement (including any waivers), administration and amendment of the Program Documents (regardless of whether a Transaction is entered into hereunder), the reasonable taking of any action, including legal action, required or permitted to be taken by Buyer (without duplication to Buyer) and/or Custodian pursuant thereto, subject to Section 23(b), any due diligence, inspection, testing and review costs and expenses in connection with any "due diligence" or loan agent reviews conducted by Buyer or on its behalf or by refinancing or restructuring in the nature of a "workout" all pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

26. FURTHER ASSURANCES

The Seller agrees to do such further acts and things and to execute and deliver to Buyer such additional assignments, acknowledgments, agreements, powers and instruments as are reasonably required by Buyer to carry into effect the intent and purposes of this Agreement and the other Program Documents, to grant, preserve, protect and perfect the interests of Buyer in the Purchased Items or to better assure and confirm unto Buyer its rights, powers and remedies hereunder and thereunder.

27. TERMINATION

This Agreement shall remain in effect until the Termination Date. However, no such termination shall affect the Seller's outstanding obligations to Buyer at the time of such termination. The Seller's obligations under Section 5, Section 12, Section 23, and Section 25 and any other reimbursement or indemnity obligation of the Seller to Buyer pursuant to this Agreement or any other Program Documents shall survive the termination hereof.

28. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of any Program Document is declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision of the Program Documents, and each Program Document shall be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

29. BINDING EFFECT; GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be binding and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, except that the Seller may not assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or any other Program Document without the prior written consent of Buyer. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, AND GOVERNED BY, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS

PRINCIPLES THEREOF (EXCEPT FOR SECTION 5-1401 AS WELL AS 5-1402 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW).

30. AMENDMENTS

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, any provision of this Agreement may be modified or supplemented only by an instrument in writing signed by the Seller and Buyer and any provision of this Agreement imposing obligations on the Seller or granting rights to Buyer may be waived by Buyer.

31. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

32. CAPTIONS

The table of contents and captions and section headings appearing herein are included solely for convenience of reference and are not intended to affect the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

33. COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument. The parties agree that this Agreement, any documents to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement and any notices hereunder may be transmitted between them by email and/or facsimile. The parties intend that faxed signatures and electronically imaged signatures such as .pdf files shall constitute original signatures and are binding on all parties. Documents executed, scanned and transmitted electronically, and electronic signatures, shall be deemed original signatures for purposes of this Agreement and any related documents and all matters related thereto, with such scanned and electronic signatures having the same legal effect as original signatures. The parties agree that this Agreement and any related document may be accepted, executed or agreed to through use of an electronic signature in accordance with applicable eCommerce Laws. Any document accepted, executed or agreed to in conformity with such eCommerce Laws, by one or both parties, will be binding on both parties the same as if it were physically executed. Each party consents to the commercially reasonable use of third party electronic signature capture service providers and record storage providers.

34. SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; WAIVERS

EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY:

(A) SUBMITS FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND/OR ANY OTHER PROGRAM DOCUMENT, OR FOR RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT IN RESPECT THEREOF, TO THE EXCLUSIVE GENERAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, THE FEDERAL COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND APPELLATE COURTS FROM ANY THEREOF;

(B) CONSENTS THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE BROUGHT IN SUCH COURTS AND, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, WAIVES ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE VENUE OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT OR THAT SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING WAS BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT COURT AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM THE SAME;

(C) AGREES THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE EFFECTED BY MAILING A COPY THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL (OR ANY SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR FORM OF MAIL), POSTAGE PREPAID, TO ITS ADDRESS SET FORTH IN SECTION 21 OR AT SUCH OTHER ADDRESS OF WHICH BUYER SHALL HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED; AND

(D) AGREES THAT NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT TO EFFECT SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR SHALL LIMIT THE RIGHT TO SUE IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

35. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

EACH SELLER AND BUYER HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER PROGRAM DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

36. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that:

(a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Program Documents;

(b) Buyer has no fiduciary relationship to the Seller; and

(c) no joint venture exists between Buyer and the Seller.

37. HYPOTHECATION OR PLEDGE OF PURCHASED ITEMS.

Subject to the terms set forth below, Buyer shall have free and unrestricted use of all Purchased Assets and nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Buyer from engaging in repurchase transactions with the Purchased Assets or otherwise pledging, repledging, transferring, hypothecating, or rehypothecating the Purchased Assets (each of the foregoing, a "Repledge Transaction") to a third party (each, a "Repledgee"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such Repledge Transaction under this Section 37 shall relieve Buyer of its obligations under the Program Documents, including, without limitation, Buyer's obligation to transfer Purchased Assets to Seller pursuant to the terms of the Program Documents, and its obligation to return to Seller the exact Purchased Assets and the related Purchased Items and not substitutes therefor. The Buyer hereby represents that each Repledge Transaction expressly requires the applicable Repledgee to return such Purchased Assets to the Buyer upon tender of repayment therefor. Additionally, (i) with respect to any Redpledge Transaction that constitutes a securitization of the Purchased Assets or Buyer's interests therein, each Repledgee shall, to the extent required by a rating agency, enter into a letter with the Seller substantially similar to Exhibit E, (ii) the Purchased Assets shall not be transferred from the Custodian except pursuant to the terms of the Custodial Agreement, (iii) regardless of the form of Repledge Transaction, the applicable certificates or other form of collateral representing the Buyer's interest in the Purchased Assets (the "Repledged Collateral") shall initially be held by U.S. Bank as custodian, or such other custodian as the Buyer notifies the Seller shall serve as the initial custodian with respect to such Repledged Collateral in the applicable Repledge Transaction (which notice shall be no less than five (5) Business Days prior to the applicable Repledged Collateral being transferred to such other initial custodian, along with key contact information for such custodian) (the "Repledge Custodian"), and (iv) the Buyer shall provide the Seller with no less than five (5) Business Days prior written notice before any Repledged Collateral is transferred from the Repledge Custodian to an alternative custodian, along with key contact information at the applicable alternative custodian.

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall obligate Buyer to segregate any Purchased Assets delivered to Buyer by Seller.

38. ASSIGNMENTS.

(a) The Seller may assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder only with the prior written consent of Buyer. Buyer may from time to time, with the consent of Seller which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the Program Documents to any party pursuant to an executed assignment and acceptance by Buyer and the applicable assignee in form and substance acceptable to Buyer and Seller ("Assignment and Acceptance"), specifying the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations assigned; provided, however, that an assignment of Buyer's rights under this Agreement shall not require the Seller's consent if (i) an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, or (ii) such assignment is to an adequately capitalized affiliate of Buyer (as determined by Seller in its reasonable discretion). On the effective date of any such assignment, (A) such assignee will be a party hereto and to each Program Document to the extent of the percentage or portion set forth in the Assignment and Acceptance, and will succeed to the related rights and obligations of Buyer hereunder, and (B) Buyer will, to the extent of such rights and obligations so assigned, be released from its obligations (but not its rights to the extent such rights are intended to survive any such assignment) hereunder and under the Program Documents.

(b) Buyer may furnish any information concerning the Seller or any of its Subsidiaries in the possession of Buyer from time to time to assignees (including prospective assignees) only after notifying the Seller in writing and securing signed confidentiality agreements (in a form mutually acceptable to Buyer and the Seller) and only for the sole purpose of evaluating assignments and for no other purpose.

(c) Upon the Seller's consent to an assignment, the Seller agrees to reasonably cooperate with Buyer in connection with any such assignment, to execute and deliver replacement notes, and to enter into such restatements of, and amendments, supplements and other modifications to, this Agreement and the other Program Documents in order to give effect to such assignment.

(d) Buyer shall maintain a register (the "Register") on which it will record each participation and assignment hereunder and each Assignment and Acceptance. The Register will include the name and address of Buyer (including all assignees, Participants and successors) and the percentage or portion of such rights and obligations assigned or participated. The entries in the Register will be conclusive absent manifest error. Seller shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register as a Buyer for all purposes of this Agreement; provided however, that any failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation shall not affect Seller's obligations in respect of such rights. This Section 38(d) is intended to comprise a book entry system within the meaning of Treasury regulation section 5f.103-1(c) that is the exclusive way for Buyer (or any of its assignees or successors) to transfer an interest under this Agreement and these provisions shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with and so as to effect such intent.

(e) Buyer may, in accordance with applicable law, at any time sell to one or more entities ("Participants") participating interests in this Agreement, its agreement to purchase Eligible Loans, or any other interest of Buyer hereunder and under the other Program Documents. In the event of any such sale by Buyer of participating interests to a Participant, Buyer's obligations under this Agreement to Seller shall remain unchanged, Buyer shall remain solely responsible for the performance thereof and Seller shall continue to deal solely and directly with Buyer in connection with Buyer's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Program Documents. Seller agrees that if amounts outstanding under this Agreement are due or unpaid, or shall have been declared or shall have become due and payable upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, each Participant shall be deemed to have the right of set-off in respect of its participating interest in amounts owing under this Agreement to the same extent as if the amount of its participating interest were owing directly to it as a Buyer under this Agreement; provided, that such Participant shall only be entitled to such right of set-off if it shall have agreed in the agreement pursuant to which it shall have acquired its participating interest to share with Buyer the proceeds thereof.

(f) Buyer may furnish any information concerning Seller or any of its Subsidiaries in the possession of Buyer from time to time to assignees and Participants (including prospective assignees and Participants) only after notifying Seller in writing and securing signed confidentiality statements substantially in accordance with the confidentiality provisions hereof and only for the sole purpose of evaluating assignments or participations and for no other purpose; provided that the Seller's financial statements may only be provided to assignees and Participants upon the Seller's prior written consent.

(g) Seller agrees to reasonably cooperate with Buyer in connection with any such assignment and/or participation and to enter into such restatements of, and amendments, supplements and other modifications to, this Agreement and the other Program Documents as are reasonably requested in order to give effect to such assignment and/or participation; provided, however, that any such amendments, supplements, or other modifications shall not alter the basic remedies and obligations of Seller in this Agreement.

39. SINGLE AGREEMENT

The Seller and Buyer acknowledge that, and have entered hereinto and will enter into each Transaction hereunder in consideration of and in reliance upon the fact that, all Transactions hereunder constitute a single business and contractual relationship and have been made in consideration of each other. Accordingly, the Seller and Buyer each agree (i) to perform all of its obligations in respect of each Transaction hereunder, and that a default in the performance of any such obligations shall constitute a default by it in respect of all Transactions hereunder; (ii) that payments, deliveries and other transfers made by any of them in respect of any Transaction shall be deemed to have been made in consideration of payments, deliveries and other transfers in respect of any other Transaction hereunder, and the obligations to make any such payments, deliveries and other transfers may be applied against each other and netted; and (iii) to promptly provide notice to the other after any such set off or application.

40. INTENT

(a) The Seller and Buyer recognize that this Agreement and each Transaction hereunder is a "repurchase agreement as that term is defined in Section 101(47)(A)(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, a "securities contract" as that term is defined in Section 741(7)(A)(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a "master netting agreement" as that term is defined in Section 101(38A)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, that all payments hereunder are deemed "margin payments" or "settlement payments" as defined in the Bankruptcy

Code, and that the pledge of the Related Security in Section 8(a) hereof is intended to constitute a "security agreement," "securities contract" or "other arrangement or other credit enhancement" that is "related to" the Agreement and Transactions hereunder within the meaning of Sections 101(38A)(A), 101(47)(a)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Seller and the Buyer recognize that the Buyer shall be entitled to, without limitation, the liquidation, termination, acceleration and non-avoidability rights afforded to parties to "securities contracts" pursuant to, without limitation, Sections 555, 362(b)(6) and 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and "master netting agreements" pursuant to, without limitation, Sections 561, 362(b)(27) and 546(j) of the Bankruptcy Code. Seller and Buyer further recognize and intend that this Agreement is an agreement to provide financial accommodations and is not subject to assumption or assignment pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 365(a).

(b) It is understood that Buyer's right to liquidate the Purchased Items delivered to it in connection with the Transactions hereunder or to accelerate or terminate this Agreement or otherwise exercise any other remedies pursuant to Section 19 hereof is a contractual right to liquidate, accelerate or terminate such Transaction as described in, without limitation, Sections 555, 559 and 561 of the Bankruptcy Code; any payments or transfers of property made with respect to this Agreement or any Transaction to satisfy a Margin Deficit is considered a "margin payment" as such term is defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 741(5).

(c) The parties hereby agree that all Servicing Agreements and any provisions hereof or in any other document, agreement or instrument that is related in any way to the servicing of the Purchased Loans shall be deemed "related to" this Agreement within the meaning of Sections 101(38A)(A), 101(47)(a)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code and part of the "contract" as such term is used in Section 741 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(d) The parties further agree that if a party hereto is an "insured depository institution" as such term is defined in the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended ("FDIA"), then each Transaction hereunder is a "qualified financial contract" as that term is defined in the FDIA, and any rules, orders or policy statement thereunder.

(e) It is understood that this Agreement constitutes a "netting contract" as defined in and subject to Title IV of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 ("FDICIA") and each payment entitlement and payment obligation under any transaction hereunder shall constitute a "covered contractual payment entitlement" or "covered contractual payment obligation," respectively, as defined in and subject to FDICIA.

41. CONFIDENTIALITY

(a) Buyer and Seller hereby acknowledge and agree that all written or computer-readable information provided by one party to the other regarding the terms set forth in any of the Program Documents or the Transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or regarding any other confidential or proprietary information of a party, including, without limitation, any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a) (the "Confidential Terms"), will be kept confidential by such party, and will not be divulged to any party without the prior written consent of such other party except to the extent that (i) such information is disclosed to direct or indirect parent companies, Subsidiaries, Affiliates, directors, officers, members, managers, shareholders, legal counsel, auditors, accountants or agents (the "Representatives"); provided that such Representatives are informed of the confidential nature of such information and the disclosing party is responsible for their breach of these confidentiality provisions; provided, further, that with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, financial information provided pursuant to Section 13(a), such financial information is only disclosed to Representatives in connection with the ongoing administration or performance of the Program Documents, (ii) disclosure of such information is required by law, rule, regulation or order of any court, taxing authority, governmental agency or regulatory body, (iii) any of the Confidential Terms are in the public domain other than due to a breach of the provisions of this Section 41, (iv) other than with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a), which shall require Seller's separate and prior written consent to disclose, disclosure is made to any approved hedge counterparty to the extent necessary to obtain any hedging arrangement, (v) other than with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a), which shall require Seller's separate and prior written consent to disclose, any such disclosure is made in connection with an offering of securities, (vi) other than with respect to any financial information of Seller provided to Buyer, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 13(a), which shall require Seller's separate and prior written consent to disclose, disclosures are made in Seller's financial statements or footnotes, (vii) such disclosures are made to lenders or prospective lenders to Seller, buyers or prospective buyers of Seller's business, sellers or prospective sellers of businesses to Seller and its counsel, accountants, representatives and agents, or (viii) such disclosure is pursuant to Section 38(c). Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Program Document, the parties hereto may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, any fact relevant to understanding the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) relating to such federal, state and local tax treatment and that may be relevant to understanding such tax treatment; provided that, except as provided above, no party may disclose the name of or identifying information with respect to Seller, Buyer, their Affiliates or any other Indemnified Party, or any pricing terms (including, without limitation, the Applicable Margin, Applicable Percentage and Purchase Price) or other nonpublic business or financial information (including any sublimits and financial covenants) that is unrelated to the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions and is not relevant to understanding the federal, state and local tax treatment of the Transactions, without the prior written consent of the other parties.

(b) In the case of disclosure by Seller or Buyer, other than pursuant to Section 41(a)(i), (iii), (vi) or (vii), the disclosing party shall, to the extent permitted by law, provide the other parties with prior written notice to permit the other party to seek a protective order or to take other appropriate action. The disclosing party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate in the other party's efforts to obtain a protective order or other reasonable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded the Program Documents. If, in the absence of a protective order, the disclosing party or any of its Representatives is compelled as a matter of law to disclose any such information, the disclosing party may disclose to the party compelling disclosure only the part of the Program Documents it is compelled to disclose (in which case, prior to such disclosure, the disclosing party shall, to the extent permitted by law, use commercially reasonable efforts to advise and consult with the other parties and their counsel as to such disclosure and the nature and wording of such disclosure).

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Buyer and Seller shall comply, in all material respects, with all applicable local, state and federal laws, including, without limitation, all privacy and data protection law, rules and regulations that are applicable to the Purchased Assets and/or any applicable terms of this Agreement (the "Confidential Information"). Seller and Buyer shall notify the other parties promptly following discovery of any breach or compromise in any material respect of any applicable requirements of law with respect to the security, confidentiality, or integrity of nonpublic personal information of the customers and consumers of the other parties. Seller and Buyer shall provide such notice to the other parties by personal delivery, by facsimile with confirmation of receipt, or by overnight courier with confirmation of receipt to the applicable requesting individual.

42. SERVICING

(a) Subject to subsection (d) below, the Seller covenants to maintain or cause the servicing of the Purchased Assets to be maintained in conformity with Accepted Servicing Practices and pursuant to the related underlying Servicing Agreement, if any. In the event that the preceding language is interpreted as constituting one or more servicing contracts, each such servicing contract shall terminate automatically upon the earliest of (i) the termination thereof by Buyer pursuant to subsection (d) below, (ii) thirty one (31) days after the last Purchase Date of such Purchased Asset, (iii) a Default or an Event of Default, (iv) the date on which all the Obligations have been paid in full, or (v) the transfer of servicing to any entity approved by Buyer and the assumption thereof by such entity.

(b) During the period the Seller is servicing the Purchased Assets for Buyer, (i) the Seller agrees that Buyer is the owner of all Servicing Records relating to Purchased Assets that have not been repurchased, including but not limited to any and all servicing agreements, files, documents, records, data bases, computer tapes, copies of computer tapes, proof of insurance coverage, insurance policies, appraisals, other closing documentation, payment history records, and any other records relating to or evidencing the servicing of such Loans (the "Servicing Records"), and (ii) the Seller grants Buyer a security interest in all servicing fees and rights relating to the Purchased Assets that have not been repurchased and all Servicing Records to secure the obligation of the Seller or its designee to service in conformity with this Section 42 and any other obligation of the Seller to Buyer. At all times during the term of this Agreement, the Seller covenants to hold such Servicing Records in trust for Buyer and to safeguard, or cause each Subservicer to safeguard, such Servicing Records. It is understood and agreed by the parties that prior to an Event of Default, Seller, as servicer shall retain the servicing fees with respect to the Purchased Assets.

(c) If any Loan that is proposed to be sold on a Purchase Date is serviced by a servicer other than the Seller (a "Subservicer"), or if the servicing of any Purchased Asset is to be transferred to a Subservicer, the Seller shall provide a copy of the related servicing agreement and an Instruction Letter executed by such Subservicer (collectively, the "Servicing Agreement") to Buyer at least one (1) Business Day prior to such Purchase Date or transfer date, as applicable, which Servicing Agreement shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Buyer. In addition, the Seller shall have obtained the prior written consent of Buyer for such Subservicer to subservice the Loans, which consent may not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.

Buyer shall have the right, exercisable at any time in its sole discretion, upon written notice, to terminate Seller or any Subservicers as servicer or subservicer, respectively, and any related Servicing Agreement (to the extent permitted therein) with respect to Purchased Assets that have not been repurchased without payment of any penalty or termination fee. Upon any such termination, the Seller shall transfer or shall cause Subservicer to transfer such servicing with respect to such Purchased Assets to Buyer or its designee, appointed by Buyer in its sole discretion, at no cost or expense to Buyer in accordance with applicable laws and applicable Agency Guidelines. The Seller agrees to cooperate with Buyer in connection with the transfer of servicing.

(d) After the Purchase Date, until the Repurchase Date, the Seller will have no right to modify or alter the terms of the Loan or consent to the modification or alteration of the terms of any Loan, except as required by law, Agency Guidelines, FHA Regulations, requirements for VA Loans, Rural Housing Service Regulations, Accepted Servicing Practices, any Program Documents or other requirements, and the Seller will have no obligation or right to repossess any Loan or substitute another Loan, except as provided in any Custodial Agreement or any Program Document, including, without limitation, Section Error! Reference source not found. of this Agreement.

(e) The Seller shall permit Buyer to inspect upon reasonable prior written notice at a mutually convenient time the Seller's servicing facilities, as the case may be, for the purpose of satisfying Buyer that the Seller has the ability to service the Loans as provided in this Agreement. In addition, with respect to any Subservicer which is not an Affiliate of the Seller, the Seller shall use its best efforts to enable Buyer to inspect the servicing facilities of such Subservicer.

(f) Seller retains no economic rights to the servicing of the Purchased Assets; provided that Seller shall continue to service the Purchased Assets hereunder as part of its Obligations hereunder. As such, Seller expressly acknowledges that the Purchased Assets are sold to Buyer on a "servicing released" basis.

(g) Without limiting the foregoing, in the event that (i) any of the Purchased Assets become subject to a Repledge Transaction, (ii) the Buyer defaults pursuant to such Repledge Transaction, (iii) the Repledgee or its designee becomes the owner of the Purchased Assets pursuant to such Repledge Transaction, and (iv) notwithstanding such default by the Buyer (and related default of the Buyer hereunder due to its inability to return the Purchased Assets to the Seller), the Seller continues to service the Purchased Assets for the benefit of such Repledgee, then unless and until such time that the Repledgee and the Seller enter into a separate servicing agreement for such Purchased Assets, the Seller (A) shall service such Purchased Assets for the benefit of the Repledgee in accordance with the terms hereof at a monthly fee equal to 25 basis points multiplied by the aggregate unpaid principal balance of the Purchased Assets, and (B) shall not be required to make any form of servicing advances relating thereto (regardless of whether such advances might relate to principal, interest, taxes, insurance, or general corporate servicing amounts). Any such fees may be netted from collections received on the Purchased Assets prior to remittance to the Repledgee, and/or separately invoiced to the Repledgee. Any invoiced amounts shall be due and payable within ten (10) Business Days of delivery by the Seller to such Repledgee.

43. PERIODIC DUE DILIGENCE REVIEW

The Seller acknowledges that Buyer has the right to perform continuing due diligence reviews with respect to the Purchased Assets and Seller, for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties, covenants and specifications made hereunder or under any other Program Document, or otherwise, and the Seller agrees that upon reasonable (but no less than three (3) Business Days') prior notice to the Seller (provided that upon the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default, no such prior notice shall be required), Buyer or its authorized representatives will be permitted during normal business hours to examine, inspect, make copies of, and make extracts of, the Mortgage Files, the Servicing Records and any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Purchased Assets in the possession, or under the control, of the Seller and/or the Custodian. Provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer agrees that it shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts, in the conduct of any such due diligence, to minimize any disruption to Seller's normal course of business. The Seller also shall make available to Buyer a knowledgeable financial or accounting officer for the purpose of answering questions respecting the Mortgage Files and the Purchased Assets. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Seller acknowledges that Buyer shall purchase Loans from the Seller based solely upon the information provided by the Seller to Buyer in the Loan Schedule and the representations, warranties and covenants contained herein, and that Buyer, at its option, has the right, at any time to conduct a partial or complete due diligence review on some or all of the Purchased Assets, including, without limitation, ordering new broker's price opinions, new credit reports, new appraisals on the related Mortgaged Properties and otherwise re-generating the information used to originate such Loan. Buyer may underwrite such Loans itself or engage a mutually agreed upon third party underwriter to perform such underwriting. The Seller agrees to cooperate with Buyer and any third party underwriter in connection with such underwriting, including, but not limited to, providing Buyer and any third party underwriter with reasonable access to any and all documents, records, agreements, instruments or information relating to such Purchased Assets in the possession, or under the control, of the Seller. In addition, Buyer has the right to perform continuing Due Diligence Reviews of Purchased Assets for purposes of verifying compliance with the representations, warranties, covenants and specifications made hereunder or under any other Program Document, or otherwise. The Seller and Buyer further agree that all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in connection with Buyer's activities pursuant to this Section 43 shall be paid by the Seller subject to the limitations of Section 23(b) of this Agreement and that, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Buyer shall be limited to one (1) on-site visits in any calendar year.

44. SET-OFF

In addition to any rights and remedies of Buyer provided by this Agreement and by law, Buyer shall have the right, without prior notice to the Seller (except for such notice and right to cure as may be specifically provided hereunder in connection with certain Events of Default), any such notice being expressly waived by the Seller to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by the Seller hereunder (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise), to set-off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all Property and deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by Buyer to or for the credit or the account of the Seller only to the extent specifically relating to this Agreement, the other Program Documents or the Transactions described hereunder. Buyer may set-off cash, the proceeds of the liquidation of any Purchased Items and all other sums or obligations owed by Buyer to the Seller, against all of the Seller's obligations to Buyer, under this Agreement or under any other Program Documents, if such obligations of the Seller are then due, without prejudice to Buyer's right to recover any deficiency. Buyer agrees promptly to notify the Seller after any such set-off and application made by Buyer; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application.

45. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement and the other Program Documents embody the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto and thereto and supersede any and all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings relating to the matters provided for herein and therein. No alteration, waiver, amendments, or change or supplement hereto shall be binding or effective unless the same is set forth in writing signed by a duly authorized representative of each party hereto.

As to each Loan that is subject to a Transaction hereunder, the Seller hereby makes the following representations and warranties to Buyer as of the Purchase Date and as of each date such Loan is subject to a Transaction:

(a) Loans as Described. The information set forth in the Loan Schedule with respect to the Loan is complete, true and correct in all material respects as of the Purchase Date.

(b) Payments Current. No payment required under the Loan is 30 days or more delinquent nor has any payment under the Loan been 30 days or more delinquent at any time since the origination of the Loan.

(c) No Outstanding Charges. There are no defaults in complying with the terms of the Mortgage, and all taxes, governmental assessments, insurance premiums, water, sewer and municipal charges, leasehold payments or ground rents which previously became due and owing have been paid or are not delinquent, or an escrow of funds (for Loans other than Cooperative Loans) has been established in an amount sufficient to pay for every such item which remains unpaid and which has been assessed but is not yet due and payable and delinquent. Seller has not advanced funds, or induced, solicited or knowingly received any advance of funds by a party other than the Mortgagor, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any amount required under the Loan, except for interest accruing from the date of the Note or date of disbursement of the Loan proceeds, whichever is earlier, to the day which precedes by one month the Due Date of the first installment of principal and interest.

(d) Original Terms Unmodified. The terms of the Note and Mortgage have not been impaired, waived, altered or modified in any respect, from the date of origination except by a written instrument which has been recorded, if necessary to protect the interests of Buyer, and which has been delivered to the Custodian or to such other Person as Buyer shall designate in writing, and the terms of which are reflected in the Loan Schedule. The substance of any such waiver, alteration or modification has been approved by the issuer of any related PMI Policy and the title insurer, if any, to the extent required by the policy, and, with respect to RHS Loans, has been approved by the RHS to the extent required by the Rural Housing Service Guaranty, and its terms are reflected on the Loan Schedule, if applicable. No Mortgagor has been released, in whole or in part, except in connection with an assumption agreement, approved by the issuer of any related PMI Policy and the title insurer, to the extent required by the policy, and with respect to any RHS Loan, the RHS to the extent required by the Rural Housing Service Guaranty, and which assumption agreement is part of the Mortgage File delivered to the Custodian or to such other Person as Buyer shall designate in writing and the terms of which are reflected in the Loan Schedule.

(e) No Defenses. The Note and the Mortgage are not subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation the defense of usury, nor will the operation of any of the terms of the Note or the Mortgage, or the exercise of any right thereunder, render either the Note or the Mortgage unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation the defense of usury and no such right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense has been asserted with respect thereto, and no Mortgagor was a debtor in any state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding at, or subsequent to, the time the Loan was originated.

(f) Hazard Insurance. Pursuant to the terms of the Mortgage, all buildings or other improvements upon the Mortgaged Property are insured by a generally acceptable insurer against loss by fire, hazards covered by extended coverage insurance and such other hazards as are provided for in the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD guidelines, as well as all additional requirements set forth in the Agency Guidelines or the Seller's Underwriting Guidelines. If required by the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973, as amended, each Loan is covered by a flood insurance policy meeting the applicable requirements of the current guidelines of the Federal Insurance Administration as in effect which policy conforms to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD guidelines or Seller's Underwriting Guidelines. All individual insurance policies contain a standard mortgagee clause naming the Seller and its successors and assigns as mortgagee, and all premiums due and owing thereon have been paid. The Mortgage obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain all such insurance policies at the Mortgagor's cost and expense, and on the Mortgagor's failure to do so, authorizes the holder of the Mortgage to obtain and maintain such insurance at such Mortgagor's cost and expense, and to seek reimbursement therefor from the Mortgagor. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given an opportunity to choose the carrier of the required hazard insurance, provided the policy is not a "master" or "blanket" hazard insurance policy covering a condominium, or any hazard insurance policy covering the common facilities of a planned unit development. The hazard insurance policy is the valid and binding obligation of the insurer and is in full force and effect. Seller has not engaged in, and has no knowledge of the Mortgagor's having engaged in, any act or omission which would impair the coverage of any such policy, the benefits of the endorsement provided for herein, or the validity and binding effect of such policy, including, without limitation, to Seller's knowledge, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other person or entity, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller, in any case, to the extent it would impair coverage under any such policy.

(g) Compliance with Applicable Law. Any and all requirements of any federal, state or local law including, without limitation, usury, truth-in-lending, real estate settlement procedures, consumer credit protection, anti-predatory lending laws, laws covering fair housing, fair credit reporting, community reinvestment, homeowners equity protection, equal credit opportunity, mortgage reform and disclosure laws or unfair and deceptive practices laws applicable to the origination and servicing of such Loan have been complied with in all material respects, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not involve the violation of any such laws or regulations. Seller shall maintain in its possession, available for Buyer's inspection, evidence of compliance with all requirements set forth herein.

(h) No Satisfaction of Mortgage. The Mortgage has not been satisfied, canceled, subordinated or rescinded, in whole or in part, and the Mortgaged Property has not been released from the lien of the Mortgage, in whole or in part, nor has any instrument been executed that would effect any such satisfaction, cancellation, subordination or rescission other than in the case of a release of a portion of the land comprising a Mortgaged Property or a release of a blanket Mortgage which release will not cause the Loan to fail to satisfy the applicable Agency Guidelines. Seller has not waived the performance by the Mortgagor of any action, if the Mortgagor's failure to perform such action would cause the Loan to be in default, nor has the Seller waived any default resulting from any action or inaction by the Mortgagor.

(i) Valid First Lien. Each Mortgage is a valid and subsisting first lien on a single parcel or multiple contiguous parcels of real estate included in the Mortgaged Property, including all buildings and improvements on the Mortgaged Property and all installations and mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating and air conditioning systems annexed to such buildings, and all additions, alterations and replacements made at any time with respect to the foregoing, subject in all cases to the exceptions to title set forth in the title insurance policy with respect to the related Loan, which exceptions are generally acceptable to prudent mortgage lending companies, the exceptions set forth below and such other exceptions to which similar properties are commonly subject and which do not individually, or in the aggregate, materially and adversely affect the benefits of the security intended to be provided by such Mortgage. The lien of the Mortgage is subject to (collectively, "Permitted Liens"):

(i) the lien of current real property taxes and assessments not yet delinquent.

(ii) covenants, conditions and restrictions, rights of way, easements and other matters of the public record as of the date of recording acceptable to prudent mortgage lending institutions generally and specifically referred to in the lender's title insurance policy delivered to the originator of the Loan and (a) referred to or otherwise considered in the appraisal made for the originator of the Loan or (b) which do not adversely affect the Appraised Value of the Mortgaged Property set forth in such appraisal; and

(iii) other matters to which like properties are commonly subject which do not materially interfere with the benefits of the security intended to be provided by the Mortgage or the use, enjoyment, value or marketability of the related Mortgaged Property, and which will not prevent realization of the full benefits of any Rural Housing Service Guaranty.

Any security agreement, chattel mortgage or equivalent document related to and delivered in connection with the Loan establishes and creates a valid, subsisting, enforceable and first lien and first priority security interest on the property described therein and Seller has full right to pledge and assign the same to Buyer.

(j) Validity of Mortgage Documents. The Note and the Mortgage and any other agreement executed and delivered by a Mortgagor in connection with a Loan are genuine (or in the case of an eNote, the copy of the eNote transmitted to Custodian's eVault is the Authoritative Copy), and each is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the maker thereof enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization and other laws of general application affecting the rights of creditors and by general equitable principles. All parties to the Note, the Mortgage and any other such related agreement had legal capacity to enter into the Loan and to execute and deliver the Note, the Mortgage and any such agreement, and the Note, the Mortgage and any other such related agreement have been duly and properly executed by other the applicable related parties. No fraud or error, omission, misrepresentation, negligence or similar occurrence with respect to a Loan has taken place on the part of any Person, including without limitation, the Mortgagor, any appraiser, any builder or developer, or any other party involved in the origination or servicing of the Loan or in any mortgage or flood insurance, if applicable, in relation to such Loan. The Seller has reviewed all of the documents constituting the Mortgage File and has made such inquiries as they deem necessary to make and confirm the accuracy of the representations set forth herein.

(k) Full Disbursement of Proceeds. The Loan has been closed and the proceeds of the Loan have been fully disbursed to or for the account of the Mortgagor and there is no further requirement for future advances thereunder and any and all requirements as to completion of any on-site or off-site improvement and as to disbursements of any escrow funds therefor have been complied with. All costs, fees and expenses incurred in making or closing the Loan and the recording of the Mortgage were paid or are in the process of being paid, and the Mortgagor is not entitled to any refund of any amounts paid or due under the Note or Mortgage (excluding refunds that may result from escrow analysis adjustments).

(l) Ownership. Seller is the sole owner and holder of the Loan and the indebtedness evidenced by each Note and upon the sale of the Loans to Buyer, Seller will retain the Mortgage Files or any part thereof with respect thereto not delivered to the Custodian, Buyer or Buyer's designee, in trust for the purpose of servicing and supervising the servicing of each Loan. The Loan is not assigned or pledged to a third party, subject to Takeout Commitments, and Seller has good, indefeasible and marketable title thereto, and has full right to transfer and sell the Loan to Buyer free and clear of any encumbrance, equity, participation interest, lien, pledge, charge, claim or security interest, and has full right and authority subject to no interest or participation of, or agreement with, any other party, to sell and assign each Loan pursuant to this Agreement and following the sale of each Loan, Buyer will hold such Loan free and clear of any encumbrance, equity, participation interest, lien, pledge, charge, claim or security interest, except any security interest created pursuant to this Agreement, subject to Takeout Commitments.

(m) Doing Business. All parties which have had any interest in the Loan, whether as mortgagee, assignee, pledgee or otherwise, are (or, during the period in which they held and disposed of such interest, were) (i) in compliance with any and all applicable licensing requirements of the laws of the state wherein the Mortgaged Property is located, and (ii) either (A) organized under the laws of such state, (B) qualified to do business in such state, (C) a federal savings and loan association, a savings bank or a national bank having a principal office in such state, (D) not doing business in such state, or (E) not otherwise required to be qualified to do business in such state.

(n) Title Insurance. Other than with respect to a Cooperative Loan, the Loan is covered by either (i) an attorney's opinion of title and abstract of title, the form and substance of which is acceptable to prudent mortgage lending institutions making mortgage loans or reverse mortgage loans, as applicable, in the area wherein the Mortgaged Property is located or (ii) an ALTA lender's title insurance policy, or with respect to any Loan for which the related Mortgaged Property is located in California a CLTA lender's title insurance policy, or other generally acceptable form of policy or insurance acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD and each such title insurance policy is issued by a title insurer acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD and qualified to do business in the jurisdiction where the Mortgaged Property is located, insuring the Seller, its successors and assigns, as to the first priority lien of the Mortgage in the original principal amount of the Loan, subject only to the exceptions contained in clauses (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (l) of this Schedule 1, and in the case of adjustable rate Loans, against any loss by reason of the invalidity or unenforceability of the lien resulting from the provisions of the Mortgage providing for adjustment to the Mortgage Interest Rate and Monthly Payment. Where required by state law or regulation, the Mortgagor has been given the opportunity to choose the carrier of the required mortgage title insurance. Additionally, such lender's title insurance policy affirmatively insures ingress and egress, and against encroachments by or upon the Mortgaged Property or any interest therein. The title policy does not contain any special exceptions (other than the standard exclusions) for zoning and uses and has been marked to delete the standard survey exception or to replace the standard survey exception with a specific survey reading. The Seller, its successors and assigns, are the sole insureds of such lender's title insurance policy, and such lender's title insurance policy is valid and remains in full force and effect and will be in force and effect upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No claims have been made under such lender's title insurance policy, and no prior holder of the related Mortgage, including Seller, has done, by act or omission, anything which would impair the coverage of such lender's title insurance policy, including without limitation, no unlawful fee, commission, kickback or other unlawful compensation or value of any kind has been or will be received, retained or realized by any attorney, firm or other Person, and no such unlawful items have been received, retained or realized by Seller.

(o) No Defaults. There is no default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration existing under the Mortgage or the Note and no event which, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration, and neither Seller nor any of its predecessors, have waived any default, breach, violation or event which would permit acceleration.

(p) No Mechanics' Liens. At origination, there were no mechanics' or similar liens or claims which have been filed for work, labor or material (and no rights are outstanding that under law could give rise to such liens) affecting the related Mortgaged Property which are or may be liens prior to, or equal to, the lien of the related Mortgage.

(q) Location of Improvements; No Encroachments. All improvements which were considered in determining the Appraised Value of the related Mortgaged Property lay wholly within the boundaries and building restriction lines of the Mortgaged Property, and no improvements on adjoining properties encroach upon the Mortgaged Property, except those which are insured against by the related title insurance policy. No improvement located on or being part of the Mortgaged Property is in violation of any applicable zoning law or regulation.

(r) Origination. The Loan was originated by or in conjunction with a mortgagee approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Sections 203 and 211 of the National Housing Act, a savings and loan association, a savings bank, a commercial bank, credit union, insurance company or similar banking institution which is supervised and examined by a federal or state authority. Principal payments on the Loan commenced no more than 60 days after funds were disbursed in connection with the Loan. The Mortgage Interest Rate as well as the lifetime rate cap and the periodic cap are as set forth on the Loan Schedule, as applicable. The Note is payable in equal monthly installments of principal and interest, which installments of interest, with respect to adjustable rate Loans, are subject to change due to the adjustments to the Mortgage Interest Rate on each date on which an adjustment to the Mortgage Interest Rate with respect to each Loan becomes effective, with interest calculated and payable in arrears, sufficient to amortize the Loan fully by the stated maturity date, over an original term of not more than 30 years from commencement of amortization. The Due Date of the first payment under the Note is no more than 60 days from the date of the Note.

(s) Payment Provisions. Principal payments on the Loan commenced no more than sixty days after the proceeds of the Loan were disbursed. With respect to each Loan, the Note is payable on the first day of each month in Monthly Payments. The Note does not permit negative amortization. There are no convertible Loans which contain a provision allowing the Mortgagor to convert the Note from an adjustable interest rate Note to a fixed interest rate Note.

(t) Customary Provisions. The Mortgage contains customary and enforceable provisions such as to render the rights and remedies of the holder thereof adequate for the realization against the Mortgaged Property of the benefits of the security provided thereby, including, (i) in the case of a Mortgage designated as a deed of trust, by trustee's sale, and (ii) otherwise by judicial foreclosure, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. Upon default by a Mortgagor on a Loan and foreclosure on, or trustee's sale of, the Mortgaged Property pursuant to the proper procedures, the holder of the Loan will be able to deliver good and merchantable title to the Mortgaged Property, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption. There is no homestead or other exemption available to the Mortgagor that would interfere with the right to sell the related Mortgaged Property at a trustee's sale or the right to foreclose on the related Mortgage, subject to applicable federal and state laws and judicial precedent with respect to bankruptcy and right of redemption.

(u) Collection Practices; Escrow Deposits; Interest Rate Adjustments. The origination and collection practices and servicing used by Seller with respect to each Note and Mortgage are in compliance in all material respects with Accepted Servicing Practices and applicable law. The Loan has been serviced by Seller and any predecessor servicer in accordance with the terms of the Note. With respect to escrow deposits and Escrow Payments, if any, all such payments are in the possession of, or under the control of, Seller and there exist no deficiencies in connection therewith for which customary arrangements for repayment thereof have not been made. All Escrow Payments have been collected in full compliance with state and federal law. Each escrow of funds that has been established is not prohibited by applicable law. No escrow deposits or Escrow Payments or other charges or payments due Seller have been capitalized under the Mortgage or the Note. All Mortgage Interest Rate adjustments have been made in strict compliance with state and federal law and the terms of the related Note. Any interest required to be paid on escrowed funds pursuant to state, federal and local law has been properly paid and credited.

(v) Conformance with Underwriting Guidelines and Agency Guidelines. The Loan was underwritten in accordance with the applicable Agency Guidelines or Underwriting Guidelines. The Note and Mortgage (exclusive of any riders) are on forms similar to those used by or acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA or HUD, as applicable, and Seller has not made any representations to a Mortgagor that are inconsistent with the mortgage instruments used.

(w) No Additional Collateral. The Note is not and has not been secured by any collateral except the lien of the corresponding Mortgage on the Mortgaged Property and the security interest of any applicable security agreement or chattel mortgage referred to in (i) above.

(x) Appraisal. Unless the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD requires otherwise, the Mortgage File contains an appraisal of the related Mortgaged Property or Cooperative Unit which satisfied the applicable standards of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac and was made and signed prior to the approval of the Loan application by a qualified appraiser, duly appointed by Seller or the originator of the Loan, who had no interest, direct or indirect in the Mortgaged Property or Cooperative Unit or in any loan made on the security thereof, and whose compensation is not affected by the approval or disapproval of the Loan, and the appraisal and appraiser both satisfy the requirements of the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD and Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, all as in effect on the date the Loan was originated. Seller makes no representation or warranty regarding the value of the Mortgaged Property or Cooperative Unit.

Seller is, or an agent of Seller is, in possession of a complete, true and materially accurate Mortgage File in compliance with the Custodial Agreement, except for such documents the originals of which have been delivered to the Custodian and except as otherwise provided in the Custodial Agreement.

(aa) No Buydown Provisions; No Graduated Payments or Contingent Interests. Except for Loans made in connection with employee relocations, no Loan contains provisions pursuant to which Monthly Payments are (a) paid or partially paid with funds deposited in any separate account established by Seller, the Mortgagor, or anyone on behalf of the Mortgagor, (b) paid by any source other than the Mortgagor or (c) contains any other similar provisions which may constitute a "buydown" provision. Except for Loans made in connection with employee relocations, the Loan is not a graduated payment Loan and the Loan does not have a shared appreciation or other contingent interest feature. Such employee relocation Loans are identified on the related Loan Schedule.

(bb) Mortgagor Acknowledgment. The Mortgagor has executed a statement to the effect that the Mortgagor has received all disclosure materials to the extent required by applicable law with respect to the making of fixed rate Loans and adjustable rate Loans and rescission materials with respect to refinanced Loans. Seller shall maintain such statement in the Mortgage File.

(cc) No Construction Loans. No Loan was made in connection with the construction or rehabilitation of a Mortgaged Property or facilitating the trade in or exchange of a Mortgaged Property.

(dd) Acceptable Investment. To Seller's actual knowledge, there are no specific circumstances or conditions with respect to the Mortgage, the Mortgaged Property, the Mortgagor, the Mortgage File or the Mortgagor's credit standing that are reasonably expected to (i) cause private institutional investors which invest in loans similar to the Loan, to regard the Loan as an unacceptable investment, or (ii) adversely affect the value of the Loan in comparison to similar loans.

(ee) LTV, PMI Policy. Except as approved by one of the Agencies, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD, no Loan has an LTV greater than 100%. If required by the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD, the Loan is insured by a PMI Policy. All provisions of any PMI Policy have been and are being complied with, such policy is in full force and effect, and all premiums due thereunder have been paid. No action, inaction, or event has occurred and no state of facts exists that has, or will result in the exclusion from, denial of, or defense to coverage. Any Loan subject to a PMI Policy obligates the Mortgagor thereunder to maintain the PMI Policy and to pay all premiums and charges in connection therewith. The Mortgage Interest Rate for the Loan as set forth on the Loan Schedule is net of any such insurance premium.

(ff) Capitalization of Interest. The Note does not by its terms provide for the capitalization or forbearance of interest.

(gg) No Equity Participation. No document relating to the Loan provides for any contingent or additional interest in the form of participation in the cash flow of the Mortgaged Property or a sharing in the appreciation of the value of the Mortgaged Property. (mm) Consolidation of Future Advances. Any future advances made to the Mortgagor prior to the origination of the Loan have been consolidated with the outstanding principal amount secured by the Mortgage, and the secured principal amount, as consolidated, bears a single interest rate and single repayment term. With respect to each Loan other than a Cooperative Loan, the lien of the Mortgage securing the consolidated principal amount is expressly insured as having first lien priority by a title insurance policy, an endorsement to the policy insuring the mortgagee's consolidated interest or by other title evidence acceptable to the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD, as applicable. Any Security Agreement, chattel mortgage or equivalent document related to and delivered in connection with the Cooperative Loan establishes and creates a valid, subsisting and enforceable first lien and first priority security interest on the property described therein and Seller has full right to sell and assign the same to Buyer. The Cooperative Unit was not, as of the date of origination of the Cooperative Loan, subject to a mortgage, deed of trust, deed to secure debt or other security instrument creating a lien subordinate to the lien of the Security Agreement.

(2) (i) the term of the related Proprietary Lease is longer than the term of the Cooperative Loan, (ii) there is no provision in any Proprietary Lease which requires the Mortgagor to offer for sale the Cooperative Shares owned by such Mortgagor first to the Cooperative, (iii) there is no prohibition in any Proprietary Lease against pledging the Cooperative Shares or assigning the Proprietary Lease and (iv) the Recognition Agreement is on a form of agreement published by the Aztech Document Systems, Inc. or includes provisions which are no less favorable to the lender than those contained in such agreement.

(3) There is no proceeding pending or threatened for the total or partial condemnation of the building owned by the applicable Cooperative Corporation (the "Underlying Mortgaged Property"). The Underlying Mortgaged Property is undamaged by waste, fire, earthquake or earth movement, windstorm, flood, tornado or other casualty so as to affect adversely the value of the Underlying Mortgaged Property as security for the mortgage loan on such Underlying Mortgaged Property (the "Cooperative Mortgage") or the use for which the premises were intended.

(4) There is no default, breach, violation or event of acceleration existing under the Cooperative Mortgage or the mortgage note related thereto and no event which, with the passage of time or with notice and the expiration of any grace or cure period, would constitute a default, breach, violation or event of acceleration.

(5) The Cooperative Corporation has been duly organized and is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its formation. The Cooperative Corporation has requisite power and authority to (i) own its properties, and (ii) transact the business in which it is now engaged. The Cooperative Corporation possesses all rights, licenses, permits and authorizations, governmental or otherwise, necessary to entitle it to own its properties and to transact the businesses in which is now engaged.

(6) The Cooperative Corporation complies in all material respects with all applicable legal requirements. The Cooperative Corporation is not in default or violation of any order, writ, injunction, decree or demand of any governmental authority, the violation of which might materially adversely affect the condition (financial or otherwise) or business of the Cooperative Corporation.

(7) The Cooperative Note, the Security Agreement, the Cooperative Shares, the Proprietary Lease or occupancy agreement, and any other documents required to be delivered under the Custodial Agreement for each Cooperative Loan have been delivered to Custodian, except as otherwise provided in the Custodial Agreement.

(8) The Security Agreement contains customary and enforceable provisions such as to render the rights and remedies of the holder thereof adequate for the realization against the Cooperative Shares of the benefits of the security provided thereby.

(9) As of the date of origination of the Cooperative Loan, the related Cooperative Project is insured by a generally acceptable insurer against loss by fire, hazards of extended coverage and such other hazards as are customary in the area where the Cooperative Project is located or as provided in the applicable Agency, FHA, VA, RHS or HUD guidelines.

(iii) RHS Loans. With respect to each RHS Loan:

(1) All parties which have had any interest in such RHS Loan, whether as mortgagee or assignee, are (or, during the period in which they held and disposed of such interest, were) Rural Housing Service Approved Lenders;

(2) The Mortgage is guaranteed by the RHS to the maximum extent permitted by law and all necessary steps have been taken to make and keep such guaranty valid, binding and enforceable and the applicable guaranty agreement is the binding, valid and enforceable obligation of the RHS, to the full extent thereof, without surcharge, set-off or defense;

(3) In the case of an RHS Loan, no claim for guarantee has been filed;

(4) No Loan is (a) a Section 235 subsidy loan (24 C.F.R. 235), or a graduated loan under Section 245 (24 C.F.R. 203.45 and 24 C.F.R. 203.436), (b) an advance claim loan, or (c) a VA vendee loan;

(5) Neither Seller, its servicer, nor any prior holder or servicer of the Loan has engaged in any action or inaction which would result in the curtailment of a payment (or nonpayment thereof) by the RHS; and

(6) All actions required to be taken by Seller or the related Qualified Originator (if different from Seller) to cause Buyer, as owner of the RHS Loan, to be eligible for the full benefits available under the applicable insurance or guaranty agreement have been taken by such entity.

(jjj) CEMA Loans. With respect to each Loan which is a CEMA Loan, Seller or Servicer has possession or control of, and maintains in its Servicing Records, the originals of each promissory note or other evidence of indebtedness related to such CEMA Loan (other than CEMA Consolidated Notes which have been delivered to the Custodian), including, without limitation all previous promissory notes or other evidence of indebtedness referenced in the Consolidation, Extension and Modification Agreement or CEMA Consolidated Note and any gap, new money or other similar promissory notes or other evidence of indebtedness of the related mortgagor/borrower. The Consolidation, Extension and Modification Agreement complies with all applicable laws and is in a form generally acceptable for sale in the secondary market.

(kkk) eNotes. With respect to each eMortgage Loan, the related eNote satisfies all of the following criteria:

(i) the eNote bears a digital or electronic signature;

(ii) the Hash Value of the eNote indicated in the MERS eRegistry matches the Hash Value of the eNote as reflected in the eVault;

(iii) there is a single Authoritative Copy of the eNote, as applicable and within the meaning of Section 9-105 of the UCC or Section 16 of the UETA, as applicable, that is held in the eVault;

(iv) the Location status of the eNote on the MERS eRegistry reflects the MERS Org ID of the Custodian;

(v) the Controller status of the eNote on the MERS eRegistry reflects the MERS Org ID of Buyer;

(vi) the Delegatee status of the eNote on the MERS eRegistry reflects the MERS Org ID of Custodian;

(vii) the Servicing Agent status of the eNote on the MERS eRegistry is blank;

(viii) There is no Control Failure or Electronic Security Failure with respect to such eNote;

(ix) the eNote is a valid and enforceable Transferable Record or comprises "electronic chattel paper" within the meaning of the UCC;

(x) there is no defect with respect to the eNote that would result in Buyer having less than full rights, benefits and defenses of "Control" (within the meaning of the UETA or the UCC, as applicable) of the Transferable Record; and

(xi) there is no paper copy of the eNote in existence nor has the eNote been papered-out.

(lll) No Foreclosure or Bankruptcy. The Mortgaged Property is not the subject of a foreclosure proceeding nor is the related Mortgagor the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding.

(mmm) MERS Loans. With respect to each MERS Loan, a MERS Identification Number has been assigned by MERS and such MERS Identification Number is accurately provided on the Loan Schedule. The related Assignment of Mortgage to MERS has been duly and properly recorded. With respect to each MERS Loan, Seller has not received any notice of liens (other than Permitted Liens) or legal actions with respect to such Mortgage Loan and no such notices have been electronically posted by MERS.

(nnn) Insured Closing Letter. As of the Purchase Date of each Wet Loan, an Approved Title Insurance Company has issued to the Seller or Buyer an Insured Closing Letter, copies of which shall be maintained in the possession of Seller and provided to Buyer upon request, if required or in Buyer's reasonable discretion. Among other things, the Insured Closing Letter covers any losses occurring due to the fraud, dishonesty or mistakes of the Settlement Agent. The Insured Closing Letter inures to the benefit of, and the rights thereunder may be enforced by, the Seller or other Qualified Originator and its successors and assigns, including Buyer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Insured Closing Letter shall be required to be provided to the Buyer (a) where title insurance for the applicable Wet Loan is provided by Amrock and (b) unless the unpaid principal balance of Purchased Loans that constitute Wet Loans, and regarding which an Insured Closing Letter has not been provided, would exceed ten percent (10%) of Seller's Tangible Net Worth measured as of the end of Seller's most recent fiscal quarter.

RE: Master Repurchase Agreement, dated as of June 12, 2020 (as amended, modified and/or restated, the "Underlying Repurchase Agreement"), between Quicken Loans, LLC, as seller ("Underlying Seller") and Jefferies Funding LLC, as buyer (in such capacity, "Underlying Buyer") and Master Repurchase Agreement, dated as of [ ], 20[ ] (as amended, modified and/or restated, the "[ ] Repurchase Agreement"; together with the Underlying Repurchase Agreement, collectively, the "Sale Agreements"), between Jefferies Funding LLC, as seller and [ ], as buyer ("[ ] Buyer")

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions in the Underlying Repurchase Agreement, the Underlying Seller has sold and will sell, from time to time, all of its right, title and interest in and to certain mortgage loans (the "Mortgage Loans"). The Mortgage Loans relating to this servicer acknowledgment (this "Servicer Acknowledgment") are referred to herein as the "Purchased Loans". Pursuant to the Underlying Repurchase Agreement, the Underlying Seller has agreed to service the Purchased Loans (in such capacity, the "Servicer") for the benefit of the Underlying Buyer on the terms and conditions set forth in the Underlying Repurchase Agreement. The Servicer is hereby notified of, and agrees to comply with, the following:

On the date hereof, the Underlying Buyer has sold and transferred all of its right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Loans to the [ ] Buyer under the [ ] Repurchase Agreement. Further, the [ ] Buyer has assigned and granted a security interest in all of its rights, title and interest in such Purchased Loans and certain other assets to [ ]as indenture trustee (the "Indenture Trustee") as collateral for the issuance of [ ] Notes, Series [ ](the "[ ] Notes") pursuant to the Indenture dated as of [ ], 20[ ] (the "Indenture") among the [ ] Buyer, the Indenture Trustee and [ ], as Standby Servicer (in such capacity, the "Standby Servicer"). The foregoing arrangement is referred to herein as the "[ ] Financing".

On each business day, the Indenture Trustee shall electronically provide the Servicer (at the email addresses set forth on Annex A which may be updated from time to time by the Servicer) with a schedule of Purchased Loans subject to the [ ] Financing. In connection with the foregoing, the Servicer hereby acknowledges and agrees that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Underlying Repurchase Agreement or in any other agreement with respect to any Purchased Loan, (i) the Servicer is servicing the Purchased Loans for the joint benefit of the [ ] Buyer and the Indenture Trustee and (ii) the [ ] Buyer, the Standby Servicer and the Indenture Trustee are expressly intended to be a third party beneficiary under the [ ] Repurchase Agreement.

Until such time that the Servicer has received written notice from the Indenture Trustee of the occurrence and continuance of an event of default under the Indenture (an "Indenture Event of Default") or the occurrence and continuance of an event of default under the [ ]Repurchase Agreement (a "Repo Event of Default"), the Servicer hereby acknowledges and agrees that it shall cause all Income received by the Servicer on account of the Purchased Loans to be remitted as provided in the Underlying Repurchase Agreement. An Indenture Event of Default or a Repo Event of Default are referred to herein as an "Event of Default".

The Servicer agrees to deliver directly to the [ ] Buyer, the Standby Servicer and the Indenture Trustee, at the notice address provided herein (or such other email addresses as may hereafter be provided to the Servicer by the [ ] Buyer, the Standby Servicer or the Indenture Trustee), all servicing statements, reports and other information with respect [only to the Purchased Loans] that the Servicer is required to deliver to the Underlying Buyer under the Underlying Repurchase Agreement, on the same date such information is required to be delivered to the Underlying Buyer.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Indenture Trustee shall provide written notice thereof to the Underlying Seller and the Servicer. Upon receipt of such written notice from the Indenture Trustee, the Underlying Seller shall have the right to purchase the Purchased Loans from the [ ] Buyer at the Repurchase Price (as defined in the Underlying Repurchase Agreement) for such Purchased Loans (calculated pursuant to the Underlying Repurchase Agreement) within 30 days of the receipt of such notice. If the Underlying Seller exercises its right to repurchase its Purchased Loans, it shall remit the Repurchase Price to the Indenture Trustee to the Payment Account (as defined in the Indenture), which account is more particularly described on Exhibit A hereof. Upon remittance of the Repurchase Price to the Indenture Trustee as set forth in this paragraph, (i) the Underlying Seller shall automatically become the owner of the Purchased Loans and the servicing rights related thereto and all Obligations of Underlying Seller under the Underlying Repurchase Agreement shall cease to exist other than those that by their express terms survive, (ii) [ ], the [ ] Buyer and the Indenture Trustee shall automatically cease to have any right, title or interest in such Purchased Loans and the servicing rights related thereto, and (iii) [ ], the [ ] Buyer and the Indenture Trustee each hereby agrees to perform all acts and take all actions as may be reasonably requested by the Underlying Seller so that such Purchased Loans, the servicing rights related thereto and all files and documents relating to such Purchased Loans are returned and/or assigned to Underlying Seller. [ ] expressly agrees that neither the exercise by the Underlying Seller of its rights under this paragraph nor any other provision of this agreement shall relieve [ ] of responsibility or liability for any breach of the Underlying Repurchase Agreement.

To the extent that the Underlying Seller fails to exercise its right to repurchase its Purchased Loans following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Indenture Trustee may (i) sell its right to the Purchased Loans on a servicing released basis and upon such sale all Obligations of Underlying Seller under the Underlying Repurchase Agreement shall cease to exist other than those that by their express terms survive, (ii) terminate the Servicer as the servicer of the Purchased Loans with or without cause, in each case without payment of any termination fee, (iii) transfer servicing of the Purchased Loans to the Standby Servicer or another successor Servicer, at no cost or expense to the Servicer or (iv) exercise any rights of the Underlying Buyer as set forth in Section 31 of the Underlying Repurchase Agreement. In addition, to the extent the Underlying Seller fails to exercise its right to repurchase its Purchased Loans following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Servicer shall cooperate, at no cost or expense of the Servicer, with and follow the instructions of the Indenture Trustee (or the successor Servicer on behalf of the Indenture Trustee) without any further consent from the Underlying Buyer, the [ ] Buyer or any other Person, with respect to the Purchased Loans and shall deliver to the Indenture Trustee and the successor Servicer, at no cost or expense of the Servicer, any information with respect to the Purchased Loans requested by such party to the extent such information is in the possession of or otherwise reasonably accessible to the Servicer and the Servicer is not prohibited by any applicable law, rule, regulation from providing the same . In the event that the Indenture Trustee does not elect to terminate the Servicer as servicer with respect to the Purchased Loans, the Servicer shall continue to service the Purchased Loans in accordance with the Underlying Repurchase Agreement as supplemented by this Servicer Acknowledgment.

To the extent that the Underlying Seller fails to exercise its right to repurchase its Purchased Loans following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Servicer shall remit all Income received in respect of the Purchased Loans to a segregated collection account (each, a "Servicer Collection Account") in trust for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Noteholders. In addition, on the [ ] day of each calendar month (or, if such day is not a business day, the immediately preceding business day), the Servicer shall remit all Income received in respect of the Purchased Loans to the Payment Account (as defined in the Indenture) described on Exhibit A hereof. Subject to the Servicer's right to receive (and withhold from remittances) any amounts due to it under the Underlying Repurchase Agreement in respect of servicing fees and reimbursement of advances (to the extent required to be made by the Servicer pursuant to the Underlying Repurchase Agreement), the Servicer acknowledges that all Income collected in respect of the Purchased Loans (following the occurrence of an Event of Default and the failure of the Underlying Seller to exercise its right to repurchase its Purchased Loans), whether or not deposited into the Servicer Collection Account is held for the benefit of Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Noteholders.

Notwithstanding any contrary information or direction which may be delivered to the Servicer by the Underlying Buyer, the [ ] Buyer or any other Person, the Servicer may conclusively rely on any information, direction or notice of an Event of Default delivered by the Indenture Trustee without any independent investigation or inquiry, and the Underlying Buyer shall indemnify and hold the Servicer harmless for any and all claims asserted against Servicer for any actions taken in good faith by the Servicer in connection with the delivery of such information or notice of an Event of Default.

No provision of this Servicer Acknowledgment or the Borrower Payment Instructions for any Purchased Loan may be amended, countermanded or otherwise modified without the prior written consent of the Indenture Trustee.

This Servicer Acknowledgment shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any person into which a party may be merged or consolidated (or any person resulting from any merger or consolidation involving such party), any person resulting from a change in form of a party or any person succeeding to the business of such party shall be considered the "successor" of such party hereunder and shall be considered a party hereto without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act or consent on the part of any party hereto. For so long as the [ ] Notes are outstanding, Servicer agrees that in connection with any assignment or transfer of its rights and obligations under this Agreement or the Underlying Repurchase Agreement, the successor servicer shall be required to assume the rights and obligations of the Servicer under this Servicer Acknowledgment.

ARTICLE II
EXCHANGE

Section 2.01 Exchange of Paired Interests for Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock. From and after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, each Holder shall be entitled at any time and from time to time upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof, to surrender Paired Interests to RocketCo (subject to adjustment as provided in Section 2.03) in exchange (such exchange, an "Exchange") for the delivery to such Holder, at the option of the board of directors of RocketCo (acting by a majority of the disinterested members of the board of directors of RocketCo or a committee of disinterested directors of the board of directors of RocketCo), of:

(a) a Cash Exchange Payment by the Company; or

(b) (X) with respect to Class C Paired Interests, a number of shares of Class A Common Stock that is equal to the product of the number of Class C Paired Interests surrendered multiplied by the Exchange Rate; and (Y) with respect to Class D Paired Interests, a number of shares of Class B Common Stock that is equal to the product of the number of Class D Paired Interests surrendered multiplied by the Exchange Rate (in each case under this clause (b), a "Share Exchange").

Section 2.02 Exchange Procedures; Notices and Revocations.

(a) A Holder may exercise the right to effect an Exchange as set forth in Section 2.01 by delivering a written notice of exchange in respect of the Paired Interests to be Exchanged substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (the "Notice of Exchange"), duly executed by such Holder or such Holder's duly authorized attorney, to RocketCo at its address set forth in Section 5.03 during normal business hours, or if any agent for the Exchange is duly appointed and acting (the "Exchange Agent"), to the office of the Exchange Agent during normal business hours. Each Exchange shall be deemed to be effective immediately prior to the close of business on the Exchange Date.

(b) Contingent Notice of Exchange and Revocation by Holders.

(i) A Notice of Exchange from a Holder may specify that the Exchange (A) shall occur on a specified future Business Day or (B) is to be contingent (including as to the timing) upon the consummation of a purchase by another Person (whether in a tender or exchange offer, an underwritten offering or otherwise) of shares of Deliverable Common Stock into which the Paired Interests are exchangeable, or contingent (including as to timing) upon the closing of an announced merger, consolidation or other transaction or event in which the Deliverable Common Stock would be exchanged or converted or become exchangeable for or convertible into cash or other securities or property.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, a Holder may withdraw or amend a Notice of Exchange, in whole or in part, prior to the effectiveness of the Exchange, at any time prior to 5:00 p.m. New York City time, on the Business Day immediately preceding the Exchange Date (or any such later time as may be required by Applicable Law) by delivery of a written notice of withdrawal to RocketCo or the Exchange Agent, specifying (1) the number of withdrawn Paired Interests, (2) if any, the number of Paired Interests as to which the Notice of Exchange remains in effect and (3) if the Holder so determines, a new Exchange Date or any other new or revised information permitted in the Notice of Exchange.

(c) Cash Exchange Payment. The Company shall provide notice to the Exchanging Holder of its intention to consummate an Exchange through a Cash Exchange Payment on the first Business Day immediately following the receipt of a Notice of Exchange by RocketCo. Additionally, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered the Cash Exchange Payment in accordance with Section 2.01(a) as promptly as practicable (but not later than five Business Days) after the Exchange Date.

(d) Share Exchange. In the case of a Share Exchange,

(i) the Exchanging Holder (or other Person(s) whose name or names in which the Deliverable Common Stock is to be issued) shall be deemed to be a holder of Deliverable Common Stock from and after the close of business on the Exchange Date.

(ii) as promptly as practicable on or after the Exchange Date (but not later than the close of business on the Business Day immediately following the Exchange Date), RocketCo shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Exchanging Holder (or other Person(s) whose name or names in which the Deliverable Common Stock is to be issued) the number of shares of Deliverable Common Stock deliverable upon such Exchange, registered in the name of such Holder (or other Person(s) whose name or names in which the Deliverable Common Stock is to be issued). To the extent the Deliverable Common Stock is settled through the facilities of The Depository Trust Company, RocketCo will, subject to Section 2.02(d)(iii) below, upon the written instruction of an Exchanging Holder, deliver or cause to be delivered the shares of Deliverable Common Stock deliverable to such Holder (or other Person(s) whose name or names in which the Deliverable Common Stock is to be issued), through the facilities of The Depository Trust Company, to the account of the participant of The Depository Trust Company designated by such Holder.

(iii) If the shares of Deliverable Common Stock issued upon an Exchange are not issued pursuant to a registration statement that has been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission, such shares shall bear a legend in substantially the following form:

THE TRANSFER OF THESE SECURITIES HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR UNDER THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION, AND MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED OTHER THAN IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (OR OTHER APPLICABLE LAW), OR AN EXEMPTION THEREFROM.

(iv) if (i) any shares of Deliverable Common Stock may be sold pursuant to a registration statement that has been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission, (ii) all of the applicable conditions of Rule 144 are met, or (iii) the legend (or a portion thereof) otherwise ceases to be applicable, RocketCo, upon the written request of the Holder thereof shall promptly provide such Holder or its respective transferees, without any expense to such Persons (other than applicable transfer taxes and similar governmental charges, if any) with new certificates (or evidence of book-entry share) for securities of like tenor not bearing the provisions of the legend with respect to which the restriction has terminated. In connection therewith, such Holder shall provide RocketCo will such information in its possession as RocketCo may reasonably request in connection with the removal of any such legend.

(e) RocketCo shall bear all expenses in connection with the consummation of any Exchange, whether or not any such Exchange is ultimately consummated, including any transfer taxes, stamp taxes or duties, or other similar taxes in connection with, or arising by reason of, any Exchange; provided, however, that if any shares of Deliverable Common Stock are to be delivered in a name other than that of the Holder that requested the Exchange (or The Depository Trust Company or its nominee for the account of a participant of The Depository Trust Company that will hold the shares for the account of such Holder), then such Holder and/or the Person in whose name such shares are to be delivered shall pay to RocketCo the amount of any transfer taxes, stamp taxes or duties, or other similar taxes in connection with, or arising by reason of, such Exchange or shall establish to the reasonable satisfaction of RocketCo that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article II, a Holder shall not be entitled to effect an Exchange, and RocketCo and the Company shall have the right to refuse to honor any request to effect an Exchange, at any time or during any period, if RocketCo or the Company shall reasonably determine that such Exchange (i) would be prohibited by any Applicable Law (including the unavailability of any requisite registration statement filed under the Securities Act or any exemption from the registration requirements thereunder), provided this subsection Section 2.02(f)(i) shall not limit RocketCo or the Company's obligations under Section 2.06(c) or (ii) would not be permitted under (x) the LLC Agreement, (y) other agreements with RocketCo, the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries to which such Exchanging Holder may be party or (z) any written policies of RocketCo, the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries related to unlawful or inappropriate trading applicable to its directors, officers or other personnel. Upon such determination, RocketCo or the Company (as applicable) shall notify the Holder requesting the Exchange of such determination, which such notice shall include an explanation in reasonable detail as to the reason that the Exchange has not been honored. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if RocketCo, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and tax advisor, shall determine in good faith that interests in the Company do not meet the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.7704-1(h) (or other provisions of those Treasury Regulations as determined by RocketCo), the Company may impose such restrictions on Exchange as the Company may reasonably determine to be necessary or advisable so that the Company is not treated as a "publicly traded partnership" under Section 7704 of the Code.

Section 2.03 Adjustment.

(a) The Exchange Rate with respect to the Class C Paired Interests and/or the components of a Class C Paired Interest shall be adjusted accordingly if there is: (i) any subdivision (by any stock or unit split, stock or unit dividend or distribution, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) or combination (by reverse stock or unit split, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) of the shares of Class C Common Stock or Holdings Units that is not accompanied by a substantively identical subdivision or combination of the Class A Common Stock; or (ii) any subdivision (by any stock split, stock dividend, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) or combination (by reverse stock split, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) of the Class A Common Stock that is not accompanied by a substantively identical subdivision or combination of the shares of Class C Common Stock and Holdings Units. If there is any reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other similar transaction in which the Class A Common Stock are converted or changed into another security, securities or other property, then upon any subsequent Exchange, an Exchanging Holder shall be entitled to receive the amount of such security, securities or other property that such Exchanging Holder would have received if such Exchange had occurred immediately prior to the effective date of such reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other similar transaction, taking into account any adjustment as a result of any subdivision (by any split, dividend or distribution, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) or combination (by reverse split, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) of such security, securities or other property that occurs after the effective time of such reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other similar transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, if there is any reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other similar transaction in which the Class A Common Stock are converted or changed into another security, securities or other property, this Section 2.03(a) shall continue to be applicable, mutatis mutandis, with respect to such security or other property. This Agreement shall apply to, mutatis mutandis, and all references to "Class C Paired Interests" shall be deemed to include, any security, securities or other property of RocketCo or the Company which may be issued in respect of, in exchange for or in substitution of shares of Class C Common Stock or Holdings Units, as applicable, by reason of stock or unit split, reverse stock or unit split, stock or unit dividend or distribution, combination, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization, merger, exchange (other than an Exchange) or other transaction.

(b) The Exchange Rate with respect to the Class D Paired Interests and/or the components of a Class D Paired Interest shall be adjusted accordingly if there is: (i) any subdivision (by any stock or unit split, stock or unit dividend or distribution, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) or combination (by reverse stock or unit split, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) of the shares of Class D Common Stock or Holdings Units that is not accompanied by a substantively identical subdivision or combination of the Class B Common Stock; or (ii) any subdivision (by any stock split, stock dividend, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) or combination (by reverse stock split, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) of the Class B Common Stock that is not accompanied by a substantively identical subdivision or combination of the shares of Class D Common Stock and Holdings Units. If there is any reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other similar transaction in which the Class B Common Stock are converted or changed into another security, securities or other property, then upon any subsequent Exchange, an Exchanging Holder shall be entitled to receive the amount of such security, securities or other property that such Exchanging Holder would have received if such Exchange had occurred immediately prior to the effective date of such reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other similar transaction, taking into account any adjustment as a result of any subdivision (by any split, dividend or distribution, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) or combination (by reverse split, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) of such security, securities or other property that occurs after the effective time of such reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other similar transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, if there is any reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other similar transaction in which the Class B Common Stock are converted or changed into another security, securities or other property, this Section 2.03(b) shall continue to be applicable, mutatis mutandis, with respect to such security or other property. This Agreement shall apply to, mutatis mutandis, and all references to "Class D Paired Interests" shall be deemed to include, any security, securities or other property of RocketCo or the Company which may be issued in respect of, in exchange for or in substitution of shares of Class D Common Stock or Holdings Units, as applicable, by reason of stock or unit split, reverse stock or unit split, stock or unit dividend or distribution, combination, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization, merger, exchange (other than an Exchange) or other transaction.

(c) This Agreement shall apply to the Paired Interests held by the Holders and their Permitted Transferees as of the date hereof, as well as any Paired Interests hereafter acquired by a Holder and his or her or its Permitted Transferees.

Section 2.04 Tender Offers and Other Events with Respect to RocketCo.

(a) In the event that a tender offer, share exchange offer, issuer bid, take-over bid, recapitalization or similar transaction with respect to Class A Common Stock (a "RocketCo Offer") is proposed by RocketCo or is proposed to RocketCo or its stockholders and approved by the board of directors of RocketCo or is otherwise effected or to be effected with the consent or approval of the board of directors of RocketCo, the Holders of Paired Interests shall be permitted to participate in such RocketCo Offer by delivery of a Notice of Exchange (which Notice of Exchange shall be effective immediately prior to the consummation of such RocketCo Offer (and, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be contingent upon such RocketCo Offer and not be effective if such RocketCo Offer is not consummated)). In the case of a RocketCo Offer proposed by RocketCo, RocketCo will use its reasonable best efforts expeditiously and in good faith to take all such actions and do all such things as are necessary or desirable to enable and permit the Holders of Paired Interests to participate in such RocketCo Offer to the same extent or on an economically equivalent basis as the holders of shares of Class A Common Stock without discrimination; provided, that without limiting the generality of this sentence, RocketCo will use its reasonable best efforts expeditiously and in good faith to ensure that such Holders may participate in each such RocketCo Offer without being required to Exchange Paired Interests. For the avoidance of doubt (but subject to Section 2.04(b)), in no event shall the Holders of Paired Interests be entitled to receive in such RocketCo Offer aggregate consideration for each Paired Interest that is greater than the consideration payable in respect of each share of Class A Common Stock in connection with a RocketCo Offer.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event of a RocketCo Offer intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or as a transfer described in Section 351(a) or Section 721 of the Code, a Holder shall not be required to exchange its Paired Interest without its prior consent.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, (i) in a RocketCo Offer where the consideration payable in connection therewith includes Equity Securities, the aggregate consideration for any Class D Paired Interest shall be deemed to be equivalent to the consideration payable in respect of each share of Class A Common Stock if the only difference in the per share distribution to the Holders of Class D Paired Interests is that the Equity Securities distributed to such Holders have not more than ten times the voting power of any Equity Securities distributed to the holder of a share of Class A Common Stock (so long as such Equity Securities issued to the Class D Paired Interests remain subject to automatic conversion on terms no more favorable to such Holders than those set forth in Article IV, Section G of the RocketCo Charter), (ii) in a RocketCo Offer, payments under or in respect of the Tax Receivable Agreements shall not be considered part of the consideration payable in respect of any Paired Interest or share of Class A Common Stock in connection with such RocketCo Offer for the purposes of Section 2.04(a), and (iii) the Company shall not be entitled to make a Cash Exchange Payment in the case of an Exchange in connection with a RocketCo Offer.

Section 2.05 Listing of Deliverable Common Stock. If the Class A Common Stock is listed on a securities exchange or inter-dealer quotation system, RocketCo shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause all Class A Common Stock issued upon an exchange of Paired Interests to be listed on the same securities exchange or traded on such inter-dealer quotation system at the time of such issuance.

Section 2.06 Deliverable Common Stock to be Issued; Class C Common Stock or Class D Common Stock to be Cancelled.

(a) RocketCo shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, solely for the purpose of issuance upon an Exchange, the maximum number of shares of Deliverable Common Stock as shall be deliverable upon Exchange of all then-outstanding Paired Interests; provided, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude RocketCo from satisfying its obligations in respect of an Exchange by delivery of shares of Deliverable Common Stock that are held in the treasury of RocketCo or any of its subsidiaries or by delivery of purchased shares of Deliverable Common Stock (which may or may not be held in the treasury of RocketCo or any subsidiary thereof). RocketCo covenants that all shares of Deliverable Common Stock issued upon an Exchange will, upon issuance thereof, be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

(b) When a Paired Interest has been Exchanged in accordance with this Agreement, (i) the share of Class C Common Stock or Class D Common Stock corresponding to such Paired Interest shall be cancelled by RocketCo and (ii) the Holdings Unit corresponding to such Paired Interest shall be deemed transferred from the Exchanging Holder to RocketCo and the Company shall cause such transfer to be registered in the books and records of the Company.

(c) RocketCo agrees that it has taken all or will take such steps as may be required to cause to qualify for exemption under Rule 16b-3(d) or (e), as applicable, under the Exchange Act, and to be exempt for purposes of Section 16(b) under the Exchange Act, any acquisitions from, or dispositions to, RocketCo of equity securities of RocketCo (including derivative securities with respect thereto) and any securities that may be deemed to be equity securities or derivative securities of RocketCo for such purposes that result from the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, by each officer or director of RocketCo, including any director by deputization. The authorizing resolutions shall be approved by either RocketCo's board of directors or a committee composed solely of two or more Non-Employee Directors (as defined in Rule 16b-3) of RocketCo.

Section 2.07 Distributions. No Exchange shall impair the right of the Exchanging Holder to receive any distributions payable on the Holdings Units so exchanged in respect of a record date that occurs prior to the Exchange Date for such Exchange. No adjustments in respect of dividends or distributions on any Holdings Unit will be made on the Exchange of any Paired Interest, and if the Exchange Date with respect to a Holdings Unit occurs after the record date for the payment of a dividend or other distribution on Holdings Units but before the date of the payment, then the registered Holder of the Holdings Unit at the close of business on the record date will be entitled to receive the dividend or other distribution payable on the Holdings Unit on the payment date (without duplication of any distribution to which such Holder may be entitled under Section 5.03(c) of the LLC Agreement in respect of taxes) notwithstanding the Exchange of the Paired Interests or a default in payment of the dividend or distribution due on the Exchange Date. For the avoidance of doubt, no Exchanging Holder shall be entitled to receive, in respect of a single record date, distributions or dividends both on Holdings Units exchanged by such Holder and on shares of Deliverable Common Stock received by such Holder in such Exchange.

Section 2.08 Withholding; Certification of Non-Foreign Status.

(a) If RocketCo or the Company shall be required to withhold any amounts by reason of any federal, state, local or non-U.S. foreign tax rules or regulations in respect of any Exchange, RocketCo or the Company, as the case may be, shall be entitled to take such action as it deems appropriate in order to ensure compliance with such withholding requirements, including, at its option, withholding shares of Class A Common Stock with a fair market value equal to the minimum amount of any taxes that RocketCo or the Company, as the case may be, may be required to withhold with respect to such Exchange. To the extent that amounts are (or property is) so withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority, such withheld amounts (or property) shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid (or delivered) to the applicable Holder.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of RocketCo and the Company may, in its discretion, require that an exchanging Holder deliver to the RocketCo or the Company, as the case may be, a certification of non-foreign status in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.1445-2(b) and 1.1446(f)-2(b)(2) prior to an Exchange. In the event RocketCo or the Company has required delivery of such certification but an exchanging Holder does not provide such certification, RocketCo or the Company, as the case may be, shall nevertheless deliver or cause to be delivered to the exchanging Holder the Class A Common Stock or the Class B Common Stock, as applicable, or Cash Payment in accordance with Section 2.01, but subject to withholding as provided in Section 2.08(a).

ARTICLE III

For so long as RHI and Gilbert, in the aggregate, beneficially own 3% or more of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock, RocketCo, upon the written request of RHI, shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, provide RHI, in addition to other information that might be reasonably requested by RHI from time to time, (i) direct access to RocketCo's auditors and officers, (ii) the ability to link RHI's systems into RocketCo's general ledger and other systems in order to enable RHI to retrieve data on a "real-time" basis, (iii) quarter-end reports, in a format to be prescribed by RHI, to be provided within 30 days after the end of each quarter, (iv) copies of all materials provided to the board of directors (or committee of the board of directors) at the same time as provided to the directors (or members of a committee of the board of directors) of RocketCo, (v) access to appropriate officers and directors of RocketCo and its Subsidiaries at such times as may be requested by RHI for consultation with RHI with respect to matters relating to the business and affairs of RocketCo and its Subsidiaries, (vi) information in advance with respect to any significant corporate actions, including, without limitation, extraordinary dividends, stock redemptions or repurchases, mergers, acquisitions or dispositions of assets, issuances of significant amounts of debt or equity and material amendments to the organizational documents of RocketCo or any of its Subsidiaries, and to provide RHI with the right to consult with RocketCo and its Subsidiaries with respect to such actions, (vii) flash data, in a format to be prescribed by RHI, to be provided within ten days after the end of each quarter and (viii) to the extent otherwise prepared by RocketCo, operating and capital expenditure budgets and periodic

Such sharing will be for the dual purpose of facilitating support to such individuals in their capacity as directors of RocketCo (or members of the governing body of any Subsidiary) and enabling RHI, as an equityholder, to better evaluate RocketCo's performance and prospects. RocketCo, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, hereby irrevocably consents to such sharing.

NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY MANNER PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE FOREGOING WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE IRREVOCABLE UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN AND OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Section 5.06 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. Section 5.07 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the LLC Agreement and the other Reorganization Documents constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both oral and written, between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall create any third-party beneficiary rights in favor of any Person or other party hereto, except to the extent provided herein with respect to Holders of Indemnitee-Related Entities, each of whom are intended third-party beneficiaries of those provisions that specifically relate to them with the right to enforce such provisions as if they were a party hereto.

Section 5.12 Independent Nature of Holders' Rights and Obligations. The obligations of each Holder hereunder are several and not joint with the obligations of any other Holder, and no Holder shall be responsible in any way for the performance of the obligations of any other Holder under hereunder. The decision of each Holder to enter into to this Agreement has been made by such Holder independently of any other Holder. Nothing contained herein, and no action taken by any Holder pursuant hereto, shall be deemed to constitute the Holders as a partnership, an association, a joint venture or any other kind of entity, or create a presumption that the Holders are in any way acting in concert or as a group with respect to such obligations or the transactions contemplated hereby.
