(to prospectus dated April 29, 2022)

Boxed, Inc.

This prospectus supplement updates, amends and supplements the prospectus dated April 29, 2022 (the "Prospectus"), which forms a part of our Registration Statement on Form S-1, as amended (Registration No. 333-261823).

This prospectus supplement is being filed to update, amend and supplement the information included in the Prospectus with the information contained in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 14, 2023 (which is attached to and a part of this prospectus supplement), only to the extent that any information contained in such document is deemed "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

This prospectus supplement is not complete without the Prospectus. This prospectus supplement should be read in conjunction with the Prospectus, which is to be delivered with this prospectus supplement, and is qualified by reference thereto, except to the extent that the information in this prospectus supplement updates or supersedes the information contained in the Prospectus. Capitalized terms used in this prospectus supplement and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings specified in the Prospectus. Please keep this prospectus supplement with your Prospectus for future reference.

Our Common Stock and Warrants are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbols "BOXD" and "BOXD WS," respectively. On March 13, 2022, the closing price of our Common Stock was $0.384 and the closing price of our Warrants was $0.045.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As disclosed below under Item 8.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, Boxed, Inc. (the “Company”) continues to discuss with its lenders the satisfaction of the milestones of the Forbearance Agreement. In connection with this process, including anticipation of the negotiation of a stalking horse bid, the potential filing of a petition for relief under the United States Bankruptcy Code and in recognition of the importance to the Company of retaining certain key employees to manage the operations and finances of the Company, the board of directors of the Company determined that it was in the best interest of the Company to reinforce and provide incentive for the continued attention and dedication of certain key employees to their duties of employment.

On March 10, 2023, the Company entered into retention agreements (each a “Retention Agreement” and, collectively, the “Retention Agreements”) with certain key employees, including each of Chieh Huang, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, Mark Zimowski, the Company’s Chief Financial Officer, and Alison Weick, the Company’s President of eCommerce. The Board of Directors previously authorized the Company to enter into retention agreements, upon the recommendation from the Compensation Committee, in order to retain critical talent in an effort to maximize value during a period of significant volatility. Each key employee, including Messrs. Huang and Zimowski and Ms. Weick, that entered into a retention agreement received a lump-sum payment equal to 33.33% of the individual’s annual base salary, less applicable tax withholdings and deductions (each, a “Retention Payment”), provided that such individual must remain continuously employed with the Company through the earlier of (i) June 30, 2023 or (ii) (a) the consummation of a transaction that effectuates a recapitalization or restructuring of a material portion of the Company’s outstanding indebtedness, (b) the acquisition, merger or other business combination pursuant to which a majority of the business, equity or operating assets of the Company is sold, purchased or combined with another entity or company or (c) in the event of a liquidation or dissolution of the Company (collectively, the “Retention Date”). If prior to the Retention Date, a key employee, resigns their employment for any reason, other than due to their death or disability, or they are terminated by the Company for Cause (as defined in the Retention Agreement), the key employee will not earn any portion of the Retention Payment and must repay the entire amount of the Retention Payment (net of tax withholdings) to the Company no later than 30 (thirty) days following the date on which such officer’s employment is terminated. Furthermore, the key employees have elected to waive any cash bonuses earned based on the achievement of individual performance objectives for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022, as per their employment agreements.

The foregoing description of the Retention Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Retention Agreements, a form of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Forbearance Agreement and Liquidity

As previously disclosed, the Company is party to that certain Forbearance Agreement, dated as of March 1, 2023, by and among Boxed, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Borrower”), the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively with the Borrower, the “Obligors”), the BlackRock affiliated lenders thereunder (the “Lenders”) and Alter Domus (US) LLC, as agent for the lenders (the “Administrative Agent”). The Forbearance Agreement requires the Borrower to satisfy certain milestones, including that: (i) the Borrower deliver to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders a debtor-in-possession budget prepared by the Borrower that is reasonably acceptable to the Required Lenders (as defined in the Credit Agreement), (ii) the Borrower and each other Obligor enter into a binding debt commitment letter and term sheet with the Lenders for a debtor-in-possession financing facility satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and Required Lenders and (iii) the Borrower prepay at least $5,000,000, together with accrued interest and the early prepayment fee due under the Credit Agreement.

The Company continues to have discussions with the Lenders and has not delivered a debtor-in-possession budget acceptable to the Lenders, entered into a binding debt commitment letter and term sheet or made the prepayment, as specified under the terms of the Forbearance Agreement. The Lenders have provided limited extensions for the satisfaction of these milestones to permit the Company and the Lenders to continue their discussions, although the Company may not be able to satisfy the terms of the prepayment at this time. In connection with the foregoing, the Company has implemented cash management strategies, including streamlining operations and headcount reductions.

Further, on March 10, 2023, Silicon Valley Bank (“SVB”) was closed by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the “FDIC”) was appointed as receiver of SVB. As of that date, the Company held the majority of its cash deposits and other liquid instruments in SVB accounts. In connection with entering into a lending facility with SVB in June 2014, the Company was obligated to maintain its bank accounts with SVB and continued to do so after such loan was repaid in full in connection with ongoing cash management initiatives and corporate credit card programs with SVB. As of March 13, 2023, the Company has transferred a majority of its cash out of its SVB accounts and is establishing a new commercial banking relationship. The remaining cash balances in its SVB accounts will be used to fund the Company’s near term obligations while it establishes its new commercial banking accounts with the goal of transferring all remaining cash balances to its new commercial banking relationship as soon as practicable. At this time, the successor entity to SVB has confirmed that it is operating as usual, and has communicated to the Company that it intends to honor the letters of credit SVB issued on behalf of the Company that are fully collateralized by funds in the Company’s SVB accounts. The Company is working to secure the funds collateralizing the letters of credit and establishing new letters of credit for the beneficiaries with its new commercial banking relationship.

The Company, with support from its financial advisors Solomon Partners and Cowen, is actively soliciting proposals for the sale of all or substantially all of its assets, as well as other material transactions that would improve its liquidity position. The Company continues to evaluate its options, which may include potentially filing for relief under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and other strategic alternatives. The Company anticipates filing a Form 12b-25, Notice of Late Filing with respect to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022.

The foregoing description of the Forbearance Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Forbearance Agreement, which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2022.

Forward-Looking Statements

The disclosure contained in this current report contains forward-looking statements, including statements concerning the Company’s ability to satisfy the terms of the prepayment under the Forbearance Agreement, the Company’s potential filing for relief under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and other strategic alternatives, the Company’s solicitation of proposals for the sale of all or substantially all of its assets, the successor entity to SVB’s intent to honor its letters of credit and the Company’s potential filing of a Form 12b-25 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company’s current expectations and inherently involve risks and uncertainties. The Company’s ability to satisfy the terms of the prepayment under the Forbearance Agreement, the Company’s potential filing for relief under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and other strategic alternatives, the Company’s solicitation of proposals for the sale of all or substantially all of its assets, the successor entity to SVB’s intent to honor its letters of credit and the Company’s potential filing of a Form 12b-25 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022 could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements as a result of these risks and uncertainties. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the statements included in this current report include negotiations with the Lenders of the Forbearance Agreement or any default or event of default under the Company’s Credit Agreement. Further information on potential factors that could affect the Company’s business and financial results are included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended on December 31, 2021 and in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2022, June 30, 2022 and September 30, 2022. We do not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required under applicable securities laws.

Re:     Retention Payment

Dear [•]:

To reinforce your continued attention and dedication to Boxed, Inc. (the “Company”), you will be eligible to receive a one-time cash payment from the Company, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this letter agreement (this “Retention Payment Letter”). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Company’s 2021 Incentive Award Plan.

1. Retention Payment. Subject to the terms and conditions herein, the Company will pay to you a single lump-sum cash payment equal to 33.33% of your current $[ ] annual base salary ($[ ]) (the “Retention Payment”), as soon as practicable following the date of your signature below (the “Effective Date”) and in any event no later than the date that is 30 days following the Effective Date.

2. Repayment.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 1 above and except as otherwise provided in Section 2(b), if, prior to the Retention Date (as defined on Exhibit A), you cease employment for any reason, you will repay to the Company the after-tax portion of the Retention Payment, no later than 30 days following the effective date of your termination. You acknowledge and agree that in satisfaction of such repayment obligations, the Company may (i) offset against, and you expressly authorize the Company to deduct from, any payments otherwise due to you or your estate, heirs, legal representatives or successors or (ii) pursue any and all other rights and remedies as may be available at law.

(b) In the event you cease employment due to your termination by the Company without Cause, or due to your death or Disability, the repayment obligations in this Section 2 shall lapse; provided that you execute and do not revoke a general release of all claims that you may have against the Company or entities or persons affiliated with the Company, in the form prescribed and to be provided to you by the Company (a “Release”), and such Release becomes effective on or before the 60th day following the effective date of your termination. If you fail to return the Release on or before such deadline, or if you revoke the Release, then you will be subject to the repayment obligations set forth in Section 2(a).

3. Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amount payable under this Retention Payment Letter such federal, state and local taxes as are required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

4. Tax Advice. The Company is not making any warranties or representations to you with respect to the income tax consequences of the grant or payment of the Retention Payment and you are in no manner relying on the Company or any of its representatives for an assessment of such tax consequences. You are hereby advised to consult with your own tax advisor with respect to any tax consequences associated with the Retention Payment.

5. Section 409A. This Retention Payment Letter is intended to comply with or be exempt from Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the applicable Treasury regulations and administrative guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A") and shall be construed and administered in accordance with Section 409A. Any offset described in Section 2 shall not occur if such offset would violate Section 409A.

6. At-Will Employment. Nothing contained in this Retention Payment Letter (i) confers upon you any right to continue in the employ of the Company or its affiliates, (ii) constitutes any contract or agreement of employment, or (iii) interferes in any way with the right of the Company and its affiliates to terminate your employment at any time, with or without Cause.

7. Amendment. No provisions of this Retention Payment Letter may be modified, waived, or discharged unless such modification, waiver, or discharge is agreed to in writing signed by you and a representative of the Company specifically designated by the Company's Board of Directors ("Board") or an authorized committee thereof. No waiver by the Company at any time of any breach of, or compliance with, any condition or provision of this Retention Payment Letter shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time.

8. Entire Agreement. This Retention Payment Letter comprises the final, complete and exclusive agreement between you and the Company with respect to the Retention Payment and replaces and supersedes any other agreements, arrangements, understandings or promises made to you by anyone, whether oral or written, with respect to the Retention Payment.

9. Choice of Law. This letter agreement will be administered, interpreted and enforced under the laws of the State of New York without regard to the conflicts of laws principles thereof. This Retention Payment Letter may be amended only by a writing executed by the parties hereto.
