Item 1 Comment: This Amendment No. 3 amends and supplements the Schedule 13D filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on December 27, 2021, as amended by Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule 13D filed with the SEC on January 27, 2023 and Amendment No. 2 to the Schedule 13D filed with the SEC on March 14, 2023. Except as otherwise specified in this Amendment No. 3, all items left blank remain unchanged in all material respects. Capitalized terms used herein but not defined have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Schedule 13D, as amended.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is amended and supplemented as follows:

On November 16, 2026, Mr. Shannon delivered a non-binding letter (the "Proposal Letter") to the board of directors (the "Board") of Lucky Strike Entertainment Corporation (the "Issuer") proposing to take the Issuer private at a price of $4.35 per share of Class A Common Stock (the "Potential Transaction").

As described in the Proposal Letter, Mr. Shannon expects that the Board will appoint a special committee of independent and disinterested directors to consider his proposal and make a recommendation to the Board. Mr. Shannon will not move forward with the Potential Transaction unless it is approved by such a special committee. In addition, the Potential Transaction will be subject to a non-waivable condition requiring the approval of holders of a majority of the shares of the Class A Common Stock not owned by Mr. Shannon or his affiliates. The Proposal Letter also indicated that the Potential Transaction would be subject to a number of conditions, including, among others, the negotiation and execution of a definitive agreement and other related agreements mutually acceptable in form and substance to Mr. Shannon and the Issuer.

There can be no assurance that a definitive agreement with respect to the Potential Transaction will be executed or, if executed, whether the Potential Transaction will be consummated.

No legally binding obligation with respect to the Proposal Letter or the Potential Transaction will arise until such time, if ever, as a binding definitive agreement has been executed by the relevant parties. There is also no certainty as to whether, or when, the Issuer may respond to the Proposal Letter, or as to the time table for execution of any definitive agreement. Mr. Shannon reserves the right to modify or withdraw his proposal set forth in the Proposal Letter at any time and to cease discussions and negotiations at any time.

Neither the Proposal Letter nor this Schedule 13D Amendment is meant to be an offer to purchase or a solicitation of any offer to sell shares of Class A Common Stock or other securities.

The foregoing description of the Proposal Letter is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Proposal Letter, which is attached as Exhibit 9 hereto, and is incorporated by reference herein.

The Potential Transaction may result in one or more of the actions specified in clauses (a) to (j) of Item 4 of this Schedule 13D Amendment, including, without limitation, the acquisition of additional securities of the Issuer, a merger or other extraordinary transaction involving the Issuer, the delisting of Class A Common Stock from the New York Stock Exchange and the Class A Common Stock becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a) See Items 11 and 13 of the cover page.

(b) See Items 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the cover page.

(c) The Reporting Person has not effected any transactions of the Class A Common Stock during the 60 days preceding the date of this report.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Item 6 of the Schedule 13D is amended and supplemented as follows:

The information set forth in Item 4 of this Amendment No. 3 to Schedule 13D is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7. Material to be Filed as Exhibits.

Exhibit 9 Proposal Letter, dated November 16, 2026

Board of Directors
Lucky Strike Entertainment Corporation (the "Company")
7313 Bell Creek Road
Mechanicsville, Virginia 23111

Dear Directors:

As you of course well know, the Company went public through a de- SPAC transaction in 2021. After an initial upward movement, the Company's outstanding Class A Common Shares (the "Shares") have generally traded down since hitting an all-time high in 2023 and are currently trading at a fraction of the SPAC price. In my view, this has primarily been the result of market conditions affecting current investors' attitude about site-based businesses generally, which has resulted in very limited institutional and analyst support for the shares in the market and a very limited public float despite what I believe to be the Company's positive prospects as we adjust to current customer preferences. Given this, I have come to the conclusion that going private will enable current public shareholders the opportunity to achieve a premium for their Shares and provide a better context in which to reposition our business for the long term while saving the out-of-pocket costs and distraction of remaining publicly traded.

Accordingly, I propose that all of the publicly held Class A Shares be acquired at a price of $4.35 per share. That price represents an approximately 30% premium to the closing price as of today.

I recognize of course that this is not something I can decide by myself. As such, the transaction would be subject to approval of the Board of Directors and agreement on mutually acceptable definitive transaction documents. I understand that it would be typical in these circumstances for the Board to appoint a special committee of independent and disinterested directors to consider the proposal and make a recommendation to the full Board. In this regard, I would not move forward with the proposed transaction unless it is approved by such a special committee and the transaction documentation included a non-waivable condition requiring the approval of holders of a majority of the Shares not owned by us or our affiliates.

I would not need to conduct due diligence to be in a position to negotiate and execute mutually acceptable definitive documentation, and would be able to move quickly to finalize the transaction. Closing of the transaction would not be subject to any financing contingency. I expect to consider permitting preferred and perhaps other investors who desire to invest in a private business to participate in the resulting entity.

In considering this proposal, you should know that if the special committee does not recommend the proposed transaction to shareholders or the public holders of a majority of the Class A Shares do not approve the proposed transaction, such determinations would not adversely affect my future relationship with the Company, I intend to remain a long-term shareholder and do my best to see to implement the ongoing repositioning of the Company.

This proposal is an expression of interest only and may be withdrawn or modified. No legal obligation with respect to a transaction will arise unless and until the execution of mutually acceptable definitive documentation.

In accordance with SEC reporting obligations, I will make an appropriate filing that will of course include a copy of this letter.

Jones Day is my legal advisor in connection with this proposal. I understand that the special committee will retain its own legal and financial advisors to assist it in its review. I look forward to working with the special committee and its advisors to complete a mutually acceptable transaction and I and my advisors are available at its convenience to discuss any aspects of our proposal.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Thomas F. Shannon
